Suffolk University Law School, 120 Tremont St., Boston (617-305-1782). www.suffolk.edu/adams_gallery. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Mon.-Sun., 10 am-6 pm. Free. •The exhibition displays photographs and artifacts from the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Feb. 27-June 30.

Rise Up! Art, Sounds and Shrines
Nave Gallery, 155 Powderhouse Blvd., Somerville (617-625-6600). www.somervillearts.org. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Thu., 4-8 pm; Sat., 1-5 pm. $5 suggested donation. •This exhibition by local Somerville artists honors the spirit and culture of New Orleans with a variety of media, including photography, sculptures, paintings and postcard art. Through March 3.

Student Annual Exhibition
School of the Museum of Fine Arts, 230 The Fenway, Boston (617-369-3718). www.smfa.edu. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm. Thu., open until 8 pm. •This multimedia exhibition features the work of current students and includes recipients of the Boit Awards, the Dana Pond Awards, the Yousef Karsh Prize, the Will and Elena Barnet Award, and the Stella and Sumner Cooper Award. Through March 11.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www.acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Jim Foresberg features the artist's mid-century abstract paintings done in oils. Feb. 23-March 25.

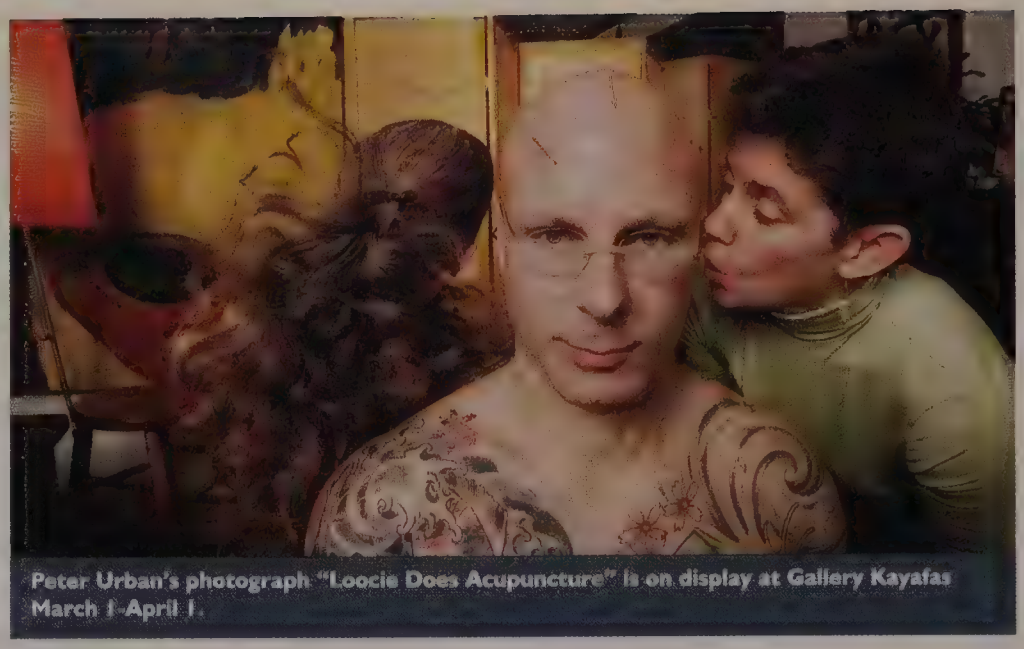
Allston Skirt Gallery
65 Thayer St., Boston (617-482-3652). www.allstonskirt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Don't Abandon the Ship features mixed-media works of several artists, including Reed Anderson, Wes Lang and Jules de Balincourt. Through Feb. 25. •Joe Zane: Personality presents an installation of the artist's paintings and sculptures. March 3-April 7.

Alpha Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •New Paintings showcases Matt Brackett's paintings of landscapes, interiors and figures. Through March 1. •Venus and Sundae: Works on Papers presents mixed-media artwork by Aaron Fink. Through March 1. •New Paintings features an exhibition of Bernard Chaet's paintings in oil. March 4-29. •Milton Avery's Works on Paper depicts the artist's works with pen, ink and watercolor. March 4-29.

Arden Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •New Works showcases Bill Fisher's industrial, abstract paintings created with cold wax and oils on panel. Through Feb. 28.

Ars Libri
500 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-5212). www.arslibri.com MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Puerto Rican artist Enoc Perez displays one painting "Enoc Perez: The United Nations, New York." Through Feb. 28. •Jutta Koether displays one of her new paintings. March 3-April 7.

Artana
1378 Beacon St., Suite B, Brookline (617-879-3111). www.artanagallery.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-7 pm and by appointment. •The Pleasures of Life III interprets people and still lifes in acrylic on canvas by Quebec painter Nicole St. Pierre. Through March 1. •Raghava: New Work features watercolor-on-canvas paintings created with the artist's hands instead of brushes. March 7-April 1.



Peter Urban's photograph "Loocie Does Acupuncture" is on display at Gallery Kayafas March 1-April 1.

Art Interactive
130 Bishop Allen Drive, Cambridge (617-498-0100). www.artinteractive.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sat.-Sun., 12-6 pm. •New Media/New Work showcases a collaborative venture of video and new media work on four separate screens. Through Feb. 26.

BAAK Gallery
35 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-0407). www.baakgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-8 pm; Sun., 1-6 pm. •Jonathon Nix: Paintings displays oil paintings with various themes. March 1-21.

Barbara Krakow Gallery
10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Sol LeWitt Portfolios features the artist's prints, including silkscreens and etchings. Through March 15.

Berenberg Gallery
4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). www.berenberggallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Recent Work displays Clint and Scott Griffin's mixed-media collages. Through March 4.

Bernard Toale Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www.bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •New Paintings displays large abstract geometric paintings by artist Chris Martin. Through March 25. •Thomas Allen: Photographs exhibits photography of pulp paperback characters from the 1950s who interact with one another. Through March 25.

BF Annex Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3344). www.bfannex.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •An Experiment in Perspective explores metaphysical themes with objects superimposed on a blackboard and photographed by John Chervinsky. Through Feb. 25. •The Retreat features large-format photographs by Rebecca Sittler. March 2-25.

Boston Center for the Arts
Mills Gallery, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-8835). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sun., 12-5 pm; Fri.-Sat., until 10 pm. After examines events that range from personal to world-changing in a variety of media including digital collages, films and drawings. Through March 19.

Boston Sculptors Gallery
486 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-7781). www.bostonsculptors.com. MBTA: Orange Line to NE Medical. Tue.-Sat., 12-6 pm. •Material Goods features the bronze sculptures of Christopher Frost. Through March 11. •Meggie Stark displays her glass sculpture collection Time Shift. Through March 11.

Brickbottom Gallery
1 Fitchburg St., Somerville (617-776-3410). www.brickbottomartists.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. Thu.-Sat., 2-6 pm. •Offshoots: Artists and their Students displays the work of 10 local instructors and their students side by side. Through Feb. 25. •Under the Influence of Science presents artwork in various media inspired by a wide array of scientific disciplines. March 2-April 1.

Bromfield Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3605). www.bromfieldartgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •New Paintings highlights Jill Weber's minimalist approach to exploring architectural space. Through Feb. 25. •Velveetaland uses Velveeta cheese and other food substances as new forms of media in Laura Rollin's mixed-media works. Through Feb. 25. •Eye Object features mixed media work from Charles Goss. March 1-April 1. •High Wire includes paintings from Tim Nichols about the sounds, smells and sights of the artist's hometown. March 1-April 1.

Cambridge Art Association
University Place Gallery, 124 Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). www.cambridgeart.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. •Art of Love displays Valentine's Day–themed work in a variety of media by special-needs children. On display at the Kathryn Schultz Gallery. Through Feb. 28. •Simple Gifts features a collection of over 55 pieces ranging from painting and sculpture to mixed media. On display at the Kathryn Schultz Gallery. Through Feb. 28. •Spring Returns exhibits the work of three painters, Michelle Gauthier, Janet Hobbes and Steve Myers. March 2-28.

Cambridge Arts Council
344 Broadway St., Cambridge (617-349-4380). www.cambridgeartscouncil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon., Wed.-Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm; Tue., 8:30 am-5 pm; Fri., 8:30 am-12 pm. Model Citizens: A Miniature Epic investigates collections of local model makers. Feb. 27- April 7.

Cambridge 7 Associates, Inc.
1050 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7000). www.c7a.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. •Paintings East and West displays the work of Hans Chao, including Chinese calligraphy screens and oil paintings. Through April 28.

Chase Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www.chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Dean Richardson's oil-on-linen paintings explore American heroes and mythological figures, who endure amidst the forces of nature. Through Feb. 25. •Kathryn Frund's abstract landscape paintings are on display. March 1-31.

Childs Gallery
169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). www.childsgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •The Etchings of John Taylor Arms are careful studies of scenic landscapes and architecture. Through March 4. •I.M. Gaugengigl: The Meissonier of Boston is a collection of his small-scale etchings. Through March 4. •Irwin D. Hoffman: Paintings, Watercolors, and Etchings presents the artist's work in a variety of media. Through March 4.

Claygo Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-695-0100). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. Red Licorice displays ceramics for gourmet dining. Through Feb. 24.

Copley Society of Art
158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www.copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Co/So Artist A to Z features member artists' works in a variety of media. Through March 4. •A student-juried show exhibits student artists' works in a variety of media. Through March 4.

Crump McCole Gallery
200 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-330-1133). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Wed. and Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-5 pm. Small Works by Elizabeth Benson exhibits the artist's oil paintings. Ongoing.

DTR Modern Galleries
167 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-9700). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri.-Sat., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 11 am-6 pm. In the Nude celebrates the female body with paintings by masters including Picasso, Renoir, Warhol, Dalí and Chagall. Through Feb. 28.

Eclipse Gallery
164 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-6730). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •Veil: Modesty, Fashion, Religion or Political Statement explores Rania Matar's black-and-white photography of Lebanon. Through Feb. 25. •New Paintings features paintings by Mary B. Harrington. Feb. 1-March 25.

Fort Point Arts Community Gallery
300 Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www.fortpointarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-9 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. Energy Fools the Magician explores the juxtaposition of science and magic in physics in the mixed-media works of Andrew Neumann and Rob Reeps. Through Feb. 25.

Galerie d'Orsay
33 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.galeriedorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Rembrandt: 400 Years celebrates the birth of the master artist Rembrandt Van Rijn with a collection of his original etchings. Through March 5.

Gallery AA/B
535 Albany St., Suite 3B, Boston (617-574-0027) www.artadvisoryboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Recent Paintings by Matthew Kolodziej examines the perception of change. Through March 24. •Relief by Julianna Bruce uses curved steel and wood as the foundation for her wall-relief pieces. Through March 24.

Gallery Katz
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-6328). www.gallerykatz.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. In Peep Love Rendez, Christopher Santer's oil paintings depict highways as symbols of modern culture. Through March 18.

Gallery Kayafas
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411). www.gallerykayafas.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Dutch Huff: New Work features color photographs mounted to aluminum. Through Feb. 25. •Gary Duehr: Car Obscura displays works created from car parts melded to aluminum. Through Feb. 25. •Boston-based artists Peter Urban and Amy Montali feature their new, intimate portraits. March 1-April 1.

Gallery NAGA
67 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9060). www.gallerynaga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Terry Rose's Immaterial features organic shapes created with wet varnish mixed with oils and micron pigments. Through Feb. 25. •Morgan Cohen's New Photographs explore transitory images using light and interior space. Through Feb. 25. •Tall Things Considered by Richard Raiselis exhibits city scenes painted from above ground level. March 3-April 1.

Genovese/Sullivan Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-426-9738). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5 pm. •American Buddhas displays sculptures by Swift. Through Feb. 28. •Boxes and Video features dioramas hung on walls by Jerry Williams. Through Feb. 28. •New Work by Fred Lynch exhibits artist's watercolor and oil paintings. March 3-27.

Howard Yezerski Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.howardyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Nudes features the photography of Gary Schneider. Through March 14.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www.judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. Free. •Entwined examines the interchange between image and language in Anne Buford's latest mixed-media works. Through Feb. 25. •The Many Layers of Zymund Jankowski is a culmination of the artist's subject matters, focusing on a series of jazz musicians. March 2-April 1.

Judy Goldman Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www.judygoldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Free. •Recent Paintings Koi Fish Under Water presents Linda Holt's oil paintings of koi fish. Through March 4.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www.kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •L.A.-Likes, Two Per Exhibition: Zoe Crosher and Todd Brainard interp landscape of Los Angeles through photography l paintings. Through Feb. 25. •American Painting is roup show exhibiting realistic mixed-media works.

rch 1-April 1.

ngston Gallery
0 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-4113). www.
gstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
.-Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. •Paper and Ce- nt presents drawings and sculptures by Hilary tchison. Through Feb. 25. •Beloved displays Hilary lan's sculptures made with encaustic wax and natl objects. Feb. 28-April 1.

noue Fine Art
) Newbury St., Boston (617-262-4400). www.
ouefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
m.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •The gallery's lection features works by Dirk De Bruycker, omas Scoon, Marc Civitarese, Fredrick Hart, John som and others. Ongoing.

Attitude Gallery
8 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). www.
titudegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
m.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Designing nds features Zev Rejman's metal wall sculptures hed with contemporary and Japanese patterns.
rough March 15.

cco Ritoro Gallery
0 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-542-1010).
BTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-30 pm and by appointment. •Jason Chase: Step ht Up displays 20 of the artist's oil paintings in s solo exhibition. Through Feb. 25.

obilia Gallery
8 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109).
ww.mobilia-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harrd. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm.
New Work in Metal and Stone highlights Janet ip's latest collection of mixed-media works.
rough March 1. •Winter Solace displays new ce-nic works by George Bowes. Through March 1.

PG Contemporary
0 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). www.
pgallery.net. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-
., 11 am-5 pm. •Caught in Time highlights everyday oments in Lorien Jordan's intaglio on paper.
rough Feb. 25. •Small Fires in the Distance: Paintings
m the Stranger Series features San Francisco artist ge Opdenbrouw's oil paintings. March 3-April 1.

ielsen Gallery
9 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). www.
lsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-
., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Anne Harris: 86 Drawings fea-res a number of the artist's sketches done on a variy of media including pastel, oil, pencil and tercolor. Through Feb. 25. •New Sculpture exhibits xter Lazenby's wood and steel sculptures, some of nich hang from the ceiling. March 4-April 1.

HT Gallery
0 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-1677). www.
tgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
ue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Fun Everyday features w paintings by Heidi Johnson, combining the chniques of traditional painting and kitsch. Feb.
-April 1.

SP Gallery
0 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-778-5265). www.osp lery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11
-5 pm. •The gallery features recent drawings by artist lor Jane. Through Feb. 25. •Michael Krueger's Recent ork exhibits the artist's colored-pencil drawings of Ameri-n mythology. March 2-April 15.

ut of the Blue Gallery
96 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www.
utoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central.
-6 pm. •The gallery's permanent collection features notography, paintings, sculpture, jewelry, mosaics nd antiques by local artists including Margerete oehler-Bittkow, an original Bauhaus artist.

epper Gallery
3 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www.pepper lleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. ue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Nancy riese exhibits the artist's latest landscape oil paintgs. Feb. 23-March 25.

errin Gallery
20A Harvard St., Brookline (617-277-4357).
BTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Mon.-Fri., ) am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5pm. •American Landscapes
hibits artwork in a variety of media by Bre Maoney, Stacey Durand, Daisy Adams and Mark ielsen. Through Feb. 25.

ucker Gallery
71 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www.
uckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.- at., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Nature Speaks by m Schantz showcases pastels of the Berkshire Moun-ains. Through March 12. •Pursuing the Eye of Heaven
y Hideaki Miyamura showcases refined porcelains.
hrough March 12.

Richardson-Clarke Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). www.richardson-clarke.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •The gallery's permanent collection features European and American paintings and drawings from the 19th and 20th centuries.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www.robertkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Still Lovers exhibits color photographs by Elena Dorfman. Feb. 23-March 25.

Samson Projects
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7177). www.samsonprojects.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Diana Puntar and Carrie Moyer displays new sculptures by Diana Puntar and abstract paintings by Carrie Moyer that were created with acrylics and glitter. Through March 11.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www.societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm.; Sun., 12-5 pm. •The clay residency program Watershed celebrates its 20th anniversary in a display of ceramic art. Through April 30.

Soprafina Gallery
73 Thayer St., Boston (617-728-0770). www.soprafina.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Recent Work features abstract landscape paintings by Michael Palmer and Paula Stark. Through Feb. 25. •New Work exhibits non-representational and abstract paintings from Anne Saussois and Peggy Badenhausen. March 3-April 1.

St. George Gallery
245 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). www.stgeorgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Au Provence features paintings from William St. George's trip through the southern region of France, as well as a variety of works by Sandra Mueller-Dick, John Murray and Clif Lundberg. Through Feb. 28. •Outside the Line features oil paintings by William St. George and watercolor paintings from Sandra Mueller-Dick. March 1-31.

Vose Galleries of Boston
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www.vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Everyday Inspiration displays post-impressionist paintings by Bernard Lamotte. Through Feb. 28. •The gallery's permanent inventory includes American artwork in various media from the 18th, 19th and early 20th centuries.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Center for Photographic Exhibitions
New England School of Photography, 537 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-437-1868). www.nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. •Theme Park displays Jason Byron Gavann's portrait-like narrative photographs created with a color technique called cross process. Through March 3.

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www.griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Wed., 11 am-5 pm; Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-6 pm. •The Body Familiar: Current Perspectives of the Nude exhibits color as well as black-and-white images. Through March 19. •A Dream Half Remembered: Images by Ken Rosenthal displays black-and-white photographs. Through March 19.

Panopticon Gallery Boston
502 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929). www.panopt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. •Valentine's Day Show features photographs from the collection of Claire Goldsmith. Through March 11. •Shadows of Time displays Paul Wainwright's black-and-white photographs and prints of landscapes and interiors. Through April 1.

Panopticon Gallery Waltham
435 Moody St., Waltham (781-647-0100). www.panopt.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Waltham. Mon.-Thu., 10 am-6 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. •Winter features various artists' photography, including Bradford Washburn's portfolios of photogravures. Through March 4.

Photographic Resource Center
Boston University Art Gallery, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-975-0600). www.bu.edu/prc. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. •Document: Contemporary Social Documentary Work from Greater Boston is an innovative examination of people in the Boston area. Through March 26.

where the locals
meet to eat
ASSAGGIO

Open 12:00pm to 12:00am
Full dinner until midnight
Full bar

SPECIAL
LIMO SERVICE

For a $10 charge, we will pick you up at your home and provide round-trip limousine service to and from Assaggio.

Please call 1 day in advance to arrange.

29 Prince Street, Boston
617.227.7380
www.assaggioboston.com
Reservations accepted

books & poetry

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446); mail to Calendar: Books and Poetry; or e-mail information to books@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

Readings & Signings

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22

Boston College
140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-552-4820). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 7:30 pm. Free. Portland (Ore.) Magazine editor Brian Doyle discusses his book The Wet Engine: Exploring the Mad Wild Miracle of the Heart, about the human heart both physically and metaphorically, drawing on experiences with his son who was born with a heart defect.

Boston Public Library
700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. Robert Parker reads from his fifth Jesse Stone novel, Sea Change, in which the former L.A. cop moves to Paradise, Mass., and tries to solve a murder mystery.

Harvard Book Store Event
Harvard Information Center, Holyoke Center, 1350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. MIT associate acting professor Thomas DeFrantz discusses his book Dancing Revelations: Alvin Ailey's Embodiment of African American Culture, about the rise of the Alvin Ailey American Dance Theater and its role in social activism.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Doctors of human and organizational development Dennis and Michelle Reina discuss their book Trust & Betrayal in the Workplace: Building Effective Relationships in Your Organization, a book of suggestions and models for integrating trust into a work setting.

Robert Parker reads from his new Jesse Stone novel Feb. 22 at Boston College.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23

Barnes and Noble Event
Boston Public Library, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. Roman Catholic Church deacon and Allendale Columbia English professor George Dardess reads from his book Meeting Islam: A Guide for Christians, an introduction to the Islamic faith.

Borders Books
10 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Boston Herald editor and Sporting News writer Mike Carey discusses his book Boston Celtics, Where Have You Gone?, which tracks Celtics players who have dropped off the radar.

Boston College
140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-552-4820). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 7:30 pm. Free. Suzanne Matson reads from her novel The Tree-Sitter, about a young woman's move from the pressures of Wellesley College to the peaceful fulfillment of Oregon when she falls for a man.

Center for New Words
7 Temple St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free. Radical feminist and doctor of theology and philosophy Mary Daly discusses her book Amazon Grace, about the 19th-century philosopher Matilda Joslyn Gage.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. Kevin Baker reads from his novel Striver's Row, a work of historical fiction about how Malcolm Little became Malcolm X through his experiences with Rev. Jonah Dove and the city of Harlem.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. President of the corporate consulting firm Collaborative Growth Marcia Hughes discusses Life's 2% Solution: Simple Steps to Achieve Happiness and Balance, a compilation of real-life success stories and strategies for personal fulfillment.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Maria Flook reads from her novel Lux, about a young woman in Cape Cod who innocently befriends the man who murdered her husband.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. African American–studies associate director at Princeton Noliwe M. Rooks discusses her book White Money/Black Power: The Surprising History of African American Studies and the Crisis of Race and Higher Education, which chronicles the birth and expansion of the field of African American studies in higher education.

Harvard Book Store Event
First Parish Church, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. $3. Harvard professor Brian Palmer, Harvard teaching fellows Kate Holbrook, Ann S. Kim and Anna Portnoy, along with Howard Zinn, author of A People's History of the United States, and Boston College professor Juliet Schor read from the book they contributed to, Global Values 101: A Short Course. Based on the popular Harvard course, the book addresses ways that citizens can participate in social change.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 26

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 2 pm. Free. Actor, singer and knitting designer Wren Ross and motivational speaker Daena Giardella discuss their book Changing Patterns: Discovering the Fabric of Your Creativity, about how to harness and direct your creativity to make artistic expression your primary focus.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 3 pm. Free. Pamela Wescott discusses her memoir, The Love that Shouted for Joy!, a collection of vignettes about same-sex marriage. Also, Michelle Bates Deakin discusses the book she edited, Gay Marriage, Real Life: Ten Stories, a collection of essays about the effects of same-sex marriages on the couples and their families.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27

Blacksmith House Poetry Series
56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $3. Poets Dan Chiasson and Saskia Hamilton read from their works.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. Boston Globe book critic and Pulitzer Prize winner Gail Caldwell discusses her memoir, A Strong West Wind, which focuses on her experience growing up in Texas during the Vietnam era.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28

Boston College
140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-552-4820). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 7:30 pm. Free. Film critic Richard Blake reads from his book Street Smart: The New York of Lumet, Allen, Scorsese and Lee, about the four filmmakers' portrayals of New York neighborhoods and the relationship the settings bear to their own homes in New York.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. University of the Arts in Philadelphia professor Camille Paglia reads from a book she edited, Break, Blow, Burn, an anthology of 43 poems and her critiques of each.

Harvard Book Store Event
Harvard Hillel, 52 Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. Harvard University professor Alan Dershowitz discusses his new book, Preemption: A Knife That Cuts Both Ways, about how democratic societies have responded (and should respond) to potentially dangerous situations.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Former prince of the Oyo Empire in Nigeria and Harvard student Raham Oladigbolu reads from his memoir On Holy Pilgrimage: A Long Journey for Freedom, about his experiences in the United States.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Adam Pachter, Tracy Miller Geary, Rachel Solar-Tuttle and Robert Weintraub read from their contributions to Fenway Fiction: Short Stories from the Red Sox Nation, an anthology of fictional pieces about the Sox.

THURSDAY, MARCH 2

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Justin Tussing reads from his novel The Best People in the World, about a 17-year-old boy who runs away with the 25-year-old teacher he's having an affair with. Also, Rachel Harper reads from her novel Brass Ankle Blues, a coming-of-age story about a 15-year-old girl who goes on a cross-country road trip after her parents separate.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Suzanne Matson reads from her novel The Tree-Sitter. See the Feb. 22 Boston College event for a description.

FRIDAY, MARCH 3

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Georgetown University history professor Michael Kazin discusses his biography, A Godly Hero: The Life of William Jennings Bryan, which casts the Democratic party leader and Darwinism critic in a positive light.

SATURDAY, MARCH 4

Wellesley Booksmith Event
Wellesley Free Library, 530 Washington St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 10:30 am. Free. Boston Herald reporter Howie Carr discusses his book The Brothers Bulger: How They Terrorized and Corrupted Boston for a Quarter Century, about the infamous Bulger family and the corruption behind both Whitey's and Billy's careers.

MONDAY, MARCH 6

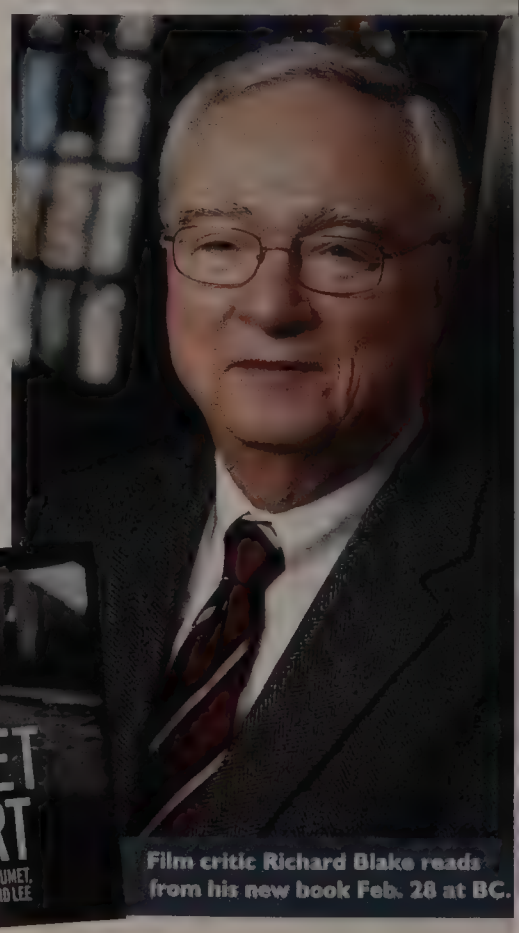
Blacksmith House Poetry Series
56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. See the Feb. 27 Harvard Book Store event for a description.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Trinity College professor Rebecca Goldstein discusses her book Incompleteness: The Proof and Paradox of Kurt Gödel, about the early-20th-century logician's incompleteness theorems.

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 6:30 pm. Free. Susan Senator discusses her memoir, Making Peace with Autism: One Family's Story of Struggle, Discovery and Unexpected Gain, about her experiences raising an autistic child.

TUESDAY, MARCH 7

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Columbia University professor Todd Gitlin discusses his book Intellectuals and the Flag: Reclaiming the American Liberal Tradition, which uses the arguments of postwar intellectuals to analyze how modern leftist intellectuals might reform American political situation.



Film critic Richard Blake reads from his new book Feb. 28 at BC.

education

dvice to Contributors
bmit listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calen-r: Education or e-mail to education@improper.com. adline is four weeks prior to publication.

/EDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 22

essons from Spain and the ilippines
IT, Room E38-615, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge 17-253-7529). www.events.mit.edu. MBTA: Red ne to Kendall. 12-1:30 pm. Free. Columbia niversity political science professor Alexander oley speaks about the democratization and the liticization of U.S. military bases abroad.

pen Space in the City
uth End Lower Roxbury Open Space Land Trust, rriet Tubman House, Lincoln Room, 566 Columbus ve., Boston (617-536-1711). MBTA: Orange Line Mass. Ave. or E Green Line to Symphony. pm. Free, members; $15, nonmembers. Clara itchelor, landscape architect, speaks about the im-rtance of open space in an urban environment.

HURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23

ccounting for the Women
oston College, Fullton 511, 140 Comm. Ave., hestnut Hill (617-552-8000). www.bc.edu. BTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 7 pm. Free. nnifer Morgan, author of Laboring Women: Gen-r and Reproduction in New World Slavery and as-ciate professor of history and women's and gen-r studies at Rutgers University, reevaluates the mographics of the trans-Atlantic slave trade in olonial America.

arpenter Center Lecture
arpenter Center for the Visual Arts, Harvard Uni-rsity, 24 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-3251). ww.ves.fas.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Har-rd. 6 pm. Free. Boston native Sarah Sze talks out her work and life as a sculptor.

ospel Industry Panel Discussion
erklee College of Music, David Friend Recital Hall, 21 Boylston St., Boston (617-747-2261). www. rkleebpc.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. ree. The Black Student Union at Berklee hosts ospel Industry Day, which includes a panel of dustry professionals speaking about perfor-ance, management and radio aspects of gospel usic, including Grammy winner Rodney Jerkins ho will discuss his life as a music producer and ngwriter.

Villiam Lloyd Garrison and the mbassadors of Abolition ld South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston 517-482-6439). www.oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. IBTA: Orange Line to State. 12:15-1 pm. Free with useum admission: $5; $4, seniors and students. Mar-n Kilson, co-curator of the Museum of Afro-Amer-an History, discusses Garrison's life and the lives of ose who worked with him.

RIDAY, FEBRUARY 24

Ghostbusters! The Science Behind aranormal Investigations oston Center for Adult Education, 5 Comm. Ave., oston (617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. MBTA: reen Line to Arlington. 6-9 pm. $38-$48. Experts om New England Paranormal discuss the differ-nces between ghosts and poltergeists.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 25

Diablo Glass: Flame-Worked Glass
Museum of Fine Arts, Avenue of the Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www. mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Feb. 25-6, 10 am-4 pm. $280. Students learn glass shap-ng and designing with colorful Pyrex and Moretti lass in this two-day workshop.

Fifty Benois Gallery Talks
oston Public Library, 700 Boylston St., Boston 617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line Copley. 11 am. Free. Guest curator Anna Vinestein leads a tour and discussion of the xhibition Dreamer and Showman: The Magical Reality of Alexandre Benois.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 26

Wrapped in Wisdom: Layers of Meaning in Asante Royal Arts Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston 617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green ine to Museum. 2 pm. Free. UCLA Fowler Mu-eum director Doran Ross talks about the adorn-ment and art of the Asante people and other cul-tures of Ghana.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 27

Fishy Business
Boston University, Fuller Building, Room. 117, 808 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-9852). www.bu.edu/foodandwine. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. 6-7:30 pm. $10. Max Harvey, fisherman and seafood buyer for Summer Shack, teaches attendees about current trends, politics, regulations and aquafarming in the New England fishing industry.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28

Law for Laymen
Newton Community Education, Newton North High School, 360 Lowell Ave., Newtonville (617-559-6999). www.newtoncommunityed.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7-9 pm. $31. Local attorney Steve Weisman teaches the basics of everyday law, covering such subjects as consumer rights, credit repair, small claims court and health care directives.

Reality of School Desegregation Today
Newton Free Library, 330 Homer St., Newton (781-455-8334). www.ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7 pm. Free. Clara Silverstein, author of White Girl: A Story of School Desegregation, discusses her experiences at a public school in the early '70s, and Diane Scott Jones, a professor of psychology at Boston College, leads a discussion on the outlook of school integration.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 1

On Staying True to Life: The Stakes in Hockney's Portraiture
Museum of Fine Arts, Avenue of the Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www. mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 7 pm. $10-$13. Longtime writer for the New Yorker Lawrence Weschler discusses artist David Hockney's passion for painting as well as his desire to capture "truth" in his portrait work.

THURSDAY, MARCH 2

The Muslim Jesus
Cambridge Center for Adult Education, 56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-6789). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 10:30 am. $2. CCAE language teacher James Doyle lectures on the differences between the Muslim and Christian understandings of Jesus, both historically and in the present day.

A Survey of Friedrich Nietzsche
Brookline Adult Education, Brookline High School, Room 101, 115 Greenough St., Brookline (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 7-8:30 pm. $5. This class discusses the personal life and late writings of philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche and how they apply to today's world.

FRIDAY, MARCH 3

Designing Intergalactic Characters
Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-589-0250). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. 7 pm. $10. A guest artist from George Lucas' Industrial Light and Magic studio talks about the process of designing Star Wars characters and how it has evolved over time.

MONDAY, MARCH 6

America's Vulnerability
Tufts University, Cabot Intercultural Center, 170 Packard Ave., Medford (617-267-4430). www.events.tufts.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 11:30 am-12:30 pm. Free. Jeane J. Kirkpatrick Senior Fellow at the Council on Foreign Relations Stephen E. Flynn speaks about America's vulnerability to natural disasters and terrorist attacks.

TUESDAY, MARCH 7

Identity Theft
Newton Free Library, 330 Homer St., Newton (781-455-8334). www.ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7-9 pm. $31. Attorney, author and talk show host Steve Weisman teaches students how to protect themselves from identity theft online and off, both before and after a crime has occurred.

U.S., Iraq and the Future of Kurdistan
MIT, Room E38-714, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-258-8552). www.events.mit.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. 4-5:30 pm. Free. Photojournalist and writer Kevin McKiernan, who has spent 15 years in Kurdistan, speaks about his experiences, his book The Kurds: A People in Search of Their Homeland and the political and social issues affecting the region.

BOSTON'S BEST COMEDIANS AT anthem ON FRIDAY NIGHTS
LATE NIGHT • SHOW STARTS AT 11PM

March 3 Kevin Knox • Paul Gilligan • Pete Costello
March 10 Lenny Clarke • Ken Rogerson • Jonny Pizzi
March 17 Jim Lavletta • John David • Mark Riley

TRIANGLE
anthem
Lunch • Dinner • Drinks
Lounge • Private Events
138 Portland St. Boston www.anthemboston.com 617 523 8383

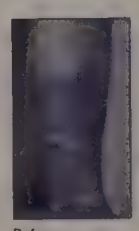
The Vein & Aesthetic Center of Boston
BANISH VARICOSE VEINS
FAST

Vein Treatment
- EVLT® laser technique
- Ultrasound-guided sclerotherapy
- Ambulatory phlebectomy (removal of bulging veins)
- Spider vein treatment

Aesthetic Treatment
- Botox®
- Restylane®
- Microdermabrasion
- Laser facial veins

Fast in-office procedure.
Minimally invasive.
Immediate return to your normal routine.
No general anesthesia or hospitalization.

THE NO-SURGERY, NO-SCAR WAY
the beauty of medical technology™



Before

After

781-251-0029
877-VEINFIX
Elizabeth A. Foley, M.D.
Judith A. Hondo, M.D.
333 Elm St. Suite 205
Dedham, MA 02026
www.veinfix.com

gay & lesbian

Advice to Contributors
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest MBTA stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). www.thealleybar.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Mon.-Fri., 2 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 12 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Boston's leather-and-Levi's neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games as well as theme nights.

Aria (Thursdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to New England Medical Center. 11 pm. $10. 21+. Get Down Thursdays feature rotating DJs playing hip-hop, house and pop.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. Sunday-night parties include drag acts and house music from resident DJ Ted Elison.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $7. 19+. Static on Mondays features a drag show hosted by Miss Kris Knievel, with DJs Susan Esthera and Adilson spinning progressive house. An amateur drag show takes place the last Monday of each month.

Buzz (Saturdays)
67 Stuart St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $10. 21+. On Saturdays, Buzz's pool room, lounge and two dance floors—with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance—keep the men busy until 2 am.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay, Green Line to Arlington. No cover. 21+. Neighborhood cruise bar open nightly.

Embassy (Thursdays)
36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100). www.avalonboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. DJ Susan Esthera spins hip-hop and pop music every Thursday night.

Fritz (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). www.fritzboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This gay sports bar, with six large-screen plasma TVs, serves brunch Saturday and Sunday.

I/D (Saturdays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston. www.lesbiannightlife.com. 10 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. LiQuid DJ Mix Mistress spins hip-hop, house, reggae, reggaeton and more at this weekly women-only night.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-12 am; Sun., 12 pm-12 am. $6, weekdays; $10, weekends. 21+. Patrons mingle with disco-dancing drag queens. •Fri. and Sat. feature live music. •Sun.: An Evening of Mizery: Amateur Talent Night, 10 pm. •Mon. (alternating weeks): Foxy Follies; TraniWreck. •Tue.: Karaoke. •Wed.: Delightful Divas with Melinda Wilson. •Thu.: Jacque's Angels with Miss Kris Knievel. •Fri. and Sat.: Miss Norelle's Leading Ladies.

Machine (Mondays, Thursdays–Saturdays)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). www.[illegible]machine.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. [illegible], 9 pm-2 am. •Thu.: Karaoke Competition. •Fri.: Best Night Out, featuring deep house music, 10 pm-2 am. $8. 21+. •Sat.: Latin night, 10 pm-2 am. [illegible] varies. 21+. •Mon.: Stroke, with hostess Mizery. 10 pm-2 am. 19+.

Modern (Thursdays)
[illegible]wne St., Boston (617-351-2581). www.[illegible]ughtlife.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. Thursday at the Modern is lesbian night with DJ Afrodite.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-3000). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Male strippers perform every night. The dance floor features Top 40 Thursday through Saturday and T-Dance on Sunday.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billed as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is mandatory for the back room on weekends). •Wed.: Twitch 4.0 with DJ Mac. •Thu.: Mandance with DJ Jason Taylor. •Fri.: Bound to Please with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Freespace. •Sun.: Muscle with DJ Duo Freespace. •Mon.: Pool, dart tournaments and pizza.

Rise (Saturdays)
306 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-7473). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 1:30-6:30 am. $10, members; $20, guests. This members-only club is predominantly gay on Saturdays. Storm Saturdays feature resident DJs Billy Carroll, Chad Jack, Gilles Massicotte, Joe Gauthreaux and Mark Anthony upstairs and David McNeary downstairs.

Rumor (Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061). www.rumorboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm-2 am. Cover varies. Sunday T-dance features DJ Danae spinning the latest house and pop.

Toast (Fridays, Saturdays)
70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.toastlounge.com. 5:30 pm-1 am. $5. 21+. Friday is the new home for DykeNight with DJ Susan Esthera, and Saturday is Retro Night with DJs from ManRay.

Tribe at Felt (Thursdays)
Felt, 533 Washington St., 4th floor, Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9:30 pm-2 am. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hip-hop and Top 40 on the 4th floor at this weekly lesbian night.

209 at Club Café (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 11:30 am-2 am; Sat.,12 pm-2 am; Sun.,10:30 am-2 am. No cover. 21+. This South End spot offers dining and unobtrusive music in the front room at Restaurant 209 and video entertainment in the rear room at Club Café. •Wed.: Live karaoke, 9 pm. •Thu.: VJ Ricky Huss. •Fri.: VJ Cliff Cunningham. •Sat.: VJ Scott Kennedy.

Underbar (Sundays)
275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080). www.flauntatunderbar.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 11 pm. $10. 21+. This weekly event features DJs spinning hard house.

Upstairs @ Dedo's (Daily)
69 Church St., Park Square, Boston (617-338-9999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. No cover. 21+. A predominantly gay crowd frequents the upstairs lounge at Dedo's, which features a nightly piano bar and club room. •Wed.: Latino Lounge with Latin groove music. •Thu.-Fri.: Boys in Ties and complimentary after-work buffet, 5-7 pm. House music, 7 pm-1 am. •Sat.: High Energy Night with house music. •Sun.: Disco Night. •Mon.: S.I.N. (Service Industry Night). •Tue.: Stage and Screen. Classic movies, 7-9 pm. Show-tune videos, 9 pm-1 am.

Venu (Wednesdays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). www.chapsboston.com. 10 pm. $8. 21+. This long-running gay Latino night features music by DJ Adilson.

Shows & Events

Death of a Saleslady
Ramrod Center for the Performing Arts (Machine Theater), 1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-265-6222). www.golddustorphans.com. Through March 11. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm. $25. Ryan Laundry and his Gold Dust Orphans bring an alternative version of Arthur Miller's classic to the stage.

Five by Tenn
Roberts Studio Theatre at the BCA, 527 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Feb. 25. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $37-$46. Scott Edmiston directs five recently discovered one-act plays by Tennessee Williams.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Feb. 26. 3 pm. Free. Pamela Wescott discusses her memoir, The Love that Shouted for Joy!, a collection of vignettes about same-sex marriage. Also, Michelle Bates Deakin discusses the book she edited, Gay Marriage, Real Life: Ten Stories, a collection of essays about the effects of same-sex marriages on the couples and their families.

The Ultimate Lesbian Short Film Festival
Toast Lounge, 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-927-6026). www.dykenight.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Feb. 24, 8 pm. $10. 21+. Dyke Night Productions presents The Ultimate Lesbian Short Film Festival, featuring a screening of the film Everything Good and another 10 short films followed by an open discussion with the screenwriter and producer. The event will also include DVD sales, a live auction and giveaways.

Michelle Bates Deakin reads from her book Gay Marriage, Real Life: Ten Stories at Porter Square Books on Feb. 26

Ongoing

Bagly
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313). www.bagly.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Wed., 5-9 pm. The Boston Alliance of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

Beantown North G/L Bowling League
Lanes & Games, 195 Concord Turnpike, Cambridge (617-876-5533). www.beantownbowling. com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Tue., 8:30 pm. This league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets weekly.

Beantown Soft-Tip Dart League
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Fritz, 26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. www.bsdl.org. Mon., 8:30 pm. $12 for the season. This league hosts weekly 301, 601 and cricket matches at the Alley and Fritz.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.beantownbowling.com. 7 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets Wednesday nights.

Bi Focus
(617-697-9244) MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 7 pm. Bisexual men and women discuss books, videos and other topics of interest.

Bi Rap
Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). First Tue. of each month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group provides support and information for bisexual women or women who are questioning their sexuality.

Boston Bears Barnight
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). http://bostonbears.us. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 9:30 pm-2 am. Free. The Boston Bears meet the first and third Saturday of each month and also hold a happy hour every Friday from 5:30-7:30 pm.

Boston Boasts Squash
Central YMCA, 316 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue., 7-9 pm; Sat., 10 am-12 pm. The league comprises gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-937-5858). www.bgbl.com. The league offers a full regular season and playoff schedule each year. E-mail info@bgbl.com.

Boston Glass Community Center
93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Thu., 3-8 pm; Fri., 3-5 pm. The center provides social activities for questioning young people ages 13-25.

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Despina's Place, 47 Mass. Ave., Boston. www.lesbianavengers.org. Mon., 7-8 pm. This bi- and transsexual-friendly, direct-action political group focuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Uncommons
Central Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-926-9267). www.lcfd.org/bu. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed., 7 pm. A gay and lesbian square-dancing group.

Colage
Third Sat. of each month, 10:30 am-12 pm. Colage (Children of Lesbians and Gays Everywhere) meets in Medford for support and activities and holds a concurrent meeting for interested parents and their partners. E-mail medfordcolage@hotmail.com.

Coming Out as Bisexual
Boston's Bisexual Resource Center at the Boston Living Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (617-424-9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back B[illegible] First Wed. and third Thu. of each month, 7 pm. Fr[illegible] An informal group for people who think they may bisexual or are attracted to both sexes.

Coming Out Support Group for Adul[illegible]
(617-482-2166). This group offers a confident place for men and women who are looking for a [illegible] space to discuss issues of sexual identity. It me Thursday nights from 7-8:15 pm, near Coolidge C[illegible] ner in Brookline. Call for more information.

Compass
(781-899-2212). Compass is a New England–a support, information and social group for people signed female at birth, but who feel that the desig[illegible] tion isn't an accurate or complete description of th[illegible] gender. Part of the FTM (Female-to-Male) Cen[illegible] this group meets monthly at location around N[illegible] England. E-mail Compass FTM@usa.com for detai[illegible]

Cosmetically Correct
Woody's, 58 Hemenway St., Boston. http[illegible] yahoogroups.com/community/cosmeticallycorrect. F[illegible] Thu. of each month, 6 pm. Cosmetically Correct [illegible] local group of lipstick lesbians who meet each mon[illegible]

Elegant Outings
(866-335-7730). www.elegantoutings.com. This gro[illegible] welcomes gay and gay-friendly professional wom[illegible] 40 and older who are intelligent, chic and sophis[illegible] cated to get together with like-minded women [illegible] conversations, dinners, theater and networking.

Fenway Community Health
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). ww[illegible] fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/IC[illegible] Fenway Community Health offers an array of servi[illegible] for the LGBT community, ranging from discussi[illegible] about parenting and safe-sex practices to progra[illegible] addressing domestic violence and substance abuse.

The 40-Somethings
theprimeoflife@aol.com. This newly formed group lesbians in their 40s runs events that help to fos[illegible] enduring romantic/life partnerships through bei[illegible] friends first.

Frontrunners Boston
Metropolitan Health Club, 209 Columbus Av[illegible] Boston (617-937-5858). www.mindspring.co[illegible] ~frontrunners. Tue., 12 pm; Wed., 6:45 pm; Su[illegible] 10 am. See Web site for locations. All are welcome join this running club.

Gay Amateur Photography Group
amateurgphoto@yahoo.com. Learn about photograp[illegible] socialize and meet new people at monthly meeting

Gay Fathers of Greater Boston
First Parish Church, 50 Church St., Waltham (61[illegible] 742-7897). www.gayfathersboston.org. $2. T[illegible] group for gay/bisexual fathers meets on the first a[illegible] third Tuesday of each month, 8-10 pm.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in developi[illegible] healthy gay relationships features alternatives [illegible] meeting and dating, communication games and m[illegible] ers for singles. E-mail info@gaylab.org.

Gays for Patsy
(617-412-5751). www.gaysforpatsy.org. This cou[illegible] try-western dancing club, featuring two-st[illegible] swing and line dancing, holds events twice [illegible] month. Beginners welcome, no partner need[illegible] Call for more details.

Gender Crash
Spontaneous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., Jama[illegible] Plain (617-524-6373). www.gendercrash.co[illegible] MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Second Thu. each month, 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Members of t[illegible] LGBT community are invited to share poet[illegible] prose and performance pieces at this open-mi[illegible] event.

rlfriends: Bisexual and Lesbian omen of Color mbridge Family and Children's Services, 929 Mass. e., Cambridge (617-876-4210). MBTA: Red Line Central. This discussion group for all ages meets ery Saturday, 10:30 am-12 pm.

affan
sbians Available for Fun and Networking is a local ial and networking group that provides opportuni- s for women to connect with each other. Members eive a weekly e-mail calendar of events. Laffan nsors an annual Halloween dance and spring nces/benefits. E-mail Laffan_Boston2004@yahoo. n for membership information.

onday Night Bowling League
ston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-52). www.mnbl.net. 7:30 pm. The MNBL's bowl- g season runs Monday nights.

ne Network/La Red
17-423-7233). www.thenetworklared.org. This sup- rt group is working to end abuse in lesbian, bisex- l women's and transgender communities. E-mail o@thenetworklared.org for more information.

ewly Diagnosed Group
l Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., ston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or ange Line to Downtown Crossing. First and third on. of each month, 7:30-9 pm. Free. This group pports gay and bisexual men who've been diag- sed with HIV during the last two years. E-mail ongtin@jri.org.

ut to Dance
17-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Swing, Latin d ballroom dance classes and workshops are held a gay-friendly environment.

ut TwentySomethings Boston
entysomethingsboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. his social and peer support group is for lesbians, y men and bisexual, transgender and questioning lks as well as their straight allies in their 20s and rly 30s.

OZ Social
oonshine Room at Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., ston (617-457-8142, ext. 326). MBTA: Orange Line Back Bay. Second Mon. of each month, 6-11 pm. Free. his monthly event, featuring raffles, food, music and inks, benefits those affected by HIV/AIDS.

POZ 20s
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. Thu., 7:30-9 pm. This social group offers support for HIV-positive gay and bisexual men in their 20s.

POZ 30s Plus
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 132 Boylston St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 314). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 7-9 pm. This social group supports HIV-positive gay and bisexual men ages 30 and over. E-mail hyee@jri.org for more info.

Queer-A-Oke
Midway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain. www.dykenight.com. Thu. 9 pm-12 am. Free. Dyke Night Productions provides costumes and wigs for this weekly karaoke night at the Midway.

The Rainbow Café
rainbowboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. This social group for activist, academic, intellectual and artistic lesbians meets biweekly in gay-owned or gay-friendly establishments around Boston.

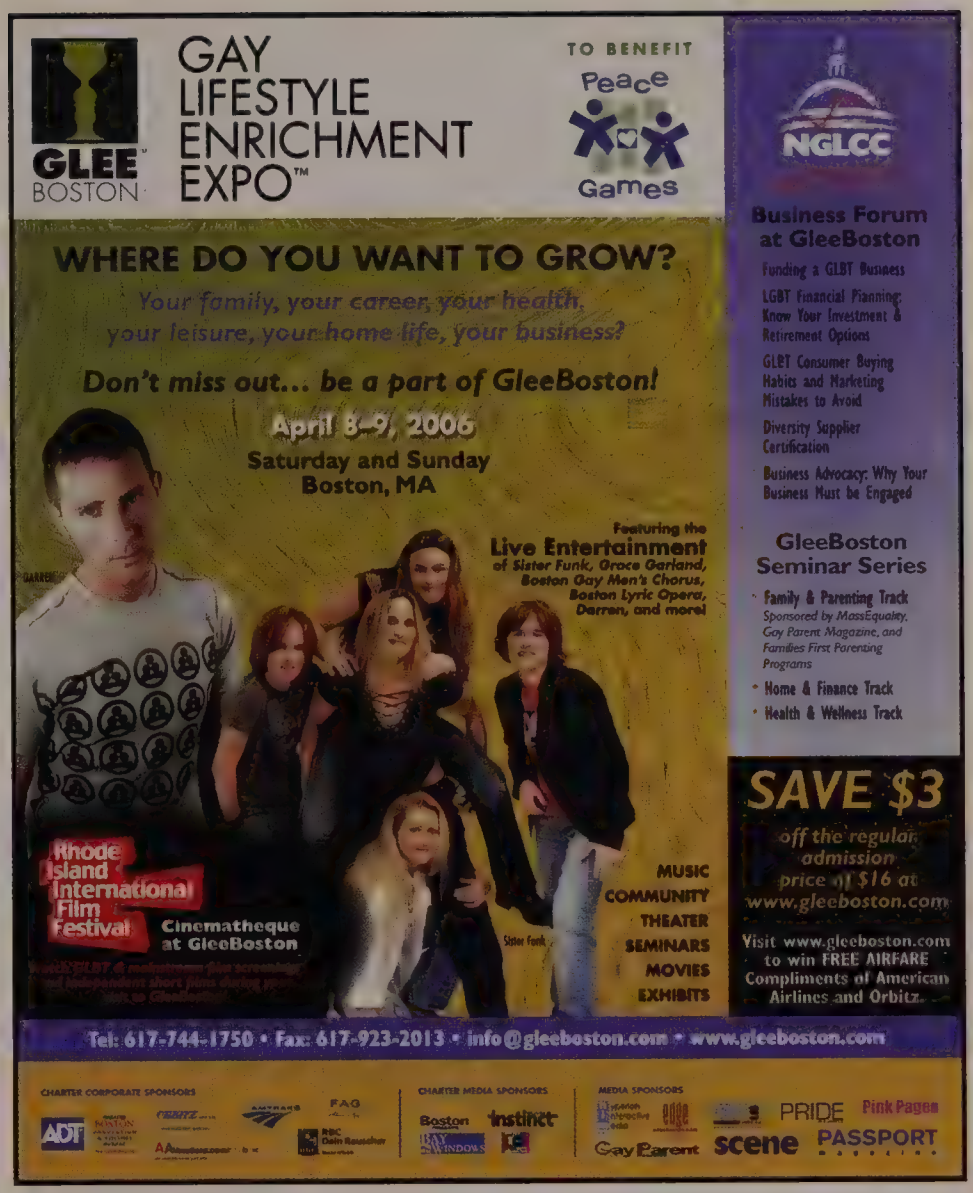
Slice of Rice
Boston GLASS, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Wed., 6-7 pm. This peer-run, queer Asian youth group for those under 25 meets for mutual support. E-mail sungyun@chickmail.com.

Somos Latin@s LGBT Coalition
www.somoslatinoslgbt.org. This social and networking group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas in the Boston area. Viernes Sociales take place every month. E-mail somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.com for more info.

Tiffany Club of New England
(781-891-9325). www.tcne.org. This social and support group for the transgendered community hosts regular activities and events. E-mail stef616@aol.com.

Under the Radar
(617-851-7911). www.radarboston.com. Under the Radar, Boston's gay, all-male, contemporary a cappella group, is always auditioning prospective members. E-mail info@radarboston.com.

Wonder Women Boston
http://groups.yahoo.com/wonder_women_boston. Second Fri. of each month. This social group comprises lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s.



A place where fun and great food are on the menu.

Boston's best sports bar and restaurant serves up a good time with a traditional American grill menu and an excellent selection of sports event viewing. With 33 TVs, including 2 big screens, the game is always on. Come to the place where good food, good sports and good times meet.

Be sure to ask about our private function space for up to 350 people.

Located on the Lobby Level of the Boston Marriott Copley Place
110 Huntington Avenue
Boston, MA 02116
(617) 937-5658

Champions®

walkie talkie

Grab a friend. Stroll the Charles.
Help kids at Children's Hospital Boston.
Sunday June 11 2006

7- and 2-mile pledge walks
www.childrenshospital.org/walk | 617-355-6000

Credit Unions of Massachusetts stride rite
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
WBZ 1030
KOHL'S
AAA
Allied

sports

Paul Pierce and the new-look Celtics host the Pacers and the Heat in early March.

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar: Sports, or by e-mail to sports@improper.com. Include address, phone number, nearest T stop, dates and times, along with a brief description of the league or event. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Home Games

Boston Bruins
•TD Banknorth Garden, Boston
Tickets: 617-931-2222
No games due to the Winter Olympics.

Boston Celtics
•TD Banknorth Garden, Boston
Tickets: 617-931-2222
March 1, 7:30 pm vs. Miami Heat
March 3, 7:30 pm vs. Indiana Pacers

Events

National Golf Expo, Boston
Bayside Expo Center, 200 Mount Vernon St., Columbia Point, Boston (800-756-7606). www.golfexpoboston.com. March 3-5. Fri., 1-8 pm; Sat., 10 am-7 pm; Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $10. This annual golf expo features 140,000 square feet of golf related exhibits, displays and interactive booths, as well as seminars lead by top pros, an indoor range and daily prize drawings.

To Play

AUSTRALIAN-RULES FOOTBALL

Boston Demons
(617-290-7101). www.bostondemons.com. The club seeks new players for nine-a-side competition.

BASEBALL

Henry's Baseball
(781-891-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

BASKETBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070, ext. 238). Co-ed, year-round leagues for players of all levels in Watertown, Belmont, Dedham and Waltham. Teams and individuals are welcome.

Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club
(617-491-8989). www.crfcbasketball.com. Year-round leagues for individuals or teams at all levels.

Corporate Basketball League
(781-248-7811). This league seeks teams for the winter and spring seasons. Games are on weeknights in Newton and Waltham. For more information, please contact zelovic@comcast.net.

Never Too Late Basketball
(781-488-3333). www.nevertoolate.com. Adults of all ages practice in locations throughout Boston.

BOXING

Boston Sport Boxing Club
125 Walnut St., Watertown (617-972-1711). ww bostonboxing.com. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. Red Line Harvard, then #71 bus. The club offers Olympics-st boxing lessons for all levels.

Dogtime Boxing
527 Columbia Road, Dorchester (617-269-904 www.dogtimeboxing.com. Mon.-Fri., 5-8:30 p This boxing club offers training for competiti conditioning and recreation.

DODGEBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club Dodgeba
(617-789-4070). The BSSC is recruiting for dod ball teams.

DRAGON-BOAT RACING

Living Root Dragon Boat
(617-413-8360). www.livingroot.org. No experier is necessary to join this co-ed dragon-boat raci team that practices in Boston and Somerville.

FENCING

Bay State Fencers
561 Windsor St., Suite A 401, Somerville (61 591-0101). www.baystatefencers.com. This club fers fencing and stage-combat programs.

FLAG AND TOUCH FOOTBALL

BSSC Football
Games are held in Brighton (617-789-4070). wu bssc.com. Six-on-six and four-on-four men's tea compete each weekend.

ICE SKATING

Bay State Skating School
(781-890-8480.) www.baystateskatingschool.org. E State offers beginner, intermediate and advanc classes for children and adults at 13 rinks throug out Greater Boston. Students can use either hock or figure skates.

RUGBY

Beantown Women's Rugby Club
www.beantownrugby.com. Training Tue. and Thu. Allston; games Sat. Beantown has won the natio women's championship six times. New players welcome.

Boston Irish Wolfhounds
(617-254-9732). www.biwrfc.com. Training Tu and Thu. in Jamaica Plain. Home field at the Irish C tural Center in Canton. New players are welcome.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. The club is looki for players to join its national-level team.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Clu
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. The club see new players for games in Brookline and Ca bridge.

Mystic River Rugby Club
P.O. Box 477, Malden (781-322-0898). ww mysticrugby.com. This Division I men's rugby cl welcomes both new and experienced players w want to play a high level of competitive rugby.

Old Gold Rugby Club
(617-742-0678). www.oldgoldrugby.com. Tue. a Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Games on Sat. New and expe enced players are welcome.

RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various locations (617-499-4835). www.bostonha com. Weekly runs on either Wed. or Sun. year-rou If you enjoy running, drinking and singing baw songs, this is your weekly running group. Call times and locations.

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First S Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. Fri., 6 p Weekly runs.

Team LunaChix Boston
BostonRun@teamlunachix.com. Weekly runs Thu. 6:30 pm. http://groups.yahoo.com/group/bostonlu chix. Women only. Talking-pace, three- or five-m runs through the Fells.

SKIING/ SNOWBOARDING

Polecat Ski and Sports Club
www.polecatskiclub.com. The Polecat Ski and Spo Club seeks new members of all skill levels. For i formation, e-mail polecatskiclub@hotmail.com.

SOCCER

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). The BSSC offers a series of indo and outdoor soccer leagues.

body & mind

dvice to Contributors

bmit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-46) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information bodymind@improper.com. Include a brief but thorgh description of the event, including time, date, locam, directions, cost and contact information. Listings nnot be accepted by phone and must be received at ıst four weeks in advance.

:vents

ıance of Universal Peace

ambridge Friends Meeting, 5 Longfellow Park, ambridge (617-776-5767 or 617-491-8694). BTA: Red Line to Harvard. March 3, 7:30-9:30 n. Requested donation, $6-$10. This meditative rcle dance honors the spiritual traditions of the orld. The dances are accompanied by live music.

ıharma Film: Rashomon

he Arlington Center, 369 Mass. Ave., Arlington '81-316-0282). www.arlingtoncenter.org. March 4, pm. $10. Co-sponsored by the Institute for Medi-ıtion and Psychotherapy, this film series explores ıe spiritual side of cinema. Tonight's feature is the ıpanese film Rashomon, which calls into question ıe idea of objective truth by presenting conflicting :stimonies of the same event. Refreshments and iscussion follow the film.

Walk-in Healing Clinic

pirit Earth Healing, 661 Mass. Ave. #8, Arlington 517-515-8826). www.spiritearthhealing.com. Feb. 4, 4:30-7 pm. $20-$35, sliding scale. This clinic ffers a variety of healing modalities meant to :duce pain, flush out stagnant emotions, cleanse ıe body and clear the mind.

.ectures

:nvironmental Degradation and Protecting Your Health

Harvest Co-op Market, 581 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1580). www.harvestcoop.com. MBTA: 'ed Line to Central. Feb. 28. 6-8 pm. Free. At this ecture, you can learn about chemical sensitivity nd environmental illness—adverse reactions to hemicals found in products such as perfume, to-acco smoke, paint, carpeting, pesticides and nat-ral gas.

Yoga, Art and Myth: Sitting with the Buddha

Yoga East Center for Alternative Medicine, 20 Del Carmine St., Wakefield (781-224-0722). www.ogaeast.net. Feb. 26, 1-5 pm. $65. Please pre-register. This art history presentation, led by Carol Nelson ınd Monica Venezian, explores sacred imagery that onveys universal wisdom.

Workshops

The Art of Relaxation

Earthsong Yoga, 186 Main St., Marlboro (508-480-8884 or 508-481-2559). www.earthsongyoga.com. March 5, 3-5 pm. $25. Please pre-register. This workshop focuses on the art of living more peacefully and deeply through centered awareness and full presence. Students practice relaxation poses and breathing.

Beginner's Meditation

Episcopal Divinity School, Burnham Chapel, 99 Brattle St., Cambridge (508-979-8277). www.sserlingpa.org. March 2, 7-8:30 pm. $10. Through lecture, guided meditation and discussion, participants learn how to integrate Buddhist philosophy into daily life to reduce stress, increase happiness and generate inner peace. Hosted by Serlingpa Meditation Center.

Breathwork

Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., 3rd floor, Boston (617-375-0785). www.backbayyoga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Feb. 26, 7 pm. $10. The Breathwork class teaches rapid breathing meditation set to the sounds of trance-ambient music.

Bridal Bliss Bootcamp

Watertown Center for Healing Arts, 17 Spring St., Watertown (781-258-9187). www.i-do-yoga.com. Feb. 26, 10 am-5 pm. $200. Please pre-register. Brides learn about the emotional stages that engaged women go through and learn techniques for staying calm throughout the experience.

Alan Seale leads a Soul Mission Life Vision retreat in R.I. March 2-5

Cleansing and Detoxification

Boston School of Herbal Studies, 22 Mt. Auburn St., Watertown (339-223-0647). www.bostonherbalstudies.com. March 9, 6:30-9:30 pm. $35. At this workshop, participants learn safe ways to cleanse and detoxify with herbs and food.

Food Cravings, Compulsions and Addictions

Circles of Wisdom Bookstore and Resource Center, 90 Main St., Andover (978-474-8010 or 781-595-9911). www.circlesofwisdom.com or www.mind-body-therapies.com. March 4, 10-1 pm. $60. This class provides a holistic approach for people struggling with food issues. Participants learn techniques that may help with mental, emotional or spiritual problems related to eating.

The Healing Power of Meditation

Exhale Spa, 28 Arlington St., Boston (617-532-7000). www.exhalespa.com. Feb. 25, 1-3 pm. $30. Susan Taylor leads this class, teaching simple meditation techniques used to quiet the mind, calm the body and awaken vital energy.

Imaging Sophia

The C.G Jung Institute, 116 St. Botolph St., Boston (617-267-5984). www.cgjungboston.com. March 4, 10 am-5 pm. $65. Jungian analyst and art therapist Ethne Gray teaches students about the gnostic myth of exiled Sophia and the alchemical metaphor of darkness.

Restorative Yoga

Art and Soul, 91 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-661-7376). www.artsoulyoga.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Feb., 24, 6-8:30 pm. $30. This workshop is geared toward people experiencing stress, fatigue, sickness and problems with sleep.

Restorative Yoga

Center for Yoga, 393 Worcester Road, Framingham (508-620-9642). www.centerforyoga.us. March 5, 4-6 pm. $37. Students de-stress, release physical tension and revive their spirits through relaxation, supported poses and meditation. No yoga experience is required, but bring a mat and eye pillow if you have them.

Writing on Your Feet

Casa Nia, 46 Porter Road, Cambridge (617-491-5144). www.casania.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Feb. 26, 11 am-5 pm. $81, discounts available. In this workshop, participants meditate, experiment with relating, and share their stories, dreams and writing.

Retreat

Soul Mission Life Vision

All That Matters, 315 Main St., Wakefield, RI (401-782-2126). www.allthatmatters.com. March 2-5. $695. This retreat is designed to help participants delve into self-discovery and live life with increased insight, awareness and fulfillment by identifying their soul's vision.

Ongoing

Ashtanga Yoga

South End Yoga, 111 W. Concord St., Boston (617-247-2716). www.southendyoga.com. MBTA: Orange or Silver Line to Newton St. Mon.-Fri., 7-9 am. $15, drop-in. Ashtanga Yoga is a system of postures and breathing that helps to detoxify, strengthen the body, build flexibility and enhance awareness.

Awareness Through Movement

Casa Nia 46 Porter Road, Cambridge (617-491-5144 or 617-230-6320). www.casania.com or www.awarenessinaction.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Sat., 11:45 am-1:15 pm. $13, drop-in. Participants learn movement awareness techniques useful for reducing pain and tension, feeling physically comfortable and renewing vitality.

Freestyle Yoga

Be One, 62 Warren St., Roxbury (866-442-2411). www.be-at-1.com or www.steppingintobalance.com. Fri., 6-7:30 pm. Sat., 11 am-12:15 pm. $10, drop-in. Participants learn the techniques of movement, stillness and focused breath.

The Greater Boston Food Bank's
Super Hunger Brunch

15th Annual
Super Hunger Brunch

Saturday & Sunday, February 25th & 26th, 2006

To Benefit
The Greater Boston Food Bank

Join Honorary Chef Frank McClelland of L'Espalier and Sel de la Terre and Honorary Chairs Jane Black, Food Editor, Boston Magazine, and Billy Costa, Host, NECN's TV Diner, the staffs of the finest area restaurants and local celebrities as they come together to fight hunger.

You can enjoy brunch at a participating restaurant knowing that all of the proceeds will support The Greater Boston Food Bank's efforts to end hunger in eastern Massachusetts.

For details and to purchase tickets you can either visit www.gbfb.org/shb, call 866-468-7619 or call the restaurant of your choice to make a reservation.

33 Restaurant & Lounge
Appetito
Bambara
blu
Blue Ginger
Bridgeman's
Casa Romero
Chez Henri
Craigie Street Bistrot
Davio's
Dockside Restaurant
The Elephant Walk
EVOO
The Fireplace
Fleming's Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar
Focaccia Ristorante
Garden of Eden
The Grapevine
Great Bay
Grill 23 & Bar
Icarus
Jasper White's Summer Shack
Joe V's
La Morra
Laurel Grill & Bar
L'Espalier
MARE
Not Your Average Joe's
Perdix
Reggio Italian Ristorante
Rialto
Sabur Restaurant
Sel de la Terre
South End Buttery
Spire
Tosca
Turner Fisheries
USS Constitution
Vox Populi

Media Sponsors
Boston magazine
boston.com

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery.

So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see!

e-mail:
impersonals@improper.com

fax: 617-859-1446

or write to:
Improper Impersonals
The Improper Bostonian Magazine
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

children

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Things to See

Coolidge Corner Theatre

290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-738-6533). www.coolidge.org. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. •Feb. 22-23, 12 pm. Special school vacation week screenings of The Wizard of Oz. •Feb. 25-26, March 4, 10:30 am. Tribe for Children presents The Ugly Duckling. •March 5, 11 am. Kids First Film Series presents Stuart Little 3: Call of the Wild.

Disney On Ice

TD Banknorth Garden, 100 Legends Way, Boston (617-931-2000). www.disneyonice.com. MBTA: Green Line to North Station. $15-$70. Feb. 22, 11 am and 3 pm; Feb. 23 and Feb. 26, 1 and 5 pm; Feb. 24-25, 11 am, 3 and 7 pm. Disney on Ice presents Pixar's The Incredibles in a Magic Kingdom Adventure.

ImprovBoston Family Show

1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. $12, adults; $10, seniors; $5, students and children. This short-form improv show includes interactive games for the entire family.

Puppet Showplace Theatre

32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. $7.50-$9.50. Reservations recommended. •March 1-2, 10:30 am. Funny Bone Tales by Sarah Lamstein include "Silly Sam" and "Bendemolena," with "Punch and Judy" rounding out the show. March 4-5, 1 and 3 pm. The Midas Touch and Other Tales features puppeteer Paul Vincent Davis performing two stories, "Androcles and the Lion" and "The Golden Touch of Midas."

Wheelock Family Theatre

200 The Riverway, Boston (617-879-2300). www.wheelock.edu/wft. MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway. Feb. 22-24, 1 and 7:30 pm; Feb. 25-26, 3 and 7:30 pm. $12-$20. Susan Kosoff and Jane Staabs present Sara Crewe: A Little Princess, their musical adaptation of Frances Hodgson Burnett's classic children's book A Little Princess.

Things to Do

Barefoot Books

1771 Mass. Ave., Arlington (617-349-1610). www.barefootbooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Fri. and Sat., 10:30 am. Free. This story hour is for children ages 5 and under and features a variety of themes. Ongoing.

Boston Children's Theatre

McCormack Theatre, McCormack Hall, UMass Boston, 100 Morrissey Blvd., Boston. (617-424-6634). www.bostonchildrenstheatre.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. $20-$22. Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp. This classic fable is told using the traditional narrative.

Children's Museum

Museum Wharf, 300 Congress St., Boston (617-426-8855). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Thu., Sat.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $9, adults; $7, children. •The Amazing Castle allows children to experience life in a medieval village and create medieval-themed arts and crafts. Ongoing. •The Art Studio invites parents and children to create works of art together. Ongoing. •Dragons and Fairies: Exploring Vietnam Through Folktales engages children in modern Vietnamese life through traditional folktales. Ongoing.

Finagle A Bagel

77 Rowe St., Newton (617-213-8400). www.finagleabagel.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Riverside. Wed., 10:30 am. Free. Folk artist Jeannie Mack performs a music hour, including popular children's songs as well as original compositions. Ongoing.

French Library and Cultural Center

53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). www.frenchlib.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Feb. 25, 2-5 pm. $4-$24. The FLCC's annual Mardi Gras party for kids teaches the history behind this French tradition through activities su as making crepes and Mardis Gras masks.

Frog Pond

Frog Pond, Boston Common, Boston (617-635-212 www.bostoncommonfrogpond.org. MBTA: Red Lin Park. Mon., 10 am-5 pm; Tue.-Thu. and Sun.. am-9 pm; Fri.-Sat., 10 am-10 pm. Admission: adult; free for children. Skate Rental: $7, adult; children. Ice skating at the Frog Pond contin through March 17.

Harvard Museum of Natural Histor

26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-304 www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to H vard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $7.50, adults; $6, dents; $5, ages 3-18. Feb. 22-24. 9 am-5 pm. T Winter Break Scavenger Hunt teaches families h people and animals survive the snowy season by h ing them search for clues to the museum's secret m sage.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museu

Stephen Smith Center, Columbia Point, Boston (6 514-1662). www.jfklibrary.org. MBTA: Red Lin JFK/UMass. Feb. 22, 10:30-11:30 am. Free. C brate! Michele Bach-Coulibaly, professor of dance Brown University and the director of a variety African dance troupes, hosts this interactive progr of drumming, storytelling, call and response singi and dancing that reflect West African culture.

Museum of Fine Arts Children's Roo

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-930 www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museu $15, adults; $13, students; free, 5 and under; $6.. ages 6-17 on weekdays before 3 pm. •Feb. 22-24, am-4 pm. Free. February School Vacation W Adventures allows children to participate in v ous activities as they explore the museum, such African dance and drums, collage, drawing, c and jewelry making. •Mon.-Fri., 3:30-4:45 pm. the Children's Room, kids explore the muse and create projects with a variety of themes. C going. •Tue.-Thu., 3:30 pm. Books Bring Alive provides arts and crafts activities for ch dren ages 5 and under. Ongoing. •Sat.-Sun., am-4 pm. Family Place allows children ages 4 a up to explore the MFA through self-guided acti ties with an adult. Ongoing.

Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.c MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9 a 7 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $14, adults; $12, senio $11, children. •Sat.-Sun., 11 am-12 pm. Anim and Stories Alive! combines a live animal presen tion with mythical and folk storytelling. Ongoi •Beyond the X-Ray features four major exhibits t explore how doctors peer inside the human bo without cutting. Ongoing. •Butterflies and flow are on display in the permanent Butterfly Gard •Countdown to Supernova, showing at the Hayd Planetarium, explores the life cycles of stars. On ing. •Making Models is an interactive exhibiti that features models of a wave tank, Mount Ever and a giant grasshopper. Ongoing. •Science Li features live animals and multimedia presentati surrounded by natural history dioramas. Ongoin

National Heritage Museum

33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). wu nationalheritagemuseum.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 p Sun., 12 pm-5 pm. Free. •Feb. 22. Game Day. Fa lies play classic board games and learn what otl games and toys were made in Massachusetts. •B Monday: Doing Laundry in America. This exhibit plains the history of laundry, how it was done a who did it, featuring original artifacts from as early 1700. Ongoing. •The Enchanted Clocks of George M Fadden features the handiwork of local designer a clock-repairman George McFadden. Ongoing.

New England Aquarium

Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.ne org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Thu. am-6 pm; Fri.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $15.95, adu $13.95, seniors; $8.95, children ages 3-11. •Amaz Jellies features thousands of jellyfish. Ongoing. •T 200,000-gallon Giant Ocean Tank contains shar stingrays and sea turtles. Ongoing. •Edge of the Se an ongoing hands-on exhibition featuring sea st hermit crabs and more. •The Simons IMAX Th atre screens a variety of movies. Ongoing.

Newton Free Library

330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). wu ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Riversi Free. Feb. 23, 3 pm. Higgins Armory: A Knigh Tale. Children will view and learn about the va ous weapons and armor of a medieval knight.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Dance Co.

Church of Our Saviour, 25 Monmouth St., Brookl (617-738-7688). www.pbjdanceco.org. MBTA: Green Line to Longwood. Creative Movement provi ongoing dance classes for kids ages 3-8. Call for r istration and scheduling.

around town

Sights to See

ston University Observatory
it Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-3-2630). MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Wed. clear nights), 7:30-8:30 pm. Free.

ildren's Museum
0 Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-55). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South tion. Sat.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $9; , children ages 2-15 and seniors; $2, 1-year-olds; free, ldren under 1 year; $1 per person, Fri., 5-9 pm.

neuil Hall
State St., Boston (617-242-5642). www.faneuilhall rketplace.com. MBTA: Orange or Green Line to rymarket. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. U.S. Park Service igers give talks every half hour in the Great Hall, en it's not being used for special events. Free.

arvard Museum of Natural History
Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www. mh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. on.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and se- rs; $5, children ages 3-18. Free for all, Wed., 3-5 and Sun., 9 am-12 pm.

hn F. Kennedy Library & Museum lumbia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). www.jfk rary.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 -5 pm. $10; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages 13-; free, ages 12 and under.

rz Anderson Antique Auto Museum
Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). Tue.-n., 10 am-5 pm. $5; $3, ages 6-17 and seniors; free, es 5 and under.

lary Baker Eddy Library Mapparium
0 Mass. Ave., Boston (888-222-3711). MBTA: reen Line to Hynes/ICA. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-3:40 n. $6; $4, seniors and students.

lount Auburn Cemetery
30 Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105). BTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 8 am-5 pm. ee.

luseum of Afro-American History
5 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam useum.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. lon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Guided walking tours avail- le by special request. Free.

luseum of Science
ience Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos. g. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9 n-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $15; $13, seniors; $12, es 3-11.

lew England Aquarium entral Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq. g. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Fri., 9 am- pm; Sat.-Sun. and holidays, 9 am-6 pm. $15.95; 13.95, seniors; $8.95, ages 3-11; free to members.

)ld North Church
93 Salem St., Boston (617-523-6676). MBTA: Orange Green Line to Haymarket. Daily, 9 am-6 pm. Free.

)ld South Meeting House
10 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www. ldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Orange or Blue ine to State. Daily, 10 am-4 pm. $5; $4, seniors and udents; $1, children; free, ages 5 and under.

)ld State House Museum
06 Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). ww.bostonhistory.org. MBTA: Orange or Blue Line to tate. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and students; 1, ages 6-18; free to members and children under 6.

Prudential Center Skywalk
00 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Daily, 10 am-8 pm. $9.50; 7.50 with college ID; $7, seniors; $6.50, ages 3-12; ree, ages 2 and under.

Trinity Church
206 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). www. rinityboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Daily, 8 am-6 pm. $5; free, ages 12 and under.

USS Constitution & Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston (617-426-1812). www.ussconstitutionmuseum.org. Daily, 10 am-6 pm. Free.

Volunteer

AFC Mentoring Program
617-224-1303). www.afcmentoring.org. Mentor a oster-care or adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-437-6200). www.aac.org. Help someone with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). www.cancer.org. Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments.

Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay
(617-542-9090). www.bbmb.org. BBMB seeks volunteers to provide friendship to boys in need.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Volunteers act as friends and mentors to young girls.

Boston Cares
(617-422-0910). www.bostoncares.org. More than 100 volunteer opportunities are available each month.

Boston Jaycees
(617-367-5710). www.bostonjaycees.org. A volunteer organization of people between the ages of 21 and 40 focusing on charitable involvement and developing business opportunities.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012, ext. 227). www.bostonlivingcenter.org. This HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers who are 18 and older for kitchen tasks, office work and special events.

Boston Partners in Education
(617-451-6145, ext. 620). www.bostonpartners.org. Tutor students in math and literacy and prepare high school students for the MCAS.

Cambridge School Volunteers
(617-349-6794). www.csvinc.org. Volunteers and tutors needed in Cambridge public schools.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). www.dana_farber.org. Help adults living with cancer.

Downtown Initiative for Adult Literacy
(617-357-6000, ext. 7508). Tutor adult students.

Extra Hands for ALS
(617-331-3014). www.extrahands.org. Help patients with ALS (aka Lou Gehrig's Disease) and their families with chores and housework.

HealthCare Dimensions Hospice
(781-894-1100). www.hcdhospice.org. Volunteers are needed to support terminally ill patients and their families.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-267-3700). www.thehome.org. Mentor a child.

Horizons Initiative
(617-287-1900, ext. 113). www.horizonsforhomeless children.org. Volunteer for homeless children.

Hospice Volunteers
(617-547-2620, ext. 4271). Support terminally ill patients.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-559-6585). www.cjp.org. Spend time with an elderly adult, mentor a child or teach adults to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). www.lvm.org. Teach adults to read.

MAB Community Services
(617-972-9119). www.charityfinders.com. Read to or shop with a blind person.

Match-Up Interfaith Volunteers
(617-482-1510). www.matchelder.org. Volunteers needed to assist elders.

Neighborhood Action Inc.
(617-723-5800). Serve meals to the homeless.

New England Aquarium
(617-973-5235). www.neaq.org. Volunteer as an aquarium guide and more.

Parental Stress Line
(800-882-1250). Counsel parents and caregivers, and facilitate support groups.

Pine Street Inn
(617-892-9187). www.pinestreetinn.org. Volunteer for food preparation and meal service.

Project Place Inc.
(617-262-3740, ext. 15). www.projectplace.org. Become a mentor or tutor for homeless men and women.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111, ext. 17). www.rfbd.org. Volunteers read textbooks for recording.

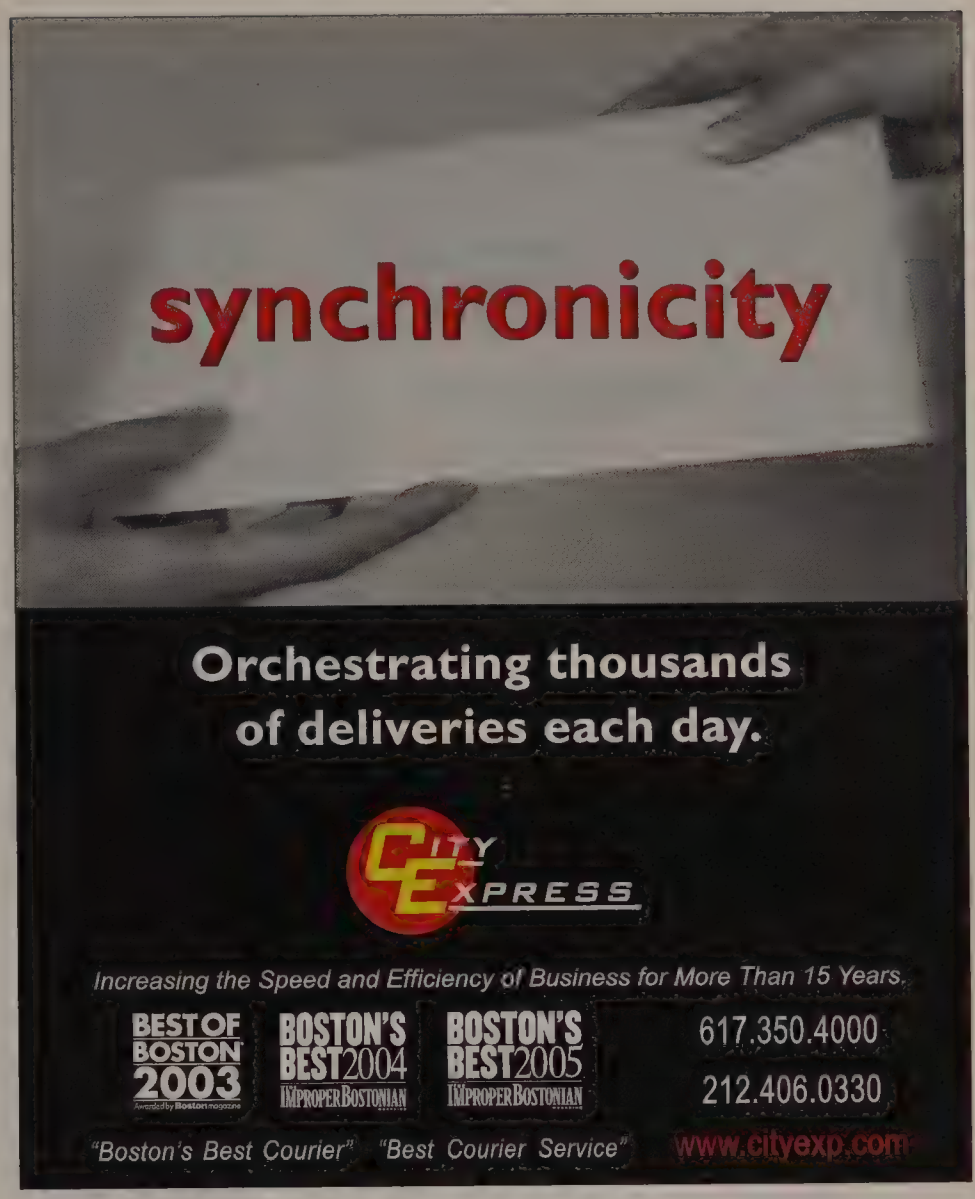
Respond Inc.
(617-625-5996). www.respondinc.org. Volunteer at this agency for battered women.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). www.rosies.org. Volunteers needed for this women's homeless shelter.

SafeLink
(617-521-0100). Volunteers needed for this 24-hour domestic violence program.

Samaritans
(617-536-2460). Provide friendship over the phone to people in crisis.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. SVB offers one-shot opportunities to volunteer with other young, single professionals.



upcoming issues

March 8, 2006
Dating

March 22, 2006
Shopping

April 5, 2006
Beloved Bartenders

April 19, 2006
Luxury

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Call 617-859-1400 ext. 280 to advertise

The BAC has THE biggest caliber instructors that keep me motivated and challenged every single day. They keep it fresh and always make the workouts different and cutting edge which is truly unique compared to any other gym that I have been to. To me, Alexis is by far the best personal trainer as well as being a true role model and professional.

Again, our personal training sessions are new each and every week and the results keep me coming back for more.

BAC Member Wendy Harrington

Cardiovascular Center
Free Weights & Resistance Equipment
Swim Programs
Tennis
Squash
Racquetball
Basketball
Building Active Children
Senior Program
Restaurant
Free Parking

Did you Know?

Exercising with a trainer can improve your strength up to 45% more than exercising without supervision.

Call to sign up

The Boston Athletic Club will challenge and motivate you to reach your fitness goals!

Now you know.
Call today to get started
617-269-4300

Boston Athletic Club
BAC
bostonathleticclub.com
653 Summer Street • Boston, MA • 02210

The Boston Athletic Club can help you reach your goals.

The Northeast's largest independent document imaging company is looking for energetic sales professionals and experienced field service technicians.

- Competitive compensation with unlimited earning potential
- Attractive health and retirement package
- Ongoing training
- Team oriented environment

NBM is a leading provider of digital copiers and printers, supported by a solid commitment to customer service excellence.

- Named "2004 Elite Dealer" by Office Dealer Magazine.
- Premier dealer for Sharp and Konica Minolta, world leaders in document imaging technology.

Call to schedule your confidential interview appointment.

"Giving You The Power To Produce" 800-869-9390
www.nbminc.com

NBM
Northern Business Machines
Boston • Burlington • Stoughton
Worcester • Bedford, NH

rockie horoscope

FEBRUARY 22–MARCH 7, 2006 BY ROCKIE GARDINE

PISCES FEBRUARY 19–MARCH 19

Pisces barely begins before you could find yourself embroiled in an altercation with a neighbor, local tradesman or the U.S. Post Office. Better to have another argument with your sibling than go to war with your dry cleaner. If you can maintain a modicum of cool, you'll be extremely effective expressing your point of view. Artists and writers should take note. However, chances are you'll do something crazy as the month ends. The Pisces new moon, Fat Tuesday and Ash Wednesday might be extremely difficult days for eccentric or rebellious Fish.

ARIES
MARCH 20–APRIL 19

Go figure. No sooner than you start to shake off the safe-and-sane mindset imposed on you while your Mars ruler was spending month after month in pragmatic Taurus, the War God decides to attack the Pisces sun. Do you really need a hassle to prove your mettle? No matter what the outcome of this challenging square aspect, be grateful for the opportunity to stretch your wings and widen your horizons. That the experience might also cost a few bucks is not such a bad thing. Think of the tales you can regale your friends with.

TAURUS
APRIL 20–MAY 20

Now that insistent and irritable Mars has left your sign, you won't get into or attract as much trouble as you have been. If the last six months have been difficult—if you've been a target for cuts, bruises and insults—blame the Red Planet. But if you've also felt more independent and exceptionally sexual, you can attribute that to Martian aggressiveness as well. Now what? Play nice; generous Jupiter, turning retrograde in your Scorpio house of partners for the next four months, might not be willing to bail you out.

GEMINI
MAY 21–JUNE 20

Read for Taurus. It's probably a good thing that acerbic, adventurous Mars spends only eight weeks in your sign, not six months. You'll get an infusion of assertiveness, if that's what you want, but you probably won't have to spill blood and guts in the process. A small skirmish over the weekend may have revealed what the God of War is bringing to your table and whether the maneuver can advance your cause. Since your Mercury ruler is turning retrograde on March 2, make your to-do list, order parts and supplies, and schedule repairs and trips ASAP.

CANCER
JUNE 21–JULY 22

Hold back and let the first month in the Year of the Dog wind down before you stir things up. It's better for a Moon Child to wait until the Pisces new moon on Feb. 27 before embarking on a new fiscal, philosophical or educational course. Also, make sure your plan is in place and the proper papers signed before Mercury turns retrograde on March 2 for three weeks. Although the Messenger wandering through Pisces, a compatible water sign, shouldn't present you with a real problem, it could interrupt the flow of information until Good Friday.

LEO
JULY 23–AUGUST 22

An inexplicable attraction to shy or elusive Pisces natives tends to occur whenever your fiery sun ruler transits this mystical, musical water sign. Few experts understand the whys and wherefores of this phenomenon, not unlike a semi-destructive but delicious habit you can't break. So feel free to enjoy or perhaps regret whatever happens over the next few weeks. However, you should know that when the sun and erratic Uranus meet on Ash Wednesday, you could be in for a really big surprise. What are your plans for Mardi Gras?

VIRGO
AUGUST 23–SEPTEMBER 22

The events that occur during the two-month period between mid-February and mid-April can have a major impact on your closest relationships at work and at home. That's because this year, while traveling through your Pisces hous of partnerships, your Mercury ruler gets to perform its direct-retrograde, direct-dance of destiny. Think: How bad how superbly did you behave on Valentine's Day? Mercury doesn't flip into reverse until March 2, but the steps you take until then will make a difference later on. Be careful.

LIBRA
SEPTEMBER 23–OCTOBER 22

Eventually the benefits of having energetic Mars in airy Gemini for the next seven weeks will reveal themselves. However, this week, while the fiery sun and the red planet aggravate what starts off as a romantic moment, it's likely that your temper, rather than your passion, will flare instea Don't let your anger defeat your purpose. Libras should also know that prosperous Jupiter in your Scorpio house of value and assets turns retrograde on March 4th for four months. Consider paying off credit cards and cutting back on luxurie

SCORPIO
OCTOBER 23–NOVEMBER 21

Adjusting to your Mars co-ruler's shift into Gemini, a flexib air sign, might present a hiccup for Scorpions who resist changes they can't control. However, now that Mars has left your Taurus complement, it's also likely that your partner will change his or her position. The next few weeks will tell. Meanwhile, protective Jupiter turning retrograde in your si on March 4, will give you four months to reflect on and possibly revise (if not reverse) the direction your life has taken since the jolly giant entered Scorpio for Halloween.

SAGITTARIUS
NOVEMBER 22–DECEMBER 21

It's mainly November-born Centaurs who'll be targeted by both abrasive Mars in early Gemini and the powerful sun i early Pisces during their cantankerous square this week. A simultaneous attack from mutable signs like yours suggest that you'll be dancing as fast as you can and ducking the barbs a partner or parent tosses your way. The Pisces new moon should signal a truce. Nonetheless, the sun's merger with disruptive Uranus two days later can make the atmosphere at home positively explosive. Emotionally, it's earthquake weather; be prepared.

CAPRICORN
DECEMBER 22-JANUARY 20

Despite the emphasis on warring factions, try to avoid any show of militancy on your part. Focus instead on what you personally value and how to protect those assets. While yo still have magnetic Venus in your sign (until March 5), it would be foolish not to use charm and tact. If you happen be stunning as well, use your good looks to your advantag Mercury turning retrograde in spacey Pisces next month ca really screw with machines and the mail. Bring the car in f service, back up your files, order supplies, etc.

AQUARIUS
JANUARY 21–FEBRUARY 18

Small skirmishes among neighbors, possibly in your family between siblings, will soon pass. Ignore them. What you should keep your eye on instead is the big picture, which f idealistic Aquarians consists partially of the rewards promised by a well-meaning employer and your own vivid imagination. However, what you should prepare for is a reevaluation of those promises while expansive Jupiter in your career midheaven is retrograde. The big picture may revised in the interim, so check out other profitable career opportunities.

For a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months, sen name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., Valley Glen, CA 91405; more details at www.rockiehoroscope.com. Rockie's daily forecast appears online at www.laweekly.com.

improperimpersonals

everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over e place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the orld to see (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity). Heck, it's better than making a fool of ourself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type o e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

The Verdict

o "A Witness" in the Feb. 8 issue mpersonals: There was no such date s Thursday, Jan. 11, 2006. You'd nake a terrible witness!

—The Defense

Keep it to Yourself

his is on behalf of all those stuck in ffices with coworkers who are out of ontrol. Why do you insist on tanding and sharing your onversations with everyone? Or alking so loudly on the phone that ve all know your personal usiness—and then sharing it with ne person at a time, so that we hear he same story 10 more times? And istening to a talk show through headphones and laughing so hard hat we can't tell if you're laughing or crying? We all do things that sometimes annoy other people, but some people do it all day, every day. Please, show just a little common courtesy.

—Frustrated

Two Passport Photos Shy of a Date

You study electrical engineering and were going away for graduation. You came into my store in late January to have a passport photo taken. I screwed it up and you had to come back in. I'm sorry to have put you through so much trouble, but I was very happy to see you again. I think you're adorable, but it would've been inappropriate for me to ask you out as a customer. If you see this, know who I am and are interested, then e-mail me. If not, I hope you enjoy your vacation and the rest of your life. Peace.

—Grandmaster_opus@hotmail.com

Skipping a Beat

I see you in the Oak Square YMCA on the elliptical machine, working out very hard; I've admired you for some time now. You have the most amazing blue eyes I've ever seen. I suppose it'd be a miracle if you weren't taken by a woman much luckier than I. We've made eye contact on occasion, and perhaps there's a mutual attraction. Maybe this infatuation will pass; but I hope not, as it gives me hope that someday you'll pull me close to you so that I can feel your heart beating against my chest. Maybe you can find a way to let me know you feel the same.

—Waiting Patiently

Quit Your Complaining

This is to the women who were complaining about the single men of Boston. I'm a 23-year-old guy, and I totally disagree with these women. They label the population of single men in the area as uncaring, egotistical jerks. Well, my friends and I aren't like that. What the hell do you expect to find when you try to meet men in a bar? Maybe those women just need to look in better places for a good guy.

—A Nice Single Guy in Boston

Knight in Shining Armor

I was on the 89 bus the other night when you got into a little tiff; you held yourself well. I think you're very handsome: You're tall and skinny, and you always have on a baseball hat. When I boarded your bus the next day, I was depressed to see a different driver. I'm a very attractive young female with a good sense of humor. It took a lot for me to do this and write to the IMPROPER to tell you how I feel. If you're interested, you can e-mail me.

—Buschic6@aol.com

Lost It? Found It!

To E. O'Rellana: I found your debit card this morning on Washington Street by Borders all wet and dirty, and I turned it in to Bank of America next to Borders. I hope the card finds its way back to you! PS: Make sure you sign the back of your new card.

—Good Samaritan

Beloved Bean

In the spirit of Valentine's Day, I give you a random list of what I love about Boston: I love the libraries, Jamaica Pond and everyone who has ever given me a smile or a few kind words on the MBTA. I love the motorcycle cops (especially in Harvard Square), Petsi Pies pecan pie and matinee movies at near-empty theaters. I couldn't live without the live music venues, a properly poured Guinness or my acupuncturist at Pathways in Back Bay. I thank the stars for all the cemeteries, the intricate architecture, free performances at Boston Conservatory School and gelato at Caffe Vittoria… the list is endless. It isn't often that you hear people express their gratitude for our little bean of a city. I extend an invitation to everyone to stop and consider the good things in your life. Count your blessings, people! I guarantee it'll lighten the doldrums of winter.

—Walking on Sunshine

Must Love Dogs?

To the person who constantly ties up a beautiful golden retriever (with a blue leash) on Atlantic Avenue: Have a heart! I know you love your dog because it's always so happy and looks to be very well fed, but the other day it was freezing rain, windy and downright cold, and you had the poor thing tied up while you shared a leisurely lunch with your buddy. The dog was shivering and barking for you to come out. Please, when the weather is that nasty, think of your dog. After all, would you like to be left tied up outside in such conditions?

—A Dog Lover

We Found Our Ken

It was Friday, Feb. 3, at around 1 pm in the B Terminal of Logan Airport. We were four rather silly, giddy girls eating lunch while waiting to board our flight for a long weekend in Key West. Your name was Ken, and when you sat next to us we joked with you that you were either going to want to move and sit somewhere else or were going to want to join us. We exchanged small talk and you went back to reading your paper and waiting for your bus home to New Hampshire. We could tell that you were amused by our joking banter and could see you smiling behind your newspaper. When the waitress came over she asked if we wanted separate checks or everything on one bill and we jokingly said, "One check, please, and you can give it to him!" and pointed to you. A little while later, you got up and wished us a safe trip. When it came time for us to go, we asked the waitress for our bill and we were told that you had paid our lunch tab—the whole thing! You'd quietly paid and walked away before we even had a chance to thank you or acknowledge your generosity in any way. You were a complete stranger and paid a $70 lunch tab for four girls you'd never met before and would never see again. You did it out of the goodness of your heart, with no hidden agenda. We could not let this occurrence go by without at least trying to say thank you and to let you know that you renewed our faith in the human race. There are still people out there who are genuinely nice, kind and generous. Ken, if your actions that day are any indication of how big your heart is, then your wife is a very lucky woman. We also want you to know that we've repeated this story to anyone who would listen because we were all so blown away that someone would do something like that, and that we spent the weekend trying to "pay it forward" and be good to others in return. Thank you so much for starting our long weekend off on such a positive note. You'll always be remembered by us!

—FourKeyWestGirls@yahoo.com

SERVING ALL YOUR ADVERTISING NEEDS, ALL THE TIME.
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN REACHES MORE THAN 433,600 PEOPLE WHO LIVE, WORK AND PLAY IN THE CITY.
PUT YOUR MONEY WHERE YOUR MARKET IS!

Julie Kane
New Business Director
julie_kane@improper.com
617-859-1400 x238

Dana D'Alfonso
Senior Account Manager
dana@improper.com
617-859-1400 x240

Alison Morant
Senior Account Manager
alison_morant@improper.com
617-859-1400 x234

Carrie Wallace
Senior Account Manager
carrie_wallace@improper.com
617-859-1400 x236

Bill Eppich
Account Executive
bill_eppich@improper.com
617-859-1400 x276

Georganna Yessaian
Account Executive
georganna@improper.com
617-859-1400 x232

Jessica Federico
Classified Account Executive jessica@improper.com
617-859-1400 x269

Gretchen Bostrom
Classified Account Executive
gretchen@improper.com
617-859-1400 x244

Call us today at 617-859-1400
or send an email to:
advertising@improper.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Saturday, January 28, the Improper Bostonian was pleased to be a sponsor of Berklee College of Music's 60th Anniversary Concert. Held at The Wang Theatre, the event was hosted by Bill Cosby and included such special guests as Paul Simon, Herbie Hancock and Gloria Estefan.

1. Thessaly Karas, owner of Safeskin Sunless Tanning, and Brian Murphy, account executive at FOX 25.
2. Leo Mellace, producer at Sanctum Sound, and Ernie Boch Jr., president and CEO of Boch Automotive.
3. Roger Brown, president of Berklee; his wife Linda Mason; Nidhi Handa, vice president of communications; and Amit Handa, vice president of luxury watch sales, both at Alpha Omega.

On Friday, February 3, 360 Ultra Lounge celebrated its grand opening with KISS 108 as host.

1. Tom Capasso and Linda Akbar, both bartenders at 360 Ultra Lounge.
2. Phil Jacob, DJ for Grovefire, and Izzy Pina, general manager of 360 Ultra Lounge.
3. Tricia Golden, waitress; George Michaelidis, owner; and Ali Engel, waitress, all of 360 Ultra Lounge.

On Friday, February 3, Top of the Hub hosted a Dewar's 12 tasting event.

1. Kate Johnson, sales associate for Luna Boston; David Tretola, president of Boston Promotions; and Sarah Johnson, owner of Luna Boston.
2. Taryn Scali, account executive at Universal Consulting Group; Mike Watts, premium brand specialist for Team Enterprises; and Tara Willams, field marketing specialist-Boston for Dewar's.

On Tuesday, February 7, the Improper Bostonian celebrated its Man Issue at The Foundation Lounge. Guests enjoyed samplings by Sauza Tres Generaciones Tequila, hors d'oeuvres by The Foundation Lounge and tunes by Next Generation Productions.

1. Melissa Covino, area manager for Future Brands; Paul Yates, sauza tequila ambassador for Sauza Tequila; and Aliz Csaki, on-premise manager for Future Brands.
2. Jordan Tobins; Brendan Higgins; and Josh Huggard, all owners of The Upper Crust.
3. Ben Flanders, commercial real estate analyst for Sovereign Bank; Sarah Platte, sales associate at Long's Jewelers; Jon Matterazzo, middle market, commercial lending analyst at Sovereign Bank; and Cynthia Pischdotchian, marketing and PR manager for David and Company.

PHOTO CREDITS: THE WANG THEATRE, STACEY SHANE, PHIL FARNSWORTH; TOP OF THE HUB, 360 ULTRA LOUNGE, THE FOUNDATION LOUNGE, JULIE KAN

Aged

THE PERFECT 10

Bourbon

RUSSELL'S RESERVE® Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey. 45% Alc./Vol. (90 Proof). Austin, Nichols Distilling Co., Lawrenceburg, KY ©2012 Austin, Nichols & Co., Inc. Drink Perfectly. Drink Responsibly.

RESTAURANTS

ASSAGGIO 29 Prince Street, Boston, MA 02113 (617)227-7380 www.assaggioboston.com. Located in Boston's historic North End, Assaggio is open 7 days a week for lunch, dinner and late-night dining. Assaggio's menu is comprised of traditional Italian fare and uses only the freshest ingredients! Enjoy our extensive wine list or relax at one of the North End's only full service bars. Try our exclusive Limousine Shuttle Service–for a $10.00 charge we'll pick you up at home and provide round trip service to and from the restaurant– Please call one day in advance to reserve. Intimate, private function space is also available.

BONFIRE 64 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel, Theatre District, 617-262-3473. Chef Todd English's restaurant, Bonfire, is a steak house and tequila bar with a wood-fired grill and Latin and European influences. The décor is gorgeous in warm red and gold tones. An extensive taco menu, wood-grilled steaks and a late-night tapas menu provide options for all diners. Open nightly for dinner and late-night dining.

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617-236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Boston's Best 6 years in a row! Our southwestern specialties include Sizlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurant in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

IGUANA CANTINA 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

MATCH 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. This modern restaurant/lounge maintains an unpretentious yet hip vibe. A sleek fire display and glass wine room are just two of its many features. Match's signature mini burgers and martinis are guaranteed to please the most discriminating palate. Match music has a distinct early evening lounge feel with the beat and volume picking up as the night progresses. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC,V.

M.J. O'CONNOR'S 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255. Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

NED DEVINE'S Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

SCIENCE STREET CAFÉ Science Park, Boston, 617-723-2500, www.mos.org. Looking for something different to do this Friday night? Check out Boston's newest nightspot - The Science Street Café at the Museum of Science. Try our out-of-this world signature martinis, gourmet appetizers and decadent desserts. Open 6-10pm. And while you're there be sure to check out the latest breathtaking Omni film or our always-changing exhibit halls. Parking available.

SIDNEY'S GRILLE 20 Sidney St., Cambridge, 617-494-0011 Enjoy fresh flavors, good friends, and a great bar at Sidney's Grille in Central Square. Discover why Bon Appétit magazine says "It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." Memorable cuisine combines international flair with regional accents. Serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and weekend brunch. Private dining available. For menus www.sidneysgrille.com.

SOLAS 710 Boylston St., Lenox Hotel, 617-933-4803. Solas means comfort in Gaelic and comfort is exactly what you will find here, along with a lot of "Irish" good fun. Solas, a Boston pub with an Irish soul, illustrates its Irish influences in the architectural styles and furnishings. The menu is influenced by a traditional, yet decidedly modern Irish cuisine. And you'll always find a warm, hospitiable staff looking to pour you a cold pint. Open 11am - 2 am, 7 days a week.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP:130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 300 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

VENEZIA RESTAURANT 20 Ericsson St., Boston 617-436-3120. For authentic Italian fare, impeccable service and an atmosphere unmatched on Boston's Waterfront, Venezia provides one of the city's most unique and pleasurable dining experiences. Your destination for everything from a relaxing midday lunch to a romantic dinner for two, Venezia can also accommodate private affairs like wedding receptions and business functions, and features live music on Friday and Saturday nights.

THE WATERFRONT CAFÉ BAR-GRILL 450 Commercial Street, Boston 617-523-0613. A North End neighborhood hot spot, serving up sizzling steak tips and the best burgers around! Featuring a big screen TV and plasmas to catch all your favorite teams in action. Come for dinner, stay for a drink! Open 7 days, Lunch & Dinner 11am–11pm, Apps. 11pm–1am.

BARS & CLUBS

Beer Specialty

SUNSET GRILL & TAP: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 300+ microbrews and exotic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

BIG CITY - POOL HALL, Pizza Kitchen, Beer Bar 138 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-782-2020 www.allstonsfinest.com. BIG TIME FUN: 21 Championship pool tables, 80 big beers on tap, outrageous signature pizzas and BIG MENU Sat/Sun Brunch in our BIG BANK BUILDING with our one of a kind "metro retro decor". THE BIG DEAL is free rooms and pool for your next party or function of any kind. Call the "Party Specialists". Sun - Weds 3P's (pool, pitcher, pizza) $19.99. Life is good in the Big City! Come experience it in a big way!

Clubs

FELT 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. www.FeltBoston.com. A four level venue offering a New York style Lounge, a hip bar scene, with sophisticated pool tables and a dance club in the 4th level. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth. The perfect setting for a pre or post-theater dinner or a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere of DJ's and dancing, sophisticated pool tables & bars...and FELT's posh fourth level club are the perfect blend to satisfy all your senses.

Dance Bars

GREEN BRIAR 304 Washington St., Brighton 617-789-4100. A little taste of Ireland with great tasting, affordable food. One of the most popular nightspots in town, the Green Briar has become the area's headquarters for international sports viewing and live entertainment. Live music five nights a week, featuring local bands on weekends, a traditional Irish Seissun every Monday night and Prime Time Trivia every Tuesday. The hospitable atmosphere makes the Green Briar an excellent place to hold luncheons, wedding rehearsals, social gatherings and small business meetings. Open 11am-1am, 7 days a week. Cover charge varies on Friday and Saturday nights and some sporting events on Sundays.

KINVARA 34 Harvard Ave., Allston 617-783-9400. At the Kinvara, the crowd is spirited, the staff is hospitable, the food is great and everyone is treated as a "regular". It's the local gathering place with authentic Irish pub flavor. Live international sports viewing via satellite includes soccer, rugby and hurling. Live bands entertain to a lively crowd on weekends. The mainstream pub fare menu ranges from grilled sandwiches and fish & chips to traditional Irish dishes and innovative daily specials. At the Kinvara, you'll enjoy true Irish pub experience. Open 11am - 2a 7 days a week.

General

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617- 23 0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, vot Boston's Best 6 years running! Our southweste specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichang or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all dov with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch a dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina resta rants in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Clu www.bestmargaritas. com.

CHAMPIONS SPORTS BAR Boston Marric Copley Place; 110 Huntington Ave. Bosto 617 937-5658. Come join us at Boston's premi Sports Bar where you can enjoy all you local a national sports action on one of our 33 tvs, i cluding 2 big screens. We have draft beers well as a huge selection of domestic and in ported bottle selections for you to choose fror We also have a full bar and menu serving all yo favorite traditional American cuisine. Plannir your next party or corporate event? We hav room for parties ranging from 25-325. Our hou are from Sunday through Thursday 11:30-1a and Friday and Saturday 11:30-2am.

THE HARP 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-74 1010. Voted Boston Magazine's "Best After T Game", the Harp is a favorite downtown hotspo any day of the week, located directly across fro the Fleet Center. Live bands from Bosto Philadelphia and New York plus DJs spinnin tunes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights s the pace for the great high-energy environmen The Harp provides a crowd-pleasing menu wit tastes from around the globe. Located in th heart of downtown Boston, the Harp also serve as an excellent meeting place for business lunc eons, social gatherings and events.

JILLIAN'S BOSTON / LUCKY STRIKE LANE 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-030 www.jil liansboston.com. Jillian's is a 70,00 square foot entertainment megaplex featurin 16 bowling lanes, 50 pool tables, high-tec games, high definition video walls, multipl lounges and private rooms. Located on the firs floor is Tequila Rain, which offers an amazin Tex-Mex menu and dancing to the hottest DJ Friday and Saturday nights.

PARRIS Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quinc Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800 Lounge. Cocktails. Dancing. Nightlife. Come se the lights of Parris. Sample the eclectic loung menu featuring grilled pizza, oyster shooter and steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or Frenc 75 martini, and then motion onto the hug dance floor featuring live music with the bes bands and DJs Thursday through Saturday Named for the original architect of the Greek revival-style building, Alexander Parris, you'r nightlife experience at Parris will be Boston an beyond. Open 5pm - 2am Wedneday - Saturday Cover charge on Friday and Saturday.

BRUNCH

KENNEDY'S MIDTOWN 42 Province Street Boston, 617-426-3333 www. kennedysmid town.com. Ideally situated in Boston's Midtown Kennedy's is located between Downtown Cross ing and the Boston Common; Just steps fro Beacon Hill and The Freedom Trail. One o Boston's best kept secrets, Kennedy's menu boas prime aged steaks, seafood,assorted pub fare and daily creations. Open 7 days a week, brunch served Saturdays and Sundays, and lively pianc bar. Call us for that special function or event.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP 130 Brighton Ave., All ston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA, 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646 "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At the Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try ou thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar, including a free Sunday paper and your first beery mary or mimosa. Full menu also available. 112taps, 300+microbrews.

IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TRIP.

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you were. The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

ess Wysor and Nat Chamberlin traveled to Antarctica, where they're extras in the soon-to-be-released documentary March of the Penguins 2: The Search for Matching Jackets.

Sue Kink and Kerri Sprague met a San Diego life guard/ fire rescuer, who loves chillin', 'laxin and extinguishing house fires with the aid of only his surfboard.

Amy Moore, Terry Jones, Ellen Duffy and Joanne Curtis smiled under the Antler Arch in Jackson Hole, but only after realizing it wasn't a huge bat.

Bobbi Jo Harvey and Maggi Healy rafted down the Colorado River. It was great fun, until they noticed their boat had floated away.

Beverly and Chad Siebel hopped on a meandering river cruise down the Li River in Guilin, China. In this photo, Beverly's flaunting her most recent purchase: a set of Li Press-On Nails.

Gareen Avakian and John Benglian hit the Armenian Heritage Cruise Toga Party. Either that or they seriously gotta do some laundry.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER:
Running around in red tights and jabbing patrons with a trident at the annual Devil's Carnival, held on Feb. 26 in Oruro, Bolivia.

Send high-resolution digital photos (at least 500K file size) to sightings@improper.com, or mail professionally printed color photos (min. 3x5) to Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116. Please include the exact photo location, full names of all people in the photo, your phone number and e-mail address. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned. Ink-jet or laser-printed photos cannot be accepted.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

ACUPRESSURE

781-453-3988

Reward yourself with a type of relaxation and rejuvenation that improves the power of the body, mind and spirit. We provide a soothing and comfortable atmosphere for the best massage treatment. by appt. 95/128 exit 17-19 1116 Great Plain Ave. Needham Center 9am - 9pm open 7days.

ATTORNEYS

RAGAB & ASSOCIATES, LLC

6 Beacon Street, Suite 200, Boston, MA 02114. Ragab & Associates, LLC is a general law practice located in downtown Boston. Our firm focuses on estate planning, real estate, business law, bankruptcies and domestic relations. Please contact us 617-523-3200.

HEALING

NE Medical Massage Therapy
Do you suffer in pain?
Massage • Reiki • Acupuncture
Repetitive Stress & Chronic Injuries
Located at Harvard Vanguard Medical Associates
147 Milk Street, 7th floor, Boston
617.769.0101
Next Reiki 1 Class
Monday, March 6 9am-5pm
Monday, March 20 9am-1pm
Maxine Bornstein RN, MS
Reiki Master / Teacher / Holistic Nurse
508.292.5258
www.reikibythe sea.com
www.nemedicalmassage.com

MUSIC

GREAT BAND FOR WEDDINGS AND PARTIES!

The O-Tones, a hot swing and R&B band, are perfect for your wedding and/or party! Vocal harmonies, horn section, and a compelling rhythm section make for great dancing and listening for all ages. Check out soundbytes and details: www.havetodance.com/otones/

NURTURING

MASSAGE BODYWORK FOR WOMEN

Luxurious Tantric bodywork channels soothing energy thru sensual meridian nurturing body and soul. Exhilarating relaxation; mind-body equilibrium. By certified therapist. Sliding-scale rates. 857-526-6791 tantricway@hotmail.com.

ONLINE DATING

PersonalsBoston.com
Boston's Online Dating Site

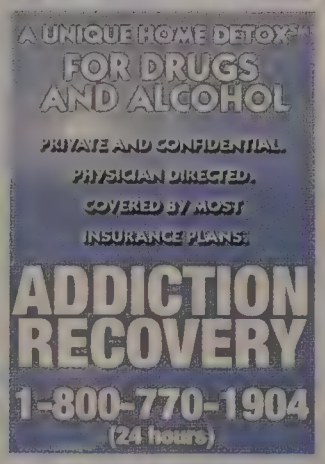
PersonalsBoston.com provides a safe, private, and convenient service for Boston singles that are sincerely interested in finding someone special.

Join Today For A FREE 30-Day Trial Membership!

www.personalsboston.com

PERMANENT COSMETICS

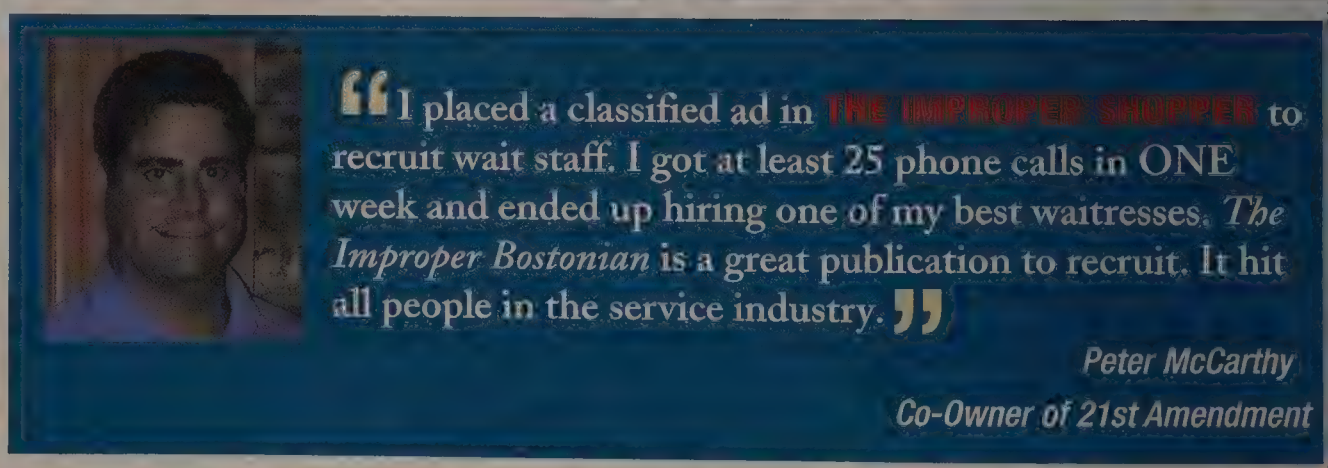
PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE



PSYCHIC

READINGS BY MICHAEL LAFFERTY

Private and personal phone readings. Credit cards accepted. 215-482-6517.



IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

WANTED:

Account Executive

The ideal opportunity for an accomplished business-to-business sales rep to break into a career in media and magazine publishing. Strong organizational, planning, written and verbal skills are a must. Join a great team!

Classified Account Executive

The Improper Bostonian is looking for a self-motivated "Bostonian" with a great attitude and a lot of energy. Sales experience a plus, but not necessary.

Send Resumes to:
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Attn: Robyn Sarkisian
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor, Boston, MA 02116 or email: Robyn@improper.com No phone calls please.

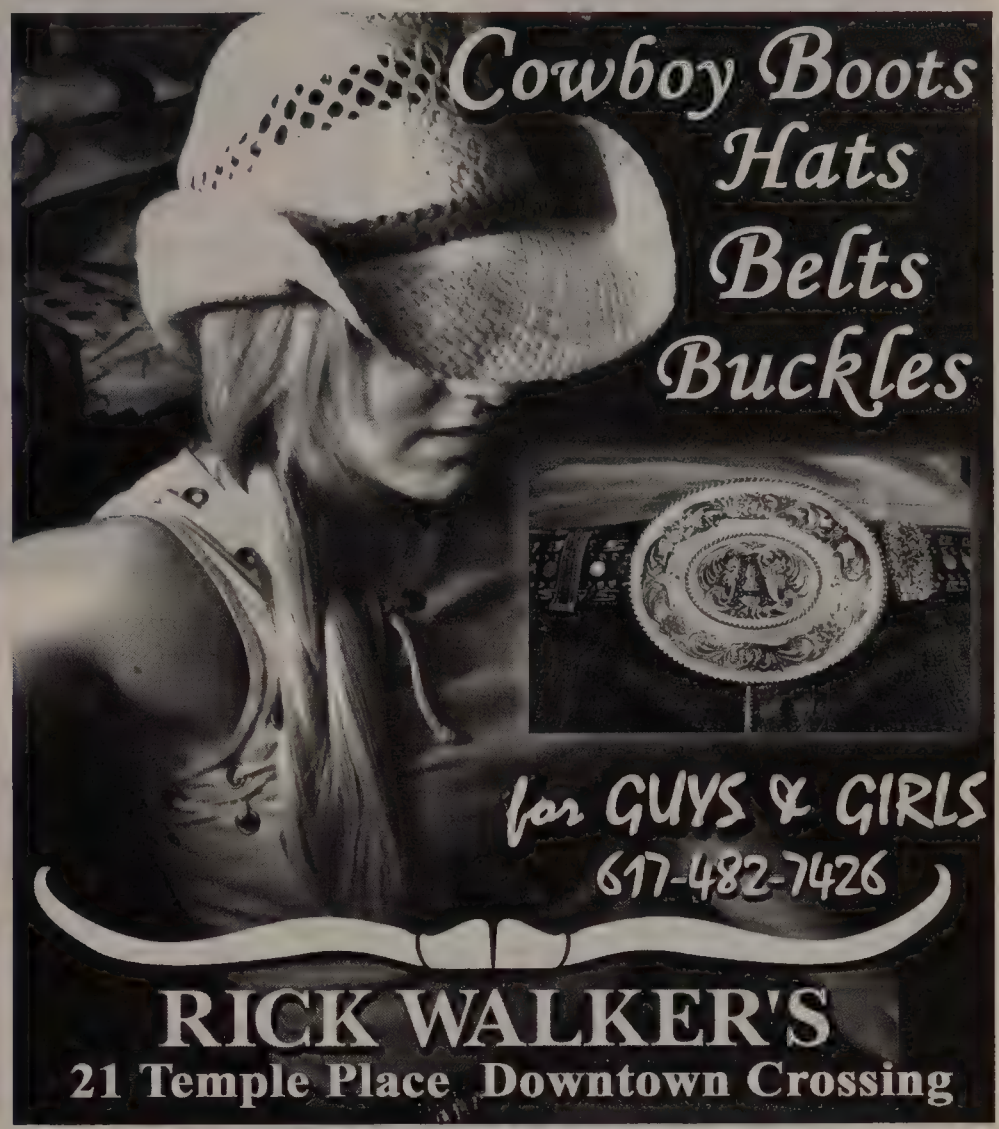
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE



HUGE NEW SHIPMENT OF BLUE BLAZERS & SPRING SPORTS COATS GREAT SELECTION AND BIG DISCOUNTS!

Winner of Best of Boston Award

KEEZER'S
CLASSIC CLOTHING SINCE 1895

When you have an event, think Keezer's!
We have great deals on new and resale men's wear and

TUXEDOS · TUXEDOS · TUXEDOS

Quality, selection and price at Keezer's since 1895
Great For Formals, Weddings, Proms, Bar Mitzvahs

KEEZER'S CLASSIC CLOTHING SINCE 1895

140 River Street, Central Square, Cambridge
617.547.2455 Mon.-Sat. 10-6
Free Parking www.keezers.com

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

At the Celebrity Series performance, top row: The dessert buffet. Bottom row: Ellen and Arnold Zetcher; Mark Morris; Louis Mula.

AND THEY DON'T LOOK A DAY OVER 20...

Apparently, 1981 was a very good year. That's when the Mark Morris Dance Group was formed, and to mark its 25th anniversary, the Bank of America Celebrity Series and the Wang Center hosted a blowout worthy of the occasion.

The evening began with an elegant cocktail reception and dinner in the lobby, followed by a performance of L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato, and then a champagne/dessert reception and cast party.

Present and accounted for: the very fashion-forward Ellen Zetcher and her husband, Talbot's CEO Arnold, arts patrons Joanne and Charles Dickinson, Commonwealth Shakespeare hottie Steven Maler, attorney and cut-up Kathryn Joyce, über-philanthropist Bill Poduska, Boston's answer to Auntie Mame, Doris Yaffe, Wang jefe Joe Spaulding with the delectable Joyce (sporting a deep tan from Hobe Sound), literary agent/raconteur Ike Williams and his son, Caleb, ICA head honcha Jill Medvedow, the beyond-fabulous Judy and Douglas Krupp, and one woman who sheepishly said at the cast party, "I've rubbed up against so many hot male bodies tonight... and I don't even have to apologize."

However, the most amusing remark came from the woman who admiringly described one of the other socialites there by saying, "She was in Paris once, and called the son of a friend to ask him to lunch. He said, 'Sure, but all I ever wear is jeans.' And she said, 'That's okay. All I ever wear is Ungaro.'"

WONDERING ABOUT THAT SUDDEN SPIKE IN HAIRSPRAY SALES?

How do you follow up such headliners as Ziggy Marley, Meatloaf and the B-52s? Amazingly enough, Big Night, a fundraiser for Big Brothers, always manages to top the year before.

As wild and uninhibited as most galas are buttoned up, it was held at the cavernous new Convention Center, which was transformed into CBGB circa 1983. A four-course feast prepared by such top-flight talent as Angela and Seth Raynor of Nantucket's Boarding House and the Pearl and Ana Sortun of Oleana was a mere preamble to a kick-ass concert by Blondie and Cheap Trick, while guests took the dress code to heart, decking themselves out like such '80s icons as Johnny Rotten, Madonna, Jon Bon Jovi and the black-clad, guitar-playing girls from the Robert Palmer videos.

Prominent among the throng: Tudor Investments gajillionaire Jim Pallotta and the stunning Kim, the exquisite Paulina Neely and her hockey-hero husband, Cam, giant-hearted comedian Lenny Clarke, hotelier/developer Robin Brown and the luscious Marcia, succulent young things Courtney and Michael Forrester, man-about-town Alex Zecca, the staggeringly fabulous Maggie Gold-Seelig and her other half, Jonathan, Springsteen lookalike J.K. Nicholas and the flawless Virginia, Lt. Gov. Kerry Healey, the hale and hearty Marty Mannion, and at least one authentic '80s rock star: J. Geils frontman Peter Wolf.

It's tough to say which was better, the food or the entertainment, which kept everyone running back and forth from their tables to the dance floor, but one thing was abundantly clear: The days of all-night partying are over for most of the guests.

As one person put it: "If this was really the '80s, I'd be in the bathroom, snorting coke or draped over the toilet. Instead, I'm looking at my watch and trying to remember what time I told the baby-sitter we'd be home."

At the Friends of Spinazzola Grand Benefit Dinner, top row: Billy Meara and Cristina Nardozzi; Marjorie Clapprood and Ernie Boch, Jr. Bottom row: Ming Tsai and Michael Schlow; Amit and Nidhi Handa.

CAN YOU SAY, "TAX WRITE-OFF"?

Some parties are of such Biblical proportions that they require a pre-party as epic as most main events, and such is the case with the Anthony Spinazzola Foundation Gala.

The night before several thousand hungry revelers descended on the World Trade Center to sample food and wine from hundreds of the world's best vineyards and chefs, The Four Seasons hosted the Friends of Spinazzola Grand Benefit Dinner, a black-tie bacchanal that began with champagne and hors d'ouevres in the kitchen (where guests donned the chef jackets they received as a party favor) and continued with a seven-course dinner prepared by such giants of gastronomy as Eric Ripert of Le Bernardin, Cornelius Gallagher of Oceana, Roberto Donna of Galileo, Carrie Nahabedian of NAHA, Aaron Sanchez of Paladar and Centrico, Scott Conant of Alto and L'Impero, and Sam Mason of wd~50.

On hand for the festivities were such plutocrats and players as bling purveyors Amit and Nidhi Handa of Alpha Omega, car czar Ernie Boch, Jr. and the gorgeous Kristen, mega-philanthropists Joan and Ted Cutler, Channel 5 glamazon Susan Wornick, foundation head Chris Spinazzola and his wacky wife Marjorie Clapprood, celebrity chef Ming Tsai and Michael Schlow, bright young thing Billy Meara, and one woman who said, "I was going to Canyon Ranch and my husband asked if he could come. I told him, 'No! You're what I'm trying to get away from.'"

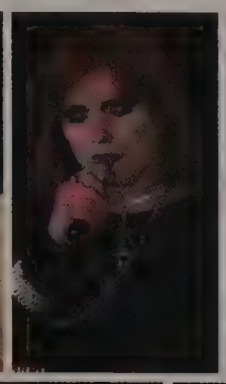
Needless to say, each dish was paired with an exquisite wine and each course was more delicious than the last. By the time dessert was served, everyone was pounding the mat, but not before a lively auction that netted beaucoup dinero for the cause—including a cool $100,000 for dinner for 20 prepared by the guest chef which was bought by a group from Tudor Investments crew.

During the bidding, the bons mots flew fast and furious, among them:

Auctioneer Susan Wornick egging the crowd on by saying, "C'mon! Parking costs $1,300 in Boston," while Marjorie Clapprood tried to shame Boch into upping his $40,000 bid by saying, "Ernie, that's like two Toyotas."

However, the evening's wittiest remark came after an opening bid of $20,000 was given for the chef's dinner.

"Michael Schlow and Ming Tsai will serve as waiters!" offered the auctioneer, to which someone responded, "OK. Then I bid $15,000." IB



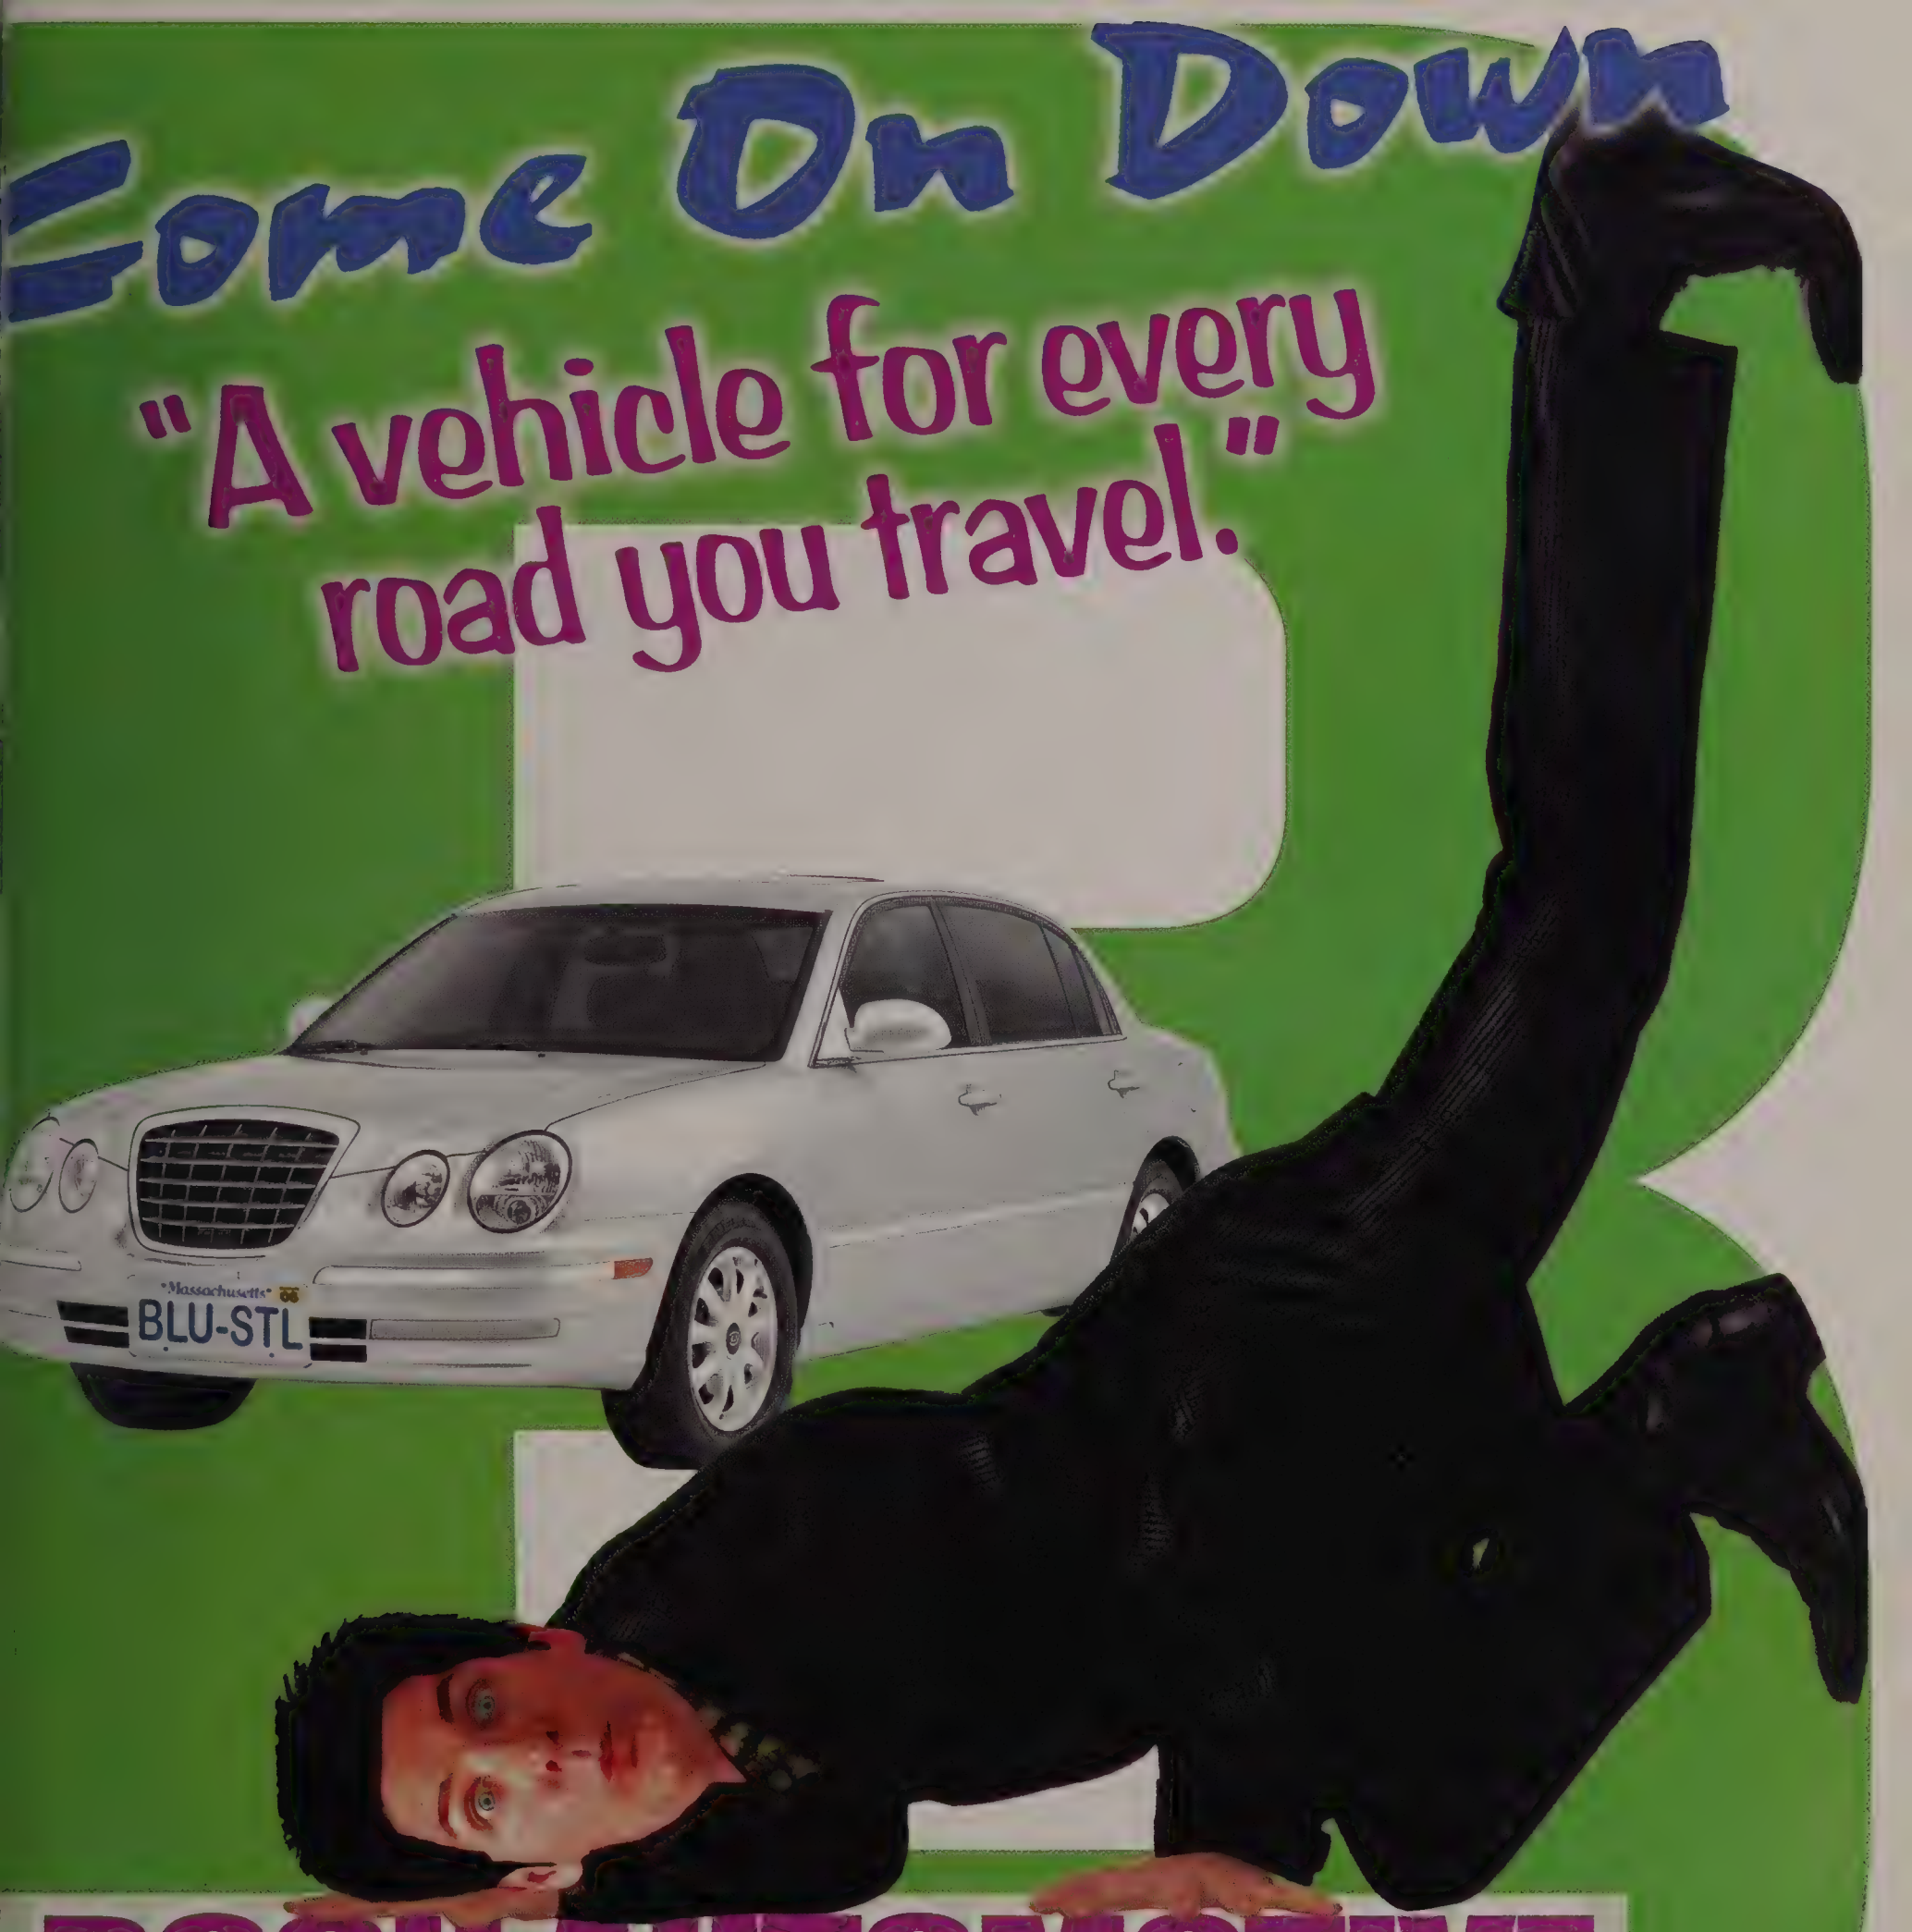
At Big Night, top row: J.K. Nicholas; Blondie. Bottom row: Peter Wolf, and Paulina and Cam Neely; Michael Forrester; Lt. Gov. Kerry Healey.

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion? Call J.S. at 859-1400, ext. 303, or e-mail jonathan@improper.com.

Come On Down

"A vehicle for every road you travel."



BOCH AUTOMOTIVE

NEW to YOU

781-769-8100 781-769-8100 781-619-6000 781-762-7200 781-440-0004 781-762-9110

"On the Automile" Route 1, Norwood, MA Boch.com

IMPORTED
BOMBAY
SAPPHIRE Distilled
LONDON
DRY GIN
Distilled from 100%
Grain Neutral Spirit
DOUBLE MARTINI
BOMBAY SAPPHIRE
INSPIRA

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

METRO BOSTON'S PLUCKY GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND COMIC CUTIES

DATING

WILL BOYS EVER GROW UP?

HOW TO KEEP THE ROMANCE ALIVE

OVER-THE-TOP TIPS FOR MEETING PEOPLE

REAL BOSTON LOVE STORIES

+

SPRING COATS WITH SEX APPEAL

GNL'S

RACHEL DRATCH

OW DO WE LOVE HER? LET US COUNT THE WAYS.

MARCH 8–21, 2006

$2.50 OUTSIDE OF METRO BOSTON

0 74470 79832 3 20

www.improp

Of course it tastes better than other beers. We've had over 600 years to get the recipe right. Our esteemed brewery has been producing beer in Leuven since 1366. Which means we've been around a bit than most. Mind you, over the years our beer has witnessed the odd change or two. For instance, our customers no longer drink it to ward off the Plague, as they used to in medieval times. However, one thing has kept the same after all these years. Stella Artois is still painstakingly brewed in a time-honored tradition with the choicest ingredients. Which is why our customers have kept coming back for more, even after 600 years

ANNO 1366
STELLA ARTOIS

Perfection has its price.

LEATHER DAYS

March 18th thru 28th

10 days of very attractive prices on the entire Roche Bobois leather collection.
Come in and discover the Roche Bobois savoir-faire!

rochebobois®
PARIS

BOSTON: 585 Commercial Street Boston MA 02109 Tel 617.742.9611 / Store Hours: Mon. - Sat. 10:00am to 6:00pm
NATICK 579 Worcester Road Natick MA 01760 Tel 508.650.5844 / Store Hours: Tus. - Fri. 10:00am to 7:00pm / Sat. 10:00am to 6:00pm / Sun. Noon to 5:00pm
COMING SOON New showroom located at the new Ritz Carlton Towers 601 Washington Street Boston

* Not to be used in conjunction with any other promotional offer and does not apply to prior orders. Bring this ad and receive $150 off delivery fees.

www.roche-bobois.com

contents

MARCH 8–21, 2006

PETER TANNENBAUM

FEATURES

22 SOROFF/ON RACHEL DRATCH
The Lexington-native and Saturday Night Live star talks about Boston accents, cracking up with Lindsay Lohan and the definition of "Dratchalicious."
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

24 A MORE PERFECT UNION
Dating shouldn't end when the relationship gets serious. Here are a few suggestions for keeping the love flowing.
BY LINDA LABAN

28 THE DAREDEVIL'S GUIDE TO MEETING PEOPLE
If you want to get your new crush's attention, give these stunts a try—but do so at your own risk.
BY SAM WALTERS

30 TALES FROM CUPID'S QUIVER
How do you know when it's love? We can't tell ya, but these people can.
BY ADAM STARLING

32 BOYZ 2 MEN
We chart the evolution of three men in the dating game, from 23 and clueless to 28 and only relatively clueless.
BY EZRA DYER

36 DARK AND STORMY
With this outerwear, there'll be no need to run for cover this spring.
BY WALLING AND MCGARITY

Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by
Kerry Brett Hurley

Photographer's assistant: Bridget Harris; white tank: Old Navy; blue tank, earrings, ring: Lord & Taylor; bracelet: Gerard Yosca

COLUMNS

8 THE WORD
Lineage; barbershops; five-dollar pizzas.

14 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured.
BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

16 EZRA
High-class tales from the charity circuit.
BY EZRA DYER

18 THE COLLINS CARD
Going cuckoo for Coco Crisp.
BY CHRIS COLLINS

20 THE DANCE
The perils of dating rich.
BY JOHN D. SPOONER

42 MOPSY
The Garment District and Clothes by the Pound; Boyos; Hayden-Wilder.
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

56 MOVIES
South Africa's Tsotsi's worthy of its Oscar nod.
BY PAUL SHERMAN

61 MUSIC
Magic Numbers' hippies hit it big.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

92 LAST SCENE HERE
Our Man in Black Tie gets down with the King at Tomorrownite.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT.DRINK.

44 DINING
Central Square's Rendezvous is worth getting together for.
BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI

46 TASTINGS
Cooking for a Cure and other tasty tidbits.
BY RICH LEVINE

47 DISH
A barbecue's brewin' in Allston.
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

48 WINE
Riesling should be all the rage.
BY SANDY BLOCK, M.W.

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from the Calendar Gurus, Leslie and Rich.
Complete listings follow page 51.
Dilated Peoples • One Muslim. One Jew. One Stage. • St. Patrick's Day Celebrations • transModa • A Night at the Rock Opera

ET CETERA

Letters 4
Rockie Horoscope 8
Improper Impersonals 8
Improper Sightings 8

Guaranteed Rate Base 85,000 biweekly;
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XV, ISSUE 5

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by Improper Publications Inc.

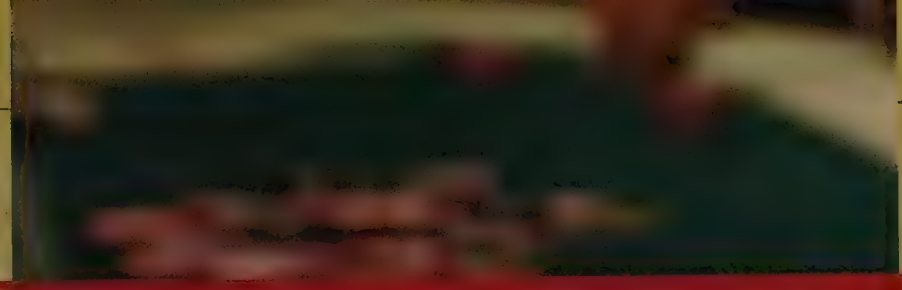
POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE



Announcing the Foxwoods Poker Classic.

An event so big and exciting it's on this year's World Poker Tour.

FOXWOODS POKER™ CLASSIC
MARCH 27–APRIL 9, 2006

Foxwoods is proud to bring you the hottest, new event on the 2006 World Poker Tour. The Foxwoods Poker Classic. With top professional and amateur players, it will have all the excitement of the World Poker Finals.* And with easy buy-in to Satellite events, it's guaranteed to be exciting and challenging for everyone. Don't miss one minute of the thrills, call 800-48POKER or log on to foxwoods.com for tournament schedule.

- The only poker room in Connecticut
- Daily Satellite events now through April 5
- Foxwoods Poker Classic March 27- April 9
- WPT filming the Final Table April 9th, public invited

*2005 World Poker Finals $10,000 No Limit Texas Hold 'em prize pool totaled $7,855,000.
First prize for this event was $2,167,5000

FOXWOODS® RESORT CASINO
Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation

Foxwoods is conveniently located off I-95 at Exit 92 (Rt. 2) in southeast Connecticut. For more information, call 1-800-48POKER or visit our website at www.foxwoods.com

WORLD POKER TOUR

On the road from Belfast is seen
Four cows all the color of green,
Who give us this day
For the Leprechaun Latte
The brilliantly green whipped cream.

'Tis the LEGEND
o' the LEPRECHAUN LATTE

jumpstart
CONNECT EARLY

For each Leprechaun Latte sold, we'll donate 25¢ to Jumpstart, an innovative skills-building program for pre-schoolers that teaches reading and social skills. Learn more at jstart.org.

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

FOOTLOOSE

Most of us here at the IMPROPER are right there in the trenches with you on the battlefield of dating. We've misguidedly sought true love with egomaniacs, prisses, bores, liars and mama's boys. And in the face of all this romantic failure, we've learned one thing: You've got to keep your sense of humor about the single life.

So two of the feature stories in our third annual dating issue take a tongue-in-cheek approach to the topic. Sam Walters' "Daredevil's Guide to Meeting People," offers eccentric ideas for snagging a date, while Ezra Dyer's "Boyz 2 Men" analyzes real e-mails about the cringeworthy love adventures of 20-something males.

To give you hope, Adam Starling sought out sweet stories from Bostonians who've found the real thing. And for the lucky ones who've paired off, Linda Laban has practical tips for keeping the sizzle.

Veronica Chao

VERONICA CHAO, Editor
veronica@improper.com

UNIMPRESSED

Was it my imagination or did I read an implied request for the Boston population to be impressed by a Boston native who is a successful restaurateur and whose father is a major player in the restaurant industry ("20 Boston Singles," Feb. 8)? I found this theme apparent in a couple of bios. Perhaps the next issue could focus on people who don't have serious backing, or who are making a significant difference in the world through humanitarian ventures.

—H. ESTIA
Boston

GREEN GRIPES

I'm a very disillusioned Celtics fan who's had expensive midcourt seats for about 30 years, and each time I go to a game, I feel as though Danny Ainge is mugging me for $300. Please continue to address the issue of the Celtics ("That's Rich," Feb. 22) instead of continually writing about the Red Sox both in and out of season like so many other sportswriters. I look forward to Rich Levine's next article.

—GEORGE B. RESERVITZ
Cambridge

LOWELL'S LOVERBOY

Having recovered from Jonathan Soroff's naked yoga (Jan. 11), I did an impromptu survey on his interview with Steve Santagati ("Soroff/On," Feb. 8). Here are the results. Joe said, "A 10-year-old getting a 16-year-old to flash him is amazing! I'm ready to live my life through this guy!" Aysen said, "He's a dog!" Tamar said, "Cocky and clueless." Yvette said, "He's hot. What's his number?" Nick said, "His philosophy on women is tired and used, and like his face, it needs Botox!" And finally, because Steve is from Lowell, I say he should inspire a new town slogan: "Lowell, birthplace of the geriatric gigolo who can darn well grease anyone or anything."

—ROCKY BOB
Lowell

CONTRIBUTOR

GRAHAM ROUMIEU

Writer and illustrator Graham Roumieu is a Toronto native whose most recent book, Me Write Book: It Bigfoot Memoir, is what he describes as the "best fake autobiography of Bigfoot published in the last decade." His illustrations have appeared in The New York Times, Harper's, The Boston Globe, Paper, The Wall Street Journal and other publications. His first illustration for the IMPROPER can be seen on page 28.

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

HEALTHWORKS
FITNESS CENTERS FOR WOMEN

move.

Part mind, part body, all gym – entirely for women.

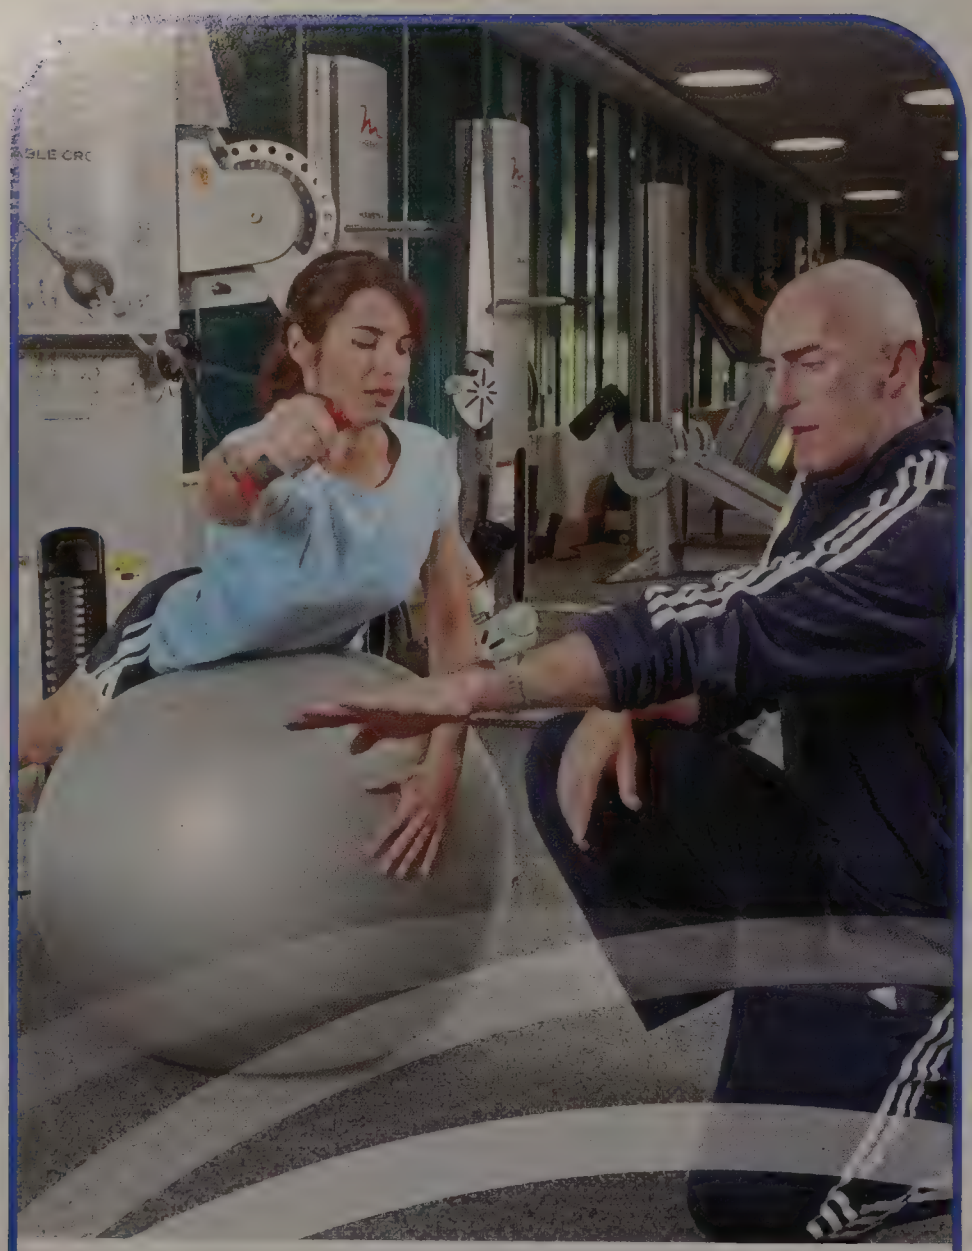
Back Bay · Brookline · Cambridge · Chestnut Hill · Salem

www.healthworksfitness.com
www.healthworksfoundation.org



TRAIN TO ACHIEVE

Focus Fitness is an innovative Health Club offering an environment that will enable you to succeed in the most important game you can train for: life.

Let our staff of expert fitness professionals shift your focus from someday to today.

FOCUS FITNESS

303 Congress St • Boston, Ma 02210
T 617.951.2900 • focusfitnessboston.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian

EDITOR Veronica Chao

MANAGING EDITOR Erin Graham

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

FEATURE WRITER/COLUMNIST Ezra Dyer

ASSISTANT EDITORS Leslie Kilgore, Rich Levine

COPYEDITORS Nathaniel Adams, Linh Tran

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Chris Collins, Carolyn Faye Fox, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, Laurel Kirtz, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, Paul Sherman, John D. Spooner

EDITORIAL INTERNS Jenny Amaral, Jaclyn Biederman, Casey Dunphy, Michelle McAuley Courtney McClellan, Paola Moll, Cristina Velocci

ART DIRECTOR Carolyn Bowes

PHOTO EDITOR Katie Noble

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett Hurley

PHOTO INTERNS Lindsay Maiorana, Brittany Oldham

FASHION & BEAUTY EDITOR Samantha House

FASHION & BEAUTY ASSISTANT Douglas Wright

NEW-BUSINESS DIRECTOR Julie Kane

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGERS Dana D'Alfonso, Alison Morant, Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Bill Eppich, Georganna Yessaian

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Jessica Federico

ADVERTISING ART DIRECTOR Julie Betters

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING Stacey Shane

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Amanda Arkins, Auric Mak, James Nelson Mayra Rivera, Badr Wahman

TRAFFIC MANAGER Merinda Pattullo

V.P. ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE Arthur Souza

GENERAL MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian Miller

OFFICE MANAGER Gretchen Bostrom

SALES ASSISTANT/RECEPTIONIST Nicole Zoto

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400 Fax: 617-859-1446
E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc. Copyright©2006 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member

Audit Bureau of Circulations

Come On Down

"A vehicle for every road you travel."

BOCH AUTOMOTIVE

781-769-8100 781-769-8100 781-619-6000 781-762-7200 781-440-0004 781-762-9110

"On the Automile" Route 1, Norwood, MA Boch.com

THE WORD

EDITED BY ERIN GRAHAM

Flourless chocolate cake with dried-cranberry ragout and blood orange syrup

Cod cheeks

NEW IN TOWN

Heritage Foundation

Coolidge Corner's culinary cachet got a big boost a few weeks ago when Lineage opened its doors on Feb. 25. The trendy Brookline area already boasts about 40 restaurants, but none with the same éclat that Jeremy Sewall, former executive chef of Great Bay, brings to the table.

Long before the space (formerly Lucy's) became available, Sewall had been searching for the right opportunity to go solo. But despite his years of planning, Sewall was stumped when it came time to christen the venture. "It was easier to name my children than my restaurant," he jokes. In the end, though, "Lineage" fell into his lap. "I had a working knowledge of my family history, and I knew Judge Samuel Sewall was a kind of uncle of mine who was involved with the witch trials. But I didn't know his connection to Brookline until I signed the lease." When he and his wife, Lisa, who's also the pastry chef, spotted Sewall Avenue across the street, they did some research. Turns out, Jeremy's ancestors owned most of what's now Brookline.

Spare but not bare, Lineage's warm, 75-seat interior looks much like it did in the days of Lucy's: calming and simple, with a giant wood-burning oven visible behind the bar. The simple, one-page menu of modern American fare includes 11 starters and eight entrées. Great Bay devotees will be happy that there's a fair amount of seafood on the menu, like a tasty tuna tartare with sesame, chive, cucumber and red onion ($13) and six Island Creek oysters with cocktail sauce and mignonette ($13) for apps, and entrées like day boat sea scallops with green lentils, celery root purée and truffle vinaigrette ($26).

"I want there to be recognizable ingredients, done in an interesting way," says Sewall of his menu philosophy. "Cod cheeks is one of the more adventurous menu items, but it has simple ingredients: braised cod cheeks with chorizo, oregano and golden raisins." Non-fishy entrées include pork porterhouse with organic white grits (a Sewall specialty) for $23 and potato gnocchi for $17.

While Lineage is sure to draw a destination-dining crowd from the city, locals looking for close-by afternoon noshing will appreciate the Sunday brunch. It was literally an 11th-hour affair: Sewall came up with the brunch menu at 11 pm on his first Saturday night open. A day of rest was a late addition too. "I was planning on staying open seven days, but Ming Tsai convinced me I had to take a day off to recharge. So I'm closed Monday. We'll spend some time with our boys." 242 Harvard St., Brookline (617-232-0065). —EG

INNERVIEW

R.J. Cutler

Harvard grad and documentary filmmaker R.J. Cutler first made a name for himself with The War Room, about Bill Clinton's 1992 presidential campaign. Since then, he's produced several acclaimed documentaries and TV programs, including the reality series American High and 30 Days. His new project, a six-part series he coproduced with Ice Cube called Black.White, highlights the experiences of a white and a black family who live together, and who, courtesy of professional makeup artists, exchange skin colors in the outside world. It premieres March 8 on FX.

Improper Bostonian: Tell us about Black.White.

R.J. Cutler: John Langraf from the FX network came to me a few years ago and asked if it was possible for me to do a show that involved racial issues, and I came up with the idea to do it with two families, one white and one black, both with teenagers, both progressively minded, living together, who exchange identities in the outside world. Then we got the makeup artist Keith Fanderland involved to see if it was possible.

IB: How did the idea come about?

RC: Race is a central issue in America, but one that's swept under the carpet. We had a fertile landscape to explore with a topic that we all should be addressing more.

IB: What were the biggest surprises?

RC: Every moment was a surprise, but perhaps the biggest one was how difficult it was for the white and black families to see through each other's eyes. I didn't expect it to be so hard. It was an intense process—a six-week period for two families, not in their own homes, confronting limitations and talking about race.

IB: How did Ice Cube get involved?

RC: I asked him to partner with me as executive producer. He said if the makeup worked, he was in. I wanted an African-American perspective. He's a great storyteller of the African-American experience, and he wrote the theme song and did a music video for the show.

IB: What's next?

RC: Another season of 30 Days this summer on FX, and the film Thin, which I produced, is on HBO in November.

—Leslie Kilgore

MAYBE IT'S BECAUSE
NOSTRADAMUS DRANK IT.
OR PREDICTED IT.
OR PREDICTED HE'D DRINK IT.

THEN AGAIN...

IT COULD JUST BE THE TASTE.

TASTY TIDBITS

Filling up for Five

Sorriso Trattoria's $5 pie

Pizza for the People... When did pizza become so expensive? Once upon a time you could score a slice using just the spare change rolling around in your pocket. But nowadays a piece of pizza can easily top out at $4. So it was a breath of fresh air when we heard about a new deal going on over at Sorriso Trattoria. Every Monday from 5-9 pm, owner Ian Just offers up single 12-inch pies for only $5 each. And we're not talking plain cheese or pepperoni. Diners can go gourmet with options like white clam and garlic or grilled chicken with rosemary—all for about the same amount you spent on this morning's jumbo latte. 107 South St., Boston (617-259-1560).

Dinner and a Movie... Taking in a flick while you take down some dinner is never a bad way to spend a Tuesday night at home, but we've got another option for you: Mike's Movie Night at Sister Sorel on Tremont Street in the South End. Each Tuesday night at 8 pm, Sister Sorel screens a movie at the bar (past films include The Big Lebowski, Zoolander and Stuck On You), provided by video store Mike's Movies. During the show, you can snack on free popcorn or order dinner off the menu at Sister Sorel or neighboring Tremont 647. No dirty dishes to wash, no late fee, no problem. 645 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-4600).

Steakhouse Express... G'Vanni's Steakhouse, which opened last month on North Washington Street (right around the corner from TD Banknorth Garden), doesn't want you to worry about finding parking in the crowded North End, flagging down a cab or even walking in the cold. They'd rather you pick up the phone, kick back and prepare to enjoy your meal. The steak spot now offers a luxury sedan service that provides a complimentary round trip from your apartment, home or office for diners living in Cambridge, Charlestown, Southie or Boston. No word yet, however, on whether the driver will carry you out of the car and tuck you into bed once that steak-induced com kicks in. 111 North Washington St., Boston (617-742-2998).

Big Bucks for a Bite... Late last month, the list-obsessed folks over at Forbes cam out with their lineup of the U.S.'s Most Expensive Restaurants for 2005, and wouldn you know, one of Boston's own nearly cracked the Top 10. L'Espalier on Glouceste Street in the Back Bay came in at No. 11, with a total cost (representing the estimate price of dinner, with one drink and excluding tip) of $84 per person. And while tha can't hold a candle to NYC's Masa, which seats 38 diners a night at about $365 a head it sure takes Dallas' French Room (at a paltry $77 a person) to task. Take that, Dallas! —Rich Levine

SAM SAYS

Powder Power

For those of you who haven't heard of Bumble and bumble's revolutionary hair powder, you escaped the feeling of devastation when they stopped making it last fall. The concept dates back to the '40s, when women began using powder on the roots of their hair to absorb excess oil and keep hair looking clean. Nowadays, people wash their hair too frequently, stripping away the natural oils that keep locks healthy and shiny. Re-enter hair powder. Added bonuses of Bumble's product: It makes your hair appear thicker, and because it comes in various shades, it helps disguise unsightly roots in-between dye-jobs. It also gives you that Guess Jeans–model look (full and sexy) if you use enough of it. Turns out that the reason Bumble and bumble stopped making the product was to revamp the nozzle to make it easier to apply and to refine the formula a bit. So get out there and try it—you've been given a second chance. $34 for 4 ounces; $19 for 1 ounce Umi, 75 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0770). —Samantha House

DROPPING HINTS 101

1. Cut this out.

2. Check your favorite.

3. Leave under his pillow.

4. Long's will take care of the rest.

My favorite ring is checked below. ✓

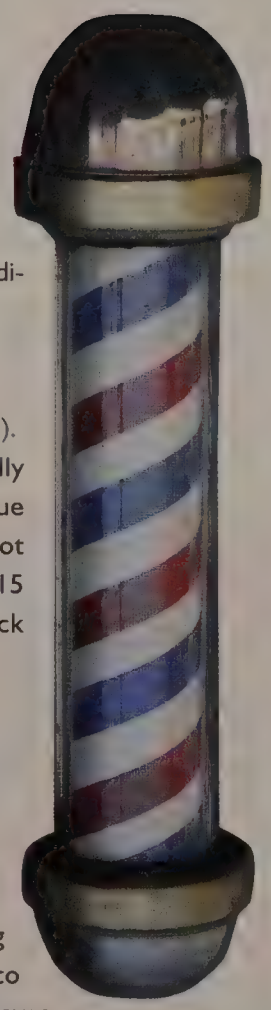
Long's
Fine Jewelers Since 1878

BOSTON: 100 SUMMER STREET • 617.426.8500
PEABODY: NEW LOCATION - 35 CROSS STREET - UP THE HILL FROM ROUTE 114
BRAINTREE • BURLINGTON • NASHUA • NEWINGTON
WWW.LONGSJEWELERS.COM

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
ENGAGEMENT RINGS

IMPROPER REPORTS

Back to Barbershops



Feeling more old-school barbershop than swank salon? When you want a simple trim, check out one of these traditional barbershops.

Berkeley Barber Shop

86 Berkeley St., Boston (617-338-9641).

For a taste of nostalgia, this friendly neighborhood shop features antique barber chairs, straight razors and hot shaving cream and towels. Cuts are $15 and include a free back-of-the-neck shave.

Court Square Styling Shop

15 Court Square, Boston (617-523-7755).

Arthur Puopolo has owned and operated Court Square Styling Shop for 32 years and pampers customers, serving espresso and playing classical music to help them relax. Cuts cost $16 and shaves are $10.

Cut N Edge

410 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-867-9200).

Catering to some of our favorite Red Sox, such as Manny Ramirez and John Olerud, along with various Celtics and Patriots, Cut N Edge has been open only since 2003, but it offers old-school prices, with cuts ranging from $13 to $17 and shaves from $8 to $10.

Johnny & Gino Hairstyling

430 Hanover St. #1, Boston (617-227-8114).

This North End shop's been owned and operated by best friends Johnny and Gino for more than 25 years. The space is known as a neighborhood meeting spot, and the owners specialize in cuts from $14 to $20.

Moreno Barber Shop

405 Meridian St., Boston (617-567-6003).

With Latin music keeping the atmosphere lively, Moreno provides a welcoming environment with a bilingual staff. A basic cut is $12, shaves are $7 and a cut-and-shave combo is $15.

Pietro's Park Plaza Unisex

64 Arlington St., Boston (617-338-9254).

In business for the past 60 years, Pietro Galluzzo has made a name for himself with his warm shaving cream, a sharp razor and hot towels. Galluzzo specializes in providing customers, including Sen. Ted Kennedy, with a traditional cut and shave for $20 each.

—Paola Moll

IMPROPER SPEAKING

SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTIO

Luxury at Its Best... Come early May, fashionistas will hail the arrival of a new Valentino boutique at the corner of Berkeley and Newbury streets in the space that was Milano's Italian Kitchen. As the seventh Valentino store in the U.S., it'll boast 3,000 square feet of women's apparel, from skirt and pant suits, cocktail dresses, and evening dresses to blouses and tops, handbags, shoes and accessories. Decked out with mirrors and limestone juxtaposed against dark oak shelving, the space is modeled after the company's newest boutique in Costa Mesa, Calif. 47 Newbury St., Boston.

Out on the Streets... Aleko Ligouris, a former nightclub promoter, used to be a regular at the Concepts skate shop in Cambridge. Now, Ligouris has teamed up with a former Concepts manager, Spungie, to bring Boston a new concept in skate and snowboard boutiques with Laced. Ligouris hopes the shop will fill a void in Boston by selling merchandise that combines top-of-the-line skate and snowboard gear with urban street wear. High-end denim brands such as PRPS and People's Liberation, along with street wear by BBC and Orchard Street, hang next to skate and snowboard gear by DVS, Lakai, Burton, Rome and Nitro. A self-described "sneaker-head," Ligouris says his shoe collection, which includes samples from the coveted DC shoe line and limited edition Adidas, is one of his shop's main draws. 569 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-5223). www.laced boston.com.

Nikki and Jade of World Women's Wrestling in Somerville

Recipe Royalty... Start throwing a nickname like Meatball Man around town, and there's a good chance you'll piss some people off, but we're willing to bet that Frank Imbergamo would be proud to accept the moniker. The Medford resident and author of The Good Life! Favorite Italian Recipes was recently featured on the Food Network's Emeril Live after his recipe for "Frankie's Gravy and Meatballs" was chosen out of 1,500 entries as a winner in Emeril's Italian recipe contest. As a result, Imbergamo and his wife were flown to NYC on Feb. 15 and appeared live on the show as Emeril prepared recipes by Frank and three other winners. The Good Life! includes the recipe and is available at www.allthingssicilian.com for $15.

Hulk Hoganette... Could Boston be a new mecca for professional women wrestlers? It will be if New England Championship Wrestling (NECW) owner Sheldon Goldberg has his way. His new venture in Somerville, the World Women's Wrestling (WWW) organization, promotes professionally trained female wrestlers and sets them up to compete like the big boys in six events over the course of 2006. "It gives the girls a chance to shine," Goldberg says. The next competition takes place May 7 at Good Times in Somerville. 30 Assembly Square Drive, Somerville (617-628-5559). www.necwwrestling.com.

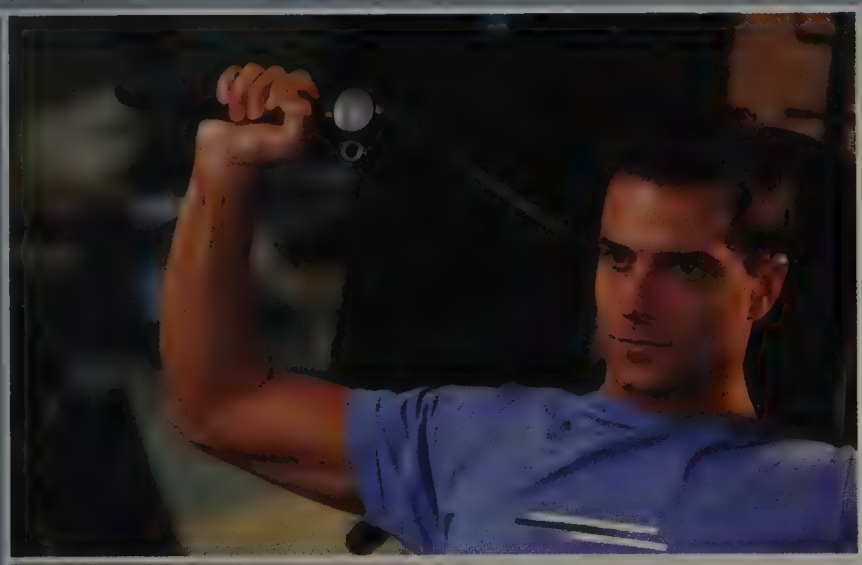
—LPK and RL

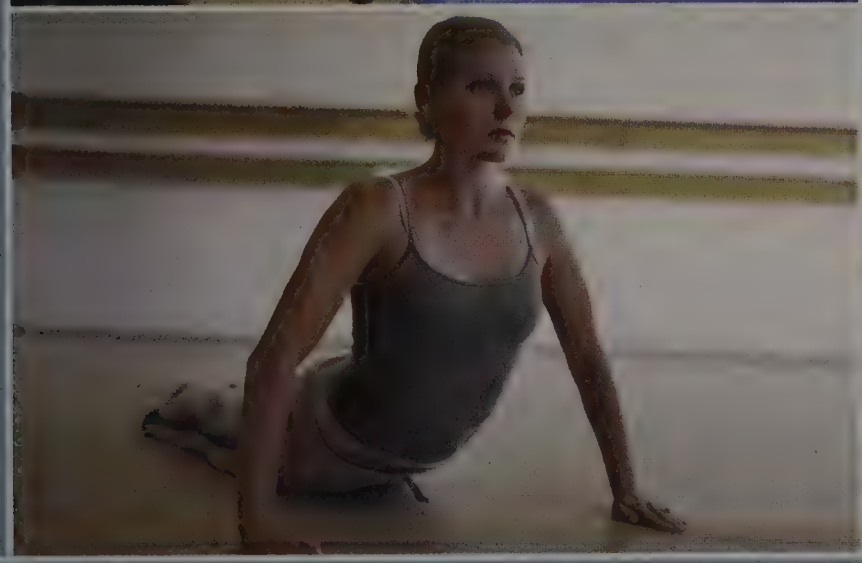
Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy news? Let us know what it is. Send an e-mail to theword@improper.com.

It's Our 14th Anniversary

Celebrate With Us

Join For $14 Enrollment





Enjoy 3 Days Of Guest Access

When You Join By March 21*

No Lines For Cardio Equipment • Mind/Body Studio
50+ Complimentary Group Exercise Classes Weekly • Indoor Pool
Full Amenity Locker Rooms • Monthly Social Events Discounted Couples And Student Memberships

WELLBRIDGE
ATHLETIC CLUB
www.WellbridgeAC.com

Charles Square
617.441.0800
5 Bennett Street, Cambridge

Commonwealth
617.254.1711
1079 Commonwealth Ave, Boston

Newton
617.928.2000
135 Wells Avenue, Newton

*may apply. Amenities vary by club. Must be local resident, age 18 and over with valid photo ID. One pass per person. First time guests only. Pass and offer expire March 21, 2006. ©2006 Wellbridge

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

The David Hockney Portraits opening reception took place Friday, Feb. 17, at the Museum of Fine Arts. More than 1,000 guests, including some of the people depicted in Hockney's works, gathered together at the first exhibition devoted to his 50 years as an artist. Partygoers viewed the famous paintings and heard a performance by the Boston Gay Men's Chorus.

1. Tom Levine, his brother, James, musi director of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, David Hockney, and Malcolm Rogers, director of the Museum of Fine Arts
2. Sarah Howgaty, cocurator for the National Portrait Gallery in London, and artists Maurice Payne and Jenny Gorman
3. Joni Moisant Weyl, art dealer, and Sidney Felsen, publisher and owner o Gemini G.E.L. in NYC
4. Heather Rankin and her father, John Rankin, British Consul General
5. Erik Arnesen, digital archivist for Davi Hockney, and Marie Chambers, curator for Louis Stern Fine Art in L.A.
6. Katie Getchell, deputy director of the MFA, and Harlan Jones, member of the board of overseers for the MFA
7. Lisa Simmons, coproducer of the Roxbury Film Festival and president of the Color of Film Collaborative, and her mother, Sylvia Simmons, chair of the Gallery Instructors and MFA trustee
8. Louis Stern, owner of Louis Stern Fine Art in L.A., and Michael Childers, photographer

The WGBH wine tasting "Come Pour the Wine," held at the Seaport Hotel on Friday, Feb. 17, hosted more than 400 partygoers. The event featured a buffet by Richard Rayment, executive chef of the Seaport Hotel, and more than 100 wines served by a variety of vineyards, wine shops and wine distributors. Proceeds benefited WGBH's local radio and television stations and its Web site.

9. Jon Sherwood, district manager for Icon Estates, and Alessandro Lunardi, U.S. director for Marchesi Frescobaldi
10. Deanna Pomfret and her husband, Bruce, IT manager for Perot Systems in Wellesley
11. Laura Ashley, associate at Thomas H. Lee Partners, and Andrew Ferrer, associate at Berkshire Partners
12. Craig Kasap, portfolio manager at Duration Capital in Philadelphia, and Rachel McGuckin, senior specialist for Merrill Lynch Investment Management

Cuisine & Cocktails

EXCELSIOR

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Eric Brennan, Executive Chef

The Heritage on the Garden 272 Boylston Street

617.426.7878

www.excelsiorrestaurant.com

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Best Steak House

"Grill 23, now more than 20 years old, is king." –Alison Arnett, The Boston Globe

GRILL 23
& Bar

all natural prime beef
weekly chef's menu
five private dining rooms
online butchery

161 Berkeley Street
617.542.2255
www.grill23.com

CHARITY CASE

In which I join the ranks of the city's philanthropy clique

Ah ha ha ha ha! Todd, did you hear what Chastity just said about the Young Friends of Venice? Oh, goodness. You saucy little trollop! I'd write that down if I hadn't lost my favorite Mont Blanc in Sun Valley last weekend!

I'm sorry, I was just talking to my new friends, whom I met at a charity party last weekend. That's right, I actually parted with my own money and got dressed up real fancy-like for the purpose of philanthropy. I'm crossing my fingers, but I think I might even end up in the IMPROPER. Jonathan Soroff overheard me say something really snarky and risqué, so when you see the anonymous comment in "Last Scene Here" where the guy goes, "Funny that she's wearing cultured pearls, given that she's an uncultured slut!" I want you to know that was me.

However, lest you accuse me of not keeping it real, I'll have you know that the prior weekend, I tried to go to Bikini Bull-riding Night at the Liquor Store. I say "tried" because the bouncers negged one of our party for wearing a pair of $100 Pumas—which apparently weren't formal enough for a competition that features bikini-clad women riding a mechanical bull—so we headed across the Alley for a night of bottom-shelf vodka-and-sodas at the Easy. Also, before we left for this swanky charity soirée, we pre-gamed by playing flip-cup in Southie. So if you're going to give me crap about buying a tuxedo, I don't want to hear it.

Yep, I finally made good on my threat to buy a tux. I went to Filene's Basement, parted with $300, and walked out with a Hugo Boss monkey suit. This tux is so damn money that I dropped an extra $15 on the finishing touch, cuff links shaped like dollar signs. Nothing demonstrates good taste like dollar-sign cuff links.

At the appointed hour we rolled up to the event, which was called "White People Dance Awkwardly for Cystic Fibrosis." No, wait, maybe it was "Divorcées on the Prowl Fight Cystic Fibrosis." Whatever it was, it involved paying a $50 cover charge to help kick cystic fibrosis right in the fibrosis. To tell the truth, I don't even know what cystic fibrosis is, and I don't want to know, because every time I develop a working knowledge of a disease, it's either because someone I know has it or I've used WebMD to convince myself that I have it. Either way, I'm sure cystic fibrosis is horrible and I'm happy to help fight it. I'm crying a little bit right now at th thought of how nice I am.

The scene at a black-tie benefit party a lot like a wedding where nobody know each other. Guys in tuxes stumblin around a crowded function room whil trying desperately not to spill their drink check. A crowd of single women wearin clingy bridesmaid-looking dresses an dancing barefoot: check. A band crankin out "Play that Funky Music, White Boy, "Brick House," and "Sweet Caroline' check. This party also included an innova tion that would double the fun of actua weddings—gambling.

I ordered a martini (even though I hat martinis—it just seemed like the thing t do) and sidled over to a blackjack table Tux, martini, blackjack, lovely ladies al around—the only thing ruining the illu sion that I was a high-roller in Mont Carlo was the dealer, who gloated inces santly every time she won. At first, I gav her the benefit of the doubt that she wa happy when she made money for the char ity, but soon it became clear that she jus enjoyed winning. This quickly got unde my skin, particularly on my last hand whe I doubled down and tied her with 18. Sh gleefully swept my chips away while silently brooded that if we were in a rea casino, that would've been a push. She go no tip.

"A BLACK-TIE BENEFIT PARTY IS A LOT LIKE A WEDDING WHERE NOBODY KNOWS EACH OTHER."

At the end of the night, it was nice t know that a portion of my usual outla for weekend debauchery went to a goo cause instead of to bars and wome named Kandi, but I don't think I'm goin to become a benefit-party regular. Still I'm not ruling out another appearance fo the tux, given the right event. For exam ple, "Bikini Bull-riders Fight Saddl Sores" kind of pulls at the heartstrings doesn't it? iB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?

Send unbiased e-mails to ezra@improper.com.

20 Charles Street, Beacon Hill
617.723.9600

286 Harvard Street, Coolidge Corner
617.734.4900

611 Duval Street, Key West, Florida
305.293.8890

41 Waltham Street, Lexington
781.274.0089

COMING SOON IN 2006
TO A NEIGHBORHOOD NEAR YOU:
222 Newbury Street, Back Bay
73 South Street, Hingham

Catering menu available online:
www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

"...the pizza is to die for; you could faint just describing the flavor of the sauce, and the crust puts you over the edge."

— Jack Welch, Winning

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza, Nouveau

BOSTON'S BEST 2004
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza

Jordan Tobins
— Owner, founder

Alex & Co.
CREATORS OF FINE JEWELRY
Original design by Alex
IDEAL CUT DIAMONDS
GEM QUALITY COLOR STONES

Creating jewelry is our passion, wearing it can be yours.
100 Needham Street, Newton 617 - 965-8777

THE COLLINS CARD

BY CHRIS COLLINS

CENTER STAGE

Could one bowl of Coco Crisp make us forget all about Johnny D?

A new generation of Red Sox has infiltrated the Boston clubhouse. And even though it's only spring training, it's evident that there's a new way of doing things when sporting red stockings in Fort Myers. It's called professionalism, and I can't help but notice it from all the new acquisitions, especially the one tasked with filling the biggest shoes of all.

Despair spread throughout New England when Johnny Damon cut his hair to fit into the Boss' team structure in the Bronx. The thought of Damon patrolling Yankee Stadium was the type of double gut-punch Red Sox fans have become accustomed to over the last seven or eight decades: The Yankees filled a huge hole while creating another problem for our Red Sox at the same time. You didn't have to be a card-carrying member of Red Sox Nation to toss your lunch over this one.

Sure, we've seen this before with Red Sox icons, guys you never thought would cross that line and put on the pinstripes. I think back to Luis Tiant. He was Mr. Red Sox, especially during that great run in the 1970s. You can add Roger Clemens and Wade Boggs to the list, too. A former teammate of Boggs, who called him one of the most selfish players he ever played with, once told me, "We had a team one season that was struggling to score runs and Boggs was hitting third in the lineup. We needed him to knock guys in. But he just didn't care. If guys were on base he'd take a walk instead of trying to give the team what it needed, which was an RBI."

Given that sort of loner attitude, maybe Boggs' defection shouldn't have come as a surprise. But Damon is another story. Everybody loved Damon.

Still, after spending 10 days in Fort Myers, not only do I feel good about Damon's departure, I'm ecstatic over it. Why? Let me just put it this way: The Red Sox Diet now includes Coco Crisp.

Crisp, whose dad was a huge baseball fan, credits the old man for teaching him not just how to play the game, but also to respect it. If you're looking for a rock-star persona like Damon's to shake, rattle and roll in and out of the Sox clubhouse, you'll be disappointed. But if you appreciate a pro's pro, a guy without any Johnny Bravo personality traits, then you'll love Coco.

Crisp has roughly three years in the majors and is just starting to enter his prime. His 2005 numbers—a .300 average to go along with 15 home runs and 15 stolen bases—are comparable to what Damon put up during an All-Star–caliber run here last year. The feeling around the Red Sox is that Crisp is now entering the exact same stage of his career that Damon did when Dan Duquette signed him four years ago. If that's the case, we're in for a real treat.

I love how people will gripe about a player's salary, as if they were paying it directly out of their own wallets. But in this case one can't help approving of the savings between Damon's deal ($52 million over four years) and the paltry $10 million or so the Sox will be paying Coco over that same stretch.

Sure, I understand Terry Francona's point that it's not fair to make the comparison between Damon and Crisp, because they're in different places in their careers.

> "IF YOU APPRECIATE A PRO'S PRO, A GUY WITHOUT ANY JOHNNY BRAVO PERSONALITY TRAITS, THEN YOU'LL LOVE COCO."

And although I'm not quite ready to pull a Duquette on Damon and declare that Johnny D's in the twilight of his career, I can say that his replacement here in Boston might be just as good.

And this much I can guarantee: There will be no bumper stickers purporting that Coco can't throw from the outfield. (My favorite about Damon was, "Looks like Jesus and throws like Mary.") I think we're on the verge of seeing Johnny Damon, Part II, when it comes to productivity at the top of the lineup, with maybe a few outfield assists thrown in for icing on the cake.

Farewell, Johnny—we'll see you again May 1 at Fenway, when two eras of Red Sox history will jog past each other on the way to center field. IB

Chris Collins is a sportscaster for New England Cable News. Address sporting opinions and feedback to sportsdesk@improper.com.

We are single professionals who celebrate the joy of dining and socializing at Boston's greatest restaurants.
Come for the food...Stay for the fun...Leave with new friends.

the 7th Annual
EPICUREAN ESCAPE 2006
Flavors of the Mediterranean

In association with Food & Wine Magazine, Grand Lido Negril Resort & Spa presents a magnificent blend of the "Flavors of the Mediterranean." Join us for a celebration of great food & fine wine at the 7th Annual Epicurean Escape from June 29th to July 3rd, 2006.

Five incredible days of interactive cooking classes and demonstrations by local & international celebrity chefs, intoxicating wine seminars with master sommeliers, nightly themed parties and a spectacular seven-course formal dinner with synchronized service.

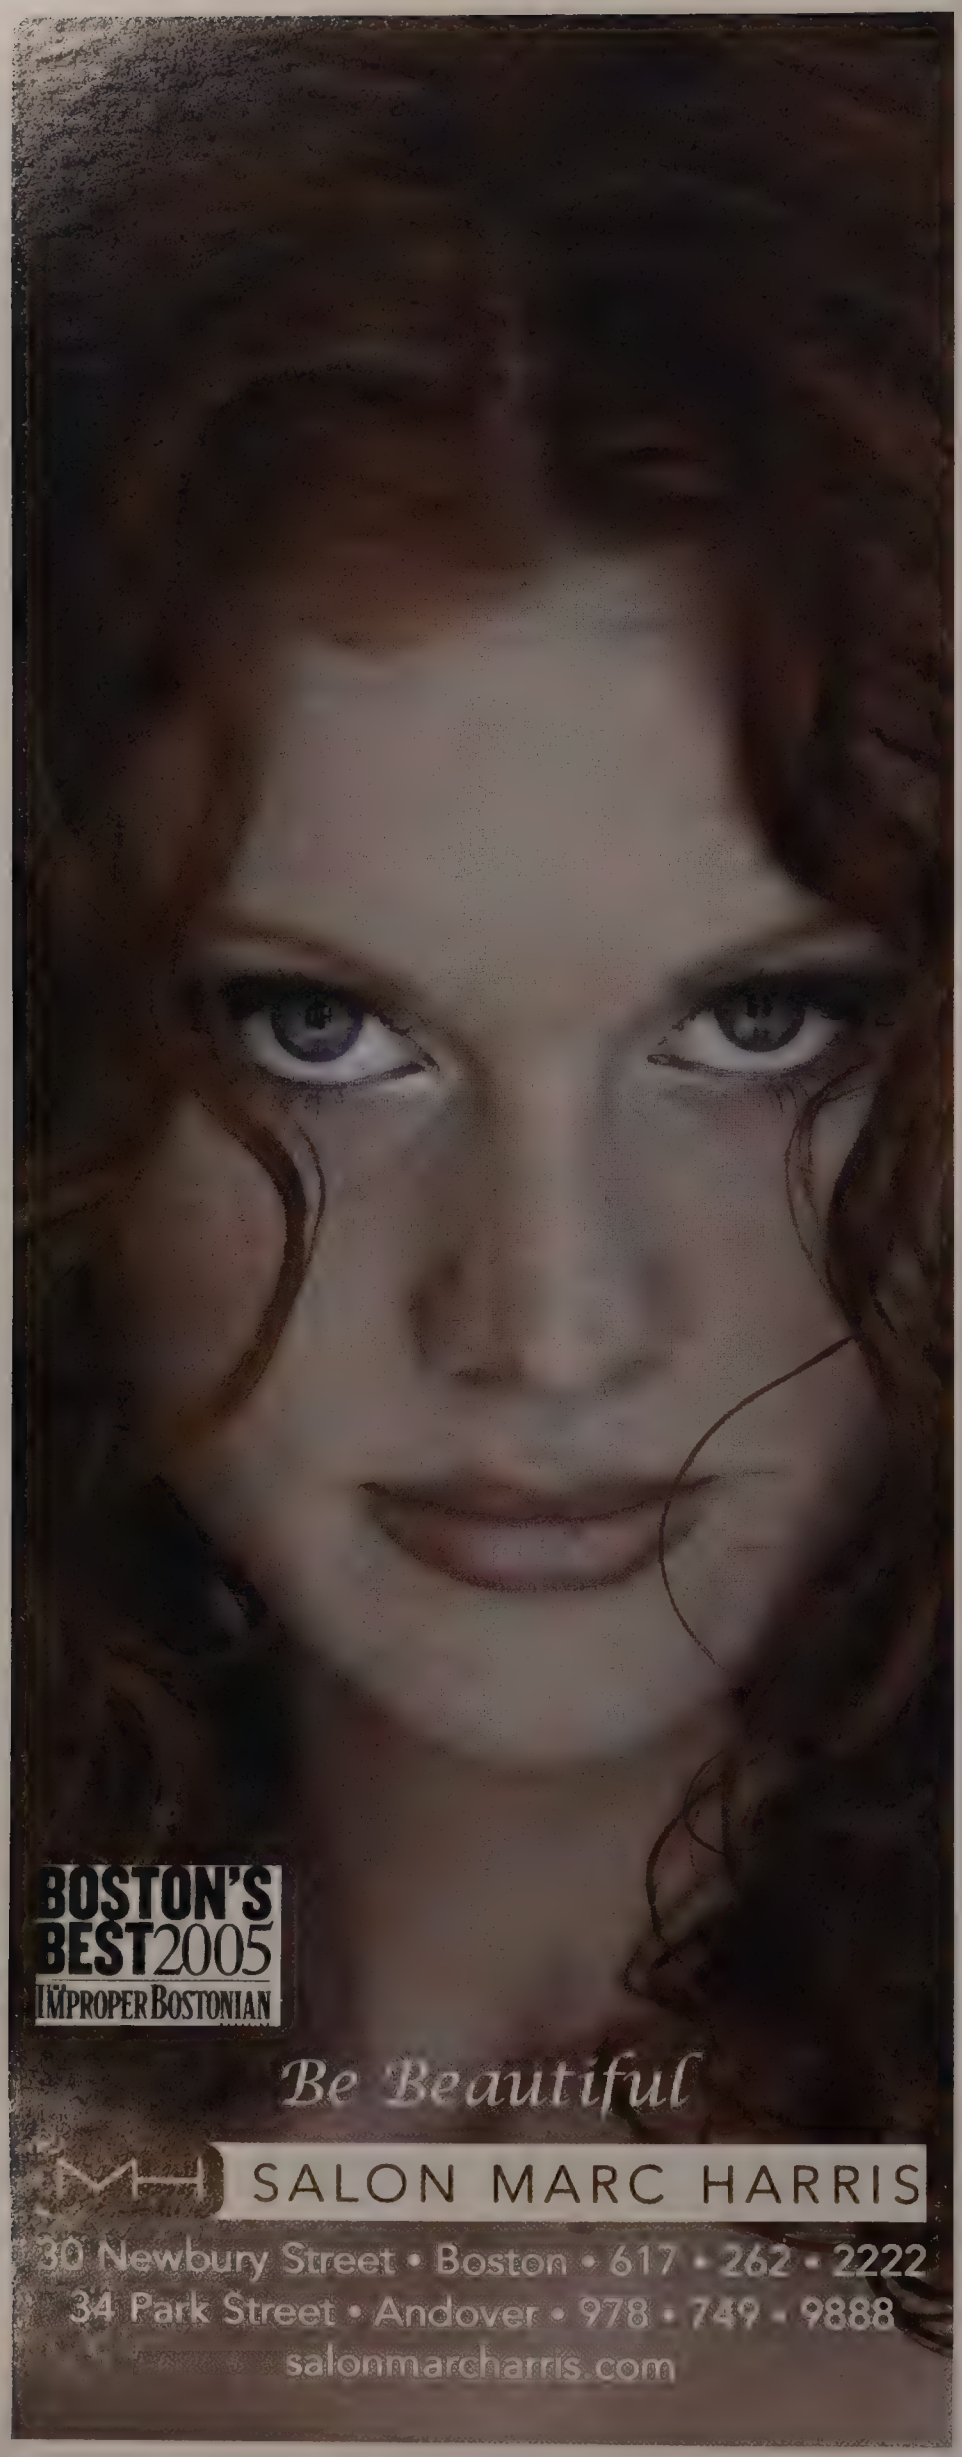
Join Single Gourmet for an extraordinary vacation at...

Grand Lido®
NEGRIL
RESORT & SPA

HOSTED BY

THE SINGLE GOURMET

www.SingleGourmet.com
617.266.7777



THE DANCE

BY JOHN D. SPOONER

The Joys of Dating

On parking, cheerleaders, and the secret ingredient in mashed potatoes

Remember the old saying "It's just as easy to marry a rich one"? My father, wanting to ensure my future, thought this process began with dating a rich one. A year after I graduated from college, my parents insisted I call the daughter of one of Canada's wealthiest families, who was in Boston for the summer. It was easier for me to give in than to listen to the unrelenting pressure, so I made the call and picked up the heiress in my Fiat convertible (which I'd bought off a lot and seemed to run only on sunny days, never in the rain). Off to dinner—no coffee date for us.

Most things in life that we can't stand to contemplate turn out better than expected. Not this time. The heiress was two inches taller than me; her family was in the booze business, but she didn't drink; she didn't like pasta or desserts; and she told me that her father thought anyone who majored in English would never amount to anything. Silence after dinner. But I made one more try. "I'm going to show you the Charles River," I said, "one of the great rivers in America." I parked the Fiat in an area on the Cambridge side of the Charles. Then the rain came and the heiress lost a contact lens on the passenger side of the front seat and my car wouldn't start. I took my date to the road and flagged a cab.

"Do people go parking in Canada?" I sheepishly asked her.

"Not with English majors," she said. The cab drove off and I went to the dead Fiat. I told my father the next day, "When you date money, you pay for it."

All he said was, "Serves you right for buying an Italian car."

First longings, first stirrings of many things start in high school. One of mine was to date a cheerleader. (Drum majorettes weren't even on the radar, being way beyond adolescent dreams unless you were an all-league star with a nickname like "House" or "The Jet.") Miracles can happen, and senior year, after tiptoeing around each other, I got a date on a Saturday night with Ellen Gold, who wore the letter "L" on her cheerleader sweater. We were going to the drive-in theater, for which I'd booked my Dad's blue Dodge weeks in advance. There were just two things about myself I couldn't reveal to Ellen: I couldn't see long distances without my glasses, and I was totally unmechanical. Off we went to the drive-in with visions of sugar plums dancing in my head.

I semi-blindly pulled into a space at the outdoor theater and took 10 minutes figuring out how the speaker fit onto the car window, almost pulling the apparatus apart. "Are you okay?" Ellen asked. "Just refitting the frammis," I told her, but she was already asking me to get her a clam roll and a chocolate frappe. An uncle had always talked to me about the incremental cost of doing business; I figured clam rolls were part of the ritual of winning a cheerleader.

Without my glasses I really couldn't see the movie screen. But after the food, followed by ice cream in sugar cones, Ellen allowed as how it was okay to turn off the sound. "I didn't come here for John Wayne," she said, the most thrilling words I'd ever heard. Of course, with the sound off I forgot about the speaker and, when the movie was over, I drove off with Ellen, the speaker and cord pulling the rear window out of Dad's Dodge. The damage effectively ended my spring semester, as I kissed goodbye any chance of ever taking the car again. (Fathers in those days were unforgiving.) Monday morning in school, I said to Ellen, "I can hitchhike over to your house Friday night." She looked at me and said, "Sudsy has a Corvette."

My wife also tells tales of simpler times. She remembers going overnight to private boys' schools for a football game, dinner and dance. She'd go with a few girlfriends who also had dates at the host school. All of their parents had to have a note from the boys' school attesting to the legitimacy of the offer and telling where the visitors would be staying (usually with a housemaster and his family)—all very formal, with each girl writing a thank-you (called "bread and butters") to the host and hostess. All this and girdles, too.

The first time my wife went on one of her excursions, she says, "My date was a football star, and I thought, 'If I were in a small car with him, there wouldn't be room for him, me and his ego.'" That's when a girlfriend told her, "At dinner, don't eat the mashed potatoes. They're loaded with saltpeter."

"What's saltpeter?"

Her friend laughed. "They give it to the boys in their food, especially on weekends. Takes away horniness."

"Great," my wife said. "My date will be having seconds of mashed potatoes." At least that's what she told me. IB

John D. Spooner is an investment advisor, author and novelist. Contact him at thedance@improper.com.

Italian Old World Charm...
the way it should be.

FLORENTINE CAFE
BAR · BISTRO

333 Hanover St., North End
617-227-1777
www.florentinecafeboston.com

The first open-air street cafe in the North End.

Stanza dei Sigari
A Classic Cigar Parlor

292 Hanover St., North End
617.227.0295
www.stanzadeisigari.com
Hookahs available

The only speakeasy cigar parlor with a full liquor bar in the city.

Caffé Vittoria

290-296 Hanover St., North End
617.227.7606
www.vittoriacaffe.com

The original Italian caffé since 1929
serving capuccino, pastries, gelati
and a full liquor bar.

Soroff ON

RACHEL DRATCH

BY JONATHAN SOROFF PHOTOGRAPH BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

Lexington native Rachel Dratch is celebrating her seventh season as a featured player on Saturday Night Live, where she has invented such memorable characters as Debbie Downer and The Girl With No Gaydar. After graduating from Lexington High, she studied drama and psychology at Dartmouth. She then moved to Chicago, where she joined the Second City improv/sketch comedy troupe, appearing in the company's mainstage productions and hosting the original version of "Dratch & Fey" with fellow SNL player Tina Fey. When the pair performed it in 2000 at the Upright Citizens Brigade Theatre in New York, Time Out dubbed it "the funniest thing to be found on any New York comedy stage." Dratch's film credits include the upcoming Adam Sandler film Click, Her Minor Thing, Down with Love, Dickie Roberts: Former Child Star and The Hebrew Hammer. She also wrote, directed and performed in the short film The Vagina Monologues Monologues. Her other television credits include King of Queens, Third Watch, Frasier and Monk (for which her brother is a writer). She lives in New York.

Jonathan Soroff: You play The Girl With No Gaydar. So am I straight or gay?
Rachel Dratch: [Laughs.] You're gonna make me say? I'm gonna guess gay, with these snarky questions.
JS: You win the door prize. As a kid, were you the class clown?
RD: I was, but it was more like a whole class of clowns. I had a lot of funny lady friends growing up.
JS: Who's the funniest person you know?
RD: Probably my Dad, but also my Lexington friends are just so funny.
JS: Favorite knock-knock joke of all time?
RD: Oh, no! [Laughs.] I guess this one: Knock, knock.
JS: Who's there?
RD: Interrupting cow.
JS: Interrup—
RD: Moo! [Laughs.] But I just saw it in a movie at Sundance, so it's kinda lame.
JS: What would Debbie Downer say if I told her I was pregnant?
RD: A myriad of things. Maybe something about overpopulation. A list of birth defects. Something about neonatal care, like, "I hope you haven't drunk caffeine in the past 10 years. The baby's bound to have webbed toes."
JS: What antidepressant are you on?
RD: Red wine. Oh, that's probably a depressant.
JS: It is. No Lexapro or Zoloft or Wellbutrin?
RD: Not at the moment.
JS: Name one thing you think is wicked pissah.
RD: Brigham's ice cream. I have to have it.
JS: Favorite word to pronounce with a Boston accent?
RD: OK, let me think. There's always "Oh my God," because it's "Ohmigawd!" But I feel like the pressure [to choose a word with] an "r" in it is pretty great. So let's go with "Bizzaaaah!" or "That's so haaash!" or "What a shockah!"
JS: Excellent. Do you have a "Stah cahd"?
RD: What is that, from Star Market? Oh, I haven't been in a Star Market in years.
JS: Thing you miss most about Boston?
RD: The aforementioned Brigham's, which I pine for. Y'know, when you're from Boston, you don't realize that every city doesn't have an ice cream store on every corner. I guess I also miss nature. Like grass and trees, and the mountains and beaches—all of Massachusetts' wonderful natural resources.
JS: Best guest host you ever worked with?
RD: People ask me this all the time and I never have a good answer. When someone comes in, they're usually really nervous, so for the most part, they're really nice. We only see them for a week, so we never see the nasty, stuck-up side.
JS: Oh, c'mon. There must be some who are perfectly awful. Tell me about some diva bitch or total dick who was just a nightmare.
RD: Well, there was one person I didn't really cotton to. I won't use the name, but they just acted like they knew all about comedy when they weren't a comedian at all, and they sort of treated us like we'd just won the lottery that they were on the show, and they'd change the lines so that the jokes weren't there anymore. But that's only one in seven years.
JS: OK, let's discuss Ashlee Simpson blaming her band for her lip-synching screw-up. How lame was that?
RD: Not that she should have said that, but actually, I heard it was the band's fault. Like the drummer was supposed to press some button to start the track and he pressed the wrong one.
JS: I just lost a lot of respect for her.
RD: I'm sure you had a lot to begin with.
JS: Favorite musical guest?
RD: Being old school myself, I like it when we have someone old school, like U2. That was really cool. And we just had Prince! Everyone was wigging out about that. But I have to tell you, sometimes I've never heard of the band. On the flip side, my 20-year-old cousin was visiting with some friends, and Mick Jagger was gonna do a walk-on, so I was like, "You guys are soooo lucky! Y'know who's walking around right now? Mick Jagger!" And they all looked at me blankly, like, "Who's that?" It made me feel so old.
JS: Current pet peeve?
RD: My own insomnia.
JS: One person in public life you think most deserves to be parodied?
RD: Well, I feel like we could be harsher on George Bush, to my way of thinking.... If I could think of anyone and they looked anything like me, believe me, I'd be doing it on the show.
JS: Who's your best impersonation?
RD: Calista Flockhart is the one people remember, but she's kinda off the map right now. I guess maybe Elizabeth Taylor, who I've been doing lately, though it's not really an impression.
JS: Just a boozy, drug-addled, faded movie star thing?
RD: Yeah. It's more just the vibe.
JS: Who would you rather kiss: Amy Poehler or Tina Fey?
RD: [Laughs.] Oh my God! You're gonna get me in trubs. Umm, I guess Amy Poehler for her Burlington roots, although Tina's got the sexy librarian thing, and Amy and I are rivals on Thanksgiving, because Lexington and Burlington play each other [in football]. It's really a point of contention between us.
JS: Worst on-air mistake?
RD: I don't remember exactly what mad me laugh, but the Debbie Downer ski with Lindsay Lohan where we all cracke up so much. It was the biggest crack-u fest of all time. Then there was the tim that they switched the blouse the wanted me to wear between dress re hearsal and air. I had, like, 30 seconds t make the change, and between me an my dresser, we couldn't get a single buttor done, so I had to run out there holding m shirt together for the whole scene. No body noticed, but I like that story becaus people forget that it's live.
JS: What's the hardest part of that?
RD: Well, that's what I really like abou it, the immediacy. But I guess the wors part is when something goes really, really well at dress [rehearsal] and then kind tanks on air. But I like the spontaneity o it all.
JS: Any sparks fly with Adam Sandler filmin your new movie?
RD: [Laughs.] As in "sparks"? Fun sparks Sparks of joy. But the guy is married.
JS: So what? When did that ever stop anybody in show biz?
RD: I know, I'm a temptress. I see tha wedding band, and I'm like, "Turn it down Dratch!"
JS: You're like the Angelina Jolie of comedy, stealing Adam Sandler away from his poor wife. Name one thing you'd never ever make fun of.
RD: There are a lot of things. I'm not int super-dark humor. A lot of people on th show are. I like humor about puppies an rainbows.
JS: OK, last question: Define the adjective "Dratchalicious."
RD: [Laughs.] What do I say? If I sa something good, I sound like an asshol If I say something bad, it sounds like hate myself. I could do "Feytastic." O "Poehlerific." But it's hard to do abou yourself. OK, I'll say, "Giggly, but with a extremely dark edge of seduction an evil." IB

"Y'KNOW, WHEN YOU'RE FROM BOSTON, YOU DON'T REALIZE THAT EVERY CITY DOESN'T HAVE AN ICE CREAM STORE ON EVERY CORNER."

What's the key to happily ever after?
Keeping the romance alive.
Try these creative suggestions for fanning the flames.

A MORE perfect union

BY LINDA LABAN PHOTOGRAPHS BY PETER TANNENBAUM

Relationship experts will all tell you this: Dating shouldn't end at the altar or when you make the commitment to live together. Long after those early hearts-and-flowers days of gazing into each other's eyes or talking on the phone into the wee hours are over, it's still important to take time to enjoy each other, especially when you know your partner's every wart and wrinkle and quirky little habit. Start by setting aside a special day, night or weekend for the two of you alone, and maximize your time together by mixing it up. Here are just a few ideas for keeping the sizzle in your relationship.

THE ROMANTIC NIGHT IN: Create "us" time at home by turning your boring old bedroom into a sultry boudoir. If you're willing to make an investment, visit Mohr & McPherson's treasure-laden showrooms in Cambridge and find a sexy replacement for that ordinary mattress and boxspring—maybe a traditional Indian tent bed, with a couple of gypsyesque, Syrian glass-beaded chandeliers or custom-made silk drapes.

If sleek and modern design is more your speed, owner Doug Gates at Showroom, near Park Plaza, suggests using lighting and linens to effectively alter a bedroom's mood. "It's easy to replace wall-mounted sconces with something that's more moody and ambient," he says. Besides the good old dimmer switch, which Gates describes as "an instant mood fixer," he also recommends the five-foot tall, white cotton–wrapped Cappellini standard lamp. "Depending on the wattage of the bulb, it creates a really sultry light. Maximum impact, very clean. Very bedroom." Add a little decadence to that spare modern look with Matteo's luxury custom linen line. "It's like sinking into cloud nine," he says.

But no mood makeover is complete without music. "Music always adds to the mood of a room. Deep and sexy music," says Gates. "Ambient, background instrumental, with what I call a creamy groove."

Then there are the small touches, such as aromatic candles. Avoid scents that are heavily crisp and floral; go for something with sandalwood or musk. La Ladybug Boutique in Arlington stocks Votivo's sumptuously scented candles and bath accessories. Choose the ultra-sensual Night blend. Or pop along to Inside, also located on Arlington's Medford Street, and stock up on the luxurious Lollia range of bath products. Dream is a calming bubble bath and body oil, made from soothing extracts of linden. Inside also has the amusingly packaged Just Married candle, with an exotic ylang ylang–based scent from Boston–company Aunt Sadie's.

For other romance-enchancing ideas, head over to Good Vibrations in Brookline together and giggle at the sex toys. Then choose something you both think would be fun. Add some Belle de Jour lingerie from French Dressing, on River Street in Beacon Hill, and leave on the heels. For sustenance, call Boston Unique Events and book a catered supper or breakfast in bed the next morning.

Mohr & McPherson carries exotic furniture that can spice up your bedroom.

ROMANTIC RESOURCES

Back Bay Counseling, (617-266-0422). www.backbaycounseling.com.

Boston Unique Events, (617-926-1900). www.bostonuniqueevents.com.

Bristol Lounge, 20 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2037). www.fourseasons.com/boston.

Cape Codder, 1225 Iyanough Road, Hyannis (888-297-2200). www.capecodderresort.com.

Emerge by Guiliano, 275 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-2220). www.emergespasalon.com.

French Dressing, 49 River St., Boston (617-723-4968). www.frenchdressinglingerie.com.

Good Vibrations, 308 Harvard St. Brookline (617-264-4400). www.goodvibes.com.

Hotel Marlowe, 25 Edwin H. Land Blvd., Cambridge (800-825-7140). www.hotelmarlowe.com.

Inside, 4 Medford St., Arlington (781-648-3366).

Kings, 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-BOWL). www.backbaykings.com.

La Ladybug Boutique, 3 Medford St., Arlington (781-646-7600).

McCormick and Schmick's, 34 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-482-3999). www.mccormickand schmicks.com.

Michaud Cosmedix, 297 Newbury St ., Boston (617- 262-1607). www.michaudcosmedix.com.

Mohegan Sun, 1 Mohegan Sun Blvd., Uncasville, CT (888-226-7711). www.mohegansun.com.

Mohr & McPherson, 290 Concord Ave., Cambridge (617-354-6662); and 2 Cambridgepark Dr., Cambridge (617-354-8400). www.mohr-mcpherson.com

Nine Zero Hotel, 90 Tremont St., Boston (617-772-5800). www.ninezero.com.

Noir, One Bennett St., Cambridge (617-661-8010). www.noir-bar.com.

Prana Power Yoga, 282 Centre St., Newton (617-641-9642). www.pranapoweryoga.com

The Purple Shamrock, 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060).

Showroom, 240 Stewart St., Boston (617-482-4805). www.showroomboston.com.

Sports Club LA, 4 Avery St., Boston (617-375-8200). www.thesportsclubla.com.

Thru the Keyhole Burlesque www.thruthekeyhole.com.

Toro, 1704 Washington St., Boston (617-536-4300).

UpStairs on the Square, 91 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-864-1933). www.upstairsonthe square.com.

Vidal Sassoon, 14 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5496). www.vidalsassoon.com.

XV Beacon, 15 Beacon St., Boston (617-670-1500). www.xvbeacon.com.

Make a date for a drink at a cozy bar, like UpStairs on the Square's Monday Club Bar, to relax and reconnect.

THE WEEKEND GETAWAY: A weekend away doesn't have to mean tiring travel, airports and hassle—basically all the stuff that can wear out even the strongest relationship between two busy people. Instead, pull up to the Hotel Marlowe, in Cambridge, and check into an executive suite decorated in animal prints and faux fur and outfitted with an enormous Fuji spa tub. You can book an in-room couple's massage and relax in privacy, or head to the wine hour in the fireplace lounge. Afterward, swap stories on hotspots from visiting out-of-towners and grab dinner in Marlowe's cozy restaurant, Bambara. The hotel has mountain bikes, so you can even get in some exercise and spend the afternoon cycling by the Charles. In the summer, kayaks are available too. It's a relaxing, one-stop break from everyday life.

Other couple-friendly hotels to check into are those with special romantic packages. Nine Zero, on Tremont Street, opposite the Boston Common, offers Indulge, which includes chocolate-covered strawberries, rose-petal turndown service, champagne and candles. Beacon Hill's luxury boutique hotel, XV Beacon, offers its guests a complimentary Lexus sedan service for ferrying guests around town—let your chauffeur do the driving as you and your partner canoodle.

If you prefer to venture a little farther from home, take a short drive to Mohegan Sun in Connecticut and stay in a gorgeous, sleek guest room. Bask in the Elemis Spa's "Ceremony of the Strawberry Moon," which includes champagne and chocolate-covered strawberries and a petal-strewn, jasmine-flower bath for two, followed by a relaxing massage lesson or couple's massage.

Cape Cod's another easy option for a getaway. The Cape Codder, in Hyannis, offers a romance package with couple's treatments in its excellent spa. Then go have some fun on the water slide in the indoor pool.

DATE NIGHTS: Dating can be something as simple and relaxing as meeting up after work in a seductive, dimly lit bar such as Noir in the Charles Hotel, or sinking into a comfy couch in front of the fireplace at the Four Seasons Bristol Lounge. (Hotel bars have that feel of assignation to them, wonder why…!) Or sidle up to your sweetie in the swanky UpStairs on the Square's Monday Club Bar and loudly order a Jamaican Me Crazy cocktail. Be sure to look into your partner's eyes, not the bartender's, as you order.

When it comes to dinner dates, try somewhere different. And share. Toro, in the South End, is a new hotspot boosting the sharing concept with a selection of eclectic tapas, served in a warm, intimate environment. Or go for the classic date experience and snuggle up over oysters in one of McCormick and Schmick's private rooms. Get a dopamine boost from the signature chocolate bag dessert, which is a passion-fruit mousse enveloped in bittersweet chocolate that no single person can finish alone.

Don't forget to have fun together and discover new activities—occasionally, step outside of routines by doing something that's just plain silly. Try Extreme Karaoke at the Purple Shamrock, on Boston's Union Street, for example, and wail in front of a live band. And just how long has it been since you went bowling together? Not since high school or college? Then pop along to Kings in the Back Bay and bowl a few rounds. The loser buys dinner in the adjacent DeVille Lounge. If you've never been to a burlesque show, the naughty-but-nice, and not-at-all-lewd Thru the Keyhole Burlesque has regular performances in the area.

Why not indulge in a romantic escape at a hotel in the city, like Cambridge's Hotel Marlowe?

A weekend away doesn't have to mean tiring travel, airports and hassle.

EXPERT ADVICE

At Back Bay Counseling, psychologist Gloria Spitalny specializes in working with couples. For a good relationship, she advises that overall, "The positive interactions need to outweigh negative interactions by a ratio of 7 to 1." She encourages the couples she counsels to keep romance alive by having a weekly date night and to discuss their ideas of romance, so they come to a mutual understanding of what they're both going to enjoy.

"Put yourself in the other person's mind and act accordingly," she says. "In effect, act like your partner for a day. In general, it's good for the gals to be more interested in a sexual experience that they would also enjoy and for the guys to express more positive feelings and empathy and be better listeners."

Building a good foundation of trust and respect is essential, and there are some basic things, says Spitalny, to avoid as a couple.

Don't:

* Blame each other for things that go wrong.
* Fight unfairly by calling each other names.
* Avoid unpleasant discussions in the hopes that issues will disappear.
* Solve any couple problems from only your perspective.
* Go to bed angry.

LOOKING AND FEELING GOOD: Fundamental to feeling good about each other is feeling good about yourself. Remember when you first dated? The preparation, the anticipation? Why not re-create that sense of occasion and self by refocusing on looking and feeling good. Something as simple as a new haircut, a new hair color or even a great facial can leave you feeling great and help rekindle that initial attraction.

And that doesn't have to mean a lot of fuss. "Ultimately, a great haircut means you'll spend less time in front of the mirror trying to make a bad haircut look good," says Patrick McGinley, creative director for Newbury Street staple Vidal Sassoon. And, he warns, men need to take care of the other hair (nose, ears, eyebrows) as well.

With beauty services so abundant in Boston, there's no need to show up for date night looking like Teen Wolf. At Michaud Cosmedix on Newbury St., for example, owner Julie Michaud can sculpt your brows and give advice on the best skin care products, colors and makeup for your complexion. The salon's deep-cleansing facial is designed to bring back the glow to tired skin, and the Talika "Eyecial," lightens, brightens and refreshes the eye area.

Better yet, make pampering a couples affair with a spa service designed for both of you. The state-of-the-art Newbury Street spa Emerge by Giuliano opens on the first day of spring and will have a floor of companion suites for couples to experience treatments together. Try the Hydro Storm, a multi-treatment steam room for two, which combines aromatherapy and aquatherapy.

The togetherness approach works when it comes to fitness too. Sports Club LA, just off Tremont Street, offers a Duets program for couples, involving everything from Pilates, to the high-cardio cycling Rev class. Make an effort to attend twice-weekly sessions and vary the activity by choosing a carb-burning activity like kickboxing one session, and something rejuvenating like yoga for another.

Not only are Taylor and Philippe Wells, who co-own Prana Power Yoga in Newton, married, but they're business partners too. And they insist that an activity like yoga reconnects and focuses a couple.

"The meaning of the word yoga is union," says Taylor. "Our commitment to practice yoga every day is a very connecting experience. Taking the time together, to devote to health and well-being puts you both on the same path."

For long-term couples, rekindling romance takes effort. Regularly spending even a small amount of time on yourself makes for a better date and daily experience together. iB

MACE

Tired of traditional pickup lines and online dating services?
Consider these bold approaches to scoring a love connection.

THE DAREDEVIL'S GUIDE TO MEETING PEOPLE

BY SAM WALTERS ILLUSTRATION BY GRAHAM ROMIEU

It's said there are many fish in the sea; the trick is hooking one. But reeling people in with the same old lines is increasingly difficult in this overly aware age. Try these fresh lures I've developed to pull people into your love boat. (Just don't expect good results.)

Shopping Cart Connection:

It's true, you can meet people at the grocery store, but the odds of sustaining contact long enough to make a connection are poor. Most people are eager to get home, and chatting up someone who's holding a cucumber can be uncomfortable. Here, then, is a tactic to entangle you for a while. As you pass carts with a person of interest, employ a bit of misdirection to distract them—"Look, a seagull!"—then slyly chain your carts together with a bike lock. You must play this off as a ridiculously improbable accident:

"Did you chain your shopping cart to mine?!"

"What? Oh my God! How embarrassing!"

"Help, police!"

"Yes, maybe they can straighten this out! Can I have your number?"

The Stowaway:

Wearing a tuxedo or a sexy dress, stake out a car rental place. When you spy an attractive party, eavesdrop to find out what car he or she will be renting, then immediately locate the vehicle, jimmy open the trunk and hide inside. When your target stops for gas, beat on the hatch until he/she opens it to investigate. Jump out, nonchalantly dust yourself off and explain that you're a spy, poisoned and left for dead by KGB agents who only got the drop on you because they were brilliantly disguised as Rastafarians. To show your gratitude, offer to take your rescuer to lunch. If your offer is refused, casually mention that you have a license to kill. If your rescuer responds by macing you, he/she is probably interested but unavailable.

Dancing Fool:

Track down street-dancing master Turbo from the 1984 movie Breakin'—he lives in a hut on Dagobah now—and become his pupil. When you're truly funky fresh, find a bar with some potential dates and a large bouncer. Provoke the bouncer, and when he engages you, dis him with the classic break-dancing move of miming taking his face, swallowing it and regurgitating it in disgust! If I recall the film correctly, the entire bar will flock to you in seconds, and a break dancing battle emceed by Ice-T will ensue. Doubtless, your opponent will not have attempted break dancing since 1985, and will have nothing to counter your unstoppable Crazy Legs and Kick Worm. He'll, of course, break your every bone, but the extra joints will only contribute to the suppleness of your Gumby. No man or woman will be able to resist your performance, and you can dial all the numbers you're given as soon as your fingers set.

The Paratrooper:

You'll need a target with a balcony for this. Rent a paratrooper's outfit and sign up for a skydiving lesson. Once you're airborne, bribe the pilot to fly you over the person's house, jump and steer yourself toward the balcony. Upon impact, your future date will be very intrigued. Grunt something about having been blown off course, mixed in with convincing army jargon like "ten-hut," and "charge!" Then start inventing excuses for not leaving:

"Get out of here!"

"How?"

"Take the stairs!"

"I can't. I have a phobia of stairs. That's why I parachute everywhere."

If your target is a woman, one of the nice things about this stratagem is that if you break your leg on landing it will just bring out her nurturing instinct. If you're killed, she's sure to think of you daily as the strangest thing that ever happened to her.

It's Your Birthday:

This one's for the ladies. Secure tickets to a Sox game—you may have to sell some eggs for this—and find your way to the scoreboard control booth. Inform the operator that your date wants to wish you a happy birthday during the game, and could this be flashed on the board? If the operator inquires why your date isn't doing the asking, explain that you wear the pants in the relationship while waggling a souvenir bat. When all is set, seat yourself next to someone interesting and wait for the big moment. When the message is shown and you're both projected on the Jumbotron, hug your target tightly while squealing "Thank you, sweetie!" You can even pay some clowns to appear with foil balloons. The person will be too embarrassed to explain to anyone that he/she has no idea who you are, and that you probably have a knife. After the game, your victim will have to take you to dinner or risk looking like a class-A jerk.

Display of Love:

Visit a fine museum and approach someone contemplating an exhibit. Feign deep interest in the piece by furrowing your brow or stroking your goatee—ladies, you'll have to wear a glue-on—and eventually strike up a conversation about the piece. Note: It's extremely important that you seem knowledgeable about art, so prepare some sharp observations like, "This painting was done with a brush," and "Stone is quite hard"; you may even want to sniff and taste the item on display, to show you're a connoisseur. Don't be afraid to engage in a bit of whimsy, too: If viewing a medieval display, for instance, climb into one of the suits of armor and strut about. Be careful if you indulge in any swordplay, as these weapons can be very heavy and the object of your affection may lose interest—and blood—if you lop off an arm (it's generally hopeless if you behead your would-be sweetheart). If museum security shows up, fight them to the death to prove your love. IB

TALES FROM cupid's QUIVER

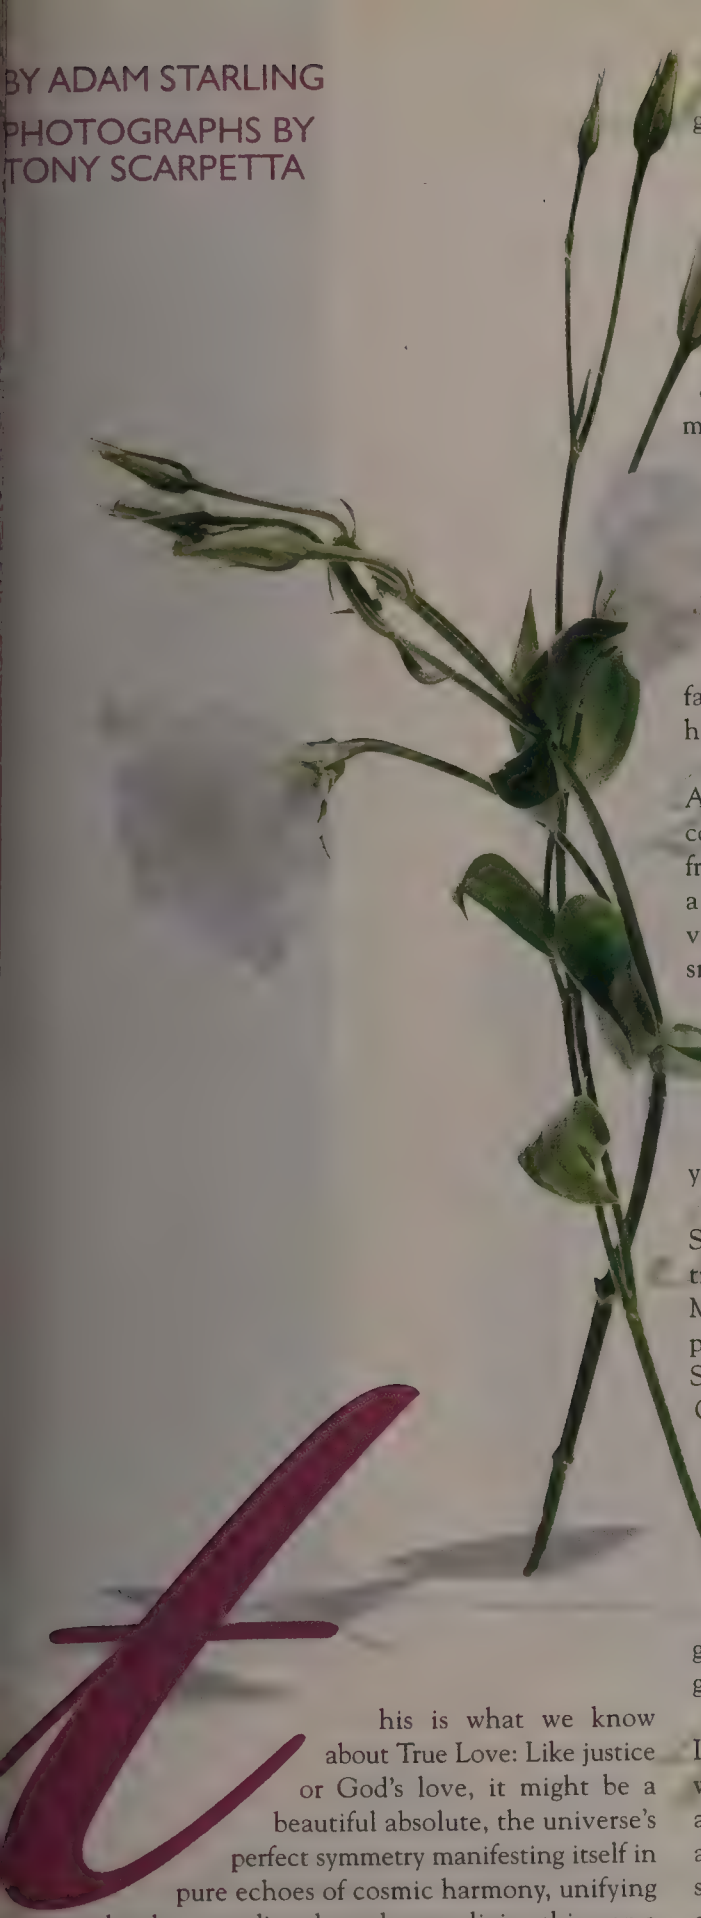
lovestruck locals tell all

BY ADAM STARLING

PHOTOGRAPHS BY TONY SCARPETTA



This is what we know about True Love: Like justice or God's love, it might be a beautiful absolute, the universe's perfect symmetry manifesting itself in pure echoes of cosmic harmony, unifying chords resounding through every living thing on a molecular level.

Then again, like life after death or the War on Poverty, it could be nothing more than a convenient myth our culture uses to lull itself into believing there's a grander plan in action here, that there's a point (beyond the propagation of the species) to all of our heartache and suffering.

But we're inclined to leave that sort of pessimistic attitude to the cynics (it's self-defeating, and we're fresh out of clove cigarettes). In fact, no matter which side of the ideological fence we singles find ourselves on regarding True Love, we all possess some buried nugget of hope that one day our soul mate will appear before us to illuminate our lives.

But will we be ready? What does it feel like? We asked some happily-coupled Bostonians to share their accounts of those shining pivotal moments when the Universe finally came through.

I love to forget the irritations of the work week by going to a club with good music. When I began dating Dwight, I was shocked by how he had everything I ever wanted in a friend, lover and confidant—except for the tragic fact that he had absolutely no rhythm and zero appreciation for mixing it up on a dance floor. Cupid loves irony? I wondered. A few months in, he was my date at a wedding, so I kept him company at the table while everybody else headed to the floor to celebrate. Family members came over to find out what was wrong with me. I kept saying I was just tired. Finally, after Grandma came over to make sure I wasn't sick, Dwight stood up, took my hand and pulled me out to the dance floor. And he really was terrible! Flailing his arms, awkwardly shuffling his feet—he even had the white man's overbite. It was ridiculous, but the look of determination on his face melted me. He lasted three songs before excusing himself. I loved him on the spot. — Susan

At a party a few years ago, as I was tucking my iPod into a coat pocket, the woman I was being introduced to took it from me and put the earphones on. She fiddled with it for a few moments, and I mentally braced myself for some vapid and/or judgmental comment. Suddenly, a huge smile came across her face and she started dancing around the apartment singing "Magic" by Olivia Newton-John. Nobody else could hear the music, but she was really belting it out. I loved it! By the time she stepped off the couch and took a bow, I knew she was the freak for me. Five years later, she still is. —Mike

Shortly after my boyfriend and I started dating, production on a documentary took me to Asia for seven weeks. Many of these shoots took us to remote locations where phone service was either very expensive or nonexistent. Soon I was home- and heartsick; I missed him immensely. One long afternoon, while waiting for a train to yet another remote village, my host's cell phone rang. I excused myself to go find a drink when she yelled out, "It's for you!" Confused, I returned and took the phone. It was Ken, calling from Boston in the middle of the night. He'd zeroed in on me after contacting five other people—I couldn't believe it! I loved this guy to pieces, and his call kept my spirits up until I could get back home to him. — Kristine

I met my fiancée, Carrie, at the brokerage where we both work, and though I was instantly attracted to her, she had a no-nonsense, puritanical vibe about her, so I never really thought about asking her out. I just couldn't see her sharing some of my extracurricular interests. Fast-forward a few months: It's Halloween and I'm at Man Ray in Cambridge, and I spy this sexy vampiress a few seats down the bar. I blink, and all of a sudden, I realize: It's Carrie! Obviously, the ice was broken, and we both now count our first date as the Hi-Fi pizza we drunkenly shared later that night. —Don

My first date with Sean was a pleasant bore: dinner and generic first-date conversation, nothing remarkable. Our second date, though, he pushed hard for karaoke, which I was never fond of. Good sport that I am, I went along, but was a little horrified when he was the first one onstage to sing "Do They Know It's Christmas?" It was August. The thing is, he was adorable about it, and later on when his sheer enthusiasm even got me up there singing "I've Had the Time of My Life" with him, I realized I was having FUN. We haven't been to karaoke in months, but we're both big on singing out loud while hanging around our apartment—we pretend life is a musical and sing our conversations to each other. —Vanessa

I grew up in Manhattan—didn't even get my driver's license until I was out of college—so cars have never been my strong suit; I'm definitely down with AAA. Jess and I had been dating for about a month when, one Saturday, we headed over to Fenway to see a movie. Smooth sailing, until Murphy's Law kicked in and the car got a flat tire. "We're okay," I assured her and pulled out my cell phone to call for roadside service. But when I told Jess they wouldn't arrive for at least an hour, she insisted I call them back and cancel. She changed the tire herself and less than 20 minutes later we were in our seats. We didn't even miss the Jimmy Fund collection. We've been married for four years now and I'm only a little embarrassed to say she's still teaching me tons of useful things I should've learned years ago. — Ethan

My first date with Tim was dinner at a BBQ restaurant. The questionable wisdom of sloppy first-date foods notwithstanding, I'm also a vegetarian, which I know I'd mentioned to him earlier in the week when we made plans. He was so apologetic when I reminded him, though, that I brushed it off and made a meal of side dishes. At the end of the night, as he was dropping me off, Fate apparently decided I was due for my own faux pas. We'd kissed good night and agreed to get together again soon, but getting up out of the car, all that fiber I'd eaten apparently decided to offer its own good-bye in the form of a wheezing bark of a fart. I froze. Silence. I turned to him, horrified, and he was shaking silently with laughter. "Ooh, so close!" he commiserated, "Just 30 more seconds!" I was speechless. "Don't sweat it," he said through a grin and, shifting slightly in his seat, he offered a huge fart of his own. I started cracking up, and in all the time we've spent together since, I've never felt the least bit uncomfortable around him. — Lauren IB

HOW THEY KNEW IT WASN'T LOVE

Sweet, right? Well, before you go and get too blissed out by the mushy stuff, just remember that they wouldn't call dating a game if it didn't have winners and losers.

Sandy

At one point during our first date he told me all about how he and his college roommate would sit next to each other, look at porn on their laptops and occasionally "help each other out"—but took offense when I asked if he was gay!

Griff

I knew it was over when she accidentally introduced me as Elliot—because I reminded her of the kid from ET.

Meghan

He thought the fact that he'd taught his bird to eat right out of his mouth was a real neat trick.

Sarah

He told me he lived with two adult siblings who decided they could no longer care for their pet rabbit—so one of them wrung its neck, he skinned it and the other cooked it. They ate their pet!

fig. 1

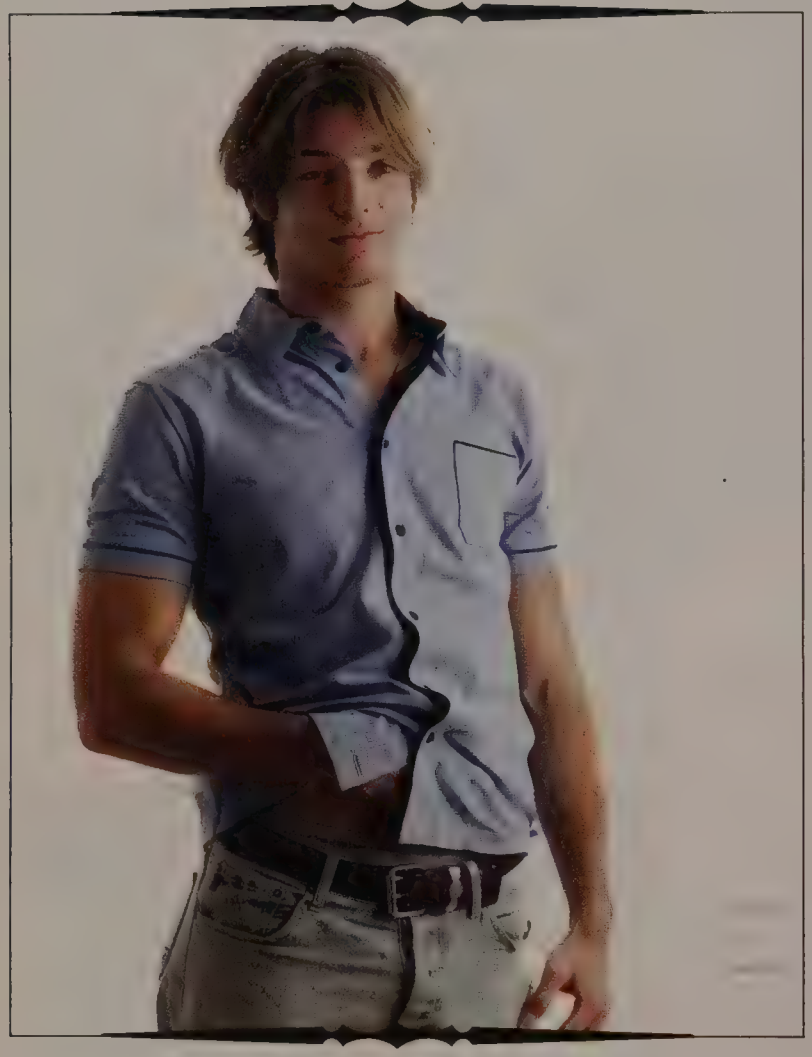


fig. 2

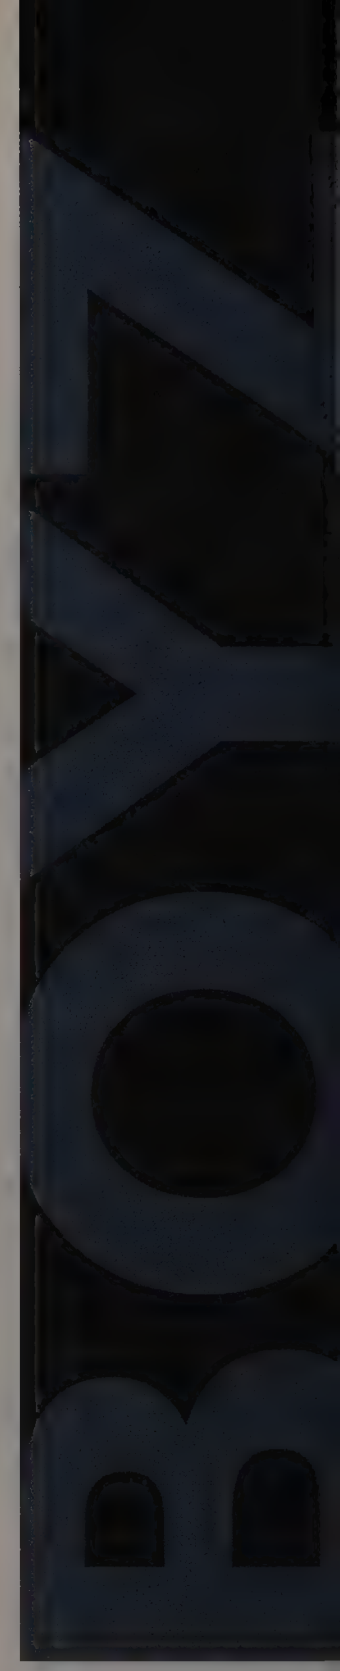

E-mail archives provide a cringe-inducing look at how three guys' dating attitudes have changed during their 20s.

Conventional wisdom says that while women want to settle down, guys are wild animals who must be dragged by their hair into domesticity, kicking and screaming and lamenting the lost thrill of the hunt. Yet many of the men I know find the dating game not a fun and carefree experience, but a tiresome, Sisyphean task. At least that's how we think of it now. But what did 23-year-old Ezra and his friends Ned and Braxton think about the dating scene? To find out, I combed the e-mail archives to learn firsthand what my friends and I—hapless, clueless single guys in their early 20s—thought about dating, and how our attitudes have changed as we approach our older, (perhaps) wiser 30s. Join me as we crack open our time capsule and go back to 2001, a year when we took dating advice from Maxim, had awkward conversations with girls in bars and made contemporary references to Ricky Martin music videos.

The following is excerpted from an e-mail I sent five years ago. It showcases my utter lack of game, as manifested at a party at the Roxy where I was supposed to serve as a dresser for models in a fashion show. That gig turned out to be too good to be true (of course), but nevertheless I eventually found myself chatting up a flirty hottie. Let's allow the horribly inept 2001 Ezra to describe what happened, as told to Ned and Braxton:

Girl: "How's it going tonight?"
Me: "It's going pretty good, except that I was supposed to be a dresser for the models and I got denied."
"You can come back to my place and dress me."
"Uh... [Trying desperately to think of something witty] OK."

Even then, I knew this was a single-guy trainwreck of a scene. I continued the story with a bit of postgame analysis, blaming my lack of flirting ability on my recently ended four-year relationship. I'd been out of the game for too long, and was a suddenly single man of prime dating age who had absolutely no idea how to approach single women.

I think after that I said something stupid about dressing versus undressing, but she definitely caught me off guard. God, I sucked! I told Dave and Scott, my roommates at the time, this story, and they agreed that the correct response was "OK, let's go." Another lesson: If a girl flirts that blatantly, up the ante. We ended up exchanging cards, which I guess was progress, but I was still affirming daily that spending four years in the Boyfriend Zone might've harmed my macking skills just a tad. Oh well.

fig. 3

fig. 4

Around 2001, there was lots of second-guessing, and I bombed on plenty of dates. Braxton could empathize, and he responded to the above anecdote with a pathetic story of his own. The subject line on this thread perfectly captures the feeling of the time: "Trial By Fire." Also notable is Braxton's prescient use of the phrase "not that into you" years before it gained notoriety in the title of a stupid book:

Good Lord, Ez, no guy should brick that hard. I have a little story of my own. I went on a pseudo-date with this girl Kelly. I say "pseudo" because when I first asked her out to dinner (first time ever, by the way—I'm making slow progress with putting myself on the line. Soon I'll hit on randoms at clubs), she said she had plans with her friends to go to this bar, and I should come with her. The plans fell through, though. We're standing around her apartment awkwardly, and she says she hadn't eaten, so I say, "Why don't we go to dinner?" Her response: "I'm not that hungry." D'oh!!! I think she meant to say, "I'm not that into you." Brick No. 1. Later we're talking about TV-watching and she says she's a huge TV watcher, but I'm staring at the wall thinking about how to handle the date. After I stop staring, I go, "So, you're not a big TV watcher, huh?" She looks irritated and goes, "I just TOLD you I watch TV all the time." Brick No. 2. I would also like to state for the record that I was 30 minutes late. Oh damn, I just built the Empire State Building out of bricks.

However, we collectively started making progress with risking our fragile egos in the name of love, or at least getting some lovin'. In the previous e-mail, Braxton joked that soon he'd be "hitting on randoms at clubs," and that's exactly what happened. Nothing ventured, nothing gained, right? Or, more accurately for Braxton, something ventured, nothing gained:

What up, doggs. I have another funny-ass rejection story to add to the pile. I'm telling you about it so that the sheer embarrassment will not eat away at my insides for years to come; instead, my pain will become objectified as I exhume these demons inside me.

I'd like you all to know that I got "the hair" last Saturday. I was talking to this hottie with a smokin' body. I'd bought her a drink (I think she actually bought me one, too), and it was definitely on. We'd been dancing, and now, as we were leaning on the bar, she had her hands in mine while I pontificated on God knows what. Well, you guessed it: In a fit of spontaneity, I went in for the make-out. She turned her head so violently I thought she would break her neck. Needless to say, I ended up kissing her jawbone. I think I kissed a strand of hair, too.

But let's put this in perspective. Oliver is swaying back and forth like some sort of cartoon Leaning Tower of Pisa making out with Ellen, Ned is getting his white grind on with a curly-haired freak dancer, our other girl friend is violently mashing her face against Oliver's friend Noah, and I'm standing there with a tan babe in a red and white zebra-patterned dress who is running her fingers along my palms in a way that reminds me of a Ricky Martin video, only with a tall albino guy and a Jewish girl. Now, what would you do? You'd go for the makeout, because that's what kind of night it was. Shut up—yeah, you would.

So that's what I did. And that's why I got the hair.

But it's all good. She still gave me her digits and wrote "Call me" on a napkin. Another one to add to the stack collecting under my Marlboro Lights.

Until next brick.

Even then, I knew this was a single-guy trainwreck of a scene... I was a suddenly single man of prime dating age who had absolutely no idea how to approach single women.

While we might've been total goons, it wasn't for lack of thought. Consider this thread, started by Ned, where we pondered the ethics of dating women who are somehow already within our social circle. Who's fair game, and who's off-limits? Many work hours were spent mulling this question, which in retrospect makes us sound like we all missed our true calling, hosting The View:

I need to address a conversation Ez and I had in the public forum about relationships. Here's the question: If you're dating a girl, you break up, and her friend wants to date you, is that the same as when your guy friend is dating a girl, they break up, and you start to date his ex (especially without permission from your friend)?

I'd never date the girl of my guy friend based on the guy honor system (which my roommates do not seem to observe), but I see no problem dating the friend of a girl, as it doesn't really seem up to you anyway. I mean, girls pretty much call the shots, and besides, I'm not a playaaaaaaa (though I do crush quite a bit). "Double standard? Twice as true" (—direct quote from Maxim).

Braxton responds:

This dating stuff is confusing, Ned, but I think although I'm a re-re, I get what you're asking. I'm a pretty strong believer in the guy rule. I've seen friends not talk to each other for years because of a girl dating one guy and then dating the dude's friend.

As far as two girl friends... I've never been in a situation like that, but the closest I've come was in high school: I was crazy about this one girl, but she wouldn't date me (partly) because her best friend was in love with me. Now, not only did I not care what the best friend would do if her hot friend went out with me, I never wanted to talk to her at all and hated her because she was the reason I couldn't be with this great, great girl.

In conclusion, my nizzles, James Joyce was not only an epic poet in the classical sense, but he was also a fervent modernist with a penchant for the tactile pleasures of secular existentialism. Wait, that's not what I was talking about. Oh, yeah. I met a great girl last Saturday. I got her number and called her up Tuesday (three days being the industry standard). We talked for a while and made plans to get together Saturday afternoon. It's definitely on. I'm stoked, as a radical tubular surf guy might say. Totally gnarly.

Look at that, Braxton landing a date—and even incorporating a bit of "calling to set up the date three days after initial contact" wisdom gleaned from Swingers, judging by the "industry standard" comment. But just because we managed to get girls to go out with us didn't mean we were suddenly smooth operators. I sent Ned and Braxton this account of a conversation from a first date that I thought went poorly (though it must've gone better than I thought, as it developed into a multiyear relationship):

Me: "So where'd you go to school?"
Her: "Skidmore."
"Is that in Pennsylvania?"
"No."
"Massachusetts?"
"No."
"Connecticut?"
"No, it's in New York."
"Oh. My next guess was Puerto Rico."

This is why I don't miss dating; even when it went well for me, it didn't go well. So let's fast-forward to 2006. I'm engaged to a girl I met through the most unlikely of circumstances. One day a couple years ago, an IMPROPER reader named Brian wrote me an e-mail offering to set me up with his friend, Heather. He thought, from reading my column, that we'd get along great. By that point, I had enough dating experience that the prospect of a blind date didn't terrify me, whereas a few years earlier I would've convinced myself that the girl must be an axe murderer and I was better off staying home and playing NHL 2000 with my roommates. Going on that date turned out to be a great decision. And I may have lucked out, but only because I'd grown bold enough to go on blind dates.

So what about 2006 Ned and Braxton? Ned is single and works as a consultant in New York. Braxton's also single and attending law school in Virginia. Are they still kissing the backs of girls' heads in bars? Take it away, Ned:

I was looking at old e-mails and started reading ones from ex-girlfriends that I've avoided revisiting over the years. Reading them now, I understand why. It seems like I'm reading someone else's life. Here's an excerpt that actually made me vomit:

Me: "I love you Kristy."
Kristy: "No, Ned—I love you."

Thank God I'm reading this stuff before I throw myself into my next relationship.

The main thing that's different—for me at least—is that I'm now the guy that we used to laugh about. Now that I'm single, slightly older, more experienced, have more money and more confidence as a person, and have become completely jaded toward romance, dating in New York is really not that difficult.

Ned, at least, seems to have adapted to his environment. Having your attitude forged in the crucible of Manhattan will do that. Braxton, for his part, struggled to meet women at law school. At least, he did initially:

I need to hear someone else's success stories. The girls at school look like the librarian ghost from Ghostbusters—the one that freaks out (which scared the shit out of me when I was 6 years old), and looks all dusty.

A week later, he sent an update:

How come every hot girl I meet at law school and try to mack on inevitably turns out to be insane? Am I in New York circa 1999 again? Damn! I guess I should shoot for girls who are less witty and funny, because the witty and funny chicks ALWAYS, I repeat ALWAYS, turn out to be f-----g crazy.

He might sound discouraged, but the subtext of those e-mails illuminates a major (positive) difference in Older and Wiser Braxton: Though he's unhappy with who he's dated, he's no longer afraid to try. This sounds overly simple, but the only difference between then and now is our confidence. We're the same people, but less afraid of getting shot down. That's it. And the factors Ned mentioned—experience, money, a slightly more jaded attitude—all increase the confidence factor. Look again at Braxton, who a few weeks ago ended an e-mail about costing his intramural basketball team a game with the following postscript:

PS: I strongly encourage you all to laugh AT me, viciously and meanly. Just so you know, I am hatching a Redemption Plan that involves asking out the hottest girl in school. And when I'm sipping mint juleps with her at a restaurant this Friday, adjusting my Vineyard Vines tie and mentally acknowledging that my date is the most physically perfect specimen in the joint, I challenge you all to concoct a sweeter comeback.

Right, but will the guy who stumbled through a conversation about watching TV back in 2001 actually muster the courage to talk to this beautiful law student without vomiting all over himself like South Park's Stan trying to talk to Wendy? This is Braxton's most recent e-mail, and, I think, a perfect statement of why it's better to be 28 than 23:

I've got a date on Friday night with the hottest girl in school.

I challenge ANYONE to say something more kickass than that. iB

Play hard. Not hard to get.

Dateworking events for singles are different. No bells or whistles, musical chairs or 'societies'.

Meet and mix with singles in a vibrant setting at Boston's hippest venues. Dateworking recreates the scene you love, only with more options. Click and connect online at Dateworking.com and maximize your dating potential.

And no, you won't have to wear a name tag.

1. open bar
2. add singles
3. meet, mix
4. connect and date

dateworking.com

Get invited. Log on for the Dateworking Boston Launch Party invitation - March 28th @ Foundation Lounge

ATEWORKING EVENTS ARE PRIVATE FUNCTIONS EXCLUSIVELY FOR SOPHISTICATED SINGLES 25+.
URF OVER TO WWW.DATEWORKING.COM FOR MORE DETAILS. EMAIL: info@dateworking.com TEL: 617.859.5706 AN ANDONIAPR PRODUCTION

[illegible] jacket by Prada, $2,590 at Neiman Marcus.

Elefantino Collection 18K yellow white gold and diamond earrings by Roberto Coin, $1,820 at Long's Jewelers.

Stormy

Take cover from the elements in spring's most sultry outerwear

PRODUCED BY SAMANTHA HOUSE
PHOTOGRAPHED BY WALLING AND MCGARITY

Brown a white polka-d empire-wa coat, $4
Betsey Johnso

White dress by Marc Jacobs, $1,800; fur coat by Roberto Cavalli, $2,290. Both at Saks Fifth Avenue.

Cairo Collection 18K gold rose, one diamond pendant on chain by Roberto Coin at Long's Jewelers. Price available upon request.

Hair: Jeffrey Lyle for Kerastase Pa

Makeup: Flora Ka
for Artist Coop

Elizora for Wilhelmina

Betsey Johnso
21 Newbury
617-236-707

Long's Jewele
100 Summer
617-426-850

Neiman Marc
Copley Plac
617-585-600

Prudential Center
617-262-850

70 Newbury
617-859-784

Peach coat with gathers by Baum Und Pferdgarten. Bikini at
.com.

...s yellow, white gold
...diamond clover
...
...ng gold
...rings, $980.
...gold
...ring, $1,100. All from the Chic and Shine Collection by Roberto Coin at Long's Jewelers.

The Candy Ford Group models of Boston prefer Prudential Dental Associates for their Cosmetic Dental Service

Prudential Dental Associates

www.pda-boston.com

617-267-3889

575 Boylston St., 7th floor, Boston, MA 02116

Insurances Accepted • Financing Available
Convenient Hours • Ultra Modern Facility

Cosmetic Dentistry

ignite the white ZOOM!

(Laser Whitening)

invisalign

Veneers & Crowns

Extreme Makeovers

Restorative Dentistry

Computerized Dentistry (CAD/CAM)

Root Canals

Implants

Gum Therapy

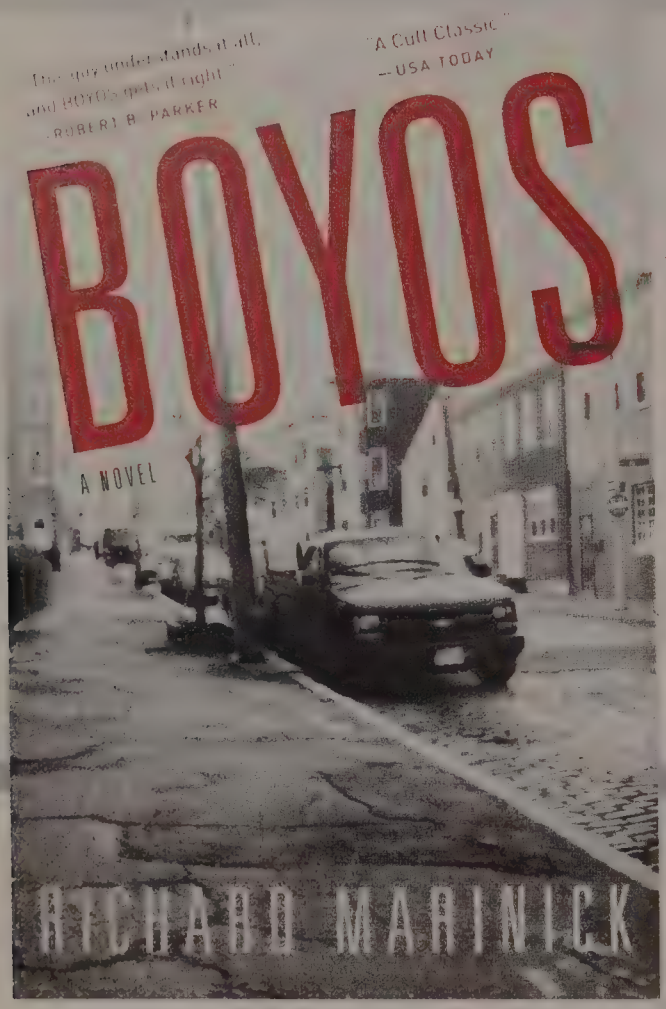
Preventative Dentistry

Emergency Care

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY



SOPRANOS IN SOUTHIE

Ex-con Richard Marinick's new crime thriller, Boyos, is set in Southie.

Not every crime writer can boast that he's been a union tunnel-worker, state trooper, armored-car robber and prison inmate. But Richard Marinick also got two degrees from BU while in the joint, and it shows. His book Boyos, set in densely detailed South Boston and environs, follows two brothers, Kevin and "Wacko" Curran, through their life of Sopranos-esque—albeit Irish—crime. They're into robberies, "shylocking" and casual, brutal murders of drug customers and others who don't pay up. Marty Fallon's the big guy they work for, but as he begins to darkly surmise, they're going out on their own. Wacko's the big-brother boss, while the looser Kevin cokes up, becoming "Jekylled" on a regular basis and waxing irresponsible. The story is loaded with angry, chugging testosterone; something horrific happens in every chapter, often right after an apparently cozy connection, and loyalty coexists edgily with betrayal. These fraternal psychopaths are oddly likable; their weird closeness is compelling. And the prose, scurrilous and violent, is full of gritty comedy, even a kind of poetry. The boys' poor, ignored Ma just hopes to get a little help pulling down storm windows, but a sweet breeze blows through the pages when Elaine Ramsey, an unattainable chimera of goodness, appears.

ADVANTAGEOUS SHOPPING

The Garment District and Clothes by the Pound sell vintage clothing for men and women and a limited selection of costumes at 200 Broadway, Cambridge (617-876-5230). www.garmentdistrict.com.

The window display at the Garment District, sparkling as a shop-front oasis amid the nondescript technology buildings of Kendall Square, forecasts the tone within. The vintage clothes here are frisky, sparkly, floating with colorful boas, and yet the majority of items are tidy and professional, ready to respectably report to the office. Downstairs sits the outrageous institution Clothes by the Pound (now $1.50 per), where "weighing a purchase" means just that. Although young shoppers tromp right on top of these clothes, you can walk on a nice, healthy J.Crew wool sweater that's next to something wild and bohemian, and then buy them both for pennies. Up the pink stairs, bespeaking punk, past spangly red Oz shoes and crazy limeade boots, vintage means 1950s to 1970s, as young girls shop with their mothers. Clean clothes for everyday, right-now wear may have labels like DKNY, Geoffrey Beene or Talbots. There are tons of jeans and T-shirts for almost nothing. The men's section has a range comprising tuxedo shirts, good tweed jackets and dramatic military-style coats with gold buttons and swirly trim. But madcap Dr. Seussy costumes, naughty French-maid uniforms and Star Wars glasses hold their crazy own.

CRED, COUTH AND CONFIDENCE

Hayden-Wilder, located in the baronial Ames-Webster mansion at 306 Dartmouth St. (617-367-1412), is a new firm that counsels first-time job applicants. www.haydenwilder.com.

The creamiest croppers out of even elite colleges can come a cropper when it comes to interviewing for a first job. Michael Wilder and D.A. Hayden should know, having worked for decades in advertising, where they interviewed, collectively, about 3,000 of these just-graduated kids who, as Wilder puts it, "have been coddled, coached, squired and hovered over." He and Hayden have counseled and groomed corporate types and CEOs to project a "positive, successful image" to Wall Street. Their company beams this knowledge to fledgling jobseekers in a one-on-one, 12-hour curriculum that involves rigorous "homework," acquaintance-building research at the company they're courting, training in etiquette and presentation ("Don't read a Batman comic in the waiting room," laughs Wilder) and videotaped mock interviews involving role-playing. Improvement is such that students don't even want to see the first "wooden, awkward" takes. Hayden and Wilder help candidates frame their virtues more zestily, identifying and making more explicit, say, the strengths underlying that year in China—the ingenuity, independence and curiosity it involved, prefiguring on-the-job teamwork and initiative. With zesty, seasoned professionalism, they impart both their experience of what works and their valuable knowledge of what can sour the deal, even in a promising candidate.

...its about dating

Attention Free Agents

Are you Busy, Single & like the Bruins??

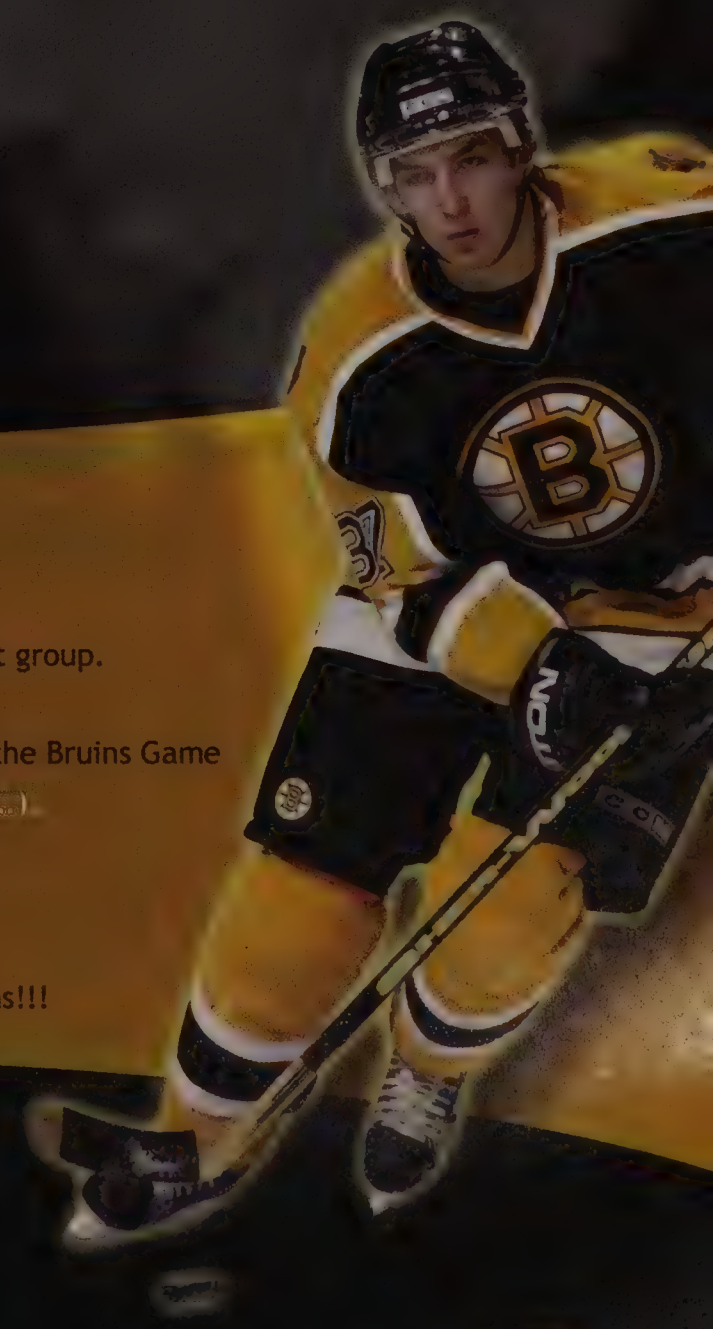
INTRODUCING THE FIRST EVER
SPEED DATING EVENT AT

TD Banknorth GARDEN

Bruins vs. Atlanta

Tuesday, March 21, 2006
5:00 pm TD Banknorth Garden VIP PreDating Event
7:00 pm Bruins Game

ONLY $129!!!!



Ticket Package includes:

- A Professional Pre-Dating session facilitated by Cupid.com before the game.
- A dozen six minute PreDates with members of the opposite sex in your age and interest group.
- One ticket to the game—upgraded to a Luxury Suite Ticket.
- One registration to the TD Banknorth Garden VIP PreDating Event prior to the start of the Bruins Game
  (5 different age groups available...hurry only a handful of spots for men & women...)
- Light appetizers.
- One (1) drink ticket.
- Complementary access to Sports Museum.
- A chance to meet that special someone who enjoys the excitement of the Boston Bruins!!!

To purchase this unique and limited
VIP Ticket Package,
call VIP Ticketing (617) 624-1VIP or E-MAIL vipticketing@dncboston.com

...it's called Bruins

REVIEW

TOP-NOTCH NOSH

Rendezvous in Central Square proves to be more than just a place to meet and eat.

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY MATTHEW DEMERS

An aura of refinement marks this chic, understated eatery in Cambridge's lively but fringy Central Square. Tall, slender water glasses and capacious wine glasses with delicate stems contribute a note of elegance to its ambiance, while baskets of fresh-sliced loaves of Iggy's bread, chewy-crusted franceses, signal a serious commitment to finely crafted cuisine. Steve Johnson, Rendezvous' founder, owner and chef, who honed his talents at Hamersley's and later at the Blue Room, here presents a palette of vibrant flavors and exquisite textures, executed with finesse and consistency.

For example, the charcuterie of the week ($9) consisted of a delicious, coarse-textured pâté one evening, its robust pork flavor enlivened with garlic and herbs, and a silky-textured mousse of duck liver the following week. On both visits the meticulously constituted accompaniment of large caper berries, small cornichons, sweet pickled onions, stone-ground mustard, and garlic-and-olive-oil-soaked, toasted slices of French baguettes made me feel as if I had somehow wound up in a charming provincial bistro in France. Grilled Portuguese sardines ($11), a trio of hefty but sleek beauties presented artfully on a small platter, proved as delicious as they were visually appealing, their flesh firm yet tender and easily separated from the spine and bones. Fennel, thin strips of roasted red peppers, capers and flat-leafed parsley provided a piquant counterpoint to the pleasantly oily fish.

Risotto of fresh Maine shrimp ($11), their flavor and texture incomparable—making it a shame that these critters are available only a few weeks each year—were married to a perfect, creamy risotto cooked in rich shellfish stock that leveraged the intense flavor of the shrimp with a hint of lobster, with tomatoes, chervil, fennel and chives. I mopped up every drop of the ambrosial liquid that remained at the bottom of my bowl, sending it spanking clean back to the kitchen. Seared sea scallops ($11) turned out to be three giant beauties, golden brown on the outside with satiny texture within, their nutlike sweetness complemented by a garnish of blood orange, fennel and baby beets. Finally, gnocchi with braised winter vegetables ($12) combined an almost ethereal, light gnocchi—the steam and excess moisture had obviously been pressed out of hot potatoes before forming them into delicate pillows of pasta—with the warm, earthy flavors of baby turnips, parsnips and carrots and the aroma of shaved black truffles.

Seared sea scallops with blood orange, fennel and baby beets

Osso bucco, braised Niman Ranch pork with pimentón and jamón serrano

RENDEZVOUS IN CENTRAL SQUARE

502 Mass. Ave., Cambridge
617-576-1900

HOURS Sun.-Thu., 5-10 pm; Fri.-Sat., 5-11 pm

RESERVATIONS yes

CREDIT CARDS all major

HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes

PARKING yes

LIQUOR LICENSE full bar

The French and Italian focus of Rendezvous' starters was expanded to encompass more of the Mediterranean basin in its main courses. A Moroccan-style lamb tagine ($23) with dates, almonds and fregola sarda—large-grain couscous—contributed a particularly exotic note, with giant hunks of carrots, pleasantly bitter turnips and tender pieces of lamb delivering the distinctive flavors and aromas of the Maghreb. Gascon-style duck three ways ($25) paired a moist, tender, rare duck breast with duck confit, a leg and thigh (cuisse) cooked and preserved in its own fat to melt-in-the-mouth tenderness. A hefty cylinder of garlicky duck sausage completed the trio of meats but did not exhaust the wonders of the dish. Large white beans, firm yet luscious, shards of cabbage, and nuggets of pancetta completed the ensemble, resembling a soupy yet superb cassoulet.

Braised Niman Ranch pork osso bucco ($23) took on flavors from the chickpeas and carrots with which it was roasted, with additional flavors contributed by strips of roasted red pepper and salty-smoky nuggets of Serrano ham. Roast chicken ($21), its skin crisp and golden brown, came surrounded by an exquisite sauce of the reduced cooking juices and a splash of sherry, with a garnish of chestnuts, crimini mushrooms, carrots and greens.

As was the case at the Blue Room, Johnson's cuisine manifests know-how in the handling of seafood. Monkfish ($24) of resilient texture and fresh flavor came surrounded by a half-dozen littleneck clams in their briny liqueur, spinach-like greens and a creamy mushroom sauce. Last but not least, skillet-roasted skate ($21) had been semi-boned, leaving a layer of cartilage that seemed to impart richness to its flavor, complemented by roasted cauliflower in beurre noisette—brown butter, lemon and parsley—as well as capers and cress. Johnson's version of skate, a fish traditionally found in French bistros but less familiar on this side of the Atlantic, proved that it deserves to be better known.

Among Rendezvous' desserts, a superb warm chocolate cake ($7) stood out, combining a velvety, smooth texture with rich, intensely chocolate flavor, nutty pralines and cinnamon whipped cream. Lemon buttermilk pudding ($6), served warm and accompanied by a delicious sweet-tangy huckleberry sauce, came in a close second, while apple crostada ($7), its pastry reasonable flaky and tender, but its fruit sparse and the scoop of ice cream that accompanied it of muddled, undefined flavor—the menu said "honey lavender," but I tasted neither—came in a distant third.

Rendezvous' wine list contained a number of selections priced in the low $20s, including a decent 2001 Sicilian sangiovese, from Feudo d'Elimi ($24). Closed at first, it opened up as it breathed, and its good structure and ripe, full flavor made it a more than serviceable food companion. A major step up, the Montinore 2003 Oregon pinot noir ($30), combined fabulous bouquet, good acidity and a fine finish. Finally, the 2001 Dessilani Spanna ($31), 100 percent nebbiolo and, like its big brother Barolo, a hearty wine, was tannic and robust.

Lemon-buttermilk pudding with huckleberry sauce

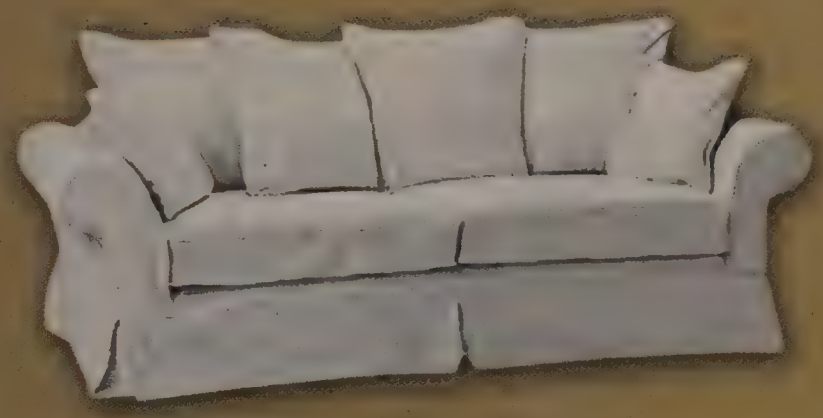
Left to right: Chef/owner Steve Johnson, executive chef Deepak Kaul and general manager Nicole Bernier

Rendezvous occupies a former Burger King—the gastronomic irony here is exquisite—which it has transformed into a chic, engaging venue that seats almost 80 at booths, banquettes and tables. Its high ceiling, partially paneled with dark wooden slats, supports small track spots illuminating the framed original watercolors created by Johnson's father that adorn the yellow and exposed-brick walls. An orange divider partially screens the open kitchen. Below an expansive skylight at the front of the dining room, café curtains dress windows that look out onto Mass. Ave. Good recorded jazz—audible and identifiable but not obtrusive—complete the ambiance. Impeccable service—consistently attentive, professional, informed and friendly—prevailed from the beginning to the end of both of my visits. Right off the bat the server warmed my heart by bringing to our table a pitcher of fresh ice water garnished with lemon, eschewing the tedious practice of too many Boston restaurants that push pricey bottled water.

Central Square, despite its sometimes seedy look, continues to draw enthusiastic diners and patrons to its eateries, watering holes and music venues. Rendezvous is a most worthy addition to these fun places. iB

DISCOVER THE BEST KEPT SECRET IN AFFORDABLE HOME FURNISHINGS!



URBAN RENEWAL

CHIC WHOLESALE FURNITURE BY APPOINTMENT

THE NO-FRILLS ALTERNATIVE TO PRICEY FURNITURE STORES. IN OUR WAREHOUSE SHOWROOM YOU'LL FIND POPULAR STYLES FOR EVERY ROOM IN YOUR HOME. WE OFFER THE SAME STYLES AS POTTERY BARN AND CRATE & BARREL, WITH MORE FABRICS & FINISHES TO CHOOSE FROM.....FOR A FRACTION OF THE RETAIL COST!

SHOP SMART, SAVE MONEY, AND CREATE THE HOME OF YOUR DREAMS!

CALL FOR AN APPOINTMENT TODAY!

URBAN RENEWAL
CHIC WHOLESALE FURNITURE BY APPT.

368 CONGRESS STREET
3RD FLOOR
BOSTON, MA 02210
617.695.2555

10 MERCER RD
NATICK, MA 01760
508.655.5503

SO GO AHEAD.....INDULGE.
YOUR SECRET IS SAFE WITH US!

WWW.URBANRENEWALFURNITURE.COM

93 YEARS
FAMILY OWNED & OPERATED

SERVING BOSTON'S FINEST RESTAURANTS

LARGEST SHOWROOM IN THE NORTHEAST

COME BROWSE OUR HUGE SELECTION

- Smallwares
- Tabletop
- Furniture
- Custom Fabrication
- Kitchen Fabrication
- Multi-unit Pricing

BOSTON SHOWCASE COMPANY

Specialists in food service equipment since 1913

66 Winchester St., Newton, MA
www.bostonshowcase.com
1-800-422-5290 1-617-965-1100

Come in for a free design consultation
Lease and finance options available

TASTINGS

BY RICH LEVINE

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Tastings, or e-mail information to tastings@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Events

blu Winter Wine Series
blu at The Sports Club/L.A., 4 Avery St., 4th floor, Boston (617-375-8550). www.blurestaurant.com. MBTA: Green Line to Park. March 18, 1-2:30 pm. $60. Learn about Burgundy while enjoying three wines paired with dishes from chef Tom Fosnot.

Boston Wine Festival
Boston Harbor Hotel, 70 Rowes Wharf, Boston (617-330-9355). www.bostonwinefestival.net. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Through April, the Boston Wine Festival features more than 50 events. •March 8: Shea Wine Cellars, 6:30 pm, $195. •March 9: Stony Hill Vineyard, 7 pm, $165. •March 14: Warres Port, 6:30 pm, $210. •March 15: Steltzner Vineyards, 7 pm, $145. •March 16: Badia a Coltibuono, 7 pm, $145. •March 17: Flavors of the Mediterranean, 7 pm, $85. •March 20: L'Aventure, 6:30 pm, $195. •March 21: Blind Wines, 7 pm, $145.

Cooking Classes at Rialto
Rialto, 1 Bennett St., Cambridge (617-661-5050). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 11 am-2 pm. $100. This winter, chef Jody Adams hosts three Northern Italian–themed cooking classes that include instruction, lunch with wine, and recipes to take home. •March 18: Tuscany.

Epicurean Evenings
Aujourd'hui at Four Seasons, 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2037). www.fourseasons.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue., 6 pm. $45. Sommelier Ted Davidson and chef Jerome Legras host this weekly event that offers guests three light courses built around a theme, region or grape variety. •March 14: Memoirs of Acacia. •March 21: I Love You for Sedimental Reasons.

Feast for the Senses
Fairmont Copley Plaza, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-267-4430). www.fairmont.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. March 15. 5:30 pm. $104-$122. After guests enjoy a three-course dinner paired with wine and prepared by Fairmont executive chef Laurent Poulain, they are transported to Symphony Hall for a program conducted by David Robertson.

Fireside Chats
The Fireplace, 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). www.fireplacerest.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Washington. Sat., 3 pm. $25. Chef/owner Jim Solomon hosts gastronomic experts who discuss subjects that range from wines to foods to microbrews. •March 11: Cabernet Sauvignon. •March 18: New England Cheese.

Gaelic Gourmet Gala
Hotel Commonwealth, 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-1011). www.irishmassachusetts.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. March 15, 6-9 pm. $150. Six master chefs from Ireland team up with six local chefs, including Jasper White, Michael Schlow, Ken Oringer, Barbara Lynch and Marc Orfaly, to prepare a gourmet dinner benefiting BU's School of Hospitality Administration.

Great Chefs Cooking for a Cure
125 High St., Boston (617-632-3021). March 9, 6:30-9 pm. $75. Enjoy fare from more than 30 Boston-area restaurants and wine from local wineries at this eighth annual event benefiting cancer research at Dana-Farber.

Hot off the Vine at 33
33 Restaurant, 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311). www.33restaurant.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 5-7 pm. $20-$25. Join chef Anthony Dawodu and wine director Jacob Knight Wednesdays for a sampling of four wines paired with complementary food tastings.

McCormick & Schmick's Wine Dinners
McCormick & Schmick's, North Market Building, Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-720-5522). www.mccormickandschmicks.com. MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center. 6:30 pm. $55-$60. McCormick & Schmick's hosts two wine dinners featuring signature dishes paired with six wines from a specific region. •March 20: California Reds. •March 21: Willamette Valley Vineyards.

Smith & Wollensky Wine Week
Smith & Wollensky, 101 Arlington St., Boston (617-423-1112). www.nationalwineweek.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. March 20-24. $10. In honor of the 38th annual National Wine Week, Smith & Wollensky offers a sampling of 10 different wines every day for $10, with the cost of lunch.

Taste of the South End
Cyclorama, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-450-1526). www.aac.org/taste. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. March 14, 6:30- 9 pm. $100-$125. Enjoy food and wine samples from more than 40 South End restaurants like Rouge, Tremont 647 and Turner Fisheries, all while helping raise funds for the AIDS Action Committee.

Tuesday Night Wine Tasting
Les Zygomates, 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). www.winebar.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 6 and 8 pm. $30. Sommelier Geoffrey Fallon discusses various wines, and chef Ian Just pairs the wines with hors d'oeuvres and offers brief cooking demonstrations. •March 14: German Riesling. •March 21: Piedmont (Beyond Barolo).

Wine and Dine Mondays
Beacon Hill Bistro, 25 Charles St., Boston (617-723-1133). www.beaconhillhotel.com. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. Second and fourth Mon. of each month. $55. Chef Ben Knack prepares a four-course meal paired with wines from around the world. A brief discussion of each wine follows, led by local experts Cecilia Rait and Marilyn Snee. •March 13: Blind Tastings.

Wine Mondays at L'Espalier
L'Espalier, 30 Gloucester St., Boston (617-262-3023). www.lespalier.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. 7 pm. $50. Sommelier Erik Johnson presents wines to complement a four-course French–New England meal by chef Frank McClelland. •March 13: I Want to Be a Rhône. •March 20: Spain.

Wine Wednesdays at Sel de la Terre
Sel de la Terre, 255 State St., Boston (617-720-1300). www.seldelaterre.com. MBTA: Orange Line to State. Wed., 7 pm. $41. Chef Geoff Gardner pairs French cuisine with wines selected by sommelier Erik Johnson. •March 8: An Evening of Wine and Chocolate. •March 15: Spain.

Winter Restaurant Week
www.bostonusa.com. Through March 10. During this week-long event, more than 90 local restaurants offer three-course prix-fixe lunches for $20.06 and dinner for $30.06. See the Web site for a list of participating restaurants.

DISH

SoulFired Up...

Bringing BBQ to Allston

BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

Wyeth Lynch is on a smokin' hot mission.

So there are these two guys, and each wants to open his own restaurant. Our first prospective restaurateur is Wyeth Lynch, a product of deep suburbia (Wayland) and a superb liberal arts institution (Williams College). This former English major originally aspired to a career in venture capital and was constructively engaged in technical research and consulting, until he took some "very therapeutic" time off and saw the light... the light of a low, slow barbecue flame. And so Lynch embarked on a mission to learn about barbecue, first working a stint at Blue Smoke in Manhattan, and afterward running his own barbecue-focused catering business.

"I started doing it out of my own apartment, my parents' house in Vermont, anywhere I could go and smoke meat," he says. But that wasn't enough, and so Lynch is now planning to open SoulFire at the site of the former City Convenience store in Allston, next to the Wonder Bar.

"I haven't run my own restaurant before," he concedes. Enter Ed Doyle, restaurant consultant extraordinaire at Real Food, Inc. and former executive chef at Aura in the Seaport Hotel. Doyle, who's incidentally been working to open his own restaurant, Haven, on the South Boston waterfront for several years now, thinks his client has what it takes to succeed: "He's a barbecue junkie," he says of Lynch. "It's a fun little project, really cool. I think people will respond well to it."

Lynch hopes to open SoulFire by June. He's still fine-tuning the décor—picnic tables? a "rustic church feel"?—but has settled on a casual, moderately priced, no-service concept (order at the counter, take a wax paper–covered silver tray) and a traditional menu of pulled pork, ribs, fried catfish, barbecue beans, macaroni and cheese, etc.

Meanwhile, chef No. 2, Ed Doyle, is continuing to work successfully with clients. His ongoing Farmers Diner project in Vermont is set for expansion, and he recently landed an appearance on ABC's "The View," where he was on to raise the profile of a gourmet popcorn company. "You never know where your career will take you," he says. Sadly, his own pet project has now taken him past the point of all hope.

"Haven is dead," he says. "That was a hard one. It was too convoluted, too many issues involved in the waterfront."

So Doyle is disappointed, but not devastated. He's got a healthy sense of perspective after spending three weeks in New Orleans, four and a half months after Hurricane Katrina, volunteering his time for the Red Cross. Surprisingly, he wasn't cooking but driving a truck, "delivering shovels and respirators to people in what's left of their homes," he says. "It was an incredibly intense, rewarding experience." Not much has been done to rebuild the area outside the most famous parts of New Orleans, and Doyle is concerned about the loss of "a huge swath of culture" beyond the tourist-driven restaurants. IB

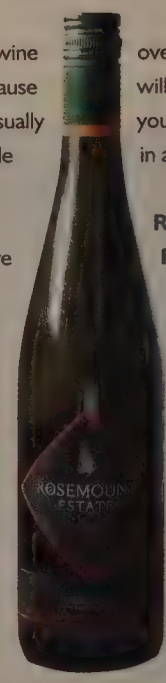
Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send it to dish@improper.com

WINE

Riesling Rising

BY SANDY BLOCK, M.W.



Lately, the first place I check on any wine list is the riesling section. Why? Because unless I'm ordering steak, there's usually a delicious one that will complement a wide variety of foods; for instance, as far as I'm concerned it's the only wine for breakfast. People are funny about riesling, though. I've conducted numerous blind tastings over the years, pitting several different classic wine styles against one another to determine flavor preferences. Whenever there are 30 or more people present, regardless of their experience levels, riesling consistently proves to be the most popular wine. In some instances, if a group tastes eight or so different types, a majority ends up choosing it. Invariably, however, when we unmask the bottles, the tune changes. Suddenly everyone wants to protest that maybe they didn't really like that riesling as much as they first thought, that maybe it was the chardonnay that actually tasted better all along. So we have a huge disconnect between the flavors people actually like and the wines that they choose to buy and drink. This gives rise to what we call riesling-phobia.

What causes fear of riesling is the simple desire to appear sophisticated. If, the reasoning goes, rieslings are from Germany, and they're packaged in those long, skinny bottles, and German wine in that kind of bottle is sugary and cheap, and the only people who drink sweet wine have no taste, why would I want a riesling? A legitimate question, but there are signs on the horizon that this trend is reversing, that highbrow and lowbrow tastes are starting to converge. Riesling has been un-cool for so long, that it's actually become the underground sentimental favorite of many professional sommeliers and other so-called experts. In fact, this grape is the white equivalent of everyone's current darling, pinot noir. The parallels are there (high acidity, pure reflection of grape-growing conditions in the flavor, light and delicate in body, brilliant perfume), but the riesling grape is actually more versatile in terms of the style of wine it can make. So there's a riesling renaissance in full swing that should not be ignored, because the wines just keep getting better and better. This year's crop brings some new players into the picture alongside the usual stars from Europe: Australia and New Zealand. If any more proof is needed that riesling is about to go mainstream, note that we said Australia is in on the act. If they're selling it, it's got to be hot.

The following blind-tasting winners represent the finest among the wines I've recently sampled in a moderate price range. That's the other virtue of this grape, and perhaps the best reason to order from that section of the menu: Riesling is usually an outstanding value. Spend a little bit more and the flavors are divine. If you can overcome your worry that drinking a riesling will hurt you, you might even find it'll improve your image. As usual, the following are listed in ascending order of preference.

Rosemount Estate "Diamond Label" Riesling, Southeast Australia, 2005 ($10)

Southeast Australia indeed! Just when we were getting used to the Clare and Eden Valleys as points of origin for outstanding Aussie riesling, here comes this wine with a lowly miscellaneous appellation, packed with flavor at a ridiculous, giveaway price. Definitely in the Alsatian mode, this is bone dry, somewhat sturdy in structure, with crisp, clean, lime-like flavors. Think grilled seafood, especially scallops.

August Kessler, Riesling Qba, Rheingau, 2004 ($12)

Forget the German wine-classification system as a guide to quality, because this Qba-ranked wine (which officially makes it somewhat of a second-class citizen) is outstanding. The aromatics are classic Rheingau: lemon, apple, a bit of spice and a bouquet of herbs. Crisp, fresh, balanced between sweet and dry, with sharp, tangerine-like acid but a gentle feel, this very fresh, juicy, medium-bodied riesling calls out for a plate of smoked trout or chicken salad with raisins.

Pierre Sparr Riesling, Alsace, 2004 ($12)

This wine's the real deal, and at this price it's a bargain. Sparr produces this riesling in the mode of Alsace the way it used to be: dry, ripe and minerally. Despite the pineapple-like aromas (there are also undertones of dill and more flowery herbs), the flavors are a bit steely and the body is quite full, with an almost oily texture. Dry but laced with fruit, this is a nice match for mildly spicy fish or duck dishes.

Kurt Hain, Piesporter Goldtropfchen Riesling Kabinett, Mosel Saar Ruwer, Germany, 2004 ($20)

What's better than the middle Mosel for producing impeccably structured riesling in a somewhat cool vintage like 2004? Hain is a rising star of the region that makes slightly sweet, precisely balanced wine with clean, lusciously honeyed fruit. Peachy, apple blossom–like and flowery in perfume, this very light-bodied wine's pure, mineral-accented, lingering flavors are ideal for lovers of traditional German riesling as well as newcomers who want to find out what it's all about. You can use this as an aperitif, or serve it with salads or with any white-fleshed fish. IB

Master of Wine Sandy Block is vice president of beverage operations for Legal Sea Foods.

UPSTAIRS ON THE SQUARE

CELEBRATE RESTAURANT WEEK

{ALL OF MARCH}

2 DINING ROOMS WITH 2 MENUS

★★★★

In the Heart of Harvard Square
Open for Afternoon Tea, Lunch, Brunch and Dinner Every Day of the Week

91 Winthrop Street · Valet Parking Every Night
617 864.1933 · upstairsonthesquare.com

March of Dimes WalkAmerica

walk for someone you love

Thank You to Our National Sponsors

kmart

CIGNA
A Business of Caring.

FedEx

FARMERS

Famous Footwear
a company of BROWN SHOE

First Response

Grains for Life

MeadJohnson Nutritionals

BabyFit.com

Continental Airlines

Discovery Health Channel

Premature babies need hope, love and you!

Join us on Sunday, April 30th at The Hatch Shell.

Walk for someone you love™ by registering today at www.walkamerica.org or calling 508-366-9066.

WCVB-TV 5 Boston

105.7 WROR

Community Newspaper Company
A Herald Media Company

Sign up today! walkamerica.org · 1 800 525 WALK

HOT TIPS FROM
CALENDAR GURUS
LESLIE AND RICH

IMPROPER PICKS

march 8 - 21

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			8	9	10	11
				Boston Ballet debuts its presentation of Frederick Ashton's La Fille Mal Gardée at the Wang Theatre. See Performing Arts on page 55.		The weeklong New England Flower Show kicks off at the BaySide Expo Center. See CityScope on page 53.
12	13	14	15	16	17	18
The Boston Jolly Pirates and Plan 17 headline a show at the Middle East Club. See Music on page 63.		The annual Taste of the South End gets under way at the Cyclorama on Tremont Street. See Tastings on page 46.		Wediko Children's Services hosts its second annual benefit comedy show at the Comedy Connection. See CityScope on page 53.	Party your way over to South Boston for the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade. See CityScope on page 53.
19	20	21
The Brattle Theatre holds the annual Chlotrudis Awards for Boston's best indie films of 2005. See Movies on page 58.	Enjoy a sampling of 10 different wines for $10 with lunch during Smith & Wollensky Wine Week. See Tastings on page 46.

WED./ MARCH 8

CityScope: World Party

The transModa fashion show brings philanthropy and fashion together for one big event on March 8, in honor of International Women's Day. The South End's Cyclorama at the Boston Center for the Arts transforms into an international celebration as some of the city's fashion experts create designs and costumes for the fourth annual fundraiser. Local boutiques (Matsu, Stil, Tibetan Emporium, Nomad and Kim's Fashion Design) team up to combine cutting-edge fashions with traditional costumes from around the world. The event includes Cajun-inspired appetizers, libations and a steel drum band. Proceeds benefit Spheres of Exchange, a local nonprofit that supports Boston immigrants and refugees. 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-817-2995). www.transmoda.org. 6:30 pm. $100.

—LPK

CITYSCOPE 53
PERFORMING ARTS 54
MOVIES 56
MUSIC 61
CLASSICAL MUSIC 67
DANCE CLUBS 69
MUSEUMS & GALLERIES . . 73
GAY & LESBIAN 76
BOOKS & POETRY 78
EDUCATION 79
BODY & MIND 80
SPORTS 81
CHILDREN 82
AROUND TOWN 83

CALENDAR EDITED BY
Erin Graham Books & Poetry, Movies
Leslie P. Kilgore Around Town, Children, Education, Movies, Museums & Galleries, Music
Rich Levine CityScope, Dance Clubs, Gay & Lesbian, Performing Arts, Sports
ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY
Laurel Kirtz Body & Mind
Paul Sherman Movie Capsules

Left to right: Evidence, Rakaa and DJ Babu

MON./MARCH 13

Music: Kings of the Underground

Dilated Peoples might've only arrived at the forefront of the hip-hop world over the past couple years, but the West Coast–based trio of Evidence, Rakaa and DJ Babu have owned rap's underground scene for nearly 15. They formed in 1992 and put together a powerful array of singles in the '90s, before one beat in particular, a song called "Work the Angles," became a hit in the clubs and on the radio and led the group to sign a deal with Capitol Records. Since then, they've been hip-hop machines: Their first album, The Platform, debuted in 2000, and was followed by Expansion Team (2001), Neighborhood Watch (2004) and most recently 20/20, which dropped last month. Four albums in six years? We say you better catch their show at the Paradise Rock Club on March 13 while they're on a roll. 967 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com. 8 pm. $18. —RL

SUN./MARCH 12

Comedy: Mecca and Matzo Balls

You heard the one about the Jew and the Muslim who perform onstage together? If not, you might want to head over to the Berklee Performance Center on March 12 and check out One Muslim. One Jew. One Stage. The show features two very different comedians, Rabbi Bob Alper and Ahmed Ahmed, who distance themselves from the too common Jewish/Muslim bickering and instead discuss and make light of some things the two groups have in common. Ahmed is coming off a recent 30-city tour with Vince Vaughn's Wild West Comedy show, and his film and TV résumé includes appearances on PUNK'D, Tough Crowd with Colin Quinn, Swingers and Tracy Takes On. Alper, a past winner of the Jewish Comic of the Year Contest and a practicing rabbi who still leads services in the Philadelphia area, is the author of two books, Life Doesn't Get Any Better Than This and A Rabbi Confesses. He's also performed at the Montreal Comedy Festival. Sounds great to us. Challah back, Rabbi! 136 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-931-2261). www.berkleebpc.com. 6 pm. $18-$30. —RL

Ahmed Ahmed (left) and Rabbi Bob Alper

THU.-SUN./MARCH 9-12, MARCH 16-19

Performing Arts: They Will, They Will Rock You

Outrageous costumes, bombastic orchestration and screeching falsettos: a night at the oper or the best of classic rock? Actually, it's both. The UltraSonic Rock Orchestra, an ensembl of 26 Boston-area musicians and singers, is returning to Arlington's Regent Theatre to present an expanded version of their popular show A Night at the Rock Opera. This year's performance combines selections from the early-'70s rock opera Jesus Christ Superstar with songs by the Who, David Bowie and Queen, as well as tunes from an original "mini–rock opera" titled Will We Rock You? The production is the brainchild of local musician-filmmakers Sal Clemente and Alan Ware, who presented the original at the Regent back i 2004. You can leave the opera glasses at home, but bring your ear plugs. 7 Medford St., Arlington (781-646-4849). 7:30 pm. $25 in advance, $30 the day of the show. —LPK

Dropkick Murphys

FRI./MARCH 17

CityScope: Green Day

Come March 17, residents of the country's most Irish city will turn out at bars and pubs in every corner of Boston to hoist a few pints of the green stuff. We couldn't hope to list all the celebrations that'll take place in St. Pat's name, but here are three that caught our Irish eyes this year. Doors at the Black Rose swing open at 6 am, and at 8 am the Guinness starts flowing, but more importantly, so does a free concert by the Dropkick Murphys. The local Irishmen will play a three-set show, which will also be broadcast live on 101.7 WFNX. Meanwhile, on the other side of the Charles, Grafton Street in Harvard Square offers a full Irish menu from 11 am to 10 pm, and features live Irish tunes by Maxi Courtney, the O'Meara Brothers and Barry Hynes from 5 pm-2 am. In Brighton, the Irish Village serves up Irish beer's perfect accompaniment—free corned beef sandwiches—from 11 am-10 pm, with live music from 10 pm-1 am. The Black Rose, 160 State St., Boston (617-742-2286). Doors open at 6 am. Free; Grafton Street Pub & Grill, 1230 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-0400). 11 am-2 am. $10 after 9 pm; Irish Village, 224 Market St., Brighton (617-787-5427). 11 am-1 am. Free. —RL

cityscope

dvice to Contributors

ibmit updated listings for benefits, festivals, activities id events by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calen- ir: CityScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@ nproper.com. Include address, phone number, ticket rice, dates and times, and a brief description of the ent. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. istings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Benefits

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8

ransModa: Celebrating World Cultures through Fashion

Cyclorama Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., oston (617-817-2995). www.transmoda.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. 6:30 pm. $100. At the fourth nnual transModa fashion show, first-time models—ncluding dancers from Boston Ballet, journalists and hD candidates—walk down the runway in fashions om Hadley Pollet, Matsu, Stil, Tibetan Emporium, Nomad and Kim's Fashion Design, as well as in cos- umes from more than 50 countries, accompanied by world music and a steel-drum band. Cajun appetizers re served, and proceeds benefit Spheres of Exchange nd its support of refugees and immigrants.

THURSDAY, MARCH 9

Comedy Night

ae's, 711 Boylston St., Boston (617-524-8882). www.littlebrothers.org/boston. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 7 pm. $30. Steve Sweeney's Comedy Club presents a night of comedy with cocktails and appetizers to benefit Little Brothers—Friends of the Elderly.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10

"Give Back" Charity Fundraiser

The Greatest Bar, 262 Friend St., Boston (617-367-0544). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station. 6 pm. $10. This fundraiser includes a raffle, light appetizers and a cash bar, and benefits Team Brigham Community Care for Women, the largest source of fundraising for Brigham and Women's community health initiatives.

The Golf Ball

Veronique Ballroom, 20 Chapel St., Brookline (617-731-4800). www.par4cure.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood. 6 pm. $55. Newscenter 5's Liz Brunner emcees this black-tie Jimmy Fund benefit, which features raffles, a silent auction, live music and such guest speakers as Emily Crockett, a brain cancer survivor who attends Harvard. Proceeds benefit the Dana Farber Cancer Institute.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11

Sun Enchanted Evening

Veronique Ballroom, 20 Chapel St., Brookline (617-972-8300, ext. 29). www.revels.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood. 6:30 pm. $175, individuals; $330, couples; $640, tables of four; $1,200, tables of eight. The Revels' 35th Anniversary Gala and Auction features swing dancing with music by the White Heat Swing Dance Orchestra, a silent auction and a live auction. All proceeds help keep "Summer Revels" a free community event.

"Swellegance" Benefit

Royal Sonesta Hotel, 5 Cambridge Pkwy., Cambridge (617-523-1355). www.bostonyouthmoves.org. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. 7:30 pm. $100. Swellegance features Broadway choreographer Sean Curran's dance routine performed by Boston Youth Moves dancers, an appearance by dance legend Marge Champion, entertainment, food, champagne and a silent auction. Proceeds benefit Boston Youth Moves, a preprofessional nonprofit dance school for students in the New England area.

SUNDAY, MARCH 12

Gibson House Benefit Tea

Four Seasons Hotel, 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-267-6338). www.thegibsonhouse.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 3 pm. $80. The Gibson House Museum's 10th Annual Benefit Tea includes a ladies' hat and gentlemen's bow-tie contest, a raffle, a live auction and afternoon tea.

THURSDAY, MARCH 16

Comedy Night Benefit

Comedy Connection, 245 Quincy Market, Boston (617-292-9200). www.wediko.org. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center. 7 pm. $30. The Wediko Children's Services hosts their second annual "Comedy Night" to benefit this school for Boston children.

Newscenter 5's Liz Brunner emcees a benefit for the Jimmy Fund, March 10

FRIDAY, MARCH 17

Make-A-Wish Benefit

Coogan's, 171 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415). www.wish.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. 7 pm. $20 in advance, $25 at the door. The Greater Boston Chi Omega Alumnae Association hosts this St. Patrick's Day event, which includes a complimentary glass of champagne, raffle ticket, hors d'oeuvres, live music and a silent auction to benefit the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Massachusetts.

St. Patrick's Day Dinner

Omni Parker House, 60 School St., Boston (617-227-8600). www.charitableirishsociety.org. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center. 7 pm. $250. The Charitable Irish Society, the country's oldest Irish organization, holds its annual St. Patrick's Day dinner.

Festivals & Parties

SATURDAY, MARCH 11

Newton Free Library Special Event

330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1400). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7 pm. $75. Host of NPR's On Point Tom Ashbrook acts as honorary chair for the evening as authors William Novak, Julia Glass, William Martin, Megan Marshall, William Landay and Tova Mirvis receive tributes for their work. Jazz music, a silent literary auction and a performance by Newton South's a cappella group, the Newtones, will also be part of the night's entertainment.

Old Town Trolley Chocolate Tour

The Trolley Stop Store, corner of Boylston and South Charles streets, Boston (617-269-3626). Sat. and Sun. through April 30; tours depart at 11:30 am and 12:45 pm. $60. This fully narrated tour includes chocolate-tasting stops at the Top of the Hub, the Omni Parker Hotel and the chocolate-bar buffet at the Langham Hotel.

135th Annual New England Spring Flower Show

220 Mount Vernon St., Dorchester (617-933-4983). www.baysidexpo.com. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Through March 19. $10-$20. The Massachusetts Horticultural Society hosts the 135th Annual New England Spring Flower Show, featuring various exhibits and events for adults and children throughout the week, including the annual Garden to Gourmet night on March 13.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14

Irish Food and Culture Kickoff Event

Omni Parker House Hotel, 60 School St., Boston (617-227-8600). www.irishmassachusetts.com. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center. 6 pm. $60. The second annual Irish Food & Culture celebration begins at the Omni Parker with a visiting Irish chef and Omni Parker chef Gerry Tice creating a tribute to the traditional fare of Ireland and New England.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15

Irish Food and Culture Event

Jurys Boston Hotel, 350 Stuart St., Boston (617-532-3827). www.jurysdoyle.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 7 pm. $65. The second annual Irish Food & Culture celebration continues at the Stanhope Grille, featuring visiting Irish master chef Kevin Dundon who teams with Stanhope's executive chef, Matthew King, to create a five-course menu.

FRIDAY, MARCH 17

Dropkick Murphys at the Black Rose

The Black Rose, 160 State St., Boston (617-742-2286). Doors open at 6 am. Free. The Dropkick Murphys kick off the Black Rose's 30th St. Patrick's Day celebration with a three-set show starting at 8 am. Irish fare is served all day and the party also includes performances by Celtic Clan and Sunday's Well.

First Annual Evacuation Day Extravaganza

Milky Way Lounge & Lanes, 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). www.thelarkinbrigade.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. 9 pm. $8. 21+. Local Irish band the Larkin Brigade performs folk music alongside rock band Crumb Sullivans and traditional Irish band the Allston Pints.

Irish Village Celebration

Irish Village, 224 Market St., Brighton (617-787-5427). 11 am-1 am. Free. Irish Village's St. Patrick's Day party features free corn beef sandwiches until 10 pm and a performance by Irish rocker Maxi Courtney.

St. Paddy's Day at Grafton Street

Grafton Street Pub & Grill, 1230 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-0400). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 11 am-2 am. $10 after 9 pm. This celebration features a special Irish menu, as well as performances by Maxi Courtney, the O'Meara Brothers and Barry Hynes.

SATURDAY, MARCH 18

Center for Women & Enterprise Celebration

Seaport Hotel, One Seaport Lane, Boston (617-532-0246). cneu@cwonline.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 6 pm. $175. The Center for Women & Enterprise hosts its annual auction and dinner celebration. The organization honors Helen Greiner of iRobot, Sandy Lish of the Castle Group and Grace Richardson of Ms. Grace's Homeschool.

SUNDAY, MARCH 19

Boston's St. Patrick's Day Parade

West Broadway, South Boston. www.irishmassachusetts.com. 1 pm. Free. Boston's 105th annual St. Patrick's Day parade features bands from Ireland and across the U.S., as well as local groups including the Boston Gaelic Column, composed of Boston police officers.

Singles

MONDAY, MARCH 13

8-Minute Dating

SoHo, 386 Market St., Brighton (617-562-6000). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 7:08 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals ages 25-30.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14

8-Minute Dating

DeVille Lounge at Kings, 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. 6:30 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals 22-32.

MONDAY, MARCH 20

8-Minute Dating

Fire and Ice, 205 Berkeley St., Boston (617-482-3473). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. 7:08 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals 28-38.

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts, or e-mail to performing@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Tickets to sold-out shows.

Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Same-day tickets at half price.

Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Tickets to sold-out shows.

StubHub
(866-788-2482). www.stubhub.com. A forum to buy and sell tickets.

Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.tixboston.com. Tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater and Opera

JUST OPENED

Cosí Fan Tutte
Cutler Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (800-233-3123). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. March 11 and 12. Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $12-$15. New England Conservatory Opera Theatre celebrates Mozart's 250th birthday with his opera They're All Like That, about flirtation and fidelity.

Einstein's Dreams
MIT, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4003). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. March 13-14, 7:30 pm. No tickets or reservations necessary. This play is based on the eponymous international best-seller and takes place in Berne, Switzerland, just before Einstein finishes his Theory of Relativity. Directed by Jon Lipsky.

The Good Body
The Cutler Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (800-233-3123). www.maj.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. March 21-26. Tue., 7:30 pm; Wed.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. $35-$65. Eve Ensler explores the cultures of beauty, food and desire through the eyes of women around the world in this one-woman play. Directed by Peter Askin.

A More Perfect Union
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. March 9-April 1. Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 7 pm. $15-$25. Local writer Kirsten Greenidge's play, inspired by the experiences of Fenway High School teacher Obain Attouoman, explores the idea of justice in its many forms. Directed by Juanita Rodrigues.

Mortified
The Tribe Theatre, 67 Stuart St., Boston (617-510-4447). www.getmortified.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. March 18, 8 pm. $15-$20. Mortified stars everyday adults sharing their most pathetic love letters, diary entries, locker notes and more, out loud in front of an audience.

Night at the Rock Opera [illegible] Theatre, 7 Medford St., Arlington (781-646-[illegible] regenttheatre.com. MBTA: D Green [illegible] to Lechmere. March 9-19. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $25-$35. Eighteen [illegible] and eight musicians come together to perform music by the Beatles, David Bowie, Queen, the Who as well as selections from Jesus Christ Superstar and the mini-opera Will We Rock You?

Sunday in the Park with George
Boston Conservatory Theatre, 31 Hemenway St., Boston (617-912-9222). www.bostonconservatory.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. March 9-12. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $5-$16. The Boston Conservatory Theatre Ensemble presents Stephen Sondheim's Pulitzer Prize–winning musical inspired by Georges Seurat's painting "Sunday Afternoon on the Island of La Grande Jatte."

Boston Ballet presents La Fille Mal Gardée, March 9-12, at the Wang Theatre.

Talking to Terrorists
Plaza Theatre, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. March 17-April 8. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $35-$40. The Súgán Theatre Company presents the American premiere of this production, written by Robin Soans, that takes an inside look at terrorism. Directed by Carmel O'Reilly.

Things Beyond Our Control
Spingold Theater Center, Brandeis University, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3400). www.brandeis.edu/theater. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. March 16-26. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; March 25, 2 and 8 pm; March 26, 2 pm. $16-$20. The Brandeis Theater Company performs the world premiere of alumnus Jesse Kellerman's play about relationships turned upside down after a bike and taxi cab collide in Dallas.

NOW RUNNING

Bill W. and Dr. Bob
New Repertory Theatre, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-8487). www.newrep.com. Through March 26. Wed., 7:30 pm; Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 3:30 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $30-$48. New Rep presents this story, written by Stephen Bergman and Janet Surrey, about the founding of Alcoholics Anonymous in the early 1930s. Directed by Rick Lombardo.

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.blueman.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Wed.-Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 pm; Sat., 4, 7 and 10 pm; Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $46-$56. The blue trio performs an ongoing show that mixes art, music, comedy and a lot of toilet paper.

Broad Comedy: Boston Tour
Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (617-426-4499). www.broadcomedy.com. MTBA: Green Line to Arlington. March 11, 18 and 25, 8 pm. $20-$28.50. Winner of Best of Vancouver Fringe Fest 2005, Broad Comedy is an all-female comedy troupe with skits such as The United States Extreme Right-Wing Cheerleading Squad.

Brooklyn Boy
Roberts Studio Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (800-233-3123). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through April 1. Wed-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $42-$46. In this play by Donald Margulies, a novelist experiences fame with the success of his semiautobiographical novel, but when he returns home, he must learn to accept who he is. Directed by Adam Zahler.

Forbidden Broadway: Special Victims Unit
Stanford Calderwood Pavilion at the Boston Center for the Arts, 527 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. Through March 12. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $55-$60. Creator, writer and director Gerard Alessandrini updates his 23-year-running spoof on the biggest shows, celebrities and failures in the American theater scene.

The Full Monty
Turtle Lane Playhouse, 283 Melrose St., Newton (617-244-0169). www.turtlelane.com. Through March 12. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $24. The Turtle Lane Players present this musical based on the popular British film about male strippers.

The Goat, or Who is Sylvia?
The Lyric Stage Comany, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-437-7172). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Through March 18. Wed., 2 and 7:30 pm; Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $20-$47. The Lyric Stage Company presents the Boston premiere of Edward Albee's three-time Pulitzer Prize–winning drama about an ideal fami[illegible] that encounters trouble after the husband confides [illegible] his best friend that he's found a new love. Directed [illegible] Spiro Veloudos.

The Hopper Collection
Huntington Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Bost[illegible] (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. Throu[illegible] April 2. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and [illegible] pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. $15-$70. This play by M[illegible] Smart tells the story of a couple whose severe marit[illegible] problems stem from the wife's obsession with art[illegible] Edward Hopper. Directed by Daniel Auklin.

The Night of the Iguana
Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (800-44[illegible] 7400). www.wangcenter.org. MBTA: Green Line [illegible] Boylston. March 13, 7 pm. $10. American Voic[illegible] presents a reading of Tennessee Williams' play abo[illegible] Reverend T. Lawrence Shannon and his strugg[illegible] with the need for human interaction and love.

Menopause: The Musical
Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (61[illegible] 426-4499). www.stuartstreetplayhouse.com. MBT[illegible] Green Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Wed., 1:30 and 8 pm[illegible] Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $42.50. [illegible] Jeannie Linder's musical, four aging baby boome[illegible] with nothing in common but memory loss and h[illegible] flashes meet at a lingerie sale.

Othello
BCA Plaza Theatre, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-93[illegible] 8600). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Oran[illegible] Line to Back Bay. Through March 11. Wed.-Fri., 8 pm[illegible] Sat., 2 and 8 pm. $20-$27. Boston Theatre Works pr[illegible] sents Shakespeare's tragedy about jealousy, love, rac[illegible] politics and betrayal. Directed by Jason Slavick.

Romeo and Juliet
Loeb Drama Center, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (61[illegible] 547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Ha[illegible] vard. Through March 25. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri.,[illegible] pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. $37-$7[illegible] The American Repertory Theatre presents an ada[illegible] tation of Shakespeare's tragic love story.

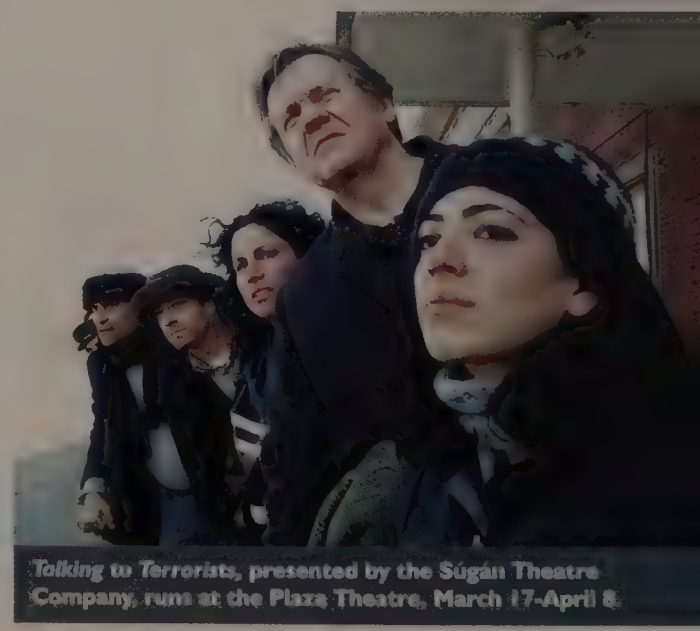
Seven Rabbits on a Pole
Stoneham Theatre, 395 Main St., Stoneham (781-27[illegible] 2200). www.stonehamtheatre.org. Through March 1[illegible] Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun.,[illegible] pm. $18-$36. Writer/director John C. Picardi presen[illegible] the second of his 10-play series on the 20th-centu[illegible] Italian-American experience in Massachusetts.

Shear Madness
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (61[illegible] 426-5225). www.shearmadness.com/boston. MBT[illegible] Green Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm[illegible] Sat., 6 and 9 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:30 pm. $38. Th[illegible] comedic whodunit, set in a crazy unisex hair salo[illegible] holds the record as Boston's longest-running play.

Spamalot
The Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (61[illegible] 426-9366). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA: Green Li[illegible] to Boylston. Through April 15. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm[illegible] Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm[illegible] $37.50-$90. Mike Nichols directs this musical bas[illegible] on Monty Python and the Holy Grail. When Ki[illegible] Arthur and his knights embark on a low-budget sear[illegible] for the Holy Grail, they encounter comical situation[illegible]

Dance

BoSoma Dance Company
The Julie Ince Theatre at the Dance Complex, 5[illegible] Mass. Ave., Cambridge (978-500-3057). www.[illegible] soma.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. March 10-1[illegible] 8 pm. $12-$15. The company presents contemp[illegible]



Talking to Terrorists, presented by the Súgán Theatre Company, runs at the Plaza Theatre, March 17-April 8.

y dance from its repertoire as well as new preeres in Spring Season.

oston Ballet

e Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-7-7400). www.bostonballet.org. MBTA: Green ne to Boylston. •*March 9, 7 pm; March 10, 8 pm;
arch 11, 2 and 8 pm; March 12, 2 and 7 pm. $39-05.* Boston Ballet performs the romantic comedy Fille Mal Gardée (The Wayward Daughter) about se who hopes to marry the farmer Colas despite r mother's wishes that she marry the wealthy itor Alain. •*March 16, 7 pm; March 17, 8 pm;
arch 18, 2 and 8 pm; March 19, 2 pm. $18-$105.*
ne company presents Grand Slam featuring four rks by four choreographers: Mark Morris, Helen ckett, Jorma Elo and Val Caniparoli.

Comedy

dvice to Contributors

*bmit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calen-r: Comedy, or e-mail info to comedy@improper.com.
eadline for listings is four weeks prior to publication.*

HOWS

innegan's Wake

hree Cheers Restaurant, 290 Congress St., Boston 81-784-7469). www.finnswake.com. MBTA: Red ne to South Station. March 10-11, 7:30 pm; March 7, 7:30 pm; March 18, 5:30 and 9 pm. $45. The medy dinner-show celebrates a proper Irish ake.

ne Muslim. One Jew. One Stage.

*erklee Performance Center, 136 Mass. Ave., oston (617-931-2261). www.berkleebpc.com.
BTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. March 12, 6 pm.
18-$30.* Ahmed Ahmed and Rabbi Bob Alper se wit and humor to convey a message of hope nd tolerance.

TAND-UP CLUBS

An Tua Nua

35 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121). MBTA: C reen Line to St. Mary's. Tue., 8:30 pm. $7. The how Bragging to Children features sketch comedy, musical act and a stand-up host each week.

Anthem

138 Portland St., Boston (617-523-8383). MBTA: Green Line to North Station. Fri., 10:45 pm. $15-$25. •March 10: Lenny Clarke, Ken Rogerson and Jonny Pizza. •March 17: Jim Loletta, John David and Mark Riley.

Beantown Comedy Vault

Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-729-2565). www.dickdoherty.com/remsched. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $10-$12. The Beantown Comedy Vault features local stand-up comedians.

Comedy Connection

245 Quincy Market, Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconnectionboston.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. The oldest comedy club in Boston draws nationally known comedians on weekends and showcases up-and-coming local talent during the week. •March 8, 8 pm: Frank Sortorelli. •March 9 and 16, 8:30 pm: Frank Santos "The R-Rated Hypnotist." •March 10-11, 8 and 10:15 pm: Craig Shoemaker. •March 12, 7 pm: Paul Keenan. •March 13 and 20, 8 pm: Amateur Showcase hosted by Kevin Knox. •March 14 and 21, 8 pm: Paul Nardizzi.

The Comedy Studio

1238 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). www.thecomedystudio.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $8-$10. Sketch comedy troupes and local comedians perform. •March 8: Amy Tee, J.J. Leslie, Mike D., Andy Ofiesh, Mike Whitman and Elisha Yaffe. •March 9: The Dan Sally Show with guests. •March 10: E.J. Murphy, Ellen Moschetto, James Goff, Janer Corier, Steve Donovan, J.J. Leslie and Steve Macone. •March 11: E.J. Murphy, Ellen Moschetto, Myq Kaplan, Steven Donovan and J.J. Leslie.•March 12: Erin Judge Presents... with guests Amanda Beals, Ian Harvie, Chris Torres, Micah Sherman, M.B. Cowan, J.J. Leslie, Tom Dustin and Greg Thibideau. •March 14: Mystery Lounge. •March 15: Chris Tabb and Corey Manning. •March 16: Asian Cultural Development Coporation benefit featuring Joe Wong, Sany Asai and Eric Cheung. •March 17: The Walsh Bros., Dave Grabiner, Dan Hirsh and J.J. Leslie. •March 18: Pat Boccuzzi, Andrea Henry, Steve Albert, Orlando Baxter, J.J. Leslie and Dan Hirsh. •March 19: Erin Judge Presents... with Amanda Beals, Ian Harvie, Chris Torres, Micah Sherman, M.B. Cowan, Tom Dustin, Greg Thibideau and J.J. Leslie.

Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway

Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway Theater, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-591-1616). www.jtoffbroadway. com. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Jimmy Tingle's features both established and aspiring performers and productions. •March 11 and 18: Jimmy Tingle's American Dream.

Nick's Comedy Stop

100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). www.nickscomedystop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Fri. and Sat., 8:30 pm. $10-$22. In its 24th year, the longest-running comedy club in Boston features local and visiting comics. •March 10-11: Jim Coliton, Greg Howell and Danny Kelly. •March 16-18: Mark Riley, Joe Wong and Danny Kelly.

Steve Sweeney's Comedy Cafe

711 Boylston St., Boston (800-401-2221). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Fri. and Sat., 9:30 pm. $20. Boston comedians Steve Sweeney and Dick Doherty appear with select performers. •March 10: John David, Carolyn Plummer and Steve Sweeney. •March 16: Full Contact Comedy with Steve Sweeney and Dick Doherty. •March 17: Kenny Rogerson and Steve Sweeney. •March 18: Kenny Rogerson and Dick Doherty.

IMPROV COMEDY

Improv Asylum

216 Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.improvasylum.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Dinner packages available. •Wed., 8 pm: Vanity Project. •Thu., 8 pm. $15: Monkey Trial and Error. •Fri., 8 and 10 pm. $20: Monkey Trial and Error. 12 am. $7. College Smackdown. •Sat., 8 and 10 pm. $20: Monkey Trial and Error. 12 am. $10: The Midnight Show.

Improv Foundry

327 Summer St., Studio 4, South Boston (617-308-6421). www.improvfoundry.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sat., 6 pm. $12. This Boston-based, short-form improv comedy group performs skits that involve members of the audience.

ImprovBoston

1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. $5-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates everything on the spot: characters, stories, settings, songs and dances. •Wed., 8 pm. $5: The Hump. Local troupes perform improvisational shows. 10 pm. Free: Rendition. Boston's best improvisers come together for this energetic, ground-breaking improvisational show. •Thu., 8 pm. $12; $10, students: UnNatural Selection. A master of ceremonies randomly eliminates players until only one is left. 10 pm. $5: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Brothers Chris and David Walsh perform stand-up and character sketches and play music and short films in a display of sibling rivalry. •Fri., 8 pm. $12; $10, students: Voice of the White House. Improv Boston and Musical Company present a politically-charged show about the mishaps of the White House. 10 pm. $12; $10, students: Theatre Sports. Two teams of improvisers compete for the most laughs. •Sat., 6 pm. $12; $5, students, seniors and children: ImprovBoston Family Show. A short-form improvisational show appropriate for people of all ages. 8 and 10 pm. $15; $10, students and seniors: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music and audience participation, a cast of improvisers creates a show that changes with every performance. •Sun., 7 pm. $5: Sgt. Culpepper/Open Jamboree. This evening features performances by local and visiting troupes. 9 pm. $7: Mosaic. South City Theatre Ensemble presents short pieces including monologues, skits and dances that mock today's society.

The Tribe

Tribe Theatre, 67 Stuart St., Boston (617-510-4447). www.tribeboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 8 pm. $10. Fri., 8 pm. $7-$20. 21+. The Tribe sponsors this comedy show featuring a collection of improv comedians who poke fun at everything, including themselves. •March 9: Spinning Hardcore, Damn Skippy, The Rumble, Too Darn Hot. •March 10: Sea Mission and the Tribe Players. •March 11: Wing of Fire Orchestra. •March 16: Spinning Hardcore, Damn Skippy and Wrong Kind of Funny. •March 17: Waiting for Ennis, Cotter, Sea Mission and the Tribe Players. •March 18: Mortified.

Babes 'n' Arms

Tsotsi mixes crime with arthouse convention.

BY PAUL SHERMAN

The multiplex has its clichés, like a guy getting hurled through a plate-glass window in an action picture and toilet jokes invading a comedy. So too does the arthouse. One of the premises spotted about once a year in foreign and independent movies involves a decidedly non-nurturing person being stuck with a vulnerable child and forced to take care of the tyke. It's been a staple at least since the original (French) Three Men and a Cradle (the source for Hollywood's Three Men and a Baby) and the 1996 Best Foreign-Language Film Oscar winner, Kolya.

Presley Chweneyagae plays the title character in the South African drama Tsotsi.

You can bet that premise, and not the violence, is the reason South African import Tsotsi nabbed its own Oscar nomination. But if the need for the teen-gangster title character to care for a baby prevents Tsotsi from ranking with the movie to which it's often being compared, 2002's edgier City of God, it certainly doesn't spoil it, either.

The nickname "Tsotsi," belonging to the 18-ish leader (Presley Chweneyagae) of a gang of four young men from a black township in Johannesburg, means "thug" in Tsotsitaal, the colloquial blend of native languages and English in which the movie's characters speak. The nickname is apt. In a brutal sequence, the gang travels to a massive Johannesburg subway station where they patiently look for a mark to rob. Then they follow a nicely-dressed gent onto a packed train and quietly surround him. Their body language says, "Your money or your life," and when the man shows a hint of resistance, one of the gang, Butcher (Zenso [illegible]) —again, apt nickname—stabs him with an ice pick. [illegible] crowd exits at the train's last stop, the gang leaves the [illegible] dumped on the floor. And when another of the [illegible]'son (Mothusi Mogano), questions the group's ruthlessness after the robbery, Tsotsi beats him until one eye is [illegible].

The intensity, nervous energy and musical charge of these opening sequences—with the soundtrack blending the hostility of gangsta rap with the lilting bounce of African dance rhythms—give Tsotsi a rousing start. But we soon dig deeper into the title character.

One reason he pummels Boston is that his comrade prods him by angrily asking if he's ever cared about anything besides himself, even a dog. The question opens old emotional wounds in Tsotsi, and we soon see in flashbacks that he did care about certain things: his ill mother and, indeed, a dog. But his ornery father thwarted both relationships, so Tsotsi ran away from home.

Thoughts of his mother continue to pop into Tsotsi's head after he commits the movie's central crime. Alone in a well-to-do neighborhood, he spies a woman pulling into her driveway. Her remote-controlled gate won't open, and once she leaves the car to use an intercom, he jumps into it; when she tries to get at him, he shoots her. Tsotsi can't really drive, and he soon crashes the car. But as he's about to abandon it, he hears something in the back seat—a baby, whom he decides to take back to the township with him.

It's hard to say whether he does this to care for the baby or to spite his victims; regardless, he's forced to care for the kid. Fortunately, writer-director Hood never goes for the easy comedy of such a situation. Tsotsi's trial-and-error parenting makes for at least one seat-squirming moment, when he resorts to pulling a gun on a nearby single mother (Terry Pheto) the gang had previously mocked, to force her to breastfeed the hungry kid.

The sudden task of parenting doesn't so much bond Tsotsi to the little boy as make him feel, for the first time, the consequences of his actions. The baby, Boston's painful questions, the disillusionment of the gang (from whom he tries to hide the baby) and the benevolence of the young mother combine to crumble the defensive wall Tsotsi has constructed around his emotions.

Tsotsi uncorks some taut sequences as its title character's priorities get all jumbled. He instigates a robbery of the baby's parents' house in which he comes face to face with the father (Rapulana Seiphamo), though Tsotsi's crew doesn't know he's really taken them there to grab some of the kid's effects in hopes of placating the baby boy (a crime that eventually demonstrates Tsotsi's shifting allegiances in striking fashion). And the movie climaxes in another return to the house, in which Tsotsi tentatively tries to return the baby, facing off this time with the woman he shot, who's home from the hospital in a wheelchair, and the police. iB

Tsotsi ★★★

Written and directed by Gavin Hood. Based on the novel by Athol Fugard. In Tsotsitaal with subtitles. With Presley Chweneyagae, Kenneth Nkosi, Mothusi Mogano, Zenso Ngqobe, Terry Pheto, Nambitha Mpumlwana, Rapulana Seiphamo and Percy Matsemela. Rated R. At Kendall Square.

New Releases

BY PAUL SHERMAN

Brokeback Mountain ★★★
Ang Lee's "gay cowboy movie" turns out to be mo emotional and less sensational than you might e pect. It's a 20-plus-year tale of two young cowbo (Heath Ledger, Jake Gyllenhaal) put together o summer ranching job in 1963, who fall for each oth despite saying they're "not queer." As each returns his separate life, eventually involving an unsatisfyi marriage for each man, they reconnect in a secret lationship during "fishing trips" on the mounta where they once herded sheep. Whenever the oppo tunity arises to live together and start a ranch ov the next 20 years, one's fear of being found o thwarts the relationship from going further. The e result is a sad tale of frustration, self-censorship an life together that never was, intimately told, with villains beyond those unseen societal forces inhib ing the two men. Ledger's performance as the clo mouthed cowpoke we see most can be mannered, b the earthy restraint of the movie—in its staging a its tight focus on its characters—adds to its effectiv melancholy mood. (At Boston Common, Harva Square, Coolidge Corner and suburbs.)

Classe Tous Risques ★★★
Re-issue specialists Rialto—the distributors who' brought back Eyes Without a Face and the Japane cut of Godzilla in recent years—have come up wi another goodie in Claude Sautet's sad, 1960 Fren thriller. Lino Ventura plays Abel, a middle-ag gangster who, after a decade as a fugitive from l native France, finds that he must return there. T movie starts with a nifty Milan heist in which Ab and a buddy rob bank couriers and then—by c motorcycle, bus and boat—elude police. But Abe big challenge comes when he finally gets back Paris and his old cohorts, who've gone straight, ba at helping him. Relief arrives in the form of you gangster Eric, a featured supporting role played Jean-Paul Belmondo, fresh from his success Breathless. The shared honor between the two gar sters gives the movie heart, as does the melancho surrounding Abel, whose predicament just mak him tired of running and weary of being a crimin (Opens March 17 at Kendall Square.)

CSA: Confederate States of Americ ★★★½
Writer-director Kevin Willmott answers the que tion "What if the South had won the Civil War?" a mockumentary that is both provocative specu tive-history and very sharp satire. It's presented as English-made documentary being shown on a S Francisco TV station about the history of the CS which won the Civil War after France and Engla entered on the south's side in the "War of Northe Aggression," and then exiled Abe Lincoln Canada and restored slavery to the north aft Grant's surrender. The "English-made documentar parodies everything from Ken Burns' The Civil W and Birth of a Nation to military and classroom film Meanwhile, its "broadcast" includes utterly deadp commercials for such things as the Slave Shoppi Network and a Martha Stewart–like show in whi the hostess promises to cover "what to look for wh buying your next Chinese gardener" on her ne episode. CSA takes no prisoners. (At the Coolid Corner Theatre.)

Dave Chappelle's Block Party ★★★
There's hardly a dull moment in this blend of co edy, music and politics. Chappelle organized h dream concert in Bedford-Stuyvesant, Brookly featuring Kanye West, Mos Def, Erykah Badu a the reunion of the Fugees. Director Michel Cond filmed the October 2004 performances, as well the rehearsals and Chappelle playing a Willy Won of sorts, handing out "golden tickets" to people southwest Ohio (where he lives) that would g them on a charter bus, in a hotel room and into t concert. Condry cuts among the performers (o and off-stage), the roadtripping Ohio residents a Chappelle as he prepares for the outdoor sho There's a shared outspokenness in the acts Cha pelle booked, and a political awareness, too. The common qualities bond the performers here, a c maraderie that reaches beyond the stage. As in t best multi-act performance movies, the sum greater than the parts. (At Boston Common, Fe way and suburbs.)

Firewall ★★
Harrison Ford is notoriously afraid of deviating fro the formula that's made him successful. The resu here is a play-it-safe movie that's painfully mediocr Ford's latest doesn't just reconstitute elements of h own Frantic, Patriot Games, The Fugitive and Air For One—with Ford as another decent guy in a pin who takes life-threatening risks to get out of it. Th ory of a bank security expert who's forced to aid in a bbery by a gang that kidnaps his family also recalls ansom (both versions), Hostage, The Desperate Hours oth versions) and, on the small screen, the first sea- n of 24. With his perpetually puzzled facial expres- ons, Ford doesn't exactly convince you he's Mr. oftware Wizard, the brains behind a Seattle bank's omputer security system, while Paul Bettany does lit- e that's memorable as the mastermind orchestrating ie heist. The ultimate insult is that director Richard oncraine already made a movie in his native Eng- nd in the 1980s with the same premise (Bellman & rue), and it's as taut as this is flaccid. (At Boston ommon, Fenway and suburbs.)

reedomland ★★

haven't read the Richard Price novel this is based n, but its story is a blend of race relations and rime similar to Spike Lee's Clockers, the other rice book to come to the big screen (he also wrote he screenplays to each). Only this time the results re oddly flat. It's too bad, too, because after a few ears of mostly blustery roles in bad movies, amuel L. Jackson gets a choice part: Detective orenzo Council, a New Jersey cop who treads the neasy middle ground between the black popula- ion of his town and the white powers-that-be. orenzo is a distinctive character, but it seems as if veryone else is on their predictably worst behav- or. There's the white woman (Julianne Moore) who says that she was carjacked and that a black ssailant kidnapped her son, the police department hat puts a lockdown on the all-black housing pro- ects near the scene of the attack and the project's itizens, whose anger results in self-destructive enting. It's pretty clear to see where everything is eaded, and director Joe Roth doesn't tell the story n interesting enough ways to divert us from that act. This time, at least, Jackson deserves better. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Good Night, and Good Luck ★★★½

There's passion dripping from George Clooney's 1950s tale—for journalism, for liberty, for moviemaking. Filmed in an evocative, cigarette-smoke-filled black-and-white, his second movie as director chronicles the decision by CBS TV's no-nonsense star journalist, Edward R. Murrow (David Strathairn), to take on Sen. Joseph McCarthy, the Communist-hunting bully. Murrow's on-air bravery helps turn the tide against McCarthy, and beneath the tense story of dilemmas and decisions—told in a vibrant style in which the camera often seems to "find" the action, documentary-style—are the issues of the role of journalism and the larger matter of what it means to be an American. Clooney sets the tone for the movie by not taking the lead role. Instead, he plays Murrow's producer, Fred Friendly. Similarly, the movie doesn't grandstand or go for "big moments," and Strathairn not only catches Murrow's distinctively clipped cadence, he also lets that cadence suggest the moral precision that defines the character, as well as the movie. (At Kendall Square and Embassy Waltham.)

The Matador ★★★

Writer-director Richard Shepard's blend of rowdy comedy, middle-aged blues riff and gripping thriller is an amiable shaggy dog. Shepard has been making low-budget, barely released movies for over a decade, some bad (The Linguini Incident) and some good (Oxygen, with Adrien Brody and Maura Tierney). He's stepping up in class here, and he gets fine performances from Pierce Brosnan and Greg Kinnear, who play, respectively, a dashing but burned-out hitman and a decent Denver businessman desperately trying to stop an indecent losing streak in life. The two meet in a Mexico City hotel bar and become uneasy buddies, and the actors let us see the vulnerable people behind their characters' surfaces. The movie's funny/ dangerous mix of crime and comedy places it firmly in Elmore Leonard territory, and though it lacks the personality and laugh count of the best Leonard adaptations (Out of Sight and Get Shorty), it holds its own better than most Leonard imitations. (At Boston Common and suburbs.)

Munich ★★★

In Saving Private Ryan, Steven Spielberg opened with a horrific battle sequence, then spent the rest of the movie trying to convince you the ideals of World War II justified all that carnage. His latest takes a more somber approach to the effects of violence, especially on those who inflict it. Eric Bana stars as an Israeli soldier who, following the kidnapping and murder of the Israeli Olympic team at the 1972 summer games in Munich, is recruited to head a covert squad assigned to find and assassinate the Palestinians who planned the Olympic Village attack. The early action feels odd, as it has you rooting for the team (also including characters played by Daniel Craig and Ciaran Hinds) to kill people, especially since Spielberg withholds most of the Olympic violence until later flashbacks. Still, the movie functions as a well-oiled, globetrotting thriller full of nail-biting sequences, and the movie's sense of right and wrong, good and bad, isn't as fixed as it initially seems. As the squad leader gets deeper into the shadow world in which any ally might be an enemy, and in which helpful friends might have hidden agendas that aren't very friendly, he begins to question the value of fighting violence with violence. Does his violence just create more enemies? Does it really make him safer from attack? Whether this is meant as a commentary on the current "war on terror" is debatable, but it's certainly food for thought. Aside from one very dubious piece of editing—in which Spielberg intercuts the final flashback of Olympic tragedy with a sex scene—this is solid, thoughtful stuff from Spielberg, a step up from last summer's War of the Worlds. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Syriana ★★★

Traffic writer Stephen Gaghan makes his debut as writer-director in this drama that essentially takes the same approach to the oil business as the earlier movie did to the drug trade—by looking at the intersection of business, politics and crime. There's a wide variety of characters and locations here, and through much of the first hour you pine for a scorecard to keep everyone and everything straight in your head: There's a CIA field agent (George Clooney) popping back and forth between Washington and the Middle East, a Saudi-like emirate full of palace intrigue, two Texas oil companies trying to merge, a D.C. lawyer (Jeffrey Wright) the oil companies hire to fend off the Department of Justice, an expatriate American energy analyst (Matt Damon) who becomes an adviser to the more progressive prince of the emirate (Alexander Siddig), and a Pakistani immigrant (Mazhar Munir) who loses his oil-refinery job in the Persian Gulf because of all the boardroom machinations. Despite the sheer complexity of the early going, the story comes together very potently in its second half, with a particularly chilling climax. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Transamerica ★★

It's great to see Felicity Huffman of TV's late, great Sports Night (and now Desperate Housewives) take center stage in a movie, playing the pre-op male transsexual hero(ine) in this road movie. But, despite her convincing performance as a highly-strung, deeply sad man preparing for an imminent sex change, it's clear early on that first-time writer-director Duncan Tucker is going to keep the tale on a merely pleasant, surprisingly bland keel (it's even blander when weighed against the similarly gender-bending Breakfast on Pluto). Huffman's Stanley "Bree" Osbourne discovers he has a teenage son, and his shrink (Elizabeth Pena) requires him to meet the offspring (Kevin Zegers) before she'll sign off on the sex change. But all Tucker can concoct for these two is predictable tension as the strangers road-trip from New York to Los Angeles before their inevitable bonding, and sitcom-style hysterics when, after car trouble, the pair reluctantly stop at the house of Bree's estranged parents in Phoenix. Most of all, Tucker's movie seems like a pale version of The Station Agent, which was a more vivid, amusing and heartfelt peek at outsider characters. (At Kendall Square.)

Tristram Shandy: A Cock and Bull Story ★★★

It's an adaptation of a famous book that few have read, but in Michael Winterbottom's postmodern treatment, you may need to know more about the career of star Steve Coogan than about Laurence Sterne's 18th-century novel. Coogan, star of 24-Hour Party People, Around the World in 80 Days and TV's Alan Partridge series, stars as both the title character and as "Steve Coogan," the insecure actor starring in the movie. The action flits between Sterne's story and a behind-the-scenes looks at the making of the movie, with the latter being the most memorable, especially the scenes between Coogan and Rob Brydon, the co-star he fears might overshadow him. Coogan and Brydon, who it turns out have done lots of English TV comedy together, make a great team, though you sometimes get the impression they'd be just as funny improvising as they are in Winterbottom's elaborate scenario. The movie's good for many playful chuckles, though I doubt that's all the writer-director is after. (At Kendall Square.)

Forever fresh.

Boston's Best Margarita – Improper Bostonian, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005
Best Bar Scene – Citysearch, 2004, 2005
Best Margarita – Citysearch, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004

939 Boylston St., Boston 617.236.0200
www.bestmargaritas.com

Cactus Club

IGUANA CANTINA
313 Moody St., Waltham 781.891.3039
Best Mexican — Citysearch 2002

Why We Fight ★★½

There's nothing wrong with Eugene Jarecki's documentary examining the war in Iraq as a consequence of the proliferation of the influence-wielding military-industrial complex. He takes his movie's title from the series of World War II propaganda films Frank Capra produced for the government, and he makes great use of Dwight Eisenhower's famous 1961 farewell speech in which the outgoing president and ex-general warned of the dangers of militarism run amuck. Still, most of Jarecki's movie covers the same ground as previous Iraq-critiquing documentaries such as Hijacking Catastrophe and Uncovered, with which it shares such central interview subjects as Lt. Col. Karen Kwiatkowski, who quit the service in disgust over the current war, and ex-CIA agent Chalmers Johnson. If you haven't seen those movies (or aren't a regular viewer of The Daily Show), Jarecki's documentary won't seem so redundant. But this movie might have served a better purpose if it had further developed its look at the larger pattern of behavior by American governments leading up to Iraq. That's the real story here. (At Kendall Square.)

Samuel L. Jackson protects Julianne Moore from the media in Freedomland.

Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors

Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

•March 13, 6 pm. Kokaku Kidotai (Ghost in the Shell) 1995. In this futuristic film, where internet access is ubiquitous and crime runs rampant, a cyborg cop and her partner must find a hacker known as the Puppet Master. Japanese with English subtitles. Mamoru Oshii directs.

•March 20, 6 pm. Mononoke-hime (Princess Mononoke) 1997. As a prince searches for a cure to his curse, he finds himself part of a battle between animals of the forest and a mining town that employs women and children to kill the forest. Hayao Miyazaki directs.

BRATTLE THEATRE

•March 8, 5:30 and 9:30 pm. Wild in the Streets 1968. A young rocker cons his way into becoming President of the United States, whereupon he unveils legislation that would send people over 30 into homes and force them to take LSD. Barry Shear directs.

•March 8 and 9, 7:30 pm. Cleopatra Jones 1973. In an attempt to crack down on drug-trafficking, U.S. Special Agent Cleopatra Jones burns down a notorious drug-lord's poppy field and finds herself set up for an attack as retaliation. Jack Starrett directs.

•March 9, 5:30 and 9:30 pm. Bloody Mama 1970. In an attempt to improve their lives, a mother leads her four sons on a violent spree of bank robbery, murder and kidnapping. Roger Corman directs.

•March 10-16, 5:30, 7:30 and 9:45 pm. Batalla en el Cielo (Battle in Heaven) 2005. A husband and wife kidnap a baby for ransom, but their plan goes tragically wrong when the infant dies and the husband confesses his guilt to the prostitute daughter of his employer. Carlos Reygadas directs.

•March 15, 8 pm. The Misfits 1961. A troubled ex-stripper meets two male friends who fall in love with her. The trio retreats to a country house where the men hunt wild "misfit" horses, which outrages their female companion. Arthur Miller directs.

•March 17, 4:30, 7 and 9:30 pm; March 18, 1:30 pm. Breakfast at Tiffany's 1961. A young New York socialite and high-priced escort befriends a struggling writer who moves into her apartment building. Blake Edwards directs.

•March 17-18, 12 am. Murder by Death 1976. Five famous fictional detectives and their sidekicks are invited by a millionaire to a bizarre mansion for a dinner party, where they team up to solve a murder-mystery game gone awry. Robert Moore directs.

•March 18, 7 pm; March 19, 1:30 pm. Capote 2005. In 1959, a popular writer for The New Yorker travels to a small town in Kansas to research and write an article on the horrific murder of a family of four. The case inpires his greatest work, In Cold Blood, for which he must interview a quiet yet articulate prisoner.

•March 18, 4:15 and 9:15 pm; March 19, 8 pm. In Cold Blood 1967. Two young men break into a wealthy farmer's home with the intention of robbing the house, but end up murdering the farmer and his family. A pursuit, arrest, trial and execution soon follow. Richard Brooks directs.

•March 19, 5 pm. The 12th Annual Chlotrudis Awards. The Chlotrudis Society for Independent Films honor the best of independent, foreign and documentary films released in Boston during 2005.

•March 20, 7:30 pm. Le Bonheur C'est une Chanson Triste (Happiness is a Sad Song) 2004. A former advertising executive travels up and down the streets of Montreal asking people to tell her their ideas on happiness. François Delisle directs.

• March 20, 9:30. La Grande Seduction (Seducing Dr. Lewis) 2003. The residents of Sainte-Marie-la-Mauderne try to find a doctor in order for a company to build a factory in their village and restore the town to its once-healthy financial state. Jean-François Pouliot directs.

•March 21, 4:30, 7 and 9:45 pm. To Kill a Mockingbird 1962. A white lawyer in a racially divided Alabama town agrees to defend a young black man who stands accused of raping a white woman. Robert Mulligan directs.

LEGAL SEA FOODS

The Shrimp Classic

Now featuring a variety of shrimp items!

Gourmet Gift Packages FOR EAT-FISH

LEGAL SEA FOODS RESTAURANT • OYSTER BAR established 1950

If it isn't fresh, it isn't Legal!®

Park Square • Copley Place • Prudential Center • Long Wharf • Kendall & Charles Square, Cambridge

www.LEGALSEAFOODS.com

)OLIDGE CORNER THEATRE
Aarch 8, 7:30 pm. Women's Day Short Film owcase 1998. Emceed by Madge Kaplan, Women Film and Video New England presents a lection of short films by women filmmakers from und the world.
Aarch 11, 12 am. Gregor Samsa with Tides and sa. Richmond-based Gregor Samsa play eight ngs in their full-length debut. The band blurs e lines of ambient and indie, from heavy and rk one moment to hushed and serene the next.
Aarch 12, 11 am. Wallace and Gromit: The Curse the Were-Rabbit 2005. Kids First! Film Series sents this claymation feature about a duo who find t that running a pest control outfit has its wbacks.
Aarch 13, 7 pm. The Deer Hunter 1978. Three ung Pennsylvania factory workers are drafted to ht in Vietnam, while two have an affection for the ne woman. Michael Cimino directs.
Aarch 14, time TBA. Off the Couch. Members the Boston Psychoanalytical Society lecture out the psychological aspects of plot, character d direction through film clips. Series runs rough June.
Aarch 14, 7 pm. The Lost Boys of Sudan 2005. rects. This documentary follows two orphaned danese boys as they face lion attacks and gunfire reach a refugee camp, only to face alienation in merican suburbia.
Aarch 16, 7 pm. The Hours 2002. Three plots tertwine as ailing novelist Virginia Woolf gins to write "Mrs. Dalloway," a pregnant ousewife has plans for her husband's birthday d a lesbian publisher gives an award party for r friend, an author dying of AIDS. Stephen aldry directs.
Aarch 17, 11 am. Box Office Babies. This bi-eekly series for parents and babies includes special by-friendly screenings of current features.
Aarch 19, 11 am. Harold and the Purple Crayon 02. Kids First! Film Series presents this animated ries based on the illustrated children's book by rockett Johnson.
Aarch 20, 7 pm. Kramer vs. Kramer 1979. In this udy of divorce and the modern family, a wife leaves r son in the care of his father. She later returns eking custody, resulting in a bitter court battle. obert Benton directs.
Aarch 21, 7:30 pm. Open Screen. This event gives makers an opportunity to screen amateur films, ch under 10 minutes.

ARVARD FILM ARCHIVE
eyond Truth: Contemporary lonfiction Cinema
Aarch 11, 6:30 pm; March 12, 8:30 pm. 'orkingman's Death 2005. This six-chapter ocumentary is shown through the eyes of krainian coal miners, sulphur gatherers in donesia, animal butchers in Nigeria, shipbreakers Pakistan and steelworkers in China. Michael lawogger directs.
Aarch 11, 9 pm. Thirst 2005. This documentary is sed on the allocation of the remaining drinkable ater in a untouched reservoir in South America. ausi Martinez directs.
ashion and Film
March 14, 7 pm; March 20, 9 pm. Friday Night 02. A woman sitting in a Paris traffic jam offers a ranger a ride, leading to a one-night stand. Claire enis directs.
March 21, 7 pm. The Pillow Book 1996. An aunt ads to her young Japanese niece from The Pillow ook, the diary of a 10th-century lady-in-waiting. he niece grows up wanting to create her own llow book and sexual odyssey. Peter Greenaway rects.
our Masters: Tarkovsky/ embene/Akerman/Kiarostami
March 13, 7 pm. Stalker 1979. A male "stalker" as mental powers that enable him to take a popular t burned-out writer and a quiet scientist to a place here all of their dreams will come true. Andrei rkovsky directs.
March 20, 7 pm. The Sacrifice 1986. This film erges the experience of a nuclear attack with the sintegration of a writer's family. And in so doing, erges dream with reality, and sanity with madness. ndrei Tarkovsky directs.
rames of Mind
March 8, 7 pm. Rear Window 1954. Confined to a heelchair with a broken leg, a photojournalist itnesses a murder in the courtyard of his apartment mplex. Alfred Hitchcock directs.
March 15, 7 pm. L'Invitation au Voyage nvitation to a Journey) 1927. Feminist Germaine ulac directs this short film about a bored young ife and a handsome naval officer who develop an intense desire for one another when they meet in a Paris cabaret. Followed by Meshes of the Afternoon 1943. In this psychodrama, a napping woman, unsure whether she is dreaming, sees a series of images including a hooded figure, a knife and a flower. Maya Deren and Alexander Hammid direct.

The Korean War on Film
•March 8, 9 pm. War Hunt 1962. During the final days of the Korean conflict, an idealistic private is sent to the front lines to aid a battle-weary platoon. Denis Sanders directs.
•March 10, 7 pm. Tae Guk Gi (Brotherhood of War) 2004. Kang Je Gyu directs this portrait of the Korean War and the effects of the war on brothers with hopes of getting married and attending college. The older brother volunteers for dangerous missions, intending to protect his younger brother.
•March 14, 9 pm. M*A*S*H 1970. This comedy about two combat surgeons in the Mobile Army Surgical Hospital unit draws parallels between the Korean War and the Vietnam War. Robert Altman directs.
•March 15, 9 pm. Men in War 1957. A Korean War lieutenant leads a lost platoon of soldiers through enemy territory to rejoin his division. Anthony Mann directs.
•March 17, 7 pm. Areumdawoon Sheejul (Spring in My Hometown) 1998. In a South Korean village during the last days of the war, the father of a young boy finds work at the local U.S. Army base, where his tasks include prostituting local women to the soldiers. Korean with English subtitles. Kwangmo Lee directs.

Special Events
•March 12, 7 pm. An Evening with Ruth Lingford. London filmmaker Ruth Lingford makes short animated films and teaches at the Royal College of Art and National Film. The films to be viewed are The Old Fools 2002, Eye for an Eye 2002, Pleasures of War 1998, Death and the Mother 1997 and What She Wants 1994.

Women on the Verge: French-Israeli Films
•March 18, 7 pm. Avanim 2004. A young woman working in Tel Aviv is encouraged to engage in morally questionable business so she can secure funding for a new school. Raphael Nadjari directs.
•March 18, 9 pm. Kadosh 1999. Two sisters endure the difficulties of living in a Hasidic Jerusalem community where their desires are subordinate to those of men. Amos Gitai directs.
•March 19, 7 pm. Syrian Bride 2004. An Israeli woman spends time with her large family before she must leave for Syria to be married, which in accordance to law means she can never return to her homeland. Eran Riklis directs.
•March 19, 9 pm. Late Marriage 2001. A good-looking and intelligent Israeli bachelor in his 30s is set up by his family with an opinionated divorcée with a young daughter. Eran Riklis directs.

THE INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY ART
• March 10, 8 pm. Alvar Aalto (A Vision of a Better World) 1998. This documentary focuses on Alvar Aalto, a 20th-century Finnish architect. Eva Vuorenpaa directs.

KENDALL SQUARE CINEMA
Talk Cinema
•March 19, 10 am. For its second edition of the Talk Cinema Series, Kendall Square Cinema presents a surprise film followed by a guest speaker with an open discussion and critique of the day's film.

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS
•March 19, 10:30 am. Ballets Russes 2005. Interviews and archival footage trace troupe members from Paris through World War II. Daniel Geller and Dayna Goldfine direct.

Asian Cinema
• March 9, 1:30 pm; March 11, 2:45 pm. Geuddae Geusaramdeul (The President's Last Bang) 2005. Im Sang Soo directs this black comedy about the 1979 assassination of the Korean president.
• March 10, 6:30 pm; March 18, 4:15 pm; March 20, 10:30 am. Sheng Si Jie (Stolen Life) 2005. A Chinese teenager attends a unversity and moves in with a man she's met at school, but begins to suspect that he's scamming her. Li Shaohong directs. Mandarin with English subtitles.

Disability Culture on Film
•March 18, 2:30 pm. The Kids Are All Right 2005. This documentary features Mike Ervin, a 1960s poster child for the Muscular Dystrophy Association who now challenges the MDA's use of pity to raise money on its telethon. Kerry Richardson directs.

where the locals
meet to eat
ASSAGGIO

Open 12:00pm to 12:00am
Full dinner until midnight
Full bar

SPECIAL
LIMO SERVICE

For a $10 charge, we will pick you up at your home and provide round-trip limousine service to and from Assaggio.

Please call 1 day in advance to arrange.

29 Prince Street, Boston
617.227.7380
www.assaggioboston.com
Reservations accepted

Global Cinema
• March 12, 10:30 am; March 16, 5:45 pm. Atash (Thirst) 2004. A father brings his family to a no-man's land far from their native village, unable to return home. Arabic with English subtitles. Tawfik Abu Wael directs.
• March 17, 8 pm; March 19, 3:45 pm. Quase Dois Irmaos (Almost Brothers) 2004. This feature spans 50 years in the lives of two boys from opposite corners of Rio de Janeiro who cross paths once at a samba club and 20 years later in prison. Portugese with English subtitles. Lucia Murat directs.

Hockney on Film
•March 16, 2:15 pm; March 18, 10:30 am. David Hockney: The Colors of Music 2003. Maryte Kavaliauskas and Seth Schneidman direct this film following the creative process of Hockney's stage designs for 11 operas.
•March 16, 1 pm; March 17, 5:30 pm; March 25, 10:30 am; March 30, 2 pm. Double Portrait 2003. Bruno Wollheim directs this documentary following contemporary painter David Hockney as he creates a series of double portraits, each done in a seven-hour sitting.

Visiting Film Artist Series: Meet Dan Sousa
•March 14, 12:30 pm. New England–based animation artist Dan Sousa presents his new fable in which a man and a woman are forever cursed to be apart. Other works shown are Minotaur 1999 and Carnal Ground 1994.
•March 15, 7 pm. Fiction into Film: The Hours, A Screenwriting Case Study with Susan Kouguell. Susan Kouguell, screenwriter, filmmaker, professor of screenwriting at Tufts University and author of The Savvy Screenwriter: How to Sell Your Screenplay (and Yourself) Without Selling Out! gives a class on screenplay writing using 2002's The Hours as her guide.

Women's Film Festival
•March 9, 3:30 and 8:30 pm; March 10, 5 pm; March 11, 10:30 am. Troop 1500 2005. This documentary spotlights seven Girl Scouts and their mothers who are serving time for criminal behavior in Gatesville, Texas. Ellen Spiro and Karen Bernstein direct.
•March 10, 8:15 pm; March 11, 12 pm. Maarek Hob (In the Battlefields) 2004. During the 1983 civil war in Beruit, a young girl befriends her domineering aunt's maid, who shows her what life could be like. The maid tests the girl's limits when she asks her to help her escape from the city. Arabic with English subtitles. Danielle Arbid directs.
•March 12, 12:45 pm. The Samantha Smith Project 2005. This documentary examines Maine schoolgirl Samantha Smith's journey to the Soviet Union in 1983 as a child diplomat. Irene Lusztig directs.
•March 11, 3:45 pm. March 13, 10:30 am; March 16, 4 pm. Border Café 2005. A widowed mother decides to reopen her deceased husband's roadhouse cafe, only to face conflicts with the community, particularly a brother-in-law who covets her as his second wife. Kambozia Partovi directs.
•March 16, 7:50 pm; March 18, 12:10 pm; March 19, 1 pm. L'École (Innocence) 2004. Lucile Hadzihalilovic directs this film about a school for girls situated in a forest. The pupils are raised in an old-world atmosphere, but some begin to question where the older girls go at night and where the tunnels lead. French with English subtitles.
•March 17, 6:30 pm. Ramo de Fuego (Blossoms of Fire) 2000. The Isthmus Zapotecs of southern Oaxaca, Mexico, is home to progressive women who run their own businesses and embroider as they make fun of the foreign press that inaccurately depicts them. Spanish and Zapotec with English subtitles. Maureen Gosling and Ellen Osborne direct.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
Mugar Omni Theatre
•Amazon. This semi-documentary IMAX film follows a real-life American ethnobotanist and a fictional medicine man on parallel searches for healing plants amid the Zoë tribe, possibly the last tribe in the Americas to remain culturally intact. Through April 30.
•Greece: Secrets of the Past. An archeological adventure that examines historical locations in Greece, like the Parthenon, and reconstructs them through the use of computer imaging. March 10 through May 31.
•Special Effects. This film takes a behind-the-scenes look at the making of Star Wars: Where Science Meets Imagination, Kazaam!, Independence Day and Jumanji. Through April 30.
•Wired-to-Win: Surviving the Tour de France. This film explores how the body's organs are connected to the brain, how the brain reacts to external stimuli and how these factors ultimately determine the winner of the world's most prestigious bicycle race. Through April 30.

NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM
Simons IMAX Theater
•Aliens of the Deep. NASA scientists and marin biologists embark on an expedition to hydrotherm vent sites in the Atlantic and Pacific oceans to e plore volcanic regions. Through March.
•Deep Sea 3D. An underwater crew logs over 3 hours underwater on 225 dives, filming squid in t Sea of Cortez, jellyfish off Monterey, and coral reefs the Bahamas. Through May.
•Sharks 3D. Jean-Michael Cousteau explores se eral shark species using three-dimensional view Through March.
•Wild Safari 3D. This film shows the African s vannah from a safari jeep exploration. Throug March.

SOMERVILLE THEATER
•March 10, 8 pm; March 11, 3 and 8 pm. Orpheu 2005 In Jean Cocteau's film that depicts French lif underworld rogues and high fashion, a poet is pitte against the skill of a temptress. The movie is accon panied by a musical underscore performed live du ing the screening. Joel T. Rice directs.

Cinema Venues

ARLINGTON
Regent Theatre
7 Medford St. (617-646-4849).

BELMONT
Studio Cinema
376 Trapelo Road (617-484-1706).

BOSTON
Boston Public Library
700 Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Gree Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.
Fenway 13 Theatre
201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA D Green Line to Fenway.
Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St. (617-266-5152). MBTA Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Loews Boston Common
175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Green Li to Boylston.
Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA E Green Line to Museum.
Museum of Science
Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Line Science Park.
New England Aquarium
Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue Line Aquarium.

BROOKLINE
Circle Cinema
399 Chestnut Hill Ave. (617-566-4040). MBTA C Green Line to Cleveland Circle.
Coolidge Corner Theatre
290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Gree Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE
Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Line Harvard.
Fresh Pond
168 Alewife Brook Parkway (617-661-2900) MBTA: Red Line to Alewife.
Harvard Film Archive
24 Quincy St. (617-496-2222). MBTA: Red Line Harvard.
Kendall Square Cinema
One Kendall Square. (617-621-1202). MBTA: Orang Line to Ruggles.
Loews/Sony
10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Line Harvard.

NEWTON
Chestnut Hill Cinema
27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Green Lir to Chestnut Hill.
West Newton Cinema
1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060). MBTA Commuter Rail to West Newton.

SOMERVILLE
Loews/Sony
35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: Orang Line to Sullivan Square.
Somerville Theatre
55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Lir to Davis.

dvice to Contributors

bmit information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc. by fax 17-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music, or by ıail to music@improper.com. Include dates, times, ces, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline is ır weeks prior to publication date. Listings not ac-ɔted over the phone.

dvice to Readers formation for the Music section is compiled from dif-ent sources. Although we make every effort to provide curate dates and times, changes do occur. Call ahead double-check dates and times (see complete list of nues at the end of the section).

Top Billings

The Chieftains and the Cottars March 11, Sym-hony Hall (888-266-1200).
Robert Cray with Buddy Guy March 11, Roxy 617-931-2000).
Dropkick Murphys March 16-19, Avalon (617-931-2000).
Daryl Hall & John Oates March 8, Orpheum 617-931-2000).
Van Morrison March 8, Opera House (617-931-2000).
Nada Surf and Inara George March 9, Paradise Rock Club (617-562-8820).
The Pogues March 14-15, Orpheum (617-931-2000).
Saw Doctors March 16, Roxy (617-931-2000).

Rock, Jazz and Blues

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Eagle Seagull, Mercy ımes Gang, the Funeral Barkers, Rooftop Suicide lub, 9 pm, 21+.
All Asia Café Collective, 10:30 pm.
The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Bert Seager, 6 pm.
The Burren Acoustic Alchemy, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge True Life Bluegrass, 10 pm, no ɔver, 21+.
Club Passim The Greencards, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dick's Last Resort Jenn & Steve Show, 7 pm, no ɔver.
Great Scott Red Invasion, Crash Midnight, Rattle attle, BlackOut Bar, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 10 pm, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Great Day For a Race, Lucy Vincent, he Geoffro Cause, 9 pm, $5-$10, 18+.
Hennessy's The Buzz, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Jim Kweskin Band, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Lizard Lounge The Dennis Brennan Band, 9:30 pm, 5.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio & Adam erbert, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Human Shield, Bloodhorse, 9 m, $8, 18+; Downstairs: the Slackers, Flashlight rown, the Stolen Records, 8 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
Opera House Van Morrison, 7:30 pm, $66-$147.50.
Orpheum Daryl Hall & John Oates, 7:30 pm, $35-45.
PA's The Slurred Murrays, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Dirtie Blonde, 8 pm, $8, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club The Subways, Gunshys, Un-usted, 8 pm, $10, 18+.
Thatt Boys Nate Watkins, 8:30 pm.
Regattabar Lee Roy Parnell, 7:30 pm, $20.
Scullers Jazz Club David Maxwell & Nicole Nel-on, 8 and 10 pm, $18.
Sír na nÓg Bad Art Ensemble, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Emily Grogan, Meika Pauley, Beth Boucher rio, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Serena Maneesh, Charlene, Appletown Gun Shop, 9:15 pm, $8, 18+.
Wes Zygomates Suzanne Davis Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

THURSDAY, MARCH 9

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: The Spike Emerson So-iety, Delvis, 21+.
All Asia Café Zelazowa, 6:30 pm.
The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro ZMQ, 7 pm, $3.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Breezeway Serious Business, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbalo, 6 pm.
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 1+.
Club Passim The Wood Brothers, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dick's Last Resort Big Time, 7 pm, no cover.

Sibling Revelry

The Magic Numbers spin inbred harmony into classic pop.

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

The Magic Numbers have been described in the press as pudgy hippie types. But while the sibling-driven London quartet lacks the rock-star look, other bands would kill for the reaction the Numbers have drawn.

Critics went gaga over the Magic Numbers' eponymous 2005 debut, which evokes '60s harmony groups like the Lovin' Spoonful and the Mamas and the Papas. And the band is already headlining 5,000-capacity halls in England.

"The four of us are comfortable doing our own thing and happy with ourselves the way we are," singer-guitarist Romeo Stodart says. "A lot of bands look the same, the same five guys with hair pushed to the side and skinny ties or whatever. There's so much of that... I think people have warmed to the realism of two families that got together."

True, having a band that comprises two brother-sister pairs can be a good gimmick too. But that had little to do with the quartet's formation. Stodart and drummer Sean Gannon played together for a decade before singer-bassist Michele Stodart and singer-percussionist Angela Gannon came aboard.

"Sean and I were always in it for the right reasons," Stodart says. "We wanted to write the best songs, and we'd have people come in and out of the band saying, 'We're still playing for the same 20 people but I want to be famous.' They'd leave and we'd be like, we're onto something. We need to do what we love and just find the right band."

They found that band four years ago, when the sisters—then in their late teens—began hanging with their older brothers. "They'd come to the occasional gigs and would join us onstage for harmonies," says Stodart, 28. "We felt the most comfortable together, and it just worked. Then we were like, 'Holy shit, we're in a f----n' band with our sisters!'"

In truth, he says, being with family on tour isn't a bad thing. And this year alone, the foursome has already hit Australia, Japan, England and the U.S., with shows scheduled at the Paradise March 24 and Tennessee's Bonnaroo festival in June. "We all find it quite easy really, 'cause you're sharing all these mad experiences with someone that you care about," says Stodart. "In years to come, we'll look back and say, 'Remember that time? 'Cause I can't remember it!'"

Yes, the Numbers also enjoy drinking. "We're having a great time," he says before a concert in England. "We have our daily bickering, but every night we finish the show and get absolutely wasted to celebrate."

The Stodarts grew up in Trinidad, immersed in music beyond reggae and calypso. Their mother sang on a TV talent show, performing opera as well as tunes by Burt Bacharach and Jimmy Webb. "Our parents were hugely into country music," adds the guitarist, citing Hank Williams and Patsy Cline. "We just found ourselves singing along. Then I started playing my granny's piano. She'd ask me to because she couldn't play anymore and used to play really well. I'd go play a few songs and make little things up. I really got into it. I guess that got me into wanting to write." The family then moved to New York, where an uncle lived, and older cousins got him into clubs. "It was the biggest eye-opener," Stodart says. "I was pretty young, like 13, and I'd get into CBGB and stay out until three in the morning, checking out all the bands."

His initial passion was heavy metal like Guns 'N' Roses and Metallica, then the Smiths and the Cure. But his tastes turned to the Beach Boys, Flying Burrito Brothers and Leonard Cohen after his family settled in the London borough of Hanwell when he was 16 and met the Gannons.

With the Numbers, however, Stodart says, "There's a naïveté in the sense that when we get together, it breaks down all those doors of influence, and the four of us are influenced by ourselves in a way. We feed off what each other plays.

"It's really instinctive—we sing what we feel," he says. Angela Gannon adds icing on melodica and glockenspiel, and of sister Michele's contrapuntal bass lines, Stodart adds, "As soon as I bring a song to her, she just hooks in and finds some little key things and makes it even catchier."

Two Gannons (left) plus two Stodarts equals the Magic Numbers.

While his love songs are often sunny, they're tinged with regret from the end of an eight-year romance. "I didn't even know at the time that a lot of these songs were even going to be heard," Stodart says. "There's definitely a melancholy there. Musically, I try and find an upside."

In turn, the band is always smiling onstage. "If people are cheering at you, you can't help it," he says. "It's almost like you're blushing. I think all bands should smile." IB

The Magic Numbers play March 24 at the Paradise Rock Club.

...mond, Mario Demaio, Sam James, 9 ...

The Foundation Lounge Ray Charles Tribute Band, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott Boy Least Likely To, the Fenway Recordings Sessions, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies, 10 pm, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Paper, the Harlem Shakes, 9 pm, $5, 18+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Derek Schanche, 9 pm, 21+.
Kirkland Café Hammertoe, Girlfriend 2000, Billiey, Jeremy Lyons, 8 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge The Northern Chorus, 9:30 pm, $8.
Lucky's Lounge The Alex MacDougall Band, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: HumanKind, Westgate, Kinetic Theory, Auditory Implant, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
NEC's Jordan Hall NEC Jazz Orchestra, 8 pm, free.
NEC's Wheelock Family Theatre JazzArtSigns, 7:30 pm, $10-$20.
Old South Church Willie Sordillo Trio, 6 pm, free.
PA's Broken River Prophet, Tom Thumb, Guillero Sexo, Energy, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Justin Beach & Tom Groleau, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Chad Perrone, SYD, Patrick Thomas, 6 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Nada Surf, Inara George, Rouge Wave, 9 pm, $16.50, 18+.
Regattabar Jacob Fred Jazz Odyssey, 7:30 pm, $15.
Scullers Jazz Club Myanna, Ellen O'Brien, 8 and 10 pm, $15.
Sky Bar Joy and Virtue, Satch Kerans, Mark Nelson, 8:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Adam Ezra, Whoa! Man! Jesus!, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place A Wish for Fire, Pela, Seneca, Audrey Ryan Band, 10 pm, $8, 18+.
Les Zygomates Dan Tepfer Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Softer, the Electric City, Boone, Tremulant, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Drew Danburry, David Jacobsen, 7 pm, 21+.
All Asia Café Dan Turnball & the Rays, JP05, Shawn Fogel, 6:45 pm.
The Attic Shiner Jones & the Matt Chase Group, 9:30 pm, $5-$8.
Berklee Performance Center Cristina Branco, 8 pm, $22-$28.
The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Black Sole, 7:30 pm, $5.
Boston Harbor Hotel Jeff Hicks Trio, 7:30 pm.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, Joe Barbalo, 6 pm.
The Burren Cover Up, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Groove Authority, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Kevin So, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dick's Last Resort Soul City, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Grand Canal The Heavyweights, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott The Pill, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Brink, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
The Harp The Zoo, 10 pm, $10.
Harpers Ferry The Joshua Tree, Loose Cannons, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5 pm; Fast Times, Dick n' Jane, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Beatle Juice, 9:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell, 9 pm.
Kirkland Café Mickey Bliss Organ Combo, Crybabies, 8:30 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge Reid Paley, Diamond Platinum Rings, 9:30 pm, $8.
Lucky's Lounge Blacksnake & Greg Luttrell, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Swinging Neckbreakers, Muck and the Mires, the Konks, the Misteriosos, 9 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
Midway Café Miss Tess & the Bon Ton Parade, Eileen Jewell, La Valley Katz, 9 pm, 21+.
Mr. Dooley's Derry Airs, 5 pm; Celtic Clan, 9 pm $5, 21+.
O'Brien's Great Day For Up, Ogre, Palace in Fender, 9:30 pm, $5-$10, 21+.
PA's The Shrinking Islands, Anushka Pop, B for Brontosaurus, Spoilsport, the Specific Heats, the Rabbit Family Girls Choir, John O'Hara, the Hyphens, Shana's Mango, the Double Stops, Tony the Bookie, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Brick Park, 9:30, 21+.
Paradise Lounge David Horton, Arielle Silver Band, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Cowboy Mouth, 9 pm, $16, 18+.
Parris Peatmoss, 10 pm, $5-$10.
Phatt Boys Jo Jo Star & the Rhythm Makers, 9 pm.
Regattabar Roomful of Blues, 7:30 and 10 pm, $20.
Ryles Jazz Club Chicken Slacks, 9 pm, $10.
Scullers Jazz Club Marcus Roberts Trio, 8 and 10:30 pm, $22.
Sky Bar Ukulele Noir, 7 pm, $7, 21+.
Somerville Theatre Jean Cocteau's Orpheus, 8 pm, $36.
Tír na nÓg Johnn Come Latelies, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Starhick, 10 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio & Maggie Galloway, 9 pm, no cover.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Kamikaze Zero, Paul & the Strings, Red Invasion, Richard Bacchus, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Ed Fingerling, 8 pm, 21+.
Axis The Hellacopters, the Datsuns, 6:30 pm, $15.
Berklee Performance Center Ronan Tynan, 7:30 pm, $30.50-$40.50.
The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Part Time Lovers, 7:30 pm, $5.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm.
The Burren Mike Murray & the Secret Service, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Club Passim Tony Bird, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dick's Last Resort Brick Park, 9:30 pm, no cover.
First Parish Unitarian Church Niamh Parsons, 8 pm, $18-$20.
Good Life Trio Al Vega Trio, 7:30 pm, no cover 21+.
Grand Canal Fast Times, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Four Inch Stud, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
The Harp The Zoo, 10 pm, $10.
Harpers Ferry Night Snipers, Kinopropy, Arktika, 9 pm, $35-$45, 18+.
Hennessy's Swerve, Velvet Jones, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Beatle Juice, 9:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Sonicrush, Jason Myles Gos... Chris O'Brien, 9 pm, $5.
Kirkland Café Maple Street Project, 2 Tone Pon... Jimmy Hank Williams, 9:30 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge Tim Blaine, 9:30 pm.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, 7 pm, ... cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Kieran Ridge Band, the Gu... Latebirds, Cassavettes, 9 pm, $9, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Rod Eile, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's Negative Insights, Hard Times, Sculls ... Wings, Devoid, McGunks, the Dimwits, 9:30 p... $5-$10, 21+.
PA's The Heuristic, Hydronaut, Robots and Empir... Doors in the Sand, 8:45 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Last Laugh, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Ra, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Parris Peatmoss, 10 pm, $5-$10.
Phatt Boys Driving Blind, 9 pm.
Purple Shamrock Syndicate, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Regattabar Marta Gomez, 7:30 and 10 pm, $18.
Roxy Robert Cray with Buddy Guy, 8 pm, $25, 18+...
Scullers Jazz Club Marcus Roberts Trio, 8 and 10:... pm, $22.
Sky Bar Slipkid, Who Cover Band, 7 pm, $7, 21+...
Somerville Theatre Jean Cocteau's Orpheus, 3 and ... pm, $36.
Symphony Hall The Chieftains, the Cottars, 8 pm, ... $33-$58.
Tír na nÓg Eileen Jewell Band, 5 pm; Super Geniu... 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Bart Caruso Band, 10 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, Magg... Galloway, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Dysrhythmia, Bugs & Rat... 9:15 pm, $9, 18+.
Les Zygomates Marianne Solivan, 8 pm, no cover...

SUNDAY, MARCH 12

Berklee Performance Center Cristina Branco, 8 pm, $22-$28.
The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+...
Bob's Southern Bistro Paulo Danay Quartet, 10:... am.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 11:30 am.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11 am; Joe M... rocco, 6 pm.

www.harvestcambridge.com
HARVEST
CONTEMPORARY CUISINE
INSPIRED BY AMERICAN CLASSICS
Lunch, Dinner & Sunday Brunch RESERVATIONS 617.868.2255
[ON THE WALKWAY] 44 Brattle Street, Harvard Square

antab Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9
n, $8, 21+.
ub Passim Emerald Rae, $10-$12, 7:30 pm.
ck's Last Resort Brian Locher, 7 pm, no cover.
e Green Dragon Tavern Brick Park, 10 pm, 21+.
arpers Ferry Reaxis, Noones Kind, 9 pm, $5-$10,
+.
ennessy's Tom Groleau Band, 9 pm, 21+.
hnny D's Matthew Dorko & Larry Kukers, 9 am;
ues Jam, 4:30 pm.
cky's Lounge Bennett Miller Trio, 11 am; Al Vega
io & Adam Herbert, 8:30 pm, no cover.
iddle East Upstairs: the Boston Jolly Pirates, Plan
', Axis of Evil, Emergency Guns, 1 pm, $9; Charlie orsham Band, Mike Beck, Leah Siegel, Justin vinson, 9 pm, $8, 18+; Downstairs: J.R. Writer, M.
iesel, Speks, Loose Notes, 40 Mil, 8 pm, $15-$18,
+.
IT's Wong Auditorium Shweta Jhaveri, Uttam
hakraborty, 4 pm, $10-$18.
r. Dooley's Jack Dalton, 21+.
egattabar Leon Russell, 7 pm, $35.
yles Jazz Club Yoko Miwa, 10 am.
oad The Goody Trio, Sunday Night Blues, 7 pm,
cover.
op of the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm; Marty allou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T. the Bear's Place Augustana, the Damnwells, e Collisions, 9:15 pm, $8, 18+.

MONDAY, MARCH 13

he Black Rose Tom O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
ristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm.
antab Lounge Candy's Blues Jam, 9 pm, no cover,
1+.
lub Passim Dave Plamater, 8 pm, $5-$10.
ick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm, no cover.
reat Scott Hot Chip, the Fenway Recordings Ses-ons, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
he Green Briar Irish Seisiun, 10 pm, $5-$7. ennessy's Joe Carson, 9:30 pm, 21+.
insale Tom Courtney, 7 pm.
iddle East Upstairs: The Sword, Tarantula A.D., onstants, 8:30 pm, $9, 18+.
'Brien's Compund Dynamics, 9:30 pm, $5-$10, 21+.
aradise Rock Club Dilated Peoples, Little Brother,
pm, $18-$20, 18+.
ír na nÓg Guest Chef, 7 pm; Kevin Byrne Band, 9
m, no cover, 21+.
oad Shwang, Anita Suhanin, the Time Gearan and, 8 pm, no cover.
op of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
eitgeist Gallery Sten Hostfalt, 8 pm, $7.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14

bbey Lounge Pub Stage: Carlene Barous, Chris arrett, 7 pm, 21+.
he Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
reezeway E. Water Band, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
ristol Lounge Ben Cook, 6 pm.
antab Lounge Anaïs Mitchell, 9:30 pm, no cover,
1+.
ick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm, no cover.
he Foundation Lounge Jeanie Flynn and the trays, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
reat Scott Orthrelm, Growing, Wildlife, Honey-ump, Bodies of Water, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
he Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 10 pm, 1+.
reen Street Grill The Two Timin' Three, 10:30
m, no cover.
ennessy's Scott Damgaard, 9:30 pm, 21+.
ohnny D's Old School Freight Train, 8:30 pm, $10, 1+.
ennedy's Midtown Larkin Brigade Band, 10 pm,
o cover.
insale Tom Courtney, 7 pm.
izard Lounge The Tom Hagerty Band, 9 pm, $5.
iddle East Upstairs: Full Body Massage, Kidnapkin, hick as Thieves, the Pillar Line, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
idway Café Jess Yoakum, Ben Willmott, arrie Cheron, Shanna Sharp, 8 pm, 21+.
rpheum The Pogues, 7:30 pm, $39.50-$59.50.
aradise Rock Club Hothouse Flowers, 8 pm, $16, 8+.
cullers Jazz Club Grace Kelly, 8 pm, $16.
ky Bar Craib Sonnenfeld, Stuart Ferguson, David esson, Asia Mei, 8 pm, $6, 21+.
ír na nÓg David Johnston Band, 10 pm, no cover, 1+.
oad Jimmy Ryan and Hayride, 8:30 pm, no cover.
op of the Hub April Hall, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T. the Bear's Place The Bats, Chris Colbourn &
ilken Mancini, Temper, 10 pm, $10, 18+.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15

bbey Lounge Main Stage: The Black Arrows, ight Stalker, Lady of Spain, Local Nothing, 9 pm, 1+.

Robert Cray plays with Buddy Guy March 11 at the Roxy.

The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm.
The Burren Digney Fignus, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Julie Lee, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Stewart Lewis, 8 pm, $5-$10.
Dick's Last Resort Jenn & Steve Show, 7 pm, no cover.
Grand Canal Traditional Irish Sesuin, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott Born to Lose, Mark Lind & His Pick Up Band, BlackOut Bar, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 10 pm, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Audible Mainframe, Fear Nuttin' Band, Outernational, 9 pm, $5-$10, 18+.
Hennessy's The Buzz, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Sarah Brindell, Kings Highway, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Larkin Brigade Band, 10 pm, no cover.
Lizard Lounge The Dennis Brennan Band, 9:30 pm, $5.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio & Adam Herbert, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Jesse Ruben, Love Me for the Money, Jude Nemo, Supervain, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Midway Café The Juliet Kilo, 9 pm, 21+.
O'Brien's Magic People, Ponytail, Aumrifle, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Orpheum The Pogues, 7:30 pm, $39.50-$59.50.
PA's Reports, Keys to the Streets of Fear, Carlisle Sound, Ghetto Fighters, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Liz Stahler, Adrianne, 8 pm, $8, 18+.
Parris The Joshua Tree, 10 pm, $5-$10.
Phatt Boys Nate Watkins, 8:30 pm.
Regattabar Chicago Bob Nelson & David Maxwell, 7:30 pm, $15.
Scullers Jazz Club Natraj, 8 pm, $14.
Tír na nÓg Bad Art Ensemble, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Emily Grogan, Rose Polenzani, Audtin Nevins, Eileen Jewell, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub April Hall, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place John Doe, Kevin Stevenson & Jenny Riddle, Andrea Gillis, 9 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
Les Zygomates Ziaf, 8 pm, no cover.

THURSDAY, MARCH 16

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Twelve: 01, Fancy Trash, Lorntell, Anushka Pop, 9 pm, 21+.
Avalon Dropkick Murphys, Sick Of It All, the Tossers, 6:30 pm, $25.
The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Nat Simpkins, Henry Smith Band, 7 pm, $3.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Breezeway Serious Business, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbalo, 6 pm.
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Matt & Shannon Heaton, 8 pm, $12-$14.
Dick's Last Resort Big Time, 7 pm, no cover.
Felt Primary Others, Jennifer Matthews, 9 pm, 21+.
The Foundation Lounge Ray Charles Tribute Band, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Grand Canal Gobshites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott Abigail Warchild, Appomattox, Tiny Amps, Great Scott, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies, 10 pm, 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Ten Years After, Orpheus Returns, 9 pm, $20, 21+.
Kinsale Black Thorne Band, 9 pm.
Kirkland Café Maria McNeal, 9 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge Club D'Elf, 9:30 pm, $10.
Lucky's Lounge The Alex MacDougall Band, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Sad Marvin, Scamper, Reverse, the Luxury, 9 pm, $9, 18+.
NEC's Jordan Hall Uri Caine, 8 pm, free.
Old South Church Willie Sordillo Trio, 6 pm, free.
PA's Comma, Media, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Justin Beach & Tom Groleau, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Tea Leaf Green, U-Melt, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Regattabar The Commitments, 7:30 pm, sold out.
Roxy The Saw Doctors, 8 pm, $28.50.
Ryles Jazz Club Mike MacAllister, 8:30 pm, $7.
Scullers Jazz Club Brad Mehldau Trio, 8 and 10 pm, $22-$24.
Sky Bar New Remorse, What Time Is It For Mr. Fox, Thylacine, Humanwine, 7 pm, $7, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad The Family Jewels, Jeremy Lyons, the Delta-billy Boys, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub April Hall, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Three Nouns, the Halfnelsons, the Motion Sick, Supermurray, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
Les Zygomates Todne Texeira, 8 pm, no cover.

FRIDAY, MARCH 17

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Killer Abs, Pony, Jaded, Mach 5, 9 pm; Pub Stage: John Gerard, Feign Pathos, 7 pm, 21+.
The Attic Sean Kelly & the Samples, 9:30 pm, $25.
Avalon Dropkick Murphys, Horrorprops, A Global Threat, 6:30 pm, $25.
The Black Rose Upstairs: Frank Ryan, Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro ZMQ, 7:30 pm, $5.
Boston Harbor Hotel Jeff Hicks Trio, 7:30 pm.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm.
Cantab Lounge The Chicken Slacks, 9pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Billy Novick & Guy Van Duser, 8 pm, $16-$18.
Dick's Last Resort Classic Trax, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Grand Canal Spike the Punch, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott The Pill, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Down Dog, Planet Envy, 2 pm, $5, 21+.
The Harp Cherry Orchard, the Benderz, 3 pm.
Harpers Ferry Three Day Threshold, Girls Guns & Glory, Snoozebox, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Kevin Byrne Band, Derry Air, $5, 21+.
Kinsale David Smyth, 4 pm; Acousi Ceol, 9 pm.
Lizard Lounge Bad Saints, 9:30 pm.
Lucky's Lounge The Alex MacDougall Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Zion I, Exposition, Awkward Landing, Slumz, Sadat X, 9 pm, $15, 18+.
Midway Café Lovewhip, 9 pm, 21+.
Mr. Dooley's Patsy and Tony, 21+.
O'Brien's Mouth Sewn Shut, Bloodstains, Nowhere USA, 9:30 pm, 21+.
PA's Nikki Sudden, Thalia Zedek, Kahoots, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Stramarsh, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Clarias, Throwback, Matt York, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Addison Groove Project, 8:30, $13.50, 18+.
Parris Loud Mouth, 10 pm, $5-$10.
Phatt Boys Groove Authority, 9 pm.
Regattabar California Guitar Trio, 7:30 and 10 pm, $20.
Ryles Jazz Club Johnny Hoy & the Bluefish, 9 pm, $10.
Scullers Jazz Club Brad Mehldau Trio, 8 and 10:30 pm, $22-$24.
Sky Bar Hypaspace, Scott Tarulli, Joe Feloni, the John Finn Group, 7 pm, $9, 21+.
Somerville Theatre Jenny Lewis & the Watson Twins, 8 pm, $18.
Tír na nÓg Live music for St. Patrick's Day, 5 pm, 21+.
Toad Kevin Griffin, 8 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub April Hall, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Cabiria, Amun Ra, Humanwine, Jaggery, Noah Maxner, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

SATURDAY, MARCH 18

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Tsui, JP05, Suzanne McNeil Band, Duresse, 9 pm, 21+.
Avalon Dropkick Murphys, Rat City Riot, 2 pm, $25.
The Black Rose Upstairs: Frank Ryan, Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Terry Gresham, 7:30 pm, $5.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbalo, 6 pm.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Club Passim Carol Noonan Trio, 8 pm, $18-$20.
Dick's Last Resort The Nerve, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Grand Canal Dick 'n' Jane, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott The Campaign for Real Time, Demander, the Plan, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Goodlife Downtown Al Vega Trio, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Dragon Tavern Incadence, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
[illegible] The Benderz, 10 pm, $10.
Harpers Ferry Playin' Dead, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Lisa Love Experience, Spike the Punch, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Mango Blue, 9:45 pm, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Jesse C., Elza and Ryan McCalmon, 10 pm, $5.
Kinsale Brehen Law, 9 pm.
Kirkland Café Cello Chix, Barrence Whitfield & the Savages, Dig in the Dirt, 9:30 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge Session American, 9:30 pm, $10.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, 7 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: the Lot Six, A.R.E. Weapons, the Mr. Move, 9 pm, $9, 18+.
Midway Café James the Viking, Millis Pride, 9 pm, 21+.
Mr. Dooley's Patsy and Tony, 21+.
O'Brien's Bury the Needle, Speed Speed Speed, Klylls, Bloodhorse, 9:30 pm, $5-$10, 21+.
Orpheum James Blunt, 7:30 pm, $25.
PA's Thee Electric Bastards, Chris Warren, the Snowleopards, Stephen Brodsky, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Syndicate, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Juliet Lloyd, Brenda White, Candice Jarrett, Liz Borden, 9 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
Parris Loud Mouth, 10 pm, $5-$10.
Phatt Boys Dave & the Goliaths, 9 pm.
Purple Shamrock Fast Times, 10 pm, $3-$5, 21+.
Regattabar Rebecca Parris, 7 :30 and 10 pm, $18.
Ryles Jazz Club Teresa Ines Group, 9 pm, $12.
Scullers Jazz Club Brad Mehldau Trio, 8 and 10:30 pm, $22-$24.
Sky Bar Pillow Theory, Melodeego, Pick Up Freud, Running With Karma, 8:30 pm, $6, 21+.
Somerville Theatre Cheryl Wheeler & Jeff Daniels, 8 pm, $25-$28.
Tír na nÓg The Eileen Jewell Band, 7 pm; Kevin Connelley, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad David Johnston, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub April Hall, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Cyanide Valentine, Texas Governor, Chop Chop, 9:15 pm, $8, 18+.
Zeitgeist Gallery Melissa Kassel, Tom Zicarelli, 9:30 pm, $12.
Les Zygomates Yoko Miwa, 8 pm, no cover.

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

Alkaline Trio April 18, Avalon (617-931-2000).
Black Eyed Peas April 29, Agganis Arena (617-358-7000).
Joe Budden and Dre Robinson March 25, Paradise Rock Club (617-562-8820).
Elvis Costello May 10, Boston Symphony Hall (617-266-1492).
Death Cab for Cutie and Franz Ferdinand April 12, Agganis Arena (617-358-7000).
Dream Theater March 30, Orpheum Theater (617-931-2000).
Kid Rock March 30, Agganis Arena (617-931-2000).
The Magic Numbers March 24, Paradise Rock Club (617-931-2000).
Saves the Day April 2, Axis (617-931-2000).
Snow Patrol March 25, Paradise Rock Club (617-931-2000).
Bob Weir and Ratdog April 1, Orpheum Theatre (617-931-2000).

SUNDAY, MARCH 19

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: the Nightingales, 21+.
Avalon Dropkick Murphys, Madball, Tommy & the Terrors, 6:30 pm, $25.
The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Groove Authority, 10:30 am.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 11:30 am.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11 am; Joe Barbalo, 6 pm.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers , 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Club 58 Boston Blues Challenge Showcase, 3 pm, $20.
Club Passim The Everyday Visuals, Ad Frank, 7:30 pm, $8-$10.
Dick's Last Resort John Erickson, 7 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern Brick Park, 10 pm, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Mccoy Brothers, the Press, 9 pm, $5, 18+.
Hennessy's Tom Groleau Band, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Blues Jam, 4:30 pm.
Lucky's Lounge Bennett Miller Trio, 11 am; Al Vega Trio & Adam Herbert, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Overunderground, Cinematic Underground, Slow Motion Driver, Shirt, 9 pm, $8, 18+; Downstairs: Silver Jews, 8 pm, $15-$18, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's McTaggarts, 21+.
PA's Magic Sparkle, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Ian Mitchell & the Bay City Rollers, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Harvey Finstein, 10 am.
Somerville Theatre Leahy, 3 pm, $22-$28.
Toad The Paul Ahlstrand Quartet, Sunday Night blues, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm; Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Go Yuki, Matt Germak Band, 9:15 pm, $7, 18+.

MONDAY, MARCH 20

The Black Rose Tom O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Joe Morocco, 6 pm.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Randy Newman, 7 pm, $5-$10.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm, no cover.
Great Scott The Rakes, Boy Kill Boy, the Fenway Recordings Sessions, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
The Green Briar Irish Seisiun, 10 pm, $5-$7.
Hennessy's Joe Carson, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: the Shift, 9 pm, $8, 18+; Downstairs: the Gathering, Giant Squid, Unexpect, 8 pm, $15-$17, 18+.
PA's Maps and Atlases, Karma with a K, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Roxy Stellastarr, Editors, 7:30 pm, $16.
Ryles Jazz Club Andrea Punta, 8:30 pm, $7.
Tír na nÓg Guest Chef, 7 pm; Kevin Byrne Band, pm, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Shwang, Anita Suhanin, the Tim Gear Band, 8 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Dann Russo, Zak Ward, Jorda Bileau, $3, 18+.

TUESDAY MARCH 21

The Black Rose Eugene Byrne, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm.
Cantab Lounge Downtown Crossing, 9:30 pm, cover, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm, no cover.
The Foundation Lounge Jeanie Flynn and th Strays, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott Static of the Gods, Great Scott, 9 pr $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 10 pr 21+.
Green Street Grill The Two Timin' Three, 10: pm, no cover..
Harpers Ferry Afro DZ, Velvet Stylus, Melodesia One Love, 9 pm, $5-$10, 18+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Kinsale Tom Courtney, 7 pm.
Lizard Lounge The Kevin Stevenson Band, 9 pm, $
Middle East Upstairs: Moonshine, Elijah Wyman, t Sanguine, Saint Joe Hazelwood, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Midway Café Unplugged Acoustic Night, 8 pr 21+.
O'Brien's Zipporaid, Pure Impact, Boots & Bracele the Spoilers, 9:30 pm, $5-$10, 21+.
Scullers Jazz Club Joe Bonamassa, 8 and 10:30 pr $20.
Sky Bar Sam Beebe, Carlyn Hutchins, Sierra, Jer Dyson, 7 pm, $5, 21+.
Tír na nÓg David Johnston Band, 10 pm, no cove 21+.
Toad Jimmy Ryan, Hayride, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Tony Carelli Group, 8:30 pm, cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place TsuSheMaMiRe, the Rod Caburettor, the Emeralds, Stance Punks, PE'z, Ell garden, 9 pm, $10-$12, 18+.

VENEZIA
RESTAURANT & BANQUET FACILITY

Antipasti Course

Lobster Sundae
Marinated lobster salad with crisp greens and crème fraise

Calamari Napoli
Sautéed with tomatoes, crushed red peppers, fresh basil, served over panna fritto

Pasta Fresca & Risotto

Risotto with Scallops and Lobster
Imported rice sautéed with lobster meat surrounded by pan seared scallops and asparagus

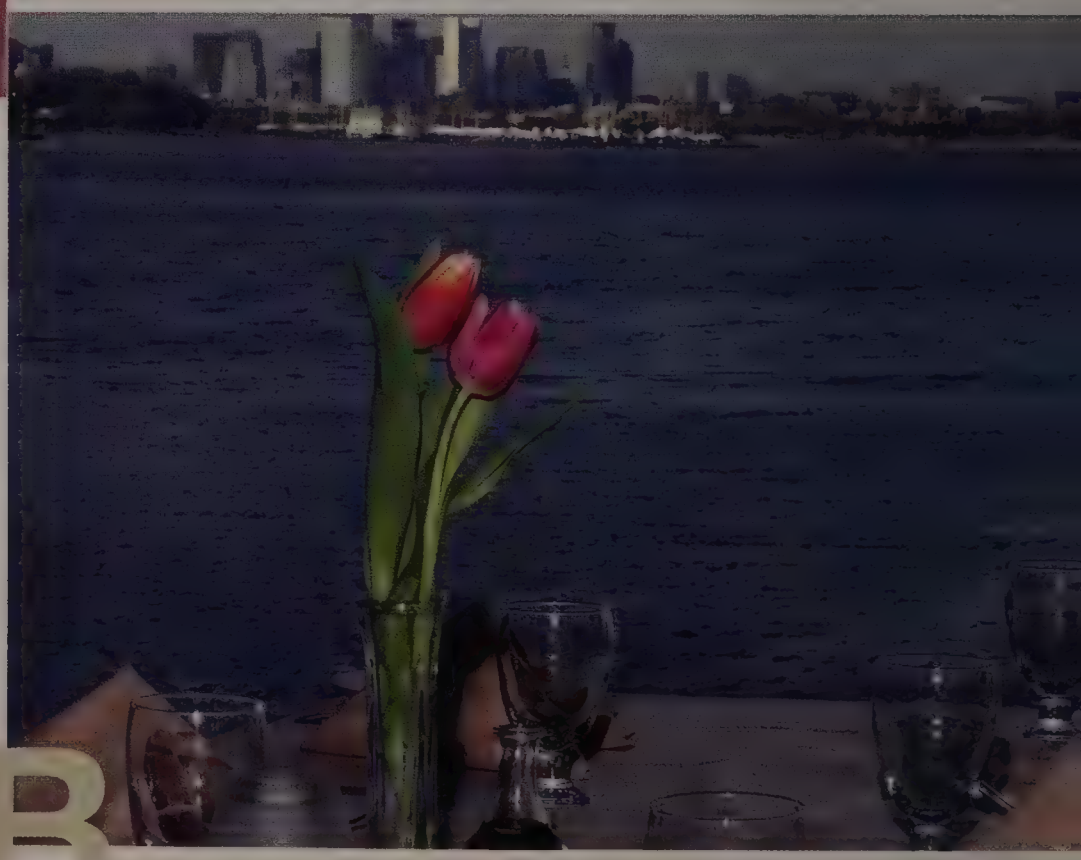
Rotini Florentine Con Pollo
Homemade rotini pasta sautéed with breast of chicken, fresh spinach, shallots, garlic and onion

Entrees

Cioppino Al La Venezia
Salmon, swordfish, haddock, shucked clams, scallops, shrimp, lobster, sautéed with saffron, tomato, shallots, garlic and served over freshly seared bread

Veal Cardinale
Scaloppini of tender veal sautéed with lobster meat, a splash of Pernod and a touch of cream

20 ERICSSON STREET • BOSTON • 617.436.3120



Boston's "hidden Jewel" Venezia Waterfront Restaurant offers exceptional Italian cuisine and spectacular views of the Boston skyline. A superb waitstaff and talented chef makes Venezia a perfect dining experience. Venezia has live music every Friday and Saturday and plenty of free parking.

The Hellacopters play March 11 at Axis.

Music Venues

bbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-531). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
li-Asia Cafe 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-544). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
gganis Arena 925 Comm Ave., Boston (617-353-528). MBTA: Green Line to Pleasant St.
nthem 138 Portland St., Boston (617-523-8383). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
sgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. trium The Regal Bostonian Hotel ,20 North St., Boston 617-523-3600). MBTA: Green Line to Government.
he Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
valon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
venue One One Avenue de Lafayette, Boston (617-22-5579). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing.
xis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
zure Lenox Hotel, 61 Exeter St., Boston (617-933-800). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
ank of America Pavilion 290 Northern Ave.Boston 617-728-1600). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. erklee Performance Center 136 Mass. Ave.Boston 617-747-2261). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
ill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
he Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
he Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-742-2286). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
ob's Southern Bistro 604 Columbus Ave., Boston 617-536-6204). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
oston Harbor Hotel 70 Rowes Warf, Boston (617-439-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
ravo @ the MFA 465 Huntington Ave., Boston 617-369-3474). MBTA: Green Line to Museum.
reezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave. Roxbury (617-541-5400). MBTA: Orange Line to Ruggles. ristol Lounge 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2052). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
he Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-5896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Citybar 61 Exeter St., Boston (617-933-4800). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Club Cafe 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Club 58 58 Ross Way, Quincy (617-471-7788). MBTA: Red Line to Quincy Center.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Copperfield's 98 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-247-8605). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Cottonwood Cafe 222 Berkleey St., Boston (617-247-2225). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
Desmond O'Malley's 30 Worcester Rd., Route 9, Framingham (508-875-9400).
Dick's Last Resort Faneuil Hall, Market Place, Quincy Market Bldg., Boston (617-267-8080).
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing.
Fireplace 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington.
First Parish Unitarian Church 630 Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-862-7837). MBTA: Red Line to Alewife.
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900). MBTA: D Green Line to Kenmore.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., Boston (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-566-9014). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100). MBTA: B Green Line to Washington St.
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., Boston (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Green Street Grill 280 Green St., Cambridge (617-876-1655). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Harpers Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
High Street Grill 200 High St., Boston (617-523-4000). MBTA: Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Jacob Wirth 37 Stuart St., Boston (617-338-8586). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617- 451-9460). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing.
Kendall Cafe 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Cambridge (617-547-3802). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Kennedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Boston (617-426-3333). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park.
Kings 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Kinvara 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Kirkland Café 425 Washington St., Somerville (617-482-4920). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., Boston (617-357-5825). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Matt Murphy's Pub 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-232-0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village.

...) Tremont St., Boston (617-338-... MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain, (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Green.
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
MIT's Kresge Auditorium 48 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617- 253-2691). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
MIT's Wong Auditorium 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-258-7971). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Mobius 374 Congress St., Boston (617-542-7416). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Mr. Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-5656). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
NEC's Jordan Hall 30 Gainsborough, Boston (617-585-1100). MBTA: E Green Line to Sympohny.
NEC's Wheelock Family Theatre 200 The Riverway, Boston (617-879-2300). MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center.
Ned Devine's Fanueil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-8800). MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center.
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Avenue, Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
O'Brien's 3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-6245). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Old South Church 645 Bolyston St., Boston (617-536-1970). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Olde Magoun's Saloon 518 Medford St., Somerville (617-776-2600). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Orpheum Theatre 31 Hamilton Place, Boston (617 679 0810). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Paddy O's 33 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.

Clarias plays March 17 at the Paradise Lounge

Paradise Lounge 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Paradise Rock Club 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Parris 250 Quincy Market Building (617-248-9900). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
PA's 345 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-776-1557). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Phatt Boys 50 Church St., Cambridge (617-354-2005). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060). MBTA: Orange Line to State.
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051). MBTA: Greeen Line to Gov. Center.
Red Fez 1222 Washington St., Boston (617-338-6060). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-395-7757). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Roggies 356 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton(617-566-1880). MBTA: Green Line to Cleveland Circle.
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Road, Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somervil... (617-623-5223). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Solas 710 Boylston St., Boston (617-9... 4803). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston
Somerville Theatre 55 Davis Square, Somerville (617-625-5700). MBTA: R... Line to Davis.
Sweetwater Cafe 3 Boylston St., Bost... (617-351-2515). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Symphony Hall 301 Mass. Ave., Bost... (617-266-1200). MBTA: E Green Lin... to Symphony.
TD Banknorth Garden 100 Legends Way,Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300). MBTA: Green Line ... Kenmore.
Tír na nÓg 366 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-628-4300). MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan.
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Bos... (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Li... to Prudential.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-2327). MBTA: ... Line to Central.
Venezia 20 Ericsson St., Dorchester (617-436-31... MBTA Red Line to Ashmont.
Wally's 427 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-424-1408). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
The Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambrid... (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Boston (617-351... 2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Zeitgeist Gallery 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-876-6060). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
ZuZu 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-327... MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

classical music

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8

MIT Advanced Music Performance
Killian Hall, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253-2826). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 5 pm. Free. Flutist Ole Nielsen performs Walter Piston's Sonata for flute and piano, Eric Chasalow's Over The Edge for flute and tape, and Beethoven's Serenade for flute, violin and viola.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Harpsichordist John Gibbons leads NEC students in music of the Baroque era.

THURSDAY, MARCH 9

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. The Early Music Department presents A Church Divided: Music in the Church of Counter-Reformation Italy, featuring works by Lucrezia Vizzana, Chiara Margarita Cozzolani, Isabella Leonarda, Giovanni Bassano and Claudio Monteverdi.

MIT Chapel Concert
MIT Chapel, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-1826). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 12 pm. Free. Pentimento features music from the Tudor courts, with Eric Hass on recorders and Renaissance flute, and Olav Chris Henriksen on lute.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10

Handel and Haydn Society
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-536-3356). www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $15-$63. Concert pianist Kristian Bezuidenhout joins Grant Llewellyn and the Handel and Haydn Society Orchestra in a performance of Mozart's Piano Concertos Nos. 9 and 24 to celebrate Mozart's 250th birthday.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Green Line or Red Line to Park. 12:15 pm. Free. Violinist Susie Park performs in Music at the Meeting House: The Artist Diploma Series.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11

Bank of America Celebrity Series
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $43-$53. The St. Lawrence String Quartet performs Mozart's String Quartet in D major, K. 575, R. Murray Schafer's String Quartet No. 3 and Schumann's Piano Quintet in E flat major with pianist Menahem Pressler.

Berklee Performance Center
136 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-931-2000). www.irishmassachusetts.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. 7:30 pm. $30.50-$40.50. Irish tenor Ronan Tynan performs classic Irish melodies as well as classical and popular songs.

Brandeis University
Slosberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3400). www.brandeis.edu/arts. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. 8 pm. $10-$20. The Lydian String Quartet performs Schoenberg's Verklarte Nacht and Schubert's String Quintet in C Major, Op. 4 with guest violinist Mark Berger and guest cellist Andrew Mark.

Cappella Clausura
Episcopal Parish of the Messiah, 1900 Comm. Ave., Auburndale (617-964-6609). www.clausura.org. MBTA: 8 pm. $8-$15. Cappella Clausura presents Dialogues: Opera in the Convent, which includes several pieces by Chiara Margarita Cozzolani, Isabella Leonarda, Sinta Wuller's A Creation Tale and Hilary Tann's Contemplations.

Emmanuel Music
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 8 pm. $20-$65. Pianist Russell Sherman and mezzo-soprano Krista River perform Mozart's Sonata in A major, K. 331, Fantasy & Sonata in C minor, K. 475/457, Sonata in B-flat major, K. 281, and three Lieder.

First Church Congregational
11 Garden St., Cambridge (401-648-3885).www.bbcboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $20-$40. Scott Allen Jarrett conducts the Back Bay Chorale in an a cappella concert of music devoted to the Virgin Mary featuring works by deVictoria, Bruckner, Poulenc, Grieg, Britten, Tavener, Antin and Rachmaninov.

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-566-5218). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. 25 Years Together: Lifson-Shlyam Piano Duo features works by Bach, Mozart, Schumann, Chasins, Arensky and Strauss performed by Longy faculty members Ludmilla Lifson and Eda Shlyam.

Metropolitan Wind Symphony
Sorenson Center for the Arts, Babson College, Wellesley (617-983-1370). www.mws-boston.org. Commuter rail to Wellsley Hills. 8 pm. $12-$15. Music director Lawrence Isaacson conducts the Metropolitan Wind Symphony's Winter Concert Travelogue.

Newton Symphony Orchestra
Rashi Auditorium, 230 Central St., Newton (617-965-2555). www.newtonsymphony.org. 8 pm. $40-$100. The Newton Symphony Orchestra celebrates its 40th birthday with a benefit concert featuring guest author Garrison Keillor.

SUNDAY, MARCH 12

Cappella Clausura
Swedenborg Chapel, 50 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-964-6609). www.clausura.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $8-$15. Same program as March 11.

Emmanuel Music
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. Free. Michael Beattie conducts the Orchestra and Chorus of Emmanuel Music in a performance of Bach's cantata BWV 17.

Handel and Haydn Society
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-536-3356). www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. $15-$63. Same program as March 10.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-278-5102). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 1:30 pm. $5-$20. Joel Cohen directs The Boston Camerata in a concert, inspired by the exhibition Gentile Bellini and the East, which features an imaginary look at the Venetian quarter of 15th-century Istanbul with the Sharq Arabic Music Ensemble.

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Longy faculty members present A Classy Cabaret Evening featuring works by Kurt Weill, Arnold Schoenberg, Eric Satie, Noel Coward, Joni Mitchell and others.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 2 pm. Free. Pianist Arunesh Nadgir presents a concert of Bach, Scriabin, Liszt and Beethoven.

Wellesley College
Jewett Auditorium, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2082). www.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 3 pm. Free. Gamelan orchestra Galak Tika performs with director Evan Ziporyn.

MONDAY, MARCH 13

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-522-1616). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. The Longy String Department presents a String Generations Concert featuring all divisions of the school from the youngest Suzuki students to Conservatory graduate students.

New England Conservatory
Williams Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. NEC's Intercultural Institute present Ensemble Keyif: The Middle East in the U.S. featuring Beth Bahia Cohen, violin, yayli tanbur; Paul Brown, bass; Polly Tapia, percussion; Brenna MacCrimmon, voice; and Haig Manoukian, oud.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14

New England Conservatory
Williams Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. •1 pm. Free. Jazz pianist and composer Uri Caine mixes jazz with folk traditions as well as Bach, Mahler and Wagner. •6 pm. Free. Early Evenings with Borromeo String Quartet presents Schoenberg's String Quartet No. 4. •8 pm. Free. Robert Labaree, chair of NEC's music history and musicology departments, presents Dostlar Beni Hatirlasin—Friends, Remember Me: Versions of Asik Veysel, Turkish Troubadour.

BONFIRE
A TODD ENGLISH STEAKHOUSE

The Steakhouse has met its match

Taste and see what happens when Bonfire takes on the traditional American steakhouse. Finely aged steaks, seafood, unique entrees, inventive cocktails, and an unexpected Taco Menu

For online reservations visit
www.bonfiresteakhouse.com

50 Park Plaza, Boston Ma 02116
617-262-FIRE

Enjoy charming and warm dining.

Choose from many well priced, abundant entrées and appetizers while sipping on a cocktail.

STOLI
New modern casual restaurant with eclectic cosmopolitan cuisine
BAR AND RESTAURANT
213 Washington Street Brookline Village
617.731.5070 • www.stolibar.com
open 7 days a week • lunch & dinner

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$108. Cellist Yo-Yo Ma joins conductor David Robertson and the Boston Symphony Orchestra in a performance of Ligeti's Concert Romanesc, Schumann's Cello Concerto and Strauss' Ein Heldenleben.

New England Conservatory
Williams Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 1 pm. Free. Same program as March 14, 1pm.

Wellesley College
Jewett Auditorium, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2082). www.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7:30 pm. Free. Jan Pfeiffer and Isabelle Plaster direct a concert by the Chamber Music Society.

THURSDAY, MARCH 16

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$108. Same program as March 15.

MIT Chapel Series
MIT Chapel, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-2826). www.mit.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 12 pm. Free. Violinist John Ferguson performs Cage's One10 and Bach's Partita in B minor BMV 1002.

New England Conservatory
Williams Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Same program as March 15, 1 pm.

FRIDAY, MARCH 17

Bank of America Celebrity Series
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $30. Composer and pianist Rob Kapilow and the Pacifica String Quartet present What Makes It Great? featuring Shostakovich's String Quartet No. 8.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 1:30 pm. $29-$108. Same program as March 15.

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. The Longy Chamber Orchestra, with guest conductor Jesús Medina, performs J.C. Bach's Symphony, Op. 3, No. 1, Mozart's Symphony No. 29 in A Major, K. 201, Moncayo's Homenaje a Cervantes and Angulo's Suite Mexicana.

MIT Advanced Music Performance
Killian Hall, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253-2826). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 5 pm. Free. Pianist Crystal Chao performs J.S. Bach's French Suite No. 2 in C minor, Elliott Carter's Piano Sonata and Johannes Brahms' Three Intermezzi, Op. 117.

MIT Symphony Orchestra
Kresge Auditorium, 48 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-2826). web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 8 pm. $5. Dante Anzolini directs the MIT Symphony Orchestra in a performance of Mozart's Overture to The Magic Flute, Shostakovich's Prelude and Scherzo, Op. 11, and Harbison's Darkbloom.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 12:15 pm. Free. Violinist Karen Gomyo performs in Music at the Meeting House: The Artist Diploma Series.

St. Andrew's Performing Arts Series
St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 79 Denton Road, Wellesley. (781-235-7310). www.sapas.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to West Natick. 7:30 pm. $20. The Boston Orpheus Ensemble presents an all-Bach concert including Cantatas Nos. 150 & 199 and the Oboe Concerto, BWV 1059.

SATURDAY, MARCH 18

Boston Conservatory
Seully Hall, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-912-9222). www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. 8 pm. Free. The award-winning Three Colors Trio will present an evening of Polish 20th-century chamber music with works by Chopin, Tansman, Malawaski and Iwanek.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$108. Same program as March 15.

Yo-Yo Ma performs with the Boston Symphony Orchestra March 15.

Brandeis University
Slosberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-7 3400). www.brandeis.edu/arts. 8 pm. Free. The N York New Music Ensemble performs new works John Aylward, Mark Berger, Maxwell Dulaney, De Jacoby, Jeremy Sagala and Jonathan Yoken.

Chameleon Arts Ensemble of Bosto
Goethe-Institute, 170 Beacon St., Boston (617-4 8200). www.chameleonarts.org. MBTA: Green L to Arlington. 8 pm. $11-$36. Night Music featu Schoenberg's Verklarte Nacht (Transfigured Nig for string sextet and Arthur Foote's Nocturne a Scherzo for flute and strings.

MIT Wind Ensemble
Kresge Auditorium, 48 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (6 253-2826). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Lin Kendall/MIT. 8 pm. $5. Frederick Harris Jr. directs MIT Wind Ensemble in a performance of Stra Serenade in E-flat, Holst's Suite in E-flat, Willi Schuman's George Washington Bridge and Husa's M for Prague 1968.

SUNDAY, MARCH 19

Emmanuel Music
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617-5 3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green L to Arlington. 10 am. Free. The Orchestra and Cho of Emmanuel Music performs Bach's cantata BW 114.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-278-5102). ww gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Muse 1:30 pm. $5-$20. The Claremont Trio performs T Complete Beethoven Piano Trios, Part II.

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden S Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBT Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Pianist Rob Merfeld and guest tenor Frank Kelley join the Harv String Quartet in A Celebration of Mozart's 25 Birthday & His Legacy.

Mission Church
1545 Tremont St., Boston (617-445-2600). ww missionchurch.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Roxb Crossing. 4 pm. Suggested donation $10-$15. Organ Steven Patchel performs works of Alain, Franc Mulet and Widor.

New England Conservatory
30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). ww newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line Symphony. •Jordan Hall. 3 pm. $15-$48: David Hoc directs the Cantata Singers & Ensemble performi works by Bach. •Williams Hall. 3 pm. Free: Sopra Barbara Winchester and pianist James Busby perfo early Spanish songs arranged by Dorumsgaard, a la song cycle of Barber, Hahn's Chansons Grises a songs by Brahms and Debussy.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). ww ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Newt Highlands. 2 pm. Free. Pianist Jon Sigurosson joins p anist Margaret Cheng Tuttle for a four-hand pia concert of Bach, Mozart and Bizet.

TUESDAY, MARCH 21

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Pianist Ma Goodman performs Bach's Preludes and Fugues fro The Well-Tempered Clavier, Book 1, Copland's Pian Variations and Brahm's Fantasien, Op. 116.

dance clubs

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Ceremony A night of Gothic and industrial music, pm, $3, 19+.

Axis
Static Gay night with DJs and drag performances, 0 pm, $7, 19+.

Caprice
Buddha Bar DJ Kamel spins a mix of Middle Eastern nd international beats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Felt
S.I.N. Mondays This Service Industry Night includes free pool and guest DJs spinning high-energy dance, house and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 1+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, ip-hop, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no over, 21+.

Green Briar
rish seisiun.

Green Street Grill
Havana Club's Mambo Mondays Featuring DJ Cuban Jeff, salsa lessons and dance, 9:30 pm, $10 $8 after lesson), 18+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays Featuring hip-hop, reggae and rap, 0 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
DJs spin dance music, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Two local DJs hold a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Saint
S.I.N. Service Industry Night DJ Tony Moreno spins house and hip-hop, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAYS

Embassy
DJ Joe spins hip-hop, rock, funk and '80s, 10 pm, no cover, 19+.

The Enormous Room
Soul'd Out DJ duo Tommy and Knife spin hits from the '70s and '80s, 10 pm-2 am, $3.

The Foundation Lounge
Torch Tuesdays Jeanie Flynn and the Strays perform three live sets, 7:30 pm.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins a mix including R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
Totally '80s Tuesday DJ Rubiks Cube spins classic '80s music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover.

Paradise Lounge
Mashup Tuesdays DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop, rock, '80s and more, 10 pm, $7, 18+.

Phoenix Landing
Take DJ Scott Bliff spins funk, soul and electro '80s, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin Top 40 and dance music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Karaoke with Dana Z, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
DJs spin dance music, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Karaoke for Cash with Deb-N-Art.

River Gods
Eavesdrop The weekly listening party kicks off at 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
Night varies with an assortment of performances and themed events, 10 pm-2 am.

Venu
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

WEDNESDAYS

An Tua Nua
Salsa Night DJs Hernan, D. Martinez, Antonio Ortiz and guests spin salsa music. Includes beginner lessons and karaoke, 8 pm, $12, 21+.

Phoenix Landing

Bill's Bar
Funken Gruven Night Live funk bands, 9 pm, $13-$15, 18+.

Clerys
Live music, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
iPod Night Bring your own iPod and be an MP3J, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
Soulcity Old school and '70s classics, 8 pm-12 am, $5.

Dbar
Glamourtrash DJ Michael Fontana plays rock, new wave, pop, punk and electro beats.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Enormous Room
Galactic Fractures DJ P.J. Gray spins soul and funk, 10 pm-2 am, $3.

Felt
Boogie Nights DJ Mike Bose spins hip-hop, rock and house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Flat Top Johnny's
Local DJs spin rock music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins a mix including R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
International Wednesdays DJs spin a mix of international music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc cues up hip-hop, Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
The Basement DJ Boo Boo hosts a night of punk, '70s-style new wave and house, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Underground dance music, 10 pm, $5, 19+; $3, 21+.

The Place
Musician Greg Lutrell performs, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
Star 93.7's DJ Ricky spins dance music, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Oldies but Goodies DJ Russ McQueen spins hits from the '50s, '60s and '70s, no cover.

Redline
The NGP All-Stars spin an eclectic collection of dance and hip-hop hits, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Reel Bar
DJ Steve Austin spins hip-hop, reggae and R&B, 9 pm-1 am.

River Gods
Primitive Wednesdays Boogie down to rock, gospel and blues, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
Latino night with DJ Adilson, 10 pm-2 am.

Saint
Wednesday Music Series The Brian Walkley Band plays R&B and dance in the main lounge, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Supper Club
Overtime After-Work Lounge Live jazz and complimentary appetizers, 5-9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Toast
DJs spin house music, 8 pm-1 am, $5.

Vertigo
Analogue Lounge DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake spin house, 10 pm, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Tim Collins spins Top 40, hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
C Entertainment hosts this weekly event featuring guest DJs, 11 pm, $20, 19+ ladies, 21+ men

Avalon
Fling Thursdays DJs spin hip-hop, R&B and Top 40, 10 pm, $15, ladies free until 11 pm, 19+.

Bill's Bar
Old-School Hip-Hop Night Old-school rap, funk and disco, 8 pm-2 am, 19+.

Boston Rocks
Thursday on the Rocks DJs spin pop and dance music, 8 pm-12 am, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Hip-Hop & International DJ Pup Dawg spins Indian and hip-hop music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Club Q
Dance Party Thursdays with DJ Mike Navarro, 9 pm, $5.

Common Ground
Love Night DJ Brian plays tunes from the '80s, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Steve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
Hip-hop, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Dbar
Thirsty Thursdays DJ Darrin Friedman spins club classics.

Devlin's
DJ Doc spins upbeat house and dance, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
DJ Steve Austin spins R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
The Glamorous Life DJs Susan Esthera and Afrodite host this gay hip-hop and electro party, 10 pm.

The Enormous Room
Hip-Hop with Hua DJ Hsu spins hip-hop, dance and disco, 10 pm-2 am, $3.

Felt
True Music Thursdays Featuring live performances, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Nothing But Ray Charles This weekly event is a tribute to Ray Charles and his music.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
The Jon Frederik Band, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Street Grill
Joh Camara and Jama Jigi play Afro-pop highlife, 10:30 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
Live band, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
The Fun House DJs Edgar and Kieran spin dance tunes and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kinvara Pub
DJ Misha spins the latest tunes, including hip-hop, R&B and pop, 21+.

Liquor Store
Ladies' Night KISS 108 and Joe Public host.

Mantra
Havana Club Night: Thursdays at Mantra DJ Cuban Jeff spins a mix of Latin and salsa, 10 pm, $10, $15 after 11 pm, 21+.

Milky Way
Aquanet Dance Party Dance to '80s old-school funk and soul, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Parris
@ Thursdays DJ Lou, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Mad Dog present drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

The Place
DJ Garrett spins Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Point
DJs spin dance and hip-hop music, 10 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
Jim Plunkett and friends perform live, 9 pm, $3, 21+.

The Rack
Exotic Midnight Brazilian night with music and samba dancing, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Reunion Thursdays The NGP All-Stars spin party classics, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
For Real, Too Reel DJs Dali, Ross and Paul spin a mix of electro, funk and '80s flashback, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Ruby Room
Rouge Thursdays Enjoy half-price martinis while DJ Prolific spins R&B and downtempo beats, 7 pm-12 am, no cover.

Rumor
DJs Roger M. and J.C. spin, 10 pm-2 am.

Ryles Dance Hall
Temporada Latina A night of salsa lessons and dancing, 8:30 pm-1 am, $8-$12.

Saint
Deja Vu DJs and weekly guest hosts spin lounge music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, 21+.

Toast
Lesbian Night 9 pm-1 am, $5.

Underbar
DJ Ricky Fatts spins hip-hop, 11 pm.

Venu
=20 Thursday Hip-hop and house music, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
Total Recall Dance to classic disco, funk, soul and rock from the '60s, '70s and '80s, 5-10 pm, no cover.

West Street Grille
Old-School Thursdays DJ Matty D spins old-school hip-hop and funk, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

FRIDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Tim Collins spins Top 40, hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Vanity DJ Hoff spins hip-hop, R&B and classics, 11 pm, $20, ladies 19+, men 21+.

Avalon
Avaland Guest DJs spin with residents Eli Wilkie. Alex Whalen and Jay P., 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Avenue
DJ Canyon Cody spins hip-hop and Top 40, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Axis
Jump Off DJ Mastermillions spins hip-hop, 10 pm. $15, 19+.

Big Easy Bar
Celebrate Mardi Gras with DJ J.C. spinning Top 40, hip-hop and '80s, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Hot Fridays Hip-hop, merengue, salsa, reggae and bachata music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Boston Rocks
Fridays at the Loft 6one7 Productions presents a night of local DJs spinning Top 40, dance and hip-hop tunes, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Caprice
DJ Kamal spins a mix of international, Latin and house music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Club Europa
Twist DJ MsLadyJ spins R&B, hip-hop and '70s and '80s for the lesbian crowd, 10 pm, $10, 21+; after 11 pm, $15, 19+.

L'Espalier.
A lasting impression.

DINNER
MONDAY THROUGH SATURDAY
5:30 PM – 10 PM

TEA
SATURDAY
2 PM – 3 PM

30 GLOUCESTER ST
BOSTON
617 262 3023

L'ESPALIER

SEL DE LA TERRE

rustic country fare of Provence

restaurant · bar · boulangerie

Boulangerie
(Mon.-Fri.) 7:30am-Midnight
(Sat.-Sun.) 9am-Midnight

Lunch (Mon.-Fri.)
11:30 to 2:30

Dinner (7 days)
5:30 to 10:00

Sat. & Sun. brunch
11:00 to 2:30

Catering and private functions
Valet parking available

255 State Street at Long Wharf
Boston, Massachusetts

Restaurant reservations
617 720 1300

Club Q
Boston's Best Dance Party DJ Massi plays hip-hop and Top 40, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Common Ground
DJ Dino Sound spins Northern Soul, 10 pm, no cover.

Coogan's
DJ Steve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
European Night DJs play a mix of Euro-style music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover.

Dbar
DJ Mike Giller spins vocal house and Top 40.

Devlin's
DJ Paul Daley plays upbeat house and trance, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
DJ Nyce spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Enormous Room
All-Stars Have Eyes Guest DJs spin everything from hip-hop and house to funk and soul, $3, 10 pm-2 am.

Felt
DJ Jim Klerkin spins Top 40, dance and hip-hop, no cover, 21+. Fourth floor: Therapy Fridays DJ Cerebral spins hip-hop beats, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins '70s, '80s, '90s and vocal house, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Green Briar
DJ FK spins dance and Top 40, 7 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Green Street Grill
Kilombo Mambo, 11:30 pm, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJs Niso and Mario, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Harp
Friday Night Vibe JAM'N 94.5's DJ Krazy Kulo spins downstairs, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ spins classic beats, 9 pm, $5, ladies free before 10 pm, 21+.

I/D
Bashment Fridays DJ Juneyacool spins reggae, $15, 19+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJs spin, 9 pm, $5, ladies free before 12 am, 21+.

The Kells
Ladies Night DJ Doc spins Top 40, R&B and dance while DJ Kieran spins '80s and '90s favorites, 9 pm, ladies free before 12 am, 21+.

Kinvara Pub
DJ Cadillac spins the latest tunes including hip-hop, R&B and pop, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Howie spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, $5.

Mantra
Mint Resident DJ Zati spins hip-hop, rock, house and '80s remixes.

Matrix/Paradise City
DJ Adilson spins high-energy house, and DJ Steve Spinelli plays Top 40 and hip-hop, 9 pm, $10, 18+.

McGann's Pub
DJs spin dance beats, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
DJ Mark Estrada spins soul, funk, downtempo and hip-hop, no cover.

The Modern
Ego DJ Glenn, 10 pm, $20, 19+.

The Palace
•The Beach House Reggaeton: Spanish reggae music, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •The Male Encounter New England's longest-running all-male dance revue, doors at 8:30 pm, show 9 pm-12:30 am, $25, 18+; $20, 21+. Ladies only. •Rio DJ Donnie Bennett spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, ladies free before 11:30 pm, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Rockpile Rotating bands perform, 9 pm, ladies free before 11:30 pm, $12, 18+; $8, 21+.

Parris
DJ at 8 pm, band at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Groove Yard '70s, '80s, funk, soul and disco, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop spins Top 40 and hip-hop, and TV screens show Boston sports highlights, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
Fist Holdin' Loot Productions presents DJ Itchy P, 10 pm.

The Purple Shamrock
Hip-hop with DJ Buddah, 10 pm, $5.

The Rack
DJ Mike Bowes, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Vegas Fridays Las Vegas–resident DJs spin.

Redline
Rodney Marable and Craig Kaplow spin house, 8 pm 2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Diversion DJ Erik spins a mix that includes ne soul, mellow techno and scuzzy disco, 9 pm, cover, 21+.

Roxy
DJ Val Beatz spins hip-hop, Top 40, R&B and re gae, 10 pm, $20, 18+; $15, 21+.

Rumor
Lounge 54 DJs spin hip-hop, reggae, R&B a old-school, 9:30 pm, $15, ladies free before 11 p 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Salsa Cubana Ryles hosts a Cuban-style salsa nig the third Friday of every month, 9 pm, $10.

Saint
Pure Fridays DJs Gsquared and Tanno spin beats two rooms, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Spin
Red Martinis Live jazz, 6-10 pm, $5 after 9 pm, 21

Tantric Lounge
Hookah Lounge The NGP Allstars and Cloud 9 sp the music at this night featuring hookahs, special cocktails and belly dancers, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike G spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 1 pm, $5.

Toast
Lesbian Night 9 pm-1 am, $5.

Umbria
Fusion Fridays DJs Massi and Luca spin dance hit 10 pm.

Underbar
DJ Franklin spins house, hip-hop and rock, 11 pm.

Venu
Roomba DJ Tarek Antabi spins international hou while DJ Roger M kicks things up with a Latin vib Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 21+.

Vertigo
International Fridays DJ Luca spins house, R&B Latin and international, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJ Joe plays funk and Top 40 a night, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

SATURDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Superstar mixes Top 40, hip-hop, house and sou 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Lifestyles DJ Thanos spins hip-hop and R&B, 11 pm $20, men 21+, ladies 19+ with college ID.

Avalon
Resident DJ Adilson spins along with internationa guest DJs, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Avenue
DJ Murray spins hip-hop, 9 pm, 21+.

Axis
Seductive Saturdays DJ Big spins hip-hop hits, 1 pm, $8, 19+.

Big Easy Bar
Celebrate Mardi Gras with DJ J.C. spinning Top 40 hip-hop and '80s, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Sexy Saturdays DJ Joshua Carl spins hip-hop an Top 40, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Boston Rocks
Shotgun Saturdays Cover bands perform, 9-11 pm DJs present Top 40 dance and hip-hop interactive vide shows till 2 am, $5, 21+.

Buzz
The gay crowd gets busy with DJ Mary Alice spin ning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Caprice
International Lounge DJ Ghost and DJ Vagellis cre ate a lounge atmosphere with international an house sounds, 10 pm, $5-$10, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Club Q
DJ Rip Hernandez spins hip-hop, R&B and dance 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Common Ground
Shake Your Ass Night DJ spins indie rock, $2.

Coogan's
DJ Craig spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+

Cosmopolitan
Cosmopolitan Saturdays Top 40, hip-hop, R&B 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Dbar
Saturday Night Clubhouse DJ Darrin Friedman spins classic club beats.

Devlin's
DJs Dan Spurling and Chris Deorio spin dance and house, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
Sensation Saturdays DJ Val Beats spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Enormous Room
Reverberate Mark Estrada spins current and classic hip-hop, $3, 10 pm-2 am.

Felt
DJ Ricky Fatts spins hip-hop and dance beats, no cover, 21+. Fourth floor: Social Club Saturdays DJ Mike Bose spins Top 40 beats.

The Foundation Lounge
DJ Edward Grant Stuart spins an eclectic mix of '70s and '80s disco and Motown, plus international lounge and acid jazz, 9:30 pm-2 am.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the 70s, '80s and '90s as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Street Grill
House band.Kilombo Mambo performs at 11:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJs Niso and Mario spin, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Harp
House DJ spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ spins classic beats, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Fresh spins, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Howie spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, $5.

Matrix/Paradise City
DJ spins '80s, '90s, hip-hop and rock, 10 pm, $8, 21+; $15, ladies 18+.

McGann's Pub
DJs spin dance beats, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
The Grooveyard DJ Yamin spins a mix of mashups, soul, hip-hop, 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night DJ Antonio Ortíz spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 9 pm, $10 for men; $5 for ladies; free for ladies before 10:30, 21+.

The Modern
KLIK DJs Don Schmidt, Mike Walsh and Bons spin minimal techno and electro microhouse, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

The Palace
•The Beach House Classic party music and Top 40, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Club Copa Shake it to Spanish and Latin dance music and hip-hop by DJs Rip Hernandez and Willie D, $15 for men 18+; $10 for men 21+; $5 for men before 10:30 pm; free for ladies. •The Male Encounter New England's longest-running all-male dance revue, doors at 8:30 pm, show runs 9 pm-12:30 am, $25, 18+; $20, 21+. Ladies only. •Oxygen DJ Chaos spins a hip-hop mix, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Rio DJ Alex D. spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, $15, 18+; $10, 21+.

Parris
DJ at 8 pm, band at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinney spins one-hit wonders, '80s new wave and disco, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
Turnstyles DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, 21+.

The Rack
Saturday Greatest Hits Party DJ Brian Roche spins, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
KISS 108-FM's Billy Costa and DJ Randy G spin Top 40, house, dance, disco and rock music, 10 pm.

Redline
DJ Cherry spins dance and hip-hop, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Peer Pressure DJ Unlockedgroove spins modern mixes, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
Dueling DJs Massi and Play spin their own styles of house, progressive and techno music, 9 pm, $15, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Sender spins hip-hop and R&B while DJ J.C. plays house and Latin vibes, 10 pm-2 am.

Ryles Dance Hall
Four on the Floor Latin, tango and salsa dancing, 9 pm-1 am, $8-$12.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins Top 40 and dance beats in the front room, and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, $5, 10 pm, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike G spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $5.

Tiernan's
Saturday Night Dance Party DJ Littles spins classic old-school, Top 40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Toast
Curses Wretched Design presents an evening of Gothic/industrial music, 9 pm-1 am, $10.

Umbria
Johnny Vicious Saturdays DJ Johnny Vicious and a list of rotating guest DJs spin dance hits, 10 pm.

Underbar
Global Entertainment Presents DJ Angel Moraes, 11 pm.

Venu
Nula DJ JC plays Latin house, and DJs Tarek Antabi and Gamble spin house and hip-hop, 11 pm, 19+.

Make your own Bloody Mary Bar!

Sundays 11:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Serving Brunch from 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Scollay Square
- Cocktails -
Purveyors of Fine Food
21 Beacon Street
Boston, MA
1-617-742-4900

Tavern on the Water
One Pier 6
Eighth Street
Charlestown, MA
1-617-242-8689

Two Great Locations

Relax with dollar drafts and half-price apps

Coors Light drafts are $1.00 and appetizers are half price every weekday from 5-7 pm

food • drinks • music • life

The living room

full menu 'til midnight • cocktails 'til 1 am

101 Atlantic Avenue • Boston • 617-723-5101

www.thelivingroomboston.com

Vertigo
DJ Ron Steele plays R&B, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJ Joe plays funk and Top 40 all night, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

SUNDAYS

Aria
Scandalous Sundays Brazilian music, 11 pm, $20, women 19+, men 21+.

Avalon
Gay Night DJs spin progressive house, trance and techno, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

Bill's Bar
Live reggae with Dub Station, 8 pm-2 am, 21+.

Caprice
Rotating DJs spin Brazilian dance music, 10 pm, $5-$10, 21+.

Club Q
International Dance Party 8 pm-2 am, $10.

Cosmopolitan
2-3-5 Presents Reggae vs. Reggaeton, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Devlin's
Industry Night DJ Paul Dailey plays mixes and remixes, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Enormous Room
Revolutions A night of electronic music, $3, 11 pm-3 am.

Green Briar
Finbar Doyle, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
The Spot Rotating DJs spin Top 40, hip-hop and house music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover.

Middlesex Lounge
Groove Yard DJ Yamin spins mashups, soul, hip-hop, dancehall and more, 9 pm, no cover.

The Office
Utopia Sundays DJ Bruno and weekly special guests play deep, soulful house and disco, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Bump House-music night featuring a rotating roster of local and international guest DJs, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

The Place
Chad LaMarsh appears with VJ Leathers, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Point
DJ Itchy P, 11 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Thom spins Top 40 beats, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
DJ Mike Janedy spins dance and Top 40, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
DJ Danny Sharp and the World Premier Band provide Top 40, dance and old-school funk, no cover.

Redline
Sunday Dubby Sunday DJ Brynmore and rotating guests spin reggae-style music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Action Sunday DJs play punk, garage and rock, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Wepa Salsa Sundays The second and fourth Sunday of each month, DJs Nik and Hernan play salsa music, 6-10 pm, $12.

Saint
Spice Sundays Manos and Christophe host a night featuring Latin and international grooves, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Tiki Room
Reggae Sundays Sunday night reggae features Dub Station and DJ D-Kon, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Toast
DJs wind down the weekend with chill hip-hop and Brazilian beats, 8 pm-1 am, $5.

Venu
Carnivale comes to Boston with this Brazilian night as DJ Leandro spins a collection of dance hits, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
Haitian Connection DJ Deville spins reggae and world beats, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Club Venues

An Tain 35 India St., Boston (617-426-1870).
An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121).
Anthem 138 Portland St., Boston (617-523-8383).
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424).
The Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-9508).
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Big Easy Bar Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000).
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678).
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726-1110).
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080).
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-9874).
Club Europa 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Club Q 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121).
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
Cosmopolitan 33 Batterymarch St., Boston (617-695-9333).
Dbar 1236 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-265-4490).
Devlin's 332 Washington St., Brighton (617-779-8822).
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050).
Embassy 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100).
The Enormous Room 567 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-491-5599).
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555).
Flat Top Johnny's 1 Kendall Square, Cambridge (617-494-9565).
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-9722).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
Green Street Grill 280 Green St., Cambridge (617-876-1655).
Gypsy Bar 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799).
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010).
Highbar 200 High St., Boston (617-523-4000).
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722-0161).
I/D 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460).
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Brighton (617-782-9082).
Kinvara Pub 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400).
Liquor Store The Alley, Boston (617-357-6800).
Mantra 52 Temple Place, Boston (617-542-8111).
Matrix/Paradise City 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
McGann's Pub 197 Portland St., Boston (617-227-4059).
Middlesex Lounge 315 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-6739).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740).
The Modern 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-351-2581).
The Office 5 Broad St., Boston (617-474-7866).
The Palace 1500 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Paradise Lounge 967-969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800).
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081).
The Point 147 Hanover St., Boston (617-523-7020).
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060).
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051).
Rain 665 Broadway, Malden (781-322-2101).
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-9851).
The Reel Bar 477 Cambridge St., Allston (617-738-3222).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
Ruby Room 155 Portland St., Boston (617-557-9950).
Rumor 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-943-0656).
Ryles Dance Hall 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9300).
Saint 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-6511).
Spin 1466 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Supper Club 711 Boylston St., Boston (617-437-0002).
Tantric Lounge 123 Stuart St., Boston (617-367-8742).
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300).
Tiernan's 99 Broad St., Boston (617-350-7077).
Tiki Room 1 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-351-2580).
Toast 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211).
Tonic 1316 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-566-6699).
Umbria 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1000).
Underbar 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-7122).
The Upstairs Lounge 65 Causeway St., Boston (617-792-3382).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061).
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-0300).
Whiskey Park 64 Arlington St., Boston (617-542-1483).

museums & galleries

Advice to Contributors
Submit gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Galleries. Or e-mail arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Museums

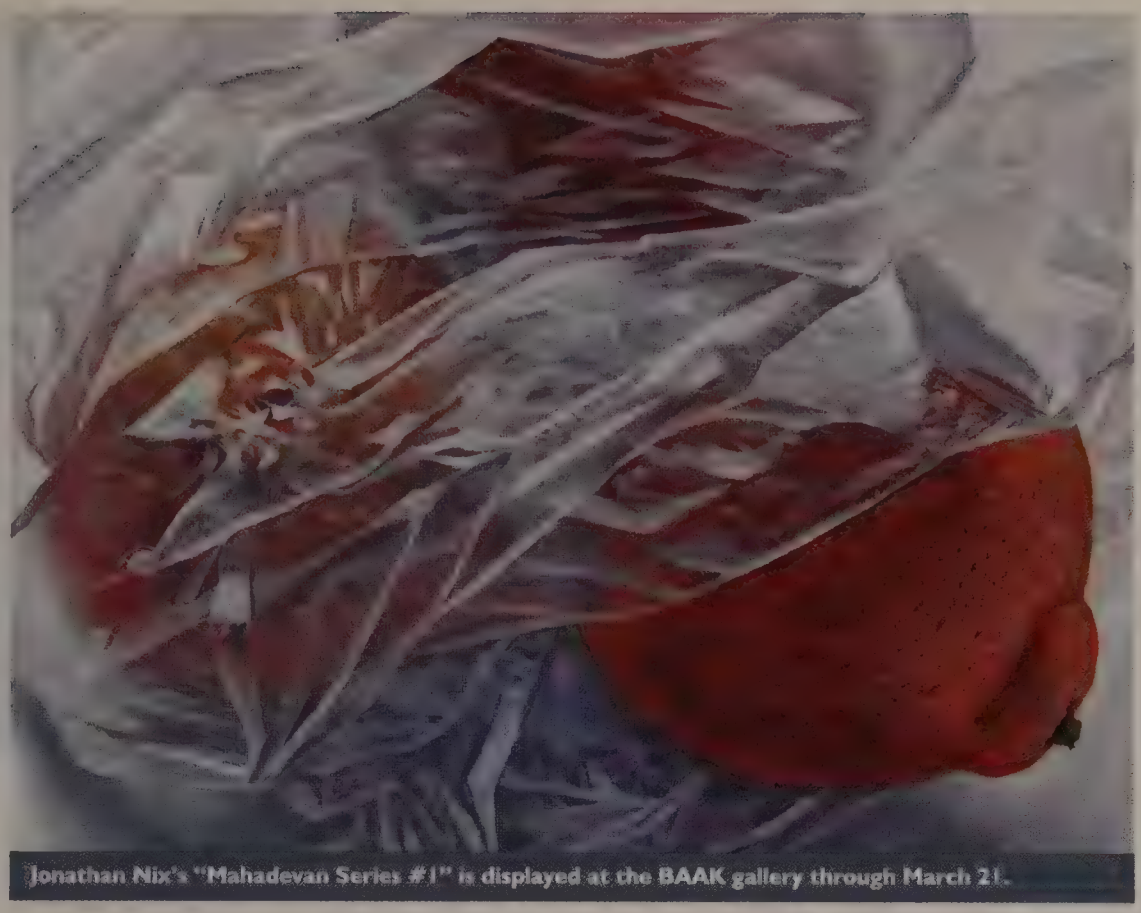
Arthur M. Sackler Museum
Harvard University, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and seniors; free, Sat. until 12 pm. •Frank Stella 1958 showcases several of the postwar artist's neglected oil paintings from the year 1958, before he began his famous black paintings. Through May 7. •Evocative Creatures: Animal Motifs and Symbols in East Asian Art explores the symbolism and significance of animals through paintings, ceramics, sculptures, jades and textiles. Through June 11. •The Tablet and the Pen: Drawings from the Islamic World examines how drawings contributed to artistic experimentation in eastern Islamic lands. Through July 23.

Davis Museum and Cultural Center
Wellesley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2051). www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. Tue.-Sun., 12-4 pm. Free. •On the Edge: Contemporary Chinese Artists Encounter the West explores in a variety of media new perspectives on contemporary art and reexamines the role of Chinese art in the international community. Through May 24. •Any Opinions? is an installation by Chinese artist Xu Bing that examines the evolution of language and the interplay between Eastern and Western cultures. Through June 3. •Art from China, Japan and Korea displays a collection of East Asian artifacts. Through June 30. •An installation of modernist art features works by Claude Monet, John Singer Sargent and Diego Rivera. Ongoing.

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park
51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lincoln. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $9; $6, students and seniors; free, children 5 and under. •Café des Artistes displays various objects associated with drinking coffee, including decorative latte cups and coffee cans. March 19-April 9. •Software Art features interactive works by four individual artists and one team, to be viewed on a computer screen. Through April 16. •James Surls: The Splendora Years, 1977-1997 features two decades of the sculptor's abstract work, including table-top carvings and large-scale prints. Through April 16. •The Workshop Portfolios highlights the woodcuts, etchings, engravings and lithographs of some of Boston's most important printmakers from 1988-2000. Through April 16. •Great Buys: Museum Purchases highlights more than 40 pieces of art the museum has purchased with the Art Acquisition Fund. Through Sept. 30.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum
32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and seniors; free, Sat. until 12 pm. •To Delight the Eye: French Drawings and Paintings from the Collection of Charles E. Dunlap investigates the journey of the collector as well as his relationships with those who played a pivotal role in his development as a collector and donor. Through March 12. •Tempo, Tempo! The Bauhaus Photomontages of Marianne Brandt highlights the German artist's photomontages created during the mid-1920s and early 1930s. March 11-May 21. •Highlights from the Collection of Grenville L. Winthrop exhibits 19th-century paintings. Ongoing.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun., 9 am-12 pm. $7.50; $6, students and seniors; $5, children ages 3-18. •Robert Turner: Rare Places in a Rare Light exhibits photography of North America's wildlands. Through March 26. •Climate Change: Our Global Experiment explores scientific studies on climate and includes a computer simulation. Ongoing. •Dodos, Trilobites and Meteorites... Treasures of Nature and Science at Harvard features collections that document more than two centuries of scientific exploration. Ongoing. •The Glass Flowers by Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka features glass models of more than 830 plant species from the Ware Collection. Ongoing.



Jonathan Nix's "Mahadevan Series #1" is displayed at the BAAK gallery through March 21.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Tue., Wed. and Fri., 12-5 pm; Thu., 12-9 pm; Sat.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $7; $5, students and seniors; free, Thu. after 5 pm. •Living in Motion: Design and Architecture for Flexible Dwelling exhibits more than 150 objects and films and 500 illustrations to explore how people use furniture, housing and objects for a flexible, mobile life. Through May 7. •Suzanne Walking and Julian Walking by British artist Julian Opie features two life-sized portraits of figures walking on light-emitting diode screens. Through Oct. 31.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $10, Tue.-Fri.; $11, Sat.-Sun.; $7, seniors; $5, students; free to members, children under 18 and all visitors named Isabella. •Gentile Bellini and the East explores the Venetian artist's exoticizing fascination with the East through his paintings, drawings, decorative arts and medals. Through March 26. •The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces by artists including Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Botticelli and Degas.

MIT List Visual Arts Center
20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-253-4680). http://web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Tue.-Thu., Sat. and Sun., 12 -6 pm; Fri., 12-8 pm. Free. •Christian Marclay: Mixed Reviews presents a video that shows American Sign Language interpreter Jonathan Kovacs sign the text of musical performances, music reviews and records. Through March 17. •America Starts Here: Kate Ericson and Mel Spiegler celebrates 20 works including documentation of public art projects, drawings and installations that the duo created during their 10-year career together. Through April 9.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). http://web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-5 pm. $5; $2, students and seniors; free, children under 5. •Arnold Newman: Twentieth-Century Photographs features photographs of famous artists, poets, actors, politicians and scientists against a background that is related to their field of work. Through March 31. •COLLISIONbox #2: Cars and Stars features Andy Zimmerman's digital animation and video projected onto a three-dimensional sculpture that is accompanied by digital sound. Through April 30. •Scopes, Station Wagons and Solder: Unexpected Images from the Rad Lab and RLE Collections exhibits photographs documenting the history of radar and electronics. Through June 11.

Museum of African-American History
46 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroammuseum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Park. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Free. •Words of Thunder: William Lloyd Garrison and the Ambassadors of Abolition celebrates the life and achievements of the famous Boston abolitionist. Through April 1. •Historic Gallery Talks: 19th-Century Black Beacon Hill explores the determination of African Americans on Beacon Hill in the 1800s. Ongoing.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Wed.-Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm; Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:45 pm. Thu.-Fri. after 5 pm, only the west wing is open. $15; $13, students and seniors; $6.50, children ages 6-17 on school days until 3 pm; free to children 17 and under all other times; admission reduced by $2, Thu.-Fri. after 5 pm; free to all, Wed., 4-9:45 pm. •Antioch Mosaic Conservation gives visitors a rare opportunity to see the conservation staff restore a Roman mosaic that once resided in a third-century home. Through March 15. •West African Gold: Akan Regalia from the Glassell Collection presents items crafted for Akan kings and elite society members including crowns, jewelry, sculptures, swords and kente cloths. Through March 26. •A Much Recorded War: The Russo-Japanese War in History and Imagery exhibits prints, postcards and photographs. Through March 28. •Facets of Cubism focuses on the growth of Cubism in France until 1920 and includes paintings, sculptures and works on paper. Through April 16. •David Hockney Portraits highlights 150 works in various media of the renowned British artist's friends, family and lovers. Through May 14. •Contemporary Clay: Japanese Ceramics for the New Century is a collection of innovative, contemporary Japanese ceramics. Through July 9. •Contemporary Cloth exhibits shawls from avant-garde designer Minagawa Makiko. Through July 9. •Degas to Picasso: Modern Masters features more than 280 works, including paintings, watercolors, drawings, prints, photographs, sculptures and illustrated books from 1900-1960. Through July 23. •Light My Fire: Rock Posters from the Summer of Love highlights posters from 1966-67 that advertised weekly rock concerts with local bands from the Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco, including the Grateful Dead and Jefferson Airplane. Through Aug. 13. •Tradition and Transformation: Japanese Art 1860-1940 explores Japanese art as the country experienced a synthesis of Western modernism and Eastern traditionalism. Through Aug. 20.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $15; $13, seniors; $12, children ages 3-11. •Countdown to Supernova is a planetarium show about the creation and death of stars. Through April 30. •Star Wars: Where Science Meets Imagination incorporates artifacts from all six Star Wars films to explore the technologies of today and tomorrow. Through April 30. •Is Algae in your Future? demonstrates inventor Isaac Berzin's device that converts power plant exhaust into renewable energy using algae and sunlight. Ongoing. •The Butterfly Garden lets visitors enjoy hundreds of butterflies and flowers. •The Computing Revolution traces the history of computers. Ongoing. •Stargaze atop the museum's garage roof at the Gilliland Observatory Friday evenings. •Human Body Connection is a hands-on exhibition where visitors of all ages learn about human behavior as well as animal behavior by observing cotton-top tamarins. Ongoing. •Natural Mysteries puts visitors' organizational skills to work solving mysteries. Ongoing. •Playing by the Rules: Fish, Fads and Fireflies engages visitors with a "Virtual FishTank" in order to learn more about complex systems. Ongoing. •The Theater of Electricity provides lightning shows daily at 12 and 2 pm and Fridays at 7 pm.

Peabody Essex Museum
East India Square, Salem (978-745-9500). www.pem.org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. $13; $11, seniors; $9, students; free to children under 16 and residents of Salem. •Air Lines: Photographs by Alex MacLean captures images of the U.S. from thousands of feet above ground. Through April 23. •Taj Mahal: The Building of a Legend is a collection of 40 paintings and photographs exploring the sacred site. Through July 23. •Carved by Nature: Untamed Traditions in Chinese Decorative Art exhibits organic wood forms that appealed to Buddhists and Daoists seeking to connect with nature. Through Aug. 13. •Exposing the Source: The Paintings of Nalini Malani highlights the artist's paintings and watercolors, with subjects varying from women to India's urban culture. Through Oct. 22. •Owls in Art and Nature exhibits a wide variety of art pieces and interactive stations representing the connections between humans and owls throughout history. Through Dec. 3.

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology
11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). www.peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $7.50; $6, seniors and students; $5, children 3-18; free, children under 3. •Gifts of the Great Rivers: Arkansas Effigy Pottery from the Edwin Curtiss Collection displays artifacts that date from the 13th-17th centuries. Through March 15. •Imazighen! Beauty and Artisanship in Berber Life includes 20th-century artifacts such as jewelry and leatherwork by the Berber peoples of North Africa. Through June 30. •Reconfiguring Korea: Roger Marshutz's Photography of Pusan, 1952-1954 exhibits photographs of daily life in Korea as the country underwent cultural, political and economic changes during the U.S. reconstruction efforts. Through Sept. 10. •From Nation to Nation: Examining Lewis and Clark's Indian Collection presents artifacts from the explorers' expedition. Through Dec. 31. •The Moche of Ancient Peru is a collection of early ceramic art that gives insight into the culture. Through June 2007. •Encounters with the Americas examines Native American culture before and after the arrival of Columbus. Ongoing.

Rose Art Museum
Brandeis University, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3434). www.brandeis.edu/rose. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue.-Sun., 12-5 pm. $3. •Post and After: Contemporary Art from the Brandeis University Collection displays postmodern paintings from the past 25 years. Through April 9. •Dana Schutz: Paintings 2002-2005 features a variety of narrative oil paintings by the New York artist. Through April 9.

Special Events

A Journey Home: John F. Kennedy and Ireland
John F. Kennedy Library and Museum, Stephen Smith Center, Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1662). www.jfklibrary.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. . Daily, 9am-5 pm. $10. This exhibition explores former President Kennedy's relationship with his ancestral homeland and features artifacts, documents, photographs and film footage that relate to his Irish heritage. March 17-spring 2007.

A Photographic Portrait of Boston, 1840-1865
Boston University Art Gallery, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-4672). www.bu.edu/art. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat. and Sun, 1-5 pm. The exhibition comprises over 140 images, including daguerreotypes, cartes de visites and salt prints that capture the city and its residents

...during the Civil War. ...April 2.

Selections '06
Bakalar Gallery, Massachusetts College of Art, 621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www.massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 12-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. This exhibition showcases the work of faculty, including new members and those returning from sabbatical. Through March 11.

Frank Stella's paintings are displayed in the Frank Stella 1958 exhibition at the Arthur M. Sackler Museum through May 7.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www.acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. Jim Foresberg features the artist's mid-century artwork including oil paintings, graphic relief blocks and works on paper. Through March 25.

Adams Gallery
Suffolk University Law School, 120 Tremont St., Boston (617-305-1782). www.suffolk.edu/adams_gallery. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Mon.-Sun., 10 am-6 pm. Free. BSO Celebrates 125 Years displays photographs and artifacts from the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Through June 30.

Allston Skirt Gallery
65 Thayer St., Boston (617-482-3652). www.allstonskirt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Joe Zane: Personality presents an installation of the artist's paintings and sculptures. Through April 7.

Alpha Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •New Paintings features Bernard Chaet's oil paintings. Through March 29. •Milton Avery's Works on Paper depicts the artist's artwork done with pen, ink and watercolor. Through March 29.

Arden Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Margaret Gerding Fields and Mountains exhibits oil on linen paintings of New England landscapes. Through March 29.

Ars Libri
500 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-5212). www.arslibri.com MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Jutta Koether displays one of her new paintings. Through April 7.

Artana
1378 Beacon St., Suite B, Brookline (617-879-3111). www.artanagallery.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-7 pm and by appointment. Raghava: New Work features watercolor paintings of Buddhas, Geneshas and nude women that were created with the artist's hands instead of with brushes. Through March 29.

Axelle Fine Arts Galerie
91 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0700). www.axelle.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Daily, 10 am-6 pm. Andre Boubounelle showcases the oil paintings of the French landscape artist in this solo exhibition. March 9-April 15.

BAAK Gallery
35 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-0407). www.baakgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-8 pm; Sun., 1-6 pm. Jonathon Nix: Paintings displays oil paintings that show various light perspectives on produce bags. Through March 21.

Barbara Krakow Gallery
10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Sol LeWitt Portfolios features the artist's prints, including silkscreens and etchings. Through March 15. •Barbara Broughel exhibits the artist's conceptual paintings using techniques from the Renaissance. March ...April 26.

Berenberg Gallery
4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). www.berenberggallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Everything Under the Sun exhibits paintings, drawings and sculptures by disabled artists at the Gateway Arts Gallery. March 15-May 6.

Bernard Toale Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www.bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •New Paintings displays large, abstract, geometric paintings by artist Chris Martin. Through March 25. •Thomas Allen: Photographs exhibits photography of pulp paperback characters from the 1950s who interact with one another. Through March 25. •Cardboard Action is an installation by Nancy Murphy Spicer that includes three videos, photographs and cardboard. Through April 1.

BF Annex Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3344). www.bfannex.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. The Retreat features large-format photographs by Rebecca Sittler. Through March 25.

Boston Center for the Arts
Mills Gallery, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-8835). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sun., 12-5 pm; Fri.-Sat., until 10 pm. After examines events that range from personal to world-changing in a variety of media including digital collages, films and drawings. Through March 19.

Boston Sculptors Gallery
486 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-7781). www.bostonsculptors.com. MBTA: Orange Line to N.E. Medical. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. •Material Goods features bronze sculptures of everyday objects by Christopher Frost. Through March 11. •Maggie Stark displays a light installation with a glass sculpture in Time Shift. Through March 11.

Brickbottom Gallery
1 Fitchburg St., Somerville (617-776-3410). www.brickbottomartists.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. Thu.-Sat., 2-6 pm. Under the Influence of Science presents artwork in various media inspired by a wide array of scientific disciplines. Through April 1.

Bromfield Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3605). www.bromfieldartgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •Eye Object features mixed-media work from Charles Goss. Through April 1. •High Wire includes paintings from Tim Nichols about the sounds, smells and sights of the artist's hometown. Through April 1.

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Line to St. Mary's. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm. Luca Ricco: Watercolors displays new watercolors by the partially paralyzed artist. Through April 9.

Cambridge Art Association
25 Lowell St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). www.cambridgeart.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. •Spring Returns exhibits oil paintings and watercolors by Michelle Gauthier, Janet Hobbs and Steve Myers. Through March 28. •In The Way We Live, member artists display their paintings, sculptures and mixed-media works. On display at the University Place Gallery, March 14-April 8.

Cambridge Arts Council
344 Broadway St., Cambridge (617-349-4380). www.cambridgeartscouncil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon., Wed.-Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm; Tue., 8:30 am-5 pm; Fri., 8:30 am-12 pm. Model Citizens: 42° 22' 12.11" N, 71° 06' 11.45" W by Michael Oatman highlights various collections of local model makers. Through April 7.

Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center
41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). www.cmacusa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm. TR3 features mixed-media artwork, costumes and photos of indigenous insects from the Dominican Republic. March 20-April 26.

Cambridge 7 Associates, Inc.
1050 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7000). www.c7a.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. Paintings East and West displays the work of Hans Chao, including Chinese calligraphy screens and oil paintings. Through April 28.

Chase Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www.chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. Kathryn Frund's abstract landscape paintings are on display through March 31.

Childs Gallery
169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). www.childsgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm. 69 at 169: Childs Gallery Celebrates 69 Years at 169 Newbury St. with 69 Fine Objects includes art from old masters to 20th-century artists in a variety of media. March 13-May 6.

Copley Society of Art
158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www.copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Sandra Cohen's show Dginni presents the artist's recent oil paintings on canvas and masonite. Through March 11. •17th Annual Student Show features artwork in a variety of media by thirteen student artists from several of New England's art colleges. Through March 11. •Patron's Choice 2006: On the Waterfront features paintings from 25 of the gallery patrons' favorite artists. March 16-April 22.

Crump McCole Gallery
200 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-330-1133). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Wed. and Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-5 pm. Small Works by Elizabeth Benson exhibits the artist's oil paintings. Ongoing.

DTR Modern Galleries
167 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-9700). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 11 am-6 pm. Hockney and Houben: Interpretations presents lithographs and silk screens by David Hockney, and oils on canvas by Houben R.T. Through April 22.

Eclipse Gallery
164 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-6730). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. New Paintings features mixed-media paintings by Mary B. Harrington. Through March 25.

Fort Point Arts Community Gallery
300 Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www.fortpointarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-9 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. 5 Draw features drawings with a variety of themes and styles by five artists: Sam Tan, James Kinny, Dorothea Van Camp, Jo Ann Rothschild and Linda Price Sneddon. Through April 8.

Galerie d'Orsay
33 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.galeriedorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. The gallery's collection features paintings from master artists including Picasso, Renoir and Matisse.

Gallery @ The Piano Factory
791 Tremont St., Boston (617-437-9365). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Fri., 6-8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-5 pm. John Stuart Walsh Silver Print and Digital Photographs displays the artist's work from 1972-2006. Through March 27.

Gallery AA/B
535 Albany St., Suite 3B, Boston (617-574-0022). www.artadvisoryboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Recent Paintings by Matthew Kolodziej examines the perception of change. Through March 24. •Wall Relief by Julianna Bruce uses curved steel and wood as the foundation for her wall-relief pieces. Through March 24.

Gallery Katz
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-6328). www.gallerykatz.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. In Perfect Love Rendezvous, Christopher Santer's oil paintings depict highways as symbols of modern culture. Through March 18.

Gallery Kayafas
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411). www.gallerykayafas.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Boston-based photographers Peter Urban and Amy Montali feature their new intimate portraits. Through April 1.

Gallery NAGA
67 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9060). www.gallerynaga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Tall Things Considered by Richard Raiselis exhibits city scenes painted from above ground level. Through April 1.

Genovese/Sullivan Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-426-9738). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. Post Retrospective Murmurings by Fred Lynch exhibits the artist's oil paintings. Through April 4.

Howard Yezerski Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.howardyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Nudes features the photography of Gary Schneider. Through March 14. •Contradictions: Verlaine/Rimbaud features John O'Reilly's polaroid montages. March 17-April 18. •New Paintings displays Hannah Barrett's oils paintings on linen. March 17-April 18.

Hurst Gallery
54 Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-491-6888). www.hurstgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sat., 12-6 pm; Thu. 12-7 pm and by appointment. •Stages of Depiction: Indian Drawings, 17th-19th centuries considers the artistic process involved in the creation of Indian works on paper. March 18-April 15.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www.judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. Free. The Many Layers of Zymund Jankowski is a culmination of the artist's subject matters, focusing on a series of jazz musicians. Through April 1.

Judy Goldman Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www.judygoldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Free. •John Guthrie presents his new abstract paintings in Memories Can't Wait. Through April 1. •Darkness Visible features Marina Berio's large-scale drawings based on photographic images. Through April 1.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www.kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. American Painting is a group show exhibiting realistic mixed-media works. Through April 1.

Kingston Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-4113). www.kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. Beloved displays Hilary Tolan's sculptures made with encaustic wax and natural objects. Through April 1.

Lanoue Fine Art
160 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-4400). www.lanouefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Neo-cubist Italian artist Lucio Ranucci displays his oil paintings. March 11-30.

L'Attitude Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). www.lattitudegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley.

Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Designing Minds features Zev Rejman's metal wall sculptures stitched with contemporary and Japanese patterns. Through March 15. •Rhythm is a group show featuring sculpture and mixed-media wall art with a musical theme. Through April 10.

Locco Ritoro Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-542-1010). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •New Works by Ricardo Cabrera displays the artist's works of oil on welded iron. Through March 31. •New Works by Jeff Heyne features the artist's works in contemporary photography mounted on aluminum. Through March 31.

Massachusetts College of Art
Bakalar Gallery, 621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www.massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 12-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. The Beaver Project presents a multimedia exhibition in which artist Shintaro Miyake dresses as a "cartoon" figure and inhabits a fictional, futuristic world in the gallery. Call for performance schedule. Through March 18.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobilia-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •New Jewelry in Polymer Clay presents earrings, bracelets and brooches created by Steven Ford and David Forlano. Through March 30. •In Paper, Scissors and Thread Donna Khaemardder displays her dresses made from recycled materials. Through March 30.

Mercury Gallery
3 Newbury St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Lyrical Abstraction features metal and wood sculptures as well as oil paintings and works on paper by Louis Schanker. March 18-April 11.

MPG Contemporary
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). www.mpgallery.net. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Small Fires in the Distance: Paintings from the Stranger Series features San Francisco artist Gage Opdenbrouw's oil paintings. Through April 1.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). www.nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. New Sculpture exhibits Dexter Lazenby's wood and steel sculptures, some of which hang from the ceiling. Through April 1.

OHT Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-1677). www.ohtgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Fun Everyday features new paintings by Heidi Johnson, combining traditional painting and kitsch. Through April 1.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-778-5265). www.ospgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Michael Krueger's Recent Work exhibits the artist's colored-pencil drawings of American mythology. Through April 15.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www.outoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Daily, 12-6 pm. The gallery's permanent collection features photography, paintings, sculpture, jewelry, mosaics and antiques by local artists including Margarete Koehler-Bittkow, an original Bauhaus artist.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www.peppergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Nancy Friese exhibits the artist's latest landscape oil paintings. Through March 25.

Perrin Gallery
320A Harvard St., Brookline (617-277-4357). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5pm. Here for Only a Little While features ink-jet prints, oil and mixed-media paintings by Judith Brassard-Brown and Sadie Dudley. Through April 10.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www.puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Nature Speaks by Jim Schantz showcases pastels of the Berkshire Mountains. Through March 12. •Pursuing the Eye of Heaven by Hideaki Miyamura showcases refined ceramics. Through March 12. •A Single Form by Phil Rogers presents the artist's work with ceramics. March 18-April 16. •A Sparkling Life Force by Jeffrey Hessing displays the artist's Expressionistic oil paintings. March 18-April 16.

Richardson-Clarke Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). www.richardson-clarke.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. The gallery's permanent collection features European and American paintings and drawings from the 19th and 20th centuries.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www.robertkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Still Lovers exhibits color photographs by Elena Dorfman. Through March 25.

Samson Projects
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7177). www.samsonprojects.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Diana Puntar and Carrie Moyer displays new sculptures by Diana Puntar and abstract paintings by Carrie Moyer that were created with acrylics and glitter. Through March 11. •Taylor Davis exhibits the artist's abstract wood sculptures. March 17-April 22.

School of Museum of Fine Arts
Grossman Gallery, 230 The Fenway., Boston (617-369-3718). www. smfa.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm.; Thu., 10-8 pm. •The Student Annual Exhibition features multimedia work by current students. •SMFA Traveling Scholars Exhibition celebrates the school's artists who have received the prestigious Traveling Scholarship. Through April 12.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www.societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm.; Sun., 12-5 pm. The clay residency program Watershed celebrates its 20th anniversary with a display of ceramic art. Through April 30.

Soprafina Gallery
73 Thayer St., Boston (617-728-0770). www.soprafina.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. New Work exhibits nonrepresentational and abstract paintings from Anne Saussois and Peggy Badenhausen. Through April 1.

St. George Gallery
245 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). www.stgeorgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Outside the Line features oil and watercolors paintings by William St. George, John Murray and Sandra Mueller-Dick. Through March 31.

Vose Galleries of Boston
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www.vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. The gallery's collection includes American artwork in various media from the 18th, 19th and early 20th-centuries.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Center for Photographic Exhibitions
New England School of Photography, 537 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-437-1868). www.nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. Erik Hanson and Steven Tavan display large format black-and-white photography. March 20-April 14.

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www.griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Wed., 11 am-5 pm; Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-6 pm. •The Body Familiar: Current Perspectives of the Nude exhibits color as well as black-and-white images. Through March 19. •A Dream Half Remembered: Images by Ken Rosenthal displays abstract black-and-white photographs of familiar subjects. Through March 19.

Panopticon Gallery Boston
502 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929). www.panopt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. •Valentine's Day Show features photographs from the collection of Claire Goldsmith. Through March 11. •Shadows of Time displays Paul Wainwright's black-and-white photographs and prints of landscapes and interiors. Through April 1. •Tony Deconeas, John Rosenthal and Keith Johnson exhibits black-and-white photography with romantic themes. March 14-May 2.

Panopticon Gallery Waltham
435 Moody St., Waltham (781-647-0100). www.panopt.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Waltham. Mon.-Thu., 10 am-6 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. John Rosenthal exhibits black-and-white photographs. March 9-April 22.

Photographic Resource Center
Boston University Art Gallery, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-975-0600). www.bu.edu/prc. MBTA: B Green Line to B.U. West. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. Document: Contemporary Social Documentary Work from Greater Boston is a photographic examination of people in the Boston area. Through March 26.

Axelle Fine Arts

Matinée enneigée dans la forêt de Marly de Roi, 35" x 45 3/4"

ANDRE BOUBOUNELLE

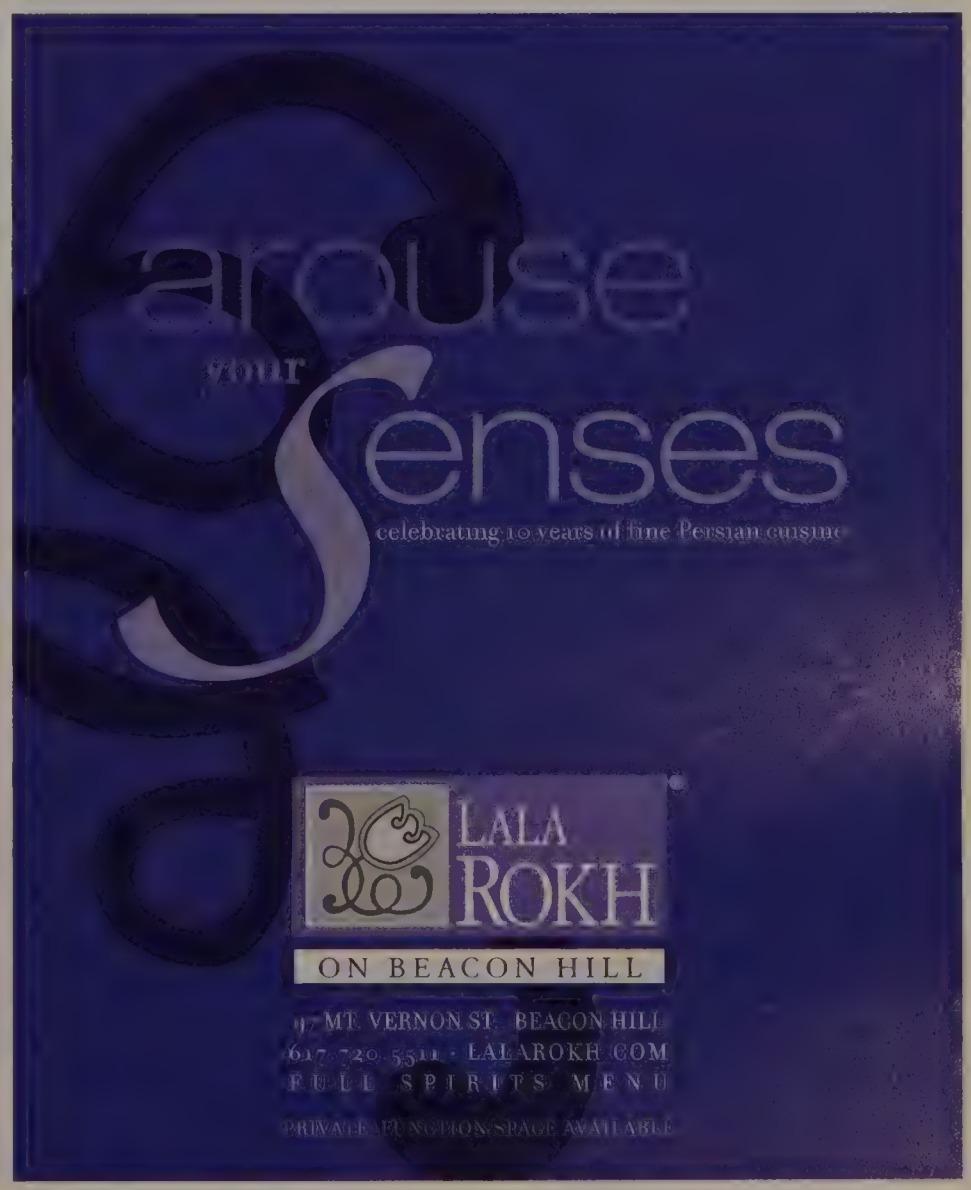
Meet the artist March 11th 6-9 pm

RSVP 617.450.0700 or newbury@axelle.com

91 NEWBURY STREET, BOSTON MA

www.axelle.com

New York ~ New Orleans ~ San Francisco ~ Boston



gay & lesbian

Advice to Contributors
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest MBTA stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). www.thealleybar.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Mon.-Fri., 2 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 12 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Boston's leather-and-Levi's neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games as well as theme nights.

Aria (Thursdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to New England Medical Center. 11 pm. $10. 21+. Get Down Thursdays feature rotating DJs playing hip-hop, house and pop.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. Sunday-night parties include drag acts and house music from resident DJ Ted Elison.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $7. 19+. Static on Mondays features a drag show hosted by Miss Kris Knievel, with DJs Susan Esthera and Adilson spinning progressive house. An amateur drag show takes place the last Monday of each month.

Buzz (Saturdays)
67 Stuart St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $10. 21+. On Saturdays, Buzz's pool room, lounge and two dance floors—with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance—keep the men busy until 2 am.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay, Green Line to Arlington. No cover. 21+. Neighborhood cruise bar open nightly.

Embassy (Thursdays)
36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100). www.avalonboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. DJ Susan Esthera spins hip-hop and pop music every Thursday night.

Fritz (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). www.fritzboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This gay sports bar, with six large-screen plasma TVs, serves brunch Saturday and Sunday.

I/D (Saturdays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston. www.lesbiannightlife.com. 10 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. LiQuid DJ Mix Mistress spins hip-hop, house, reggae, reggaeton and more at this weekly women-only night.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-12 am; Sun., 12 pm-12 am. $6, weekdays; $10, weekends. 21+. Patrons mingle with disco-dancing drag queens. •Fri. and Sat. feature live music. •Sun.: An Evening of Mizery: Amateur Talent Night, 10 pm. •Mon. (alternating weeks): Foxy Follies; TraniWreck. •Tue.: Karaoke. •Wed.: Delightful Divas with Melinda Wilson. •Thu.: Jacque's Angels with Miss Kris Knievel. •Fri. and Sat.: Miss Norelle's Leading Ladies.

Machine (Mondays, Thursdays–Saturdays)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). www.rumrodmachine.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Fri.-Sat., 9 pm-2 am. •Thu.: Karaoke Competition. •Fri.: Best Night Out, featuring deep house music, 10 pm-2 am. $8. 21+. •Sat.: Latin night, 10 pm-2 am. Cover varies. 21+. •Mon.: Stroke, with hostess Mizery. 10 pm-2 am. 19+.

Modern (Thursdays)
30 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-351-2581). www.lesbiannightlife.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. Thursday at the Modern is lesbian night with DJ Afrodite.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-3000). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Male strippers perform every night. The dance floor features Top 40 Thursday through Saturday and T-Dance on Sunday.

Writer Jeannie Greely speaks at Toast Lounge's St. Patty's Day for the Single Las event on March 17.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billed as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is mandatory for the back room on weekends). •Wed.: Twitch 4.0 with DJ Mac. •Thu.: Mandance with DJ Jason Taylor. •Fri.: Bound to Please with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Freespace. •Sun.: Muscle with DJ Duo Freespace. •Mon.: Pool, dart tournaments and pizza.

Rise (Saturdays)
306 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-7473). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 1:30-6:30 am. $10, members; $20, guests. This members-only club is predominantly gay on Saturdays. Storm Saturdays feature resident DJs Billy Carroll, Chad Jack, Gilles Massicotte, Joe Gauthreaux and Mark Anthony upstairs and David McNeary downstairs.

Rumor (Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061). www.rumorboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm-2 am. Cover varies. Sunday T-dance features DJ Danae spinning the latest house and pop.

Toast (Fridays, Saturdays)
70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.toastlounge.com. 5:30 pm-1 am. $5. 21+. Friday is the new home for DykeNight with DJ Susan Esthera, and Saturday is Retro Night with DJs from ManRay.

Tribe at Felt (Thursdays)
Felt, 533 Washington St., 4th floor, Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9:30 pm-2 am. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hip-hop and Top 40 on the 4th floor at this weekly lesbian night.

209 at Club Café (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 11:30 am-2 am; Sat.,12 pm-2 am; Sun.,10:30 am-2 am. No cover. 21+. This South End spot offers dining and unobtrusive music in the front room at Restaurant 209 and video entertainment in the rear room at Club Café. •Wed.: Live karaoke, 9 pm. •Thu.: VJ Ricky Huss. •Fri.: VJ Cliff Cunningham. •Sat.: VJ Scott Kennedy.

Underbar (Sundays)
275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080). www.flauntatunderbar.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 11 pm. $10. 21+. This weekly event features DJs spinning hard house.

Upstairs @ Dedo's (Daily)
69 Church St., Park Square, Boston (617-338-9999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. No cover. 21+. A predominantly gay crowd frequents the upstairs lounge at Dedo's, which features a nightly piano bar and club room. •Wed.: Latino Lounge with Latin groove music. •Thu.-Fri.: Boys in Ties and complimentary after-work buffet, 5-7 pm. House music, 7 pm-1 am. •Sat.: High Energy Night with house music. •Sun.: Disco Night. •Mon.: S.I.N. (Service Industry Night). •Tue.: Stage and Screen. Classic movies, 7-9 pm. Show-tune videos, 9 pm-1 am.

Venu (Wednesdays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). www.chapsboston.com. 10 pm. $8. 21+. This long-running gay Latino night features music by DJ Adilson.

Shows & Events

Death of a Saleslady
Ramrod Center for the Performing Arts (Machine Theater), 1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-265-6222). www.golddustorphans.com. Through March 11. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm. $25. Ryan Laundry and his Gold Dust Orphans bring an alternative version of Arthur Miller's classic to the stage.

Get Ready for Kindergarten: LGBT Parents with Kids in Early Grades
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. March 16, 6:30-9 pm. Free. The fourth annual LGBT Health Awareness Week series presents an informational talk on advocating for young children of LGBT parents in their school districts, talking to teachers and principals, and helping to create a safe and accepting learning environment.

St. Patty's Day for the Single Las
Toast Lounge, 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-927-6026). www.dykenight.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. March 10, 7:30-9 pm. $8. 21+. Local writers Jeannie Greely and Micah Bellieu speak about the humorous experiences of being a single lesbian in Boston.

Women's Professional Networking Event
Toast Lounge, 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-927-6026). www.dykenight.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. March 10, 7:30-9 pm. $5. 21+. Gather business tips and resources over cocktails by "speed networking" with other Boston women in client-centered businesses.

Ongoing

Bagly
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313). www.bagly.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Wed., 5-9 pm. The Boston Alliance of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

Beantown North G/L Bowling League
Lanes & Games, 195 Concord Turnpike, Cambridge (617-876-5533). www.beantownbowling. com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Tue., 8:30 pm. This league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets weekly.

Beantown Soft-Tip Dart League
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Fritz, 26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. www.bsdl.org. Mon., 8:30 pm. $12 for the season. This league hosts weekly 301, 601 and cricket matches at the Alley and Fritz.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.beantownbowling.com. 7 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets Wednesday nights.

Bi Focus
(617-697-9244) MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 7 pm. Bisexual men and women discuss books, videos and other topics of interest.

Bi Rap
Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). First Tue. of each month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group provides support and information for bisexual women or women who are questioning their sexuality.

Boston Bears Barnight
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). http://bostonbears.us. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 9:30 pm-2 am. Free. The Boston Bears meet the first and third Saturday of each month and also hold a happy hour every Friday from 5:30-7:30 pm.

Boston Boasts Squash
Central YMCA, 316 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue., 7-9 pm; Sat., 10 am-12 pm. The league comprises gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-937-5858). www.bgbl.com. The league offers a full regular season and playoff schedule each year. E-mail info@bgbl.com.

Boston Glass Community Center
93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Thu., 3-8 pm; Fri. 3-5 pm. The center provides social activities for questioning young people ages 13-25.

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Despina's Place, 47 Mass. Ave., Boston. www.lesbianavengers.org. Mon., 7-8 pm. This bi- and transsexual-friendly, direct-action political group focuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Uncommons
Central Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-926-9267). www.lcfd.org/bu. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed., 7 pm. A gay and lesbian square-dancing group.

Colage
Third Sat. of each month, 10:30 am-12 pm. Colage (Children of Lesbians and Gays Everywhere) meets in Medford for support and activities and holds a concurrent meeting for interested parents and their partners. E-mail medfordcolage@hotmail.com.

Coming Out as Bisexual
Boston's Bisexual Resource Center at the Boston Living Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (617-424-9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. First Wed. and third Thu. of each month, 7 pm. Free. An informal group for people who think they may be bisexual or are attracted to both sexes.

Coming Out Support Group for Adults
(617-482-2166). This group offers a confidential place for men and women who are looking for a safe space to discuss issues of sexual identity. It meets Thursday nights from 7-8:15 pm, near Coolidge Corner in Brookline. Call for more information.

Compass
(781-899-2212). Compass is a New England–area support, information and social group for people assigned female at birth, but who feel that the designation isn't an accurate or complete description of their gender. Part of the FTM (Female-to-Male) Center, this group meets monthly at location around New England. E-mail Compass FTM@usa.com for details.

Cosmetically Correct
Woody's, 58 Hemenway St., Boston. http://yahoogroups.com/community/cosmeticallycorrect. First Thu. of each month, 6 pm. Cosmetically Correct is a local group of lipstick lesbians who meet each month.

Elegant Outings
(866-335-7730). www.elegantoutings.com. This group welcomes gay and gay-friendly professional women 40 and older who are intelligent, chic and sophisticated to get together with like-minded women for conversations, dinners, theater and networking.

Fenway Community Health
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Fenway Community Health offers an array of services for the LGBT community, ranging from discussions about parenting and safe-sex practices to programs addressing domestic violence and substance abuse.

The 40-Somethings
theprimeoflife@aol.com. This newly formed group of lesbians in their 40s runs events that help to foster enduring romantic/life partnerships through being friends first.

Frontrunners Boston
Metropolitan Health Club, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-937-5858). www.mindspring.com/~frontrunners. Tue., 12 pm; Wed., 6:45 pm; Sat., 10 am. See Web site for locations. All are welcome to join this running club.

Gay Amateur Photography Group
amateurgphoto@yahoo.com. Learn about photography, socialize and meet new people at monthly meetings.

Gay Fathers of Greater Boston
First Parish Church, 50 Church St., Waltham (617-742-7897). www.gayfathersboston.org. $2. This group for gay/bisexual fathers meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month, 8-10 pm.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in developing healthy gay relationships features alternatives for meeting and dating, communication games and mixers for singles. E-mail info@gaylab.org.

Gays for Patsy
(617-412-5751). www.gaysforpatsy.org. This country-western dancing club, featuring two-step, swing and line dancing, holds events twice a month. Beginners welcome, no partner needed. Call for more details.

Gender Crash
Spontaneous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-6373). www.gendercrash.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Second Thu. of each month, 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Members of the LGBT community are invited to share poetry, prose and performance pieces at this open-mike event.

Girlfriends: Bisexual and Lesbian Women of Color
Cambridge Family and Children's Services, 929 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-876-4210). MBTA: Red Line to Central. This discussion group for all ages meets every Saturday, 10:30 am-12 pm.

Laffan
Lesbians Available for Fun and Networking is a local social and networking group that provides opportunities for women to connect with each other. Members receive a weekly e-mail calendar of events. Laffan sponsors an annual Halloween dance and spring dances/benefits. E-mail Laffan_Boston2004@yahoo.com for membership information.

Monday Night Bowling League
Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.mnbl.net. 7:30 pm. The MNBL's bowling season runs Monday nights.

The Network/La Red
(617-423-7233). www.thenetworklared.org. This support group is working to end abuse in lesbian, bisexual women's and transgender communities. E-mail info@thenetworklared.org for more information.

Newly Diagnosed Group
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. First and third Mon. of each month, 7:30-9 pm. Free. This group supports gay and bisexual men who've been diagnosed with HIV during the last two years. E-mail nlongtin@jri.org.

Out to Dance
(617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Swing, Latin and ballroom dance classes and workshops are held in a gay-friendly environment.

Out TwentySomethings Boston
twentysomethingsboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. This social and peer support group is for lesbians, gay men and bisexual, transgender and questioning folks as well as their straight allies in their 20s and early 30s.

POZ Social
Moonshine Room at Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 326). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Second Mon. of each month, 6-11 pm. Free. This monthly event, featuring raffles, food, music and drinks, benefits those affected by HIV/AIDS.

POZ 20s
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. Thu., 7:30-9 pm. This social group offers support for HIV-positive gay and bisexual men in their 20s.

POZ 30s Plus
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 132 Boylston St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 314). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 7-9 pm. This social group supports HIV-positive gay and bisexual men ages 30 and over. E-mail hyee@jri.org for more info.

Queer-A-Oke
Midway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain. www.dykenight.com. Thu. 9 pm-12 am. Free. Dyke Night Productions provides costumes and wigs for this weekly karaoke night at the Midway.

The Rainbow Café
rainbowboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. This social group for activist, academic, intellectual and artistic lesbians meets biweekly in gay-owned or gay-friendly establishments around Boston.

Slice of Rice
Boston GLASS, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Wed., 6-7 pm. This peer-run, queer Asian youth group for those under 25 meets for mutual support. E-mail sungyun@chickmail.com.

Somos Latin@s LGBT Coalition
www.somoslatinoslgbt.org. This social and networking group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas in the Boston area. Viernes Sociales take place every month. E-mail somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.com for more info.

Tiffany Club of New England
(781-891-9325). www.tcne.org. This social and support group for the transgendered community hosts regular activities and events. E-mail stef616@aol.com.

Under the Radar
(617-851-7911). www.radarboston.com. Under the Radar, Boston's gay, all-male, contemporary a cappella group, is always auditioning prospective members. E-mail info@radarboston.com.

Wonder Women Boston
http://groups.yahoo.com/wonder_women_boston. Second Fri. of each month. This social group comprises lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s.

Large format printing can enhance your image.

alphagraphics®
DESIGN, COPY, PRINT, MIRACLES™

74 Canal Street • Boston, MA 02114
tel: (617) 742-9585 • fax: (617) 742-9584 www.boston541.alphagraphics.com

Mention this AD and get 20% off your first order

The Northeast's largest independent document imaging company is looking for energetic sales professionals and experienced field service technicians.

- Competitive compensation with unlimited earning potential
- Attractive health and retirement package
- Ongoing training
- Team oriented environment

NBM is a leading provider of digital copiers and printers, supported by a solid commitment to customer service excellence.

- Named "2004 Elite Dealer" by Office Dealer Magazine.
- Premier dealer for Sharp and Konica Minolta, world leaders in document imaging technology.

Call to schedule your confidential interview appointment.

"Giving You The Power To Produce" 800-869-9390
www.nbminc.com

NBM
Northern Business Machines
Boston • Burlington • Stoughton
Worcester • Bedford, NH

Books & poetry

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446); mail to Calendar: Books and Poetry; or e-mail information to books@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

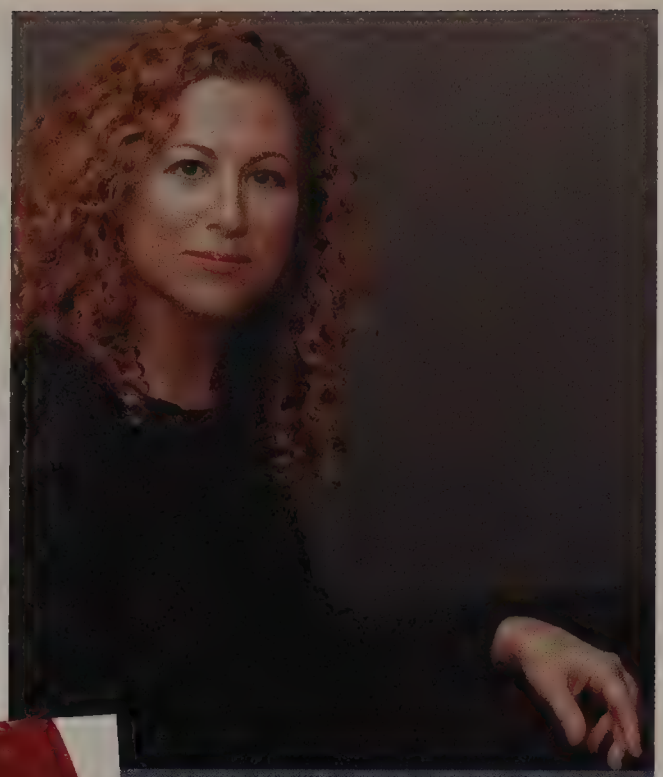
Readings & Signings

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 6 pm. $2. Rosalind Wiseman, Co-founder of Empower Program, reads from her book Queen Bee Moms & Kingpin Dads, a how-to guide for parents seeking the middle ground between overprotective parenting and neglect.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. Fox News anchor and New York Post contributor Eric Burns discusses his book Infamous Scribblers: The Founding Fathers and the Rowdy Beginnings of American Journalism, about journalism scandals that took place during the time of Sam Adams and Ben Franklin.

Newtonville Books in the Attic Series
The Attic/Union St. Bar, 107 R Union St., Newton Centre (617-244-6619). www.atticbar.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre. 7:30 pm. Free. Jodi Picoult reads from her novel The Tenth Circle, about a father coping with his daughter's rape allegation against her ex-boyfriend and his own wife's affair.



Jodi Picoult reads from her novel March 7 at The Attic in Newton.

THURSDAY, MARCH 9

Borders Books
10 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. Poets Joan Houlihan, Michael G. Perrow, Jennifer Barber and Isabella Nebel read from their works. An open-mike session follows.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Kiran Desai reads from her novel The Inheritance of Loss, about the Nepalese movement for freedom in mid-1980s India. Also, Alice Greenway reads from her novel White Ghost Girls, about two American teenagers growing up in Hong Kong.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. Allegra Goodman reads from her novel Intuition, about a scientist who tries to find a cure for cancer and his co-researcher/ex-girlfriend's desire to thwart him.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Harvard researcher Lisa Machoian discusses her book The Disappearing Girl, which combines case studies of depression in teenage girls with advice for parents.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Contributing writers Karen Propp, Helen Freemont, Anne Bernays and Jean Troustine read from Why I'm Still Married, a collection of essays by female writers that address some of the pros and cons of marriage.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Social activist Frances Moore Lappe reads from her book Democracy's Edge, about the underground movement to stop what she describes as the consolidation of power and exclusion in the United States.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Harvard ecclesiastical history professor Karen L. King discusses her book The Secret Revelation of John, which explores early Christians' interpretations of the divine.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Will Lupens reads from his book of short stories Neighbor, a collection of tales involving unusual characters like a UFO suicide-cult survivor, a zoo hater and a man who wishes he could live in a box.

SATURDAY, MARCH 11

Newton Free Library Special Event
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1400). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7 pm. $75. Tom Ashbrook, host of NPR's On Point, acts as honorary chair for the evening as authors William Novak, Julia Glass, William Martin, Megan Marshall, William Landay and Tova Mirvis receive tributes for their work. Jazz music, a silent auction and a performance by Newton South High School's a cappella group, the Newtones, are included in the line-up for the night's entertainment.

SUNDAY, MARCH 12

Forsyth Chapel
95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-254-0218). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. 2 pm. $5. Poets Stephen Cramer, Reggie Gibson, Goan Houlihan and David Rivard read from their works.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 2 pm. Free. Masuda Sultan discusses her memoir, My War at Home, about how she came to terms with her identity as a Muslim-American.

MONDAY, MARCH 13

Blacksmith House Poetry Series
56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $3. Poet Kristin Fogdall reads from her work.

The Enormous Room
569 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-491-5599). www.fourstories.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Susan Orlean, Daphne Kalotay, Mike Rosovsky and Lauren Slater read from their fiction and non-fiction works about suburban life.

Woodberry Poetry Room
Houghton Library, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-2454). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 5:30 pm. Free. Poet Anne Winters reads from her works.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Food & Wine magazine columnist Mark Kurlansky reads from his new book, The Big Oyster: History on the Half Shell, which uses the history of the oyster as a culinary delicacy to explore the history of New York.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. John McGahern reads from his memoir, All Will Be Well, a tribute to his mother and his childhood in Ireland during the 1940s and '50s.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1400). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7 pm. Free. Poets Jocelyn Emerson, Sarah Hannah and Mary Buchinger Bodwell read from their works. An open-mike session follows.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Ayelet Waldman reads from her novel Love & Other Impossible Pursuits, about a woman's struggle to find happiness after her daughter dies of SIDS and she struggles in her role as a stepmother.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15

Boston College
140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-552-4820). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 7:30 pm. Free. Novelist Ann Patchett reads from an untitled work currently in progress.

Center for New Words
7 Temple St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free. Janice Erlbaum reads from her memoir, Girlbomb: A Halfway Homeless Memoir, about her years growing up on the streets of New York City as a teenager.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Chair of the NYU's Tisch School of the Arts, Dramatic Writing Program Janet Neipris discusses her book To Be a Playwright, a collection of lectures and essays on how to write plays.

Institute of Contemporary Art Event
955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. 6:30 pm. $8; $5 for ICA members, students and seniors. Artist Andrea Fraser reads from her book Museum Highlights, a collection of her writings about various aspects of art.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1400). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7 pm. Free. Members of Boston Women's Health Book Collective and contributing writers Paula Doress-Worters, Judy Norsigian, Donna Soodalter-Toman, Patricia Roche and Pamela Morgan read from the new edition of Our Bodies Ourselves, a guide to women's health issues.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Jennifer Haigh reads from her novel Baker Towers, about the struggles of one man's three wives in a small mining town in postwar Pennsylvania. Also, T. Cooper reads from her novel Lipshitz Six, or Two Angry Blondes, which connects the story of a Jewish-American immigrant couple who lose their child in 1907 with the story of their modern-day descendants.

Porter Square Books Event
Congregation Eitz Chaymin, 136 Magazine St., Cambridge (617-497-7626). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free. New York magazine writer Abigail Pogrebin reads from her book Stars of David, a collection of 60 interviews with famous Jewish icons, such as Dustin Hoffman and Sarah Jessica Parker.

Wellesley Booksmith Event
Wellesley Free Library, 530 Washington St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7 pm. Free. Norwell High School history teacher Timothy Kenslea discusses his book The Sedgwicks in Love: Courtship, Engagement and Marriage in the Early Republic, which examines the methods of courtship among Boston's high society during the early 1800s using the family of Massachusetts Speaker of the House and Supreme Judicial Court justice Theodore Sedgwick as an example.

THURSDAY, MARCH 16

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Boston Globe book critic and Pulitzer Prize–winner Gail Caldwell discusses her memoir, A Strong West Wind, about her experience growing up in Texas during the Vietnam era.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Mameve Medwed reads from her novel How Elizabeth Barrett Browning Saved My Life, about a woman whose life is affected by the inheritance of what turns out to be Elizabeth Barrett Browning's chamber pot.

FRIDAY, MARCH 17

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Harvard government professor Harvey C. Mansfield discusses his book Manliness, which analyzes manliness from scientific, philosophical and literary perspectives.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Chris Abouzeid reads from his fantasy novel Anatopsis, about Princess Anatopsis Solomon's journey after her mother unknowingly hires an evil demigod to tutor her.

MONDAY, MARCH 20

Blacksmith House Poetry Series
56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $3. Poets Jean Monahan and Dan Tobin read from their works.

The Druid
1357 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-497-0965). www.druidpub.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free. University College Dublin professors Tom Garvi and Andreas Hess read from Gustave de Beaumont's book Ireland, an old-French perspective on the history of Ireland's oppression and suffering before the Great Famine.

Harvard Bookstore Event
13 Appian Way, Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. Harvard professor Daniel C. Dennett discusses his book Breaking the Spell: Religion as a Natural Phenomenon, about why religion is such a powerful influence in the lives of so many people throughout history.

Woodberry Poetry Room
Lamont Library, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-2454). http://hcl.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 5:30 pm. Free. Poet David R. Slavitt reads from his works.

TUESDAY, MARCH 21

Brookline Adult & Community Education Event
Lawrence School, 27 Francis St., Brookline (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. MBTA: Green Line to Longwood. 7 pm. $12. Pulitzer Prize–winner Tracy Kidder discusses his book Mountains Beyond Mountains: The Quest of Dr. Paul Farmer, a Man Who Would Cure the World, about a Harvard professor and renowned infectious-disease specialist who travels the world to help those in need.

Wellesley Booksmith Event
Wellesley Free Library, 530 Washington St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7 pm. Free. Lorna Landvik reads from her novel Oh My Stars, about a young Kentucky woman whose suicidal journey to the Golden Gate Bridge gets sidetracked when she's taken in by a family in North Dakota after a bus accident.

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Education or e-mail to education@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8

Form Is Emptiness
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 6:30 pm. $25-$30. Video artist Bill Viola discusses his work, including a recent collaboration with director Peter Sellars on Tristan and Isolde.

Small Talk: The Art of Social Conversation
Newton Community Education, Newton North High School, 360 Lowell Ave., Newton (617-559-6999). www.newtoncommunityed.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7-8:30 pm. $27. Actor, consultant and voice-over artist Paul Horn discusses techniques for overcoming shyness and ways to get more out of everyday conversations.

THURSDAY, MARCH 9

Building an Environmental Movement for the 21st Century
Harvard Museum of Natural History, Geological Lecture Hall, 24 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Former director of the National Park Service Roger Kennedy discusses his thoughts on the modern environmental movement and the shaping of environmental evangelism and environmental science.

Form Is Emptiness
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 6:30 pm. $25-$30. Same program as March 8.

Franklin's Gulf Stream: Science and Circulation in the Atlantic
Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:15-1 pm. $5. Harvard history professor Joyce E. Chaplin discusses the impact of Benjamin Franklin's discovery of the Atlantic gulf stream.

FRIDAY, MARCH 10

Biodiversity and the Anthropocene
Maxwell Dworkin Building, Harvard University, 33 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-8600). www.radcliffe.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 9 am-3 pm. Free. Cosponsored by the Center for the Environment at Harvard University, this event explores perspectives on measuring and managing the human impact on nature.

SUNDAY, MARCH 12

H.H. Richardson's Brookline House: Its History, Current Status and Future
Brookline Public Library, Hunneman Hall, 361 Washington St., Brookline (617-566-5747). www.brooklinehistoricalsociety.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. 2 pm. Free. Architectural historian and attorney Allan Galper presents an illustrated lecture at the Brookline Historical Society's annual meeting on the 200-year-old Brookline house inhabited by architect H.H. Richardson from 1874 to 1886.

The 1906 American Silver Exhibition
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 2 pm. Free. Gerald Ward and Katharine L. Weems, senior curators of Decorative Arts and Sculpture at the Art of the Americas, trace the evolution of early-American-silver collecting and scholarship during the past century.

TUESDAY, MARCH 14

Flight from Attack and Atrocity
Harvard University, Cronkite Graduate Center Living Room, 6 Ash St., Cambridge (617-495-8600). www.radcliffe.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 4 pm. Free. Irene Kahn, secretary general of Amnesty International, explores the impact of war-induced violence against women, the religious and cultural causes behind these acts and what progress has been made to prevent further violent attacks.

A Monstrous Case: The Holocaust, Soviet Jewish Writers and the Fate of the Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee
Boston College, Cushing Hall, 140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-482-6439). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 7 pm. Free. Author Joshua Rubenstein discusses the fate of the Soviet Union's Jewish Anti-Fascist Committee formed during World War II.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15

Art of America
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 1 pm. $20-$25. MFA curator Gerry Ward discusses architecture and decorative arts from the 1790s to the Civil War.

First Home Program Seminar
Boston Public Library, Roslindale Branch, 4238 Washington St., Roslindale (617-323-2343). www.bpl.org/branches/roslindale. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. 6 pm. Free. This informational session for those looking to buy a new home in the Boston area includes topics such as the First Home Program lottery for new, affordable and rehabilitated homes in Boston, as well as eligibility requirements, the application process, and financial assistance.

THURSDAY, MARCH 16

Bourgeois Radicals
MIT, Room E51-275, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-1000). www.events.mit.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 4:30-6 pm. Free. Carol Anderson, associate professor of history at the University of Missouri-Columbia, speaks on the NAACP and colonial liberation struggles early in the Cold War.

The Challenge to Achieve Gender Equality in South Africa: From Activism to Institutionalization
Brandeis University, Rappaporte Treasure Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-2090). www.brandeis.edu. 4 pm. Free. Professor Rashida Manjoo, a member of the South African Commission on Gender Equality, discusses the history of the gender-equality movement in South Africa.

Franklin's Boyhood in Boston
Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.oldsouthmeeting house.org. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:15-1pm. $5. Historian Keith Arbour discusses Benjamin Franklin's early education and his first 17 years of life in Boston.

SATURDAY, MARCH 18

Star Wars Origami
Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-589-0250). www.mos.org. 1 pm. Free with museum admission. Chris Alexander, member of Origami USA and Rosamond Folding Fanatics, teaches participants how to make some of his 40 Star Wars origami pieces.

Versions of the East: Creating Imagined Environments
Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, 280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. 1:30 pm. $5-$7. Patricia Fortini Brown, professor of art and archaeology at Princeton University, explores how artists turned fantasy into fact by inventing a world of seen and unseen elements in the Venetian Republic of the 1500s.

SUNDAY, MARCH 19

Puzzling Out Provenance
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 2 pm. Free. George Shackelford, art of Europe chair, Arthur K. Solomon, curator of modern art, and Victoria Reed, research fellow for provenance, discuss the process of teasing out ownership histories for artworks.

MONDAY, MARCH 20

Scrolling Through History: La Chronique Universelle
Boston College, Devlin Hall, 140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-552-8100). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 4 pm. Free. Independent scholar and cocurator of Secular/Sacred Lisa Fagin Davis discusses the 33-foot-long, mid-15th-century scroll, which presents a history of the Western world from creation to 1380.

TUESDAY, MARCH 21

Engaging the World: The Role of the Artist in Society
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 6:30 pm. $26.50-$31.50. Playwright, author and actress Anna Deavere Smith shares professional and personal perspectives on the relationship and responsibilities of artists to society.

We measure results with VISIA, an innovative technology that maps your face, helps us prescribe the best course of action for your skin's health and appearance, and tracks your progress.

617.876.5258
essentiallybare.com

BOSTON'S BEST 2005 The Improper Bostonian
"Best Nonsurgical Cosmetic Procedure"

Essentially Bare
Cosmetic & Laser Clinics

body & mind

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Include a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Dance of Universal Peace
Cambridge Friends Meeting, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge (617-776-5767 or 617-491-8694). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. March 17, 7:30-9:30 pm. $6-$10 suggested donation. This meditative circle dance honors the spiritual traditions of the world. All dances are accompanied by live music.

Edible Plants
Forbes Library, 20 West St., Northampton (413-587-1011). March 15, 7 pm. Free. At this session, students learn to identify and prepare plants found in the wild and in gardens. Specific topics covered include berries and greens.

Sexuality and Spirituality Meeting
Newton or Arlington (617-965-7846). http://boston.sexspirit.net. March 11, 2-5 pm. $5-$10 suggested donation. The Boston Area Sexuality and Spirituality Network hosts this workshop that focuses on the work of David Deïda and the subject of finding God through sex.

Singles Party
The Arlington Center, 369 Mass. Ave., Arlington (617-512-2061 or 781-316-0282). www.arlingtoncenter.org. March 10, 8-11 pm. $12-$15, sliding scale. Please call ahead. At this holistic health center, singles mingle during an evening of ice-breaker exercises, dancing and light refreshments. Attendants are welcome to bring a musical instrument.

Spring Equinox Celebration
Holistic Concepts, 10 Maple St., Suite 100, Middleton (978-314-4545). www.holisticoncepts.com. March 17, 7-9 pm. $25. This celebration of the spring equinox features a group meditation and crystal reading, along with light refreshments.

Lectures

Talmudic Mysticism
Nishmat Hayyim at Temple Beth Zion, 1566 Beacon St., Brookline (617-566-8171). www.nishmathayyim.org. MBTA: C Green Line to Fairbanks. March 2-April 6. Thu., 7-9 pm. $150. In this class, Rabbi Meir Sendor teaches Jewish mystical tradition and helps students explore the Talmud and mystical texts.

Workshops

Arvigo Maya Abdominal Self-Care
Earthsong Yoga, 186 Main St., Marlborough (508-480-8884). www.earthsongyoga.com. March 17-19. $350. Please pre-register. Herbalist and massage therapist Lucy Mitchella teaches participants how to use this ancient healing modality to harmonize digestion or feminine cycles, and to promote healthy prostate function.

Beginner's Meditation
Episcopal Divinity School, Burnham Chapel, 99 Brattle St., Cambridge (508-979-8277). www.serlingpa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. March 9 and 16, 7-8:30 pm. $10. Through lecture, guided meditation and discussion, participants learn how to use Buddhist philosophy to reduce stress while generating happiness and inner peace. Hosted by the Serlingpa Meditation Center.

Ease Wedding Stress with Yoga
Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., Boston (781-258-9187). www.i-do-yoga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. March 9, 7-9 pm. $35. Please preregister. Brides gather with other engaged-to-be-married yoga practitioners to ease wedding stress and practice being fully present for the big day.

Making Your Own Herbal Products
Circles of Wisdom Bookstore and Resource Center, 90 Main St., Andover (978-474-8010 or 978-689-4717). www.circlesofwisdom.com. March 16, 7-9 pm. $40,

Herbalist and massage therapist Lucy Mitchella teaches at Earthsong Yoga March 17-19 materials included. Herbalist Debbie Wilson provides an overview of herb use, along with how to make your own medicinal tea, herbal capsules and tinctures.

Meditation and Motion
All That Matters, 315 Main St., Wakefield, R.I. (401-782-2126). www.allthatmatters.com. March 18, 10 am-12 pm. $25. This class focuses on Kundalini yoga, a practice meant to develop inner strength and balance. Students practice postures, breathing techniques, chanting and meditation.

Meditation for Stress Management
Open Doors, 395A Washington St., Braintree (781-843-8224). www.opendoors7.com. MBTA: Red Line to Braintree. March 15, 7:30-9 pm. $20. Students learn simple meditation techniques that can be used anywhere to help reduce stress and anxiety. No previous meditation experience necessary.

Movement Chi-Kung
Theosophical Society, 21 Maple St., Arlington (781-648-0101). www.tsboston.org. March 17, 7:30-9 pm. Students learn Chi-Kung techniques along with a method of relating to chi-energy in a way that creates movement to increase energy flow in your body.

Natural Approaches to Digestion
Madelon Hope, 12 Pelham Terrace, Arlington (781-646-6319). www.bostonherbalstudies.com. March 18, 2-4:30 p.m. $35. Participants learn how to soothe the digestive tract with healing herbs and foods.

Yoga Revival
Exhale Spa, 28 Arlington St., Boston (617-532-7000). www.exhalespa.com. March 18, 1-3:30 pm. $35. This workshop combines yoga with age-old Tantric techniques and features rigorous Asana, Pranayama, mantra, mudra and meditation for a practice that transforms and expands physical, mental and spiritual frontiers. Led by instructor Lauren Toolin, a practitioner in the Himalayan Tantric tradition.

Retreat

Satsang with Pamela
Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., 3rd floor, Boston (617-375-0785). www.backbayyoga.com or www.pamelasatsang.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Satsang: March 17, 7:30 pm. $15. Retreat: March 18 and 19, 10 am-4 pm. $150. Satsang, which features devotional chanting, is about deep rest in order to find wisdom within. Pamela hosts in the spirit of Indian sage Ramana Maharshi.

Ongoing

Beginner/Intermediate Yoga
Pathways to Wellness, 142 Berkeley St., 2nd floor, Boston (617-859-3036). www.pathwaysboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue., 6-7 pm. $12, drop-in. Please call ahead to reserve space. Beginners and intermediates can refine and deepen the practice of basic yoga and breathing techniques while becoming stronger and more flexible.

Let It Flow Yoga
Bodyworks by Kim, 29 Cottage Ave., Quincy (617-548-5877). MBTA: Red Line to Quincy Center. Sun., 9-10:15 am. Mon., 5:30-6:30 pm. $12, drop-in. Please preregister. This ongoing yoga class features a variety of flowing Hatha and power yoga styles. All levels welcome.

Yoga with Judy
22 Mt. Auburn St., Watertown Square (617-417-4386). www.yogawithjudy.com or www.sivananda.org. MBTA: #504 Bus to Watertown Square. Tue., 5:45-7:15 pm. $15, drop-in. This evening features Sivananda yoga, a traditional form useful for all levels of practice.

sports

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar: Sports, or by e-mail to sports@improper.com. Include address, phone number, nearest T stop, dates and times, along with a brief description of the league or event. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Home Games

Boston Bruins
•TD Banknorth Garden, Boston
Tickets: 617-931-2222
March 9, 7 pm vs. Montreal Canadiens
March 11, 7 pm vs. New York Islanders
March 16, 7 pm vs. Ottawa Senators
March 18, 12 pm vs. Carolina Hurricanes
March 21, 7 pm vs. Atlanta Thrashers

Boston Celtics
•TD Banknorth Garden, Boston
Tickets: 617-931-2222
March 8, 7:30 pm vs. Philadelphia 76ers
March 10, 7:30 pm vs. Milwaukee Bucks
March 12, 6 pm vs. Denver Nuggets
March 20, 7:30 pm vs. Los Angeles Lakers

Events

Boat & Water Sport Show
Dana-Farber Fieldhouse at Gillette Stadium, Foxboro. www.macevents.com. March 10-12. Fri., 1-9 pm; Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun., 11 am-6 pm. $10. This second annual event features a chance to check out more than 200 different boat models. The show offers everything from bow riders and cruisers to deck boats, aluminum skiffs and a full array of equipment.

To Play

AUSTRALIAN-RULES FOOTBALL

Boston Demons
(617-290-7101). www.bostondemons.com. The club seeks new players for nine-a-side competition.

BASEBALL

Henry's Baseball
(781-891-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

BASKETBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070, ext. 238). Co-ed, year-round leagues for players of all levels in Watertown, Belmont, Dedham and Waltham. Teams and individuals are welcome.

Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club
(617-491-8989). www.crfcbasketball.com. Year-round leagues for individuals or teams at all levels.

Corporate Basketball League
(781-248-7811). This league seeks teams for the winter and spring seasons. Games are on weeknights in Newton and Waltham. For more information, please contact zelovic@comcast.net.

Never Too Late Basketball
(781-488-3333). www.nevertoolate.com. Adults of all ages practice in locations throughout Boston.

BOXING

Boston Sport Boxing Club
125 Walnut St., Watertown (617-972-1711). www.bostonboxing.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then #71 bus. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. The club offers Olympics-style boxing lessons for all levels.

Dogtime Boxing
527 Columbia Road, Dorchester (617-269-9044). www.dogtimeboxing.com. Mon.-Fri., 5-8:30 pm. This boxing club offers training for competition, conditioning and recreation.

DODGEBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club Dodgeball
(617-789-4070). The BSSC is recruiting for dodgeball teams.

DRAGON-BOAT RACING

Living Root Dragon Boat
(617-413-8360). www.livingroot.org. No experience is necessary to join this co-ed dragon-boat racing team that practices in Boston and Somerville.

The Boston Ski and Sports Club offers numerous group ski outings this season

FENCING

Bay State Fencers
561 Windsor St., Suite A 401, Somerville (617-591-0101). www.baystatefencers.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT, then #85 bus. This club offers fencing and stage-combat programs.

FLAG AND TOUCH FOOTBALL

BSSC Football
Games are held in Brighton (617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. Six-on-six and four-on-four men's teams compete each weekend.

ICE SKATING

Bay State Skating School
(781-890-8480.) www.baystateskatingschool.org. Bay State offers beginner, intermediate and advanced classes for children and adults at 13 rinks throughout greater Boston. Students can use either hockey or figure skates.

RUGBY

Beantown Women's Rugby Club
www.beantownrugby.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Allston; games Sat. Beantown has won the national women's championship six times. New players are welcome.

Boston Irish Wolfhounds
(617-254-9732). www.biwrfc.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Jamaica Plain. Home field at the Irish Cultural Center in Canton. New players are welcome.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. The club is looking for players to join its national-level team.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. The club seeks new players for games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Mystic River Rugby Club
P.O. Box 477, Malden (781-322-0898). www.mysticrugby.com. This Division I men's rugby club welcomes both new and experienced players who want to play a high level of competitive rugby.

Old Gold Rugby Club
(617-742-0678). www.oldgoldrugby.com. Tue. and Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Games on Sat. New and experienced players are welcome.

RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various locations (617-499-4835). www.bostonhash.com. Weekly runs on either Wed. or Sun. year-round. If you enjoy running, drinking and singing bawdy songs, this is your weekly running group. Call for times and locations.

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Fri., 6 pm. Weekly runs.

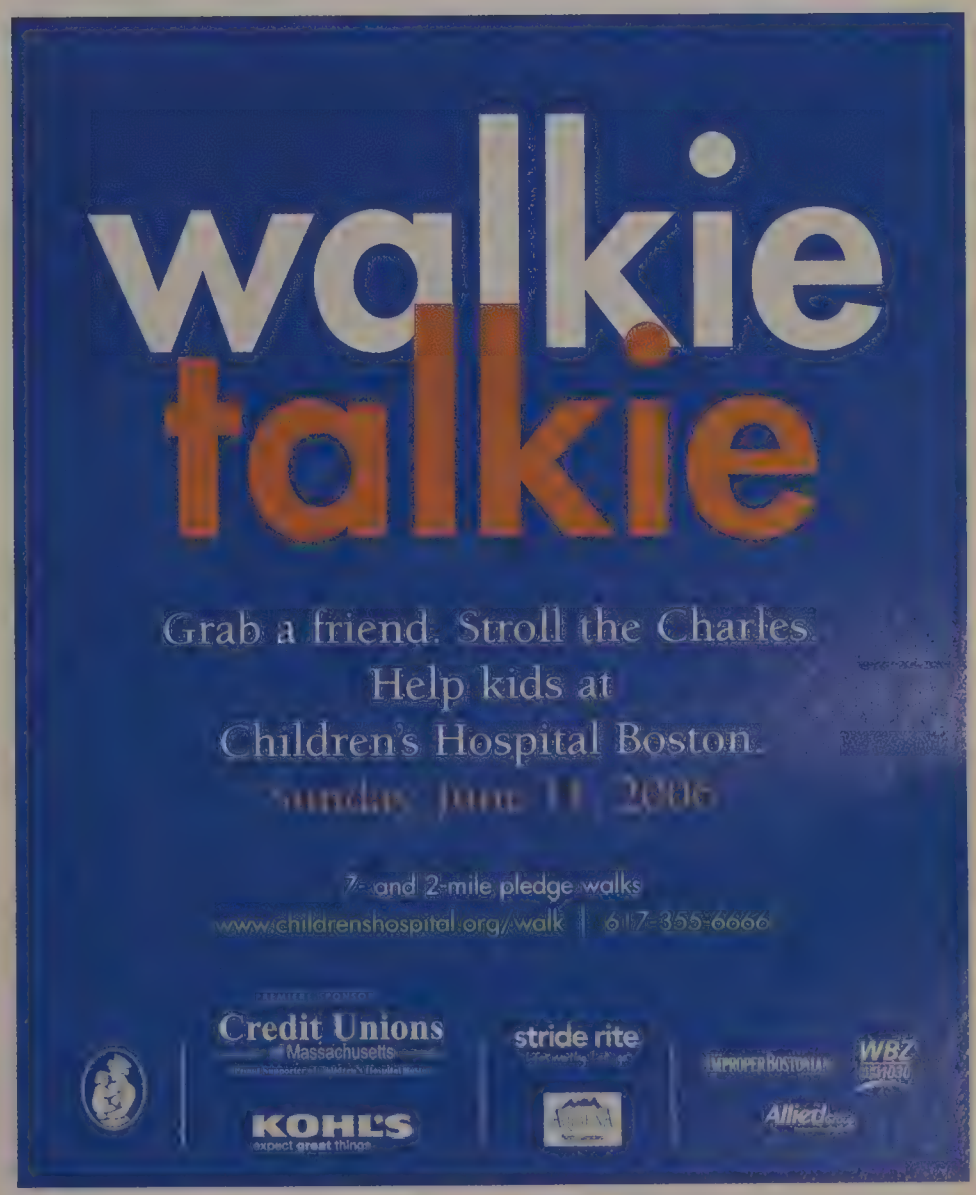
Team LunaChix Boston
BostonRun@teamlunachix.com. Weekly runs Thu. at 6:30 pm. http://groups.yahoo.com/group/bostonlunachix. Women only. Talking-pace, three- or five-mile runs through the Fells.

SKIING/ SNOWBOARDING

Polecat Ski and Sports Club
www.polecatskiclub.com. The Polecat Ski and Sports Club seeks new members of all skill levels. For information, e-mail polecatskiclub@hotmail.com.

SOCCER

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). The BSSC offers a series of indoor and outdoor soccer leagues.



PREGNANT?

Distressed
about what's in your closet?
Determined
not to loose your fashion style and hip factor?
Desperate
to be a Yummy Mummy?

DIANE VON FURSTENBERG ◆ FRAGILE ◆ CHAIKEN ◆
CADEAU ◆ BELLY BUTTON ◆ RUBY VAN ◆ CITIZENS OF
HUMANITY ◆ PAPER DEMIN CLOTH ◆ TRIMESTER Ts ◆
SUSANA MONACO ◆ CHIP N PEPPER ◆ BELLA DAHL ◆
HOMMEMUMMY ◆ EBERJEY ◆ ARABELLA B ◆ NOPPIES

Bump

Fabulous, delicious baby & childrens' clothing too!!

45 River Street, Boston
Monday Saturday 10am-6pm T: 617.426.4004 F: 617.426.4008
www.bumpshoppe.com

children

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Things to See

Coolidge Corner Theatre

290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-2500). www.coolidge.org. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. •March 11, 10:30 am. The Kids Variety Show presents magician B.J. Hickman. •March 12 and 19, 10:30 am. Kids First! Film Series, films TBA. •March 18, 10:30 am. This live music performance features Ben Rudnick and Friends.

ImprovBoston Family Show

1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sat., 6 pm. $12, adults; $10, seniors; $5, students and children. This short-form improv show includes interactive games for the entire family.

New England Spring Flower Show

Bayside Expo Center, 200 Mount Vernon St., Boston (866-468-7619). www.masshort.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. March 17, 4:30-8 pm. $15-$20, adults; $14, seniors; $5-$7, ages 4-12; free, children under 4. The third-largest indoor flower exhibition in the world includes animal visitors, crafts, gardening activities, live music and storytelling.

Puppet Showplace Theatre

32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. $7.50-$9.50. Reservations recommended. •March 11-12, 1 and 3 pm. Tanglewood Marionettes presents Hansel and Gretel, based on the classic Brothers Grimm story about a brother and sister who are led into the Forbidden Forest and encounter a witch.

St. Patrick's Day Parade

West Broadway, South Boston. www.bostoncentral.com. MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. March 19, 1 pm. This annual event features marching bands and pipe bands from across North America. The route begins in South Boston at the Broadway T stop and ends at Andrew Square.

Things to Do

Barefoot Books

1771 Mass. Ave., Arlington (617-349-1610). www.barefootbooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Fri. and Sat., 10:30 am. Free. This story hour for children features a variety of themes such as "Cat Fancy" and the color green for St. Patrick's Day.

Boston Children's Theatre

Grand Lodge of Masons, 186 Tremont St., Boston. (617-424-6634). www.bostonchildrenstheatre.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. $20-$22. Sat., 1 pm. •Adventures with Beatrix Potter features a 45-minute interactive performance with Potter's story-book characters, including Peter Rabbit. Through March.

Boston Public Library

700 Boylston St., Boston. (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. •March 12, 2 pm. The staff of BPL's Norman B. Leventhal Map Center hosts Journeys of Exploration & Maps, a talk explaining why maps are made and the stories they have to tell.

Children's Museum

Museum Wharf, 300 Congress St., Boston (617-426-8855). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Daily, 10 am-5 pm; Fri., open until 9 pm. $9, adults; $7, children. •The Amazing Castle allows children to experience life in a medieval village and create medieval-themed arts and crafts. Ongoing. •The Art Studio invites parents and children to create works of art together. Ongoing. •Dragons and Fairies: Exploring Vietnam Through Folktales engages children in modern Vietnamese life through traditional folktales. Ongoing.

Cooking Up Culture: U.S.A.

Boston University, 808 Comm. Ave., Boston. (617-353-9852). www.bu.edu/foodandwine. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central. March 11, 10 am-1 pm. $70. Children try cooking California-style, as they make guacamole, Santa Rita steak tacos with tomatillo salsa, salad with goat cheese and candied nuts, Scharffen–Berger chocolate brownies and limeade with fresh mint.

Frog Pond

Frog Pond, Boston Common, Boston (617-635-2120). www.bostoncommonfrogpond.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Mon., 10 am-5 pm; Tue.-Thu. and Sun., 10 am-9 pm; Fri.-Sat., 10 am-10 pm. Admission: $3, adults; free for children. Skate Rental: $7, adults; $5, children. Ice skating at the Frog Pond continues through March 17.

Harvard Museum of Natural History

26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $7.50, adults; $6, students; $5, ages 3-18. •March 11, 9:30 am-12 pm. Investigating Indians, a hands-on exhibition, lets children examine the historical artifacts, village life and survival techniques of various Native American tribes throughout the country.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum

Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1662). www.jfklibrary.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $12, adults; $8, students and seniors; $7, ages 13-17; free, ages 12 and under. •March 18, 10:30 am. Free (museum admission not required). Husband-and-wife duo Atwater-Donnelly present Irish and American song and dance, including instrumentals with a banjo, tin whistle, limberjack, mandolin, harmonica and their own feet.

Museum of Fine Arts Children's Room

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. $15, adults; $13, students; free, 5 and under; $6.50, ages 6-17 on weekdays before 3 pm. •Mon.-Fri., 3:30-4:45 pm. In the Children's Room, kids explore the museum and create projects with a variety of themes. Ongoing. •Tue.-Thu., 3:30 pm. Books Bring Art Alive provides arts and crafts activities for children ages 5 and under. •Sat.-Sun., 11 am-4 pm. Family Place allows children ages 4 and up to explore the MFA through self-guided activities with an adult.

Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9 am-7 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $14, adults; $12, seniors; $11, children. •Sat.-Sun., 11 am-12 pm. Animals and Stories Alive! combines a live animal presentation with mythical and folk storytelling. Ongoing. •Beyond the X-Ray features four major exhibits that explore how doctors peer inside the human body without cutting. Ongoing. •Butterflies and flowers are on display in the permanent Butterfly Garden. •Countdown to Supernova, showing at the Hayden Planetarium, explores the life cycles of stars. Ongoing. •Making Models is an interactive exhibition that features models of a wave tank, Mount Everest and a giant grasshopper. Ongoing. •Science Live! features live animals and multimedia presentations surrounded by natural history dioramas. Ongoing.

Museum of Transportation

15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www.mot.org. MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5, adults; $3, seniors and students; $3, ages 7-17; free, children 6 and under. •March 17, 8 pm. $14. The Carriage House Concert Series presents children's songwriter, singer and acoustic guitarist Priscilla Herdman.

National Heritage Museum

33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www.nationalheritagemuseum.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 12 pm-5 pm. Free. •March 11, 2 -3pm. $6-$8. Second Saturday: The Family Folk Chorale features singers of all ages to celebrate the exhibition Picturing What Matters. •March 16, 10:30-11:30 am. $3. Story Hour and Quiltmaking features Valerie Flournoy's The Patchwork Quilt and Ann Jonas' The Quilt, with an accompanying mini-quilting session. •Blue Monday: Doing Laundry in America explains the history of laundry, how it was done and who did it, featuring original artifacts from as early as 1700. Ongoing. •The Enchanted Clocks of George McFadden features the handiwork of local designer and clock-repairman George McFadden. Ongoing.

New England Aquarium

Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Thu., 9 am-6 pm; Fri.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $15.95, adults; $13.95, seniors; $8.95, children ages 3-11. •Amazing Jellies features thousands of jellyfish. Ongoing. •The 200,000-gallon Giant Ocean Tank contains sharks, stingrays and sea turtles. Ongoing. •Edge of the Sea is an ongoing hands-on exhibition featuring sea stars, hermit crabs and more. •The Simons IMAX Theatre screens a variety of movies. Ongoing.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Dance Co.

Church of Our Saviour, 25 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-738-7688). www.pbjdanceco.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood. •Creative Movement provides ongoing dance classes for kids ages 3-8. See Web site for days and times.

around town

Sights to See

Boston University Observatory
Coit Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-2630). MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Wed. (on clear nights), 7:30-8:30 pm. Free.

Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-6855). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sat.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $9; $7, children ages 2-15 and seniors; $2, 1-year-olds; free, children under 1 year; $1 per person, Fri., 5-9 pm.

Faneuil Hall
75 State St., Boston (617-635-3105). www.faneuilhallmarketplace.com. MBTA: Orange or Green Line to Haymarket. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. U.S. Park Service rangers give talks every half hour in the Great Hall, when it's not being used for special events. Free.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and seniors; $5, children ages 3-18. Free for all, Wed., 3-5 pm and Sun., 9 am-12 pm.

John F. Kennedy Library & Museum
Columbia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). www.jfklibrary.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $10; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages 13-17; free, ages 12 and under.

Larz Anderson Antique Auto Museum
15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5; $3, ages 6-17 and seniors; free, ages 6 and under.

Mary Baker Eddy Library Mapparium
200 Mass. Ave., Boston (888-222-3711). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-3:40 pm. $6; $4, seniors and students.

Mount Auburn Cemetery
580 Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 8 am-5 pm. Free.

Museum of Afro-American History
46 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroammuseum.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Guided walking tours available by special request. $5, suggested donation.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $15; $13, seniors; $12, ages 3-11.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm; Sat.-Sun. and holidays, 9 am-6 pm. $17.95; $13.95, seniors; $9.95, ages 3-11; free to members.

Old North Church
193 Salem St., Boston (617-523-6676). MBTA: Orange or Green Line to Haymarket. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. Free.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Orange or Blue Line to State. Daily, 10 am-4 pm. $5; $4, seniors and students; $1, children; free, ages 5 and under.

Old State House Museum
206 Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www.bostonhistory.org. MBTA: Orange or Blue Line to State. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and students; $1, ages 6-18; free to members and children under 6.

Prudential Center Skywalk
800 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Daily, 10 am-8 pm. $9.50; $7.50 with college ID; $7, seniors; $6.50, ages 3-12; free, ages 2 and under.

Trinity Church
206 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). www.trinityboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Daily, 9 am-6 pm. $5; free, ages 12 and under.

USS Constitution & Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Boston (617-426-1812). www.ussconstitutionmuseum.org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. Free.

Volunteer

AFC Mentoring Program
(617-224-1303). www.afcmentoring.org. Mentor a foster-care or adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-437-6200). www.aac.org. Help someone with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). www.cancer.org. Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments.

Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay
(617-542-9090). www.bbmb.org. BBMB seeks volunteers to provide friendship to boys in need.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Volunteers act as friends and mentors to young girls.

Boston Cares
(617-422-0910). www.bostoncares.org. More than 100 volunteer opportunities are available each month.

Boston Jaycees
(617-367-5710). www.bostonjaycees.org. A volunteer organization of people between the ages of 21 and 40 focusing on charitable involvement and developing business opportunities.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012, ext. 227). www.bostonlivingcenter.org. This HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers who are 18 and older for kitchen tasks, office work and special events.

Boston Partners in Education
(617-451-6145, ext. 620). www.bostonpartners.org. Tutor students in math and literacy and prepare high school students for the MCAS.

Cambridge School Volunteers
(617-349-6794). www.csvinc.org. Volunteers and tutors needed in Cambridge public schools.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). www.dana_farber.org. Help adults living with cancer.

Downtown Initiative for Adult Literacy
(617-357-6000, ext. 7508). Tutor adult students.

Extra Hands for ALS
(617-331-3014). www.extrahands.org. Help patients with ALS (aka Lou Gehrig's Disease) and their families with chores and housework.

HealthCare Dimensions Hospice
(781-894-1100). www.hcdhospice.org. Volunteers are needed to support terminally ill patients and their families.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-267-3700). www.thehome.org. Mentor a child.

Horizons Initiative
(617-287-1900, ext. 133). www.horizonsforhomelesschildren.org. Volunteer for homeless children.

Hospice Volunteers
(617-547-2620, ext. 4271). Support terminally ill patients.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). www.cjp.org. Spend time with an elderly adult, mentor a child or teach adults to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). www.lvm.org. Teach adults to read.

MAB Community Services
(617-972-9119). www.charityfinders.com. Read to or shop with a blind person.

Match-Up Interfaith Volunteers
(617-482-1510). www.matchelder.org. Volunteers needed to assist elders.

Neighborhood Action Inc.
(617-723-5800). Serve meals to the homeless.

New England Aquarium
(617-973-5235). www.neaq.org. Volunteer as an aquarium guide and more.

Parental Stress Line
(800-882-1250). Counsel parents and caregivers, and facilitate support groups.

Pine Street Inn
(617-892-9187). www.pinestreetinn.org. Volunteer for food preparation and meal service.

Project Place Inc.
(617-262-3740, ext. 15). www.projectplace.org. Become a mentor or tutor for homeless men and women.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111, ext. 17). www.rfbd.org. Volunteers read textbooks for recording.

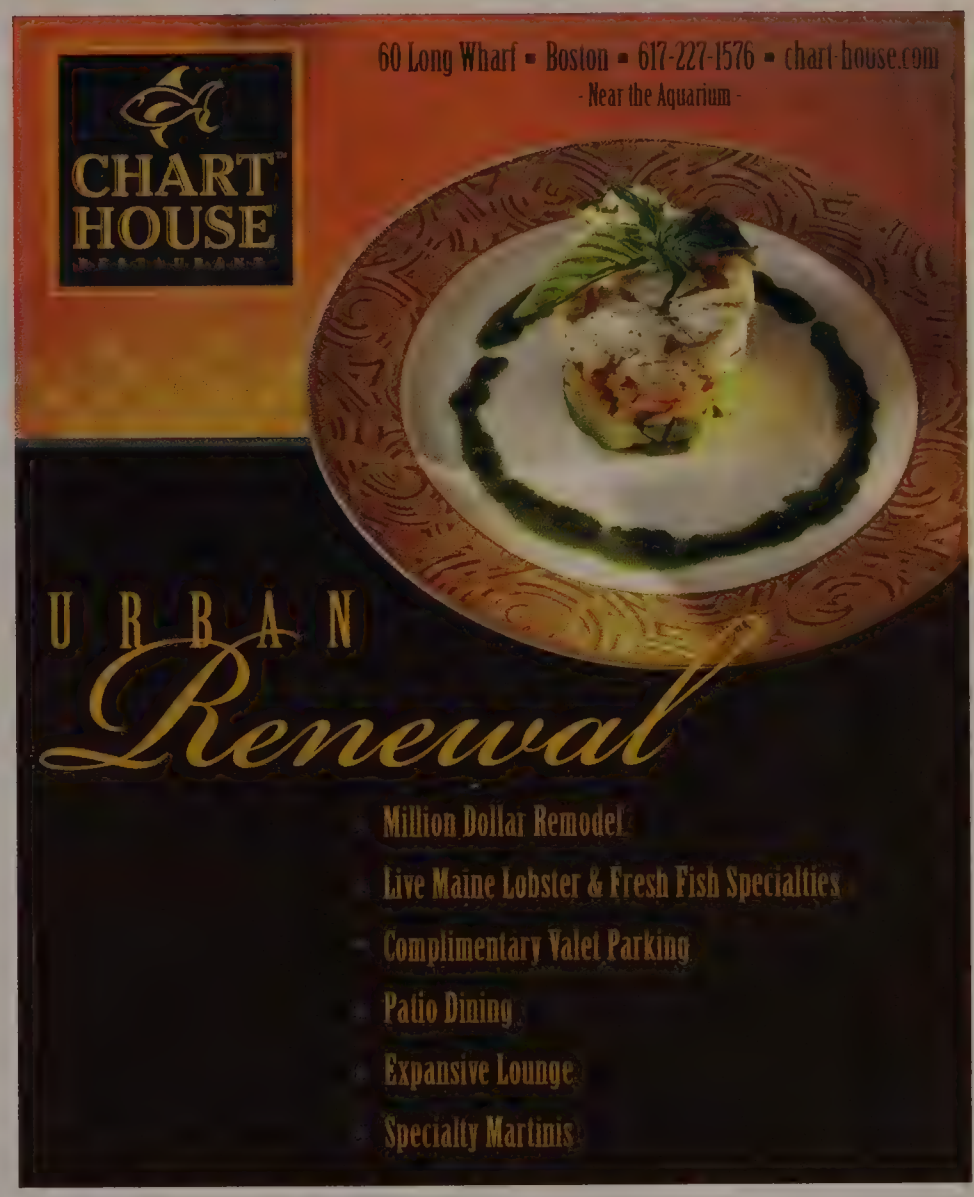
Respond Inc.
(617-625-5996). www.respondinc.org. Volunteer at this agency for battered women.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). www.rosies.org. Volunteers needed for this women's homeless shelter.

SafeLink
(617-521-0100). Volunteers needed for this 24-hour domestic violence program.

Samaritans
(617-536-2460). Provide friendship over the phone to people in crisis.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. SVB offers one-shot opportunities to volunteer with other young, single professionals.



IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Tuesday, February 21, Todd English's Bonfire hosted a private Johnny Walker tasting dinner.

1. Brad Jarvis, master of scotch for Johnny Walker; Sam Share, regional VP at Sovereign Bank; Kathleen Donovon, nurse at Home Visiting Nursing; Tom Estrada, field service technician for Tap Tone; and Derek Gemski, regional VP at ING.
2. Jason Ruimerman, regional VP at Van Kampen Investments, and Thomas Ducey, assistant VP at Weathervane.
3. Jessica Smith, manager for Kabloom, and Sarah Pawlek, assistant manager information services at Babson.

On Tuesday, February 28, the Luxury Marketing Council hosted "The Challenges of Marketing a Branded Diamond on a Global Basis" at Hotel Commonwealth. The guest speaker was David Knies of Hearts on Fire Company.

1. Richard Wycherley, president of Wych Solutions, The Luxury Marketing Council of Boston, and David Knies, vice president marketing of Hearts on Fire Company.
2. Rosemary Grosso, public relations director, and Bill Freitas, owner, both of Custom Tours, Inc.
3. Lyn Evans Shotkus, president, and Nicole Laird, assistant buyer, both of Potpourri Designs.

On Wednesday, March 1, Bump celebrated a soft opening in its Beacon Hill location.

1. Alan Martinovich, principal at Adventis, and Patricia Marks-Martinovich, proprietor of Bump.
2. Kristen Bitter, VP of Baranzelli/Silk Surplus, and Brenna Graham, proprietor of French Dressing.

PHOTOS: BONFIRE, JULIE KANE; HOTEL COMMONWEALTH, GEORGANNA KEOGAN; BUMP, STACEY CHAN

RUSSELL'S Reserve
AGED TEN YEARS
Kentucky Straight Bourbon
WHISKEY
45% ALC/VOL
90° PROOF
750ML
Mellow
THE PERFECT 10
Bourbon

I never thought it could happen to me.

As a lifelong bicyclist, I have participated in many bicycling events for worthwhile causes. I even got to ride with Lance Armstrong, Eric Heiden, and Greg LeMond.

Then on my 45th birthday, I got the news,"You have multiple sclerosis."

Like many people newly diagnosed, I did not know what to do or what to think. So I contacted the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. I got the information and care resources I needed.

I learned that the Society shares my passion for bicycling. Last year, I formed a team and rode the Great Mass Getaway MS 150 Bike Tour. Together we raised over $12,000 to help support other people like me and their families.

- Roger Douville of Manchester, NH

Join me at an MS Bike Tour.

We will ride together toward a cure for multiple sclerosis.

Tour The Vineyard
May 6 - Martha's Vineyard, MA
A beautiful day on Martha's Vineyard with a route for everyone!
Road: 25, 50, or 100K Off-Road: 30k

Great Mass Getaway - MS 150
June 24-25 - Boston to Provincetown, MA
The best two days you will spend on a bike with a boat ride home!
Two days, 150 miles

Bike & Hike The Berkshires
September 30 - Pittsfield, MA
Wear cycling shoes or hiking boots to make moutains of progress for MS!
Bike: 25, 50, or 100 miles or Hike: 4 or 8 miles

Register online at www.msnewengland.org
or call 1-800-493-9255

National Multiple Sclerosis Society
Central New England Chapter

ms bike tour

rockie horoscope

MARCH 8 – 21, 2006 BY ROCKIE GARDINER

PISCES FEBRUARY 19–MARCH 19

As we approach the ides of March, you may again feel the need to reach a higher ground, or perhaps simply to reach for a higher ground. You're well aware that during ordinary times Pisces is the most spiritual sign in the zodiac. Well, double that inherent quality while Neptune and Jupiter, your modern and ancient planetary rulers, perfect another of their provocative squares and replicate a situation similar to what happened at the end of January. Their third and final go-round is set for Sept. 24. Yes, your faith is being tested.

ARIES

MARCH 20–APRIL 19

The last weeks of winter often turn into a period of reflection so that Rams can prepare to spring into action once Aries arrives. Probably because your Mars ruler recently spent so much time stuck in one sign, it appears that some of you are already leaping from pillar to post. While Mars travels through dualistic Gemini, doing two things at once will be a snap. Just take care that you don't crash or burn during the weekend of the 11th when Mars provokes, sometimes madcap, sometimes hopping mad, Uranus and creates a situation beyond your control.

TAURUS

APRIL 20–MAY 20

While it's not exactly a new lease on life, you're likely to feel liberated now that your Venus ruler is cruising through airy, independent Aquarius instead of being tied to earth-bound Capricorn for so long. No doubt you've learned a lot more about being organized, responsible and consistent, but now it's time to apply those lessons to your career. After you confront another reason to pay more dues on the 10th—Venus runs into opposition from restrictive Saturn—you should be free to experiment to your heart's content

GEMINI

MAY 21–JUNE 20

Like your Taurus neighbor, you'll also benefit from Venus' move into Aquarius, a quick-thinking air sign like your own. Even though your Mercury ruler, retrograde in Pisces until March 25, may set little traps to trip you up, Venus will take your mind off the peculiarities and petty annoyances so that you can concentrate instead on what is currently making life a pleasure. Before long, probably around the spring equinox, as the goddess rewards horny Mars in your sign, you'll get another shot at a fine romance. Until then, curb your aggressiveness, your enthusiasm too.

CANCER

JUNE 21–JULY 22

While other signs may be stymied by the roadblocks that are being randomly erected this week, Crabs receive a choice opportunity to go with the flow. Water, whether in the form of fresh snow, heated pools or tears of joy, is the element you should immerse yourself in. Since the rewarding liaison between the imaginative Pisces sun and lucky Jupiter (in your Scorpio house of romance and recreation, no less) won't last, better act sooner rather than later, certainly before the Virgo lunar eclipse on the 14th diminishes the Moon Child's appeal.

LEO

JULY 23–AUGUST 22

Despite a potential reversal of fortune while Jupiter is retrograde in your Scorpio house of real estate and family values, there's still reason to rejoice. Loving Venus has nestled in Aquarius, the sign of your cosmic complement. Although the goddess might have to clear a hurdle when she confronts Saturn in your sign on the 10th, she's determined to make your mate make you happy, at least for another month. Information regarding taxes or investments can surface while your sun ruler and Mercury meet on the 11th. Listen up.

VIRGO

AUGUST 23–SEPTEMBER 22

You may insist that you don't want to know any more than you already do; nonetheless, while your Mercury ruler is retrograde in your house of significant others, gossip about a past or present partnership could pop up—especially while Mercury cozies up to the sun the weekend of the 11th. That's also the time when irascible Mars challenges unpredictable Uranus. Walking on eggshells is nothing new for a circumspect Virgin; just make sure there are shoes by your bed, gas in your car and cash on hand in anticipation of earthquake weather.

LIBRA

SEPTEMBER 23–OCTOBER 22

In the spirit of "love conquers all" you might be tempted to spend more than you should; however, it's in the spirit of fair play that you probably will. While expansive Jupiter in your Scorpio money house is encouraged by the Pisces sun, paying someone else's dues may seem perfectly natural, the only thing that makes sense. Thankfully the situation that coincides with this planetary configuration doesn't occur often enough to drain your bank account dry. Once every 12 years is manageable, particularly since Jupiter will eventually repay your kindness.

SCORPIO

OCTOBER 23–NOVEMBER 21

Until the brilliant Guinness guys declared it, who knew St. Patrick's Day lasted for an entire season? So if you're already celebrating the wearing of the green, keep in mind that on the day itself, a challenging square between your Pluto coruler and the Pisces sun could put you in a dangerous situation. Too far in the future to be concerned? Well, on or before the 11th, as Mars, your other co-ruling planet, and willy-nilly Uranus form their square, you might also get in trouble. Or, if you can control your temper, merely irritated by a surprise at home.

SAGITTARIUS

NOVEMBER 22–DECEMBER 21

Although the Scorpio forecast will affect you differently, the planets that govern that sign can apply to yours as well. Read it so you won't weep. The bit of nastiness due to erupt by the 11th is the result of Mars in your Gemini house of partnership attacking an unstable situation at your house. Try to diffuse it before it ignites. And when the Pisces sun sheds light on your dark side (Pluto in your sign) around St. Patrick's Day, you might not be able to hide something you're not particularly proud of. Crying in your green beer?

CAPRICORN

DECEMBER 22–JANUARY 20

For a welcome change, this week your friends might not try to separate you from your money. A supportive trine between the Pisces sun and generous Jupiter suggests that instead of paying for the privilege of being a member of that august group, the group is willing to reward you. Ask for a favor and there's a very good chance you'll get it. This welcome sense of camaraderie should help you deal with feeling rejected while famously fickle Venus opposes your Saturn ruler. Ask yourself, "Who you gonna call?"

AQUARIUS

JANUARY 21–FEBRUARY 18

Jupiter turning retrograde in your Scorpio midheaven could put career concerns on ice for the next four months. If you're not actively pursuing immediate advancement, consider taking a sabbatical or studying for the next rung up your ladder of accreditation. Meanwhile Mercury's retrogression in your Pisces house of assets suggests that making money won't be much of an issue either. Now if only you could cancel the fireworks set to go off when abrasive Mars in talkative Gemini challenges your Uranus ruler on the 11th, you should be okay.

For a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months, send name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., Valley Glen, CA 91405; more details at www.rockiehoroscope.com. Rockie's daily forecast appears online at www.laweekly.com.

improperimpersonals

f everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over he place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity). Heck, it's better than making a fool of yourself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type up e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

Size Matters

Things don't just work out by themselves. People must be willing to compromise and not just care for their bruised egos, something you obviously are incapable of doing. I can't be a friend to you. In the course of our relationship you treated me with indifference and afterward you tried to take the high road. I should've known. It's always about you and your perception that matters. It's a sad way to live one's life. You're a closeted, selfish, stubborn, egotistical mama's boy. Our relationship has been a huge learning experience for me. Before I met you I always trusted people and gave everyone the benefit of the doubt. Not anymore! Next time I come across an asshole like you I won't waste my time having terrible sex, eating at crappy restaurants and putting up with a huge ego before I give him the boot! You're a loser. And one more thing, three inches IS small!
—Kristian

Blushing in Blue

You: medium stature, around 5'10", light brown hair, dressed in a suit and maybe a tie, mid-to-late 20s. Me" a nurse at Brigham and Women's Hospital, dark brunette hair with hazel eyes, early 20s, wearing blue scrubs. We made eye contact in the elevator of the hospital and smiled, and I saw you blushing. I'm sure I was too. On the off chance that you see this, e-mail me, or maybe I'll run into you again.
—Nurseboston06@hotmail.com

To: Frustrated

Deal with it! We all have to tolerate the annoying habits of coworkers. You may have to deal with someone talking loudly, but I have to deal with co-workers who eat smelly foods at lunch (who microwaves fish?), clip their nails at their desks and laugh so laud that their hyena-like guffaws ricochet off the bare walls and puncture my eardrums. In short, I have to deal with my co-workers and so do you. Can't tolerate it? Work from home!
—Long Suffering

Castrated

To the giant dicks that made the giant snow penis in Harvard Yard, you are neither funny nor original. While I'm sure the sculpture was just a manifestation of repressed homosexuality, please keep your phalluses in your bedroom and off campus. In the meantime, I hope your trust fund dries up and your manhood shrivels and melts, just like your perverted creation.
—Harvard Pussy

Last Call

Friday, Feb. 10, at the Littlest Bar, you were with friends from BU around 11 pm. I was standing next to one of your friends and said hi. Then you introduced yourself and said your name was Jen. I had this feeling of something that is hard to describe—one of those moments. I felt some type of connection, and if I'm not mistaken I thought you might've as well. You're very pretty, blond and sweet. I have brownish/blond hair with blue eyes and now a crush. I dropped the ball and against my better judgment left with my friends. I regretted that I didn't stay and hope you see this so that I may take you out sometime. Chances are you probably won't see it, but if you do, e-mail me. I would love to hear from you...
—thelittlestlastconnection@yahoo.com

Beauty and the Beast

Yellow and red hair on the Orange Line: Last Wednesday or Thursday morning, you arrived on the outbound after State Street and got off before Forest Hills. You had a floppy kind of dark hat on; denim flares, kind of frayed at the bottom; great shoes; and some kind of black sweater tied around your waist under your coat. I was the hideous thing reading the Metro diagonally across from you. I don't entertain for a second the notion that you remember or wish to talk to me, I just wanted to tell you that I was having an unbearable day, and that the simple sight of you just burnt all that right into the clouds. You're simply adorable, and you actually helped make me like people again that day. It felt great. So, thanks!
—Humbly Yours

Call Me Crazy?

To the Women of Boston who wrote a "compelling" Impersonal critiquing the men of Boston, I had to write back. There are many great guys in Boston: I myself happen to be one of them. I'm that guy who's cute, intelligent, funny, successful and makes a great living. I'm romantic and passionate, but you'll never know that. Why? Because you're too busy trying to get the attention of the asshole you claim to hate. And you know you like his crude "whispers" because you're dancing with your other hot girlfriends trying to get his attention and the attention of all the other assholes and losers who are too afraid to dance with a hot girl wearing a tight Bebe T-shirt. Not me though, I'll come right over and dance with you, but you blow me off like I have a disease because you want the asshole to come over and dance with you instead. Next time you're at the bar and I come up to you and offer to buy you a drink, tell me you're not interested and supposedly have a boyfriend when I make the offer—not after you take the drink. You see, I do meet girls at bars and clubs; hell, I meet them everywhere to be honest, but I'm done with the bar and club scene. Been there, done that. It's old. I want that special girl. I want a successful, funny, educated, interesting woman who matches up to what I have to offer. So yeah, we're not all assholes. And the next time I try to dance with you or try to start a conversation at the bar, listen and give me a chance. Because that asshole you're looking at out of the corner of your eye don't have shit on me. How's that for courage?
—A Pissed-Off Great Guy

Ready and Waiting

My name is Michael O'Brien. I'm currently incarcerated because I was on probation and violated it by smoking pot. I'll be out soon and don't plan on coming back. I've been reading the IMPROPER, I believe since you first started it, faithfully. For a while I wasn't able to read your magazine because of my situation, but now the teacher here brings it to me because I'm the tutor helping other inmates get their GEDs. I've also introduced some guys to your magazine, and it's really popular among the fellas here. The last issue has been passed along to 26 different guys at last count. Keep up the good work putting out such an awesome magazine. And to the girl that I'm writing this to: you're very special.
—Michael

Parker Penitent

How do I tell the love of my life, who lives in New Hampshire, and who introduced me to Robert Parker books that I missed the recent Parker reading? I'm frustrated and so annoyed at myself for picking up the IMPROPER when it came out, but not reading it through until 9 pm last night. Parker was at the Copley library at 6 pm! What a perfect setting, since he often sets whodunits in Boston. Maybe he'll pick up an IMPROPER while he's here. Kudos, Mr. Parker; keep up the good work! And to my love, I promise to be more prompt when the IMPROPER comes out. Next time I'll see it, call you and we'll be there!!
—Sincerely Sorry

IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TRIP.

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you were. The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

Sarah Burman (with magazine), Geren Horsley (second from left) and Jade Bojkovic (right) rang in the New Year with a couple of skirts at the Hogmanay Festival in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Emily Schwab, Jonathan Lin and Mike Tesch partied in front of the Earth Temple at the Chinese New Year Food Festival in Beijing, then ate cookies at the Fortune Temple.

Nick and Karen Mathisen visited the U.S. Continental Divide. We wonder what they keep in the Atlantic/Pacific Watersheds.

On his way home from Iraq, Michael C. O'Brien knows that Boston Rocks a lot harder than Iraq, yet is also less rocky.

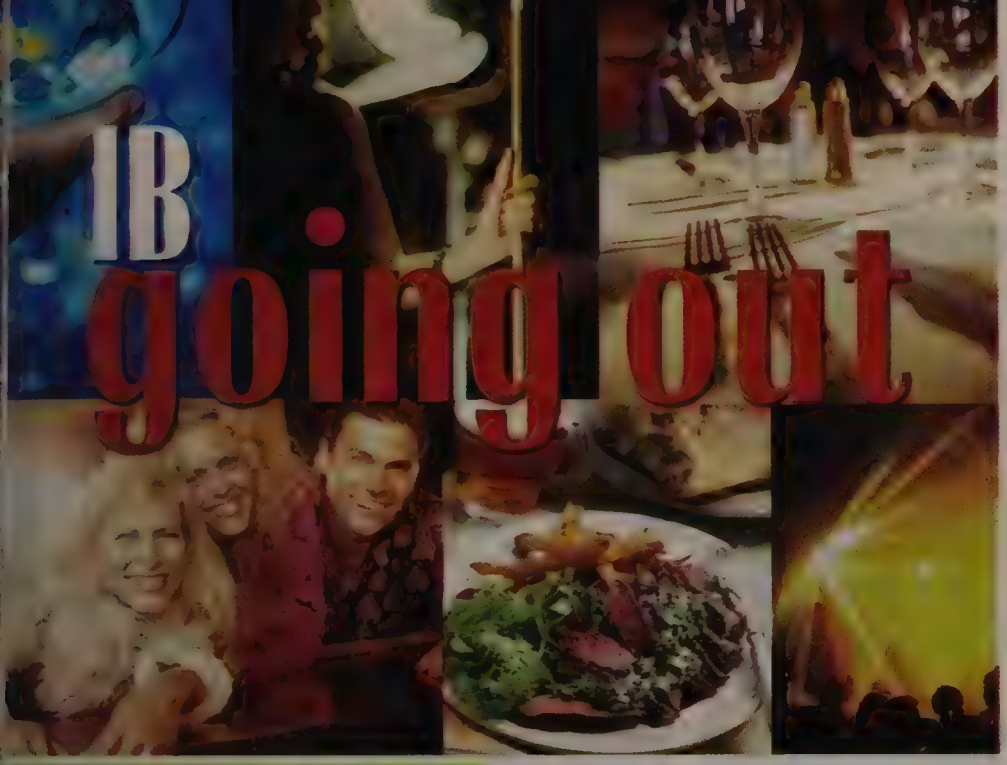
Lynnette Eifert, Joshua Danforth and Todd Headrick took this photo overlooking the town of Speicher, Switzerland. Either that or they're standing in front of the world's largest snow globe.

Alicia Gómez Yafal and David Jacobson relaxed at Foul Bay Beach during a recent trip to Barbados. Turns out there was nothing foul about it, except maybe that bird T-shirt.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER:
Sucking down a couple sheep eyes after swallowing a handful of crickets at the annual Wildfoods Festival, held March 11 in Hokitika, New Zealand.

Send high-resolution digital photos (at least 500K file size) to sightings@improper.com, or mail professionally printed color photos (min. 3x5) to Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116. Please include the exact photo location, full names of all people in the photo, your phone number and e-mail address. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned. Ink-jet or laser-printed photos cannot be accepted.



RESTAURANTS

ASSAGGIO 29 Prince Street, Boston, MA 02113 (617)227-7380 www.assaggioboston.com. Located in Boston's historic North End, Assaggio is open 7 days a week for lunch, dinner and late-night dining. Assaggio's menu is comprised of traditional Italian fare and uses only the freshest ingredients! Enjoy our extensive wine list or relax at one of the North End's only full service bars. Try our exclusive Limousine Shuttle Service–for a $10.00 charge we'll pick you up at home and provide round trip service to and from the restaurant– Please call one day in advance to reserve. Intimate, private function space is also available.

BONFIRE 64 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel, Theatre District, 617-262-3473. Chef Todd English's restaurant, Bonfire, is a steak house and tequila bar with a wood-fired grill and Latin and European influences. The décor is gorgeous in warm red and gold tones. An extensive taco menu, wood-grilled steaks and a late-night tapas menu provide options for all diners. Open nightly for dinner and late-night dining.

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617-236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Boston's Best 6 years in a row! Our southwestern specialties include Sizlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurant in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

IGUANA CANTINA 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

MATCH 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. This modern restaurant/lounge maintains an unpretentious yet hip vibe. A sleek fire display and glass wine room are just two of its many features. Match's signature mini burgers and martinis are guaranteed to please the most discriminating palate. Match music has a distinct early evening lounge feel with the beat and volume picking up as the night progresses. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC,V.

M.J. O'CONNOR'S 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255. Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

NED DEVINE'S Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

SIDNEY'S GRILLE 20 Sidney St., Cambridge, 617-494-0011 Enjoy fresh flavors, good friends, and a great bar at Sidney's Grille in Central Square. Discover why Bon Appétit magazine says "It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." Memorable cuisine combines international flair with regional accents. Serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and weekend brunch. Private dining available. For menus www.sidneysgrille.com.

SOLAS 710 Boylston St., Lenox Hotel, 617-933-4803. Solas means comfort in Gaelic and comfort is exactly what you will find here, along with a lot of "Irish" good fun. Solas, a Boston pub with an Irish soul, illustrates its Irish influences in the architectural styles and furnishings. The menu is influenced by a traditional, yet decidedly modern Irish cuisine. And you'll always find a warm, hospitiable staff looking to pour you a cold pint. Open 11am - 2 am, 7 days a week.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP:130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 300 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

THE LIVING ROOM 101 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, MA. 617-723-5101. www.thelivingroomboston.com. Cool, comfortable, casual– the name says it all. Where else can you enjoy American comfort food while relaxing on a couch or at a table, and even have dessert first? This restaurant, bar & lounge succeeds at being homey rather than haughty. There's an inventive martini list and friendly staff, just moments from Quincy Market and the North End. Try the Living Room's awesome apps like Chicken Taquitos, Mini-Burgers or Shrimp & Avocado Egg Rolls. Full dinner menu is served from 4:30 PM until Midnight daily. Saturday and Sunday a "Pajama Brunch" is served from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Bar & Lounge open until 1:00 AM daily.

VENEZIA RESTAURANT 20 Ericsson St., Boston 617-436-3120. For authentic Italian fare, impeccable service and an atmosphere unmatched on Boston's Waterfront, Venezia provides one of the city's most unique and pleasurable dining experiences. Your destination for everything from a relaxing midday lunch to a romantic dinner for two, Venezia can also accommodate private affairs like wedding receptions and business functions, and features live music on Friday and Saturday nights.

BARS & CLUBS

Beer Specialty

SUNSET GRILL & TAP: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 300+ microbrews and exotic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

BIG CITY - POOL HALL, Pizza Kitchen, Beer Bar 138 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-782-2020 www.allstonsfinest.com. BIG TIME FUN: 21 Championship pool tables, 80 big beers on tap, outrageous signature pizzas and BIG MENU Sat/Sun Brunch in our BIG BANK BUILDING with our one of a kind "metro retro decor". THE BIG DEAL is free rooms and pool for your next party or function of any kind. Call the "Party Specialists". Sun - Weds 3P's (pool, pitcher, pizza) $19.99. Life is good in the Big City! Come experience it in a big way!

Clubs

FELT 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. www.FeltBoston.com. A four level venue offering a New York style Lounge, a hip bar scene, with sophisticated pool tables and a dance club in the 4th level. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth. The perfect setting for a pre or post-theater dinner or a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere of DJ's and dancing, sophisticated pool tables & bars...and FELT's posh fourth level club are the perfect blend to satisfy all your senses.

Dance Bars

GREEN BRIAR 304 Washington St., Brighton 617-789-4100. A little taste of Ireland with great tasting, affordable food. One of the most popular nightspots in town, the Green Briar has become the area's headquarters for international sports viewing and live entertainment. Live music five nights a week, featuring local bands on weekends, a traditional Irish Seissun every Monday night and Prime Time Trivia every Tuesday. The hospitable atmosphere makes the Green Briar an excellent place to hold luncheons, wedding rehearsals, social gatherings and small business meetings. Open 11am-1am, 7 days a week. Cover charge varies on Friday and Saturday nights and some sporting events on Sundays.

KINVARA 34 Harvard Ave., Allston 617-783-9400. At the Kinvara, the crowd is spirited, the staff is hospitable, the food is great and everyone is treated as a "regular". It's the local gathering place with authentic Irish pub flavor. Live international sports viewing via satellite includes soccer, rugby and hurling. Live bands entertain to a lively crowd on weekends. The mainstream pub fare menu ranges from grilled sandwiches and fish & chips to traditional Irish dishes and innovative daily specials. At the Kinvara, you'll enjoy a true Irish pub experience. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

General

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617- 236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Boston's Best 6 years running! Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurants in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas. com.

CHAMPIONS SPORTS BAR Boston Marriott Copley Place; 110 Huntington Ave. Boston, 617 937-5658. Come join us at Boston's premier Sports Bar where you can enjoy all you local and national sports action on one of our 33 tvs, including 2 big screens. We have draft beers as well as a huge selection of domestic and imported bottle selections for you to choose from. We also have a full bar and menu serving all your favorite traditional American cuisine. Planning your next party or corporate event? We have room for parties ranging from 25-325. Our hours are from Sunday through Thursday 11:30-1am, and Friday and Saturday 11:30-2am.

THE HARP 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-742-1010. Voted Boston Magazine's "Best After The Game", the Harp is a favorite downtown hotspot any day of the week, located directly across from the Fleet Center. Live bands from Boston, Philadelphia and New York plus DJs spinning tunes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights set the pace for the great high-energy environment. The Harp provides a crowd-pleasing menu with tastes from around the globe. Located in the heart of downtown Boston, the Harp also serves as an excellent meeting place for business luncheons, social gatherings and events.

JILLIAN'S BOSTON / LUCKY STRIKE LANES 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-0300 www.jillansboston.com. Jillian's is a 70,000 square foot entertainment megaplex featuring 16 bowling lanes, 50 pool tables, high-tech games, high definition video walls, multiple lounges and private rooms. Located on the first floor is Tequila Rain, which offers an amazing Tex-Mex menu and dancing to the hottest DJs Friday and Saturday nights.

PARRIS Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Lounge. Cocktails. Dancing. Nightlife. Come see the lights of Parris. Sample the eclectic lounge menu featuring grilled pizza, oyster shooters and steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or French 75 martini, and then motion onto the huge dance floor featuring live music with the best bands and DJs Thursday through Saturday. Named for the original architect of the Greek-revival-style building, Alexander Parris, you're nightlife experience at Parris will be Boston and beyond. Open 5pm - 2am Wednesday - Saturday. Cover charge on Friday and Saturday.

BRUNCH

KENNEDY'S MIDTOWN 42 Province Street, Boston, 617-426-3333 www. kennedysmidtown.com. Ideally situated in Boston's Midtown, Kennedy's is located between Downtown Crossing and the Boston Common; Just steps from Beacon Hill and The Freedom Trail. One of Boston's best kept secrets, Kennedy's menu boast prime aged steaks, seafood,assorted pub fare, and daily creations. Open 7 days a week, brunch served Saturdays and Sundays, and lively piano bar. Call us for that special function or event.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE – SKYLINE ROOM
MUSEUM OF SCIENCE Science Park, Boston, Ma, 02114. Enjoy Sunday Brunch in the beautiful Skyline Room overlooking the Charles River at 11 a.m. & 1 p.m., then check out the latest breathtaking Omni film or our always-changing exhibit halls. Tickets start at $32 and include on-site parking when available. Brunch only, $24. Reservations recommended. For more information call (617) 723-2500 or visit mos.org.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA, 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At the Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try our thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar, including a free Sunday paper and your first beery mary or mimosa. Full menu also available. 112taps, 300+microbrews.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

ACUPRESSURE

781-453-3988

Reward yourself with a type of relaxation and rejuvenation that improves the power of the body, mind and spirit. We provide a soothing and comfortable atmosphere for the best massage treatment. by appt. 95/128 exit 17-19 1116 Great Plain Ave. Needham Center 9am - 9pm open 7days.

ATTORNEY

Regab & Associates, LLC
6 Beacon Street, Suite 200
Boston, MA 02114

Regab & Associates, LLC is a general law practice located in downtown Boston. Our firm focuses on estate planning, real estate, business law, bankruptcies and domestic relations. Please contact us 617-523-3200.

DANCE LESSONS

BELLY DANCE FOR FUN & FITNESS

Classes for everyone who wants a stronger, more toned, and flexible body. Johara's School of Belly Dance has locations in Allston, Brookline, and Cambridge. Contact: johara@joharasnakedance.com or call 617-780-8890.

DATING SERVICES

GREAT DATE

Find your perfect mate, join The Great Date. The Great Date caters to selective singles of all ages. We provide a personalized approach as well as low affordable rates. Why wait? Call today and change your life! www.thegreatdate.com Newton: 617-527-1493. North Shore: 978-475-6512.

HEALING

NE Medical Massage Therapy
Do you suffer in pain?
Massage • Reiki • Acupuncture
Repetitive Stress & Chronic Injuries
Located at Harvard Vanguard Medical Associates
147 Milk Street, 7th floor, Boston
617.769.0101
Next Reiki 1 Class
Monday, March 6 9am-5pm
Monday, March 20 9am-1pm
Maxine Bornstein RN, MS
Reiki Master / Teacher / Holistic Nurse
508.292.5258
www.reikibythe sea.com
www.nemedicalmassage.com

NURTURING

MASSAGE BODYWORK FOR WOMEN

Luxurious Tantric bodywork channels soothing energy thru sensual meridian nurturing body and soul. Exhilarating relaxation; mind-body equilibrium. By certified therapist. Sliding-scale rates. 857-526-6791. tantricway@hotmail.com.

PARTY BUS

The Original Party Trolley of Boston
- Pub Crawl's
- Bachelorette Party's
- Bachelor Party's
- Birthday Party's
- Weddings
- Formals
- Corporate Functions
- Scavenger Hunts
- Graduations

Dancing Poles & Dance Floor
DJ's
Bose 802 loud speakers/Bose 502b subwoofer
Fog Machine/Bubble Machine
DVD, TV & CD Players
Strobe Lights/Laser Lights/Show Lights
617-742-2194
24 hour 617-290-6040
www.discoverbostontours.com
www.disbos@aol.com
MENTION THIS AD FOR AN ADDITIONAL HOUR FREE

PERMANENT COSMETICS

PET GIFT BOUTIQUE

Cause to Paws
Gifts for pets... and people that love them
www.causetopaws.com
1-617-738-PAWS
1386A Beacon Street
Brookline, MA
02446

PSYCHIC

READINGS BY MICHAEL LAFFERTY

Private and personal phone readings. Credit cards accepted. 215-482-6517.

IF YOU WERE PSYCHIC

You'd already know how well your ad would work in the Improper Shopper. Call today to advertise. 617-859-1400 ext. 269.

PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE

A UNIQUE HOME DETOX™
FOR DRUGS AND ALCOHOL
PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL
PHYSICIAN DIRECTED.
COVERED BY MOST INSURANCE PLANS.
ADDICTION RECOVERY
1-800-770-1904
(24 hours)

TEAS

Enjoy the health benefits and great taste of our wide variety of fine specialty imported teas.

TEAS AND ACCESSORIES

Visit our website for more information www.teasandaccessories.com or email
sales@teasandaccessories.com

JOSEPH SULLIVAN CARPET CLEANING
The Best Way to Clean Carpets

Est. 1973. Specializing in hand washing and deep cleaning of all carpets, including delicates (Oriental, Hand-woven, Special dye, etc.) Eliminate dirt/deep stains and odors. Drop-off/pick-up service available. Call now for competitive pricing.

617-445-1693
www.josephsullivancarpetcleaning.com

For discerning adults of all ages for the perfect mate join the Great DATE
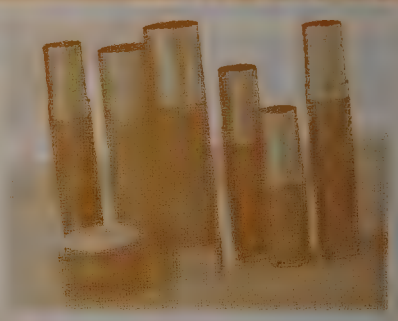
A personalized introduction service - low affordable rates.
www.thegreatdate.com
617.527.1493 • 978.475.6512

DISCOVER THE ARBONNE DIFFERENCE!



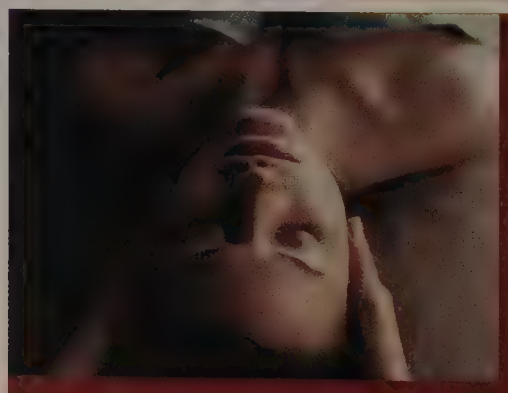
Discover the botanical REvolution in anti-aging! NutriMinC® RE9 anti-aging system: 9 result-oriented elements combat the visual signs of aging.

"Be proactive in your health, be proactive in your wealth. Discover Arbonne's product line and the Arbonne business"

For more information please contact: Christine Size, Independent Consultant
christinesize@myarbonne.com • www.christinesize.myarbonne.com

ARBONNE INTERNATIONAL
ARBONNE SKIN CARE
Pure, Safe, Beneficial
Formulated in Switzerland, made in the USA.

when you need custom printed
T-SHIRTS
SWEATSHIRTS AND MORE...
...a necessary fact of Life!
ph - 617-625-3335
email - info@qrsts.com
www.qrsts.com
QRST's T-Shirt Printers and more.....
part of R.A.W. (Rinnigade Art Works)



- Inactive laser for cellulite
- Aveda Botanical Skin Resurfacing
- Microdermabrasion
- Massage
- Specializing in dimensional haircolor and eyebrow design.

RAINA'S HAIR DESIGN STUDIO & DAY SPA, an Aveda concept salon.
115 Broadway, Revere, MA 02151
781-289-1266 ◆ www.rainashairdesign.com
AVEDA

To advertise in the Improper Shopper call 617-859-1400 x 269

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

cityside tickets

"Your source for the best tickets in New England"

Red Sox Tickets Available Now!
Call today at 617-481-2145.
Or visit us at www.citysidetickets.com.

INCREASE CONFIDENCE!!

Etiquette Made Easy for Children and Young Adults
Choose from any or all of the following:
Social Etiquette, Communication Skills,
Table Manners. Classes are forming now in Brookline, MA and are arranged by age group
Ages 5-18 are welcome

Contact Christine at etiquettemadeeasy@yahoo.com
617-276-2082

WHAT'S THE BUZZ ABOUT?
Host a KittyLiXX Pleasure Toy Home Party and find out!
1-866-844-LIXX

- Sensual & Erotic Toys, Oils and more...
- Earn free gifts • Girls Night out • 18 +
- Also seeking sales people
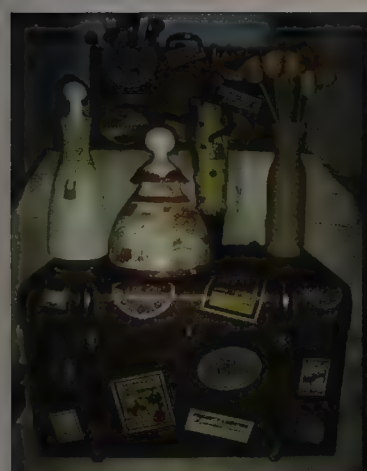
- Visit us at www.kittylixx.com
- Email : homeparties@kittylixx.com

KittyLiXX.com



Brazilian Born

www.brazilianborn.net

Location:
Shops at Prudential Center
800 Boylston St., Boston

617.375.5566

UNIQUE, SOPHISTICATED, BRAZILIAN ART

Assortment of ceramic flowers and fruits, vintage suitcases, stylish jewelry, one of a kind ceramic dolls dated and signed. Everything is handmade by talented Brazilian artsits.

For fast, capable, temporary help

List your housecleaning, yard work, moving help, and clerical jobs with us FREE and have a Boston University student work for you!

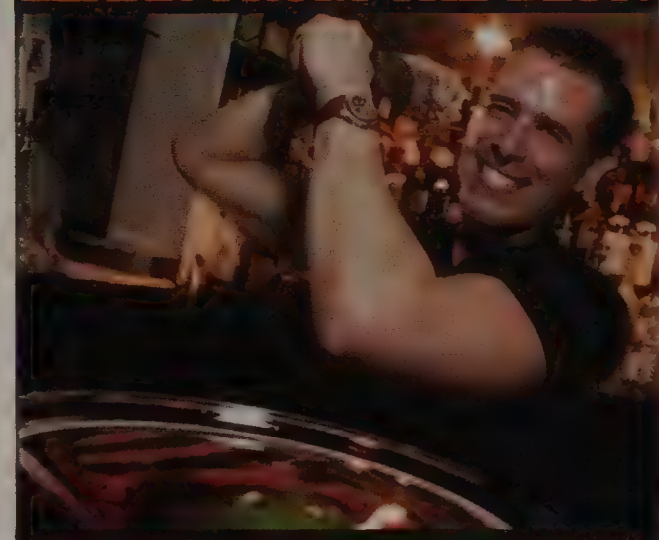
BOSTON UNIVERSITY STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

Phone: 617.353.2890
FAX: 617.353.9200
E-Mail: seo@bu.edu

Post your jobs online:
www.bu.edu/seo

Let us work for you!

LEARN FROM THE BEST!



NEW ENGLAND BARTENDING SCHOOL
www.bartendingschool.com • 888-4DRINKS

The Bustonian, Boston's Best Party Bus!
Now Offering 5 Bus Choices!!!!!

Hop on the bus for the ride of your life!
Perfect for bachelor/bachelorette parties, corporate events, and special occasions!

Contact us for your reservations today!
web: www.bustonian.com e-mail: info@bustonian.com
phone: 1-866-GO-BUS-GO

the mighty
BUSTONIAN

book a party midweek and receive special rates...contact us for details!

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

At the Lunar New Year Gala, top row: Polly and Ming Tsai. Bottom row: Leah Ikeda and Jack Bardy; Zhang Le; Joanne Chang.

HOW DO YOU SAY "AULD LANG SYNE" IN CHINESE?

Just when the hangover had finally worn off and those New Year's resolutions were starting to grow cobwebs, the Asian American Civic Association had to go and host the Lunar New Year Gala at the Wang Center, making many of us who attended reach for the Advil before running to the gym the next morning.

Not that it wasn't worth it. The epic blowout included food from seemingly every Asian restaurant within a 50-mile radius and entertainment that ranged from dragon dancers and a kung fu demonstration to Japanese drummers, Polynesian dancers (wearing coconut bras) and a re-creation of a Shanghai nightclub circa 1935.

Seen ringing in the Year of the Dog were such prominent worthies as honorary chair and "emperor of the gala" Ming Tsai and his gorgeous wife, Polly, the event's beyond-charming organizer Mary Chin, godfather of sports talk Eddie Andelman, Flour Bakery babe Joanne Chang with her snacky sidekick Peter Stephan, Urban League head honcho Darnell Williams, gorgeous chanteuse Zhang Le, live wire Bik-Fung Ng, Neiman Marcus hottie Philip Surette and the supremely chic April Riccio, the achingly lovely Esther Lee, and the evening's emcee, Channel 5's Susan Wornick, who responded to a compliment on her cleavage by saying, "At my age, a good night is when somebody thinks you've got a cleft chin."

Between all the eating, boozing and schmoozing, not to mention the endless performances, it was a case of sensory overload that lasted well into the wee hours. As one guest joked, "This may be the only black-tie gala in Boston history where no one is going to suggest a late-night trip to Chinatown."

Then again, as someone else pointed out, "Fun party, but I'll probably be hungry again in an hour."

I'M GONNA PUT ON MY MY MY MY BOOGIE SHOES...

If you thought the Wang Center's stage was made for dancing, you should've seen the lobby at the annual Tomorrownite Gala to benefit St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital.

Chicken Little–like predictions of apocalyptic weather did nothing to dampen spirits at the super-swanky affair, which had a rhythm-and-blues theme, with entertainment ranging from a gospel choir to a white-hot dance band to an Elvis impersonator, and more than a few of the guests availed themselves of the Blues Brothers–style sunglasses that were scattered around as party favors.

Prominent among the throng: event chair Anne Tamer Hajjar (sporting a diamond ring that looked more like a skating rink) and her adoring husband, Charles, the ultra-philanthropic Ayoub family, va-va-va-voomalicious Channel 7 anchor Frances Rivera and her adorable other half, Stuart Fraass, super-suave engineering consultant James Kidd, attorney-about-town Edward Amaral, stunning politico Melissa Hurley, the dashing twosome of Dominick Doyle and Cary Lynch, and so on and so forth.

The silent auction items ranged from the sublime (a diamond necklace, a knitted mink shawl) to the ridiculous (Botox injections), and the food was superb (with a raw bar that made us wonder whether there were any shellfish left in Wellfleet), but it was the music that got the party started, with everyone from teenagers to blue-haired grannies shakin' their groove things like there was no tomorrow (which might be where they got the name for the party).

Memo to the planning committee: Next year, when you list the dress code on the invitation, you might want to warn the ladies to leave the Manolos at home.

As one woman pointed out, "These shoes look good, but after one dance they feel like some kind of medieval torture device."

At Tomorrownite, top row: Frances Rivera. Bottom row: Anne Tamer Hajjar and Charles Hajjar; Elvis impersonator Roland Julius; James Kidd.

WHO SAYS ROMANCE IS DEAD?

Some Bostonians chose to laugh their asses off rather than eat their hearts out this Valentine's Day, at A Funny Kind of Love—a night of stand-up comedy to raise funds for autism research, held at Avalon.

At A Funny Kind of Love, top row: Beth Krudys; Margie Pascetta. Bottom row: Steven Wright; Joe Wong and Max Goldberg.

The evening's headliners included Steven Wright and Lenny Clarke, who were joined onstage by the pants-wettingly hilarious Tony V. and up-and-comer Joe Wong, while the audience included such recognizable faces as Red Sox VP Larry Cancro and front office cutie Beth Krudys, fund-raising force of nature Margie Pascetta, food writer Andrea Pyenson, broadcasting behemoth Hank Morse of WROR, comedy club kingpin Mike Clarke (Lenny's brother), singer-songwriter and charter boat captain Jennifer Clarke (Lenny's wife), babe-a-licious Lyons Group exec Mindy D'Arbeloff, Wellesley construction mogul Mark Morris and rising star Max Goldberg (sporting a T-shirt that said "Smartass University," which we believe means he goes to Emerson).

Nearly everything that was said on stage was highly amusing, including Tony V.'s observation during the live auction that "The only way children know you love them is if you spend money on them," but perhaps the night's biggest laugh belonged to Wong, who made the following observation about Alaska: "It's dark for six months of the year, so your overnight delivery never comes and your one-night stand never leaves." In short, it was one Valentine's Day when the only more appropriate gift than lingerie would have been a box of Depends. iB

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion?
Call J.S. at 617-859-1400, ext. 303, or e-mail jonathan@improper.com.

unmistakably
JUDITH RIPKA TWO

Arlene AND Roberta

Specializing in European jewelry, gifts & accessories

233 NEEDHAM STREET · NEWTON, MASSACHUSETTS · 617.527.3344

A Very Smooth First Encounter

New Heineken Premium Light

Now in Bars

Heineken
PREMIUM
LIGHT

heinekenlight.com

Enjoy Heineken Light Responsibly.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

METRO BOSTON'S SIDE SPLITTING GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND THE FATHER OF THE SUPERFINGER

OSTON: BUYER'S UIDE

OW TO HOP LIKE PRO

ARDROBE SSENTIALS OR GUYS ND GALS

+

RESSING P YOUR TTLE LACK DRESS

*

AND WHAT'S BEHIND THE URGE TO SPLURGE?

LAUGH RIOT

DANE COOK BLOWS UP

CH 22 – APRIL 4, 2006
SIDE OF METRO BOSTON
20
470 79832 3
w.improper.com

Vest $19.90

H&M

contents

MARCH 22–APRIL 4, 2006

ALLI ARNOLD

28
Why We Buy

FEATURES

22 SOROFF/ON DANE COOK
The Arlington native jokes about sexy screen names, why Boston produces such great comedians and the unrecognized genius of Jessica Simpson.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

24 SHOP LIKE A PRO
Anyone can shop, but shopping smart's another story. Follow these tips to become the master of the mall.
BY REGINA COLE

28 WHY WE BUY
We've all made our share of questionable purchases. Find out why, as we uncover the secrets behind good shopping gone bad.
BY COURTNEY HUMPHRIES

33 THE ESSENTIALS
Keeping your wardrobe simple can get you farther than you think. Check out these fashion essentials for men and women, and leave the rest on the rack.
BY JULIE HATFIELD

36 VARIATIONS ON A THEME
Give us one black dress, and we'll show you three very different, hot looks.
BY SAMANTHA HOUSE

38 SEA WORTHY
Say ahoy to spring in these nautical fashions.
PHOTOGRAPHED BY ANTHONY RUGNETTA

Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by
Kerry Brett Hurley

Hair: RaMona Fleetwood; stylist: Fairlie Myers; T-shirt: Dolce & Gabbana/Riccardi

COLUMNS

10 THE WORD
Douzo; new Rustic Kitchen; language schools.

16 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured.
BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

18 EZRA
Virtually cool in a virtual world.
BY EZRA DYER

20 THAT'S RICH
Not-too-late March Madness predictions.
BY RICH LEVINE

44 MOPSY
The Sultan's Seal; Reliable Trading Post; easing pet-loss pain.
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

56 MOVIES
Predictability, thy name is Ask the Dust.
BY PAUL SHERMAN

60 MUSIC
The ICP Orchestra gets set to rock on the ICA stage.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

88 LAST SCENE HERE
Our Man in Black Tie mud wrestles with the movie mavens.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT.DRINK.

46 DINING
No ugly stepsister: Sorellina's a success.
BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI

48 TASTINGS
Wine and Dine Mondays and other tasty tidbits
BY RICH LEVINE

49 DISH
Usewicz tries his hand at Tryst.
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from the Calendar Gurus, Leslie and Rich. Complete listings follow page 51.

The BCA Artists' Ball • Kid Rock • The Boston Undergrour Film Festival • WBCN Rock 'N' Rumble • Jody Sperling

ET CETERA

Letters
Improper Sightings
Rockie Horoscope
Improper Impersonals

Guaranteed Rate Base 85,000 biweekly;
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XV, ISSUE 6

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by
Improper Publications Inc.

POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Two Of The World's Most Demanding Chefs Agree On One Rare Ingredient.

Any recipe is only as good as its components. Trouble is, whether it's black truffles from the Perigord region of France, pure saffron from Spain, or Black Seal Rum from Bermuda, the special ingredients aren't often easily found. But are always easily worth the effort.

Tom Colicchio

Tom Colicchio, Chef/Owner Gramercy Tavern & Craft Restaurants, cookbook author and winner James Beard's Best Chef New York Award. "My first introduction to Gosling's Black Seal was on vacation in Bermuda. It was love at first sip. It brings an earthy, smooth flavor to my Bermuda Onion Soup that is missing with many rums."

Ming Tsai

Ming Tsai, Chef/Owner Blue Ginger Restaurant, cookbook author, and Emmy-winning TV host, currently of "Simply Ming" and "Ming's Quest". "We must use the best there is, no matter how hard to find. Like rich, intricate Black Seal Rum. It makes any dish really sing, including our Blue Ginger Shrimp Tempura with Gosling's Black Seal Aioli."

Black Seal Rum is made slowly, deliberately, according to family methods that are wonderfully out of date with today's mass produced brands. Perhaps this is why it won the coveted Platinum award at the World Spirits Championships. And why you'll find it the most delicious rum you've ever sipped, mixed or cooked with.

Assuming, of course, that you can find it.

Gosling's
CELEBRATING 200
YEARS 1806 - 2006

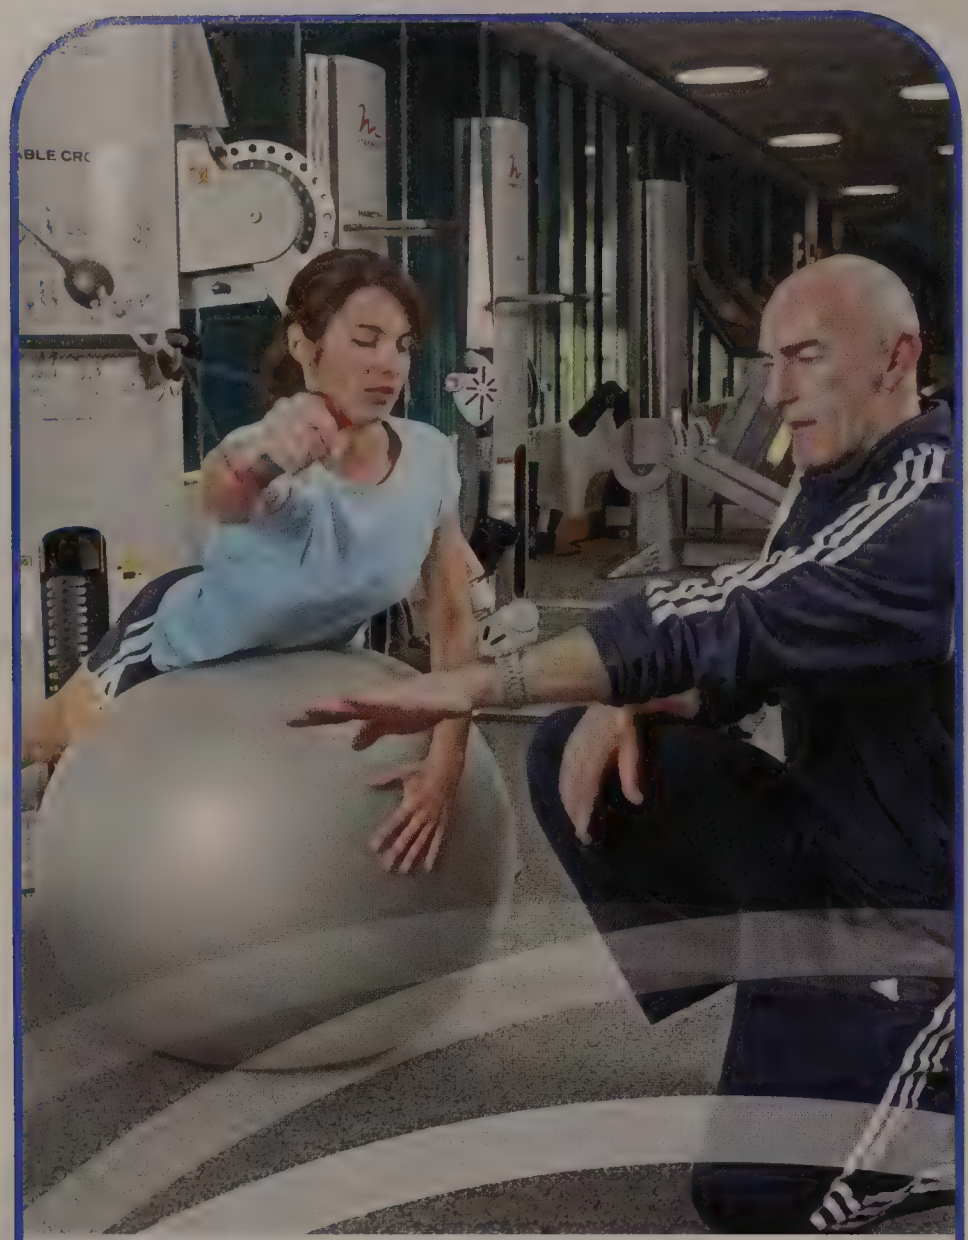
www.goslingsrum.com

For Seven Stubborn Generations.

We make it slowly, stubbornly. Please enjoy it slowly, responsibly. 40% Alc./Vol. (80 Proof). Product of Bermuda. Imported by Castle Brands, Manhasset, NY.



TRAIN TO ACHIEVE

Focus Fitness is an innovative Training Center offering an environment that will enable you to succeed in the most important game you can train for: life.

Let our staff of expert fitness professionals shift your focus from someday to today.

FOCUS FITNESS

303 Congress St • Boston, Ma 02210
T 617.951.2900 • focusfitnessboston.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian

EDITOR Veronica Chao

MANAGING EDITOR Erin Graham

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

FEATURE WRITER/COLUMNIST Ezra Dyer

ASSISTANT EDITORS Leslie Kilgore, Rich Levine

COPYEDITORS Nathaniel Adams, Linh Tran

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Chris Collins, Carolyn Faye Fox, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, Laurel Kirtz, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, Paul Sherman, John D. Spooner

EDITORIAL INTERNS Jenny Amaral, Jaclyn Biederman, Casey Dunphy, Michelle McAuley Courtney McClellan, Paola Moll, Cristina Velocci

ART DIRECTOR Carolyn Bowes

PHOTO EDITOR Katie Noble

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett Hurley

PHOTO INTERNS Lindsay Maiorana, Brittany Oldham

NEW-BUSINESS DIRECTOR Julie Kane

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGERS Dana D'Alfonso, Alison Morant, Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Bill Eppich, Georganna Yessaian

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Jessica Federico

ADVERTISING ART DIRECTOR Julie Betters

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING Stacey Shane

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Amanda Arkins, Auric Mak, James Nelson Mayra Rivera, Badr Wahman

TRAFFIC MANAGER Merinda Pattullo

V.P. ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE Arthur Souza

GENERAL MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian Miller

OFFICE MANAGER Gretchen Bostrom

SALES ASSISTANT/RECEPTIONIST Nicole Zoto

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400 Fax: 617-859-1446
E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc. Copyright©2006 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member

Audit Bureau of Circulations

Now Celebrating Our 200th Year of Worldwide Scarcity.

In an era obsessed with production both mass and fast, our snail-pace distilling and blending methods are woefully archaic. For seven admittedly stubborn generations we've placed a much higher value on final quality than final quantity.

This is precisely why our rums have earned a rather cult-like following, not to mention numerous awards. It's also why we refuse to shortcut our methods in order to hasten the output. If this means you won't find a bottle of Gosling's on every shelf and bar, so it must be. Anything exceptional is worth a little extra effort. On both of our parts.

Gosling's
CELEBRATING 200
YEARS 1806 - 2006

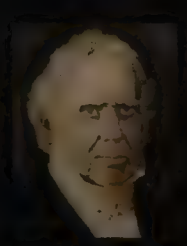
www.goslingsrum.com

For Seven Stubborn Generations.



Ambrose Gosling

William Henry Gosling

Edmund Hinson Gosling

Hon. Ambrose Gosling

Ambrose Tucker Gosling

Malcolm Lloyd Gosling

Edmund Malcolm Gosling

We make it slowly, stubbornly. Please enjoy it slowly, responsibly. 40% Alc./Vol. (80 Proof). Product of Bermuda. Imported by Castle Brands, Manhasset, NY.

wish

Celebrate the arrival of the
Trina Turk Spring Collection!

Thursday
March 30th
5 to 8 pm
cocktails and hors d'oeuvres
at our store

Receive a signature scarf with any Trina Turk purchase.

RSVP by Monday, March 27th
617 227 4441

contemporary women's boutique
49 charles st boston 617 227 4441 www.wishstyle.com

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

BUYER'S GUIDE

For some, shopping's a chore; for others it's a way of life. But for pretty much everyone, it's a necessity. Whether you're reluctant or enthusiastic about the activity, our goal with this issue is to help you shop smarter.

Regina Cole's story, "Shop Like a Pro," offers strategies for scoring the best deals on furniture, electronics and clothing. And elaborating on that last category, fashion expert Julie Hatfield lays out a plan for paring down your wardrobe to the most versatile essentials. To help you avoid buyer's remorse, Courtney Humphries gets the lowdown from local experts on the psychology of shopping—how we decide what to buy.

He may not be a poster boy for shopping, but Arlington native Dane Cook, who graces our cover this issue, knows how to sell. His first comedy CD Harmful if Swallowed has sold nearly half a million copies, and his upcoming Boston shows, in mid-April, are already sold out, more evidence that comedy is king in Boston.

Veronica Chao

VERONICA CHAO, Editor
veronica@improper.com

PROSE AND CONS

As a faithful reader of the IMPROPER, I need to address the fact that in issue after issue (it seems), inmates of correctional facilities are using the Impersonals as an attention-seeking dating service. It's inappropriate and disrespectful to your female readers to hear about "that special girl"—the one they may be seeking while locked up. I personally don't find this amusing, and I feel sorry for the people who've been victims of a crime at one point in their lives and have to read the nonsense these individuals are submitting. Tell the inmates to send their personal ads elsewhere.

—CARLEY COLLINS
Boston

THE TEEN SCENE

I enjoyed your recent article on fashion at Chelsea High School ("The Young and the Trendy," Feb. 22). Teens today are way cooler than we were in high school in the '90s (although I maintain that we were all just victims of the Grunge era and that, at the time, high-waisted jeans and oversized flannels were really hot). It's refreshing and inspiring to see that kids are into being themselves.

—VANESSA PECK
Cambridge

CORRECTION

In the March 8 issue, the photographs in "Boyz 2 Men" were shot by Furnald/Gray Photography.

CONTRIBUTORS

COURTNEY HUMPHRIES

Boston-based writer Courtney Humphries specializes in science and health. Her work has appeared in Technology Review, Orion and the Boston Globe, and she's co-author of the Harvard Medical School Guide to Healthy Eating During Pregnancy and Eat, Play, and Be Healthy: The Harvard Medical School Guide to Healthy Eating for Kids. Her latest article for the IMPROPER, "Why We Buy," begins on page 28.

JULIE HATFIELD

Julie Hatfield has written on fashion for Women's Wear Daily, the Boston Herald and the Boston Globe; received a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts to study music criticism in Aspen, Colo.; and this year won an Award of Excellence in Family Travel writing from the North American Travel Journalists Association. Her article "The Essentials" begins on page 33.

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

arriving March 21, 2006

Boston's most exclusive/inclusive spa and salon

EMERGE BY GIULIANO ■■ 275 Newbury Street

"...the pizza is to die for; you could faint just describing the flavor of the sauce, and the crust puts you over the edge."

— Jack Welch, Winning

Jordan Tobins
— Owner, founder

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza, Nouveau

BOSTON'S BEST 2004
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza

the Upper Crust
Boston · Brookline

Boston - 20 Charles St.
Boston, MA 02114
Phone: 617-723-9600
Fax: 617-723-6685

Brookline - 286 Harvard St.
Brookline, MA 0
Phone: 617-734
Fax: 617-739-5

www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

FREE DELIVERY

20 Charles Street, Beacon Hill
617.723.9600

286 Harvard Street, Coolidge Corner
617.734.4900

611 Duval Street, Key West, Florida
305.293.8890

41 Waltham Street, Lexington
781.274.0089

OPENING END OF MARCH 2006:
222 Newbury Street, Back Bay

OPENING SOON:
73 South Street, Hingham

Catering menu available online:
www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

THE WORD

EDITED BY ERIN GRAHAM

Seafood salad with spicy mayo

A Russian roll with caviar, eel, salmon skin and cucumber

NEW IN TOWN

Avant-Sushi

"Douzo." There's no exact English equivalent for this multipurpose Japanese word that's used to express gratitude and welcome. "It's the most popular phrase in Japan," says Jack Huang, and it's also the name of Huang's new sushi restaurant in the Back Bay.

At Douzo, Huang, who was born in Taiwan, grew up in Lexington and co-founded the acclaimed Fugakyu in Brookline, has put a spin on some traditional Japanese favorites. For example, his wasabi is a lighter color than usual. That's because it's superfresh, ground right there in the kitchen. (Huang originally wanted waiters to prepare it at diners' tables, but changed his mind when it took 10 minutes to grind out just one serving's worth from the big green root.)

Huang's also rolling out the welcome mat for the sushi-shy. "One customer wasn't ready for raw and wanted sushi seared, so we made it torch-style for him," he says of his cooked-on-top-but-raw-underneath creation. When the unorthodox version turned out better than expected, Huang added it to the menu ($7 for torched sushi or $10 for torched sashimi). "It's entry-level. Some people aren't ready for raw," he laughs.

Traditional Japanese fare is also present and accounted for: soups, sushi, sashimi, tons of choose-your-own tempura, maki and hand rolls, plus more substantial fare, like teriyaki, and noodle dishes. There's a real transglobal feel to Douzo; lots of ingredients and fish are flown in from Japan. Also, taking South Beach to the Far East, Huang's cucumber hand rolls are all rice-free for the carbophobic ($7-$8.50).

Like any savvy Back Bay joint seeking to make the scene, Douzo offers stylish cocktails, from Saketinis to Tokyo Cosmos, plus a selection of sake and wine, including flights of both. And while there are some Japanese-inspired desserts (like green tea–tempura ice cream—a recipe passed down from Huang's grandmother), most are distinctly American, with dense chocolate cake, cheesecake and strawberry cake among the options.

Huang avoided the too-common chock-a-block table arrangement by breaking up the 4,000-square-foot space into five sections that in total seat 120: a cocktail bar, dining areas in the middle and back, an eight-seat sushi bar and a 300-square-foot takeout area tucked away in the back. Huge 18-foot ceilings (from which a small flock of giant lanterns hang) add to the minimally decorated room's airy appeal. It's a serene, zen-like atmosphere, despite the harried line of cooks chopping and plating behind the sushi bar. Huang feels the heat, too. When asked to name the best part about opening Douzo, he chuckles, "Losing weight. The long hours and hassles—I average 40 pounds per restaurant. This time I've only lost 10 pounds. So far." 131 Dartmouth St., Boston (617-859-8886). —EG

INNER VIEW

Ed Driscoll

Comedian Ed Driscoll's won Emmy, Cable Ace a Writer's Guild of America awards for his writing HBO's Dennis Miller Live, which aired from 1994-200 He's written for the Academy Awards four times, t Drew Carey Show, and the likes of Morgan Freema Matthew Perry and Jamie Foxx. Now he's publish his first book, Spilled Gravy: Advice on Love and Life Fr a Man Uniquely Unqualified to Give It. He'll sign cop after his stand-up show at the Comedy Connection March 28.

Improper Bostonian: Can you give us some unqualif advice?

Ed Driscoll: Yes, that's the only kind I've got. Just thankful for what you have. Most people learn that grade school, but I wasn't that lucky.

IB: How would you sum up Spilled Gravy?

ED: The title's a reference to the phrase "Everythin gravy." It's about gratitude, and a funny look on ho grew through relationships, recovered from alcohol a diction and made a career in Hollywood.

IB: Does it piss you off when stars like Morgan Freem get credit and laughs for jokes you write?

ED: Well, I still perform stand-up, so I get plenty credit on the side. When someone like Morgan use joke, you're just thankful for it, because he's a great g

IB: Don't you think Dennis Miller could have used your h on Monday Night Football*?*

ED: You know what? I think Dennis and I might've be the only two people who enjoyed him on ABC. I thou he was great. It was an interesting experiment, and I do think anyone can blame Dennis for what happened anything, the fault was ABC's.

IB: You have experience with t Oscars, so tell us: Did Jon Stew make more or fewer Brokeba jokes than you expected?

ED: You knew the jok had to happen. I person thought the montage the old cowboy mov was funny. I didn't wr on this year's show, b it would've been fun get a shot at mak some Brokeback jok

—Rich Levine

Outlet shopping evolved.
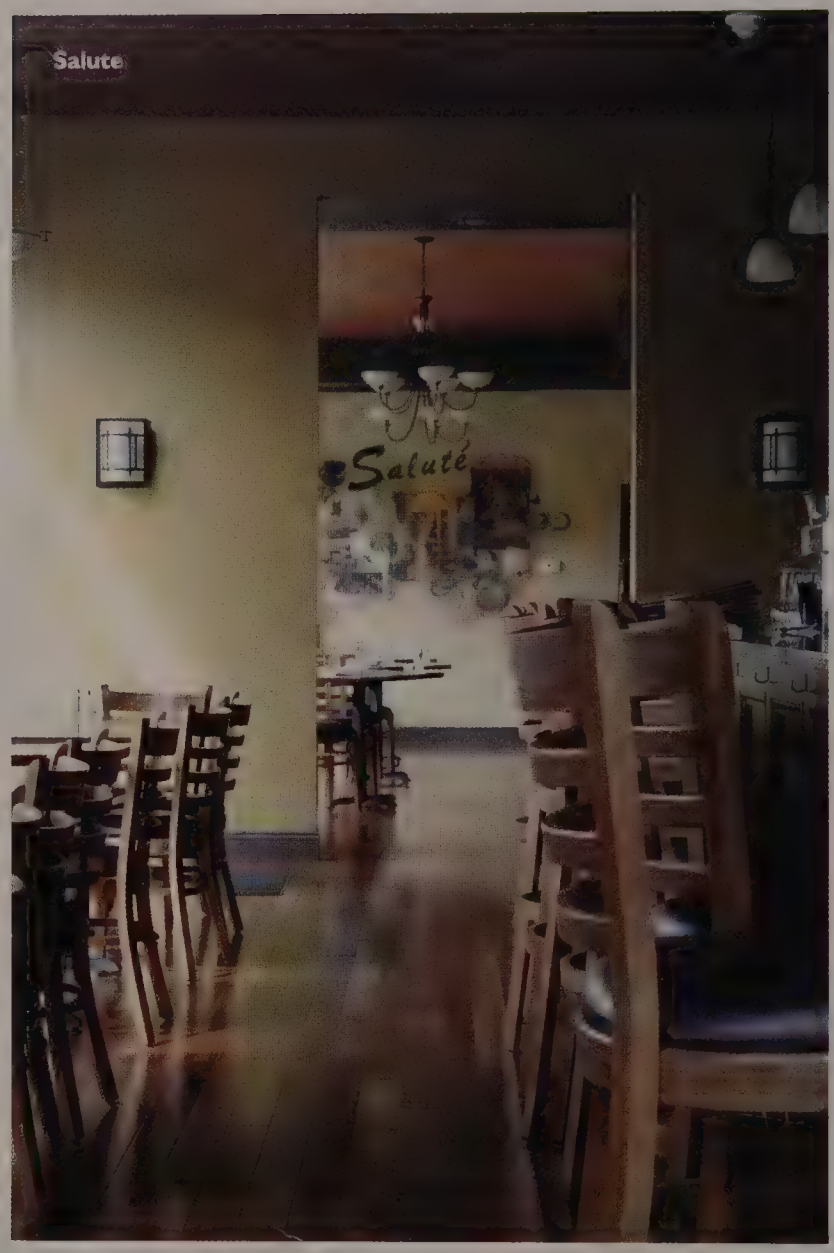
170 STORES FEATURING Adidas, Banana Republic Factory Store, Barneys New York Outlet, BCBG Max Azria, Brooks Brothers Factory Store, Cole Haan, DKNY Jeans, Eddie Bauer, Ellen Tracy, Gap Outlet, Hugo Boss, J.Crew, Kenneth Cole, Liz Claiborne, Mikasa, Nike Factory Store, Off 5th Saks Fifth Avenue Outlet, Polo Ralph Lauren Factory Store, Puma, Reebok, Salvatore Ferragamo, Sony, Tommy Hilfiger, TSE, Waterford Wedgwood, Williams-Sonoma Outlet and more AT SAVINGS OF 25% TO 65% EVERY DAY... SHOP BETTER.
WRENTHAM VILLAGE PREMIUM OUTLETS®
Daily transportation available from Boston via Boston Common Coach (877) 723-3833.
WRENTHAM, MA • I-95 TO I-495N, EXIT 15 • (508) 384-0600 • VISIT PREMIUMOUTLETS.COM FOR HOURS • CHELSEA PROPERTY GROUP
A SIMON Company

TASTY TIDBITS

Rustic Relocation

Ready for More Rustic?... Restaurateur Jim Cafarelli has announced that he's expecting the birth of a rather large addition to his Rustic Kitchen family. With locations in Cambridge and Hingham, Cafarelli will compensate for the recent closing of the Kitchen's Faneuil Hall outpost with a gigantic two-level, 250-seat restaurant next to the Radisson Hotel in the Back Bay. Scheduled to open in September, the Rustic Kitchen Bistro & Lounge on Stuart Street will feature a main dining room and a bar/lounge/café area, as well as a wood-burning stove, oyster bar, wine cellar and TV studio that'll be used to film cooking shows. Stay tuned. www.rustickitchen.biz.

Zo Long, Zathmary's... Spend an hour or so window shopping in Coolidge Corner in Brookline, and you'll build up a pretty big appetite. That's when it's nice to know that Zathmary's Specialty Foods Marketplace on Harvard Street, equipped with all the prepared foods, salads, cold cuts and pastries you'd ever need, is right there to save the day. Not anymore. In late February, Zathmary's closed without warning, leaving many Brookliners confused, and quite hungry. The owners aren't talking and couldn't be reached for comment, so only one thing's clear: Zathmary's is zagoner.



Lovin' Lizzy's... Ice cream fans who've spent any ti in Waltham have surely licked a Lizzy's cone or tw Now Cantabrigians can join in the creamy joy; by la March, owner Nick Pappas plans to open anoth Lizzy's location on Church Street in Harvard Squa between Starbucks and Cambridge One. With o about four seats for in-store eating, the new digs will geared toward takeout, but that won't stop us fr testing their 40-something flavors of ice crea smoothies and soy-based creations—and subsequen complaining of an ice cream headache. Pappas a plans to offer a takeout Sundae Party in a box: a slew toppings, sauces and ice creams to go. 29 Church S Cambridge. www.lizzysicecream.com.

Salute the Chef... Italian food, we salute you. And apparently, does restaurateur Beth McNichols, who cently opened Salute, an Italian-American eatery Washington Street in Roslindale. McNichols' latest ve ture (she also owns Cibo in Boston's North End, as wel Spring Street in West Roxbury) offers everything from traditional Italian and fresh seafood to a hearty red-meat selection and a scaled-down, casual bar menu. The small space (including the bar) seats about 60, but once the weather warms up, you can try chef Dominic Oliverio's fare with a side of fresh air outside on the patio. Salute is open seven nights a week from 5-10 pm (open 'til 11 pm on Friday and Saturday, with a bar menu 'til midnight). 4257 Washington St., Roslindale (617-325-1000). —RL

FASH FLASH

DIY Vintage Jeans

With paint-your-own-pottery studios, scrapbooking classes and bead stores popping up in every city, mak your-own seems to be all the rage these days. And now that trend extends to everyone's favor wardrobe item: jeans. Father and son stores Riccardi and Relic on Newbury Street have just receiv their first shipment of Denim Design Lab Kits ($295). Unbuckle the neat little denim package, and ins you'll find pockets stuffed with tools to customize a pair of jeans. There's a power tool called a grin with five attachments for creating different distress effects, an inflatable finishing form (it works like t mannequins the pros use) and several types of sandpaper, among other tools. For inspiration and instr tion, consult the kit's hardcover handbook, subtitled "A tribute to the beauty of vintage denim." It expla the history of denim and includes color photos of vintage jeans, among them a patched-together pair Levi's from 1917. A how-to section gives tips for achieving various effects. The kit's creator, Brian Robbins self-confessed denim head who's worked for both Burton and Oakley, recommends starting with a raw (a dark blue and untreated) pair of inexpensive jeans and "turning them into your denim masterpiece." Riccardi Relic, 116 Newbury St. (617-266-3158). —Veronica Chao

Experience Boston's Best Dry Cut at

MAKSOU

HAIR & MAKE UP ARTISAN • DAY SPA

125 Broad Street Boston, MA • 617.443.8633

340 Royal Poinciana Way, Palm Beach, FL • 561.832.9385

Visit our website for descriptions of all our services www.maksou.com

FIRST TIME CLIENTS RECEIVE 20% off SERVICES WITH THIS AD

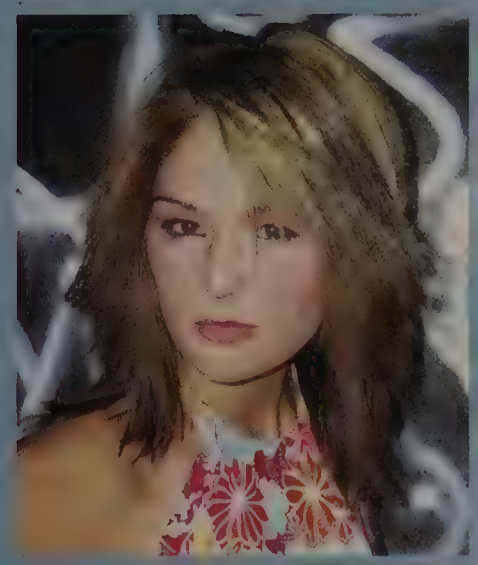
BOSTON'S BEST 2001 — The Improper Bostonian — Women's Haircut, Esthetician

BOSTON'S BEST 2002 — The Improper Bostonian — Salon Colorist

BOSTON'S BEST 2003 — The Improper Bostonian — Women's Haircut, Eyebrow Shaping

BOSTON'S BEST 2004 — The Improper Bostonian — Women's Haircut, Eyebrow Shaping

BOSTON'S BEST 2005 — The Improper Bostonian — Glam Hair Guru



KERASTASE PARIS

BABOR

IMPROPER REPORTS

Language Schools

Whether you're looking to boost your résumé or prepping for a trip abroad, kno another language can really take you places. One of these courses might be just ticket to get you there.

Berlitz
437 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-6858).
www.berlitz.us

Berlitz offers classes in more than 50 languages and a variety of class settings. One-week and three-week total-immersion courses consisting of daily 7½-hour classes go for $3,000 and $7,450, respectively. At the other end of the price spectrum are semi-private classes that meet 10 times, twice a week, for $949.

The Boston Language Institute
648 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-3500).
www.bostonlanguage.com

From Arabic to Zulu, the BLI offers classes in more than 140 languages in both private and group settings. Options include an eight-week course and a four-week accelerated program, both with a total of 24 class hours; or an eight-week intensive course with a total of 96 class hours. Class sizes are four-12 students, and prices range from $395-$799.

The French Library
53 Marlborough St., Boston
(617-912-0400). www.frenchlib.org

The bibliothèque offers 11-week language courses; sessions run 90 minutes and meet twice a week for beginners ($360) and once a week for intermediates ($330). In addition, free tutorials are available each Thursday (5:30-7:30 pm) for dents already enrolled in any library cla

Goethe-Institut Boston
170 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-605
www.goethe.de/boston

In addition to classes in German film cooking, the official German cultural cer of New England offers a 10-week langu course. Prices range from $125-$850.

HablEspaña
59 Temple Place, Boston (617-426-486
www.hablespana.com

HablEspaña is Boston's original Spanish guage school. Students can learn in a vari of settings, including one-on-one priv sessions for $55 per hour (with a minim of 18 hours), 10-week group sessions t meet once a week for 2½ hours and star $369, and total-immersion courses.

Japan Society of Boston
1 Milk St., Boston (617-451-0726).
www.us-japan.org/boston

In these language classes, native Japane speakers teach the basics of the verl and written language and provide c tural background. The society holds 9 minute classes once a week from 5:30 pm or from 7-8:30 pm for 12 weel Courses cost $240.

—Jaclyn Biederman and Cristina Velocci

THE WORD

MPROPER SPEAKING

EN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION

Vingman for Hire... So you've been unting the bar scene but you're having ouble hooking up? Maybe it's time to ll in a professional. No, not that kind of ofessional, but a wingman for hire. Yup, spired by the movie Hitch and the book ie Game, Pivots and Wings is a new mpany that rents out "professional" ingmen and -women to help you con- uer the singles scene. For $75 an hour vith a three-hour minimum), the pivots id wings—aka poseur friends—accom- any you to a bar and spend the evening elping you accomplish one thing: landing date. In addition to providing backup at e bars, the reps get clients style advice om a personal shopper, create dating me-plans and devise relationship rategies. To find out more, visit the Veb site and a staff member will contact ou via phone. www.pivotsandwings.com.

's All Greek to Us... We've all heard at Boston is the Athens of America. So 's fitting that husband-and-wife team ina and Dimitrios Kontou-Psomas de- ded to open their first U.S. shop in oston. Hailing from Athens, the couple ill own a shop there, as well a Greek nport-export business in New York. Vith the help of a Boston-based relative, ey just opened the doors to their Newbury Street boutique, Karyatis Greek Antiquity. The high-end shop is full of imported Greek goods, from a life-sized statue of Karyatis (a copy of one of the marble icons that stood at the base of the Parthenon) to Grecianesque jewelry, artwork and ceramics. 172 Newbury St. (617-262-0080).

Divine Design... The Boston Design Center is about to break from its 20-year, all-encompasssing sale-free philosophy on April 1 and 2, as it hosts its first Treasure Hunt sale. During the markdown, the center will slash prices on its one-of-a-kind items, showroom samples and new furniture shipped in from BDC manufacturers. A $10 ticket gets you access to the showrooms—it's the first time all will be open to the public—and 1,200 product lines of furniture, wall and floor coverings, lighting, home entertainment systems and antiques, to name a few—all at 30-70 percent off. The ticket also includes a $10 coupon redeemable with a purchase of $200 or more. A bonus: Interior designers offer complimentary 20-minute consultations. For tickets and to register for a free consultation in advance, go to www.bostondesign.com.

Scrabble with Strangers... Board game junkies need not be housebound any longer. Liz Roessler, an event manager and a game connoisseur herself, has launched a monthly game night called Downtown Board Games, which rotates to different venues. Her first two events took place in the North End at Churchill's Cigar Lounge and Goody Glover's (formerly the Belvedere). Next up is the Kinsale, with a TBD date in April. All events are free, and you don't have to BYO game (although it's recommended). Game time is 7 pm sharp, with a section of the bar reserved for gamers. If you want to join in, e-mail downtownboardgames@comcast.net.

—Leslie Kilgore

Got an inside dp? Overheard some juicy news? Let us know what's is. Send an e-mail to theword@improper.com.

GRAND OPENING
on Newbury Street
COHEN'S
Fashion Optical
EYE EXAMS • 1 HOUR SERVICE AVAILABLE
VISION PLANS ACCEPTED • LOWEST PRICES
Preview the latest Designer Eyewear including:
Cartier, Oakley, Alain Mikli, Dior, Juicy
Couture, OH-LA-LA & more!
Bring in this ad for a FREE GIFT
179 Newbury Street • 617.236.5500
(at Exeter Street on 1st floor under Neilsen Gallery)
www.cohensfashionoptical.com

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

The Fourth Annual transModa Fashion Show, benefiting Sphe of Exchange, which works to support refugees and immigrants, was held Wednesday, March 8, at the Boston Center for the Arts' Cyclorama. Participating Boston-area designers and retailers includ Stil, Hadley Pollet, Matsu, Tibeta Emporium, Nomad and Kim's Fashion Design.

1. Romi Beppu and Karine Seneca, principal dancers for the Boston Ballet
2. Megan Lytle, real estate contractor fo Coldwell Banker in Wilberham, and An Karna-Rasiah, mathematician for Affinnova in Waltham
3. Alex Volk, scientist for TolerRx in Cambridge, Dava Muramatsu, owne Matsu, Natalie Volk, designer for Had Pollet, and Hadley Pollet, designer
4. Co-chairs Kristina Hare Lyons, huma rights activist, and Lisa Pierpont, producer for Chronicle on WCVB-TV Channel 5
5. J.C. Monahan, meteorologist for WC TV Channel 5, and Karen Carney, vic president of communications for Team Marketing
6. Alex Pierpont, principal of Riva Properties, and Betty Riaz, owner of Stil
7. Nadia Edoh, business analyst for Libert Mutual Properties in Weston, Olga Bulycheva, hairstylist for Aveda, Sonya Metzler, hairstylist for Linear, and Mari Pullen, student at Tufts University
8. Kelley Tuthill, news anchor for WCVB TV Channel 5, her mother, Sandra Tuthill, and sister Whitney Prescutti, interior designer

Habitat for Humanity hosted a donor recognition cocktail party to honor local celebrities and key supporters of the organization, which builds homes for the homeless. The party was held Wednesday, March 1, at the Boston home of Habitat for Humanity President Bruce Percelay. The evening served as the kick-off for the organization's $10 million capital campaign.

9. Heather Vataha, office manager for the Mount Vernon Company, and Ashley Malagon, senior account executive for Schneider Associates
10. Joe Lipchitz, lawyer for Mintz Levin, Neeraj Aggarwal, corporate controller for Abt Associates in Cambridge, and Doug Smith, vice president of commercial real estate lending for Eastern Bank
11. Lt. Governor Kerry Healy and Bruce Percelay
12. Ann Palica, administration director for Habitat for Humanity, and Bob Rivers, president of Eastern Bank

THE SHOPS AT PRUDENTIAL CENTER

make a day of it!

Shop the latest spring styles!

New England's #1 shopping and dining destination

Over 75 shops & restaurants

The region's only Saks Fifth Avenue

800 Boylston Street 1-800-SHOP-PRU www.prudentialcenter.com

SAKS FIFTH AVENUE

ALDO

SEPHORA

LACOSTE

JasmineSola

The Cheesecake Factory

BARNES & NOBLE

The Shops at Prudential Center's

VOLUNTEER EXPO

Thursday, April 20, 2006
6pm - 9pm

Stop by The Shops at Prudential Center's Volunteer Expo in Huntington Arcade to mix, mingle, and meet more than 30 volunteer organizations.

Come network with other civic-minded young professionals and learn more about how you can get involved.

The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation Massachusetts Affiliate

Boys & Girls Clubs Of Boston
Changing our world. One kid at a time.

The Home for Little Wanderers

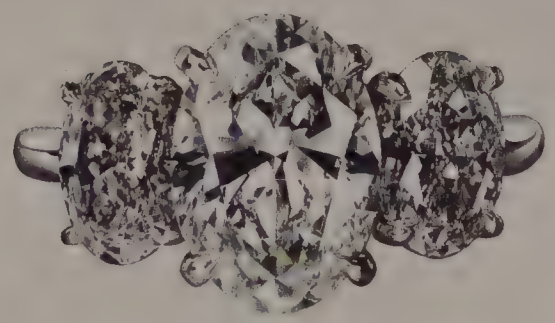
Franciscan Hospital for Children

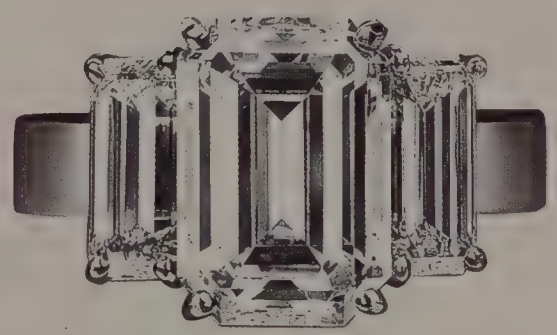
Cradles to Crayons

Sponsored by The Improper Bostonian

For more information go to www.prudentialcenter.com or call 617.236.3100

Good things come in threes.





Joseph Gann Jewelers LLC
SINCE 1933

387 Washington Street
4th floor, Boston
617.426.4932
www.josephgann.com

MYSPACE INVADER

Dipping a toe in the waters of online social interaction

I recently read that MySpace now gets more hits than Google. That headline made me feel profoundly out of touch, because not only am I not on MySpace, I'd never even logged onto it and had only the vaguest idea what it's about. But this whole "bigger than Google" thing made me wonder if I'm the last person to jump on the bandwagon, so I e-mailed 10 friends whom I don't stay in touch with as well as I should, and asked them whether they were on MySpace, Friendster or another social networking site. Three said they were, two said they weren't, and the other five never wrote back. I assume they're too busy IM'ing all their new MySpace friends.

I decided to open a MySpace account to see what all the fuss is about and find out if anyone likes me. It's really pretty simple: You upload a few photos, enter some personal information and pick the domain name friends use to access your site. Once you've set up your MySpace address, it can never be changed, so you want to pick a name that you'll be fine with for years to come—something that connotes a level of maturity and sophistication you might not yet possess, but expect to acquire as the years slide by and the ebb and flow of life relentlessly deposits grains of wisdom on the firmament of your being. If you want to check out my profile, you can see it at www.myspace.com/midgetdong69.

On MySpace, you can craft your persona, leaving out anything that's inconsistent with the image you want to portray. For instance, a high-school friend of my fiancée's looks like a stereotypical punk-rock lesbian on her MySpace profile—black fauxhawk, Goth clothing and makeup, photos of her making out with women. Nowhere on her page does it mention that 10 years ago, in high school, she was a blonde, straight, BMW M3–driving, lacrosse-playing popular girl from a wealthy suburb. Now, imagine you were her girlfriend she met on MySpace, the two of you are driving around in your Subaru Forester and talking about what you'd like to do to Portia de Rossi, and the whole time you have no idea that the object of your Sapphic desire used to be one of The Plastics from Mean Girls. Oh, the dark secrets one can hide with an online persona!

My profile is pretty straightforward, mainly because I got distracted by the blog before I could fill in the personal information. That's right, I now have a blog! Blogs are so much better than stupid magazines, which (trust me on this) are always harping on you to write something "relev or "timely" or "not terrible." On my b can write about anything I want, as in as I want! This is my first entry:

"Hi everyone, thanks for readin blog. This is where I'll tell you about in tant things going on in my life, such as I had for breakfast and what I might for lunch. On that note, I tried square b the other day. My toaster totally bu them. It was like my toaster was sa 'Square bagels? Get out!' LOL. My toas sort of square, so maybe in order to with square bagels, I need a ROU toaster. Does anyone make round toas I'll bet that Target has them, and th probably see-thru like an iMac (Warn Dated reference! iMacs aren't see-thru more! Ha ha ha lol they're flat and w like Kate Moss). OK, I've got to go b my teeth, but check back here later! M brushing my teeth will give me more i of fun stuff to tell you about!"

BLOGS ARE SO MUCH BETTER THAN STUPID MAGAZINES WHICH ARE ALWAYS HARPING ON YOU TO WRITE SOMETHING "RELEVANT" OR "TIMELY" OR "NOT TERRIBLE."

Isn't that awesome? I think so. I'm a fan of MySpace, although it's been ab 24 hours now and my friend-counter reads, "You have 1 friends." That's a named Tom, who I suspect is a Max He room–type fictional character. But I that's one more friend than I had bef Pretty soon, my new pals will be batt for a spot in my Top Eight ranking, wh is like MySpace's ThunderDome of frie Only the strong survive.

A bunch of people I know are head out tonight and asked me to come, b think I'm gonna pass. I searched MySp and none of them are even on it, an don't want to waste my time with peo who don't make an effort. iB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?

Send unbiased e-mails to ezra@improper.com.

Come On Down

A vehicle for every road you travel."

BOCH AUTOMOTIVE

781-769-8100 781-769-8100 781-619-6000 781-762-7200 781-440-0004 781-762-9110

On the Automile" Route 1, Norwood, MA Boch.com

THAT'S RICH

BY RICH LEVINE

March Madness Madness

Forget who's going to win. Here's who won't.

How do you write a sports column in March and not make it about March Madness?

That's the question I had to ask myself after I realized that, because of deadlines, I'd have to write this column—which you're reading sometime between the Sweet 16 and Final Four—before the tournament even starts.

Could I just skip it, maybe write a tired article about the Sox or Pats? No way.

So what am I going to do? Well, instead of telling you who's going to win, I'll tell you who won't, and then I'll tell you why. If they're still alive when you read this, don't worry, there's still time. And if they've already choked? Point, Levine. It's win-win, so here we go:

Boston College: They made a great run in the ACC Tourney, and on Selection Sunday I even heard John Thompson predict that the No. 4–seeded Eagles would win it all, but it's not going to happen. Point guards Louis Hinnant and Tyrese Rice are solid, but much like Heather Graham, they aren't ready for prime time. Besides, BC shoots 67 percent from the foul line as a team, and in the postseason, that makes them a dead team walking. By the way, I might not think BC will win, but that No. 4 seed is an insult. They deserved at least a No. 3.

Duke: Freshman point guard Greg Paulus will eventually be great, but this year he's a liability, and he's playing the third-most minutes on the team. J.J. Redick is a legendary college player, but with the game on the line, teams are going to make Paulus handle the rock, and that's not going to end well for the Dukies. And yes, it felt great to write that.

Gonzaga: Like Redick, Adam Morrison is an absolute phenom (fighting off the urge to make an unoriginal mustache joke… OK, it's gone), but as with Redick, a season's worth of triple teams and overbearing national exposure is taking its toll. He looks tired, and while I wouldn't dare predict he'll lay an egg in the tournament, I'm not sure he's got a five-game run in him. Unless of course there's a secret source of energy that he's had "'stached" for the end of the season. (Sorry.)

Villanova: Nova's four-guard approach is fun to watch, but it's dangerous come tournament time. This season, the Wildcats' top three scorers—Randy Foye, Allan Ray and Mike Nardi—attempted 1,064 shots, and nearly 60 percent of those were three-pointers. If even one of them goes cold, or gets hurt (read: Ray's eye) or finds trouble, there are no big men to bai team out, unless assistant coach Eas Pinckney has some eligibility left.

Texas: No team is ever going win the tional title in both hoops and footba the same year. End of discussion.

Memphis: They've played a path schedule. Conference USA was decim by the Big East last summer, and as a re the Tigers beat only two ranked team season. Senior Rodney Carney should l a memorable tournament and I think sh in the NBA next year, but Coach C going to have to wait yet another seaso his long-awaited return to the Final Fou

Illinois: They have the experience they have the depth, but they also their chance last year… and blew it.

Ohio State: The Buckeyes' run to a N seed came a year earlier than everyone pected, and even though State's Big 10 was impressive, I still think that the 200 campaign—when all-world prep ce

BC SHOOTS 6 PERCENT FROM THE FOUL LINE AS A TEAM, AND THAT MAKES THEM A DEAD TEAM WALKING

starts "classes" in Columbus—will be St time to shine. This time around, their ta just doesn't match up with some of the eli

North Carolina: Let's not get too car away with their late season win at Du After all, Florida State beat the Blue D ils last month as well, and they'll be in NIT. Roy Williams: Coach of the Y Without a doubt. Roy Williams: Back Back National Champ? No way.

So there it is. I didn't miss anyone, di Oh right, UConn. Why don't I think Huskies will cut down the nets in In Let's see, well, um, they've looked a li sluggish lately when leading by 20 poi or more, and that's no good… If one their six future pros gets hurt, that co maybe cause some trouble… well dat I'm out of space. iB

Look for Rich's column in every other issue the IMPROPER, and address sporting opinions feedback to rich@improper.com.

Cuisine & Cocktails

EXCELSIOR

BOSTON'S EST 2005 PROPER BOSTONIAN

Eric Brennan, Executive Chef

The Heritage on the Garden 272 Boylston Street

617.426.7878

www.excelsiorrestaurant.com

BOSTON'S EST 2005 PROPER BOSTONIAN

Steak House

GRILL 23 & Bar

all natural prime beef
weekly chef's menu
five private dining rooms
online butchery

161 Berkeley Street
617.542.2255
www.grill23.com

Grill 23, now more than 20 years old, is king." –Alison Arnett, The Boston Globe

Soroff ON

DANE COOK

BY JONATHAN SOROFF PHOTOGRAPH BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

Perhaps the hottest stand-up comedian working today, Dane Cook was born and raised in Arlington and graduated from Arlington H School. He began his 16-year career as a comic, building an unprecedented following through touring and via his Web site, w danecook.com. Among the accolades Cook has received: being named Rolling Stone's "Hot Comic" and Stuff magazine's "Coo Comic of the Year," as well as winning Comedy Central's Stand-Up Showdown. He appeared at the 2005 MTV Video Music Awards and last December became one of only a handful of comedians to host Saturday Night Live in the show's 31-year history (the episode was the series' highest-rated in two years). He recently signed an unprecedented multifaceted deal with HBO comprising series, specials and other projects, including a comedy documentary called Tourgasm, which will premiere Sunday, May 7 after The Sopranos, and a full-length stand-up film of his two sold-out April 15 shows at the TD Banknorth Garden. As a writer, director and producer, Cook created the comedic short film 8 Guys and the dramatic short Spiral, for which he won the Pixie Award for Best Actor. He's also appeared in Torque, The Touch and Mystery Men and will join Steve Carell in the upcoming film Dan in Real Life. He's currently filming Employee of the Month opposite Jessica Simpson. Cook lives in L.A.

Jonathan Soroff: So are you the funniest man alive?

Dane Cook: Ah, no. I am a funny man who is alive.

JS: Then who is the funniest man alive?

DC: My dad. He has this very sarcastic, very subtle sense of humor. He's the kind of guy who calls a cop "Kemosabe."

JS: If you saw a shrink, would you still be as funny?

DC: Yes. If anything, it pulls more shit out of you, so if you can kind of delve down deep into the bucket of darkness, I think that comedy, in my family anyway, always comes from those places.

JS: In your act, you have a bit about using communion wafers as breakfast cereal....

DC: Yeah, Christ Chex. A miracle in a bowl...

JS: What's your favorite breakfast cereal?

DC: Froot Loops. And I always have to eat the purple one last. I'm not very superstitious, but I have to have one purple one floating in the milk and then I eat that one by itself. If it's another color, the red one, that's bad shit right there.

JS: A lot of comedians are oddly superstitious. Any other weird practices?

DC: Before I perform, I have to listen to '80s glam rock. That's about it. Gets me primed and ready for surgery.

JS: Are you a sadist?

DC: Well, I know that one day, just to screw with my kid's head, I'm going to name my child "Nonstop Flight From Boston to Los Angeles."

JS: I'm going to have twin girls and name them Chlamydia and Gonorrhea.

DC: If I have a child who's a midget, I'm going to name him Fidget. Fidget the Midget.

JS: So exactly how much pot do you smoke?

DC: I've never done a drug in my life.

JS: How can that possibly be true? How did your brain get so f----- up?

DC: [Laughs.] I've never even had a drink, never tried alcohol. If I did, I'd probably be a banana sandwich bouncing all over the place. People see my act and they think I'm some kind of crazy frat kid who does head stands on a keg, but no. Clean living.

JS: Is laughter really the best medicine?

DC: Absolutely. Although I can't imagine having a broken leg and just having the doctor tickle you. But laughter gets you through anything.

JS: I prefer Xanax. But what has laughter gotten you through?

DC: Well, my parents got divorced when I was in junior high, and that was a brutal time. I remember the night my Dad finally had to leave the house. It was this heavy, traumatic scene, and about an hour after he'd left, there was this weird energy. My mother walked up to us and said, "I think I'm gonna start dating," and we just laughed our asses off. She's just as funny as my Dad.

JS: Ever overheard someone in public telling one of your jokes?

DC: Yup. I've had my baseball hat on, or they didn't know who I was. In fact, there was a guy on the set the other day who was acting out my whole bit for one of the other extras, and I went up to him afterward and said, "That's the best I've ever heard my bit done." I used to stare at the comedy CDs at Tower Records in Burlington, and I always dreamed that someday mine would be on that rack. I used to even look for mine before I'd ever made one, flipping through "Cook" to see if someone secretly cassette-taped me and distributed it.

JS: You came up with a really innovative approach to promoting yourself....

DC: True. In 2000, there was a night when I was sitting at home with my brand new computer and I said, "Know what? I'm gonna sit here every damn night, because I don't party or drink. I'm gonna kick ass on stage, give it 100 percent and try to learn the craft of comedy and everything that goes along with it, so I can leave a mark." So I started a company so that I could sit home every night and talk to fans and shake hands via instant messaging....

JS: Oh, c'mon. You were just looking to get laid.

DC: Oh, I was definitely hoping for some vagina there, too. No lie. But I learned something about women online. The most beautiful women in the world have the worst screen names. Like "Frogface9" is hot. Or "jumboshrimpsalad" is a gorgeous model from Milan....

JS: "Roastbeefcurtains"?

DC: Yes. Anything like that. But if the name is, like, "sexymama2000," forget it. The hot ones have bizarre names like "daddysbrokenangel."

JS: Do people expect you to be funny all the time?

DC: Well, luckily, no. I think that through the Web site, and the relationship I've developed with my fans, it's clear that I love comedy, but I don't always have to be "on." I have a pretty cool rapport with my fans. They know it's the business of show and that I turn it on, and the rest of the time I kick back.

JS: There must be some people who are disappointed by that.

DC: I've had shows where I'm rockin' onstage and then you meet a girl after and you're hangin' out, and I've heard at least three or four times, "Are you mad at me?" or "Are you, like, depressed?" And I'm like, "No. We're just talking." They're expecting me to be the guy they just saw onstage.

JS: Leno or Conan?

DC: I'm more into the skits and stuff, so I like Conan. Leno's been great to me, but Conan's skits are funnier. But they l have the Boston roots, so they both extra points for that.

JS: What is it about Boston that produces world's funniest comedians?

DC: You have a city that really embr their own and you can't phone it in. can't pretend. Boston audiences bring best shows out of me.

JS: Is humor an aphrodisiac?

DC: Guaranteed, 100 percent. Som the girls I've pulled over the year wouldn't have a shot in hell if I worke software. The most beautiful womer the world are the loneliest, 'cause right guys are too intimidated to tall them, but if you get a hot supermo laughing, she feels like a giggly little and that's the key.

JS: Speaking of which, tell me a secret abo Jessica Simpson.

DC: She's far more intelligent than any gives her credit for. Very perceptive just adorable.

JS: So she's reading Kierkegaard between takes?

DC: She's listening to it on audio while developing a new perfume that can eat.

JS: Ever wet yourself from laughing?

DC: Not from laughing, but I just wet self on a semiregular basis.

JS: Y'know, there are these things called Depends.

DC: I know. They should call them D nitelys.

JS: Worst fan encounter?

DC: I had a kid one time run at me throttle and jump into my arms. He alm broke my back. There was no way to be lite about it. I was like, "What the f- you doing, dude?"

JS: Last question: How do you think you'll die?

DC: [Chuckles.] Probably someth lame, like bad lettuce. It's weird. Like airplanes, where there's really bad tur lence, I always have that thing come o me like, "It's not my time. Not my tim So hopefully it'll be when I'm 90 ye old, lookin' back at the whole thing, laughing. IB

"I'VE NEVER EVEN HAD A DRINK, NEVER TRIED ALCOHOL. IF I DID, I'D PROBABLY BE A BANANA SANDWICH BOUNCING ALL OVER THE PLACE."

Interior at Mont

SHOP LIKE A pro

BY REGINA COLE
PHOTOGRAPHS BY BOB PERACHIO

From furniture to clothing to electronics, here are some tips and tricks for buying smart.

ike anything you do, shopping is more fun if you're good at it. And becoming good at it requires—you guessed it—shopping. That may not be good news for people who break out in hives whenever they get too close to a mall, but it does make sense that the more time you spend in a store, the better you know its merchandise and price structure, where things are located, when things are going on sale and when the friendliest, most knowledgeable salesperson is on the job.

But not everyone has the time or the patience to attain that level of expertise through practice. For those who don't, a little education goes a long way. And so we present the following crash course in consumption—a primer on when, where and how to buy some products that have become essential to modern life, including furniture, clothes and electronics. This is by no means the final word on the subject; think of it more as Shopping 101. And yes, there will be a test.

How to Buy Home Furnishings

Until about 10 years ago, the home furnishings industry was seasonal and predictable: New furniture was introduced in April and October and appeared at your neighborhood furniture emporium six months later, when orders placed by furniture retailers reached stores. Thus, you could count on clearance sales in March and September, just before the new merchandise was due to arrive in stores. Today, furniture is sold much like clothing: Furniture made in Asia and geared to rapidly changing trends is increasingly sold in cyberspace, while in retail stores something is apt to be marked down at any given moment.

"If you get to know your area retailers and become familiar with their cycles, you'll see that some always have one collection on sale," says Pat Bowling, director of communications for the American Furniture Manufacturers Association in High Point, N.C. "Or they always have one item, like recliners, on sale. Tell a salesperson to call you when what you want is due to be marked down."

Bowling says that despite the growth of "nontraditional" outlets, defined as online and catalog-based retailers, most people still want to sit in an upholstered chair to judge its comfort before they buy it. As with clothing, if you buy furniture online, it's best to stick with brands whose quality you know well. Thomas Moser's customers, for instance, buy pieces sight unseen because they're familiar with the company's designs and reputation for quality and customer service. "Our delivery service is 'white glove,' and adds about 12 percent to the cost," says Scott Wentzell, company spokesman. "We not only ensure that your piece of furniture will be delivered and set up with extreme care, but we also

FURNITURE FACTS

When shopping for upholstered furniture, ask about what you can't see—for instance, what materials are used in the frame. Hardwood frames will make the piece heavier and last longer. Look at the underside for interior corners that are braced with corner blocks. And eight-way, hand-tied coil spring construction is the hallmark of quality upholstery. Buy the best quality you can afford.

guarantee that we'll come back and take it away within 30 of purchase for no additional fee, no questions asked."

* Furniture's size and weight present obvious delivery return issues; L.L. Bean sets its furniture delivery cha at $10 to $75, but these prices are unusually low. M common is Boston Interiors' delivery fee of 5 percent a maximum of $150, within a 60-mile radius. Ask qu tions and read the fine print before you commit.
* Even high-end stores that don't normally have sales periodically sell floor samples at reduced prices. For ample, Montage, at 75 Arlington St., plans to redes its showroom and thus will sell furniture pieces off floor at a discount late this spring.
* In the showroom, feel free to sit, slump and sprawl. T best way to test a piece of furniture is to use it as you wo at home.
* The last vestige of seasonal home furnishings sales is traditional January and February White Sale on sheets towels. This is a good time to stock up on necessities, o invest in a set of high-thread-count sheets normally yond your budget.
* You'll find the best pieces at the best prices if you take time to look around. While this is true of all sh ping ventures, it's especially true for furniture, whe little education pays off in big savings.

THE HUMAN TOUCH

When it comes to buying clothing, there's nothing like a friendly, knowledgeable, impartial consultant. Susan Stapleton, personal shopper at Neiman Marcus at Copley Place, calls her clients when things go on sale. She consults with them to learn their likes, dislikes and lifestyle needs, and alerts them to pieces she thinks are especially suitable. "They become friends," she says. "There's no intimidation; I want people to be very comfortable." Best of all, she'll give you honest feedback. "I won't let someone walk out of here unless he or she looks good. " Her service is available at no extra charge, requires no minimum purchase, and can be used for an occasion or for a lifetime, by men, women and corporations.

If malls aren't your thing, you can cultivate a similar relationship at a boutique. Smaller shops are often owned and run by people with a keen knowledge and love of fashion, who'll be able to pick out what looks best on you.

Finds from Wrentham Village Premium Outlets

How to Buy Clothes

The world can be divided between those who like to shop for clothes and those who hate it. For those who hate it, catalogs and the Web are heaven-sent—unless, of course, you need something for tonight. And time issues aside, there's still the issue of fit: You might avoid unpleasant struggles in fitting rooms, but you'll pay for the convenience of having a pair of trousers sent to you and trying them on in privacy and comfort, if you have to send them back. When buying clothes online, remember the following:

* Shipping prices vary widely. Some retailers charge a flat fee, others charge according to the weight and size of the package, while still others charge a percentage of the purchase price. If express shipping or special handling is required, the cost is higher.
* Generally, if you return an item, you're responsible for the shipping charges.

Mary Rose MacKinnon, spokesperson for L.L. Bean, explains the company's shipping prices: "Our shipping charges are based on the order value. Here's how it looks: For regular shipping, which takes from two to five days, an item that costs up to $25 will be charged a $3.95 shipping fee. It rises incrementally, so that for orders costing from $50.01 to $100, it's $7.95, capping at $11.95 for orders costing over $150.01. Unless the company made an error, return shipping is the customer's responsibility."

At the opposite end of the personality spectrum from Web and catalog shoppers are outlet shoppers—those who not only like to be in stores, but will drive some distance to seek out the experience.

Outlets can provide real bargains. Clustered together in rural areas, brand-name outlet stores offer overstocks, irregulars and last-season items, often at steep discounts. Area outlet centers are located between one and three hours away in Wrentham, Mass.; North Conway and Laconia, N.H.; Kittery and Freeport, Maine; and Manchester, Vt. These are the clothes-shopping venues of choice for those who like to make an outing of it. The out-of-state options might also include going for a drive in the countryside, sampling the local cuisine, maybe even spending the night. But keep these caveats in mind:

* Once you've paid for a tank of gas, tolls, food and accommodations, that bargain Armani suit may end up costing more than it would've at full price.
* Find out what the return policy is and consider the logistics of returning a garment to a store that's two and a half hours away.
* In Massachusetts, an item of clothing costing $175 or less is sales tax–exempt; Maine charges a 5 percent sales tax; and Vermont's sales tax is 6 percent. New Hampshire doesn't have a sales tax.
* As the outlet phenomenon has proliferated, clothing companies have begun to manufacture cheaper, lower-quality items specifically for their outlet stores. Thus, a Gap outlet T-shirt may not necessarily be the Gap T-shirt you find in their retail store at the mall. If in doubt, ask.

How to Buy Consumer Electronics

If you're looking to buy consumer electronics these days, you've got to research products online before you buy. This is the area where cyberspace and retail have dovetailed to maximum advantage for the consumer.

Stephanie Nightlinger, company spokesperson for Circuit City, says, "Before walking into one of our stores, visit our Web site. You can compare products side by side, but best of all, you can read the most honest feedback: unbiased customer reviews."

A number of product-rating Web sites, such as that of Consumer Reports, offer objective analysis of product quality. And a wealth of information can be found through the Open Directory Project (www.dmoz.org), a clearinghouse of links to manufacturers, retailers and independent reviewers. Visit them, and you'll be an educated consumer before you set foot in a store.

When it comes to computers, many stores have sales staff that are trained to provide genuine help. At Circuit City, online and in-store representatives are named "Product Specialists"; Apple Computers calls the helpful techies at their retail stores "Geniuses." If you make an appointment at the Genius Bar of the CambridgeSide Galleria Apple store, a knowledgeable person will answer your questions, whether you're buying anything or not.

* Electronics follow general retail sales cycles, so you can find some good values during the holiday shopping season.
* Technology can advance at lightning speeds. Wait to buy big-ticket items until your research indicates that the model you've chosen will stay current for some time.

Now, to test your newfound shopping expertise, go out and buy something! IB

Local researchers delve into the shopper's mind.

WHY WE BUY

BY COURTNEY HUMPHRIES ILLUSTRATIONS BY ALLI ARNOLD

The big sale is on in Boston: Filene's is closing, and shoppers have descended on Downtown Crossing in recent weeks, poring over clearance merchandise like a pack divvying up a kill. Though most of them hope to walk away with some good deals (and without losing their heads), some will surely get swept up in the frenzy and leave with a shopping bag of things they never intended to buy.

It would be nice to think that as shoppers, we make only sensible purchases, but of course that's not always the case. Economists used to think of shopping in rational terms: that consumers buy what fulfills their needs for the best price. But today, researchers who study consumer behavior realize that shopping is a complex psychological puzzle. Here are just a few of the paradoxical, and sometimes downright irrational, quirks they've discovered about the shopper's mind.

We're bad with numbers

...strictly rational economic view of world, people ...ould put the same value on the same amount of money in any context, but they don't. "People use very different mental accounting to decide what to do with money" in different circumstances, says Frederic Brunel, assistant professor of marketing at Boston University. Brunel points out that someone who'd never haggle to save a hundred dollars on a car might drive to another town to buy a TV at a hundred-dollar discount. Another example is the tax-free day that Massachusetts residents enjoy once a year: People flock to stores to save about 5 percent on tax, when "a 5 percent sale wouldn't get anybody to a store," Brunel says. We see costs and savings differently depending on their context.

Kristina Shampan'er, a graduate student in marketing at MIT, showed in a simple but clever experiment that people put an inordinately high value on free stuff. She first offered study participants a choice of buying a Hershey's Kiss for a penny, a Lindt truffle for 14 cents, or nothing at all. About half the people who bought something chose the more expensive truffle. But when she lowered the value of each chocolate by one penny, almost everyone chose the free Hershey's Kiss over a 13-cent Lindt. "People are willing to forgo an opportunity that they should prefer if they're offered something for free," she says. "It becomes too attractive to ignore."

We spend to save

Everybody loves a bargain. But sometimes shoppers will end up spending more than they normally would to get a better deal. Leonard Lee, a graduate student at MIT, gave customers at a convenience store coupons that offered a dollar discount for spending a certain minimum amount, ranging from two to six dollars. Customers generally spent just above the minimum amount needed to receive the discount. Those who received coupons that required a higher minimum purchase ended up spending more than they normally would. And customers were more likely to spend the extra money if they received the coupons right when entering the store than if they got them later in the shopping process. "If coupons are given to you at a time when you're still deciding what to spend, it could have a major effect on your decisions," he says.

Sometimes the desire for a deal can be so powerful that it becomes the primary purpose of shopping. Fleura Bardhi, assistant professor of marketing at Northeastern University, has looked at what motivates people who love to shop at thrift stores. She's found that thrift shopping can be a way to get all the hedonistic pleasures of shopping without the guilt, to resolve what she calls "the paradox of being moral and spending money." The group of hard-core thrift shoppers that she studied weren't looking for items they needed; instead, the experience was about uncovering "jewels" from among the piles of miscellaneous items at a thrift shop. Saving money became the primary motivation for shopping.

We like having choices—but not too many choices

For a long time, the mantra of consumerism has been: the more choices, the better. Today, people have more brands, products and stores to choose from than ever. And with online shopping, in a few clicks consumers can compare products and prices on dozens of sites around the world. But all this choice comes at a price.

Consumer psychologists now argue that when customers are faced with dozens of options in everything from cell phones to sweaters to shaving cream, decisions become time-consuming and stressful. "We've kind of hit the point in the marketplace that we feel paralyzed and trapped by the amount of choices we have," says S. Adam Brasel, assistant professor of marketing at Boston College. If you're choosing a digital camera, he points out, seeing a few different choices in a store can help you feel confident that you're choosing the best one. But faced with 40 different cameras, customers just feel overwhelmed. "As the alternatives go up, the ability to feel confident that the choice is best goes down," he says.

Lisa Abendroth, assistant professor of marketing at BU, says that our ability to choose can feed into whether we regret the purchases we make. When something goes wrong with a purchase, you're more likely to feel regret if you blame yourself for the mistake, which can be a consequence of having too much control over your choices. During the stock market boom, for example, companies like ETrade flourished because people wanted to exercise their own choice over stock trading—a fine idea when stock values are rising. But when the bubble bursts, "suddenly you can't blame your broker anymore," Abendroth says. "If that stock goes bad, it's your fault." Many people have since decided they're more comfortable leaving financial decisions to the pros.

We don't just see brands and products as having personalities—we have relationships with them.

Experts now say that consumers in today's marketplace should learn to choose when to choose, saving their mental resources for the really important decisions, and knowing when to put control of some decisions in professional hands—for instance, by using a personal shopper to help select clothes.

We see things as people

Who would you rather invite to your party, Orangina or Mountain Dew? It might sound like a bizarre question, but we all know that Orangina would be good for dinner conversation while Mountain Dew might wreck the furniture. We love to make characters out of things, and this helps marketers distinguish their products in our minds—even among citrus-flavored soft drinks.

"On most consumer packaged goods, people can describe the personality of that good very easily," says Brasel. And we don't just see brands and products as having personalities—we have relationships with them. M...keting researchers have spent a long time studying h... people relate to the items they buy, and companies try ... build relationships with their customers. But Brasel's ... search has shown that there's a downside to becom... your customers' best friend: If you let them down, th... may not forgive you.

In one experiment, study participants began usin... digital photo processing service that Brasel and his c... leagues created. By using contrasting fonts, graphics ... promotional copy, they branded the service as being ... ther very sincere, or fun and exciting. Though the s... vices were the same, surveyed customers reported feeli... stronger relationships with the sincere brand. But wh... the company reported that it had accidentally lost t... clients' photos, customers of the sincere brand expres... negative feelings toward the company even after rece... ing an apology. Brasel's explanation: Customers had lo... expectations of the fun and exciting brand, so they did ... hold a grudge.

We spend more under pressure

Everyone's had a "Why did I buy this?" m... ment. Often, bad decisions occur when ... feel pressure to purchase. Abendroth has stu... ied how shoppers are affected by "limited pu... chase opportunities"—those situations ... which you feel you have just one chance ... buy something. "You forget to focus on wh... you really need," she says, and instead foc... on the feeling that "I'm going to regret it i... don't buy it." One study tracked the purchas... of travelers on an African cruise who spe... only a day at each destination. In the sho... term, study participants felt more regret abo... the things they wanted but didn't buy. B... three months after the trip, they reported fe... ing more regret over the souvenirs th... bought but didn't really need. Abendroph sa... that it's wise before you buy to step out of th... moment and try to place the purchase in th... context of your everyday life.

Shoppers also feel more pressure to spe... when they become emotionally invested in ... item, something that researchers call escalati... of commitment. Once you make a decision th... you want something, it changes the dynamics ... a purchase. Car dealers and electronics manufacturers a... masters at exploiting this fact by adding on extra optio... or warranties at high profit margins, which customers a... willing to pay for once they've made a commitment ... buy an item.

Dan Ariely, a professor of management science ... MIT, has studied how emotional investment causes bi... ders in online auctions like eBay to spend more th... they normally would—sometimes more than the ite... would cost if it were bought on other Web sites. Peop... tend to value an item more if they already own it, a... online auctions, in which the bidding period can stret... for days, may create a feeling of partial ownership. T... competitive nature of the auction also creates a pressu... to "win" by bidding more.

All of these examples suggest that people are hop... lessly bad at making good spending choices. But tha... only from the standpoint of rational economic decisio... making. As the shoppers flocking to Filene's know, sho... ping is not just about getting the stuff we need for a go... price—it's about the thrill of the hunt, the pleasure o... good find. "There's an emotional value," says Brunel. "W... are emotional beings." And perhaps the thrill is som... times worth more than the money spent. IB

umi the new standard in hairdressing.

umi salon | classic and creative hair cutting and color design.
75 newbury street boston | 617 247 0770 | www.umisite.com

BANISH VARICOSE VEINS

The Vein & Aesthetic Center of Boston

FAST

Vein Treatment

- EVLT® laser technique
- Ultrasound-guided sclerotherapy
- Ambulatory phlebectomy (removal of bulging veins)
- Spider vein treatment

Aesthetic Treatment

- Botox®
- Restylane®
- Microdermabrasion
- Laser facial veins

Fast in-office procedure.

Minimally invasive.

Immediate return to your normal routine.

No general anesthesia or hospitalization.

Complimentary consultation with our new skin care specialist

the beauty of medical technology™

Before

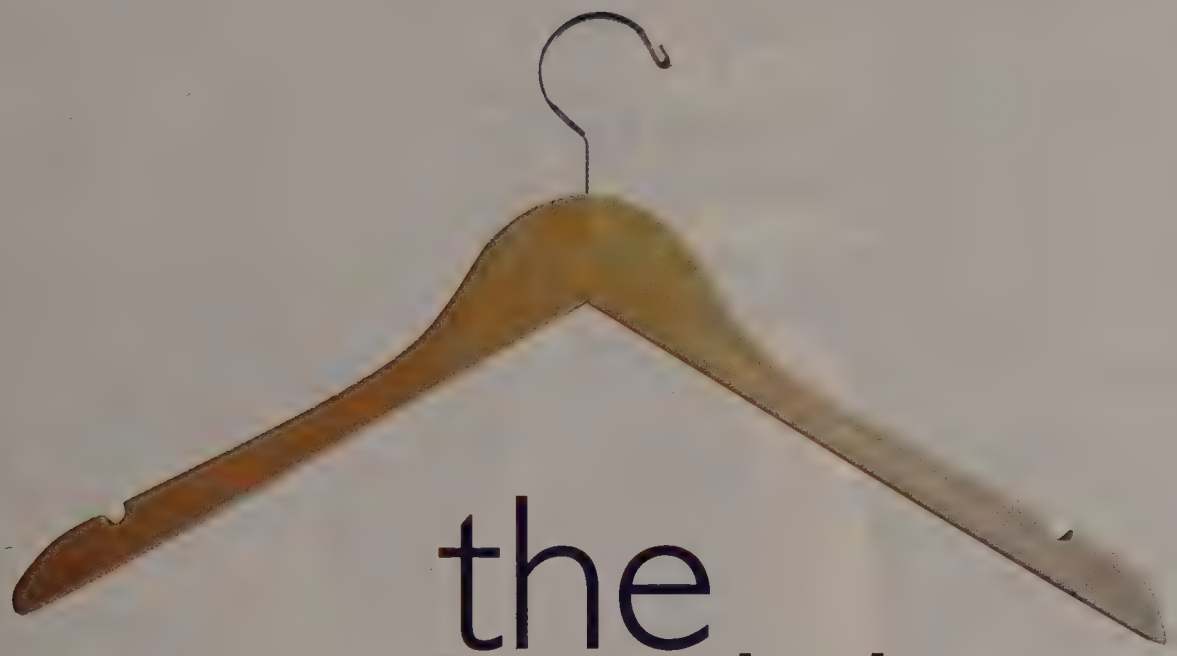
After

Elizabeth A. Foley, M.D.
Judith A. Hondo, M.D.

333 Elm St. Suite 205
Dedham, MA 02026

781-251-0029
877-VEINFIX

www.veinfix.com



the essentials

Have you been jamming your closet with things you don't wear? Why not streamline and make the most of a few good pieces that will last?

BY JULIE HATFIELD

From the music freak who owns 100 concert T-shirts to the fashionista with 85 pairs of shoes, many of us have way more clothing than closet. Then there's the shortage of storage in the tiny living spaces that are common in this town: More often than not, our fashion excesses are jammed into closets so small that nothing can breathe, which is what good clothes are supposed to do.

Do we really need all those garments, anyway? Once, after watching our 400th fashion show at the Paris collections, so overloaded with visions of ruffles and ruches and revesting of the models that we had Fashion-Show Headache, a group of female fashion editors admitted that, truth be told, none of us really needed any of the clothes we'd seen. In fact, we agreed that we could all get by with one white shirt and a good pair of black pants. (Men, presumably, could do the same.)

Many Europeans, who live in climates like ours, still follow the philosophy that one good garment is better than 10 so-so items, and most of them own far fewer clothes than we Bostonians do, yet they manage to look wonderful. The truth is this: If we pare everything down to the basics, none of us needs much.

If you had to do it all over again and build your wardrobe from scratch, here's a list of basics for men and for women—those things you simply must have to function in Boston throughout the year.

WOMEN

1. Cardigans in brown, white and light blue, $68 each at Banana Republic.

2. Black leggings, $26 at American Apparel.

3. Pink wool peacoat by Burberry, $745 at Neiman Marcus.

4. Beige trench coat by Burberry, $895 at Neiman Marcus.

5. Navy lightweight coat, $64.99 at Banana Republic.

6. Black dress by Diane von Furstenberg, $298 at Bloomingdale's.

7. Black blazer, $198 at Banana Republic.

8. Sumari shirt, $165 at Anne Fontaine.

9. Black wool trouser by Balenciaga, $590 at Louis Boston.

10. Linen blend jacket, $1,175, and skirt, $660, both by Prada. Both at Neiman Marcus.

11. Black leather clutch, $44.99 at Lord & Taylor.

12. Red leather handbag by Kenneth Cole, $258 at Lord & Taylor.

13. Bras, $65 each, and thong panties, $17 each, both by Cosa Bella. Both at Neiman Marcus.

14. Silk shantung azure skirt by Prada, $2,030 at Neiman Marcus.

15. Giggle black kitten heel by Chinese Laundry, $59 at Jasmine Sola.

16. Pastello gold sandals by Jessica Simpson, $79 at Jasmine Sola.

17. Crackle red, blue, yellow and green sandals by Jeffrey Campbell, $59 at Jasmine Sola.

18. Clarks flat shoes, $49.99 at Lord & Taylor.

19. Jeans by Rock & Republic, $251 at Bloomingdale's.

20. Premium denim by Paige, $169 at Bloomingdale's.

On Jasmine: Black mini bubble skirt by Binetti, $235; white pleated shirt by Vince, $150; beige shrunken cropped jacket by Stella McCartney, $1,095. All at Intermix. Katchen black pumps by BCBG, $88 at Jasmine Sola.

1. A white shirt. Carolina Herrera, who was a Venezuelan socialite elevated to the permanent International Best Dressed List before she became a successful New York fashion designer, has been touting white shirts for years. She even wears them with some of her elegant evening skirts. Pay special attention to the fabric and fit; it should be feminine and formfitting and not too long, so that it can be worn with skirts, pants, capris, evening skirts and everything in between. (Note: T-shirts and tank tops don't count.)

2. Black wool gabardine trouser. Simple enough for day, sexy enough for evening, cropped if you like. Pam Gechijian, sales manager for women's clothing at Louis Boston, says, "Balenciaga does this type of pant particularly well."

3. A dress. Gechijian says it must be black, cocktail length (below the knee) and somewhat formfitting. Stephanie Solomon, vice president and fashion director of women's ready-to-wear at Bloomingdale's, says it could be jersey, such as the Diane von Furstenberg wrap dress that will take you from spring into fall, while April Riccio, public relations manager at Neiman Marcus, says it can be white, or a folkloric print using one of those neutral colors: "I think that a woman should have a basic outfit that is one color, whether white, black or beige, head to toe. These 'mileage' pieces mix and match and go from season to season."

4. Jeans. Gechijian says you need two pairs: one tailored for high heels, and a second for flats or sneakers. What's key, says Solomon, is a great fit. This means they should not be too loose or too tight, but should follow your contours and flatter your body type. Some even come in a combination of denim and Lycra that offer a little control while allowing your curves to curve. You have literally thousands of fit choices in this category, so consider the time you spend trying them on as "quality time."

5. A little cardigan, well crafted, or sweater coat, wrapped with a belt.

6. A modern suit, meaning perfectly fitting the curve of the body to keep it from appearing dowdy.

7. A skirt that makes you feel beautiful.

8. A short cropped jacket with a voluminous skirt. This is investment/mileage dressing. Wear the jacket with a skirt one day, pants another.

9. A big, bold, fabulous handbag for day, a sleeker clutch for night.

10. A trench coat. Yves Saint Laurent has a nice one with a leopard lining and a belt cinching the waist.

11. Black pumps with any heel height, and another pair of drop-dead sexy, black high heels.

12. A well-fitted blazer.

13. A sensible but stylish flat shoe

14. A pair of Lycra leggings to we under your dress, to make it look like 200

15. One thin coat can be worn three seasons, a heavier one for Bost winters.

16. Fun shoes, either a colorful p of heels to wear with all your bla clothes, an artistically embellished wed in natural fabrics, or sandals in any he height.

17. Foundations. Gechijian sa "With the low rise still prominent, it's sential that every woman start investi in low-riding underwear." That's assumi that your belly isn't low-riding, in whi case you shouldn't wear anything low-ri ing. And don't go cheap in this catego underwear should be well-fitted.

MEN

On Zack: Jeans by AG, $145; gray cashmere sweater by Loro Piana, $550. Both at Neiman Marcus. Men's Park Avenue black cap-toe shoe, $295 at Allen-Edmonds.

1. Dress shirt, $85 at Bloomingdale's.

2. White dress shirt by Prada, $320 at Neiman Marcus.

3. Striped designer dress shirt, $155 at Bloomingdale's.

4. Ties by Dries Van Noten, $135 each at Louis Boston.

5. Tank Française stainless steel watch by Cartier, $5,150 at Shreve, Crump & Low.

6. Aviator sunglasses by Gucci, $200 at Neiman Marcus.

7. Black suit by Neil Barett, $1,275 at Louis Boston.

8. Polo shirts in yellow, red, light blue and navy, $72 each at Lacoste.

9. Cameron penny loafers, $240 at Allen-Edmonds.

1. A suit. Suits aren't just for your father's generation. Even the hippest young guys are wearing them, but opting for a shorter jacket and a closer fit, for a slim look. The jacket is two-button and the pant has a shorter rise and a straight leg. Kevin Harter, vice president and men's fashion director at Bloomingdale's, says, "All men need a beautiful black suit with a plain front." Arthur Jordan of Louis Boston says, "Your first suit should be a fairly basic color: navy, charcoal or grey, perhaps with an antique stripe in it."

Neiman Marcus' Riccio says that for spring, the suit should be in a cool neutral such as white, ecru, sand or khaki. Another option is glen plaid, which is working for pants and jackets as well as in suits these days. The pants of this suit sometimes come with a cuff.

2. White dress shirts (or colored dress shirts with white collar and cuffs, a look that has returned). The shirt should be fitted, and while the old rule was that a half-inch of the shirt cuff should show underneath the jacket edge, today, sleeves can go a little longer. On social occasions, wear that fitted shirt untucked for a modern look.

3. A polo shirt. It can be worn with everything from casual- to formal-wear. Choices include solid colors as well as geometric or floral prints.

4. Neckties should be narrower to go along with the narrow shirt and suit jacket.

5. Jeans. They should be lower on the hip (but not too low) and can be worn with your suit jacket, with a pinstripe shirt (untucked) or with a knit polo shirt, depending on the occasion.

6. A wool outer coat. Slender fitting, perhaps a hybrid model from the '50s, '60s or '70s, but short—above the knee—very tailored, with a high armhole and so close to the body that sometimes you can't even get a suit under it (maybe then you'd wear a thin sweater instead). A navy peacoat is also a good, timeless piece; Bloomingdale's Harter notes that his is five years old, still fashionable, and made by Helmut Lang who, unfortunately, has gone out of business. (Perhaps, as other good designers have, he'll eventually make a comeback.)

7. A lightweight cashmere sweater, perhaps V-neck, in black, grey or navy. The lighter the weight, the finer the gauge, the more months it can be worn throughout the year. You can wear it under a suit or with jeans, and over T-shirts as well as dress shirts.

8. A great watch, such as a Cartier. "Invest," orders Harter. "It'll last forever."

9. Aviator sunglasses, really big. Neiman's has an exclusive on those designed by Gucci's Tom Ford.

10. Basic black cap-toe shoes. These go with both suits and a tux. "Invest in a great pair, such as Ferragamo," suggests Harter. Ann Smith, manager at Allen-Edmonds on Newbury Street and in the financial district, says, "In Boston we tend to sell the basic colors such as black and merlot, but we're carrying a new rich brown color we call chili."

11. Loafers, slip-ons and penny loafers. Traditionally, you're supposed to wear a loafer with a sport coat and tie, but Smith confides that noted architect Graham Gund, a good customer at Allen-Edmonds, wears both chili- and merlot-colored penny loafers with his suits, and who are we to argue with such a man of style? If you're into comfort in your footwear, add a pair of leather shoes with rubber bottoms.

The only thing not listed above are clothes for sports, so you'll have to add the shoes, sweats, bathing suits, ski pants, yoga trousers, flight jackets, surf suits and the like for whatever you do that's athletic.

Now go clean out those closets! IB

Allen-Edmonds, 36 Newbury St. (617-247-3363)

American Apparel, 138 Newbury St. (617-536-4768)

Anne Fontaine, 318 Boylston St. (617-423-0366)

Banana Republic, 28 Newbury St. (617-267-3933)

Bloomingdale's, Chestnut Hill Mall, Newton (617-630-6000)

Intermix, 186 Newbury St. (617-236-5172)

Jasmine Sola, 344 Newbury St. (617-867-4636)

Lacoste, Prudential Center (617-437-1081)

Louis Boston, 234 Berkeley St. (617-262-6100)

Lord & Taylor, 760 Boylston St. (617-262-6000)

Neiman Marcus, Copley Place (617-536-3660)

Shreve, Crump & Low, 440 Boylston St. (617-267-9100)

Three style mavens demonstrate how accessories can completely transform the little black dress.

variations on a theme

BY SAMANTHA HOUSE

PHOTOGRAPHS BY BOB PERACHIO

With black making a comeback, expect to see a lot of women walking down the street looking like Holly Golightly wannabes. To help you stand out from the crowd, we asked local clothing gurus to accessorize the same little black number. They came up with three very different, very inspired looks.

Black dress, $88 at Express.

[LOOK 1: STIL]

White shirt with ruffle, by Tory Burch, $220; taupe vest with metallic stripes, by Heartmade, $385; rhinestone and beaded belt by Heartmade, $280; white silk tie with gold baubles, by Munthe plus Simonsen, $118; jeweled handbag by Hoss, $168; gold heels by Bruuns Bazaar, $328. All at Stil.

[LOOK 2: GIPORE]

Skirt by Flavio Casellani, $210; pants by Germano Zama, $160; corset top by Patriza Pepe, $150; necklaces by Patriza Pepe, $250 each; shoes by Casadei, $320. All at Gipore.

[LOOK 3: INTERMIX]

Gold leaf earrings by Kenneth Jay Lane, $98; gold necklace by Kenneth Jay Lane (worn as belt), $185; white leather bag with fringe, by Goldenbleu, $595; gold sling-backs with wooden heel, by Kors Michael Kors, $265. All at Intermix.

[LOOK 1: STIL]

"It's all about layering and using y existing wardrobe to create a n level of dressing. I love this lo because it reminds me of a cr between Sienna Miller, the way sh casually cool, and the runway lo that I saw in Copenhagen—w glamorous."

—Betty Riaz
owner and buyer

[LOOK 2: GIPORE]

"The dress was a problem because it wasn't fitting the model's body properly. I like the addition of the skirt and the skinny pants. They soften the dress and make it more elegant but wearable. I'd wear this outfit anywhere at night."

—Homeira Carroll
owner and buyer

Express
Copley Place
617-536-9751

Gipore
176 Newbury St.
617-424-1500

Intermix
186 Newbury St.
617-236-5172

Stil
170 Newbury St.
617-859-7845

[LOOK 3: INTERMIX]

"We wanted to make the dress a little more edgy; no one's going to stand out in a plain black dress. I love the fringe bag. It adds a rock-and-roll edge to the dress."

—Leah Wilson, stylist

"Gold and black are classic and look great together in any combination. I used a necklace for a belt, which ended up looking really funky and worked well with the bag."

—Alfredo Paya, stylist

...dress, by Love by Yaya, ... at Intermix. 18k yellow-gold, pink tourmaline and citrine earrings, $1,300; 18k yellow-gold and citrine necklace, $2,200. Both by Alberian and Auld. Harmony pendant on cord by Dana and David, $900; 18k yellow-gold and carnelian ring by Jola, $2,700. All jewelry at Persona Jewelry +.

Set sail in nautical looks for spring.

PRODUCED BY SAMANTHA HOUSE

PHOTOGRAPHED BY
ANTHONY RUGNETTA

Striped boatneck top by Chloè, $360; cotton shorts by Larok, $138. Both at Intermix. 22k tourmaline ring by Argyro Levendis, $1,600; 20k bangles by Coomi, $6,100. Both at Persona Jewelry+.

Beaded eagle tank, $498; navy skirt with gold buttons, $798. Both by Ralph Lauren Collection at Polo Ralph Lauren.

ped pants, $198; striped top, $285. Both by Larok at Intermix. 18k gold, sapphire and garnet necklace, by Estrella Iglesias, $1,700 at Persona Jewelry+.

Hair and M
Vincent D

In 186 Newb
617-23

Persona Jew
Hotel Common
504 Commonwealt
617-26

Polo Ralph L
93 Newbu
617-424

Italian Old World Charm...
the way it should be.

FLORENTINE CAFE
BAR · BISTRO

333 Hanover St., North End
617-227-1777
www.florentinecafeboston.com

The first open-air street cafe in the North End.

Stanza dei Sigari
A Classic Cigar Parlor

292 Hanover St., North End
617.227.0295
www.stanzadeisigari.com
Hookahs available

The only speakeasy cigar parlor with
a full liquor bar in the city.

Caffé Vittoria

290-296 Hanover St., North End
617.227.7606
www.vittoriacaffe.com

The original Italian caffé since 1929
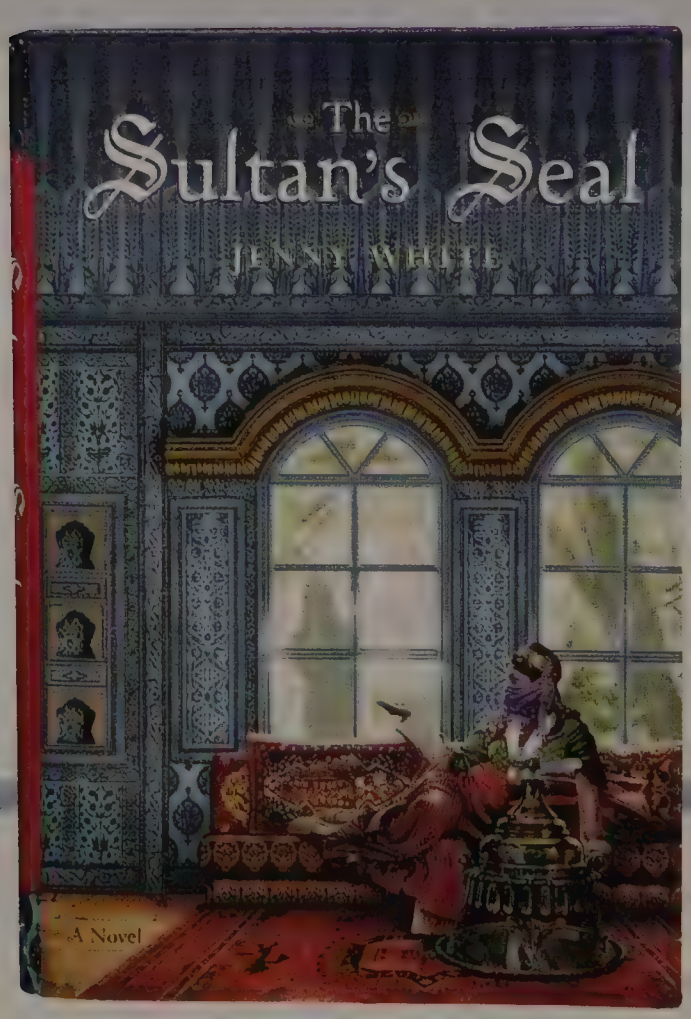
serving capuccino, pastries, gelati
and a full liquor bar.

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY



A TALE OF TWO GOVERNESSES

Jenny White, BU professor of anthropology, is the author of The Sultan's Seal, a novel set in 19th-century Turkey.

Set in late-19th-century Turkey, Jenny White's The Sultan's Seal is a mystery concerning the deaths of two British governesses. The gorgeous, mysterious atmospheres of the Ottoman Empire, with its sultans, ornate palaces, harems, eunuchs, fruits and figs and intrigues, holds tantalizing extremes, from the traditionalists to the restless Young Turks. Kamil Pasha, a secular magistrate and lover of orchids, pursues the mystery sometimes in conjunction with Sybil, daughter of the British ambassador. Sybil takes us into the very foreign and tense world of the harem. Another thread in the story is the voice of Jaanan, the Muslim woman who discovers the dead governesses. She's a pawn in complex marriage arrangements, and her relationships with her semi-peer servant Violet and with the later-murdered governess Mary are subtly erotic. Part of the mystery revolves around a pendant inscribed with the sultan's seal found on the dead women's bodies, leading to another murder. White's prose is full of silky, sometimes ominous lyricism. The book's conclusion is truly scary, the more so for taking place in an ornate palace overlooking a Bosphorus that's full of ominous exoticism, where an Englishwoman—or a sensitive reader—can feel very far from home.

EASING PET-LOSS PAIN

Through the MSPCA (617-524-5664) and also in her private practice, Jane N. Nathanson, LCSW, LRC, CRC, offers various levels of support (617-325-4828).

Grief over the illness or loss of a pet is real. Social worker and rehabilitation consultant Jane Nathanson calls our best relationships with animal friends "that element of perfection in our lives." An American Animal Hospital Association survey found 77 percent of people interviewed saw their animals as full-fledged members of the family. So when illness, injury or loss, even impending loss, occurs, grief is palpable, throbbing—and legitimate. Her MSPCA services include Addressing Your Pet's Health Crisis, Approaching Loss (involving treatment options, including compassion for both parties' emotions, end-of-life–care giving and decision making about euthanasia) and Coping With Loss. In her private practice, Nathanson also offers self-pay psychotherapy on the phone, in-office or occasionally at home, where, at times "people just sob." These attachments and their endings, even when anticipated and dread sometimes become the emotional gunshot that explodes other losses. Nathanson, who has worked the elderly and disabled (humans), appreciates the range of real sadness these losses and illnesses e and she respectfully helps animal lovers move through their grief. She helps them explore the mea of that relationship, looking at barriers to grieving, and at the confusion and frazzlement of surviv pets as well as developing self-care.

BACK WHEN BLACKBERRY MEANT FRUIT

Reliable Trading Post at 115 Park St., W. Roxbury (617-325-9599 or 617-739-1528), is a store harkening back to the l in its practice of bartering and serving as a community gathering place.

Many stores sell antiques. Reliable Trading Post, s an 1894 livery stable an neral home, entirely emb an antique ethos, only co nancing items from the 1 or earlier. That means t own phone is a huge wooden one with a h black receiver—and, shu there's no e-mail here. generously eccentric o Judith dresses in period and apron and preside the bartering or trading lowers or eliminates he ready reasonable prices invites people, including to play checkers, hear st or hang out, 19th-ce style. Pilgrim and Na American things abound—paintings and statues, little teepees whose roofs curl with incense. The s with murals, a barn and a wood cabin out back, is juicily jammed with such things as an old wooden b churner, wood-burning stoves, coal buckets, crank-up Victrolas and iron bed warmers. A gigantic meta son Horn amplifier of yore hangs from the ceiling; she's even got an ornate National Cash Register canoe-shaped items serve as shelves. Melancholy Lincolns gaze forth everywhere; most are not for sa coyote hat cascades magnificently down to the waist. Shoplifters, drolly, will be put in stocks outdoors.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

presents

The 12th Annual Boston's Beloved Bartender Issue

After many a night listening to the details of their patrons' lives, Boston's favorite drink slingers will tell you a little about themselves and share their professionally perfected recipes. Throughout these pages, Boston's hippest restaurants, bars, clubs and beverage companies also get a shot at the limelight. This issue is a Boston tradition and a city fave! You won't want to miss the chance to advertise in this intoxicating issue—in fact make it a double!

The Improper Bostonian is distributed to more than 275 restaurants, bars and clubs.

The Improper Bostonian reaches more than 433,600 readers every two weeks!

Call 617-859-1400, ext. 280, to book advertising space now.

Issue date: April 5 Advertising deadline: March 22

REVIEW

ALL IN THE FAMILY

Sorellina lives up to the reputation of its sister restaurant, Mistral.

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY MATTHEW DEMERS

Niman Ranch pork chop with dried-fruit mostarda and Tuscan bean casserole

SORELLINA

1 Huntington Ave., Boston
617-412-4600

HOURS Sun., 5:30-10 pm; Mon-Thu., 5:30-10:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 5:30-11 pm; bar opens daily at 5 pm

RESERVATIONS yes

CREDIT CARDS all major

HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes

PARKING yes, valet

LIQUOR LICENSE full bar

Eager anticipation among Boston dining aficionados followed the news that Jamie Mammano and his Mistral/Teatro team would take over the space vacated by Salamander at the west end of Copley Square. Salamander, a hip spot created by accomplished restaurateur Stan Frankenthaler, arrived with similar hype and promise five years ago but failed to take off, quietly closing after a few sluggish years. Mammano and company have wholly made over the space, opening it up into one large, impressive dining room separated from a lively 15-seat bar by a white and black slat screen.

The room is stunning, with five massive white columns and large white rectangular and trapezoidal baffles mounted just below a black ceiling, on which are mounted small track spotlights. An oversized photograph of what appears to be a French garden, intentionally out of focus to suggest an impressionist painting, draws the eye, as do long, sleek, white leather banquettes that are arranged not just along its periphery but throughout the dining room, with the result that the room does not appear as cavernous as its 125 seats would suggest. This restaurant may be the "little sister" (its name literally translated from the Italian) of Mistral, but it's far from little or insignificant in terms of visual impact and general ambiance. More important, Sorellina's cuisine, while lacking the polish and refinement of big sister Mistral, provides good, honest Italian fare with vibrant, robust flavors evocative of the Mediterranean.

My first visit to Sorellina took place on a Saturday evening. I was lucky enough to snag a single seat at the bar just before 7 pm, and April, a bartender whose engaging, attentive manner did not detract from her efficiency, provided superb service from the beginning to the end of my meal, despite a whirl of activity around and about her, unflappable even when patrons swelled to three deep in front of the bar. In between mixing cocktails and serving drinks to the throng, she leant informed guidance in navigating Sorellina's menu as she set my place with an attractive placemat, oversized, absorbent white napkin, substantial, elegantly curved Wedgwood tableware, and a basket containing a snub-nosed loaf of superb, hard-crusted ciabatta bread and softened Vermont butter.

The bar ambiance put me in the mood for pasta, and the macheroncelli ($13) hit the spot. Two light, moist, flavorful meatballs, each topped by an ultra thin slice of pleasantly salty cheese, accompanied long, hollow tubes of al dente pasta dressed with a light tomato and red wine sauce. While the menu described the meatballs as "American Kobe beef" (there is a trademark issue here somewhere), they seemed too delicate and complex to be pure beef, and absent the menu description I would have taken them as a mixture of beef, pork and veal. The menu identified the red wine in the sauce as Barolo, northern Italy's most famous wine, and the cheese as pecorino Toscano. The welter of disparate geographic references (Kobe, Barolo, and Toscano) did not detract from the triumph of the dish.

On a subsequent visit, I returned to the menu's abbreviated pasta section for the half-order of cuscini ($12), rectangular pasta "pillows" filled with veal, beef, pork, mascarpone cheese, tomatoes and cream—a classic Bolognese sauce—rendered at once robust and distinctive by the full, rich flavor of the roasted tomatoes. From the appetizers, I chose the whole grilled shrimp ($18), served in a round, cast iron skillet, a classy presentation replicated with other dishes as well. Their preparation was "arrabiatta", literally "angry," an adjective used to describe the provocative, peppery sauce. In fact, they looked angry as well, their shells intact. Fortunately, careful cooking preserved the firm texture of the shrimp, making them easy to extricate from the shells. The sweet, savory flavor of roasted tomatoes modulated the fiery spiciness of the sauce. Equally savory, the fonduta Valle d'Aosta ($14) showcased a specialty of northwestern Italy's Alpine frontier, melted fontina cheese, served in a cast iron casserole, studded with slices of sausage and w cloves of roasted garlic, accompanied by slice toasted ciabatta for scoo up the hearty mélange.

Moving on to courses, the monkfish cata style" ($28) broug real treat. Monkfish, at time disfavored this sic the Atlantic as a "junk f due perhaps to its ugly pearance, has become a ple at area restaurants. S lina's monkfish turned o be not only huge in size almost filled a large, cast iron casserole—but l in flavor as well. Surroun the fish were a medle Mediterranean vegetal including velvety red yellow peppers, onions, plant, crunchy strips of g chilies, capers, olives more of the rich, roa tomatoes that distinguis so many of Sorellina's o ings. So delicious was the semble that it tempted m overlook the monkfish's ture—normally this fish firm and resilient flesh, which is why sometimes called "mock lobster"—wh seemed a trifle soft, perhaps from too l a sojourn in the oven. Texture notw standing, not a morsel of the fish, n shred of the vegetables, nor a drop of sauce survived the gusto with which I voured this delicious dish.

The Niman ranch pork chop ($ came with a small casserole of white can beans and breadcrumbs. The cho least an inch and a half thick, boasted peccable texture; it was rare, tender juicy, but the excessive sweetness of "dried-fruit mostarda" detracted from dish. The toothsome and satisfying b casserole, on the other hand, oversh owed this failing, constituting a kin mini-cassoulet. Finally, the free-ra roasted chicken "hunter style" ($ yielded an entire half chicken, a roasted in a cast iron casserole.

rmarone
herry-chocolate orte

Shrimp
arrabiatta
guanciale

inter style" sauce, a literal translation of Italian term usually applied to this h, "cacciatore," overflowed with toma- s, olives, garlic and mushrooms. Its ro- t flavor compensated for the substan- d texture of the chicken, which even re than the monkfish suffered from ercooking. On the same page with its in courses, Sorellina offered a number of itorni, or sides, from which we chose liflower al forno ($8), almost an entire ad of cauliflower roasted in one of the taurant's signature cast iron casseroles, ised with butter and milk, gratinéed h parmesan cheese and parsley, and sea- ed with herbs to produce a special treat. Sorellina's wine list, while tending to ck Bay prices (high), did have a couple value-priced options. A Montepulciano Abruzzi ($7 a glass) combined fruity, asant flavor with decent structure and od acidity, with a nice clean finish. The st expensive bottle of red wine on the , a 2003 Chenas by Potel Aviron ($32), ned out to be a superb, food-friendly oice. Its significant but slightly softened nins proved that Beaujolais need not be e simple quaff that most people associate th the newly bottled Nouveau of late ovember. It demonstrated the heights to ich the lowly gamay grape can ascend, rticularly in wines from Chenas and ner of Beaujolais' name communes, which can produce wines of sophistication and merit.

Sorellina's desserts included a chocolate torta ($10) that combined moist cake and a chocolate-Marsala zabaglione. The distinctive tart-sweet cherries provided a pleasant counterpoint to the creamy rich chocolate and custard. Limoncello-citrus tiramisu ($10) substituted limoncello liqueur for the espresso coffee in which lady fingers are usually soaked in creating tiramisu. The result, a light and lively dessert, studded with whole kumquats, proved a perfect, palate-pleasing punctuation mark to conclude the meal. Unfortunately, the ultrasmall portion disappeared in a nanosecond.

Service throughout my two visits to Sorellina was uniformly excellent: attentive, efficient, informed and friendly. Aside from the texture lapses in the monkfish and more seriously in the chicken, this exciting new venue delivered unalloyed dining pleasure. Sorellina will clearly assume a prominent place among its siblings as a dining destination in the city. In fact, when the good weather finally comes, I can see Mammano enthusiasts trekking in a moveable feast from drinks and antipasti at Teatro through foie gras and bourride at Mistral to a bowl of memorable pasta followed by a tiny taste of limoncello tiramisu at Sorellina. IB

DISCOVER THE BEST
KEPT SECRET IN
AFFORDABLE HOME FURNISHINGS!

URBAN RENEWAL

CHIC WHOLESALE FURNITURE
BY APPOINTMENT

THE NO-FRILLS ALTERNATIVE
TO PRICEY FURNITURE STORES. IN OUR WAREHOUSE SHOWROOM YOU'LL FIND POPULAR STYLES FOR EVERY ROOM
IN YOUR HOME. WE OFFER THE SAME
STYLES AS POTTERY BARN AND CRATE & BARREL, WITH MORE FABRICS
& FINISHES TO CHOOSE FROM.....FOR A FRACTION OF THE RETAIL COST!

SHOP SMART, SAVE MONEY, AND CREATE
THE HOME OF YOUR DREAMS!

CALL FOR AN APPOINTMENT TODAY!

URBAN RENEWAL
CHIC WHOLESALE FURNITURE BY APPT.

368 CONGRESS STREET
3RD FLOOR
BOSTON, MA 02210
617.695.2555

10 MERCER RD
NATICK, MA 01760
508.655.5503

SO GO AHEAD.....INDULGE.
YOUR SECRET IS SAFE WITH US!
WWW.URBANRENEWALFURNITURE.COM

93 YEARS
FAMILY OWNED & OPERATED

SERVING BOSTON'S FINEST RESTAURANTS

LARGEST SHOWROOM IN THE NORTHEAST

COME BROWSE OUR HUGE SELECTION

- Smallwares
- Tabletop
- Furniture
- Custom Fabrication
- Kitchen Fabrication
- Multi-unit Pricing

BOSTON SHOWCASE COMPANY

Specialists in food service equipment since 1913

66 Winchester St., Newton, MA
www.bostonshowcase.com
1-800-422-5290 • 1-617-965-1100

Come in for a free design consultation
Lease and finance options available

TASTINGS

BY RICH LEVINE

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Tastings, or e-mail information to tastings@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Events

Boston Uncorked
Vox Populi, 755 Boylston St., Boston (617-742-0242). www.bostonuncorked.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. March 29, 7-9 pm. $30. Boston Uncorked celebrates its first year of hosting wine events with a grand tasting featuring globally-sourced red and white wines and hors d'oeuvres.

Boston Wine Festival
Boston Harbor Hotel, 70 Rowes Wharf, Boston (617-330-9355). www.bostonwinefestival.net. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Through April, the Boston Wine Festival features more than 50 events. •March 22: Elyse Winery, 7 pm, $145. •March 23: Foraging with Wine, 6:30 pm, $195. •March 27: Hamilton Russell Vineyards, 7 pm, $145. •March 28: Chappellet, 7 pm, $165. •March 29: Puiatti, 7 pm, $165. •March 30: Château Clarke, 6:30 pm, $210. •April 4: Vlader Winery, 7 pm, $165.

Cambridge Common Beer Dinner
Cambridge Common, 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-1228). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. March 28. 6:30 pm. $35. Cambridge Common hosts a four-course dinner, including dishes like clam chowder, lobster salad and baked cod, paired with beers from Sam Adams, Cape Ann and Offshore Ale Company.

Chocolate and Champagne Gala
Fairmont Copley Plaza, 138 St. James St., Boston (617-723-3870). www.bafound.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. March 26. 4-7 pm. $75. This fundraising event for the Brain Aneurysm Foundation features a dessert buffet, champagne apertif, music by violinist James Graseck and a raffle that offers the chance to win a weekend for two in San Francisco.

Chocolate, Cheese and Beer Dinner
UpStairs on the Square, 91 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-864-7933). www.upstairsonthesquare.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. March 23. 6:30 pm. $80. Candice and Todd Alström, owners of Beeradvocate.com, host a four-course pairing of cheese, chocolate and beer.

Epicurean Evenings
Aujourd'hui at Four Seasons, 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2037). www.fourseasons.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue., 6 pm. $45. Sommelier Ted Davidson and chef Jerome Legras host this weekly event that offers guests three light courses built around a theme, region or grape variety. •March 28: Blind Tasting.

Fireside Chats
The Fireplace, 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). www.fireplacerest.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Washington. Sat., 3 pm. $25. Chef/owner Jim Solomon hosts gastronomic experts who discuss subjects that range from wines to foods to microbrews. •March 25: Rum. •April 1: Refreshing Spring Beer.

Hot off the Vine at 33
33 Restaurant, 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311). www.33restaurant.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 5-7 pm. $20-$25. Join chef Anthony Dawodu and wine director Jacob Knight Wednesdays for a sampling of four wines paired with complementary foo ings. •March 22: Blends in the New V •March 29: Wine and Cheese Tasting fea the Vineyards of California.

The Juice About "The Juice"
UpStairs on the Square, 91 Winthro Cambridge (617-864-7933). www.upstair square.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 4. 6:30 pm. $42. Chef Steven Brand prep multicourse dinner paired with wines fron ous juice-plying wineries.

LifeSavor Event
The Langham Hotel, 250 Franklin St, Boston 445-7777). www.servings.org. MBTA: Gr Red Line to Park. March 30. 5:30 pm-12 am. ets start at $250. Enjoy a cocktail receptio silent auction at the Langham Hotel before chauffeured to one of 80 local restaurants, ir ing Clio, Rialto and No. 9 Park for a multic dinner. Proceeds benefit Community Servir

Smith & Wollensky Wine Week
Smith & Wollensky, 101 Arlington St., E (617-423-1112). www.nationalwineweek MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Through M 24. $10. In honor of the 38th annual Nat Wine Week, Smith & Wollensky offers a pling of 10 different wines every day for with the cost of lunch.

Spring Fling Cooking Demonstra
Cambridge School of Culinary Arts, 2020 Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2020). www.cam culinary.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. M 24. $30. Chef Bobby Falite leads a demo tion of recipes that include trendy spring i dients and seasonings. The event is follow lunch with the chef.

Taste of the Back Bay
Prudential Skywalk, Prudential Center, B (617-247-3961). MBTA: Green Line to H ICA. March 30. 6:30 pm. $75-$95. This annual event offers sample portions of s ture dishes from an array of Back Bay re rants, including Grill 23, Sorellina and Sp

Tuesday Night Wine Tasting
Les Zygomates, 129 South St., Boston (617-5108). www.winebar.com. MBTA: Red Li South Station. 6 and 8 pm. $30. Somm Geoffrey Fallon discusses various wines, chef Ian Just pairs the wines with d'oeuvres and offers brief cooking demon tions. •March 28: Right Bank Bordeaux. • 4: New Zealand Pinot Noir.

Wine and Dine Mondays
Beacon Hill Bistro, 25 Charles St., Boston (723-1133). www.beaconhillhotel.com. ME Red Line to Charles/MGH. Second and f Mon. of each month. $55. Chef Ben Knack pares a four-course meal paired with wines around the world. A brief discussion of wine follows, led by local experts Cecilia and Marilyn Snee. •March 27: Wine Washington State.

Wine Mondays at L'Espalier
L'Espalier, 30 Gloucester St., Boston (617-3023). www.lespalier.com. MBTA: Green to Hynes. 7 pm. $50. Sommelier Erik Joh presents wines to complement a four-c French–New England meal by chef Frank Clelland. •March 27: South Africa. •Ap Alsace.

Wine Wednesdays at Sel de la Ter
Sel de la Terre, 255 State St., Boston (617-1300). www.seldelaterre.com. MBTA: O Line to State. Wed., 7 pm. $41. Chef G Gardner pairs French cuisine with wine lected by sommelier Erik Johnson. •March Italy. •March 29: I Want To Be a Rhône.

ISH

.et's Tryst Again

aul Turano gets a Tryst assist from lark Usewicz.

CAROLYN FAYE FOX

After over a year of wearing two hats as chef/owner of restaurants in Arlington and Canton, Paul ano realized it was time to sharpen his us and share some responsibility. So he ned Olio into a barbecue joint in Can- and decided it would take two (chefs) Tryst in Arlington. Looking for more n a sous chef, Turano sought an accom- hed peer to collaborate in the kitchen. few months back, he hired Mark ewicz, most recently of the Rustic chen in Cambridge, and before that cutive chef at the Independent in nerville's Union Square, where he es- lished a reputation for flavorful dishes h his affinity for seafood and pasta.

Notwithstanding the cliché about too ny chefs, Turano says he and Usewicz a balance of yin and yang in the chen. "I'm more of a meat-and-pota- s guy, and he's a pasta and seafood ," says Turano. "He's much truer to re- nal stuff, devoted to authenticity. And s traveled a lot, has a good palate and y solid technique."

How do two chefs, each accustomed to ning his own show, overhaul an entire nu? Are pots and pans—not to men- n sharp cutlery—tossed around the chen? Well, no. Only ideas are tossed und, says Turano. "We bounce off h other, we banter back and forth," he s. One example of their joint effort: llops with caramelized cauliflower and od orange dust. Blood orange dust? e dry the blood oranges, the pulverize m. It's like a salt," says Turano. Whose a was that?

"Oh, that's Mark's. He's much more o the dust," says Turano with a laugh. so on the new menu: gnocchi with wild ar ragout; artichoke and porcini soup th foie gras ravioli; and an apple relish.

News from the Om front: If you've en hesitating to dine at Om in Har- rd Square, intrigued by the high praise stowed on chef Rachel Klein's cuisine t put off by the menu's high prices, hes- te no longer: Klein's new lounge menu fers a taste of the same imaginative, re- ed flavors at a somewhat lower price int. From the "small plates" section of e menu, the most expensive item is foie as with pecan pie, muscat grapes, nyuls gastrique and micro–mustard eens for $19. If you're more budget- inded, sample the signature Tibetan momos (dumplings), filled with vegeta- bles, pork or beef. Choose from dipping sauces that include tamarind, melted–red pepper, ginger-citrus, and mint–green chili. Great for sharing, the dumplings can be ordered by the half-dozen ($8) or dozen ($14). There are also skewers of lamb, chicken and shrimp that range in price from $8-$18 per order. Whatever you order, rest assured it will be delightfully complemented by the sake martini made with fresh lychee juice.

Chef Mark Usewicz has been brought in to help man the kitchen at Tryst.

Aquitaine in the South End is now open for lunch, Monday through Friday, from 10:30 am–3 pm. Ten-thirty may sound early for steak frites with truffle vinaigrette, but it's the perfect time for le sandwiche brioche Nutella avec cafe au lait, n'est-ce pas? Nothing else says "weekday sleepover" with such savoir faire. More traditional midday selections range from croque monsieur to salade niçoise to omelette Basquaise with ham, Gruyère and parsley.... In Cambridge, Chez Henri has hired Kristie Leveroni, formerly maître d' at Harvest, as dining room manager, and the West Side Grill is now serving a Saturday brunch. IB

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send it to dish@improper.com

SERVING ALL YOUR ADVERTISING NEEDS, ALL THE TIME.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN REACHES MORE THAN 433,600 PEOPLE WHO LIVE, WORK AND PLAY IN THE CITY.

PUT YOUR MONEY WHERE YOUR MARKET IS!

Julie Kane, New Business Director
julie_kane@improper.com • 617-859-1400 x238

Dana D'Alfonso, Senior Account Manager
dana@improper.com • 617-859-1400 x240

Alison Morant, Senior Account Manager
alison_morant@improper.com • 617-859-1400 x234

Carrie Wallace, Senior Account Manager
carrie_wallace@improper.com • 617-859-1400 x236

Bill Eppich, Account Executive bill_eppich@improper.com • 617-859-1400 x276

Georganna Yessaian, Account Executive georganna@improper.com • 617-859-1400 x232

Jessica Federico, Classified Account Executive jessica@improper.com • 617-859-1400 x269

Gretchen Bostrom, Classified Account Executive gretchen@improper.com • 617-859-1400 x244

upcomin issues

April 5, 2006
Beloved Bartenders

April 19, 2006
Luxury

May 3, 2006
Homes

May 17, 2006
Wedding Planner

Call us today at 617-859-140

or send an email to:

advertising@improper.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIA
MAGAZ

agenda

MPROPER PICKS

narch 22 - april 4

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			22	23	24	25
				As part of their tribute to Meryl Streep, the Coolidge Corner Theatre shows The French Lieutenant's Woman. See Movies on page 58.		It's closing night for the American Repertory Theatre's production of Romeo and Juliet at the Loeb Drama Center. See Performing Arts on page 54.
26	27	28	29	30	31	1
The Brain Aneurysm Foundation hosts a Champagne and Chocolate Fundraiser at the Fairmont Copley. See CityScope on page 53.		Actor Anthony Rapp, of Rent fame, reads from his memoirs at the Wang Theatre. See Books & Poetry on page 74.		Take in the Taste of the Back Bay at the Prudential Skywalk. See Tastings on page 48.		Paris Hilton performs Mozart's Fourth on a Fisher-Price keyboard at the TD Banknorth Garden. See April Fool's Day.
2	3	4
Greg Behrendt, author of He's Just Not That Into You, performs stand-up at the Comedy Connection. See Comedy on page 55.		Rap phenoms Blackalicious take the stage for a show at the Paradise Rock Club. See Music on page 63.

SAT./APRIL 1

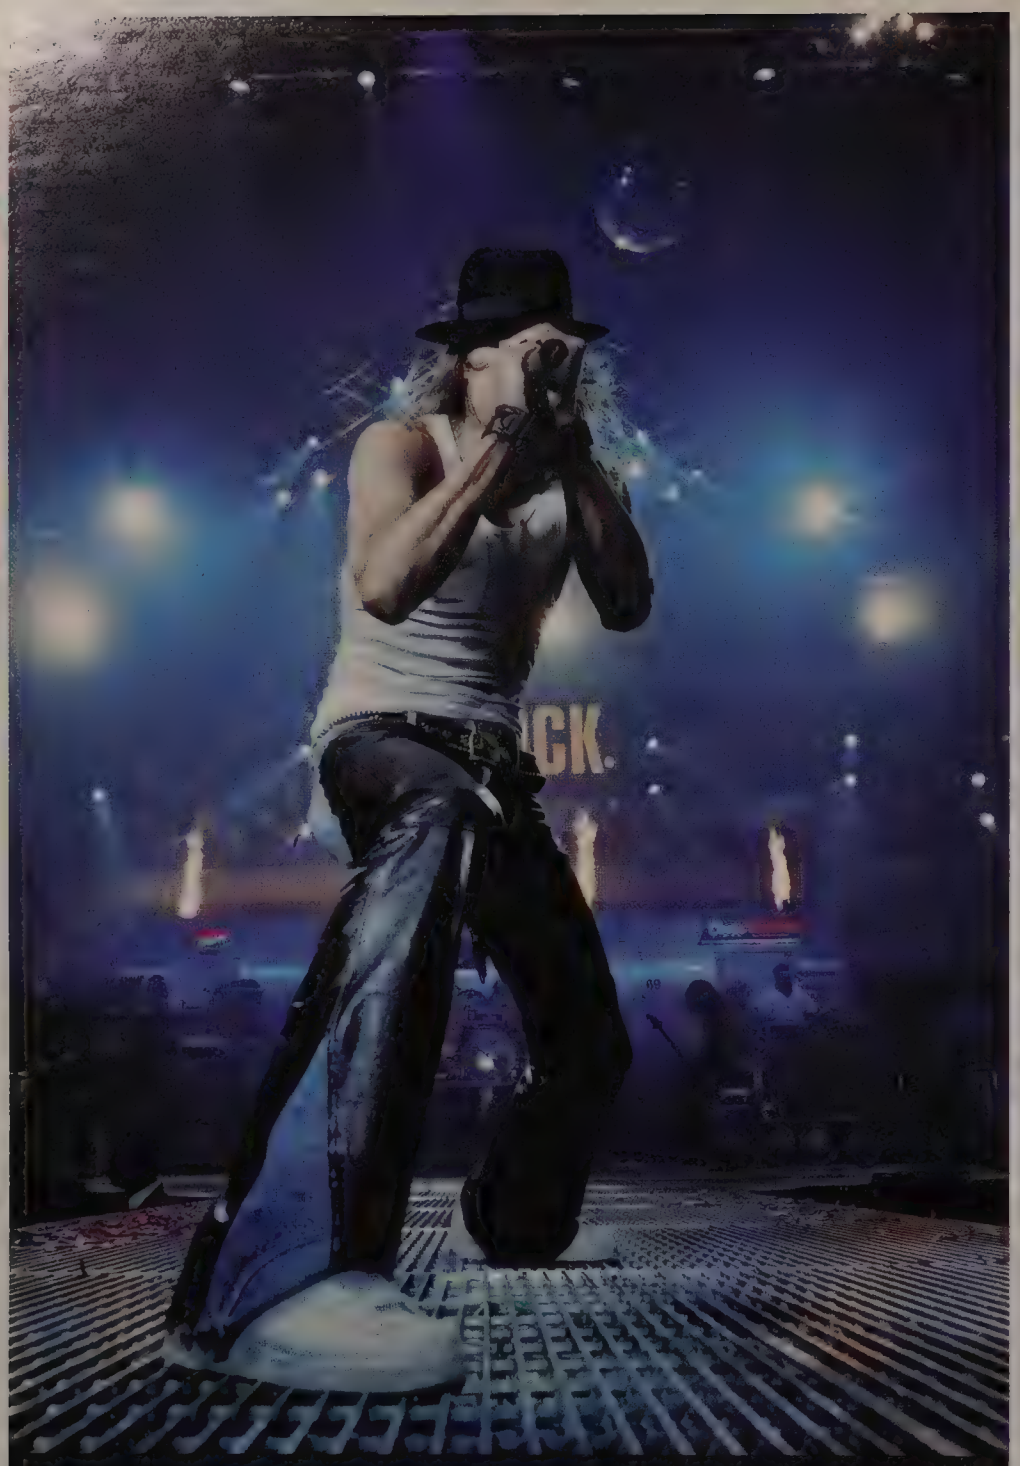
CityScope: Le Bal Masqué

The Boston Center for the Arts, one of the city's cultural gems for 35 years, celebrates its anniversary with a Toulouse Lautrec–inspired masquerade ball on April Fool's Day. Complete with a dinner honoring the original visionaries who helped create the center, the event also includes a dessert reception and music by Afro-Latin band Mango Blue, Stan Strickland's Jazz Dance Band, and local cabaret-rock outfit Ziaf. Resident artists from the center plan to transform the space into the world of the bohemian French artist and the infamous Beaux Arts balls of the 1890s (word is that they've been working on the decorations and their own costumes for months). Come dressed as you please, but costumes are recommended. Prizes for the best-dressed in masquerade fashions include a two-night stay at the Fairmont Copley Plaza, a semester of comedy classes at Tri-Boston and gift certificates for Neiman Marcus as well as neighboring South End businesses. Tickets at three price levels get you into the recognition dinner at 6 pm ($175), the dessert reception at 8:30 pm ($75) or just the ball itself ($35), which begins at 9:30 pm. All proceeds benefit the Boston Center for the Arts. 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-2787). www.bcaonline.org. 6 pm-1 am. $35-$175. —LPK

HOT TIPS FROM
CALENDAR GURUS
LESLIE AND RICH

CITYSCOPE 53
PERFORMING ARTS 54
MOVIES 56
MUSIC 60
CLASSICAL MUSIC 64
DANCE CLUBS 66
MUSEUMS & GALLERIES . . 69
GAY & LESBIAN 72
BOOKS & POETRY 74
EDUCATION 75
BODY & MIND 76
SPORTS 77
CHILDREN 78
AROUND TOWN 79

CALENDAR EDITED BY
Erin Graham Books & Poetry, Movies
Leslie P. Kilgore Around Town, Children, Education, Movies, Museums & Galleries, Music
Rich Levine CityScope, Dance Clubs, Gay & Lesbian, Performing Arts, Sports
ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY
Laurel Kirtz Body & Mind
Paul Sherman Movie Capsules



THU./MARCH 30

Music: Rock Can Rock

Like Tommy Lee and Vince Neil before him, Kid Rock recently became the latest talented musician to add "Homemade–Sex Tape Star" to his résumé. But somehow we doubt that Rock, who'll be in Boston on March 30 for a show at the Agganis Arena, minds the attention, considering he just released his seventh album, Live Trucker, on Feb. 28. What makes Trucker so special? It's Rock's first live album, featuring hits like "Bawitdaba," "Cowboy" and "Only God Knows Why," which were recorded in and around his hometown of Detroit in 2004. The album also features some of the rocker's lesser-known tunes—all of which, we're sure, will more than get you in the mood to jump around and knock back a 40 oz. For what it's worth, we'd also recommend using the 40 to help erase any lingering memories of Rock and Scott Stapp's recent venture into amateur porn. Agganis Arena, 925 Comm. Ave. Boston (617-931-2000). www.agganisarena.com. March 30, 7:30 pm. $35. —RL

FRI./MARCH 24

Performing Arts: Step Right Up

Jody Sperling, artistic director of NYC-based Time Lapse Dance Company, is known for her re-creations of the fin de siècle form of French dance—certainly not your standard dance production style. Her costumes, which you can see during her production Jody Sperling/Time Lapse Dance on March 24, are each made with 80 yards of silk, creating what's meant to capture the four natural elements: earth, water, fire and air. Inspired by old circuses and music-hall entertainment, the performance includes contortionist tricks, dances from early films of variety-show dancers, and Sperlings's own hula hoop solo, in which she nimbly spins one, then two, then three hoops around her body. The evening also includes a solo performance by local dancer and director Karen Krolak, of the Monkeyhouse Dance and Theatre Company, as well as a Q&A session with the two women after the show. Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). www.cmacusa.org. $20. —LPK

SUN./APRIL 2–FRI./APRIL 21

Music: Hear Them Roar

"Come Rumble at the Rat" was how the saying went in the early years of WBCN's annual Rock 'N' Roll Rumble (then cosponsored by long-gone Kenmore Square cl the Rathskeller). The rock event of the year (now in its 28th), which some at the station refer to as the "rock fight," shines the spotlight on 24 local bands that are c make but not yet signed to a record label. The contest happens at the Middle East three weeks, with the preliminary rounds featuring four bands playing 30-minute s each night. This year the roster runs the gamut in rock, with groups such as the po punk band A Hero Next Door on April 2, 19-year-old singer-songwriter Casey Desmond on April 4, garage band the Coffin Lids on April 7, and the metal band Random Acts of Violence on April 8, to name a few. All performances are 18+, an admission is $9 for the preliminaries, and $10 for the semifinals on April 15 and fi on April 21. First place is determined by five judges, all involved with the Boston m scene, and the winning band takes home the Rumble crown and $3,000. Tickets fo entire three-week event can be purchased at the Middle East box office or through Ticket-master. 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). www.wbcn.com. —LPK

WED./MARCH 22–SUN./MARCH 26

Movies: Gettin' Down Underground

If you're a fan of quality alternative cinema, free of mainstream nonsense, you should leave your schedule open from March 22-26. This year's Boston Underground Film Festival, the eighth annual, kicks off at the Brattle Theatre at 7 pm on March 22 with Bizarre and Insane, a series of 10 four-to-16-minute shorts that range in topic from a story about a gang of sock puppets dealing with the death of their creator, to a lesson the ABCs from a crew of undead mariachis. Over the next four days, the movies com fast and furious: The Brattle, the Coolidge Corner Theatre, the Cambridge Center fo Adult Education and the Harvard Film Archive play host to more than 40 films in all, including offerings from the likes of Oscar-winning animator Bill Plympton and low-budget kingpin Lloyd Kaufman. Catch them now, before these flicks get picked up by Hollywood, and subsequently have the life sucked right out of them. Brattle Theatre, 4 Brattle St., Cambridge; Harvard Film Archive, 24 Quincy St., Cambridge; Cambridge Cente for Adult Education, 56 Brattle St., Cambridge; Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline. www.bostonundergroundfilmfestival.com. —RL

tyscope

:e to Contributors

updated listings for benefits, festivals, activities nts by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calen-ityScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@ er.com. Include address, phone number, ticket dates and times, and a brief description of the Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. s cannot be accepted over the phone.

nefits

DNESDAY, MARCH 22

e Awards Gala
Marriott Copley Place Hotel, 110 Huntington Boston (781-788-6607). www.wifvne.org. : Orange Line to Back Bay. 7 pm. $75, mem-100, nonmembers. To raise funds and celebrate 25th anniversary, Women in Film & New England hosts a benefit including a il reception, sit-down dinner, silent auction, ty guests, film and music.

Secrets from the Pros
Marlowe, 25 Edwin H. Land Blvd., Cambridge 395-2523). www.dressingwell.com. MBTA: Line to Lechmere. 6 pm. $35 in advance; $40 at or. Nationally recognized expert and author Lou Andre and her team of professional fash-nsultants help women of all ages create a flat-wardrobe that suits their lifestyles and bud-Proceeds benefit Dress for Success Boston, helps low-income women dress for job inter-and their careers.

DAY, MARCH 24

rk for All Seasons
tate Room, 60 State St., Boston (617-727-. www.foccp.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line e. 7-11 pm. $100. The Friends of Christopher ıbus Park Inc. host their 2006 gala celebration ındraiser featuring music from the Stardust dancing, a silent auction and a buffet dinner nefit the organization's efforts to restore, :t and improve Christopher Columbus Park in orth End.

URDAY, MARCH 25

scendo
rsal Hall B, Calderwood Pavilion, Boston Center e Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-281-. www.voxconsort.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Bay. 6-8 pm. $50, general; $150, patron. Vox ort hosts a fundraising concert and reception ing fine wines, beer and tasty hors d'ouevres, l as the musical, dramatic, social and political of John Gay and George Frideric Handel.

ticultural Adoption Party
e Christian Church, 1500 Blue Hill Ave., Boston 542-3678). www.mareinc.org. MBTA: Red to Mattapan. 11 am-12 pm. Free. The achusetts Adoption Resource Exchange (MARE) and the Jubilee Christian Church Adoption Ministry host an informal event for families interested in learning more about foster care, private-domestic and international adoption.

Reaching for the Stars
The Boston Seaport Hotel, 1 Seaport Lane, Boston (617-912-9194). www.bostonconservatory.edu. 6-10 pm. $250. This gala reception, dinner and silent auction features future performing arts stars and honors the Boston Conservatory Dance Division and Yasuko Takunaga. All proceeds benefit the Boston Conservatory's Scholarship Fund.

SUNDAY, MARCH 26

Avalon's Ride for Inner-City Health, Development and Empowerment
Avalon Boston, 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-859-8700). www.healthworksfoundation.org. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 am-3 pm. $60-$100. Avalon Boston and Healthworks Cycling Instructor Jon Malone host A.R.I.D.E., an event including a pair of two-hour indoor cycling rides to benefit the Healthworks Foundation's mission to provide health education and services to women and children from disenfranchised communities.

Chocolate and Champagne Gala
Fairmont Copley Plaza, 138 St. James St., Boston (617-723-3870). www.bafound.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 4-7 pm. $75. This fundraising event for the Brain Aneurysm Foundation features a dessert buffet, champagne aperitif, music by violinist James Graseck and a raffle that offers the chance to win a weekend for two in San Francisco.

Comedy for Life
Comedy Connection, Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconnectionboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center. 6 pm. $30. The Deborah Winters Foundation and the Comedy Connection host a comedic fundraiser to provide financial relief to women living with breast cancer. All proceeds benefit the Deborah Winters Foundation's Immediate Need Met program at Tufts-NEMC.

THURSDAY, MARCH 30

LifeSavor Event
The Langham Hotel, 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-445-7777). www.servings.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 5:30 pm-12 am. Tickets start at $250. Enjoy a cocktail reception and silent auction at the Langham Hotel before being chauffeured to one of 80 local restaurants, including Clio, Rialto and No. 9 Park, for a multicourse dinner. Proceeds benefit Community Servings.

FRIDAY, MARCH 31

Celebrating Art
New Art Center, 61 Washington Park, Boston (617-964-3424). www.newartcenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Newton Highlands. 8-11 pm. $35 in advance; $40 at the door. This fundraiser features the Spothunters exhibition, auctions, a DJ, desserts from the Newton Whole Foods and sparkling wine by Vinodivino. All proceeds benefit the New Art Center.

SATURDAY, APRIL 1

Artists' Ball
Cyclorama at the Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-363-0405). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. 6:30 pm. $35-$175. The Boston Center for the Arts' 35th anniversary benefit includes a recognition dinner honoring those who've helped the BCA, a dessert reception and an artists' ball. Proceeds benefit the BCA.

Paint the Town Blue Gala 2006
Westin Copley Place Hotel, 10 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-587-1505). www.mspcc.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 7-11 pm. $90. This first annual gala benefiting the MSPCC's GoodStart Program features dinner, dessert, dancing, a silent auction and a raffle.

Seeing Is Believing
Fairmont Copley Plaza, 138 Saint James Ave., Boston (781-766-0504). www.blindness.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6:30 pm. $200. CBS4 News anchor Sara Underwood emcees the Foundation Fighting Blindness' 17th Annual Ball, featuring the Neil Diamond tribute band Super Diamond. Proceeds benefit the Foundation Fighting Blindness.

SUNDAY, APRIL 2

A Tribute to Cathy Douglas Stone
Rabb Auditorium, Boston Public Library, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-267-7204). www.jurysdoyle.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 2 pm. $100, adult; $50 children and students. During this event honoring Eleanor Roosevelt and her Val-Kill Home organization, Sen. Hillary Rodham Clinton presents the Eleanor Roosevelt: Following Her Footsteps Award to Cathy Douglas Stone for her work in the environmental arena. Proceeds help to preserve Val-Kill.

althworks Cycling Instructor Jon Malone
s a cycling benefit at Avalon, March 26.

Festivals & Parties

THURSDAY, MARCH 23

Girls Night Out
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-363-0405). www.sheckys.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. 5-10 pm. $25. Shecky's hosts this night of shopping, including discounts on over 40 vendors and designers, complimentary cocktails for five hours and a Shecky's goody bag to those who buy tickets in advance.

SATURDAY, MARCH 25

Puttin' on the Ritz
The Dining Room, The Ritz-Carlton, 15 Arlington St., Boston (617-912-3335). www.ritzcarlton.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 7-11:30 pm. $35. Attendees dine and dance in the Dining Room to the five-piece Ritz-Carlton Orchestra and enjoy cocktails, champagne, wine, light-dining dishes and desserts.

THURSDAY, MARCH 30

Taste of the Back Bay
Prudential Skywalk, Prudential Center, Boston (617-247-3961). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. March 30. 6:30 pm. $75-$95. This 11th annual event offers sample portions of signature dishes from an array of Back Bay restaurants, including Grill 23, Sorellina and Spire.

Singles

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22

8-Minute Dating
Luigi & Roscoe's at INQ, 279 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-9766). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. 6:30 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals ages 24-34.

TUESDAY, MARCH 28

8-Minute Dating
Clarke's at Faneuil Hall, 21 Merchants Row, Boston (617-227-7800). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center or Blue Line to the Aquarium. 6:30 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals ages 22-32.

SUNDAY, APRIL 2

8-Minute Dating
Tommy Doyle's Irish Pub, 1 Kendall Square, Cambridge (617-225-0888). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. 4:30 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals ages 32-42.

MONDAY, APRIL 3

8-Minute Dating
CitySide Bar & Grille, 1960 Beacon St., Boston (617-566-1002). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle or B Green Line to Chestnut Hill Ave. 7:08 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals ages 21-29.

TUESDAY, APRIL 4

8-Minute Dating
Fire and Ice, 205 Berkeley St., Boston (617-482-3473). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. 6:30 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals ages 30-40.

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts, or e-mail to performing@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Tickets to sold-out shows.

Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Same-day tickets at half price.

Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Tickets to sold-out shows.

StubHub
(866-788-2482). www.stubhub.com. A forum to buy and sell tickets.

Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.tixboston.com. Tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater and Opera

JUST OPENED

Big Apple Circus: Grandma Goes to Hollywood
City Hall Plaza, Boston (617-931-2787). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center. April 1-May 7. Contact Ticketmaster for show times. $13-$54. Grandma the Clown stars in this circus re-creation of movie moments with the help of acrobats, jugglers, trapeze flyers and more.

Clifford the Big Red Dog LIVE!
The Opera House, 539 Washington St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing. March 24, 7 pm; March 25, 10 am, 2 and 5 pm; March 26, 5:30 pm. $22.50-$42.50. The children's book comes to life on stage as Clifford and his friends try to put on their own play on Birdwell Island.

Die Fledermaus (The Bat)
Boston Conservatory Theatre, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-912-9222). www.bostonconservatory.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. March 30-April 2. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $5-$16. This comic operetta composed by Johann Strauss II is set at a masquerade ball where practical jokes take on a life of their own. Directed by Kirsten Z. Cairns.

Brooklyn Boy runs at the BCA's Roberts Studio Theatre through April 1.

Boston Lyric Opera presents La Traviata at the Shubert Theatre, March 31-April 11.

La Traviata
The Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.telecharge.com. MBTA: Orange Line to NE Medical Center. March 31-April 11. March 31, 7:30 pm; April 2, 3 pm. $33-$166. Boston Lyric Opera presents Giuseppe Verdi's tragic opera about a Parisian courtesan who is determined never to fall in love, until she meets a man who ultimately breaks her heart. Directed by James Robinson and conducted by Stephen Lord.

The Maternal Instinct
Boston Playwright's Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston (866-811-4111). www.bu.edu/bpt. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. March 30-April 16. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun, 3 pm. $15-$20. Out of the Blue Theatre Company presents Monica Bauer's story of a married lesbian couple at odds over the decision to have a child. Directed by Melissa Wentworth.

Merrily We Role Along
Cambridge Family YMCA Theatre, 820 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (800-595-4849). www.longwoodplayers.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. March 31-April 8. March 31-April 7, 8 pm. $14-$26. Stephen Sondheim's play tells the story of three estranged friends at the end of their friendship, going back through time to trace each milestone of their lives. Directed by Lisa Hackman. Music directed by Jeremy Lang.

Orpheus X
Zero Arrow Theatre, 2 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. March 25-April 23. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $15-$48. Composer and performer Rinde Eckert and director Robert Woodruff join forces in a contemporary retelling of the Orpheus and Eurydice legend.

Proof
60 Herman St., Winthrop (617-539-1175). www.winthropplaymakers.com. MBTA: Blue Line to Orient Heights. March 31 and April 1, 8 pm. $12-$15. The Winthrop Playmakers present David Auburn's Pulitzer- and Tony-winning play about the mysteries of love and mathematics. Directed by Rachel Belliveau.

The Road Home: Re-Membering America
Wimberly Theatre, Calderwood Pavilion, 527 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. March 24-April 30. Contact the box office for show times. $15-$44. Mark Wolf performs in his original play about the resilience of Americans after Sept. 11. Directed by David Scheizer.

Tally's Folly
The Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-437-7172). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. March 26-April 22. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $20-$45. Lanford Wilson's Pulitzer Prize–winning classic tells the story of a Jewish accountant living in St. Louis at the height of WWII who wants to marry a 31-year-old spinster and rescue her from her rural Missouri life. Directed by Adam Zahler.

Wake Up and Smell the Coffee
Charlestown Working Theater, 422 Bunker Hill St., Charlestown (866-811-4111). www.theatermania.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan. March 31-April 15, 8 pm. $15, adults; $10, students and seniors. Theater on Fire presents the most recent solo performance piece by acclaimed actor, playwright, novelist and screenwriter Eric Bogosian. The show stars Boston native John Joyce. Directed by Darren Evans.

NOW RUNNING

Auntie & Me
Merrimack Repertory Theatre, 50 E. Merrimack St., Lowell (978-454-3926). www.merrimackrep.org. Through April 9. March 22, 2 and 8 pm; Wed.- Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4:30 and 8:30 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. $32-$55. Morris Panych's offbeat comedy tells the story of a man who reveals too much about himself while visiting an aunt who claims to be dying.

Bill W. and Dr. Bob
New Repertory Theatre, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-8487). www.newrep.org. Through March 26. Wed., 7:30 pm; Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 3:30 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $30-$48. New Rep presents this story, written by Stephen Bergman and Janet Surrey, about the founding of Alcoholics Anonymous in the early 1930s. Directed by Rick Lombardo.

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.blueman.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Wed.-Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 pm; Sat., 4, 7 and 10 pm; Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $46-$56. The blue trio performs an ongoing show that mixes art, music, comedy and a lot of toilet paper.

Broad Comedy: Boston Tour
Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (617-426-4499). www.broadcomedy.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. March 25, 8 pm. $28.50. Winner of Best of Vancouver Fringe Fest 2005, Broad Comedy is an all-female comedy troupe featuring skits such as "The United States Extreme Right-Wing Cheerleading Squad."

Brooklyn Boy
Roberts Studio Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (800-233-3123). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through April 1. Wed-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $42-$46. In this play by Donald Margulies, a novelist experiences fame with the success of his semiautobiographical novel, but when he returns home, he must learn to accept who he is. Directed by Adam Zahler.

The Good Body
The Cutler Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (800-233-3123). www.maj.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Through March 26. Wed.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. $35-$65. Eve Ensler explores the cultures of beauty, food and desire through the eyes of women around the world in this one-woman play. Directed by Peter Askin.

The Hopper Collection
Boston University Theatre, 264 Huntington Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtonthe MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Through Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 an Sun., 2 and 7 pm. $15-$70. This play by Ma tells the story of a couple whose severe marit lems stem from the wife's obsession with artist Hopper. Directed by Daniel Auklin.

Menopause: The Musical
Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Bosto 426-4499). www.stuartstreetplayhouse.com. Green Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Wed., 1:30 an Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $42 Jeannie Linder's musical, four aging baby b with nothing in common but memory loss a flashes meet at a lingerie sale. Directed by K Conte and Patty Bender.

A More Perfect Union
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatrescer MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Thu. -Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 7 pr $25. Local writer Kirsten Greenidge's play, insp the experiences of Fenway High School Obain Attouoman, explores the idea of justic many forms. Directed by Juanita Rodriguess.

Romeo and Juliet
Loeb Drama Center, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (61 8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to H Through March 25. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. $37-$7 American Repertory Theatre presents an adapt Shakespeare's tragic love story. Directed by Gad

Shear Madness
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston 426-5225). www.shearmadness.com/boston. Green Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Tue.-Fri., Sat., 6 and 9 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:30 pm. $38 comedic whodunit, set in a crazy unisex hair holds the record as Boston's longest-running

Spamalot
The Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston 426-9366). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA: Gre to Boylston. Through April 15. Tue.-Thu., 7: Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7: $37.50-$90. Mike Nichols directs this musical on Monty Python and the Holy Grail. Wher Arthur and his knights embark on a low-budget for the Holy Grail, they encounter comical situ

Talking to Terrorists
Plaza Theatre, 539 Tremont St., Boston (61 8600). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Line to Back Bay. Through April 8. Wed.-Thu. pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm $40. The Súgán Theatre Company presen American premiere of this production, writt Robin Soans, that takes an inside look at terr Directed by Carmel O'Reilly.

Things Beyond Our Control
Spingold Theater Center, Brandeis University South St., Waltham (781-736-3400). www.bra edu/theater. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/R March 25, 2 and 8 pm; March 26, 2 pm. $16-$2 Brandeis Theater Company performs the worl miere of the play by alumnus Jesse Kellerman th plores relationships turned upside down after and taxi collide in Dallas. Directed by Paul Mel

Dance

Boston Ballet
The Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston 447-7400). www.bostonballet.org. MBTA: Line to Boylston. March 23, 7 pm; March 24, March 25, 2 and 8 pm; March 26, 2 pm. $18-$10 Boston Ballet presents Grand Slam, featurin works by four choreographers: Mark Morris, Pickett, Jorma Elo and Val Caniparoli.

Rainbow Tribe
Roxbury Community College, Mainstage Th 1234 Columbus Ave., Roxbury (617-931-2 www.artsboston.org. March 31 and April 1, 8 pm $15. Dreamcatchers features a variety of gen dance, including African step, hip hop, jazz and ern, with music ranging from Celine Dion to Matthews to 50 Cent.

Riverside Theatre Works
Riverside Theatre Works, 45 Fairmount Ave., Park (617-361-7024). www.rtwboston.org. M Commuter Rail to Fairmount. March 24 and 25, $5-$10. The Riverside Theatre Works Annual Festival presents an evening of hip hop, ballet, batics, jazz, salsa, Haitian folk, modern and cla Indian dance, and spoken word.

Time Lapse Dance
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, 41 Secon Cambridge (617-577-1400). www.cmacus

…: Green Line to Lechmere. March 24, 8 pm. …20. Artistic Director Jody Sperling performs …of the evening's diverse solos, including Dance … Elements, La Nuit, Cheap and Hoop Solo.

…Dance
…nce Thompson Theatre, 536 Mass. Ave., …h (781-738-3272). www.zoedance.org. …A: Red Line to Central. March 31 and April 1, … $13-$15. Piel contra Piel touches upon …ss of intimacy, fear, Latin American culture, …unity and individualism through three … premieres.

…medy

…ice to Contributors
…t listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calen…omedy, or e-mail info to comedy@improper.com. …me for listings is four weeks prior to publication.

…OWS

…egan's Wake
… Cheers Restaurant, 290 Congress St., Boston …784-7469). www.finnswake.com. MBTA: Red …o South Station. March 24, 7:30 pm; March 25, …m; April 1, 7:30 pm. $45. The comedy dinner … celebrates a proper Irish Wake.

… and Maria's Comedy Italian …lding
…Matrix Nightclub, 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-…123). www.comedywedding.com. MBTA: Or…ine to NE Medical Center. March 25 and April …m. $55. Join Joey's and Maria's wacky families … interactive comedy wedding.

… and Maria's Family Reunion
…Matrix Nightclub, 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-…123). www.comedywedding.com. MBTA: Or…ine to NE Medical Center. March 24, 7:30 pm. …Join Joey and Maria's extended family for an …ctive family reunion featuring hits from the …nd '70s.

…AND-UP CLUBS

…Tua Nua
…Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121). MBTA: C…h Line to St. Mary's. Tue., 8:30 pm. $7. The show Bragging to Children features sketch comedy, a musical act and a stand-up host each week.

Beantown Comedy Vault
Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-729-2565). www.dickdoherty.com/remsched. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $10-$12. The Beantown Comedy Vault features local stand-up comedians.

Comedy Connection
245 Quincy Market, Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconnectionboston.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. The oldest comedy club in Boston draws nationally known comedians on weekends and showcases up-and-coming local talent during the week. •March 23 and 30, 8:30 pm: Frank Santos, "The R-Rated Hypnotist." •March 24, 8:30 and 10:15 pm; March 25, 10:30 pm; March 26, 9:15 pm: Tommy Davidson. •March 25, 8 pm: Kelly MacFarland •March 26, 6 pm: Comedy For Life Benefit. •March 27, 8 pm: Amateur Showcase hosted by Kevin Knox. •March 28, 8 pm: Paul Nardizzi. •March 29, 8 pm: Tony V. •March 31, 8 and 10:15 pm; April 1, 10:30 pm; April 2, 9:30 pm: Greg Behrendt.

The Comedy Studio
1238 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). www.thecomedystudio.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $8-$10. Sketch comedy troupes and local comedians perform. •March 22: Alvin David, E.J. Murphy, Jan Flanafan, Matt Demko, Phil Yebba, Maggie MacDonald, M.B. Cowan, Anthony Spencer, Sue Burton and J.J. Leslie. •March 23: The Dan Sally Show with guests. •March 24: Arielle Goldman, P.J. Westin, Dan Boulger, Tom E. Morello, Peter Bowers and J.J. Leslie. •March 25: Sahan Bedgood, Ken Reid, Dan Boulger and J.J. Leslie. •March 26: Erin Judge Presents... The Pillow-Fighters female sketch group, Mike Baker, Orlando Baxter and J.J. Leslie. •March 28: Magic Lounge: Boston's long running professional magic show. •March 29: Steve Albert, Tonya Dalhaus, Pat McCloud, Renata Tutko and J.J. Leslie. •March 30: The Dan Sally Show with guests. •March 31: Shane Mauss, Korte Yeo, Chris Coxen and J.J. Leslie. •April 1: Korte Yeo, Chris Coxen, Eric Cheung, Gary Sohmers and Dot Dwyer. •April 2: Erin Judge Presents... Shane Webb, Steve Donovan, Elisha Yaffe, Amy Tee, Tom E. Morello, Cyndi Stiles, Mike Whitman and Dot Dwyer.

Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway
Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway Theater, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-591-1616). www.jtoffbroadway.com. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Jimmy Tingle's features both established and aspiring performers and productions. •April 1: Jimmy Tingle's American Dream.

Nick's Comedy Stop
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). www.nickscomedystop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Fri. and Sat., 8:30 pm. $10-$22. In its 24th year, the longest-running comedy club in Boston features local and visiting comics. •March 23-25: Charlie K., John Joyce and Danny Kelly. •March 30-April 1: Frank Del Pizzo, Greg Boggis and Danny Kelly.

Steve Sweeney's Comedy Cafe
711 Boylston St., Boston (800-401-2221). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Fri. and Sat., 9:30 pm. $20. Boston comedians Steve Sweeney and Dick Doherty appear with select performers. •March 23: Full Contact Comedy. •March 24-25: Kevin Knox.

IMPROV COMEDY

Improv Asylum
216 Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.improvasylum.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Dinner packages available. •Wed., 8 pm. $15: Vanity Project. •Thu., 8 pm. $15: Monkey Trial and Error. 10 pm. $10: The Madness. •Fri., 8 and 10 pm. $20: Monkey Trial and Error. 12 am. $7. College Smackdown. •Sat., 8 and 10 pm. $20: Monkey Trial and Error. 12 am. $10: The Midnight Show.

Improv Foundry
327 Summer St., Studio 4, South Boston (617-308-6421). www.improvfoundry.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sat., 6 pm. $12. This Boston-based, short-form improv comedy group performs skits that involve members of the audience.

ImprovBoston
1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. $5-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates everything on the spot: characters, stories, settings, songs and dances. •Wed., 8 pm. $5: The Hump. Local troupes perform improvisational shows. 10 pm. Free: Rendition. Boston's best improvisers come together for this energetic, ground-breaking improvisational show. •Thu., 8 pm. $12; $10, students: UnNatural Selection. A master of ceremonies randomly eliminates players until only one is left. 10 pm. $5: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Brothers Chris and David Walsh perform stand-up and character sketches and play music and short films in a display of sibling rivalry. •Fri., 8 pm. $12; $10, students: Voice of the White House. Improv Boston and Musical Company present a politically-charged show about the mishaps of the White House. 10 pm. $12; $10, students: Theatre Sports. Two teams of improvisers compete for the most laughs. •Sat., 6 pm. $12; $5, students, seniors and children: ImprovBoston Family Show. A short-form improvisational show appropriate for people of all ages. 8 and 10 pm. $15; $10, students and seniors: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music and audience participation, a cast of improvisers creates a show that changes with every performance. •Sun., 7 pm. $5: Sgt. Culpepper/Open Jamboree. This evening features performances by local and visiting troupes. 9 pm. $7: Mosaic. South City Theatre Ensemble presents short pieces including monologues, skits and dances that mock today's society.

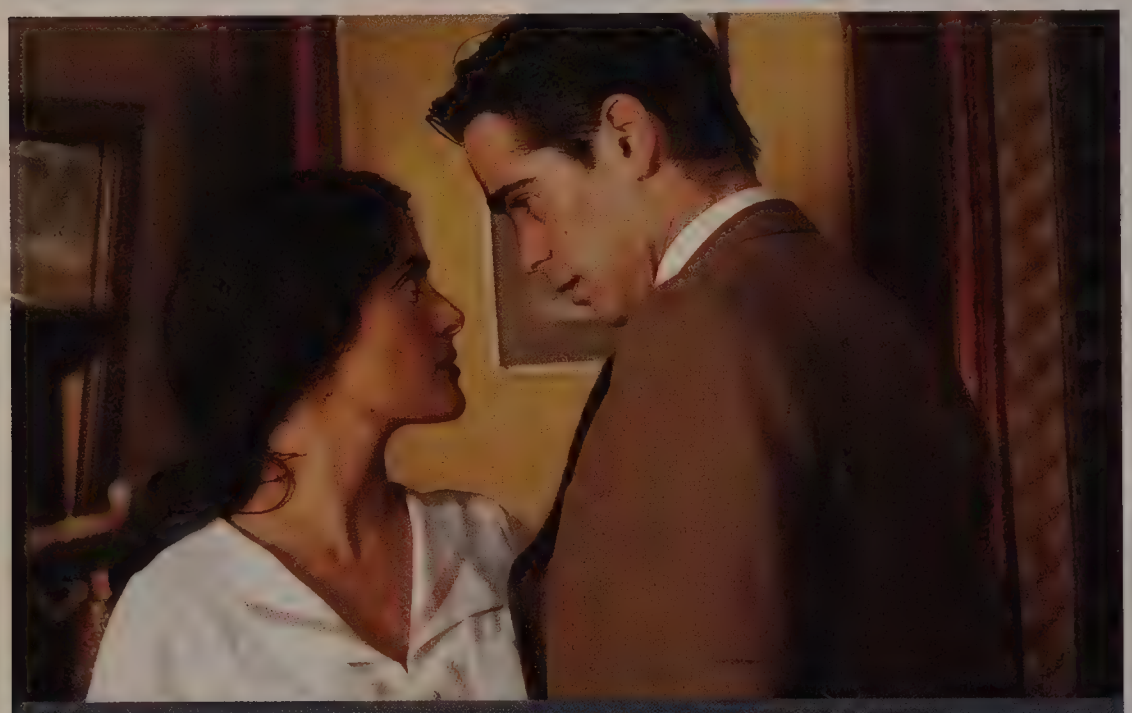
The Tribe
Tribe Theatre, 67 Stuart St., Boston (617-510-4447). www.tribeboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 8 pm. $10. Fri., 8 pm. $7-$20. 21+. The Tribe sponsors this comedy show featuring a collection of improv comedians who poke fun at everything, including themselves. •March 23: The Rumble Neutrino Video Projects Boston, Too Darn Hot and Spinning Hardcore. •March 24: The Tribe Players and Sea Mission. •March 25: The Black-Jew Dialogues. •March 26: The Black-Jew Dialogues. •March 30: Passing Through, Spinning Hardcore and Finale. •March 31: The Tribe Players and Sea Mission.

Dirt Nap

Ask the Dust is D.O.A.

BY PAUL SHERMAN

In Robert Towne's Ask the Dust, Colin Farrell is mighty convincing as an aspiring yet uninspired writer whose fruitless stints at the typewriter become agonizing adventures in self-doubt. But he's less convincing when the same guy has to be practically dragged into bed by a Chicano waitress played by Salma Hayek. The love/hate spats the writer and waitress have the first few times he comes into the café where she works are fine, since the characters' sexual energies play well together. But by the time they're having a midnight skinny dip and he walks out on her—throwing a hissy fit after she plays a practical joke on him—credibility is strained more than viewers' eyes trying to pick up Salma's figure in the moonlight.



Salma Hayek and Colin Farrell are game, but Ask the Dust is a predictable L.A. story.

Of course, you never doubt that Arturo Bandini (Farrell), the Colorado Italian-American who's moved to L.A. to chase his dream, and Camilla Lopez (Hayek), the oft-dissed Mexican waitress, will end up in the sack together. Movies don't cast attractive stars like Farrell and Hayek, throw them into romantic situations and then not have them get their rocks off. Any moviegoer over 12 knows that much.

But that's the sort of predictability in which Ask the Dust traffics. It's a return to 1930s Los Angeles for Towne, whose script for 1974's Chinatown is a trip into L.A.'s heart of darkness (he also cowrote another essential '70s movie, Shampoo). Chinatown, which Roman Polanski directed, is a movie in which the characters and the setting are bound up in corruption that keeps revealing itself to be deeper and deeper, and which the private-eye hero is powerless to combat.

As with the knowledge that Arturo and Camilla are going to eventually get physical, however long the movie takes to get to it, we're never surprised in Ask the Dust. In fact, the movie always seems one step behind. In this story of an initially blocked writer, is there any chance Arturo won't ultimately squeeze out a book before the end credits roll? Is there ever any sense he won't give in to his attraction to Camilla? And once the leads do indeed hook up and Camilla starts hacking a consumptive cough in every scene she's in, is there any way she won't end up coughing herself to death in a tubercular haze?

So Ask the Dust had better offer something to distract from its predictability. Farrell and Hayek skinny dipping is certainly one distraction, but there aren't enough. The story introduces Arturo's writer's-block plight at its start and flashes back to his arrival in L.A., presenting the city as a place where the infirm, like his rummy neighbor (Donald Sutherland), come to die, or where the desperate, like Arturo, pursue a dream. But while the production design for the rolling Bunker Hill neighborhood and Arturo's apartment building are fine, you never quite know why Arturo chooses to move to L.A. He's not trying to break into movies; in fact, his only literary lifeline is H.L. Mencken's East Coast–based American Mercury magazine, which published one of his short stories.

At least Farrell gives Arturo's internal struggles dramatic weight. This is a meeker Farrell than we're used to seeing, which is fitting for his self-doubting character. As usual, Farrell's American accent is flawless, and he generally looks younger than his age here, also fitting for Arturo's naïveté. The frequent voice-overs of the early action come across smoothly, and along with the streetcar-equipped set and Arturo's funky little apartment, which looks onto the city-stained trunk of a palm tree, Ask the Dust sets its scene well. It just fails to build very much on its foundation.

Hayek, too, handles her role admirably, making Camilla both brash in her own way (sexually, for sure), but gun-shy from being considered a second-class citizen (the character's name, of course, recalls another tragic, consumptive fictional character, Camille). Also contributing a memorable performance is Idina Menzel, as a flighty and vulnerable woman who pursues Arturo when he's still ambivalent about Camilla.

One mystery about Ask the Dust is why Towne revived the 1930s John Fante novel upon which it's based. Towne apparently first wrote his script years back, when he also adapted Fante's Brotherhood of the Grape, which Francis Ford Coppola was supposed to film—but never did. There was one Fante adaptation made in 1989, Wait Until Spring, Bandini, another presumably semiautobiographical tale in which Arturo is a boy. That was underwhelming, too. The surest sign of the failure of Ask the Dust is that it doesn't inspire you to check out Fante's books (you also wonder why Charles Bukowski championed Fante's writing). Ultimately, Ask the Dust just doesn't seem a worthwhile film—either to make or to see. iB

Ask the Dust ★★

Written and directed by Robert Towne. With Colin Farrell, Salma Hayek, Idina Menzel, Justin Kirk and Donald Sutherland. Rated R. At Kendall Square.

New Releases

BY PAUL SHERMAN

Blackmail ★★★
Alfred Hitchcock's 1929 thriller was in produ when talkies reached England, causing this one of those cusp movies filmed in both silen talkie versions. Only trouble was that the n starred Anny Ondra, a Polish actress who speak English, necessitating an English actr speak her lines off-camera as scenes were filmed. That makes the talkie version clums it's the rarely seen silent version that's beir vived, with the Alloy Orchestra performing original score with it. Ondra plays a womar gets into a pinch, complicated by the fact th boyfriend is a detective and someone else sa commit a crime. Good formative Hitchcock with many signs of things to come from the tor. (At Somerville Theater, March 25.)

Brokeback Mountain ★★★
Ang Lee's "gay cowboy movie" turns out more emotional and less sensational thar might expect. It's a 20-plus-year tale of two cowboys (Heath Ledger, Jake Gyllenhaal) p gether on a summer ranching job in 1963, wh for each other despite saying they're "not q
As each returns to his separate life, eventual volving an unsatisfying marriage for each they reconnect in a secret relationship d
"fishing trips" on the mountain where they herded sheep. Whenever the opportunity ar live together and start a ranch over the ne years, one's fear of being found out thwarts t lationship from going further. The end resu sad tale of frustration, self-censorship and a li gether that never was, intimately told, with n lains beyond those unseen societal forces inl ing the two men. Ledger's performance a closemouthed cowpoke we see most can be nered, but the earthy restraint of the movie—staging and its tight focus on its characters—to its effectively melancholy mood. (At B Common, Harvard Square, Coolidge Corne suburbs.)

Classe Tous Risques ★★★
Reissue specialists Rialto—the distributors brought back Eyes Without a Face and the Jap cut of Godzilla in recent years—have come up another goody in Claude Sautet's sad, 1960 F thriller. Lino Ventura plays Abel, a middle gangster who, after a decade as a fugitive away his native France, finds that he must return t
The movie starts with a nifty Milan heist in v
Abel and a buddy rob bank couriers and ther car, motorcycle, bus and boat—elude police Abel's big challenge comes when he finall back to Paris and his old cohorts, who've straight, balk at helping him. Relief arrives i form of young gangster Eric, a featured suppo role played by Jean-Paul Belmondo, fresh fro success in Breathless. The shared honor bet the two gangsters gives the movie heart, as do melancholy surrounding Abel, whose predica just makes him tired of running and weary of a criminal. (At Kendall Square.)

CSA: Confederate States of Amer ★★★½ Writer-director Kevin Willmott answers the tion "What if the South had won the Civil W in a mockumentary that is both provocative ulative history and very sharp satire. It's pres
as an English-made documentary being show
a San Francisco TV station about the histo
the CSA, which won the Civil War after Fr and England entered on the south's side i
"War of Northern Aggression," and then e
Abe Lincoln to Canada and restored slavery t
North after Grant's surrender. The "English-documentary" parodies everything from
Burns' The Civil War and Birth of a Nation to tary and classroom films. Meanwhile, its "b cast" includes utterly deadpan commercia
such things as the Slave Shopping Network
Martha Stewart–like show in which the h
promises to cover "what to look for when b your next Chinese gardener" on her next epi CSA takes no prisoners. (At the Coolidge C Theatre.)

Dave Chappelle's Block Party ★★
There's hardly a dull moment in this blend of edy, music and politics. Chappelle organize dream concert in Bedford-Stuyvesant, Broo
featuring Kanye West, Mos Def, Erykah Bad
the reunion of the Fugees. Director M Gondry (who directed Eternal Sunshine of the less Mind) filmed the October 2004 perform and rehearsals as well as Chappelle playing a a of sorts, handing out "golden tickets" to e in southwest Ohio (where he lives) that get them on a charter bus, in a hotel room to the concert. Gondry cuts among the per- rs (on- and off-stage), the roadtripping Ohio nts and Chappelle as he prepares for the out- how. There's a shared outspokenness in the Chappelle booked, and a political awareness, hese common qualities bond the performers a camaraderie that reaches beyond the stage. the best multi-act performance movies, the s greater than the parts. (At Boston Com- the Fenway and suburbs.)

ie 6 ★½

if someone filmed a movie in 2004 in which ed Sox' inability to win "the big one" figured ly—and then the Red Sox went ahead and Apparently that's what happened here. But if the Sox had never rallied against the Yan- back in '04, and even though the movie in- s many notables, it's easy to see why Michael ration) Hoffman's 2004 comedy never found ributor and is being self-distributed—with a rate Boston opening intended to grab Bosto- , since the title refers to the ill-fated, penulti- game of the 1986 World Series. The day of game is the day that this contrived mess takes . It's also the day when the new play by vet- playwright Nicky Rogan (Michael Keaton) is ing. This lifelong Sox fan (despite being a na- Manhattanite) is dreading both the game ng yet another tragic Sox choke) and the re- of his play by hotshot critic Steven Schwim- (Robert Downey, Jr.). First off, screenwriter DeLillo's mix of New York local color (many es take place in cabs) and Sox fervor never meshes, while the action concerning the —who lives reclusively in a secret location lisguises himself when he goes to plays—is lu- us. Not only are the dramatic elements of the a stretch, but the comedy almost always mis- The ball dribbling through Bill Buckner's turns out to be too apt a metaphor for this e. (At Boston Common.)

tsi ★★★

year's Foreign-Language Film Oscar-winner is d choice. The intensity, nervous energy and cal charge of its opening sequences—with the s blending the hostility of gangsta rap with ilting bounce of African dance rhythms—give a good sense of the rough-and-tumble world of itle character, the leader of a small gang of Jo- nesburg teens. But we soon start to dig deeper the title character after he steals a car and dis- rs there's a baby in the back seat. The sudden for parenting doesn't so much bond Tsotsi to yke as it makes him feel the consequences of ctions for the first time. The baby, the disillu- ment of Tsotsi's fellow gang members and the evolence of the young mother whom Tsotsi es to breastfeed the baby combine to crumble defensive wall he had constructed around his tions. Tsotsi uncorks some taut sequences as tle character's priorities get all jumbled and action moves to a memorably bittersweet end- (At Kendall Square.)

or Vendetta ★★½

Wachowski (Matrix trilogy) Brothers–written ic book adaptation falls somewhere between ter than most big-budget comic-book adapta- s" and "still not that satisfying." The good s is that this futuristic tale set in a fascist Eng- is less of a special-effects spectacle than it nt have been. Its emphasis is still on charac- specifically Evey (Natalie Portman), a young loyee at a TV network who inadvertently gets ed up with V (Hugo Weaving), a masked ging angel fighting a secret battle against the essive government. Evey's plight of being im- ated in crimes she didn't commit is a standard chcock thriller device, while V, who never s off a mask and lives in a plush lair, is a Phan- of the Opera–like figure (he's got a jukebox ead of an organ). There's also a 1984 flavor to fascist society (ironically, John Hurt, who ed Orwell's hero in the '80s film version of 4, is the Big Brother-ish "Chancellor"). So e not in very original territory here, and much he action involves the detective (Stephen) who's trying to catch V, but discovers his es are the more sinister threat. Portman, ving and Rea are all fine, but you often get feeling that the backstory the movie tangen- y refers to—involving the U.S. starting a ilitating war and crumbling because of it, and ists scheming to power in England—is a more resting, less derivative drama than what we here. (At Boston Common, the Fenway and rbs.)

Special Events

Eighth Annual Boston Underground Film Festival

Various Locations. (617-975-3361). www.bostonundergroundfilmfestival.com. March 22-26. This festival showcases features and shorts by film makers with alternative visions from the stereotypical Hollywood film, along with panel discussions and lectures. See Web site for schedule and locations.

New Chinese Cinemas Film Festival

Davis Museum and Cultural Center, Wellesley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (617-283-2051). www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley Square. March 29, 8 pm. In conjunction with the On the Edge exhibition, this festival showcases several new Chinese films, including Everlasting Regret directed by Stanley Kwan, one of five films by acclaimed film directors from the Chinese diaspora. The festival continues through April 19.

Third Annual Coolidge Award Celebrates Meryl Streep

Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-2501). www.coolidge.org. MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. Events through April 17. This 2006 award celebration honors the achievements of actress Meryl Streep by showcasing a variety of her movies, as well as hosting seminars and discussions featuring actors, directors, journalists and the actress herself.

Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors

Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

•March 27, 6 pm. Sennen Joyu (Millennium Actress) 2001. The closing of a Japanese theater brings a retired actress back to the camera for a candid interview on what the theater did for her career and meant to her personally. In Japanese with English subtitles. Satoshi Kon directs.

BRATTLE THEATRE

•March 27, 8 pm. L'Intrus (The Intruder) 2005. An older man and mysterious sensualist is in need of a new heart. His quest leads him from Geneva to Korea, and finally to Tahiti. Claire Denis directs.

•March 28, 5:15 and 9:30 pm. The President's Last Bang 2005. This political drama tells the story of the director of the Korean CIA gunning down the authoritarian president of South Korea at a private dinner party in October 1979. Im Sangsoo directs.

•March 28, 7:30 pm. Dai si Gein (Breaking News) 2004. A media-savvy police force goes up against an equally aware thief, leading to a hostage situation. Johnny To directs.

•March 29, 5:30, 7:30 and 9:30 pm; March 30, 8 and 10 pm. Zizek! 2005. This documentary explores the eccentric personality and esoteric work of a famous academic and cultural theorist. Astra Taylor directs.

•March 31, 12 am; April 1, 12 pm and 12 am. Hudson Hawk 1991. A pair of reformed, singing thieves are extorted out of retirement by thugs who force them to perform a series of bizarre robberies of Da Vinci–related artifacts. Michael Lehmann directs.

•March 31, 5 and 8 pm; April 1-2, 2, 5 and 8 pm. Suna no Onna (Woman in the Dunes) 1964. An entomologist finds himself trapped by encroaching sand dunes and eventually succumbs to the seduction of his female captor. Hiroshi Teshigahara directs.

•April 3-4, 8 and 10 pm. Otoshiana (Pitfall) 1962. A mysterious man in a white suit and sunglasses casually commits a series of murders in a small mining community, revealing a dark secret. Hiroshi Teshigahara directs.

Boston Underground Film Festival

•March 22, 9 pm; March 23, 5 pm. The French Guy 2006. Ann Marie Fleming directs this film about a woman who, after surviving brain surgery, feels lucky to be alive and brings home a desperate young man to nurse him back to health.

•March 23, 7:30 pm. Bill's Dirty Shorts. This collection of Oscar Plympton's short films includes works produced between 1997 and 2002, featuring Sex and Violence, The Exciting Life of a Tree, More Sex & Violence, Can't Drag Race with Jesus, Eat and Parking, along with commercials and flash animations. Also showing on March 24, 6:45 pm at the Harvard Film Archive.

•March 23, 9:45 pm. Modify 2006. Jason Gary and Greg Jacobson direct this documentary that features interviews with people who regard augmenting their bodies as a way of life. Also showing March 24, 12 am at Coolidge Corner Theatre.

•March 24, 7:30 pm. East of Euclid 2006. Jeff Solylo directs this film about a Russian gambler hiding from the KGB, who dreams of moving to Atlantic City to live among real gamblers.

•March 24, 9:45 pm. Psychopathia Sexualis 2006. Told in multilevel narratives, this film interweaves stories of sexual deviance catalogued by a Viennese psychiatrist to expose how an ambitious doctor uses his subjects as playthings. Bret Wood directs.

•March 25, 7:15 pm. Horsie's Retreat 2006. A reformed drug addict revisits his past life to help an old mentor get clean. Tony Asimakopoulos directs.

•March 25, 9:45 pm. Neighborhood Watch 2006. Inspired by two true stories, this film follows a newly married couple who move across the country to begin a new life away from the crime and violence of the big city, only to discover their neighborhood has a dark secret. Graeme Whifler directs.

•March 25, 12 am. Tromeo & Juliet 2006. Lloyd Kaufman directs this modern, punk adaptation of Shakespeare's play set in Manhattan.

•March 26, 5 pm. Marcus 2006. A troubled young man returns home for Christmas in an attempt to reconcile with his estranged sister, but her boyfriend shows up, turning the holiday dinner into a night of violence and terror. Bob Hardison and Rich Robinson direct.

•March 26, 7:15 pm. Jabe Babe 2006. Janet Merewether directs this film about a dominatrix who suffers from Marfan Syndrome, a life-threatening genetic disorder.

•March 26, 9:15 pm. Orlan: Carnal Art 2006. Stephan Oriach directs this film based on one woman's decision to conduct mutilative surgery on her own body for the sake of art.

THE BRENDAN BEHAN

Monday Nite Movies

•March 27, 8:30 pm. Lost and Found Video Night. 5 Minutes to Live presents this film of lost home video snippets taken from the dumpster for the public's humorous entertainment.

CAMBRIDGE CENTER FOR ADULT EDUCATION

Boston Underground Film Festival

•March 24, 4:30 pm. Rock'n' With Satan 2006. Adam Starr directs this sci-fi film about two boys in a band called White Scorpion, who find a book of guitar music that conjures up the demon of metal when played.

•March 24, 7:15 pm. Waiting for NESARA 2006. In this political satire, the ringleader of the Open Mind Forum, a Salt Lake City collective of social outcasts, tries to lead a coup by holding meetings in a KFC. Zeb and Elisa Haradon direct.

•March 26, 2 pm. Horsie's Retreat 2006. A reformed drug addict returns to his past life to help a former mentor get clean. Tony Asimakopoulos directs.

•March 26, 5:45 pm. Camp Daze 2006. Alex Pucci directs this film about a group of kids who stumble upon Camp Hiawatha, a place where everyone is trapped in the year 1981.

•March 26, 8:30 pm. Reflections of Evil 2002. After dying from a PCP overdose as a teen in the early '70s, the sister of an obese watch-salesman searches from beyond for her brother, who's dying of sucrose intolerance. Damon Packard directs.

COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE

Boston Underground Film Festival

•March 25, 12 am. Feast of the Bizarre & Insane 2006. This opening-night program for the BUFF features a collection of nine shorts full of bizarre characters and narratives, including Don't F--- With Love, The Fine Art of Poisoning, Over Time, Kinetoscope, Duck Children, A Kind of Screaming, Los ABC's: Que Vivan Los Muertos and Flesh.

Third Annual Coolidge Award Honoring Meryl Streep

•March 23, 7 pm. The French Lieutenant's Woman 1981. During the filming of a romantic movie, the main characters go through a relationship that parallels the one between their characters. Karel Reisz directs.

•March 27, 7 pm. Sophie's Choice 1982. A Polish-Catholic survivor of a Nazi concentration camp immigrates to New York and falls in love with a troubled, Holocaust-obsessed American Jew. Alan J. Pakula directs.

•March 30, 7 pm. Manhattan 1979. Woody Allen directs this film about a divorced New Yorker who leaves his high school–aged girlfriend to pursue the mistress of his best friend.

•April 2, 12 pm. Defending Your Life 1991. A young man is killed in a car accident and goes to Judgment City, where he must prove, in a courtroom-style proceeding, that he conquered his fears and should be allowed to move on to the afterlife. Albert Brooks directs.

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

•March 22, 7 pm. The Pillow Book 1996. This film follows a beautiful model-turned-writer, who is obsessed with calligraphy and the flesh. Peter Greenaway directs.

•March 22, 9:15 pm. Mon Tresor (Or) 2004. A beautiful and intelligent teenage girl who lives in a small Tel Aviv apartment with her aging, ex-prostitute mother tries to prevent her mom from going back to her old profession. Keren Yedaya directs.

•March 24, 7 pm; March 25-26, 7 and 9 pm. Symbiopsychotaxiplasm: Take One 1968. A director filming a movie in NYC's Central Park pursues a hidden agenda as he works on the set of his film, involving the bitter breakup of a married couple. William Greaves directs.

•March 24, 9 pm. Symbiopsychotaxiplasm: Take 2½ 2005. In a continuation of Symbiopsychotaxiplasm: Take One, filmed 35 years earlier, a director now films the story of a divorced couple who wants to bury the past, meeting 35 years after their nasty breakup. On the set the hidden agenda of the director leads the filming in another direction. Greaves directs.

•March 27, 7 pm. The Connection 1961. In this movie-within-a-movie, a documentary director working on a cinema-vérité portrait of the drug scene films a group of heroin addicts waiting for their drug supplier, or connection. Shirely Clarke directs.

•March 27, 9 pm. David Holzman's Diary 1967. A struggling young filmmaker living in NYC decides to make a film about his life. Jim McBride directs.

•March 28, 7 pm. Me and My Brother 1969. What begins as a cinema-vérité portrait of a catatonic schizophrenic veers into a bizarre mixture of fact and fiction, as he's taken from the hospital by his poet brother. Robert Frank directs.

•March 28, 9 pm. One Parallel Movie 1972. A reflexive film that marks the unceremonious end of the 1960s, it includes footage of bands from the decade. Jean-Luc Godard and D.A. Pennebaker direct.

•March 29, 7 pm. Privilege 1967. A successful pop singer, whose career is controlled by the government to manipulate his young fans, rebels when he thinks things have gone too far. Peter Watkins directs.

•March 29, 7 pm. The War Game 1966. This highly controversial film presents a dramatization of the aftereffects of a nuclear attack on England. Peter Watkins directs.

•March 31, 7 pm. The Hole Story 2005. A Boston-based filmmaker travels to Brainerd, Minn., to document a strange natural phenomenon. Alex Karpovsky directs.

•March 31, 9 pm. Aout, Avant l'Explosion (August, A Moment Before the Eruption) 2002. This film documents the anger and unrest witnessed in Israel during August 2001. Avi Mograbi directs.

•April 1, 7 pm. Who's the Caboose? 1997. During pilot season, when a multitude of aspiring actors vie for scant employment opportunities in network sitcoms, a documentary crew from NYU Film School abandons a thesis project about homelessness to follow a 20-something New Yorker. Sam Seder directs.

•April 1, 9:30 pm. Larry David: Curb Your Enthusiasm 1999. This precursor to the hit TV series presents a mock–observational documentary portrait of Larry David's return to stand-up comedy after a 10-year absence. Robert B. Weide directs.

•April 2, 7 pm. An Evening with Geoffrey Gilmore The veteran film programmer discusses his role with the Sundance Film Festival, the intricacies of the film festival circuit and the road to Sundance.

•April 3, 7 pm. Xala 1974. This savage and funny satire deals with a self-satisfied, half-Westernized black African businessman who is suddenly struck down by something called the xala curse, which renders him impotent.

•April 3, 9 pm. Close-Up 1990. On the pretext of being a famous director scouting locations for a film project, a young man enters the life of a middle-aged woman's family. Abbas Kiarostami directs.

Dave Chappelle cracks wise between the musical acts in Dave Chappelle's Block Party.

•April 4, 7 pm. Notebook on Cities and Clothes 1989. This film essay, originally meant to document Japanese fashion designer Yohji Yamamoto, ultimately goes far beyond fashion as it explores the analogies between designing clothes and assembling a movie. Wim Wenders directs.

•April 4, 9 pm. I Am Curious (Yellow) 1967. This film is a direct portrayal of the social, sexual and political attitudes and problems facing contemporary youth. Vilgot Sjöman directs.

Boston Underground Film Festival

•March 24, 9:15 pm. Pony Trouble! 2006. This film follows a group of adults who become obsessed with a plastic pony, turning it into a game that freely mixes sex, drugs and fantasy role-playing. Warren Lynch directs.

•March 25, 9 pm. Let Them Eat Rock 2006. This film captures the lives of Boston-based rock group the Upper Crust, who were under FBI investigation in the fall of 2000 for fear they would inspire a government overthrow. Rodman Flender directs.

•March 26, 3 pm. Riot-On 2006. Kim Finn directs this documentary about Riot Entertainment, Inc., a Helsinski-based wireless-game and media development company that stole nearly $20 million from investors such as Nokia and News Corp., who gave money to fund ideas that were impossible to execute.

•March 26, 4:45 pm. Winnipeg Gothique 2006. Dave Barber curates this collection of 10 shorts presented by the Winnipeg Film Group in Canada.

•March 26, 7:15 pm. Humouresque 2006. Corey Michael Smithson directs this silent film using title cards to create dialogue in a nonsensical plot.

THE INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY ART

•March 24, 8 pm. Isamu Noguchi: Stones and Paper 1997. This film documents the life and career of Isamu Noguchi, an artist of binational heritage who splits his time looking for inspiration in Japan and America. Hiro Narita directs.

KENDALL SQUARE CINEMA

Talk Cinema

•April 2, 10 am. This is the fourth edition of the Talk Cinema Series, in which audience members watch a surprise film, followed by a guest lecture and open discussion.

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Advance Screening

•March 29, 7:45 pm. Following Sean 2004. This documentary film revisits Sean Farrell, the subject of a short film titled Sean (1969), about the then 4-year old boy growing up with liberal, hippie parents. Ralph Arlyck directs.

Engagements

•March 25, 1:30 pm; March 30, 3 pm. Ballets Russes 2005. This film is an ode to the 20th-century dance troupe that birthed modern dance, mapping their career through Paris, London and the U.S. Daniel Geller and Dayna Goldfine direct.

•April 1, 10:30 am. Double Portrait 2003 Wollheim directs this film that follows cor rary painter David Hockney as he creates a double portraits.

Global Cinema

•March 24, 8 pm; March 25, 3:45 pm. Cine pirinas e Urubus (Cinema, Aspirins and V 2005. An unlikely friendship forms betwee pirin salesman and his assistant as they through 1940s Brazil. In Portuguese with subtitles. Marcelo Gomes directs.

International Women's Film Fest

•March 23, 12:30 pm; March 24, 5:45 pm cence 2004. This film takes a look at the secre of a girls' private school set in the forests of In French with English subtitles. Lucile halilovic directs.

•March 25, 12 pm. Ramo de Fuego (Bloss Fire) 2000. This film explores the lives of the I Zapotecs of southern Oaxaca, Mexico, whos ionated, independent working women have the area's politics and defended their culture what they believe to be misguided accusation international press. Maureen Gosling and Ell borne direct.

•March 29, 5:45 pm. 27 Missing Kisses Teenage Sybilla goes away for summer vacatio falls for a man nearly twice her age, whose 14 old son then falls in love with her. Nana Djor directs.

•March 30, 6 pm. Mila ot Mars (Mila from 2004. A 16-year-old punk girl with an unw pregnancy tries to run away from a dangerous but winds up on a small marijuana plantation the same man. Zorrista Sophia directs.

•April 1, 3:45. Varuh Meje (Guardian of the tier) 2002. This psychological drama follows young women and their encounters during a common summer vacation. Maya Weiss direc

Turkish Film and Music Festival

• March 31, 8 pm. Anlat Istanbul (Istanbul 2005. This film combines five fairy tales to mak coherent story taking place in the of Istanbul. Umit Unal, Kudret Sabanci, Demirdelen, Omur Atay and Yucel Yolcu direc

• March 31, 8 pm. Karpuz Kabugundan Ge Yapmak (Boats out of Watermelon Rinds) Ahmet Ulucay directs this film about two ad cent boys who screen discarded films from local theater in an abandoned shed.

•April 1, 12 pm. Pina Bausch'la Bir Nefe Breath with Pina Bausch) 2005. This documen examines the creative process of modern d choreographer Pina Bausch during the rehe for her dance company's Istanbul Project. Hus Karabey directs.

•April 1, 1 pm. Gonul Yarasi (Lovelorn) Yavuz Turgul directs this film about a re elementary school teacher in a poor, remote dish village. He returns home to his resentful ily to begin a new life as a taxi driver, only t come entangled in the lives of families other his own.

ril 2, 5 pm. Melegin Dususu (Angel's Fall) 4. Semih Kaplanoglu directs this film about a ng chambermaid in an expensive city hotel feels disconnected from everything around until a chance encounter leads her to a shock- ct of rebellion.

ril 2, 7 pm. Yazi Tura (Toss Up) 2004. Two dis- ged army mates return home injured and con- d with guilt after a landmine incident in east- Anatolia. Both search for a normal civilian life tanbul. Ugur Yucel directs.

SEUM OF SCIENCE

gar Omni Theatre

azon. This semidocumentary IMAX film fol- a real-life American ethnobotanist and a fic- l medicine man on parallel searches for heal- plants amid the Zoë tribe, possibly the last in the Americas to remain culturally intact. ugh April 30.

eece: Secrets of the Past. This film takes ers on an archeological adventure that exam- historical locations in Greece, such as the enon, and reconstructs them through the use mputer imaging. Through May 31.

ecial Effects. This film takes a behind-the- es look at the making of Star Wars: Where Sci- Meets Imagination, Kazaam!, Independence Day umanji. Through April 30.

ed-to-Win: Surviving the Tour de France. This explores how the body's organs are connected e brain, how the brain reacts to external li and how these factors ultimately determine inner of the world's most prestigious bicycle Through April 30.

' ENGLAND AQUARIUM

ons IMAX Theater

ns of the Deep. NASA scientists and marine gists embark on an expedition to hydrother- ent sites in the Atlantic and Pacific oceans to re volcanic regions. Through March.

p Sea 3D. An underwater crew logs over 300 underwater on 225 dives, filming squid in the Cortez, jellyfish off Monterey, and coral reefs in hamas. Through May.

•Sharks 3D. Jean-Michael Cousteau explores several shark species using three-dimensional views. Through March.

•Wild Safari 3D. This film shows the African savannah from a safari jeep exploration. Through March.

SOMERVILLE THEATER

•March 25, 8 pm. Blackmail 1929. Feeling neglected by her boyfriend, a woman secretly goes on a date with another man that ends in murder and subsequently blackmail. This silent film features live music by the Alloy Orchestra. Alfred Hitchcock directs.

Cinema Venues

ARLINGTON

Regent Theatre
7 Medford St. (617-646-4849).

BELMONT

Studio Cinema
376 Trapelo Road (617-484-1706).

BOSTON

Boston Public Library
700 Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

The Brendan Behan
378 Centre St. (617-522-5386). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.

Fenway 13 Theatre
201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St. (617-266-5152). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ ICA.

Loews Boston Common
175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.

Museum of Science
Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Line to Science Park.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.

Sister Sorel
645 Tremont St. (617-266-4600). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.

BROOKLINE

Circle Cinema
399 Chestnut Hill Ave. (617-566-4040). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle.

Coolidge Corner Theatre
290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE

Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Fresh Pond
168 Alewife Brook Parkway (617-661-2900). MBTA: Red Line to Alewife.

Harvard Film Archive
24 Quincy St. (617-495-4700). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Kendall Square Cinema
One Kendall Square. (617-621-1202). MBTA: Orange Line to Ruggles.

Loews/Sony
10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

NEWTON

Chestnut Hill Cinema
27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill.

West Newton Cinema
1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060). MBTA: Commuter Rail to West Newton.

SOMERVILLE

Loews/Sony
35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan Square.

Somerville Theatre
55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

Ondra is in a tight spot in Hitchcock's Blackmail, h the Alloy Orchestra accompanies March 25.

5 Private Rooms available for your Corporate or Social Event. Accommodating groups of any size for Lunch and Dinner

Offering a new prix-fixe Theatre menu & free parking for patrons of the Opera House.

Voted "Boston's Best Wine Bar" 2004 & 2005.

Wine tastings every Wednesday.

Everybody in the Pool

The ICP Orchestra sabotages expectations with wit, grace and anarchy.

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

As a Dutch jazz orchestra, the Instant Composers Pool is not likely to be confused with the macabre, face-painted rappers of the Insane Clown Posse, although both groups commonly apply the acronym ICP.

Yet listeners to the ICP Orchestra may perceive a level of playful insanity in the ensemble's open-ended explorations. It could surface in the counterpoint of belching horns or in the theatrical drumming of Han Bennink, who might lift his heel onto a drumhead to alter the pitch, or turn his sticks loose on a chair, the stage or even thin air.

"Real fun is unexpected," says bandleader Misha Mengelberg, whose group swings into the Institute of Contemporary Art March 31. "You don't recognize it initially, and suddenly, something is absolutely ridiculous and you start laughing."

Misha Mengelberg (bottom left) leads the intuitive virtuosos of the Amsterdam-based ICP

"You can decide if something has humor, but it's never a starting point for me," the pianist says from his Amsterdam home. "It happens more or less spontaneously."

Spontaneity is a key component for the ICP, co-founded in 1967 by Mengelberg, Bennink and saxophonist Willem Breuker, who left in 1974 to start his own band. Under their concept of "instant composing," musicians were given equal latitude to shape pieces through improvisation rather than scores.

"I want to have the possibilities to have instant changes in musical attitudes, to decide are we following the lines of the program or can we change at will the formulas of the program, and I think that works well with the group," says Mengelberg. He hands the players a minimal set list just before they take the stage, at times composed of material from the band's '70s or '80s repertoire that is unfamiliar.

"I'm not opposed to an all-out sabotage of anything that I write down, so when they prefer to sabotage, I listen to what they come up with, and the alternatives are welcome," the pianist says. "I have no ideas of being willing to dictate everything. I may be one captain on the ship, but the power belongs to those who have the plans and have something interesting for these 10 people to do."

The group includes violinist Mary Oliver, New England–born cellist Tristan Honsinger, acoustic bassist Ernst Glerum, trumpeter Thomas Heberer, trombonist Wolter Wierbos, and reed players Ab Baars, Tobias Delius and the Boston-trained Michael Moore. Their collective experience ranges from classical conservatory studies to brass bands and punk-jazz combos, and work with such artists as Cecil Taylor, Steve Lacy, Dave Douglas and Sonic Youth. And in the ICP, it collides in everything from Kurt Weill–shaded cabaret elements to Charles Mingus–sized exhortations to John Philip Sousa–style marches.

"I look for people who improvise, but also write and read well," says Mengelberg, by far the orchestra's eldest member at 70. "They don't need a lot of rehearsal time."

As a youth during the German occupation of Amsterdam in World War II, the Kiev-born Mengelberg spent much of his time indoors, straying from his early classical training to find an individual voice at the piano. Over the years to follow, he absorbed the melodic grace of Duke Ellington, the harmonic subversion of Thelonious Monk and the chance composition of John Cage in addition to the capricious polyphony of his fellow Dutch improvisers.

"I followed all the traditions in jazz music as far as I heard it," he says. "But I felt, well, we have to look in our own backyards for some originality where we take the improvisations."

So while the ICP has covered Ellington, Monk and Herbie Nichols, another Mengelberg favorite, one never knows the extent to which the spin will be different. "You cannot do more harm to a composer than to respect all the things he is doing," he says. "You should leave your respect at home and just open your ears and listen to what happens."

Of improvisation, the pianist adds, "When it is alive, it circles around its own base. It's not something that wants to be defined in any way, because that hurts the substance of it. Improvisation is about constant changing."

To that end, the ICP can glide with a finely tuned sense of space and sophistication, then slide into tonal anarchy on a dime, sounding like musicians blowing in separate rooms.

"Music should sound from time to time like that," says Mengelberg, who was inspired as well by the free-mixing Fluxus movement of the 1960s. "Six or seven people playing things that are out of order has an aspect for me which is beautiful." IB

The ICP Orchestra plays the Institute of Contemporary Art March 31.

Advice to Contributors
Submit information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc. (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music email to music@improper.com. Include dates, prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Dead four weeks prior to publication date. Listings cepted over the phone.

Advice to Readers
Information for the Music section is compiled fro ferent sources. Although we make every effort to p accurate dates and times, changes do occur. Call to double-check dates and times (see complete venues at the end of the section).

Top Billings

Joe Budden and Dre Robinson March 25, M East (617-492-9181).
Dream Theatre March 30, Orpheum Theater 931-2000).
Juan Gabriel March 26, Agganis Arena (617 2000).
Kid Rock March 30, Agganis Arena (617 2000).
La Guitara and Patty Larkin March 31, Berkle formance Center (617-747-2261).
Saves the Day April 2, Axis (617-931-2000).
Snow Patrol March 25, Paradise Rock Club 931-2000).
Bob Weir and Rat Dog April 1, Orpheum Th (617-931-2000).

Rock, Jazz and Blues

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: 28 Degrees, Tauru drey Ryan Band, Whitman, the Wandas, 9 pm Stage: Blake Thompson, Gabriel Mireles, 21+.
Avalon The Cult, 8 pm, $30.
Berklee Prefromance Center Kris Kristofferso 8 pm.
Bill's Bar Banana Hands, Tiny Whales, Marah Irepress, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Eugene Byrne, pm, 21+.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no co
Breezeway Still In Love, 7:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Ben Cook, 6 pm, no cover.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues Jam, 9 pm cover, 21+.
Club Passim Chris Pureka, Katie Sawicki, $10-$12.
Dick's Last Resort Jenn & Steve Show, 7 pm.
The French Library/Alliance Francaise Gifran pm, free.
Great Scott BlackOut Bar, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9:30 pm
Harpers Ferry Evolution, $5-$10, 18+.
Hennessy's The Buzz, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Groove Junkies, 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Anais Mitchell, 7:30 pm; the D Brennan Band, 9:30 pm. $5, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, 9 p cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Nylon 66, Midnight C Mahi Mahi, Warm Bodies, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Midway Café Tigers, 9 pm.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm, no cover.
PA's Th' Faith Healers, Bright, 9 pm, $6-$8,
Paradise Lounge Dirtie Blonde, Jake Brenn pm, $8, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Youth Group, Taxpayer, $12, 18+.
Regattabar The Either/Orchestra, 7:30 pm,
Scullers Jazz Club Joe Bonamassa, 8 and 1 $20.
Tír na nÓg Bad Art Ensemble, 10 pm, no 21+.
Toad Mieka Pauley, Meg Hutchinson, Je Matthews, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Tony Carelli Group, 8:30 p cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Frank Morey, Rod P the Patrons, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
Les Zygomates Rusty Scott Quartet, 8 p cover.

THURSDAY, MARCH 23

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Revival Prea Lucky 57, Hayseed Prophets, the Splendid N ies, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Jeremy Hopkins, Alpert, 7 pm.
All Asia Café Lee Wilson presents Barrio S 6:30 pm.

...iar The Charms, Madman Films, Distin-...l Members, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
...ack Rose Downstairs: Eugene Byrne, 9:30 ...
...outhern Bistro Myanna, 7 pm, $3.
...t the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cover.
...way Serious Bizness, 7:30 pm.
...Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover.
...Lounge Groove Authority, 9 pm, no cover, ...
...ssim Garnet Rogers, 8 pm, $13-$15.
...Last Resort Big Time, 7 pm.
...kinny Dorks, Frequency 7 VMF, 9 pm, 21+.
...undation Lounge Ray Charles Tribute Band, ...o cover, 21+.
...Scott The Fenway Recording Sessions, ... 9 pm, $8, 18+.
...reen Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies, ...n, 21+.
...Street Grill Joh Camara, Jama-Jigi, 10:30 ... cover.
...rs Ferry Paper, She's the Car, Rockethouse, ...
...ssy's Me & Julio, 9 pm, 21+.
...dy's Midtown John Mansfield, Peter Rice, 6 ...
...d Café Raina Rose, Doug Bemis, Dough Au-...ara White, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
...Lounge Swati, 8 pm; Dave Crossland, 9:30 ...0, 21+.
...s Lounge The Alex MacDougall Band, 9:30 ... cover, 21+.
...lurphy's Round Midnight, 10 pm, no cover.
...e East Upstairs: Silent Service, Miskatonic, ...g Theft, Dylan In the Movies, 9 pm, $9, 18+; ...tairs: Mates of State, Maria Taylor, Via ... 8 pm, $12, 18+.
...ar Steve Heck, 7:30 pm, no cover.
...uth Church The Willie Sordillo Trio, 6 pm. ...he Mules, the Fixations, the Bad Idea Party, 9 ...-$8, 21+.
... O's Justin Beach & Tom Groleau, 9:30 pm, ...
...ise Rock Club Arctic Monkeys, the Spinto ... 8 pm, $12, 18+.
...tabar Kyle Eastwood, 7:30 and 10 pm, $16.
...rs Theatre Eighth Blackbird, 3 pm, $23-$38.
...rs Jazz Club Tiempo Libre, 8 pm, $18.
...rville Theatre Billy Bragg, 8 pm, $35.
...a nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn, 10 pm, no ... 21+.
...The Family Jewels, the Jack Grace Band, 7 pm, ...er.
... the Hub Tony Carelli Group, 8:30 pm, no cover.
...he Bear's Place The Original Sinners, 7 ...Screamers, Lemonpeeler, Tremulant, 9 pm, ...12, 18+.
...rgomates April Hall Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

...DAY, MARCH 24

...y Lounge Main Stage: Witch, Black Heli-...t, Neptune, Ketman, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Ray ...s, Shawn Fogel, Jeff Patlingrao, Dan Turnbull, ... 21+.
...ttic The Radiators, 9 pm, $25, 21+.
...Bar Protokoll, the 8mm Fuzz, Blanks, 9 pm, $5, ...
...Black Rose Downstairs: Eugene Byrne; Up-... Tony O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
... Southern Bistro E Water Band, 7:30 pm, $5.
...at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cover.
...ol Lounge Joe Barbato 6 pm; Joe Barbato and ...uo, 9:30 pm, no cover.
...ab Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9 ...8, 21+.
... Passim Freebo and Photoglo, Wendy Wald-...7 pm, $13-$15.
...s Last Resort Incadence, 9:30 pm.
... Life Downtown Al Vega, 9:30 pm, no cover, ...
...d Canal Leaving Eden, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
...t Scott The Pill, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
...Green Briar Undercover, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
...Green Dragon Tavern Bumpin Uglies, 10 pm, ...1+.
...Harp Kick, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
...ers Ferry Swollen Members, Gym Class He-...Sweatshop Union, $10, 18+.
...ssy's Me & Julio, 5 pm; Fast Times, Brick ...9 pm, $5, 21+.
...ny D's James Montgomery Band, 9:45 pm, ...21+.
...edy's Midtown Tom Thumb, Anna Freita, ...Tess, 9:30 pm, $5.
...ale Sirsy, 9 pm.
...and Café Mickey Bliss Organ Combo, Gavin ...e, Greesome, Session, 8:30 pm, $5, 21+
...d Lounge Yoni Goldman, 7:30 pm; Tall Palm, ...pm, $8, 21+.

Lucky's Lounge The Alex MacDougall Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Akashic Record, 10 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: the Bluebloods, the Welch Boys, Nowhere USA, the Good Fight, the Pug Uglies, 9 pm, $9, 18+; Downstairs: Scissorfight's, Antler, Hot Rod Fury, 8 pm, $10, 18+.
Midway Café The Coachmen, 7 pm.
Milky Way Superfiction, Psylab, the 5th Pocket, 9 pm, $8.
Mr. Dooley's Eamonn Sheehan, 5 pm; Sunday's Well, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
NEC's Williams Hall Eyran Katsenelenbogen, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Oak Bar Bill Laughlin Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover.
PA's Casiotone for the Painfully Alone, Pants Yell!, the Donkeys, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Audio Underground, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Percy Hill, 9 pm, $15, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Arctic Monkeys, the Spinto Band, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Parris Last Man Standing, 10 pm, $5-$10.
Regattabar Fred Hersch, 7:30 and 10 pm, $16.
Ryles Jazz Club Four Piece Suit, 9 pm, $10.
Scullers Jazz Club Abbey Lincoln, 8 and 10:30 pm, $30.
Somerville Theatre Auktyon, 8 pm, $25.
Terrace Bar Clockwork, 9:30 pm.
Tír na nÓg Eilen Jewell Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad The Coots, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Tony Carelli Group, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Hooray For Earth, the Good North, Controller Controller, the Picture, 9:15 pm, $9, 18+.
The Western Front Project Think Different, 8 pm, $8.
ZuZu Gian Carlo Buscaglia, 11 pm, 21+.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

SATURDAY, MARCH 25

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Rev. Bob and the Darkness, Rock City Crimewave, the Dirty Whites, Shapes and Sizes, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Emilia Dahlin, Swim To Shore, 7 pm, 21+.
Asgard Oneside, no cover.
The Attic Loose Change, 8 pm, 21+.
Avalon Parker House and Theory, Badfish, 6 pm, $15.25.
Bill's Bar Ho-Ag, Shore Leave, Cinemachanica, Hallelujah, the Hills, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
The Black Rose Bobby Folks, 4 pm; Downstairs: Eugene Byrne; Upstairs: Tony O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Black Sole, 7:30 pm, $5.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm; Joe Barbato and bass duo, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Club Passim Anne Heaton Band, Frank Marotta Jr., 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dick's Last Resort Big 80's, 9:30 pm.
Good Life Downtown Al Vega, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Grand Canal Thomas Park, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott Big Bear, Part Chimp, Oxford Collapse, the Cops, the Plan, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Brick Park, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Green Street Grill Kilombo Mambo, 11:30 pm, $5.
The Harp Last Man Standing, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Hennessy's Syndicate, Velvet Jones, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Beausoleil, 9:45 pm, $22, 21+.
Kinsale Symbolics, 9 pm, 21+.
Kirkland Café My Own Worst Enemy, the Lizie Borden Band, Diesel Hourse, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Will Dailey, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, 7 pm, no cover.
Matt Murphy's Stillhouse Review, 10 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Sweetfist, the Klapp!, Mile 21, Quintus, 9 pm, $9, 18+; Downstairs: Joe Budden, Dre Robinson, DL, J-Rize, Ballcklub, 8 pm, $17-$20, 18+.
Midway Café Buck Moon, Paddy Soul, 9 pm.
Mr. Dooley's Sunday's Well, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Oak Bar Bill Laughlin Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover.
PA's Mark Dignam, the Instances, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Dick 'n' Jane, 9:30 pm 21+.
Paradise Lounge Evan Goodrow, 8 pm, $8-$10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Snow Patrol, Republic Of Loose, 8 pm, $20, 18+.
Parris Kick, 10 pm, $5-$10.
Purple Shamrock Scoobie Snax, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Regattabar McCoy Tyner, 7:30 and 10 pm, $36.
Ryles Jazz Club Ryles Jazz Orchestra, 9 pm, $12.
Scullers Jazz Club Abbey Lincoln, 8 and 10:30 pm, $30.
Terrace Bar Clockwork, 9:30 pm.
Tir na nÓg Eilen Jewell Band, 5 pm; Dennis Brennan Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Toad Trailer Park, 10 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Tony Carelli Group, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Mittens, Emergency Music, the End Of The World, Fatal Film, Eunuch, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
The Western Front Hot Like Fire, 8 pm, $10.
Les Zygomates Marianne Solivan, 8 pm, no cover.

SUNDAY, MARCH 26

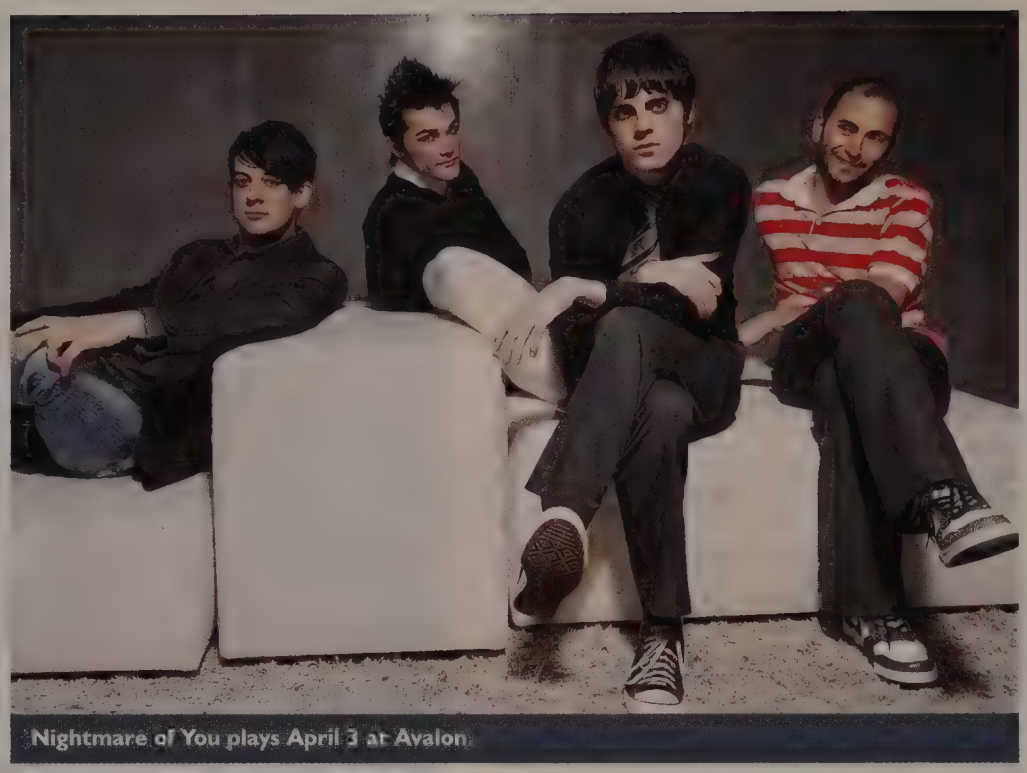
Agganis Arena Juan Gabriel, 8 pm, $59-$95.
All Asia Café The Mirsky's, Sunday Night Songwriter Series, 3 pm.
Bill's Bar Jah N I, 10 pm, $5, 19+.
The Black Rose Bobby Folks, 4 pm; Downstairs: Eugene Byrne, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Watson Quartet, 10:30 am, no cover.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 11:30 am, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan Jazz Brunch Duo, 11 am; Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Keith Murphy & Fair Play, 7:30 pm, $10-$12.
Dick's Last Resort John Polino, 7 pm.
The Green Dragon Tavern Brick Park, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Teddy Geiger, 7 pm, $10.
Hennessy's Tom Groleau Band, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Matt Dorko & Larry Kukers, 9 am; Blues Jam, 4:30 pm, $3.
Lucky's Lounge Bennett Miller Jazz Trio, 11 am; Al Vega Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Matt Murphy's Mang Dub, 10 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Dr. Dog, What Made Milwaukee Famous, 9 pm, $10, 18+; Downstairs: the Gossip, Comet Gain, 8 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
Milky Way Signos and Rojo Llegal, 8:30 pm, $10.
Mr. Dooley's Visiting guest musicians from Ireland, 9 pm, 21+.
PA's Jackie-O Motherfucker, Sir Richard Bishop, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Lounge The Boston Babydolls, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Regattabar McCoy Tyner, 7 pm, $36.
Regent Theatre Ed Spargo Band, 8 pm, $12.50-$15.
Ryles Jazz Club Yoko Miwa, 10 am, no cover; Jazzidic, 7 pm, $18.
Toad The Goody Trio, Mike Dinallo, Dean Cassell, Steve Sadler, Andy Plaisted, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm; Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Fun, Gina Young Band, 9:15 pm, $7.

MONDAY, MARCH 27

All Asia Café Brendan's Showcase, Grrrl Rush Showcase, 6:30 pm.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Tony O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm.
The Green Briar Irish Seisiun, 10 pm, $5-$7.
Harpers Ferry Steel Train, $8, 18+.
Hennessy's Joe Carson, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Matt Murphy's BT Group, 10 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: the Joggers, Georgie James, Night Rally, 9 pm, $9, 18+; Downstairs: Magnolia Electric Co., Destroyer, Nedelle, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
NEC's Keller Room Keller Jazz Series, 6:30 pm, no cover.
Paradise Lounge Larissa Maestro, 7 pm, $5, 18+.
Tír na nÓg Kevin Byrne, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Shwang, the Time Gearan Band, 8 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

TUESDAY, MARCH 28

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: the Irreverends, Lady of Spain, Dirtmall, Brian Krantz Sound, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Eric Doberman, Doug McDonald, 7 pm, 21+.
All Asia Café Songs Alive, 6:30 pm.
An Tua Nua's Scott McNair, 8:30 pm, $7, 21+.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Ben Cook, 6 pm, no cover.
Cantab Lounge Bluegrass Pickin' Party, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Tom Brosseau, Matt Bauer, 8 pm, $10-$12.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm.
Felt Charlotte Martin, Emm Gryner, Mark Dignam, 9 pm, 21+.
The Foundation Lounge Jeanie Flynn & the Strays, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott Apathy, Heartbreak Hits, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9:30 pm, 21+.



Nightmare of You plays April 3 at Avalon

Green Street Grill The Two Timin' Three, the Hills, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Hunger Mtn. Boys, Crooked Jades, 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Kinsale Christy O'Connell, 7 pm, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Eileen Rose, Hank Crane, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Micro, 10 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Soul Movement, Mike Maven and the Good Life, Del Hill Trio, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
NEC's Jordan Hall Jazz and Wildcard Ensembles, 8 pm, no cover.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Orpheum Ray Davies, 7:30 pm, $29.50-$45.
PA's Charles Atlas, the Drift, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Regattabar Bernardo Monk & Mass Tango, 7:30 pm, $12-$14.
Tír na nÓg David Johnston Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Jon Nolan, Jimmy Ryan and Hayride, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Product, Inchworm, the Glass Fracture, Thousand Days, 9 pm, $7, 18+.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: the Shipwrecks, Swaggerin' Growlers, Aloke, Craig, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Laura Imhoff, Max Glantzman, 7 pm, 21+.
All Asia Café Collective, 10:30 pm.
Avalon The Orb, 8 pm, $25.
Bill's Bar Scholar, the Young Republic, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cover.
Breezeway Jose Ramos & No Way Jose Band, 7:30 pm.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Vinx, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Common Ground Dave Leeb, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Jenn & Steve Show, 7 pm.
Great Scott BlackOut Bar, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
Harpers Ferry Taylor Hollingsworth, Roger Clyne, the Peacemakers, $12, 21+.
Hennessy's The Buzz, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Goran Ivanovic Group, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Ray Mason, 7:30 pm; the Dennis Brennan Band, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Scout Niblett, Mike Wexler, Tigersaw, Ryan Lee & the Mindless, 9 pm, $9-$10, 18+.
NEC's Keller Room Keller Jazz Series, 6:30 pm, no cover.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm, no cover.
PA's Pony Pants, Eject, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Dirtie Blonde, Jake Brennan, 8 pm, $8, 18+.
Regattabar Godfrey Townsend & Friends, 7:30. $16.
Scullers Jazz Club Taylor Eigsti Quartet, Julian Lage, 8 and 10 pm, $18.
Tír na nÓg Bad Art Ensemble, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Mieka Pauley, Nicole Nelson, Jennifer Greer Trio, Laura Brauns, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place I Love You But I've Chosen Darkness, Age Rings, the Bleedin Bleedins, 9:15 pm, $9, 18+.
Les Zygomates Ziaf, 8 pm, no cover.

THURSDAY, MARCH 30

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Downbeat 5, Boss Martians, Electrolux, 11 Morrisson, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Eric Sommer, Lori Amey, 7 pm, 21+.
Agganis Arena Kid Rock, 7:30 pm, $35.
All Asia Café A Dream that Can Last, 9:30 pm.
Bill's Bar Rookie of the Year, 9 pm, 18+.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Lenny Stalsworth Quartet, 7 pm, $3.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cover.
Breezeway Serious Bizness, 7:30 pm.

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

Alkaline Trio April 18, Avalon (617-931-2000).
Black Eyed Peas and the Pussycat Dolls April 29, Agganis Arena (617-358-7000).
Elvis Costello May 10, Boston Symphony Hall (617-266-1492).
Death Cab for Cutie and Franz Ferdinand April 12, Agganis Arena (617-358-7000).
Gov't Mule, Michael Franti and Spearhead June 2, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Faith Hill and Tim McGraw June 25 and 26, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
R. Kelly April 7, Wang Center (617-451-1436).
Steve Miller Band August 25 and 26, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Willie Nelson May 27, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
P.O.D. April 22, Axis (617-262-2437).
Linda Ronstadt June 1, Opera House (617-931-2000).
Sigur Ros May 13, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
The Strokes April 25, Agganis Arena (617-358-7000).
Taking Back Sunday May 5, Avalon (617-931-2000).
Train April 25, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0810).
Yeah Yeah Yeahs April 7, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0810).

Cantab Lounge Aftermath, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Rose Polenzani, 8 pm, $10-$12.
Dick's Last Resort Big Time, 7 pm.
Felt Parkview, Lynn Street, Monopoli, 9 p cover, 21+.
The Foundation Lounge Ray Charles Tribute I 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott The Rudds, Great Scott, 9 pm, $8
Green Street Grill Joh Camara & Jama-Jigi, pm, no cover.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Hassan Hakmoun, 9 pm, $15, 21+
Kennedy's Midtown John Mansfield, Peter 6 pm.
Kirkland Café Bathtub Saints, Flea Circus, N Flanagan, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Club D'Elf, 9:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge The Alex McDougall Band pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Wild Sextet, 10 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Random Acts of Vio Cryptic Warning, Porfiria, DeathAmphetam pm, $9, 18+.
NEC's Keller Room Keller Jazz Series, 6:3 no cover.
Oak Bar Steve Heck, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Old South Church The Willie Sordillo Trio, 6
Orpheum Dream Theatre, 8 pm, $33.50-$38.
Paradise Rock Club Buckethead, That 1 Guy, $14, 18+.
Regattabar David Murray Quartet, 7:30 a pm, $22.
Ryles Jazz Club Sofia Koutsovitis, 9 pm, $9.
Scullers Jazz Club Down To the Bone, 8 a pm, $26.
Tír na nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn, 10 p cover, 21+.
Toad The Family Jewels, the Poverty Line Olc Band, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no
T.T. the Bear's Place Beast With 2 Back Streamers, Missy & the Band, Sun5 Band, Wednesday, Chris Wilhelm, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
ZuZu The Lot Six, 11 pm, 21+.
Les Zygomates Brian Kelley Trio, 8 pm, no co

FRIDAY, MARCH 31

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: the Jumblies, G Top, Baker, In Secrecy, 9 pm; Pub Stage: BJ den, Leon Rich Band, Marky Mayhem, 7 pm
All Asia Café Laura Reegan Presents, the S bumps, Valeze, 6:30 pm.
The Attic Gary Backstrom Band, Maria Dema pm, 21+.
Axis Straylight, 6:45 pm, $14.
Berklee Performance Center La Guitara & P Larkin, 8:15 pm, $25.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Frank Ryan; Up Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Pat Loomis Quartet, 7: $5.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cov
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, no cover, 21+.
Common Ground Headcold, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort The Maxwells, 9:30 pm.
Good Life Downtown Al Vega, 9:30 pm.
Grand Canal Barnone, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott The Pill, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Freeze Pop, 10 p 21+.
The Harp Darik and the Funbags, 20 pm, $10, 2
Harpers Ferry The Graveyard Barbeque, Sasq and the Sick-a-Billys, the Andwutz, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5 pm; the Risk, Swerve, $5, 21+.
Institute of Contemporary Art ICP Orchestra, $10, $8 students.
Kinsale The Christy O'Connell Band, 9 pm, 21
Kirkland Café Mickey Bliss Organ Combo, Jake Jakes, Too Stupid to Blink, 8:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Jeremy Hopkins, 7:30 pm; Jur Daughter, 9:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Blacksnake, 10 pm, no cover, 2
Matt Murphy's The Well, 10 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Cart Blanch, Medina Sod Larry, the Murder Elite, 9 pm, $9, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Eamonn Sheehan, 5 pm; Decla Kevin, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Oak Bar Bill Laughlin Jazz Quartet, 8:15 p cover.
Orpheum Césaria Évora, 8 pm, $30-$50.
PA's The Shills, the Vital Might, the Moodus N pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Spike the Punch, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Julian Velard, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Eisley, Simon Dawes, Brig 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Parris Love Seed Mama Jump, 10 pm, $5-$10.

abar Michel Camilo Trio, 7:30 and 10 pm,

azz Club Herman Johnson, 9 pm, $10.
's Theatre Passim 48th Anniversary Concert udy Collins, Lori McKenna, Mark Erelli, an, 7:30 pm, $30-$150.
's Jazz Club Lavay Smith & Her Red Hot Lickers, 8 and 10:30 pm, $22.
ville Theatre Christine Lavin, 8 pm, $28.
e Bar Big Time, 9:30 pm.
nÓg Zipper, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
he Freelance Bishops, 10:30 pm, no cover.
the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, Maggie Galloway, no cover.
e Bear's Place AdFrank & The Fast Easy-n, Francine, the Plain Janes, Sarah Rabdau, , $9, 18+.
Gian Carlo Buscaglia, 11 pm, 21+.
gomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

URDAY, APRIL 1

Lounge Main Stage: Mung, Wild Zero, the , Cocked 'n' Loaded, 9 pm; Pub Stage: the Cramps, 7 pm, 21+.
a Café J. Blake Showcase, 1 pm.
aproot, 6:30 pm, $16.50.
lar Certified Bananas, 9 pm, 21+.
lack Rose Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Southern Bistro Uziel Colon Latin Jazz Band, m, $5.
b Lounge Little Joe Cook & the Thrillers, 9 , 21+.
assim Sonya Kitchell, 8 pm, $13-$15.
non Ground Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, er.
Last Resort Mugsy, 9:30 pm.
Life Downtown Al Vega, 9:30 pm, no cover,

Scott Frank Smith, Jake Brennan and the lence Men, Furvis, the Plan, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
n Street Grill Kilombo Mambo, 11:30 pm,

larp Darik and the Funbags, 20 pm, $10, 21+.
y D's Tarbox Ramblers, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
e Christy O'Connell, 9 pm, 21+.
nd Café Kristian Montgomery, Gary Alex, ola, Proud to be Human, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Andrea Gillis, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, 7 pm, no cover.
Matt Murphy's Thousands of One, 10 pm, no cover.
MIT Charles Gayle, Ran Blake, 8 pm, $7-$10.
Oak Bar Bill Laughlin Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover.
Orpheum Bob Weir & Ratdog, 8 pm, $31-$36.
PA's Moonbats, Tralala, the Glass Set, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Mieka Pauley, Harriet Street, 9 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
Parris Love Seed Mama Jump, 10 pm, $5-$10.
Scullers Jazz Club Lavay Smith & Her Red Hot Skillet Lickers, 8 and 10:30 pm, $22.
Terrace Bar Big Time, 9:30 pm.
Tír na nÓg Richie Lee, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Fancy Trash, 10 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, Maggie Galloway, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place dEUS, Eastern Conference Champions, the Douglas Fir, 10:15pm, $10, 18+.

SUNDAY, APRIL 2

Avalon Big D and the Kids Table, 5:30 pm, $15.
Axis Saves the Day, 7:30 pm, $16.50.
The Black Rose Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Groove Authority, 10:30 am, no cover.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 11:30 am, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Jules Shear, 7:30 pm, $18-$20.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm.
Great Scott They Shoot Horses, Don't They?, Honeypump, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Johnny D's Tom Pendergast, 9 am; Blues Jam, 4:30 pm, $3.
Lucky's Lounge Bennett Miller Trio, 11 am, no cover.
Matt Murphy's Samba Lolo, 10 pm, no cover.
Milky Way Lee Wilson, 8:30 pm, $5.
Mr. Dooley's Visiting guest musicians from Ireland, 9 pm, 21+.
PA's Two Dead Sluts One Good Fuck, Talibam, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Tres Chicas, Lynn Blakey, Tonya Lamm, Caitlin Cary, 7 pm, $8-$10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Hard-Fi, 8 pm, $14, 18+.
Top of the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm; Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Stills, Sam Roberts, 10 pm, $10, 18+.

MONDAY, APRIL 3

Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: the Blue Ribbons, the Blue Ribbons, the Blooming, 7 pm, 21+.
Avalon She Wants Revenge, Astra Heights, Nightmare of You, 8 pm, $15.25.
The Black Rose Tony O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm; Joe Barbato and bass duo, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm.
Great Scott Centro-Matic. Great Lake Swimmers, Drew O'Doherty, Heartbreak Hits, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
The Green Briar Irish Seisiun, 10 pm, $5-$7, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Steel Train, $8, 18+.
Hennessy's Joe Carson, 9 pm, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Mike Tucker Quartet, 10 pm, no cover.
Middle East Downstairs: Art Brut, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Paddy O's Greg Latrell, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Kevin Byrne Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Nine Black Alps, 10:45 pm, $10.17, 18+.

TUESDAY, APRIL 4

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Kenny Chambers, Radio Knives, Humanoids, My Drug Hell, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Jay Allen, Bob Cenci, Natalie Flanagan, Eric Doberman, 7 pm, 21+.
Asgard Better Not Broken.
Axis Hinder, Theory of a Deadman, 8 pm, $15.50.
Bill's Bar Secret Lives of the Freemasons, Gods, Glory of This, Valeyra, 9 pm, $9, 18+.
The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm; Joe Barbato and bass duo, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Cantab Lounge Bluegrass Pickin' Party, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Transcendant 3rd, 7 pm, $5.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm.
The Foundation Lounge Jeanie Flynn & the Strays, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Grand Canal Maxie Courtney, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott BlackOut Bar, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9 pm, 21+.
Green Street Grill The Two Timin' Three, the Hills, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Harpers Ferry Rachel Platten, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Leslie Clemmons, 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Kinsale Tom Courtney, 7 pm.
Lizard Lounge Ramona Silver, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Public House, 10 pm, no cover.
NEC's Keller Room Keller Jazz Series, 6:30 pm, no cover.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Paradise Rock Club Blackalicious, Lifesavas, Fatlip, Omni, Pigeon John, 7 pm, $18, 18+.
Regattabar Pablo Menendez, 7:30 pm, $15.
Sky Bar Charlene DiCalogero, 8 pm, $6, 21+.
Tír na nÓg David Johnston Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Westgate, Hepburn, Kinetic Theory, 9:15 pm, $7, 18+.

Music Venues

Abbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Agganis Arena 925 Comm Ave., Boston (617-353-4628). MBTA: Green Line to Pleasant.
All-Asia Cafe 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-1544). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
An Tua Nua's 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121). MBTA:D Green Line to Kenmore.
Anthem 138 Portland St., Boston (617-523-8383). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
Atrium The Regal Bostonian Hotel ,20 North St., Boston (617-523-3600). MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Avenue One One Avenue de Lafayette, Boston (617-422-5579). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing.

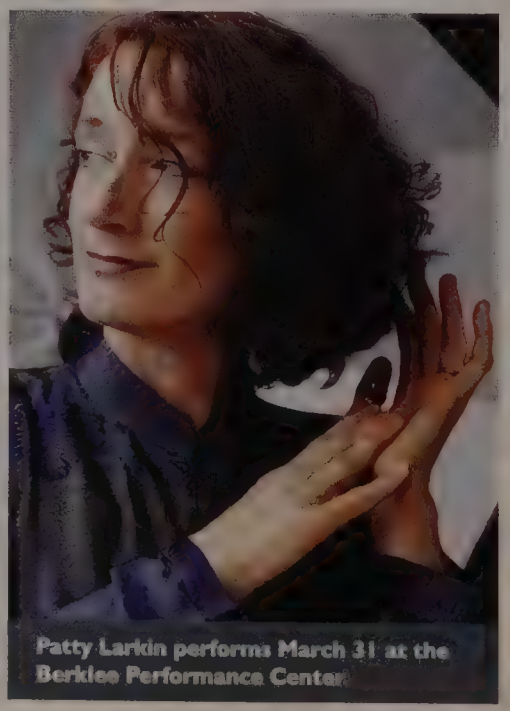
Foxis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Azure Lenox Hotel, 61 Exeter St., Boston (617-933-4800). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Bank of America Pavilion 290 Northern Ave., Boston (617-728-1600). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Berklee Performance Center 136 Mass Ave. Boston (617-747-2261). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-742-2286). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Bob's Southern Bistro 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-6204). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
Boston Harbor Hotel 70 Rowes Warf, Boston (617-439-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
Bravo @ the MFA 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3474). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.
Breezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5400). MBTA: Orange Line to Roxbury.
Bristol Lounge 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2052). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Citybar 61 Exeter St., Boston (617-933-4800). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Club Cafe 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Club Q 25 Union St., Boston (857-829-3766). MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Copperfield's 98 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-247-8605). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Cottonwood Cafe 222 Berkleey St., Boston (617-247-2225). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
Desmond O'Malley's 30 Worcester Road, Route 9, Framingham (508-875-9400).
Dick's Last Resort Faneuil Hall, Market Place, Quincy Market Bldg., Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: D Green Line to Gov. Center.
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Fireplace 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington.
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900). MBTA: D Green Line to Kenmore.
The French Library/Alliance Francaise 53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., Boston (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-566-9014). MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100). MBTA: B Green Line to Reservoir.
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., Boston (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Green Street Grill 280 Green St., Cambridge (617-876-1655). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Harpers Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
High Street Grill 200 High St., Boston (617-523-4000). MBTA: Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Institute of Contemporary Art 955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Jacob Wirth 37 Stuart St., Boston (617-338-8586). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617- 451-9460). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing.
Kendall Cafe 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Cambridge (617-547-3802). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
Kennedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Boston (617-426-3333). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park.
Kings 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.

Badfish plays March 25 at Avalon.

Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Kinvara 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Kirkland Café 425 Washington St., Somerville (617-482-4920).
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., Boston (617-357-5825).
Matt Murphy's Pub 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-232-0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village.
Matrix 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain, (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Green.
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
MIT's Kresge Auditorium 48 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617- 253-2691). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
Mobius 374 Congress St., Boston (617-542-7416). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Mr. Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-5656). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
NEC's Jordan and Williams Halls and Keller Room 30 Gainsborough, Boston (617-585-1100). MBTA: E Green Line to Sympohny.
Ned Devine's Fanueil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-8800). MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center.
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
O'Brien's 3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-6245). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Olde Magoun's Saloon 518 Medford St., Somerville (617-776-2600). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Orpheum Theatre 31 Hamilton Pl., Boston (617 679 0810). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Paddy O's 33 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Paradise Lounge 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Paradise Rock Club 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Parris 250 Quincy Market Building (617-248-9900). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
PA's 345 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-776-1557). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Phatt Boys 50 Church St., Cambridge (617-354-2005). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060). MBTA: Orange Line to State.
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051). MBTA: Greeen Line to Gov. Center.
Red Fez 1222 Washington St., Boston (617-338-6060). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-395-7757). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Roggies 356 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617-566-1880). MBTA: Green Line to Cleveland Circle.
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Sanders Theatre 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-456-4595). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Road, Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-623-5223). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Solas 710 Boylston St., Boston (617-933-4803). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Somerville Theatre 55 Davis Square, Somerville (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Sweetwater Cafe 3 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2515). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
TD Banknorth Garden 100 Legends Way, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Terrace Bar 110 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-236-5800). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
Tir na nÓg 366 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-628-4300). Red Line to Harvard.
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-2327). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Venezia 20 Ericsson St., Dorchester (617-436-3120). MBTA: Red Line to Ashmont.
Wally's 427 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-424-1408). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
The Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Boston (617-351-2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Zeitgeist Gallery 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-876-6060). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
ZuZu 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-3278). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.



Patty Larkin performs March 31 at the Berklee Performance Center.

classical music

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (61.. 2378). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line t.. phony. 10 and 11:50 am. $10-$18. Bruce H.. leads the Boston Symphony Orchestra in a.. concert entitled Made in America—Born in .. This program includes excerpts from works by .. wick, Converse, Ives, Piston, Hanson, Chav.. Copland.

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Gard.. Cambridge (617-566-5218). www.longy.edu. M.. Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. An Even.. Mozart features pianist Ann Franciose Pe.. pianist Shizue Sano, pianist Karina Bagdazari.. soprano Beverly Dal Pozzal in a performance o.. duets and soprano arias.

THURSDAY, MARCH 23

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (61.. 2378). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line t.. phony. 10 am. $10-$18. Same program as Mar..

MIT Chapel Concert
MIT Chapel, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (61.. 2826). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Green .. Hynes/ICA. 12 pm. Free. The Ensemble T.. presents The Anatomy of Melancholy: Gre.. English Songs of Love and Loss featuring .. Georgakarakou, soprano; Panayotis Terzaki.. and percussion; and Richard Maloney, mediev.. renaissance lutes, oud and percussion.

FRIDAY, MARCH 24

Bank of America Celebrity Serie..
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (61.. 6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Gre.. to Symphony. 8 pm. $33-$83. Kurt Masur co.. violinist Sergey Khachatryan and the Londo.. harmonic Orchestra in a performance of Br.. Simple Symphony, Mozart's Symphony No. .. 297, Khachaturian's Violin Concerto and S.. Til Eulenspiegel.

Boston Chamber Music Society
NEC's Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Bosto.. 661-1812). www.bostonchambermusic.org. MB.. Green Line to Symphony. 7:30 pm. $17-$46, $5.. dents. The Turning Point Concert features De.. Cello Sonata, Schnittke's Piano Quintet (197.. Beethoven's String Quartet in B-flat major, Op..

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (61.. 2378). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line t.. phony. 10 and 11:50 am. $10-$18. Same prog.. March 22.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Green or Re.. to Park. 12:15 pm. Free. Pianist Chris G.. performs in Music at the Meeting House: The.. Diploma Series.

SATURDAY, MARCH 25

Boston Center for the Arts
Calderwood Pavilion, 539 Tremont St., Boston.. 281-8569). www.voxconsort.org. MBTA: C.. Line to Back Bay. 6 pm. $50-$150. Crescer.. benefit concert for Vox Consort, features sele.. from Handel's Solomon, Gay's The Beggar's Ope.. Handel and Gay's Acis and Galatea.

Boston Early Music Festival
NEC's Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., .. (617-661-1812). www.bemf.org. MBTA: E .. Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $20-$59. Masaaki Suz.. rects the Bach Collegium Japan in a performa.. J.S. Bach's B minor Suite for Flute and Strings.. certo in D minor for Harpsichord, Concerto f.. Violins and Brandenburg Concerto No. 5.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (61.. 2378). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line t.. phony. 10 am and 12 pm. $10-$18. Same prog.. March 22.

Cape Ann Symphony
Fuller Auditorium, Blackburn Circle, Gloucester.. 281-0543). www.capeannsymphony.org. 8 pm. $25, free for children under 18. Boston Symphon.. chestra violinist Lucia Lin joins the Cape.. Symphony for the Winter Dreams Concert fea..

y Khachatryan performs March 24
mphony Hall.

ssohn's Violin Concerto, Tchaikovsky's Sym- No. 1 Winter Dreams and Robert Bradshaw's Countryman.

Concert Series
M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., dge (617-566-5218). www.longy.edu. MBTA: e to Harvard. 8 pm. $15-$20, free with Longy musicis presents pianist Inna Faliks in the premiere of Israeli composer Jan Freidlin's in Black and White, Franz Schubert's Sonata inor and works by Scarlatti, Rachmaninoff ostakovich.

IDAY, MARCH 26

of America Celebrity Series
rformance Center, 685 Comm. Ave., Boston 82-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: B Line to Boston University East. 2 pm. $15-$25. ser Rob Kapilow conducts Crossing the Divide mily Musik.

of America Celebrity Series
Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-482- www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: Red Line to d. 3 pm. $23-$38. Music ensemble Eighth ird performs works by Fred Lerdahl and Fred- zewski as well as from Jefferson Friedman's Ashley Fure's Inescapable and Marcus ley's Rhythms.

on Chamber Music Society
s Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-661- www.bostonchambermusic.org. MBTA: Red Harvard. 7:30 pm. $17-$46, $5 for students. program as March 24.

on Symphony Chamber Players
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617- 378). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to ony. 8 pm. $17-$30. Boston Symphony Cham- ayers perform Schubert's String Quintet in C, , Hindemith's Kammermusik No. 1 for chamber ble and Orff's Kleines Konzert on 16th-century emes for winds, harpsichord and percussion.

anuel Music
nuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617- 356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Arlington. 10 am. Free. The Orchestra and s of Emmanuel Music perform Bach's BWV 1 Bach Cantata Series.

ella Stewart Gardner Museum
he Fenway, Boston (617-278-5102). www. nmuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. m. $5-$20. The Young Artists Showcase pre- Beethoven's String Trio in G major, Op. 9, No. Haly's Serenade, Op. 12 and Dvorak's Piano et in A major, Op. 81.

's Chapel Concert Series mont St., Boston (617-227-2155). www.kings- .org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 5 pm. 2. King's Chapel Choir and soloists present Can Be Far Behind?, an a cappella program of music bration of the Vernal Equinox.

gy Concert Series
rd M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., ridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: ine to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Pianist Shizue Sano ms Schubert's Sonata in B-flat major, D. 960 achmaninoff's Thirteen Preludes, Op. 32.

gy Concert Series
rd M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., ridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: ine to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Pianist Shaylor ay and friends perform works by Mozart, ert, Ravel and Smetana.

rton Symphony Orchestra
Auditorium, 15 Walnut Park, Newton (617-965- www.newtonsymphony.org. 7:30 pm. $25-$30. ist Polina Sedukh joins the Newton Symphony estra in a performance of Schumann's Overture to Genoveva, Wieniawski's Violin Concerto No. 2 and Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 6, Pathetique.

TUESDAY, MARCH 28

Boston Conservatory
Seully Hall, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-912-9222). www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. 8 pm. Free. Pianist Frederic Rzewski performs his original compositions in the Piano Masters Series.

King's Chapel Concert Series
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-2155). www.kings-chapel.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 12:15 pm. $3 suggested donation. Jason Chapman directs the Russell School Orchestra in a performance of works by Bach, Mozart and Ravel.

THURSDAY, MARCH 30

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $28-$108. Yuri Temirkanov conducts violinist Joshua Bell and the Boston Symphony Orchestra in a performance of Mussorgsky's Prelude to Khovanshchina, Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto and Brahms' Symphony No. 4.

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Longy's Ensemble-in-Residence presents Vento Chiaro, featuring woodwind music by Andre Jolivet, Jim Territo, Elliott Carter and the winning work from the Longy Student Composer Woodwind Quintet Competition.

FRIDAY, MARCH 31

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 1:30 pm. $28-$108. Same program as March 30.

Chamber Orchestra of Boston
NEC's Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-266-1626). www.chamberorchestraofboston.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. American Landscapes features Ruth Crawford's Music for Small Orchestra and Charles Tomlinson Griffes' Tones Pictures, Op. 5.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 12:15 pm. Free. The Tel Aviv Trio, featuring pianist Jonathan Aner, violinist Matan Givol and cellist Ira Givol, perform in Music at the Meeting House: The Artist Diploma Series.

SATURDAY, APRIL 1

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $28-$108. Same program as March 30.

Foundation for Chinese Performing Arts
NEC's Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.chineseperformingarts.net. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $10-$25. Pianist Cheng-Zong Yin performs Baldassare Galuppi's Sonata in C major, Beethoven's Sonata in F minor, Op. 57 and Schubert's Sonata in B-flat major, D. 960.

SUNDAY, APRIL 2

Brandeis University
Slosberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3400). www.brandeis.edu/arts. 8 pm. Free. Tom Souza conducts the Brandeis Wind Ensemble in a performance of works by Sousa, Holst and Ticheli.

Emmanuel Music
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. Free. The Orchestra and Chorus of Emmanuel Music perform Bach's BWV 56 in the Bach Cantata Series.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-278-5102). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 1:30 pm. $5-$20. The Marie Louis and David Scudder Concert features The Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center performing Mozart's Concerto No. 14 for Piano and Orchestra in E-flat major, K. 449, Violin Sonata in B-flat major, K. 454 and Quartet in G minor for violin, viola, cello and piano, K. 478.

Wellesley College
Jewett Auditorium, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2082). www.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7:30 pm. Free. The Lydian String Quartet and Contralto Marion Dry present Mozart's Adagio and Fugue in C minor, K. 546, Resphighi's Il Tramonto, Zallman's Il Sabato del Villagio and Schubert's Quartet in D minor, Death and the Maiden.

dance clubs

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Ceremony A night of Gothic and industrial music, 9 pm, $3, 19+.

Axis
Static Gay night with DJs and drag performances, 10 pm, $7, 19+.

Caprice
Buddha Bar DJ Kamel spins a mix of Middle Eastern and international beats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Felt
S.I.N. Mondays This Service Industry Night includes free pool and guest DJs spinning high-energy dance, house and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, hip-hop, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
Irish seisiun.

Green Street Grill
Havana Club's Mambo Mondays Featuring DJ Cuban Jeff, salsa lessons and dance, 9:30 pm, $10 ($8 after lesson), 18+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays Featuring hip-hop, reggae and rap, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
DJs spin dance music, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Two local DJs hold a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Saint
S.I.N. Service Industry Night DJ Tony Moreno spins house and hip-hop, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAYS

Embassy
DJ Joe spins hip-hop, rock, funk and '80s, 10 pm, no cover, 19+.

The Enormous Room
Soul'd Out DJ duo Tommy and Knife spin hits from the '70s and '80s, 10 pm-2 am, $3.

The Foundation Lounge
Torch Tuesdays Jeanie Flynn and the Strays perform three live sets, 7:30 pm.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins a mix including R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
Totally '80s Tuesday DJ Rubiks Cube spins classic '80s music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover.

Paradise Lounge
Mashup Tuesdays DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop, rock, '80s and more, 10 pm, $7, 18+.

Phoenix Landing
Take DJ Scott Bliff spins funk, soul and electro '80s, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin Top 40 and dance music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Karaoke with Dana Z, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
DJs spin dance music, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Karaoke for Cash with Deb-N-Art.

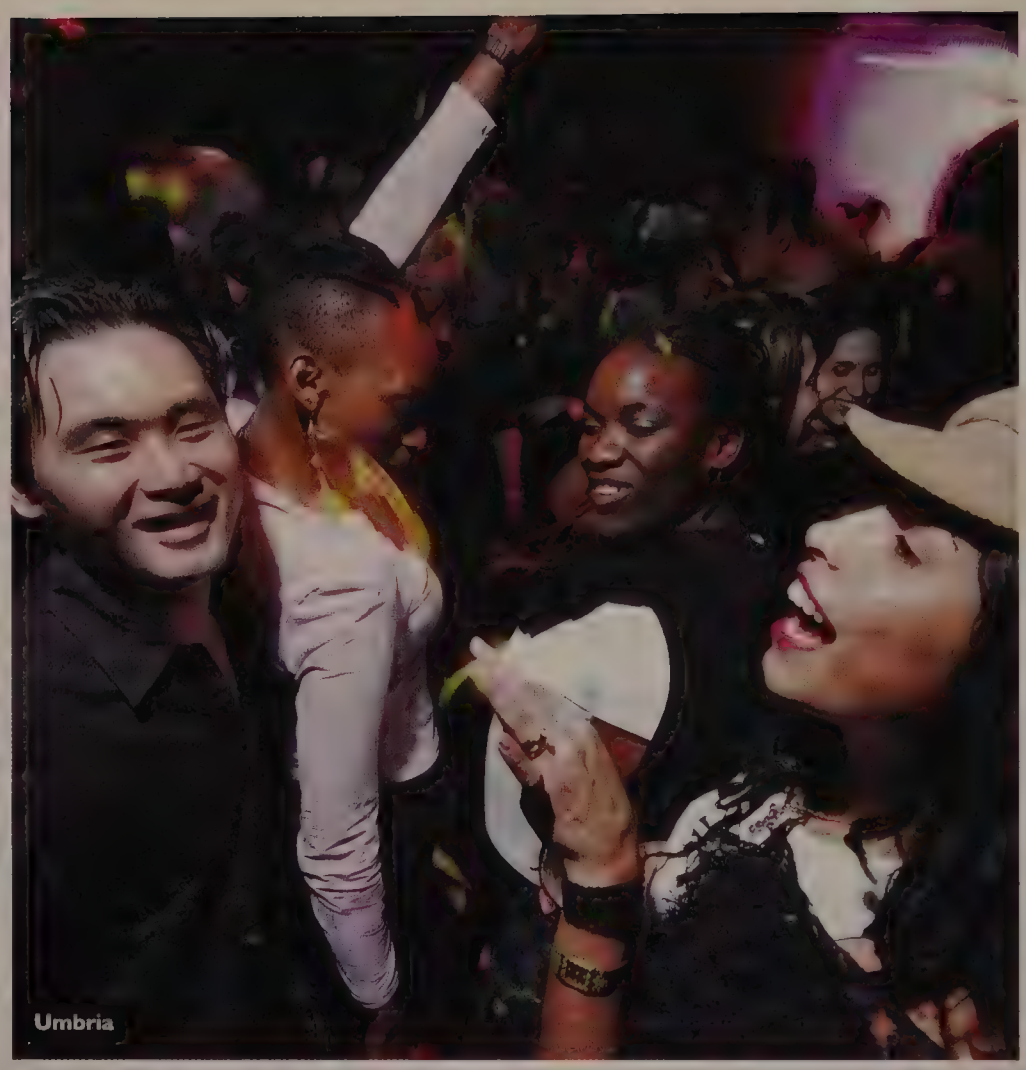
River Gods
Eavesdrop The weekly listening party kicks off at 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
Night varies with an assortment of performances and themed events, 10 pm-2 am.

Venu
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

WEDNESDAYS

An Tua Nua
Salsa Night DJs Hernan, D. Martinez, Antonio Ortiz and guests spin salsa music. Includes beginner lessons and karaoke, 8 pm, $12, 21+.



Umbria

Bill's Bar
Funken Gruven Night Live funk bands, 9 pm, $13-$15, 18+.

Clerys
Live music, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
iPod Night Bring your own iPod and be an MP3J, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
Soulcity Old school and '70s classics, 8 pm-12 am, $5.

Dbar
Glamourtrash DJ Michael Fontana plays rock, new wave, pop, punk and electro beats.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Enormous Room
Galactic Fractures DJ P.J. Gray spins soul and funk, 10 pm-2 am, $3.

Felt
Boogie Nights DJ Mike Bose spins hip-hop, rock and house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Flat Top Johnny's
Local DJs spin rock music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins a mix including R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
International Wednesdays DJs spin a mix of international music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc cues up hip-hop, Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
The Basement DJ Boo Boo hosts a night of punk, '70s-style new wave and house, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Underground dance music, 10 pm, $5, 19+; $3, 21+.

The Place
Musician Greg Lutrell performs, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
Star 93.7's DJ Ricky spins dance music, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Oldies but Goodies DJ Russ McQueen spins hits from the '50s, '60s and '70s, no cover.

Redline
The NGP All-Stars spin an eclectic collection of dance and hip-hop hits, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Reel Bar
DJ Steve Austin spins hip-hop, reggae and R&B, 9 pm-1 am.

River Gods
Primitive Wednesdays Boogie down to rock, gospel and blues, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
Latino night with DJ Adilson, 10 pm-2 am.

Saint
Wednesday Music Series The Brian Walkley Band plays R&B and dance in the main lounge, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Supper Club
Overtime After-Work Lounge Live jazz and complimentary appetizers, 5-9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Toast
DJs spin house music, 8 pm-1 am, $5.

Vertigo
Analogue Lounge DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake spin house, 10 pm, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Tim Collins spins Top 40, hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
C Entertainment hosts this weekly event featuring guest DJs, 11 pm, $20, 19+ ladies, 21+ men.

Avalon
Fling Thursdays DJs spin hip-hop, R&B and Top 40, 10 pm, $15, ladies free until 11 pm, 19+.

Bill's Bar
Old-School Hip-Hop Night Old-school rap, funk and disco, 8 pm-2 am, 19+.

Boston Rocks
Thursday on the Rocks DJs spin pop and dance music, 8 pm-12 am, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Hip-Hop & International DJ Pup Dawg spins Indian and hip-hop music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Club Q
Dance Party Thursdays with DJ Mike Navarro, 9 pm, $5.

Common Ground
Love Night DJ Brian plays tunes from the '80s, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Steve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
Hip-hop, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Dbar
Thirsty Thursdays DJ Darrin Friedman spins club classics.

Devlin's
DJ Doc spins upbeat house and dance, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
DJ Steve Austin spins R&B, reggae and hi
10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
The Glamorous Life DJs Susan Esthera and A host this gay hip-hop and electro party, 10 pm

The Enormous Room
Hip-Hop with Hua DJ Hsu spins hip-hop, dan disco, 10 pm-2 am, $3.

Felt
True Music Thursdays Featuring live perform
10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Nothing But Ray Charles This weekly eve tribute to Ray Charles and his music.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R& town, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
The Jon Frederik Band, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Street Grill
Joh Camara and Jama Jigi play Afro-pop hi
10:30 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
Live band, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
The Fun House DJs Edgar and Kieran spin tunes and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kinvara Pub
DJ Misha spins the latest tunes, including hi
R&B and pop, 21+.

Liquor Store
Ladies' Night KISS 108 and Joe Public host.

Mantra
Havana Club Night: Thursdays at Mantra DJ
Jeff spins a mix of Latin and salsa, 10 pm, $1 after 11 pm, 21+.

Milky Way
Aquanet Dance Party Dance to '80s old-scho and soul, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Parris
@ Thursdays DJ Lou, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Mad Dog p drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5, 19+

The Place
DJ Garrett spins Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no 21+.

The Point
DJs spin dance and hip-hop music, 10 pm-2 am

The Purple Shamrock
Jim Plunkett and friends perform live, 9 p 21+.

The Rack
Exotic Midnight Brazilian night with music and dancing, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Reunion Thursdays The NGP All-Stars spin classics, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
For Real, Too Reel DJs Dali, Ross and Paul mix of electro, funk and '80s flashback, 9 p
cover, 21+.

The Ruby Room
Rouge Thursdays Enjoy half-price martinis wh Prolific spins R&B and downtempo beats, 7 am, no cover.

Rumor
DJs Roger M. and J.C. spin, 10 pm-2 am.

Ryles Dance Hall
Temporada Latina A night of salsa lessons and ing, 8:30 pm-1 am, $8-$12.

Saint
Deja Vu DJs and weekly guest hosts spin lounge
9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, 21+.

Toast
Lesbian Night 9 pm-1 am, $5.

Underbar
DJ Ricky Fatts spins hip-hop, 11 pm.

Venu
=20 Thursday Hip-hop and house music,
$15, 19+.

Vertigo
Total Recall Dance to classic disco, funk, so rock from the '60s, '70s and '80s, 5-10 p
cover.

West Street Grille
Old-School Thursdays DJ Matty D spins old-hip-hop and funk, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+

FRIDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Tim Collins spins Top 40, hip-hop and R&
pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Vanity DJ Hoff spins old-school hip-hop and 11 pm, $20, ladies 19+, men 21+.

n
J Guest DJs spin with residents Eli Wilkie, halen and Jay P., 10 pm, $15, 19+.

venue
on Cody spins hip-hop and Top 40, 9 pm- cover, 21+.

ff DJ Mastermillions spins hip-hop, 10 pm, -.

isy Bar
te Mardi Gras with DJ J.C. spinning Top 40, and '80s, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bar
days Hip-hop, merengue, salsa, reggae and music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

n Rocks
at the Loft 6one7 Productions presents a local DJs spinning Top 40, dance and hip- es, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

ce
al spins a mix of international, Latin and usic, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

s hm Nights 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Europa
J MsLadyJ spins R&B, hip-hop, and '70s and the lesbian crowd, 10 pm, $10, 21+; after 11 , 19+.

Q
's Best Dance Party DJ Massi plays hip-hop 40, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

non Ground
Sound spins Northern Soul, 10 pm, no cover.

an's
e spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, opolitan

an Night DJs play a mix of Euro-style music, 2 am, no cover.

e Giller spins vocal house and Top 40.

n's
l Daley plays upbeat house and trance, am, no cover, 21+.

side
n R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5,

issy
e spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Enormous Room
rs Have Eyes Guest DJs spin everything ip-hop and house to funk and soul, $3, 2 am.

Klerkin spins Top 40, dance and hip-hop, no 21+. Fourth floor: Therapy Fridays DJ Cere- ns hip-hop beats, no cover, 21+.

en Temple
Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins '70s, '80s, d vocal house, 9:30 pm, 21+.

n Briar
spins dance and Top 40, 7 pm-1 am, no cover,

n Street Grill
o Mambo, 11:30 pm, 21+.

y Bar
so and Mario, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Harp
Night Vibe JAM'N 94.5's DJ Krazy Kulo spins airs, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

icane O'Reilly's
ns classic beats, 9 pm, $5, ladies free before , 21+.

ient Fridays DJ Juneyacool spins reggae, 9+.

McIntyre's
n, 9 pm, $5, ladies free before 12 am, 21+.

Kells
Night DJ Doc spins Top 40, R&B and while DJ Kieran spins '80s and '90s favor- pm, ladies free before 12 am, 21+.

ara Pub
dillac spins the latest tunes including hip-hop, nd pop, 21+.

or Store
wie spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, $5.

ra
Resident DJ Zati spins hip-hop, rock, house 0s remixes.

ix/Paradise City
lilson spins high-energy house, and DJ Steve lli plays Top 40 and hip-hop, 9 pm, $10,

ann's Pub
in dance beats, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

dlesex Lounge
ark Estrada spins soul, funk, downtempo and op, no cover.

The Modern
Ego DJ Glenn, 10 pm, $20, 19+.

The Palace
•The Beach House Reggaeton: Spanish reggae music, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •The Male Encounter New England's longest-running all-male dance revue, doors at 8:30 pm, show 9 pm-12:30 am, $25, 18+; $20, 21+. Ladies only. •Rio DJ Donnie Bennett spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, ladies free before 11:30 pm, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Rockpile Rotating bands perform, 9 pm, ladies free before 11:30 pm, $12, 18+; $8, 21+.

Parris
DJ at 8 pm, band at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Groove Yard '70s, '80s, funk, soul and disco, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop spins Top 40 and hip-hop, and TV screens show Boston sports highlights, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
Fist Holdin' Loot Productions presents DJ Itchy P, 10 pm.

The Purple Shamrock
Hip-hop with DJ Buddah, 10 pm, $5.

The Rack
DJ Mike Bowes, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Vegas Fridays Las Vegas–resident DJs spin.

Redline
Rodney Marable and Craig Kaplow spin house, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Diversion DJ Erik spins a mix that includes neo-soul, mellow techno and scuzzy disco, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
DJ Val Beatz spins hip-hop, Top 40, R&B and reggae, 10 pm, $20, 18+; $15, 21+.

Rumor
Lounge 54 DJs spin hip-hop, reggae, R&B and old-school, 9:30 pm, $15, ladies free before 11 pm, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Salsa Cubana Ryles hosts a Cuban-style salsa night the third Friday of every month, 9 pm, $10.

Saint
Pure Fridays DJs Gsquared and Tanno spin beats in two rooms, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Spin
Red Martinis Live jazz, 6-10 pm, $5 after 9 pm, 21+.

Tantric Lounge
Hookah Lounge The NGP Allstars and Cloud 9 spin the music at this night featuring hookahs, specialty cocktails and belly dancers, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike G spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $5.

Toast
Lesbian Night 9 pm-1 am, $5.

Umbria
Fusion Fridays DJs Massi and Luca spin dance hits, 10 pm.

Underbar
DJ Franklin spins house, hip-hop and rock, 11 pm.

Venu
Roomba DJ Tarek Antabi spins international house while DJ Roger M kicks things up with a Latin vibe. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 21+.

Vertigo
International Fridays DJ Luca spins house, R&B, Latin and international, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJ Joe plays funk and Top 40 all night, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

SATURDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Superstar mixes Top 40, hip-hop, house and soul, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Lifestyles DJ Thanos spins hip-hop and R&B. 11 pm, $20, men 21+, ladies 19+ with college ID.

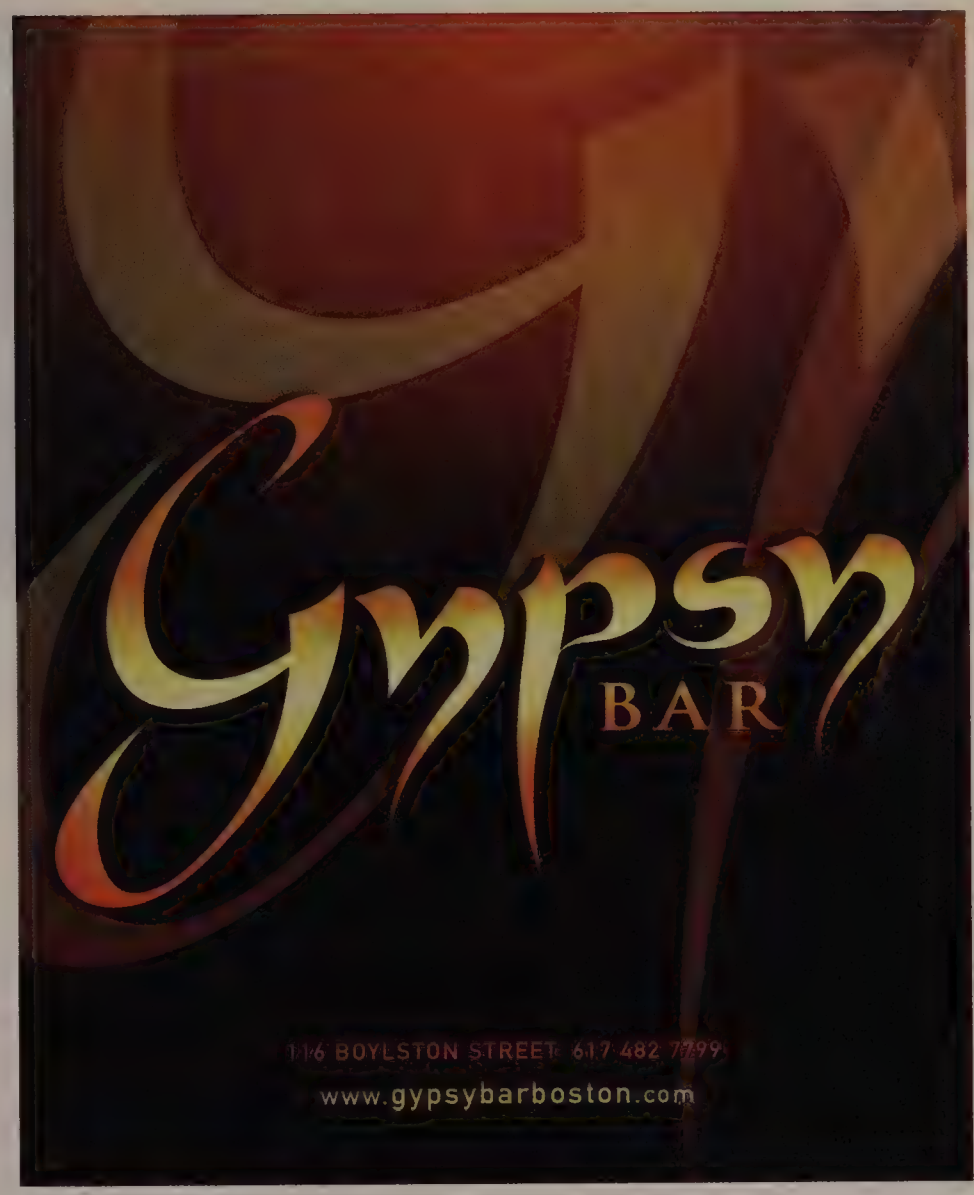
Avalon
Resident DJ Adilson spins along with international guest DJs, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

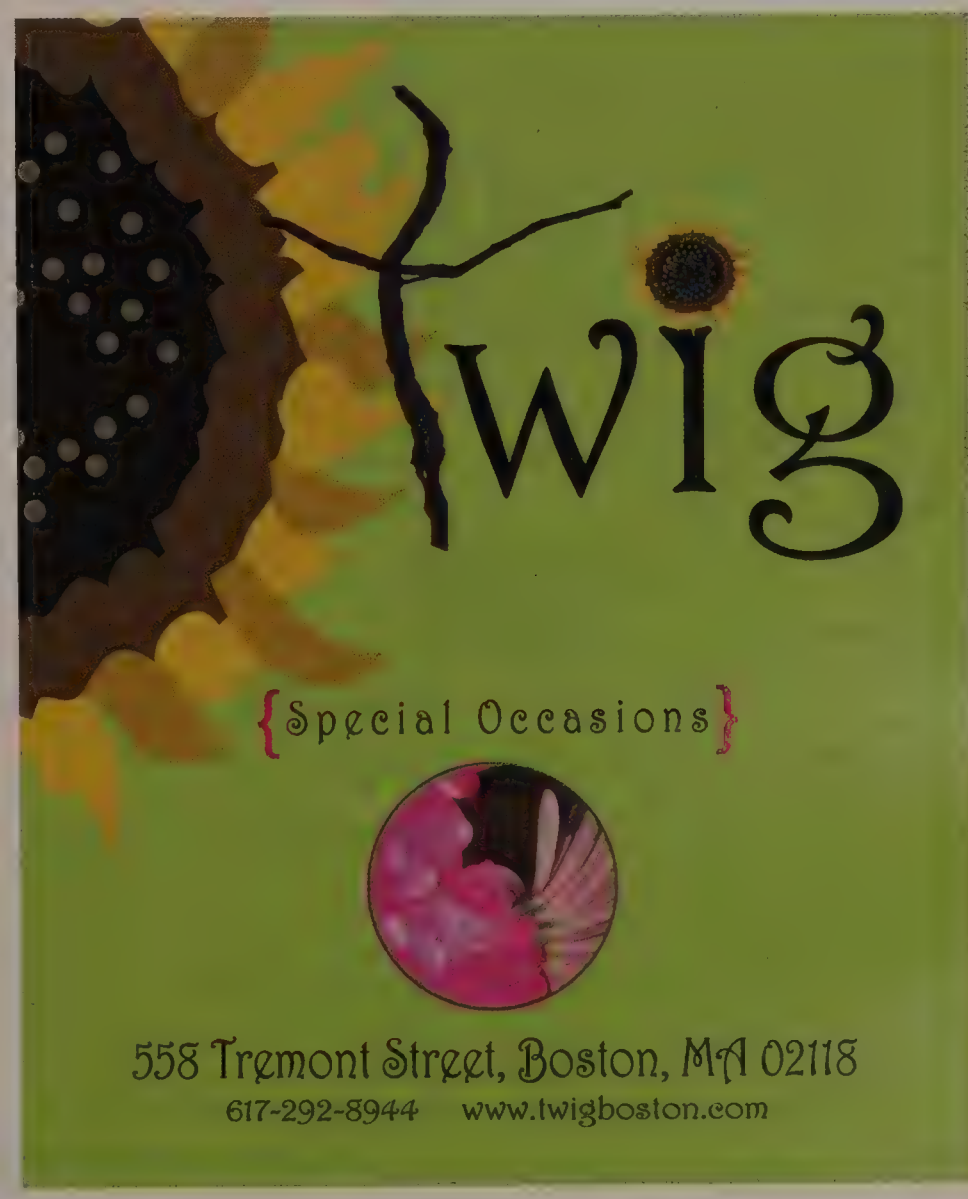
The Avenue
DJ Murray spins hip-hop, 9 pm, 21+.

Axis
Seductive Saturdays DJ Big spins hip-hop hits, 10 pm, $8, 19+.

Big Easy Bar
Celebrate Mardi Gras with DJ J.C. spinning Top 40, hip-hop and '80s, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Sexy Saturdays DJ Joshua Carl spins hip-hop and Top 40, 10 pm, $5, 21+.





Boston Rocks
Shotgun Saturdays Cover bands perform, 9-11 pm. DJs present Top 40 dance and hip-hop interactive video shows till 2 am, $5, 21+.

Buzz
The gay crowd gets busy with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Caprice
International Lounge DJ Ghost and DJ Vagellis create a lounge atmosphere with international and house sounds, 10 pm, $5-$10, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Club Q
DJ Rip Hernandez spins hip-hop, R&B and dance, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Common Ground
Shake Your Ass Night DJ spins indie rock, $2.

Coogan's
DJ Craig spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
Cosmopolitan Saturdays Top 40, hip-hop, R&B, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Dbar
Saturday Night Clubhouse DJ Darrin Friedman spins classic club beats.

Devlin's
DJs Dan Spurling and Chris Deorio spin dance and house, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
Sensation Saturdays DJ Val Beats spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Enormous Room
Reverberate Mark Estrada spins current and classic hip-hop, $3, 10 pm-2 am.

Felt
DJ Ricky Fatts spins hip-hop and dance beats, no cover, 21+. Fourth floor: Social Club Saturdays DJ Mike Bose spins Top 40 beats.

The Foundation Lounge
DJ Edward Grant Stuart spins an eclectic mix of '70s and '80s disco and Motown, plus international lounge and acid jazz, 9:30 pm-2 am.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '70s, '80s and '90s as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Street Grill
House band Kilombo Mambo performs at 11:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJs Niso and Mario spin, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Harp
House DJ spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ spins classic beats, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Fresh spins, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Howie spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, $5.

Matrix/Paradise City
DJ spins '80s, '90s, hip-hop and rock, 10 pm, $8, 21+; $15, ladies 18+.

McGann's Pub
DJs spin dance beats, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
The Grooveyard DJ Yamin spins a mix of mashups, soul, hip-hop, 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night DJ Antonio Ortíz spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 9 pm, $10 for men; $5 for ladies; free for ladies before 10:30, 21+.

The Modern
KLIK DJs Don Schmidt, Mike Walsh and Bons spin minimal techno and electro microhouse, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

The Palace
•The Beach House Classic party music and Top 40, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Club Copa Shake it to Spanish and Latin dance music and hip-hop by DJs Rip Hernandez and Willie D, $15 for men 18+; $10 for men 21+; $5 for men before 10:30 pm; free for ladies. •The Male Encounter New England's longest-running all-male dance revue, doors at 8:30 pm, show runs 9 pm-12:30 am, $25, 18+; $20, 21+. Ladies only. •Oxygen DJ Chaos spins a hip-hop mix, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Rio DJ Alex D. spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, $15, 18+; $10, 21+.

Parris
DJ at 8 pm, band at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinney spins one-hit wonders, '80s new wave and disco, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
Turnstyles DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, 21+.

The Rack
Saturday Greatest Hits Party DJ Brian Roche spins, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
KISS 108-FM's Billy Costa and DJ Randy G spin Top 40, house, dance, disco and rock music, 10 pm.

Redline
DJ Cherry spins dance and hip-hop, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Peer Pressure DJ Unlockedgroove spins modern mixes, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
Dueling DJs Massi and Play spin their own styles of house, progressive and techno music, 9 pm, $15, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Sender spins hip-hop and R&B while DJ J.C. plays house and Latin vibes, 10 pm-2 am.

Ryles Dance Hall
Four on the Floor Latin, tango and salsa dancing, 9 pm-1 am, $8-$12.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins Top 40 and dance beats in the front room, and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, $5, 10 pm, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike G spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $5.

Tiernan's
Saturday Night Dance Party DJ Littles spins classic old-school, Top 40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Toast
Curses Wretched Design presents an evening of Gothic/industrial music, 9 pm-1 am, $10.

Umbria
Johnny Vicious Saturdays DJ Johnny Vicious and a list of rotating guest DJs spin dance hits, 10 pm.

Underbar
Global Entertainment Presents DJ Angel Moraes, 11 pm.

Venu
Nula DJ JC plays Latin house, and DJs Tarek Antabi and Gamble spin house and hip-hop, 11 pm, 19+.

Vertigo
DJ Ron Steele plays R&B, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJ Joe plays funk and Top 40 all night, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

SUNDAYS

Aria
Scandalous Sundays Brazilian music, 11 pm, $20, women 19+, men 21+.

Avalon
Gay Night DJs spin progressive house, trance and techno, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

Bill's Bar
Live reggae with Dub Station, 8 pm-2 am, 21+.

Caprice
Rotating DJs spin Brazilian dance music, 10 pm, $5-$10, 21+.

Club Q
International Dance Party 8 pm-2 am, $10.

Cosmopolitan
2-3-5 Presents Reggae vs. Reggaeton, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Devlin's
Industry Night DJ Paul Dailey plays mixes and remixes, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Enormous Room
Revolutions A night of electronic music, $3, 11 pm-3 am.

Green Briar
Finbar Doyle, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
The Spot Rotating DJs spin Top 40, hip-hop and house music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover.

Middlesex Lounge
Groove Yard DJ Yamin spins mashups, soul, hip-hop, dancehall and more, 9 pm, no cover.

The Office
Utopia Sundays DJ Bruno and weekly special guests play deep, soulful house and disco, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Bump House-music night featuring a rotating roster of local and international guest DJs, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

The Place
Chad LaMarsh appears with VJ Leathers, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Point
DJ Itchy P, 11 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Thom spins Top 40 beats, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
DJ Mike Janedy spins dance and Top 40, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
DJ Danny Sharp and the World Premier Band provide Top 40, dance and old-school funk, no cover.

Redline
Sunday Dubby Sunday DJ Brynmore and rotating guests spin reggae-style music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Action Sunday DJs play punk, garage and rock, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Wepa Salsa Sundays The second and fourth Sunday of each month, DJs Nik and Hernan play salsa music, 6-10 pm, $12.

Saint
Spice Sundays Manos and Christophe host a night featuring Latin and international grooves, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Tiki Room
Reggae Sundays Sunday night reggae features Dub Station and DJ D-Kon, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Toast
DJs wind down the weekend with chill hip-hop and Brazilian beats, 8 pm-1 am, $5.

Venu
Carnivale comes to Boston with this Brazilian night as DJ Leandro spins a collection of dance hits, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
Haitian Connection DJ Deville spins reggae and world beats, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Club Venues

An Tain 35 India St., Boston (617-426-1870).
An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121).
Anthem 138 Portland St., Boston (617-523-8383).
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424).
The Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-9508).
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-243
Big Easy Bar Boylston Place, Boston (617-351
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-72
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-
Club Europa 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-
Club Q 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121)
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-741
Cosmopolitan 33 Batterymarch St., Boston (695-9333).
Dbar 1236 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-4490).
Devlin's 332 Washington St., Brighton (617-779
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-705
Embassy 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-2100).
The Enormous Room 567 Mass. Ave., Camb (617-491-5599).
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-55
Flat Top Johnny's 1 Kendall Square, Cambrid 494-9565).
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., B (617-859-9900).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (277-9722).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (6 789-4100).
Green Street Grill 280 Green St., Cambridge 876-1655).
Gypsy Bar 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742
Highbar 200 High St., Boston (617-523-4000
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (722-0161).
I/D 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Brighton (617-782
Kinvara Pub 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-78 9400).
Liquor Store The Alley, Boston (617-357-68
Mantra 52 Temple Place, Boston (617-542-81 Matrix/Paradise City 275 Tremont St., Bosto 542-4077).
McGann's Pub 197 Portland St., Boston (617 4059).
Middlesex Lounge 315 Mass. Ave., Cambrid 868-6739).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain 524-3740).
The Modern 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (6 351-2581).
The Office 5 Broad St., Boston (617-474-786
The Palace 1500 Broadway, Saugus (781-321
Paradise Lounge 967-969 Comm. Ave., Bost (617-562-8800).
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Mark Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge 576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-208
The Point 147 Hanover St., Boston (617-523
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (227-2060).
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-10
Rain 665 Broadway, Malden (781-322-2101).
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-985
The Reel Bar 477 Cambridge St., Allston (617 3222).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699
Ruby Room 155 Portland St., Boston (617-557- Rumor 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-943-0
Ryles Dance Hall 212 Hampshire St., Cambr (617-876-9300).
Saint 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-
Spin 1466 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Supper Club 711 Boylston St., Boston (617-437
Tantric Lounge 123 Stuart St., Boston (617-367
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-4 0300).
Tiernan's 99 Broad St., Boston (617-350-707
Tiki Room 1 Lansdowne St., Boston (61 2580).
Toast 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9
Tonic 1316 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-566- Umbria 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1
Underbar 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-
The Upstairs Lounge 65 Causeway St., Bosto (617-792-3382).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-80
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277)
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-
Whiskey Park 64 Arlington St., Boston (617-54 1483).

useums galleries

e to Contributors

gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859- r mail to Calendar: Museums/Galleries. Or e- s@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop ne number. Deadline is four weeks prior to pub- Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

seums

ır M. Sackler Museum

l University, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617- 00). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: e to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 50; $6, students and seniors; free, Sat. until 12 rank Stella 1958 showcases several of the post- st's neglected oil paintings from the year 1958, ıe began his famous black paintings. Through •Evocative Creatures: Animal Motifs and Sym- East Asian Art explores the symbolism and sig- ce of animals through paintings, ceramics, res, jades and textiles. Through June 11. •The nd the Pen: Drawings from the Islamic World ex- how drawings contributed to artistic experi- ion in eastern Islamic lands. Through July 23.

s Museum and Cultural Center

y College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283- www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. MBTA: ıter Rail to Wellesley. Tue.-Sun., 12-4 pm. Free. e Edge: Contemporary Chinese Artists Encounter st explores new perspectives on contemporary variety of media and reexamines the role of se art in the international community. gh May 24. •Any Opinions? is an installation nese artist Xu Bing that examines the evolu- language and the interplay between Eastern estern cultures. Through June 3. •Art from Japan and Korea displays a collection of East rtifacts. Through June 30. •An installation of nist art features works by Claude Monet, John Sargent and Diego Rivera. Ongoing.

ordova Museum and pture Park dy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www. wa.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lincoln. Tue.- 11 am-5 pm. $9; $6, students and seniors; free, 5 and under. •Café des Artistes displays various s associated with drinking coffee, including dec- e latte cups and coffee cans. Through April 9. s Surls: The Splendora Years, 1977-1997 features cades of the sculptor's abstract work, including op carvings and large-scale prints. Through 16. •Software Art features interactive works by dividual artists and one team, to be viewed on a ıter screen. Through April 16. •The Workshop lios highlights the woodcuts, etchings, engrav- ıd lithographs of some of Boston's most impor- rintmakers from 1988-2000. Through April 16. t Buys: Museum Purchases highlights more than ces of art the museum has purchased with the cquisition Fund. Through Sept. 30.

; Art Museum/ :h-Reisinger Museum

incy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www. seums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Har- Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $7.50; dents and seniors; free, Sat. until 12 pm. •Basic rch: A Selection of Postwar German Paintings and ure explores innovative techniques and tex- used in the postwar artists' works. Through 9. •Tempo, Tempo! The Bauhaus Photo- ges of Marianne Brandt highlights the German s photomontages created during the mid-1920s arly 1930s. Through May 21. •The Western ion: Art Since the Renaissance displays a series of lations that analyze painting techniques, pic- space, sculpture and the artistic process. ugh July 30. •Highlights from the Collection of ille L. Winthrop exhibits 19th-century paint- Ongoing.

vard Museum of Natural History

xford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www. harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.- 9 am-5 pm; Sun., 9 am-12 pm. $7.50; $6, students niors; $5, children ages 3-18. •Robert Turner: Rare s in a Rare Light exhibits photography of North rica's wildlands. Through March 26. •Climate ge: Our Global Experiment explores scientific es on climate and includes a computer simula- Ongoing. •Dodos, Trilobites and Meteorites... Treasures of Nature and Science at Harvard features collections that document more than two centuries of scientific exploration. Ongoing. •The Glass Flowers by Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka features glass models of more than 830 plant species from the Ware Collection. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art

955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.ica boston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Tue., Wed. and Fri., 12-5 pm; Thu., 12-9 pm; Sat.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $7; $5, students and seniors; free, Thu. after 5 pm. •Living in Motion: Design and Architecture for Flexible Dwelling exhibits more than 150 objects and films and 500 illustrations to explore how people use furniture, housing and objects for a flexible, mobile life. Through May 7. •Suzanne Walking and Julian Walking by British artist Julian Opie feature two life-sized portraits of figures walking on light-emitting diode screens. Through Oct. 31.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www. gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $10, Tue.-Fri.; $11, Sat.-Sun.; $7, seniors; $5, students; free to children under 18 and all visitors named Isabella. •Gentile Bellini and the East explores the Venetian artist's exoticizing fascination with the East through his paintings, drawings, decorative arts and medals. Through March 26. •Hanging Nasturtiums displays 15-20 foot long nasturtium vines that hang in the interior courtyard garden. The display is accompanied by the "Edible Nasturtiums" menu at the Gardner Cafe. March 28-April 16.

•The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces by artists including Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Botticelli and Degas.

MIT List Visual Arts Center

20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-253-4680). http://web. mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Tue.-Thu., Sat. and Sun., 12-6 pm; Fri., 12-8 pm. Free. America Starts Here: Kate Ericson and Mel Spiegler celebrates 20 works, including documentation of public art projects, drawings and installations that the duo created during their 10-year career together. Through April 9.

MIT Museum

265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). http://web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-5 pm. $5; $2, students and seniors; free, children under 5. •Arnold Newman: Twentieth-Century Photographs features photographs of famous artists, poets, actors, politicians and scientists against a background that is related to their field of work. Through March 31. •COLLISIONbox #2: Cars and Stars features Andy Zimmerman's digital animation and video projected onto a three-dimensional sculpture that is accompanied by digital sound. Through April 30. •Finding Form: The Art of Richard Filipowski celebrates the former MIT professor's sculptures and graphic art. Though June 30. •Scopes, Station Wagons and Solder: Unexpected Images from the Rad Lab and RLE Collections exhibits photographs documenting the history of radar and electronics. Through July 4.

Museum of African-American History

46 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam museum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Park. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Free. •Words of Thunder: William Lloyd Garrison and the Ambassadors of Abolition celebrates the life and achievements of the famous Boston abolitionist. Through April 1. •Historic Gallery Talks: 19th-Century Black Beacon Hill explores the determination of African Americans on Beacon Hill in the 1800s. Ongoing.

Museum of Fine Arts

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www. mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Wed.-Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm; Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:45 pm. Thu.-Fri. after 5 pm, only the west wing is open. $15; $13, students and seniors; $6.50, children ages 6-17 on school days until 3 pm; free to children 17 and under all other times; admission reduced by $2, Thu.-Fri. after 5 pm; free to all, Wed., 4-9:45 pm. •West African Gold: Akan Regalia from the Glassell Collection presents items crafted for Akan kings and elite society members, including crowns, jewelry, sculptures, swords and kente cloths. Through March 26. •A Much Recorded War: The Russo-Japanese War in History and Imagery exhibits prints, postcards and photographs. Through March 28. •Facets of Cubism focuses on the growth of Cubism in France until 1920 and includes paintings, sculptures and works on paper. Through April 16. •David Hockney Portraits highlights 150 works in various media of the British artist's friends, family and lovers. Through May 14. •Contemporary Clay: Japanese Ceramics for the New Century is a collection of innovative, contemporary Japanese ceramics. Through July 9. •Contemporary Cloth: Stoles by Minagawa Makiko exhibits shawls from the avant-garde designer. Through July 9. •Degas

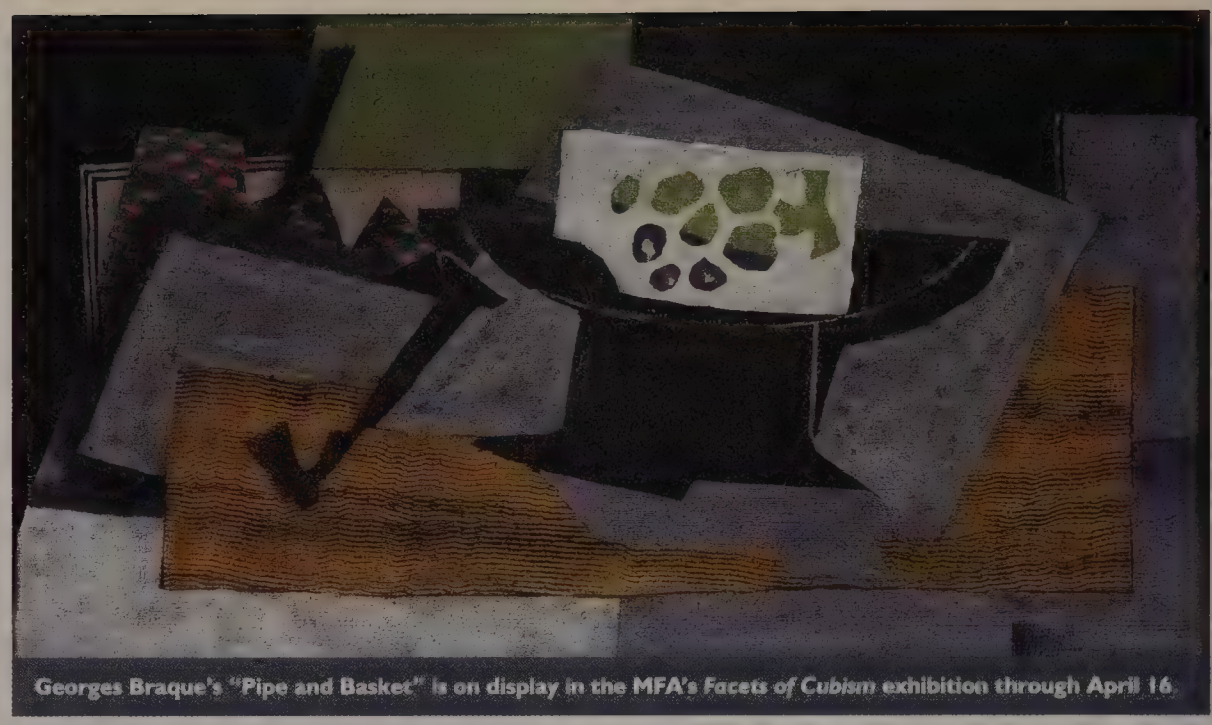
ANNa's TAQUERIA
Burritos & Tacos To Go!

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Burrito

7th Year Running!

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900



Georges Braque's "Pipe and Basket" is on display in the MFA's Facets of Cubism exhibition through April 16.

...icasso: Modern Masters features more than 280 works, including paintings, watercolors, drawings, prints, photographs, sculptures and illustrated books from 1900-1960. Through July 23. •Light My Fire: Rock Posters from the Summer of Love highlights posters from 1966-67 that advertised weekly rock concerts with local bands from the Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco, including the Grateful Dead and Jefferson Airplane. Through Aug. 13. •Tradition and Transformation: Japanese Art 1860-1940 explores Japanese art as the country experienced a synthesis between Western modernism and Eastern traditionalism. Through Aug. 20.

Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Science Park. Mon.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $15; $13, seniors; $12, children ages 3-11. •Countdown to Supernova is a planetarium show about the creation and death of stars. Through April 30. •Star Wars: Where Science Meets Imagination incorporates artifacts from all six Star Wars films to explore the technologies of today and tomorrow. Through April 30. •Is Algae in your Future? demonstrates inventor Isaac Berzin's device that converts power plant exhaust into renewable energy using algae and sunlight. Ongoing. •The Butterfly Garden lets visitors enjoy hundreds of butterflies and flowers. Ongoing. •The Computing Revolution traces the history of computers. Ongoing. •The Gilliland Observatory allows visitors to stargaze atop the museum's garage roof on Friday evenings. •Human Body Connection is a hands-on exhibition where visitors of all-ages learn about human behavior as well as animal behavior by observing cotton-top tamarins. Ongoing. •Natural Mysteries puts visitors' organizational skills to work solving mysteries. Ongoing. •Playing by the Rules: Fish, Fads and Fireflies engages visitors with "The Virtual FishTank" in order to learn more about complex systems. Ongoing. •The Theater of Electricity provides lightning shows daily at 12 and 2 pm and Fridays at 7 pm.

Peabody Essex Museum

East India Square, Salem (978-745-9500). www.pem.org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. $13; $11, seniors; $9, students; free to children under 16 and residents of Salem. •Air Lines: Photographs by Alex MacLean captures images of the U.S. from thousands of feet above ground. Through April 23. •Taj Mahal: The Building of a Legend is a collection of 40 paintings and photographs exploring the sacred site. Through July 23. •Carved by Nature: Untamed Traditions in Chinese Decorative Art exhibits organic wood forms that appealed to Buddhists and Daoists seeking to connect with nature. Through Aug. 13. •Exposing the Source: The Paintings of Nalini Malani highlights the artist's paintings and watercolors whose subjects vary from women to India's urban culture. Through Oct. 22. •Owls in Art and Nature exhibits a wide variety of art pieces and interactive stations representing the connections between humans and owls throughout history. Through Dec. 3.

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology

11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). www.peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $7.50; $6, seniors and students; $5, children 3-18; free, children under 3. •Imazighen! Beauty and Artisanship in Berber Life includes 20th-century artifacts such as jewelry and leatherwork by the Berber peoples of North Africa. Through June 30. •Reconfiguring Korea: Roger Marshutz's Photography of Pusan, 1952-1954 exhibits photographs of daily life in Korea as the country underwent cultural, political and economic changes during the U.S. reconstruction efforts. Through Sept. 10. •From Nation to Nation: Examining Lewis and Clark's Indian Collection presents artifacts from the explorers' expedition. Through Dec. 31. •The Moche of Ancient Peru is a collection of early ceramic art that gives insight into the culture. Through June 2007. •Encounters with the Americas examines Native American culture before and after the arrival of Christopher Columbus in 1492. Ongoing.

Rose Art Museum

Brandeis University, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3434). www.brandeis.edu/rose. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue.-Sun., 12-5 pm. $3. •Dana Schutz: Paintings 2002-2005 features a variety of narrative oil paintings by the New York artist. Through April 9. •Post and After: Contemporary Art from the Brandeis University Collection displays postmodern paintings from the past 25 years. Through April 9. •Spot On exhibits recent paintings and sculptures by nine of the University's studio art faculty. Through April 9.

Special Events

Chthonic Power: Art of the Ominous Collective

Club Passim Gallery at the Passim Folk Music and Cultural Center, 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-5300). www.clubpassim.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 11 am-6 pm. This exhibition includes photography and mixed-media works by artists from the Ominous Collective. Through April 8.

Illumination in Two Movements

Armenian Library and Museum of America, 65 Main St., Watertown (617-926-2562). www.almainc.org. Thu., 6-9 pm; Fri. and Sun., 1-5 pm; Sat., 10 am-2 pm. Naveed Nour displays his photography from his travels in France and Iran. April 2-May 4.

35th Anniversary Recognition Dinner and Artists' Ball

Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-8835). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. April 1, 6 pm. An evening of dinner and dancing, this event celebrates the BCA's 35th anniversary and honors those who have been a part of its creation and evolution.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art

38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www.acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Jim Foresberg features the artist's mid-century abstract artwork including oil paintings, graphic relief blocks and works on paper. Through March 25. •Industrial Composition exhibits Murray Hantman's abstract oil paintings of industrial objects. March 30-April 29.

Adams Gallery

Suffolk University Law School, 120 Tremont St., Boston (617-305-1782). www.suffolk.edu/adams_gallery. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Daily, 9 am-7 pm. Free. BSO Celebrates 125 Years displays photographs and artifacts from the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Through June 30.

Allston Skirt Gallery

65 Thayer St., Boston (617-482-3652). www.allstonskirt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Joe Zane: Personality presents an installation of the artist's paintings and sculptures. Through April 1.

Alpha Gallery

38 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •New Paintings features Bernard Chaet's oil paintings. Through March 29. •Milton Avery's Works on Paper depicts the artist's artwork done with pen, ink and watercolor. Through March 29.

Arden Gallery

129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Margaret Gerding: Fields and Mountains exhibits oil-on-linen paintings of New England's landscape. Through March 29.

Ars Libri

500 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-5212). www.arslibri.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Jutta Koether displays one of her new paintings, "Homohomo." Through April 7.

Artana

1378 Beacon St., Suite B, Brookline (617-879-3111). www.artanagallery.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Thu., 10 am-7 pm and by appointment. Raghava: New Work features watercolor paintings of Buddhas, Geneshas and nude women that were created with the artist's hands instead of with brushes. Through April 1.

Axelle Fine Arts Galerie

91 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0700). www.axelle.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Daily, 10 am-6 pm. Andre Boubounelle showcases oil paintings by the French landscape artist in this solo exhibition. Through April 15.

BAAK Gallery

35 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-0407). www.baakgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-8 pm; Sun., 1-6 pm. •A Different Approach: Mixed-Media Exhibition features collages, altered books, encaustic paintings and assembled objects on panels by six female artists. March 22-April 18. •Print Publishers Spotlight: Mixographia showcases mixographia prints by John Baldessari. March 22-April 18.

Barbara Krakow Gallery

10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Stonehenge showcases a series of photographs by John Baldessari of two people in front of the historical site in England. March 22-April 18. •The Broken Grind exhibits Barbara Broughel's paintings and sculptures created by applying techniques from 16th and 17th century Dutch paintings. March 22-April 26.

Berenberg Gallery

4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). www.berenberggallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Everything Under the Sun exhibits paintings, drawings and sculptures by 12 disabled artists from the Gateway Arts Gallery. Through May 6.

Bernard Toale Gallery

450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www.bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Cardboard Action is an installation by Nancy Murphy Spicer that includes three videos, photographs and cardboard. Through April 1. •Surrounding Practice by Sandy Litchfield and Territory of Thought by Fred H.C. Liang feature the artists' paintings and drawings. March 22-April 29.

BF Annex Gallery

450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3344). www.bfannex.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •The Retreat features large-format photographs by Rebecca Sittler. Through March 25. •Soup by Ruth Daniels features mixed-media works on velum and an installation entitled Gel Pours, a three-dimensional relief of hand-torn paper with pigmented acrylic gel. March 30-April 29.

Boston Sculptors Gallery

486 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-7781). www.bostonsculptors.com. MBTA: Orange Line to N.E. Medical. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. •Bronze Sculpture blends classical Asian sculptures and mode... in Robert Schelling's sculptures of c... objects. Through April 15. •Laur... Gould displays an installation made... wax entitled Working for Passage. T... April 15.

Brickbottom Gallery

1 Fitchburg St., Somerville (617-77...) www.brickbottomartists.com. MBTA... Line to Lechmere. Thu.-Sat., 2-6 pm... the Influence of Science presents art... various media inspired by a wide... scientific disciplines. Through Apri...

Bromfield Gallery

450 Harrison Ave., Boston (61... 3605). www.bromfieldartgalle... MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay... Sat., 12-5 pm. •Eye Object... mixed-media works by Charle... Through April 1. •High Wire... paintings from Tim Nichols ab... sounds, smells and sights of the... hometown. Through April 1.

Brookline Arts Center

86 Monmouth St., Brookline (6... 5715). www.brooklineartscent... MBTA: C Green Line to St.... Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm. •Luc... Watercolors displays new waterc... the partially paralyzed artist. Through April... traordinary Pet Portraits highlights Dana Be... photographs of the various pets. Through Ap...

Cambridge Art Association

25 Lowell St., Cambridge (617-876-0246)... cambridgeart.com. MBTA: Red Line to H... Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. •Sp... turns exhibits oil paintings and waterc... Michelle Gauthier, Janet Hobbs and Steve... Through March 28. •In The Way We Live,... artists display their paintings, sculptures and... media works in a show juried by John Imber... play at the University Place Gallery throug... 8. •The Nature of Order and Chaos is a grou... featuring paintings and sculptures by Grace... Carr, Lydia Jenkins Musco and Michelle De... Through April 25.

Cambridge Arts Council

344 Broadway St., Cambridge (617-349-... www. cambridgeartscouncil.org. MBTA: Red... Central. Mon., Wed.-Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm... 8:30 am-5 pm; Fri., 8:30 am-12 pm. Model... 42° 22' 12.11" N, 71° 06' 11.45" W by M... Oatman highlights various collections... model makers. Through April 7.

Cambridge Multicultural Arts C...

41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400)... cmacusa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Mo... 10 am-6 pm. TR3 features mixed-media a... costumes and photos of indigenous insects f... Dominican Republic. Through April 26.

Cambridge 7 Associates, Inc.

1050 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7000)... c7a.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.... am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. Paintings East a... displays the work of Hans Chao, including... calligraphy screens and oil paintings. T... April 28.

Chase Gallery

129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222)... chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to... Mon.-Fri., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am... Kathryn Frund's abstract landscape paintin... bolizing man's relationship with nature are... play through March 31.

Childs Gallery

169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). wu... gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue... am-6 pm; Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm. 69... Child's Gallery Celebrates 69 Years at 169 New... with 69 Fine Objects includes art from old ma... 20th-century artists in a variety of media. T... May 6.

Copley Society of Art

158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049)... copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to... Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. Patron's... 2006: On the Waterfront features paintings f... of the gallery patrons' favorite artists. T... April 22.

Crump McCole Gallery

200 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-330-1133). ... Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Wed. and ... am-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12... Small Works by Elizabeth Benson exhib... artist's oil paintings. Ongoing.

DTR Modern Galleries

167 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-9700). ... Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 11 am-7 p... and Sat., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 11 am- 6 pm. H...

Houben: Interpretations presents lithographs lk screens by David Hockney, and oils on can-Houben R. T. Through April 22.

...se Gallery
...lewbury St., Boston (617-247-6730). MBTA: ... Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •New ...gs features mixed-media paintings by Mary B. ...ngton. Though March 25. •Recent Still Life ... by Ron Hubbard includes gouache paintings, ... drawings and watercolors. March 28-April 29.

... Point Arts Community Gallery
...ummer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www. ...intarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. ...Fri., 9 am-9 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. 5 Draw fea- ...drawings with a variety of themes and styles by ...rtists: Sam Tan, James Kinny, Dorothea Van ..., Jo Ann Rothchild and Linda Price-Sneddon. ...ugh April 8.

...erie d'Orsay
...wbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.galerie- ...y.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.- ...10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. The gallery's collec- ...eatures paintings from masters including Picasso, ...r and Matisse.

...ery AA/B
...Albany St., Suite 3B, Boston (617-574-0022). ...artadvisoryboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to ... Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5:30 pm and by appoint- ... •Recent Paintings by Matthew Kolodziej ex- ...es space and the perception of change in his ...works. Through March 24. •Wall Relief by Ju- ...a Bruce uses curved steel and wood as the ...dation for her wall-relief pieces. Through ...h 24.

...ery at Studio 412a
...Harrison Ave., Boston (978-468-8054). MBTA: ...ge Line to Back Bay. By appointment only. Kim ...chia displays Wrinkles and Rolls, an installation ...ining painting and sculpture. April 1-30.

...lery @ The Piano Factory
...Tremont St., Boston (617-437-9365). MBTA: Or- ...Line to Mass. Ave. Fri., 6-8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-5 ...John Stuart Walsh Silver Print and Digital Pho- ...phs displays the artist's work from 1972-2006. ...ugh March 27.

...lery Kayafas
...Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411). www. ...ykayafas.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. ...Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Boston-based artists Peter ...n and Amy Montali feature their new intimate ...aits. Through April 1. •The Alphabet displays ...ographs of models spelling out the letters of the ...abet with their bodies. April 4-29.

...lery NAGA
...Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9060). www. ...rynaga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. ...-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Tall Things Considered by ...ard Raiselis exhibits city scenes painted from ...e ground level. Through April 1.

...novese/Sullivan Gallery
...Harrison Ave., Boston (617-426-9738). www. ...vesesullivan.com MBTA: Orange Line to Back ... Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. Post Retrospective ...murings by Fred Lynch exhibits the artist's oil ...watercolor paintings. Through April 4.

...ward Yezerski Gallery
...lewbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.howard ...iskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. ...-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Contradictions: To ...baud-Verlaine features John O'Reilly's Polaroid ...tages. Through April 18. •Copley Bastards dis- ...s Hannah Barrett's oils paintings on linen. ...ough April 18.

...rst Gallery
...t. Auburn St., Cambridge (617-491-6888). www. ...tgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.- ..., 12-6 pm; Thu., 12-7 pm and by appointment. ...ges of Depiction: Indian Drawings, 17th-19th Cen- ...ys depicts numerous themes involved in the cre- ...n of Northern Indian drawings and sketches. ...ough April 15.

...ernational Poster Gallery
... Newbury St., Boston (617-3750076). www. ...ternationalposter.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. ...-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. A Blizzard of ... Acquisitions displays more than 70 rare posters by ...sts including Mauzan, Cappiello, Boccasile and ...el. Through April 15.

...li Rotenberg Gallery
... Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www. ...rotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. ...-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. The Many Layers of Zymund ...kowski is a culmination of the artist's subject mat- ..., focusing on a series of jazz musicians. Through ...ril 1.

...dy Goldman Gallery
... Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www. ...goldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arling- ... Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Darkness Visible features Marina Berio's large-scale charcoal drawings based on photographs of nighttime observations. Through April 1. •John Guthrie presents his new abstract paintings in Memories Can't Wait. Through April 1.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www. kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. American Painting is a group show exhibiting realistic mixed-media works by Daniel Blagg, Phil Bower, Ralph Hamilton and David James. Through April 1.

Kingston Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-4113). www. kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. •Beloved displays Hilary Tolan's sculptures made with encaustic wax and natural objects. Through April 1. •Janet Hansen Kawada and Matt Stone present Steel Wool, a sculpture made of welded steel and felt. April 4-29.

Lanoue Fine Art
160 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-4400). www. lanouefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Neo-cubist Italian artist Lucio Ranucci displays his oil paintings. Through March 30.

L'Attitude Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). www. lattitudegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Rhythm is a group show featuring sculpture and mixed-media wall art with a musical theme. Through April 10.

Locco Ritoro Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-542-1010). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Memories by Ricardo Cabrera displays the artist's oil paintings on welded iron. Through April 22. •New Works by Jeff Heyne features the artist's contemporary photography mounted on aluminum. Through April 22.

Massachusetts College of Art
Bakalar Gallery, 621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www.massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 12-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. All School Show exhibits current undergraduate student work in a variety of media including glass, metals, fashion and industrial design, photography, and painting. March 27-April 7.

Mercury Gallery
2nd Floor, 8 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Lyrical Abstraction features metal and wood sculptures as wells as oil paintings and works on paper by Louis Schanker. Through April 11. •Transportation showcases oil paintings and works on paper of motorcycles, trucks, and boats by Joseph Solman, Harry Gottlieb, Phillip Jones, Daniel Robinson and Esphyr Slobodkina. Through April 12.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www. mobilia-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •New Jewelry in Polymer Clay presents earrings, bracelets and brooches created by Steven Ford and David Forlano. Through March 30. •In Paper, Scissors and Thread Donna Rhaemardder displays her dresses made from recycled materials. Through March 30. •John Garrett's textiles and Ellen Wieske's jewelry are on display April 1-30.

MPG Contemporary
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). www. mpgallery.net. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Small Fires in the Distance features San Francisco artist Gage Opdenbrouw's oil paintings. Through April 1.

Newbury Fine Arts
29 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-0210). www. newburyfinearts.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. Annual Figurative Exhibition includes oil paintings, pastels and mixed-media works by Pauline Roche, Charles Dwyer, Greg Calibry and Craig Srebnik. Through April 7.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). www. nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Barely Minimal displays works from 1967-2005, including geometric monochromatic field paintings and object-like paintings. Through April 1. •New Sculptures exhibits Dexter Lazenby's wood and steel sculptures, some of which hang from the ceiling. Through April 1.

OHT Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-1677). www. ohtgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Fun Everyday features new paintings by Heidi Johnson, combining the techniques of traditional painting and kitsch. Through April 1.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-778-5265). www.osp gallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Michael Krueger's Recent Work exhibits the artist's colored-pencil drawings of American mythology. Through April 15.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www. outoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Daily, 12-6 pm. The gallery's permanent collection features photography, paintings, sculpture, jewelry, mosaics and antiques by local artists including Margarete Koehler-Bittkow, an original Bauhaus artist.

Leonetto Cappiello's "Bitter Campari" is on display at the International Poster Gallery through April 15.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www.peppergallery boston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Nancy Friese exhibits the artist's latest landscape oil paintings. Through March 25. •Harold Reddicliffe highlights the painter's oil paintings of everyday objects including microscopes, fans and projectors. March 30-April 29.

Perrin Gallery
320A Harvard St., Brookline (617-277-4357). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. Here for Only a Little While features ink-jet prints, and oil and mixed-media paintings by Judith Brassard-Brown and Sadie Dudley. Through April 10.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www.puckergallery. com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •A Single Form by Phil Rogers celebrates the form of the British jug. Through April 16. •A Sparkling Life Force by Jeffrey Hessing displays the artist's oil paintings of Italy's and Slovakia's countrysides and the tropical climate in Bermuda. Through April 16.

Rhys Gallery
70 Northampton St., Boston (617-541-2534). www.therhys gallery.com MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Sat., 12-5 pm. Snap! Click! Bang! features photography and sculptures from four emerging artists: Jesse Burke, Alison Lessmann, Alicia Colen and Kevin Kennedy. Through April 8.

Richardson-Clarke Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). www. richardson-clarke.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. The gallery's permanent collection features European and American paintings and drawings from the 19th and 20th centuries.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www.robert kleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Still Lovers by Elena Dorfman exhibits documentary photographs of silicone dolls and their owners. Through March 25. •Jerry Uelsmann displays his photography, created with the use of image manipulation, and photo-montage from prints and negatives. March 30-April 29.

Samson Projects
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7177). www. samsonprojects.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. Taylor Davis exhibits the artist's abstract wood sculptures. Through April 22.

School of Museum of Fine Arts
Grossman Gallery, 230 The Fenway., Boston (617-369-3718). www.smfa.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm.; Thu., 10-8 pm. •SMFA Traveling Scholars Exhibition showcases paintings, photography, a video installation and performance art by the seven recipients awarded with the prestigious Traveling Scholarship. On view at the MFA through April 12.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www. societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm.; Sun., 12-5 pm. The clay residency program Watershed celebrates its 20th anniversary with a display of ceramic art. Through April 30.

Soprafina Gallery
73 Thayer St., Boston (617-728-0770). www. soprafina.com. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Anne Saussois and Peggy Badenhausen exhibit their recent abstract and nonrepresentational paintings. Through April 1.

St. George Gallery
245 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). www. stgeorgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Outside the Line features oil and watercolors paintings by William St. George, John Murray and Sandra Mueller-Dick. Through March 31.

Vose Galleries of Boston
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www.vose galleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. The gallery's permanent collection includes American artwork in various media from the 18th, 19th and early 20th centuries.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Center for Photographic Exhibitions
New England School of Photography, 654 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-437-1868). www.nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. Erik Hanson and Steven Tavan display large-format black-and-white photography. Through April 14.

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www. griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Wed., 11 am-5 pm; Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-6 pm. Photo Synthesis features photography from students at the Boston Arts Academy and Winchester High School. April 1-30.

Panopticon Gallery Boston
502 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929). www. panopt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. •Shadows of Time displays Paul Wainwright's black-and-white photographs and prints of landscapes and interiors. Through April 1. •Tony Deconeas, John Rosenthal and Keith Johnson exhibits black-and-white photography with romantic themes. Through May 2.

Panopticon Gallery Waltham
435 Moody St., Waltham (781-647-0100). www. panopt.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Waltham. Mon.-Thu., 10 am-6 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. John Rosenthal exhibits black-and-white street photography in Everyday Theatre. Through April 22.

Photographic Resource Center
Boston University Art Gallery, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-975-0600). www.bu.edu/prc. MBTA: B Green Line to B.U. West. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. Document: Contemporary Social Documentary Work from Greater Boston is a photographic examination of people in the Boston area. Through March 26.

gay & lesbian

Advice to Contributors
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest MBTA stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). www.thealleybar.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Mon.-Fri., 2 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 12 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Boston's leather-and-Levi's neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games as well as theme nights.

Aria (Thursdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to New England Medical Center. 11 pm. $10. 21+. Get Down Thursdays feature rotating DJs playing hip-hop, house and pop.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. Sunday-night parties include drag acts and house music from resident DJ Ted Elison.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $7. 19+. Static on Mondays features a drag show hosted by Miss Kris Knievel, with DJs Susan Esthera and Adilson spinning progressive house. An amateur drag show takes place the last Monday of each month.

Buzz (Saturdays)
67 Stuart St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $10. 21+. On Saturdays, Buzz's pool room, lounge and two dance floors—with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance—keep the men busy until 2 am.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay or Green Line to Arlington. No cover. 21+. Neighborhood cruise bar open nightly.

Embassy (Thursdays)
36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100). www.avalonboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. DJ Susan Esthera spins hip-hop and pop music every Thursday night.

Fritz (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). www.fritzboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This gay sports bar, with six large-screen plasma TVs, serves brunch Saturday and Sunday.

I/D (Saturdays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston. www.lesbiannightlife.com. 10 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. LiQuid DJ Mix Mistress spins hip-hop, house, reggae, reggaeton and more at this weekly women-only night.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-12 am; Sun., 12 pm-12 am. $6, weekdays; $10, weekends. 21+. Patrons mingle with disco-dancing drag queens. •Sun.: An Evening of Mizery: Amateur Talent Night, 10 pm. •Mon. (alternating weeks): Foxy Follies; TraniWreck. •Tue.: Karaoke. •Wed.: Delightful Divas with Melinda Wilson. •Thu.: Jacque's Angels with Miss Kris Knievel. •Fri. and Sat.: Miss Norelle's Leading Ladies and live music.

Machine (Mondays, Thursdays–Saturdays)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). www.ramrodmachine.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Fri.-Sat., 9 pm-2 am. •Mon.: Stroke, with hostess Mizery. 10 pm-2 am. 19+. •Thu.: Karaoke Competition. •Fri.: Best Night Out, featuring deep house music, 10 pm-2 am. $8. 21+. •Sat.: Latin night, 10 pm-2 am. Cover varies. 21+.

Modern (Thursdays)
30 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-351-2581). www.lesbiannightlife.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. Thursday is lesbian night with DJ Afrodite.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-3000). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Male strippers perform every night. The dance floor features Top 40 Thursday through Saturday and T-Dance on Sunday.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billed as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is mandatory for the back room on weekends). •Sun.: Muscle with DJ Duo Freespace. •Mon.: Pool, dart tournaments and pizza. •Wed.: Twitch 4.0 with DJ Mac. •Thu.: Mandance with DJ Jason Taylor. •Fri.: Bound to Please with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Freespace.

Rise (Saturdays)
306 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-7473). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 1:30-6:30 am. $10, members; $20, guests. This members-only club is predominantly gay on Saturdays. Storm Saturdays feature resident DJs Billy Carroll, Chad Jack, Gilles Massicotte, Joe Gauthreaux and Mark Anthony upstairs and David McNeary downstairs.

Rumor (Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061). www.rumorboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm-2 am. Cover varies. Sunday T-dance features DJ Danae spinning the latest house and pop.

Toast (Fridays, Saturdays)
70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.toastlounge.com. 5:30 pm-1 am. $5. 21+. Friday is the new home for DykeNight with DJ Susan Esthera, and Saturday is Retro Night with DJs from ManRay.

Tribe at Felt (Thursdays)
Felt, 533 Washington St., 4th floor, Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9:30 pm-2 am. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hip-hop and Top 40 on the 4th floor at this weekly lesbian night.

209 at Club Café (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 11:30 am-2 am; Sat.,12 pm-2 am; Sun.,10:30 am-2 am. No cover. 21+. This South End spot offers dining and unobtrusive music in the front room at Restaurant 209 and video entertainment in the rear room at Club Café. •Wed.: Live karaoke, 9 pm. •Thu.: VJ Ricky Huss. •Fri.: VJ Cliff Cunningham. •Sat.: VJ Scott Kennedy.

Underbar (Sundays)
275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080). www.flauntatunderbar.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 11 pm. $10. 21+. This weekly event features DJs spinning hard house.

Upstairs @ Dedo's (Daily)
69 Church St., Park Square, Boston (617-338-9999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. No cover. 21+. A predominantly gay crowd frequents the upstairs lounge at Dedo's, which features a nightly piano bar and club room. •Sun.: Disco Night. •Mon.: S.I.N. (Service Industry Night). •Tue.: Stage and Screen. Classic movies, 7-9 pm. Show-tune videos, 9 pm-1 am. •Wed.: Latino Lounge with Latin groove music. •Thu.-Fri.: Boys in Ties and complimentary afterwork buffet, 5-7 pm. House music, 7 pm-1 am. •Sat.: High Energy Night with house music.

Venu (Wednesdays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). www.chapsboston.com. 10 pm. $8. 21+. This long-running gay Latino night features music by DJ Adilson.

Shows & Events

LAFFAN Spring Dance
Best Western Hotel, 477 Totten Pond Road, Waltham (781-890-7800). www.geocities.com/laffan1999. March 25, 8 pm-12 am. $20, non-members; $10, members. The LAFFAN (Lesbians Available for Fun and Networking) social organization presents its spring dance featuring cash bar with light hors d'oeuvres and music from DJ Claire Francis.

LifeSavor
The Langham Hotel Boston, 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-445-7777). www.servings.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. March 30, 5:30 pm-12 am. $150-$25,000. This 14th annual dinner party benefiting Community Servings features a cocktail reception, dinner at one of the 80 participating, Boston-area restaurants, and a silent auction offering the chance to win a lunch with Queer Eye for the Straight Guy's Carson Kressley.

Eric Bogosian's Wake Up and Smell the Coffee, starring Boston's John Joyce, debuts in Charlestown on March 31

Safer Sexucation Seminar—VIP Crew Volunteer Training
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. March 25-26, 6:30-9 pm. Free. This seminar trains individuals to conduct safer sex outreach and education in bars, clubs and other venues in the Boston area that serve the LGBT community.

Wake Up and Smell the Coffee
Charlestown Working Theater, 422 Bunker Hill St., Charlestown (866-811-4111). www.theatermania.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan Sq. March 31-April 15, 8 pm. $15, adults; $10, students and seniors. Theater on Fire presents the most recent solo performance piece by actor, playwright, novelist and screenwriter Eric Bogosian. The show is performed by Boston native John Joyce.

Ongoing

Bagly
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313). www.bagly.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Wed., 5-9 pm. The Boston Alliance of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

Beantown North G/L Bowling League
Lanes & Games, 195 Concord Turnpike, Cambridge (617-876-5533). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Tue., 8:30 pm. This league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets weekly.

Beantown Soft-Tip Dart League
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Fritz, 26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. www.bsdl.org. Mon., 8:30 pm. $12 for the season. This league hosts weekly 301, 601 and cricket matches at the Alley and Fritz.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.beantownbowling.com. 7 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets Wednesday nights.

Bi Focus
(617-697-9244) MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 7 pm. Bisexual men and women discuss books, videos and other topics of interest.

Bi Rap
Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). First Tue. of each month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group provides support and information for bisexual women or women who are questioning their sexuality.

Boston Bears Barnight
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). http://bostonbears.us. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 9:30 pm-2 am. Free. The Boston Bears meet the first and third Saturday of each month and also hold a happy hour every Friday from 5:30-7:30 pm.

Boston Boasts Squash
Central YMCA, 316 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue., 7-9 pm; Sat., 10 am-12 pm. The league comprises gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-937-5858). www.bgbl.com. The league offers a full regular season and playoff schedule each year. E-mail info@bgbl.com.

Boston Glass Community Center
93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). M Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Thu., 3-8 pm 3-5 pm. The center provides social activiti questioning young people ages 13-25.

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Despina's Place, 47 Mass. Ave., Boston. www.l avengers.org. Mon., 7-8 pm. This bi- and tra ual-friendly, direct-action political group focus issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Uncommons
Central Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns Jamaica Plain (617-926-9267). www.lcfd.o MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed., 7 pm. and lesbian square-dancing group.

Colage
Third Sat. of each month, 10:30 am-12 pm. C (Children of Lesbians and Gays Everywhere) m Medford for support and activities and holds a c rent meeting for interested parents and their pa E-mail medfordcolage@hotmail.com.

Coming Out as Bisexual
Boston's Bisexual Resource Center at the Bosto ing Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (617- 9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Orange L Back Bay. First Wed. and third Thu. of each m 7 pm. Free. An informal group for people think they may be bisexual or are attracted t sexes.

Coming Out Support Group for Ad
(617-482-2166). This group offers a confid place for men and women who are looking for space to discuss issues of sexual identity. It Thursday nights from 7-8:15 pm, near Co Corner in Brookline. Call for more informatio

Compass
(781-899-2212). Compass is a New England support, information and social group for p assigned female at birth, but who feel that th ignation isn't an accurate or complete descri of their gender. Part of the FTM (Female-to- Center, this group meets monthly at loc around New England. E-mail Compass F usa.com for details.

Cosmetically Correct
Woody's, 58 Hemenway St., Boston. http:// groups.com/community/cosmeticallycorrect. First T each month, 6 pm. Cosmetically Correct is a group of lipstick lesbians who meet each m

Elegant Outings
(866-335-7730). www.elegantoutings.com. group welcomes gay and gay-friendly profes women 40 and older who are intelligent, chi sophisticated to get together with like-m women for conversations, dinners, theate networking.

Fenway Community Health
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). www.f health.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. way Community Health offers an array of se for the LGBT community, ranging from d sions about parenting and safe-sex practic programs addressing domestic violence an stance abuse.

The 40-Somethings
theprimeoflife@aol.com. This newly formed gr lesbians in their 40s runs events that help to enduring romantic/life partnerships through friends first.

Frontrunners Boston
Metropolitan Health Club, 209 Columbus Boston (617-937-5858). www.mindspring ~frontrunners. Tue., 12 pm; Wed., 6:45 pm; 10 am. See Web site for locations. All are welco join this running club.

Gay Amateur Photography Group
amateurgphoto@yahoo.com. Learn about photog socialize and meet new people at monthly meet

Gay Fathers of Greater Boston
First Parish Church, 50 Church St., Wa (617-742-7897). www.gayfathersboston.org. $2 group for gay/bisexual fathers meets on the fir third Tuesday of each month, 8-10 pm.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in devel healthy gay relationships features alternativ meeting and dating, communication games an ers for singles. E-mail info@gaylab.org.

Gays for Patsy
(617-412-5751). www.gaysforpatsy.org. This try–western dancing club, featuring two- swing and line dancing, holds events tw month. Beginners welcome, no partner ne Call for more details.

Gender Crash
Spontaneous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., Ja Plain (617-524-6373). www.gendercrash.com. M Orange Line to Stony Brook. Second Thu. of each m 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Members of the LGBT comm

…ited to share poetry, prose and performance …at this open-mike event.

…riends: Bisexual and Lesbian …en of Color
…idge Family and Children's Services, 929 Mass. …Cambridge (617-876-4210). MBTA: Red Line …ural. This discussion group for all ages meets …Saturday, 10:30 am-12 pm.

…un
…ns Available for Fun and Networking is a local …and networking group that provides opportuni… …r women to connect with each other. Members …e a weekly e-mail calendar of events. Laffan …rs an annual Halloween dance and spring …s/benefits. E-mail Laffan_Boston2004@yahoo. …r membership information.

…day Night Bowling League
…n Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889- …. www.mnbl.net. 7:30 pm. The MNBL's bowl… …ason runs Monday nights.

… Network/La Red
…423-7233). www.thenetworklared.org. This sup… …roup is working to end abuse in lesbian, bisex… …omen's and transgender communities. E-mail …thenetworklared.org for more information.

…ly Diagnosed Group
…ealth Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston …457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line …wntown Crossing. First and third Mon. of each …, 7:30-9 pm. Free. This group supports gay and …ual men who've been diagnosed with HIV dur… …e last two years. E-mail nlongtin@jri.org.

… to Dance
…363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Swing, Latin …allroom dance classes and workshops are held …ay-friendly environment.

… TwentySomethings Boston
…ysomethingsboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. …social and peer support group is for lesbians, gay …and bisexual, transgender and questioning folks …ll as their straight allies in their 20s and early 30s.

…Z Social
…shine Room at Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., …n (617-457-8142, ext. 326). MBTA: Orange Line …k Bay. Second Mon. of each month, 6-11 pm. Free. …monthly event, featuring raffles, food, music and …s, benefits those affected by HIV/AIDS.

POZ 20s
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. Thu., 7:30-9 pm. This social group offers support for HIV-positive gay and bisexual men in their 20s.

POZ 30s Plus
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 132 Boylston St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 314). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 7-9 pm. This social group supports HIV-positive gay and bisexual men ages 30 and over. E-mail hyee@jri.org for more info.

Queer-A-Oke
Midway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain. www.dykenight.com. Thu. 9 pm-12 am. Free. Dyke Night Productions provides costumes and wigs for this weekly karaoke night at the Midway.

The Rainbow Café
rainbowboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. This social group for activist, academic, intellectual and artistic lesbians meets biweekly in gay-owned or gay-friendly establishments around Boston.

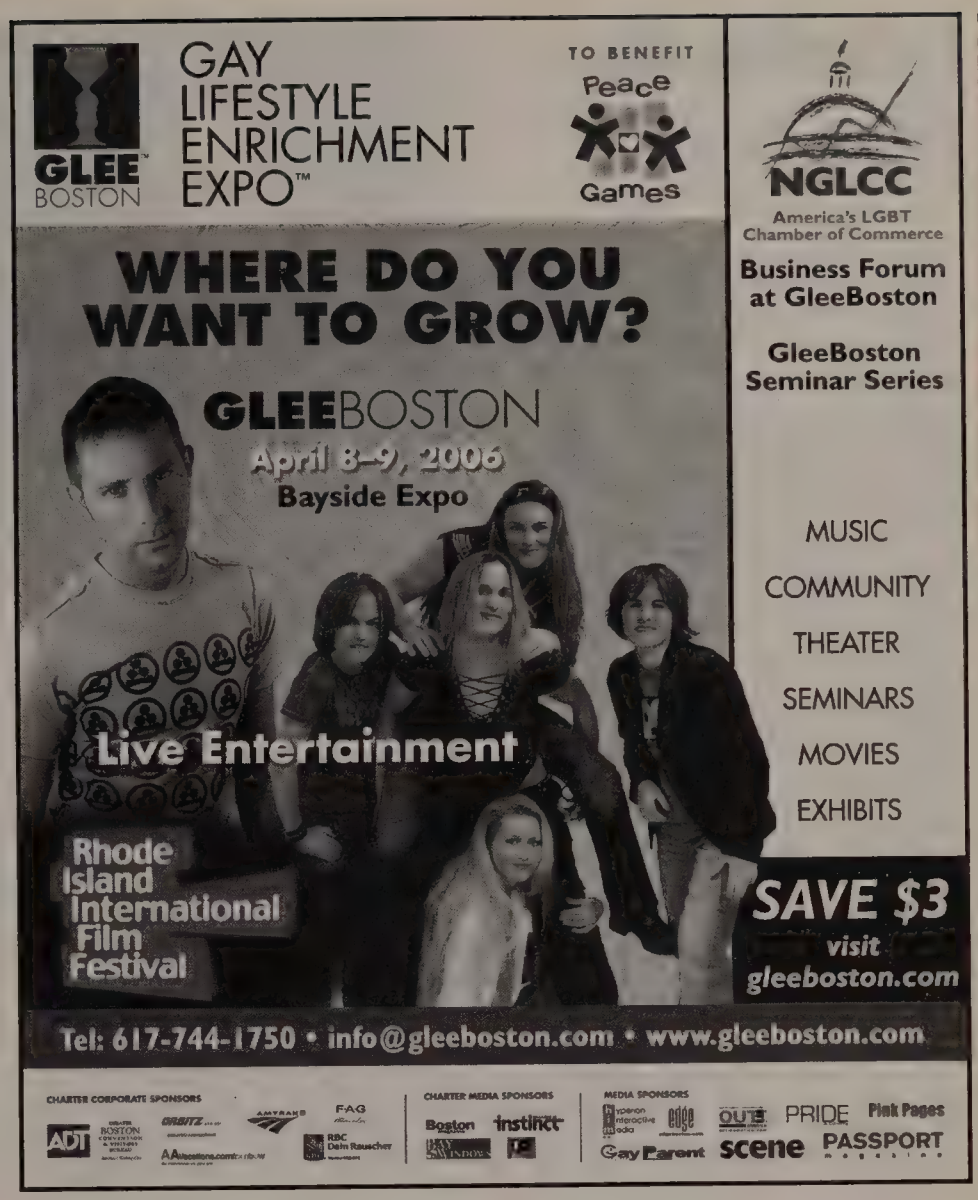
Slice of Rice
Boston GLASS, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Wed., 6-7 pm. This peer-run, queer Asian youth group for those under 25 meets for mutual support. E-mail sungyun@chickmail.com.

Somos Latin@s LGBT Coalition
www.somoslatinoslgbt.org. A social and networking group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas in the Boston area, Somos Latin@s hosts Viernes Sociales every month. E-mail somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.com for more info.

Tiffany Club of New England
(781-891-9325). www.tcne.org. This social and support group for the transgendered community hosts regular activities and events. E-mail stef616@aol.com.

Under the Radar
(617-851-7911). www.radarboston.com. Under the Radar, Boston's gay, all-male, contemporary a cappella group, is always auditioning prospective members. E-mail info@radarboston.com.

Wonder Women Boston
http://groups.yahoo.com/wonder_women_boston. Second Fri. of each month. This social group comprises lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s.



The Three Kings and a Chicken present:

YOUR HOSTS:

Gary Murad - Domenic Visocchi - Anthony Sgro - Greg "Chicken" Clark

TONIC
1314 Commonwealth Avenue, Allston
$20* - DJ, Dancing, Drinking and Tomfoolery 7pm -1am
Festive Attire Encouraged

Complimentary Cocktail Hour 7-8pm
(RSVP necessary for cocktail hour only)

Contact Gary at garymurad@yahoo.com or 617-515-4696 for information, tickets and to RSVP for complimentary cocktails.

*A portion of the proceeds to benefit Leslie's Links - www.leslieslinks.com

books & poetry

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446); mail to Calendar: Books and Poetry; or e-mail information to books@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

Readings & Signings

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Marrit Ingman reads from her memoir, Inconsolable: How I Threw My Mental Health Out With the Diapers, about her struggle with postpartum depression after her baby was born with colic.

Cantab Lounge
738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). www.slamnews.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 9:30 pm, doors open at 7 pm. $3. Poet Dawn Gabriel kicks off this poetry slam by reading from her work. An open mike session follows at 8 pm.

The French Library/ Alliance Française
53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). www.frenchlib.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6 pm. Free, RSVP required. Haitian poet Charlot Lucien reads from his own work and that of other Haitian poets as part of Tunes and Tones of Haiti, a celebration of Haitian culture and art.

Harvard Book Store Event
First Parish Church, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. Free, tickets required. Former White House strategist Kevin Phillips discusses his book American Theocracy: The Peril and Politics of Radical Religion, Oil, and Borrowed Money in the 21st Century, which uses the fall of the Roman and British empires as a template to analyze the United States' current status as a superpower.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Katharine Noel reads from her novel Halfway House, which explores the effects of mental illness on one family.

THURSDAY, MARCH 23

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Atlantic Monthly senior editor Barbara Wallraff reads from her book Word Fugitives, about how and why we use language the way we do.

Center for New Words Event
Hibernian Hall, 182-184 Dudley St., Roxbury (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Roxbury Crossing. 7 pm. Free. Angela Nissel, a writer for the television comedy Scrubs, reads from her memoir Mixed: My Life in Black and White, about negotiating her identity as the light-skinned daughter of a white father and black mother.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. Dara Horn reads from her novel The World to Come, about the Yiddish folklore behind a Marc Chagall painting that was stolen from a museum by a young man who believed it belonged to his family.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1400). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Boston Globe and Yankee Magazine writer Anna Kasabian, along with her husband, David Kasabian, a chef, discuss their book The Fifth Taste: Cooking with Umami, about the Japanese concept of umami, said to be a component of the sense of taste.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Jonathan Ames reads from his book I Love You More Than You Know, a collection of humorous essays describing his weird sexual encounters with women.

Koren Zalickas reads from her memoir March 28.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Contributing writers Anne Bernays, Karen Propp, Audrey Schulman and Jean Trounstine read from Why I'm Still Married, a collection of writing by women addressing the pros and cons of marriage.

FRIDAY, MARCH 24

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Brooklyn College English professor Ellen Tremper discusses her book I'm No Angel: The Blonde in Fiction and Film, which addresses how writers in the 1800s and actresses in the 1900s reinvented the stereotypical image of a blonde woman.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Atlantic Monthly senior editor Barbara Wallraff reads from her book Word Fugitives. See March 23 Brookline Booksmith for a description.

MONDAY, MARCH 27

Blacksmith House Poetry Series
56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $3. Poets Gail Mazur and Joyce Peseroff read from their works.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Editors of the literary journals Quick Fiction, Ploughshares, Redivider, Salamander and Night Train read works from their publications and discuss their ideas about new fiction and small presses.

Harvard Book Store Event
Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. University of Utah professor Elizabeth Borgwardt discusses her book A New Deal for the World: America's Vision for Human Rights, about how the Atlantic Charter of 1941 inaugurated our modern concept of international human rights.

TUESDAY, MARCH 28

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Mike Heppner reads from his novel Pike's Folly, a satire about an Emerson student who wants to buy federal land in New Hampshire in order to pave over it.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. Harvard history professor Joyce Chaplin discusses her book The First Scientific American: Benjamin Franklin and the Pursuit of Genius, about how a growing interest in science during Franklin's time allowed him to become a major figure in politics.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Jane Urquhart reads from her novel A Map of Glass, about a woman's desire to reconnect with her deceased lover through the man who finds her lover's dead body.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Danielle Trussoni reads from her memoir, Falling Through the Earth, about family life in small-town Wisconsin. Also, Koren Zalickas reads from her memoir, Smashed, about the damage she inflicted on herself, both mentally and physically, by drinking during her adolescence.

Wang Theatre
745 Boylston St., Boston (617-247-0878). www.wangcenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 5:30 pm. Free. Anthony Rapp reads from his memoir, Without You: A Memoir of Love, Loss and the Musical Rent, about Rapp's experiences with the play and how it relates to his life off stage.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29

Barnes and Noble, Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Ex-boxer and ex-mobster Kevin Weeks and Boston School of Communications lecturer Phyllis Karas read from the book they co-wrote Brutal: The Untold Story of My Life Inside Whitey Bulger's Irish Mob, about Weeks' time working with Bulger as part of the Boston Irish mob.

Cantab Lounge
738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). www.slamnews.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 9:30 pm, doors open at 7 pm. $3. Poet Tony Brown reads his poetry. An open mike session follows at 8 pm.

First Parish Church
First Parish Church, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30. Free. Conservation biologist and Nature Conservancy program director Jonathan Adams discusses his book The Future of the Wild: Radical Conservation for a Crowded World, about his large-scale theories behind conserving ecosystems.

The French Library/ Alliance Française
53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). www.frenchlib.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6 pm. $5. Harvard University literature professor Leo Damrosch discusses his book Jean-Jacques Rousseau: Restless Genius, a biography of the philosopher.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Stephen McCauley reads from his novel Alternatives to Sex, about a gay man in his 40s who tries to leave his life of promiscuity behind, but starts having feelings for his new friend.

THURSDAY, MARCH 30

Borders Books
10 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.borders stores.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Javier Sierra reads from his novel The Secret Supper, about a man's investigation into the hidden codes and messages behind Leonardo da Vinci's painting "The Last Supper."

Brookline Adult & Community Education
Brookline High School, 115 Greenough St., Brookline (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 7 pm. $12. Scholar of political science and literature Malidoma Somé reads from his book Honoring the Healing Wisdom of Africa, about West Africans' traditional healing practices.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Mameve Medwed reads from her novel How Elizabeth Barrett Browning Saved My Life, about a woman whose life is affected by the inheritance of Elizabeth Barrett Browning's chamber pot.

Harvard Book Store Event
Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. $3. John Banville reads from his novel The Sea, about a man who returns to his childhood seaside home after his wife dies.

MacIntyre & Moore Booksellers
255 Elm St., Somerville (617-629-4840). www.macintyreandmoore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 7:30 pm. Free. Cedar Hill Books poets Kathleen Aguero, Denise Bergman, Jean Flanagan and Richard Hoffman read from their works.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Mike Heppner from his novel Pike's Folly. See March 28 Brookline Booksmith for a description.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Green or Red to Park. 6:30 pm. Free. UMass Boston labor history professor James Green reads from his book Death in the Haymarket: A Story of Chicago, the First Labor Movement, and the Bombing That Divided Gilded Age America, about the bloody Chicago haymarket riot of 1886 and the conviction of innocent labor leaders for the murder of seven policemen. Historian Howard Zinn introduces Green's reading.

FRIDAY, MARCH 31

Grub Street
160 Boylston St., Boston (617-695-0075). grubstreet.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston pm, doors open at 7 pm. $5-$10. Singer Juliana field reads from her memoir, and Karl Iagne Jessica Shattuck, Charles Coe, Jamie Calla Michael Rosovsky read from their original fi non-fiction and poetry as part of A Literary to Spring Break, stories that are wild and racy.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Po pm. Free. Boston Globe book critic and Pu Prize winner Gail Caldwell reads from her m A Strong West Wind, about her experiences ing up in Texas during the Vietnam War– er

SUNDAY, APRIL 2

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Po pm. Free. Food writer Terry Golson moderat discussion Food Writers Talk About Writing, f ing food writers Lora Brody, Linda Bassett, beth Riley and Barbara Lauterbach.

MONDAY, APRIL 3

The Enormous Room
569 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-491-5599). fourstories.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Free. Last Four Stories presents this event, Da Light: Stories of Laughter and Melancholy, fea authors Jacqueline Lalley, Don Lee, Stephe Cauley and Askold Melnyczuk reading from fiction and nonfiction works.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harv pm. Free. Nancy Joaquim reads from her Sophia: A Woman's Search for Troy, about 19th tury archeologist Sophia Schliemann's expedit uncover artifacts from the Trojan War.

Harvard Museum of Natural Hist
Harvard Museum of Natural History, Geological Hall, 24 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Free. Scientist, explorer and conservationist Tim nery discusses his new book, The Weather M which addresses actions individuals and the g ment can take to avert "catastrophic climate ch

TUESDAY, APRIL 4

Barnes and Noble, Boston Univer
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). wu bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Free. Nancy Joaquim reads from her novel Sop Woman's Search for Troy. See April 3 Harvard for a description.

Brookline Booksmith Event
Brookline High School, 115 Greenough St., Boston 566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MB Green Line to Brookline Hills. 7 pm. $3. Julia A reads from her novel Saving the World, about a novelist who writes about Francisco Xavier B work in the early-19th-century Spanish colonies

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1400). w newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to ton Highlands. 7:30 pm. Free. Sharona Mui cusses her memoir, The Book of Telling: Trac Secrets of My Father's Lives, about how her fath vented Israel's first rocket during the War of pendence.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter R Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Mameve Medwed from her novel How Elizabeth Barrett Browning My Life. See March 30 Brookline Booksmith description.

ducation

ce to Contributors
t listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calen-ducation or e-mail to education@improper.com. ine is four weeks prior to publication.

DNESDAY, MARCH 22

onversation with Roger Swain
l South End Settlements, Harriet Tubman House, Columbus Ave., Boston (617-495-3611). www.nd.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. 7 :15. South End/Lower Roxbury Open Space Trust's Winter Lecture Series sponsors People, and Plants host Roger Swain speaking on his years of gardening.

rm Your Mind, Fuel Your Spirit: ital Health Awareness in the Black mmunity rd, 104 Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge (617-495-). www.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Har- 4 pm. Free. Terrie Williams, founder of the Willams Agency and the Stay Strong Founda- leads a panel discussion on mental health s in African American communities.

larians Can Regenerate a New d in under a Week. How?
um of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-589-). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science 7 pm. Free with museum admission. Peter Red- scientist and associate member of the White- Institute for Biomedical Research, discusses he uses the planarian flatworm to study regen- n as well as the possible use of stem cells to re- rate a variety of human tissues.

URSDAY, MARCH 23

ndoned a Long Time Ago: African ericans, Human Rights and the ggle for Real Equality heastern University School of Law, 400 Hunt- n Ave., Boston (617-373-5149). www.north m.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Northeastern. pm. Free. Associate professor of history at the versity of Missouri Carol Anderson speaks on ways domestic and international policies in- ct through the issues of race, justice and lity.

lding Friendships Across the ial Divide: The Problems and sibilities a K. Pereski Conference Center, Simmons College, The Fenway, Boston (617-521-2626). www.race ducation.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. m. Free. Spelman College president Beverly iel Tatum speaks on racial issues as part of the oric Public Forum on Race and Education.

ucational Research in the 21st ntury: Connecting the Scholar and Classroom ard Graduate School of Education, Askwith Lec- Hall, Appian Way, Cambridge (617-496-5873). llgseweb.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Har- . 5:30-7 pm. Free. The Harvard School of Grad- Education hosts a discussion on the role of edu- nal research in the future of education.

IDAY, MARCH 24

Search of Wisdom: Higher ucation for a Changing Democracy
Louis Pasteur Ave., Boston (617-521-2626). w.raceandeducation.com. MBTA: E Green Line Museum. 4-6pm. Free. As part of the Historic lic Forum on Race and Education, Beverly iel Tatum, president of Spelman College, ks on issues of education.

udying Children's Religion ton College, 24 Quincy Rd., Chestnut Hill 7-552-1860). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green to Boston College. 12-1:15 pm. Free. Harvard inity School professor Robert Orsi and History Religion in America professor Charles Warren a group of 20th-century children as a sample xamine past research on children and religion.

ATURDAY, MARCH 25

aking Connections: Abolition, omen, and Civil Rights for All seum of Afro-American History, 46 Joy St., ton (617-742-5415). http://nps.gov/boaf. MBTA: en or Red Line to Park. 2 pm. Free, reservations re- sted by March 22. A discussion with group activ- s involves civil rights in the U.S., with specific ention to the abolition and women's rights vements.

SUNDAY, MARCH 26

Cracking the Contemporary Code
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 10:30 am-4:30 pm. $100-$125. Participants gain a new sense of how to look at contemporary art in this daylong course composed of a variety of lectures by art experts and collectors.

MONDAY, MARCH 27

What Death Is For
Boston College, Fulton 230, 144 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-552-3729). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 4:30 pm. Free. Essayist, poet, lecturer, memoirist and media commentator Joseph Bottum explores mortality in philosophy, art, political theory and religion.

TUESDAY, MARCH 28

Antislavery Women: The Power and Peril of Organizing Against Slavery
Boston Public Library, Rabb Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. Beth A. Salerno, assistant professor of history at Saint Anselm College, speaks as part of the "Words of Thunder" Lowell Lecture Series.

Art and Opera: Harmony and Conflict in La Traviata
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 10:30 am-12 pm. $20-$25. Assistant curator of paintings Frederick Ilchman leads this short course that studies Paris and the artistic culture of La Traviata.

Points on Publishing
Brandeis University, WSRC Epstein Building, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-8100). www.brandeis.edu. 12:30 pm. Free. The Women's Studies Research Center presents a panel discussion on the book publishing process and tips on how to write a book and find a publisher.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29

Lessons Learned While Attempting to Compile a Chronological History of Boston
Boston Public Library, Mezzanine Conference Room, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6:30 pm. Free. Author of When in Boston Jim Vrabel speaks as part of the Local History and Genealogy Lecture Series.

THURSDAY, MARCH 30

The 2006 Commonwealth Humanities Lecture: The Burden of Deceit in Public Life
The National Heritage Museum, 33 Marett Rd., Lexington (617-224-1630). www.massinc.org. 7:30 pm. Free. Harvard visiting fellow Sissela Bok explores how moral issues such as deception and lying damage public life and society as a whole.

Gender, Multiculturalism and Dialogue: The Case of Agunot
Brandeis University, WSRC Epstein Building, 515 South St., Waltham (781-736-8100). www.brandeis.edu. 12:30 pm. Free. WSRC scholar and lawyer Lisa Fishbayn discusses how civil law reform can alter cultural and religious practices that discriminate against women.

George Sherman Union
Boston University, Metcalf Hall, 775 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-9812). www.bu.edu/gsu. 6 pm. Free. Theater critic Gordon Rogoff speaks on his life and work in the theater industry. Huntington Theatre executive director Michael Maso, American Repertory Theatre executive director Robert Orchard and the Boston University College of Fine Arts faculty and alumni host a question-and-answer session after Rogoff's lecture.

Women Behind Bars
New England Journal on Criminal and Civil Confinement, Radisson Hotel, 200 Stuart St., Boston (617-422-7328). www.nesl.edu/journal. 8:30 am-4 pm. $20. A variety of speakers from both law enforcement and the court systems discuss the issues confronting incarcerated women.

SUNDAY, APRIL 2

Bizen: A Day Considering Contemporary Japanese Ceramics
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 10 am-4 pm. $20-$25. Leading contemporary Japanese ceramics collectors and artists share their insights on artistic collaborations between Japan and the U.S. throughout history.

CHRISSO STUDIO

ADVANCED HAIR AND SKIN CENTER

Experience a purified sense of well-being

Full Service Salon and Day Spa specializing in:
The latest in haircuts styling and color
Hair extensions replacements and wigs
Customized facials
Advanced skin care therapies
Body services
Waxing

AVEDA An authorized Aveda Concept Salon

19 PLEASANT STREET, NEWTON CENTRE 617.243.3033
WWW.CHRISSOSTUDIO.COM

body & mind

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Include a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Alternative Connections Expo
Best Western Royal Plaza Hotel, 181 Boston Post Road West, Marlborough (413-258-0228). www.angelconnections.com. March 26, 9 am-5 pm. $5, expo only. $25, expo and workshops. Students can spend the day sampling new products and treatments and learn about a variety of healing and personal growth techniques.

Movie Night: Crash
Theosophical Society, 21 Maple St., Arlington (781-648-0101 or 781-893-6281). www.tsboston.org. March 25, 8 pm. $10, suggested donation. Paul Haggis' Oscar winner Crash reveals the prejudices that reside in everyone. This movie challenges viewers to be honest about their racial assumptions. An informal discussion follows.

Lectures

The Life of Buddha in Story and Art
The C.G Jung Institute, 116 St. Botolph St., Boston. (617-267-5984). www.cgjungboston.com. March 23 and 30, 7-9 pm. $45. Dr. Timothy Gus Kiley, former associate publisher of Parabola Magazine, leads a seminar on the life story of Siddhartha Gautama, known as the Buddha, as it appears in early traditional biographies and Indian art.

Women's Health and Naturopathic Medicine
Circles of Wisdom Bookstore and Resource Center, 90 Main St., Andover (978-474-8010). www.circlesofwisdom.com. April 3, 7-8:30 pm. Free. This workshop offers naturopathic approaches to women's health and disease prevention, including nutrition, herbal medicine and lifestyle changes. It's presented by Jill Cooper Kenney, who holds a doctorate in naturopathic medicine.

Workshops

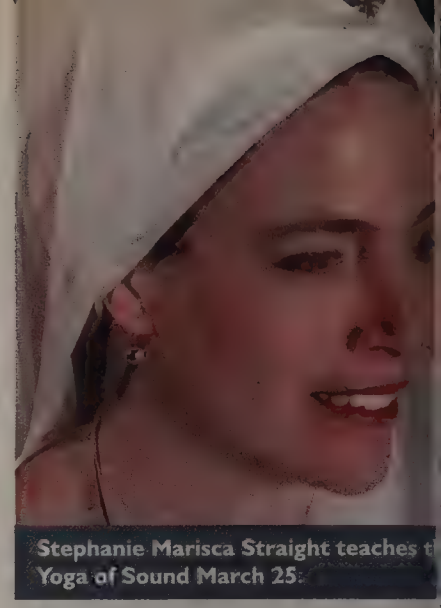
The Art of Breathing While Moving
Brookline Tai Chi, 1615 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-2975). www.brooklinetaichi.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Washington Square. March 24-26, 2:15-4:30 pm. $35. Students learn how to breathe more effectively with Taoist longevity breathing methods, a practice said to help lung problems. Topics include how to breathe while running, walking or doing tai chi.

Beginner Yoga Orientation
Exhale Spa, 28 Arlington St., Boston (617-532-7000). www.exhalespa.com. March 26, 1-3 pm. $35. These workshop orientations are designed for newcomer yogis and teach an intro to yoga philosophy, yoga breathing, meditation, sun salutations and other basic poses. The cost includes two free yoga classes.

Breathwork
Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., 3rd floor, Boston (617-375-0785). www.backbayyoga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. March 26, 7 pm. $10. Renew, relax and discover the power of breathwork, a dynamic meditation achieved through rapid breathing while listening to trance-ambient music and percussive beats.

Healing With Laughter
The Arlington Center, 369 Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-316-0282). www.arlingtoncenter.org or www.joyofkidding.com. March 25, 1-3 pm. $25. Lynn Caesar hosts this presentation on laughter's physiological and immune-enhancing benefits, which are tested in an actual laughter session.

Holistic Approach to Weight Loss
Boston Center for Adult Education, 5 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. March 25, 1-4 pm. $41. In addition to nutrition and exercise, losing weight can involve emotional, mental and spiritual components. This class covers the basics of nu types of diets and the use of visualization e as tools for a long-term approach to weight l good health.



Stephanie Marisca Straight teaches t Yoga of Sound March 25.

Kripalu Yoga
Earthsong Yoga, 186 Main St., Marlboro (50 8884). www.earthsongyoga.com. March 31 7:45 pm. Please preregister. Participants lea breathing techniques for relaxation and re tion, the proper alignment of yoga postures a on how to respect their bodies' wisdom and tions. All levels welcome.

Moving into Meditation with Sarah Powers
Yoga 301, Cambridge Masonic Hall, 1950 Ave., Cambridge (617-354-3011). www.yo com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. March 31-A 10 hours. $200. This workshop focuses o held, passive postures that prepare the body ting meditation and for learning about and ing the four foundations of mindfulness. I with a flowing Asana practice and then med

Samadhi Community Kirtan
Samadhi Yoga, 796 Beacon St., Newton (617-243-0034). www.samadhiyogatri MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre. A pm, potluck; 7 pm, Kirtan. $10-$20, suggeste tion. Kirtan is a yogic practice associated w votional singing traditions and is a spiritu tice that embraces body, mind and soul.

The Yoga of Sound with Sat Kartar Khalsa
All That Matters, 315 Main St., Wakefield, R 782-2126 or 401-783-3925). www.allthatr com. March 25, 12-6 pm. $125. Naad yoga, t of sound, is a central component in the pra Kundalini yoga, the ancient study of the bo brational energy. The practices of chanti mantra are said to help practitioners heal, lifted and connect with their intuitive self as enhance communication with others.

Retreat

Sacred Space Retreat Day
Sacred Space, 145 Middle Road, Southboroug 624-7519). www.sacredspaces.ws. March 26, pm. $50. Please preregister. Sacred Space's ret you step away from the rush and routines o day life for a day of meditation, reflection, yoga and peaceful relaxation.

Ongoing

Dance Friday
Phillips Congregational Church, 111 Mt. Aub Watertown (617-997-0948). www.innerfoc com/dancefriday. Fri., 8 pm-12 am. Donatio come. The evening starts with a warm-up a tinues with freestyle dancing to DJs spinning ing barefoot is allowed, but drinking and s aren't. All ages and levels welcome.

Restorative Yoga with Bo Forbes
Healthworks, 35 White St., Cambridge (61 4454). MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Thu., 8 p Please preregister. This class is geared towar ing and balancing the nervous system an tional body and features gentle stretching.

Yoga for Every Body
The Green Planet, 22 Lincoln St., Newtor 965-6416 or 617-332-7841). MBTA: D Gre to Newton Highlands. Tue., 7 pm, Wed., 9 a drop-in. Please call ahead. This low-key class ginners teaches postures at a slow pace, whi ing movement with breathing.

ports

ice to Contributors
lit listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to dar: Sports, or by e-mail to sports@improper.com. le address, phone number, nearest T stop, dates mes, along with a brief description of the league or Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone and e received at least four weeks in advance.

ome Games

ton Bruins
Banknorth Garden, Boston
ets: 617-931-2222
h 25, 7 pm vs. Buffalo Sabres h 27, 7 pm vs. Florida Panthers

ton Celtics
Banknorth Garden, Boston
ets: 617-931-2222
h 22, 7:30 pm vs. Toronto Raptors
h 26, 4 pm vs. Chicago Bulls

ents

lem Globetrotters
Banknorth Garden, 100 Legends Way, Boston -931-2000). www.tdbanknorth.com. MBTA: n Line to North Station. March 24-25. Fri., 7:30 Sat., 1 pm. $16-$135. The legendary team of bas- all pranksters brings its show to Boston for two ate games/performances.

Play

STRALIAN-RULES OTBALL

ston Demons
-290-7101). www.bostondemons.com. The club s new players for nine-a-side competition.

SEBALL

nry's Baseball
-891-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

SKETBALL

ston Ski & Sports Club
7-789-4070, ext. 238). Co-ed, year-round ues for players of all levels in Watertown, Bel- t, Dedham and Waltham. Teams and individu- re welcome.

mbridge Racquet and Fitness Club 7-491-8989). www.crfcbasketball.com. Year-round ues for individuals or teams at all levels.

rporate Basketball League
1-248-7811). This league seeks teams for the ter and spring seasons. Games are on weeknights Newton and Waltham. For more information, se contact zelovic@comcast.net.

ver Too Late Basketball
1-488-3333). www.nevertoolate.com. Adults of ges practice in locations throughout Boston.

OXING

ston Sport Boxing Club
Walnut St., Watertown (617-972-1711). www. onboxing.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then bus. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. The club offers mpics-style boxing lessons for all levels.

gtime Boxing
Columbia Road, Dorchester (617-269-9044). w.dogtimeboxing.com. Mon.-Fri., 5-8:30 pm. is boxing club offers training for competition, ditioning and recreation.

ODGEBALL

ston Ski & Sports Club Dodgeball
7-789-4070). The BSSC is recruiting for dodge- l teams.

RAGON-BOAT RACING

ving Root Dragon Boat
7-413-8360). www.livingroot.org. No experience necessary to join this co-ed dragon-boat racing m that practices in Boston and Somerville.

ENCING

ay State Fencers
1 Windsor St., Suite A 401, Somerville (617- 1-0101). www.baystatefencers.com. MBTA: Red ne to Kendall/MIT, then #85 bus. This club offers ncing and stage-combat programs.

FLAG AND TOUCH FOOTBALL

BSSC Football
Games are held in Brighton (617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. Six-on-six and four-on-four men's teams compete each weekend.

ICE SKATING

Bay State Skating School
(781-890-8480.) www.baystateskatingschool.org. Bay State offers beginner, intermediate and advanced classes for children and adults at 13 rinks throughout greater Boston. Students can use either hockey or figure skates.

LACROSSE

Commonwealth Lacrosse Club
comlaxclub@gmail.com. This post-collegiate men's lacrosse team's season starts up this spring. Games take place on Sundays.

RUGBY

Beantown Women's Rugby Club
www.beantownrugby.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Allston; games Sat. Beantown has won the national women's championship six times. New players are welcome.

Boston Irish Wolfhounds
(617-254-9732). www.biwrfc.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Jamaica Plain. Home field at the Irish Cultural Center in Canton. New players are welcome.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. The club is looking for players to join its national-level team.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. The club seeks new players for games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Mystic River Rugby Club
P.O. Box 477, Malden (781-322-0898). www.mysticrugby.com. This Division I men's rugby club welcomes both new and experienced players who want to play a high level of competitive rugby.

Old Gold Rugby Club
(617-742-0678). www.oldgoldrugby.com. Tue. and Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Games on Sat. New and experienced players are welcome.

RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various locations (617-499-4835). www.bostonhash.com. Weekly runs on either Wed. or Sun. year-round. If you enjoy running, drinking and singing bawdy songs, this is your weekly running group. Call for times and locations.

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Fri., 6 pm. Weekly runs.

Team LunaChix Boston
BostonRun@teamlunachix.com. Weekly runs Thu. at 6:30 pm. http://groups.yahoo.com/group/bostonlunachix. Women only. Talking-pace, three- or five-mile runs through the Fells.

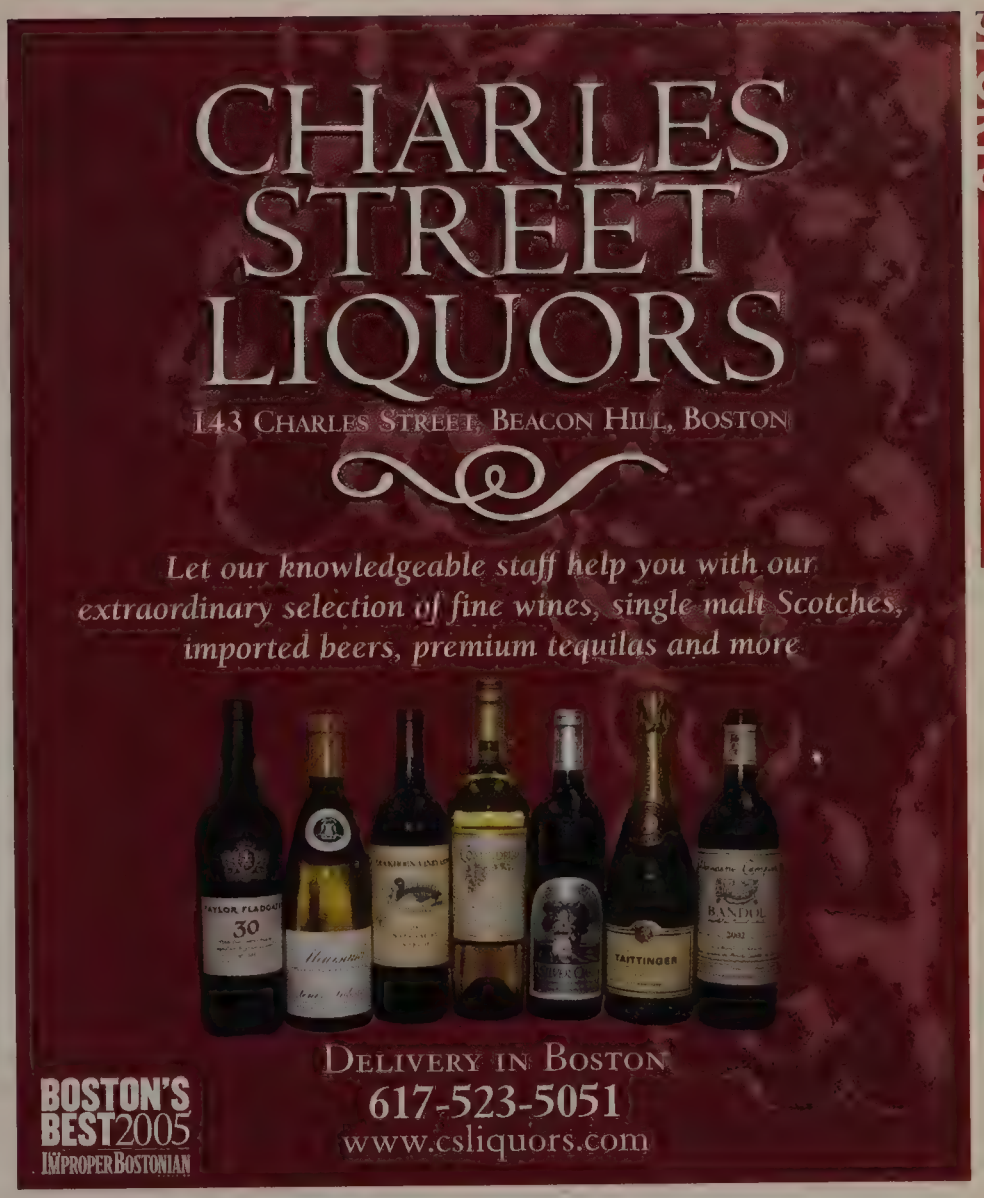
SKIING/ SNOWBOARDING

Polecat Ski and Sports Club
www.polecatskiclub.com. The Polecat Ski and Sports Club seeks new members of all skill levels. For information, e-mail polecatskiclub@hotmail.com.

SOCCER

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). The BSSC offers a series of indoor and outdoor soccer leagues.

The Globetrotters dribble into TD Banknorth Garden on March 24 and 25.



PREGNANT?

Distressed
about what's in your closet?
Determined
not to lose your fashion style and hip factor?
Desperate
to be a Yummy Mummy?

DIANE VON FURSTENBERG ◆ FRAGILE ◆ CHAIKEN ◆
CADEAU ◆ BELLY BUTTON ◆ RUBY VAN ◆ CITIZENS OF
HUMANITY ◆ PAPER DEMIN CLOTH ◆ TRIMESTER Ts ◆
SUSANA MONACO ◆ CHIP N PEPPER ◆ BELLA DAHL ◆
HOMMEMUMMY ◆ EBERJEY ◆ ARABELLA B ◆ NOPPIES

Bump

Fabulous, delicious baby & childrens' clothing too!!

45 River Street, Boston
Monday - Saturday 10am 6pm t: 617.426.4004 f: 617.426.4008
www.bumpshoppe.com

Laser Hair Removal
Photofacials
Microdermabrasion
Chemical Peels
Restylane & Radiesse
BOTOX®
VISIA® Skin Analysis
Dermatology

We measure results with VISIA, an innovative technology that maps your face, helps us prescribe the best course of action for your skin's health and appearance, and tracks your progress.

617.876.5258
essentiallybare.com

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
"Best Nonsurgical Cosmetic Procedure"

Essentially Bare
Cosmetic & Laser Clinics

children

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Things to See

Big Apple Circus

City Hall Plaza, Boston (617-931-2787). www.bigapplecircus.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. April 1-May 7. $13-$54. New York's original non-profit, one-ring circus, presents Grandma Goes to Hollywood as it marks its 20th season performing in Boston. Check Web site for show times.

ImprovBoston Family Show

1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sat., 6 pm. $12, adults; $10, seniors; $5, students and children. This short-form improv show includes interactive games for the entire family.

Lyric Stage

YMCA,140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-585-5678). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. April 1, 2 and 9, 11 am. $8; children under 2 are free. Once Upon a Time theatre company presents an interactive performance of Peter Pan where children in the audience are outfitted in costumes to play various characters, as Peter and Tinkerbell outsmart Captain Hook.

The Opera House

539 Washington St., Boston. (617-880-2442). www.broadwayinboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. March 24, 7 pm; March 25, 10 am, 2 and 5 pm; March 26, 2 and 5 pm. $22.50-$42.50. The musical show Clifford the Big Red Dog LIVE! brings the children's book series to life.

Puppet Showplace Theatre

32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. $7.50-$9.50. Reservations recommended. •March 22-23, 10:30 am. The Kingdom of Riddles by Sparky Davis solicits the audience's riddle-solving skills to help a knight complete his quest. •March 25-26, 1 and 3 pm. Going, Going, Gone Whaling by the Poobley Greegy Theatre celebrates the lives of whales using colorful, handcrafted puppets. •March 29-30, 10:30 am. Spring Surprise by Blue Moon Puppets follows the adventures of forest animals as they wake up for spring. •March 31, 7 pm; April 1-2, 1 and 3 pm. Rumpelstiltskin, retold by Paul Vincent Davis, is a hand puppet presentation of the classic tale.

Things to Do

Barefoot Books

1771 Mass. Ave., Arlington (617-349-1610). www.barefootbooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Fri. and Sat., 10:30 am. Free. This story hour for children features a variety of themes including counting, traveling and magic.

Borders Books and Music

CambridgeSide Galleria, 100 Cambridgeside Place, Cambridge (617-679-0887). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. March 25, 11 am. Free. Silly Storytime features funny children's stories such as Where's My Sock?, Cha Cha Chimps, Dancing Larry and Big Chickens.

Boston Children's Theatre

Grand Lodge of Masons, 186 Tremont St., Boston (617-424-6634). www.bostonchildrenstheatre.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. March 25, 1 pm. $20-$22. Adventures with Beatrix Potter features a 45-minute interactive performance with Potter's story-book characters, including Peter Rabbit.

Children's Museum

Museum Wharf, 300 Congress St., Boston (617-426-8855). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Daily, 10 am-5 pm; Fri., open until 9 pm. $9, adults; $7, children. •The Art Studio invites parents and children to create works of art together. Ongoing. •Arthur's World allows children to write their own skit and perform in their favorite Arthur setting. Ongoing. •Dragons and Fairies: Exploring Vietnam Through Folktales engages children in modern Vietnamese life through traditional folktales. Ongoing. •KidStage features various 25-minute performances of music, singing, dance and comedy including the Tale of the Three Little and Count Me In. •Your House, My House exp the different homes of children across the u Ongoing.

Coop Kids

The Coop at Harvard Square, 1400 Mass. Ave., bridge. (617-499-2000). www.thecoop.com. M Red Line to Harvard. Every Tue. and Sat., 11 am. Authors and staff offer story hour and crafts. •N 25. Mary Kaye Chryssicas, author of the chil book I Love Yoga, hosts a yoga lesson for kids.

MIT Museum

265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Ce Last Sunday of every month. 2-4 pm. Free. Marc Family Adventures in Science and Techn (F.A.S.T.) presents The Science of Theatre with Katz, which explores several aspects of theatr duction including acoustics, design, lighting and perature.

Museum of Fine Arts Children's Ro

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9 www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Mus $15, adults; $13, students; free, 5 and under; $ ages 6-17 on weekdays before 3 pm. •Mon. 3:30-4:45 pm. The Children's Room allows k explore the museum and create projects with riety of themes. Ongoing. •Tue.-Thu., 3:3 Books Bring Art Alive provides arts and crafts ities for children ages 5 and under. •Sat.-Su am-4 pm. Family Place allows children ages up to explore the MFA through self-guided a ties with an adult.

Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www. mo MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 7 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $14, adults; $12, seniors; children. •Sat.-Sun., 11 am-12 pm. Beyond the features four major exhibits that explore how tors peer inside the human body without cu Ongoing. •Butterflies and flowers are on disp the permanent Butterfly Garden. •Countdown pernova, showing at the Hayden Planetarium plores the life cycles of stars. Ongoing. •Greec crets of the Past explores the majesty of the C islands through computer generated images. • ing Models is an interactive exhibition that fe models of a wave tank, Mount Everest and a grasshopper. Ongoing. •Science Live! feature animals and multimedia presentations surrou by natural history dioramas. Ongoing.

National Heritage Museum

33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). nationalheritagemuseum.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am- Sun., 12 pm-5 pm. Free. •The Enchanted Clo George McFadden features the handiwork of loc signer and clock-repairman George McFadden. ing. •Teenage Hoboes in the Great Depression ca the life of young hoboes in search of work thro collection of photos, books and excerpts from l from the Uys Family Oral History Collection.

New England Aquarium

Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www. org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Thu., 6 pm; Fri.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $15.95, adults; $1 seniors; $8.95, children ages 3-11. •Amazing Jellie tures thousands of jellyfish. Ongoing. •The 200 gallon Giant Ocean Tank contains sharks, stin and sea turtles. Ongoing. •Edge of the Sea is an ing hands-on exhibition featuring sea stars, h crabs and more. •The Simons IMAX Theatre sc a variety of movies. Ongoing.

Newton Free Library

Children's Room, 330 Homer St., Newton. (617 1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Greer to Riverside. Free, registration required. •Marc and 30, 7 pm. Pajama Storytime for children a and up allows kids to come enjoy a story before time in their pajamas.•March 27 and April 3, Poetry Writing Workshop explores the world of p and helps children fine tune their writing s •March 28 and April 4, 4:15 pm. Storytelling for Teens teaches participants how to select, and tell stories, as well as plan a storytelling pro for younger children.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Dance Co.

Church of Our Saviour, 25 Monmouth St., B line (617-738-7688). www.pbjdanceco.org. MBT Green Line to Longwood. Creative Movement pro ongoing dance classes for kids ages 3-8, incl warm-up exercises and creative and improvisat dances. See Web site for days and times.

Thomas Crane Public Library

40 Washington St., Quincy (617-376-1332). thomascranelibrary.org. MBTA: Red Line to Q Center. March 25, 10 am. Free. Musician Goldin hosts this interactive children's story library concert featuring his singing animal pets Henry the Horse and Quackleberry Duck round own

nts to See

n University Observatory bservatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-30). MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Wed. r nights), 7:30-8:30 pm. Free.

ren's Museum
ngress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426- www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Sat.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $9; dren ages 2-15 and seniors; $2, 1-year-olds; free, under 1 year; $1 per person, Fri., 5-9 pm.

il Hall
e St., Boston (617-635-3105). www.faneuilhall place.com. MBTA: Orange or Green Line to rket. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. U.S. Park Service give talks every half hour in the Great Hall, 's not being used for special events. Free.

ard Museum of Natural History
ford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www. harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and se- $5, children ages 3-18. Free for all, Wed., 3-5 l Sun., 9 am-12 pm.

F. Kennedy Library & Museum
bia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). www.jfk .org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 m. $10; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages 13- e, ages 12 and under.

Anderson Antique Auto Museum
wton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). Tue.- 10 am-5 pm. $5; $3, ages 6-17 and seniors; free, and under.

Baker Eddy Library Mapparium
lass. Ave., Boston (888-222-3711). MBTA: Line to Hynes/ICA. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-3:40 5; $4, seniors and students.

nt Auburn Cemetery
lt. Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105). A: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 8 am-5 pm.

eum of Afro-American History
y St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam m.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. -Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Guided walking tours avail- y special request. $5, suggested donation.

eum of Science
e Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $15; $13, seniors; $12, -11.

England Aquarium
al Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Fri., 9 am- ; Sat.-Sun. and holidays, 9 am-6 pm. $17.95; 5, seniors; $9.95, ages 3-11; free to members.

North Church
alem St., Boston (617-523-6676). MBTA: Orange en Line to Haymarket. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. Free.

South Meeting House
Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www. uthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Orange or Blue o State. Daily, 10 am-4 pm. $5; $4, seniors and nts; $1, children; free, ages 5 and under.

State House Museum
Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). bostonhistory.org. MBTA: Orange or Blue Line to . Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and students; ges 6-18; free to members and children under 6.

dential Center Skywalk
Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). MBTA: n Line to Hynes/ICA. Daily, 10 am-8 pm. $9.50; 0 with college ID; $7, seniors; $6.50, ages 3-12; ages 2 and under.

ity Church
Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). www. yboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. , 9 am-6 pm. $5; free, ages 12 and under.

s Constitution & Museum
lestown Navy Yard, Boston (617-426-1812). ussconstitutionmuseum.org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm.

olunteer

C Mentoring Program
7-224-1303). www.afcmentoring.org. Mentor a er-care or adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-437-6200). www.aac.org. Help someone with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). www.cancer.org. Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments.

Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay
(617-542-9090). www.bbmb.org. BBMB seeks volunteers to provide friendship to boys in need.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Volunteers act as friends and mentors to young girls.

Boston Cares
(617-422-0910). www.bostoncares.org. More than 100 volunteer opportunities are available each month.

Boston Jaycees
(617-367-5710). www.bostonjaycees.org. A volunteer organization of people between the ages of 21 and 40 focusing on charitable involvement and developing business opportunities.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012, ext. 227). www.bostonlivingcenter.org. This HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers who are 18 and older for kitchen tasks, office work and special events.

Boston Partners in Education
(617-451-6145, ext. 620). www.bostonpartners.org. Tutor students in math and literacy and prepare high school students for the MCAS.

Cambridge School Volunteers
(617-349-6794). www.csvinc.org. Volunteers and tutors needed in Cambridge public schools.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). www.dana-farber.org. Help adults living with cancer.

Downtown Initiative for Adult Literacy
(617-357-6000, ext. 7508). Tutor adult students.

Extra Hands for ALS
(617-331-3014). www.extrahands.org. Help patients with ALS (aka Lou Gehrig's Disease) and their families with chores and housework.

HealthCare Dimensions Hospice
(781-894-1100). www.hcdhospice.org. Volunteers are needed to support terminally ill patients and their families.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-267-3700). www.thehome.org. Mentor a child.

Horizons Initiative
(617-287-1900, ext. 133). www.horizonsforhomeless children.org. Volunteer for homeless children.

Hospice Volunteers
(617-547-2620, ext. 4271). Support terminally ill patients.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). www.cjp.org. Spend time with an elderly adult, mentor a child or teach adults to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). www.lvm.org. Teach adults to read.

MAB Community Services
(617-972-9119). www.charityfinders.com. Read to or shop with a blind person.

Match-Up Interfaith Volunteers
(617-482-1510). www.matchelder.org. Volunteers needed to assist elders.

Neighborhood Action Inc.
(617-723-5800). Serve meals to the homeless.

New England Aquarium
(617-973-5235). www.neaq.org. Volunteer as an aquarium guide and more.

Parental Stress Line
(800-882-1250). Counsel parents and caregivers, and facilitate support groups.

Pine Street Inn
(617-892-9187). www.pinestreetinn.org. Volunteer for food preparation and meal service.

Project Place Inc.
(617-262-3740, ext. 15). www.projectplace.org. Become a mentor or tutor for homeless men and women.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111, ext. 17). www.rfbd.org. Volunteers read textbooks for recording.

Respond Inc.
(617-625-5996). www.respondinc.org. Volunteer at this agency for battered women.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). www.rosies.org. Volunteers needed for this women's homeless shelter.

SafeLink
(617-521-0100). Volunteers needed for this 24-hour domestic violence program.

Samaritans
(617-536-2460). Provide friendship over the phone to people in crisis.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. SVB offers one-shot opportunities to volunteer with other young, single professionals.

Bangkok Bistro
at Cleveland Circle
Authentic Thai Cuisine since 1988
Serving lunch and dinner
Dine In • Take-Out • Delivery
Restaurant hours:
Lunch: Tuesday-Sunday 11:30am-3:30pm
Dinner: Sunday-Thursday 3:30-10pm
Friday & Saturday 3:30-11pm
We serve beer and wine www.delivery.com/bangkokbistro
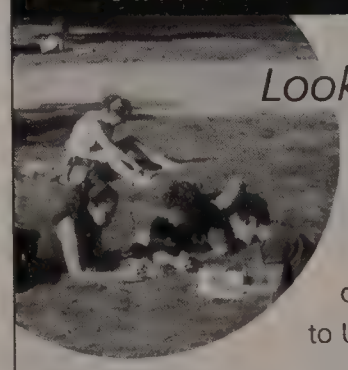
617.739.7270
1952 Beacon Street, Brighton

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS BOSTON


Looking for summer learning?
You're getting warm.
Your search for the perfect summer learning destination is heating up, and all signs point to UMass Boston:
- Over 500 undergraduate and graduate courses offered days, evenings and online
- Travel-to-learn programs in fascinating places like China, Amsterdam, and Puerto Rico
- Our sunny, breezy Boston Harbor campus is an ideal location for summer study
- Small classes, dedicated faculty, & affordable fees make UMass Boston a great value

Registration starts April 3
UMASS BOSTON
find out more:
summer.umb.edu
617.287.7900

IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TR

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you w The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

Chefs Michael Ginor, Michael Schlow, Brendan Joy and Ken Rodgers cooked up something sunny at the World Culinary Summit in Dubai.

Luba and Rina Peselman are dressed for winter at the Summer Palace in St. Petersburg, Russia, with our Fall Fashion Preview. Thanks for springin' this one on us, ladies.

The Harvard Dudley Dragon Boat team attended a dragon boat race Tianjin, China. They did well in the race, but extraordinarily well in t Super Happy Oar Wielding Group Photo contest.

Andrew Kurzon was out on a leisurely excursion at Burro Canyon Shooting Park in Azusa, Calif., until he found out Dick Cheney was in town and quickly radioed for backup.

James Russo and David Griffin visited Taiwan's Taipei 101, the world's tallest building. Next, Griffin wore it as a hat.

While relaxing on Culebra Island, Puerto Rico, Liya Escalera, Erin Healey and Melissa Gross do their best to help Improper Sightings maintain its PG-13 rating.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER:
Getting IMPROPER tattooed on their ankle at Tattoofest, held in Tampa, Fla., March 23-26.

Send high-resolution digital photos (at least 500K file size) to sightings@improper.com, or mail professionally printed color photos (min. 3x5) to: Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116. Please include the exact photo location, full names of all people in the photo, your phone number and e-mail address. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned. Ink-jet or laser-printed photos cannot be accepted.

ockie horoscope

RCH 22 – APRIL 4, 2006

BY ROCKIE GARDINER

IES MARCH 20–APRIL 19

ring equinox can be the shot in the arm that'll cure whatever winter ailment has you . If you're celebrating a birthday this week, your recovery will benefit from the fiery sun forging an alliance with sure-and-steady Saturn in Leo. This renewal of high- d firepower could be just what the doctor ordered. Because Mercury is preparing to out of retrograde on the 25th, you may already have an idea of what lies ahead for nd your colleagues. Plus, the long-awaited spring romance—loving Venus favors your ruler—is slated for that weekend as well.

URUS

IL 20–MAY 20

cile yourself to the fact that restrictive Saturn in Leo ontinue to make real estate and family matters ematic. Not that you won't assume whatever nsibility is necessary and, as you may find out this week, it every now and then from doing so. But you shouldn't turn get you down or get in the way of the generous nt of good fortune and affection directed to you via your s ruler. Despite lucky Jupiter being retrograde in your ership house, someone will come through for you.

EMINI

Y 21–JUNE 20

the initiative. One of the advantages of having ageous Mars in your sign—if only every other year—at you're tempted to go ahead and "Just do it!" rward you can rationalize to your heart's content. Since retrograde Mercury ruler turns direct on the 25th (just ars captures the attention of glamorous Neptune and tionate Venus), there'll be plenty to think and talk ut. March may have come in like a lion but it's going out a lamb. Will you be the sacrificial critter?

ANCER

NE 21–JULY 22

lives of all the cardinal signs—as the primary forces in zodiac, you know who you are—tend to revolve around tices and equinoxes. Therefore the arrival of spring and astrological new year on the 20th can have as strong an ct on a cautious Crab as it does a rambunctious Ram. the powerful feeling you'll get when the Aries new moon he 29th introduces a fresh lunar cycle. The total solar pse, which we won't see here, marks the end of the 19- r cycle that dates from March 29, 1987 and the inning of a new one.

EO

LY 23–AUGUST 22

arrival of spring brings different things to different ns. For sun-ruled Leos who were energy-deprived, it ans that daylight will soon overtake darkness and that r seasonal funk will disappear. But first you'll have to lure the first solar eclipse of the year without feeling that 're losing something precious. Read for Cancer for tinent dates and cycles. Meanwhile, amorous Venus and istic Neptune meeting in your Aquarius marriage house offering an array of sensual and spiritual highs. Sweet.

IRGO

UGUST 23–SEPTEMBER 22

ce Virgins are supersensitive to the movements of rcury, their ruling planet, try to remember that even ough Mercury is coming out of its three-week retrogression the 25th, it won't advance past the degree in Pisces at ich it flipped until April 13. That also happens to be the te of the Aries-Libra full moon, Passover and Holy ursday. Until then, basically you'll be playing a refined me of catch-up. Let's pretend that you appreciate the time reflect and revise that these retrograde periods afford you.

IBRA

EPTEMBER 23–OCTOBER 22

ring can really hang you up the most. No kidding. The n's crossing into Aries, the sign of your cosmic partner, ts a lot of pressure on the "couple" aspect of Libra and ur innate desire, not to mention your ability, to achieve and maintain harmony. Luckily you'll get a boost from the glorious meeting between your Venus ruler and ethereal, idealistic Neptune in Aquarius, the sign of your cosmic "bit on the side." Add the passion Mars brings to the party and by the 25th, you could be head over heels.

SCORPIO

OCTOBER 23–NOVEMBER 21

Money might not buy you love, but it could get you out of the jam you found yourself in around St. Patrick's Day. Plus, shortly after Mercury turns direct on the 25th, more money may find you. That's when Jupiter in Scorpio attracts the opportunities lucky, lovable Venus is offering. You could feel doubly blessed that weekend because your ballsy Mars co-ruler is protected by the benign vibe of Neptune. Play your cards right and another of those romantic Venus-Mars liaisons will be just around the corner.

SAGITTARIUS

NOVEMBER 22–DECEMBER 21

Like Rams and Lions, the other fire sign creatures, Centaurs can't wait for the spring equinox and the high spirits that the Aries sun brings. Especially since Aries governs Sagittarius' house of romance, recreation and the risks you love to take. Before long, a good time will be had by all. Although it might not affect you directly, having sexy Mars in your Gemini marriage house, particularly while it's being befriended by affable Venus and artistic Neptune, can't help but make the atmosphere at home lovelier-looking and perhaps more loving, too.

CAPRICORN

DECEMBER 22–JANUARY 20

It's taken most of the winter, but your stalwart Saturn ruler will finally get the positive reinforcement it (and you) deserve when the Aries sun trines Saturn on the 24th. As we get further into spring, more planets will be transiting Aries, so the word-of-mouth will improve as well. Window shop to your heart's content, but put off buying what you think looks good until Mercury turns direct on the 25th and the gorgeous Venus-Neptune conjunction heightens your awareness of beauty. Their merger could also illuminate your spiritual side.

AQUARIUS

JANUARY 21–FEBRUARY 18

We all know that Aquarians are very popular people. Look at Ellen and Oprah. However, this weekend as Venus and Neptune, the higher octave of the goddess, meet in your sign, we will see just how beautiful and talented you are. If ever there was an ideal time for a stylist and a makeover, this is it. But with lascivious and energetic Mars in your Gemini house of romance lavishing his attention, you might not have time to buy, much less wear, clothes. If romance doesn't consume you, a spurt of creativity will.

PISCES

FEBRUARY 19–MARCH 19

Consider the consequences when speaking your mind. While Mercury is retrograde in Pisces, careless words could come back to haunt you. After Mercury turns direct on the 25th, there's still a shadow period to get through. Try to be circumspect until the great gossip monger advances beyond the degree at which it flipped when March began. Once Mercury clears its shadow on April 13, you'll be in the clear as well. Right now, however, your Neptune ruler is reflecting how great you look, how desirable you are.

r a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months, send me, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., Valley len, CA 91405; more details at www.rockiehoroscope.com. Rockie's daily forecast appears online at www.laweekly.com.

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Friday, March 3, Island Breeze by Bacardi and Mix 98.5 held a dinner at Legal Sea Foods at the Northshore Mall for contest winners.

1. Rob Palk, general manager at Legal Sea Foods, and Kelly Malone, Mix 98.5 radio personality.
2. Jeff McCarthy, district manager for Bacardi, and Steve Katzen, manager at Kappy's.
3. Mark Hideriotis, product manager for Chase Paymentech Solutions; Steve Lubelczyk, consumer research for Gorton's Seafood; Karen Egan, self-employed; and David Egan, commerical lender at TD Banknorth.

On Friday, March 3, Harpoon hosted its annual St. Patrick's Day Festival at t brewery on Northern Avenue. The celebration was filled with live Irish musi local rock bands and plenty of fresh Harpoon and UFO beer.

1. Fitz Granger, assistant vice pre marketing, and Charlie Storey VP, marketing; both at Harpoon.
2. Christen Schoch, therapeutic recreation specialist; Rebecca M and Carla Lupi, speech patholo all at North Shore Medical Cente
3. Shawn Scola, supervisor at K& Advertising; John Dorsey, IT pr manager for Information Mappir Cheryl Banko, sales rep for Hou Mifflin; and Matt Rubenstein, account manager at Oracle.

On Monday, March 13, Boston-based label Myre premiered its fall 2006 collection during a walk-through fashion show at Match, while diners looked on.

1. Tina T. Wu, PhD graduate student at Boston University, and Ana R. Sharma, clinical trials audit manager at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute.
2. Lauren Blake and Max Buccini, both students at Boston College.
3. Alexandra Miller, student at the School of Fashion Design; Paulina Ramirez and Virginia Martinez of McAllen, Texas; and Carolina Saracho of the Boston University Phototonics Center.

On Tuesday, March 14, Heineken Premium Light and Maxim held a celebration at the State Room, featuring DJ Vice, to unveil the new Heineken Premium Light.

1. Madeleine Starkey, student at George Washington University; Farboel Farhemgmel Boston; Victor Flores, singer for Rothchild; an Christa Waegemann, student at George Washington University.
2. Don Blaustein, vice president of sales for Heineken USA.
3. Joe Bramanti, Jim Leaverton, and Tim Fleming; all sales man for Horizon Beverage Company.

PHOTOS: LEGAL SEA FOODS, BRANDY TOTH; HARPOON, BILL EPPICH; MATCH, STATE ROOM, ALISON

improperimpersonals

eryone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the ld to see (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity). Heck, it's better than making a fool of self in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type -mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

rangers on a Bus

e you at least twice a week on the and 101 bus routes and we've been hanging looks for at least a year. ce I'm way too shy to approach , the ball's in your court. I'm the nd, tall, thin guy usually in a shirt tie. You're the very handsome sexy Brazilian guy in the painter ralls and denim jacket that gets on bus near Foss Park. My ride is so ch better when you get on the bus. e a chance. It could benefit us h—even if only just once.

Shane

ole Hog

ien the T is full, who are these ople who think they can lean all er the poles? Poles are for holding, t leaning on! This morning I got the T and it was full. There were empty poles for me to hold onto, cept the one immediately to my ht, but some woman with a really ly nose and a brown furry hat on dy, you know who you are now) is leaning on it, right by the door. , I lightly tapped her on the back d said, "Sorry, I'd like to hold ." Instead of an excuse me, I got warded with an icy look of "f--- u." I was so tempted to reply. So, xt time, I'm not going to say ything. I'm just going to wedge my nd under her fat back and grab e pole.

-Not Going to Take It

ff Shore

u: Matt, 38, cardiac surgeon who es on Beacon Street and graduated om BC and Harvard Med School. e: stock analyst, white dress with a d flower on it. I meant to meet you the Shore Club on Friday, but my iends' flight was delayed and we t there very late. I was hoping you ight join me for dinner in Boston. -mail me.

—metuinmiami@hotmail.com.

hopping for Love

first noticed you in the frozen food isle on Saturday, Feb. 25, at the rader Joe's in Coolidge Corner. You're allish with fair hair and skin and I hink you were munching on omething. You just looked so friendly nd approachable that I had the mpulse to invite you for a cup of hot hocolate. I don't know if you noticed ne but before I could approach you, he moment had passed. I went about ny shopping and the next thing I new, you were behind me in the heckout line. We were both waiting n a frustratingly slow yet cute old couple who were buying boxes of wine nd a pot of daffodils. They wanted elp having their purchases carried out to their car and the cashier had to keep ringing that loud bell. I snuck a few sly glances and a little smile your way as I was paying for my purchases, but regrettably was too shy to speak to you once again. I may be taking the easy road by sending an anonymous e-mail to the IMPROPER, but who knows? Maybe you're single and noticed me too. If so, maybe we can meet up, hang out or even get that hot cocoa. I'd like to think that I at least tried—even if it's after the fact.

—ya.habbibi@gmail.com

Rail Rage

You know who you are. You wouldn't sell me a ticket for the commuter rail because I gave you five pennies instead of a nickel. Was it because that was too much addition for you to handle or was it because you enjoy screwing with people who are rushing to catch a train? Whatever they pay you to sit in that booth, it's way too much. In fact, looking at what you do in there, counting money and punching tickets, I bet they could replace you with a vending machine that does the same thing. Oh, it wouldn't take pennies either, but it'd provide better customer service and have more personality than you.

—Seething Commuter

Commuter Crush

This is for Olga. Are you surprised that I know your name? We've had a few encounters on a certain commuter train. I was the one who wanted to draw your portrait. The first day I saw you (last April) was the day you unknowingly changed my life. I was instantly attracted to you. It's been almost one year, and I can't escape these feelings. I'm fascinated with your image. Carrying the burden of loving you and realizing that my feelings aren't going to be reciprocated has taken a toll on me because my intuition has told me all along that you're the one. Sometimes you can be a complete bitch. It doesn't matter how icy you are toward me because I still love you. Even if you don't sit near me on the train, I'm comforted by your presence. I'm very sad because I just want to talk to you like the first time. I have this picture in my sketchbook that I made of you from memory. I look at it when I miss you. At least a piece of paper can't dismiss me.

—zafire7775@yahoo.com

Bird Seeks Bloke

Despite arriving in Boston just a few weeks ago, I've already encountered the assholes referred to in the Impersonals. My first weekend here, I was hit on by a guy who told me that he had commitment issues and was "just looking for a shag." Nice. I turned him down because I'm a great girl who is looking for a great guy, not just a shag. In fact, I'm the successful, funny, educated, interesting woman who matches up to what you have to offer, with the added bonus of a sexy English accent. So why don't you drop me a line and let me know where you hang out so I can prove to you that not all women in Boston want the attention of an asshole.

—englishgirlinboston@hotmail.com

And Another Thing

I wanted to write again to say thanks for there being at least one other single guy in this state who shares my views. Like I said before, what the hell do you expect to find when you go to a bar? I'm proud to see that there are other good guys like myself out there who believe the same. So keep turning us away ladies, and you'll wind up with the very guys you claim to hate or not want anything to do with!

—Still a nice, single guy in Boston

Mean Girls Go Home

I'm a Boston woman and I've been in Massachusetts all my life. A few years ago I stopped doing the bar scene. I feel that some, not all, Boston women ruin the whole "meeting men at bars" experience. These women know who they are. They're catty, self-absorbed and mean! Their terrible attitudes ruin the possibility for the nice guy to find a nice girl. I have several smart, handsome, funny and successful 30-year-old male friends who can't stand going to the bars/cubs to meet women. They're tired of the runaround. So, my advice for all great guys is this: Stop going to the bars to meet women. You'll continue to be disappointed because the mean Boston girls aren't leaving any time soon. Good luck!

—A Good One

T for Two

It was a Thursday night on the jam-packed B line around 9 pm. You were on your way home to Sutherland from going out after work (an architecture/engineering placement agency) and I was on my way home to Warren from interior design school. You commented on my architecture tube and we chatted for a while, but then I had to get off. I didn't even get your name, but I would love to continue the conversation.

—Well1205@suffolk.edu

RESTAURANTS

ASSAGGIO 29 Prince Street, Boston, MA 02113 (617)227-7380 www.assaggioboston.com. Located in Boston's historic North End, Assaggio is open 7 days a week for lunch, dinner and late-night dining. Assaggio's menu is comprised of traditional Italian fare and uses only the freshest ingredients! Enjoy our extensive wine list or relax at one of the North End's only full service bars. Try our exclusive Limousine Shuttle Service–for a $10.00 charge we'll pick you up at home and provide round trip service to and from the restaurant– Please call one day in advance to reserve. Intimate, private function space is also available.

BONFIRE 64 Arlington St., Boston Park Plaza Hotel, Theatre District, 617-262-3473. Chef Todd English's restaurant, Bonfire, is a steak house and tequila bar with a wood-fired grill and Latin and European influences. The décor is gorgeous in warm red and gold tones. An extensive taco menu, wood-grilled steaks and a late-night tapas menu provide options for all diners. Open nightly for dinner and late-night dining.

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617-236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Boston's Best 6 years in a row! Our southwestern specialties include Sizlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurant in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

IGUANA CANTINA 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

MATCH 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. This modern restaurant/lounge maintains an unpretentious yet hip vibe. A sleek fire display and glass wine room are just two of its many features. Match's signature mini burgers and martinis are guaranteed to please the most discriminating palate. Match music has a distinct early evening lounge feel with the beat and volume picking up as the night progresses. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC,V.

M.J. O'CONNOR'S 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255. Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

NED DEVINE'S Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

SIDNEY'S GRILLE 20 Sidney St., Cambridge, 617-494-0011 Enjoy fresh flavors, good friends, and a great bar at Sidney's Grille in Central Square. Discover why Bon Appétit magazine says "It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." Memorable cuisine combines international flair with regional accents. Serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and weekend brunch. Private dining available. For menus www.sidneysgrille.com.

SOLAS 710 Boylston St., Lenox Hotel, 617-933-4803. Solas means comfort in Gaelic and comfort is exactly what you will find here, along with a lot of "Irish" good fun. Solas, a Boston pub with an Irish soul, illustrates its Irish influences in the architectural styles and furnishings. The menu is influenced by a traditional, yet decidedly modern Irish cuisine. And you'll always find a warm, hospitiable staff looking to pour you a cold pint. Open 11am - 2 am, 7 days a week.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP:130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 300 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

THE LIVING ROOM 101 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, MA. 617-723-5101. www.thelivingroomboston.com. Cool, comfortable, casual– the name says it all. Where else can you enjoy American comfort food while relaxing on a couch or at a table, and even have dessert first? This restaurant, bar & lounge succeeds at being homey rather than haughty. There's an inventive martini list and friendly staff, just moments from Quincy Market and the North End. Try the Living Room's awesome apps like Chicken Taquitos, Mini-Burgers or Shrimp & Avocado Egg Rolls. Full dinner menu is served from 4:30 PM until Midnight daily. Saturday and Sunday a "Pajama Brunch" is served from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Bar & Lounge open until 1:00 AM daily.

VENEZIA RESTAURANT 20 Ericsson St., Boston 617-436-3120. For authentic Italian fare, impeccable service and an atmosphere unmatched on Boston's Waterfront, Venezia provides one of the city's most unique and pleasurable dining experiences. Your destination for everything from a relaxing midday lunch to a romantic dinner for two, Venezia can also accommodate private affairs like wedding receptions and business functions, and features live music on Friday and Saturday nights.

BARS & CLUBS

Beer Specialty

SUNSET GRILL & TAP: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 300+ microbrews and exotic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

BIG CITY - POOL HALL, Pizza Kitchen, Beer Bar 138 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-782-2020 www.allstonsfinest.com. BIG TIME FUN: 21 Championship pool tables, 80 big beers on tap, outrageous signature pizzas and BIG MENU Sat/Sun Brunch in our BIG BANK BUILDING with our one of a kind "metro retro decor". THE BIG DEAL is free rooms and pool for your next party or function of any kind. Call the "Party Specialists". Sun - Weds 3P's (pool, pitcher, pizza) $19.99. Life is good in the Big City! Come experience it in a big way!

Clubs

FELT 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. www.FeltBoston.com. A four level venue offering a New York style Lounge, a hip bar scene, with sophisticated pool tables and a dance club in the 4th level. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth. The perfect setting for a pre or post-theater dinner or a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere of DJ's and dancing, sophisticated pool tables & bars...and FELT's posh fourth level club are the perfect blend to satisfy all your senses.

Dance Bars

GREEN BRIAR 304 Washington St., Brighton 617-789-4100. A little taste of Ireland with great tasting, affordable food. One of the most popular nightspots in town, the Green Briar has become the area's headquarters for international sports viewing and live entertainment. Live music five nights a week, featuring local bands on weekends, a traditional Irish Seissun every Monday night and Prime Time Trivia every Tuesday. The hospitable atmosphere makes the Green Briar an excellent place to hold luncheons, wedding rehearsals, social gatherings and small business meetings. Open 11am-1am, 7 days a week. Cover charge varies on Friday and Saturday nights and some sporting events on Sundays.

KINVARA 34 Harvard Ave., Allston 617-783-9400. At the Kinvara, the crowd is spirited, the staff is hospitable, the food is great and everyone is treated as a "regular". It's the local gathering place with authentic Irish pub flavor. Live international sports viewing via satellite includes soccer, rugby and hurling. Live bands entertain to a lively crowd on weekends. The mainstream pub fare menu ranges from grilled sandwiches and fish & chips to traditional Irish dishes and innovative daily specials. At the Kinvara, you'll enjoy a true Irish pub experience. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

General

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617- 236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Boston's Best 6 years running! Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch a dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina rest rants in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners C www.bestmargaritas. com.

CHAMPIONS SPORTS BAR Boston Marr Copley Place; 110 Huntington Ave. Boston, 937-5658. Come join us at Boston's pren Sports Bar where you can enjoy all you local a national sports action on one of our 33 tvs, incl ing 2 big screens. We have draft beers as well a huge selection of domestic and imported bo selections for you to choose from. We also hav full bar and menu serving all your favorite tra tional American cuisine. Planning your next p or corporate event? We have room for par ranging from 25-325. Our hours are from Sun through Thursday 11:30-1am, and Friday and urday 11:30-2am.

THE HARP 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-7 1010. Voted Boston Magazine's "Best After Game", the Harp is a favorite downtown hots any day of the week, located directly across fr the Fleet Center. Live bands from Boston, Phila phia and New York plus DJs spinning tunes Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights set the p for the great high-energy environment. The H provides a crowd-pleasing menu with tastes fr around the globe. Located in the heart of do town Boston, the Harp also serves as an excell meeting place for business luncheons, social ga erings and events.

JILLIAN'S BOSTON / LUCKY STRIKE LAN 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-0300 ww liansboston.com. Jillian's is a 70,000 square f entertainment megaplex featuring 16 bowl lanes, 50 pool tables, high-tech games, high def tion video walls, multiple lounges and priv rooms. Located on the first floor is Tequila R which offers an amazing Tex-Mex menu and da ing to the hottest DJs Friday and Saturday nigh

PARRIS Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Qui Market Building, Boston 617-248-88 Lounge. Cocktails. Dancing. Nightlife. Come the lights of Parris. Sample the eclectic lou menu featuring grilled pizza, oyster shoot and steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or Fre 75 martini, and then motion onto the h dance floor featuring live music with the b bands and DJs Thursday through Saturd Named for the original architect of the Gre revival-style building, Alexander Parris, you nightlife experience at Parris will be Boston a beyond. Open 5pm - 2am Wedneday - Saturd Cover charge on Friday and Saturday.

BRUNCH

KENNEDY'S MIDTOWN 42 Province Str Boston, 617-426-3333 www. kennedysm town.com. Ideally situated in Boston's Midto Kennedy's is located between Downtown Cro ing and the Boston Common; Just steps from B con Hill and The Freedom Trail. One of Bosto best kept secrets, Kennedy's menu boast pri aged steaks, seafood,assorted pub fare, and d creations. Open 7 days a week, brunch served S urdays and Sundays, and lively piano bar. Call for that special function or event.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE – SKYLINE ROO
MUSEUM OF SCIENCE Science Park, Bost Ma, 02114. Enjoy Sunday Brunch in the beaut Skyline Room overlooking the Charles River at a.m. & 1 p.m., then check out the latest breatht ing Omni film or our always-changing exh halls. Tickets start at $32 and include on-site pa ing when available. Brunch only, $24. Reser tions recommended. For more information (617) 723-2500 or visit mos.org.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP 130 Brighton Ave., A ston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA, 9 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-86 "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, e benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Brunch Taco Bar, including a free Sunday pa and your first beery mary or mimosa. Full me also available. 112taps, 300+microbrews.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

ACUPRESSURE

781-453-3988

ward yourself with a type of axation and rejuvenation that proves the power of the body, nd and spirit. We provide a othing and comfortable atmos-ere for the best massage treat-nt. by appt. 95/128 exit 17-19 16 Great Plain Ave. Needham nter 9am - 9pm open 7days.

ATTORNEY

RAGAB & Associates, LLC
6 Beacon Street, Suite 200
Boston, MA 02114

Ragab & Associates, LLC is a general law practice located in downtown Boston. Our firm focuses on estate planning, real estate, business law, bankruptcies and domestic relations. Please contact us 617-523-3200.

ETIQUETTE CLASSES

INCREASE CONFIDENCE!
Etiquette Made Easy for Children and Young Adults
Choose from any or all of the following Social Etiquette, Communication Skills, Table Manners. Classes are forming now in Brookline, MA and are arranged by age group. Ages 5-18 are welcome.
Contact
etiquettemadeeasy@yahoo.com
617-276-2082

HEALING

NE Medical Massage Therapy
Do you suffer in pain?
Massage • Reiki • Acupuncture
Repetitive Stress & Chronic Injuries
Located at Harvard Vanguard Medical Associates
147 Milk Street, 7th floor, Boston
617.769.0101
Next 12 hr. Reiki 1 Class
Monday, April 17 10am-6pm
Monday, April 24 10am-2pm
Maxine Bornstein RN, MS
Reiki Master / Teacher / Holistic Nurse
508.292.5258
www.reikibythe sea.com
www.nemedicalmassage.com

HEALING CONT.

TERRY PORTER, MEDIUM/SPIRITUAL HEALER

Providing love, guidance, & healing to help find the answers you seek. Call Terry at 781-331-4441 or e-mail porterTAP@aol.com for information or to schedule an appointment.

HELP WANTED

SERVICE STAFF HOUSTON'S

Houston's Restaurant, located at 60 State St. next to Faneuil Hall, seeks serves and greeters. Looking for professional, educated, friendly and ambitious individuals. Please apply in person Sunday through Friday between 3:00 and 5:00 pm.

NURTURING

MASSAGE BODYWORK FOR WOMEN

Luxurious Tantric bodywork channels soothing energy thru sensual meridian nurturing body and soul. Exhilarating relaxation; mind-body equilibrium. By certified therapist. Sliding-scale rates. 857-526-6791. tantricway@hotmail.com.

PERMANENT COSMETICS

PET GIFT BOUTIQUE

Cause to Paws
Gifts for pets... and people that love them
www.causetopaws.com
1-617-738-PAWS
1386A Beacon Street
Brookline, MA
02446

PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE

A UNIQUE HOME DETOX℠
FOR DRUGS AND ALCOHOL
PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL
PHYSICIAN DIRECTED.
COVERED BY MOST INSURANCE PLANS.
ADDICTION RECOVERY
1-800-770-1904
(24 hours)

PSYCHIC

READINGS BY MICHAEL LAFFERTY

Private and personal phone readings. Credit cards accepted. 215-482-6517.

IF YOU WERE PSYCHIC

You'd already know how well your ad would work in the Improper Shopper. Call today to advertise. 617-859-1400 ext. 269.

SOCIAL CLUBS

Hampshire House
COSMIC CONNECTION SINGLES PARTY!
April 19
Swing into Spring with singles 40+
Call 617.357.5777 X 503
Reservations held at the door
www.cosmiconnection.com

YOGA CLASSES

WWW.VINIYOGA CAMBRIDGE.COM

Yoga at Watertown Square Wednesday 5:45 and 7:30, Central Square, Cambridge Monday 5:00. www.Viniyoga Cambridge.com (617)-354-0570. Whether you are looking for strength, flexibility, relief from back pain, neck and shoulder tightness, or relaxation, you can benefit from this therapeutic approach to yoga. Beginner and intermediate. Try 1 class $16. 6-class series $96. Viniyoga: appropriate application of yoga respecting the individual.

617-616-1600
pplm.org/plan

Davis Square Plaza, 260 Elm Street
Somerville

Mon-Fri 11am-7pm
Sat 10am-5pm

Plan is a Planned Parenthood express center.

We offer clothes-on consultations for birth control and emergency contraception with experienced medical professionals.

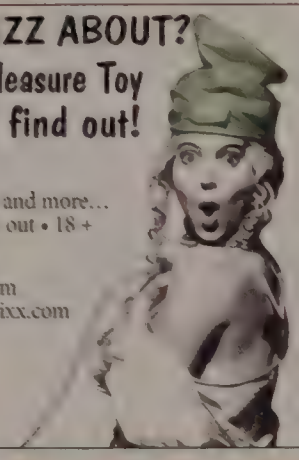
Just walk right in, walk out with contraception. All in 30 minutes. No sweat.

plan

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

WHAT'S THE BUZZ ABOUT?
Host a KittyLiXX Pleasure Toy Home Party and find out!
1-866-844-LIXX
• Sensual & Erotic Toys, Oils and more...
• Earn free gifts • Girls Night out • 18 +
• Also seeking sales people
• Visit us at www.kittylixx.com
• Email : homeparties@kittylixx.com



MARIJUANA STUDY
Researchers at McLean Hospital are looking for individuals to participate in a 21-day research study to test an investigational medication for marijuana dependence. You may qualify for this study and earn up to $500 if you:

Are 18-50 years old?

Are currently smoking marijuana on a regular basis and want to stop?

Can come to McLean Hospital 5 days a week for 3 weeks?

For more information call: 617-855-2359 or visit www.drug-studies.org

cityside tickets
"Your source for the best tickets in New England"
Red Sox Tickets Available Now!
Call today at 617-481-2145.
Or visit us at www.citysidetickets.com.

Puppies
• Cute & Healthy
• 1 Year Healthy Warranty
• Microchipped
• Vet Checked/Shots
• Mixed Breeds Available
• Much, Much More

PET EXPRESS 781-592-2003
www.petexpressboston.com

JOSEPH SULLIVAN CARPET CLEANING
The Best Way to Clean Carpets
Est. 1973. Specializing in hand washing and deep cleaning of all carpets, including delicates (Oriental, Hand-woven, Special dye, etc.)
Eliminate dirt/deep stains and odors.
Drop-off/pick-up service available.
Call now for competitive pricing.
617-445-1693
www.josephsullivancarpetcleaning.com

Who's your best repeat customer?

The Improper Shopper reaches 433,600* young, urban Bostonians every two weeks.

Advertise with us today and our readers will become your BEST CUSTOMERS!

IMPROPER SHOPPER
Classifieds for Bostonians
Call Jessica 617-859-1400 ext. 269
*Media Audit Nov./Dec. 2005

LEARN FROM THE BEST!

NEW ENGLAND BARTENDING SCHOOL
www.bartendingschool.com • 888-4DRINKS

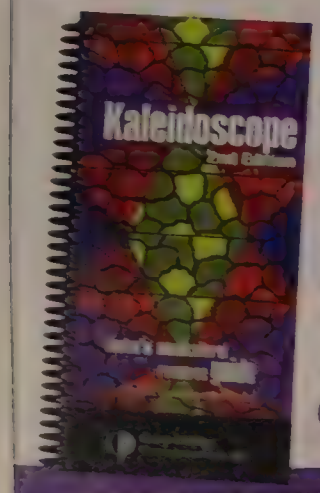
DISCOVER THE ARBONNE DIFFERENCE!

Discover the botanical REvolution in anti-aging! NutriMinC® RE9 anti-aging system: 9 result-oriented elements combat the visual signs of aging.

"Be proactive in your health, be proactive in your wealth. Become Arbonne's product fan and the Arbonne business."

For more information please contact: Christine Size, Independent Consultant
christinesize@myarbonne.com • www.christinesize.myarbonne.com

ARBONNE INTERNATIONAL
ARBONNE SKIN CARE
Pure, Safe, Beneficial
Formulated in Switzerland, made in the USA.



Kaleidoscope
is Boston's one stop for multicultural information.
It's Boston's first and only comprehensive multicultural resource guide.
created and published by
Colette Phillips Communications, Inc.
Order KALEIDOSCOPE Now!
617.357.5777
www.kscopecity.com

Brazilian Born
www.brazilianborn.net
Location:
Shops at Prudential Center
800 Boylston St., Boston
617.375.5566
UNIQUE, SOPHISTICATED, BRAZILIAN ART
Assortment of ceramic flowers and fruits, vintage suitcases, stylish jewelry, one of a kind ceramic dolls dated and signed. Everything is handmade by talented Brazilian artsits.

For fast, capable, temporary help
List your housecleaning, yard work, moving help, and clerical jobs with us FREE and have a Boston University student work for you!
BOSTON UNIVERSITY STUDENT EMPLOYMENT
Phone: 617.353.28
Post your jobs online: www.bu.edu/seo
FAX: 617.353.97
E-Mail: seo@bu.
Let us work for you!

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

Winner of Best of Boston Award

KEEZER'S
CLASSIC CLOTHING SINCE 1895

When you have an event, think Keezer's!
We have great deals on new and resale men's wear and
TUXEDOS • TUXEDOS • TUXEDOS
Quality, selection and price at Keezer's since 1895
Great For Formals, Weddings, Proms, Bar Mitzvahs

KEEZER'S CLASSIC CLOTHING SINCE 1895
140 River Street, Central Square, Cambridge
617.547.2455 Mon.-Sat. 10-6
Free Parking www.keezers.com

Closet Smarts
LET ME RESCUE YOU FROM YOUR WARDROBE AND MAKE GETTING DRESSED A PLEASURE AGAIN

WARDROBE REVAMPING
FASHION TUNING
PERSONAL SHOPPING

www.closetsmarts.com
emelee70@yahoo.com

hen you need custom printed
T-SHIRTS
SWEATSHIRTS AND MORE...
..a necessary fact of Life!

ph - 617-625-3335
email - info@qrsts.com
www.qrsts.com

QRST's
T-Shirt Printers
and more.....
part of R.A.W. (Rinnigade Art Works)

NOW AVAILABLE ON DVD
for rental or purchase

Derailed

Everything is Illuminated

Capote

with this ad, buy any of these titles for just $19.95 all rentals 6 days

movieworks
rent buy movies dvds videos games fun
1658 Beacon St., Washington Sq., Brookline
On the Green Line • FREE Parking
617.734.6332
10am-midnight daily

MADE IN ITALY
Men's and Women's collections from the best shoe factories

Strada
Monthly arrivals direct from Italy

Gianmarco Lorenzi
Roberto Cavalli
Cesare Paciotti
Baldinini
Casadei

27 Harvard Street Brookline
Village, MA 02445

617-277-0081 F: 617-277-0445 www.lestrada.com Mon-Sat: 10am -7pm Sun: 12 pm -5pm

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

Top row: Susie Castillo. Middle row: Ernie Boch Jr., Sully of Godsmack and Greg Hill; Wolfgang Puck; Bottom row: George Lucas; John Ratzenberger, Willie Maye and Donnie Wahlberg

WHAT ARE THE ODDS?

Beyond all the red-carpet fashion catastrophes and self-congratulatory silliness of the Academy Awards, the most boring four hours of TV this side of the Super Bowl were enlivened this year by the ongoing feud between Robin Dawson of the Massachusetts Film Bureau and Mark Drago of the Massachusetts Sports and Entertainment Commission.

The two have been engaged in an unseemly and public battle about who gets to scout locations with directors or escort movie stars around town, and who deserves credit when anything as inconsequential as a breath-mint commercial actually gets filmed here. To settle things once and for all, Dawson challenged Drago to a mud-wrestling contest that was held at the State Room during the Oscars broadcast. (The line out of Vegas was that Drago would kick Dawson's ass—after all, he's got at least 100 pounds on her.)

On hand for the fight were Star Wars creator George Lucas, celebrity chef Wolfgang Puck, 2004 Oscar winner Michael Williams and his husband-type person, David Collins of Scout Productions, refugee from Hollywood Sam Weisman, former Miss USA and current MTV hottie Susie Castillo, homeboy-gone-Hollywood Donnie Wahlberg, Cheers star John Ratzenberger, beyond-fabulous casting agent Angela Peri, and auto gazillionaire Ernie Boch Jr., to name a few.

When the shit finally hit the proverbial fan, it turned out to be the formidable Dawson who stomped some butt, although she and Drago both wound up covered in mud.

"That was a bigger upset than Crash winning Best Picture over Brokeback Mountain," said WAAF's Greg Hill. "But to tell you the truth, I thought it was hotter watching Jake Gyllenhaal wrestle Heath Ledger."

THEY FORGOT TO ASK, SO NO ONE TOLD THEM...

Not to put too fine a point on it, but Irreconcilable Differences!—a fundraiser at the Cyclorama cohosted by GLAAD and GLSEN—attracted an attractive but bizarre crowd.

Held to benefit those confused individuals who mistook the new marriage laws to mean that gay men are now free to marry lesbians, the event raised money to pay for their divorce costs and featured a performance by the Mark Morris Dance Group.

Present and accounted for: kabuki socialite Marilyn Riseman, the ubiquitous Hat Sisters, city councilor Mike Ross, Channel 7 anchor Jeff Glor and his gorgeous wife, Nicole, Cambridge babes Joan Parker and Margo Howard, the newly elevated Cardinal O'Malley, and the almost lifelike Mitt Romney, who said, "I may not approve of their lifestyle or choices, but I defend their right to... wait a minute. I do approve of their choices, just so long as it's a man and a woman, instead of that icky same-sex thing."

Besides the performance, the highlight of the evening was the raffling of a walk-on role in the Huntington Theatre's upcoming musical adaptation of Waiting for Godot (music by Andrew Lloyd Weber, lyrics by Elton John), which went to overjoyed Romney flunkie Eric Fehrnstrom.

"That figures," said one disgruntled guest. "The Republicans seem to win everything these days."

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME, ASSUMING YOU LIVE AT THE FOUR SEASONS...

Parties don't get any swankier than Put That Pen Down, a gala to benefit the support group for People Who Compulsively Attend Black Tie Affairs and Bid on Everything in the Silent Auction.

Among the attendees were Back Bay party pair John and Pamela Humphrey, überphilanthropists Bill and Susan Poduska, delightful young things Rachael and Andy Goldfarb, the stupendously pregnant Maggie Gold-Seelig and her suave other half, Jonathan, what seemed to be the entire Fidelity Investments Johnson clan, fashion plates Courtney Forrester and Emily Webster, Venezuelan-man-about-town Ricardo Jaime Branger, celebrity chefs Michael Schl and Ming Tsai, Wellesley denizens Ka and Andy Rushford, the super-groc Lisa and Alex Pierpont, and armch psychiatrist Doris Yaffe, who said, "Th people are really sick, and if I can h them by buying stuff I don't really want need, so be it. Besides, it beats the Ho Shopping Network."

A photo of the Donald

The silent auction items included eve thing from a basket of sex toys to a sun canoe trip on the Charles River (padd not included), but the item that fetched highest bid was an autographed photo Donald Trump, which went for $100,00 Tudor Investments' Jim Pallotta.

Overheard by the bar: one woman s ing, "It's evenings like this that make feel not so guilty when I wake up and go an insane shopping spree at Saks."

Carolina Herrera

IF YOU INVITE THEM, THEY WILL COME...

It was somewhat psychotic how worked Bostonians got about the opening of t new Bergdorf Goodman store in t space formerly occupied by Shre Crump & Low.

For weeks beforehand, it was all anyo talked about, and "Did you get an invi tion?" was invariably answered with deeply mortified, "No. Did you?"

As it turned out, the party, which f tured a fashion show of Carolina He rera's Winter 2007 collection, was so clusive that absolutely no one was invite Either that, or someone forgot to se out the invitations.

Oh, by the way... April Fool's. IB

Top row: Jeff and Nicole Glor; Mark Morris. Bottom row: Joan Parker and Margo Howard; the Hat Sisters with Maria Birks (middle) and Marilyn Riseman

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion?

Call J.S. at 617-859-1400 ext. 303, or e-mail jonathan@improper.com.

LUCKY BRAND JEANS

COMING SOON TO COPLEY PLACE

A Very Smooth First Encounter

New Heineken Premium Ligh

© 2006 Heineken USA Inc White Plains, NY Heineken Premium Light

Now in Bars

Heineken
PREMIUM
LIGHT

heinekenlight.com

Enjoy Heineken Light Responsil

THE

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

METRO BOSTON'S INTOXICATING GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND ELIXIR MIXERS

USIC
ND
OCKTAILS:
ERFECT AIRINGS

ARD-RINKING
OVIES

+

DROFF/ON HITEY
ULGER
ROTÉGÉ
OHN
RED" SHEA

NICOLE JOHNSON
OF GYPSY BAR

BOSTON'S BELOVED BARTENDERS
25 PROS YOU CAN COUNT ON

APRIL 6–18, 2006
OUTSIDE OF METRO BOSTON
20
4470 79832 3
www.improper.com

Vest $19.90

H&M

NEWBURY STREET HAS ALWAYS BEEN GREAT, SOON IT WILL BE PERFECT.

Starting Wednesday, April 12th, 100 Newbury Street will be the place to go for unbeatable new fashion for Ladies and Men at the best prices. Be one of the first 100 customers at the Grand Opening and receive a free T-shirt and 20% off your purchase. Until then please visit our current location at Downtown Crossing.

contents

APRIL 5–18, 2006

29
Boston's Beloved Bartenders

KELLY DAVIDSON

FEATURES

26 SOROFF/ON JOHN "RED" SHEA
Whitey Bulger's former right-hand man talks about his new book Rat Bastards, his time in the slammer and the current state of organized crime.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

29 BOSTON'S BELOVED BARTENDERS
Our 12th annual guide to the city's best suds slingers, shot servers and martini mavens.
Plus: The perfect alcoholic companion for enjoying your favorite CD, and drinking along with the movies.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

46 THE ART OF ELEGANCE
Stay classy, Boston.
BY BRIAN SILVERSTEIN

Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by Eric Antoniou

Model: Nicole Johnson; hair: Christopher Kezik/James Joseph Salon; makeup: Edyln Clay/MAC Cosmetics; styling: Fairlie Myers; shirt: Hanii Y from Riccardi; jewelry: Jasmine Sola; glass: Crate & Barrel

COLUMNS

10 THE WORD
Emerge; Tresca; Mom-and-pop doughnut shops.

18 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured.
BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

20 EZRA
The Hell's Angels have nothing on this guy.
BY EZRA DYER

22 THE COLLINS CARD
Arrivederci, Adam.
BY CHRIS COLLINS

24 THE DANCE
You win some, you booze some.
BY JOHN D. SPOONER

52 MOPSY
Joie De Vivre; My Latest Grievance; Table for Eigh
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

68 MOVIES
You'll be thankful for the laughs during Thank Y for Smoking.
BY PAUL SHERMAN

75 MUSIC
Rhett Miller returns with a new image.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

116 LAST SCENE HERE
Our Man in Black Tie hangs with Gladys Knigh Danny Glover and the faux King of Pop.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT.DRINK.

54 DINING
28 Degrees warms up.
BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI

56 TASTINGS
Boston Wine Festival's finale and other tasty tidbi
BY RICH LEVINE

57 DISH
Goat's the word at Craigie Street Bistrot.
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

58 WINE
Try Chinon for a change.
BY SANDY BLOCK, M.W.

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from the Calendar Gurus, Leslie and Rich. Complete listings follow page 61.

Franz Ferdinand & Death Cab for Cutie • The Sweetest Swing Baseball • A Spoonful of Ginger • El Bembé • Open Studios the School of the MFA

ET CETERA

Letters
Rockie Horoscope
IMPROPER Impersonals
IMPROPER Sightings

Guaranteed Rate Base 85,000 biweekly;
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XV, ISSUE 7

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by
Improper Publications Inc.

POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Two Of The World's Most Demanding Chefs Agree On One Rare Ingredient.

Any recipe is only as good as its components. Trouble is, whether it's black truffles from the Perigord region of France, pure saffron from Spain, or Black Seal Rum from Bermuda, the special ingredients aren't often easily found. But are always easily worth the effort.

Tom Colicchio

Tom Colicchio, Chef/Owner Gramercy Tavern & Craft Restaurants, cookbook author and winner James Beard's Best Chef New York Award. "My first introduction to Gosling's Black Seal was on vacation in Bermuda. It was love at first sip. It brings an earthy, smooth flavor to my Bermuda Onion Soup that is missing with many rums."

Ming Tsai

Ming Tsai, Chef/Owner Blue Ginger Restaurant, cookbook author, and Emmy-winning TV host, currently of "Simply Ming" and "Ming's Quest". "We must use the best there is, no matter how hard to find. Like rich, intricate Black Seal Rum. It makes any dish really sing, including our Blue Ginger Shrimp Tempura with Gosling's Black Seal Aioli."

Black Seal Rum is made slowly, deliberately, according to family methods that are wonderfully out of date with today's mass produced brands. Perhaps this is why it won the coveted Platinum award at the World Spirits Championships. And why you'll find it the most delicious rum you've ever sipped, mixed or cooked with.

Assuming, of course, that you can find it.

Gosling's
CELEBRATING 200
YEARS 1806 - 2006

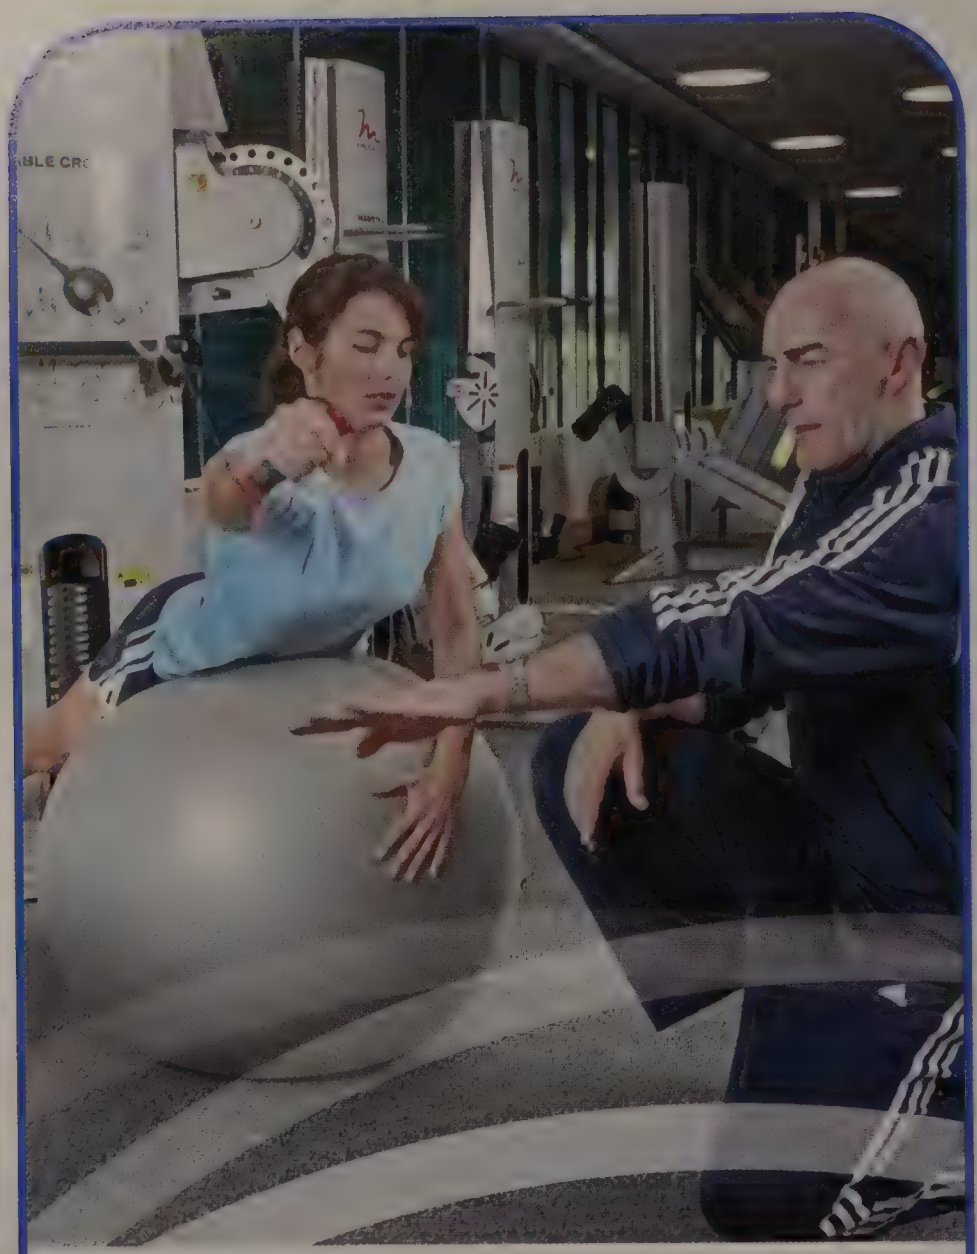
www.goslingsrum.com

For Seven Stubborn Generations.

We make it slowly, stubbornly. Please enjoy it slowly, responsibly. 40% Alc./Vol. (80 Proof). Product of Bermuda. Imported by Castle Brands, Manhasset, NY.



TRAIN TO ACHIEVE

Focus Fitness is an innovative Training Center offering an environment that will enable you to succeed in the most important game you can train for: life.

Let our staff of expert fitness professionals shift your focus from someday to today.

FOCUS FITNESS

303 Congress St • Boston, Ma 02210
T 617.951.2900 • focusfitnessboston.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian

EDITOR Veronica Chao

MANAGING EDITOR Erin Graham

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

FEATURE WRITER/COLUMNIST Ezra Dyer

ASSISTANT EDITORS Leslie Kilgore, Rich Levine

COPYEDITORS Nathaniel Adams, Linh Tran

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Chris Collins, Carolyn Faye Fox, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, Laurel Kirtz, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, Paul Sherman, John D. Spooner

EDITORIAL INTERNS Jenny Amaral, Jaclyn Biederman, Casey Dunphy, Michelle McAuley Courtney McClellan, Paola Moll, Cristina Velocci

ART DIRECTOR Carolyn Bowes

PHOTO EDITOR Katie Noble

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett Hurley

PHOTO INTERNS Lindsay Maiorana, Brittany Oldham

NEW-BUSINESS DIRECTOR Julie Kane

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGERS Dana D'Alfonso, Alison Morant, Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Bill Eppich, Georganna Yessaian

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Jessica Federico

ADVERTISING/PROMOTIONAL DESIGN DIRECTOR Julie Betters

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS Stacey Shane

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Fred Alce, Amanda Arkins, Auric Mak, James Nelson, Mayra Rivera,

TRAFFIC MANAGER Merinda Pattullo

V.P. ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE Arthur Souza

GENERAL MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian Miller

OFFICE MANAGER Gretchen Bostrom

SALES ASSISTANT/RECEPTIONIST Nicole Zoto

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400 Fax: 617-859-1446
E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc. Copyright©2006 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member

Audit Bureau of Circulations

Now Celebrating Our 200th Year of Worldwide Scarcity.

In an era obsessed with production both mass and fast, our snail-pace distilling and blending methods are woefully archaic. For seven admittedly stubborn generations we've placed a much higher value on final quality than final quantity.

This is precisely why our rums have earned a rather cult-like following, not to mention numerous awards. It's also why we refuse to shortcut our methods in order to hasten the output. If this means you won't find a bottle of Gosling's on every shelf and bar, so it must be. Anything exceptional is worth a little extra effort. On both of our parts.

Gosling's
CELEBRATING 200
YEARS 1806 - 2006

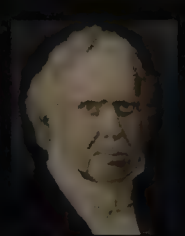
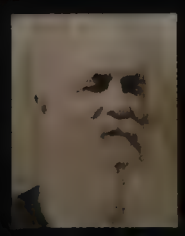
www.goslingsrum.com

For Seven Stubborn Generations.



Ambrose Gosling



William Henry Gosling

Edmund Hinson Gosling

Hon. Ambrose Gosling

Ambrose Tucker Gosling

Malcolm Lloyd Gosling

Edmund Malcolm Gosling

We make it slowly, stubbornly. Please enjoy it slowly, responsibly. 40% Alc./Vol. (80 Proof). Product of Bermuda. Imported by Castle Brands, Manhasset, NY.

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

MIXING IT UP

Going to bars and calling it research is a perk of working at the IMPROPER. There's a big sheet of paper on my office door where staffers write the names of bartenders who've impressed them throughout the year. (It's also a kind of record of who drinks the most.) We use that list and the ballots that readers send in to concoct our list of Boston's Beloved Bartenders, unveiled in this issue.

On the ballots—literally hundreds of them—bartenders' attentiveness, friendliness, speed and memory (for faces and drinks and which ones go together) pop up again and again as traits readers appreciate. But then there are the more unique stories. "You can hum any tune and he'll knov the artist," one bargoer writes of Chr Hart at the Last Drop in Brighton. "H collected corks for my third-grade classes' science experiments," writes another of Jason Bray at Kennedy's.

Behind the bar, skill's important, b so is personality. We'll drink to that.

Veronica Chao

VERONICA CHAO, Editor
veronica@improper.com

HEATED UP

Congratulations on making the funniest man alive look like the sexiest (March 22). Dane Cook looks like good-time trouble, with a dash of "I can change him" on the side. Those bedroom eyes, that pose, the hair—I was momentarily tempted to put the cover up on my wall.

—A. FITZGERALD MYRICK
Boston

OVER-COOKED

I suppose you could've chosen one or two less funny Bostonians for your March 22 cover, but why would you pick Dane Cook? It's one thing to be puerile, and another thing to be obvious; Cook's humor falls prey to both. I can't be the only Bostonian to find his attempts at humor bland and misdirected. Even in the interview, he fails to offer a single witty retort, which would've signaled a true sense of humor.

—R. DIBONA
Arlington

TAKE NOTE

In regards to Ezra's column about My Space (March 22): Getting more hits than Google isn't exactly earth-shattering news. You should know that eBay, MSN and Yahoo! also have more hits than Google.

—JOHN SHAUGHNESSY
Boston

AN OPRAH MOMENT

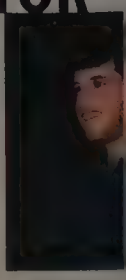
As a local high school teacher, I'd like extend a thank-you for featuring the k "The Young and the Trendy" (Feb. 22) Because so often all that we hear abou teens is negative, it's nice to finally see something positive in print. This sends message that being yourself is somethi worth.

—AMY CZARNOWSKI
Charlestown

CORRECTION

In the March 22 issue, Alfredo Payan w the stylist from Intermix in "Variations Theme."

CONTRIBUTOR



BRIAN SILVERSTEIN

Photographer Brian Silverstein began his career more than 10 years ago, when his grandfather taught him black-and-white photography with a Ro and a 4x5 view camera. A regular contributor to the IMPROPER, his work h appeared in several Boston publication including Boston magazine and the Bost Herald. His latest work for the IMPROPE begins on page 46.

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floo Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

Modeling the Perfect Smile!

arturophoto.com; dnstudiosinc.com; gipore.com

Dr. Alex Adeli

The Candy Ford Group models of Boston prefer Prudential Dental Associates for their Cosmetic Dental Service

Prudential Dental Associates

www.pda-boston.com

617-267-3889

575 Boylston St., 7th floor, Boston, MA 02116

Insurances Accepted • Financing Available
Convenient Hours • Ultra Modern Facility

Cosmetic Dentistry

Ignite the white ZOOM!

(Laser Whitening)

invisalign

Veneers & Crowns

Extreme Makeovers

Restorative Dentistry

Computerized Dentistry (CAD/CAM)

Root Canals

Implants

Gum Therapy

Preventative Dentistry

Emergency Care

"...the pizza is to die for; you could faint just describing the flavor of the sauce, and the crust puts you over the edge."

— Jack Welch, Winning

20 Charles Street, Beacon Hill
617.723.9600

286 Harvard Street, Coolidge Corner
617.734.4900

611 Duval Street, Key West, Florida
305.293.8890

41 Waltham Street, Lexington
781.274.0089

NOW OPEN:
222 Newbury Street, Back Bay

OPENING SOON:
73 South Street, Hingham

Catering menu available online:
www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

Jordan Tobins
— Owner, founder

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza, Nouveau

BOSTON'S BEST 2004
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza

the Upper Crust
Boston · Brookline

Boston - 20 Charles St.
Boston, MA 02114
Phone: 617-723-9600
Fax: 617-723-6685

Brookline - 286 Harvard St.
Brookline, MA 02
Phone: 617-734-
Fax: 617-739-58

www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

FREE DELIVERY

WELCOME MARATHON RUNNERS!

Come check out our new Newbury Street location!

The Upper Crust

THE WORD

EDITED BY ERIN GRAHAM

NEW IN TOWN

Serenity Now

To a street where spas have long been vying to provide the most princely pampering experience imaginable comes a serious contender: Emerge by Giuliano. With five floors and 10,000 square feet's worth of salon and spa services, it's the brainchild of Joyce Hampers, who founded Giuliano (now called G2O), one of Boston's longest-running day spas. But whatever you do, don't call Emerge a day spa. Their term of choice is "urban resort destination spa."

In addition to the traditional body scrubs, cuts-and-colors, mani/pedis and waxings, Emerge offers more exotic options like the thermal mineral Kur ($215), a wrap/massage using organic moor mud and minerals from the Savar spring in Hungary; a raindrop therapy massage ($150), in which nine essential oils are sprinkled onto your spine and then rubbed in; and the Spirulina Wrap ($155), a seaweed treatment using live algae harvested from salt lakes in California.

One of the spa's defining characteristics is its emphasis on water therapy. Guests are encouraged to start with a shower, followed by a trip to the steam room (for heated hydration). Between services, they can swing by the juice bar for a bottle of vitamin cocktail water to sip in the plush lounge or on the adjoining roofdeck. Guests can also jump into a large, space-age stall called the Hydrostorm, which is a steam treatment, shower, waterfall, aromatherapy, color therapy and oxygen treatment all in one ($150 for 15 minutes).

If you want to bring a significant other into the Hydrostorm with you, that's allowed. In fact, many of the services are couple-friendly. One treatment room is designed especially for joint massages, which can include a massage-and-touch lesson ($240). Couples who want to cocoon in private can rent the VIP suite, a wing that's got its own mini lounge, whirlpool for two, wet bar and concierge service ($75 an hour).

Catering to men as well as women, Emerge offers a sectioned-off men's club that has a flat-screen TV and private Internet lounge (the whole spa has wireless Internet access). Treatments include waxing (you can get everything from your unibrow to chest dehaired) and barber services: an "ultimate shave" ($55), scalp treatment ($45) and a beard/moustache trim ($25).

Downstairs in the Mei Medical Spa, cosmetic surgeons William Adams and Brooke Seckel offer on-site, nonsurgical anti-aging therapies (like wrinkle fillers and Botox), laser treatments and intense skin care regimes. They do plastic surgery consultations, too. Valet parking is offered Friday evening to Sunday at 6 pm. Limos available upon request. 275 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-0006).

—EG

INNER VIEW

Mike Greenberg

Mike Greenberg joined ESPN in 1996 as an anchor ESPNEWS and in 1999 was named cohost of ES Radio's "Mike and Mike in the Morning" talk show. continues to periodically reprise his TV-anchorman r on SportsCenter. On April 11, Greenberg appears at B ders in Downtown Crossing to read from his book My Wife Thinks I'm an Idiot, which came out March 7.

Improper Bostonian: What inspired you to write thi

Mike Greenberg: A lot of things, but I was o quoted in an interview as saying that my favorite about Curb Your Enthusiasm is that Cheryl thinks Lar an idiot and deep down he knows she's right. So started talking about that on the air one morning ended up fielding calls for three hours. Right then I r ized that it was a concept everyone could relate to.

IB: Was it nice to take a break from sports and write son thing that better relates to just general, everyday life?

MG: It was, but the truth is that most of my life about sports. Sure, in my public life, when I'm on TV radio it's all sports, but most of my time is spent on mal things, like picking up the kids, spending time my wife and just taking care of the family.

IB: If you're such an idiot, how do you think you would' fit in with the '04 Sox?

MG: I'm not sure how well I'd fit in with them. T seemed very scruffy. I think I'm far too fastidious.

IB: Barry Bonds in the Hall of Fame: Yes or no?

MG: I don't know how they can keep him out. Y have to invalidate an entire era, and I don't think can do that. Baseball is just going to have to pay fo tively looking the other way for so long.

IB: What's better about doing radio compared to TV?

MG: Radio is fun. TV is work.

IB: I thought you were going to say spending multiple hours a day with Mike Golic…

MG: I said that baseball price to pay, and that's price I have to pay, ex mine weighs 350 pounds.

IB: What's the most inte ing thing about Bristol, C And you can't say ESPN…

MG: Well, the Otis Elev headquarters is only one tall. That makes no sense

—Rich Levine

Tonight I'll prove this middle manager can still get freaky to the slow jams.

Catching your favorite concert in our 10,000-seat arena is just one of the many ways to enjoy your time at Mohegan Sun. You'll also find other exciting sports and entertainment venues, 60 shops and restaurants, a luxurious hotel and spa and, of course, our world-class casino — all located in scenic southeastern Connecticut in Mystic Country. For more ways to play, call 1.888.226.7711 or visit mohegansun.com.

gaming entertainment dining nightlife shopping spa hotel

Mohegan Sun a world at play

TASTY TIDBITS

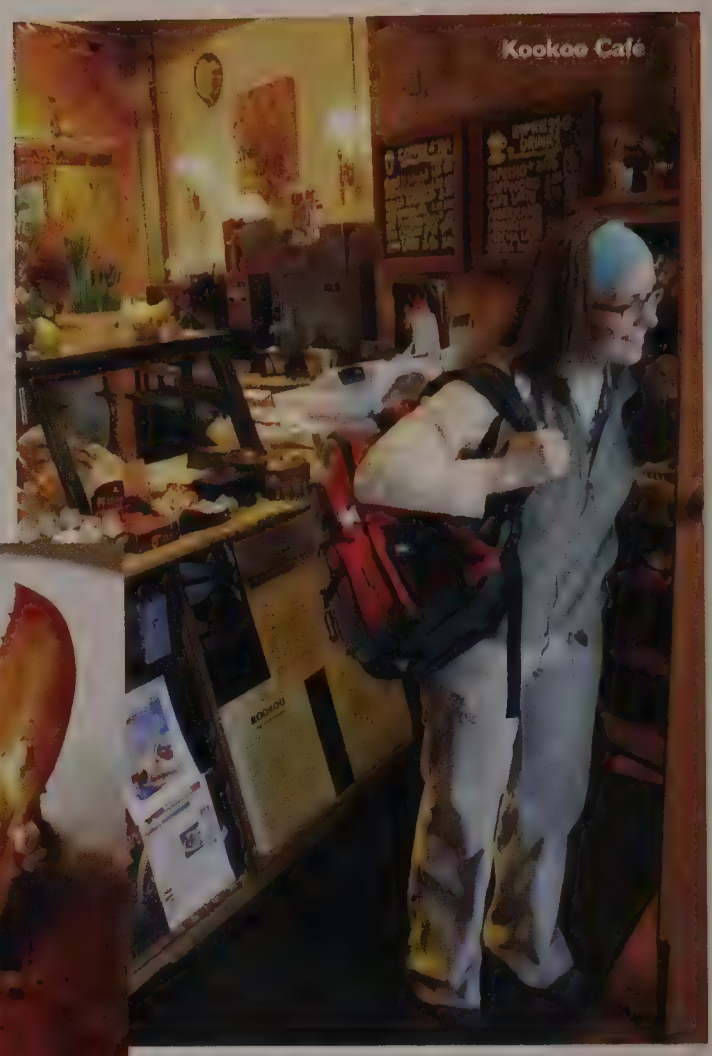
Petit Robert x 2

Déjà Vu All Over Again... Last spring, local restaurateur Jacky Robert opened Petit Robert Bistro, an affordable French bistro in Kenmore Square. And this spring, it looks like he's ready for Robert redux. Rumor has it that Robert and business partner Loic Le Garrec are in the process of taking over the old Columbus Avenue home of recently closed Rouge, and will open another Petit Robert. Negotiations are still being finalized, but if all goes as planned, expect the new restaurant to open within the next 60 days and feature the same menu, prices and hours as the original, as well as a full liquor license and outdoor seating.

Countdown to Delicious... Looking for a spot where you can count on having a decent, affordable meal? Noir at the Charles Hotel might be able to help with a new twist on their bar menu, called 5-4-3-2-1-0. From 5-7 pm, Monday through Friday, diners can order from a menu of $5 sandwiches, $4 flatbreads, $3 skewers, $2 salads, $1 desserts and free nuts. Some of the items you can enjoy include eggplant parmesan flatbreads, grilled portobello-mushroom pressed sandwiches and hot & spicy shrimp skewers. That's fine, but would it be too much to ask them to show reruns of 3-2-1 Contact on the bar TVs? 1 Bennett St., Cambridge (617-661-8010). www.noir-bar.com.

Time for Tresca... Months after closing their restaurant Via Valverde on Hanover Street, the ownersh team of Harvey Wilk, R Bourque (yes, that Ray Bourqu and general manager Massin Tiberi is almost ready to reop its doors. By mid-April, the Nor End eatery should be up and ru ning, but will do so under a ne name: Tresca. Chef Greg We stock returns from Valverde, a he's joined in the kitchen by Jas Tucker, formerly of Trattoria Sc natella. The two-story buildi features a first-floor bar (servi beer, wine and cordials) w comfortably spaced seating a floor-to-ceiling windows, and t upstairs boasts a 70-seat din room and outdoor balcony se ing. 233 Hanover St., Boston (6 742-8240).

Butter-poached two-pound lobster at Tresca



Café Crazies... Before long, might need to start referring Station Street in Brookline Village as Mohajerani Manner. This winter, Ali and E Mohajerani, who own Station Street's Inner Space Yoga, took over the run-do storage building next to their studio and converted it into a cute eatery called Kookoo Café. The café offers vegetarian, Persian- and Middle Eastern–style wr and sandwiches, as well as coffee from George Howell of Boston's old Coffee C nection. Not familiar with Middle Eastern fare? Ali recommends the Kookoo, Iranian frittata so different that people "go crazy for it." 7 Station St., Brookl (617-730-5525). —RL

FASH FLASH

Plain and Simple

If you haven't been to Copley Place in the past few mont you may not recognize it. A slew of new stores have set shop—most recently MaxStudio, in the space that forme housed United Colors of Benetton. Fans of Max appreciate store's basic approach to womenswear: The clothes are f flirty and flowy in subdued colors. And after 25 years in the it's about time the company got around to opening a Bos location. Spring styles include cropped jackets, floral dres wedge heeled shoes and dressy shorts, along with a new lin Max Jeans, exclusive to MaxStudio stores. The shop featur new delivery of their line every 15 days to keep the st fresh. 100 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-236-1154). www.m studio.com. —EG and Leslie P. Kilgore

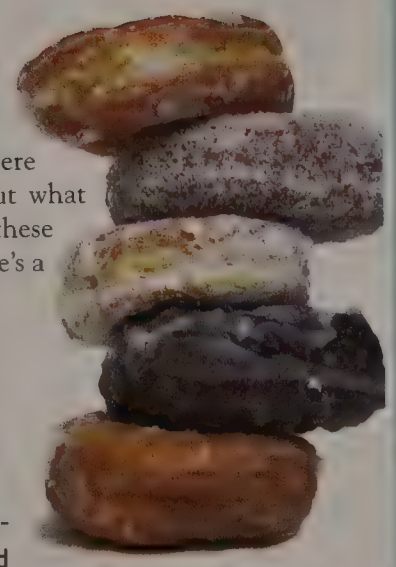
MAYBE IT'S BECAUSE
NOSTRADAMUS DRANK IT.
OR PREDICTED IT.
OR PREDICTED HE'D DRINK IT.

THEN AGAIN...

IT COULD JUST BE THE TASTE.

IMPROPER REPORTS

Mom-and-Pop Doughnut Shops



A true Bostonian always knows where the nearest Dunkin' Donuts is. But what about the indie shops that make these sweet treats in smaller batches? Here's a tasty sample:

Donuts With a Difference
35 Riverside Ave., Medford
(781-396-1021).
www.donutswithadifference.com
With an army of regulars, this neighborhood staple has been around since 1984. Owner Stephen Dulling makes the doughnuts (all of which are kosher) in the early morning. Recommended is the popular "Gracie Bar," named after a regular patron who loved this frosted raisin-and-spice variety. At the end of the day, all leftover doughnuts are donated to the Little Sisters of the Poor in Somerville. Prices are 75 cents for one, $3.50 for a half dozen and $6 for a dozen.

Doughboy Donuts and Deli
220 Dorchester Ave., Boston (617-269-7560).
Don't let the name fool you: Although this shop does include a deli, Doughboy's main draw is its cinnamon-raisin doughnuts. Open around the clock, they make the dough during the day, hand-cut it in the wee hours and bake the doughnuts fresh in the morning. A single costs 70 cents, a half dozen are $4 and a dozen run $5.40.

Kane's Donuts
120 Lincoln Ave., Saugus (781-233-8499).
According to owner Kay Delios, doughnut addicts travel from as far away as New Hampshire and Maine for Kane's honey dips and coffee rolls, the shop's best-sellers. The store has been a local fixture since 1955. A single doughnut goes for $1, half a dozen for $4.50 and a dozen for $7.50.

Mike's Donuts
1524 Tremont St., Boston (617-427-6828).
Owners Bruce and Maria Weinograd have been running this location of Mike's Donuts since the 1970s, and they use recipes dating back to the '20s, when the site was a neighborhood bakery. Expect to pay 85 cents for one doughnut, $4.75 for a half dozen and $6.39 for a dozen.

Twin Do-Nuts
501 Cambridge St., Allston (617-254-9421).
This tiny, no-frills store emphasizes the basics: classic doughnuts made fresh, first thing in the morning. The owners, originally from Cambodia, opened their shop four years ago. Honey-dip doughnuts are their specialty, going for 65 cents apiece, $2.80 for a half dozen and $4.80 for a dozen.
—Cristina Velocci

IMPROPER SPEAKING

SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTI

Massholes Unite... It's no surprise that those outside the Commonwealth have a tough time relating to our "Masshole" ways. It's a surprise, though, that no self-respecting Masshole has cashed in on it—until now. Brothers Ryan and Matt Abernathy, former Mass. men who recently defected to New Hampshire, just trademarked the infamous "Masshole" term and based their new company, Mass Industries, around it. They're hawking an array of Masshole T-shirts (plus Mass-Ho baby Ts) and a slew of Masshole "stickahs" online. They say they're planning to stock gear at local sports shops soon. Lahout's Country Clothing and Ski Shop in Lincoln, N.H., is their flagship dealer—it's close to Loon Mountain, which the Abernathys claim is a favorite stomping ground for vacationing Massholes. Rumor has it that donning a shirt instantly erases an individual's ability to either drive sanely or have any respect for Peyton Manning. www.masshole proshop.com.

Something Old, Something New... No matter how fickle the fashion world can be, vintage never seems to go out of style. Case in point: the hugely successful consignment chain Second Time Around. It's recently expanded to a seventh store in Beaco Hill, on Charles Stree Manager Marisa Ma Naughton says the ne store carries the san high-end labels that fill t racks of their other shops, ir smaller space. Items in each of t stores reflect the location's neighborhoo since it's mostly neighbors who come to s adds MacNaughton. So if Beacon Hill style your thing, this is the spot to check out. Charles St., (617-227-0049). www.seco timearound.net.

Second Time Around

Where You At?... A team of Bost techies from Skyhook Wireless might ju make the word "Loki" as popular "Google." In laymen's terms, their new W Fi–based positioning system finds a wirel user's exact location and integrates that cation into the user's Internet search Need to find an ATM or the nearest post fice? How about the closest Italian resta rant rated on Zagat, directions to a mo theater, or the cheapest gas station arou Loki finds it. "We're personalizing the W to the nth degree," says Jed Rice, a L team member. The service is available in 100 largest cities in the U.S. www.loki.com

Follow the Leader... Normally when learn that yet another local restaurant gone lounge, we don't bat an eye. But wh we heard that 29 Newbury is about to go way of the loungearaunt, we were tak aback. Is there no end to the trend? Wor that renovations will start in a few weeks the new look will be ready by early summ You'll find the same tried-and-true upsc menu, but with a big new space in the mid for folks to eat, drink and, of course, loun 29 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-0290). w 29newbury.com. —EG and LPK

Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy n Let us know what it is. Send an e-mail to cheword@improper.com.

-All Natural-

Pomegranate Martini Mixer

Made with Pomegranates, Lemon Juice, and Cane Sugar.

STIRRINGS™

Est. 1997, NANTUCKET

"Better Ingredients Make Better Cocktails."

We spend our summers on the Cape and islands. We hang on the beach, we grill, we fight traffic on Sundays. And we drink. The weekends are short, so we want to enjoy the best. This is why we started Stirrings™. Super premium cocktail mixers, made with all natural ingredients, and real juice.

Thanks for trying our products-

Bill and Gil

This summer, try our newest flavors:

All Natural

- Wild Blueberry
- Watermelon
- Pomegranate

The Shops at Prudential Center's

VOLUNTEER EXPO

Thursday, April 20, 2006
6pm-9pm

Stop by The Shops at Prudential Center's Volunteer Expo in Huntington Arcade to mix, mingle, and meet more than 35 volunteer organizations.

Come network with other civic-minded young professionals and learn more about how you can get involved.

Sponsored by

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

For more information and a complete list of participating community organizations visit www.prudentialcenter.com or call 617.236.3100

The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation
Massachusetts Affiliate

BARCC Boston Area Rape Crisis Center

mspca
Kindness and Care for Animals™

The Home for Little Wanderers

Franciscan Hospital for Children

cradles to crayons
Gifts-in-kind for kids-in-need

BEST BUDDIES MASSACHUSETTS

Pine Street Inn

風雅居 FuGaKyu

Serving lunch 11:30am - 3pm Mon. - Sat.
Sunday lunch 12pm - 3pm
Dinner 3pm - 1:30am daily
Late night dining available
We accept reservations for parties of all sizes
1280 Beacon St. (Coolidge Corner)
Brookline, MA
617.734.1268 • 617.738.1268
Check out our website for spring and summer specials
www.fugakyu.net

BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

Women In Film & Video/New England celebrated its 25th Anniversary on Wednesday, March 22, at the Marriott Hotel. CNN producer Sara Edwards serve as emcee for the event, which included cocktails, dinner and a silent auction. Among those honored were Dorothy Aufiero, producer of Bravo Television's Queer Eye for the Straight Guy, Carol Patt publisher of Imagine, which highlights the Northeast's Film and TV industries, and L Simmons, founder of the Color of Film Collaborative in Boston and co-producer the Roxbury Film Festival.

1. Oscar-winning actor Chris Cooper and his wife actress Marianne Leone Cooper
2. Yvonne Murphy, actress, Julia John, programmer for the Roxbury Film Festival, and Lanice Obryant, screen writer/filmmaker and owner of Birthname Productions
3. Erin Anguish and Jim Sullivan, scheduling manager and owner of Mix One Studios, respec
4. Michal Goldman, president of the Filmmakers Collaborative, and Joanna Baldwin Mallory, producer for IMAX Films
5. Stephen Atkinson, principal of Atkinson Asso in Belmont, his wife, Rebecca Richards, form executive director of Women in Film and co-producer of Belmont Films, and Kat Tatlock, documentary filmmaker and founding member Women in Film
6. Lisa Thomas, director of community service Babson College, Lisa Simmons and Ellen Lerner, freelance copywriter
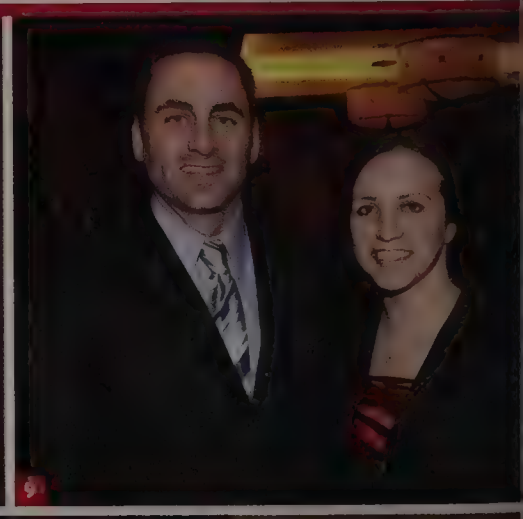
7. Heather Rosbeck, CEO of Edgartown Productions, and Mark Drago, executive direc Mass Sports & Entertainment Commission

"Style Secrets from the Pros": An Evening to benefit Dress for Success Boston took place on Wednesday, March 22, at Hotel Marlowe in Cambridge. Nearly 100 partygoers gathered at the cocktail reception and panel discussion with author Mary Lou Andre and fashion consultants from Organization by Design. Proceeds from the event benefit Dress for Success Boston, a national charitable organization that helps underprivileged women dress for job interviews and long-term careers.

8. Enith Levine and Nancy Schneider, cofounders of the Dress for Success Boston Chapter,, Mary Lou Andre, founder and president of Organization by Design in Needham, and Rick Colangelo, general manager of Hotel Marlowe in Cambridge
9. Bill Babis, hotel manager for Hotel Marlowe, and Erika Schermerhorn, public relations for CM Communications
10. Mark Fischer, general manager of the Onyx Hotel, Tracy Tobin, director of business development for Hotel Marlowe, and Tom Thorn, area director of sales for The Kimpton Hotels
11. Karen Costa and June Tarter, fashion consultants for Organization by Design



170 STORES FEATURING Adidas, Banana Republic Factory Store, Barneys New York Outlet, BCBG Max Azria, Brooks Brothers Factory Store, Cole Haan, DKNY Jeans, Eddie Bauer, Ellen Tracy, Gap Outlet, Hugo Boss, J.Crew, Kenneth Cole, Liz Claiborne, Mikasa, Nike Factory Store, Off 5th Saks Fifth Avenue Outlet, Polo Ralph Lauren Factory Store, Puma, Reebok, Salvatore Ferragamo, Sony, Tommy Hilfiger, TSE, Waterford Wedgwood, Williams-Sonoma Outlet and more AT SAVINGS OF 25% TO 65% EVERY DAY... SHOP BETTER.

WRENTHAM VILLAGE PREMIUM OUTLETS®

Daily transportation available from Boston via Boston Common Coach (877) 723-3833.

WRENTHAM, MA • I-95 TO I-495N, EXIT 15 • (508) 384-0600 • VISIT PREMIUMOUTLETS.COM FOR HOURS • CHELSEA PROPERTY GROUP

A SIMON Company

ezra

BY EZRA DYER

BIKE GEEK

I've got a motorcycle permit.
Feel free to think of me as dangerous.

I'm not a bad-ass. Throughout my life, I've made periodic attempts at becoming a bad-ass, but none of them have stuck. The two weeks of karate lessons I took at age 10 only taught me that karate people are a little bit strange, and you can save yourself hours of dojo time by simply buying a gun. Speaking of which, I own two guns, which is the sort of bad-ass fact I drop on my conservative Republican friend Brian when he accuses me of being a bleeding-heart liberal. He says something about how I'd like to take a bubble bath with Saddam Hussein, I'm all like, "Oh yeah? Well how many guns do you own?" I don't mention that I haven't fired said guns in years, or that they're both archaic hunting rifles. I like to imply that they're the type of gun Ice Cube would brag about bustin' caps with, when they're actually the kind of thing that wouldn't look out of place in the back of a Conestoga wagon next to a coonskin cap.

But lately I've come up with a general program of badassification for myself. I've already checked off a few minor accomplishments, such as finally watching Braveheart (three hours of total axe-wielding bad-assedness) and buying a bottle of Johnny Walker Green. I haven't shaved in three weeks and I've devoted more gym time to the bench press, less to the elliptical machine. But the centerpiece of my campaign is on my bedside table, and it's a claim to fame I now share with the great bad-ass dudes of all time, from Fonzie on Happy Days to Jo from Facts of Life: a motorcycle license.

OK, so it's a permit, not technically a license—yet. But it does authorize me to ride a motorcycle. The last time I rode a motorcycle was when I was 12 and got a minibike. I only rode it once, because it never ran properly after I crashed it into our house. So naturally I'm a good candidate to ride a high-powered two-wheeled machine in Boston traffic.

If you've ever submitted the 15 forms of ID and a DNA sample you need to get a Boston resident parking permit, you'd think it'd be pretty hard to get a motorcycle permit in Massachusetts. You'd be wrong. It took about 20 minutes and $30, and now I'm legal to ride a Boss Hoss down Storrow Drive at rush hour on a rainy day. If you don't know what a Boss Hoss is, it's essentially a meteorite with two wheels and a seat. There's one for sale on eBay that has a 780-horsepower motor and probably goes 300 mph. And I could ride it, because I scored at least 67 percent o written test that Vince Young could ace

If you can't pass the Massachusetts m torcycle permit test, you probably wea helmet even when you're not riding a m torcycle. Nearly all of it consists of co mon-sense questions, and the rest dwe on drug and alcohol laws. The correct a swer to those is always the most sev choice. For instance, suppose the questi is, "Drinking a beer before riding your m torcycle will cause you to

A) ride right off a damn cliff

B) crash into a convent and set it afir

C) try to jump a tank with a shark in

D) end up looking like Gary Busey"

The correct answer is D, "end up lo ing like Gary Busey."

In the next couple of weeks I'll tak course that'll hopefully help prevent from killing myself, an eventuality that actually quite worried about. I haven't g ten a motorcycle license till now becau know myself well enough to predict learning curve: Initially I'll drive like in a parade, then I'll quickly get a feel it, become overconfident and wipe while pulling a wheelie at 100 mph Newbury Street.

IF YOU CAN'T PASS THE MASSACHUSETTS MOTORCYCLE PERMIT TEST, YOU PROBABLY WEAR A HELMET EVEN WHEN YOU'RE NOT RIDING A MOTORCYCLE

That's why I probably won't get a mo cycle right now. I'm already pretty goo hurting myself and getting speeding ets. Also, motorcycle ownership lead lots of associated expenses, things like surance and leather pants and tattoos. not ruling out a bike in the future, but right now, having a motorcycle license no motorcycle is consistent with aborted karate lessons, patchy facial and dust-gathering guns. I'm the half bad-ass. iB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?

Send non-biased e-mails to ezra@improper.com.

MEZZ ULTRA LOUNGE
FOXWOODS RESORT CASINO
mezz
RESTAURANT LEVEL OF GRAND PEQUOT TOWER

THE COLLINS CARD

BY CHRIS COLLI

GUT KICK

It's understandable why Adam Vinatieri left, but that doesn't make it easy.

Several thousand miles away, sipping on my 15th or 16th piña colada, I was kicking back in the sun and fun of Jamaica. Life couldn't have been better. Then word circulated, even to my remote beach.

Adam Vinatieri was no longer a New England Patriot. He had just signed with the Indianapolis Colts, of all teams.

Suddenly I was cold. In fact, I was freezing. I was no longer in the mood to snorkel—hell, I was in need of a snorkel coat.

What made it worse was that I couldn't get any immediate details. Although my hotel had ESPN, the picture quality was so poor I might as well have been using my old man's rabbit ears to get a signal.

Understand that this was Jamaica, and if the story wasn't about soccer or cricket (not necessarily in that order) it just wasn't going to make the local news. Maybe you could throw in that Jamaican bobsledding team; they still seem to be pulling a Mike Eruzione and making money off their old experience.

When I finally arrived home two days after Vinatieri's announcement, I felt the New England chill. I was confused. Although I was coming to grips with my sunny vacation being over, all I could think about was Gil Santos, the Patriots' play-by-play radio man, saying, "It's good! It's good!" Now Adam's leaving. That's not good.

I'm thinking about what's happened to the guy who made the greatest kick of all-time, and no, I'm not talking about the Super Bowl XXXVI kick to beat St. Louis. I'm not talking about the Super Bowl XXXVIII kick in Houston. I'm talking about the famed Snow Bowl boot. I couldn't get the thought out of my mind. It defines Adam Vinatieri. He was a true Patriot.

Other Pats who jumped ship include David Givens, who walked out the door two weeks earlier. Willie McGinest walked away a week after that. Perhaps I'm getting a little bit carried away, but Vinatieri's exit seems a sign of the times—that those three championship rings are still bright and blaring, but they're in the rearview mirror.

Bill Belichick and his right-hand personnel guy, Scott Pioli, have officially moved on from their past successes and are now here to build for the future. Bold moves? Damn straight.

What's done is done. Sure, there was a time when I would have lambasted Belichick for all of these moves. But I'm not wasting my time or breath.

What's made Belichick is his botto line mentality. Some may call it fiscall sponsible, others coldhearted. But whe superstar's price gets too high, Belich has been consistent. Damn, he'd allow own son to walk out that door if the pr didn't fit the equation.

Vinatieri is the Patriots' all-time scori leader. But that's only a stat. What he was more important. He gave the kick position, particularly here in New En land, respect.

I'll never forget immediately after t Pats' first Super Bowl championshi New Orleans, when Lawyer Milloy "He's not a kicker. He's a football playe Vinatieri wasn't sporting the potb most kickers carried around in the 197 He really did look like a football player

As a matter of fact, he was as popular anyone on the team, other than You Kn Who. He commanded $25,000 for a tw hour autograph signing. That's not kic chump change. Those are star dollars.

ADAM'S EXIT SEEMS A SIGN OF THE TIMES—THAT THOSE THREE CHAMPIONSHIP RINGS ARE STILL BRIGHT AND BLARING, BUT THEY'RE IN THE REARVIEW MIRROR

So where did it all go wrong? Belich really has no friends, just business associa He's become almost Bill Jamesesque believes there's a formula for every pla one measuring productivity versus price those numbers don't add up, you can yourself an ex-Patriot. Some might ca heartless, and I agree it probably is. Bu works. Players who make more t they're worth cause teams to lose.

So with that said, I'm still sad. It kills to see Vinatieri not on the side of the g guys. But he'll be missed.

I sure hope Belichick is right on one, but then again, why wouldn't he b

Chris Collins is a sportscaster for New Engl Cable News. Address sporting opinions and feedback to sportsdesk@improper.com.

HEALTHWORKS
FITNESS CENTERS FOR WOMEN

move.

Part mind, part body, all gym – entirely for women.

Back Bay · Brookline · Cambridge · Chestnut Hill · Salem

www.healthworksfitness.com
www.healthworksfoundation.org

A brand new condo in Cambridge for just $278,900?

Start packing.

Brickworks

ONE BEDROOMS START AS LOW AS $278,900

TWO BEDROOMS START AS LOW AS $393,900

3LEVEL-TOWNHOMES START AS LOW AS $429,900

MODEL NOW OPEN!
MOVE IN RIGHT AWAY!

- GARAGE PARKING
- FULLY APPLIANCED KITCHENS
- HARDWOOD KITCHEN CABINETS
- MAYTAG KITCHEN APPLIANCES
- IN-HOME WASHER AND DRYER HOOKS UPS
- WOOD FLOORING IN LIVING, DINING AND KITCHEN AREAS
- WALL TO WALL CARPETING IN BEDROOMS
- CERAMIC TILE BATHROOM FLOORS
- HIGH SPEED INTERNET READY
- PATIOS OR BALCONIES IN MOST HOMES
- UPGRADES AVAILABLE

THIS IS A ONCE-IN-A-LIFETIME OPPORTUNITY!

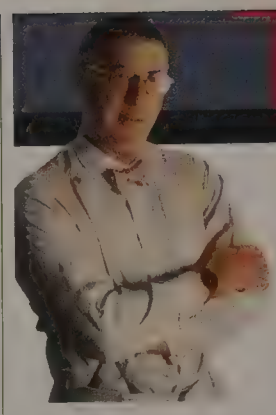
617-492-9800

Open 9-4 Mon-Sat., 11-4 Sun. Or, call for an appointment.

From I-95/128: Take Rt. 2 East to right on Alewife Brook Parkway. Follow to Fresh Pond Pkwy rotary and reverse direction, past Fresh Pond Mall to a right at Rindge Ave. Proceed to Brickworks entrance on right.

EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

Marketed by DOLBEN



THE DANCE

BY JOHN D. SPOONER

The Lush Life

Eat, drink and be merry (food optional).

My wife and I received a party invitation a few weeks ago with this poem by Ogden Nash printed on it:

"There's something about a martini
Ere the dining and dancing begin,
And to tell you the truth
It is not the vermouth—
I think that perhaps it's the gin."

I don't know what I'd do if they took away my cocktails. My father seldom drank except for one dry Manhattan on Saturday night. He said that he hated to lose control, and thought that more than one drink meant weakness. I've met a lot of people like this—people who really should have a drink in the evening, just to unclench.

Of course, there's an abuse side to the sauce. I've been told about, and witnessed, several horror shows from the party life, most about people feeling immortal when drunk. I once attended a wedding where a guest drove a Volvo through the reception tent. At another wedding in a Boston suburb, one of the ushers committed what I thought a supreme act of arrogance. Too drunk to drive out of town, he wandered down a road lined with large houses, broke into one through an open window, and before passing out on the living room couch put a note on himself that read, "Do not kill me. I am a Harvard student." (He was awakened by a pistol in his ear, courtesy of the local police chief.) And I've seen friends in black tie cruising the old Combat Zone, sending in the smallest member of the group to start a fight in one of the bars, at which point the bigger brothers would go in determined to kick some butt. Sometimes it worked, and sometimes it didn't.

In certain professions, drinking was a traditional part of the job. I used to have a number of clients in advertising, which was incredibly appealing to me since no one ever seemed sober. A friend at a large New York agency once described a typical day this way: "Futz around in the morning. Go to lunch with clients or buddies—a couple of martinis, a bottle of wine. If we're really getting along, there's brandy, and suddenly it's three o'clock, at which point we look at each other, think about going back to work—and decide to hell with it."

One day this friend lunched with a client from CBS. The network's CEO at the time was William Paley, a powerful figure in American business. As a prelunch drink the client ordered "a Boodles martini, please. Mr. Paley wants us to have one." Later he said, "Mr. Paley wants us to ha another." And, "Mr. Paley wants us to ha the Latour 1959." After lunch they sta gered into Gucci and drunkenly order black loafers. My friend put in an exper voucher for the shoes, claiming Chez Gu represented a restaurant meal for which should be reimbursed.

This culture certainly exists elsewher remember one lunch date in London wi a potential client, a member of the Lond Stock Exchange. He met me at noon i pub in the financial district. We had se eral gin and tonics, then moved on t restaurant for a proper meal of steak a pommes frites with a carafe of house r This not being enough, another p coughed up several ports. The potent client finally said, "That's it, old boy, ba to the floor for me." Off he went, tota clear-headed; this was obviously his da routine. But I was gone, beyond cari and desperately in need of a "gents" (me room). There was a large excavation in t street, workers and equipment deep in t pit. Desperate times call for desperate m sures, I thought. No one was walki nearby, so I emptied my bladder into t excavation, zipped up my pinstriped s and cabbed back to the hotel.

"You're pissed," my wife said, adapti immediately to British terminology.

"In a manner of speaking," I repli "Could you do with a bit of a kip?" (E for nap).

Along with ad men and journalists, p ple in publishing have the most enterta ing alcohol adventures. My first agent w quite famous in literary circles. She wa Brit, quite formal and intimidating, w represented some famous names. At o lunch, while my agent daintily dran Gibson as if sipping high tea, I said to h "You know, almost every writer I've e met had problems with alcohol."

She took another sip of her Gibson a smiled. "That's because writers never what they think they deserve."

Which leads me to another poem, t one by Dorothy Parker:

"I like to have a martini,
Two at the very most.
After three, I'm under the table;
After four, I'm under my host."

Cheers. iB

John D. Spooner is an investment advisor, author and novelist. Contact him at thedance@improper.com.

He was just another Anthony in the North End...

until Prezza.

Celebrating Six Years

Best Italian Restaurant
—Improper Bostonian 2004, 2005

Prezza

24 Fleet Street, Boston's North End
617.227.1577

Soroff ON

JOHN "RED" SHEA

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

Author and former gangster John "Red" Shea was born and raised in South Boston. Despite showing promise in the boxing ring, a troubled childhood led him to dealing drugs. Shea eventually caught the attention of James "Whitey" Bulger, the head of organized crime in Southie, who took him under his wing. By the age of 21, Shea was the head of Bulger's multimillion-dollar narcotics operation and a top enforcer in the Irish mob. In the early '90s, when the FBI and DEA began to dismantle the organization, Bulger (who's suspected to have been an informant for years) betrayed his protégé, and Shea was sentenced to 12 years in federal prison, steadfastly refusing to inform on his mob compatriots. Having done his time, he's now written a book about his experiences: Rat Bastards, the only memoir told from the perspective of a mobster who refused to betray the code of silence. Film rights for the book have been optioned by Mark Wahlberg. Shea lives in West Roxbury.

Jonathan Soroff: So why do they call you Red?

John "Red" Shea: [Laughs.] I'm guessing it's got something to do with my hair.

JS: Should I be afraid of you?

JRS: Absolutely not. I'm a good guy.

JS: Define "rat bastard."

JRS: People who don't walk the walk or have any integrity. People who are rats, who inform on other people.

JS: So what's the code you lived by—silence, "omerta"?

JRS: Correct. Keep your mouth shut. As someone else wrote: "Red Shea is stony silent."

JS: Is there ever any reason to betray the code?

JRS: Never.

JS: Even if it was your mother, your wife or your children at stake?

JRS: First of all, I'd never have any part of my family involved in any type of crime. I mention in my book that I would never ever get married or bring children into this world while I was in that life, because I would never want to be selfish to a family. That's why I didn't have one.

JS: If Whitey was caught, would you testify against him?

JRS: They could ask it, but I'll tell you right now: I'll never do it. I would never rat against Whitey. Ever.

JS: Ever kill anybody?

JRS: That's a fair question, but where I come from we don't answer questions like that.

JS: Was there any connection between Whitey's operation in Boston and the IRA?

JRS: Yes.

"ONCE YOU CROSS THE THRESHOLD INTO THAT LIFE, ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN. YOU CAN GET KILLED. YOU NEED TO KNOW THAT."

JS: I guess you don't care to elaborate. What would you say if you saw Whitey today?

JRS: I'll refer back to a dream I have: I would grab him, ask him why he was a rat bastard, and in my dream, I snap his neck.

JS: What do you think he'd say to you?

JRS: In my dream he says he was trying to protect me, though he force-fed me, so to speak, to the sharks. He knew there was a huge investigation going on, and he knew all the players, and that he was the main target, but they wanted to get to him through me.

JS: First thing you thought when you found out he'd sold you down the river?

JRS: The first thing I felt was tremendous betrayal. Even when people were saying he was an informant, I stood up for him.

JS: One-word opinion of Kevin Weeks [fellow Bulger operative, informant and author of the recently released Brutal: The Untold Story of My Life Inside Whitey Bulger's Irish Mob*]?*

JRS: Pinocchio.

JS: *One-word opinion of Howie Carr [*Boston Herald journalist and author of The Brothers Bulger: How They Terrorized and Corrupted Boston For a Quarter Century*]?*

JRS: Opportunist.

JS: Any thoughts about Billy or Jackie Bulger and their support for their brother?

JRS: I commend anyone who stands by a family member.

JS: Do you regret what you did?

JRS: I regret having failings and maybe hurting the girl that I loved at the time and my mother, and their suffering for my not being there. But I don't regret anything in the life of crime that I've done with the people who were involved in that life.

JS: So if you hadn't gotten caught, you'd still be doing it?

JRS: If I hadn't gotten caught, and Whitey was on the run, Kevin Weeks wouldn't be in control. I can tell you that. It would've been me.

JS: What made you want to be like Whitey?

JRS: The power. The respect. The money.

JS: Isn't there something ethically wrong with what you did?

JRS: Yes. . . but the moral part of it is honoring your responsibility. So if you get caught, accept it like the man you should be. Once you cross the threshold into that life, anything can happen. You can get killed. You need to know that.

JS: Best part of prison?

JRS: Meeting other stand-up guys.

JS: Worst part?

JRS: You might not like this, but seeing a homosexual act. I don't care what anybody does personally, but for a heterosexual, walking in and seeing a black man sodomizing a Spanish guy, I was a little taken aback the first time.

JS: Hardest part of adjusting to life after prison?

JRS: People and crowds. In prison, you always watch your back, and even in a life of crime. Now you're out amongst hordes of people, especially in places like New York, where I first went when I got out. And then I hear people talking on pho everywhere, and I'm thinking, "Is this a Fed?" "Is this guy following me?"

JS: You think they keep a close eye on you?

JRS: I'm sure there are eyes watching. sure the big question was: Red Shea is co ing home. Is he gonna take over? Wh his status gonna be?

JS: What do you think is the current state organized crime?

JRS: I see it today as unachievable. [T Feds] got all the top guys. Lookit: Th had Whitey, the boss, for years, as a mo Don't you think in every other organi tion in this country, they've got th moles, too? How can you win? The dec stacked against you. Your best friend never mind that, your boss who work for—is giving information? How you win?

JS: There's always going to be a demand fo drugs, so how can you say that organized crime is over?

JRS: Those guys are flippin', too. The always someone new to come along and it, but it's a losing proposition as long the Feds are getting guys to inform each other.

JS: So what's next for you? You're not goi to work in a convenience store, but presumably you're not going back to a life crime.

JRS: Absolutely not. I don't think I'd that long because I have an old-school m tality. I'd never put up with the snitches

JS: So what will you do instead?

JRS: Hopefully there's a lotta doors t open up for me through this book, and find my way, as always. I'm a survivor.

JS: Well, you could always follow it up wi children's picture book called Where's Whitey?

JRS: And in the end I'm strangling h I'd like to do that one. IB ition has its price.

than most. Mind you, over the years our beer has witnessed the odd change or two. For instance, our customers no longer drink it to ward off the Plague, as they used to in medieval times. However, one thing has stayed the same after all these years. Stella Artois is still painstakingly brewed in a time-honored tradition with the choicest ingredients. Which is why our customers have kept coming back for more, even after 600 years.

Always Enjoy Responsibly. www.stellaartois.com

© 2006 Imported by InBev USA Norwalk, CT

AS MERE SPECTATORS, IT'S IMPOSSIBLE FOR US TO FEEL THE PAIN AND TRIUMPH EXPERIENCED BY MARATHON RUNNERS.

ALTHOUGH IN OUR DEFENSE, WE HAVE BEEN DRINKING SINCE 9 AM.

The Marathon Party for the Social Athlete | April 17th, 2006

Doors open at 9:00 am | Tickets $40, Free for runners
Free buffet and hors d'oeuvres all day | Live Broadcast from Mix 98.5 | Raffles, prizes, free t-shirts
For advance tickets call 617-424-8300 | 755 Boylston Street, Boston - at the finish line

VOX POPULI

Mix 98.5 TODAY'S BEST VARIETY

STELLA ARTOIS

BACARDI
LIVE IT LIKE YOU MEAN IT

BRAHMA

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

BOSTON'S BELOVED BARTENDERS

Bartending is a bit like neurosurgery:
Unless you're really good,
you have no business doing it.

In addition to the requisite training and know-how, tending bar requires the stamina of an ironman triathlete, the memory of a card counter, the patience of a kindergarten teacher and the interpersonal skills of a hostage negotiator. Not surprisingly, the world's watering holes are full of mediocre mixologists, but this issue is dedicated to those who've attained greatness in their field.

For our annual lineup of Boston's Most Beloved Bartenders, we rely on the hundreds of ballots sent in by loyal readers, as well as our crack editorial staff's well-known expertise when it comes to tippling. We cordially invite you to visit any and all of our champs at the places where they work, and to try out their signature drink recipes in the privacy of your own home (which offers the advantage of getting drunk without having to drive anywhere).

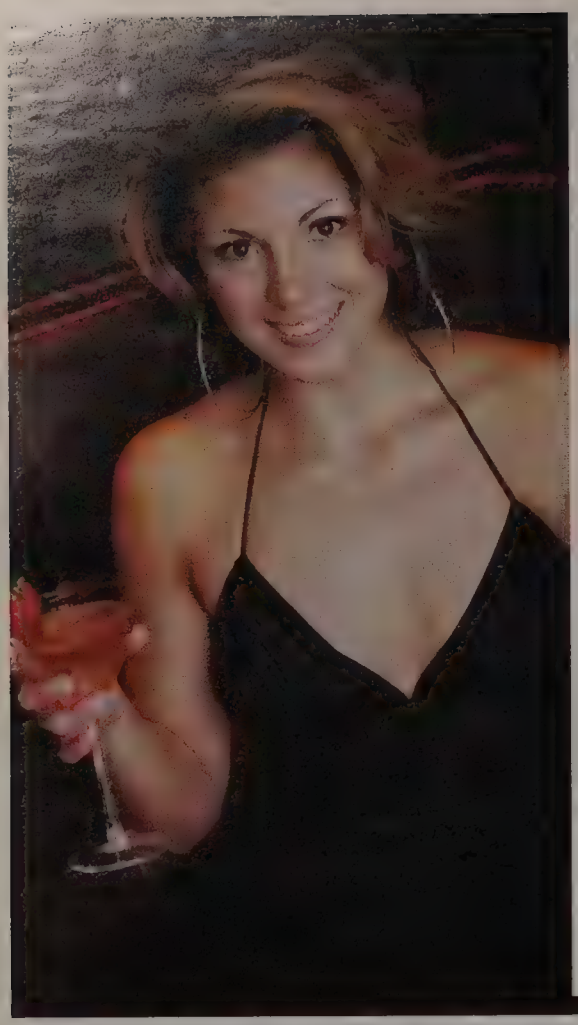
Bartenders who've been nominated again and again have been elevated to MVB status (Most Valuable Bartenders) and are featured in a separate sidebar—an all-star lineup that'll doubtless be familiar to discerning lounge lizards.

Should you disagree with any of our choices or not find your personal favorite among our picks, you have only your apathetic self to blame for not sending us a ballot. We hope you'll do so next year.

That said, here's to enjoying our 12th annual issue devoted to the good folks who make bars, clubs and lounges worth visiting.

One other thing: Don't forget to leave a tip.

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

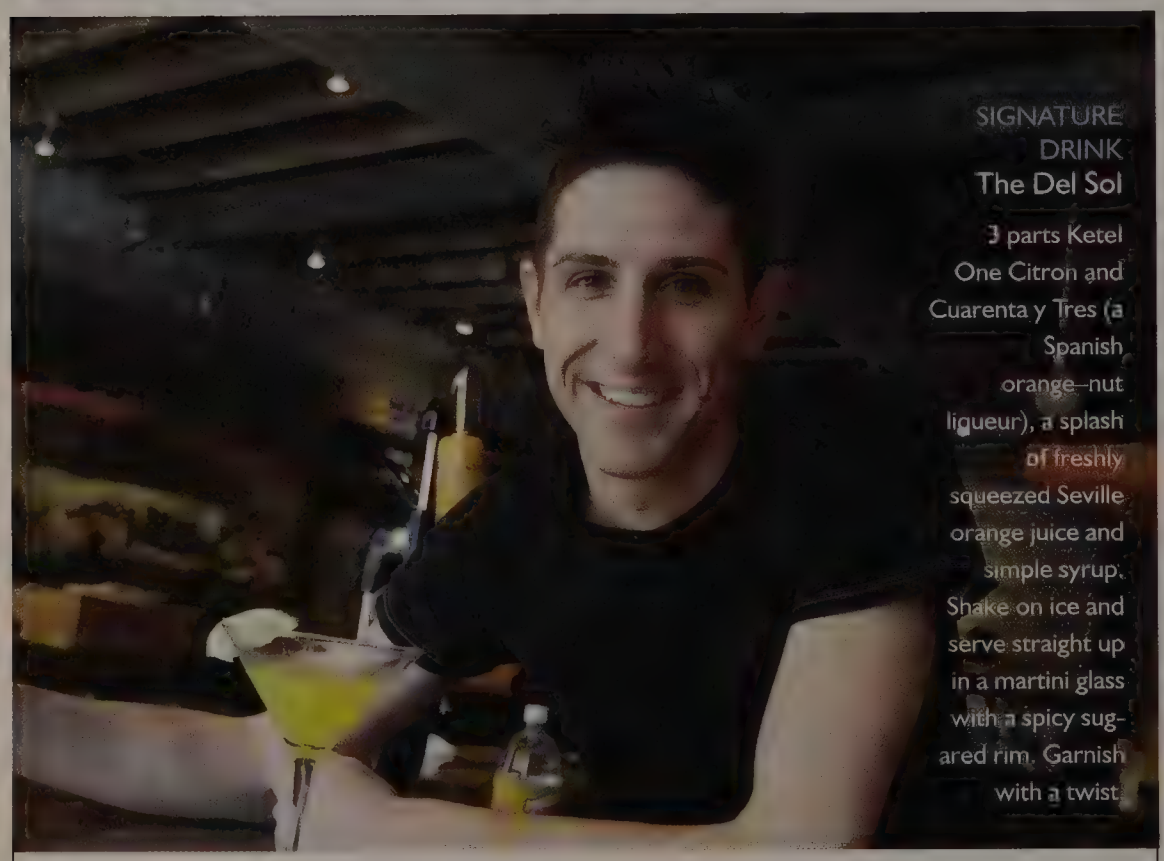


Candace Smith
EXCELSIOR
272 Boylston St, Boston (617-426-7878).
Tue.–Fri., Sun. nights

With an aura that immediately puts people at ease, she's the warm, welcoming face behind the bar at this retro-lush and emphatically stylish Back Bay restaurant. Her patrons are urbane sophisticates who count on her for intelligent conversation in addition to impeccable service. Although she's unfailingly hospitable and at all times a consummate professional, she can be flirtatious or saucy with some of her regulars, who comment on her smile and the frequency with which she changes her hairstyle. Her knowledge of food, wine and spirits is impressive, but it's her winning personality that makes her a standout. Pay one visit to her bar, and you'll keep coming back for more.

SIGNATURE DRINK
The Divine Strawberry

Two parts Stoli Strawberry, one part fresh strawberry juice. Shake on ice and serve straight up in a martini glass. Top with sparkling wine (champagne, Cava or prosecco). Garnish with a strawberry.



SIGNATURE DRINK
The Del Sol

3 parts Ketel One Citron and Cuarenta y Tres (a Spanish orange–nut liqueur), a splash of freshly squeezed Seville orange juice and simple syrup. Shake on ice and serve straight up in a martini glass with a spicy sugared rim. Garnish with a twist.

Chris Raymond
TORO
1704 Washington St., Boston (617-536-4300). Tue., Sat. nights

SISTER SOREL
645 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-4600). Wed., Thu., Sun. nights

Those who don't know his name know him as the wiry, lanky, kooky bartender with the ever-changing crazy hair (most recently a mohawk). At Sister Sorel, his clientele is primarily gay boys from the neighborhood, whose witty repartee he loves and with whom he lays on the heavy sarcasm, but at the supertrendy tapas place, his style is a bit more sedate and proper. "It's a nice duality," he says. Certified as an EMT and working toward becoming a firefighter, he relishes the interaction of bartending. At Toro, his customers are mostly people waiting for tables or standing up to eat small plates, so most of what he pours is wine, about which he's unpretentiously knowledgeable. At Sister Sorel, patrons are more likely to request mixed drinks, for which he has a deft hand. In either setting, he's one of those people who can't help but make you smile.

MOST VALUABLE BARTENDERS

The Federalist
15 Beacon St., Boston
617-670-2515

Grafton Street Pub & Grille
1230 Mass. Ave., Cambridge
617-497-0400

Gargoyles on the Square
219 Elm St., Somerville
617-776-5300

Pho Republique
1415 Washington St., Boston
617-262-0005

Silvertone Bar & Grill
69 Bromfield St., Boston
617-338-7887

21st Amendment
150 Bowdoin St., Boston
617-227-7100

Cheers
84 Beacon St., Boston
617-227-9605

Game On!
82 Lansdowne St., Boston
617-351-7001

No. 9 Park
9 Park St., Boston
617-742-9991

Sonsie
327 Newbury St., Boston
617-351-2500

29 Newbury
29 Newbury St., Boston
617-536-0290

Avalon
15 Lansdowne St., Boston
617-262-2424 or 617-262-2437

Machine
1254 Boylston St., Boston
617-536-1950

UpStairs on the Square
91 Winthrop St., Cambridge
617-864-1933

Locke-Ober
3 Winter Place, Boston
617-542-1340

Cactus Club
939 Boylston St., Boston
617-236-0200

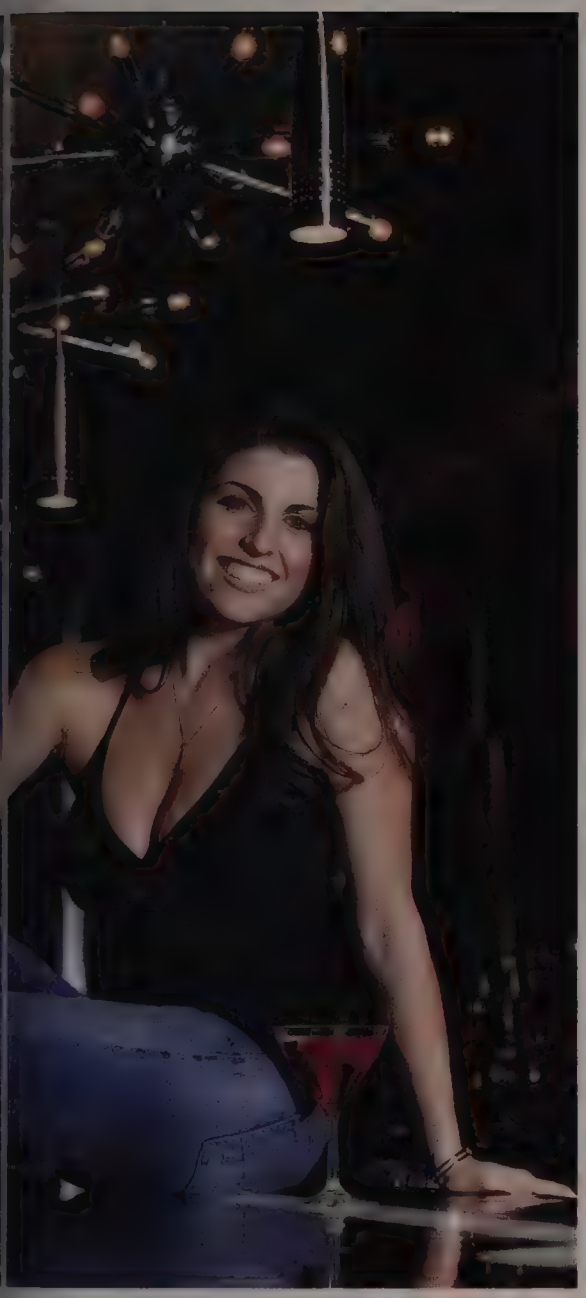
Cottonwood Cafe
222 Berkeley St., Boston
617-247-2225

Stella
1525 Washington St., Boston
617-247-7747

Vox Populi
755 Boylston St., Boston
617-424-8300

City Bar
170 Boylston St., Boston
617-933-4801

The Bar at the Ritz-Carlton Boston
15 Arlington St., Boston
617-536-5700



Renee Bean
FELT

533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555).
Thu. and some weekend nights

Stunningly beautiful and Speedy Gonzalez–quick, she's somewhat flirtatious and invariably laughing or cracking jokes behind her bar at this three-story playpen for the Young and the Guestlist. Thursday's her big night, when the bar is invariably slammed with guys staring at her chest while placing their orders, trying to wrangle her phone number, or asking her out to dinner. And with her smoldering, Lebanese-Italian gorgeousness, who could blame them? (Memo to the guys: Sorry, she's spoken for.) Genuine and down-to-earth, she's as efficient and professional as she is lovely to look at, and one glimpse of her mixing a martini is enough to see that she truly adores what she does.

SIGNATURE DRINK
French Kiss Martini

2 parts Grey Goose Vodka, 1 part Chambord, a splash of pineapple juice. Shake on ice, pour into a martini glass and top with champagne. Garnish with a lemon twist.

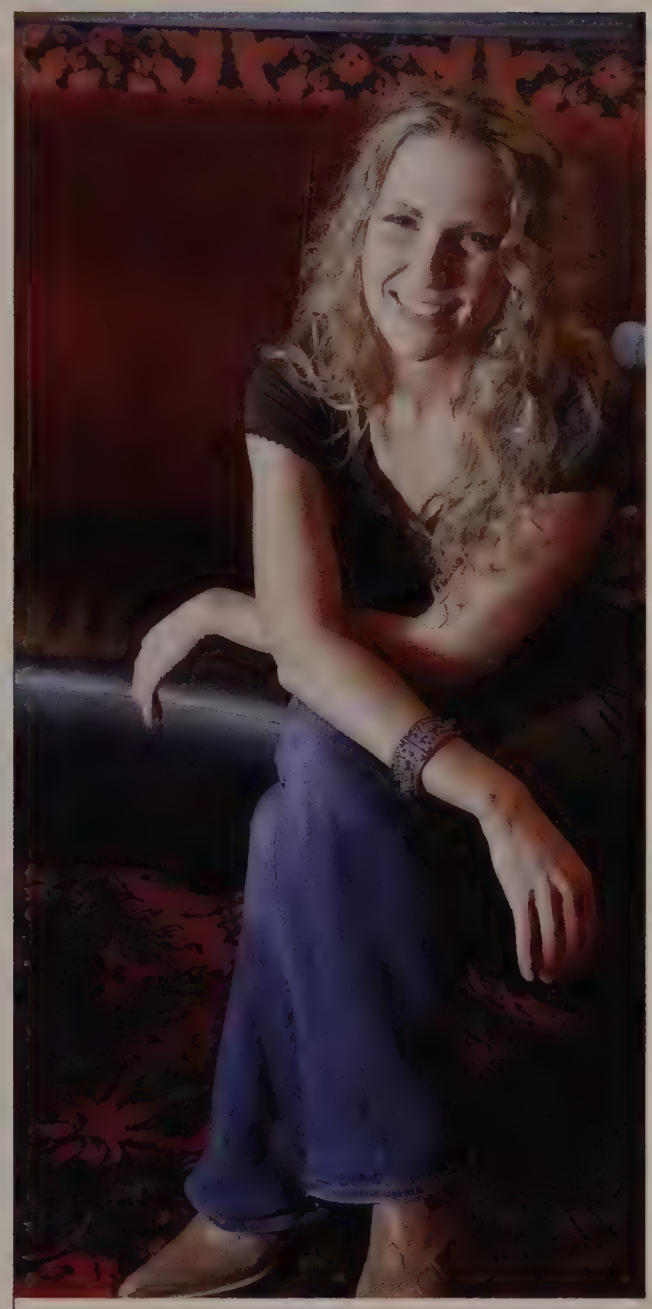
Dylan Black
GREEN STREET

280 Green St., Cambridge (617-876-1655).
Every night

A veteran of such sizzling bar scenes as Chez Henri and the B-Side Lounge, he realized his goal in January of buying the Green Street Grill, renovating it, and reopening under the simpler name. "I grew up in Central Square," he says, "and I always dreamed of owning Green Street." Now that he does, he presides over the oldest operating liquor license in Cambridge (it opened in 1933), in a building with parts that date back to 1822, and his respect for the establishment's history is tremendous. The renovation was more of a face-lift, and his style is old-school, by-the-book, with an emphasis on classic cocktails. The tropical drink list was designed to complement the seasonal American-Caribbean cooking of chef Mark Romano, and although the drinks employ lots of rum, fresh juices and tropical ingredients, they're anything but sickly sweet, foo-foo boat drinks. Combining goofy charm, an excellent sense of humor and staunch professionalism with a love of taking care of people that shows in everything he does, he's the consummate bar owner and one helluva bartender.

SIGNATURE DRINK
The 7th Heaven

1½ oz. Plymouth Gin, ¾ oz. maraschino liqueur, ¾ oz. freshly squeezed grapefruit juice. Shake on ice and smudge the inside of a martini glass with a fresh mint leaf. Serve straight up. Garnish with mint.



Kate Munson
SAINT

90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134). Fri., Sat. nights

A Valley girl born and raised, she's got the sunny SoCal disposition that keeps things bubbly and unpretentious at this swanky subterranean hangout for the in-crowd. Well-rounded, she balances speed, accuracy and attentiveness with consistency and a bit of sauciness. By day, she works as a concierge at the Bella Sante Day Spa and is studying to be an esthetician, a calling for which she's obviously suited, given her ability to pamper her bar patrons. With her blonde curls and winning way, she exudes positive energy. Best of all, she loves Boston in all its crusty glory—and even appreciates the local sports teams. We defy anyone to spend five minutes at her bar and not walk away feeling better about themselves and the world in general, and we're not just talking about the effects of alcohol.

SIGNATURE DRINK
Kiss Me Kate

2 oz. Grey Goose Citron, ¾ oz. Bacardi Limón, ¼ oz. Chambord, the juice of ¼ lemon. Shake on ice and serve straight up in a martini glass with a sugared rim. Garnish with a lemon twist.

Dave Cagle
THE B-SIDE LOUNGE
92 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-354-0766).
Fri.-Mon. nights

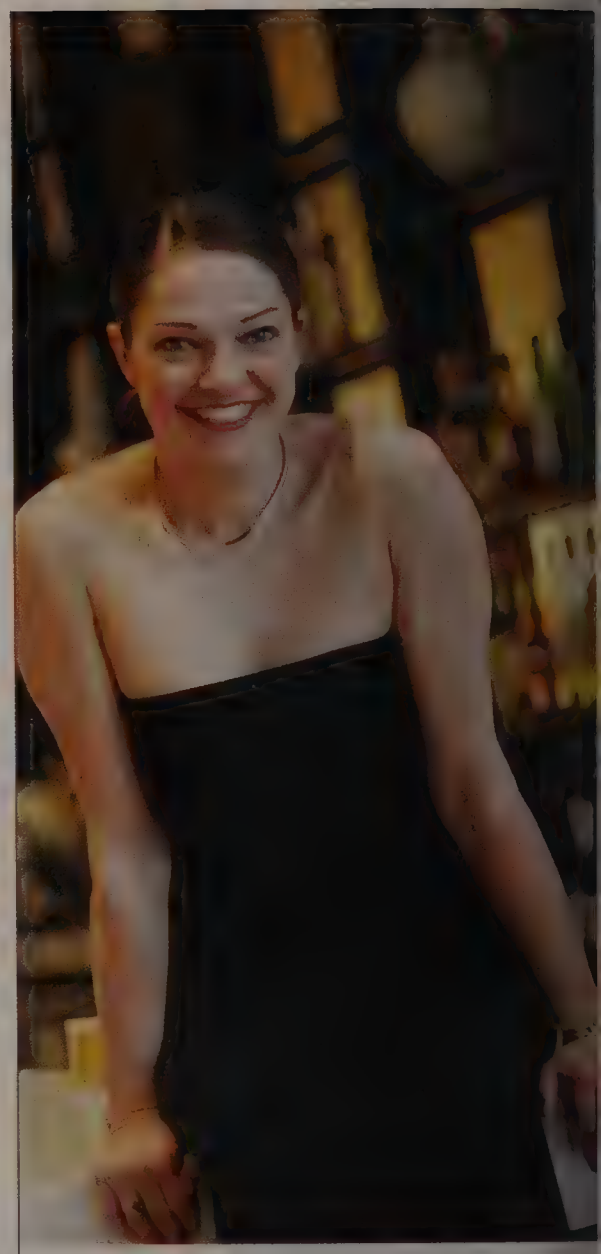
6'2" and heavyset, with tattoos on his arms, chest and back, he's perfectly suited to this funky Cambridge hangout for musicians, artists and other creative boho types. A native of Fayetteville, Ark., he's a career bartender with 10 years' experience under his belt and plans to someday open his own place. In the meantime, he's dearly loved by his regulars, for whom he serves as a hybrid philosopher/smartass. Able to converse intelligently on nearly any subject, he may look every bit the hipster, but he's a traditionalist when it comes to cocktails, using only the finest ingredients and making them by the book. In other words, if you want to call something that tastes like Hawaiian Punch or Nesquik a martini, go right ahead; just don't expect him to play along. But if you want to spend the evening with an interesting and engaging character, sipping drinks the way they were meant to be made, he's your man.

SIGNATURE DRINK
The Judge Parker Cocktail (named for a hanging judge from Arkansas in the 1800s)
2 oz. W.L. Weller Bourbon, ¾ oz. honey simple syrup, ⅓ oz. Fernet Branca. Shake on ice and strain into a chilled martini glass.

Matt Jerome
GRILL 23 & BAR
161 Berkeley St., Boston (617-542-2255).
Tue., Thu. and one weekend night

It's not surprising to find one of the city's most gifted barkeeps at its swankiest steakhouse, and this second-year law student brings exactly the kind of courteous and respectful professionalism to the job as you'd expect at such an auspicious establishment. "There's a lot more to making a cocktail than mixing and shaking," he says, stressing presentation, attention to detail and consistency. His traditional attitude doesn't stop him from tweaking classics by doing things like trying different cognacs in a Sidecar or using flavored vodkas (other than citrus) in a Cosmo. His ability to read people allows him to be all things to all customers—with a group of guys he can talk sports, with a bunch of women he can turn on the charm, and with a married couple he's the epitome of discreet attentiveness. His regulars—mostly businessmen—generally want to talk about anything but work, and he's happy to oblige. And at 6'3" with sideburns and blue eyes, he's appealing even before he starts pouring liquor.

SIGNATURE DRINK
The Big Crush
2 oz. Stoli Raspberry, 1 oz. Cointreau, a splash of freshly squeezed lime juice and Chambord. Shake on ice and serve straight up in a martini glass. Top with champagne. Garnish with berries.



Adrienne Griffith
SORELLINA
1 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-412-4600).
Mon.-Thu. nights

As the bar manager at one of the city's hottest new restaurants, she reigns over the bar scene like a benevolent monarch, quietly making sure everything runs smoothly and all of her guests have everything they need before they even realize they need it. Trained as a jazz and blues singer at the Boston Conservatory and Berklee, she has the measured cool of a jazz chanteuse behind the bar and an infectious happy-go-lucky attitude. Because the restaurant is both new and wildly popular, she has a lot of discerning, upscale diners either waiting for a table or eating at her bar, and she's a crackerjack at keeping them happy. Beyond all that, she always looks at least as chic as her clientele, with a gorgeous wardrobe that adds to her already enormous appeal. In short, she's all that and a bag of chips.

SIGNATURE DRINK
Antipasto Martini
One part pepper-and-vegetable-infused vodka (try using Reyka Vodka and macerating bell and poblano peppers, carrots, celery and cucumber for at least an hour), two parts regular vodka. Shake on ice and serve straight up. Garnish with three bleu-cheese stuffed olives.

10 CANE IS RATED #1 RUM BY NEW YORK TIMES

10CANE™
RUM

WHAT IS THE

BEST WAY TO DRINK 10 CANE?

It's up to you. 10 Cane elevates any cocktail, especially cocktails made with fresh ingredients. These ingredients perfectly compliment its light, smooth taste. Try it in a Cuba Libre, a Mojito, or a Daiquiri (a real one, the way it's supposed to be). 10 Cane can also be sipped, enjoyed neat, on the rocks, or mixed with soda or tonic.

10 CANE IS

THE LEADER

★★★ 1/2

[rating: three and a half stars]

★★★ = excellent ★★★★ = extraordinary

"Neither white nor amber, but pure, smooth and elegant, with luscious sugar-cane flavor and enticing texture."

— ERIC ASIMOV

The New York Times

10 CANE IS

THE FIRST LUXURY RUM

Moet Hennessy expertise, the leader in the luxury category

Pure Cane Juice, not molasses for lightness, smoothness and better taste

Hand-Crafted product and process: hand harvested, small batch distillation, aged in French oak barrels

RUM'S REDEMPTION

10CANE RUM

THE BEST WAY TO DRINK IS RESPONSIBLY

10CANE™ IMPORTED RUM, 40% ALC./VOL. (80°)
©2005 IMPORTED BY SCHIEFFELIN & CO., NEW YORK, N.Y.

GROOVIN' AND BOOZIN'

What's the perfect drink without the perfect soundtrack? Go multisensory with these complementary pairings.

By Andrew Graham

Remember that old Neil Diamond album you used to hate when you were a kid? The one you made fun of your mom for loving? And remember when you found yourself, years later, in a bar full of your best friends, with a belly full of the worst scotch, belting out "Sweet Caroline" like you'd written it yourself? Music and alcohol have gone hand in hand since—well, even before Lindsay Lohan put out an album. But few listeners, if any, bother to pair cocktails with their ideal accompaniments. Never mind which wine to serve with the fish; here's the IMPROPER guide to music to drink by.

Album: Frank Sinatra, Where Are You?
Drink: Highball

The clink of ice in a glass is like Sinatra's Bat Phone. When you hear it, you know: It's on. Roll yourself a highball, kick back and let that voice—and Gordon Jenkins' lush strings—wash over you like a tidal wave of bourbon and remorse. This ballad-centric album is perfect for picking at the scab of a broken heart—and a highball is just the thing to dull the pain.

Album: Bowery Electric, Lushlife
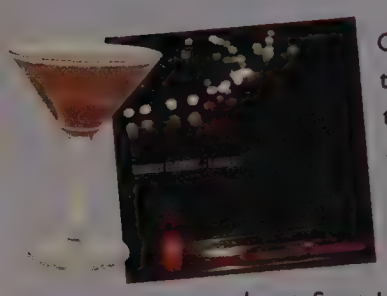
Drink: Manhattan



On their highly underrated third album, Bowery Electric took the ball Portishead had dropped and ran with it. But while Portishead's steez was morbid and melancholy, Lushlife is evocative and vibrant. Scratchy, syruped-up hip-hop beats provide the soundtrack, echoing the rough kiss of the Manhattan's rye whiskey; the sweet, whispery female vocals are the vermouth in this mislaid masterpiece.

Album: Prince, Around the World in a Day
Drink: White Russian

Prince's funk-based pop usually comes with a dash of the dark side, but on this record, he managed to keep it at bay a bit more than usual. Instead, he introduced listeners to the Paisley Park playground, inviting them to frolic with tamborines and raspberry berets. World isn't pure pop; it does have teeth—but its cocktail cohort shares with its flamboyant creator the fact that they're both best presented with a doily underneath.

Album: N*E*R*D, In Search Of...
Drink: Sailor's Delight

When Chad Hugo and Pharrell Williams (otherwise known as pop/hip-hop production powerhouse the Neptunes), along with Shay Haley, came out with a rock record, they were taking a risk. They knew the music world saw them as Top 40 rap and bubblegum beatmakers, and they brought some of their strongest material ever to the table. Same goes for this drink. Mount Gay, tonic and lime? Far from a classic combo, this lively and novel mixture complements the blend of R&B, soul, pop and rock & roll that In Search Of... embodies.

Album: Dwarves, Thank Heaven for Little Girls
Drink: Double shot of rye whiskey

For a raw, balls-out drunken hedonistic rampage, it's hard to beat the Dwarves. Little Girls is their finest hour—or, to be more accurate, their finest 18 minutes. Press "play" as you empty your glass; you'll still be wincing when the organ intro fades into demonic laughter and lead singer Blag Jesus hurls himself into the album's first refrain, "Satan is a friend of mine." The warm glow in your throat will spread into your belly and that medicinal double-dose will be circulating nicely into your system as the album crests into its denouement, before you know it. Ready for another one, punk?

Album: Old 97's, Too Far to Care
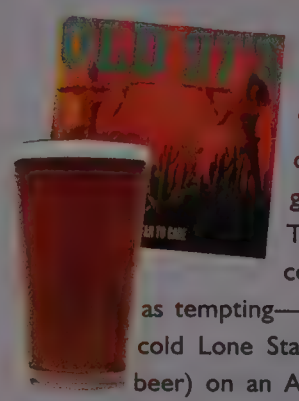
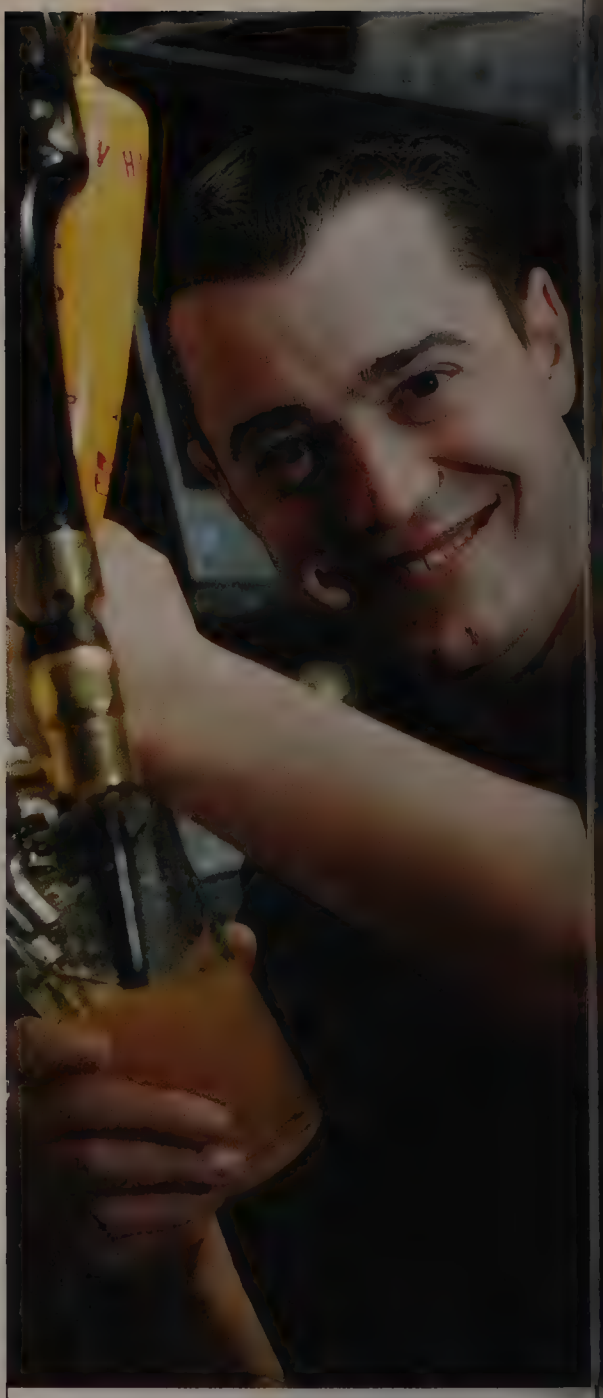
Drink: Lone Star, and lots of it



Arguably a concept album about breaking up with a "showgirl," this collection of songs is far and away the group's best. Hailing from Texas, the Old 97's' hybrid country-pop-rock sound is as tempting—and satisfying—as an ice-cold Lone Star (the preeminent Texan beer) on an August day in Austin. The album kicks off with a pair of fast-paced rockers, but if you can make it through "Curtain Calls," "Niteclub" and "House That Used to Be" without a tear in your beer, just turn in your yellow rose, yankee.



Wesley Byrd
21ST AMENDMENT
150 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-7100).
Sat. days, Sun., Mon. and Thu. nights

The 21st Amendment is an old-style European p that's been around since 1899, and although We ley's only worked there for the past year and a ha it feels as if he's been behind the bar forever. math major at UMass Boston, he's having t much fun tending bar to leave it for the corpora or academic worlds. Capable of being all things all people, this charming transplant from Atlan and Miami can joke around, talk sports or ps shrink, and he's a genius at reading people to dete mine what kind of service they want. His regula are an interesting mélange of Statehouse pow brokers, Beacon Hill yuppies, blue-collar joes ar everything in between, and his Southern gentili makes everyone feel equally at home. If the bar i self is like a comfortable old pair of slippers, he the fancy footwork inside.

SIGNATURE DRINK
Mango Mellon Mojito

1 part Captain Morgan's Mango Rum, ½ part Midori, splash of mint simple syrup and fresh lime juice. Mu dle with fresh mint leaves in a rocks glass and top wi a splash of soda.

Come On Down

"A vehicle for every road you travel."

Boch-tini

2 oz Pineapple infused Belvedere Vodka
1 oz Champagne (Cristal)
1/2 oz Grand Marnier Cuvee
Speciale Cent Cinquantenaire

Shake gently over ice, pour and serve
Garnish with a fresh pineapple wedge

BOCH AUTOMOTIVE

781-769-8100 781-769-8100 781-619-6000 781-762-7200 781-440-0004 781-762-9110

"On the Automile" Route 1, Norwood, MA Boch.com

SIGNATURE DRINK

Middlesex Margarita

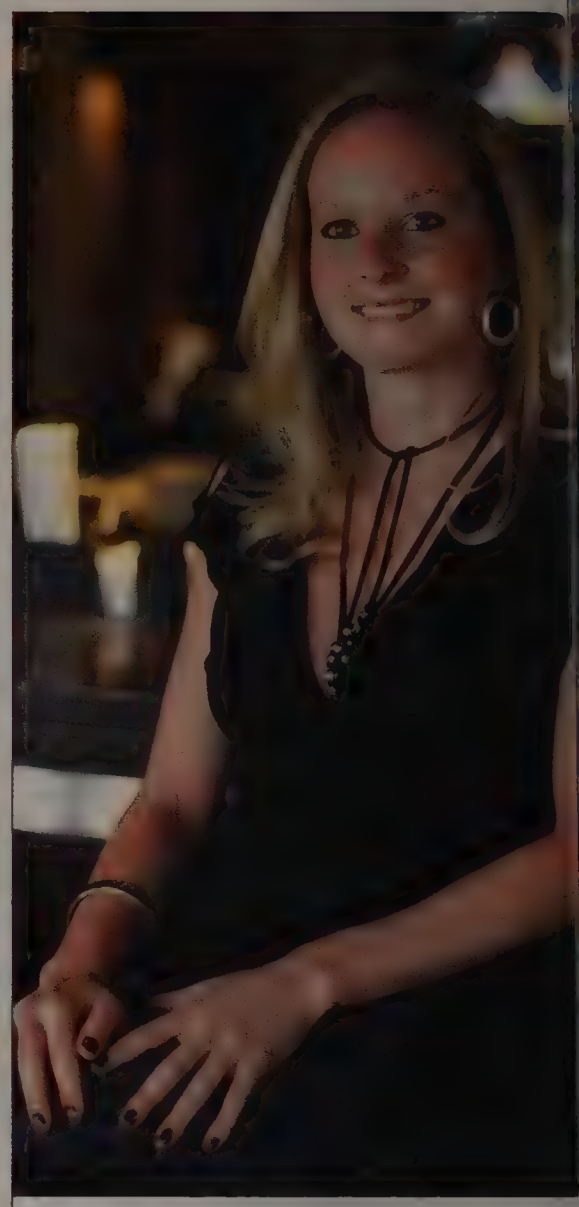
2½ oz. Patron Silver Tequila, ¾ oz. Cointreau, 1¼ oz. fresh lime juice and simple syrup, a splash of orange juice and Grand Marnier. Shake on ice and serve straight up or on the rocks, with or without salt.

Kit Paschal

MIDDLESEX

315 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-6739). Fri.--Sun., Tue. nights

Known as the shaggy bartender due to his long hair, his easygoing, surfer-dude demeanor belies an ability to crank out the drinks at a fast and furious pace when things get hopping. Because he works on high-volume nights, his style tends to be systematic and efficient, although he tries to make eye contact with everyone who approaches his bar to let them know he sees them and will be with them as quickly as possible. Although most bartenders bitch about making Mojitos, he estimates it's every other drink ordered at his bar and he gladly goes about the labor-intensive task of making them, on the principle that whatever the customer wants, he's happy to make. A hidden gem on weeknights, Middlesex is a popular spot on weekends, but whatever the night, one of the things he likes best about the bar is its eclectic and off-the-beaten path selection of music. His schedule allows him to indulge passions for snowboarding in the winter and going to the beach in the summer, and his happy-go-lucky attitude rubs off on his regulars. It also doesn't hurt that he's as cute as they come.



Erin Loomis

SOHO

386 Market St., Brighton (617-562-6000).

Fri.--Sun. nights

Bartending since she was 18, she sees it as a job can't be beat: "Instead of going out on a week night and spending money, I'm out making mo and hanging out with my friends." A Hingham tive who's finishing a degree in public commun tions at Northeastern, she's fast and efficient never forgets the niceties. On Sundays she more time to chat with her regulars, and du football season she lives for talking and watch the game. The regulars at this downtown-style located in Brighton are an eclectic group, ran in age from 21 to 55 and representing a variet nationalities. They unanimously love her for outstanding service, attention to detail and g uine, unpretentious friendliness. She also m the best Espresso Martini this side of whatever Juan Valdez hangs out in. In short, she's an ace a cocktail shaker who can pump out the libat and make the good times roll.

SIGNATURE DRINK

Espresso Martini

Three parts Stoli Vanil, two parts Bailey's Irish Cr a shot of espresso, one part each white crèm cacao, dark crème de cacao, Kahlua and Frange Shake on ice and serve straight up in a martini g Garnish with three espresso beans.

Kimi Tsuji

LES ZYGOMATES

129 South St., #129, Boston (617-542-5108). Tue. nights

By day he works as a carpenter and recently launched a business called AKA Sound Studios, which produces scores for film and television. Although composing and playing music are his greatest passions, he brings the same stagecraft and artistry to tending bar. Cavalier and outgoing with his regulars, he tries to make them feel as if they're at his house for dinner. Besides superb French food, one of the bar's main attractions is the live jazz, which draws an eclectic mix of Leather District denizens, painters, sculptors and musicians, as well as professionals. His favorite part of the job is matching drink and food to the individual, at which he's particularly gifted. It helps that he's able to converse on a wide range of esoteric subjects—for example, he spends a few weeks each fall in the Pacific Northwest, helping wildlife biologists monitor the migration patterns of raptors. In other words, he's as interesting as the people who sit at his bar, which is why they come in droves and return again and again.

SIGNATURE DRINK

Old-School Manhattan

5 oz. Maker's Mark, Woodford Reserve, Bookers or other bourbon, 1 oz. of sweet vermouth, a dash of bitters, a dash of cherry juice. Shake on ice and serve straight up in a martini glass. Garnish with either a cherry or a twist.

Chris Hart

THE LAST DROP

594 Washington St., Brighton (617-787-1111). Thu.–Sat. and Tue. nights charming smart aleck, Hart works as a al estate appraiser by day but boasts 10 ars of experience behind the bar at this pular Brighton haunt, which recently derwent a facelift that spiffed up the cor of rich mahogany and hexagonal le floor. Distinguished by his bright ue eyes, he's outgoing and effusive with acid sense of humor. "I've tried the sh thing, but it usually ends up with a t of broken glass and people running way screaming," he jokes, "so I try to ck to sarcasm." His clientele ranges in e from college seniors to granddads, d runs the full social gamut. As he puts "It's not odd on a Friday night to see a oup of 20-something BC girls at a table xt to a pair of 45-year-old guys having beer before they go home to their ives." And among the things that keep em coming back are Hart's sharp wit d superb service.

SIGNATURE DRINK

The Nymphomaniac

qual parts Captain Morgan's Spiced Rum, achtree schnapps and Bacardi Coconut, th a splash of cranberry juice. Shake on ice d serve straight up in a martini glass. Garsh with a cherry.

SIGNATURE DRINK
Strawberries-and-Cream Martini

1 oz. Stoli Strasberi and Stoli Vanil, ½ oz. White Godiva Liqueur, a splash of whipped cream. Shake on ice and pour into a martini glass. Sink a splash of puréed strawberries to the bottom.

Nicole Johnson
GYPSY BAR
116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799). Wed., Fri., Sat. and some Thu. nights

Able to smile even when someone's snapping at her, she's superefficient and gets drinks to her customers faster than you'd think was humanly possible. Working at a high-volume bar, she can pump out the orders, flawlessly made and in the right order. The music's usually loud, but when things slow down she's adept at making conversation. Her trademark is the butterfly ring she wears on her right hand (to match a tattoo on her back), and it's an appropriate symbol for someone as vibrant and vivacious as the bubbles in champagne.

Mike LaPeruta
MACHINE
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986).
Wed., Fri. and Sat. nights

XL
257 Allens Ave., Providence, R.I. (401-461-9522).
Thu. and Sun. nights

A student by day, LaPeruta was born and raised in Broo and Staten Island and learned the ropes at such Manha hot spots as the Roxy, Limelight, Tunnel and Twilo. result, his style is a New York mix of flashiness and wis sery—throwing bottles around, spraying customers wit soda gun, jumping on the bar to do an impro striptease and letting patrons do body shots off his c Not surprisingly, the gay boys who congregate at this way disco inferno eat it up. "The whole point of bei bartender is to help people forget about their workw he says, and with his smoldering good looks and killer he's a cross between a go-go dancer and a pharmacis times he tends bar shirtless, and thanks to MVB Mannke, beside whom he often works, he sometimes up pantsless, leaving patrons panting. A hunka h burnin' bartender.

SIGNATURE DRINK
The Tahitian

1½ oz. Stoli Razberi, ½ oz. each of Southern Comfort, Ba Apple and triple sec, a splash of cranberry juice and Sp Shake on ice and serve on the rocks. Garnish with a wedge.

PATRÓN
Citrónge
Extra Fine
Orange Liqueur
PATRÓN
SILVER
TEQUILA
100% DE AGAVE
TEQUILA
PATRÓN
PATRÓN & CITRÓNGE
THE PERFECT MARGARITA!
To send a gift of Patrón, call 1-877-SPIRITS or visit www.877spirits.com. Void where prohibited. Always enjoy our Simply Perfect products responsibly.
www.patronspirits.com

SHOT FOR SHOT

We dare ya to keep up with the drinking in these films.

By Andrew Graham

Sure, you can put the drinks away with the best of 'em. But can you keep up with the iron-livered characters on the silver screen? Here are a few movies that'll put your drinking prowess to the test. Warning: Do try this at home—and only at home.

1. Barfly

If you're a fan of the poet Charles Bukowski, Barfly (a semiautobiographical flick, scripted by Bukowski himself) will either ruin or confirm your opinion of him. By turns self-serving, sentimental and trenchantly pathetic, the movie opens with a scene that introduces a down-at-the-heels wino (Mickey Rourke) desperate enough to fight for a drink. He proceeds to get stomped by Sly Stallone's brother Frank, in a career-defining performance as a petty, thick-headed thug. We follow the wino back to his flophouse hotel, where it's revealed that this tragic figure is a talented writer, a gutter scribe with tawdry tales to tell and poetry oozing from his pores like 90-proof sweat. And so on. The movie concludes where it began, with Rourke antagonizing Stallone, sure to end up—as you will, if you attempt to keep up with the flow of alcohol in this movie—unconscious on the floor again.

Drinkalong drink: Wild Irish Rose, Night Train, Thunderbird—whatever goes best with what you had for breakfast yesterday.

2. Withnail & I

Depressing and uplifting, dark and brilliant, Withnail & I is a triumphantly moving and subtly hilarious movie about two young men at loose ends in London at the close of the 1960s. Their miserable, hand-to-mouth existence living on the dole, in an apartment without wine (not to mention food or heat), sends them desperately to pubs for solace—and alcoholic sustenance. They eventually leave the city altogether, to the country cottage of Withnail's uncle Monty. The unpredictability of rural life, combined with the unwelcome arrival of Monty, eventually drives them (drunkenly) back to London, where they have an extensive (and wine-intensive) conversation with a couple of acquaintances in their flat—and that's about it, plotwise. But if you think you can match these peerless pubcrawlers, beware. Quadruple whiskeys aren't for breakfast anymore.

Drinkalong drink: This movie goes well with the house wine, especially if it's a house in the country owned by an old-money English aristocrat.

3. The Thin Man

The first installment of this excellent 1930s series served to establish detective Nick Charles' (William Powell) modus operandi—which happens to be to drink as much and as often as possible, then call all the suspects together at the end and get one of them to 'fess up. The rapport and banter between Nick and his wife, Nora (Myrna Loy), is what makes this flick so charmingly appealing. He's a scrappy ex-gumshoe from the wrong side of the tracks and she's a refined lady, but every bit a match for his snappy wit, returning his barbs with acid (and a dose of tipsy TLC).

Drinkalong drink: OK, young buck, I know you think that throwing vodka into a stemmed glass with anything else can be called a martini, but if you're going to drink along with this movie, you'll drink the classic gin martini—dry as an old-school Boston Sunday—and you'll damn well like it.

4. The Lost Weekend

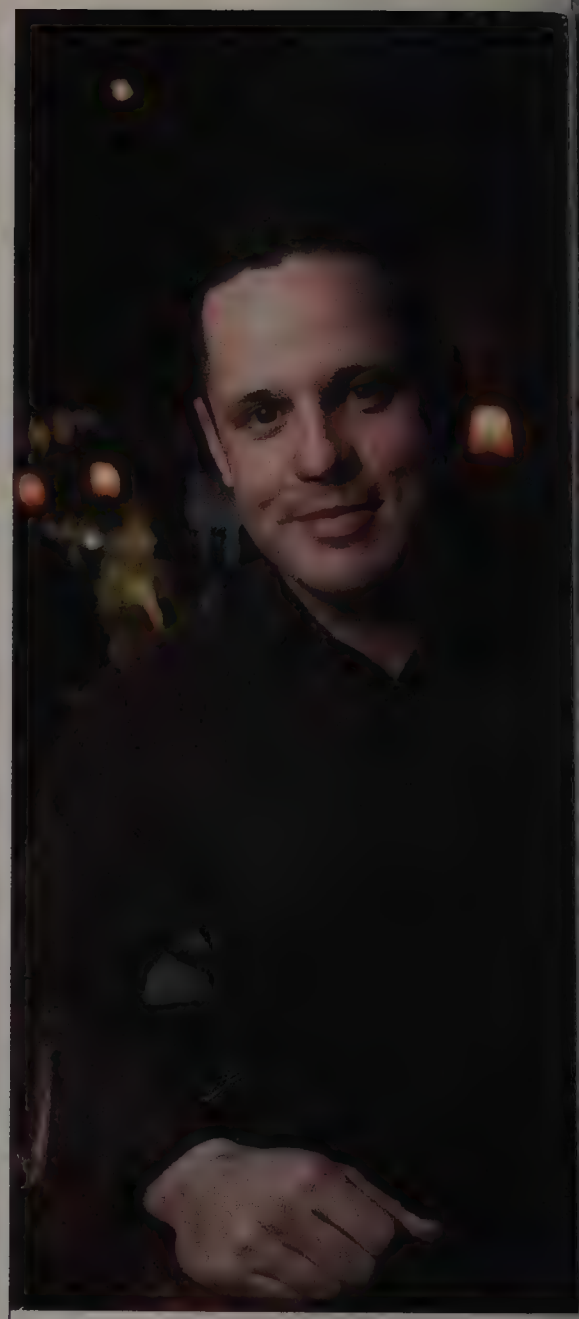
Ray Milland's portrayal of hopeless drunk Don Birnam gives this film a fair amount of realism, as he swills bottle after bottle of the hard stuff morning, noon and night. Birnam is an on-and-off-the-wagon drunk who has yet to effectively give up the habit. His long-suffering girlfriend entreats him to dry out, but his demons keep dragging him back to the bottle. With its Capra-esque ending, The Lost Weekend almost becomes the 80-proof flipside to It's a Wonderful Life, but the road to get there is a bumpy one. It's tough to match this one shot for shot—at least, we think it is. We can't remember the ending very well. Or much of the middle.

Drinkalong drink: To be safe, let's say beer for this one. It takes Milland a while to get rolling, but once he does, watch out.

5. Ocean's 11 (The 1960 version)

Hey, baby, it's the Chairman here. I remember making this flick like it was yesterday. It was me, Dino, Sammy & Lawford, and boy, did we have a time. We were filming during the day, headlining at night, then partying into the wee, wee hours of the morning—with fists full of bourbon at all times. It was nuts, baby. I remember once, the boys and I were heading out one afternoon, and the director comes up to me, saying, "Excuse me, Mr. Sinatra, but we have some dialogue scenes to shoot this afternoon." I told him, "Well, shoot 'em at the bowling alley, 'cause that's where we'll be." The look on his face—priceless. Think you can keep up, rookie? Then you'd better get a head start before the credits, because we were all rolling before the cameras ever started. I was sipping scotch while you were sucking down Similac. It's my world, and don't you forget it. Fly me to the moon, let me play among the stars....

Drinkalong drink: Bourbon in a tumbler, neat—like the knot in my tie and the way that broad does my hair.

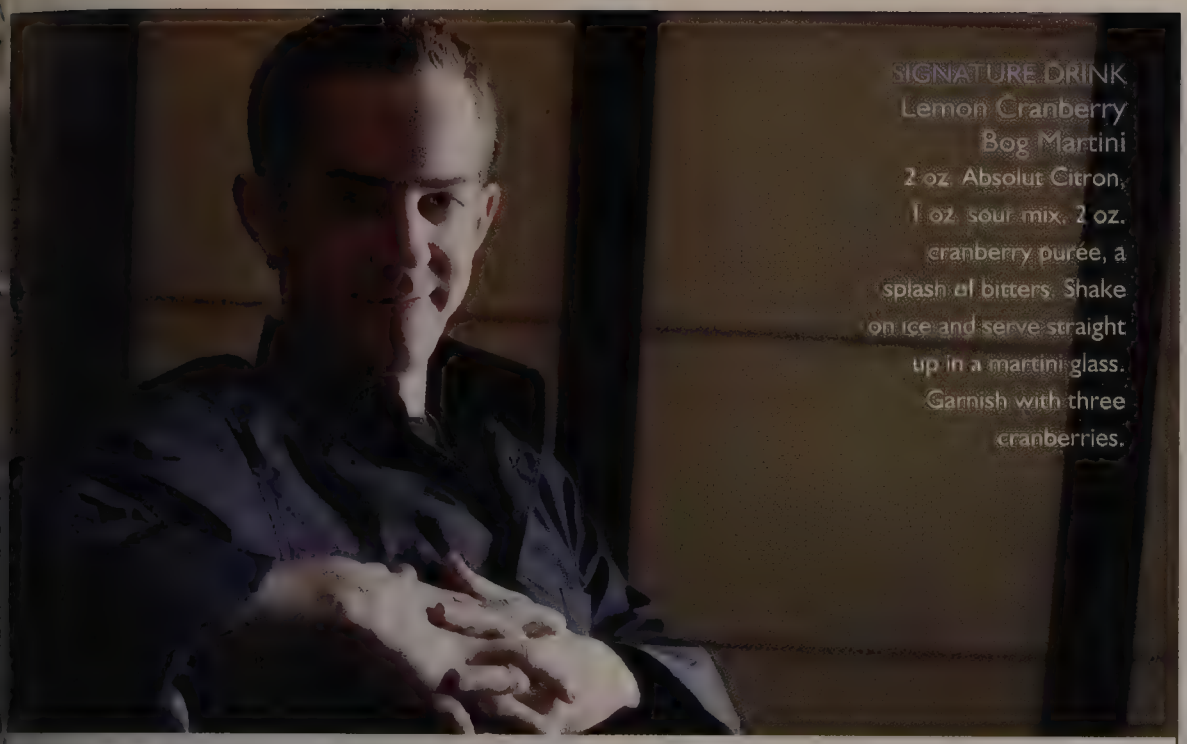


Tim West
WEST ON CENTRE
1734 Centre St., West Roxbury (617-323-4199).
Thu., Sat. nights

By day, he's in marketing at a civil enginee firm, but for the past 10 years, he's honed his siderable skills as a bartender at such popular as Sonsie and the Blue Cat before returning t West Roxbury roots and this understated neigh hood bar. Its sleek, contemporary design give downtown vibe way in the heart of the 'hood because he grew up in the area, a lot of his reg are childhood friends or the parents of peopl knows. Unfailingly hospitable and quick to s hands, he's a natural-born listener and extre attentive, ministering to his clientele as if he hosting a party in his own home. On the short what he lacks in stature he more than makes u in personality and skill. A stand-up guy we're to see standing behind the bar.

SIGNATURE DRINK
The Spring Fling

2 oz. Skyy Berry Vodka, a splash of fresh lime j Chambord, simple syrup and Newman's Lemon Shake on ice and serve straight up in a martini with a sugared rim. Garnish with a lime wheel.

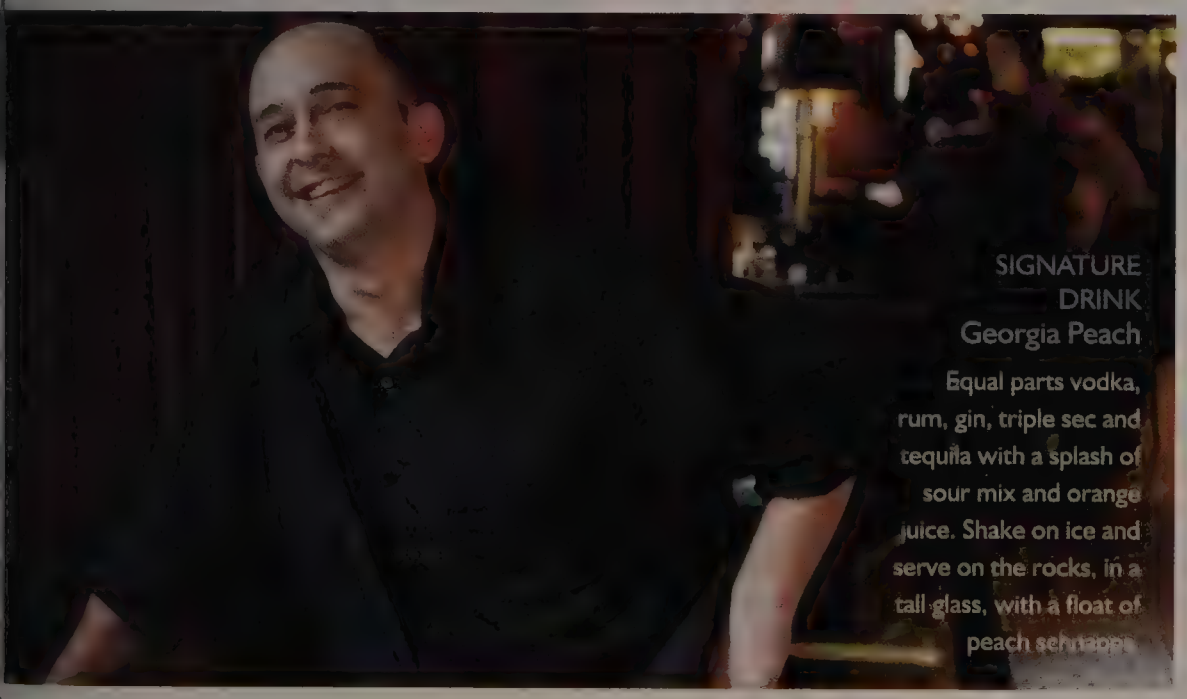


SIGNATURE DRINK
Lemon Cranberry Bog Martini
2 oz. Absolut Citron, 1 oz. sour mix, 2 oz. cranberry purée, a splash of bitters. Shake on ice and serve straight up in a martini glass. Garnish with three cranberries.

Jimmy Shea
LEGAL SEA FOODS PARK PLAZA

25 Park Plaza, Boston (617-426-4444). Wed.–Sat. nights

A wise guy who cut his teeth at a few suburban bars before making it into the big leagues at this local landmark, he's been slinging drinks and cracking wise here for the past four years. When his bar gets busy, he's a blur of focused pouring and mixing, with nary a drop spilled and assembly-line consistency, but when time allows he'll do a little flair, flipping bottles and putting on a bit of a show. "Anyone can mix a drink," he says. "It's all about the presentation." In addition to his showmanship, he's the embodiment of grace under pressure, smiling and remaining pleasant even when things around him start to get crazy. In short, he's the kind of guy who will dazzle you if time allows, but even when he's slammed will take the time to at least say hello.

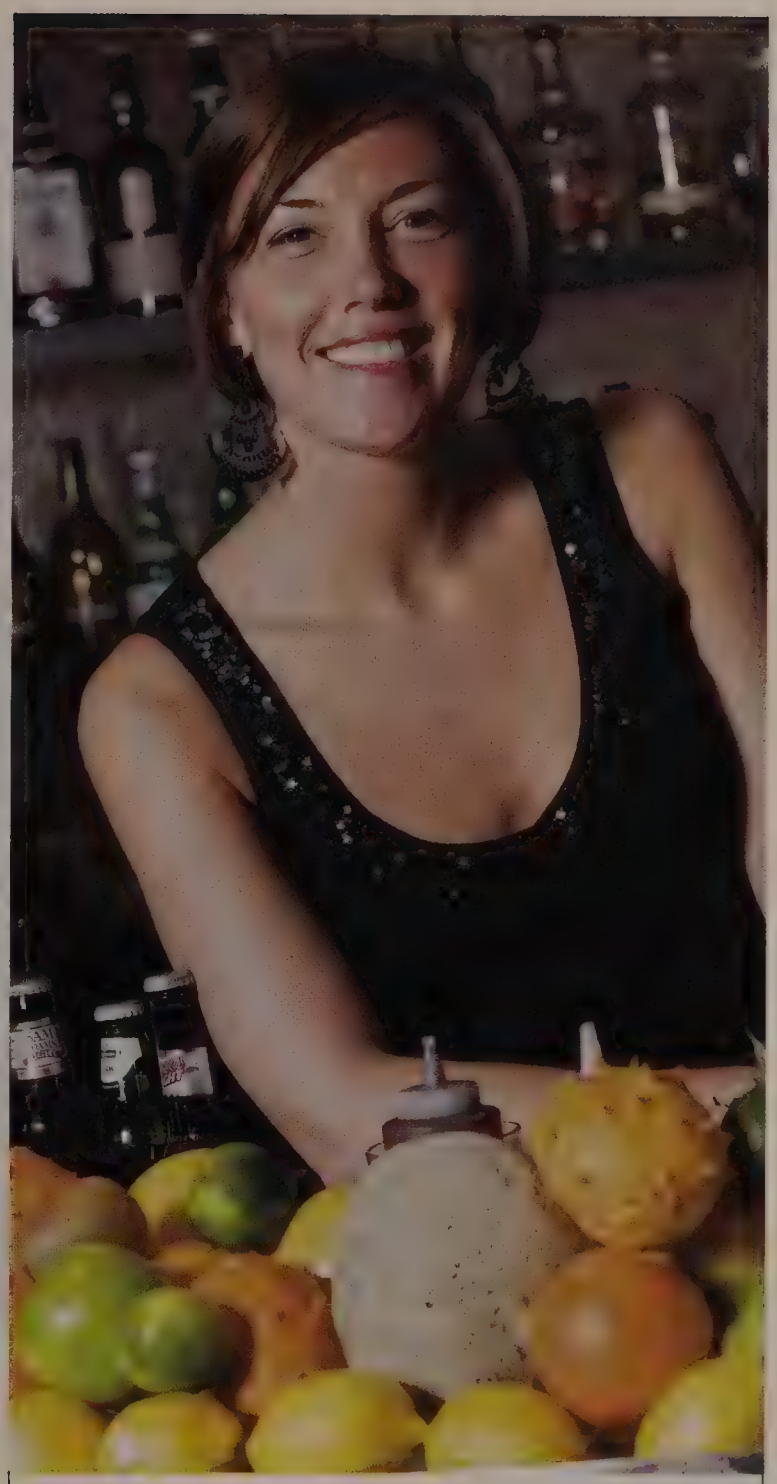


SIGNATURE DRINK
Georgia Peach
Equal parts vodka, rum, gin, triple sec and tequila with a splash of sour mix and orange juice. Shake on ice and serve on the rocks, in a tall glass, with a float of peach schnapps.

Jason Bray
KENNEDY'S MIDTOWN

44 Province St., Boston (617-426-3333). Sun. day and night, Mon. and Tue. nights

This gem of a bar on the bottom rung of the Ladder District is homey and warm with a long central bar, he requisite dark wood and old pictures of Ireland (as well as two dining rooms that serve not only supe- ior pub grub but also well-priced steak and seafood). Presiding over it all is this affable, jocular self-de- cribed "starving artist," who does graphic design, murals and any other painting jobs he can land when ie's not ministering to his thirsty regulars. He's certainly an artist behind the bar. His philosophy is sim- ple: "I try to have a good time, so if I am, hopefully they are, too." There can be no doubt that his patrons re having fun—on Tuesdays he tends one of the busiest bars in Boston, and we suspect he's the reason he bar's so packed. Open and attentive, he's the kind of guy you'd want to hang out with whether or not ie's plying you with booze.



Christine Murphy
VINALIA

101 Arch St., Boston (617-737-1777). Tue.–Fri. nights

This bubbly Jersey Girl knows her regulars intimately and acts as something of a psychiatrist for some of them. Because this upscale bar and restaurant is in an office building, she knows who's been fired and who got promoted, as well as who's carrying on with someone in the office, but she's the soul of discretion, which is probably why people trust her with their deepest and darkest secrets. Because they serve 20 white wines and 20 reds by the glass, as well as having a list of bottles that numbers in the hundreds, she's knowledgeable about wine, but she's equally enthusiastic when it comes to mixed drinks. In fact, her flair for creating new concoctions has won her several bartending competitions, including one for Plymouth Gin that earned her an all-expenses-paid trip to London. Her personal trademark is funky jewelry, like antique chandelier earrings, and the regulars are so enamored of her that they often bring her gifts. Now that's what we call devotion.

SIGNATURE DRINK
The Navigator
2 parts Plymouth Gin, 1 part limoncello, 2 parts grapefruit juice. Shake on ice and serve straight up. Garnish with lemon zest.

Eryl Williams
LAUREL
142 Berkeley St., Boston (617-424-6711).
Wed.–Sun. nights

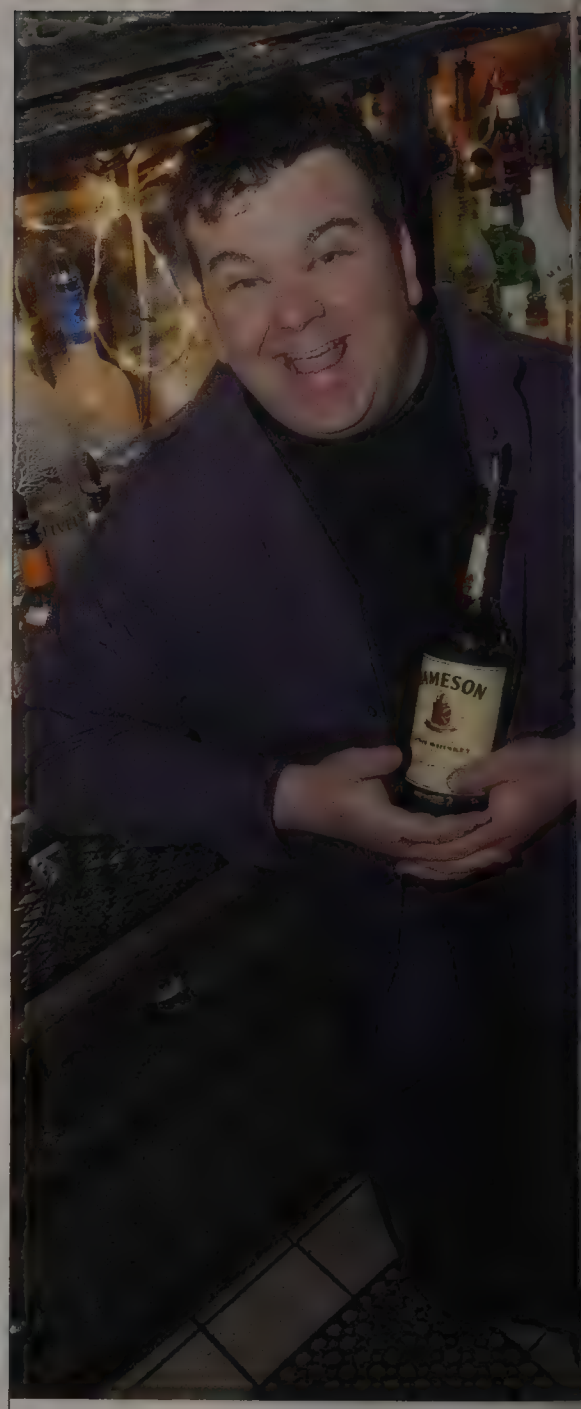
In his previous life, he was a harness racehorse trainer, and he now owns three horses that he races in Canada. In fact, customers at his bar are sometimes treated to watching his horses race through a Web link. With a thick Welsh accent (often mistaken for Irish or Scottish), he hales from a small town in western Wales called Aberaeron, and his bartending style is decidedly down-to-earth. Brash, vocal, straightforward and wickedly funny, he says that "all bartenders are bullshit artists," and because there's no TV at his bar, he provides the entertainment. Because "laughter is the whole point," he delights in teasing his regulars, who dish it right back. Known as "Mr. Laurel," he has longtime customers that have become close friends, and on his nights off, he often finds himself socializing with them. In other words, he's equally good at mixing drinks and mixing business with pleasure.

SIGNATURE DRINK
Pineappletini
Equal parts Parrot Bay Coconut Rum, pineapple rum, pineapple schnapps and pineapple juice. Shake on ice and serve straight up in a chilled martini glass.

Maureen Linnane
RIVER GODS
125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881).
Wed.–Sat. nights

Raised in Galway, this self-described "wild woman from the West" is someone you'd expect to find at an out-of-the-way pub down a country lane in the Old Country, rather than right outside Central Square. Her sister owns the place, and the pervasive family vibe makes patrons feel instantly comfortable, while her thick brogue is like a warm sweater on a damp Irish day. The drinks get made properly, but there's plenty of room for a laugh, and with her prototypical Gaelic love of humor, she doesn't take anything, including you or herself, too seriously. Affectionately known as Moe, she's light years more charming than the similarly named bartender on The Simpsons, and whether it's their first visit or their 400th, she treats everyone with a relaxed friendliness that epitomizes what a good bar (and bartender) is all about.

SIGNATURE DRINK
The Moelicious
Equal parts Absolut Vanilia and fresh pineapple juice. Shake on ice and serve straight up as a shot. Sink a splash of Grenadine.



Jimmy Nation
HOGAN'S RUN
8 Lincoln St., Brighton (617-254-9407). Sat. nights

One of the city's most colorful characters, he merly worked at the Linwood Grill, where he ho Jimmy Nation Nite, with kids from Berklee perfo ing funk and R&B. A bass player for The Mr. B Show who also promotes the band's shows, he presides over the tomfoolery at this Allston hol the wall. His regulars are a motley crew that incl the staff at WBCN, Newbury Comics and New ance, punk rockers, "BC brats" and the BLOW Chicks, a female wrestling group who come in e Saturday night. They all love Nation for his "s radic and radical" personality, and just about a thing—from slam-dancing to human pyramic goes. Outrageously funny and fascinatingly quirk meet him once is to love him, and to be a regula his bar is to be part of a fraternity of funky free-sp who know how to have a good time.

SIGNATURE DRINK
The Funky Monkey
Equal parts Stoli Razberi, Jägermeister and Red B Shake on ice and serve on the rocks.

Bar EXCELSIOR

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Eric Brennan, Executive Chef

The Heritage on the Garden 272 Boylston Street

617.426.7878

www.excelsiorrestaurant.com

GRILL 23 & Bar

all natural prime beef
weekly chef's menu
five private dining rooms
online butchery

161 Berkeley Street
617.542.2255
www.grill23.com

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Best SteakHouse

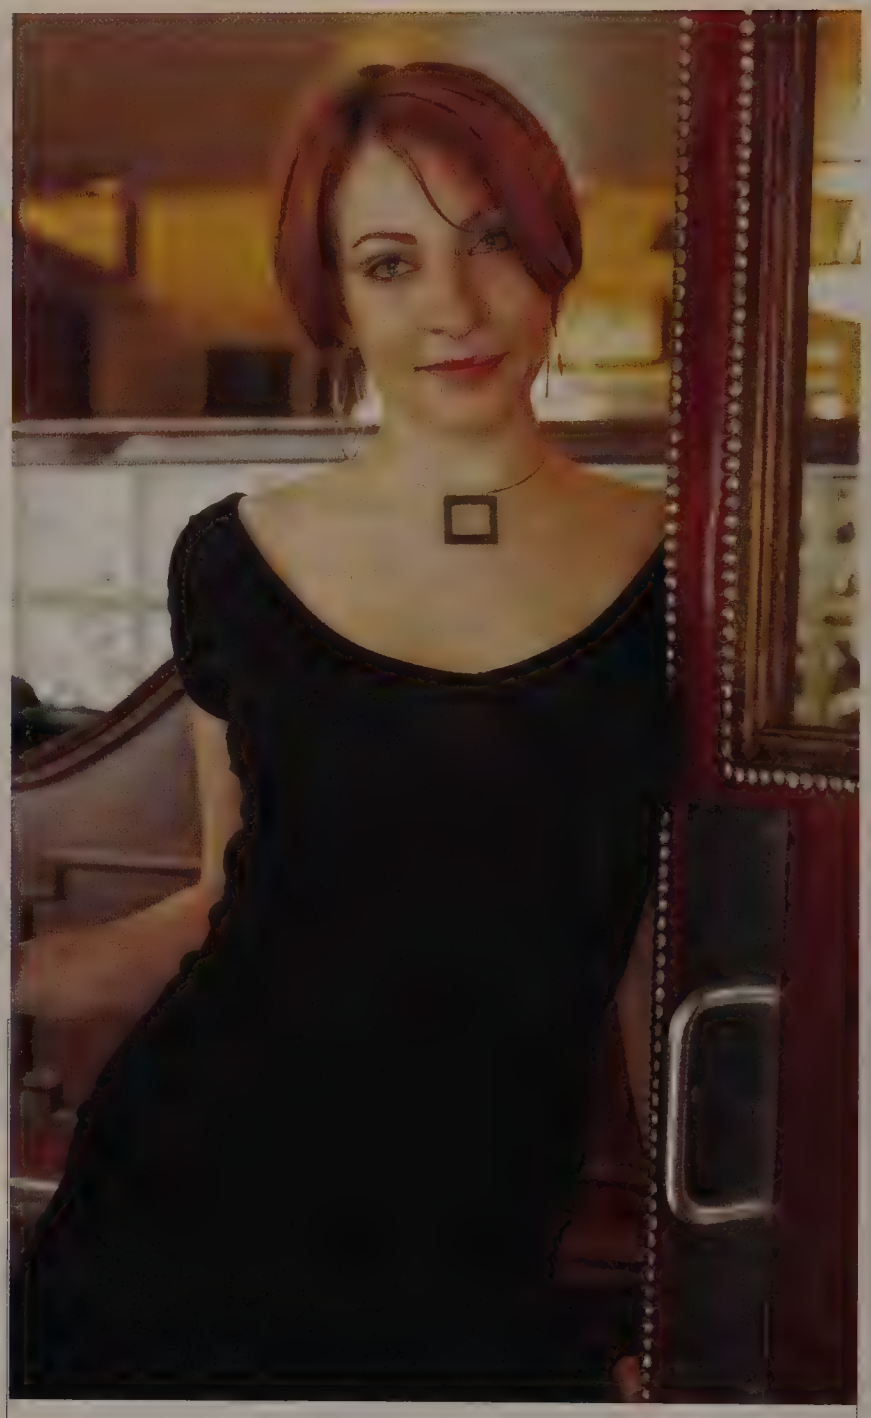
Grill 23, now more than 20 years old, is king." –Alison Arnett, The Boston Globe

Michael Downey Jr.
SIBLING RIVALRY
525 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-5338).
Tue.–Sat. nights

A Salem native who plans to own his own bar someday, he's been tending to matters at one of the South End's grooviest dining destinations since it opened. The secret to his popularity is that he tailors his service to each customer. With the suits he can talk stocks, with the solitary drinkers he can crack jokes, and his regulars he greets by name and has their drink ready before they even sit down. By your third visit, he'll have yours memorized, too. The place itself is a lush setup without the stuffiness, and this extremely extroverted and gregarious but old-school guy's the perfect complement to the sleek but welcoming atmosphere. He earns bonus points for his dedication to seasonal ingredients; patrons disappointed that his popular Watermelon Martinis are only available in the summer will be pleased to know that he's currently shaking up a delicious Blood Orange Martini. Bartenders suffering from the delusion that being snooty is cool need only spend a few minutes at his bar to see that high-toned doesn't necessarily mean having your nose in the air.

SIGNATURE DRINK
Tangerine Martini

Two parts Grey Goose Vodka and freshly squeezed tangerine juice, one part Orange Curaçao. Shake on ice and serve straight up in a martini glass with a sugared rim. Garnish with a lime wheel.



Meghan MacDonald
SCOLLAY SQUARE
21 Beacon St., Boston (617-742-4900).
Tue.–Fri. days, Sat. night

This lovely New Hampshire native may look like a greenhorn, but she's been behind the bar since day one at this laid-back, attitude-free hangout, which is named for and pays homage (through photos on the wall and retro décor) to the old burlesque district of Boston that was razed to make room for City Hall Plaza. She began bartending to put herself through school (she's studying entertainment management), but her natural aptitude rapidly made her a favorite among regulars, whose names she knows, along with personal details like what they do for a living and what they want to drink and eat. In fact, many of them don't bother to order. Because it's small, her bar is always packed, and because she works mostly at lunchtime, it tends to be a relaxed, low-key crowd taking a short break from a busy day. Affable, approachable and accommodating, she's knowledgeable about the wine list and has a deft hand at mixing classic cocktails, but she's not afraid to get creative, last year taking second place in a competition sponsored by Macallan Scotch.

SIGNATURE DRINK
Pecan Praline Martini

2 oz. Macallan Amber Scotch Liqueur, 1 oz. Frangelico, 1 oz. butterscotch schnapps, ½ oz. cream. Shake over ice and pour into a martini glass rimmed with chocolate and crushed pecans.

Pete Sykes
MCCORMICK & SCHMI
PARK PLAZA
34 Columbus Ave., Boston
(617-482-3999).
Tue., Thu.–Sat. nights

Known as "the short guy with spiky hair" to those who can member his name, it's impos to forget his shenanigans afte one visit to his bar. Recently from San Diego, where he lot more flair, he has to things a bit more sedate at upscale seafood restaurant, w the ceilings are too low for to around bottles. Instead, he k his customers entertained his quick wit and manic an like ringing the bell behind bar to announce a big tip or ply to get everyone's attent "Just because I'm wearing a ja and bow tie doesn't mean I h to be stuffy," he says, but fo his rambunctiousness, he's epitome of professionalism takes tremendous pride in drinks he mixes. He's also ex lent at reading people quickly determining how much he get away with. With most them, it's a lot. IB

SIGNATURE DRINK
Key Lime Pie Martini

1½ oz. Stoli Vanil, ½ oz. triple 1 oz. fresh-squeezed lime ju 2 oz. pineapple juice. Shake vig ously and strain into a martini g rimmed with graham crac crumbs.

French Table Wine, ©2006 Red Bicyclette USA, Healdsburg, CA. All rights reserved.

Red Bicyclette®

Red Bicyclette Syrah from the South of France. Inviting aromas of blackberry give way to hints of red fruit and spice. Open a bottle and see where it takes you. Wanna Ride?

White/black lattice plaid strapless dress by Chaiken, $440 at Bella's Closet. 18k white-gold pavé diamond earrings with white-gold citrine hanging drop, $3,190; 18k white-gold cable chain necklace with large pear-shaped citrine and pavé diamond edges, $2,775; 18k white-gold bangle with pavé diamonds, $5,950. All jewelry at Pageo.

THE ART OF

Exquisite cuts and basic colors spell pure class.

ELEGANCE

Silk dress by Jill Stuart, $825 at Gretta Luxe. 18k white-gold and diamond tapered-cluster chandelier earrings, $9,500; 18k white-gold wide ring with prong-set diamonds, $7,900. All jewelry at Pageo.

PRODUCED BY SAMANTHA HOUSE
PHOTOGRAPHS BY BRIAN SILVERSTEIN

Max Azria Collection dress by Max Azria, $602 at BCBG Max Azria Boutique. 18k white-gold, curved diamond triple-line earrings, $5,125; 18k white-gold and diamond fan pin, $5,500; three-stone, emerald-cut diamond ring, call for price. All jewelry at Pageo.

Pleated, retro knit skirt, $295; knit jacket with white piping, $350. Both at Escada. 18k white-gold graduated diamond circle necklace, $23,500; 18k white-gold circle diamond earrings, pavé diamond bar with six pavé circles, $5,500; white-gold, pavé diamond graduated butterfly pin, $8,900; 18k white-gold and diamond stick-cuff bracelet, $8,900; three-stone emerald-cut diamond ring, call for price. All jewelry at Pageo.

Cream peplum jacket, $435 at Nanette Lepore. Diamond earrings, call for price; 18k white-gold necklace with brown and white diamonds, $39,000; 18k white-gold and wide-pavé diamond open square larger-and-smaller-link bracelet, $15,185. All jewelry at Pageo.

Jeffre
for Kerastase

Ma
Clark Vi
for Crystal

M
Anna for Fusion Manage

Photographer's Assi
Bailey

BCBG Max Azria Bou
71 Newbu
617-536-
888-636-B

Bella's C
81 Unio
Newton Ce
617-558-

Es
308 Boylsto
617-437-

Gretta
Copley P
617-536-

Nanette Lep
119 Newbury
617-421-

Pa 843 Beacon
New 617-964-

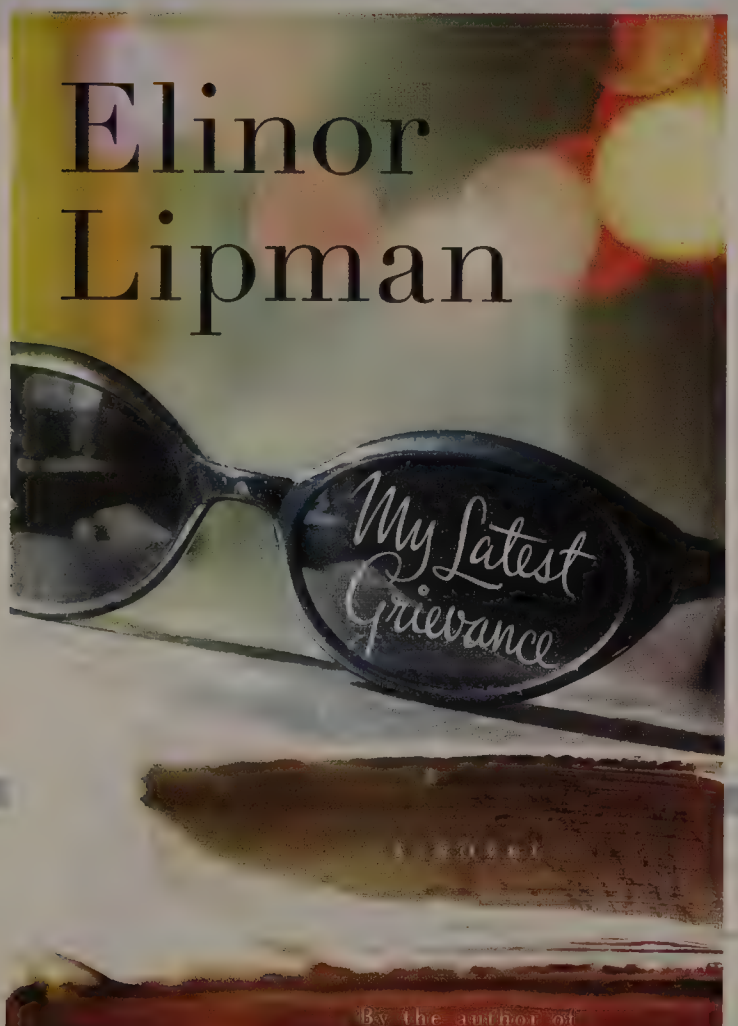
umi the new standard in hairdressing.

umi salon | classic and creative hair cutting and color design.
75 newbury street boston | 617 247 0770 | www.umisite.com

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY



THE SCREWBALL AND THE SQUARES

Northampton scribe Elinor Lipman's eighth novel is My Latest Grievance.

The parents are wonderfully earnest politically correct teachers and houseparents at a college in Brookline. Their only child, Frederica, while she's the good achiever her parents ploddingly nurtured, supplies the missing ingredient of mischievous irony and wit. To her surprise, Frederica discovers that Dad was married before to a colorful character named Laura Lee, who appears on the school scene as a new houseparent herself. At first, she seems to have one arm outstretched touching Frederica's—she, too, is irreverent and outspoken. An item on her résumé claims that she's a wanna-be Rockette. With Dad as their "one degree of separation" they're relatives of a sort, and given their respective comedic ways, they develop a peer-like bond. But it has an amusing twist: The parental hardwiring of Frederica's sensible side has her offering rather punitive, "cut the crap" guidance to the wayward Laura Lee, who, behaving more like a crazy teenager than Frederica, begins an affair with the married president. Lipman braids these disparate characters together, managing, as ever, to do it both wittily and compassionately.

THE BEAUTIFUL AND THE DAMN, THAT'S BRILLIANT!

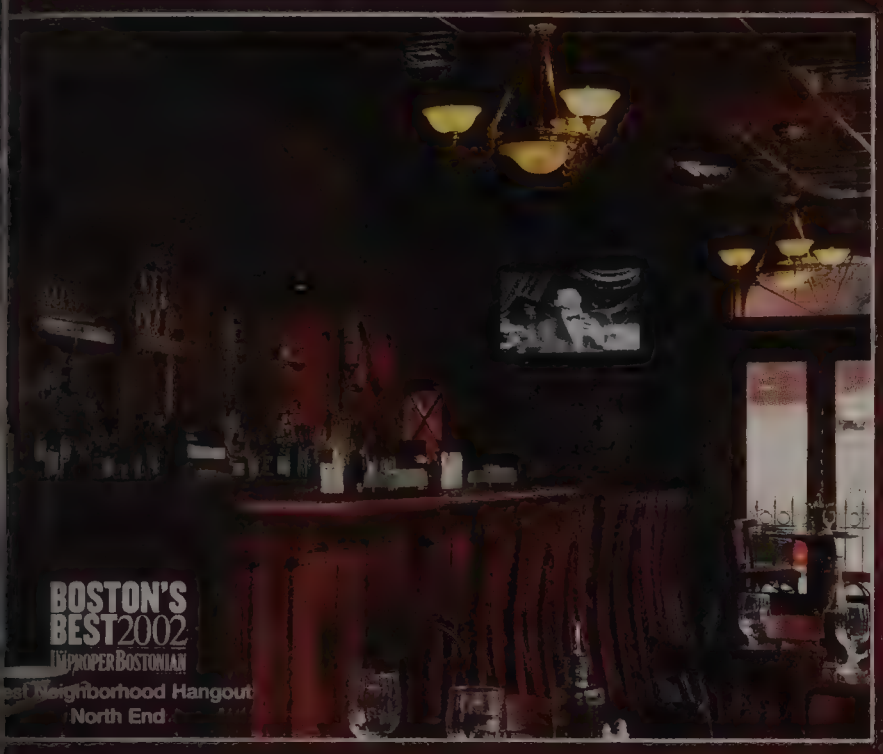
Joie De Vivre at 1792 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-8188 or info@joiedevivre.net) has the most ingenious toys and gifts around.

A whole world exists here of items clever, beautiful and original, and some so wacky you want to meet the inspired madman who invented them. Many of them are on the edge of art, decorative or useful, including such objects as an ingeniously twirling fork mobile, a globe that twirls, weightless, in some magnetized Neverland. Joie has all sorts of deadpan, jokey things like The Wheel of Responsibility for household chores as well as droll books (The Joys of Engrish) and cards, both beautiful and comic. And the most ingenious toy, timely for three more years (and thereafter an incredible collector's item) is the Bush Countdown, which ticks off, so to speak, his remaining time in office. Owner Linda Given continually juxtaposes the artsy—solid alabaster kaleidoscopes, pretty even before you look through them, plastic, motion-activated h that sing and solar flowers that wave in the light—with the kitschiness of Jane Austen Action ures and seasonally funky calendars. The store's devotees know to come here for sui generis gifts elicit shouts of surprised joy.

REALITY DINING

Table for Eight (866-822-5348 or www.tableforeight.com) is a social introduction service. Five parties cost $225.

Table for Eight replicates way people used to meet bringing people physically gether to dine. Indeed, m members of this 20-year service are disillusioned line daters who are tired of cat-and-clicking-mouse ga of such contacts and their quent deceptions. Table Eight people span in age fr late-20s to late-40s, with smattering of baby boom Typical members have b busy cultivating their pro sional lives with an inco averaging $73,000, perhaps uratively married to their reer but now considering corporeal variation: 85 perc haven't been married yet and are childless. The actual table—located at a restaurant like Sibling valry, Cucci Cucci or Le Mistral—must be round, no harsh, excluding edges. This serendipity strangers brought together has been compared to the gemütlich flavor of wedding reception dinn You can dine with such scintillating types as physicians, lawyers, psychologists, and teachers and sci tists from local prestigious universities. An initial phone interview involving 60 questions screens me bers and identifies interests, views and preferences. Although friendship and networking are benefit dining with new people, Table for Eight also boasts at least 60 engagements, that they know of, t have resulted from their restaurant get-togethers in the last five years.



Italian Old World Charm...
the way it should be.

FLORENTINE CAFE
BAR · BISTRO

333 Hanover St., North End
617-227-1777
www.florentinecafeboston.com

The first open-air street cafe in the North End.

Stanza dei Sigari

A Classic Cigar Parlor

292 Hanover St., North End
617.227.0295
www.stanzadeisigari.com
Hookahs available

The only speakeasy cigar parlor with
a full liquor bar in the city.

Caffé Vittoria

290-296 Hanover St., North End
617.227.7606
www.vittoriacaffe.com

The original Italian caffé since 1929
serving capuccino, pastries, gelati
and a full liquor bar.

REVIEW

NOT JUST A PRETTY FACE

28 Degrees offers fare worthy of its polished atmosphere.

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY ANTHONY TIEULI

The 1985 movie A Chorus Line begins with a throng of dancers auditioning for a few spots in a Broadway production. One of the aspirants sings of catching a glimpse of the casting director's scorecard, on which he's rated her 10 for her dance skills and 3 for her looks. "Dance 10, Looks 3" becomes her lament at her continued unemployment. I was reminded of this ditty the first time I visited 28 Degrees in the South End on Appleton Street, just off Tremont. Its trendy ambiance—dark brown leather banquettes, black ceiling with mini-spot track lighting illuminating splashes of silver and white, music videos projected onto gauze draperies and screens, 20-seat bar, and adjoining lounge with soft, upholstered seating cubes at low tables—proclaimed "scene," and suggested that the food might be an afterthought.

Indeed, a mediocre pizza (with a scanty topping of caramelized onions and whisper of asiago cheese and pesto on an indifferent crust) and an order of grilled bread (toasted slices of baguette with one thimbleful of overly tart tapenade and a second thimbleful of ultrabland bean purée, both refrigerator-cold) led me to score the place "Looks 10, Food 3." Shortly after that visit, I read a review that delivered the same verdict, headlined "28 Degrees: A Feast for Just the Eyes."

First impressions, however, are not always reliable, and I thought that the obvious effort and earnest showmanship that went into launching this flamboyantly chic hideaway deserved a fairer assessment. Induced by its nightly special, offered from 5–7 pm, of oysters on the half shell for a dollar apiece, I returned on other evenings to explore the menu more fully. Two enjoyable meals rewarded my perseverance.

The pristine freshness and hauntingly delicious flavor of the Duxbury Island Creek bivalves would've delighted in any event, so their bargain price only accentuated the pleasure. Served on the half shell on a bed of crushed ice, the oysters were accompanied by three delectable sauces—a tangy mignonette with finely chopped shallots and rice wine with cilantro; a more provocative combination of minced shallots, cilantro and jalapeño, enlivened with lime juice; and a mild tomato cocktail sauce nicely balanced between tart and sweet and containing just a hint of horseradish. While I liked all three of these well-constructed sauces, I thought them somewhat beside the point, since they really couldn't improve on the exquisite flavor of the oysters bathed in nothing but the pleasantly briny liqueur of their shells.

Pork Tenderloin

28 DEGREES

1 Appleton St., Boston
617-728-0728

HOURS Sun.-Wed., 5-11 pm; Thu.-Sat., 5 pm-12 am; bar opens daily at 5 pm

RESERVATIONS yes

CREDIT CARDS all major

HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes

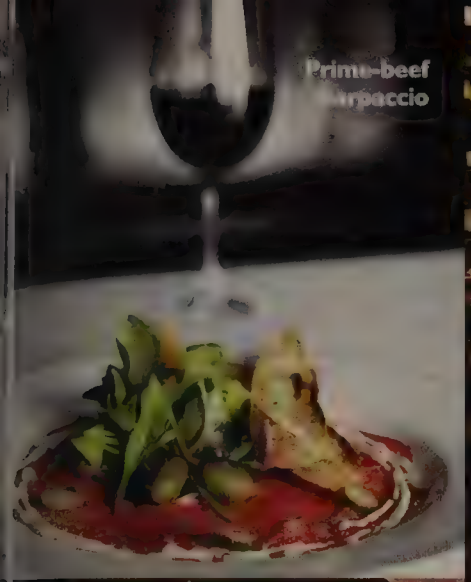
PARKING valet

LIQUOR LICENSE full bar

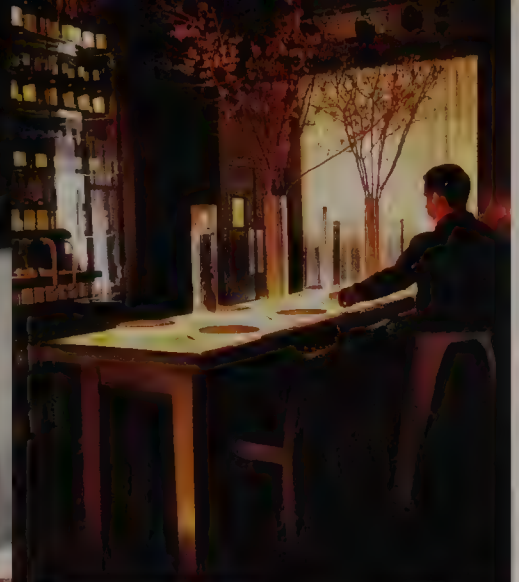
Brought to a positive frame of mind by my oyster fix, I returned to the abbreviated pizza section of the menu, choosing a simple tomato, mozzarella and basil pie ($10). The crust seemed much improved this time, baked in a brick oven sufficiently hot to give it a pleasant, crisp texture and lathered with good olive oil, whose inviting flavor enhanced the tart-sweet tomato sauce, creamy mozzarella and lively strips of fresh basil. About a dozen, shelled mussels ($11), tiny but sweet, arrived in a hot, spicy broth of their own liquid mixed with coconut milk, leeks, chopped red pepper, parsley, scallions, lemon, and an infusion of Asian spices. A large block of coarse bread lay at the bottom of the mussel bowl, but I thought its pronounced sourdough flavor clashed with the finely crafted broth, which I elected to consume with a spoon. Fo ing the spicy mussels, the soothing flav macaroni and cheese helped cool my buds. This quintessential comfort foo for a generous portion) boasted good ture, its small elbow pasta soft but mushy, and profited from a good Gru cheese sauce studded with finely cho parsley, which 28 Degrees uses liberal add savor to many of its preparations.

Encouraged by my second meal, turned to 28 Degrees for a third vis wander more adventurously among restaurant's offerings, this time with wife. Our waitress described a sp preparation that evening, prime- carpaccio ($12), which she said w likely become a regular menu offe These paper-thin slices of raw, lean, ciously flavorful beef, moistened with virgin olive oil and truffled aioli, seas with sea salt, and accompanied by c toasted slices of slightly garlicked Fre bread and a salad of fresh arugula, pr to be nothing short of superb. The and olive oil enhanced rather than scured the hearty, rich flavor of the Vegetable tempura ($9), a small co copia of fresh cauliflower and broccoli rets, slices of fennel, slender green be peppers and carrots, all lightly battered flash fried to a perfect texture, came i inverted paper cone mounted on a st less-steel spiral holder. What made tempura so good was the lightning ciency of our waitress in bringing it and fresh, moments after it emerged f the fryer. The vegetables were so good we used the accompanying ginger ponzu mustard sauce sparingly, letting natural flavors speak for themselves.

Less delicate but equally satisfying order of two mini-burgers ($12) brou small but substantial patties of beef, fectly grilled to create a resilient crus the outside while the interior remai moist and rare, topped with cheese sliced pickles and accompanied by fi crafted homemade ketchup and a first- mustard sauce. Again, however, the b ers were so good in their own right they made the condiments almost super ous. We especially liked the small, pered brioche burger buns, supplied to restaurant by Iggy's.



Prime-beef carpaccio



Executive chef Nick Ferrafranca and chef consultant Jeremy Sewall

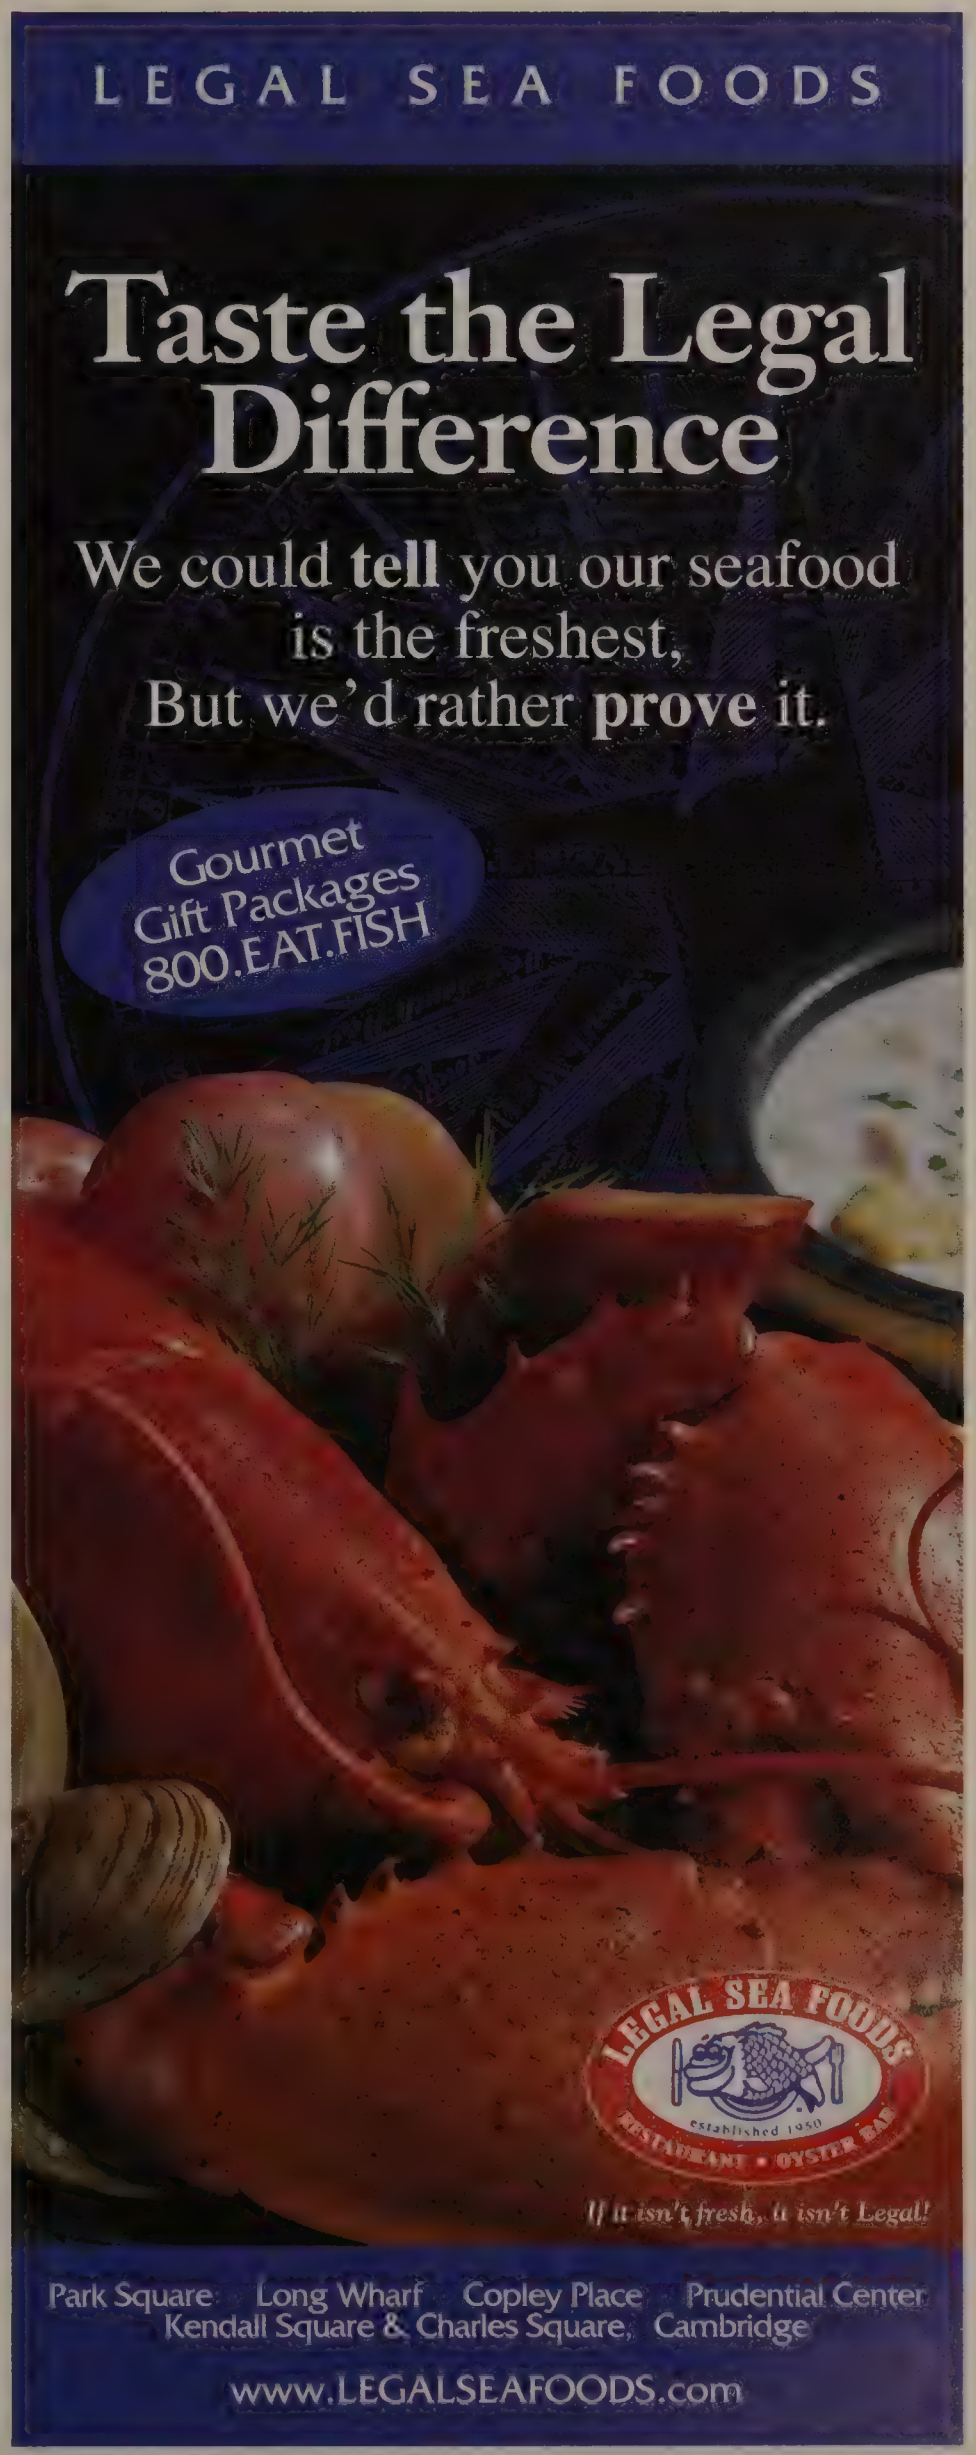
Oysters and shrimp

All of the dishes described above fell into the "small plate" concept, a fashionable approach to dining that many area restaurants have embraced, though none more thoroughly and enthusiastically than 28 Degrees. In one of its few departures from that format, it offered mustard-crusted pork tenderloin ($21) as a main course. The presentation was strikingly eye-catching, with four hefty slices of pork—each almost three-quarters of an inch thick—arrayed on a long rectangular platter atop a bed of mellow, smoky-sweet cabbage and puréed parsnip, spiked by subtly horseradish. Rare, juicy and unbelievably tender, the pork virtually melted in your mouths. The toothsome ensemble of this meat and its vegetable garnishes demonstrated that whoever was in the kitchen that night—presumably trained and oriented by Jeremy Sewall, the former Great Bay chef who helped to open 28 Degrees—can turn out serious food far beyond perfunctory accompaniments to entrées.

While the dessert selections were limited, I enjoyed the apple crumble ($7), its buttery pastry coexisting with sweet-tart apples in a confection that arrived warm from the oven and topped by a large scoop of rich vanilla ice cream. 28 Degrees' wine list tends to the pricey (more than half of the bottles are over $40, and only three dip below $30). Still, a very credible Torre Quattro "Guapo" rosé from Puglia ($24), from the heel of the Italian boot, served as a pleasant aperitif, reasonably dry with enough acid to do justice to the accompanying food, and with a slight but distinctive effervescence that tickled the tongue. A more serious wine, the full-bodied Neapolitan red Feudi di San Gregorio ($32), had an almost Port-like bouquet, full, forward fruit, sturdy structure and a pleasant finish.

Service at 28 Degrees ranged from adequate one evening to inexperienced and excessively casual on another (dirty plates and silver were left on the table until called to the server's attention), to informed, attentive and conscientious on a third. Amid this inconsistency, one constant was the ever-vigilant server who refilled water glasses promptly and without fail whenever they were down a few ounces.

One annoyance that diminished the enjoyment of dining at 28 Degrees was its failure to provide a basket of bread for the table. Whether a calculated gesture to a carb-averse, ultrasvelte constituency, or an ill-conceived cost-cutting measure, this omission created a negative impression off the bat, particularly for diners who regard a well-constituted selection of breads as an entitlement that will assuage their appetites while perusing the menu. Since the restaurant already counts premier Boston baker Iggy's among its suppliers, this shortcoming is easily remedied. Though the good book says that man does not live by bread alone, it's a good start. IB



93 YEARS
FAMILY OWNED & OPERATED

SERVING BOSTON'S FINEST RESTAURANTS

LARGEST SHOWROOM IN THE NORTHEAST

COME BROWSE OUR HUGE SELECTION

- Smallwares
- Tabletop
- Furniture
- Custom Fabrication
- Kitchen Fabrication
- Multi-unit Pricing

BOSTON SHOWCASE COMPANY

Specialists in food service equipment since 1913

66 Winchester St., Newton, MA
www.bostonshowcase.com
1-800-422-5290 • 1-617-965-1100

Come in for a free design consultation
Lease and finance options available

TASTINGS

BY RICH LEVINE

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Tastings, or e-mail information to tastings@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Events

Boston Wine Festival
Boston Harbor Hotel, 70 Rowes Wharf, Boston (617-330-9355). www.bostonwinefestival.net. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. The 17th annual Boston Wine Festival concludes its four-month run at the Boston Harbor Hotel with three events. •April 5, 6:30 pm. $305: Wine of Burgundy with Clive Coates. •April 6, 6:30 pm. $210: Wines of Bordeaux with Clive Coates. •April 7, 7 pm. $100: Closing party ceremony.

Epicurean Evenings
Aujourd'hui at Four Seasons, 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2037). www.fourseasons.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue., 6 pm. $45. Sommelier Ted Davidson and chef Jerome Legras host this weekly event that offers guests three light courses built around a theme, region or grape variety.

Feast for the Senses
Fairmont Copley Plaza, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-267-4430). www.fairmont.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. April 13, 5:30 pm. $104-$122. After a three-course dinner paired with wine and prepared by Fairmont executive chef Laurent Poulain, guests are transported to Symphony Hall for a program conducted by Rafael Frühbeck.

Fireside Chats
The Fireplace, 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). www.fireplacerest.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Washington. Sat., 3 pm. $25. Chef/owner Jim Solomon hosts gastronomic experts who discuss subjects that range from wines to foods to microbrews. •April 8: Gin Tasting. •April 15: Ice Wine.

Hot off the Vine at 33
33 Restaurant, 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311). www.33restaurant.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 5-7 pm. $20-$25. Join chef Anthony Dawodu and wine director Jacob Knight on Wednesdays for a sampling of four wines paired with complementary food tastings.

Rising Star Revue
The Seaport Hotel, 1 Seaport Lane, Boston (617-385-4000). www.starchefs.com/risingstars. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. April 5, 6:30 pm. $95; $135 for VIP reception. Starchefs.com hosts this walk-around tasting event featuring signature dishes by local chefs, including Gabriel Frasca, Tony Maws and Andy Husbands, paired with premium wines selected by the Rising Star sommelier. A VIP champagne-and-caviar reception precedes the event.

Sam Adams Beer Dinner
Ned Devines, 1 Quincy Market, Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-746-1223). www.neddevinesboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center. April 5, 6:30 pm. $40. Samuel Adams Brewers hosts a multicourse beer dinner featuring dishes like butternut squash soup, grilled lamb chops and Kobe beef burgers, paired with various Sam Adams brews.

A Spoonful of Ginger
The State Room, 60 State St., Boston (617-732-2412). MBTA: Orange Line to State. April 5, 6 pm. $150. Sample fare prepared by accl chefs including Ming Tsai, Ken Ori Jasper White and Joanne Chang at th nual event benefiting the Joslin Diabetes ter's Asian American Diabetes Initiative.

Table for Ten
Various restaurants around Boston (781 9936). www.nfincne.org. April 11, 6:30 p bles for 10 start at $1,000. Enjoy a multi dinner at one of more than 20 local r rants—including 75 Chestnut, Abe & L Davio's and Flemings—followed by a dess ception at the State Room, featuring live tainment, a raffle and an auction bene Neurofibromatosis, Inc.

Tuesday Night Wine Tasting
Les Zygomates, 129 South St., Boston (617 5108). www.winebar.com. MBTA: Red L South Station. 6 and 8 pm. $40. Somr Geoffrey Fallon discusses various wines chef Ian Just pairs the wines with d'oeuvres and offers brief cooking demo tions. •April 11: Napa Cabs. •April 18: Tuscans.

Wine and Dine Mondays
Beacon Hill Bistro, 25 Charles St., Boston 723-1133). www.beaconhillhotel.com. M Red Line to Charles/MGH. Second and Mon. of each month. $55. Chef Ben Knack pares a four-course meal paired with va wines from around the world. A brief di sion of each wine follows, led by local ex Cecilia Rait and Marilyn Snee. •Apri Australia.

Wine Mondays at L'Espalier
L'Espalier, 30 Gloucester St., Boston (617- 3023). www.lespalier.com. MBTA: Green L Hynes/ICA. 7 pm. $50. Sommelier Erik J son presents wines to complement a course French–New England meal by Frank McClelland. •April 10: Borde •April 17: Loire Valley.

Wine Wednesdays at Sel de la Te
Sel de la Terre, 255 State St., Boston (617- 1300). www.seldelaterre.com. MBTA: O Line to State. Wed., 7 pm. $41. Chef G Gardner pairs French cuisine with wine lected by sommelier Erik Johnson. •Ap April in Paris. •April 12: Alsace.

Chef Rick Billings, of Clio, participates i the Rising Star Revue, April 5.

ISH

We've Got Your Goat Right Here

Follow that Craigie Street cabri...

CAROLYN FAYE FOX

Attention, nonvegetarians: Let's play word-association. Beef: mad cow disease. Chicken: bird flu. m-raised and wild-caught seafood: envi- mental damage and depleted ocean cks. Wait... there's that other white at. Pork is popular, but it's ho-hum hog. w about lamb? How about... cabri? And at exactly is cabri, as in "crispy confit of rmont organic cabri with spiced sweet- ato and black-bean tamarind sauce"?

Cabri—not a word you'll find in your tionary—is the new goat.

"It just sounds more elegant than goat," s Tony Maws, chef/owner of Craigie reet Bistrot in Cambridge. "I'm not ing to hide anything." In fact, he'll en feature it on his adventurous menu, ngside what he describes as "a beautiful st chicken" for more conservative ates.

Despite goat's low-fat content, ease of estibility and stronger-than-lamb flavor, hasn't caught on with large-scale meat ners and is only available from small re- nal purveyors.

"We sell the bejeezus out of it," says ws, and here's the kicker: not one cus- ner has ever sent it ba-a-a-a-a-ck.

ggo My Momo: Andy Husbands is fu- us. For 10 years, the chef/owner of mont 647 has taken great pride in his mos—authentic Tibetan dumplings— pared by master momo-maker Tsering nshi. He even included a momo recipe his cookbook, The Fearless Chef.

"I consider them my signature dish," says.

So Husbands was taken aback to learn t OM in Harvard Square was introduc- signature momos on its lounge menu, d outraged to learn that OM sous chef ny Cascino, who once worked for Hus- nds, had phoned Donshi directly to lure n to the OM kitchen, in a breach of un- tten restaurant hiring ethics.

"They decided to poach my guy," says sbands indignantly. "It's not cool. You n't call someone's employee."

Husbands is also brooding over the soy- e dipping sauce at OM—"that's my ping sauce!"—and hints that he'd like nshi to return to the other side of the er. "I want him to be happy," he says. "I nk they're [OM] ready to maybe find nebody else" to make momos.

Tony Maws, chef/owner of Craigie Street Bistrot, offers an interesting new dish.

Meanwhile, back at OM, spokesperson Diane Mantouvalos dismisses the fuss as a tempest in a Tibetan teapot.

"The momo guy freelances," she says. "The owners are in love with the momo thing; they wanted to do momos."

Although Mantouvalos insists "nothing malicious was going on" regarding the hiring, "in terms of the approach, everyone is thinking twice." Currently, OM's owners are "talking to other momo-makers," she says, but ultimately, this dustup over a dumpling has a foregone conclusion: "In the end, the momo wins."

Et cetera: At Spire, the search for a new chef to replace Nantucket-bound Gabriel Frasca continues. Frasca is set to leave Nine Zero at the beginning of April to run The Straight Wharf with long-time girlfriend and chef Amanda Lydon. Mark Allen, chef/owner of Le Soir in Newton Highlands, is revving up his search for a large (80-plus seats) space in Boston to open a bigger restaurant... Gargoyle's on the Square in Somerville has introduced a $60 tasting menu... Pee in a pod: you have to see it to believe it, but the restroom facilities at the newly opened Diva Lounge in Somerville are the concrete realization of the architect's stated intent of "recognizing the ever-present bathroom line as a significant social space." IB

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send it to dish@improper.com

Boston's Best Margarita – Improper Bostonian
1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005
Best Bar Scene – Citysearch 2004, 2005
Best Margarita – Citysearch 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004

Cactus Club
939 Boylston St. Boston 617.236.0200 www.bestmargaritas.com

IGUANA CANTINA
313 Moody St., Waltham 781.891.3039
Best Mexican – Citysearch 2002

WINE

The Loire of Chinon

BY SANDY BLOCK, M.W.

Cabernet sauvignon's so popular it's got a nickname. If you're in a restaurant and someone orders a "cab," do you have any doubt what they're talking about? Cabernet franc, on the other hand, is so obscure and planted so sparsely it's not even part of the repertoire of most wine drinkers. Mention it and more likely than not you'll draw blank stares. But this grape, believe it or not, is actually the venerable parent of cabernet sauvignon. It's also the essential invisible ingredient in many wines that are labeled with the names of other varieties. And in the region of Touraine, in the Loire Valley, it makes a unique, sometimes wondrous red wine full of fruit and aromatic intrigue in the communes of Bourgeuil and Chinon.

The problem is that the Loire Valley's cabernet franc is just the kind of red wine Americans have traditionally passed over. Or tasted and treated with deliberate disdain. It's generally low in tannin, high in mothering acidity, edgy, savory and decidedly light- to medium-bodied. In other words, not a heavyweight puncher but just the kind of palate profile in sync with much of today's dining trends. And it's adaptable to fish, vegetarian dishes and poultry as well as red meat.

The Loire is generally white wine country and it's not intuitive that this part of northern France would produce quality red wine to begin with. Of course, one of the interesting things about vineyard regions on the margin of being able to ripen grapes is that each vintage has a discrete character. In the past, it was only the atypically hot vintages that produced successful red wine harvests in the Loire, but today the better producers are able to make outstanding wine almost every year.

There are two major styles of cabernet franc in the Loire: lightweight, fruity and delicate, or oak-aged and richer. The grape is known as Breton locally, and when it's concentrated enough and matured in wood it can age beautifully. Ten-year-old Loire cabernet franc takes lush, tobacco-edged, raspberry fruit tones, with earthy nuances that would suit it to any game or red-meat dish. But the lighter wines are of particular interest because they're unique; nowhere else in the world can this style be produced.

Chinon is the largest of the Loire region's red wine appellations, and wines from this village show the most variety. Vineyards range along the banks of the Vienne, a tributary of the Loire, where they tend to ripen a particularly succulent, fleshy cabernet franc. Although there are cases where the reverse is true, when compared with Chinon most Bourgeuil is a bit more rustic and sharp in style.

The cabernet franc grape is prized for aromas, which tend to be a bit weedy and herbal. It's often used as a blending partn because it can energize the brighter, mor uniformly fruity flavors of merlot and cabernet sauvignon. Yet here in Chinon the fruit is often fully developed and th characteristic "green," acidic characters of the grape tend to comprise grace notes rather than th dominant theme.

Still Chinon is not a wine to be purchased at random. Although some of the estates make top-quali wine, year after year (Raffault, Jogu and Olek are among the stars), there's also a fair amount of indifferent, thin and somewhat pungently acidic wine being made in th appellation. (One key fact about Chinon is tha tonnage-per-acre plays a major role in the concentration level of the flavors. Excessive crop loads can yield thin, unimpressive wines. A tasting of moderately priced examples recently turned up a gem from one of the district's other top estates, Bernard Baudry. The 2004 Chinon "Les Gravieres" from this producer ($16) is a deep-colored, wonderfull aromatic wine, with scents of toasted herb, forest vegetation, pine, mushroom and red berry. Ripe and red cherry–like with moderately strong tannins, there's a brightnes to this wine that's very inviting. The vines at this point are approaching 20 years, and there's a degree of concentration you may associate with older vines.

The Baudry would go well with roast herb-rubbed chicken or turkey, as well as medium-fleshy white fish or grilled wild salmon. With warm weather rumored to be approaching, it's also the type of red that would do well served bit on the cool side. I've had it with meat or fish salads and found the synergies to be delightful, particularly if there are some ripe tomatoes in the mix as their flavors seem to echo those of the wine. Although the wine is attractive and flavorful now, it'll continue to age and develop for at least another five years. So basically it seems to have everything: engaging aromas, immediate bright fruit appeal, cool refreshing flavors and the ability to improve with age. Plus a moderate cost. What's wrong with this picture? Nothing. So while I'm not predicting that Chinon will become a hot commodity anytime soon, stranger things have happened. I a way, I'm kind of hoping wines like the Baudry remain obscure. That way I can continue to buy them at giveaway prices.

Master of Wine Sandy Block is vice president of beverage operations for Legal Sea Foods.

TEATRO
177 Tremont Street
Boston, MA 02111
Serving dinner
Monday - Thursday, 5pm - 10:30pm
Friday and Saturday, 5pm - 11:30pm
And Sunday 4pm - 10:30pm
Reservations accepted
Telephone 617.778.6841
Valet now available
Perfect pre-club dining

Ask the Bartender to Set You Up with Someone Smooth

New Heineken Premium Light

Heineken
PREMIUM
LIGHT

heinekenlight.com

Enjoy Heineken Light Responsibly.

©2006 Heineken USA Inc, White Plains, NY. Heineken Premium Light is a trademark of H

agenda

IMPROPER PICKS

April 5 - 18

HOT TIPS FROM
CALENDAR GURUS
LESLIE AND RICH

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			5 Ned Devine's in Faneuil Hall hosts a Sam Adams Beer Dinner. See Tastings on page 56.	6	7 Head to the Improv Asylum for Dirty Water, an improv show about five boozing Sox fans. See Comedy on page 66.	8
9 The John Butler Trio comes to town for a show at Avalon. See Music on page 77.	10	11	12 Check out a screening of The Rocky Horror Picture Show at the Harvard Film Archive. See Movies on page 72.	13 The Fairmont Copley's Feast for the Senses features dinner followed by a trip to Symphony Hall for live music. See Tastings on page 56.	14 Coxen and Johnson Industries hosts a benefit comedy show for the Brattle Theatre. See CityScope on page 63.	15 It's your last chance to check out Spamalot at the Colonial Theatre. See Performing Arts on page 65.
16	17 Get your running or (more likely) drinking shoes ready. It's time for the Boston Marathon.	18 Buckcherry rocks Cambridge during a show at the Middle East. See Music on page 81.

Chefs Ming Tsai and Ken Oringer

WED./APRIL 5

Tastings: Jumping for Ginger

A spoonful of sugar helps the medicine go down, but what about a spoonful of ginger? On April 5 we'll find out as the second annual A Spoonful of Ginger event gets underway at the State Room. The culinary extravaganza features fare from a slew of local chefs, led by Ming Tsai of Blue Ginger and Ken Oringer of Clio, as well as Jasper White (Jasper White's Summer Shack), Joanne Chang (Flour), Sau Cai (Pho Pasteur) and others, but the night's not only about the food. Also on the menu are live entertainment from Boston Chinese Chamber Music and a silent auction. All proceeds from the event benefit the Joslin Diabetes Center's Asian American Diabetes Initiative. (Asian Americans are among the ethnic groups at increased risk of developing Type 2 diabetes.) 60 State St., Boston (617-732-2412). 6 pm. $150. —RL

CITYSCOPE 63
PERFORMING ARTS 64
MOVIES 68
MUSIC 75
CLASSICAL MUSIC 84
DANCE CLUBS 86
MUSEUMS & GALLERIES . . 91
GAY & LESBIAN 97
BOOKS & POETRY 99
EDUCATION 101
BODY & MIND 102
SPORTS 103
CHILDREN 104
AROUND TOWN 105

CALENDAR EDITED BY
Erin Graham Books & Poetry, Movies
Leslie P. Kilgore Around Town, Children, Education, Movies, Museums & Galleries, Music
Rich Levine CityScope, Dance Clubs, Gay & Lesbian, Performing Arts, Sports
ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY
Laurel Kirtz Body & Mind
Paul Sherman Movie Capsules

LESLIE

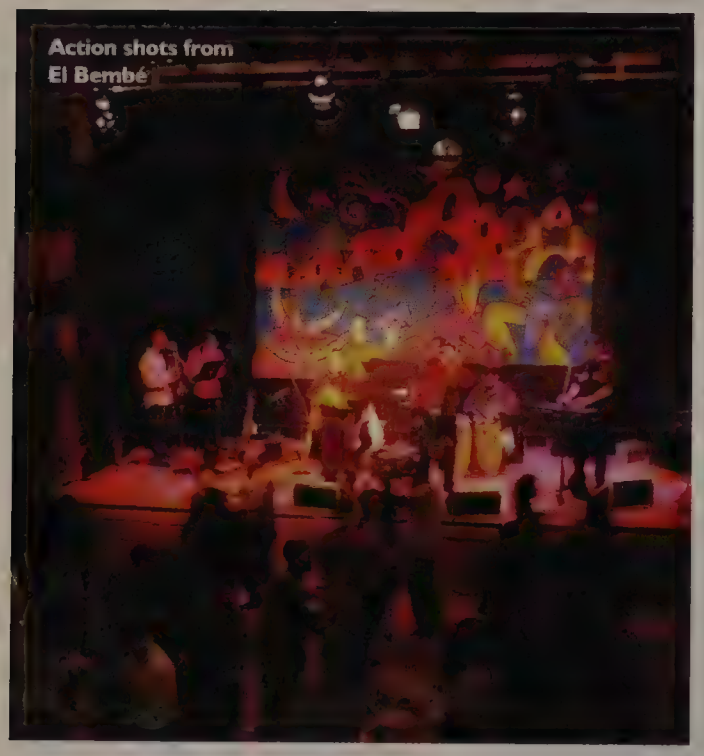
RICH

SUN./APRIL 9

Museums and Galleries: Open Sesame

What began six years ago as a public tour of the School of the Museum of Fine Arts' painting studios has expanded into a full-on open house that lets visitors tour all of the student and faculty studios and classrooms. During the open-studio event, you can see the artists and students at work in their own spaces, creating photographs, sculpture, ceramics, sound and video installations, prints, paintings and drawings. While you browse the artworks, you can take in a couple of skits and shows by performance artists and dancers. Works featured by emerging artists include Wilson Parry's brightly colored, mixed-media paintings, often shown in 3-D; Rebecca Scotti's drawings and paintings; and Mark Ryan Chariker's acrylic paintings on canvas. Also on display is the Fifth Year Exhibition 2006, which highlights works by seven artists from the school's Fifth Year Certificate program. 230 The Fenway, Boston (617-369-3718). www.smfa.edu. 12-3 pm. Free. –LPK

Mark Ryan Chariker's "The Entropy"



Action shots from El Bembé

FRI./APRIL 14

CityScope: Havana Nights

For the Center for Latino Arts' monthly fundraiser, El Bembé, Hector Cuevas and the Boston Latin Band set the dance floor on fire with a wild mix of salsa, merengue, cumbia and bachata music. Going strong for the past eight years, the fundraiser has earned quite a following, with more than 400 people attending each month. The crowd is mixed: college kids wanting to learn new moves, older folks born and raised doing salsa, and couples looking for a different sort of night out. All are welcome so long as you're 21 (there's a cash bar until 2 am), but you've got to leave your sneakers, jeans and hats at home. Free dance lessons start at 9 pm, the live music begins at 10 pm and the party goes all night. There's free parking at the South End Little League field on Harrison Street—a shuttle takes El Bembé–goers from there to the party. All proceeds benefit the center's arts programming. 85 West Newton St., Boston (617-927-1730). www.claboston.org. $15. —LPK

Franz Ferdinand

WED./APRIL 12

Music: Cool Quartets

One's an indie-rock quartet from rural Washington, the other's a rocking fourson from rainy Glasgow. And on April 12, Dea Cab For Cutie and Franz Ferdinand converge in Boston for a show at BU's Agganis Arena. Ferdinand got together in 2001 and honed their skills in an abandone Scottish warehouse nicknamed the Chatea By 2002 they'd put together an album's worth of tunes, and in 2003 they signed w Domino. That fall they released Darts of Pleasure, featuring the hit single "Take Me Out," and followed that up with a sophomore effort called You Could Have It Much Better, which dropped in fall 2005. Death Cab's been floating around the indie scene since 1997; fronted by lead man Ben Gibbard, they released four albums on the Barsuk label, before (thanks in part to abou 5,000 mentions on The O.C.) signing a deal with Atlantic in 2005. The band released Plans last August. 925 Comm. Ave, Boston (617-931-2000). 7:30 pm. $25. —RL

THU./APRIL 13–SAT./MAY 6

Performing Arts: The Sweetest Strawberry

Here's a quick bio of Darryl Strawberry for those who aren't familiar: He played in the majors from 1983-1999 and had all the talent in the world, but drugs, booze and legal troubles pretty much destroyed his life and certainly his career. He's also prominently featured in The Sweetest Swing in Baseball, a play by Pulitzer Prize–nominated writer Rebecca Gilman that opens April 13 at the BCA's Plaza Theatre. The show tells the story of a celebrated painter, Dana Fielding, who winds up in a psychiatric hospital after her latest exhibition tanks and her boyfriend dumps her. She enjoys the comfort and safety of the hospital, so when she learns her insurance wi pay for just a 10-day stay, there's only one thing to d feign schizophrenia and claim to be Darryl Strawberr Through her interactions as Darryl, Dana examines th love-hate relationship between the public and its heroe and the resentment successful people face. Wow, Darry Strawberry inspires a Pulitzer Prize–nominated play wright. What's next—a steroids scandal on Broadway 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bosto theatrescene.com. Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8:30 pm Sun., 3 pm. $24-$30. —RL

ityscope

ice to Contributors

nit updated listings for benefits, festivals, activities vents by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Scope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@ pper.com. Include address, phone number, ticket , dates and times, and a brief description of the . Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. List- annot be accepted over the phone.

enefits

EDNESDAY, APRIL 5

gh it Up

edy Connection, 1 Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-3835). www.supportivelivinginc.org. MBTA: or Green Line to Gov. Center. 7 pm. $150; $75 st the comedy show. This charity stand-up event des appetizers, an open bar and a comedy show elp Supportive Living Inc. build homes for vors of brain injuries.

URSDAY, APRIL 6

mpions for Change Gala

t Regency, 575 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-8306). www.barcc.org. MBTA: B Green Line to West. 6:30 pm. $150. The Boston Area Rape s Center celebrates people and organizations ing against sexual violence at this dinner and t auction. Boston Globe columnist Eileen amara is the keynote speaker.

ua Frase Foundation Muscle am Gala

n Harbor Hotel, 70 Rowes Wharf, Boston (617-1155). www.joshuafrase.org. MBTA: Blue Line aport. 6 pm. $1500, RSVP for tickets. This n annual gala includes an auction and NFL novie star appearances to raise money for the ua Frase Foundations, which supports muscular research.

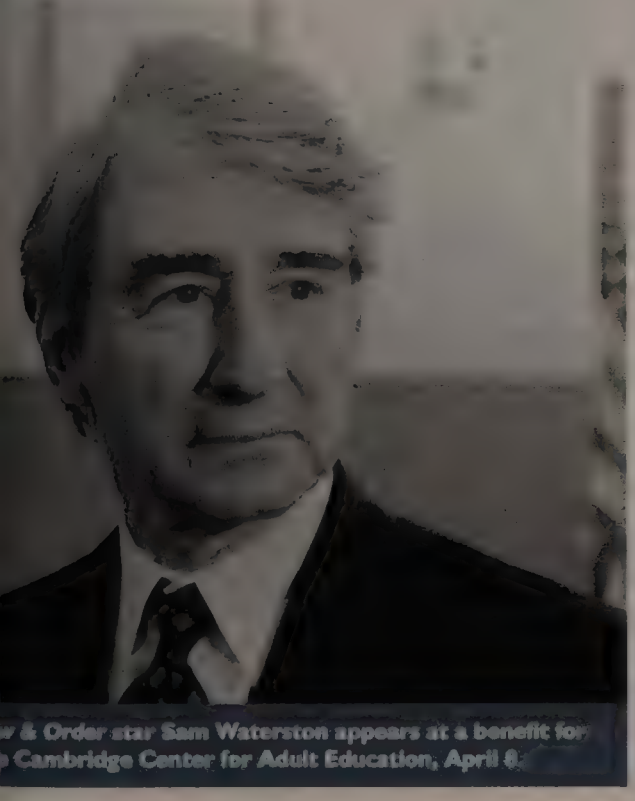
Young "Old Ironsides" Society

Constitution Museum, Charlestown Navy Boston (617-426-1812). www.ussconstitution um.org. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North on. 6 pm. $25, $35 at the door. The USS titution Museum launches its new society with eption and preview of the Museum's exhibit Sailor's Life for Me?" Proceeds benefit the um's educational programs.

DAY, APRIL 7

ned in Boston

n, 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-524-7065). urbanimprov.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Center. 6 pm. $150, $75 for those under 40. l celebrities, media personalities, politicians business and community leaders perform in 11th annual musical comedy revue to benefit n Improv, a violence prevention program for n.



w & Order star Sam Waterston appears at a benefit for Cambridge Center for Adult Education, April 8.

Consuls Ball

Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-482-4587). www.unagb.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 7 pm. $250. The United Nations Association of Greater Boston pays tribute to the Consular Corps and celebrates the diversity of the nations and cultures around the world with an evening that includes dinner, dancing and a silent auction. Proceeds benefit the Global Classrooms curriculum, which brings International Relations programs to Boston area schools.

Leukemia & Lymphoma Society Fundraiser

The Point, 147 Hanover St., Boston (617-523-7020). www.leukemia-lymphoma.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 7 pm. $5. A night at The Point in Fanueil Hall includes free appetizers and raffle prizes. All proceeds benefit the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

Stuart Weitzman Fashion Show

Westin, 70 Third Ave., Waltham (508-650-4900). www.ovationsforthecure.com. 11 am. $200. The first annual Stuart Weitzman Fashion Show is a luncheon and fundraiser for the Madeline Franchi Ovarian Cancer Research Fund at the Dana-Farber Institute. The event features an appearance by CBS4 anchor and ovarian cancer survivor Joyce Kulhawik, as well as an auction and raffle.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8

Big Dreams Start Small Benefit

Boston Marriott Copley Place, 110 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-965-5262). www.denisehajjar.com/bigdreams. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. $100-$250. This eighth annual fundraiser for the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital includes silent and live auctions, a fashion show, '70s dance band Stayin' Alive and dinner. WCVB-TV5 news anchor Heather Unruh hosts the event and local actor and comedian Lenny Clarke receives the 2006 Big Dreamer Award.

Massachusetts College of Art 17th Annual Benefit Art Auction

The Bakalar and Paine Galleries, MassArt, 621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7014). www.massartauction.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. 7 pm. $125; $150 at the door. The Massachusetts College of Art hosts a silent and live art auction by nationally and internationally known artists. Proceeds benefit academic programming, awards and scholarships.

Of Course!

CCAE, 42 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-6789). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 5 pm. $175. This Gala Spring event begins at the Cambridge Center for Adult Education with classes taught by faculty and local celebrities, then moves to the Charles Hotel Pavilion for a party with a silent and live auction. The celebrity lineup includes: Law & Order star Sam Waterston, literary agent Ike Williams and IMPROPER writer Mopsy Strange Kennedy. Proceeds benefit CCAE's scholarship fund.

Urban League of Eastern Massachusetts

World Trade Center, Commonwealth Hall., Boston (617-442-4519). www.ulem.org. MBTA: Silver Line to World Trade Center. 5:30 pm. $150. The 14th Annual Awards Gala features a concert by J.T. Taylor, former lead singer of Kool & The Gang, a silent auction and dinner. This black-tie-optional event benefits the Urban League of Eastern Massachusetts.

TUESDAY, APRIL 11

Rally Against Cancer

Boston (617-632-5741). www.jimmyfund.org/rally. $5. Local businesses are encouraged to participate in Rally Against Cancer Day by wearing Red Sox apparel to work and contributing $5 each online on opening day. All proceeds support the Jimmy Fund. The top fundraising team will win a workplace visit from Trot Nixon.

Whittier Street Health Center's Annual Roast

Park Plaza Hotel, 64 Arlington St., Boston (617-989-3222). www.wshc.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 5 pm. $175. Tom O'Neill III takes the hot seat at this charity roast to benefit the Whittier Street Health Center. Jimmy Tingle serves as Toastmaster and Mayor Tom Menino serves as guest auctioneer.

FRIDAY, APRIL 14

El Bembé

Jorge Hernandez Cultural Center, 85 W. Newton St., Roxbury (617-927-1730). www.claboston.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Heath. 9 pm. $15. Hector Cuevas & The Boston Latin Band perform at this 21-and-over Latin dance party to benefit La Casa de la Cultura/Center for Latino Arts, the arts and culture branch of Inquilinos Boricuas en Acción.

Brattle Benefit Comedy Show

Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-413-4876). www.brattlefilm.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Through April 15. 10 pm. $12, $6 for students. Coxen and Johnson Industries hosts a sketch comedy show featuring local comics Sean Sullivan, the Walsh Brothers and Dan Sally. Proceeds benefit the Preserve the Brattle Legacy Campaign.

SUNDAY, APRIL 16

Leslie's Links Pre-Marathon Party

Vox Populi, 355 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-1400, 324). www.leslieslinks.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6:30 pm. $35-$40. This sixth annual event features fare from Vox, cocktails from Gosling's rum, door prizes and music by Next Generation Productions. Proceeds benefit Leslie's Links, a fund at th Dana-Farber Cancer Institute which raises money for Ewing's sarcoma research.

Festivals & Parties

THURSDAY, APRIL 13

BostonYPA's Anniversary Bash

Felt, 533 Washington St., Boston (617-591-1400). www.bostonypa.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 6 pm. $10-$20. The Boston Young Professionals celebrate their three-year anniversary with networking from 7-8 pm, dancing from 8 pm to close and door prizes, such as cash, spa gift certificates, and Red Sox tickets.

The Nonprofit Center Open House

The Nonprofit Center, 89 South St., Boston (617-523-6565). www.nonprofitcenterboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 4 pm. Free. The Nonprofit Center, a multitenant facility for social change organizations, celebrates its opening with refreshments, enter- tainment and informational displays.

Young Adult Cancer Symposium

Mass. College of Art, 621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-332-1919). www.wellnesscommunity.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood Medical. 8:30 am. Free, registration is required. I'm Too Young For This is a full-day symposium addressing the concerns of young adults whose lives have been touched by cancer. Heidi Adams, founder and executive director of Planet Cancer, is the keynote speaker.

MONDAY, APRIL 17

Boston Marathon

Various spots throughout Boston and surrounding suburbs. www.bostonmarathon.org. 11:25 am. Cheer on the runners and wheelchairers as they make the long journey from Hopkinton to Boylston Street at this legendary annual marathon.

Singles

MONDAY, APRIL 10

8-Minute Dating

Blue Wave, 343 Congress St., Boston (617-790-0720). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 6:30 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals ages 25-35.

8-Minute Dating

SoHo, 386 Market St., Brighton (617-562-6000). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Washington. 7:08 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals ages 25-37.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18

8-Minute Dating

Fire and Ice, 205 Berkeley St., Boston (617-482-3473). www.8minutedating.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. 6:30 pm. $35. Sample appetizers during eight different eight-minute dates, then mingle and meet the people you didn't get the chance to share a date with. For single professionals ages 22-32.

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts, or e-mail to performing@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Tickets to sold-out shows.

Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Same-day tickets at half price.

Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Tickets to sold-out shows.

StubHub
(866-788-2482). www.stubhub.com. A forum to buy and sell tickets.

Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.tixboston.com. Tickets to sold-out shows.

Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater and Opera

JUST OPENED

Christine Jorgensen Reveals
Calderwood Pavilion, 527 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.thetheateroffensive.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. April 6-29. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $34-$39. Based on a recorded interview, Brandon Louryk brings to life one of the nation's first famous and scandalous transexuals, Christine Jorgensen, who was banned from Boston in 1954. Josh Hecht directs.

Much Ado About Nothing
Marran Theatre, Lesley University, 47 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-349-8115). www.lesley.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. April 6-9. Thu.-Sat., 7 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $5-$10. The Oxford Street Players of Lesley University present this performance of Shakespeare's comedy about two couples headed for marriage. Directed by Anne Elezabeth Pluto.

Rosa
Black Box Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatrescene. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. April 7-21. Wed.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $12-$15. In Peter Snoad's play, a Back Bay couple is headed to Guatemala to adopt their new daughter when a series of harmful attacks threaten to stop them. Will Luera directs.

The Sweetest Swing in Baseball
Plaza Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. April 13-May 6. Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $24-$30. This play by Pulitzer Prize–nominee Rebecca Gilman tells the story of how an artist recently committed to a psychiatric hospital finds strength and inspiration through baseball's Darryl Strawberry. Directed by Jason Southerland.

Two Gentlemen of Verona
Boston Conservatory Theatre, 31 Hemenway St., Boston (617-912-9222). www.bostonconservatory. edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Northeastern. April 7-9. Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $5-$16. Doug Lockwood directs John Guare's and Mel Shapiro's rock adaptation of Shakespeare's romantic comedy about sex, love and mistaken identities. Music dir Bret Silverman.

Wicked
The Opera House, 539 Washington St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. April 12-Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 an Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. $30-$132.50. Based novel by Gregory Maguire, this musical t story of the Wizard of Oz's Wicked Witch of t and Glinda the Good Witch. Joe Mantello di

The Yeomen of the Guard
Agassiz Theatre, Radcliffe Yard, 10 Garden St bridge (617-496-2222). http://hcs.harvard.ed MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. April 6-15. A 13-15, 8 pm; April 8, 9 and 15, 2 pm. $5-$1 Harvard-Radcliffe Gilbert and Sullivan Play sent this classic operetta of love, deceit and t ery. Directed by Roxanna Myhrum. Music dire Emily Senturia.

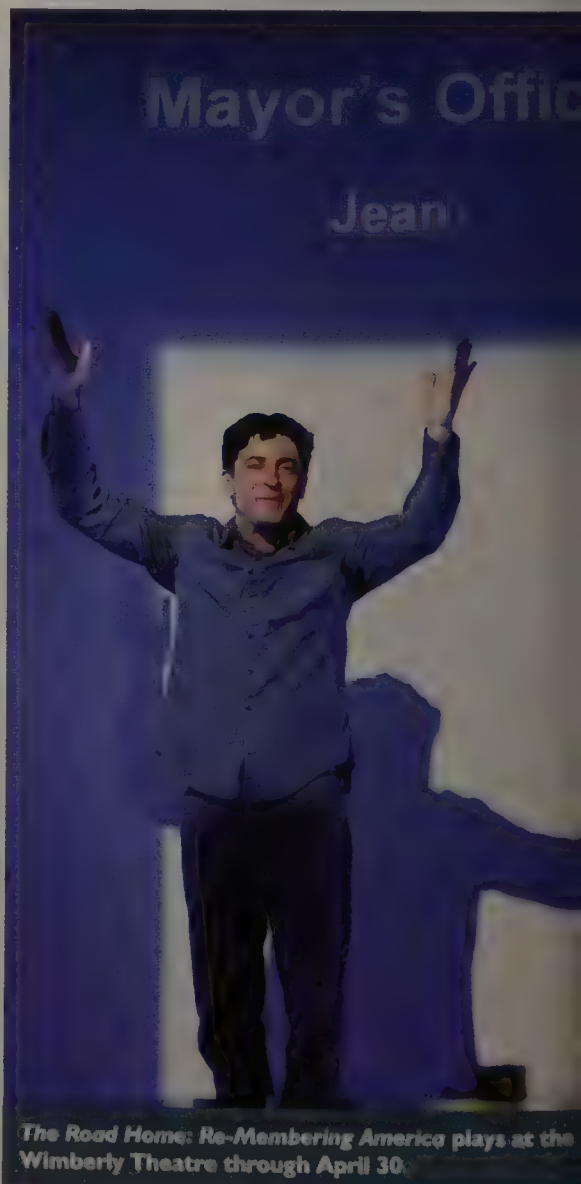
NOW RUNNING

Auntie & Me
Merrimack Repertory Theatre, 50 E. Merrima Lowell (978-454-3926). www.merrimackr Through April 9. Wed.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4:30 pm; Sun., 2 and 7 pm. $32-$55. Morris Panyc beat comedy tells the story of a man who reve much about himself while visiting an aunt who to be dying.

Betrayal
Devanaughn Theatre at The Piano Factory, 791 St., Boston (866-811-4111). MBTA: Orange Mass. Ave. www.devtheatre.com. Through Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $10-$19. Harold play follows the seven-year affair between a and her husband's best friend. Dani Duggan dire

Big Apple Circus: Grandma Goes Hollywood
City Hall Plaza, Boston (617-931-2787). ww master.com. MBTA: Green or Blue Line t Center. Through May 7. Contact Ticketmaster f times. $13-$54. Grandma the Clown stars in thi re-creation of movie moments with the help bats, jugglers, trapeze flyers and more.

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (61 2787). www.blueman.com. MBTA: Green



The Road Home: Re-Membering America plays at the Wimberly Theatre through April 30.

ton. Ongoing. Wed.-Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 pm; Sat., nd 10 pm; Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $46-$56. The blue erforms an ongoing show that mixes art, music, dy and a lot of toilet paper.

raviata

hubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (800-7400). www.telecharge.com. MBTA: Orange to NE Medical Center. Through April 11. $33- Boston Lyric Opera presents Giuseppe Verdi's opera about a Parisian courtesan who is deter- never to fall in love, until she meets a man who ately breaks her heart. Directed by James Robin- nd conducted by Stephen Lord.

Maternal Instinct

Playwright's Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston 811-4111). www.bu.edu/bpt. MBTA: B Line to Pleasant. Through April 16. Thu.-Sat., Sun, 3 pm. $15-$20. Out of the Blue Theatre any presents Monica Bauer's story of a married n couple at odds over the decision to have Directed by Melissa Wentworth.

opause: The Musical

Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (617-499). www.stuartstreetplayhouse.com. MBTA: Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Wed., 1:30 and 8 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $42.50. In ie Linder's musical, four aging baby boomers nothing in common but memory loss and hot s meet at a lingerie sale. Directed by Kathryn e and Patty Bender.

rily We Roll Along ridge Family YMCA Theatre, 820 Mass. Ave., ridge (800-595-4849). www.longwoodplayers. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Through April 8. 31-April 7, 8 pm. $14-$26. Stephen Sond- s play tells the story of three estranged friends end of their friendship, going back through o trace each milestone of their lives. Directed la Hackman. Music directed by Jeremy Lang.

heus X

rrow Theatre, 2 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-547- . www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. gh April 23. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $15-$48. Composer erformer Rinde Eckert and director Robert lruff join forces in a contemporary retelling of rpheus and Eurydice legend.

The Road Home: Re-Membering America

Wimberly Theatre, Calderwood Pavilion, 527 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through April 30. Contact the box office for show times. $15-$44. Mark Wolf performs in his original play about the resilience of Americans after Sept. 11. Directed by David Scheizer.

Shear Madness

Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-5225). www.shearmadness.com/boston. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6 and 9 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:30 pm. $38. This comedic whodunit, set in a crazy unisex hair salon, holds the record as Boston's longest-running play.

Spamalot

The Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (617-426-9366). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Through April 15. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. $37.50-$90. Mike Nichols directs this musical based on Monty Python and the Holy Grail. When King Arthur and his knights embark on a low-budget search for the Holy Grail, they encounter comical situations.

Talking to Terrorists

Plaza Theatre, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through April 8. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $35-$40. The Súgán Theatre Company presents the American premiere of this production, written by Robin Soans, that takes an inside look at terrorism. Directed by Carmel O'Reilly.

Tally's Folly

The Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-437-7172). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Through April 22. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $20-$45. Lanford Wilson's Pulitzer Prize–winning classic tells the story of a Jewish accountant living in St. Louis at the height of WWII who wants to marry a 31-year-old spinster and rescue her from her rural Missouri life. Directed by Adam Zahler.

Un Ballo in Maschera

The Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400).www.telecharge.com. MBTA: Green Line

Why Wait for the Weekend?

24 Mondays @ 9:00 PM. Jack is back in another thrilling episode of 24. Come in and watch Jack, and maybe have a little Jack yourself.

Trivia Tuesdays @ 8:00 PM. Trivia Night for two hours. Bring a team. Gifts certificates for the winning team.

Board Game Wednesdays We got games, and comfy seats. Bring your friends to play Monopoly, Trivial Pursuit, Balderdash, Sorry or any of our dozen games. And enjoy complimentary fresh popcorn with your favorite beverage.

1/2 Priced Apps M-F, 4:30-7:00 in the lounge.

The living room

food • drinks • music • life

full menu 'til midnight • cocktails 'til 1 am

101 Atlantic Avenue • Boston • 617-723-5101

www.thelivingroomboston.com

to Boylston. Through April 10. Wed.-Fri., 7:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $33-$166. The Boston Lyric Opera presents their performance of Verdi's opera about passion, love, politics and the forbidden. James Robinson directs.

Wake Up and Smell the Coffee
Charlestown Working Theater, 422 Bunker Hill St., Charlestown (866-811-4111). www.theatermania.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan. Through April 15, 8 pm. $15, adults; $10, students and seniors. Theater on Fire presents the most recent solo performance piece by acclaimed actor, playwright, novelist and screenwriter Eric Bogosian. The show stars Boston native John Joyce. Directed by Darren Evans.

Dance

Visions 2006
Boston University Dance Theatre, 915 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-1597). www.bu.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to St. Paul. April 7, 8 pm; April 8, 5 and 8 pm. $5-$10. The Boston University Dance Theatre Group presents their spring dance concert featuring works by student, alumni and faculty choreographers.

Women in Science
Kresge Little Theatre, 48 Mass.Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4720). www.mit.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. April 14-15, 8 pm. $6-$8. Guest Edisa Weeks choreographs this original production of the MIT Dance Theatre Ensemble, based on the 1999 study on the status of women in science. Associate professor Thomas DeFrantz directs.

Comedy

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Comedy, or e-mail info to comedy@improper.com. Deadline for listings is four weeks prior to publication.

SHOWS

Broad Comedy
Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (617-426-4499). www.broadcomedy.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Saturdays, 8 pm. $28.50. Winner of Best of Vancouver Fringe Fest 2005, Bro-edy is an all-female comedy troupe featur such as "The United States Extreme Rig Cheerleading Squad."

Dirty Water
Improv Asylum, 216 Hanover St., Boston (6 6887). www.dirtywaterimprov.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Haymarket. April 7, 12 Watch this one-time performance of the C based improv show about five Red Sox fans jokes and bickering over a variety of topic down beers at a Southie bar.

Joey and Maria's Comedy Italia Wedding
The Matrix Nightclub, 275 Tremont St., Bost 542-1123). www.comedywedding.com. MB ange Line to NE Medical Center. April 8 a pm. $55. Join Joey's and Maria's wacky fam an interactive comedy wedding.

STAND-UP CLUBS

An Tua Nua
835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121). M Green Line to St. Mary's. Tue., 8:30 pm. $ show Bragging to Children features sketch co musical act and a stand-up host each week.

Beantown Comedy Vault
Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (78 2565). www.dickdoherty.com/remsched. Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm $12. The Beantown Comedy Vault featur stand-up comedians.

Comedy Connection
245 Quincy Market, Faneuil Hall, Boston (6 9700). www.comedyconnectionboston.com. Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. The olde edy club in Boston draws nationally known ans on weekends and showcases up-and-comi talent during the week. •April 6, 8:30 pm Santos, "The R-Rated Hypnotist." •April 10:15 pm; April 9, 7 pm: Pauly Shore. •April 10:15 pm: Jim Lauletta and Patty Ross. •April 17, 8 pm: Amateur Showcase. •April 11 ar pm: Paul Nardizzi. •April 12, 8 pm: Tony V. 14, 8 and 10:15 pm; April 15, 10:30 pm; Ap pm: Tracy Morgan. •April 15, 8 pm: Mike Do french dressing

a lingerie boutique

Come and see what's new for Spring

49 River Street, Beacon Hill

617/723/4YOU • www.frenchdressinglingerie.com

PREGNANT?

Distressed
about what's in your closet?

Determined
not to lose your fashion style and hip factor?

Desperate
to be a Yummy Mummy?

DIANE VON FURSTENBERG ◆ FRAGILE ◆ CHAIKEN ◆ CADEAU ◆ BELLY BUTTON ◆ RUBY VAN ◆ CITIZENS OF HUMANITY ◆ PAPER DEMIN CLOTH ◆ TRIMESTER Ts ◆ SUSANA MONACO ◆ CHIP N PEPPER ◆ BELLA DAHL ◆ HOMMEMUMMY ◆ EBERJEY ◆ ARABELLA B ◆ NOPPIES

Bump

Fabulous, delicious baby & childrens' clothing too!!

15 River Street, Boston
Monday - Saturday 10am-6pm t: 617.426.4004 f: 617.426.4008
www.bumpshoppe.com

premieres at the BCA's Black Box Theatre on April 7.

Comedy Studio
Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). thecomedystudio.com. MBTA: Red Line to rd. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $8-$10. Sketch com-oupes and local comedians perform. •April 's Hazzard, Mike Oster, Dan Klein, Mandy an, Shane Mauss, Gregg Thibideau, Andrea , Ellen Moschetto, Micha Sherman, David l and Dot Dwyer. •April 6: The Dan Sally with Baratunde, Taylor Connolly and Dot . •April 7: Robby RoadSteamer, Drew Span-ndy Ofiesh, Dough Chagnon, MB Cowan ot Dwyer. •April 8: Robby RoadSteamer, lami, Dough Chagnon, Andy Ofiesh, MB n, Nate Johnson, Dave Grabiner and Dot . •April 9: Erin Judge Presents... Pat Boc-Shaun Bedgood, Jan Flannagan, Tonya Dal-anet Cormier, Alvin David, Dan Boulger, ersten and Dot Dwyer. •April 11: Mystery e Magic Night with Jon Stetson, Bob Rior-teve Kradolfer, Joe Howard, Mike Bent and Hustle. •April 12: Emerson College stand-edy night. •April 13-16: The Comedy Stu-Year Anniversary All-Star Show. •April 18: ward, Jon Stetson, Mike Bent, Bob Riordan, Oliver and Danny Hustle.

y Tingle's Off Broadway
Tingle's Off Broadway Theater, 255 Elm St., ille (617-591-1616). www.jtoffbroadway.com. : Red Line to Davis. Jimmy Tingle's features tablished and aspiring performers and produc-April 7-8, 7:30 pm: Cindy Pierce, Finding the ll. •April 10 and 17, 7:30 pm: The Comedy rts with Mike Donovan and Friends. •April m: Jimmy Tingle's American Dream.

's Comedy Stop
arrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). www.medystop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boyl-ri. and Sat., 8:30 pm. $10-$22. In its 24th he longest-running comedy club in Boston s local and visiting comics. •April 6: Mike bis and Jess Cassano. •April 7-8: Steve Tobin, outrobis and Jess Cassano. •April 14-15: Jim a and Mike Kaplan.

e Sweeney's Comedy Cafe
ylston St., Boston (800-401-2221). MBTA: Line to Copley. Fri. and Sat., 9:30 pm. $20. comedians Steve Sweeney and Dick Doherty with select performers. •April 6 and 13: Full t Comedy. •April 7: Lenny Clark and Bob •April 8: Steve Sweeney, Bob Niles and Kelsey l. •April 14 and 15: Chance Langton, Steve ey and Greg Howell.

ROV COMEDY

ov Asylum
anover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.asylum.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Dinner packages available. •Wed., 8 pm. $15: Vanity Project. •Thu., 8 pm. $15: Monkey Trial and Error. 10 pm. $10: The Madness. •Fri., 8 and 10 pm. $20: Monkey Trial and Error. 12 am. $7: College Smackdown. •Sat., 8 and 10 pm. $20: Monkey Trial and Error. 12 am. $10: The Midnight Show.

Improv Foundry
327 Summer St., Studio 4, South Boston (617-308-6421). www.improvfoundry.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sat., 6 pm. $12. This Boston-based, short-form improv comedy group performs skits that involve members of the audience.

ImprovBoston
1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. $5-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates everything on the spot: characters, stories, settings, songs and dances. •Wed., 8 pm. $5: The Hump. Local troupes perform improvisational shows. 10 pm. Free: Rendition. Boston's best improvisers come together for this energetic, groundbreaking improvisational show. •Thu., 8 pm. $12; $10, students: UnNatural Selection. A master of ceremonies randomly eliminates players until only one is left. 10 pm. $5: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Brothers Chris and David Walsh perform stand-up and character sketches and play music and short films in a display of sibling rivalry. •Fri., 8 pm. $12; $10, students: Voice of the White House. ImprovBoston and Musical Company present a politically-charged show about the mishaps of the White House. 10 pm. $12; $10, students: Theatre Sports. Two teams of improvisers compete for the most laughs. •Sat., 6 pm. $12; $5, students, seniors and children: ImprovBoston Family Show. A short-form improvisational show appropriate for people of all ages. 8 and 10 pm. $15; $10, students and seniors: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music and audience participation, a cast of improvisers creates a show that changes with every performance. •Sun., 7 pm. $5: Sgt. Culpepper/Open Jamboree. This evening features performances by local and visiting troupes. 9:30 pm. $7: Mosaic. South City Theatre Ensemble presents short pieces including monologues, skits and dances that mock today's society.

The Tribe
Tribe Theatre, 67 Stuart St., Boston (617-510-4447). www.tribeboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 8 pm. $7-$10. Fri., 8 pm. $7-$20. 21+. The Tribe sponsors this comedy show featuring a collection of improv comedians who poke fun at everything, including themselves. •April 6: The Rumble, Too Darn Hot and Director's Laboratory. •April 7 and 14: The Tribe Players and Code Duello. •April 13: Damn Skippy, Divide By Zero, Too Darn Hot and Director's Laboratory.

where the locals
meet to eat
ASSAGGIO

Open 12:00pm to 12:00am
Full dinner until midnight
Full bar

SPECIAL
LIMO SERVICE

For a $10 charge, we will pick you up at your home and provide round-trip limousine service to and from Assaggio.

Please call 1 day in advance to arrange.

29 Prince Street, Boston
617.227.7380
www.assaggioboston.com
Reservations accepted

Puff Daddy

Thank You for Smoking lights up the laughs.

BY PAUL SHERMAN

People who do their job well onscreen immediately win our respect. The late Howard Hawks became a legendary director by presenting characters who take pride in their work—flyers in Only Angels Have Wings, reporters in His Girl Friday, cowboys in Red River, lawmen in Rio Bravo and so on—because he realized this. The effect of proficiency is no less true today, whether the character is a detective, cab driver or hitman.

We instantly take to Nick Naylor (Aaron Eckhart), the lobbyist-protagonist of Thank You for Smoking, because he's so good at what he does. When we first meet him, he's being ambushed on a daytime talk show. The host is against him. The other guests are against him. The audience is against him. Yet he fends off the attack, makes the other guests look bad and distracts the audience enough to emerge unscathed. We root for Nick, despite the fact that he's a conscience-free spokesman for the tobacco industry, and that one of the guests he goes after is a bald, 15-year-old "cancer boy" who's terminally sick from the few years he's been puffing away on cigarettes.

Tobacco lobbyist Nick Naylor (Aaron Eckhart, right) compares notes with his pals from the alcohol (Maria Bello) and firearms (David Koechner) industries.

Nick's flexible morals are the source of much comedy in Thank You for Smoking, the feature debut of Jason Reitman, son of Ivan Reitman (Ghostbusters, Dave)—fittingly, it's based on a novel by another son of the famous, William F. Buckley's son, Christopher. That Nick shows charm and verbal skill in this opening is crucial to how we perceive him. As he soon says in a voice-over, "You know that guy who can pick up any girl? I'm him, on crack." If Nick isn't the hotshot he's supposed to be, the movie's sunk.

But Nick could sell snow to Siberians. That's why he's the spokesman for the Academy of Tobacco Studies, the Big Tobacco–funded advocacy group that's still able to find a quack to medically endorse their "studies," teams of lawyers to block anyone's attempt to restrict tobacco use and the nerve to fund half-hearted "keep teens off cigarettes" marketing campaigns. Nick helps to make Thank You for Smoking a Wag the Dog–style spoof of America in the age of, as Stephen Colbert would say, truthiness.

Nick is an entertaining creep, not unlike the one Eckhart played in his 1997 breakthrough movie, In the Company of Men. He hangs out at weekly lunches with the gun-industry flack (David Koechner) and the alcohol-industry flack (Maria Bello) in a group they call the M.O.D. Squad (the acronym standing for "merchants of death"). At these lunches, they essentially play games of "my ethical blind spot is bigger than yours." Nick also travels to Hollywood on a mission to get cigarette smoking back in the movies, meeting with a superagent (Rob Lowe) whose fixation with deal-making is almost as extreme as his goofy Asian fixation. And Nick literally charms the pants off a reporter (Katie Holmes) who's writing a feature about him.

Thank You for Smoking would've been enjoyable enough if it had been just about following Nick. But its larger snapshot of the nation is where it gains strength. The M.O.D. Squad meetings help cast the story as a reminder of how much we've become a culture of spin, half-truths and forces seeking to distract us from life's realities.

The scenes between Nick and his 12-year-old son Joey (Cameron Bright from Birth) also capture our cultural fixation on rhetoric over content. Unsure of just what his dad does for a living, Joey often asks Nick about his work, in between asking the normal questions a kid might ask his dad. When Nick helps Joey with a school paper and offers him tips about how to argue, his advice sounds like a primer in everything that's wrong with debate these days. "If you argue correctly, you're never wrong," he says at one point—sounding like media analysts who judge a political debate by whose presentation was better instead of whose ideas were better.

Later, Nick tells Joey, "If you're wrong, then I'm right"; in other words, don't answer the question, attack the questioner. That strategy has been coming out of the Oval Office and boardrooms for decades, and Nick gives us a very funny example of it when he verbally spars with an anti-tobacco Vermont senator (William H. Macy) who wants to literally put a skull and crossbones on cigarette packages. Instead of arguing why the poison symbol shouldn't be on cigarettes, Nick asks the senator why he doesn't want to put it on high-cholesterol, artery-clogging Vermont cheddar cheese.

Calling Thank You for Smoking a good debut for Reitman is understating the movie's comic punch. With its sharp satiric eye, strong cast (which also includes Kim Dickens, Sam Elliott and Robert Duvall) and balance of the silly and the shrewd, this is likely to be one of the year's best comedies, period. iB

Thank You for Smoking ★★★½

Written and directed by Jason Reitman. With Aaron Eckhart, Maria Bello, David Koechner, Cameron Bright, William H. Macy, Katie Holmes, Kim Dickens, Adam Brody, Rob Lowe, Sam Elliott and Robert Duvall. Rated R. At Boston Common, Kendall Square, Coolidge Corner and West Newton.

New Releases

BY PAUL SHERMAN

CSA: Confederate States of An
★★★½
Writer-director Kevin Willmott answers t
tion "What if the South had won the Civ in a mockumentary that is both provocati ulative history and very sharp satire. It's p as an English-made documentary being sh a San Francisco TV station about the h
the CSA, which won the Civil War afte and England entered on the south's sid "War of Northern Aggression," and the Abe Lincoln to Canada and restored slave North after Grant's surrender. The "Engli documentary" parodies everything fro
Burns' The Civil War and Birth of a Nation
tary and classroom films. Meanwhile, its cast" includes utterly deadpan commerc such things as the Slave Shopping Netwo Martha Stewart–like show in which the promises to cover "what to look for when your next Chinese gardener" on her next CSA takes no prisoners. (At the Coolidge Theatre.)

Dave Chappelle's Block Party ★
There's hardly a dull moment in this blend edy, music and politics. Chappelle organ dream concert in Bedford-Stuyvesant, Br featuring Kanye West, Mos Def, Erykah B
the reunion of the Fugees. Director Gondry (who directed Eternal Sunshine of less Mind) filmed the October 2004 perfo and rehearsals as well as Chappelle playing Wonka of sorts, handing out "golden tic people in southwest Ohio (where he live would get them on a charter bus, in a hot and into the concert. Gondry cuts among formers (on- and off-stage), the roadtrippi residents, and Chappelle, as he prepares outdoor show. There's a shared outspoken the acts Chappelle booked, and a political ness, too. These common qualities bond t formers here, a camaraderie that reaches the stage. As in the best multi-act perfo movies, the sum is greater than the pa
Boston Common, the Fenway and suburbs.

The Devil and Daniel Johnston
Director Jeff Feuerzeig's profile of outside cian/artist Daniel Johnston is an interesti ney through the uneasy relationship betwe ativity and madness. Manic-depressive Jo has an abundance of both, and the docum looks at his creative output (songs that oft with a naked passion most of us would filt our public utterances) as well as his regul pouring of madness (including delusions re in violence and legal trouble). Indie-film f recognize some of Johnston's friends fr
1980s Austin stint from their appearan
Slacker, while members of Sonic Youth a Japanese also turn up as Johnston's music rades. The result is something of a cross b Crumb (Terry Zwigoff's doc about artist R. and Jandek on Corwood (a more hypnotic another outsider musician). That several refer to Johnston as a "genius" hurts the though, as it struggles to get that notion
(At Kendall Square.)

The Inside Man ★★★
Spike Lee's thriller has problems but, after t
barrassing She Hate Me, his latest is general turn to form. The movie's strengths and nesses come from first-time screenwriter Gewirtz's script. Gewirtz comes up with premise (a bank heist in which the maste played by Clive Owen, is after something
the stacked-up money in the vault), thoug
of its elements—including the personal pr of the NYPD negotiator (Denzel Washingto
the influence of a hatchet woman to the ri
famous (Jodie Foster) on the case—are w underdeveloped. Lee's use of Terence Blan
suave music sometimes seems out of place
the more forceful action of the robbery,
straightforward direction keeps the tale fro
ging down. The only real oddity here is h Gotham local color (New Yawk accents, G using Yiddish, belligerent attitude, etc.) is so hard that it verges on self-parody. Lee has been able to capture his hometown
more naturally. (At Boston Common, Fenw suburbs.)

Lonesome Jim ★★★
Steve Buscemi's latest as a director is a endearing comedy about a morose 27-y
(Casey Affleck) returning to his Indiana p

START THINGS UP WITH SOCO™ Lime

Chilled Southern Comfort with a splash of sweetened lime juice served straight up or mixed with cola, or soda.

Start and End Things Right.
Drink Southern Comfort Responsibly.

Liqueur, 21-50% Alc. by Volume, Southern Comfort Company, Louisville, KY © 2006

www.southerncomfort.com

5 Private Rooms available for your Corporate or Social Event.
Accommodating groups of any size for Lunch and Dinner

Offering a new prix-fixe
Theatre menu & free parking for patrons of the Opera House.

Voted "Boston's Best Wine Bar" 2004 & 2005.

Wine tastings every Wednesday.

Casey Affleck plays the morose title character in Steve Buscemi's Lonesome Jim.

home to, as he tells one friend, "have a nervous breakdown." There, he finds a mom (Mary Kay Place) who's full of industry and denial, an ineffectual dad (Seymour Cassell), an older brother (Kevin Corrigan) who's even worse off than he is and a sweet nurse (Liv Tyler) who asks little from life. The grim rural setting can be depressing early on (we feel our hero's pain) but, like him, the movie finds healing power there. Yes, Casey Affleck's Liv Tyler movie handily outdoes brother Ben's two movies with her. (At Kendall Square.)

Lucky Number Slevin ★★

It's been a while since a comic/violent thriller tried so hard and failed so blatantly. Director Paul McGuigan's movie might as well be from the late 1990s, when an abundance of Tarantino-wannabe movies like Things to Do in Denver When You're Dead strained to be hip, tried to pass off smugness as invention and let loose many a "clever" twist. In this one, Josh Hartnett plays Slevin, the "wrong guy in the wrong place," as he says, who gets caught between two feuding NYC crime bosses (Morgan Freeman and Ben Kingsley, seeing who can overact more egregiously). Lucy Liu is also here as a kooky coroner (she and Hartnett have a pleasing romantic chemistry), and so are Bruce Willis as an enigmatic hit man and Stanley Tucci as a not-very-perceptive detective. From the start, the production-design-run-amok (like a 1979 flashback in which more than half the cars in a parking lot are muscle cars) are clues that the director is not in control of what's going on, or is at least making some very poor choices. By the time the big plot twist kicks in 75 minutes later, you just want the thing to end. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Stoned ★★

Stylistically uneven and dramatically unfocused, this look back at Rolling Stone Brian Jones, especially the days before his 1969 death, leaves a sour taste. On the style side, the movie swings between psychedelic expressionism and the blandly straightforward, failing to come up with any consistent blend of hedonistic decadence and darker undercurrent (is there anything less imaginative than sticking Jefferson Airplane's "White Rabbit" in a drug scene?). On the story side, director Stephen Woolley (the veteran producer making his directorial debut) longs to create another Performance in his depiction of the relationship between uninhibited Jones (Leo Gregory) and "straight" contractor Frank Thorogood (Paddy Considine), who was hired to renovate Jones' estate and then got sucked into his world, manipulated by power-flexing Jones all the while (the Jones-Thorogood relationship allegedly inspired Performance, in which, of course, Mick Jagger starred). But the relationship between these two and its impact on Jones' drowning come across with less punch than intended, as the movie regularly flashes back to earlier episodes in Jones' drug-filled deterioration and loses sight of that central relationship. If the movie had really focused on what it seems to think is important, it would've been a more moving end-of-the-sixties tragedy. (Opens April 14 at Kendall Square.)

Tsotsi ★★★

This year's foreign-language film Oscar-win good choice. The intensity, nervous energy a sical charge of its opening sequences—w songs blending the hostility of gangsta rap w lilting bounce of African dance rhythms—g a good sense of the rough-and-tumble worl title character, the leader of a small gang of nesburg teens. But we soon start to dig deep the title character after he steals a car and di there's a baby in the back seat. The sudden n parenting doesn't so much bond Tsotsi to the it makes him feel the consequences of his acti the first time. The baby, the disillusionm Tsotsi's fellow gang members and the benevol the young mother whom Tsotsi forces to bre the baby combine to crumble the defensive had constructed around his emotions. Tsotsi u some taut sequences as its title character's pr get all jumbled and the action moves to a rably bittersweet ending. (At Kendall Square.

V for Vendetta ★★½

The Wachowski (Matrix trilogy) Brothers–v comic book adaptation falls somewhere be "better than most big-budget comic-book a tions" and "still not that satisfying." The good that this futuristic tale set in a fascist England is a special-effects spectacle than it might've be emphasis is still on characters, specifically Eve talie Portman), a young employee at a TV ne who inadvertently gets mixed up with V Weaving), a masked avenging angel fighting a battle against the repressive government. plight of being implicated in crimes she didn' mit is a standard Hitchcock thriller device, w who never takes off his mask and lives in a plu is a Phantom of the Opera–like figure (he's got box instead of an organ). There's also a 1984 fl the fascist society (ironically, John Hurt, who Orwell's hero in the '80s film version of 1984, Big Brother-ish "Chancellor"). So we're not original territory here, and much of the acti volves the detective (Stephen Rea) who's try catch V, but discovers his bosses are the more s threat. Portman, Weaving and Rea are all fir you often get the feeling that the backstory the tangentially refers to—involving the U.S. sta debilitating war and crumbling because of it, a cists scheming to power in England—is a more esting, less derivative drama than what we ge (At Boston Common, the Fenway and suburbs.

Special Events

Belmont World Film's 5th Annual Spring Series

Studio Cinema, 376 Trapelo Road, Belmont 484-1706). www.studiocinema.com. •April 9, Kilomètre Zéro (km 0) 2005. Set during the Iraq war in the 1980s, this dramatic film tel harrowing road trip through Iraq's Kurd Hiner Saleem directs. •April 10, 7 pm. The ace of Baghdad 2005. Held up in a Baghdad after the fall of Saddam Hussein, Iraq's mo mous pianist Samir Peter waits for the visa

; him to start a new life in America. Sean llister directs.

cks Make Flicks

Campus, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (781-788-). www.womeninfilmvideo.org. MBTA: Red Line ndall. April 13, 7 pm. Women in Film & Video England presents Stay Until Tomorrow as of their monthly film series, a film about a continental drifter who drops in unexpectedly r childhood friend. Laura Colella directs.

Evening with Frederick Wiseman

n University, Center for Digital Imaging Arts, 274 y St., Waltham (1-800-808-2342). www.studio a.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Waltham. 17, 6:30 pm. Documentary filmmaker Frederick man discusses his films.

Chinese Cinemas Film Festival

Museum and Cultural Center, Wellesley College, Central St., Wellesley (617-283-2051). www.davis m.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to sley Square. April 5, 7 pm. In conjunction with On the Edge exhibition, this festival showcases l new Chinese films, including Zui Hao De Shi (Three Times) directed by Hou Hsiao. The fes- ontinues through April 19.

d Annual Coolidge Award ebrates Meryl Streep

lge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline 734-2501). www.coolidge.org. MBTA: C Green o Cleveland Circle. April 5. Meryl Streep is the ree of this 2006 award celebration, and she'll re in person for the event, which features clips a variety of her movies as well as a preview ning of her new film A Prairie Home Com- n. Director Robert Altman and other members cast will introduce the film, which is a back- look at the final broadcast of America's popular radio show of the same name.

pertories d Revivals

ice to Contributors

t film listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to dar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com. Dead- four weeks prior to publication.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

•April 10, 6 pm. George Washington: The Man Who Wouldn't Be King 1992. David Sutherland directs this story of friendship among soldiers during the Revolutionary War.

•April 10, 6 pm. William C. Palmer 1989. This documentary features the life of William C. Palmer, the early 19th-century artist and founder of the Munson-Williams-Proctor Institute of Art. David Sutherland directs.

BRATTLE THEATRE

•April 14, 4:45 and 7 pm; April 15, 2:30, 4:45 and 7 pm; April 16, 2:45, 5, 7:15 and 9:30 pm; April 17-18, 5, 7:15 and 9:30 pm. Orfeu Negro (Black Orpheus) 1959. The Orpheus and Eurydice myth is retold in this film set at Carnaval in Rio de Janeiro. Marcel Camus directs.

Pre-Code Barbara Stanwyck!

•April 7, 5 pm; April 8, 5:30, 7:30 and 9:30 pm; April 9, 1:30, 3:30, 5:30 and 7:30 pm; April 10-13, 7:30 pm. Baby Face 1933. An abused daughter who turns tricks out of a speakeasy heads to Manhattan, where she moves up the corporate ladder by sleeping with executives . Alfred E. Green directs.

•April 10-11, 5:30 and 9:30 pm. Night Nurse 1931. A nurse enlists the help of a petty criminal to save two patients from being murdered. William A. Wellman directs.

•April 12-13, 5:30 and 9:30 pm. Ladies They Talk About 1933. A female member of a gang of bank robbers ends up in San Quentin after one of her heists goes south. Howard Bretherton directs.

Man in the Dunes: Discovering Hiroshi Teshigahara

•April 5, 4:30, 7 and 9:30; April 6, 5 and 9:30 pm. Tanin no kao (The Face of Another) 1966. A man becomes disfigured in an accident and receives a life-like mask through surgery. Teshigahara directs.

•April 6, 7:30 pm. Antonio Gaudí 1984. This film explores the work of famed Catalan architect Antonio Gaudi. Teshigahara directs.

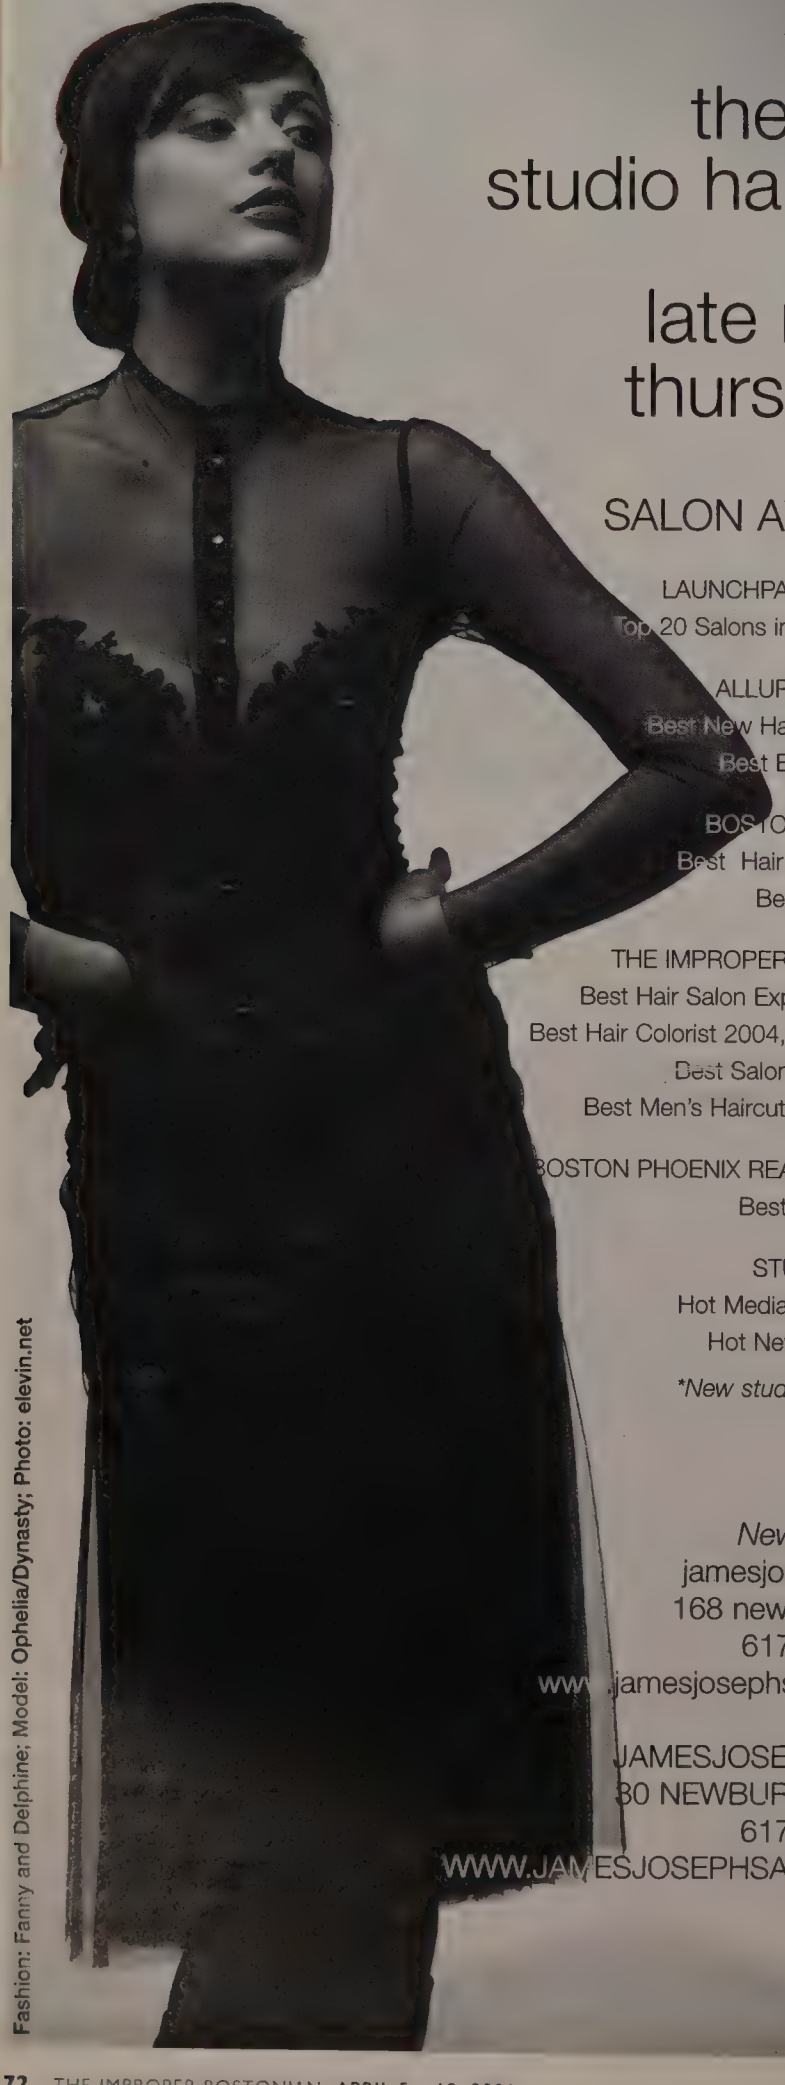
COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE

•April 7, see Web site for show times. Brick 2005. Winner of the Sundance film festival's special jury prize, this film tells the story of a teenage loner who becomes

JAMES JOSEPH SALON

presents

jamesjosephstudio



featuring

the $40
studio haircut*

and late night

thursdays

SALON AWARDS

LAUNCHPAD MAGAZINE
Top 20 Salons in the US 2005

ALLURE MAGAZINE
Best New Hair Stylist 2004
Best Blow Dry 2004

BOSTON MAGAZINE
Best Hair Colorist 2004
Best Salon 2000

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Best Hair Salon Experience 2005
Best Hair Colorist 2004, 2003 & 2001
Best Salon Interior 2003
Best Men's Haircut 2002 & 2001

BOSTON PHOENIX READER'S POLL
Best Haircut 2004

STUFF @ NIGHT
Hot Media Darling 2004
Hot New Salon 2002

New studio clients only*

New Location!
jamesjosephstudio
168 newbury street
617.266.6600
www.jamesjosephstudio.com

JAMESJOSEPHSALON
30 NEWBURY STREET
617.266.7222
WWW.JAMESJOSEPHSALON.COM

Fashion: Fanny and Delphine; Model: Ophelia/Dynasty; Photo: elevin.net

Lucy Liu and Josh Hartnett try to get out of a jam in Lucky Number Slevin part of a high school crime ring to investigate the disappearance of his ex-girlfriend. Rian Johnson directs.

• April 7, see Web site for show times. Following Sean 2005. Director Ralph Arlyck updates his 1969 documentary about Sean, a precocious 4-year-old living in San Francisco, to see what has happened to the former hippie child and his family in the last three decades.

Third Annual Coolidge Award Honoring Meryl Streep

• April 6, 10 am and 3 pm. Adaptation 2002. Meryl Streep, Chris Cooper and Susan Orlean lead a panel discussion at the screenings of this film about a screenwriter who struggles to adapt the nonfiction book The Orchid Thief into a movie. Spike Jonze directs.

• April 10, 7 pm. Silkwood 1983. Karen Silkwood, an employee at a nuclear facility, is purposefully contaminated, psychologically tortured and possibly murdered on her way to expose worker-safety violations to a New York Times reporter. Mike Nichols directs.

• April 17, 7 pm. Out of Africa 1985. Sydney Pollack directs this film set in Kenya about a Danish baroness who has a passionate but doomed love affair with a big-game hunter.

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

Beyond Truth: Contemporary Nonfiction Cinema

• April 8, 7 pm. Casting About 2004. This film documents the international search to cast just the right actress in a yet unfinished period film entitled Moving Still. Barry Hershey directs.

• April 8 and 10, 9:15 pm. Mur (The Wall) 2004. This documentary explores the social, political and emotional impact a security wall erected on the West Bank has on Palestinians and Israelis. Simone Bitton directs.

Contested Realities: Pseudodocumentary and Other Staged Events

• April 5, 9 pm. C'est Arrivé Près de Chez Vous (Man Bites Dog) 1992. In this black comedy, a documentary crew agrees to document the life of a serial killer but they end up becoming culprits in the violent escapades. Rémy Belvaux directs.

An Evening with Laura Mulvey

• April 7, 7 pm. Film scholar Laura Mulvey presents her experimental documentary work: Disgraced Moments 1993 explores the fate of the former Soviet Union's monuments to communism, directed by Mulvey and Mark Lewis; AMY! 1980 is an experimental documentary directed by Mulvey and Peter Wollen that uses newsreel footage of Amy Johnson, the first woman aviator to fly solo from Great Britain to Australia; Frida Kahlo and Tina Modotti 1983 is an unconventional portrait of the Mexican painter Kahlo and Mexican photographer Tina Modotti, directed by Mulvey and Wollen.

Fashion and Film

• April 18, 7 pm. A Fei Jing Juen (Days of Being Wild) 1991. A young man allows two young women to compete for his love after learning th drunken, ex-prostitute who raised him is birth mother. Wong Kar Wai directs.

Four Masters: Tarkovsky/Sembe Akerman/Kiarostami

• April 10, 7 pm. Ceddo (The Outsiders) 19 story of a beautiful princess' kidnapping is use amine the cultural clashes between Muslim sion, Christianity and the slave trade. O Sembene directs.

• April 17, 7 pm. Moolaadé (Magical Pro 2004. A Senegalese woman takes a stand aga male circumcision and grants refuge to four girls who want to escape genital mutilation bene directs.

Frames of Mind

• April 5, 7 pm. Rashômon 1950. This Japan retells a 12th-century tale of a murder and it math recalled from different points of view Kurosawa directs.

• April 11 and 12, 7 pm. Fa Yeung Nin Wa Mood for Love) 2000. A man and a woman li neighboring Hong Kong apartments form when they both suspect their spouses of hav fairs. Wong directs.

Harvard Student Film Classics

• April 9, 7 pm. This program highlights film duced by Harvard graduates who work in the dustry. The films include: Nixon 1969, direc Kevin Rafferty; Sand or Peter and the Wolf directed by Caroline Leaf; Jama Masjid Stree nal 1979, directed by Mira Nair; Superm Sweep 1991, directed by Darren Aronofsk Roswell 1994, directed by Bill Brown.

Objects in Motion

• April 11, 9 pm. Der Golem—Wie Er in di Kam (The Golem) 1920. In 16th-century Pra rabbi creates a monster out of clay to help his fight against the emperor's expulsion of the Jew the ghetto. Paul Wegener and Carl Boese direc

• April 12, 9 pm. The Rocky Horror P Show 1975. A newly engaged couple stu upon the bizarre castle of Dr. Frank-N-Furte is a transsexual hosting an annual convent visitors from the planet Transsexual, in this adaptation of a failed musical stage sho Sharman directs.

The Orphic Trilogy

• April 14 and 16, 7 pm. This trilogy explores lationship between reality and fantasy and a and his work through three of Jean Cocteau's Le Sang d'un Poète (Blood of a Poet) 193 imagination of a young poet is revealed in th moment between the collapse of a factory ch and its hitting the ground. Orphée (Orpheus) The tragic Greek myth of Orpheus and Eury retold in this modern French film. Le Testa d'Orphée (The Testament of Orpheus) 1960. self-portrait, Cocteau reflects on his past as illustrator, writer and filmmaker.

la/Frampton and Film: 1958 and ond il 15, 7 pm. (nostalgia) 1971. As 13 of photog- r Hollis Frampton's still images burn on a hot a voiceover reminisces about friends and fail- Frampton directs. Mulvey, author of Hollis pton: (nostalgia), speaks at this screening. Also ng, Frank Stella at the Fogg 1984. This short locuments Stella's gallery talk and interview g the Fogg Art Museum exhibition Frank Stella ed Works. Caroline A. Jones directs. Also ng, Palindrome 1969. This short film features aste at both ends of processed film rolls, which ble abstract surrealist paintings. Frampton di-il 15, 9 pm. A Movie 1958. This short film is entirely of scraps from B-movies, newsreels, ty shorts and film leader to paint a portrait of ica's fascination with catastrophe and conquest. Connor directs. Also showing, Anticipation of ight 1958. In this silent short film, the protago- amera attempts to participate in the visions of a but as night falls, he's unable to regain that in- ce. Stan Brakhage directs. Also showing, Ar- tainer 1958. This black-and-white short is a ge of black-and-clear leader, white noise and si- to illustrate the theory that cinema is a projec- f still images that speak between frames. Peter ka directs. Also showing, Scratch 1966. This and-white, silent film is 11 minutes of dark with a continuous handmade scratch. Robert directs. Also showing, Serene Velocity 1970. ilent, short film records the empty corridor of a sity building with systematic changes in focal by a zoom lens. Ernie Gehr directs.

NSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY ART

erimental Film and Video by ra Welitoff and Luther Price

l 14, 8 pm. This screening of short films fea- Suara Welitoff's A Million Sunsets 2005 and e Boy 2005, as well as Luther Price's Home nd Mother 1989.

EUM OF FINE ARTS

k Maria Film and Video Festival

il 5, 7:45 pm. The Hunters 1957. Director John Marshall follows a group of men in Africa over a five-day period as they hunt a giraffe.

- April 8, 10:30 am. Whose Is This Song? 2003. Director Adela Peeva travels to Turkey, Greece, Macedonia, Albania, Bosnia, Serbia and Bulgaria in search of the true origins of a song.
- April 13, 8 pm. Co-presented with the Balagan Film Series and Faith Quilt Project, the festival showcases a series of short films that explore the theme of faith from 1981 to the present.
- April 14, 6 pm. Dead Birds 1964. Director Robert Gardner follows a New Guinea tribesman, who is a member of the Dani people, and captures the Dani's system of intertribal warfare and revenge.
- April 15, 2 pm. A Gleam in the Dark 2002. During the Argentine military dictatorship in 1976, 400 anti-government activists were taken to detention centers and many were never seen again, in an event called the Night of the Blackout. Pablo Milstein and Noberto Ludin direct.
- April 16, 10:30 am. Sin Embargo: Never the Less 2003. This documentary examines Cuba's survival after the revolution and U.S. embargo forced the country to fend for itself. Judith Grey, Katherine Cheng and Eva Orner direct. Also showing, Cheerleader 2005. This documentary explores the sideline sport of cheerleading. Kimberlee Bassford directs. Also showing, A Time to Reflect: A History of Whalom Park 2005. Director Aaron Cadieux takes an in-depth look at the disappearance of amusement parks.

Engagements

- April 12, 8:30 pm; April 14, 8:15 pm; April 15, 3:45 pm. Al Otro Lado (To the Other Side) 2005. Natalia Almada directs this film about an aspiring corrido composer from Mexico who must decide whether to traffic drugs or to illegally cross the border into the U.S.
- April 15, 7:30 pm. Big Stakes 1922. The Devil Music Ensemble performs an original score at the screening of this silent western about a Texan who saves a hometown girl from a Ku Klux Klan leader. Clifford S. Elfelt directs.

FIFA: Montreal's Festival of Film on Art

- April 12, 5:30 pm. Tápies Tea 2004. This film is about the life of 20th-century artist Antoni Tápies.

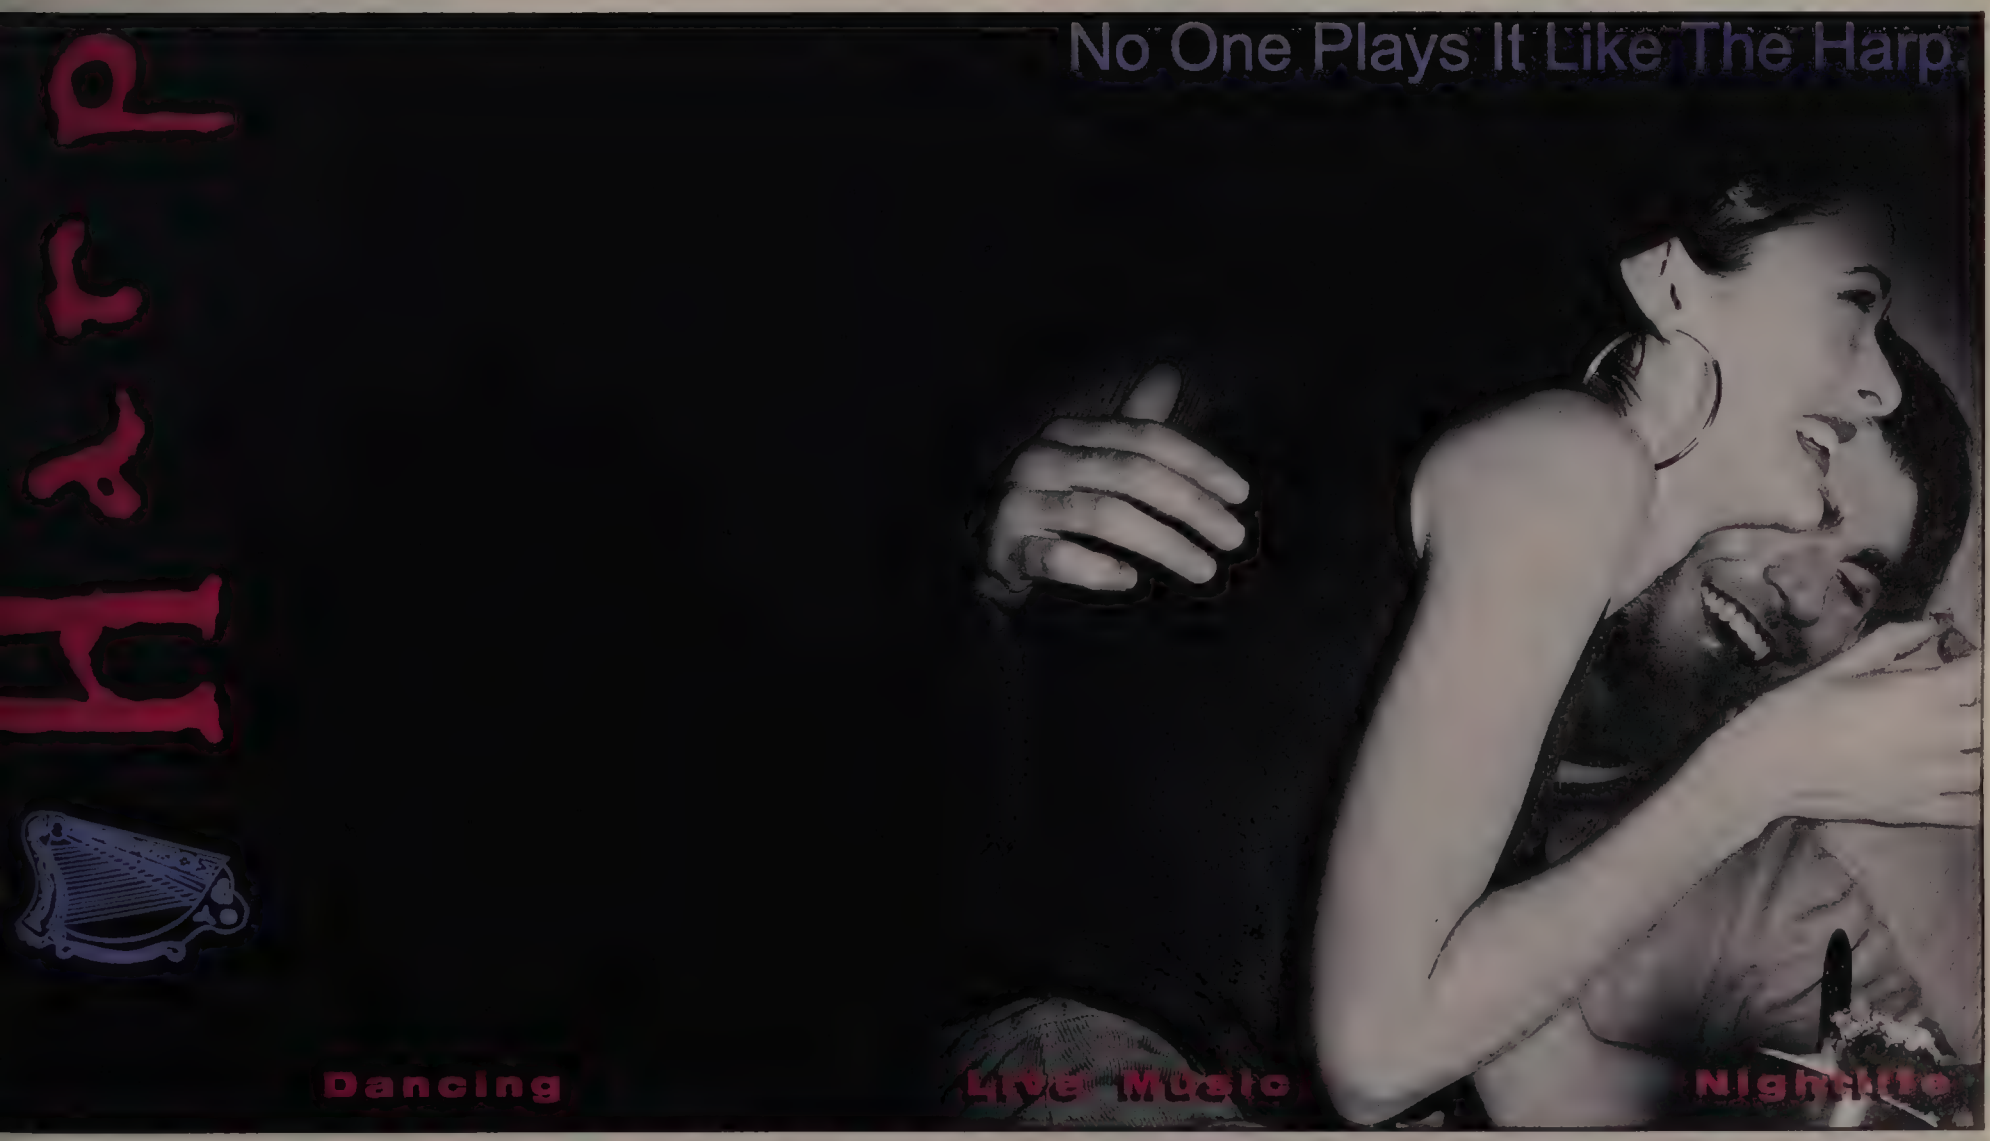
BONFIRE
A TODD ENGLISH STEAKHOUSE

The Steakhouse has met its match

Taste and see what happens when Bonfire takes on the traditional American steakhouse. Finely aged steaks, seafood, unique entrees, inventive cocktails, and an unexpected Taco Menu

For online reservations visit
www.bonfiresteakhouse.com

50 Park Plaza, Boston Ma 02116
617-262-FIRE



85 Causeway Street, Boston Across from the Garden www.harpboston.com 617•742•1010

Carolina Tubau directs. Also showing, Eternal Gaze 2003. This computer-animated film highlights the last years of artist Alberto Giacometti's life. Sam Chen directs. Also showing, Around 2004. This film showcases American sculptor Richard Serra's work. Pappi Corsicato directs.

• April 12, 7 pm. La Rue Zone Interdite (Off Limits) 2005. Canadian photographer Gilbert Duclos directs this film about the role of public photography in Canada after the Supreme Court ruling that photographs of strangers must be cleared by the subject before being published.

• April 13, 2:45 pm; April 15, 10:30 am. The Death of Salvador Dalí 2005. Delaney Bishop directs this film about Dalí's visit to Sigmund Freud's office. Also showing, The Dalí Dimension 2004. Susi Marquès directs this film about Dalí's interest in and relationship with such scientists as Freud and James Watson

• April 13, 4:15 pm. Dancer: Jean-Pierre Perreault 2005. Tim Southam directs this film about contemporary dance icon Perreault. Also showing, The Cost of Living 2004. Lloyd Newson directs this movie about David and Eddie, professional jugglers who are trying to make ends meet in a small town by the sea.

• April 13, 6 pm. Moshe Safdie, the Power of Architecture 2004. Donald Winkler directs this film about Israeli-born Canadian architect Moshe Safdie's journey and work as he moved from project to project.

• April 15, 12 pm. Molinari—La Couleur Chante (Molinari—The Color Sings) 2004. Lauriaine André G. directs this film about Canadian painter, poet, sculptor and theoretician Guido Molinari and his artistic influences Mallarmé and Mondrian. Also showing, Around 2004. See April 12 listing for description. Corsicato directs.

• April 15, 2:15 pm. Forbidden Notes: Scenes from the Life of Music in the Soviet Russia 2004. Bruno Monsaingeon directs this film about an orchestra leader during difficult times in Soviet Russia.

International Women's Film Festival

• April 5, 6 pm. Kako Ubiv Svetec (How I Killed a Saint) 2003. Viola readjusts to life in Macedonia after going to college in the U.S. and experiences the reality behind the civil war first-hand as she accompanies her brother Kokan in an undercover scheme. Teona Strugar Mitevska directs.

• April 6, 2 pm. Mila ot Mars (Mila from Mars) 2004. A 16-year-old punk girl with an unwanted pregnancy tries to run away from a dangerous man, but winds up on a small marijuana plantation that he runs. Zorrista Sophia directs.

• April 7, 6 pm. Vylet, Czech Republic (Some Secrets) 2002. On a road trip to Slovakia to spread their grandfather's ashes, family members gain perspective on their relationships to one another and what really matters to each of them. Alice Nellis directs.

• April 8, 12:15 pm. 27 Missing Kisses 2000. Sybilla, a teenager on a summer vacation, falls for a man nearly twice her age, whose 14-year-old son then falls in love with her. Nana Djordjadze directs.

New Animated Film Programs

• April 16, 4 pm. Collected Works is the first in a series of three programs that showcase films by cutting-edge animators around the world including cNote 2005, directed by Christ Hinton; The Old Crocodile 2005, directed by Koji Yamamura; and Eternal Gaze 2003, directed by Sam Chen.

Turkish Film and Music Festival

• April 7, 8 pm. 2 Girls 2005. Two teenage girls begin an intense relationship and hatch a secret plan to escape their dysfunctional families. Kutlug Ataman directs.

• April 8, 2:15 pm. Mustafa Hakkinda Heresy (All About Mustafa) 2004. This psychological drama follows the story of a man whose life is turned upside down after his wife is killed in a car accident. Cagan Irmak directs.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Mugar Omni Theatre

• Amazon. This semidocumentary IMAX film follows a real-life American ethnobotanist and a fictional medicine man on parallel searches for healing plants amid the Zoë tribe, possibly the last tribe in the Americas to remain culturally intact. Through April 30.

• Greece: Secrets of the Past. This film takes viewers on an archeological adventure that examines historical locations in Greece, such as the Parthenon, and reconstructs them through the use of computer imaging. Through Sept. 4.

• Special Effects. This film takes a behind-the-scenes look at the making of Star Wars: Where Science Meets Imagination, Kazaam!, Independence Day and Jumanji. Through April 30.

• Wired-to-Win: Surviving the Tour de France. This film explores how the body's organs are connected to the brain, how the brain reacts to external sti how these factors ultimately determine the w the world's most prestigious bicycle race. April 30.

NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM

Simons IMAX Theater

• Aliens of the Deep. NASA scientists and biologists embark on an expedition to hyc mal vent sites in the Atlantic and Pacific o explore volcanic regions. Through June.

• Deep Sea 3D. An underwater crew logs hours underwater on 225 dives, filming squi Sea of Cortez, jellyfish off Monterey, and cora the Bahamas. Through June.

• Sharks 3D. Cousteau explores several shark using three-dimensional views. Through Jun

• Wild Safari 3D. This film shows the Africa nah from a safari jeep exploration. Through

Cinema Venues

ARLINGTON

Regent Theatre

7 Medford St. (617-646-4849).

BELMONT

Studio Cinema

376 Trapelo Road (617-484-1706).

BOSTON

Boston Public Library

700 Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Fenway 13 Theatre

201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). D Green Line to Fenway.

Institute of Contemporary Art

955 Boylston St. (617-266-5152). Green Line to Hynes/ICA.

Loews Boston Common

175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Line to Boylston.

Museum of Fine Arts

465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). E Green Line to Museum.

Museum of Science

Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Science Park.

New England Aquarium

Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue Aquarium.

BROOKLINE

Circle Cinema

399 Chestnut Hill Ave. (617-566-4040). MB Green Line to Cleveland Circle.

Coolidge Corner Theatre

290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE

Brattle Theatre

40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Harvard.

Fresh Pond

168 Alewife Brook Parkway (617-661-2900). Red Line to Alewife.

Harvard Film Archive

24 Quincy St. (617-495-4700). MBTA: Red Harvard.

Kendall Square Cinema

1 Kendall Square (617-621-1202). MBTA: Line to Ruggles.

Loews/Sony

10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Harvard.

NEWTON

Chestnut Hill Cinema

27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Line to Chestnut Hill.

West Newton Cinema

1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060). MBTA: muter Rail to West Newton.

SOMERVILLE

Loews/Sony

35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: C Line to Sullivan.

Somerville Theatre

55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Re to Davis.

WALTHAM

Center for Digital Imaging Arts

274 Moody St. (1-800-808-2342). MBTA: muter Rail to Waltham.

vice to Contributors
nut information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc. by fax 7-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music, or by il to music@improper.com. Include dates, times, es, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline is weeks prior to publication date. Listings not ac- ed over the phone.

vice to Readers
rmation for the Music section is compiled from dif- nt sources. Although we make every effort to provide rate dates and times, changes do occur. Call ahead uble-check dates and times (see complete list of es at the end of the section).

op Billings

ustic Alchemy April 5, The Burren (617-776- 6).
dline Trio April 18, Avalon (617-931-2000).
th Cab for Cutie, Franz Ferdinand, the Cribs l 12, Agganis Arena (617-358-7000).
ssa Ferrick and Erin McKeown April 7, erville Theater (617-625-5700).
stface April 13, Paradise Rock Club (617-931-).
elly April 7, Wang Center (617-451-1436).
tha Wainwright and Neko Case April 5, The (617-338-7699).
Yeah Yeahs April 7, Orpheum Theatre (617- 0810).

ock, Jazz nd Blues

EDNESDAY, APRIL 5

ey Lounge Main Stage: Sunset Heros, the n, the Coaster Thives, Mongrel Tide, 9 pm; Pub e: Bryan McPherson, Janet Connerney, 7 pm, 8, 21+.
on Greyboy Allstars, 8 pm, $20.25.
Bayside, 6:30 pm, $12.
Bar Blowfly, Big Digits, Miss Fairchild, 9 pm,

Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
o at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cover.
ol Lounge Ben Cook, 6 pm.
Burren Acoustic Alchemy, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
ab Lounge Candy's Rythem & Blues Jam, 9 pm.
Passim Rich DelGrosso, 8 pm, $10-$12.
's Last Resort Jenn & Steve Show, 7:30 pm, no r.
Owen Plant, Eric Himan, Levi Kreis, 9 pm, $8,

t Scott The Fenway Recordings Sessions, Arab , A Whisper In the Noise, 9 pm, $12-$14, 18+.
Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9:30, no r, 21+.
ers Ferry Marc Rizzo, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
iessy's The Buzz Karaoke Band, 9:30 pm, 21+.
ny D's The Skeeters, Junior Brown, 8:30 pm, 21+.
d Lounge The Ry Cavanaugh Band, The Den- rennen Band, 7:30 pm, $5. y's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, Adam ert, 9 pm.
lle East Upstairs: Beautiful Weekend, Micah Smaldone, More Dogs, Nurse and Soldier, 9 $8, 18+.
Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm.
y O's Phil Ayoub, 9:30 pm, 21+.
dise Lounge Glen Tilbrook, Jim Bianco, 8 pm, 18+.
ttabar Enrico Rava & Stefano Bollani Duo, pm, $16.
Martha Wainwright, Neko Case, 8:30 pm, $20,

ers Jazz Club Claudia Villela, 8 and 10:30 pm,

a nÓg Bad Art Ensemble, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Miss Tess, Amelia White, 7 pm, no cover.
of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no r.
he Bear's Place Legendary Shack Shakers, rend Glasseye, Scott H. Biram, 9:30 pm, $12, r's Jazz Cafe Wally's Stepchildren, 9 pm.

Zygomates Harry Fix Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

URSDAY, APRIL 6

ey Lounge Main Stage: The Bel Nel Dogs, Henry, Soul Piece, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Jay Fein- Betty Widerski, 7 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Billy Cox, Mato Nanje, Indigenous, Eric Gales Kenny Olson, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Bar Rock Candy, 9 pm, $5, 18+.
Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.

This Year's Model

Rhett Miller rolls beyond the Old 97's with a sleek pop makeover.

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

Like a model from a '70s-styled fashion spread, Rhett Miller leans into paisley pillows in a velvety purple suit on the cover of his second solo outing, The Believer. It's a different image than the one that he strikes as frontman of his other band, Texan alt-country rockers the Old 97's.

The same goes for the CD's sleek pop-rock, though Miller says he isn't likely to be sporting the purple suit when he leads his new group the Believers at the Paradise April 12.

"I'll probably dress a little nicer than the T-shirt and jeans look that I've cultivated in the past," the singer-songwriter says from a Denver tour stop. "For so many years, it was this weird renegade thing, flying around the country and trying to conquer each bar. Now I feel like a pro. I should look like a pro and sound like a pro."

To that end, Miller hit the studio without his acoustic guitar and focused on his singing, backed by session musicians assembled by producer George Drakoulias, best known for his work with the Black Crowes and Tom Petty.

"I've played on so many records," says Miller, 35, who's released six albums with the 97's in addition to his 2002 solo debut The Instigator. "I felt I should really do things that I haven't done, like work with a real old-school producer and let the band be the band."

The resulting disc boasts smartly crafted pop tunes that are polished to a dense sheen and range from the yearning "Meteor Shower" to the glam-rocking "Ain't That Strange," which nods to his early love of T. Rex and David Bowie as well as the Beatles, Buddy Holly and Willie Nelson. "It's something the 97's would never do," Miller says of the latter song. "I paid attention to that one more because it's sort of the far end of the sonic spectrum for me."

After all, even if Miller only takes pop leanings a step further on his solo CDs than on the later efforts by the 97's, he draws flak. "It's inevitable," he says. "It happened with every 97's record, too. When Fight Songs came out, it was markedly prettier than stuff we'd done in the past, and there was an enormous backlash. I've had to render myself immune as much as possible and thicken my skin."

It's not like his life has always been a shiny, happy trip, though he was more grounded making The Believer than The Instigator, which was recorded after he and his wife and baby fled their home a block from the World Trade Center on Sept. 11.

"We were homeless, and I went out to L.A. and into making that album," Miller says. "[This time] it was just a happy, loving environment, and I was able to take nourishment from it and go into the studio every day and feel strong—which I had to, because George Drakoulias is very pushy."

Before the CD ends with the hopeful note of "Question," an engagement tune first recorded with the 97's ("It's one of my favorite songs I've ever written, and I really wanted an opportunity to flesh it out," he says of its string-laced remake), the singer tackled the personal topic of suicide.

"The Believer" reflects the experience of Miller's own suicide attempt at age 14, when he overdosed on pills, although the non-judgmental song was directly inspired by his acquaintance with the late troubadour Elliott Smith.

"We were never especially close, because the last few years of his life were tumultuous and sad," Miller says. "But the word was that he was doing better, so when I got the phone call that he had died, it was kind of devastating. He never really understood the effect he had on people and how much people appreciated his gifts. It was tough for me to hear just because I had gone through so much self-destructive behavior."

Rhett Miller returns with a new group, sound and image.

"I remember being very young and being flattened that this is all there is, just day after day of being beaten down by the world, and as I survived, I had to figure out what I would make of it," says Miller. "I'm so lucky to have my job and my life."

After his suicide attempt, Miller began playing guitar in earnest ("It's my safety net") and got his first gig within the year, courtesy of bassist Murray Hammond, who, six years later, became his bandmate in the 97's.

"We've certainly put in enough hours over the years to where a year off isn't the end of the world," Miller says of that quartet's hiatus. "The 97's is such a democracy that it can be a pain in the ass. It makes it pretty easy and fun, but they have a tendency to say no and be very ornery." iB

Rhett Miller & the Believers play April 12 at the Paradise Rock Club.

cottonwood
RESTAURANT & CAFÉ

WOW !!!
OVER 2 MILLION ZUNI ROLLS SERVED !

Thanks to the PARISH CAFE for serving over 1.1 MILLION ZUNI ROLLS ...

THANK YOU BOSTON

1,000,000+ Snakebites
800,000+ Mixed Grills
200,000+ Fire and Spice
500,000+ Chocolate Nachos served ... and still counting !

Why the West was Won!

cottonwood
ORIGINAL SOUTHWEST CUISINE
222 BERKELEY STREET BOSTON
TWO HOUR FREE PARKING EVENINGS AND WEEKENDS
617.247.2225

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

Black Eyed Peas and the Pussycat Dolls April 29, Agganis Arena (617-358-7000).
Andrea Bocelli June 16, Tweeter Center (617-228-6000).
Elvis Costello May 10, Boston Symphony Hall (617-266-1492).
Gov't Mule, Michael Franti and Spearhead June 2, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Faith Hill and Tim McGraw June 25 and 26, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
Steve Miller Band Aug. 25 and 26, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Willie Nelson May 27, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
The New Cars with Blondie June 7, Ba America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Pearl Jam May 24, TD Banknorth Garden 624-1000).
P.O.D. April 22, Axis (617-262-2437).
Linda Ronstadt June 1, Opera House (617 2000).
Sigur Ros May 14, Bank of America Pav (617-728-1600).
The Strokes April 25, Agganis Arena (617 7000).
Taking Back Sunday May 5, Avalon (617 2000).
Train April 25, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0

Bob's Southern Bistro Part Time Lovers, 7 pm, $3.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cover.
Breezeway Serious Bizness, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Bert Seager, 6 pm.
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge ChickenSlacks, 9 pm.
Club Passim Peter Mulvey, John Francis, 8 pm, $13-$15.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Green Street Grill Joh Camara & Jama-Jigi, Afro Pop High Life, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Lamin Toure & Saloum, 9 pm, $8.
Kirkland Café Bass Junkies, Farmhands, 8 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge Twinemen, the All Night Chemists, 8 pm, $10.
Lucky's Lounge The Alex MacDougall Band, 9:30 pm.
Matt Murphy's Wild Sextet, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Boink Does Burlesque, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
NEC's Jordan Hall Weilerstein Duo, 8 pm, free.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm.
PA's Bunnybrains, Feathers, Fat Worm of Error, Dreamhouse, Energy, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Justin Beach & Tom Groleau, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Matt Nathanson, Blu Sanders, 8 pm, 18+.
Regattabar Monty Alexander Trio, 7:30 pm & 10 pm, $28.
Scullers Jazz Club Toots Thielemans, Oscar Castro Neves, Kenny Werner, 8 pm and 10:30 pm, $28.
Tír na nÓg Ronan Quinn, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad The Family Jewels, Ultimate Frizbee, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place South, Something For Rockets, Margot & the Nuclear So & So's, 9:30 pm, $12, 18+.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Meat Depressed, Ramoniacs, Rattle Battle, the Illegals, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Pucker, Josh Buckley, 7 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
The Attic Hart, 8 pm, 21+.
Bill's Bar Westward Trail, Porches on the Autobahn, Texas Governor, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Boston Harbor Hotel Jeff Hicks Trio, 7:30 pm.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm.
The Burren Cover Up, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook, 9 pm.
Club Passim John Stewart, 8 pm, $18-$20.
Desmond O'Malley's Glory Bound, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Mutha's Mistake, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Good Life Downtown Al Vega Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Friday Episode, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Harp The Loop, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Eclective Collective, Project Move, JG Baldi, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5 pm; Scooby Snax, Spike the Punch, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Joint Chiefs, Slavic Soul Party, 9:45 pm, $8, 21+.
Kinsale Chad Burtch, 9 pm.
Kirkland Café Clampede, Forget the Girl, Lauren Flaherty, Mickey Bliss Organ Combo, 8:30 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge Anny Celsi, Peter Mulvey, 7:30 pm, $15.
Lucky's Lounge Justin Beech Band, 10 pm.
Matt Murphy's BQEZ, 11 pm, no cover.
Midway Café Neptune, Gay Beast, 9 pm, 21+
Mr. Dooley's Maxi, 5 pm; Patsy & Tony, 9 p 21+.
Oak Bar The Bill Laughlin Quartet, 8:15 pm
Orpheum Theatre Yeah Yeah Yeahs, 7:30 pm
PA's The Collisions, Bulletproof Plan, L Spain, Pending Dissapointment, 9 pm, $6-$8
Paddy O's Marrk Morris & the Catunes, 9: 21+.
Paradise Lounge Greesome, Soulfege, 9 pm, $
Paradise Rock Club Wolf Parade, Holy Besnard Lakes, 8 pm, 18+.
Parris Mr. Green Genes, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Regattabar Olu Dara, 7:30 pm & 10 pm, $24
Scullers Jazz Club Toots Thielemans, Oscar Neves, Kenny Werner, 7 pm and 9 pm, $28.
Somerville Theatre Melissa Ferrick, Erin own, 8 pm, $23-$28.
Symphony Hall Soweto Gospel Choir, 8 pm, $ $58.
Terrace Lounge Zaitchik Brothers, 9:30 pm.
Toad Mike Leavy and the Strange Cat People, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 p cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Violet Nine, Bleu, the mation, Everyday Visuals, 9:15 pm, $10, 18+.
Venezia Ron Towers, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Wang Center R. Kelly, 8 pm, $42-$85.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no co

SATURDAY, APRIL 8

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: three Sheets, the ers, Reason To Fight, the Welch Boys, 8:30 p Stage: Chuck Melchin, Justin Peterson, 7 p $8, 21+.
Asgard The Arielle Silver Band, no cover.
Avalon Beth Orton, 7 pm, $18.50.
The Attic Playin Dead, 8 pm, 21+
Berklee Performance Center The Ch McBride Band, the Charlie Hunter Trio, DJ Bobby Previte, 7:30 pm, $20.
Bill's Bar The Vershok, A Wish for Fire, the C letter, Appomattox, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
The Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm,
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, Alfredo Cardim,
The Burren Grayspot, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook, 9 pm.
Copperfield's Cary Pierce, Christopher Willi and 10 pm, $13-$15.
Desmond O'Malley's Groove Authority, 9 p cover, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Big 80's, 9:30 pm, no cover
Good Life Downtown Al Vega Trio, 9:30 p cover, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Bald Walter, 9:30 p 21+.
Green Street Grill Kilombo Mambo, 11:30 pm,
The Harp The Loop, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Paranoid Social Club, 9 pm, $7,
Hennessy's Velvet Jones, Open Bar, 9:30 pm, $5
Johnny D's Peter Mulvey Group, Chris Pureka pm, $15, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Brandon Heisler, Brenda patrick, 9:30 pm, $5, 18+.
Kinsale Symbolics, 9 pm.
Kirkland Café Scrum Daddy, 8:30 pm, $5.
Kirsch Auditorium @ MIT OS Thyagarajan, B. Ganesh Prasad, Poongulam Subremaniam, 7:30 $10-$18.
Lily Pad Mill City Trio, 7 pm.
Lizard Lounge Anna Freitas, Sand Machine, 7:3 $8.

:y's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, 7 pm.
t Murphy's Stillhouse Revue, 11 pm, no cover.
Dooley's Patsy & Tony, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Bar The Bill Laughlin Quartet, 8:15 pm.
Colossal Yes, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
ly O's Last Laugh, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
dise Lounge Garrison Starr, Michele Malone, e McCue, Happy Endings, Project Jenny, 6 pm, 18+.
dise Rock Club Josh Rouse, Strays Don't Sleep, , 18+.
s Mr. Green Genes, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
le Shamrock Syndicate, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.
ttabar Olu Dara, 7:30 pm & 10 pm, $24.
is Auditorium @ MFA Fahir Atakoglu Trio, pm, $20-$25
ers Jazz Club Toots Thielemans, Oscar Castro s, Kenny Werner, 7 pm and 9 pm, $28.
ıce Lounge Zaitchik Brothers, 9:30 pm.
a nÓg The Eilen Jewell Band, 5:30 pm; Dennis na, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Cranktones, 10 pm, no cover.
of the Hub Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 pm, no :.
he Bear's Place Eyes Like Knives, Protokoll, Ray, Fires!, 9:15 pm, $8, 18+.
zia Ron Towers, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Western Front Fire Night, 9 pm, $7.
:ygomates Marianne Solivan, 8 pm, no cover.

NDAY, APRIL 9

y Lounge Main Stage: Over the Edge, Jafos- , Mach 5, Egoscene, Girl on Top, Illegals, 8 pm, , 21+.
sia Café Kristin Fonseca, Christie Leigh, 6:30 5.
n John Butler Trio, 7 pm, $17.50.
Regina Spektor, 7 pm, $12.
Black Rose Sean Cunningham, 9:30 pm, 21+.
at the MFA Ron Poster, 11:30 am, no cover.
ol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11 am; Alfredo m, 6 pm.
ub Lounge Candy's Rhythm & Blues Jam, 9 pm.
Passim Teye, Ben Arnold, 7:30 pm, $10-$12.
s Last Resort John Erikson, 7 pm, no cover.
Druid Tastes Like Grave String Band, 8 pm, no 21+.
Forsyth Chapel Ron Murphy, 4 pm, $15.
Great Scott The Fenway Recordings Sessions, Wolfmother, Die! Die! Die!, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Brick Park, 9:30 pm.
Harpers Ferry Jesse Dee, Jennifer Matthews, James Christenson, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's The Tom Groleau Band, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Matt Dorko & Larry Kukers, 9 am, no cover; Blues Jam, 4:30 pm, $3, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Bennett Miller Jazz Trio, 11 am; Al Vega Trio, Adam Herbert, 8:30 pm.
Matt Murphy's Blast Off, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Lannen Fall, Medicated Kisses, Gyre, Fordoes Me Quite, A Modern Love Story, 1 pm; Heartless Bastards, Soledad Brothers, 9 pm, $10, 18+; Downstairs: Murs, 9th Wonder, Surpreme, Awkward Landing, Elemental Zazen, Soular Winds, Al Jabra, 10 pm, $15, 18+.
Milky Way Lynne Breedlove, 10 pm, 21+.
Mr. Dooley's Pat Hoey, 4 pm.
PA's Scarcelight Records, Accelera Deck, Chuck Bettis, Mikroknytes, Howard Stelzer, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Quincy Coleman, 8 pm, $7, 18+.
Remis Auditorium @ MFA Jason Moran and Bandwagon, 8 pm, $20-$25.
Ryles Jazz Club Sunday Jazz Brunch, 10 am, no cover.
Toad The Goody Trio, Sunday night blues, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm; Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Stilfro, Laughing At the Sun, Love Sick New Year, 9:15 pm, $7, 18+.
Wally's Jazz Cafe Wally's Stepchildren2, 9 pm.
Wonder Bar OD3 Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

MONDAY, APRIL 10

Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: the Blue Ribbons, Jay Feinstein, 7 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Axis Poison the Well, 5:30 pm, $12.
The Black Rose Tony O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Joe Morocco, 6 pm.
Club Passim Dave Palmater, 8 pm, $5-$10.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm, no cover.
Harpers Ferry Steel Train, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Hennessy's Joe Carson, 9:30 pm, 21+.

www.harvestcambridge.com
HARVEST
CONTEMPORARY CUISINE
INSPIRED BY AMERICAN CLASSICS
Lunch, Dinner & Sunday Brunch RESERVATIONS 617.868.2255
[ON THE WALKWAY] 44 Brattle Street, Harvard Square

Matt Murphy's Mike Tucker, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: the New Amsterdams, 9 pm, $12, 18+; Downstairs: Eugene Mirman, Todd Barry, 10 pm, $12, 18+.
PA's Souvenir's Young America, Bakula, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Tír na nÓg Guest Chef, 7:30 pm; the Kevin Byrne Band, 8:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Shwang, the Tim Gearan Band, 8 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Marc Flynn, Greenstar, Sweet Release, 8:30 pm, $3, 18+.
Wonder Bar Sam Kininger, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAY, APRIL 11

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Tenafly Vipers, Kenny Chambers, Triple Thick, Lenny, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Ray Neades, 7 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
An Tua Nua The Vacant Lot, Chris Wilhem, 8:30 pm, $7, 21+.
The Black Rose The McTaggerts, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm.
Cantab Lounge Boston City Limits, Tastes Like Gravy, 8 pm.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm, no cover.
The Foundation Lounge Jeanie Flynn and the Strays, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Great Scott Great Scott, Drab, Rose Hallow, the Televangelist, the Architect, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Green Street Grill The Two Timin' Three, the Hills, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Harpers Ferry Nate Clendenen, Andrew Parker Renga, 9 pm, $5, 18+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Manege A Trois, 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Kinsale Tom Courtney, 7 pm.
Lizard Lounge Ramona Silver, Wildlight, 8:30 pm, $5.
Matt Murphy's Micro, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Owen, William Elliot Whitmore, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Midway Café Vicki Blankenship, Ashleigh Flynn, Jess Yoakum, Carlyn Hutchins, 8 pm, 21+.
Oak Bar Gregory Sahagen, 7:30 pm.
PA's Shumai, Bunnygrunt, the Specific Heats, B for Brontosaurus, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Robert Earl Keen, 7 pm, 18+.
Regattabar Steve Smith & Vital Information, 7:30 pm, $22.50.
Roxy Gogol Bordello, Zox, 8 pm, $15.
Scullers Jazz Club Tessa Souter, 8 and 10:30 pm, $16.
Tír na nÓg David Johnston, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Rose Polenzani Band, Rathbone, Scotch Rocks, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Pilot Light, the Glass Family, Choo Choo LaRouge, the Exchange Rate, 9 pm, $7, 18+.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12

Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: Honest Thomas, Joe Shortsleee, Girls, Guns and Glory, Five Till Midnight, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Agganis Arena Franz Ferdinand, Death Cab for Cutie, the Cribs, 7:30 pm, $35.
Avalon Clap Your Hands Say Yeah, 8 pm, $14.25.
The Black Rose The McTaggerts, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm.
The Burren Acoustic Alchemy, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Rhythm & Blues Jam, 9 pm.
Club Passim Jamie Laval, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dick's Last Resort Jenn & Steve Show, 7 pm, no cover.
Great Scott Honeypump, BlackOut Bar, the Gris Gris, Brian Glaze, Reports, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Hennessy's The Buzz Karaoke Band, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Samite, 8:30 pm, $15, 21+.
Lizard Lounge The Ry Cavanaugh Band, the Dennis Brennan Band, 7:30 pm, $5.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, Adam Herbert, 9 pm.
Middle East Downstairs: the Appleseed Cast, Victory at Sea, Aloha, 10 pm, $10-$12; McCoy Brothers, Evolution, 8 pm, $8, 18+.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm.
PA's Joy, Meredith Bragg and the Terminals, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Rhett Miller & the Believers, Nicole Dunger, 7 pm, 18+.

DJ Logic plays April 8 at the Berklee Performance Center.

Scullers Jazz Club Tower of Power, 8 pm and 10:30 pm, $35-$38.
Tír na nÓg Bad Art Ensemble, 10 pm, $3, 21+.
Toad The Judy Grind, Amelia White, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Township, American Princes, Midstates, the Near Departed, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Wally's Jazz Cafe Wally's Stepchildren, 9 pm.
Les Zygomates Rusty Scott Quartet, 8 pm, no cover.

THURSDAY, APRIL 13

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Tullamores, Fred Shafer, Summer Villains, Satch Kerans and the Riverboys, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
The Attic Another Planet, 8 pm, 21+.
Axis Punchline, 6 pm, $10.
The Black Rose The McTaggerts, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Myanna, 7 pm, $3.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cover.
Breezeway Serious Bizness, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm.
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge ChickenSlacks, 9 pm.
Club Passim Danielle Miraglia, 8 pm, $10-$12.
Felt Francis Kim, Fugitive Kind.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Green Street Grill Joh Camara & Jama-Jigi, Afro Pop High Life, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Chick Singer Night, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Kirkland Café And People & Crocodiles, 8 pm, $5.
Lily Pad Mike McNeill, 8 pm.
Lizard Lounge Club D'Elf, 9:30 and 11:30 pm, $10.
Lucky's Lounge The Alex MacDougall Band, 9:30 pm.
Matt Murphy's Round Midnight, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Abigail Warchild, the Best Awfuls, 9 pm, $9.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 7:30 pm.
PA's Yoni Gordon and the Goods, the Speed of Things, Bread & Roses, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Ghostface, 9 pm, $20-$22, 18+.
Playhouse Lounge M1, lll Natural, 8 pm, 18+.
Regattabar Obbini Tumbao, 7:30 pm, $12.
Scullers Jazz Club Tower of Power, 8 and 10:30 pm, $35-$38.
Tír na nÓg Ronan Quinn, 10 pm, no cver, 21+.
Toad The Family Jewels, John Cate and the Van Gogh Brothers, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 p cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Wilderness Midnigh and Labor, Polaris Mine, Paper Thin Stages $9, 18+.
Les Zygomates Brian Kelley Trio, 8 pm, no c

FRIDAY, APRIL 14

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: the Konks, the the Black Clouds, 9:30 pm; Pub Stage: Seth Chad Verbeck, 7 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
The Attic Chris Nemitz, 8 pm, 21+.
Avalon The Sounds, 6:30 pm, $15.
Axis Emery and Anberlin, the Fold, the Crime, Jonezetta, 5:30 pm, $15.
Bill's Bar Emergency Music, the Bleedin' Blee pm, $5, 18+.
The Black Rose The McTaggerts, 9:30 pm, 2
Boston Harbor Hotel Jeff Hicks Trio, 7:30 p
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no c
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, Joe Barbato, 6 pm.
The Burren Classic Trax, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook, 9 pm.
Club Passim Teddy Goldstein, 8 pm, $12-$14
Desmond O'Malley's Groovestone, 10 pm, n 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Blockhead, 9:30 pm, no c
Good Life Downtown Al Vega Trio, 9:30 cover, 21+.
Great Scott The Pill, The Sterns, 9 pm, $7,
The Green Dragon Tavern Plaid Daddy, 9: $5, 21+.
The Harp Negative Space, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Lotus, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5 pm; Fast Times, 9 21+.
Johnny D's The Soul Band, 9:45 pm, $10, 21
Kirkland Café Lars Vegas, Mary Blivens, Fox, Mickey Bliss Organ Combo, 8:30 pm, $5
Lily Pad Chris Hale Ensemble, 8 and 10 pm, $
Lizard Lounge The Eilen Jewel Band, Sou 7:30 pm, $8.
Lucky's Lounge The Alex MacDougall Ba pm.
Matt Murphy's Chinabound, 11 pm, no cove
Middle East Downstairs: Bob Schneider, $15, 18+.
Milky Way The Harmonics, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Mr. Dooley's Eamon Sheehan, 5 pm; Patsy & 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Oak Bar The Bill Laughlin Quartet, 8:15 pm.
PA's Piles, Kiss Me Deadly, Blanks, Amoros pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Incadence, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

6TH ANNUAL

LESLIE'S LINKS

PRE-MARATHON CELEBRATION

In memory of Leslie Semonian, 100% of the proceeds from this event will be donated to The Leslie's Links Ewings Sarcoma Fund at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute.

SUNDAY, APRIL 16TH, 2006
6:30PM-1AM
VOX POPULI
755 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON
617.424.8300

Lite bites by Vox Populi
Featured cocktails by Gosling's Rum from 6:30-7:30pm
Cool vibes by Next Generation Productions
Door prizes and more

To purchase tickets, make a donation or for more information, go to www.leslieslinks.com or call 617.859.1400 ext. 324

LESLIE'S LINKS was founded in 1999 by Leslie Semonian who battled cancer and passed away in December of 1999 at the age of 32. During the eight and a half year period of her illness, until her death, Leslie never allowed cancer to stand in the way of her goal of helping others. She knew how precious life was and energetically embraced each day. She helped others to appreciate their own lives more. She wanted to be remembered as a participant in life, not an observer. Her passion was boundless, and will continue in the hearts of the many friends and people whom she inspired.

Leslie's Links is a fund at the Dana Farber Cancer Institute which raises money for Ewings Sarcoma Cancer Research in various ways. One of which is through the Leslie's Links bike team associated with the 192-mile Pan-Mass Challenge bike-a-thon from Sturbridge to Provincetown. Leslie's Links has raised over $860,000 since its inception in 1999, and is aiming to reach its goal of $1,125,000 by December of 2007.

Thank you for all of your support and helping us work together to make a difference!

Martha Wainwright plays April 5 at the Roxy.

Paradise Lounge Rolla, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club The Slip, Au Revoir Simone, Meowskers, 8 pm, 18+.
Parris The Rockets, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Regattabar Nicole Nelson, Dwight Richter, 7:30 and 10 pm, $15.
Scullers Jazz Club Tower of Power, 7 and 9 pm, $35-$38.
Somerville Theatre Hugh Masekela, 8 pm, $28-$35.
Terrace Lounge Groove Alliance, 9:30 pm.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 pm, no cover.
Venezia Tom Pitman, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Western Front Big Booty Bass Bumpin, 9 pm, $5.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

SATURDAY, APRIL 15

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Scotch Rocks, Blanketeer, Duresse, the Foundations, 9 pm; Pub Stage: the Farmhands, 8 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Asgard Sunset is a Battle, no cover.
The Attic Laura Meclean, Miracle Train, 8 pm, 21+.
Axis Subhumans, 6 pm, $11.
The Black Rose The McTaggerts, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro E Water Band, 7:30 pm, $5.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, Joe Barbato, 6 pm.
The Burren Moonshine, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook, 9 pm.
Club Passim Geoff Muldaur, 8 pm, $18-$20.
Desmond O'Malley's Random Play, 9 pm, no cover.
Dick's Last Resort Soul City, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Good Life Downtown Al Vega Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott The Plan, the Reputation, 9 pm, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Planet Envy, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Green Street Grill Kilombo Mambo, 11:30 pm, $5.
The Harp Negative Space, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Hit Buttered Rum String Band, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Spike the Punch, Swerve, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Love Dogs, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Joe Faulder, 9:30 pm, $5
Kinsale Celtic Clan, 9 pm.
Kirkland Café Midnight 7, Din, 9:30 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge Cathy Capozi, Ziaf, 7:30 pm.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, 7 p
Matt Murphy's C-Money, 11 pm, no cover.
Oak Bar The Bill Laughlin Quartet, 8:15 pm.
PA's Senator Whatley, Wendi Faren, Wa
Egyptians, Presley, Jake and the Jakes, Mercy
Gang, Lusting Kay, Three Sheets, Alive wit sure, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paddy O's Syndicate, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Paradise Lounge The Kin, Mike Prevetti, Ca
Condition, 9 pm, $8-$9, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Shawn Mullins, Clay C
pm, 18+.
Parris The Rockets, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Brick Times, 10:30 pm, $5, 2
Regattabar Janis Siegel Group, 7:30 and 10 pm
Scullers Jazz Club Tower of Power, 7 and 9 pm
$38.
Somerville Theatre Solas, 8 pm, $22-$28.
Terrace Lounge Groove Alliance, 9:30 pm.
Tír na nÓg Eilen Jewell Band, 5:30 pm; Kevi nolley, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Berry, 10 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 p
cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Humanwine, Beat Circu
K Redfearn & the Eyesores, Guignol, 9:15 p
$10, 18+.
Venezia Tom Pitman, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Western Front Noddaclu, 9 pm, $10.
Les Zygomates Yoko Miwa, 8 pm, no cover.

SUNDAY, APRIL 16

The Black Rose The McTaggerts, 9:30 pm, 21+
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 11:30 am, no co
Breezeway Jeff Felder, 11 am.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11 am; A
Cardim, 6 pm.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Rhythm & Blues Jam,
Club Passim Fritz Richmond Tribute, 7:30 pm

s Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm, no cover.
Druid Tastes Like Grave String Band, 8 pm, no
21+.
Scott Honeypump, Jana Hunter, Michael
nbia, Brown Bird, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Green Dragon Tavern Brick Park, 9:30 pm, no
21+.
essy's The Tom Groleau Band, 9 pm, 21+.
y D's Tom Pendergast, 9 am, no cover; Blues
:30 pm, $3, 21+.
's Lounge Bennett Miller Jazz Trio, 11 am; Al
Trio, Adam Herbert, 8:30 pm.
Murphy's Zion Blood, 11 pm, no cover.
e East The Heuristic, Doomsday 1999, Man nveyors, Kevorkian's Angels, Strictly for the One Eyed Stanley, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
The Black Dove, Alec K. Redfearn, 9 pm, $6-
+.
ise Lounge Aphrodesia, 7 pm, $8, 18+.
Jazz Club Sunday Jazz Brunch, 10 am, no

The Paul Ahlstrand Quartet, Sunday Night
7 pm, no cover.
the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm; Marty Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
s Jazz Cafe Wally's Stepchildren2, 9 pm.
er Bar OD3 Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

NDAY, APRIL 17

Lounge Pub Stage: the Blue Ribbons, the ns, 7 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
ack Rose Tony O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm.
Last Resort Nate Watkins, Classic Trax, 2
cover.
Scott The Fenway Recordings Sessions, Un-
9 pm, $8, 18+.
rs Ferry Steel Train, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
ssy's Joe Carson, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Murphy's Mike Tucker, 11 pm, no cover.
East Lucero, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
rea C, Eyes Like Saucers, Katt Hernandez, 9
-$8, 21+.
se Lounge R. Star, Quincy Coleman, Clare
n, 7 pm, $7, 18+.
se Rock Club Ladytron, the French Kicks, 8
2, 18+.

Toad Shwang, the Time Gearan Band, 8 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
Wonder Bar Sam Kininger, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAY APRIL 18

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: the Silver Lining, Kenny Chambers, Brett Rosenberg, Rob Hawkins, 9 pm; Pub Stage: Bruce Allen, Frank Rowe, 7 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
An Tua Nua Michael Dylan, 8:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Avalon Alkaline Trio, 8 pm, $16.50-$20.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm.
Cantab Lounge Flynn Cohen & Chagrin River, the Good Time Charlies, 8 pm.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm, no cover.
The Foundation Lounge Jeanie Flynn and the Strays, 7:30 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Green Street Grill The Two Timin' Three, the Hills 10:30 pm, no cover.
Harpers Ferry Ike Willis, Napoleon Murphy Brock, the Ride, 9 pm, $15, 18+.
Johnny D's Springhill Rounders, 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Kinsale Tom Courtney, 7 pm.
Lizard Lounge Ramona Silver, the Vinyl Skyway, 8:30 pm, $5.
Matt Murphy's Public House, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Buckcherry, 7 pm, $17.
Milky Way Nickle and Dime Band, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Oak Bar Gregory Sahagen, 7:30 pm.
PA's Uppercase Sound, the Fun Years, Asher, Rise Set Twilight, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Mad Professor, Sista Aisha, Joint Chiefs, 8 pm, $15-$17, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Steve Howe, 7 pm, 18+.
Regattabar Darren Barrett & Myron Walden Quintet, 7:30 pm, $15.
Toad Rose Polenzani Band, Scotch Rocks, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Jon Langford's Ship & Pilot, Jimmy Ryan, Sally Timms, 9 pm, $10, 18+.

Solas performs April 15 at the Somerville Theatre

Music Venues

Abbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
All-Asia Café 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-1544). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Agganis Arena 925 Comm Ave., Boston (617-353-4628). MBTA: Green Line to Pleasant St.
An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Anthem 138 Portland St., Boston (617-523-8383). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
Atrium The Regal Bostonian Hotel, 20 North St., Boston (617-523-3600). MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Avenue One One Avenue de Lafayette, Boston (617-422-5579). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing.
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Azure Lenox Hotel, 61 Exeter St., Boston (617-933-4800). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Bank of America Pavilion 290 Northern Ave, Boston (617-728-1600). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Berklee Performance Center 136 Mass Ave. Boston (617-747-2261). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-742-2286). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Bob's Southern Bistro 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-6204). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
Boston Harbor Hotel 70 Rowes Warf, Boston (617-439-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
Bravo @ the MFA 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3474). MBTA: Green Line to Museum.
Breezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave. Roxbury (617-541-5400). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Bristol Lounge 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2052). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Citybar 61 Exeter St., Boston (617-933-4800). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Club Café 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-5 0966). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-4 7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Club Q 25 Union St., Boston (857-829-3766) MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center.
Copperfield's 98 Brookline Ave., Boston (617 8605). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Cottonwood Cafe 222 Berkeley St., Boston (6 247-2225). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
Desmond O'Malley's 30 Worcester Rd., Fram (508-875-9400).
Dick's Last Resort Faneuil Hall, Market Place Quincy Market Bldg., Boston (617-267-8080) MBTA: D Green Line to Gov. Center.
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-555 MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Cros
Fireplace 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-97 1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington.
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., B (617-859-9900). MBTA: D Green Line to Ke
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., H (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line Park.
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1 MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Allston (617- 9014). MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighto 789-4100). MBTA: B Green Line to Reservoir.
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., B (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Li Haymarket.
Green Street Grill 280 Green St., Cambridge 876-1655). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742- MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Harpers Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617 9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2 MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
High Street Grill 200 High St., Boston (617-5 4000). MBTA: Orange Line to Downtown Cro
Jacob Wirth 37 Stuart St., Boston (617-338-8 MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-77 2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617- 45 9460). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossin
Kendall Cafe 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Ca bridge (617-547-3802). MBTA: Red Line to K
Kennedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Boston (426-3333). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park
Kings 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). M Green Line to Hynes/ICA.
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577) MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Kinvara 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-940 MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Kirkland Café 425 Washington St., Somerville 482-4920). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

h Auditorium @ MIT 32 Vassar St., Dorchester 258-7971). MBTA: Orange Line to Shawmut.
ad 1355 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-388-). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
d Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
's Lounge 355 Congress St., Boston (617-357-. MBTA: Silver Line to South Station.
Murphy's Pub 14 Harvard St., Brookline 232-0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline le East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-. MBTA: Red Line to Central.
ay Café 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain, 524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Green.
Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
ooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-5656). A: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
s Jordan Hall 30 Gainsborough, Boston (617-100). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony.
Devine's Fanueil Hall Marketplace, Quincy t Building, Boston (617-248-8800). MBTA: Line to Gov. Center.
ar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James e, Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green Copley.
en's 3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-6245). A: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
eum Theatre 31 Hamilton Place, Boston (617 310). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
O's 33 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). A: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
ise Lounge 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-300). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
ise Rock Club 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-300). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
250 Quincy Market Building (617-248-9900). A: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
45 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-776- MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227- MBTA: Orange Line to State.
ack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051). A: Greeen Line to Gov. Center.
ez 1222 Washington St., Boston (617-338- MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.

Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-395-7757). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Remis Auditorium @ MFA 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3474). MBTA: Green Line to Museum.
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881). MBTA: Red Line to Central Square.
Roggies 356 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton(617-566-1880). MBTA: Green Line to Cleveland Circle.
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Road, Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-623-5223). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Solas 710 Boylston St., Boston (617-933-4803). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Somerville Theatre 55 Davis Square, Somerville (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Sweetwater Cafe 3 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2515). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Symphony Hall 301 Massachusetts Ave., Boston (617-266-1400). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony.
TD Banknorth Garden 100 Legends Way, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Tír na nÓg 366 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-628-4300). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-2327). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Venezia 20 Ericsson St., Dorchester (617-436-3120). MBTA Red Line to Ashmont.
Wally's 427 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-424-1408). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
The Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Boston (617-351-2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
ZuZu 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-3278). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

"It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous."
—Bon Appétit

Prepare to be amazed. The food really is this good—Innovative American Grill with honest flavors and refreshing combinations. The surroundings really are this gorgeous—copper lanterns, amber glass and whimsical murals. And the reasonable prices? Shocking! We amazed Bon Appétit...and now we want to amaze you. Join us for lunch, dinner, weekend dining and Sunday brunch.

Sidney's Grille

fresh flavors ⊙ good friends ⊙ great bar innovative american grill / 20 sidney street, cambridge central square / (617) 494-0011 / sidneysgrille.com

Starters
Pistachio Crusted Foie Gras, Toasted Brioche Bread
$12.00

Grilled Sea Scallops, Pesto Mashed Potatoes
$11.00

Entrées
Lobster & Rock Shrimp Risotto with Tomatoes, Onions, Asparagus
$28.00

14oz. Grilled Pork Porterhouse, Sweet Potato Apple Gratin
$21.00

Desserts
Hot Ganache, Black Raspberry Ice Cream, Chambord Syrup
$7.00

Blood Orange Crème Brûlée, Citrus Segments
$7.00

Earned Our Reputation for Wings - Tender Fall-off-the-Bone BBQ Ribs - Meltdown Mudslide Pie - All-U-Can Eat Midnight Madness Buffet

2 OF THE BEST REASONS TO COME TO

SUNSET - BOSTON

Juicy BBQ Steak Tips - All-U-Can Eat Texas Ribs - Full Menu 'til 1AM

SUNSET GRILL & TAP
BEST OF BOSTON HALL OF FAME
BEST BEER SELECTION
365 DAY A YEAR BEER FESTIVAL
70 Beer Styles
380 Microbrews
Exotic Imports
Cask Conditioned Ales
Meads
Seasonals
Vintage Ales
New Beers
112 TAPS
GOOD HEAD
CLEAN GLASS
MALT & HOPS (FOR THE RIGHT BALANCE)
HOME OF THE YARD & TABLE TAP!

SUNSET GRILL & TAP
130 Brighton Ave
Good Eats til 1am

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
Awarded Best Beer Bar
The Improper Bostonian

CITRUS LIME
70 TEQUILAS
Mezcals
Anejos
Reposados
Blancos
ATTACH TO UPPER RIM
GLASS CONTAINER
SPILL CONTROL

SUNSET CANTINA
916 Comm. Ave
www.allstonsfinest.com

SUNSET CANTINA
BEST OF BOSTON 2003
BEST MARGARITA
MIX RATIOS:
oz. 100% blue agave tequila
oz. Cointreau
oz. sour mix
splash of OJ
oz. lime juice or Roses
PLENTY OF SUNSET
38 TAPS

some Beer-Steamed Burgers - All-U-Can Eat Lunch Taco Bar - Giant Fiesta South-of-the-Border Nachos - Sizzlin' Smokin' Fajitas

classical music

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 5

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-566-5218). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Pianist Eun-Young Kim performs Brahms' Klavierstücke, Op. 118, Beethoven's Piano Sonata No. 32 in C minor, Op. 111 and Prokofiev's Piano Sonata No. 7 in B-flat major, Op. 83.

THURSDAY, APRIL 6

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $28-$108. Rafael Frühbeck de Burgos conducts violinist Gil Shaham and the Boston Symphony Orchestra in an all-Mozart program featuring Serenade No. 6 in D, K. 239, Serenata Notturna, Violin Concerto No. 5 in A, K. 219, and Symphony No. 39.

Boston University
Tsai Performance Hall, 685 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-8724). www.bu.edu/fa. MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. 8 pm. Free. The Guest Artist Recital features pianist Ian Hobson in a performance of Schumann's Phantasiestucke, Op. 111, Carnaval, Op. 9 and Sonata in G minor, Op. 22.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7

Andover Chamber Music
First Church, 66 Marlborough St., Boston (978-474-6222). www.andoverchambermusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 7:30 pm. $30. Happy Birthday Wolfgang features Mozart's String Quintet in C minor, Flute and Harp Concerto and Piano Concerto, K. 415.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 1:30 pm. $28-$108. Same program as April 6.

Boston University
CFA Concert Hall, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-8724). www.bu.edu/fa. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. 8 pm. Free. The Muir String Quartet and pianist Ian Hobson present Schumann's Clara Schumann Romances, Op. 11, Piano Quintet, Op. 44 and Piano Trio No. 2 in F major, Op. 80.

Handel and Haydn Society
NEC's Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-266-3605). www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $33-$63. The Handel and Haydn Orchestra play Italian Baroque concertos, featuring solo works for cello, violin and lute, written or influenced by music composed in Italy during the 17th and 18th centuries.

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (401-596-2667). www.artistworld.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. $12-$25, free for children under 12. Pianist Nicolai Lomov performs in 45 Years on the Stage, featuring Schumann's Fashingsschwank aus Wien, Op. 26, Rachmaninoff's Seven Preludes, Op. 32 and Moments Musicaux, Op. 16.

MIT Concert Series
Rosalind Denny Lewis Music Library, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253-5686). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 12 pm. Free. The Fourth Annual Prokopoff Violin Concert features MIT students in a performance of Prokopoff's works.

MIT Concert Series
Killian Hall, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253-5686). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 5 pm. Free. Soprano Elisabeth Hon and pianist Ada Au perform Mozart's Exultate Jubilate, K. 165, Debussy's Ariettes Oubliées, Bellini's Oh! Quante Volte and Donizetti's Quel Guardo il Cavaliere...So anch'io la Virtù Magica.

St. Andrews Episcopal Church
79 Denton Road, Wellesly (617-235-7310). www.sapas.org. 7:30 pm. $5-$20. Soprano Mary Niederkorn, mezzo-soprano Mauri Wheeler, pianist William Merrill and the Parker String Quartet perform the music of Samuel Barber.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8

Bank of America Celebrity Series
NEC's Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $41-$51. Violinist Vadim Repin joins pianist Nikolai Lugansky in a performance featuring Bertók's Rhapsody No. 1, Sz. 86, Schubert's Fantasia in C Major, D. 934, Part's Fratres and Franck's Sonata in A major, M. 8.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 12 pm. $18. Keith Lockhart conducts the Boston Symphony Orchestra in the Family Series Concert featuring Kapilow's Dr. Seuss's Green Eggs and Ham.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $28-$108. Same program as April 6.

Brandeis University
Slosberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3400). www.brandeis.edu/arts. 8 pm. $5-$10. Sarah Mead directs the Brandeis Early Music Ensemble in April in Paris: Song and Dance from Renaissance France, featuring vocal and instrumental works of 15th-17th century Europe.

Cambridge Society for Early Music
First Religious Society, 27 School St., Carlisle (617-489-2062). www.csem.org. 8 pm. $10-$25; $5 children. The Exsultemus period vocal ensemble presents A Lily Among Thorns: Renaissance Music of Love and Lament featuring Brumel's Sicut Lilium Inter Spinas, Palestrina's Quam Pulchri Sunt, Josquin des Prez's Nimphes des Bois and more.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3306). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 7:30 pm. $20-$25. The Fahir Atakoglu Trio, featuring pianist and composer Fahir Atakoglu, bassist Anthony Jackson and drummer Horacio Hernandez perform original compositions.

Wellesley College
Houghton Memorial Chapel, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2082). www.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 8 pm. Free. Neal Hampton conducts the Brandeis/Wellesley Orchestra with pianist Sarah Takagi in a performance of Ge Concerto in F, Stravinsky's Firebird Suite ar stein's Overture to Candide.

SUNDAY, APRIL 9

Andover Chamber Music
Roger Center for the Arts, Merrimack Coll Turnpike Road, North Andover (978-474-622 andoverchambermusic.org. 4 pm. $25-$30 program as April 7.

Arsenal Center for the Arts
Black Box Theatre, 321 Arsenal St., Wat (617-923-8487. www.arsenalarts.org. 4 p Classical guitarist Joel Brown and flutist Bacchiocchi-Stewart perform as part of the & Conversations series.

Berklee Performance Center
136 Mass Ave., Boston (617-931-2000) berkleebpc.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hyn 7:30 pm. $30-$75. World Music presen Grammy-winning Kronos Quartet performi singer Asha Bhosie in remembrance of the movie composer R.D. Burman.

Brandeis University
Slosberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltha 736-3400). www.brandeis.edu/arts. 7 pm. James Olesen conducts the Brandeis Un Chorus in a performance of James Weldo son's Let My People Go and selections from Israel and Egypt.

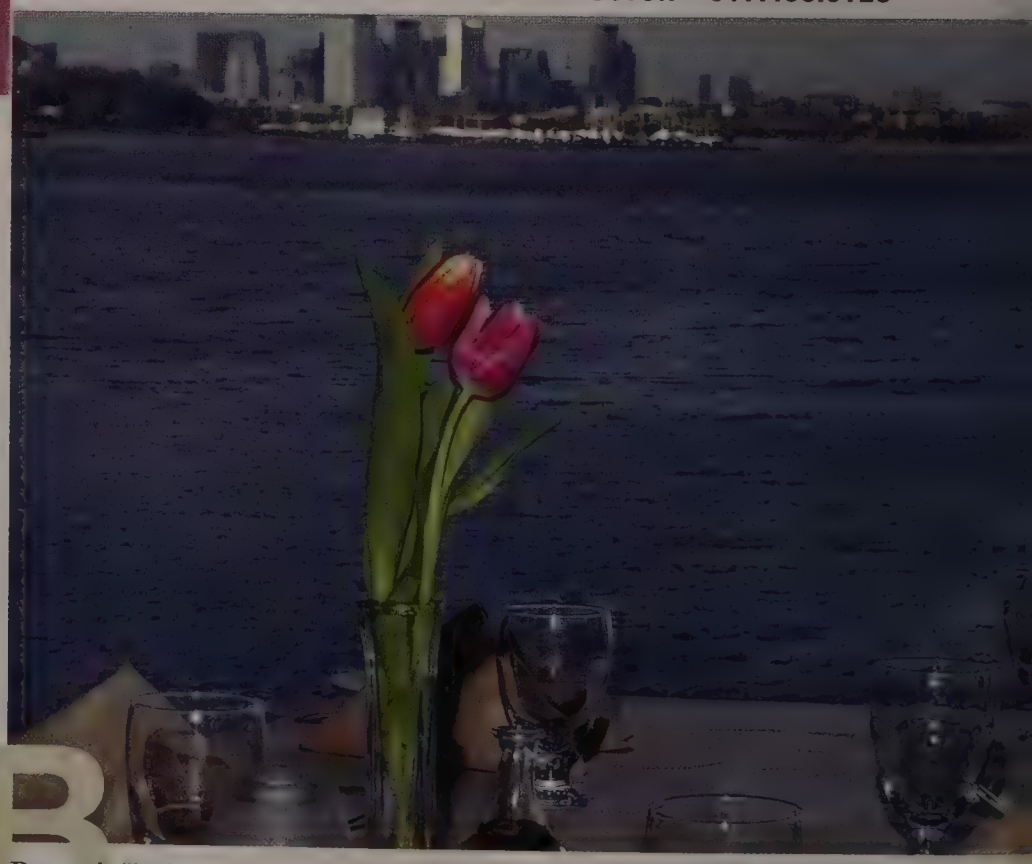
Emmanuel Music
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Bosto 536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA Line to Arlington. 10 am. Free. The Orches Chorus of Emmanuel Music perform Bach' 159 in the Bach Cantata Series.

Forest Hills Trust
95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (61 0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Line to Forest Hills. 4 pm. $12-$15. Barito Murphy and friends perform an Easter program.

Handel and Haydn Society
NEC's Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., (617-266-3605). www.handelandhaydn.org. E Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. $33-$63 program as April 7.

VENEZIA
RESTAURANT & BANQUET FACILITY

20 ERICSSON STREET • BOSTON • 617.436.3120



Antipasti Course

Lobster Sundae
Marinated lobster salad with crisp greens and crème fraise

Calamari Napoli
Sautéed with tomatoes, crushed red peppers, fresh basil, served over panna fritto

Pasta Fresca & Risotto

Risotto with Scallops and Lobster
Imported rice sautéed with lobster meat surrounded by pan seared scallops and asparagus

Rotini Florentine Con Pollo
Homemade rotini pasta sautéed with breast of chicken, fresh spinach, shallots, garlic and onion

Entrees

Cioppino Al La Venezia
Salmon, swordfish, haddock, shucked clams, scallops, shrimp, lobster, sautéed with saffron, tomato, shallots, garlic and served over freshly seared bread

Veal Cardinale
Scaloppini of tender veal sautéed with lobster meat, a splash of Pernod and a touch of cream

Boston's "hidden Jewel" Venezia Waterfront Restaurant offers exceptional Italian cuisine and spectacular views of the Boston skyline. A superb waitstaff and talente chef makes Venezia a perfect dining experience. Venezia has live music every Frid and Saturday and plenty of free parking.

Matthew Polenzani performs with the BSO 13 and 14.

ella Stewart Gardner Museum
The Fenway, Boston (617-278-5102). gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to m. 1:30 pm. $5-$20. The Sunday Concert presents the Borromeo String Quartet playhoenberg's String Quartet No. 4, Op. 37 and k's String Quartet No. 14 in A-flat major, 5.

y Concert Series
M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., idge (617-876-0956). www.amnestyusa.org. : Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $15-$25. The nnual Benefit Concert for Amnesty International eatures the Lydian String Quartet and pianist Weber in a performance of Schubertaus' Marche Militaire, Franck's Sonata for and Piano in A major, M. 8 and Leo Ornstein's t for Piano and Strings, Op. 92.

c at Mission Church
remont St., Roxbury (617-445-2600). www.the church.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Roxbury g. 4 pm. $10-$15 suggested donation. Organist et Angelini performs works by Bach, Franck ndelssohn.

NDAY, APRIL 10

on University
rformance Hall, 685 Comm. Ave., Boston 53-8724). www.bu.edu/fa. MBTA: B Green BU East. 8 pm. Free. Violinist Michelle La-, clarinetist Ian Greitzer and pianist Maria perform Schumann's Marchenerzahlungen for , viola and piano, Op. 132, Marchenerzahlunviola and piano, Op. 113 and Fantasy in C Op. 17.

SDAY, APRIL 11

on Symphony Orchestra
ny Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266- www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Sym- pm. $28-$108. Same program as April 6.

deis University
Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736- www.brandeis.edu/arts. 7 pm. Free. Judith Eis- directs the Chamber Music Ensemble in a of classical chamber works.

s Chapel
ont St., Boston (617-227-2155). www.kingsrg. MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center. 12:15 suggested donation. Brunhilde Engelhardt plays . Fisk organ in a performance of J.S. Bach's on Sei Gegruesset, Jesu Guetig.

Concert Series
M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., lge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: e to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. William Drury ts the Wayne Rapier Memorial Concert with ngy Chamber Winds in a performance of s Serenade for Winds.

NESDAY, APRIL 12

Concert Series
lall, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253- http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to MIT. 5 pm. Free. Pianist Lindy Blackburn s Chopin's four Ballades.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1122). www.newenglandconservatory.edu MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Violinist James Buswell, pianist Ning An and pianist Gloria Chien perform the complete Beethoven Sonatas for Violin and Piano.

THURSDAY, APRIL 13

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $28-$108. The Tanglewood Festival chorus and tenor Matthew Polenzani join the Boston Symphony Orchestra in a performance of Berlioz's Requiem.

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Soprano Yi-Hui Wu performs Poulenc's Fiançailles Pour Rire, FP 101 and R. Strauss' Vier Letzte Lieder, TrV 296.

FRIDAY, APRIL 14

Boston Landmarks Orchestra
First Parish, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-520-2200). www.landmarks orchestra.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Charles Ansbacher conducts Swanee Hunt's Witness Cantata.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 1:30 pm. $28-$108. Same program as April 13.

MIT Concert Series
Killian Hall, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253-5686). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/ MIT. 5 pm. Free. Pianist Pavitra Kumar performs Mozart's Piano Sonata No. 12 in F major, K. 332, Ravel's Memoirs and Chopin's Piano Sonata No. 3 in B minor, Op. 58.

New England Conservatory
St. Botolph Hall, 241 St. Botolph St., Boston (617-585-1122). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. The Borromeo String Quartet performs Schoenberg's Fourth Quartet.

SATURDAY, APRIL 15

Boston Early Music Festival
Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-661-1812). www.bemf.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $21-$53. Michael Alexander Willens directs German ensemble Die Kolner Akademie in a performance of Johann Valentin Meder's St. Matthew Passion.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $28-$108. Same program as April 13.

SUNDAY, APRIL 16

Emmanuel Music
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. Free. The Orchestra and Chorus of Emmanuel Music perform Bach's BWV 145 in the Bach Cantata Series.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-278-5102). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 1:30 pm. $5-$20. The Young Artists Showcase presents cellist Efe Baltacigil and pianist Anna Polonsky in a performance of Ahmet Adnan Saygun's Cello Sonata, Benjamin Boyle's Cello Sonata and Chopin's Sonata for Cello and Piano in G minor, Op. 65.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-2155). www.kings-chapel.org. MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center. 12:15 pm. $3 suggested donation. Eric Haas, recorder and Renaissance flute, and Olav Chris Henriksen, lute, present music of the Tudor courts from Henry VIII to Elizabeth I.

Wellesley College
Houghton Memorial Chapel, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2082). www.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 8 pm. Free. The Collegium Musicum and the Tufts University Collegium perform music from Renaissance England featuring madrigals, masses, anthems and instrumental dances.

The Fireplace
welcomes new bar manager
Randy Clutter
formerly of Abe & Louie's

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Open for dinner Sunday through Wednesday, 5 to 10 pm, and Thursday through Saturday, 5 to 11 pm.
Lunch is served Monday to Friday from 11 am to 2:30 pm, and Brunch is served Saturday and Sunday from 11 am to 2:30 pm

The Fireplace
New England Grill

1634 Beacon Street, Brookline, MA 02446 tel: (617) 975-1900
www.fireplacerest.com

"If you are serious about health and fitness, The Boston Athletic Club and its training staff have the latest cutting edge fitness trends and technologies. I have also been very impressed with their level of customer service. It's great to know that there is a training facility that really cares about personal needs of their clients. I have been very impressed with The Boston Athletic Club and all it has to offer."
-Alice

Did you Know?
That Boston Athletic Club is located in South Boston between D Street and Dorchester Street

Now you Know. Come visit the BAC.

Call to sign up
The Boston Athletic Club will challenge and motivate you to reach your fitness goals!

Cardiovascular Center
Free Weights & Resistance Equipment
Swim Programs
Tennis
Squash
Racquetball
Basketball
Building Active Children
Senior Program
Restaurant
Free Parking

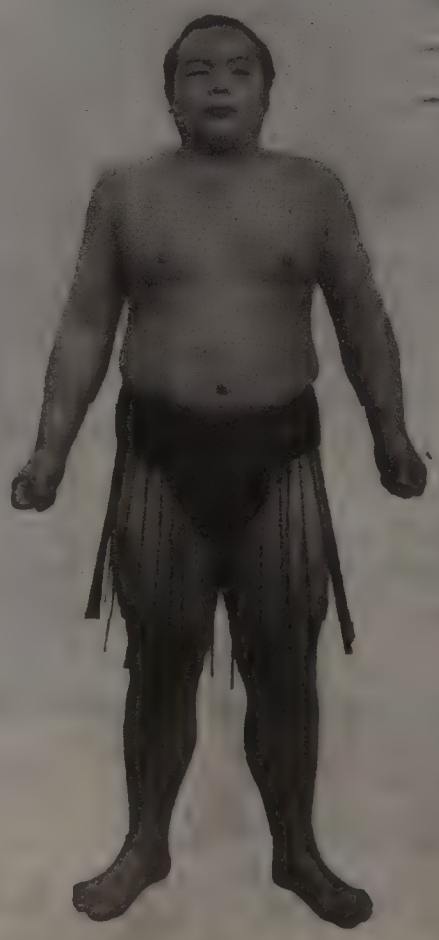
Call today to get started
617-269-4300

Boston Athletic Club
BAC
bostonathleticclub.com
653 Summer Street • Boston, MA • 02210

The Boston Athletic Club can help you reach your goals.

CHARLES STREET LIQUORS
143 Charles Street, Beacon Hill, Boston
Let our knowledgeable staff help you with our extraordinary selection of fine wines, single malt Scotches, imported beers, premium tequilas and more

Delivery in Boston
617-523-5051
www.csliquors.com
BOSTON'S BEST 2005
The Improper Bostonian

Fee, Fi, Pho, Fun


Sophisticated Asian Food, Exotic Cocktails, Casual Dress
Pho Republique 1415 Washington Street Boston 617.262.0005
RESTAURANT BAR CATERING 鄙次清 渡鴨 (士力京東)

dance clubs

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Ceremony A night of Gothic and industrial music, 9 pm, $3, 19+.

Axis
Static Gay night with DJs and drag performances, 10 pm, $7, 19+.

Caprice
Buddha Bar DJ Kamel spins a mix of Middle Eastern and international beats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Felt
S.I.N. Mondays This Service Industry Night includes free pool and guest DJs spinning high-energy dance, house and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, hip-hop, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
Irish seisiun.

Green Street Grill
Havana Club's Mambo Mondays Featuring DJ Cuban Jeff, salsa lessons and dance, 9:30 pm, $10 ($8 after lesson), 18+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays Featuring hip-hop, reggae and rap, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
DJs spin dance music, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Two local DJs hold a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Saint
S.I.N. Service Industry Night DJ Tony Moreno spins house and hip-hop, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAYS

Embassy
DJ Joe spins hip-hop, rock, funk and '80s, 10 pm, no cover, 19+.

The Enormous Room
Soul'd Out DJ duo Tommy and Knife spin hits from the '70s and '80s, 10 pm-2 am, $3.

The Foundation Lounge
Torch Tuesdays Jeanie Flynn and the Strays perform three live sets, 7:30 pm.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins a mix including R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
Totally '80s Tuesday DJ Rubiks Cube spins classic '80s music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover.

Paradise Lounge
Mashup Tuesdays DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop, rock, '80s and more, 10 pm, $7, 18+.

Phoenix Landing
Take DJ Scott Bliff spins funk, soul and electro '80s, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
DJs spin Top 40 and dance music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Karaoke with Dana Z, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
DJs spin dance music, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Karaoke for Cash with Deb-N-Art.

River Gods
Eavesdrop The weekly listening party kicks off at 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
Night varies with an assortment of performances and themed events, 10 pm-2 am.

33 Restaurant
Escape Tuesdays DJs spin dance beats, 9:30 pm-2 am.

Venu
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

WEDNESDAYS

An Tua Nua
Salsa Night DJs Hernan, D. Martinez, Antonio Ortiz and guests spin salsa music. Includes beginner lessons and karaoke, 8 pm, $12, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Funken Gruven Night Live funk bands, 9 p
$15, 18+.

Clerys
Live music, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
iPod Night Bring your own iPod and be an pm, no cover, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
Soulcity Old school and '70s classics, 8 pm
$5.

Dbar
Glamourtrash DJ Michael Fontana plays r wave, pop, punk and electro beats.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm,

The Enormous Room
Galactic Fractures DJ P.J. Gray spins soul
10 pm-2 am, $3.

Felt
Boogie Nights DJ Mike Bose spins hip-h and house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Flat Top Johnny's
Local DJs spin rock music, 10 pm, no cover,

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins cluding R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz,
cover, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
International Wednesdays DJs spin a mix national music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc hip-hop, Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no cove

Milky Way
The Basement DJ Boo Boo hosts a night
'70s-style new wave and house, 9 pm, no co

Phoenix Landing
Underground dance music, 10 pm, $5, 19+; $

The Place
Musician Greg Lutrell performs, 9 pm, no co

The Rack
Star 93.7's DJ Ricky spins dance music, 9 p no cover, 21+.

Rain
Oldies but Goodies DJ Russ McQueen sp from the '50s, '60s and '70s, no cover.

Redline
The NGP All-Stars spin an eclectic colle dance and hip-hop hits, 9 pm-1 am, no cove

The Reel Bar
DJ Steve Austin spins hip-hop, reggae an 9 pm-1 am.

River Gods
Primitive Wednesdays Boogie down to rock and blues, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
Latino night with DJ Adilson, 10 pm-2 am.

Saint
Wednesday Music Series The Brian Walkl plays R&B and dance in the main lounge.
1 am, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, no cover,

Supper Club
Overtime Afterwork Lounge Live jazz and mentary appetizers, 5-9 pm, no cover, 21+.

33 Restaurant
DJ Anthony spins, 10 pm-2:30 am.

Toast
DJs spin house music, 8 pm-1 am, $5.

Vertigo
Analogue Lounge DJs Pete Yagmin, Specia
Peter Ellis and Greg Blake spin house, 10 pm

THURSDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Tim Collins spins Top 40, hip-hop and R
pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
C Entertainment hosts this weekly event fe guest DJs, 11 pm, $20, 19+ ladies, 21+ men.

Avalon
Fling Thursdays DJs spin hip-hop, R&B and 10 pm, $15, ladies free until 11 pm, 19+.

Bill's Bar
Old-School Hip-Hop Night Old-school ra and disco, 8 pm-2 am, 19+.

Boston Rocks
Thursday on the Rocks DJs spin pop and music, 8 pm-12 am, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Hip-Hop & International DJ Pup Dawg spins and hip-hop music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

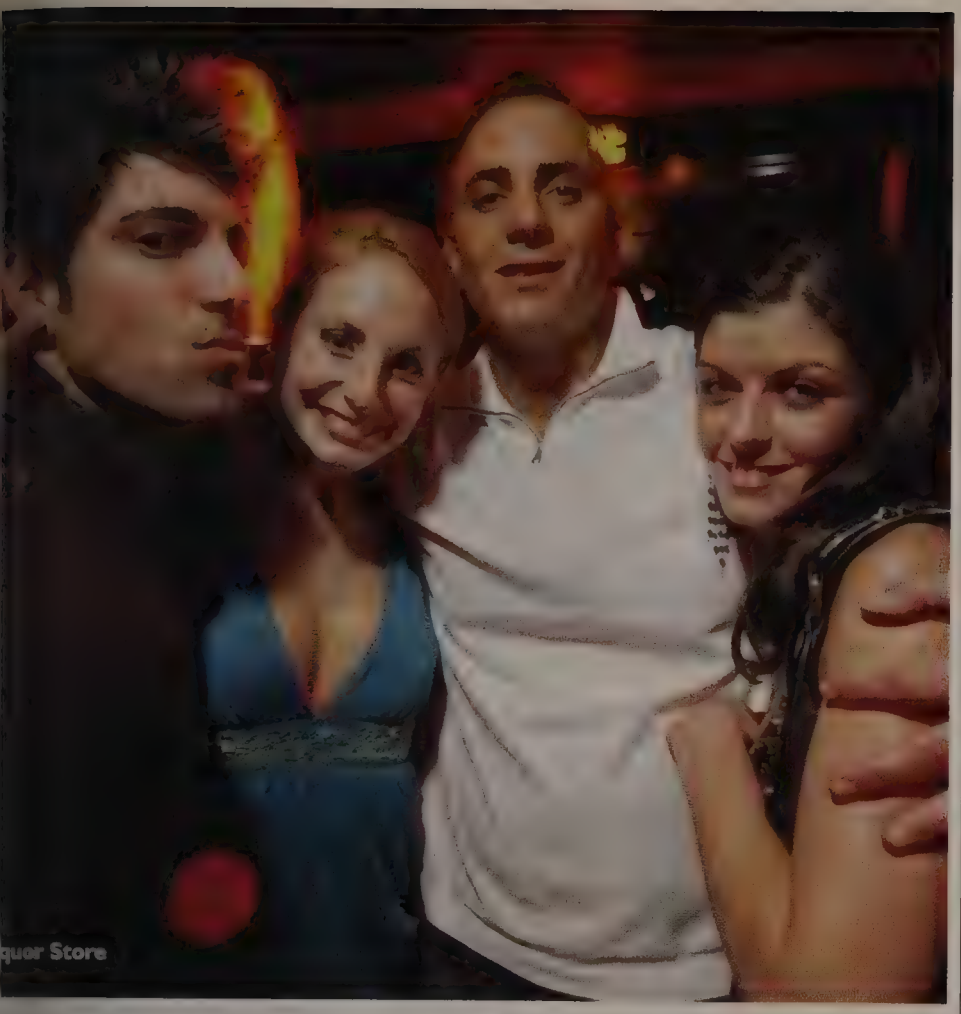
Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Club Q
Dance Party Thursdays with DJ Mike Nav
pm, $5.



mon Ground
Night DJ Brian plays tunes from the '80s, , $3, 21+.

gan's
ve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, 21+.

nopolitan
op, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

y Thursdays DJ Darrin Friedman spins club s.

in's
c spins upbeat house and dance, 9 pm-1 am, er, 21+.

side
ve Austin spins R&B, reggae and hip-hop, $5, 21+.

assy
amorous Life DJs Susan Esthera and Afrodite is gay hip-hop and electro party, 10 pm.

Enormous Room
op with Hua DJ Hsu spins hip-hop, dance and 0 pm-2 am, $3.

lusic Thursdays Featuring live performances, no cover, 21+.

Foundation Lounge
g But Ray Charles This weekly event is a to Ray Charles and his music.

en Temple
Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Mo-op and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

n Briar
n Frederik Band, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

n Street Grill
mara and Jama Jigi play Afro-pop highlife, m-2 am, no cover, 21+.

McIntyre's
nd, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Lells
n House DJs Edgar and Kieran spin dance nd hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

ra Pub
na spins the latest tunes, including hip-hop, nd pop, 21+.

r Store
Night KISS 108 and Joe Public host.

a
Club Night: Thursdays at Mantra DJ Cuban as a mix of Latin and salsa, 10 pm, $10, $15 pm, 21+.

Way
t Dance Party Dance to '80s old-school funk , 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

sdays DJ Lou, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

lix Landing
ts DJs Crook, Lenore and Mad Dog present bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

The Place
DJ Garrett spins Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Point
DJs spin dance and hip-hop music, 10 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
Jim Plunkett and friends perform live, 9 pm, $3, 21+.

The Rack
Exotic Midnight Brazilian night with music and samba dancing, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Reunion Thursdays The NGP All-Stars spin party classics, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
For Real, Too Reel DJs Dali, Ross and Paul spin a mix of electro, funk and '80s flashback, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Ruby Room
Rouge Thursdays Enjoy half-price martinis while DJ Prolific spins R&B and downtempo beats, 7 pm-12 am, no cover.

Rumor
DJs Roger M. and J.C. spin, 10 pm-2 am.

Ryles Dance Hall
Temporada Latina A night of salsa lessons and dancing, 8:30 pm-1 am, $8-$12.

Saint
Deja Vu DJs and weekly guest hosts spin lounge music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, 21+.

33 Restaurant
Plush Thursdays DJ Fredo spins, 11 pm-2 am.

Toast
Lesbian Night 9 pm-1 am, $5.

Underbar
DJ Ricky Fatts spins hip-hop, 11 pm.

Venu
=20 Thursday Hip-hop and house music, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
Total Recall Dance to classic disco, funk, soul and rock from the '60s, '70s and '80s, 5-10 pm, no cover.

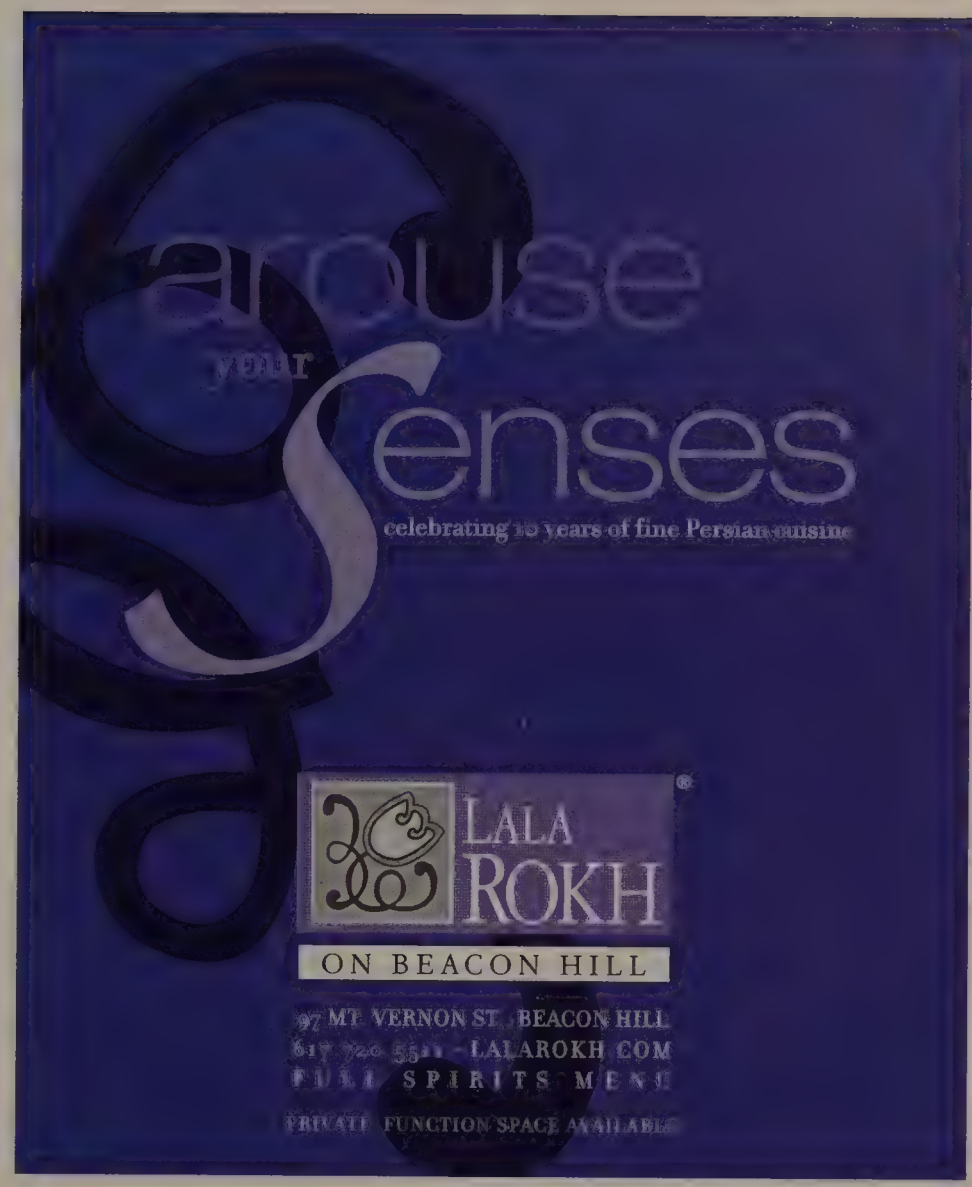
West Street Grille
Old-School Thursdays DJ Matty D spins old-school hip-hop and funk, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

FRIDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Tim Collins spins Top 40, hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Vanity DJ Hoff spins old-school hip-hop and R&B, 11 pm, $20, ladies 19+, men 21+.

Avalon
Avaland Guest DJs spin with residents Eli Wilkie, Alex Whalen and Jay P., 10 pm, $15, 19+.



SEL DE LA TERRE

rustic country fare of Provence

restaurant · bar · boulangerie

Boulangerie
(Mon.-Fri.) 7:30am-Midnight
(Sat.-Sun.) 9am-Midnight

Lunch (Mon.-Fri.)
11:30 to 2:30

Dinner (7 days)
5:30 to 10:00

Sat. & Sun. brunch
11:00 to 2:30

Catering and private functions
Valet parking available

255 State Street at Long Wharf
Boston, Massachusetts

Restaurant reservations
617 720 1300

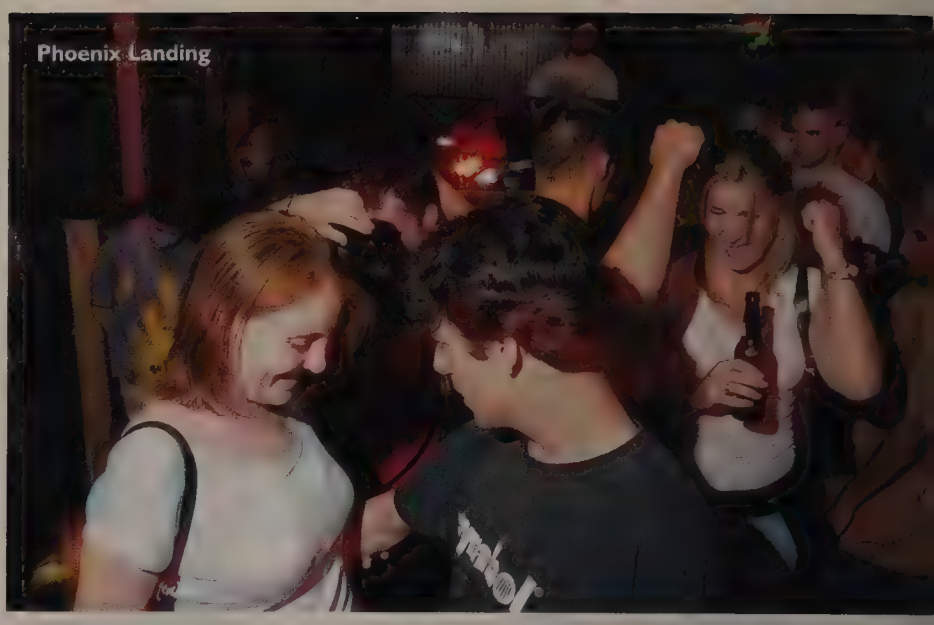
KENNEDY'S
midtown

The Upbeat, Upstairs Restaurant & Pub

Serving Prime Steaks, Seafood and Pub Fare
Brunch offered on Saturday and Sunday from 9:30am
FEATURING AFTER WORK SAMPLER PLATTERS

AVAILABLE FOR PRIVATE FUNCTIONS

LOCATED 1 BLOCK FROM BOSTON COMMON, DOWNTOWN CROSSING
42 PROVINCE STREET, BOSTON • 617.426.3333
WWW.KENNEDYSMIDTOWN.COM



The Avenue
DJ Canyon Cody spins hip-hop and Top 40, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Axis
Jump Off DJ Mastermillions spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Big Easy Bar
Celebrate Mardi Gras with DJ J.C. spinning Top 40, hip-hop and '80s, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Hot Fridays Hip-hop, merengue, salsa, reggae and bachata music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Boston Rocks
Fridays at the Loft 6one7 Productions presents a night of local DJs spinning Top 40, dance and hip-hop tunes, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Caprice
DJ Kamal spins a mix of international, Latin and house music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Club Europa
Twist DJ MsLadyJ spins R&B, hip-hop, and '70s and '80s for the lesbian crowd, 10 pm, $10, 21+; after 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Club Q
Boston's Best Dance Party DJ Massi plays hip-hop and Top 40, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Common Ground
DJ Dino Sound spins Northern Soul, 10 pm, no cover.

Coogan's
DJ Steve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
European Night DJs play a mix of Euro-style music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover.

Dbar
DJ Mike Giller spins vocal house and Top 40.

Devlin's
DJ Paul Daley plays upbeat house and trance, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
DJ Nyce spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Enormous Room
All-Stars Have Eyes Guest DJs spin everything from hip-hop and house to funk and soul, $3, 10 pm-2 am.

Felt
DJ Jim Klerkin spins Top 40, dance and hip-hop, no cover, 21+. Fourth floor: Therapy Fridays DJ Cerebral spins hip-hop beats, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins '70s, '80s, '90s and vocal house, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Green Briar
DJ FK spins dance and Top 40, 7 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Green Street Grill
Kilombo Mambo, 11:30 pm, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJs Niso and Mario, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Harp
Friday Night Vibe JAM'N 94.5's DJ Krazy Kulo spins downstairs, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ spins classic beats, 9 pm, $5, ladies free before 10 pm, 21+.

I/D
Bashment Fridays DJ Juneyacool spins reggae, $15, 19+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJs spin, 9 pm, $5, ladies free before 12 am, 21+.

The Kells
Ladies Night DJ Doc spins Top 40, R dance while DJ Kieran spins '80s and '90 ites, 9 pm, ladies free before 12 am, 21+.

Kinvara Pub
DJ Cadillac spins the latest tunes including R&B and pop, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Howie spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, $

Mantra
Mint Resident DJ Zati spins hip-hop, roc and '80s remixes.

Matrix/Paradise City
DJ Adilson spins high-energy house, and Spinelli plays Top 40 and hip-hop, 9 p 18+.

McGann's Pub
DJs spin dance beats, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
DJ Mark Estrada spins soul, funk, downter hip-hop, no cover.

The Modern
Ego DJ Glenn, 10 pm, $20, 19+.

The Palace
•The Beach House Reggaeton: Spanish music, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •The Male En New England's longest-running all-male revue, doors at 8:30 pm, show 9 pm-12:30 18+; $20, 21+. Ladies only. •Rio DJ Donnie spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atm ladies free before 11:30 pm, $15, 18+; $ •Rockpile Rotating bands perform, 9 pm, la before 11:30 pm, $12, 18+; $8, 21+.

Parris
DJ at 8 pm, band at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm,

Phoenix Landing
Groove Yard '70s, '80s, funk, soul and disco no cover, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop spins Top 40 and hip-hop, and TV show Boston sports highlights, 10 pm, $5, 21

The Point
Fist Holdin' Loot Productions presents DJ 10 pm.

The Purple Shamrock
Hip-hop with DJ Buddah, 10 pm, $5.

The Rack
DJ Mike Bowes, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Vegas Fridays Las Vegas–resident DJs spin.

Redline
Rodney Marable and Craig Kaplow spin hous 2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Diversion DJ Erik spins a mix that includ soul, mellow techno and scuzzy disco, 9 cover, 21+.

Roxy
DJ Val Beatz spins hip-hop, Top 40, R&B a gae, 10 pm, $20, 18+; $15, 21+.

Rumor
Lounge 54 DJs spin hip-hop, reggae, R&B a school, 9:30 pm, $15, ladies free before 11 pm

Ryles Dance Hall
Salsa Cubana Ryles hosts a Cuban-style sals the third Friday of every month, 9 pm, $10.

Saint
Pure Fridays DJs Gsquared and Tanno spin two rooms, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Spin
Red Martinis Live jazz, 6-10 pm, $5 after 21+.

…tric Lounge
…kah Lounge The NGP Allstars and Cloud 9 spin …music at this night featuring hookahs, specialty …tails and belly dancers, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

…uila Rain
…Mike G spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 …55.

… Restaurant
…lio 33 Fridays DJs Tasso and Niko spin, 9 pm-2 am.

…st
…ian Night 9 pm-1 am, $5.

…bria
…spin house music on the third floor, while the …el international club upstairs features hip-hop …Top 40 beats, 10 pm.

…derbar
…anklin spins house, hip-hop and rock, 11 pm.

…u
…nba DJ Tarek Antabi spins international house …DJ Roger M kicks things up with a Latin vibe. …t required, 11 pm, $15, 21+.

…tigo
…rnational Fridays DJ Luca spins house, R&B, …and international, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

…it Street Grille
… Night Lounge DJ Joe plays funk and Top 40 all …, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

…TURDAYS

…Tua Nua
…perstar mixes Top 40, hip-hop, house and soul, …, $5, 21+.

…yles DJ Thanos spins hip-hop and R&B, 11 pm, …nen 21+, ladies 19+ with college ID.

…lon
…ent DJ Adilson spins along with international …DJs, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

… Avenue
…urray spins hip-hop, 9 pm, 21+.

…tive Saturdays DJ Big spins hip-hop hits, 10 …8, 19+.

…Easy Bar
…rate Mardi Gras with DJ J.C. spinning Top 40, …p and '80s, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

…; Bar
…Saturdays DJ Joshua Carl spins hip-hop and …0, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

…on Rocks
…un Saturdays Cover bands perform, 9-11 pm. …sent Top 40 dance and hip-hop interactive video …till 2 am, $5, 21+.

…
…ay crowd gets busy with DJ Mary Alice spin…opular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep …and trance, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

…ice
…ational Lounge DJ Ghost and DJ Vagellis cre…lounge atmosphere with international and …sounds, 10 pm, $5-$10, 21+.

…rs
…thm Nights 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

… Q
… Hernandez spins hip-hop, R&B and dance, …n, $5, 21+.

…mon Ground
… Your Ass Night DJ spins indie rock, $2.

…an's
…g spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

…topolitan
…politan Saturdays Top 40, hip-hop, R&B, …2 am, $10, 21+.

…ay Night Clubhouse DJ Darrin Friedman …assic club beats.

…n's
…n Spurling and Chris Deorio spin dance and …9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

…side
…n R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

…ssy
…on Saturdays DJ Val Beats spins hip-hop, 10 …5, 19+.

…normous Room
…erate Mark Estrada spins current and classic …b, $3, 10 pm-2 am.

…
…ky Fatts spins hip-hop and dance beats, no …1+. Fourth floor: Social Club Saturdays DJ …se spins Top 40 beats.

…oundation Lounge
…ard Grant Stuart spins an eclectic mix of '70s …0s disco and Motown, plus international …and acid jazz, 9:30 pm-2 am.

…n Temple
…Room DJ John Reed spins music from the …0s and '90s as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no …1+.

Green Street Grill
House band Kilombo Mambo performs at 11:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJs Niso and Mario spin, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Harp
House DJ spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ spins classic beats, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Fresh spins, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Howie spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, $5.

Matrix/Paradise City
DJ spins '80s, '90s, hip-hop and rock, 10 pm, $8, 21+; $15, ladies 18+.

McGann's Pub
DJs spin dance beats, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
The Grooveyard DJ Yamin spins a mix of mashups, soul, hip-hop, 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night DJ Antonio Ortíz spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 9 pm, $10 for men; $5 for ladies; free for ladies before 10:30, 21+.

The Modern
KLIK DJs Don Schmidt, Mike Walsh and Bons spin minimal techno and electro microhouse, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

The Palace
•The Beach House Classic party music and Top 40, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Club Copa Shake it to Spanish and Latin dance music and hip-hop by DJs Rip Hernandez and Willie D, $15 for men 18+; $10 for men 21+; $5 for men before 10:30 pm; free for ladies. •The Male Encounter New England's longest-running all-male dance revue, doors at 8:30 pm, show runs 9 pm-12:30 am, $25, 18+; $20, 21+. Ladies only. •Oxygen DJ Chaos spins a hip-hop mix, $15, 18+; $10, 21+. •Rio DJ Alex D. spins mainstream hip-hop in a Brazilian atmosphere, $15, 18+; $10, 21+.

Parris
DJ at 8 pm, band at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinney spins one-hit wonders, '80s new wave and disco, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
Turnstyles DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, 21+.

The Rack
Saturday Greatest Hits Party DJ Brian Roche spins, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
KISS 108-FM's Billy Costa and DJ Randy G spin Top 40, house, dance, disco and rock music, 10 pm.

Redline
DJ Cherry spins dance and hip-hop, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Peer Pressure DJ Unlockedgroove spins modern mixes, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
Dueling DJs Massi and Play spin their own styles of house, progressive and techno music, 9 pm, $15, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Sender spins hip-hop and R&B while DJ J.C. plays house and Latin vibes, 10 pm-2 am.

Ryles Dance Hall
Four on the Floor Latin, tango and salsa dancing, 9 pm-1 am, $8-$12.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins Top 40 and dance beats in the front room, and DJ Steve Anderson spins retro favorites in the white room, $5, 10 pm, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike G spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $5.

33 Restaurant
Filter Saturdays DJs Tasso and Niko spin, 9 pm-2 am.

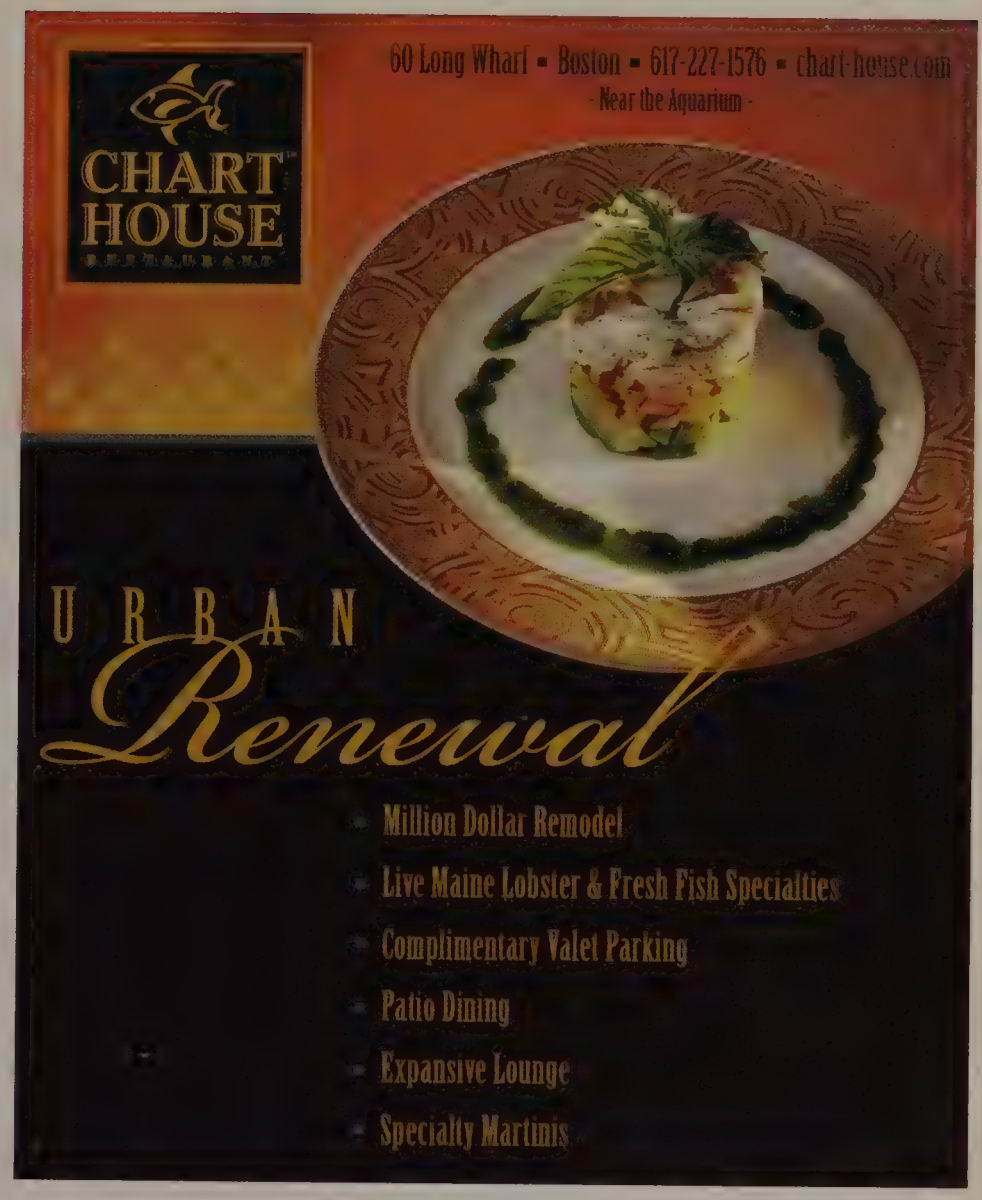
Tiernan's
Saturday Night Dance Party DJ Littles spins classic old-school, Top 40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Toast
Curses Wretched Design presents an evening of Gothic/industrial music, 9 pm-1 am, $10.

Umbria
Deep Boston spins house music on the third floor, while the bi-level international club upstairs features hip-hip and Top 40 beats, 10 pm.

Underbar
Global Entertainment Presents DJ Angel Moraes, 11 pm.

Venu
Nula DJ J.C. plays Latin house, and DJs Tarek Antabi and Gamble spin house and hip-hop, 11 pm, 19+.



ANNa's
TAQUERIA
Burritos & Tacos To Go!

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Burrito

7th Year Running!

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900

Make your own Bloody Mary Bar!

Sundays 11:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Serving Brunch from 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Scollay Square
- Cocktails -
Purveyors of Fine Food

21 Beacon Street
Boston, MA
1-617-742-4900

Tavern on the Water
One Pier 6
Eighth Street
Charlestown, MA
1- 617-242-8689

Two Great Locations

A place where fun and great food are on the menu.

Boston's best sports bar and restaurant serves up a good time with a traditional American grill menu and an excellent selection of sports event viewing. With 33 TVs, including 2 big screens, the game is always on. Come to the place where good food, good sports and good times meet.

Be sure to ask about our private function space for up to 350 people.

Located on the Lobby Level of the Boston Marriott Copley Place
110 Huntington Avenue
Boston, MA 02116
(617) 937-5658

Champions®

Voted Best Sports Bar in Boston by the voters of AOL Cityguide City Best

Vertigo
DJ Ron Steele plays R&B, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJ Joe plays funk and Top 40 all night, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

SUNDAYS

Aria
Scandalous Sundays Brazilian music, 11 pm, $20, women 19+, men 21+.

Avalon
Gay Night DJs spin progressive house, trance and techno, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

Bill's Bar
Live reggae with Dub Station, 8 pm-2 am, 21+.

Caprice
Rotating DJs spin Brazilian dance music, 10 pm, $5-$10, 21+.

Club Europa
2-3-5 Presents Reggae vs. Reggaeton, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Club Q
International Dance Party 8 pm-2 am, $10.

Devlin's
Industry Night DJ Paul Dailey plays mixes and remixes, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Enormous Room
Revolutions A night of electronic music, $3, 11 pm-3 am.

Green Briar
Finbar Doyle, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
The Spot Rotating DJs spin Top 40, hip-hop and house music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover.

Middlesex Lounge
Groove Yard DJ Yamin spins mashups, soul, hip-hop, dancehall and more, 9 pm, no cover.

The Office
Utopia Sundays DJ Bruno and weekly special guests play deep, soulful house and disco, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Bump House-music night features a rotating roster of local and international guest DJs, 10 pm, $5, 19+.

The Place
Chad LaMarsh appears with VJ Leathers, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Point
DJ Itchy P, 11 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
DJ Thom spins Top 40 beats, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
DJ Mike Janedy spins dance and Top 40, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
DJ Danny Sharp and the World Premier Band provide Top 40, dance and old-school funk, no cover.

Redline
Sunday Dubby Sunday DJ Brynmore and rotating guests spin reggae-style music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Action Sunday DJs play punk, garage and rock, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Wepa Salsa Sundays The second and fourth Sunday of each month, DJs Nik and Hernan play salsa music, 6-10 pm, $12.

Saint
Spice Sundays Manos and Christophe host a night featuring Latin and international grooves, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Tiki Room
Reggae Sundays Sunday night reggae features Dub Station and DJ D-Kon, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Toast
DJs wind down the weekend with chill hip-hop and Brazilian beats, 8 pm-1 am, $5.

Venu
Carnivale comes to Boston with this Brazilian night as DJ Leandro spins a collection of dance hits, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
Haitian Connection DJ Deville spins reggae and world beats, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Club Venues

An Tain 35 India St., Boston (617-426-1870).
An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121).
Anthem 138 Portland St., Boston (617-523-8383).
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424).
The Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-9508).
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-243
Big Easy Bar Boylston Place, Boston (617-351
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-72
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262
Club Europa 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-
Club Q 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-741
Cosmopolitan 33 Batterymarch St., Boston (695-9333).
Dbar 1236 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-4490).
Devlin's 332 Washington St., Brighton (617-779
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-705
Embassy 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-2100).
The Enormous Room 567 Mass. Ave., Camb (617-491-5599).
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-55
Flat Top Johnny's 1 Kendall Square, Cambrid 494-9565).
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., B (617-859-9900).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (6 277-9722).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (61 789-4100).
Green Street Grill 280 Green St., Cambridge 876-1655).
Gypsy Bar 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-
Highbar 200 High St., Boston (617-523-4000
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (722-0161).
I/D 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Brighton (617-782
Kinvara Pub 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783 9400).
Liquor Store The Alley, Boston (617-357-680
Mantra 52 Temple Place, Boston (617-542-81
Matrix/Paradise City 275 Tremont St., Boston 542-4077).
McGann's Pub 197 Portland St., Boston (617-4059).
Middlesex Lounge 315 Mass. Ave., Cambrid 868-6739).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain 524-3740).
The Modern 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (6 351-2581).
The Office 5 Broad St., Boston (617-474-786
The Palace 1500 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-
Paradise Lounge 967-969 Comm. Ave., Bost (617-562-8800).
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Mark Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge 576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-208
The Point 147 Hanover St., Boston (617-523-
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (6 227-2060).
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-10
Rain 665 Broadway, Malden (781-322-2101).
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-985
The Reel Bar 477 Cambridge St., Allston (617-3222).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699
Ruby Room 155 Portland St., Boston (617-557- Rumor 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-943-0
Ryles Dance Hall 212 Hampshire St., Cambri (617-876-9300).
Saint 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-6
Spin 1466 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Supper Club 711 Boylston St., Boston (617-437- Tantric Lounge 123 Stuart St., Boston (617-367-
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-43 0300).
Tiernan's 99 Broad St., Boston (617-350-707
Tiki Room 1 Lansdowne St., Boston (61 2580).
Toast 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9
Tonic 1316 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-566-6
Umbria 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-10
Underbar 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-
The Upstairs Lounge 65 Causeway St., Boston (617-792-3382).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-80
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-0
Whiskey Park 64 Arlington St., Boston (617-542 1483).

nuseums & galleries

vice to Contributors

nt gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Galleries. Or e-arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop hone number. Deadline is four weeks prior to pub-on. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

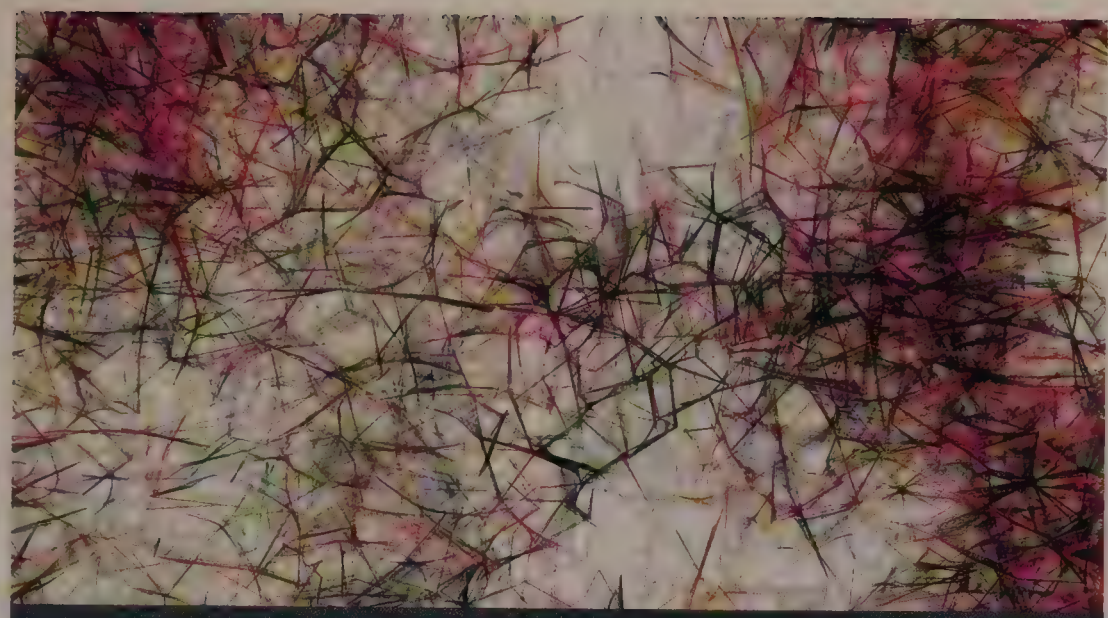
useums

hur M. Sackler Museum

ard University, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: ine to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 7.50; $6, students and seniors; free, Sat. until 12 Frank Stella 1958 showcases several of the post-rtist's neglected oil paintings from the year 1958, e he began his famous black paintings. Through 7. •Evocative Creatures: Animal Motifs and Sym- East Asian Art explores the symbolism and sig-nce of animals through paintings, ceramics, ures, jades and textiles. Through June 11. •The and the Pen: Drawings from the Islamic World ex-s how drawings contributed to artistic experi-tion in eastern Islamic lands. Through July 23.

is Museum and Cultural Center

ley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-. www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Com-Rail to Wellesley. Tue.-Sun., 12-4 pm. Free. •On ge: Contemporary Chinese Artists Encounter the xplores new perspectives on contemporary art in ty of media and reexamines the role of Chinese the international community. Through May 24. Opinions? is an installation by Chinese artist Xu hat examines the evolution of language and the lay between Eastern and Western cultures. gh June 3. •Art from China, Japan and Korea dis-a collection of East Asian artifacts including



C.E.B. Reas' "Articulate" is on display in the Software Art exhibition at the DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park.

18th-century Chinese silk scrolls and 19th-century Hiroshigi prints. Through June 30. •An installation of modernist art features works by Claude Monet, John Singer Sargent and Diego Rivera. Ongoing.

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park

51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lincoln. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $9; $6, students and seniors; free, children 5 and under. •Café des Artistes displays various objects associated with drinking coffee, including decorative latte cups and coffee cans. Through April 9. •Software Art features interactive works by four individual artists and one team, to be viewed on a computer screen. Through April 16. •James Surls: The Splendora Years, 1977-1997 features two decades of the sculptor's abstract work, including table-top carvings and large-scale prints. Through April 16. •The Workshop Portfolios highlights the woodcuts, etchings, engravings and lithographs of some of Boston's most important printmakers from 1988-2000. Through April 16. •Ornamental Art VII displays the latest exhibition of jewelry designed by Marcia MacDonald, Elisa Bongfeldt and Chihiro Makio. April 16-May 9. •Great Buys: Museum Purchases highlights more than 40 pieces of art the museum has purchased with the Art Acquisition Fund. Through Sept. 30.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum

32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and seniors; free, Sat. until 12 pm. •Basic Research: A Selection of Postwar German Paintings and Sculpture explores innovative techniques and textures used in the postwar artists' works. Through April 9. •Tempo, Tempo! The Bauhaus Photomontages of Marianne Brandt highlights the German artist's photomontages created during the mid-1920s and early 1930s. Through May 21. •American Watercolors and Pastels, 1875-1950 features the first showing in 70 years of these works by American masters that include John Singer Sargent, Winslow Homer, Edward Hopper and John Marin. April 8-June 25. •The Western Tradition: Art Since the Renaissance displays a series of installations that analyze painting techniques, pictorial space, sculpture and the artistic process. Through July 30. •Highlights from the Collection of Grenville L. Winthrop exhibits 19th-century paintings. Ongoing.

Harvard Museum of Natural History

26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm; free, Sun. until 12 pm. $7.50; $6, students and seniors; $5, children ages 3-18. •Climate Change: Our Global Experiment explores scientific studies on climate and includes a computer simulation. Ongoing. •Dodos, Trilobites and Meteorites... Treasures of Nature and Science at Harvard features collections that document more than two centuries of scientific exploration. Ongoing. •The Glass Flowers by Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka features glass models of more than 830 plant species from the Ware Collection. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art

955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Tue., Wed. and Fri., 12-5 pm; Thu., 12-9 pm; Sat.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $7; $5, students and seniors; free, Thu. after 5 pm. •Living in Motion: Design and Architecture for Flexible Dwelling exhibits more than 150 objects and films and 500 illustrations to explore how people use furniture, housing and objects for a flexible, mobile life. Through May 7. •Suzanne Walking and Julian Walking by British artist Julian Opie feature two life-sized portraits of figures walking on light-emitting diode screens. Through Oct. 31.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Mu-

LUCKY BRAND JEANS
COPLEY PLACE * NEWBURY STREET
LUCKY BRAND JEANS
COPLEY PLACE * NEWBURY STREET
luckybrandjeans.com

seum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $10, Tue.-Fri.; $11, Sat.-Sun.; $7, seniors; $5, students; free to children under 18 and all visitors named Isabella. •Hanging Nasturtiums displays 15-20 foot long nasturtium vines that hang in the interior courtyard garden. The display is accompanied by the "Edible Nasturtiums" menu at the Gardner Café. Through April 16. •The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces by artists including Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Botticelli and Degas.

MIT List Visual Arts Center

20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-253-4680). http://web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Tue.-Thu., Sat. and Sun., 12-6 pm; Fri., 12-8 pm. Free. •America Starts Here: Kate Ericson and Mel Spiegler celebrates 20 works, including documentation of public art projects, drawings and installations that the duo created during their 10-year career together. Through April 9. •Aaron Fink: Elements and Other Prints features 22 of the artist's prints, including some from his 1984 portfolio Elements. On view at the Dean's Gallery through May 12.

MIT Museum

265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). http://web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-5 pm. $5; $2, students and seniors; free, children under 5. •Pia Lindman: Embodiments displays drawings, videos and video-documentation of the lecturer's performances with robots at MIT. April 18-June 30. •Collisionbox #2: Cars and Stars features Andy Zimmerman's digital animation and video projected onto a three-dimensional sculpture that is accompanied by digital sound. Through April 30. •Finding Form: The Art of Richard Filipowski celebrates the former MIT professor's sculptures and graphic art. Though June 30. •Scopes, Station Wagons and Solder: Unexpected Images from the Rad Lab and RLE Collections exhibits photographs documenting the history of radar and electronics. Through July 4.

Museum of African-American History

46 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroammuseum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Park. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Free. •Soul Cinema: Black Films and Black Stars (1919-1963) showcases movie posters of early African American films, highlighting the careers of neglected filmmakers and stars. April 18- •Historic Gallery Talks: 19th-Century Black Hill explores the determination of African cans on Beacon Hill in the 1800s. Ongoing.

Museum of Fine Arts

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300 mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm; Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4 Thu.-Fri. after 5 pm, only the west wing is op $13, students and seniors; $6.50, children ages school days until 3 pm; free to children 17 and other times; admission reduced by $2, Thu.-Fr pm; free to all, Wed., 4-9:45 pm. •Facets of focuses on the growth of Cubism in Fran 1920 and includes paintings, sculptures an on paper. Through April 16. •David Hock traits highlights 150 works in various medi renowned British artist's friends, family and Through May 14. •Contemporary Clay: Japa ramics for the New Century is a collection of tive, contemporary Japanese ceramics. Thro 9. •Contemporary Cloth: Stoles by Minagawa exhibits shawls from the avant-garde d Through July 9. •Degas to Picasso: Modern features more than 280 works, including pa watercolors, drawings, prints, photographs tures and illustrated books from 190 Through July 23. •Light My Fire: Rock Post the Summer of Love highlights posters from that advertised weekly rock concerts wit bands from the Haight-Ashbury district of Sa cisco, including the Grateful Dead and Je Airplane. Through Aug. 13. •Tradition and T mation: Japanese Art 1860-1940 explores Ja art as the country experienced a synthesis b Western modernism and Eastern traditio Through Aug. 20. •On Stage in Osaka: Acto from the MFA Collection displays 19th-c Japanese prints made in Osaka. April 5-June

Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.m MBTA: D Green Line to Science Park. Mon.- am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $15; $13, senior children ages 3-11. •Countdown to Supernova netarium show about the creation and death Through April 30. •Star Wars: Where Scienc Imagination incorporates artifacts from all rs films to explore the technologies of today and morrow. Through April 30. •Is Algae in your Fu-? demonstrates inventor Isaac Berzin's device converts power plant exhaust into renewable rgy using algae and sunlight. Ongoing. •The But-y Garden lets visitors enjoy hundreds of butter- and flowers. Ongoing. •The Computing Revolu- traces the history of computers. Ongoing. •The iland Observatory allows visitors to stargaze atop museum's garage roof on Friday evenings. uman Body Connection is a hands-on exhibition re visitors of all-ages learn about human behav- s well as animal behavior by observing cotton- amarins. Ongoing. •Natural Mysteries puts visi- organizational skills to work solving mysteries. oing. •Playing by the Rules: Fish, Fads and Fireflies ges visitors with "The Virtual FishTank" in order arn more about complex systems. Ongoing. e Theater of Electricity provides lightning shows at 12 and 2 pm and Fridays at 7 pm.

body Essex Museum
India Square, Salem (978-745-9500). www. org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. $13; $11, seniors; $9, stu-; free to children under 16 and residents of Salem. Lines: Photographs by Alex MacLean captures im- of the U.S. from thousands of feet above ground. ugh April 23. •Taj Mahal: The Building of a Leg- a collection of 40 paintings and photographs ex- ng the sacred site. Through July 23. •Carved by re: Untamed Traditions in Chinese Decorative Art its organic wood forms that appealed to Bud- s and Daoists seeking to connect with nature. ugh Aug. 13. •Exposing the Source: The Paintings lini Malani highlights the artist's paintings and colors whose subjects vary from women to India's culture. Through Oct. 22. •Owls in Art and Na- xhibits a wide variety of art pieces and interac- tations representing the connections between ns and owls throughout history. Through Dec. 3.

body Museum of Archaeology Ethnology vinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). www. dy.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 9 am-5 pm. $7.50; $6, seniors and students; $5, n 3-18; free, children under 3. •Imazighen! Beauty rtisanship in Berber Life includes 20th-century ar- such as jewelry and leatherwork by the Berber es of North Africa. Through June 30. •Reconfig-Korea: Roger Marshutz's Photography of Pusan, 1954 exhibits photographs of daily life in Korea country underwent cultural, political and eco- changes during the U.S. reconstruction efforts. gh Sept. 10. •From Nation to Nation: Examining and Clark's Indian Collection presents artifacts the explorers' expedition. Through Dec. 31. Moche of Ancient Peru is a collection of early ce- art that gives insight into the culture. Through 2007. •Encounters with the Americas examines e American culture before and after the arrival ristopher Columbus in 1492. Ongoing.

e Art Museum
eis University, 415 South St., Waltham (781-434). www.brandeis.edu/rose. MBTA: Com- Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue.-Sun., 12-5 pm. Post and After: Contemporary Art from the Bran- niversity Collection displays postmodern paint- rom the past 25 years. Through April 9. Schutz: Paintings 2002-2005 features a variety rative oil paintings by the New York artist. gh April 9. •Spot On exhibits recent paint- nd sculptures by nine of the university's studio- ulty. Through April 9.

ecial Events

Faith Quilts Project
Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston 26-8835). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange Back Bay. April 7-8 and 10, 10 am-10 pm; April 6 pm. Celebrating the diverse faiths in New d, the exhibition showcases quilts created by lt artists and 50 faith groups. The exhibition cludes musical and sacred dance performances, nsembles and a panel discussion following a tion of Marc Wolf's The Road Home, Re- ring America. See Web site for details.

n Studios of the Museum of Fine Arts, 230 The Fenway, (617-369-3618). www.smfa.ed. MBTA: E Line to Museum. April 9, 12-3 pm. The SMFA ts studios for visitors to view student artwork eak with the emerging artists.

Annual Benefit Art Auction
husetts College of Art, 621 Huntington Ave., (617-879-7014). www.massartauction.org. E Green Line to Longwood. April 8, 7 pm. This nnual benefit auction features artwork from han 300 internationally acclaimed artists. The live auction begins at 8 pm; the silent auction remains open throughout the evening. $125 in advance, $150 at the door.

SOWA Artists Guild First Friday
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (978-337-4191). www. sowaartists.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Friday, April 7, 5:30-8:30 pm. At the center of the SOWA artists district, visitors meet artists in their element and experience a wide variety of contemporary art. Dozens of artists' studios are open to the public.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www. acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. Industrial Composition exhibits Mur- ray Hantman's abstract oil paintings of industrial ob- jects in a machine shop. Through April 29.

Adams Gallery
Suffolk University Law School, 120 Tremont St., Boston (617-305-1782). www.suffolk.edu/adams_gallery. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Daily, 9 am-7 pm. Free. BSO Celebrates 125 Years displays photographs and artifacts from the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Through June 30.

Allston Skirt Gallery
65 Thayer St., Boston (617-482-3652). www.allston skirt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Elizabeth Huey: The Inexplicable Thing Between Us features small paintings and drawings by the artist. April 7-29. •Danica Phelps and Debi Ray-Chaudhuri: Two Takes presents the two artists' paintings and drawings. April 7-29.

Alpha Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alpha gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •New Prints and Works on Paper features Scott Prior's color etchings and watercolors. Through May 3. •Recent Work ex- hibits Ben Aronson's oil paintings of urban land- scapes. Through May 3.

Arden Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.arden gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Norma Bessouet's Rhythm and Order explores themes of childhood, fantasy, dreams and memories through her oil paintings. Through April 30.

Artana
1378 Beacon St., Suite B, Brookline (617-879-3111). www.artanagallery.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Thu., 10 am-7 pm and by appointment. New York: Night/Day reflects on Suzanne Hodes' appreciation of NYC in a series of paintings created in a variety of media. Through May 6.

Axelle Fine Arts Galerie
91 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0700). www. axelle.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Daily, 10 am-6 pm. Andre Boubounelle showcases oil paintings by the French landscape artist in this solo exhibition. Through April 15.

BAAK Gallery
35 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-0407). www. baakgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-8 pm; Sun., 1-6 pm. A Different Ap- proach: Mixed-Media Exhibition features collages, al- tered books, encaustic paintings and assembled objects on panels by six female artists. Through April 18.

Barbara Krakow Gallery
10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •The Broken Grid exhibits Barbara Broughel's paintings and sculp- tures created by applying techniques from 16th-and 17th-century-Dutch paintings. Through April 26. •Stonehenge showcases a series of photographs by John Baldessari of two people in front of the histor- ical site in England. Through April 26.

Berenberg Gallery
4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). www. berenberggallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. Everything Under the Sun exhibits paintings, drawings and sculptures by 12 disabled artists from the Gateway Arts Gallery. Through May 6.

Bernard Toale Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www. bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by ap- pointment. Surrounding Practice by Sandy Litch- field and Territory of Thought by Fred H.C. Liang feature the artists' paintings and drawings. Through April 29.

BF Annex Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3344). www.bfannex.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. Soup by Ruth Daniels features mixed-media works on velum and an installation entitled Gel Pours, a three-dimensional relief of hand-torn paper with pigmented acrylic gel. Through April 29.

Boston Center for the Arts
Mills Gallery, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-8835). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed-Sun., 12-5 pm; Fri.-.Sat., until 10 pm. Tipping Points examines the relationship of one's health and community through seven sculptures that react to visitors' movements, each representing the illness of a local artist. April 7-May 28.

Boston Sculptors Gallery
486 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-7781). www.bostonsculptors.com. MBTA: Orange Line to N.E. Medical. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. •Bronze Sculpture blends classical Asian sculptures and modernist art in Robert Schelling's works of common objects. Through April 15. •Laura Baring Gould displays an installation made of bee's wax entitled Working for Passage. Through April 15.

Brickbottom Gallery
1 Fitchburg St., Somerville (617-776-3410). www.brickbottomartists.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. Thu.-Sat., 2-6 pm. Get Real explores new perspectives on realism in a variety of media by Jane Goldman, Roger Kizik, Barbara Poole and David Sholl. April 7-May 7.

Bromfield Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3605). www.bromfieldartgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •Quotidian is an installation of a 365-day calendar of ordinary objects arranged by Odile Dix. April 5-29. •Site features various locations, including Paris and California, as the theme for Elizabeth Strasser's abstract paintings. April 5-29.

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Line to St. Mary's. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm. •Luca Ricco: Watercolors displays new watercolors by the partially paralyzed artist. Through April 7. •Extraordinary Pet Portraits highlights Dana Berenson's photographs of various pets. Through April 9. •F*Market* features watercolors of fruits and veget Phyllis Cohen and Anita Jamieson. April 14-

Cambridge Art Association
25 Lowell St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). cambridgeart.com. MBTA: Red Line to H Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. • Way We Live, member artists display their pa sculptures and mixed-media works in a show by John Imber. On display at the Universit Gallery through April 8. •The Nature of Or Chaos is a group show featuring paintings an tures by Grace Vasta-Carr, Lydia Jenkins Mu Michelle De Marco. Through April 25.

Cambridge Arts Council
344 Broadway St., Cambridge (617-349- www.cambridgeartscouncil.org. MBTA: Red Central. Mon., Wed.-Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm 8:30 am-5 pm; Fri., 8:30 am-12 pm. • Citizens: 42° 22' 12.11" N, 71° 06' 11.45 Michael Oatman highlights various collect local model makers. Through April 7.

Cambridge Multicultural Arts Ce
41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400) cmacusa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall. Fri., 10 am-6 pm. TR3 explores the culture Dominican Republic and features mixed-me work, costumes and photos of indigenous Through April 26.

Cambridge 7 Associates, Inc.
1050 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7000) c7a.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon. am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. Paintings East a displays the work of Hans Chao, including C calligraphy screens, oil paintings, watercolors paper and pastels. Through April 28.

Chase Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Fri., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •S Coyle displays his new acrylic on panel pa that depict scenes of contemporary society. A 29. •Tezh Modarressi presents her work with paper, based on solitary interiors. April 5-29.

Childs Gallery
169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). childsgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley

, 9 am-6 pm; Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm. 69 at : Child's Gallery Celebrates 69 Years at 169 New- St. with 69 Fine Objects that include art from masters to 20th-century artists in a variety of lia. Through May 6.

pley Society of Art
Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www. eysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. -Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Patron's Choice 6: On the Waterfront features paintings from 25 he gallery patrons' favorite artists. Through il 22. •Small Works: Rites of Spring exhibits ber artists' interpretations of spring in a variety edia, including photography, sculpture and ic paintings. Through April 29.

mp McCole Gallery
Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-330-1133). MBTA: Line to South Station. Mon.-Wed. and Fri., 10 pm; Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-5 pm. l Works by Elizabeth Benson exhibits the 's oil paintings. Ongoing.

R Modern Galleries
Newbury St., Boston (617-424-9700). MBTA: Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri. and 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 11 am- 6 pm. Hockney and en: Interpretations presents lithographs and silk ns by David Hockney, and oils on canvas by en R. T. Through April 22.

pse Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-247-6730). MBTA: Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. Recent Still Work by Ron Hubbard includes gouache paintings, l drawings and watercolors. Through April 29.

t Point Arts Community Gallery
Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www. intarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. -Fri., 9 am-9 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. •5 Draw features drawings with a variety of themes and styles by rtists: Sam Tan, James Kinny, Dorothea Van , Jo Ann Rothchild and Linda Price-Sneddon. ugh April 8. •Winged and Whispered exhibits in a variety of media that focus on the imagery ated with flying. April 14-May 20.

erie d'Orsay
ewbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www. -dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. -Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •Zupan: ositions in Color displays oil on canvas paintings atercolors by Bruno Zupan, and mixed-media by his daughter Natasha. April 14-May 14. gallery's collection features paintings from mascluding Picasso, Renoir and Matisse.

ery AA/B
lbany St., Suite 3B, Boston (617-574-0022). artadvisoryboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5:30 pm and by appoint- •Helena Kocis exhibits her wall relief, Per- Structures, which uses geometric forms to exone's mood and personality. April 8-May 26. er Goldenberg displays oil on canvas assem- inspired by improvisational jazz music in Reaintings. April 8-May 26.

ery at Studio 412a
arrison Ave., Boston (978-468-8054). MBTA: e Line to Back Bay. By appointment only. Kim hia displays Wrinkles and Rolls, an installation ning painting and sculpture. Through April 30.

ery Katz arrison Ave., Boston (617-423-6328). www. katz.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. at., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. The Oppo- Romance features acrylic paintings of office inte- Amze Emmons. April 6-29.

ery Kayafas
arrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411). www. ayafas.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. at., 11 am-5:30 pm. •The Alphabet displays graphs of models spelling out the letters of the et with their bodies. Through April 29. r Branches: A Snow Haiku presents a series of or-ink prints with each image representing a a haiku. Through April 29.

ry NAGA
wbury St., Boston (617-267-9060). www. naga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. at., 10 am-5:30 pm. Reality, You Choose preo series of Joseph Barbieri's oil paintings: one als with human-like traits, and the other of pes. April 7-29.

vese/Sullivan Gallery
arrison Ave., Boston (617-426-9738). www. esullivan.com MBTA: Orange Line to Back e.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. Other Works disPeter Coe's abstract mixed-media paintings tercolors, several of which are computer gen- April 7-May 2.

ard Yezerski Gallery bury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.howard gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Contradictions: To Rimbaud-Verlaine features John O'Reilly's polaroid montages. Through April 18. •Copley Bastards displays Hannah Barrett's oils paintings that examine the social conventions of artist John Singleton Copley's era. Through April 18.

Huret & Spector Gallery
Emerson College, 10 Boylston Place, Boston (617-824-8329). www.emerson.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Mon.-Fri., 11 am-3:30 pm and by appointment. Earth's Oldest People features John Friedman's interviews and photographs of individuals born in the 1800s who live around the world, including in Lynn, East Boston, Taunton and Swampscott. Through April 14.

Hurst Gallery
54 Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge (617-491-6888). www. hurstgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sat., 12-6 pm; Thu., 12-7 pm and by appointment. Stages of Depiction: Indian Drawings, 17th-19th Centuries depicts numerous themes involved in the creation of Northern Indian drawings and sketches. Through April 15.

International Poster Gallery
205 Newbury St., Boston (617-3750076). www. internationalposter.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. A Blizzard of New Acquisitions displays more than 70 rare posters by artists including Leonetto Mauzan, Luciano Cappiello, Gino Boccasile and Hermann Kosel. Through April 15.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www. judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. Tracks by Stacy Quackenbush exhibits molds of Boston's sidewalks cast onto bronze and iron, as well as Jennifer Liston Munston's photographs and oil on plaster paintings. April 6-29.

Judy Ann Goldman Fine Art/Beth Urdang Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www. judygoldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Recent Paintings of China, Cups, Teapots and Russian Glass features Olga Antonova's oil on canvas paintings. April 6-29.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www. kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Graham Gillmore: New Work presents oil and enamel on wood paintings using text such as tabloids and lyrics. April 5-29.

Kingston Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-4113). www. kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. Janet Hansen Kawada and Matt Stone present Steel Wool, a sculpture made of welded steel and felt. Through April 29.

Lanoue Fine Art
160 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-4400). www. lanouefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. The gallery's collection features works by Dirk De Bruycker, Andrew Saftel, Marc Civitarese, Frederick Hart, John Folsom and others. Ongoing.

L'Attitude Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). www. lattitudegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Rhythm is a group show featuring sculpture and mixed-media wall art with a musical theme. Through April 10. •Outer Dimension displays Rob Lorenson's outdoor contemporary, aluminum and stainless-steel sculptures. April 7-May 31.

Locco Ritoro Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-542-1010). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Memories by Ricardo Cabrera displays the artist's oil paintings on welded iron. Through April 22. •New Works by Jeff Heyne features the artist's contemporary photography mounted on aluminum. Through April 22.

Mario Diacono at Ars Libri
500 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-5212). www. arslibri.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Jutta Koether displays one of her new paintings, "Homohomo." Through April 5. •One painting from Daniel Rich's new works is displayed from April 7-29.

Massachusetts College of Art
Bakalar Gallery, 621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www.massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •All School Show exhibits current undergraduate student work in a variety of media including glass, metals, fashion and industrial design, photography and painting. Through April 7. •Master of Fine Arts Thesis Exhibitions showcases works in a variety of media by graduating students. April 12-May 22.

Enjoy charming and warm dining.

Choose from many well priced, abundant entrées and appetizers while sipping on a cocktail.

STOLI BAR AND RESTAURANT

New modern casual restaurant with eclectic cosmopolitan cuisine

213 Washington Street, Brookline Village
617.731.5070 • www.stolibar.com
open 7 days a week • lunch & dinner

The Wine Cellar

THE ONE AND ONLY FONDUE & WINE RESTAURANT

30 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston 02115
(617) 236-0080
www.bostoncellar.com

Gerald Lerner
Photography
Elegance and Style

upcoming issues

April 19, 2006
Luxury

May 3, 2006
Homes

May 17, 2006
Wedding Planner

May 31, 2006
Summer Fun

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Call 617-859-1400 ext. 280 to advertise

Mercury Gallery
2nd Floor, 8 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Transportation showcases oil paintings, drawings and monotypes of various modes of transportation and of NYC subway riders by Joseph Solman, Harry Gottlieb, Phillip Jones, Daniel Robinson and Esphyr Slobodkina. Through April 12.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobilia-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. John Garrett's textiles and Ellen Wieske's jewelry are on display through April 30.

MPG Contemporary
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). www.mpgallery.net. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. New Work by Jim Peters displays the artist's oil paintings, drawings and three-dimensional constructions. April 7-29.

Newbury Fine Arts
29 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-0210). www.newburyfinearts.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. Annual Figurative Exhibition includes oil paintings, pastels and mixed-media works by Pauline Roche, Charles Dwyer, Greg Calibry and Craig Srebnik. Through April 7.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). www.nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Lost Paintings 1984-85 features nine oil paintings never before exhibited as well as mixed-media collages and works on paper by Porfirio DiDonna. April 8-May 6.

OHT Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-1677). www.ohtgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •New Work by Michael Dumontier displays mixed-media works of simplified everyday objects. •Nick Zaremba presents an installation of his graffiti-inspired character paintings. April 6-13.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-778-5265). www.ospgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Michael Krueger's Recent Work exhibits the artist's colored-pencil drawings of American mythology. Through April 15.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www.outoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Daily, 12-6 pm. The gallery's permanent collection features photography, paintings, sculpture, jewelry, mosaics and antiques by local artists including Margarete Koehler-Bittkow, an original Bauhaus artist.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www.peppergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Harold Reddicliffe highlights the artist's oil paintings of everyday objects including microscopes, fans and projectors. Through April 29.

Perrin Gallery
320A Harvard St., Brookline (617-277-4357). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Here for Only a Little While features ink-jet prints and oil and mixed-media paintings by Judith Brassard-Brown and Sadie Dudley. Through April 10. •Drawing into the Present exhibits Marketa Klicoca's mixed-media paintings and drawings. April 15-June 24.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www.puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •A Single Form by Phil Rogers celebrates the form of the British jug. Through April 16. •A Sparkling Life Force by Jeffrey Hessing displays the artist's oil paintings of Italian and Slovakian countrysides, as well as the island of Bermuda. Through April 16.

Rhys Gallery
70 Northampton St., Boston (617-541-2534). www.therhysgallery.com MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. •Snap! Click! Bang! features photography and sculptures from four emerging artists: Jesse Burke, Alison Lessmann, Alicia Colen and Kevin Kennedy. Through April 8. •Synergetic explores the use of digital technology in acrylic paintings, a video installation and computer-generated images. April 14-May 6.

Richardson-Clarke Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). www.richardson-clarke.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. The gallery's permanent collection features European and American paintings and drawings from the 19th and 20th centuries.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). robertkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green L Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat.. 5pm. Jerry Uelsmann displays his photograp ated with use of image manipulation an tomontage from prints and negatives. Th April 29.

Samson Projects
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7177). samsonprojects.com. MBTA: Orange Line t Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appoin Taylor Davis' New Work exhibits abstract sculptures. Through April 22.

School of Museum of Fine Arts
Grossman Gallery, 230 The Fenway., Boston 369-3718). www.smfa.edu. MBTA: E Gree to Museum. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm.; Thu. pm. •SMFA Traveling Scholars Exhibition sho paintings, photography, a video installatio performance art by the seven recipients av with the prestigious Traveling Scholarshi view at the MFA through April 12. •Fift Exhibition displays students' work in a var media created during their year of indepe study. April 7-May 6.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to C Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm.; Sun., 12-5 pm. Th residency program Watershed celebrates it anniversary in a display of ceramic art. Th April 30.

Soprafina Gallery
73 Thayer St., Boston (617-728-0770). soprafina.com. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm Views: Plein Air Painting exhibits Jon Imb Robin Reynolds' abstract oil paintings inspi nature. April 6-30.

St. George Gallery
245 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). stgeorgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to C Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. M features post-modern oil paintings by John ray, figurative landscapes and Boston cityscа William St. George and watercolors of Tao Sante Fe, N.M. by Sandra Mueller-Dick. Th April 30.

Victoria Munroe Fine Art
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-523-0661). victoriamunroefineart.com. MBTA: Green L Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm and by ap ment. Mary Armstrong displays the artist's ab oil paintings that depict current political th Through May 6.

Vose Galleries of Boston
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6 www.vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to ley. Mon.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am pm. The gallery's permanent collection inc American artwork in various media from the 19th and early-20th centuries.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Center for Photographic Exhibiti
New England School of Photography, 654 Comm. Boston (617-437-1868). www.nesop.com. M Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm Hanson and Steven Tavan display large-format and-white photography. Through April 14.

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wi ter Center. Tue.-Wed., 11 am-5 pm; Thu., 11 am Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-6 pm. •Photo Sy features photography from students at the Bosto Academy and Winchester High School. Th April 30. •Snowbound displays Lisa Robinson's photography of upstate N.Y. through April 30.

Panopticon Gallery Boston
502 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929). panopt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue 11 am-6 pm. Tony Deconeas, John Rosenthal and Johnson exhibits black-and-white photography romantic themes. Through May 2.

Panopticon Gallery Waltham
435 Moody St., Waltham (781-647-0100). panopt.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wal Mon.-Thu., 10 am-6 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. Rosenthal exhibits black-and-white street pho phy in Everyday Theatre. Through April 22.

Photographic Resource Center
Boston University Art Gallery, 855 Comm. Ave., B (617-975-0600). www.bu.edu/prc. MBTA: B Line to B.U. West. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat Sun., 12-5 pm. 2006 PRC Student Exhibition show photography in a variety of formats, including b and-white, digital and video, presented by New England's colleges. April 7-May 7.

gay & esbian

vice to Contributors

mit information, including telephone numbers and rest MBTA stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or ail gaylesbian@improper.com.

lubs, Bars & angouts

e Alley (Daily)

'i Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-9). www.thealleybar.com. MBTA: Blue or Green to Gov. Center. Mon.-Fri., 2 pm-2 am; Sat. and , 12 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Boston's leather-Levi's neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a box and video games as well as theme nights.

a (Thursdays)

Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080). MBTA: n Line to Boylston or Orange Line to New England cal Center. 11 pm. $10. 21+. Get Down Thursdays re rotating DJs playing hip-hop, house and pop.

ılon (Sundays)

ansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: n Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. Sunday-t parties include drag acts and house music from ent DJ Ted Elison.

s (Mondays)

ansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: n Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $7. 19+. Static on days features a drag show hosted by Miss Kris vel, with DJs Susan Esthera and Adilson spin-progressive house. An amateur drag show takes the last Monday of each month.

z (Saturdays)

tuart St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzz n.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. 21+. On Saturdays, Buzz's pool room, lounge wo dance floors—with DJ Mary Alice spinning lar dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep and trance—keep the men busy until 2 am.

le (Daily)

remont St., Boston (617-542-4494). MBTA: Or-Line to Back Bay or Green Line to Arlington. No 21+. Neighborhood cruise bar open nightly.

assy (Thursdays)

nsdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100). www. nboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. n. $10. 19+. DJ Susan Esthera spins hip-hop op music every Thursday night.

z (Daily)

handler St., Boston (617-482-4428). www.fritz .com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-12 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This gay sports ith six large-screen plasma TVs, serves brunch lay and Sunday.

Saturdays)

nsdowne St., Boston. www.lesbiannightlife.com. -2 am. No cover. 21+. LiQuid DJ Mix Mistress hip-hop, house, reggae, reggaeton and more at eekly women-only night.

ues Cabaret (Daily)

adway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green o Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-12 am; Sun., -12 am. $6, weekdays; $10, weekends. 21+. Pa-mingle with disco-dancing drag queens. •Mon. ating weeks): Foxy Follies; TraniWreck. •Tue.: ke. •Wed.: Delightful Divas with Melinda Wil-Thu.: Jacque's Angels with Miss Kris Knievel. nd Sat.: Miss Norelle's Leading Ladies and live •Sun.: An Evening of Mizery: Amateur Talent 10 pm.

hine (Mondays, Thursdays–rdays)

Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). www. machine.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. t., 9 pm-2 am. •Mon.: Stroke, with hostess 10 pm-2 am. 19+. •Thu.: Karaoke Competi-•Fri.: Best Night Out, featuring deep house 10 pm-2 am. $8. 21+. •Sat.: Latin night, 10 m. Cover varies. 21+.

ern (Thursdays)

nsdowne St., Boston (617-351-2581). www. nightlife.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. $10. 19+. Thursday is lesbian night with DJ te.

dise (Daily)

ass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-3000). www. ecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Male strippers perform every night. The dance floor features Top 40, Thursday through Saturday, and T-Dance on Sunday.

Singer Grace Garland headlines GLEE Boston, April 8-9, at the Bayside Expo Center.

Ramrod (Daily)

1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billed as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is mandatory for the back room on weekends). •Mon.: Pool, dart tournaments and pizza. •Wed.: Twitch 4.0 with DJ Mac. •Thu.: Mandance with DJ Jason Taylor. •Fri.: Bound to Please with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Freespace. •Sun.: Muscle with DJ Duo Freespace.

Rise (Saturdays)

306 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-7473). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 1:30-6:30 am. $10, members; $20, guests. This members-only club is predominantly gay on Saturdays. Storm Saturdays feature resident DJs Billy Carroll, Chad Jack, Gilles Massicotte, Joe Gauthreaux and Mark Anthony upstairs and David McNeary downstairs.

Rumor (Sundays)

100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061). www.rumorboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm-2 am. Cover varies. Sunday T-dance features DJ Danae spinning the latest house and pop.

Toast (Fridays, Saturdays)

70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.toastlounge.com. 5:30 pm-1 am. $5. 21+. Friday is the new home for DykeNight with DJ Susan Esthera, and Saturday is Retro Night with DJs from ManRay.

Tribe at Felt (Thursdays)

Felt, 533 Washington St., 4th floor, Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9:30 pm-2 am. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hip-hop and Top 40 on the 4th floor at this weekly lesbian night.

209 at Club Café (Daily)

209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 11:30 am-2 am; Sat.,12 pm-2 am; Sun.,10:30 am-2 am. No cover. 21+. This South End spot offers dining and unobtrusive music in the front room at Restaurant 209 and video entertainment in the rear room at Club Café. •Wed.: Live karaoke, 9 pm. •Thu.: VJ Ricky Huss. •Fri.: VJ Cliff Cunningham. •Sat.: VJ Scott Kennedy.

Underbar (Sundays)

275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080). www.flauntatunderbar.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 11 pm. $10. 21+. This weekly event features DJs spinning hard house.

Upstairs @ Dedo's (Daily)

69 Church St., Park Square, Boston (617-338-9999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. No cover. 21+. A predominantly gay crowd frequents the upstairs lounge at Dedo's, which features a nightly piano bar and club room. •Mon.: S.I.N. (Service Industry Night). •Tue.: Stage and Screen. Classic movies, 7-9 pm. Showtune videos, 9 pm-1 am. •Wed.: Latino Lounge with Latin groove music. •Thu.-Fri.: Boys in Ties and complimentary after-work buffet, 5-7 pm. House music, 7 pm-1 am. •Sat.: High Energy Night with house music. •Sun.: Disco Night.

Venu (Wednesdays)

100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). www.chapsboston.com. 10 pm. $8. 21+. This long-running gay Latino night features music by DJ Adilson.

Shows & Events

The Case Against Same-Sex Marriage

Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston (617-373-5800). www.fordhallforum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing. April 6, 6:30 pm. Free. Maggie Gallagher, president of the Institute for Marriage and Public Policy, argues that the only way to win the gay marriage debate is to win the marriage debate: to emerge with a deeper, richer understanding of marriage as a social and legal institution.

GLEEBoston 2006; Gay Lifestyle Enrichment Expo

Bayside Expo Center, 200 Vernon St., Boston (617-744-1750). www.gleeboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to JFK. April 8-9, Sat., 10 am-8 pm; Sun., 10 am-6 pm. $16. This two-day expo features live entertainment, conference sessions, a film festival, a business forum and 125 exhibits.

Wake Up and Smell the Coffee

Charlestown Working Theater, 422 Bunker Hill St., Charlestown (866-811-4111). www.theatermania.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan. Through April 15, 8 pm. $15, adults; $10, students and seniors. Theater on Fire presents the most recent solo performance piece by actor, playwright, novelist and screenwriter Eric Bogosian. The show is performed by Boston native John Joyce.

Whitewater Rafting

DoubleTree Hotel, 50 Warren St., Lowell (603-726-7558). www.gayoutdoors.org. April 15, 1-4 pm. $79. Zoar Outdoor guides this whitewater rafting trip on the Concord River through three major class III-IV rapids: Twisted Sister, Three Beauties and Middlesex Dam.

Ongoing

Bagly

St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313). www.bagly.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Wed., 5-9 pm. The Boston Alliance of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

Beantown North G/L Bowling League

Lanes & Games, 195 Concord Turnpike, Cambridge (617-876-5533). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Tue., 8:30 pm. This league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets weekly.

Beantown Soft-Tip Dart League

The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Fritz, 26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. www.bsdl.org. Mon., 8:30 pm. $12 for the season. This league hosts weekly 301, 601 and cricket matches at the Alley and Fritz.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League

Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.beantownbowling.com. 7 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets Wednesday nights.

Bi Focus

(617-697-9244) MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 7 pm. Bisexual men and women discuss books, videos and other topics of interest.

Bi Rap

Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). First Tue. of each month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group provides support and information for bisexual women or women who are questioning their sexuality.

Boston Bears Barnight

The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). http://bostonbears.us. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 9:30 pm-2 am. Free. The Boston Bears meet the first and third Saturday of each month and also hold a happy hour every Friday from 5:30-7:30 pm.

Boston Boasts Squash

Central YMCA, 316 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue., 7-9 pm; Sat., 10 am-12 pm. The league comprises gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay Basketball League

(617-937-5858). www.bgbl.com. The league offers a full regular season and playoff schedule each year. E-mail info@bgbl.com.

Boston Glass Community Center

93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Thu., 3-8 pm; Fri., 3-5 pm. The center provides social activities for questioning young people ages 13-25.

Boston Lesbian Avengers

Despina's Place, 47 Mass. Ave., Boston. www.lesbianavengers.org. Mon., 7-8 pm. This bi- and transsexual-friendly, direct-action political group focuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Uncommons

Central Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-926-9267). www.lcfd.org/bu. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed., 7 pm. A gay and lesbian square-dancing group.

COLAGE

Third Sat. of each month, 10:30 am-12 pm. COLAGE (Children of Lesbians and Gays Everywhere) meets in Medford for support and activities and holds a concurrent meeting for interested parents and their partners. E-mail medfordcolage@hotmail.com.

Coming Out as Bisexual

Boston's Bisexual Resource Center at the Boston Living Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (617-424-9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. First Wed. and third Thu. of each month, 7 pm. Free. An informal group for people who think they may be bisexual or are attracted to both sexes.

Coming Out Support Group for Adults

(617-482-2166). This group offers a confidential place for men and women who are looking for a safe space to discuss issues of sexual identity. It meets Thursday nights from 7-8:15 pm, near Coolidge Corner in Brookline. Call for more information.

Compass

(781-899-2212). Compass is a New England–area support, information and social group for people assigned female at birth, but who feel that the designation isn't an accurate or complete description of their gender. Part of the FTM (Female-to-Male) Center, this group meets monthly at locations around New England. E-mail Compass FTM@usa.com for details.

Elegant Outings

(866-335-7730). www.elegantoutings.com. This group welcomes gay and gay-friendly professional women 40 and older who are intelligent, chic and sophisticated to get together with like-minded women for conversations, dinners, theater and networking.

Fenway Community Health

7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Fenway Community Health offers an array of services for the LGBT community, ranging from discussions about parenting and safe-sex practices to programs addressing domestic violence and substance abuse.

The 40-Somethings

theprimeoflife@aol.com. This newly formed group of lesbians in their 40s runs events that help to foster enduring romantic/life partnerships through being friends first.

Frontrunners Boston

Metropolitan Health Club, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-937-5858). www.mindspring.com/~frontrunners. Tue., 12 pm; Wed., 6:45 pm; Sat., 10 am. See Web site for locations. All are welcome to join this running club.

Gay Amateur Photography Group

amateurgphoto@yahoo.com. Learn about photography, socialize and meet new people at monthly meetings.

Gay Fathers of Greater Boston

First Parish Church, 50 Church St., Waltham (617-742-7897). www.gayfathersboston.org. $2. This group for gay/bisexual fathers meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month, 8-10 pm.

GayLab

www.gaylab.org. This experiment in developing healthy gay relationships features alternatives for meeting and dating, communication games and mixers for singles. E-mail info@gaylab.org.

Gays for Patsy

(617-412-5751). www.gaysforpatsy.org. This country–western dancing club, featuring two-step, swing and line dancing, holds events twice a month. Beginners welcome, no partner needed. Call for more details.

Gender Crash

Spontaneous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-6373). www.gendercrash.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Second Thu. of each month, 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Members of the LGBT community are invited to share poetry, prose and performance pieces at this open-mike event.

Girlfriends: Bisexual and Lesbian Women of Color
Cambridge Family and Children's Services, 929 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-876-4210). MBTA: Red Line to Central. This discussion group for all ages meets every Saturday, 10:30 am-12 pm.

LAFFAN
Lesbians Available for Fun and Networking is a local social and networking group that provides opportunities for women to connect with each other. Members receive a weekly e-mail calendar of events. LAFFAN sponsors an annual Halloween dance and spring dances/benefits. E-mail LAFFAN_Boston2004@yahoo.com for membership information.

Monday Night Bowling League
Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.mnbl.net. 7:30 pm. The MNBL's bowling season runs Monday nights.

The Network/La Red
(617-423-7233). www.thenetworklared.org. This support group is working to end abuse in lesbian, bisexual women's and transgender communities. E-mail info@thenetworklared.org for more information.

Newly Diagnosed Group
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. First and third Mon. of each month, 7:30-9 pm. Free. This group supports gay and bisexual men who've been diagnosed with HIV during the last two years. E-mail nlongtin@jri.org.

Out to Dance
(617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Swing, Latin and ballroom dance classes and workshops are held in a gay-friendly environment.

Out TwentySomethings Boston
twentysomethingsboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. This social and peer support group is for lesbians, gay men and bisexual, transgender and questioning folks as well as their straight allies in their 20s and early 30s.

POZ Social
Moonshine Room at Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 326). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Second Mon. of each month, 6-11 pm. Free. This monthly event, featuring raffles, food, music and drinks, benefits those affected by HIV/AIDS.

POZ 20s
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Oran to Downtown Crossing. Thu., 7:30-9 pm. Th group offers support for HIV-positive gay and b men in their 20s.

POZ 30s Plus
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 132 Boylst Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 314). MBTA: Green Line to Park. Wed., 7-9 pm. This socia supports HIV-positive gay and bisexual men and over. E-mail hyee@jri.org for more info.

Queer-A-Oke
Midway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamaica www.dykenight.com. Thu. 9 pm-12 am. Free Night Productions provides costumes and wigs weekly karaoke night at the Midway.

The Rainbow Café
rainbowboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. T cial group for activist, academic, intellectu artistic lesbians meets biweekly in gay-ow gay-friendly establishments around Boston.

Slice of Rice
Boston GLASS, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston (61 3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. W 7 pm. This peer-run, queer Asian youth gr those under 25 meets for mutual support. sungyun@chickmail.com.

Somos Latin@s LGBT Coalition
www.somoslatinoslgbt.org. A social and netw group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas in the area, Somos Latin@s hosts Viernes Sociales month. E-mail somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.c more info.

Tiffany Club of New England
(781-891-9325). www.tcne.org. This social a port group for the transgendered community ho ular activities and events. E-mail stef616@aol.c

Under the Radar
(617-851-7911). www.radarboston.com. Und Radar, Boston's gay, all-male, contemporary a c group, is always auditioning prospective memb mail info@radarboston.com.

Wonder Women Boston
http://groups.yahoo.com/wonder_women_boston. Fri. of each month. This social group comprises and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s.

Control all your print projects online. Whenever. Wherever.

With AlphaGraphics Online print services, you have the power to order, track and manage even the most complicated print jobs from wherever you are, any time. And you get to determine who has access to your online ordering site. Enjoy the freedom while you stay in control.

617-742-9585
74 Canal Street
Boston, MA 02114

alphagraphics®
DESIGN ■ COPY ■ PRINT ▶ COMMUNICATE
us541.alphagraphics.com

ooks & oetry

vice to Contributors
nit listings by fax (617-859-1446); mail alendar: Books and Poetry; or e-mail rmation to books@improper.com. lline is four weeks prior to publication.

eadings & gnings

DNESDAY, APRIL 5

nes & Noble, Prudential ter
Boylston St., Boston (617-247-6959). .bn.com. MBTA: Green Line to Cop- 2 pm. Free. Political activist for the ocratic Party David O'Toole signs s of his book Outing the Senator: Sex, and Videotape, an account of the ca- f David Ignatius Walsh, who was a achusetts senator during the first half 20th century.

okline Booksmith
Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. A: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Free. Michelle Tea reads her novel Rose of No Land, about a 10th- girl's dysfunctional fam- d her experiments with d drugs.

tab Lounge
Mass. Ave., Cambridge 354-2685). www.slam com. MBTA: Red Line ntral. 9:30 pm, doors t 7:30 pm. $5. Poets Costello, Sean Con- Jared Paul, Erich , Adam Stone, one- ve, Jacob Carter, Baldor, Gary Hoare, y Holst, Danny Samantha Jane niero, Ryk McIn- Eric Darby and Douglas compete for a spot on the 2006 Cantab Slam during this first round of poetry slams. An nike session starts the night at 8 pm.

Parish Church
rch St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www. l.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. ester Brown, president of the Earth Policy te, discusses his book Plan B 2.0: Rescuing a Under Stress and a Civilization in Trouble, about maging effects that many countries' policies ad on the environment.

er Square Books
ite St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www. quarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 e. Ken Dornstein reads from his memoir The ho Fell Out of the Sky, about his journey to a rash site in Lockerbie, Scotland, where his died.

RSDAY, APRIL 6

es and Noble, on University Event University School of Management, 595 Ave., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu. com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. William T. Vollmann reads from his novel Central, about totalitarian leaders' moral ns in 20th-century Germany and the Soviet kline Booksmith rvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www. ebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to e Corner. 7 pm. Free. Erica Jong reads from k Seducing the Demon, a collection of vi- about how writing has fit into her life.

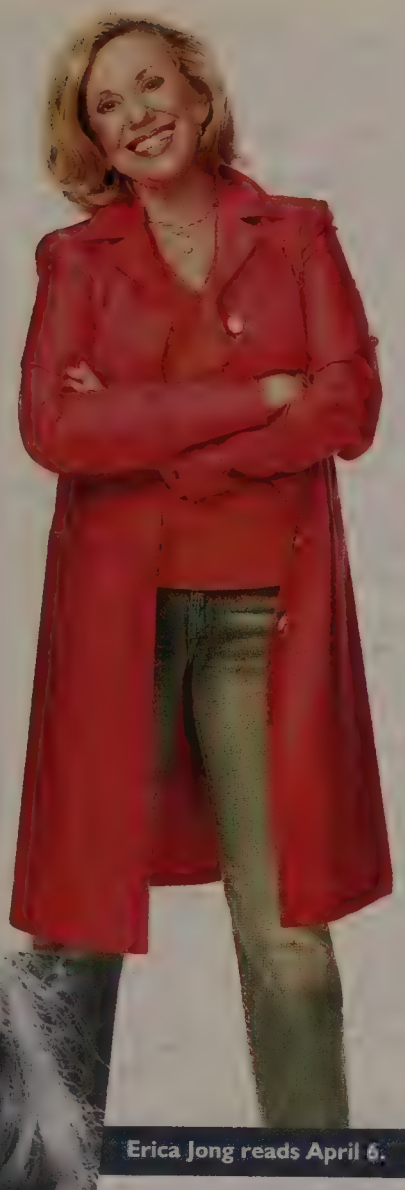
onville Books & Brews alnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www. illebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to ville. 7:30 pm. Free. Elizabeth Strout reads r novel Abide with Me, about a widower's with depression and single parenthood in a wn in Maine.



Erica Jong reads April 6.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7

Borders Books
10 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Sarah Waters reads from her novel The Night Watch, about various characters' search for kindness in London during WWII.

Center for New Words Event
Simmons College, 300 The Fenway, Boston (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway. 7 pm. Free. Sarah Waters reads from her novel The Night Watch. See April 7 Borders Books event for a description.

Newton Free Library Special Event
Newton Marriott, 2345 Comm. Ave., Newton (617-796-1400). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. 12 pm. $30. Executive director of the American Poetry and Literacy Project Andrew Carroll reads from his book Behind the Lines, a collection of 200 letters written by soldiers who fought in wars ranging from the American Revolution through the Iraqi war. Also, Anita Diamant reads from her novel The Last Days of Dogtown, an imagined account of small-town life in Dogtown, Mass., in the early 1800s. Lunch is served during this 22nd Annual Book and Author Luncheon.

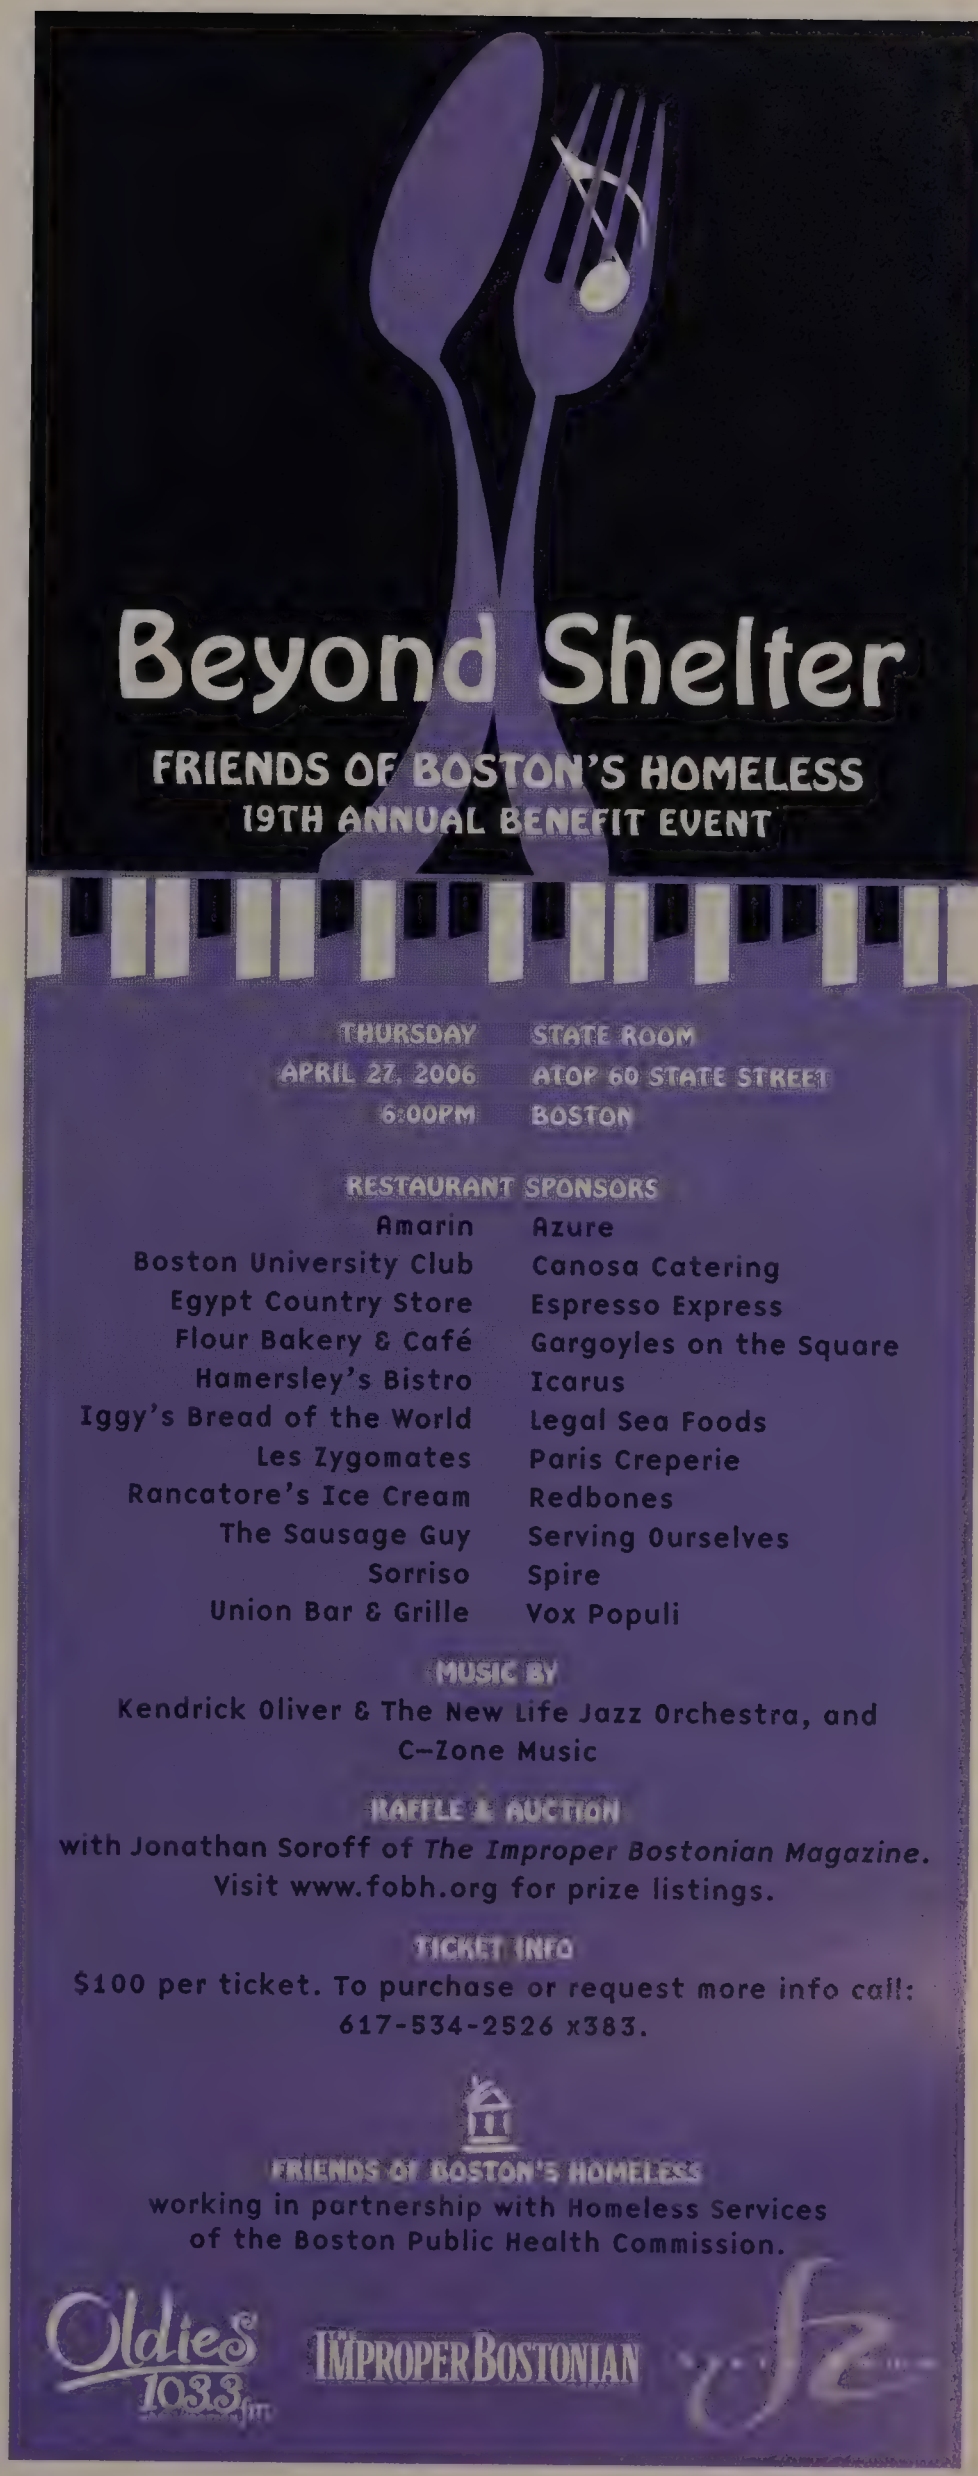
Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www. portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. New Yorker writer Elizabeth Kolbert reads from her book Field Notes from a Catastrophe, about the effects of global warming.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8

Borders Books Braintree
255 Grossman Drive, Braintree (781-356-5111). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Braintree. 2 pm. Free. John "Red" Shea reads from his memoir Rat Bastards, about his career working under Whitey Bulger as part of the South Boston Irish mob.

SUNDAY, APRIL 9

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www. harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Karen Finley reads from her novel George and Martha, a satire about George Bush and Martha Stewart's secret love affair and drug use the night before the Republican National Convention.



Lizard Lounge Poetry Jam
1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). www.poetryjam.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. $5. Open slam begins at 7:30 pm. Featured poet Ethan Gilsdorf reads at 9 pm, backed by the Jeff Robinson Trio, followed by an open mike.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 2 pm. Free. Actress and singer Wren Ross reads from the book she co-wrote with Daena Giardella Changing Patterns: Discovering the Fabric of Your Creativity, about how to harness your creativity to make artistic expression your primary focus. Mind's Eye Yarns presents a knitting event in conjunction with the reading.

Porter Square Books Event
Congregation Eitz Chaymin, 136 Magazine St., Cambridge (617-497-7626). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 10:30 am. Free. Perri Klass and Sheila Solomon Klass read from the autobiography they co-wrote, Every Mother is a Daughter, about their mother-daughter relationship.

MONDAY, APRIL 10

Barnes & Noble, Prudential Center
800 Boylston St., Boston (617-247-6959). www.bn.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 12 pm. Free. Host of the The Food Network's Everyday Italian Giada de Laurentiis signs copies of her cookbook Giada's Family Dinners, which focuses on family-friendly recipes.

Blacksmith House Poetry Series
56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $3. Poets Maggie Dietz and Jim Moore read from their works.

TUESDAY, APRIL 11

Borders Books
10 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Sportscenter and ESPN radio host Mike Greenberg discusses his book Why My Wife Thinks I'm an Idiot, which includes transcripts from some of his radio shows as well as personal journal entries.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Elinor Lipman reads from her new novel My Latest Grievance, about a teenage girl who rebels against her radical parents by befriending her father's ex-wife.

Center for New Words
186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free. Alicia Erian reads from her novel Towelhead, a coming-of-age story about a young girl who is sent to live with her strict Lebanese father in Texas.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1400). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7 pm. Free. Steve Almond, Frannie Lindsay and Tino Villanueva read from their poetry as part of the Newton Free Library's 33rd Annual Poetry Festival. An open-mike session follows.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Donna Morrissey reads from her novel Sylvanus Now, about a bachelor fisherman's relationship with a poor young woman in Newfoundland and their life in a small fishing village.

Wellesley Booksmith Event
Wellesley Free Library, 530 Washington St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7 pm. Free. Architect Jeremiah Eck discusses his book The Face of Home, about his five totems for designing a house, along with an analysis of 22 architect-designed houses.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12

Cantab Lounge
738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). www.slamnews.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 9:30 pm. $5. Winning poets from last week's poetry slam competition compete in the final round of slams for one of five spots on the 2006 Cantab Slam Team. An open-mike session starts the night at 8 pm.

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7 pm. Free. Elinor Lipman reads from her new novel My Latest Grievance. See the April 11 Brookline Booksmith event for a description.

Woodberry Poetry Room Event
The Thompson Room, 12 Quincy St., Cam (617-495-2454). MBTA: Red Line to Harv pm. Free. Poet James Tate reads from his wo

THURSDAY, APRIL 13

Borders Books
10 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www. stores.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Dow Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. Tapestry of Voices fe an open-mike night for poets.

Brookline Adult Education
Brookline High School, 115 Greenough St., Br (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. M D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 7 pm. $5. P therapist Allison Moir-Smith discusses her book tionally Engaged: A Bride's Guide to Surviving the piest" Time of Her Life, advice for brides-to-be o ing with wedding anxiety.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter R Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Tony D'Souza read his novel Whiteman, about a young American three-year experience in a village in West Afri

Woodberry Poetry Room
Arthur M. Sackler Museum, Lamont Librar Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-2454). MBTA Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Poets Joshua and Juliana Spahr read from their works.

FRIDAY, APRIL 14

Emerson College Reading Series
80 Boylston St., Boston (617-824-8750). M Green Line to Boylston. 7 pm. Free. Poets Dara Emily Frey and Kelly Kealy along with fictio ers Chip Cheek and Shannon Derby read fro works as part of the Graduate Reading Series.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Free. Richard Zenith, writer and researcher Fernando Pessoa archives in Lisbon, discus translation of Pessoa's poetry.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Po pm. Free. Nathaniel Fick reads from his m One Bullet Away: The Making of a Marine C about his experience as a marine in Iraq.

MONDAY, APRIL 17

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:3 Free. UMass Boston history professor James reads from his book Death in the Haymarket: A S Chicago, the First Labor Movement, and the Bo That Divided Gilded Age America, about the Chicago haymarket riot and the conviction of cent labor leaders.

The New England Poetry Club
Harvard, Yenching Auditorium, 2 Divinity Cambridge (781-643-0029). www.nepoetryclu MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. $5-$15. Lawrence Ferlinghetti reads from his work a ceives the Golden Rose award from the New En Poetry Club.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18

Barnes and Noble, Boston Univer
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenm pm. Free. Samuel Freedman, professor at Colu University's Graduate School of Journalism cusses his book Letters to a Young Journalist, an rational account of his experience in the fiel his perspective on the state of journalism today

Boston Public Library
South End Branch, 685 Tremont St., Boston 536-8241). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green o Line to Park. 6:30 pm. Free. Urban Colle Boston history professor Anthony Mitchell marco discusses his book Boston's South End & Now, about how the area has changed ove years.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter R Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Martha McPhee from her novel L'America, about an Ame woman raised in a hippie commune who mov Greece shortly after Sept. 11, 2001.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Por pm. Free. Daughter of writer Bernard Mal Janna Malamud Smith reads from her memo Malamud, My Father is a Book.

ducation

ice to Contributors
it listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calen-Education or e-mail to education@improper.com. line is four weeks prior to publication.

DNESDAY, APRIL 5

covering the Pensive and the sessive Spectator sley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-1000). www.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter o Wellesley. 4:30 pm. Free. Laura Mulvey, pro- of film and media studies at the University of on, speaks about the relationship between peo- d new forms of media.

y and How People Move
nstitute of Contemporary Art, 955 Boylston St., n (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Line to Hynes/ICA. 6:30 pm. $5-$8. Panelists the fields of anthropology, architecture and de- ncluding David Harvey, professor of anthropol- City University of New York, discuss how and eople move, the idea behind the ICA exhibition in Motion: Design and Architecture for Flexible ng, on exhibit through May 7.

er Distinguished Lecture Series eis University, Rappaport Treasure Hall, Gold- Library, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736- . www.brandeis.edu. 7 pm. Free. Panelists—in- g Drew Altman, president and CEO of the J. Kaiser Family Foundation; Elaine Ullian, ent and CEO of the Boston Medical Center; hn McDonough, executive director of Health- or All—discuss how to get healthcare back on tional political agenda.

URSDAY, APRIL 6

as Kiarostami: Cinema of ertainty, Cinema of Delay nter Center Lecture, 24 Quincy St., Cambridge 495-4700). www.harvardfilmarchive.org. A: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Laura y, professor of film and media studies at the rsity of London, speaks about Iranian director Kiarostami's films.

ding Blocks for Movement in the or Cortex Room 46-3002, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge 253-1000). www.events.mit.edu. MBTA: Red o Kendall/MIT. 4 pm. Free. Peter Strick, sor of neurobiology and psychiatry at the rsity of Pittsburgh and co-director of the r for the Neural Basis of Cognition, speaks at 06 Bidwell Lecture on brain diseases and ers.

Case Against Same-Sex Marriage
uth Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston 73-5800). www.fordhallforum.org. MBTA: or Blue Line to State. 6:30 pm. Free. Maggie ner, president of the Institute for Marriage and Policy, discusses how to understand gay ge in the broader context of marriage as a social al institution. A group discussion follows the erpieces of British Group Portrait

m of Fine Arts, Remis Auditorium, 465 Hunt- Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. : E Green Line to Museum. 7 pm. $10-$13. m Rogers, director of the Museum of Fine nalyzes British group portraits by looking at uch as Hogarth, Zoffany and Hockney.

covering Boston's West End use Museum, 141 Cambridge St., Boston (617- 57). www.historicnewengland.org. MBTA: ine to Gov. Center. 6:30 pm. $8; members, free. and historian Anthony Sammarco presents and shares images of the West End's ment, including its destruction, rebuilding ent resurgence. A panel discussion follows.

an of the Year
idge Center for Adult Education, 56 Brattle ambridge (617-547-6789). www.ccae.org. : Red Line to Harvard. 10:30 am. $2; $1, Attendees learn the meaning of romance, politics, gender roles and family through ng the film Woman of the Year starring ne Hepburn and Spencer Tracy.

en's Spirituality
s University, Epstein Building, 415 South ltham (781-736-8100). www.brandeis.edu. m. Free. Elinor Gadon, scholar at Brandeis 's Studies Research Center and author of nce and Future Goddess: A Symbol of Our discusses how the women's spirituality movement effected traditions of institutionalized religion.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8

Young Adult Cancer Symposium
Mass College of Art, 621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-332-1919). www.wellnesscommunity.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood/Hospital. 8:30 am. Free, registration required. Panel discussions, workshops and informal conversations take place as part of this symposium for young adults whose lives have been touched by cancer. A continental breakfast and lunch are served.

MONDAY, APRIL 10

A Conversation with Frank McCourt
John F. Kennedy Presidential Library and Museum, Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1662). www.jfklibrary.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. 5:30 pm. Free. Frank McCourt, the Pulitzer Prize–winning author of Angela's Ashes speaks about his Irish heritage and the connection between America and Ireland. Boston Globe reporter Kevin Cullen moderates the discussion.

Embedded Clusters: Laboratories for Understanding the Origin of Stars and Planets
Radcliffe Institute, 250 Jefferson Hall, 17 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-8601). www.radcliffe.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 4:15 pm. Free. University of Florida professor of astronomy Elizabeth Lada explores the connection between the origin and evolution of the stars and planets.

The Sea and Sky of Patagonia
Harvard Museum of Natural History, Geological Lecture Hall, 26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Marine biologist Claudio Campagna lectures about the dangers facing Argentina's Patagonian Large Marine Ecosystem and possible ways to protect it.

Women Writers and the Death of Rural Ireland
Boston College, Connolly House, 300 Hammond St., Chestnut Hill (617-552-6396). www.bc.edu. MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill. Clair Wills, professor of English and drama at Queen Mary University in London, discusses the connection between women writers and rural Ireland. Kevin Kenny, professor of the English and Irish studies program at Boston College, moderates the discussion.

TUESDAY, APRIL 11

Symposium on Rebuilding the Gulf Coast
Marriott Boston Tremont Hotel, Courtyard, 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-824-8491). www.emerson.edu. MBTA: Orange Line to NE Medical Center. 10 am. Free. Political strategist Donna Brazile leads a day-long symposium on her ideas for rebuilding the Gulf region of the U.S., after damages from Hurricane Katrina. A question-and-answer session, panel discussion and luncheon follow the lecture.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12

Words of Thunder
Boston Public Library, Rabb Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. Clarence Page, Pulitzer Prize–winning columnist and editor at the Chicago Tribune, leads this discussion on the media and its role in covering history.

FRIDAY, APRIL 14

The Disease Among Us
MIT, Room E51-095, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-1000). www.events.mit.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 2:30-4:30 pm. Free. Susan D. Jones, associate professor of science and technology at the University of Minnesota, speaks about agriculture, public health and the bovine tuberculosis debates.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18

Civil War Lecture Series
Boston Public Library, Mezzanine Conference Room, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6:30 pm. Free. William M. Fowler, Jr., professor of history at Northeastern University, hosts the discussion entitled "Brown Water, Blue Water: The American Navy in the Civil War."

Doing Business With Poor Women
Brandeis University, Epstein Building, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-8100). www.brandeis.edu. 12:30 pm. Free. Brandeis Women's Studies Research Center scholar Fauzia Ahmed hosts this discussion on ways in which businesses, the private sector and the government can eliminate poverty for women.

The Northeast's largest independent document imaging company is looking for energetic sales professionals and experienced field service technicians.

- Competitive compensation with unlimited earning potential
- Attractive health and retirement package
- Ongoing training
- Team oriented environment

NBM is a leading provider of digital copiers and printers, supported by a solid commitment to customer service excellence.

- Named "2004 Elite Dealer" by Office Dealer Magazine.
- Premier dealer for Sharp and Konica Minolta, world leaders in document imaging technology.

Call to schedule your confidential interview appointment.

"Giving You The Power To Produce"

800-869-9390

www.nbminc.com

NBM

Northern Business Machines

Boston • Burlington • Stoughton
Worcester • Bedford, NH

body & mind

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Include a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Coming to Our Senses

Cambridge Insight Meditation Center, 331 Broadway, Cambridge (617-441-9038). www.cimc.info. MBTA: Red Line to Central. April 8, 9 am-5 pm. $100. Please pre-register. Meditation teacher Jon Kabat-Zinn guides participants through mindfulness practices designed to cultivate intimacy, awareness and wisdom. All levels welcome.

Night at the Movies: The Truman Show

Circles of Wisdom Bookstore and Resource Center, 90 Main St., Andover (978-474-8010). www.circlesofwisdom.com. April 15, 7-9:30 pm. $7. Spiritual Cinema hosts regular film screenings. This night features The Truman Show, followed by a discussion.

Shiatsu and Tuina Open House

Charles River School of Shiatsu, 585 Mass. Ave., 4th floor, Cambridge (617-868-4585). www.charlesrivershiatsu.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. April 7, 6-8 pm. Free. Please pre-register. Participants learn about chi fitness and view demonstrations. Shiatsu, tuina and qigong practitioners, acupuncturists and Chinese herbalists give demonstrations and lead short classes.

The Yoga Journal Boston Conference

Sheraton Hotel, 39 Dalton St., Boston (800-561-9398). www.yjevents.com or www.sleepgarden.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. April 7-10, $225-$885. Students learn techniques from yoga masters including Rodney Yee, Baron Baptiste, Ana Forrest, Seane Corne, Shiva Rea and Patricia Walden. The weekend includes lectures, films and performances by London-based Tripsichore Yoga Theater. A free event on April 8, the Yoga Snore-a-thon, gives tips for deeper sleep.

Lectures

Vegetarian Foods and Herbal Medicine

Harvest Co-op Market, 581 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1580). www.harvestcoop.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 6-8 pm. Free. This food co-op hosts regular events for the public. •April 11: Holistic nutrition counselor Marta Perrupato leads a discussion about healthy vegetarian eating and gives tips on how to avoid the vegetarian junk-food diet. •April 18: Herbalist Iris Weaver talks about herbal supplements.

Workshops

The Alexander Technique

Boston Center for Adult Education, 5 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-4430 or 617-527-7373). www.bcae.org or www.alexandertechniqueinstruction.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. April 8, 10 am-1 pm. $51. This class covers the history, principles and application of the Alexander Technique, a practice that aims to restore good posture and reduce strain in the neck, back and shoulders.

Ease Wedding Stress with Yoga

Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., Boston (781-258-9187). www.i-do-yoga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. April 13, 7-9 pm. $35. Please pre-register. Engaged-to-be-married yoga practitioners gather in order to ease wedding stress and practice being fully present for the big day. All levels welcome.

Gentle Yoga

Earthsong Yoga, 186 Main St., Marlboro (508-480-8884). www.earthsongyoga.com. April 8 and 15, 11:30 am-12:45 pm. $45. Please pre-register. This course uses gentle, therapeutic yoga poses to assist those with back, neck, hip or leg problems, and to help participants feel at ease in their bodies.

Healing and Preventing Carpal Tunnel Syndrome

Arlington Community Education, 869 Mass Arlington (781-316-356). April 11, 7-9 pm Students learn self-help exercises from ins Denis Dettling Kalthofer, a massage th trained in repetitive-use injury therapy.

Introduction to Integrated Awareness

Mark Fourman, 366 Mass. Ave., Arlington (6 3414). www.mfourman.com. MBTA: Bus Rou #79 or #350. April 8, 1-5 pm. $65. Participants body's map of consciousness to experience th tionship between their mind, body and emotio

Meditation for Stress Manageme

Open Doors, 360 Washington St., Brighton (6 6333). www.opendoors7.com. MBTA: B Gre to Washington Street. April 12, 7:30-9 pm. $20 itation instructors teach simple techniques th quickly be used anywhere to help reduce str anxiety. All levels welcome.

Monthly Yoga Intensive

O2 Yoga Studio, 288 Highland, Somerville (61 0267). www.o2yoga.com. MBTA: Red Line to April 7, 6-8 pm. $20. Discussion: 8-9 pm. $12. shop and discussion: $25. Students learn a yo of the month. Immediately afterward, there' cussion about yoga philosophy.

Qigong

Zayne Marston, School of the Golden Discs, 26 Ave., Shelburne Falls (617-460-6156 or 41 9747). www.transformationaltimes.com/qigon April 15, 10 am-1 pm. $30. Please pre-register. ipants practice qigong, an ancient Chinese e used for rejuvenation and tranquility, that co simple, gentle movements with breathin awareness. All levels welcome.

Restorative Yoga

The Arlington Center, 369 Mass. Ave., Ar (781-316-0282). www.arlingtoncenter.org. Ap 4-6 pm. $35. Please pre-register. This relaxing shop is geared toward people experiencing str tigue, anxiety or sleep-related problems.

Thai for Two

Exhale Spa, 28 Arlington St., Boston (617-532- www.exhalespa.com. April 9, 1-3 pm. $30 per This workshop combines Thai massage with ac sure, yoga poses and partner stretching to produc laxed, restored and balanced body. All levels we

Retreat

Buddhist Meditation Day Retreat

Theosophical Society, 21 Maple St., Arlington 648-0101 or 781-893-6281). www.tsboston.org 15, 9 am-4:30 pm. This weekend program is Dharman Stortz and is an intensive meditati treat practiced in total silence.

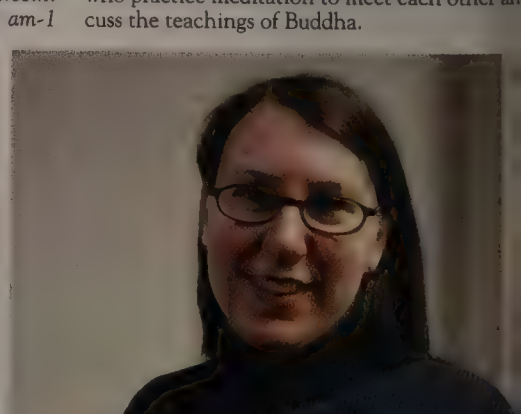
Ongoing

Qigong Massage and Acupuncture Clinic

Life Energy Wellness Center, 390 Mass. Ave., Arl (339-368-1109). MBTA: Bus Routes #77 or Wed., 4-6 pm. Free. Please pre-register. Teache cuss qigong and acupuncture and how they ca symptoms related to cancer, cardiovascular di high blood pressure, strokes and diabetes.

Under 30 Meditation Night

Shambhala Meditation Center, 646 Brookline Brookline (617-734-1498). www.shambhalaboston MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. Tue., 7 pm. Free. Shambhala hosts this night for young who practice meditation to meet each other an cuss the teachings of Buddha.



Christine Radice teaches Meditation for Stress Management April 12 at Open Doors in Brighton

;ports

rice to Contributors nit listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to ıdar: Sports, or by e-mail to sports@improper.com. de address, phone number, nearest T stop, dates mes, along with a brief description of the league or . Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone and be received at least four weeks in advance.

ɔme Games

ton Bruins
Banknorth Garden, Boston
ets: 617-931-2222
6, 7 pm vs. Toronto Maple Leafs
8, 2 pm vs. New York Rangers
10, 7 pm vs. Washington Capitals
13, 7 pm vs. Montreal Canadiens

ton Celtics
Banknorth Garden, Boston
ets: 617-931-2222
5, 7 pm vs. Washington Wizards
9, 4 pm vs. New York Knicks
14, 7:30 pm vs. New Jersey Nets
17, 7:30 pm vs. Cleveland Cavaliers

ton Red Sox
way Park, Boston
ets: 617-482-4769
11, 2:05 pm vs. Toronto Blue Jays
12, 7:05 pm vs. Toronto Blue Jays
13, 7:05 pm vs. Toronto Blue Jays
14, 7:05 pm vs. Seattle Mariners
15, 1:20 pm vs. Seattle Mariners
16, 2:05 pm vs. Seattle Mariners
17, 11:05 am vs. Seattle Mariners
18, 7:05 pm vs. Tampa Bay Devil Rays

Play

STRALIAN-RULES OTBALL
on Demons
290-7101). www.bostondemons.com. The club iew players for nine-a-side competition.

EBALL
ry's Baseball
391-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

KETBALL
on Ski & Sports Club 789-4070, ext. 238). Co-ed, year-round s for players of all levels in Watertown, Bel- Dedham and Waltham. Teams and individu- welcome.
bridge Racquet and Fitness Club
91-8989). www.crfcbasketball.com. Year-round s for individuals or teams at all levels.
orate Basketball League
748-7811). This league seeks teams for the and spring seasons. Games are on weeknights wton and Waltham. For more information, contact zelovic@comcast.net.

Ready: Big Papi and the Sox are back to off another season at Fenway, April 11

Never Too Late Basketball
(781-488-3333). www.nevertoolate.com. Adults of all ages practice in locations throughout Boston.

BOXING

Boston Sport Boxing Club
125 Walnut St., Watertown (617-972-1711). www.bostonboxing.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then #71 bus. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. The club offers Olympic-style boxing lessons for all levels.

Dogtime Boxing
527 Columbia Road, Dorchester (617-269-9044). www.dogtimeboxing.com. Mon.-Fri., 5-8:30 pm. This boxing club offers training for competition, conditioning and recreation.

DODGEBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club Dodgeball
(617-789-4070). The BSSC is recruiting for dodgeball teams.

DRAGON-BOAT RACING

Living Root Dragon Boat
(617-413-8360). www.livingroot.org. No experience is necessary to join this co-ed dragon-boat racing team that practices in Boston and Somerville.

FENCING

Bay State Fencers
561 Windsor St., Suite A 401, Somerville (617-591-0101). www.baystatefencers.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT, then #85 bus. This club offers fencing and stage-combat programs.

FLAG AND TOUCH FOOTBALL

BSSC Football
Games are held in Brighton (617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. Six-on-six and four-on-four men's teams compete each weekend.

ICE SKATING

Bay State Skating School
(781-890-8480.) www.baystateskatingschool.org. Bay State offers beginner, intermediate and advanced classes for children and adults at 13 rinks throughout greater Boston. Students can use either hockey or figure skates.

LACROSSE

Commonwealth Lacrosse Club
comlaxclub@gmail.com. The season for this post-collegiate men's lacrosse team starts up this spring. Games take place on Sundays.

RUGBY

Beantown Women's Rugby Club
www.beantownrugby.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Allston; games Sat. Beantown has won the national women's championship six times. New players are welcome.

Boston Irish Wolfhounds
(617-254-9732). www.biwrfc.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Jamaica Plain. Home field at the Irish Cultural Center in Canton. New players are welcome.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. The club is looking for players to join its national-level team.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. The club seeks new players for games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Old Gold Rugby Club
(617-742-0678). www.oldgoldrugby.com. Tue. and Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Games on Sat. New and experienced players are welcome.

RUNNING

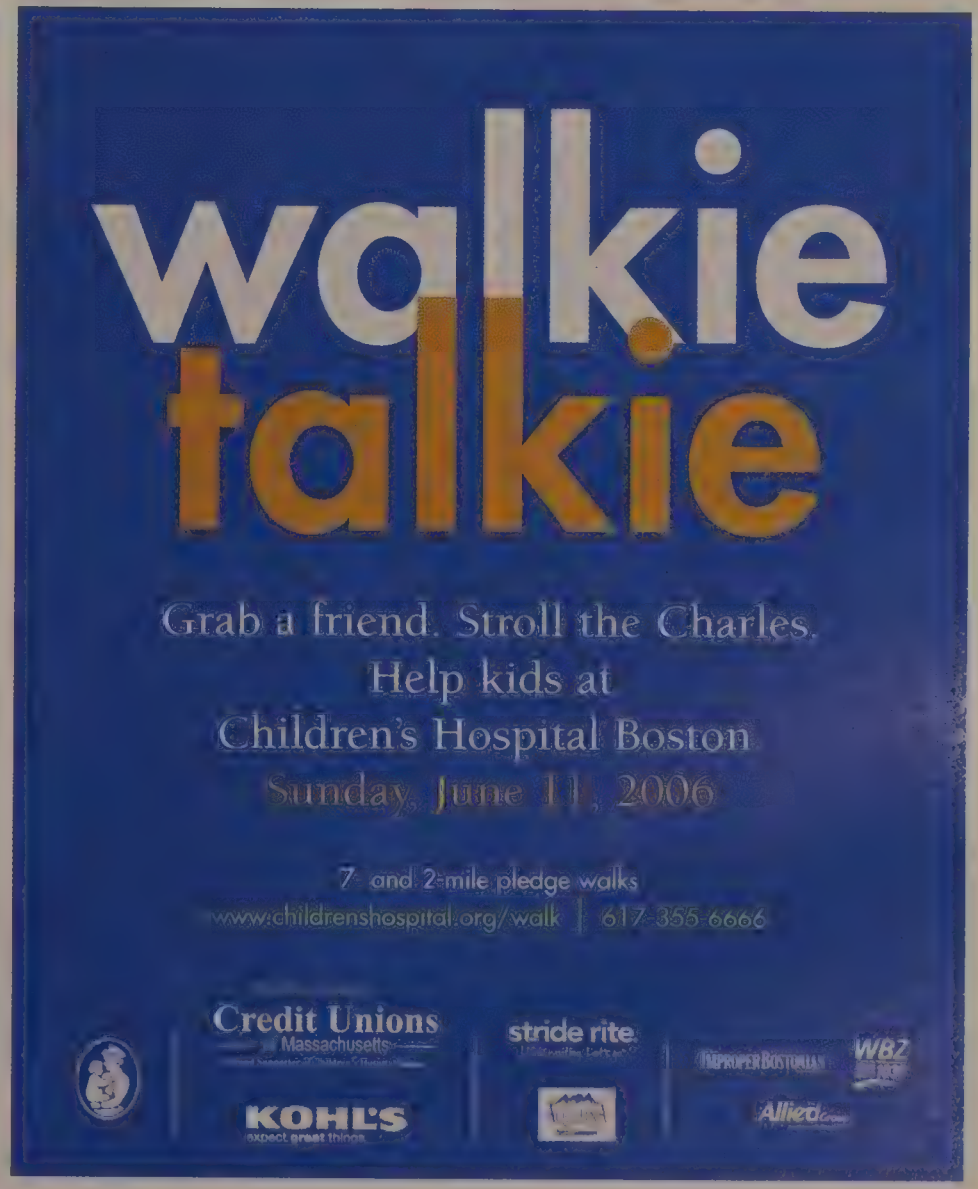
Boston Hash House Harriers
Various locations (617-499-4835). www.bostonhash.com. Weekly runs on either Wed. or Sun. year-round. If you enjoy running, drinking and singing bawdy songs, this is your weekly running group. Call for times and locations.

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Fri., 6 pm. Weekly runs in the Cambridge area.

Team LunaChix Boston
BostonRun@teamlunachix.com. http://groups.yahoo.com/group/bostonlunachix. Weekly runs Thu. at 6:30 pm. Women only. Talking-pace, three- or five-mile runs through the Fells.

SOCCER

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). The BSSC offers a series of indoor and outdoor soccer leagues.



children

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Things to See

Big Apple Circus

City Hall Plaza, Boston (617-931-2787). www.bigapplecircus.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. April 1-May 7. $13-$54. New York's original nonprofit, one-ring circus presents Grandma Goes to Hollywood as it marks its 20th season performing in Boston. Check Web site for show times.

ImprovBoston Family Show

1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sat., 6 pm. $12, adults; $10, seniors; $5, students and children. This short-form improv show includes interactive games for the entire family.

John F. Kennedy Library and Museum

Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1662). www.jfklibrary.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $12, adults; $8, students and seniors; $7, ages 13-17; free, ages 12 and under. •April 17, 10:30-11:30 am. As part of the museum's Celebrate! series, the National Marionette Theatre presents the classic children's tale Peter Pan.

Lyric Stage

YMCA, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-585-5678). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. April 9, 11 am. $8; children under 2, free. The Once Upon a Time theater company presents an interactive performance of Peter Pan, in which children in the audience are outfitted in costumes to play various characters as Peter and Tinkerbell outsmart Captain Hook.

Puppet Showplace Theatre

32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. $7.50-$9.50. Reservations recommended. •April 5-6, 10:30 am. Romper Rhythm Puppets presents The Hungry Caterpillar, The Bear and the Beehive and The Rabbit and the Moon. •April 8-9, 1 and 3 pm. Cinderella, A Woodland Fairy Princess, Deborah Costine's new version of the classic fairy tale, takes places in the land of the Woodland Fairies. •April 12-13, 10:30 am. The Pumpernickel Puppets present The Frog Prince. •April 12, 15 and 18, 1 and 3 pm. This performance of Paul Vincent Davis' Bingo the Circus Dog features two shorter pieces, JoJo and The Orange Ball.

Wheelock Family Theatre

200 The Riverway, Boston (617-879-2000). www.wheelock.edu/wft. MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway. April 7 through May. Fri., 7:30 pm; Sat.-Sun., 3 pm; April 18-20, 1 pm. $16-$20. The nonprofit Wheelock Family Theatre brings Charlie and the Chocolate Factory to the stage.

Things to Do

Barefoot Books

1771 Mass. Ave., Arlington (617-349-1610). www.barefootbooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Fri. and Sat., 10:30 am. Free. This story hour for children features a variety of themes including counting, traveling and magic. •April 8, 2 pm. Asheba comes from Trinidad to perform some of his Caribbean children's songs featured on Putumayo's Reggae & Caribbean Playgrounds CD.

Boston Children's Theatre

McCormack Theatre, UMass Boston, 100 Morrissey Blvd., Boston (617-424-6634). www.bostonchildrenstheatre.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. $20-$22. •April 7, 7 pm. $30-$50. This special performance of The Wizard of Oz—featuring a sing-along, a costume parade of audience members with prizes for the best costume, and a guest MC—benefits the Boston Children's Theatre outreach program. The show continues on April 8, 9 and 19 at 2 pm.

Children's Museum

Museum Wharf, 300 Congress St., Boston (617-426-8855). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Daily, 10 am-5 pm; Fri., open until 9 pm. $9, adults; $7, children. •The Art Studio invites parents and children to create works of art together. Ongoing. •Arthur's World allo dren to write their own skit and perform favorite Arthur setting. Ongoing. •Drag Fairies: Exploring Vietnam Through Folk gages children in modern Vietnamese life traditional folktales. Ongoing. •KidStage various 25-minute performances of music, dance and comedy. •Your House, My H plores the different homes of children ac world. Ongoing.

Harvard Museum of Natural His

26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045) hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to H Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $7.50, adults; $6, stude ages 3-18. •April 8, 9 am-5 pm. The Mine ness Family Festival features demonstrati displays of gem-faceting with a variety of m •April 15, 9:30 am-12 pm. Mysteries of M phosis features hands-on activities using scopes and the museum's collection of bon shells and modules to learn about life •April 17-21, 9 am-5 pm. Participants o Break Scavenger Hunt explore how nature itself for a new season as they search for the museum's secret message.

Museum of Fine Arts Children's Room

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267- www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to M $15, adults; $13, students; free, 5 and under; ages 6-17 on weekdays before 3 pm. •April 1 6:30 pm. Teen-to-Teen Art Talks include a ing activities in this specially designed gall with teens. •April 18-21, 10 am-4 pm. Apr Vacation Week: Art is Fun allows children plore the museum through various hands-o ities and performances. •Mon.-Fri., 3:30-4 The Children's Room allows kids to expl museum and create projects with a var themes. Ongoing. •Tue.-Thu., 3:30 pm. Bring Art Alive provides arts-and-crafts ac for children ages 5 and under. •Sat.-Sun., pm. Family Place allows children ages 4 an explore the MFA through self-guided ac with an adult.

Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.m MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu. 7 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $14, adults; $12, senio children. •Sat.-Sun., 11 am-12 pm. Beyond the features four major exhibits that explore how peer inside the human body without cutting. ing. •Butterflies and flowers are on display in manent Butterfly Garden. •Countdown to Sup showing at the Hayden Planetarium, explores cycle of stars. Ongoing. •Greece: Secrets of explores the history of the Greek islands th computer-generated images. Ongoing. • Models is an interactive exhibition that feature els of a wave tank, Mount Everest and grasshopper. Ongoing. •Science Live! features imals and multimedia presentations surroun natural history diorama. Ongoing.

National Heritage Museum

33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559) nationalheritagemuseum.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. •American Family Tre Decorative Arts from the D.J. and Alice Sh Nadeau Collection features over 70 pieces of fu metalwork and glass made in New England. T April 23. •The Enchanted Clocks of George Mc features the handiwork of local designer and cl pairman George McFadden. Ongoing.

New England Aquarium

Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Thu. 6 pm; Fri.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $15.95, adults; $ seniors; $8.95, children ages 3-11. •Amazing Jell tures thousands of jellyfish. Ongoing. •The 20 gallon Giant Ocean Tank contains sharks, sti and sea turtles. Ongoing. •Edge of the Sea is an ing hands-on exhibition featuring sea stars, crabs and more. •The Simons IMAX Theatre a variety of movies. Ongoing.

Peanut Butter & Jelly Dance Co.

Church of Our Saviour, 25 Monmouth St., line (617-738-7688). www.pbjdanceco.org. M D Green Line to Longwood. Creative Movemen vides ongoing dance classes for kids ages 3- cluding warm-up exercises and creative an provisational dances. See Web site for da times.

Robbins Library

700 Mass. Ave. Arlington (781-316-3200). robbinslibrary.org. Free. •April 6 and 13, pm. Cooks and Books incorporates readin cooking for kids who enjoy spending time kitchen. Children must be accompanied adult. Call for reservations.

around town

Sights to See

ston University Observatory
t Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-2630). MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Wed. clear nights), 7:30-8:30 pm. Free.

ildren's Museum
Congress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426-5). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South ion. Sat.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $9; children ages 2-15 and seniors; $2, 1-year-olds; free, lren under 1 year; $1 per person, Fri., 5-9 pm.

neuil Hall
tate St., Boston (617-635-3105). www.faneuilhall ketplace.com. MBTA: Orange or Green Line to market. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. U.S. Park Service gers give talks every half hour in the Great Hall, n it's not being used for special events. Free.

rvard Museum of Natural History
Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.h.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. n.-Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and se-s; $5, children ages 3-18. Free for all, Wed., 3-5 nd Sun., 9 am-12 pm.

n F. Kennedy Library & Museum
mbia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). www.jfk ry.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 5 pm. $10; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages 13-free, ages 12 and under.

z Anderson Antique Auto Museum
Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). Tue.-. 10 am-5 pm. $5; $3, ages 6-17 and seniors; free, 6 and under.

ry Baker Eddy Library Mapparium
Mass. Ave., Boston (888-222-3711). MBTA: n Line to Hynes/ICA. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-3:40 $6; $4, seniors and students.

unt Auburn Cemetery
Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105). TA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 8 am-5 pm.

eum of Afro-American History
oy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam um.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. -Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Guided walking tours avail-y special request. $5, suggested donation.

eum of Science
ce Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $15; $13, seniors; $12, 3-11.

v England Aquarium
ral Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-; Sat.-Sun. and holidays, 9 am-6 pm. $17.95; 95, seniors; $9.95, ages 3-11; free to members.

l North Church
Salem St., Boston (617-523-6676). MBTA: Orange een Line to Haymarket. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. Free.

l South Meeting House
Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www. uthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Orange or Blue o State. Daily, 10 am-4 pm. $5; $4, seniors and nts; $1, children; free, ages 5 and under.

l State House Museum
Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www. shistory.org. MBTA: Orange or Blue Line to Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and students; ren 6-18; free to members and children under 6.

idential Center Skywalk
Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). MBTA: Line to Hynes/ICA. Daily, 10 am-8 pm. $9.50; with college ID; $7, seniors; $6.50, ages 3-12; ges 2 and under.

ity Church
Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). www. boston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 9 am-6 pm. $5; free, ages 12 and under.

S Constitution & Museum
estown Navy Yard, Boston (617-426-1812). ussconstitutionmuseum.org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm.

Volunteer

Mentoring Program
224-1303). www.afcmentoring.org. Mentor a -care or adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-437-6200). www.aac.org. Help someone with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). www.cancer.org. Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments.

Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay
(617-542-9090). www.bbmb.org. BBMB seeks volunteers to provide friendship to boys in need.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Volunteers act as friends and mentors to young girls.

Boston Cares
(617-422-0910). www.bostoncares.org. More than 100 volunteer opportunities are available each month.

Boston Jaycees
(617-367-5710). www.bostonjaycees.org. A volunteer organization of people between the ages of 21 and 40 focusing on charitable involvement and developing business opportunities.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012, ext. 227). www.bostonlivingcenter.org. This HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers who are 18 and older for kitchen tasks, office work and special events.

Boston Partners in Education
(617-451-6145, ext. 620). www.bostonpartners.org. Tutor students in math and literacy and prepare high school students for the MCAS.

Cambridge School Volunteers
(617-349-6794). www.csvinc.org. Volunteers and tutors needed in Cambridge public schools.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). www.dana-farber.org. Help adults living with cancer.

Downtown Initiative for Adult Literacy
(617-357-6000, ext. 7508). Tutor adult students.

Extra Hands for ALS
(617-331-3014). www.extrahands.org. Help patients with ALS (aka Lou Gehrig's Disease) and their families with chores and housework.

HealthCare Dimensions Hospice
(781-894-1100). www.hcdhospice.org. Volunteers are needed to support terminally ill patients and their families.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-267-3700). www.thehome.org. Mentor a child.

Horizons Initiative
(617-287-1900, ext. 133). www.horizonsforhomeless children.org. Volunteer for homeless children.

Hospice Volunteers
(617-547-2620, ext. 4271). Support terminally ill patients.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). www.cjp.org. Spend time with an elderly adult, mentor a child or teach adults to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). www.lvm.org. Teach adults to read.

MAB Community Services
(617-972-9119). www.charityfinders.com. Read to or shop with a blind person.

Match-Up Interfaith Volunteers
(617-482-1510). www.matchelder.org. Volunteers needed to assist elders.

Neighborhood Action Inc.
(617-723-5800). Serve meals to the homeless.

New England Aquarium
(617-973-5235). www.neaq.org. Volunteer as an aquarium guide and more.

Parental Stress Line
(800-882-1250). Counsel parents and caregivers, and facilitate support groups.

Pine Street Inn
(617-892-9187). www.pinestreetinn.org. Volunteer for food preparation and meal service.

Project Place Inc.
(617-262-3740, ext. 15). www.projectplace.org. Become a mentor or tutor for homeless men and women.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111, ext. 17). www.rfbd.org. Volunteers read textbooks for recording.

Respond Inc.
(617-625-5996). www.respondinc.org. Volunteer at this agency for battered women.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). www.rosies.org. Volunteers needed for this women's homeless shelter.

SafeLink
(617-521-0100). Volunteers needed for this 24-hour domestic violence program.

Samaritans
(617-536-2460). Provide friendship over the phone to people in crisis.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. SVB offers one-shot opportunities to volunteer with other young, single professionals.

I never thought it could happen to me.

As a lifelong bicyclist, I have participated in many bicycling events for worthwhile causes. I even got to ride with Lance Armstrong, Eric Heiden, and Greg LeMond.

Then on my 45th birthday, I got the news,"You have multiple sclerosis."

Like many people newly diagnosed, I did not know what to do or what to think. So I contacted the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. I got the information and care resources I needed.

I learned that the Society shares my passion for bicycling. Last year, I formed a team and rode the Great Mass Getaway MS 150 Bike Tour. Together we raised over $12,000 to help support other people like me and their families.

- Roger Douville of Manchester, NH

Join me at an MS Bike Tour.

We will ride together toward a cure for multiple sclerosis.

Tour The Vineyard
May 6 - Martha's Vineyard, MA
A beautiful day on Martha's Vineyard with a route for everyone!
Road: 25, 50, or 100K Off-Road: 30K

Great Mass Getaway - MS 150
June 24-25 - Boston to Provincetown, MA
The best two days you will spend on a bike with a boat ride home!
Two days, 150 miles

Bike & Hike The Berkshires
September 30 - Pittsfield, MA
Wear cycling shoes or hiking boots to make moutains of progress for MS!
Bike: 25, 50, or 100 miles or Hike: 4 or 8 miles

Register online at www.msnewengland.org
or call 1-800-493-9255

MS National Multiple Sclerosis Society
Central New England Chapter

ms bike tour

THE BARKING CRAB RESTAURANT

New Menu

Updated Wine List

Live Music

Tent Opening
4th Week of April

Boston's favorite, casual dining experience

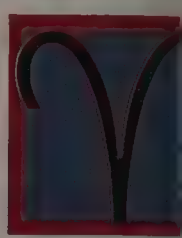
88 Sleeper Street, Boston, MA 02210
617.426.CRAB

www.barkingcrab.com

rockie horoscope

APRIL 5–18, 2006

BY ROCKIE GARDIN



ARIES MARCH 20–APRIL 19

Accept the fact that, for the time being, you are NOT the center of the universe. Because your Mars ruler is opposing powerful Pluto at the core of our Milky Way galaxy, you could feel left out in the cold. Or can Mars' transit through the sign of the talkative Twins keep you in the loop, gathering whatever information you need to stay on top of your game? For single-minded Rams who can't help their "me-first" behavior, the next two weeks may be more problematic than anticipated. Until Mars enters Cancer on the 13th, play nice.

TAURUS

APRIL 20–MAY 20

If ever you needed an excuse to check out of the daily grind, to be permitted to focus exclusively on art and music, congratulations, this is it. On the 5th, your Venus ruler leaves socially sensitive Aquarius for the vast depths of Piscean waters. Right off the bat you can expect to be more in touch with your emotions and more interested in philosophical conversations with yourself. Remember, the Pisces glyph is two fish, bound together but headed in different directions. Fortunately, you'll have aesthetically amenable acquaintances to hang out with.

GEMINI

MAY 21–JUNE 20

Another chance to cash in on your Mercury ruler's friendship with prosperous, protective Jupiter shows up midweek. Twins who are involved in the communication field will welcome the support offered while the Messenger sails through your Pisces career zone. Be sure to show your gratitude for any favors done on your behalf. That's because the conflict between militant Mars in Gemini and manipulative Pluto in Sagittarius could cause even a rational, respectable person to behave quite badly. By Easter this tug-of-war should be over.

CANCER

JUNE 21–JULY 22

Other people's assets and resources may be a major concern at the moment, but after retrograde Saturn in your Leo house of money—money you earn by yourself, for yourself—turns direct, you should be able to strike a better balance and hold up your end of a bargain. While the sun transits your Aries house of career accomplishments, you can't afford to let an opportunity slip by, even if it seems a bit reckless. In another week, ballsy Mars will cross into Cancer and provide more nerve and physical energy than you have right now.

LEO

JULY 23–AUGUST 22

If you sense there's a battle brewing between your sweetheart and your pals, or your kid and a schoolmate, feel free to step in and play the peacemaker. It isn't often that you're able to see your way clear to have an unbiased opinion; to not favor one side over another even if one of the combatants happens to live at your house. This time of year, other people and their concerns, be they emotional, physical or financial, can seem just as important, perhaps even more so than your own. While they last, use those situations to earn brownie points.

VIRGO

AUGUST 23–SEPTEMBER 22

The confrontation that's been building, the atmosphere that has you walking on eggshells, could explode when daredevil Mars in your career midheaven perfects its opposition to security-minded Pluto in your home base on the 8th. You may not be the person who catches most of the flak, but you'll certainly hear about it. That's because your Mercury ruler in Pisces is poised halfway between the two planets representing the people who are warring with each other. If you must choose sides, try to postpone that decision as long as possible.

LIBRA

SEPTEMBER 23–OCTOBER 22

Careful, you may be in danger of losing that precious Libra sense of balance. Firstly, because your Venus ruler is taking its annual trip through Pisces, chances are you'll go int martyr mode during the transit and willingly sacrifice yourself for one cause or another. At the same time, the is passing through your Aries house of significant other calling even more attention to what the people closest t you are demanding (Aries is hardly subtle) this time around.

SCORPIO

OCTOBER 23–NOVEMBER 21

It happens occasionally and this is the week in which th occasion presents itself. What is it? The bi-annual oppo between Mars and Pluto, Scorpio's co-ruling planets. Th their confrontation occurs across your money axis sugg that a financial matter is about to turn into a crisis. Or could it merely be your time to pay the tax man? Howev the opposition attempts to tear you apart, know that yo been through a similar situation before and will endure again, in about two years time. Things ease up after Eas

SAGITTARIUS

NOVEMBER 22–DECEMBER 21

Try to sidestep the one-on-one scheduled for the weeken the 8th. That's when pugnacious Mars in your Gemini marriage house launches an attack on suspicious Pluto Sag. How the battle turns out depends partly on the information supplied by a know-it-all in the family, aka Mercury in Pisces, your landlord or real estate agent. Th perhaps you can suggest alternative solutions to pacify whatever is irritating your partner. After Mars marches Cancer during Easter Week, the arguments should cease

CAPRICORN

DECEMBER 22–JANUARY 20

It's a subtle shift, but of all the signs, Caps should sense something significant is in the air when Saturn changes direction on the 5th. A concern that was tabled when yo ruling planet turned retrograde around Thanksgiving ca become a big deal once Saturn is facing forward again. A after hot-tempered Mars enters Cancer, the sign of your cosmic companions during Easter week, an issue involvi one of your close relationships may heat up. Until then, your cool and try to avoid a confrontation. A little diplomacy around the Libra full moon could work wonde

AQUARIUS

JANUARY 21–FEBRUARY 18

Retrograde Saturn turns direct in your Leo house of partnerships on the 5th. However, it may take a while be you notice if a matter that concerned you and a significa other at Thanksgiving will be back on the table for Easte Money or other valuables could be the issue that crops u during the Libra full moon because this sun-moon polari crosses your financial axis. Other than those hiccups, the nothing keeping you from staying high on both the spirit and the secular planes for the entire duration of Holy We

PISCES

FEBRUARY 19–MARCH 19

I repeat: Try to be conscious of what you're saying. Mercu doesn't leave Pisces until Easter Sunday, so while it drifts through your sign, unsure of its direction or ultimate destination (the two-fold nature of the Fish), there's no telling which of your thoughts will surface. Not premedita malice but inattention to dreary details could get you into hot water. Like your Aquarius neighbor, you might also fee conflicted over a financial matter during the Aries-Libra f moon period. No biggie—simply another heads up.

For a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months, sen name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., Valley Glen, CA 91405; more details at www.rockiehoroscope.com. Rockie's daily forecast appears online at www.laweekly.com.

improperimpersonals

everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over e place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the orld to see (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity). Heck, it's better than making a fool of urself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

IMMORTAL IMPERSONAL

Battle of the Sexes

Can we please stop complaining about the opposite sex in bars? Some of us are trying to booze here. All this bitching is skunking up my Sam Adams.

—Bar Fly

ost in Transition

n, I didn't know how I could find but then I decided to write to the ROPER to find out if you're OK. We t three years ago in Somerville. You d to work part-time for Paul ere Beverage in Somerville. Then went to Korea and afterward you nt to Iraq. I lost your cousin's one number. I just wanted to know ou're OK and safe. Please send me rs about you!

Worried and Waiting

ur Karma Awaits

t time you want to have some idless fun, please don't slash my s, or the tires of four other cars. more than a joke. It's a serious nvenience and extremely ensive. The game extends beyond being really pissed off. I had to my car—no one carries two res. Plus, I couldn't drive with worn and two brand new ones, bought four new tires too. I have r to get around; therefore, no no transport. I had to hire a car two days because of your warped e of fun. Your little prank cost about $600. And to the Rhode nd beige Jeep who left me the , thanks.

Hashed

Paddy's Girl

he lady in 27E: I still can't eve you were going to hit the St. ick's Day parade after taking the eye from Vegas the night before. re a rock star! I hope that kin' Donuts coffee was the gest one ever made. If you have ance, please e-mail me because ove to hear how and if you ived—not only the parade, but class on Monday.

edeyetrooper@yahoo.com

ght and Shining wboy

is Saturday night, Feb. 18, at City Plaza. My glance answered s—that you were going to land spine down on concrete steps. I steadied you. As I began to release you, you instead pulled me in. Gratefulness to me could not have warranted such a warm embrace. I felt your torso, your ribs and warm thoughts. I tried to release you, but you held tight and cocked your head back to study my face. More than relief, your eyes revealed a dose of the hope that gives one a rise beneath the buckle. Your eyes said yes. But your feet said no. Was this a Brokeback moment almost? No embrace will ever erase the impact of our first. My heart aches to hear but a whisper release itself from the lips that I should have parted. Let's pitch the tent.

—brokebackalmost@hotmail.com

Shall We Review?

You: the sexy lady sitting in either row K, L or M (middle of the row) enjoying the Rabbi Alper show (with your daughter?). I was struck by your brown hair, good looks and overall fun demeanor. There was no ring on your left finger, either! Let's compare notes on the show, and perhaps more.

—smittenatberklee@aol.com

Heart Attack

To the five lovely nurses who graced me with their presence in Allston at Big City: We had the greatest time. Thank you for hanging with me and being tolerant of my "hat." And to the dark-haired beauty who didn't say much to me that night: I know your friends kept me busy with all their chitchat, but you were the one I wanted to talk to. I haven't been able to get you out of my mind since then—dark skin, eyes and hair, and the prettiest smile I've seen in a long time. If by some chance you get this, I'd love to hear from you.

—billchord@yahoo.com

Globally Speaking

To the interesting world traveler on the E Line: You and I struck up a conversation at Copley while waiting for the train, and we chatted until we got to your stop. You are from Texas and work for Air Canada. Me: brown hair, hazel eyes, also like to travel. I enjoyed talking and would be interested in getting to know you better! E-mail me if you're interested.

—mbtasundaycute@hotmail.com

Euphoniously Challenged

To Long Suffering: Grow up. This is a workplace, not kindergarten; no one should have to deal with it. Be professional! Yes, we all bother each other at one point or another in small ways, but come on—a cell phone in the office is uncalled for. Phones have manner mode for a reason. Or is it that you have no manners or class? No one really gives a shiite about your business. Again, I say keep it to yourself.

– Fed Up

Dough Boy

To the bartender at my favorite pizza place, Cambridge 1: You are the most attractive bartender in the business. You're in great shape, tall and handsome with short hair. You're named Ian, maybe? I'm new to the area, from California—a part-time yoga instructor, full-time physical therapist. Would love to get a drink! You?

—lindsjomes02@hotmail.com

Just Like James Blunt

This SWM would very much like to meet again with the interesting and attractive woman he met on the emergency Red Line shuttle between Harvard and Porter Square. You seemed academic and were going to the gym. I'm a bit of an academic myself and have a variety of interests. We talked of nothing important, but you were nice. Please contact me.

—castorpman@aim.com

Spring is the time for ...

Now is the time to join for $0 Enrollment.

WELLBRIDGE
ATHLETIC CLUB
www.WellbridgeAC.com

Commonwealth
617.254.1711
1079 Commonwealth Ave, Boston

Charles Square
617.441.0800
5 Bennett Street, Cambridge

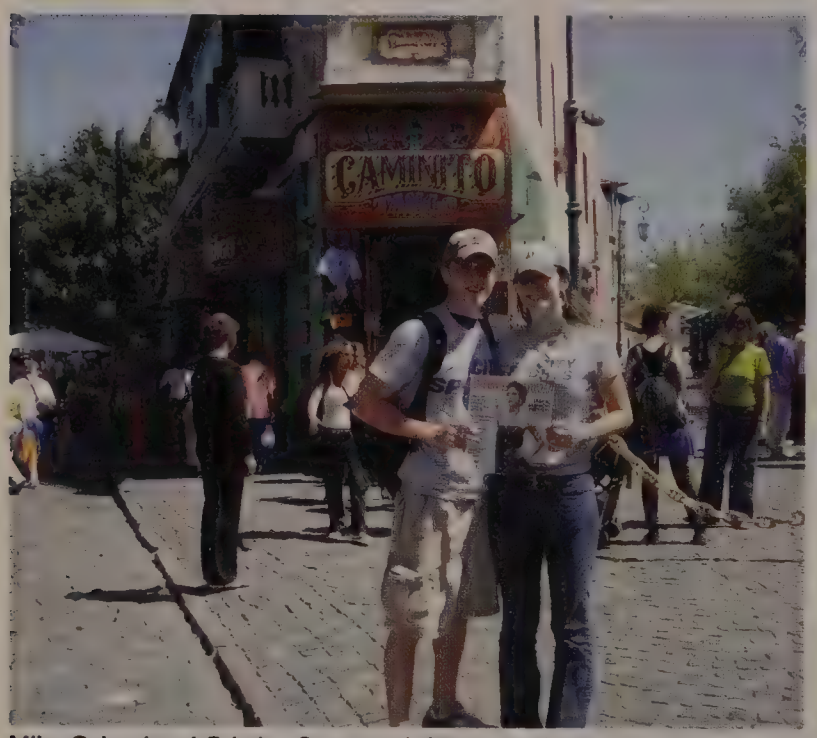
Newton
617.928.2000
135 Wells Avenue, Newton

*Restrictions may apply. Offer ends April 24, 2006. ©2006 Wellbridge

IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TR

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you we The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed IMPROPER Sightings.



Mike Colanti and Cristina Scranton left no questions about their love for the Red Sox, City Sports and THE IMPROPER during a recent trip to Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Tseganesh Selameab (with THE IMPROPER) and friends visited El Moro in Puerto Rico. We checked it out, and apparently "El Moro" is Spanish for "The Moro."

Dan Saulnier and Bill Bungcayao visited the Czech Republic's Sedlec Ossuary. It's also call the Bone Church, but we have no idea why.

Solomon Sheena snapped this shot overlooking the city of Aucklund, New Zealand, but we're more interested in how the hell he learned to levitate.

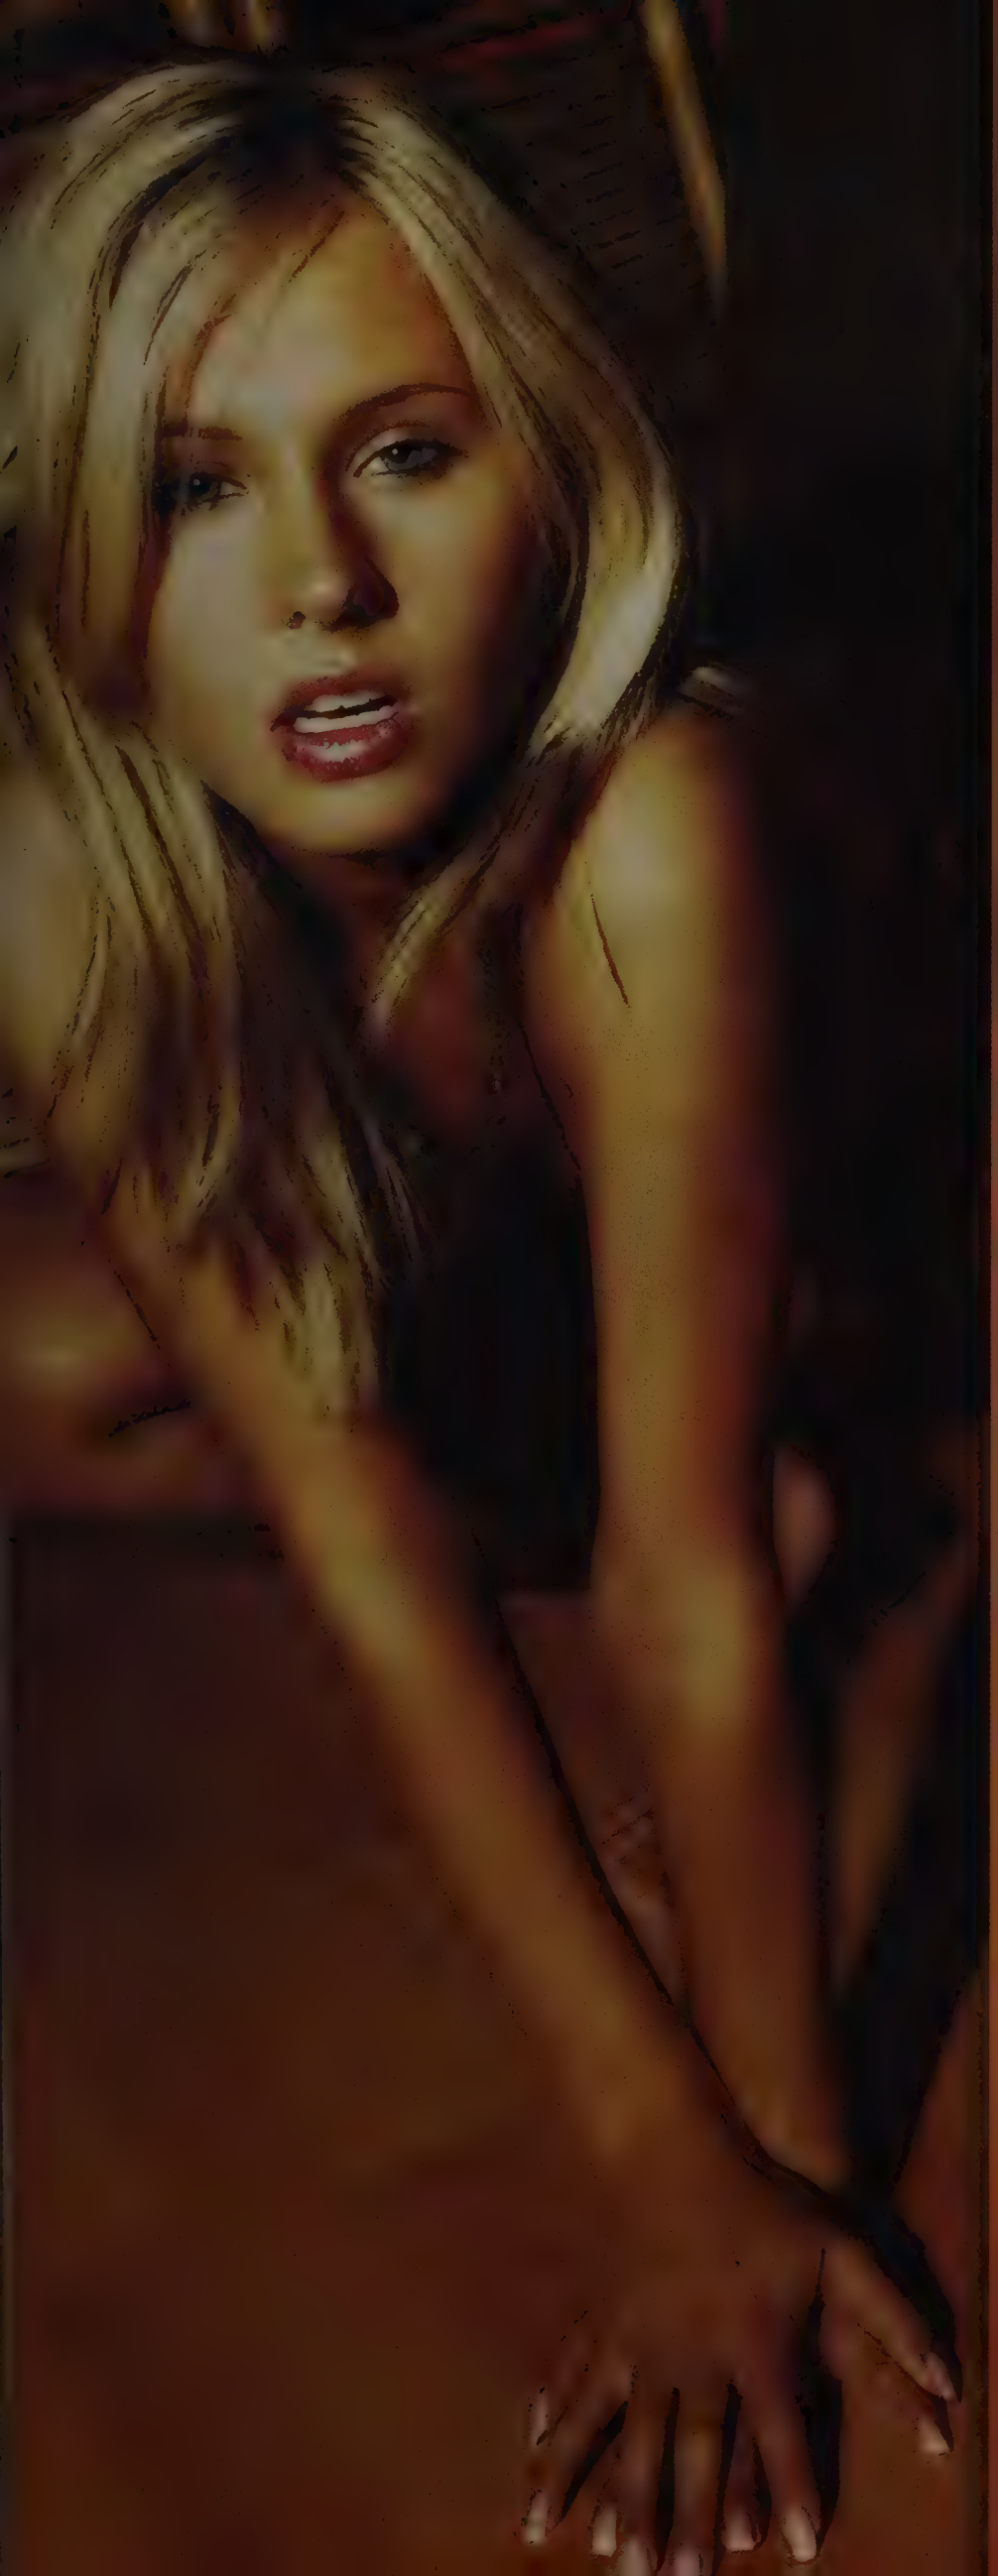
Stephanie Sweeney (with THE IMPROPER) and her friends visited Luxembourg, where the country motto is "Come to Luxembourg, it's... cloudy!!"

Ross Hogan and Colleen Higgins dove right into our Spring Fashion Preview while in St. Croix, but apparently skipped the section stating wet suits and flippers are soooo 2005.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER:
Serving as justice of the peace at a wedding between Barbie and Chuckie at the annual Myrtle Beach Doll Show, held April 8 in Myrtle Beach, S.C.

Send high-resolution digital photos (at least 500K file size) to sightings@improper.com, or mail professionally printed color photos (min. 3x5) to Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116. Please include the exact photo location, full names of all people in the photo, your phone number and e-mail address. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned. Ink-jet or laser-printed photos cannot be accepted.



BOSTON'S BEST & ONLY GENTLEMEN'S CLUB

COME SEE OVER 100 OF
BOSTON'S MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

AMATEUR CONTEST EVERY TUESDAY

OPEN 7 DAYS

CENTERFOLDS
BOSTON

12 LaGrange Street • Downtown Boston
617.292.2600 • www.centerfoldsboston.com

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Tuesday, March 21, Bombay Sapphire hosted a celebration for their international competition Art of the Glass, hosted at the Boston Design Center.

1. Christine Moll, marketing manager for Bombay Sapphire; Brandy Toth, division marketing manager, Bacardi USA; and Sumindi Peiris, group marketing manager for Bombay Sapphire.
2. Tara Martzial, designer for Boston Design Center; Carisa Komp, designer for Crate & Barrel; and Jennifer Sharon, designer for Elkus/Manfredi.
3. Jim Juliano, division vice president, Bacardi USA, and Mike Robie, Bacardi USA portfolio manager for Horizon Beverage.

On Thursday, March 23, The Foundation Lounge celebrated the new sprii arrival in champagne, Veuve Clicquot Rosé.

1. Aislinn Noel, manager ar function coordinator of Sor and Cyril Brun, winemake Veuve Clicquot Ponsardin.
2. Lauren Lucas and Emily Kramer, both students at University.
3. Ashley Pickard, assistant manager of marketing communications for Cambr Savings Bank; Ashley Har program coordinator for th Newton Schools Foundatio Bethany Brigham, prope accountant for CB Richard Real Estate.

On Wednesday, March 22, Emerge celebrated the opening of their new location on Newbury Street. Guests enjoyed cocktails by Stoli Vodka, champagne by Perrier Jouët and lite bites by East Meets West.

1. Claire Vannerson, marketing assistant, and Cinzia Bianchi, marketing director, both at Healthworks; and Tracy Saradnik, field marketing manager at Pernod-Ricard USA.
2. Chris Shine, on-air personality for Kiss 108FM, and Marty Scahill, creative media at Yahoo! Inc.
3. Danielle Nelson, booking reservationist for G2O; My Pham, concierge for Emerge; Joyce Hampers, owner of G2O and Emerge; Shannon Asimus and Amy Young, both concierges at Emerge; and Leisha Bass, concierge at G20.

On Thursday, March 16, Island Breeze by Bacardi and Mix 98.5 kicked off Bloomingdale's Sandal Island Fashion Show. The event was held at Bloomingdale's, Chestnut Hill.

1. Erin O'Malley, DJ a 98.5, and Lauren Jennings, public rela manager at Bloomingdale's.
2. Andrea Luca Ross at Meritage Restaura and Sharon Lilien-Zwiebel, account manager for Bacardi.
3. Pete O'Hara and Jo Hatch, both Island B Promo Specialists.

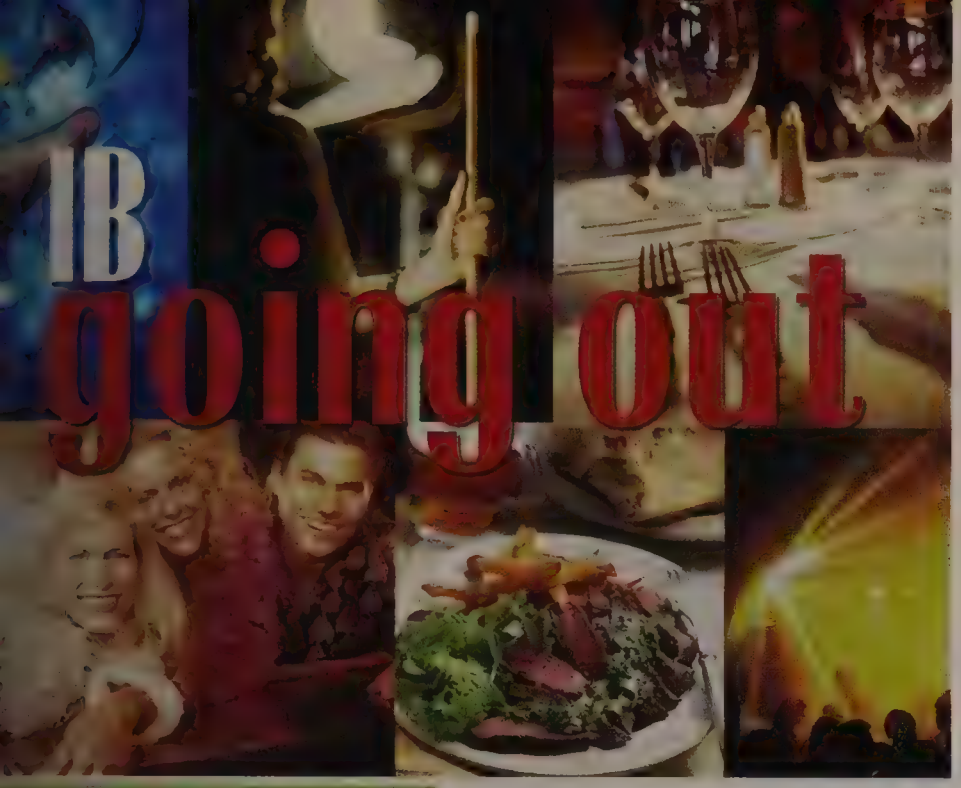
PHOTO CREDITS: BOSTON DESIGN CENTER, CARRIE WALLACE; THE FOUNDATION LOUNGE, NICOLE ZOTO; EMERGE, ALISON MORANT; BLOOMINGDALE'S, BRAN



RESTAURANTS

SSAGGIO 29 Prince Street, Boston, A 02113 (617)227-7380 www.as-ggioboston. com. Located in ston's historic North End, saggio is open 7 days a week for nch, dinner and late-night dining. saggio's menu is comprised of tradi-nal Italian fare and uses only the shest ingredients! Enjoy our exten-e wine list or relax at one of the rth End's only full service bars. Try r exclusive Limousine Shuttle Ser-e–for a $10.00 charge we'll pick u up at home and provide round trip rvice to and from the restaurant–ase call one day in advance to re-ve. Intimate, private function space lso available.

NFIRE 64 Arlington St., Boston rk Plaza Hotel, Theatre District, 7-262-3473. Chef Todd English's taurant, Bonfire, is a steak house d tequila bar with a wood-fired grill d Latin and European influences. décor is gorgeous in warm red d gold tones. An extensive taco nu, wood-grilled steaks and a late-ht tapas menu provide options for diners. Open nightly for dinner and -night dining.

CTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 7-236-0200. Have the notorious ctus margarita, voted Boston's t 6 years in a row! Our south-stern specialties include Sizlin' tas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas d the daring wash it all down h a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for ch and dinner. Visit our suburban ana Cantina restaurant in tham. Amex, Visa and Diners b. www.bestmargaritas.com.

GAKYU 1280 Beacon Street olidge Corner), Brookline, MA 46, 617-734-1268. www.fu-yu.net. Authentic Japanese cui-in an elegant and serene setting. n Daily for lunch and dinner, Fu-yu's menu consists of traditional and nouveau Japanese cuisine including sushi, sashimi, tempura and an extensive sake list. Fugakyu is the largest Japanese restaurant in New England. It's two floors include a sushi bar, cocktail bar, common dining areas, bamboo-enclosed booths, screened Tatami rooms and several private function rooms. Reservations for parties of all sizes are accepted. Takeout and delivery available.

IGUANA CANTINA 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

MATCH 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. This modern restaurant/lounge maintains an unpretentious yet hip vibe. A sleek fire display and glass wine room are just two of its many features. Match's signature mini burgers and martinis are guaranteed to please the most discriminating palate. Match music has a distinct early evening lounge feel with the beat and volume picking up as the night progresses. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC,V.

M.J. O'CONNOR'S 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255. Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

NED DEVINE'S Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

SIDNEY'S GRILLE 20 Sidney St., Cambridge, 617-494-0011 Enjoy fresh flavors, good friends, and a great bar at Sidney's Grille in Central Square. Discover why Bon Appétit magazine says "It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." Memorable cuisine combines international flair with regional accents. Serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and weekend brunch. Private dining available. For menus www.sidneysgrille.com.

SOLAS 710 Boylston St., Lenox Hotel, 617-933-4803. Solas means comfort in Gaelic and comfort is exactly what you will find here, along with a lot of "Irish" good fun. Solas, a Boston pub with an Irish soul, illustrates its Irish influences in the architectural styles and furnishings. The menu is influenced by a traditional, yet decidedly modern Irish cuisine. And you'll always find a warm, hospitiable staff looking to pour you a cold pint. Open 11am - 2 am, 7 days a week.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP:130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 300 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

THE LIVING ROOM 101 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, MA. 617-723-5101. www.thelivingroomboston.com. Cool, comfortable, casual– the name says it all. Where else can you enjoy American comfort food while relaxing on a couch or at a table, and even have dessert first? This restaurant, bar & lounge succeeds at being homey rather than haughty. There's an inventive martini list and friendly staff, just moments from Quincy Market and the North End. Try the Living Room's awesome apps like Chicken Taquitos, Mini-Burgers or Shrimp & Avocado Egg Rolls. Full dinner menu is served from 4:30 PM until Midnight daily. Saturday and Sunday a "Pajama Brunch" is served from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Bar & Lounge open until 1:00 AM daily.

VENEZIA RESTAURANT 20 Ericsson St., Boston 617-436-3120. For authentic Italian fare, impeccable service and an atmosphere unmatched on Boston's Waterfront, Venezia provides one of the city's most unique and pleasurable dining experiences. Your destination for everything from a relaxing midday lunch to a romantic dinner for two, Venezia can also accommodate private affairs like wedding receptions and business functions, and features live music on Friday and Saturday nights.

BARS & CLUBS

Beer Specialty

SUNSET GRILL & TAP: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 300+ microbrews and exotic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

BIG CITY - POOL HALL, Pizza Kitchen, Beer Bar 138 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-782-2020 www.allstonsfinest.com. BIG TIME FUN: 21 Championship pool tables, 80 big beers on tap, outrageous signature pizzas and BIG MENU Sat/Sun Brunch in our BIG BANK BUILDING with our one of a kind "metro retro decor". THE BIG DEAL is free rooms and pool for your next party or function of any kind. Call the "Party Specialists". Sun - Weds 3P's (pool, pitcher, pizza) $19.99. Life is good in the Big City! Come experience it in a big way!

Clubs

FELT 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. www.FeltBoston.com. A four level venue offering a New York style Lounge, a hip bar scene, with sophisticated pool tables and a dance club in the 4th level. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth. The perfect setting for a pre or post-theater dinner or a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere of DJ's and dancing, sophisticated pool tables & bars...and FELT's posh fourth level club are the perfect blend to satisfy all your senses.

Dance Bars

GREEN BRIAR 304 Washington St., Brighton 617-789-4100. A little taste of Ireland with great tasting, affordable food. One of the most popular night-

I'm a SUBSCRIBER

Don't get stranded.

Subscribe to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN, Boston's guide to entertainment and culture—
it's worth more than a million dollars.

Only $14.95 for 25 issues!

617-859-1400 or subscribe online @
www.improper.com.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

You can't read just one.

spots in town, the Green Briar has become the area's headquarters for international sports viewing and live entertainment. Live music five nights a week, featuring local bands on weekends, a traditional Irish Seissun every Monday night and Prime Time Trivia every Tuesday. The hospitable atmosphere makes the Green Briar an excellent place to hold luncheons, wedding rehearsals, social gatherings and small business meetings. Open 11am-1am, 7 days a week. Cover charge varies on Friday and Saturday nights and some sporting events on Sundays.

KINVARA 34 Harvard Ave., Allston 617-783-9400. At the Kinvara, the crowd is spirited, the staff is hospitable, the food is great and everyone is treated as a "regular". It's the local gathering place with authentic Irish pub flavor. Live international sports viewing via satellite includes soccer, rugby and hurling. Live bands entertain to a lively crowd on weekends. The mainstream pub fare menu ranges from grilled sandwiches and fish & chips to traditional Irish dishes and innovative daily specials. At the Kinvara, you'll enjoy a true Irish pub experience. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

General

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617-236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Boston's Best 6 years running! Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurants in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.best margaritas. com.

CHAMPIONS SPORTS BAR Boston Marriott Copley Place; 110 Huntington Ave. Boston, 617 937-5658. Come join us at Boston's premier Sports Bar where you can enjoy all you local and national sports action on one of our 33 tvs, including 2 big screens. We have draft beers as well as a huge selection of domestic and imported bottle selections for you to choose from. We also have a full bar and menu serving all your favorite traditional American cuisine. Planning your next party or corporate event? We have room for parties ranging from 25-325. Our hours are from Sunday through Thursday 11:30-1am, and Friday and Saturday 11:30-2am.

THE HARP 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-742-1010. Voted Boston Magazine's "Best After The Game", the Harp is a favorite downtown hotspot any day of the week, located directly across from the Fleet Center. Live bands from Boston, Philadelphia and New York plus DJs spinning tunes on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights set the pace for the great high-energy environment. The Harp provides a crowd-pleasing menu with tastes from around the globe. Located in the heart of downtown Boston, the Harp also serves as an excellent meeting plac business luncheons, social gathe and events.

JILLIAN'S BOSTON / LUCKY STI LANES 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 437-0300 www.jil liansboston.con lian's is a 70,000 square foot enter ment megaplex featuring 16 bov lanes, 50 pool tables, high-tech ga high definition video walls, mul lounges and private rooms. Located o first floor is Tequila Rain, which offe amazing Tex-Mex menu and dancir the hottest DJs Friday and Saturday ni

PARRIS Faneuil Hall Marketpl Quincy Market Building, Boston 248-8800. Lounge. Cocktails. Danc Nightlife. Come see the lights of Pa Sample the eclectic lounge menu fea ing grilled pizza, oyster shooters steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Appl French 75 martini, and then motion the huge dance floor featuring music with the best bands and Thursday through Saturday. Name the original architect of the Greek vival-style building, Alexander Pa you're nightlife experience at Parris be Boston and beyond. Open 5pm - Wedneday - Saturday. Cover charg Friday and Saturday.

BRUNCH

KENNEDY'S MIDTOWN 42 Provi Street, Boston, 617-426-3333 w kennedysmidtown.com. Ideally s ated in Boston's Midtown, Kenne is located between Downtown Cr ing and the Boston Common; steps from Beacon Hill and The Fr dom Trail. One of Boston's best k secrets, Kennedy's menu boast pr aged steaks, seafood,assorted fare, and daily creations. Open 7 da week, brunch served Saturdays Sundays, and lively piano bar. Cal for that special function or event.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE – SKYL ROOM MUSEUM OF SCIENCE ence Park, Boston, Ma, 02114. En Sunday Brunch in the beautiful Sky Room overlooking the Charles River a a.m. & 1 p.m., then check out the la breathtaking Omni film or our alwa changing exhibit halls. Tickets star $32 and include on-site parking wh available. Brunch only, $24. Reservati recommended. For more information (617) 723-2500 or visit mos.org.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP 130 Brigh Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNS CANTINA, 916 Commonwealth A Boston 617-731-8646. "Beer's not j for breakfast anymore." At the Sun Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try thick-cut French toast, potato skins a eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar, cluding a free Sunday paper and your f beery mary or mimosa. Full menu a available. 112taps, 300+microbrews.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

ACTIVISM

GET PAID TO BE A HERO

ivocate for impoverished chilen and earn $500-$1000/wk + nefits! DialogueDirect's fun ams work to support promnent orld charities. FT/PT, seasonperm., career opps. 508 532-
74. www.dialoguejobs. com.

ACUPRESSURE

781-453-3988

ward yourself with a type of axation and rejuvenation that proves the power of the body, nd and spirit. We provide a othing and comfortable atmosere for the best massage treat-
nt. by appt. 95/128 exit 17-19 16 Great Plain Ave. Needham nter 9am - 9pm open 7days.

ATTORNEY

RAGAB & Associates, LLC
6 Beacon Street, Suite 200
Boston, MA 02114

Ragab & Associates, LLC is a general law practice located in downtown Boston. Our firm focuses on estate planning, real estate, business law, bankruptcies and domestic relations. Please contact us 617-523-3200.

BANDS/ ENTERTAINMENT

KAHOOTZ

Recommended by every major hotel in Boston, Kahootz is New England's most exciting live band for wedding receptions and parties of all occasions. Kahootz specializes in hip yet sophisticated live dance music from Sinatra to Beyonce. Call us - your party deserves the best ! Toll Free 877-777-6856 or www.kahootz.net.

DANCE LESSONS

BELLY DANCE FOR FUN & FITNESS

Classes for everyone who wants a stronger, more toned, and flexible body. Johara's School of Belly Dance has locations in Allston, Brookline, & Cambridge. Contact: johara@joharasnake dance.com or call 617-780-8890.

DAY SPAS

A BETTER PLACE TO BE DAY SPA-CHARLESTOWN

A Newbury Street Experience at Neighborhood Prices. Massage, Facials, Manicures & Pedicures, Chemical Peels, Magic Tan Spray Tanning Booth. Gift Certificates Available. Open Wednesdays-Sundays. www.abetterplaceto be.net. 617-241-8900.

ETIQUETTE CLASSES

INCREASE CONFIDENCE!!
Etiquette Made Easy for Children and Young Adults
Choose from any or all of the following
Social Etiquette
Communication Skills
Table Manners Classes are forming now in Brookline, MA and are arranged by age group
Ages 5-18 are welcome
Contact
etiquettemadeeasy@yahoo.com
617-276-2082

HEALING

NE Medical Massage Therapy
Do you suffer in pain?
Massage • Reiki • Acupuncture
Repetitive Stress & Chronic Injuries
Located at Harvard Vanguard Medical Associates
147 Milk Street, 7th floor, Boston
617.769.0101
Next 12 hr. Reiki 1 Class
Monday, April17 10am-6pm
Monday, April 24 10am-2pm
Maxine Bornstein RN, MS
Reiki Master / Teacher / Holistic Nurse
508.292.5258
www.reikibythe sea.com
www.nemedicalmassage.com

TERRY PORTER, MEDIUM/SPIRITUAL HEALER

Providing love, guidance, & healing to help find the answers you seek. Call Terry at 781-331-4441 or e-mail porterTAP@ aol.com for information or to schedule an appointment.

HELP WANTED

SERVICE STAFF HOUSTON'S

Houston's Restaurant, located at 60 State St. next to Faneuil Hall, seeks serves and greeters. Looking for professional, educated, friendly and ambitious individuals. Please apply in person Sunday through Friday between 3:00 and 5:00 pm.

HEALING

MASSAGE BODYWORK FOR WOMEN

Luxurious Tantric bodywork channels soothing energy thru sensual meridian nurturing body and soul. Exhilarating relaxation; mind-body equilibrium. By certified therapist. Sliding-scale rates. 857-526-6791. tantricway@hot mail.com.

PERMANENT COSMETICS

PET GIFT BOUTIQUE

Cause to Paws
Gifts for pets... and people that love them
www.causetopaws.com
1-617-738-PAWS
Giftbaskets, Bakery Treats and More
1386A Beacon Street Brookline, MA 02446

JUST DOGS!™ GOURMET
The World's Tastiest Gourmet Dog Treats™
Come on in and check out our great selection of hand decorated gourmet treats, gifts and natural dog foods
212 Sumner St, Newton Centre 617-795-2566 & Natick Mall 508-652-8004

To advertise in the Improper Shopper call 617-859-1400 x 269

PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE

A UNIQUE HOME DETOX™
FOR DRUGS AND ALCOHOL
PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL
PHYSICIAN DIRECTED
COVERED BY MOST INSURANCE PLANS
ADDICTION RECOVERY
1-800-770-1904
(24 hours)

YOGA CLASSES

WWW.VINIYOGA CAMBRIDGE.COM

Yoga at Watertown Square Wednesday 5:45 and 7:30, Central Square, Cambridge Monday 5:00. www.Viniyoga Cambridge.com (617)-354-0570. Whether you are looking for strength, flexibility, relief from back pain, neck and shoulder tightness, or relaxation, you can benefit from this therapeutic approach to yoga. Beginner and intermediate. Try 1 class $16. 6-class series $96. Viniyoga: appropriate application of yoga respecting the individual.

617-616-1600
pplm.org/plan

Davis Square Plaza, 260 Elm Street
Somerville

Mon-Fri 11am-7pm
Sat 10am-5pm

Plan is a Planned Parenthood express center.

We offer clothes-on consultations for birth control and emergency contraception with experienced medical professionals.

Just walk right in, walk out with contraception. All in 30 minutes. No sweat.

plan

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

WHAT'S THE BUZZ ABOUT?
Host a KittyLiXX Pleasure Toy Home Party and find out!
1-866-844-LIXX

- Sensual & Erotic Toys, Oils and more...
- Earn free gifts • Girls Night out • 18 +
- Also seeking sales people
- Visit us at www.kittylixx.com
- Email : homeparties@kittylixx.com

KittyLiXX.com

MARIJUANA STUDY

Researchers at McLean Hospital are looking for individuals to participate in a 21-day research study to test an investigational medication for marijuana dependence. You may qualify for this study and earn up to $500 if you:

Are 18-50 years old?

Are currently smoking marijuana on a regular basis and want to stop?

Can come to McLean Hospital 5 days a week for 3 weeks?

For more information call: 617-855-2359 or visit www.drug-studies.org

---

cityside tickets

"Your source for the best tickets in New England"

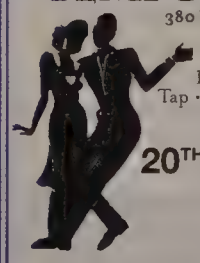
Red Sox Tickets Available Now!
Call today at 617-481-2145.
Or visit us at www.citysidetickets.com.

Puppies

- Cute & Healthy
- 1 Year Healthy Warranty
- Microchipped
- Vet Checked/Shots
- Mixed Breeds Available
- Much, Much More

PET EXPRESS 781-592-2003
www.petexpressboston.com

TEMPO DANCE CENTER
380 Washington Street, Brighton Center, MA 02135
Gail Rundlett, Director



Latin • Swing • Salsa • DiscoHustle
Ballroom • Argentine Tango • W. Coast Swing
Tap • Dance Socials • Wedding Survival Course™
Group & Private Lessons

20TH ANNIVERSARY PARTY
Saturday, April 29th
8pm-12 midnight
Admission: $20 in advance by 4/20
$25 at door (if space available)

Next Semester begins week of May 6th
For information: (617) 783-5467
www.havetodance.com/tempodancecenter

OWN THIS FLORIDA LUXURY HOM
NO credit needed, NO downpayment and NO closing co
Visit www.floridanocredithomes.com for more info and pics
or call 407-416-6007.

LEARN FROM THE BEST!

NEW ENGLAND BARTENDING SCHOOL
www.bartendingschool.com • 888-4DRINKS

Things you can buy with $29:
Which would you choose?

- ☐ 2 movie tickets, drinks & popcorn
- ☐ Just released, hard-cover book
- ☐ 2 Top-10 music CDs
- ☐ A tank of gas
- ☐ A 1-year magazine subscription
- ☐ Two-weeks of gourmet coffee
- ☑ Your own Arbonne business

be your own boss | work from home | generous pay plan & incentives | superior products | unlimited income potential | Mercedes-Benz car program | $29 starts your own business!

ARBONNE INTERNATIONAL — PURE SWIN SKIN CARE
FORMULATED IN SWITZERLAND • MADE IN THE USA
COLOR • NUTRITION • AROMATHERAPY

Contact Christine Size today for more information christinesize@myarbonne.com • www.christinesize.myarbonne.com

---

Everything you could want in a SHOE STORE and more...

Designer & Quality Brands
Boston's Underground
SHOE OUTLET
NOW OPEN TO ALL sneakers • boots • shoes
children • women • mens @ UNBEATABLE PRICES

617-423-2842

At the corner of Albany & Wareham Streets
◆ ◆ ◆
Free parking in rear. Just bring cash or plastic

ZAPATOS
A Hidden Treasure in Boston's South End Since 197

Kaleidoscope
is Boston's one stop for multicultural information.

It's Boston's first and only comprehensive multicultural resource guide.

created and published by
Colette Phillips Communications, Inc.

Order KALEIDOSCOPE Now!
617.357.5777
www.kscopecity.com

Brazilian Born
www.brazilianborn.net
Location:
Shops at Prudential Center
800 Boylston St., Boston
617.375.5566

UNIQUE, SOPHISTICATED, BRAZILIAN ART

Assortment of ceramic flowers and fruits, vintage suitcases, stylish jewelry, one of a kind ceramic dolls dated and signed. Everything is handmade by talented Brazilian artsits.

For fast, capable, temporary hel

List your housecleaning, yard work, moving help, and clerical jobs with us FREE and have a Boston University student work for you!

BOSTON UNIVERSITY STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

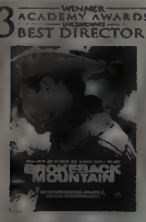
Phone: 617.353.289
Post your jobs online: FAX: 617.353.920
www.bu.edu/seo E-Mail: seo@bu.ed

Let us work for you!

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

Men: Where you sheepish about seeing it in the theaters?



Available Now on DVD
for rental or purchase: retail $29.98
WITH THIS AD: $19.95

movieworks
rent buy movies dvds videos games fun
58 Beacon St., Washington Sq., Brookline

On the Green Line • FREE Parking
617.734.6332
10am-midnight daily

Join hundreds of singles!
Hampshire House
COSMIC CONNECTION™
SINGLES PARTY!

April 19

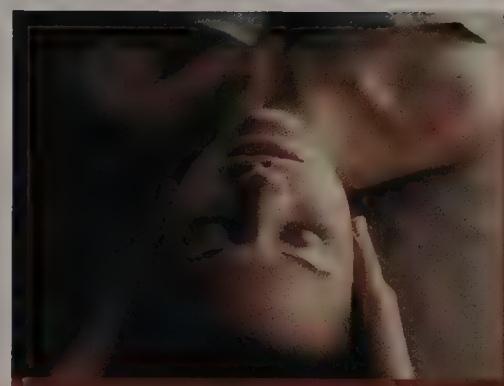
Swing into Spring with single professionals 40+

Art! Hors d'oeuvres! Dancing! Prizes!
Free Cosmopolitans! Psychics! Fun!

84 Beacon Street, Beacon Hill
Time: Wed., 6 to 10 PM
$60 in advance, $75 at door

Call Angela at 617.357.5777 X 503
Reservations held at the door
www.cosmiconnection.com

A portion of proceeds to benefit Massachusetts Children's Trust Fund



- Tri-active laser for cellulite
- Aveda Botanical Skin Resurfacing
- Microdermabrasion
- Massage
- Specializing in dimensional haircolor and eyebrow design.

RAINA'S HAIR DESIGN STUDIO & DAY SPA, an Aveda concept salon.
115 Broadway, Revere, MA 02151
781-289-1266 • www.rainashairdesign.com AVEDA

JOSEPH SULLIVAN CARPET CLEANING
The Best Way to Clean Carpets

t. 1973. Specializing in hand washing and o cleaning of all carpets, including delicates Oriental, Hand-woven, Special dye, etc.)
Eliminate dirt/deep stains and odors.
Drop-off/pick-up service available.
Call now for competitive pricing.

617-445-1693
www.josephsullivancarpetcleaning.com

LOOKING FOR RENTERS AND BUYERS?

List your property with the Improper Bostonian. Our readers live, work and play in Boston. They know that parking is not always included--and they still want to live there!!

Call today for rate information.
617-859-1400 x269

Foodie's

We're convenient, but we're NOT a convenience store!

We have a full fresh produce dept. with a special ORGANIC section. Fresh squeezed juices, cut fruit and salads to-go made daily.

We prepare and cut our meats fresh on premises daily. You receive the service and quality of a traditional butcher shop. We carry game meats, organic and all natural chickens.

Our grocery department has an excellent selection of vegetarian, organic, specialty and imported foods along with a large selection of power bars, protein drinks and vitamins.

...And you can still buy a bar of soap, bologna, potato chips, milk, soda, and all of the everyday essentials at our very competitive prices.

Hours: 8am-9pm Mon.-Fri.
9am-8pm Sundays
1421 Washington Street, South End,
tel. 617.266.9911

Foodie's Urban Market
For Gourmet and Every Day

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

At the RoxComp Gala, top row: Gladys Knight. Bottom row: a Michael Jackson impersonator; Bronwyn Webster; Jodi Wolin and Emanuel Ward

AND MACAULAY CULKIN WAS UNDER THE TABLE!

The rumor spreading like wildfire during the cocktail hour of the annual RoxComp Gala at the Copley Plaza was that Danny Glover (in town to scout locations) and Michael Jackson (making a rare appearance on planet earth) were going to show up to hear the evening's headliner, the legendary Gladys Knight (sans Pips) sing.

"Danny Glover, I believe, because I had lunch with him today," said Mayor Menino, when he heard, "but Michael Jackson, no. If he were in town, I'd know about it for security reasons."

And yet, during the show, there was a conspicuous section of the balcony cordoned off, and sitting at the back of a table, surrounded by big burly guys, was someone wearing a hat, a wig, sunglasses and a surgical mask.

Not that anyone paid much attention—after all, it was Gladys Knight on the stage, and her performance had guests like socialites Frances and Bud Moseley, Kathy and Richard Taylor, and Carol and Bernie Fulp, famed painter Paul Goodnight, the gorgeous Bronwyn Webster, and banking bigwig Joe Campanelli with his stunning other half, Carolyn, clapping, howling, whistling and otherwise nearly wetting their pants.

By the end of the evening, everyone had dismissed the Jackson lookalike as a hoax, which proves one thing: There's at least one bigger freak in the world than Michael Jackson, and that's whoever wanted to be mistaken for him.

THANKS FOR SHARING...

It's not often that you see bare-breasted, body-painted women wearing cat's ears and tails standing around during the cocktail hour at a fundraiser, or pillars of the community mixing and mingling with S&M go-go boys, but then again, the Theater Offensive's annual shindig, ClimActs! is known for spicing things up a bit.

Spotted at the Cyclorama for the Bacchanalian Gala with a Brazilian Carnaval theme were such high-profile types as the grudgingly ubiquitous Joan and Robert B. Parker, the smokingly hot Darin Contini with the ever-sparkly Michael Kelley, fairy godfather of Boston Harry Collings, and eternal party boys Shawn McBride and Daron Manoogian, along with numerous others who watched the samba parade, danced, drank and bid on auction items like the "Hollywood Fluffer Package" (if you have to ask, you probably don't want to know).

Overheard from the mouth of one over-served woman at the bar, "I'm an honorary Brazilian—I just got a Brazilian wax."

At ClimActs!: an aerial performer; Darin Contini and Michael Kelley

THE RED ZONE IS FOR WELL-DRESSED SOCIALITES ONLY...

The prize for most original party venue goes to the American Repertory Theater, for throwing its Love Is Hell gala in Terminal A at Logan Airport.

Seen snacking on hors d'ouevres (while weary-looking airline passengers shuffled by perplexed): the event's chair Rebecca Milikowsky and her husband, Nathan, philanthropist David Rockefeller, Jr., playwright John Guare (one of the evening's honorees) and his wife, Adele Chatfield Taylor (who heads up the American School in Rome), actors Tony Shalhoub, Brooke Adams and Mary-Louise Parker (the evening's other honoree), très chic thoroughbred Sylvia Pope, Chestnut Hillion Lenore Gustafson, the beyond fabulous Barbara Lee, and young Brahmins Tim and Sara Cabot, who were the high bidders on the pedigreed puppy that Page Bingham donated to the live auction (prompting one guest to say, "They're auctioning off a puppy? What's next—Chinese orphans?")

Following a delicious dinner of lobster thermidor and the presentation of the evening's awards (accompanied by a blessed minimum of bloviating), two one-act plays were performed, after which everyone scattered, having had, as one guest put it, "the best time I've ever had in an airport terminal."

At Love Is Hell: top row: John Guare, David Rockefeller, Jr., Adele Chatfield Taylor and Carole Schildhauer. Bottom row: Tony Shaloub; Mary-Louise Parker

EITHER THAT, OR A WAITERS' CONVENTION...

That sound of the South End emptying out one recent Saturday evening wasn't due to a 70-percent-off sale at Home Depot or a sneak preview of Brokeback Mountain II, it was the Men's Event, the annual black-tie hoo-ha held at the Westin, to benefit Fenway Community Health Center.

Present and accounted for were such high-profile homos and those who love them (or want their votes) as gubernatorial hopefuls Deval Patrick and Tom Reilly, travel titan Jim Moses and his husband, Harvard factotum Philip Lovejoy, interior design avatar Dennis Duffy, painting mogul Sean Fittz and the supercute Michael Lynch, banking hottie Brian Lighty and his handsome other half, Andy Bigelow, the insanely funny Marcus Weeks, studly Ghanaian Taye Ansah, catering moguls Neal Balkowitch and Donald Nelson, and the evening's honoree, Harvard chaplain Rev. Peter Gomes.

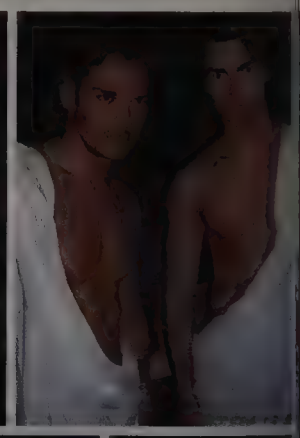
The following exchange was overhe while perusing the silent art auction:

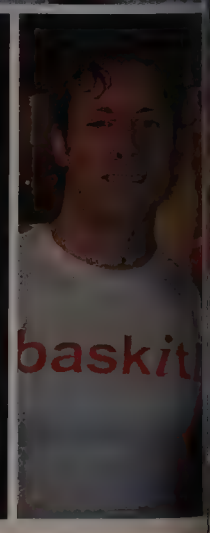
"That's an interesting piece. What is

"I don't know him."

However, the snarkiest remark ca from somebody sassy, who observed, hotel ballroom full of gay men in tu dos—looks like March of the Penguins."

At the Men's Event, top row: Giovany Garzon and Logan Benedict. Bottom row: Andy Bigelow and Brian Lighty; Brandon Kolar in front of a Baskit underwear ad he modeled for





Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion?
Call J.S. at 859-1400 ext. 303 or e-mail at jonathan@improper.com

DAKOTA COLLECTION
Sterling silver, 18k gold and diamonds

JUDITH RIPKA TWO

Arlene AND Roberta

Specializing in European jewelry, gifts & accessories

233 Needham Street, Newton, MA 617.527.3344

Dear Ketel One Drinker
Are you a 'glass half empty' or a 'glass half full' kind of person?
Probably depends on what's in the glass, doesn't it?

Ketel One Vodka distilled from wheat. ©2006 Imported by Nolet Spirits U.S.A., Aliso Viejo, CA. All rights reserved. 40% ALC/VOL. www.KetelOne.com

THE

IMPROPER ONIAN

METRO BOSTON'S INDULGENT
GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND SAVOIR VIVRE

XTRAVAGANT
AUTY
OM
AMONDS
O CAVIAR

FESTYLES OF
HE WEALTHY
HERE TO DINE,
ANG, SHOP
ND MORE

OW TO ARRY A LLIONAIRE
GOLD DIGGER'S
UIDE

AND IF I HAD $120,000
EZRA ON SPENDING

SOROFF/ON ALAN BILZERIAN

LUXURY

CH, ROMANTIC LOOKS OR SPRING

APRIL 19–MAY 2, 2006
$2.50 OUTSIDE OF METRO BOSTON
20 0 74470 79832 3
www.improper.com

Why settle for one note when a symphony awaits.

THERE'S MORE TO

Dewar's® 12

Best savored in moderation.

www.dewars.com Dewar's and the Highlander device are registered trademarks and the Marrying symbol is a trademark.
©2006 Imported by John Dewar & Sons Company, Miami, FL. Blended Scotch Whisky – 43% ALC. BY VOL.

Artfully blended into a masterpiece.

THERE'S MORE TO

Dewar's® 12

Best savored in moderation.

www.dewars.com Dewar's and the Highlander device are registered trademarks and the Marrying symbol is a trademark.
©2006 Imported by John Dewar & Sons Company, Miami, FL. Blended Scotch Whisky – 43% ALC. BY VOL.

"...the pizza is to die for; you could faint just describing the flavo of the sauce, and the crust puts you over the edge.

— Jack Welch, Winni

Jordan Tobi
— Owner, founde

BOSTON'S BEST 200
IMPROPER BOSTONIA
Pizza, Nouvea

20 Charles Street, Beacon Hill
617.723.9600

286 Harvard Street, Coolidge Corner
617.734.4900

611 Duval Street, Key West, Florida
305.293.8890

41 Waltham Street, Lexington
781.274.0089

NOW OPEN:
222 Newbury Street, Back Bay
COMING SOON:
73 South Street, Hingham

Catering menu available online:
www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

the Upper Crust
Boston · Brookline

Boston - 20 Charles St.
Boston, MA 02114
Phone: 617-723-9600
Fax: 617-723-6685

Brookline - 286 Harvard St.
Brookline, MA 02
Phone: 617-734-
Fax: 617-739-58

www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

FREE DELIVERY

SAUNA

STEAM

VIP SUITE

MEN'S CLUB

VALET PARKING

FIRESIDE LOUNGE

CAFE AND JUICE BAR

ROOF GARDEN LOUNGE

MEI MEDICAL SPA AT EMERGE

EMERGE LIFESTYLE RETAIL SHOP

EMERGE'S EXCLUSIVE WATER RITUAL

WOMEN'S AND MEN'S LOCKER ROOMS AND WAITING AREAS

EMERGE OFFERS SERVICES THAT ARE NOT FOUND ANYWHERE ELSE SUCH AS OUR LAVISH CAVIAR FACIAL. FOR 90 MINUTES ENJOY A DECADENT, LUXURIOUS FACIAL THAT FIRMS, TONES, REFINES AND DEEPLY HYDRATES THE SKIN WITH PROTEIN RICH CAVIAR AND POWERFUL ANTIOXIDANTS.

E|M|E|R|G|E

BY GIULIANO

BOSTON'S ONLY URBAN RESORT DESTINATION SPA

275 NEWBURY STREET 617.437.0006

WWW.EMERGESPASALON.COM

contents

APRIL 19–MAY 2, 2006

FURNALD/GRAY

FEATURES

22 SOROFF/ON ALAN BILZERIAN
The Worcester native and fashion king talks about his definition of style, whether clothes can make the man and the most luxurious piece of clothing he's ever seen.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

24 PIMP MY WALLET
When money's no longer an object, it's time to splurge, and do so obnoxiously.
BY EZRA DYER

26 HOW TO MARRY A MILLIONAIRE
Politically incorrect tips for finding the man with the bank account of your dreams.
BY "G" & "R"

30 BEAUTY DELUXE
From teeth whitening and body bronzing to caviar pedicures and diamond eyelashes, here are 10 extravagant ways to do your body good.
BY MARNI ELYSE KATZ

32 THE GOOD LIFE
A handful of hints for shopping, dining and hanging out in style.
BY ADAM STARLING

36 BOHEMIAN BEAUTY
These lush, pretty looks invite romance.
PHOTOGRAPHED BY DELLA BASS

Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by
Della Bass

Hair: John Ruidante/SEE Management; makeup: Gita Bass for Nars/Price Inc.;
stylist: Victor Vargas; assistant stylist: Jonny Rizzo; shirt: Valentino Boutique, Boston;
location: Blue Moon Hotel, NYC

COLUMNS

10 THE WORD
Diva Lounge; Bob Saget; the Gelateria

16 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured.
BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

18 EZRA
You may think you know Whitey Bulger, but yo have no idea.
BY EZRA DYER

20 THAT'S RICH
On the Rocket, the Celtics and Dale Sveum.
BY RICH LEVINE

42 MOPSY
Matthew Feldman; A Strong West Wind; The Chocolate Tarte.
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

58 MOVIES
Bettie Page is the Notorious B.A.D.
BY PAUL SHERMAN

64 MUSIC
Rambling road leads Josh Ritter to stardom.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

104 LAST SCENE HERE
Our Man in Black Tie reaches for the stars and gets snarky at a new spa.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT.DRINK.

44 DINING
Cambridge's Temple Bar is Irish done right.
BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI

46 TASTINGS
The Taste of Allston Village and other tasty tidbi
BY RICH LEVINE

47 DISH
Local oenophiles get organic.
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from the Calendar Gurus, Leslie and Rich.
Complete listings follow page 51.
Odaiko New England • Damn Yankees • Boston Independent Film Festival • Jane Goodall • The Dresden Dolls

ET CETERA

Letters
IMPROPER Sightings
Rockie Horoscope
IMPROPER Impersonals

Guaranteed Rate Base 85,000 biweekly:
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XV, ISSUE 8

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by
Improper Publications Inc.

POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Quick click! Shop us online 24/7 at lordandtaylor.com

Lord & Taylor Personal Shopping Services: personal_shopping@lordandtaylor.com or 1-800-348-6940 For the location nearest you, please visit our website at lordandtaylor.com Or call 1-800-223-7440, 8 am to 8 pm (ET) Monday through Saturday; 9 am to 6 pm (ET) Sunday.

TRAIN TO ACHIEVE

Focus Fitness is Boston's premier Training Center.
Through individualized plans, our Fitness and Conditioning Specialists will guide you in achieving your specific goals.

Let our elite staff of specialists shift your focus from someday to today.

FOCUS FITNESS

303 Congress St • Boston, Ma 02210
T 617.951.2900 • focusfitnessboston.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian

EDITOR Veronica Chao

MANAGING EDITOR Erin Graham

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

FEATURE WRITER/COLUMNIST Ezra Dyer

ASSISTANT EDITORS Leslie Kilgore, Rich Levine

COPYEDITORS Nathaniel Adams, Linh Tran

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Chris Collins, Carolyn Faye Fox, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, Laurel Kirtz, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, Paul Sherman, John D. Spooner

EDITORIAL INTERNS Jenny Amaral, Jaclyn Biederman, Casey Dunphy, Courtney McClellan, Paola Moll, Cristina Velocci

ART DIRECTOR Carolyn Bowes

PHOTO EDITOR Katie Noble

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett Hurley

PHOTO INTERNS Lindsay Maiorana, Brittany Oldham

NEW-BUSINESS DIRECTOR Julie Kane

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGERS Dana D'Alfonso, Alison Morant, Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Bill Eppich, Georganna Yessaian

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Jessica Federico

ADVERTISING/PROMOTIONS DESIGN DIRECTOR Julie Betters

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS Stacey Shane

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Fred Alce, Amanda Arkins, Sara Hebard, Danielle Keith, Auric Mak, Cynthia Mooradian, James Nelson, Mayra Rivera,

PRODUCTION MANAGER Merinda Pattullo

V.P. ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE Arthur Souza

GENERAL MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian Miller

OFFICE MANAGER Gretchen Bostrom

SALES ASSISTANT/RECEPTIONIST Nicole Zoto

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400 Fax: 617-859-1446
E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc. Copyright©2006 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member

Audit Bureau of Circulations

unmistakably

JUDITH RIPKA®

18K COUTURE

2006 Spring Trunk Show

THURSDAY, APRIL 27TH | FRIDAY, APRIL 28TH | SATURDAY, APRIL 29TH

9:30AM - 5:00PM

Arlene and Roberta

Specializing in European jewelry, gifts & accessories

233 NEEDHAM STREET • NEWTON, MASSACHUSETTS • 617.527.3344

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

LUSH LIFE

No matter what your budget is, chances are you have a little extra dough to blow every now and then, and our luxury issue has some ideas for doing so in style.

In "Pimp My Wallet," Ezra Dyer offers some quirky options for spending varying amounts of money (would you choose 1,500 coach-class flights to Philly, for example, or a 25-hour membership with a private jet service?), while in "Beauty Deluxe," Marni Katz looks at some of the city's most luxurious spa and salon services (can you say caviar pedicure?). Meanwhile, on our fashion pages, stylist Victor Vargas shows you some of the prettiest high-end looks in Boston boutiques this season.

Finally, with tongues in cheeks and props to Betty, Marilyn and Lauren, we offer the anonymously penned "How to Marry a Millionaire." Scheme at your own risk.

Veronica Chao

VERONICA CHAO, Editor
veronica@improper.com

MEET THE MOMO MAN

As the owner of Om restaurant and a native of Nepal with Tibetan heritage, I was offended by Andy Husband's attempts to lay claim to the momo ("Dish," April 5). Creating Om has allowed me to share my family's heritage and further the cultural aspects of Tibet and Nepal through art and food. Our recent relationship with the Tibetan momo-maker Tsering Donshi is perfectly legitimate and in no way infringed on any contract or ethical hiring standards. In fact, he prepares the dumplings for several restaurants in Boston. It seems the person who deserves credit for making momos at Tremont 647 (or any restaurant) is the momo-maker himself.

—BIK YONJAN
Cambridge

GIVE FRUIT THE BOOT

Thanks for the amusing Bartenders Issue (April 5), with all the tutti-frutti drink recipes: "Divine Strawberry," "Mango Melon Mojito," "Georgia Peach," "Pineappletini," etc., ad nauseam. You're kidding, right?

—G. VIGLIROLO
Brookline

GOING UP

In your interview with ESPN Radio host Mike Greenberg ("The Word," April 5), he says the Otis Elevator Company headquarters in Bristol, Conn., is a one-story building. Actually, the Otis building in Bristol is 26 stories—and it's a test tower. The Otis headquarters is eight miles away, in Farmington. It's three stories high, elevators and escalators included.

—LARRY GAVRICH
Avon, Conn.

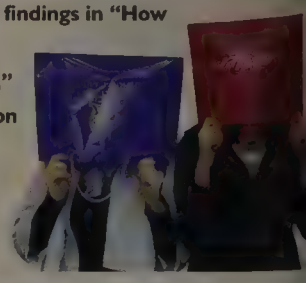
CONTRIBUTORS

DELLA BASS

This issue's cover and fashion photographer Della Bass has been in the business for 10 years, starting in Milan and moving to New York. Her work has appeared in Allure, Travel and Leisure, Seventeen, Sportswear International and Time Out New York. An Aussie native, Bass travels frequently between Europe, the U.S. and Australia for assignments.

"G" AND "R"

Award-winning writers in journalism, advertising and film, "G" and "R" have ventured into the well-moneyed wild to observe the mating rituals of Boston's well-to-do (and wannabes). After years of painstaking research in 4.5" heels, the pair (who prefer to remain in high-end camouflage) have uncovered the secrets of marrying for love of money. You can study their findings in "How to Marry a Millionaire," beginning on page 26.



Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

Two Of The World's Most Demanding Chefs Agree On One Rare Ingredient.

Any recipe is only as good as its components. Trouble is, whether it's black truffles from the Perigord region of France, pure saffron from Spain, or Black Seal Rum from Bermuda, the special ingredients aren't often easily found. But are always easily worth the effort.

Tom Colicchio

Tom Colicchio, Chef/Owner Gramercy Tavern & Craft Restaurants, cookbook author and winner James Beard's Best Chef New York Award. "My first introduction to Gosling's Black Seal was on vacation in Bermuda. It was love at first sip. It brings an earthy, smooth flavor to my Bermuda Onion Soup that is missing with many rums."

Ming Tsai

Ming Tsai, Chef/Owner Blue Ginger Restaurant, cookbook author, and Emmy-winning TV host, currently of "Simply Ming" and "Ming's Quest". "We must use the best there is, no matter how hard to find. Like rich, intricate Black Seal Rum. It makes any dish really sing, including our Blue Ginger Shrimp Tempura with Gosling's Black Seal Aioli."

Black Seal Rum is made slowly, deliberately, according to family methods that are wonderfully out of date with today's mass produced brands. Perhaps this is why it won the coveted Platinum award at the World Spirits Championships. And why you'll find it the most delicious rum you've ever sipped, mixed or cooked with.

Assuming, of course, that you can find it.

Gosling's
CELEBRATING 200
YEARS 1806 - 2006

www.goslingsrum.com

For Seven Stubborn Generations.

We make it slowly, stubbornly. Please enjoy it slowly, responsibly. 40% Alc./Vol. (80 Proof). Product of Bermuda. Imported by Castle Brands, Manhasset, NY.

THE WORD

EDITED BY ERIN GRAHAM

Diva Lounge

NEW IN TOWN

Bubblicious

You don't find many places in Boston like the new Diva Lounge; in fact, funky-but-not-flashy Davis Square might be the last place you'd expect to encounter an ultramodern, space-agey Indian tapas lounge. But you'll have no trouble spotting it if you go—it's ensconced in big, plastic, white bubbles inside and out, making it look like a fluffy white honeycomb. It's nifty to look at, indicative of the playful cuisine within.

Inside this bubbly cloud (adjacent to Diva Indian Bistro) is a long, futuristic-looking banquette bar and round glass tables topped with baskets of namkeen—Indian spiced fried dough made with whole wheat. It's a pleasant spot for a predinner snack before a full meal at Diva (an especially pleasant option during those long weekend waits for a table!), but you can also head there for a fun, low-key meal.

Berry-infused cocktails, all between $9 and $12, are the name of the game on the drink menu: the Lychee (vodka, lychee purée and fresh lemon); the Honeysuckle (vodka, lime juice and honey); and the Ali Baba (raspberries, Tanqueray Gin, peach liqueur, lemon and champagne). Intercontinental flavor is here too: Diva Lounge offers mojitos, sangria, and imported beer and wines. The most tantalizing tipple, though, has to be the Karma Sutra, a cardamom- and allspice-infused vodka made with a passion fruit purée.

The menu comprises Indian tapas (you'll have to go next door for dessert), including crab cakes served with sweet tamarind date chutney ($8); shrimp mimosas ($6); minted scallops in saffron sauce ($8); a dosa of the day ($7); and tandoori chicken satay with sweet chili sauce ($8). Don't pass up the piping hot mozzarella and green chili naan—a generous basketful is $4.

Diva Lounge's opening was a long time coming: It took nearly two years for the One World Cuisine crew (Diva, Mantra, Kashmir, Bukhara and Café of India) to make the designers' intricate vision a reality. The design was dreamed up by husband-and-wife team Anthony Piermarin and Hansy Better Barraza, who run the firm Studio Luz. The long, caterpillar-like space includes two big TVs, good for watching the game if need be, but just as easily tuned out if you're in the mood for conversation. The domes on the inside are illuminated with different-colored LEDs and are programmed to change colors at random, creating cascading hues. Diva Lounge is a far cry from your typical subdued, plush couch–filled lounge, and we think that you'll agree that it was worth the wait. Nightly, 5 pm-12 am; Thu.-Sat., open until 1 am. 246 Elm St., Somerville (617-629-4963). —EG

INNER VIEW

Bob Saget

Bob Saget is best known for his role as cheesy Danny T on Full House and even cheesier host/blooper-reel narra America's Funniest Home Videos. But Saget's become comedy hero due to his edgier work on HBO and th screen. He's currently writing and directing Farce of the guins, a mockumentary with the tagline "What happe Antarctica, stays in Antarctica." Saget performs stand-up Comedy Connection April 21 and 22.

IB: Which did you enjoy more: Entourage or The Aristocra

Bob Saget: [Sarcastically] They're both beautiful for reer, huh? To be honest, neither took a lot of my ti filmed The Aristocrats in 40 minutes, and then Entourage a day and a half while performing in another play. It's how people are always getting excited about the roles I pay attention to.

IB: The same goes for your famous one-liner in Half Baked th

BS: Exactly. I was directing Dirty Work at the time and the movies had the same producer, so they asked me if I want do that small part, and the rest is history.

IB: I've always considered Dirty Work very underrated.

BS: It just wasn't marketed properly. It was made be There's Something About Mary, back when people were a to make R-rated comedies. We had an R-rated cut that great, but no one's ever seen it.

IB: Were there days at AFHV where you'd get to work and ju want to pummel the writers making you say those horrible thi

BS: I have to confess: I wrote it. I'm to blame, but the big claimer I give is that if you're hosting a blooper show, yo already f---ed. There's nothing to say. About 5 percent o stuff I thought was funny made it on the air.

IB: How does a guy with such a dirty mind become the corn TV dad of an entire generation?

BS: I don't have a real dirty mind, but I've got a funny stor you: My mom never let me go to camp because she though be uncomfortable getting undressed around little boys. She was right, although nowadays I don't mind getting undressed around them at all.

IB: *If someone told you Candace Cameron would grow up to marry a hockey player, wouldn't you have guessed it would've been [*Full House costar] Dave Coulier?

BS: God no. You can't marry the kids from your show. That's just too f---ed up.

—Rich Levine

EXPERIENCE THE ESSENCE OF TODAY

"REFLET" bedroom in high-gloss laquer.

® Registered trademark. To purchase our "Les Contemporains" catalog or to locate the Roche-Bobois store nearest you, call 1.800.972.8375 (dept 100).

FINANCING AVAILABLE, SUBJECT TO CREDIT APPROVAL. SEE YOUR LOCAL STORE FOR DETAILS.

BOSTON	585 Commercial Street Boston MA 02109 Tel 617.742.9611
NATICK	579 Worcester Road Natick MA 01760 Tel 508.650.5844
COMING SOON	New showroom located at the new Ritz Carlton Towers 601 Washington Street Boston
WASHINGTON DC	5301 Wisconsin Ave NW Washington DC 20015 Tel 202.686.5667
MIAMI	450 Biltmore Way Coral Gables FL 33134 Tel 305.444.1168
NAPLES	3601 Tamiami Trail N Naples FL 34103 Tel 239.435.1602
PALM BEACH	City Place 700 S Rosemary Ave W Palm Beach FL 33401 Tel 561.835.4982

www.roche-bobois.com

IMPROPER SPEAKING

SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION

Pampering Power... For one week, you've got every justification to splurge. April 17-23 is officially Spa Week, when more than 200 spas in America slash their prices on certain services. A la restaurant week, participating spas aim to introduce new customers to their services with the lure of special discounts. Seven Boston spas, plus a few in the burbs, will offer their most popular services for $50—roughly a third of the regular price. Try a Fusion manicure and pedicure at Exhale; a pumpkin facial peel at A Better Place to Be Day Spa in Charlestown; the Ultimate Salt Glow Scrub at 98 North Salon and Day Spa; and a foot massage or an algae facial at Bella Sante. In Cambridge, you can opt for a mini facial, body scrub or light massage at Breathe Spa; or a Caribbean Therapy back massage and foot treatment at Pyara Spa. The Sports Club/LA is mixing it up a bit with a sunless tanning option. See www.spaweek.org for details.

Who's Got Game?... Everyone knows that to succeed in the dating world, you've got to know how to play the game. The new Web site www.gottaflirt.com is all about mind games. Founded by Semyan Dukach (the MIT alum who's the subject of the book Busting Vegas), the matchmaking site offers online flirters a live, interactive, 10-minute game. It works like this: Seven men compete by answering questions posted by the woman they want to pursue, kind of like The Dating Game meets The Bachelorette meets instant messaging. It's free for women and costs $3 a game for men, open to one and all. The prize? The lovely lady's e-mail address.

It's In the Details... You can find all sorts of jobs on Craigslist, but this is the first time we came across a posting to help a mechanic spread the word about his religious theory. Mahmood Rezaei-Kamalabad of Aladdin Auto Service in Fresh Pond Mall is a mechanic-artist-theologian seeking someone with English writing skills to barter for auto repair work. "I'm looking for a collaborator," smiles Rezaei-Kamalabad, known to friends as "Baba." An exuberant, articulate man who welcomes customers with a cup of tea, Baba advertised on Craigslist hoping to find a kindred spirit to help him articulate his religious philosophy, which seeks to unite the Muslim, Jewish and Christian faiths. At the same time, he uses his art to encourage the religions of the world to come together; it takes the form of giant steel sculptures that incorporate iconic religious symbols, such as crosses and Stars of David. Baba's sculptures (like his writing) reflect his belief that the differer between faiths are less important than the commonal among them. "In times of trouble," he says, "we all l up." 162 Alewife Brook Pkwy., Cambridge (617-547-80 www.mrkvision.com.

Exhale

Modern Art... Who says partying can't make you tured? Not the owners of the Ruby Room or Umbria. Ruby Room is now hosting a monthly event called Eme Art, Fashion, Culture, where you can see local arti work and check out new designs at live fashion sho Umbria is doing something similar on Saturdays, displa one artist's work for the night in the upstairs lour where you can mingle or purchase a piece while lister to live Bossa Nova or jazz. On April 23, the Ruby Ro hosts photographer Arturo with his cheeky swimsuit agery, along with a bikini fashion show. And Umbria feature the works of artists Matt Poirer April 22 and gela Wator April 29. The Ruby Room, 155 Portland Boston (617-557-9950). Umbria, 295 Franklin St., Bos (617-338-1000). —Andrew Graham and Leslie Kilgore

Mahmood Rezaei-Kamalabad

FASH FLASH

Gown Grab

Being a bride is serious business: You've got a million decisions to make and a host of people to plac (meddling mothers-in-law-to-be are no laughing matter). The-few-and-far-between fun parts of we ding planning—like trying on designer gowns—are precious, so take note: Bridal designer Anne Bar comes to town to host a trunk show April 27–29. Barge's gowns are elegant and modern: Her trad mark look is silk fabric tricked out with lavish embroidery, hand beading and the occasional antiq charm. Boston brides can find samples from her line at a handful of local bridal boutiques, but at t show you can try on gowns not usually sold here, including dresses from her spring 2006 collection. T new spring gowns are opulent to the extreme, in homage to 19th-century Russian culture. At the eve you'll also find gowns from Barge's popular La Fleur Collection, a line of moderately priced dresses appointment only; prices range from $1,750 to $13,630. Allegria Bridal, 285 Belmont St., Belmont (61 489-1449). —EG

stil
be stil.
featuring designs by malene birger munthe plus simonsen
paul smith cacharel
lucy sykes new york
BOSTON MAGAZINE
Best of Boston 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Boston's Best 2005
The Mall at Chestnut Hill
199 Boylston Street Chestnut Hill MA 617 527 stil 170 Newbury Street Boston MA 617 859 stil
www.stilinc.com

IMPROPER REPORTS

At-Home Luxuries

Living the good life has never been easier. These companies come to you, so you can be pampered in the comfort of your own pad.

Clothing Consultants

Former Louis Boston sales associates Pam Santorelli and Leila Moore teamed up to create their own clothing consulting business, Santorelli-Moore. During custom styling sessions, they prepare ensembles for vacations, meetings or everyday use. They'll also revamp your look by donating threadbare items and purchasing new duds. santorelli.moore@gmail.com.

At-Home Manicures and Pedicures

For 15 years, Angela Granovsky has been giving in-house manicures and pedicures. She brings the supplies and will bring backup for large mani/pedi parties. She services Brookline, Newton and, as of April, Boston. Mani-pedi combos are $100 a person. (617-947-6555).

Personal Chef Service

Former criminal defense attorney Jean Terranova serves as chef, proprietor and dishwasher for Artisan Fare personal chef service. She cooks you two full dinners for four and delivers them to your home. The fee for preparing both meals is $150, plus groceries and a delivery charge. Terranova cooks any kind of cuisine you want, from comfort food to Mediterranean. (781-662-0985).

Personal Dentist

Dentist Hillel Besdin offers house calls for teeth whitening. Besdin provides his services on nights and weekends, and he'll even come to your office during your lunch hour on Thursdays and Fridays. It costs $300 for one person, or $275 each for more than one. (617-738-6500).

Personal Organizer

Professional organizers Sarah Buckwalter and Sarah Rosborough want to help rid your life of clutter. They offer two- or three-hour organizing sessions for all areas of your home or office, and sessions specialize in turning that overflowing closet in your bedroom into a pile-free, zen-like space. (508-963-5709).

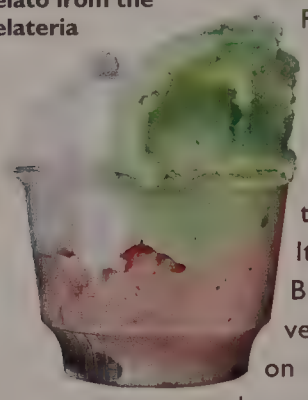
Yoga

Matthew Demers worked as a personal trainer for nine years before taking on yoga house calls. His workouts combine yoga, strength training and Pilates, and he tailors the yoga session to clients' physical/psychological responses and energy levels. He offers hour-long personalized sessions during which he varies routines depending on his clients' particular needs. Prices range from $65 to $85 per session. (617-416-8385).

—Cristina Velocci

TASTY TIDBITS

Creamy Confections



Gelato from the Gelateria

Jumping for Gelato... Frank De Pasquale, owner of North End hotspots Bricco, Mare and Trattoria Il Panino, knows a thing or two about Italian dining in Boston. For his latest venture, he's focusing on our favorite part of the meal: dessert. With the help of Maestro di Gelati Giovanni Gigliotta of Naples, De Pasquale just opened a gelateria (simply named Gelateria)—Boston's first—a 1,500-square-foot shop offering gelato and other treats like iced Passalacqua coffee drinks, panini and pastries. There are 50 gelato flavors to chose from, so get 'em while they're hot... er, cold. 272 Hanover St., Boston (617-720-4243).

Deliciously Diverse... In prepping to open their first restaurant together, chefs Eric Wernsing and Jennifer Pearson wanted to bring something unique to the local culinary scene. They did want to go authentic Italian, or Asian, or Fren that's all been done. Instead they created Con drum, a 56-seat restaurant whose menu featu everything from French and Mexican to Asian new American dishes. Pearson whips up desserts, while executive chef Wernsing mans kitchen. 56 JFK St., Cambridge (617-868-0335).

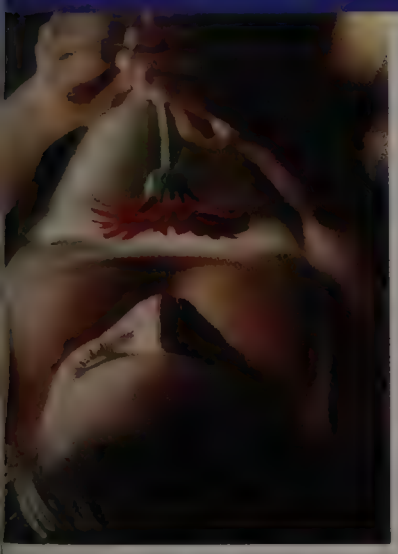
Doing It for a Decade... In case you haven't heard yet, after a decade of serving up friendly French fare in Harvard Square, Sandrine's Bistro chef/owner Raymond Ost is celebrating with new monthly $10 deals. The fun kicked off in February with a Flammekeuche and Riesling promotion and was followed by a $10 chocolate truffle (with port) in March. The Hamiltons keep flow in April as Sandrine's pays $10 of your $11 pa ing charge at the Holyoke Center Garage, an May, when you can enjoy a $10 lamb salad w lemon-thyme vinaigrette. Give a call to Sandri for more information on the deals for this su mer. And if you missed the boat in winter, do fret; each $10 deal will remain on the bar m indefinitely. Sandrine's Bistro, 8 Holyoke St., C bridge (617-497-5300).

Order up Some Olives... Todd English's f ship restaurant in Charlestown has earned a l following since it opened in 1989, and now E lish is throwing his hat into the catering ring w the introduction of Olives' catering service. restaurant provides hors d'oeuvres, apps, m courses and desserts for luncheons, dinners cocktail receptions, and can even help you r party accessories like tents, tables and cha (617-242-1999).

—RL

Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy news? L know what's is. Send an e-mail to theword@improper.com.

NTRODUCING MODA CUCINA



CUTTING-EDGE CONTEMPORARY KITCHENS THAT EXUDE DRAMA AND EXCITEMENT.
CUSTOM DESIGNED AND MANUFACTURED IN BOSTON, EXCLUSIVELY BY WATER & FIRE.

"For almost ten years I have been importing European kitchens for my Boston area clients. Unable to find true modern design in American kitchens, and frustrated with the particleboard quality and unreliability of European manufacturers, I am proud to announce Moda Cucina, my own European style kitchens manufactured in our state-of-the art facility in Boston. A result of a long collaboration between an Italian design team and my staff at Water & Fire, these kitchens deliver the custom selection, build quality, and dependable deliveries unavailable with imported kitchens. I personally invite you to discover why my kitchens are simply better." Paul Hatziiliades – Principal & Moda Cucina Product Designer

244 Needham Street, Newton Upper Falls, MA (next to Splash) Tel. 866.387.6228 www.waterandfire.com

WATER & FIRE
A Higher Level Of Kitchen Design

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

Meryl Streep received t Coolidge Award for original and outstandin contributions to cinem
Wednesday, April 5, at Coolidge Corner Thea
in Brookline, following Boston premiere of her new film, A Prairie Ho Companion. Others in attendance included tw
her co-stars in the film,
Kevin Kline and John
Reilly, and director Ro
Altman. Actor Chris
Cooper, who starred wi
Streep in the Oscar-winning movie Adapta
also attended with his writer/actress Mariann
Leone Cooper. A Prair
Home Companion open theaters on June 9.

1. Oscar-winning actress M Streep
2. Oscar-winning actor Ch Cooper and his wife, Marianne Leone Coo
3. Robert Brustein, foun the American Repertory Theatre
4. Singer/song writer Patt Larkin
5. Actor John C. Reilly
6. Director Robert Altm and his wife, Kathryn
7. Actor Kevin Kline

The Second Annual "A Spoonful of Ginger" food tasting, to benefit Joslin Diabetes Center's Asian American Diabetes Initiative, was held on Wednesday, April 5, in the State Room. A collection of local chefs, along with many popular Boston restaurateurs, joined together to raise money and increase awareness of the growing incidence of diabetes among Asian Americans.

8

9

10

11

8. Bobby Falite and Bik-Fung Ng (right), chef instructors, and Roberta Dowling (center), owner/director and chef instructor. All of the Cambridge School of Culinary Arts
9. David Kim and Emilio Arguello, both instructors at Harvard Dental School
10. Albert Li, financial consultant for Maffe Financial Group in Framingham, and Ming Tsai, chef/owner of Blue Ginger in Wellesley
11. Shivan Amin, medical student at the Medical College of Georgia, Lindsey Polivy, lab manager at Joslin Diabetes Center, and Pedro Geraldes, fellow at the Joslin Diabetes Center

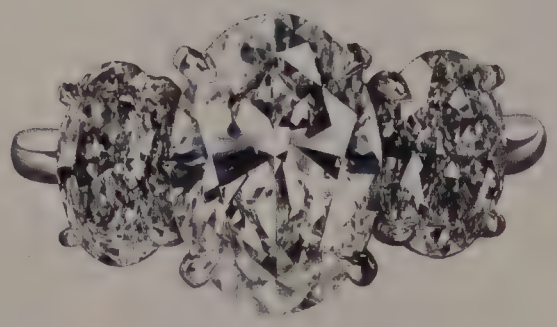
ction has its price.

Of course it tastes better than other beers. We've had over 600 years to get the recipe right. Our esteemed brewery has been producing beer in Leuven since 1366. Which means we've been around a bit longer than most. Mind you, over the years our beer has witnessed the odd change or two. For instance, our customers no longer drink it to ward off the Plague, as they used to in medieval times. However, one thing has stayed the same after all these years. Stella Artois is still painstakingly brewed in a time-honored tradition with the choicest ingredients. Which is why our customers have kept coming back for more, even after 600 years.

Always Enjoy Responsibly. www.stellaartois.com

© 2006 Imported by InBev USA, Norwalk, CT.

Good things come in threes.



Joseph Gann Jewelers LLC
SINCE 1933

387 Washington Street
4th floor, Boston
617.426.4932
www.josephgann.com

BATTLE OF THE BULGER

The latest Whitey Bulger insider publishes the most shocking tell-all yet.

Whitey Bulger is a cottage industry these days. After sitting on the sidelines while Bulger cronies like Edward MacKenzie, John Shea, Kevin Weeks and Pat Nee published books about Boston's Irish gang, another Whitey insider recently came forward and asked me to help him tell his story. For years, Johnny "Spatula Hands" Malarky was Whitey's right-hand man. Well, at least he was Whitey's right-hand man's accountant's girlfriends' brother-in-law's drycleaner's uncle's right-hand man. Which means he was practically in the inner circle. He saw things, and did things, that would horrify your normal upstanding citizen. I'll warn you: The excerpt below, from Malarky's forthcoming book, Tighty Whitey: My Life in Bulger's Hot Seat, contains disturbing content (as told to yours truly). Prepare to be shocked and amazed.

Whitey was a bad man, a ruthless man. The things he did give me the chills, even now.... Where do I begin? Whitey never once returned a movie to Blockbuster on time, and remember, this was when they still had late fees. He'd jam gum in parking meters. He'd turn the windshield washer nozzles forward on his car and squirt people who walked in front of him. He was one of the first ones to illegally download songs on Napster. If Whitey needed to cross the street, chances are he didn't bother with the crosswalk. He put his trash out early. He'd write his own address on letters, then put the addressee in the return address spot and mail it without postage. His Oakley sunglasses, if you really looked at them closely, said "Orkley"—he got 'em down in New York from a knockoff shop for like five bucks.

At the Galleria food court, he'd wear disguises so he could keep getting free teriyaki chicken samples from the Sakura Japan guy. He had HBO but wasn't signed up for it. He'd pretend to be blind so he could bring his dog to movies. One time I was at Stop and Shop with Whitey, and he went to the express line. The cashier says, "You got five mangoes in this bag; that gives you 17 items. You should really be in the other line." Whitey just says to her, he says, "A bag of mangoes should be one item, not five, right?" And she says, "OK, that's a good point." You could tell she was scared.

My duties for Whitey varied. I han money transfers to Whitey's IRA cont Bobby "The Manatee" O'Dooley. I'm talking about the Irish Republican A although I think I heard Whitey was volved with them, too. I'm talking ab Whitey's individual retirement acco Each year, Whitey made a max contr tion, but he only owned a couple diffe stocks. The guy just didn't worry ab portfolio diversification, you know? guess what: He owned Apple. Cunn doesn't begin to describe him.

I was also in charge of one of Whi most important rackets. It was a squ racket. I had to get it restrung, so I to to this guy I know who does th says to him, I says, "You string racket nice and tight. If Whitey his next game, I'm coming here. You don't want me to c back. Because if I do, you're fixin again, and next time I'm not payin it." I think he got the message, bec the racket was fine.

AT THE FOOD COURT, WHITEY'D WEAR DISGUISES SO HE COULD KEE GETTING FRE TERIYAKI CHICKEN SAMPLES FROM TH SAKURA JAPAN GU

When it came time to launder mon was Whitey's go-to guy. I rolled his pen and took them to the bank. Whitey w one to pay tribute to the CoinStar cart

Whitey was brazen. One time I saw put a guy he'd just killed in the passe seat of his car so he could drive in the pool lane. Actually, maybe I didn't that. I might've read that in the Hera something. It sounds like something do, though.

One thing I do know is where Whi hiding. But I'm not telling, because I'm a rat bastard. I regret some of the things done, but I still have honor. But I'll give a clue. Next time you're at Six Flags, ta close look at Mr. Six. That's all I'm sayi

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?
E-mail ezra@improper.com.

Modeling the Perfect Smile!

arturophoto.com; dnstudiosinc.com; gipore.com

Dr. Alex Adeli

The Candy Ford Group models of Boston prefer Prudential Dental Associates for their Cosmetic Dental Service

Prudential Dental Associates

www.pda-boston.com

617-267-3889

575 Boylston St., 7th floor, Boston, MA 02116

Insurances Accepted • Financing Available
Convenient Hours • Ultra Modern Facility

Cosmetic Dentistry

ignite the white! ZOOM!

(Laser Whitening)

invisalign

Veneers & Crowns

Extreme Makeovers

Restorative Dentistry

Computerized Dentistry (CAD/CAM)

Root Canals

Implants

Gum Therapy

Preventative Dentistry

Emergency Care

THAT'S RICH

BY RICH LEVI

I Can't Believe It

Some things in the sports world just make you go Hmm.

The life of a sports fan is filled with "I Can't Believe It" moments. You'll see something during a game or hear a guy make an argument on the TV or radio and then sit for a second in awe. Did he really just say that? Did that really just happen? I run into my own little "I Can't Believe It" moments all the time. Here are some of the most recent:

*I can't believe anyone wants Roger Clemens back in Boston. How does the old saying go? It's something like, "Fool me once, shame on you. Fool me twice, shame on me. Fool me six times, and I was probably one of those kids in kindergarten who spent a little too much time eating paste." Roger's not coming to Boston. We've been hearing these rumors ever since his farewell tour with the Yankees in 2003, and nothing's changed. Sure, he was in the Sox clubhouse on opening day chatting it up with his old buddies, while his agent was in the corner whispering into Theo's ear, "Listen, Roger wants to win another World Series, but he's not sure if you guys are good enough to do it, so here's the deal: He's going to just hang around Texas for the next couple of months, and if it looks like you have a chance, he'll come on board in June and try to help out. Oh, and before I forget—you'll have to pay him around $20 million for about 15 starts. Is that cool?" Let's get serious. Does anyone really want to enlist the help of someone who screwed Boston over so badly, just so we can win another title? And did you know his real name's not even Roger? It's William. What a fraud.

*I can't believe that anyone is upset the Celtics didn't make the playoffs. Imagine you're on some bizarro, Celtics fan Price Is Right and it's Showcase Showdown time. Tell 'em what they can win, Rod! "Well Bob, the first item up for bid is a team that's spent the last month of the season with their younger players riding the pine and earned the eighth seed in the playoffs. Bid on this prize and you get to spend a weekend getting manhandled in Detroit, followed by a week in the emergency room after you voluntarily blind yourself with a can of mace while watching Chauncey Billups average 25 points and 11 assists over four games. And that's followed by a mid-first round pick in one of the weakest drafts in NBA history!" Sounds great, how about the alternative? "Next we have a month's worth of Gerald Green and Co. getting some legit playing time and learning to like and play well with each other, followed by what looks to b least the seventh or eighth pick ove which this year could amount to Rudy Brandon Roy or Andrea Bargani, who m be the next Dirk Nowitski!" Okay, bac reality. I think I made my point. Now pl help control the pet population and h your pet spayed or neutered.

*I can't believe that it took me u Coco Crisp's triple during the third of the year to remember that Dale Sv isn't coaching third base for the Sox more. That's like finding a $50 bill jacket you haven't worn in six mon Forget Damon, Mueller and Millar; loss of Sveum will have the greatest im on the 2006 team, except it'll be a posi one. Back in the day, I never thou there'd be a time when I'd say, "Wow, ally miss Wendell Kim." That is, un said it about 15,000 times over the two seasons. Take care, Dale.

I NEVER THOUGH THERE'D BE A TIM WHEN I'D SA "WOW, I REALLY MIS WENDELL KIM.

*And finally, stepping outside of the sports bubble, I can't believe that S Nash is still the favorite to win his se straight NBA MVP. Last year I was all but not now. I know Amare Stouden been out, but Shawn Marion hasn't, an probably one of the top 10 players in th sociation. What about Lebron? He lead the Cavs to 50 wins, and doesn't another guy on his team who would start for the Suns (Larry Hughes do count this year). And even though h complete tool, what about Kobe? No thought the Lakers had a chance this but at press time he's got them in the offs. One of those two guys deserves it. Steve. If you need some cheering up, don't you go sleep with a supermodel or after all, it's probably been a couple days

Look for Rich's column in every other issu the IMPROPER, and address sporting opinion feedback to rich@improper.com.

NOW ON EWBURY STREET

EYE EXAMS ◆

1 HOUR SERVICE ◆ AVAILABLE

VISION PLANS ACCEPTED ◆

LOWEST PRICES ◆

Preview the latest Designer
Eyewear including:
Cartier, Oakley, Alain Mikli,
Dior, Juicy Couture,
OOH-LA-LA and more!

Licensed Optician-Dolly Lakkis, owner

COHEN'S Fashion Optical

179 Newbury St.

(at Exeter St. on 1st floor under Neilsen Gallery)

617.236.5500 - www.cohensfashionoptical.com

Soroff ON

ALAN BILZERIAN

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

Style avatar and clothing retailer Alan Bilzerian was born and raised in Worcester and received a degree in finance from Nichols College in 1967. In 1968, he opened his first boutique in Worcester, selling fashion-forward clothing to a discerning clientele, and he moved his eponymous store to Newbury Street in 1980. In 1972, he designed the first Fiorucci collection to be shown in Paris, and for three seasons, from 1978 to 1981, he designed the men's line for Cacharel. In 1982, he opened two stores for his close friend, visionary Japanese designer Yohji Yamamoto, in New York and London. Operating his own store alongside his wife, Be, he was the first in the United States to carry such brands as Prada, Comme des Garçons and Yohji Yamamoto, and they've become Boston's preferred retailer for rock stars, celebrities and stylish locals. In 1998, they opened a second store in Newton Centre. The recipient of numerous awards and accolades, Bilzerian has two daughters who have followed in his footsteps, one working with him in Boston and the other designing her own line of knitwear in Los Angeles. He and his wife live in Newton and Martha's Vineyard.

Jonathan Soroff: What's your idea of luxury?
Alan Bilzerian: For me, luxury is just to relax.
JS: Is it really possible to dress for success?
AB: Absolutely not. People who aren't successful are the people who want to dress for success. It's the person who has the confidence and ability who knows how to dress. I don't link success to money necessarily. It's more about attaining the goals that make you happy, and I don't know that clothes can help that.
JS: So do clothes make the man?
AB: Clothes definitely make some part of the man. I don't know that it's the part that tells the world, "I'm successful." It's probably more the part that says, "This is what I think of myself."
JS: Is fashion superficial?
AB: I would prefer to have the word fashion be something closer to feeling, because what you're feeling is what you're projecting. Fashion is only trends. Narrow-leg trousers might or might not be "in," but you could wear them your whole life because that's your style, and that's so fashionable, the way I see it.
JS: Is Boston a fashionable city?
AB: Absolutely. Boston has its own characters who know who they are and dress that way. It may not move like Los Angeles or New York, with a strong wave of black or pin-stripes. Here people move independently, because the character of the city gives them an idiosyncratic style.

"I THINK MEN SHOULD ALWAYS WEAR A TIE TO DINNER. IT LOOKS SO ELEGANT, AND IT IMPROVES THEIR MANNERS."

JS: Is there one thing you'd change about Bostonians' style if you could?
AB: The only thing is that it's sometimes regimental. We're sometimes in a foxhole. But we're verging toward the ability to listen to somebody who won't make us look dumb.
JS: Define style in one sentence.
AB: The confidence of an individual that isn't given by clothing.
JS: Most luxurious piece of clothing you've ever seen?
AB: Probably a four-ply cashmere, hand-dyed, seventeen-twisted coat.
JS: What, to you, is wretched excess?
AB: To come to Alan Bilzerian every day.
JS: I would think you'd love those people.
AB: I do, but I think buying has to be monitored by the way you live your life and not the time or money you have to spend. It's a gradual, growing process. I'd much prefer to have a customer come to me over the course of several months and slowly build up a wardrobe than come to me once and have me load up a backhoe with merchandise.
JS: How much is too much to pay for an item of clothing?
AB: No such thing. Doesn't exist in my mind.
JS: Fashion trend you're most sick of?
AB: I cannot stand to look at one more open-toed shoe or sandal. I can't believe that people will expose their feet.
JS: But I happen to have gorgeous feet. They're my best feature.
AB: Some people do have beautiful feet, but there's a truckload that don't.
JS: What one trend do you predict as the next big thing?
AB: Well, I hope it's not skulls, because I've been doing that for 10, 15 years. I'd prefer to go very native American.
JS: Biggest mistake most men make in dressing?
AB: Probably not understanding coordination of color. They don't know how to break away from their systematic ways. They're very afraid of trying something with good taste, so they try everything with bad taste.
JS: How about women?
AB: Most women have a problem of letting their hairdresser not cut their hair as fashion moves forward or backward. They get stuck with some kind of bonnet that makes them look like they should be on display in a stainless-steel cabinet.
JS: Do people dress too casually these days?
AB: Absolutely, because they're confused about what casual is. It's come to mean "wearing my old gardening clothes." They don't understand that casual can mean elegant. The words always get stretched. Like creative black tie. What is that? To me, it's "I don't have a tuxedo."
JS: On what occasions should a man always wear a tie?
AB: I think men should always wear a tie to dinner. It looks so elegant, and it improves their manners.
JS: Person in the public eye most in need of a fashion makeover?
AB: Oh, shit. You don't have enough r
But Donald Trump would top the list.
JS: Single favorite item of clothing?
AB: I like shoes. I don't have a lot what I have are great.
JS: Biggest secret of fashion retailing?
AB: The biggest thing that can make tailer is projecting an image of consist with his staff, with his merchandising niques, with the ability to move on not get stuck with a label.
JS: One piece of advice for a shopper?
AB: Be smart enough to listen to a p you might begin to trust who can giv
a different vision of yourself.
JS: Three things all women should have i their wardrobe?
AB: Beautiful gloves, beautiful boot beautiful knitwear.
JS: How about men?
AB: The most amazing jackets. A s jacket, like the handmade jacket yo saw downstairs. Without that, the v thing can tend to look like a Sovereign interview. And definitely a hat and sho
JS: Are you a proponent of the thong?
AB: No, not for me. Not unless I've g extra potato with me.
JS: How do you tell someone that somet doesn't suit them?
AB: Pretty easy. It's simple to just s refuse to have you look like that."
JS: Ever sell someone something that loo like crap on them?
AB: No way. You can go someplace e look like an asshole. I've only ever w people to believe what we think is ri that particular time. But don't for started in the late '60s, so there was very far-out, strange stuff.
JS: Last question: If you could choose one to describe what you do, what would it be?
AB: I would prefer the term cura think I cure people's problems. iB

Come On Down

"A vehicle for every road you travel."

BOCH AUTOMOTIVE

NEW TO YOU

781-769-8100 781-769-8100 781-619-6000 781-762-7200 781-440-0004 781-762-9110

On the Automile" Route 1, Norwood, MA Boch.com

PIMP MY WALLET

BY EZRA DYER

et's say you just came into some money. And not just any punk Megabucks jackpot, or some Howie Mandel Deal or No Deal banker offer. We're talking serious, Powerball-record, Maloof brothers, Scrooge McDuck treasure. Normally, you might like to treat yourself to something a bit fancy every once in a while. But now that you can make indulgence a way of life, you'll need a few ideas on how to change your fiscal thinking from the pragmatic to the pimptastic. For any given item aimed at the proletariat, there's something else out there that's far more special, far more nouveau you. For instance, a regular Joe might think it wild to spring for the filet mignon Benedict at brunch when standard fare is Canadian bacon, but you're in the realm of free-range, caviar-coated Kobe beef Benny over truffled ostrich eggs, my friend. On that note, allow us to present the true playa's guide to spending money when money ain't a thang. These are a few ideas meant to show you what can happen when you abandon the notion of value and climb aboard the superyacht of profligacy. Follow our template and you'll be commissioning daily ice sculptures in your likeness before you can say "Brewster's Millions." So put down that bone saw and go tell the foreman that your days on the sausage-assembly line are done.

PRICE POINT: $10,000

Before You Hit It Big

A gym membership for 20 years and 10 months

As The Biggest Loser demonstrates, there's only one way to really lose weight: proper diet and exercise. Memberships vary from gym to gym, but a Gold's membership should cost you about $40 per month, depending on location and specials and whatnot. For the dough, you'll get access to the treadmills, stationary bikes and old-fashioned iron that, with a lot of time and work, will burn away the flab and get you back into your favorite pair of Jordache jeans. No pain, no gain—that's the sad truth. Even better idea: If you live in Southie, a membership at the L Street Bathhouse gym runs $50 a year. For $10,000, that'll get you a 220-year membership.

Cost No Object

Liposuction

You know what really sucks about Lamborghinis? The seats are so damn narrow you can barely get into them, which adds insult to injury when you're already contending with a bad case of gout. You've tried losing weight, but bulimia and cocaine can only take you so far. Enter the miracle procedure: lipo. According to www.liposuction-consumer-guide.com, lipo treatment typically runs about $2,000 per body area treated, so for $10,000 you can probably get enough lard sucked out to fill a Louis Vuitton suitcase. The operation might take a few hours that you'd rather spend eating, but trust us, when you step out of that office, your newly svelte buttocks will fairly yell, "Time for a Louis Boston shopping spree!"

PRICE POINT: $67,000

Before You Hit it Big

Honda Accord Hybrid: $30,990

Toyota Highlander Hybrid: $33,000

Total: $63,990

Okeley dokeley: Take one garage, add a Honda Accord Hybrid and a Toyota Highlander Hybrid, and you've got a recipe for safe, environmentally friendly family transportation, mister! Sure, the nonhybrid versions of these cars are cheaper up front, but if gas keeps getting more expensive, we'll see who has the last laugh sometime in 2015, when the difference pays for itself. One downside of the Accord is that

PRICE POINT: $1,200

Before You Hit It Big

Seven dogs, $155 each from the MSPCA

What's the point of purebred pets? Never mind all the potential health problems that can result from inbreeding (remember what happened to your cousin Cletus with the club skull?)—the bottom line is that you're paying money for a critter. And critters should basically be free, because there's a surplus of 'em right down at the pound. You still pay a nominal fee, but that includes all the preparations to make sure Cujo, Jr., ain't got worms or rabies or worse scabies than you. They say money can't buy you friends, but obviously it can.

Cost No Object

One Sphynx cat: $1,200

www.prettybaldsphynx.com

Normal cats are just a little bit creepy, but Sphynx cats step the feline freakiness to a whole new level, with a price to match. So-named because they look like sphincters, the Sphynx cat doesn't let a lack of fur funk with the purr. Let Paris have her purse dog; with one of these things, you can have a purse alien. Aren't they precious? Or rather, don't they look like they should be trying to kill you for The Precious? Sphynx cats are practically hypoallergenic, and if you're bald, they won't make you feel bad about that. Also, unlike regular cheap cats, they won't steal a baby's breath.

PRICE POINT: $5,700

Before You Hit It Big
11,400 calls from a pay phone

The pay phone is underrated. With the proliferation of cell phones, particularly the "pay as you go" variety, the general public has forgotten the importance of the pay phone. But without pay phones, where would Clark Kent have changed into his leotard? How would Keanu have gotten out of the matrix? Where would Colin Farrell have gotten trapped in Phone Booth? And let's not even talk about what might've happened to New York if Bruce Willis hadn't reached the right pay phones in Die Hard: With a Vengeance. So you see, pay phones aren't just for drug dealers, they're also important devices for screenwriters. And we understand that if you drop money into them, they can actually be used much like a phone.

Cost No Object
Vertu Ascent Motorsport
Available in Boston at Alpha Omega and Bang & Olufsen on Newbury St.

Lots of cell phones can be used for text-messaging, e-mail and taking voice-notes, but few can do all that while being incredibly expensive. Lend an ear to Vertu, and you'll hear that takeout order repeated back over a hand-built, titanium-alloy chassis. You've got a sapphire crystal face, keys supported by jeweled ruby bearings, and a "concierge" button you can press 24 hours a day for help with restaurant reservations, directions to the nearest Ferrari dealer and whatnot. And to answer your question, yes, of course you can get it encrusted with diamonds. Now that's what we call a conversation piece.

it's actually faster than the nonhybrid models, but if you're worried that your neighbors will think you're some kind of excitement junkie, simply buy large "hybrid" decals to stick on the side so they think it's slow. The Highlander is, unfortunately, an SUV, but until there's a hybrid minivan, it's your best choice for shepherding the whole flock to and from Whole Foods without damaging the environment—and unlike traditional SUVs, it doesn't harm baby pandas.

Cost No Object
Confederate F131 Hellcat motorcycle: $67,000
www.confederate.com

What does $60,000 get you for a car? Maybe something like a Cadillac Escalade or a BMW 5 Series—in other words, a mass-produced yawnmobile that you'll see coming and going everywhere. Among motorcycles, on the other hand, $60,000 will get you something proper, something hand-built and exclusive. Specifically, a Confederate Hellcat F131—a bike that makes a Harley-Davidson look like a Hardly-Worthit. The Hellcat's frame alone takes 45 hours to build, and the finished product looks straight from outer space. There's no room for a passenger, so on a per-person basis, this thing's as expensive as a Bentley Arnage. Plus, it's called the Hellcat. How cool is that?

PRICE POINT: $120,000

Before You Hit it Big
One-way Fun Fare, ManchVegas to Philly
Southwest: $77 (price varies), 1,558 times.

You know what? Logan Airport is overrated. What's Logan got that Manchester, N.H., hasn't got, other than lots of airlines? Jack diddly, that's what. And Manchester has a particular jewel in its crown that Logan can't touch: Southwest Airlines. The clown prince of low-cost aviation doesn't do Massachusetts, so when you need to get to your monthly Lenny Dykstra fan club meeting, head north, my friend. Certainly, Southwest's lack of seat assignments can be frustrating, and its flight attendants get to call you names. But with the money you save by not flying out of Boston, you might be able to buy a pair of game-worn John Kruk stirrups.

Cost No Object
A 25-hour membership with Marquis Jet (Boston to Philly 25 times, more or less), with access to a Citation V Ultra: $119,588.16 ($4,783.53 per hour)
www.marquisjet.com/marquisjet/pricing.html

Your personal chef, Pierre, has a lot going for him—three cookbooks under his belt, a victory on the Iron Chef, and a flagship restaurant in the Bellagio in Vegas called Lucky Pierre's. But the guy can't make a cheesesteak to save his life, so when the urge for a greasy steak-bomb hits, you've gotta go to the source: Philly. Driving there takes too long, commercial flights are filled with smelly people who want to talk to you, and a dedicated private jet is more trouble than it's worth. But a fractional-share membership, like the one from Marquis Jet, is perfect—you get your own plane, when you want it, and for only about $10,000, round-trip, you can have a bag of subs waiting for you when you land. Now if only you could get that pilot to stop being such a crybaby and take you to get some proper Cuban cigars. IB

PRICE POINT: $100

Before You Hit It Big
Burlap fabric squares, 18" x 24", from Michaels,
"The Arts and Crafts Store." 50 pieces for $100.

When you need fabric squares and you're not made of money, Michael's burlap fabric squares are a great option. (These ones don't smell of chicken feed, like the stuff you get out of the dumpster behind the farm-supply store.) Everyone's favorite jute-based fabric is ideal for scrapbooking, potholders or storing potatoes; just grab a square and crop it to the desired size. If you're handy, you can even stitch a few squares together to make an umbrella—ideal for when it's raining and you're walking three miles to the bus stop. Tip: If you use these squares to make a winter coat, make sure you insulate it with old newspapers or discarded asbestos, or you'll be wearing brrrrrr-lap!

Cost No Object
Hermès silk pocket square, 16" x 16"

At about $56.50 per square foot, Hermès silk pocket squares are just expensive enough for us to notice. Certainly, we wouldn't deign to actually wear individual prêt à porter swatches, for fear they'd spoil the look of a bespoke suit—and, as our tailor, Chinchilla, always tells us, speak not of that which is not bespoke. What you can do, however, is buy a gross of the things and have them stitched together end-to-end and wound around a roll. Place them in the kitchen and voila, it's Hermès, the quicker picker-upper.

A ruthless guide to winning the heart (and bulging wallet) of Mr. Right

How to Marry a ★ millionaire ☆ ☆

By "G" & "R"

PHOTOGRAPH BY KELLY DAVIDSON

Aphrodite, Venus de Milo, Helen of Troy—what have they got that you haven't? Absolutely nothing! To live a life of wealth and grandeur, all it takes are a keen eye, a strong spirit and—of course—a bit of unabashed scheming. But you don't have to go to the lengths of Anna Nicole Smith or Marla Maples; digging for gold (or, preferably, platinum) shouldn't be a tawdry affair, and you need not wreck your manicure. In certain circles, treasure-seeking can even be philanthropic. The standards set are truly up to you.

In any event, getting married is the single biggest deal you can seal in your lifetime. A successful venture and ultimate merger takes as much brainpower as it does beauty, so look, listen and learn. In the immortal words of Shatze Paige (Lauren Bacall) in How to Marry a Millionaire, "Let's put some organization in this caper!"

I. Be Prepared

Be advised: This is not your grandmother's era, a time when men were gentle and chivalry ruled. Back in the day, a well-meaning gal could simply say she "forgot" her wallet at the Bergdorf's meat counter and her purchases would immediately be picked up by a generous, no-strings-(except for a free dinner)-attached gent. Today Bergdorf's no longer has a meat counter, so you have to be a bit more industrious. Put that old copy of Cinderella back on the shelf; trade that meat market for the bull market and prepare to dine on filet and lobster with your own Prince Charming.

But first: Get thyself waxed, lasered, buffed, coiffed, sucked and coutured; in short, get ready to work! And don't forget the all-important manicure. Your fingers should always look perfectly polished for that likely event, when they'll be donning five-plus dazzling carats.

Next, do your homework. Stay on top of business, culture and current events. Read the Wall Street Journal, the Financial Times, Forbes and The New York Times, so that when you meet him, you'll have something to discuss. Generally, religious or political topics are a no-no (unless he's a Kennedy, of course), but it behooves you to have a working general knowledge of them as well. Also, if you don't know the subject, take a crash course in sports. A helpful guide: Liz Hartman Musiker's The Smart Girl's Guide to Sports: A Hip Handbook for Women Who Don't Know a Slam Dunk From a Grand Slam.

Be a gracious and truly interested conversationalist. Learn the art of "mirroring" your posh prospect. Some examples: If he says he loves going to Cannes for the film festival, then you would just love to go to Cannes for the film festival on his P.J. (that's private jet, not pajamas). If he's nuts about the Red Sox, so are you! (You might want to mention their current roster to establish your bona fides.) If he's enamored with the color red, make sure you're wearing it on your next date, as it's (now) your favorite color, too. And if he loves home-baked cookies, turn the dial to Preheat and start mixing it up, sister!

II. Make Your Mark

There are nearly 9 million millionaires in the United States, including almost 250,000 in Massachusetts alone, according to the 2005 TNS Affluent Market Research Program of U.S. Wealth Markets. (Of course, a single mil is no longer enough; eight or nine figures, however, will do nicely.) Think of all of those riches and fertile ground, just waiting to be harvested; you'll have the pick of the crop. And don't listen to those who tell you to go for "old money." Tsk, tsk. Old money, new money—who cares? It's all in the balance! As long as he's "holding," you're good to go.

Let's just think of him as Joe (or José, or Josef, or Giuseppe) Millionaire. How will you know him when you see him? Here's a handy crib sheet of what to look for:

Brahmin:

Wears: Tweed, Madras, seersucker, boxers (from Brooks Brothers)—all monogrammed
Resides: Beacon Hill, Back Bay, Edgartown, Nantucket
Drives: BMW, Jag, Land Rover, the Mayflower Cocktail: Single Malt Scotch

Financial Wizard:

Wears: Custom-made suits and shirts, Hermès tie and coordinating designer accessories, including braces (suspenders) and pocket square, Blackberry, Mont Blanc pen, boxers

All of these Joes have one thing in common: They never leave the penthouse without their American Express Centurion Black Credit Card.

Resides: Weston, his office
Drives: Porsche, Ferrari, Mercedes
Cocktail: Martini (straight up)

Foreign (preferably "Royal"):

Wears: Berlutti, Prada, Gucci, Armani, Italian custom-tailored suits and shirts, Versace tie, Cartier watch, black bikini briefs
Resides: Back Bay, Waterfront
Drives: Six polo ponies, or else he's chauffeur-driven Cocktail: Cristal

Bona Fide Rock Star:

Wears: Black, leather, denim, big accessories, T-shirts, hot shades, chains, groupies, goes commando
Resides: Back Bay, Downtown, Ritz-Carlton, Four Seasons
Drives: An entire entourage
Cocktail: Anything by the case

Nouveau Riche:

Wears: Anything with an exposed designer label and price tag affixed, Presidential Rolex, briefs
Resides: Trendiest, most expensive digs in town
Drives: Yellow Hummer, Red Ferrari or the flashiest car on the lot Cocktail: Anything on the "Reserve List"

Dot Com/Biotech Dude:

Wears: Jeans, plaid, stubble, T-shirts (with pockets for protector), D&G specs, lab coat, PDA, Tag, boxer/briefs
Resides: South End, Leather District, Ladder District, Cambridge Drives: Range Rover, BMW, Porsche, hybrid
Cocktail: Beer

Tycoon/Oil Man (just visiting):

Wears: 10-gallon hat, boots, everything else custom tailored in London, including Oxford-cloth boxers
Resides: Four Seasons or Ritz-Carlton via Houston or Dubai Drives: P.J., Rolls Royce, Bentley, Limo
Cocktail: Bourbon

All of these Joes have one thing in common: They never leave the penthouse without their American Express Centurion Black Credit Card. (By the way, that's by invitation only, with a minimum annual spending requirement of $250,000. Translation: three Birkin bags, 10 pairs of Manolos, half a dozen Chanel purses and a bauble or two from Harry Winston's, with change to spare.)

Now that your goal is in sight, set your eyes on the prize. Aim high, darlings; aren't you worth it? Dream of jewels, mansions, Cristal flowing from the faucets and closets overflowing with couturier fashions!

III. Find Your Joe Millionaire

Now that you know where he lives, pack your bags, grab your girlfriends and get moving to the proper address: the Phillips Club at the Ritz, Heritage on the Garden, the Esplanade or Louisburg Square. As they say, location, location, location! And how can you afford this? With a little togetherness. Pool your resources and rent that broom closet–sized flat. The returns will be well worth the investment. After all, most accidents occur close to home—including accidental meetings. And for that reason, you should always look your best. You just might run into Joe in the elevator, lobby, mailroom, stairwell or street.

But why limit your options? Now that you've established residence, where else does one meet and greet that future solvent mate?

Where to See and Be Seen: Popular Hangouts of Men in the Black

Begin your evening with a cocktail at Jer-ne, Bristol Lounge, Excelsior or Intrigue. If you clink your glass right, you'll earn that coveted dinner invitation. After all, a girl's got to eat...

Hungry yet? How about some high-end meat? Try Ruth's Chris, Abe & Louie's, Morton's, Capital Grille or Grill 23 (but avoid those weekend bridge-and-tunnel nights at all costs).

End the evening with a nightcap at the Ritz's lobby bar: Cuddle up and get warm and cozy in front of the glowing fire. The mood and the company will surely provide the proper lighting for your complexion.

It's important to avoid becoming an overexposed bar fly. Social butterflies in flight might prefer to land only at the societal events of the seasons, such as openings of the BSO, Boston Pops or museum exhibitions and other high-ticket philanthropic/exclusive events. And don't forget skyboxes, box seats and front rows at premier concerts, sporting events and rock shows. Again, don't fret at these investment expenses—some are even write-offs.

Another thought: A girl's got to work to pay the rent. Don't let this be a missed opportunity! You spend more of your waking hours (and, in some cases, sleeping) at the office than anywhere else. Make yourself known to the single CEO—or, better yet, angle for a job near your target so he can proposition you.

Finally, go where your talents lie. What girl doesn't like to shop? Just shop for him! Where? In an exclusive men's or department store. Go to Neiman Marcus, Louis, Barneys, Saks Fifth Avenue, Zegna, a pro shop, or to the Ferrari, Mercedes, Porsche or BMW dealership. But stay focused. The only transaction from your shopping expedition should be a date with Joe M.

IV. Seal the Deal

How do you land Joe M? In a word, quickly—before the pre-nup can be drafted!

You don't have to make the choice of love or money. Just because he has the cash doesn't make him a bad guy, does it? He's probably lovely and looking to devote his life, and assets, to someone just like you—a special, intelligent, charming, hard-working and resourceful gal who's simply seeking the ultimate in life.

When you seal the deal, complete with the bling-bling ring (and hopefully a love that will last a lifetime), we'll be expecting an engraved invitation to your wedding. Just be sure to seat us next to the most eligible gentlemen of means. Because every girl deserves an upgrade from time to time. IB

THE DO-AND-DON'T REFERENCE GUIDE TO MARRYING A MILLIONAIRE

ON CONVERSATION:
Do: Seem interested in everything about him.
Don't: Seem over-interested in his bottom line.

ON FLIRTING:
Do: Stare into his dreamy, million-dollar eyes.
Don't: Stare at his big, bulging wallet.

ON DATING:
Do: Be the woman of his dreams.
Don't: Be his overnight depository or doormat.

ON MEETING ROYALTY OR OTHER DIGNITARIES
Do: Curtsey properly.
Don't: Get on your knees (at least not on the first date).

ON PROPER TABLE ETIQUETTE AT A STATE DINNER:
Do: Use your finger bowl for washing.
Don't: Check your lipstick on your sterling silver teaspoon.

ON TRAVELING:
Do: Dress for a first-class upgrade.
Don't: Overindulge and pass out from the free "first-class" cocktails.

ON BASEBALL:
Do: Wear something red for the Sox —preferably La Perla.
Don't: Participate in the Grand Slam—until you're off the Green Monster.

AT A POLO MATCH:
Do: Stomp the divots.
Don't: Chase a player during a chukka; you might get trampled before the real chase ensues.

ON A YACHT:
Do: Offer to rub tanning lotion all over him (no matter how hairy his back is).
Don't: Flirt with the cabin boy.

ON THE GOLF COURSE:
Do: Hold the shaft properly.
Don't: Take too many strokes to sink it in.

AT THE HEALTH CLUB
Do: Let him give you a spo
Don't: Lap him on the treadmill.

ON MEETING HIS MOTHER:
Do: Discreetly assess the value of the family jewels.
Don't: Hit on her third husband just because he's your age.

ON BEER GOGGLES:
Do: Have two cocktails before your date begins, and continue to quaff throughout the evening; you won't care if he's fat or tall, large or small, bald or Neanderthal.
Don't: N/A

ON SEX:
Do: Visualize how big he is... when he's standing o his wallet.
Don't: Inquire about his little blue helper.

ON ACCEPTING GIFTS:
Do: Accept expensive gi (you're nuts for asking such a question!). Just do so graciously.
Don't: Feel that you nee to reciprocate, in any way. A handwritten thank-you note on excel lent stationery stock (Crane's preferred) is al that's necessary. Try affi ing a nice stamp, like th Breast Cancer Edition. For a few extra pennies you can support a worth cause.

10 CANE IS RATED #1 RUM BY NEW YORK TIMES

10CANE™
RUM

WHAT IS THE

BEST WAY TO DRINK 10 CANE?

It's up to you. 10 Cane elevates any cocktail, especially cocktails made with fresh ingredients. These ingredients perfectly compliment its light, smooth taste. Try it in a Cuba Libre, a Mojito, or a Daiquiri (a real one, the way it's supposed to be). 10 Cane can also be sipped, enjoyed neat, on the rocks, or mixed with soda or tonic.

10 CANE IS

THE LEADER

★★★ 1/2

[rating: three and a half stars]

★★★ = excellent ★★★★ = extraordinary

"Neither white nor amber, but pure, smooth and elegant, with luscious sugar-cane flavor and enticing texture."

— ERIC ASIMOV

The New York Times

10 CANE IS

THE FIRST LUXURY RUM

Moet Hennessy expertise, the leader in the luxury category

Pure Cane Juice, not molasses for lightness, smoothness and better taste

Hand-Crafted product and process: hand harvested, small batch distillation, aged in French oak barrels

RUM'S REDEMPTION

10CANE RUM

THE BEST WAY TO DRINK IS RESPONSIBLY

10CANE™ IMPORTED RUM, 40% ALC./VOL.(80°)
©2005 IMPORTED BY SCHIEFFELIN & CO., NEW YORK, N.Y.

Diamond
eyelash extensions from LuxLash

Ten decadent ways to pamper your body

BEAUTY | DELUXE

BY MARNI ELYSE KATZ PHOTOGRAPH BY FURNALD/GRAY

ike real estate, runway fashion and ergonomic baby strollers, beauty potions and processes have reached unprecedented excess. Take, for example, Clive Christian's Imperial Majesty perfume, which is bottled in a Baccarat crystal decanter trimmed in 18k gold and adorned with a five-carat diamond. Or a recent event in the Hollywood Hills, during which $1.5 million worth of diamonds were placed on Teri Hatcher's energy points to read her vibrations. While we couldn't find gemstone therapy in the Boston area, we easily unearthed an abundance of other luxurious indulgences.

CAVIAR PEDICURE

aviar's cellular structure is said to resemble that of uman skin, so theoretically it should help regenerate our in cells. No wonder it's turned up as an ingredient in me high-end hydrating skin creams. Emerge, a brand ew über-spa on Newbury, offers a therapeutic caviar edicure. This mineral soak and scrub for the feet is finhed with Kerstin Florian Caviar Firming Body Complex ream, a product from the same line bestowed upon this ear's best actress and supporting actress Oscar nominees. xury Caviar Pedicure, $70 at Emerge Spa and Salon by iuliano, 275 Newbury St., Boston, 617-437-0006. Also ailable, Kerstin Florian Signature Caviar Line, $60–$71.

A GOLDEN BODY

fter first being gently scrubbed with apricot-seed exfoant, you're escorted to an already-warm shower, complete ith lavender-scented washcloth. When you emerge, you e back on a table and every inch of your skin is massaged ith warm, golden mineral oil. Finally, a dusting with goldecked powder; now you're ready to take on Jessica Alba. um total? Eighty minutes of sheer, shimmering bliss. The roducts, by Fleur's, are all available to take home, too. olden Artemisia Body Ritual, $165 at Bella Sante the Spa on ewbury, 38 Newbury St., Boston, 617-424-9930.

DIAMOND EXFOLIATION

iamond-Tone, the latest rage in microdermabrasion techology, is practically a prerequisite in pre-Oscar primping tuals. It involves exfoliating the skin by polishing it with wand coated in diamond chips. The experience is akin to gentle sanding, and unlike crystal dermabrasion, it oesn't leave (horror!) dead skin cells all over your face. n alternative to harsh chemical peels, the treatment moothes and brightens your skin. With any luck, you'll low like Gwyneth. The Microdermabrasion Diamond Treatent, $125 per treatment or $625 for six treatments at Bella kin, 846 Walnut St., Newton, 617-796-7900.

HAIR STRAIGHTENING

ver think you'd pay someone to soak your head in chemcals and press your hair—really press it—with a hot iron? f your tresses are frizzy, curly, bumpy or just plain annoyng, consider this hair extravaganza (up to three hours ong) a necessity rather than a splurge. This treatment will hange your life, because the relaxer doesn't fade. Swim, sweat, shower, no matter; your hair will remain smooth, straight and shiny until it grows out. So what if the mags declare waves are back? Straight hair is posh, period. Yuko hair-straightening treatment, $735 at Beaucage Salon & Spa, 71 Newbury St., Boston, 617-437-7171.

IONIC HAIR DRYER

The semiprecious gemstone tourmaline has natural negative ions that eliminate static electricity. The inner workings of T3 Tourmaline ionic dryers are dipped in crushed tourmaline. The company, which spent over a million dollars developing the dryer, asserts that the tourmaline ions seal the hair cuticle, which infuses moisture deep into the hair shaft, thus eliminating the frizzies and promoting shine. The dryer is light, quiet and a quick dry, and we love the violet rhinestones on the ergonomic handle. T3 Tourmaline Featherweight Professional Evolution Ceramic Ionic Dryer, $200 at Sephora at Prudential Center, 800 Boylston St., Boston, 617-262-4200.

TOOTH WHITENING

Dr. John Meola, the official dentist of the Patriot cheerleaders, Boston Celtics and Miss Massachusetts, offers laser bleaching to Boston's common folk, too. First he applies tooth-whitening gel to the enamel. Then you open wide, and he shines a laser onto your teeth in order to break down the gel and release oxygen, which in turn bleaches the tooth. A follow-up fluoride prescription eases sensitivity, and an at-home touch-up kit comes in handy for red wine emergencies. C'mon, smile. Zoom! Tooth Whitening, $499 at Dental Associates of New England, 2 Brookline Place, Brookline, 617-738-3500.

DIAMOND EYELASHES

Madonna bats her custom mink-and-diamond lashes and pretty young things across the country are aflutter. The nation's first lash spa, LuxLash, has descended on Newbury Street. Owner Suzanne Cats offers an exclusive lash-application method and line of products that includes a set of strip lashes adorned with 12 one-point diamonds. At the self-service lash bar, consisting of a long counter with mirrors, lash devotees can hold false eyelashes in different styles—such as lashes with purple feathers, heart sequins or rhinestones—up to their eyes to try out different looks. Ready, set, flirt! Diamond eyelashes, $500 at LuxLash, 231 Newbury St., Boston, 617-587-LASH.

LINEN AND LACE SHEETING

Beauty rest is as important as products and processes. We asked the manager at Pratesi, the century-old Italian company that first wove linens for European royals, to show us the most luxurious bedding available. We were presented with delicious, creamy cutwork lace on linen made of high-quality long-staple Egyptian cotton. Every pattern is created in duvets, coverlets and shams, too. (If you're still not resting comfortably, head to Bloomingdale's, where they sell handmade mattress and box spring sets for upward of $15,000.) Queen set of linen sheeting with cutwork lace, $4,180 at Pratesi, 110 Newbury St., Boston, 617-262-5998.

CUSTOM FRAGRANCE

A session at Neil Morris' studio involves sipping tea during an intuitive interview about childhood memories and such. Based on your responses, Morris selects vials from an array of 800 fragrant oils, gauges your reaction and blends a custom scent. He also creates private-label parfums, including one for a Newbury Street boutique, and does private parties with his traveling fragrance studio. If only we could only get him to recreate the scent of that yummy guy who lives down the hall... Custom parfum (2-oz. parfum spray and ¼-oz. pocket spray), $350 at Neil Morris Fragrances, 221 Mass Ave., Suite 501, Boston, 617-267-2315.

TOTAL BODY TRANSFORMATION

Want a totally transformed body in six weeks? Here's what it takes: Core Fusion, an exercise that combines core conditioning, Pilates and yoga, three times per week to elongate your muscles and strengthen your midsection; yoga twice a week to promote a balanced spirit and inner peace; a personal dietician to create an eating program (otherwise known as a diet) you can live with; and weekly meetings with an acupuncturist to boost your metabolism and quell your cravings. Your staff is in place. Now breathe... Six-Week Tot[illegible] Transformation, $2,000 at Exhale Mind Body Spa, 28 Arlington St., Boston, 617-532-7000. IB

Threads

It's important to know your weaknesses, so let's be frank: If you're among the many Americans dressing like you expect to be thrown from a moving vehicle, odds are good that style's one of yours. So, now that you've admitted you need help (really, truly, always the first step), where do you go, men, for fashion sense if you have the wherewithal? How about the Ermenegildo Zegna Boutique? Because the famiglia Zegna have been purveyors of the highest-quality Italian wools for almost a century. Because once you've purchased one of their made-to-order suits, they will alter it as needed, free of charge, for the rest of your life. And because—let's face it—you're probably not even wearing the proper size trousers (and if you're not sure, then odds are you aren't). The fashion-forward experts at the Zegna Boutique will help you into a look that's right for you.

The Good Life

Put on your Gucci sunglasses and take a walk on Boston's wealthy side.

hh, luxury—the finer things in life! Of course, to the average Joe (who mainly associates the word with the debilitating tax in Monopoly and, seven times out of seven, pronounces it luck-shirry), "luxury" is merely shorthand for all the indulgences associated with taste, success and high social standing—usually nothing more than well-marketed products serving as the dangling carrots that impel us through our professional lives. This is luxury as marketing-jargon, instantly evoking (in the minds of the great unwashed) fantastic notions of Breitling wristwatches, Nike's Slingshot irons, weekend vacations to Elbow Beach, Bermuda, and the sleek styling and comfort of the new 2006 Mercedes CLS55 AMG.

While these are all fine trophies, there is another faction of the populace—those whose tongues can indulgently pronounce it lugs-yur-ee and whose social calendars were scheduled in part by Jack Abramoff, for example—for whom these are mere trinkets: pedestrian diversions that might, say, make wonderful birthday gifts for their bronzed and even-toothed heirs. For a blessed few, the one-tenth-of-one-percenters being ferried about in Maybachs and forgetting the inconveniences of the day by unwinding in a hot bath (in Reykjavik), luxury isn't an occasional indulgence but a state of mind. It's having what you want, when you want it—a lifetime of whims fulfilled. These are the few for whom money is no object, and what follows is a tiny sampling of the Boston in which they do more than survive, they thrive.

BY ADAM STARLING

ILLUSTRATION BY AI TATEBAYASHI

Chowtime!

While a gooey slice of pizza or a burrito the size of an infant may be just the thing to appease the growling stomachs of the proletariat, more discerning and pampered palates get chauffeured to 30 Gloucester St., home of L'Espalier, Frank McClelland's French-American eatery known for its creativity and dedication to a quality dining experience. At L'Espalier, which ranked No. 12 on Forbes' list of the most expensive restaurants in the U.S. for 2005, McClelland capitalizes on the freshness of foods indigenous to New England farms to create an evolving menu that changes with the weather. The three-course prix-fixe menu starts at $75, but dedicated gastronomes will have no problems sending that subtotal skyward before finishing their made-to-order soufflés and continuing on with the night's plans.

Nightlife

And, oh, what plans! If a pint of Mary Chung's Spicy Chicken Dun Dun Noodles and a Netflix movie are your idea of a solid Saturday night… well, there's really nothing wrong with that. But the odds are pretty good you don't have Concierge of Boston programmed into your phone. Opening an account with this professional concierge service (rates offered on request) means access to a staff of people who can near-instantaneously arrange any conceivable event or outing, from booking a ski chalet to hiring a mime, from planning a bar mitzvah to scheduling a limousine, hot-air balloon, hay ride or sleigh ride. And those friends of yours who know a guy who can sometimes get Bruins tickets? Clients of Concierge of Boston have their pick of tickets to Bruins, Pats, Sox and Revolution games, as well as the ballet, Symphony and Pops. Know a guy? These are the guys!

Look Good; Feel Good

Doctors recommend at least three bouts of vigorous exercise a week, and even that won't do much to combat the onset of middle-age spread. And while it's true that humans still can't technically go out and just purchase a better body (though you know that day is coming), those with the will and the means can rely on the infectious enthusiasm and physiological know-how found in the trainers at Custom Fitness Personal Training. Booking time here means a one-on-one appointment with their nationally acclaimed trainers, setting sensible goals and reprogramming yourself to regard exercising as a rewarding experience, not a punishing one. You can enjoy your workout away from the prying and/or judgmental eyes of others, selecting the music and temperature in your own personal studio and, afterward, rinsing away all that hard-earned sweat in—that's right—your own shower and bathroom. Sure, the grandchildren of the modern era's fiscally fit will one day likely be able to have their genes tweaked for maximum metabolism and muscular development, but their strongman septuagenarian grandparents will have more than enough strength and moral authority to hoist their arm, flex their leathery biceps and growl, "We earrrrned it."

What, Where

Concierge of Boston
745 Boylston St.
(617-266-6611)
www.concierge.org

Custom Fitness Personal Training
75 St. Alphonsus St.
(617-232-1107)
www.customfitness.com

Ermenegildo Zegna Boutique
39 Newbury St.
(617-424-6657)
www.zegna.com

L'Espalier
30 Gloucester St.
(617-262-3023)
www.lespalier.com

James Joseph Salon
30 Newbury St.
(617-266-7222)
www.jamesjosephsalon.com

New England Eye Center
260 Tremont St.,
Biewend Building
(888-515-2745)
www.mylasikdoc.com

Red Sox
Fenway Park
(617-482-4769)
www.bostonredsox.com

Wing Femmes of Boston
(617-459-6170)
www.wingfemmesofboston.com

Grooming

I'm saying this: There's nothing wrong with a haircut from Supercuts. You want a haircut, and brother, you get a haircut. But mention anything to them about blending or weight lines, and a lone cricket chirps. In the distance, a dog barks. But a great haircut is about more than cutting hairs, and those who can afford to care about looking their absolute best go to experts like the stylists at the James Joseph Salon. Under the tutelage of William George, who not only holds a degree in both art history and psychology but himself wields a smart pair of scissors, a team of 20 talented and highly trained stylists trim, clip and—dare I say—interpret the hair of their well-heeled clientele, creating a hairstyle that will work best with their features and, in the process, elevating a process as simple as grooming to an art form.

Proper Perspective

Find yourself squinting at menus? Bringing the newspaper closer, farther, farther, closer, all in a vain attempt to find that magical focal point? It doesn't exist; your eyes are the problem. Squinting slobs can head over to the nearest optometrist and pick out whichever pair of overwrought plastic frames is covered by their insurance plan, but Bostonians with the cosmic presence of mind to be born to a higher station can just hire someone to lead them by the arm to the New England Eye Center, official eye-care center of the Boston Celtics, to begin the consultation process for Custom Wavefront LASIK corrective eye surgery. Is it a little more expensive than generic LASIK surgery? Yes. But when the wealthiest men and women in the world stop to consider just how drastically the Wavefront eye-mapping technology cuts down on unintended side effects such as haloing and glare, the proper choice is crystal clear.

Get Around

When it comes to meeting interesting and attractive members of the opposite sex, power and fortune no doubt make for compelling bait. But there will never—ever—be a substitute for casual confidence, and if you haven't got it, you really just have not got it. So, how are time trillionaires to help their families combine fortunes and build dynasties? While money still can't buy you true love, it can afford you some very friendly friends. Online dating? Hardly. No, in these situations, the awkward affluent turn to Wing Femmes of Boston. A different sort of escort service without the usual seedy connotations, Wing Femmes instead has the modest goal of helping timid hearts reach out to others. As single men know, having a wingman around allows the wily pursuer to fly under the target's radar in the guise of just being out for a few laughs with a pal. Turning this gambit into a business, the Wing Femmes are professionally charismatic women who accompany wallflowers to public places for the purpose of initiating friendly conversation with other women, establishing rapport, and then introducing them to the client's-friend's-clothing once conversation is moving along. Admit it: It's sort of brilliant. And while the Puritans amongst you might decry this method as being duplicitous, most individuals of any monetary might won't bother feeling too badly; it's not their style to be both shy and meek, and besides, it's incredible how many character deficiencies can be overlooked in light of a healthy trust fund.

Take Me Out

Finally, no matter what socioeconomic level you inhabit, we all live in Red Sox Nation. But rest assured, there will be no drunken brawls amid the spilled beer and peanut shells in the bleachers for Boston's elite. That's because as of Opening Day, Fenway Park offers them a new way to experience the game: from any one of the 404 widely upholstered and heated seats of the EMC Club, an exclusive, two-tiered vantage point situated just behind home plate. (This seating replaces the old .406 Club—and if you don't know the significance of that number, with or without your millions, you don't deserve to sit here.) In addition to a lounge and private dining rooms, this exclusive enclave features a concierge and wait service. And although tickets start at $275 a seat, it remains a safe bet that anybody found here will still have plenty of money left for all the popcorn and Cracker Jacks they can stand.

Yes, Boston is a first-class city, full of diversions and opportunities for the curious-minded. And as the resident silver spooners already know, when you're pursuing the zen-bliss mistress known as Luxury, your imagination is the only limit. IB

umi the new standard in hairdressing.

umi salon | classic and creative hair cutting and color design.
75 newbury street boston | 617 247 0770 | www.umisite.com

bohemian

Black-and-white polkasilk chiffon gown, by Saint Laurent, $43,42
Neiman Mar
Annoushka diamond necklace, by Link
London, $3,60
www.linksoflondon.c

Cyclamen silk crepe evening dress by Gucci $3,645 at Gucci boutique beauty

Luxury and romance meet in these gorgeous frocks

PRODUCED BY VICTOR VARGAS
PHOTOGRAPHS BY DELLA BASS

Black v-neck top with silk chiffon detail, by Etro, $395 at Tess & Carlos; 10k-gold necklace with rings, by Bonnie Basham, $255 at Koo de Kir.

Silk slip dress with embroidered chiffon overlay by Antonio Marras, $1,095 at Riccardi. White-and-silver fox capelet by J. Mendel, special order at www.jmendel.com. Dorsey sandals in silver leather by Cesare Paciotti, $445 at www.cesare-paciotti.com. Watch with mother-of-pearl dial, 126 diamonds and red alligator strap by Marc Jacobs, $2,500 at Marc Jacobs boutique.

Tie-dyed silk chiffon dress, by Prada, $4,400 at Saks Fifth Avenue.

Gucci
5 Copley Place
617-369-5000

Koo de Kir
65 Chestnut St.
617-723-8111

Marc Jacobs
81 Newbury St.
617-425-0707

Neiman Marcus
5 Copley Place
617-536-3660

Prada at
Saks Fifth Ave.
800 Boylston St.
617-262-8500

Riccardi
116 Newbury St.
617-266-3158

Tess & Carlos
20 Brattle St.
Cambridge
617.864.8377

Makeup: Gita Bass for Nars at Price, Inc.

Assistant stylist: Jonny Rizzo

Hair: John Ruidante for SEE Management

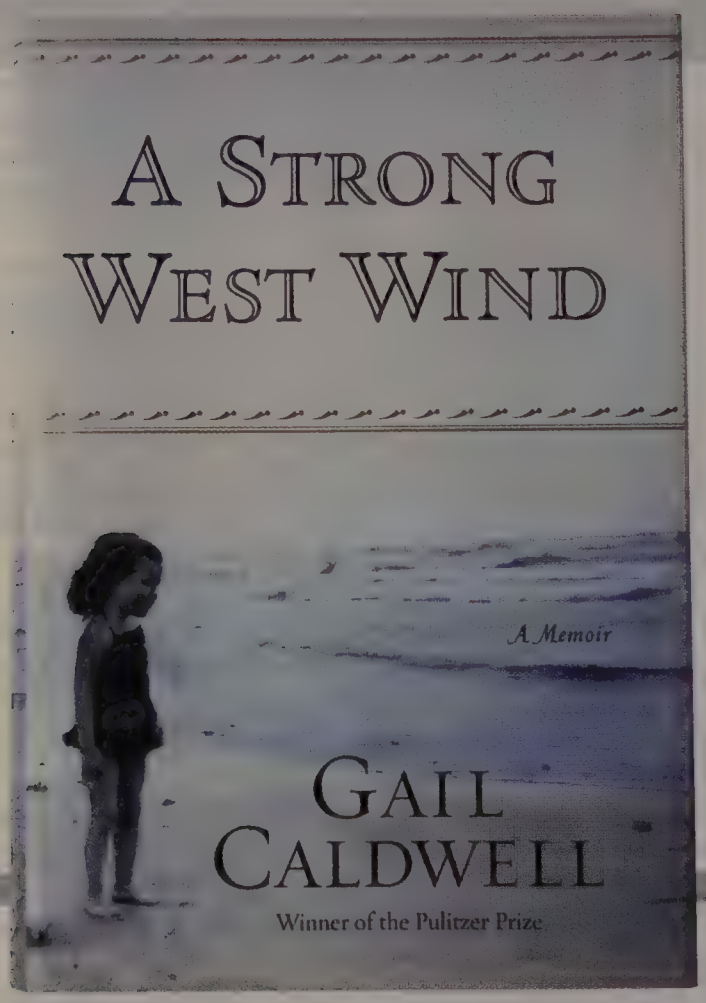
Model: Yana Verba for Elite

Location: The Blue Moon
Hotel, NYC
212-533-9080

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY



CALDWELL SUITED TO WRITING AND READING

Pulitzer Prize–winning book critic Gail Caldwell, of the Boston Globe, is the author of the coming-of-age memoir A Strong West Wind.

Referring to her complex, depressive Texan aunt Connie Gail, Gail Caldwell notes her own "propensity for introspection, what my mother would call brooding, that borderland poised, neutral as Switzerland, between thought and despair." Readers of her graceful book reviews in the Boston Globe will recognize that lyrically askew parallel. Chronically in love with solitude, Caldwell moved early into her craft of reading and voluminously remembering. And, with strong identification tempered by a few millimeters of knowing distance, she describes her early acquaintance with the tormented, fascinating heroines she met in those books—Tess of the Durbervilles, Anna Karenina, Lady Chatterley. When feminism and opposition to the Vietnam war come into her gloomy, adolescent life, her relationship with her beloved war-veteran father becomes more complex. A dangerous boyfriend nicknamed Travis Too Bad inspires her father to carry a shotgun. Another complex friend, Richard, is a "cornerstone" of her life, but eventually takes his own. Texas itself, with its brooding weather and vast, lonely spaces, is a strong presence, evocative of her mother's roses: "fist-sized blooms that smelled like yesterday's promises and sugar and sun."

IT'S A BIRD, IT'S A PLANE, IT'S AN ABSTRACTION

Matthew Feldman, located at 370½ Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-1011; matthewdfeldman@hotmail.com), mak and sells fine jewelry and leather.

Matthew Feldman sells various artists' jewelry, the finest of fine design, the sort that appears in juried shows and museums. Feldman's own work combines stark beauty with bold power. You could possibly rule the world wearing his big, nearly rectangular bracelet. Like his other work, it's not soldered; instead it's cold-connected with invisible pins, whose discreetness is suavely sexy. Architectural-looking, his jewelry could double as art objects, not just adornment. Such jewels as burnt-orange diamonds are embedded in bracelets, rings and earrings with eensy subtlety, inviting scrutiny. Another heavy bracelet, of 14k yellow gold and 18k white gold, crumples and snakes along in fascinating iterations. One of Feldman's select artists, Junko Nakazawa, offers a different style, delicate 18k-gold jewelry—miniature gold-domed squares move fluidly, containing tiny magnets and little diamonds. Feldman also designs belts, with buckles that resemble minimalist shapes. His fine leatherwork includes boxes incorporating American alligator and nubuck; one has an ark shape upon which slender bits of metal open-sesame with a slow, hydraulic-like action. And structured, hard, chic handbag, cone-shaped, sports a long, slithery, silver foxtail chain that flirts the back of it.

SWEET MEETS

The Chocolate Tarte (617-628-2462; www.thechocolatetarte.com) offers cakes, tarts and other sweets for any occasion.

Linda Hein left the corporate world for something sweeter: pastrymaking. Her business, the Choc Tarte, caters weddings, bar and bat mitzvahs, V tine's events and birthdays. She also sweeten old occasion that may require a box of eth truffles made with the finest Belgian choc In her cakes, Hein prides herself on usin tercream (not the usual pedestrian fros and she can construct magnificent stru wrapped in red tea roses and ribbons o ered with white sugary dots. Her groom is sometimes red velvet, with cream chees tercream icing and candied pecans. Other tables include gingery carrot cake, white cak lemon curd and blueberries or with an all-frui berry filling. Hein has made droll, nontradi cakes, too: One was a rakishly askew layer c with what looked like a tablecloth made of fondan big blue dots. Of the eponymous yummy little tarts, with either a regular or chocolate pie shell, she say great exuberance, "They just go!" The tarts range chocolate with red-hot chili powder, to fresh toffe caramel, to white chocolate crème mousse that's burstin fresh, pretty fruit.

Italian Old World Charm...
the way it should be.

FLORENTINE CAFE
BAR · BISTRO

333 Hanover St., North End
617-227-1777
www.florentinecafeboston.com

The first open-air street cafe in the North End.

Stanza dei Sigari

A Classic Cigar Parlor

292 Hanover St., North End
617.227.0295
www.stanzadeisigari.com
Hookahs available

The only speakeasy cigar parlor with
a full liquor bar in the city.

Caffé Vittoria

290-296 Hanover St., North End
617.227.7606
www.vittoriacaffe.com

The original Italian caffé since 1929
serving capuccino, pastries, gelati
and a full liquor bar.

REVIEW

A TOUCH OF THE IRISH

The Temple Bar in Cambridge delivers first-rate service, food and atmosphere.

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY ANTHONY TIEULI

Dublin's Temple Bar neighborhood is a lively entertainment district in the heart of that city. A gentrified enclave, rescued in the early 1990s from a proposed bus depot, it boasts a wide assortment of bars, restaurants, cafés, hotels and vibrant street life. The Temple Bar bistro on Mass. Ave. in Cambridge, midway between Harvard and Porter squares, seeks to capture the aura of its Irish namesake, and underscores that aim with a colorful, expansive mural of Barra an Teampaill (Temple Bar in the Celtic tongue) that extends across the wall above its kitchen.

The storefront space housing this engaging eatery has been designed and decorated in an eye-pleasing fashion. An ultra-high black ceiling supports track lighting that illuminates the mural as well as an exposed brick wall hung with five huge, oak-framed mirrors. A rustic, basket-weave wooden screen separates the partially open kitchen from the dining room, while a high, oak-paneled divider lies between the dining room and a space furnished with high cocktail tables and a long, 18-seat bar where patrons eat, drink and watch strategically positioned flat-screen televisions broadcasting the sport du jour.

While the Temple Bar has been open for almost six years, the recent arrival of executive chef Tom Berry (he was a protégé of Ming Tsai at Blue Ginger and went on to open Bambara at the Kimpton Group's Hotel Marlowe in East Cambridge) moved its cuisine up to a whole new level. Berry's fare ranges from predictable but toothsome bar food, like pizza and burgers, to remarkably sophisticated appetizers and main courses that rival the output of Boston's toniest and priciest dining emporiums. But unlike the latter, where appetizer prices hover in the high teens and main courses rise to over $40, most of the appetizers, soups and salads offered by the Temple Bar are in the single digits, while almost two-thirds of its main courses are under $20.

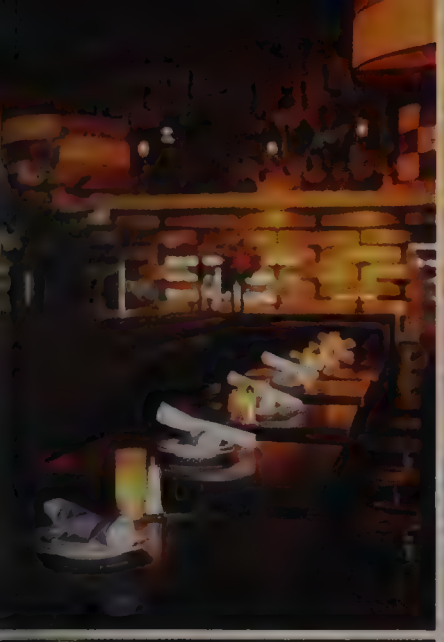
Seared beef carpaccio ($8) consisted of ultrathin slices of rare prime beef adorned with preserved lemon gremolata, shavings of aged Gouda cheese and white truffle oil. The gremolata, classically a combination of grated lemon peel and finely chopped garlic and parsley, here replaced the lemon peel with preserved lemon—a whole lemon that had been marinated and minced—for an added citrusy kick. The beef was melt-in-the-mouth luscious, and the accompanying salad of delicate greens provided a refreshing counterpoint. Five-spice pork riblets ($9) could've been bar food posing as gourmet fare, or vice versa. Either way, these small, meaty pork ribs, seasoned with classic five-spice marinade (cinnamon, cloves, cardamom, peppercorn and star anise) and coated with a sweet-hot chili sauce, resembled Thai cuisine, with flavors that carried over into the garnish of crunchy, sesame-seasoned cole slaw.

Of the two flat-bread pizzas offered, I tried the simple pepperoni ($10), an elongated oval crust dressed with a rich tomato ragout, gratings of Parmigiano Reggiano cheese and generous dollops of fresh mozzarella, all topped with thin strips of fresh basil leaf. Brought to the table on a wooden cutting board, the pizza's rich, flavorful topping made up for its substandard crust, soggy from insufficient baking.

Of the pasta offerings, I tried the penne pasta with Kobe beef mea ($18). (Kobe beef seems to be croppi on menus around the city, and my sl cism that the beef is actually coming Japan drove me to the Web, where I fo site for Kobe Beef of America. This pany, based in Oregon, says that it ra special breed of Wagyu cattle with the precision feeding and organic rigor Japanese namesake, resulting in tend vorful meat.) I thought the texture meatballs somewhat dense, making t little heavy, but their flavor more than pensated, and the al dente texture pasta and liberal dusting of Parmesan made this a first-rate dish.

Chef Berry really showed off his t with the main course selections, five meat and three with seafood. The Maryland striped bass ($19), elegi presented to afford a feast for the ey cluded a large, thick, boneless fi white-fleshed fish atop a bed of sp (German pasta) and alongside melized turnips and small blocks o cious pork belly (bacon with no Underneath lay a pool of ruby-red r beet sauce and dollops of crème f flecked with fresh dill. The impec firm-but-tender and moist flesh bass, earthy savor of the turnips, n filling richness of the bacon, butte vor and pleasantly starchy texture spaetzle, and herbal sweetness of th made this a veritable symphony of and textures.

A Restaurant Week special main one evening, lamb leg steak, hac pounded thin and grilled so that mained rare, tender and juicy. Its m vor confirmed its domestic (speci Coloradan) provenance, and an acc niment of new potato salad and al garlicky spinach proved worthy c ments. Seared scallops ($21) assem compatible ensemble of creative tr one plate: five or six tender, silky-te sea scallops sautéed gently in pomeg brown butter, savory eggplant cavi baby brussels sprouts that had bee fried in duck fat in a way that mute natural bitterness. In a bit of overk not without charm, crisp–fried onio topped the dish.



eturned to beef for two main courses, eef short ribs ($22) and the steak frites rovence ($20). Short ribs appear to taken hip restaurants by storm, offer- ne full rich flavor of beef cooked on the . The Temple Bar's short ribs weren't delicious in themselves, but their ac- paniments—silky puréed potatoes, l baby carrots seasoned with fresh gin- nd still wearing a bit of their tender tops, and braised "ciopollini onions" ally, little onion onions)—delivered a ty of robust flavors. Finally, the steak brought two thick slabs of beef, full red like a flank steak but as tender as a The extraordinary French-fried pota- hot and fresh, rose from the plate like ll grove of saplings to a height of five inches. French fries as good as these whelmed the best of carb-control in- ons, and I couldn't stop eating them they were gone.

nong its regular desserts, the Temple tiramisu ($8) with espresso crème is came in the form of a tall slender der of alternating white mascarpone rown chocolate and coffee. Perfectly ogether, this combination of robust e and chocolate flavors, a splash of ur, and mildly sweet mascarpone se, satisfied the sweet tooth while re- ing light and delicate. Less successful he special dessert one evening, Ger- chocolate cake with bourbon caramel . Studded with nuts, the cake suffered being served refrigerator cold, and not even the marvelous whiskey-spiked caramel sauce could save it from being dense and dry.

The Temple Bar accompanied its food with a range of wines at prices that didn't bust the budget. The San Sylvestro "Ottone I" Barbera, from the 2002 vintage ($24) turned out to have excellent fruit, decent acidity and a fine finish typical of barbera, one of Piedmont's lesser grapes that lives in the shadow of the more famous nebbiolo of Barolo and Barbaresco. More full-bodied than the delicate barbera, the Piccini Chianti ($7 a glass) delivered authentic Sangiovese flavor and bouquet.

In a delightful and unusual touch, the Temple Bar offered a selection of teas—freshly brewed from loose leaves, not teabags—served in proper teapots. Perhaps a product of the Irish heritage of two of the restaurant's four owners who hail from the Old Sod, the Temple Bar's tea service merits its applause and imitation. Also of note is the restaurant's service, which I found to be consistently first rate. On both of my visits, informed servers described the dishes with obvious knowledge of their ingredients and preparation and, at our request, made recommendations with conviction and enthusiasm. Attentive without hovering, they exhibited a cheerful, friendly and earnest demeanor that demonstrated their pride in bringing us the excellent creations emanating from Chef Berry's kitchen. iB

DISCOVER THE BEST
KEPT SECRET IN
AFFORDABLE HOME FURNISHINGS!

URBAN RENEWAL
CHIC WHOLESALE FURNITURE

THE NO-FRILLS ALTERNATIVE
TO PRICEY FURNITURE STORES. IN OUR
LOFT SHOWROOM YOU'LL FIND POPULAR STYLES FOR EVERY ROOM IN YOUR HOME.
WE OFFER THE SAME STYLES AS POTTERY BARN, CRATE & BARREL
AND RESTORATION HARDWARE WITH MORE FABRICS & FINISHES
TO CHOOSE FROM.....FOR A
FRACTION OF THE RETAIL COST!

SHOP SMART, SAVE MONEY, AND CREATE
THE HOME OF YOUR DREAMS!

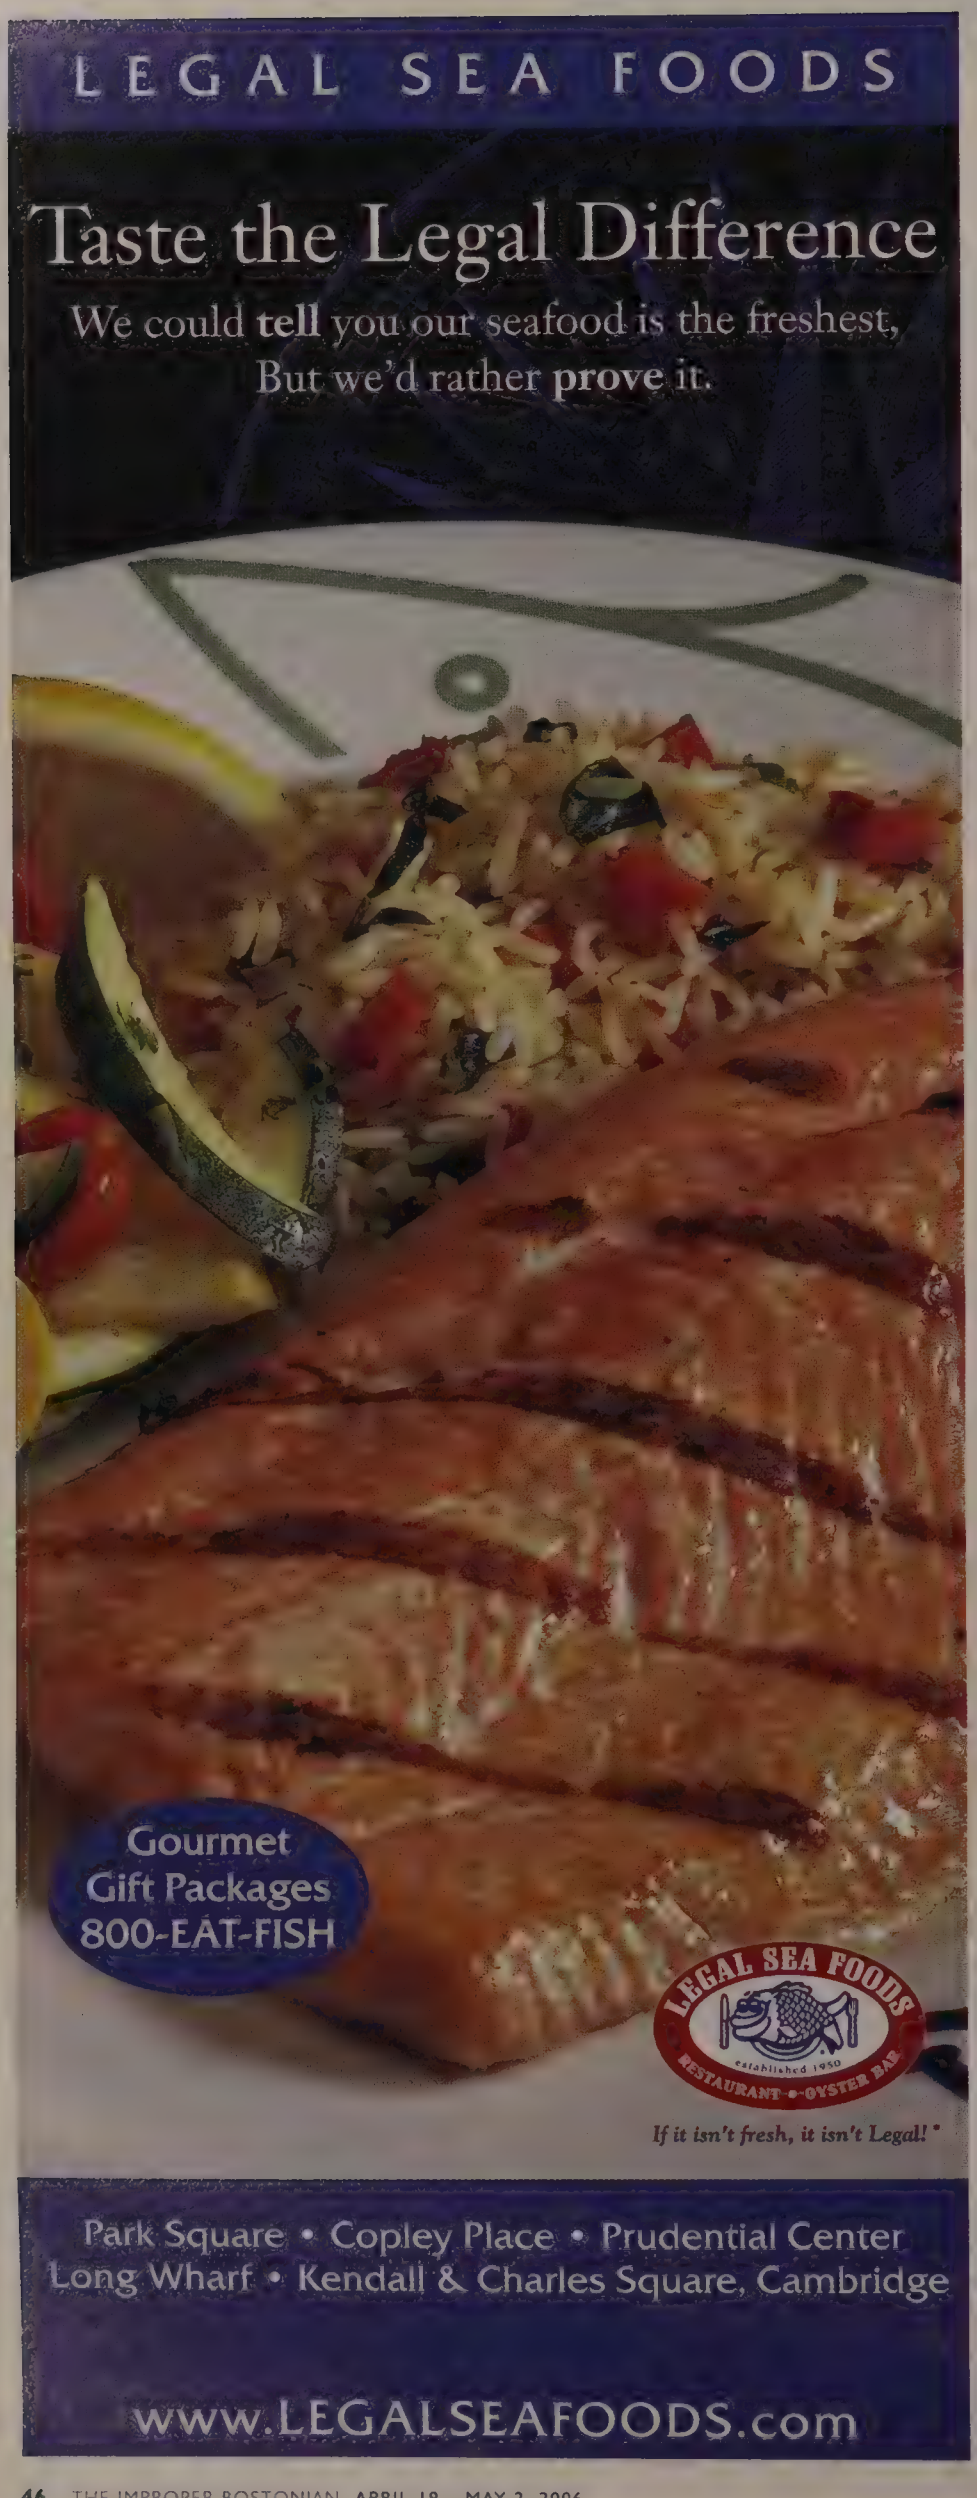
URBAN RENEWAL
CHIC WHOLESALE FURNITURE

368 CONGRESS ST
3RD FLOOR
BOSTON, MA 02210
617.695.2555

10 MERCER RD
NATICK, MA 01760
508.655.5503

SO GO AHEAD.....INDULGE.
YOUR SECRET IS SAFE WITH US!

WWW.URBANRENEWALFURNITURE.COM



TASTINGS

BY RICH LEVINE

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Tastings, or e-mail information to tastings@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Events

Chocolate Madness
The Cyclorama, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-556-8800, ext. 11). www.prochoicemass.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. April 25, 7-9 pm. $35. This all-you-can-eat chocolate feast features a selection of desserts prepared by 30 top local restaurants like L'Espalier, Hamersley's, Grill 23 and Flour. Proceeds benefit NARAL Pro-Choice Massachusetts.

Epicurean Evenings
Aujourd'hui at Four Seasons, 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2037). www.fourseasons.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue., 6 pm. $45. Sommelier Ted Davidson and chef Jerome Legras host this weekly event that offers guests three light courses built around a theme, region or grape variety. •April 25: The Savennières Itch.

Experience: Chocolate at Finale
Finale, 30 Dunster St., Cambridge (617-441-9797). www.experiencechocolate.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. April 24, 6:30 pm. $23. Suzanne Oakley, founder of Experience: Chocolate, leads a classroom–style chocolate tasting at Finale, featuring Valrhona chocolates.

Fireside Chats
The Fireplace, 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). www.fireplacerest.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Washington. Sat., 3 pm. $25. Chef/owner Jim Solomon hosts gastronomic experts who discuss subjects that range from wines to foods to microbrews. •April 22: Sangria. •April 29: How to pick a good wine.

Food & Wine Pairing at Meritage
Meritage, Boston Harbor Hotel, 70 Rowes Wharf, Boston (617-353-9852). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. April 25, 6 pm. $125. Boston University's Lifelong Learning Center hosts this event that includes a multicourse dinner prepared by chef Daniel Bruce, paired with wines selected by Master of Wine Bill Nesto.

Garagiste Dinner
UpStairs on the Square, 91 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-864-7933). www.upstairsonthesquare.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. April 26, 6:30 pm. $80. UpStairs on the Square wine director Matt Reiser leads a multicourse dinner paired with a selection of some favorite rare wines.

Hot off the Vine at 33
33 Restaurant, 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311). www.33restaurant.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 5-7 pm. $20-$25. Join chef Anthony Dawodu and wine director Jacob Knight on Wednesdays for a sampling of four wines paired with complementary food tastings.

Italian Dinner at La Morra
La Morra, 48 Boylston St., Brookline Village (617-739-0007). www.lamorra.com. April 25, 6:30 pm. $65. Enjoy a traditional four-course Italian dinner paired with wines from the regions visited during owners Josh and Jen Ziskin's recent trip to Italy.

McCormick & Schmick's Wine Dir
McCormick & Schmick's, North Market Bu Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-720- www.mccormickandschmicks.com. MBTA: Line to Gov. Center. April 25, 6:30 pm. $5 Cormick & Schmick's hosts a wine dinner ing signature dishes paired with six Califor wines.

Redbones Beer Dinner with Gar Oliver
Redbones, 55 Chester St., Somerville (61 2200). www.redbones.com. MBTA: Red Davis. April 24, 7 pm. $40. Redbones we Brooklyn Brewery brewmaster and autho rett Oliver for the restaurant's April be ner. Oliver's speech is followed by a mult dinner paired with beers from the Brewn Reserve Series and Brooklyn Brown Ale.

Taste of Allston Village
DoubleTree Guest Suites, 400 Soldiers Fiel Allston (617-254-7564). www.allstonvilla events. May 2, 6-8 pm. $25-$30. This event features samples from some of A many diverse restaurants, including Bi Malaysian Cuisine, Sumi, Sunset Gr Carlo's Cucina. Proceeds benefit Allston Main Streets.

Tuesday Night Wine Tasting
Les Zygomates, 129 South St., Boston (61 5108). www.winebar.com. MBTA: Red South Station. Tue., 6 and 8 pm. $40. Son Geoffrey Fallon discusses various wines, Ian Just pairs the wines with hors d'oeuv offers brief cooking demonstrations. •A Sicily & Sardinia. •May 2: Greece.

A Very Special Tour of Italy
UpStairs on the Square, 91 Winthro Cambridge (617-864-7933). www.upsta square.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvar 21, 6:30 pm. $125. Former local wine David Weitzenhoffer leads a five-cou ner paired with his favorite wines from It

Wine and Dine Mondays
Beacon Hill Bistro, 25 Charles St., Bosto 723-1133). www.beaconhillhotel.com. Red Line to Charles/MGH. Second an Mon. of each month, 7 pm. $55. Ch Knack prepares a four-course meal pair various wines from around the world. discussion of each wine follows, led b experts Cecilia Rait and Marilyn •April 24: Loire Valley.

Wine Mondays at L'Espalier
L'Espalier, 30 Gloucester St., Boston (6 3023). www.lespalier.com. MBTA: Gre to Hynes/ICA. 7 pm. $50. Sommeli Johnson presents wines to complement course French–New England meal Frank McClelland. •April 24: Ca Dreamin'.

Wine Tastings at Ivy
Ivy, 49 Temple Place, Boston (617-451 www.ivyrestaurantgroup.com. MBTA: Red Line to Park. Sun., 6-8 pm. $35. Eve day, Ivy presents four wines and thr plates, as well as assorted cheeses. The feature a short wine-tasting presenta sommelier Scott Vaitkevicius.

Wine Wednesdays at Sel de la
Sel de la Terre, 255 State St., Boston (6 1300). www.seldelaterre.com. MBTA: Line to State. Wed., 7 pm. $41. Che Gardner pairs French cuisine with w lected by sommelier Erik Johnson. •A Loire Valley. •April 26: Bubble, Everywhere.

DISH

Biodynamics Destiny?

Wine from cosmic forces… and really, really special manure

BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

What's older than organic, aims to bridge the gap between the spiritual and material worlds, and is believed by its enthusiasts to be either a cultish, esoteric method of viticulture and the ultimate in authentic natural farming?

It is biodynamics, and it's the trendiest topic in wine these days. Biodynamics is a theory developed by social philosopher Rudolf Steiner, who also invented Waldorf schools (but not the salad). So does it work?

"It's the old way of doing things," says Paul O'Connell, chef/owner of Chez Henri, who's planning a summer solstice dinner that features biodynamic wines. "It's like Wicca—Wicca good!" he jokes, then adds quickly, "No, not anything to do with that, of course."

Paul O'Connell, chef/owner of Chez Henri

According to Scott Holliday, Chez Henri's bar manager and wine buyer, biodynamics "promotes responsible stewardship of the land." Holliday explains that wine grapes are usually "one of the most chemically intensive crops to grow." But "soil has its own life culture," and when biodynamic growers are plagued by, for example, aphids, they will "plant a good habitat for predators of aphids" instead of spraying insecticide, to create a "self-sufficient microenvironment."

"It's a supercharged version of organic farming," says Dominick Minots, food and beverage manager at blu, whose wine list offers up to a dozen biodynamic bottles. Biodynamic wines must be "tuned properly" to the right frequency," and then there are the special composts, special manures." Manures? "Different manures have different effects at different times." Clearly, in biodynamics you need to know your shit.

Seriously, though, proponents say the end result is worth the time and expense. You'll find more "terroir"—site-specific flavor—in wine uncompromised by artificial intervention, processing or sulfites, according to Minots. And as diners and oenophiles learn more, biodynamics may well establish its own niche. At the Oxford Market Grill in Lynn, owner Lowell Gray features more than a half-dozen biodynamic wines to complement his menu's emphasis on all-natural foods. "A couple of regular customers do ask" for the biodynamic wines, Gray reports.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—SIX & MIX

In the North End, Prezza is celebrating six years with chef Anthony Caturano's anniversary tasting menu (call 617-227-1577 for details). Two more reasons to raise a glass: newly hired mixologists Patricia Murray, formerly of Via Matta and Sel de la Terre, and Jennifer Linehan, formerly of Houston's. Fill that glass with Prezza's cocktail of the month: strawberry-rhubarb martini.

CHURCH OF CHOCOLATE?

Religion can be a tough sell. Missionaries aren't always welcomed with open arms. Chocolate, on the other hand, naturally attracts countless dedicated worshippers.

So when a former high-tech entrepreneur rechristens herself a "Chocolate Evangelist" and promotes chocolate tastings in corporate venues, we call it what it is: pure chocolate-covered silliness. Most of us have already seen the light—and the dark, and the crispy and the creamy, and the Venezuelan and the Nutella, and yea, even do the heathens love Hershey. But if you're not among the saved, feel free to check out the tasting of Valrhona French chocolate at Finale on April 23. We'll be home with our Newman's Own orange dark chocolate. IB

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send it to dish@improper.com.

13TH ANNUAL

TASTE OF THE NORTH END

TO BENEFIT CASA MONTE CASSINO
&
THE CHILDREN & SENIORS OF THE NORTH END

FRIDAY, MAY 5, 2006
NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM
BOSTON
7:30PM – 11:30PM

TICKETS: $95 PER PERSON
CALL: 617.367.2353
OR VISIT: WWW.TASTEOFTHENORTHEND.ORG

Accuski Sons, Inc.
Al Dente ristorante
BelGioioso Cheese Inc. "Classic Italian Cheeses Made In The U.S.A."
bindi
Birra Moretti
Bricco
Carmen
Dairy Fresh Candies 57 Salem Street Boston, MA 02113
EDISON
ESPRESSO PLUS Inc.
FAMOSO FOOD IMPORTS
Filippo
FIORE
GG&G GRAY GRAY & GRAY LLP
HORIZON BEVERAGE
HANOVER WINE & SPIRITS WINES · LIQUORS · TOBACCO · LOTTERY 617.723.3663
J. PACE & SONS
La Summa Cucina Italiana
LA VIGNA Ristorante
The Living Room
Lucca
LUCIA
mamma maria
MARKS
MARTIGNETTI
MASSIMINO'S CUCINA ITALIANA
m·s walker
MIKE'S PASTRY
NEPTUNE OYSTER
NORTH STREET GRILLE 229 North Street Boston, MA 02113 (617) 720-2010
FRATELLI Pagliuca's Ristorante
Piantedosi
Piccola Venezia AUTHENTIC ITALIAN CUISINE
Ruby Wines, Inc.
sage restaurant
TARANTA
Terramia Ristorante
TRESCA
United Liquors Ltd A Division of The United Group
V. CIRACE & SON
verizon
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

He was just another Anthony in the North End...

until Prezza.

Celebrating Six Years

Best Italian Restaurant
—Improper Bostonian 2004, 2005

Prezza

24 Fleet Street, Boston's North End
617.227.1577

©2006 Heineken USA Inc., White Plains, NY. Heineken Premium Light is a trademark of Heineken Brouwerij

Someone Smooth Is Waiting at the Ba

New Heineken Premium Ligh

Heineken
PREMIUM
LIGHT

heinekenlight.com

Enjoy Heineken Light Respon

agenda

HOT TIPS FROM
CALENDAR GURUS
LESLIE AND RICH

MPROPER PICKS

pril 19 - may 2

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
			19	20	21	22
				Meet with members of more than 30 volunteer organizations at the first annual Volunteer Expo at the Pru. See CityScope on page 54.	Boston-born comic Mario Cantone performs at the Berklee Performance Center. See Performing Arts on page 57.
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
T.I. brings a little bit of his ATL flair to Boston for a show at Avalon. See Music on page 67.	Senator Ted Kennedy signs copies of his new book America Back on Track at the Pru. See Books & Poetry on page 87.		Catch a screening of the original movie version of King Kong (1933) at the Coolidge Corner Theatre. See Movies on page 62.			Rain Pryor performs her one-woman show, Fried Chicken and Latkes, at the Jewish Theatre of New England. See Performing Arts on page 55.
30	1	2
	Texas-based rockers Flickerstick come to Cambridge for a show at the Middle East. See Music on page 70.	Check out the Taste of Allston Village at the DoubleTree Guest Suites on Soldiers Field Road. See Tastings on page 46.

The Dresden Dolls

FRI./APRIL 21

Music: Roots, Rock, Rumble

Singer/pianist Amanda Palmer and drummer Brian Viglione, better known collectively as the Dresden Dolls, have a few reasons for a celebratory homecoming: the release of their second CD, Yes Virginia, on April 18, the three-year anniversary of their WBCN Rock 'N' Roll Rumble win and their recent tour with Nine Inch Nails. The local duo have developed a devoted following with their self-described punk cabaret, and they like to pluck performers from the crowd and pull them onstage. It's sometimes called theatrical rock, which is fitting, because they seem to be into drama—why else choose to play the same night as the Rock 'N' Roll Rumble, which takes place at the Middle East, the competition that gave them their start? 1 Hamilton Place, Boston (617-679-0810). 7:30 pm, $25. —LPK

CITYSCOPE 54
PERFORMING ARTS 55
MOVIES 58
MUSIC 64
CLASSICAL MUSIC 72
DANCE CLUBS 75
MUSEUMS & GALLERIES . . 80
GAY & LESBIAN 85
BOOKS & POETRY 87
EDUCATION 89
BODY & MIND 90
SPORTS 91
CHILDREN 92
AROUND TOWN 93

CALENDAR EDITED BY
Erin Graham Books & Poetry, Movies
Leslie P. Kilgore Around Town, Children, Education, Movies, Museums & Galleries, Music
Rich Levine CityScope, Dance Clubs, Gay & Lesbian, Performing Arts, Sports
ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY
Laurel Kirtz Body & Mind
Paul Sherman Movie Capsules

LESLIE

RICH

An Odaiko New England drummer

SAT./APRIL 29 & SUN./APRIL 30

Music: Big Bang

Boston-based Japanese drumming group Odaiko New England celebrates its 12-year anniversary as a group with two concerts dubbed Crossroads. The performance, inspired by Kumidaiko, a traditional form of Japanese ensemble drumming, features a variety of drums or taikos, along with Japanese flutes and vocals. NECN TV and talk-radio reporter Jim Braude guest emcees the Saturday night concert. Other guests include composer Janet Koike, Japanese drummer Ryo Shimamoto and the celebrated Japanese flutist Marco Lienhard. The ensemble includes drums of varying sizes and tones, but according to the group, the big drum alone is worth the ticket—it's loud like thunder. Proceeds from the concert benefit Odaiko New England's community projects. Mainstage at the Media Arts Center of Roxbury Community College, 1234 Columbus Ave., Roxbury (617-731-0182). www.onetaiko.org. April 29, 8 pm; April 30, 3 pm. $30; $23, students and seniors; $15, children under 12. —LPK

TUE./APRIL 25–SUN./MAY 14

Performing Arts: Damn the Yankees

It's a plot we can now laugh at: A Red Sox fan sells his soul to the Devil so that his beloved BoSox can finally defeat the hated Yankees. Thankfully, Red Sox Nation was relieved of that horrible burden back in 2004, but if you'd like to take a couple of hours to relive the "good" old days, then check out Damn Yankees at the North Shore Music Theatre, from April 25–May 14. The original Damn Yankees production, written by Douglass Wallop and George Abbott, premiered in 1958 and was actually about a hard-luck Washington Senators fan, but the NSMT's Joe DiPietro penned this updated version (based on a concept by Jon Kimbell) exclusively for the Beverly-based theatre. The real Red Sox are on board with the project as well: Damn Yankees performances include appearances by Wally the Green Monster on April 27 and May 9 and the World Series Trophy on April 27. And as an added bonus, Fenway Park announcer Carl Beane and veteran baseball writer Sean McAdam both have roles in the play, but we can't confirm if that shirtless, wasted guy you sat next to in the bleachers last summer is going to make it. 62 Dunham Road, Beverly (978-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. April 25-May 14. Tue. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Wed., 1:30 and 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $40-$75. —RL

SAT./APRIL 22

CityScope: No Plain Jane

Jane Goodall

In the summer of 1960, a young Jane Goodall arrived on the shores of Tanzania to start what would become a lifelong study of the chimpanzees of East Africa. And this April, a whole 46 years later, Goodall arrives on the shores of the Commonwealth to headline the annual Earth Day celebration at the Franklin Park Zoo. Events run from 11 am until 3 pm and include animal encounters, yoga, videos in the Hippo Theatre, a zoo-wide scavenger hunt, music and lectures, and all the events are sponsored by the Jane Goodall Institute's Roots & Shoots program. But the highlight of the afternoon is undoubtedly Goodall herself. The world-renowned conservationist and animal lover takes the stage at 1 pm to share stories about the time she's spent studying chimpa and working with the Goodall Institute. We think you should definitely pay a tion; Ms. Goodall won't tolerate any monkeying around. Franklin Park Z Franklin Park Road, Boston (617-989-2692). www.franklinparkzoo.org. 11 am. $ adults; $5.50, children. —RL

WED./APRIL 19–MON./APRIL 24

Movies: Reel Life Stories

It's slim pickings for some at the box office this time of year. Not to worr Boston's own Independent Film Festival kicks off on April 19 for six days what film critics and industry experts have declared to be some of the best filt of the year. With more than 100 film screenings, Q&A sessions, panel discu sions and parties galore, the event showcases the work of filmmakers fro around the world who seek to create thought-provoking films. The festiv opens with a screening of writer/producer Anna Boden's and director Ry Fleck's Half Nelson at the Somerville Theatre, marking the fourth straight ye that the pair has screened a film at the festival. The full slate includes 20 nar tives by a range of directors, close to 30 documentaries and a long list of shor Special events include a Q&A with actress Lili Taylor, conversations with fil makers Arin Crumley and Susan Buice, who cowrote and directed Four Ey Monsters, and a panel discussion titled Getting Your Film Seen and Sold. Even take place at the Brattle Theatre, the Museum of Fine Arts, the Somervil Theatre and Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway Theatre. See movie listings or the fes val's Web site for schedules and film descriptions. www.iffboston.org. —LPK

JAMES JOSEPH SALON

presents

jamesjosephstudio

featuring

the $40 studio haircut*

and

late night thursdays

SALON AWARDS

LAUNCHPAD MAGAZINE
Top 20 Salons in the US 2005

ALLURE MAGAZINE
Best New Hair Stylist 2004
Best Blow Dry 2004

BOSTON MAGAZINE
Best Hair Colorist 2004
Best Salon 2000

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Best Hair Salon Experience 2005
Best Hair Colorist 2004, 2003 & 2001
Best Salon Interior 2003
Best Men's Haircut 2002 & 2001

BOSTON PHOENIX READER'S POLL
Best Haircut 2004

STUFF @ NIGHT
Hot Media Darling 2004
Hot New Salon 2002

SALON TODAY
200 Fastest Growing Salons in the US 2006

New studio clients only*

New Location!
jamesjosephstudio
168 newbury street
617.266.6600
www.jamesjosephstudio.com

JAMESJOSEPHSALON
30 NEWBURY STREET
617.266.7222
WWW.JAMESJOSEPHSALON.COM

CITYSCOPE

ma soba
SUSHI·ASIAN CUISINE·WINES
Best Sushi #1
156 Cambridge St.
Boston, MA 02114
Tel. 617-973-6680
www.MasobaBoston.com Delivery·Catering·Large Parties

cityscope

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings for benefits, festivals, activities and events by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: CityScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@improper.com. Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Benefits

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19

Swing into Spring at the Hampshire House
Hampshire House, 84 Beacon St., Boston (617-357-5777, ext. 503). www.cosmiconnection.com. MBTA: Green Line to Park. 6-10 pm. $75. This event for single professionals, ages 40 and over, features hors d'oeuvres, dancing, art and an opportunity to meet some new people. Proceeds benefit the Massachusetts Children's Trust Fund.

THURSDAY, APRIL 20

Capital Campaign Kickoff
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400, ext. 10). www.cmacusa.org. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. 6-10 pm. $20. The Cambridge Multicultural Center celebrates 20 years of being at its current address and kicks off a capital campaign at this event reflecting the diverse programming the center offers. Proceeds benefit the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center.

Jimmy Tingle's All American Torture Cabaret
Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway Theater, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-591-1616). www.jtoffbroadway.com. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 7:30 pm. $20. Jimmy Tingle's All American Torture Cabaret presents this vaudevillian show with cabaret-punk-gypsy music by Humanwine and the Mustn't Grumble, comedy by Jimmy Tingle and prisoner accounts by Kate Moss. Proceeds benefit Amnesty International USA.

MSPCA Side by Side Fundraiser for Phinney's Friends
The Rack, 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-541-5067). www.mspca.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. 7-9:30 pm. $50. In celebration of the 10th year of the MSPCA's Phinney's Friends, which helps people living with HIV/AIDS with their pets' needs, this fundraiser will include a viewing of the video A Gift Like No Other, as well as music from vocalist Dan Vannatter.

Volunteer Expo
The Shops at Prudential Center, Boston (617-236-2419). www.prudentialcenter.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential. 7-9:30 pm. Free. The Prudential Center and THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN sponsor the first annual Volunteer Expo, featuring appetizers, raffle prizes, music and the opportunity to meet members of over 30 volunteer organizations and sign up if you like.

FRIDAY, APRIL 21

A Party to Cure
The Greatest Bar, 262 Friend St., Boston (617-367-0544). www.barfrog.org. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station. 6:30 pm. $20. BarFrog.com and the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute host this fundraiser as the first in a series of many parties planned to benefit local charities. Proceeds benefit the Adolescent and Young Adult Oncology Program at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute.

SATURDAY, APRIL 22

SpeakEasy Stage Company's 15th Birthday!
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-3279). www.speakeasystage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. 11 am. $50. SpeakEasy Stage Company celebrates its 15th birthday with a benefit auction and entertainment from Bat Boy and Floyd Collins. Proceeds benefit the Boston Center for the Arts SpeakEasy Stage Company.

MONDAY, APRIL 24

Sportsmen's Strength and Achievement Celebration
State Room, 60 State St., Boston (617-288-9092). www.sportsmenstennisclub.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. 6-9 pm. $175. This evening honors the work of the Sportsmen's Tennis Club and features live entertainment, dinner and both live and silent auctions. Proceeds benefit the Sportsmen's Tennis Club.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27

Evening Expedition Black Tie and Tennis Shoes Gala
The Black Falcon Cruise Terminal, Boston (617-262-3424). www.thompsonisland.org. MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. 6 pm. $250. Thompson Island Outward Bound honors Boston Mayor Thomas Menino for his commitment to the organization during their fourth annual event featuring cocktails and dinner. Proceeds benefit the work of Thompson Island Outward Bound.

Make a Night of It
Club Longwood, 20 Chapel St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. 7-9:30 pm. $100, adults; $35, students. The Brookline Arts Center presents an evening of music written by jazz songwriter Harriet Goldberg. Proceeds benefit the Brookline Arts Center.

Silver Lining Fundraiser
Foundation Lounge, Hotel Commonwealth, 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-727-8957). www.mctf.org. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 6 pm. $30. The Young Professionals Committee hosts this fundraiser featuring a tribute to Ray Charles, raffles, door prizes, hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar. Proceeds benefit the Children's Trust Fund.

SATURDAY, APRIL 29

Friends Fight Cancer for 30 Years
The Ritz-Carlton, 15 Arlington St., Boston (617-632-3021). www.dana-farber.org/friends. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6 pm. $350. The Friends of Dana-Farber Cancer Institute hosts this Gala to honor physician-in-chief emeritus of Dana-Farber Emil Frei for his contributions to cancer research. The event also features dinner and dancing to the music of Hip Pocket. Proceeds benefit the Friends of Dana-Farber.

Pet Tarot
Cause to Paws, 1386A Beacon St., Brookline (617-738-7297). www.causetopaws.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 10 am-2 pm. $15. Professional tarot card reader Brigit, of Pets and Their People, conducts readings for area pets and their owners. Proceeds benefit the MSPCA.

SUNDAY, APRIL 30

Cut A Thon
Mayfair on the Hill, 81A West Cedar St., Beacon Hill (617-742-6662). www.mbcc.org. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. 11 am-4 pm. $45. Beauty salon Mayfair on the Hill hosts this fundraiser featuring designer hair cuts, with proceeds to benefit the Massachusetts Breast Cancer Coalition.

Walk Against Violence
Bartlett Mall, High St., Newburyport (978-465-0999). www.jeannegeigercrisiscenter.org. 11:30 am-2 pm. $25. The Jeanne Geiger Crisis Center sponsors the 15th annual Walk Against Violence in order to raise funds to support the center's work helping domestic violence survivors and their families.

Festivals & Parties

SATURDAY, APRIL 22

Art in Bloom Gala Celebration
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3169). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to the Museum. 7-11 pm. $175-$300. The MFA celebrates the start of its annual Art in Bloom festival of flowers with this black-tie event featuring a cocktail reception, followed by a seated, multi-course dinner at the MFA's restaurant, Bravo.

Earth Day
Franklin Park Zoo, One Franklin Park Road, Boston (617-541-5466). www.franklinparkzoo.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. 11 am. $9.50, adults; $5.50, children. Earth Day activities at the zoo include a speech by world-renowned conservationist Jane Goodall.

The Greatest Party on Earth
Artists for Humanity Epicenter, 100 West Second St., Boston (617-268-7620). www.afhboston.com. 8 pm-1 am. $70. This Earth Day celebration features live music from Samba Tremeterra, United Roots and Crazy Freddy & the New B. Wear All Stars, as well as food and drink from sponsors like Knowfat Lifestyle Grille and Boston Beer Company.

Old Town Trolley Chocolate Tour
The Trolley Stop Store, corner of Boylston and South Charles streets, Boston (617-269-3626). Sat., and Sun., through April 30. Tours depart at 11:30 am and 12:45 pm. $60. This fully narrated tour includes

The annual Run of the Charles Canoe and Kayak Race kicks off on April 30.

chocolate tasting stops at the Top of the H Omni Parker Hotel and the chocolate bar the Langham Hotel.

MONDAY, APRIL 24

Gilda Radner Dinner
Seaport Hotel, 1 Seaport Lane, Boston (6 1919). www.wellnesscommunity.org. MB Line to South Station. 6 pm. $250. Ovaria survivor Robbie Lacritz-Deitch, Susan Z founder of Conquer Cancer, and Mayor Menino are honored at this annual dinner the Wellness Community—Greater Boston.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27

Ladies' Night Spring 2006
Jorge Hernandez Cultural Center, 85 West St., Boston (617-697-7405). www.thehona MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. 7 pm. annual ladies' night features music by Lazy Honey Dew of Slim Jim & the Mad Cows, show by Tara Feely's Suicide Queen line, a and a showcase of different creations by wom Boston area.

SUNDAY, APRIL 30

Olmsted's Brookline Neighbo Walk
Tour departs from the Brookline Reservoir o St., Brookline (617-566-1689). www.nps.g pm. Free. This one-mile, guided tou Brookline visits the Brookline Reser exterior of the Frederick Law Olmsted Historic Site and the Old Burying Gr Walnut Street.

Run of the Charles Canoe and Kayak Race
Race begins in Dedham and ends at Herter Par Field Road, Brighton (508-698-6810). wu river.org. $35-$55 per paddler. More than 1 dlers take to the Charles River in this an race. The Finish Line Festival features fo and awards.

Singles

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19

8-Minute Dating
Luigi & Roscoe's at INQ, 279 Newbury St (617-536-9766). www.8minutedating.com Green Line to Hynes/ICA. 6:30 pm. $35 appetizers during eight different eight-min then mingle and meet the people you didn chance to share a date with. For single pro ages 30-40.

TUESDAY, APRIL 25

8-Minute Dating
Clarke's at Faneuil Hall, 21 Merchants Ro (617-227-7800). www.8minutedating.com Green Line to Gov. Center. 6:30 pm. $35 appetizers during eight different eigh dates, then mingle and meet the people get the chance to share a date with. F professionals 25-35.

erforming ts

e to Contributors
istings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Cal- Performing Arts, or e-mail to performing@ .com. Include address, phone number, subway et price, dates and times, and a brief description ent. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. annot be accepted over the phone.

kets

ickets
-Y-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets. kets to sold-out shows.

K
3-5181). www.artsboston.org. Same-day tick- lf price.

cTicketing
3-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

f Town Tickets
47-1300 or 800-442-1854). Tickets to sold- ws.

Hub
8-2482). www.stubhub.com. A forum to buy tickets.

t City of Boston
7-2370). www.tixboston.com. Tickets to shows.

tmaster
1-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

eater and Opera

OPENED

st Prayers
Conservatory Theatre, 8 The Fenway, Boston 2-9144). www.bostonconservatory.edu. Green Line to Hynes. April 20-23. Thu.-Sat., , 2 pm. Free. Loosely based on Shakespeare's pest, Dana Brayton's play examines the impact on families. Neil Donohoe directs.

Vell That Ends Wells
dge Family YMCA, 820 Mass. Ave., dge (617-661-9622 ext. 704). www.actors areproject.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. -May 14. Wed., 10 am; Thu. and Fri., 7:30 ., 2 and 7:30 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $15-$40. peare's comedy tells the story of Helena, a er and famous healer, who devises a plan to unt Bertram fall in love with her. Benjamin rects.

The Bacchae
Laurie Theatre, Brandeis University, Waltham (781-736-3400). www.brandeis.edu/theatre. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis. April 27-May 7. Thu. and Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $16-$20. The Brandeis Theatre Company presents Euripides' tale about the struggle between divine and human authority. Directed Eric Hill.

Cleopatra
Machine Theatre, 1256 Boylston St., Boston (617-265-6222). www.theatremania.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. April 20-May 27. Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; April 22, 3 pm. $25. The Gold Dust Orphans perform Ryan Landry and Bill Hough's original musical about the passionate life of the famous queen of the Nile. Directed by Jim Byrne.

Damn Yankees
North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly (978-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. April 25-May 14. Tue. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Wed., 1:30 and 7:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 2 pm. $40-$75. The North Shore Music Theatre presents an updated version of Douglass Wallop's and George Abbott's story about a Red Sox fan who sells his soul to help break the Curse of the Bambino. Directed by Barry Ivan.

Fried Chicken and Latkes
Jewish Theatre of New England, 333 Nahanton St., Newton (617-965-5226). www.lsjcc.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. April 29, 8 pm; April 30, 2 and 7 pm. $26-$20. Rain Pryor gives an autobiographical performance about being Jewish and African-American and the child of a white go-go dancer and comedian Richard Pryor.

Gorilla Man
Plaza Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatreworks.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. April 21-30. Fri., 10 pm; Sat., 10:30 pm; Sun., 7 pm. $15 suggested donation. In Kyle Jarrow's play, one morning Billy discovers fur growing on the back of his hands and begins a search to find his real father, a secret his mother has been hiding from him for 14 years. Directed by Kevin Kline.

I Am Nobody's Lunch
Zero Arrow Theatre, 2 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-495-2668). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. April 25-30. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. $30. The Civilians create a cast of eccentric characters based on extensive interviews with real people in this cabaret-play about the politics of information. Written and directed by Steven Cosson.

Lucrezia Borgia
Cutler Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (617-451-3388). www.operaboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to Chinatown. April 28, 30 and May 2. Fri., 7:30; Sun., 3 pm; Tue., 7:30 pm. $30. Donizetti's masterpiece tells the story of Lucrezia Borgia, whose past catches up to her after a chance encounter with her long-lost son Gennaro. Directed by Jay Lesenger.

ony Award–winning musical Wicked plays at pera House through May 14.

The Man Who
Boston Playwrights' Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-5899). www.bu.edu/bpt. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. April 20-May 7. Wed.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 3 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $21-$30. Based on Oliver Sacks' book The Man Who Mistook His Wife for a Hat, this play, cowritten by Peter Brook and Marie-Hélène, tells the stories of individuals with brain injuries. Directed by Wesley Savick.

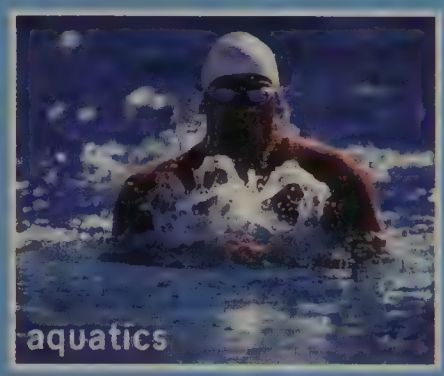
Nunsensations
Stoneham Theatre, 395 Main St., Stoneham (781-279-2200). www.stonehamtheatre.org. April 20-30. Wed., 2 pm; Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $18-$36. In an effort to keep their convent open, the Little Sisters of Hoboken accept a $10,000 offer to perform in a Las Vegas showroom. Created and directed by Dan Goggin.

Thaïs
Schubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-9393). www.wangcenter.org. April 28-May 9. Tue. and Wed., 7:30 pm; Fri., 7:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $33-$166. The Boston Lyric Opera presents Massenet's love story about the courtesan Thaïs and the monk Athanaël.

NOW RUNNING

Big Apple Circus: Grandma Goes to Hollywood
City Hall Plaza, Boston (617-931-2787). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA: Green

Now is the time to enjoy a 3 Day Guest Membership



Join Today.
$0 Enrollment
Pass and offer expire April 24*

WELLBRIDGE
ATHLETIC CLUB
www.WellbridgeAC.com

Commonwealth
617.254.1711
1079 Commonwealth Ave, Boston

Charles Square
617.441.0800
5 Bennett Street, Cambridge

Newton
617.928.2000
135 Wells Avenue, Newton

*Restrictions may apply. Offer and pass expire April 24, 2006. Amenities vary by club. Must be local resident, age 18 and over with valid photo ID. One pass per person. First time guests only. ©2006 Wellbridge

...r Blue Line to Gov. Center. Through May 7. Contact Ticketmaster for show times. $13-$54. Grandma the Clown stars in this circus re-creation of movie moments with the help of acrobats, jugglers, trapeze flyers and more.

Blue Man Group

Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.blueman.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Wed.-Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 pm; Sat., 4, 7 and 10 pm; Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $46-$56. The blue trio performs an ongoing show that mixes art, music, comedy and a lot of toilet paper.

Christine Jorgensen Reveals

Calderwood Pavilion, 527 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.thetheateroffensive.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through April 29. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $34-$39. Based on a recorded interview, Brandon Louryk brings to life one of the nation's first famous and scandalous transexuals, Christine Jorgensen, who was banned from Boston in 1954. Josh Hecht directs.

Menopause: The Musical

Stuart Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (617-426-4499). www.stuartstreetplayhouse.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Wed., 1:30 and 8 pm; Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $42.50. In Jeannie Linder's musical, four aging baby boomers with nothing in common but memory loss and hot flashes meet at a lingerie sale. Directed by Kathryn Conte and Patty Bender.

Orpheus X

Zero Arrow Theatre, 2 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Through April 23. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $15-$48. Composer and performer Rinde Eckert and director Robert Woodruff join forces in a contemporary retelling of the Orpheus and Eurydice legend.

The Road Home: Re-Membering America

Wimberly Theatre, Calderwood Pavilion, 527 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through April 30. Contact the box office for show times. $15-$44. Mark Wolf performs in his original play about the resilience of Americans after Sept. 11. Directed by David Scheizer.

Matthew Bourne's Swan Lake is at the Colonial Theatre, April 20-23.

Rosa

Black Box Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatrescene. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through April 21. Wed.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $12-$15. In Peter Snoad's play, a Back Bay couple is headed to Guatemala to adopt their new daughter when a series of harmful attacks threaten to stop them. Will Luera directs.

Shear Madness

Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-5225). www.shearmadness.com/boston. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Ongoing. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6 and 9 pm; Sun., 3 and 7:30 pm. $38. This comedic whodunit, set in a crazy unisex hair salon, holds the record as Boston's longest-running play.

The Sweetest Swing in Baseball

Plaza Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through May 6. Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $24-$30. This play by Pulitzer Prize–nominee Rebecca Gilman tells the story of how an artist recently committed to a psychiatric hospital finds strength and inspiration through baseball icon Darryl Strawberry. Directed by Jason Southerland.

Tally's Folly

The Lyric Stage, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (6... 7172). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green... Arlington. Through April 22. Wed.-Thu., 7... Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $...
Lanford Wilson's Pulitzer Prize–winning cla... the story of a Jewish accountant living in St. ... the height of WWII who wants to marry a 31... spinster and rescue her from her rural Missour... rected by Adam Zahler.

Wicked

The Opera House, 539 Washington St., Bost... 931-2787). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA... Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. Through... Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 a... Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. $30-$132.50. Base... novel by Gregory Maguire, this musical ... story of the Wizard of Oz's Wicked Witch of ... and Glinda the Good Witch. Joe Mantello ...

Dance

Alvin Ailey American Dance Th...

Wange Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (... 9393). www.wangecenter.org. MBTA: Gree... Boylston or Orange Line to N.E. Medical... April 25-30. Tue., 7:30 pm; Wed.-Fri., 8 p... 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $37-$70. Artistic ... Judith Jamison presents the company'... production of modern dance with three ... premieres: Judith Jamison's Reminiscin', ... Brown's Ife/My Heart and Hope Boykin, Abdu... Jackson and Matthew Rushing's Accep... Surrender.

GottZell

The Dance Complex, 536 Mass. Ave., C... (617-547-9363). www.dancecomplex.org... Red Line to Central. April 29, 8 pm; April ... $12-$15. Erin Gottwald and Becca Rozell ... with guest choreographers Kate Digby and ... Turco for two evenings of original dance.

Swan Lake

Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylson St., Boston (... 9366). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA: G... to Boylston. April 20-23. Thu., 7:30 pm; F... Sat., 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. $37.5...

:hew Bourne choreographs his Tony award-win- version of Tchaikovsky's classic ballet about un- nable love.

Comedy

Advice to Contributors

nit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calen- Comedy, or e-mail info to comedy@improper.com. line for listings is four weeks prior to publication.

SHOWS

Broad Comedy

rt Street Playhouse, 200 Stuart St., Boston (617- 4499). www.broadcomedy.com. MBTA: Green to Arlington. Sat., 8 pm. $28.50. Winner of Best ncouver Fringe Fest 2005, Broad Comedy is an emale comedy troupe featuring skits such as United States Extreme Right-Wing Cheer- ng Squad."

Cy and Maria's Comedy Italian Wedding

Tremont Playhouse, 275 Tremont St., Boston -944-5639). www.comedywedding.com. MBTA: n Line to Boylston. Sat., 7:30 pm. $55. Join and Maria's wacky families for an interactive edy wedding.

Mario Cantone

lee Performance Center, 136 Mass. Ave., Boston -931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA: n Line to Hynes/ICA. April 21, 9 pm. $40. The con-born comedian and former Sex and the City ar performs a night of comedy.

STAND-UP CLUBS

A Tua Nua

Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121). MBTA: C n Line to St. Mary's. Tue., 8:30 pm. $7. The Bragging to Children features sketch comedy, a ical act and a stand-up host each week.

Beantown Comedy Vault

ington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-729- 5). www.dickdoherty.com/remsched. MBTA: n Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $10- The Beantown Comedy Vault features local d-up comedians.

Comedy Connection

Quincy Market, Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-248- 7). www.comedyconnectionboston.com. MBTA: n or Orange Line to Haymarket. The oldest com- club in Boston draws nationally known comedi- n weekends and showcases up-and-coming local t during the week. •April 19, 8 pm: Lewis k. •April 20, 8 pm: Lewis Black; 9:30 pm: Frank os, "The R-Rated Hypnotist." •April 21, 8 and 5 pm; April 22, 6, 8:15 and 10:15 pm: Bob Saget. ril 24, 8 pm: Amateur Showcase hosted by n Knox. •April 25, 8 pm: Paul Nardizzi. •April pm: Jim Lauletta. •April 27, 8:30 pm: Frank os, "The R-Rated Hypnotist." •April 28, 8 and 5 pm: Jeff Dunham. •April 29, 8 pm: Frank orelli; 10:30 pm: Jeff Dunham. •April 30, 7 eff Dunham.

The Comedy Studio

Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). thecomedystudio.com. MBTA: Red Line to ard. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $8-$10. Sketch com- troupes and local comedians perform. •April Emerson College sketch comedy with Dot er, Elisha Yaffe, Mike Ste. Marie and Deb Far- arkman. •April 20: The Dan Sally Show with e Calechman, Tom Dustin, Tom Kiszanckie, e Macone, Shane Mauss, Maggie MacDonald, , P.J. Westin and Dot Dwyer. •April 21: The h Brothers, Marc Basch, Taylor Connelly, Dot er, Tom Morello, E.J. Murphy, Gregg ideau and Sandy Asai. •April 22: Steamy Bo- ians, E.J. Murphy, Greg Rodrigues, Arielle lman, Myq Kaplan, Tom Morello and Dot er. •April 23: Erin Judge Presents... Anthony ield, Sarah Blodgett, Jon Doherty, Christine nan, John Lincoln, Ken Reid, Renata Tutko, h Joseph and Dot Dwyer. •April 25: Magic ge with Jon Stetson, Bob Riordan, Steve olfer, Joe Howard, Mike Bent and David er. •April 26: Liz Simons, Baratunde, Tuck, e Calechman, Steve Albert, Phil Yebba, Chris es, James Goff, Daniel Forlano, Eric Riley re and Dot Sawyer. •April 27: The Dan Sally w with Brian Gordon, Jennifer Myskowski, Podolske, Andrea Henry, Micah Sherman, id Powell, Mike Whitman, Mike Lemme and Sawyer. •April 28: Joe Wong, Amy Tee, Dev ar-Parkman, Sean Sullivan, Steve Donovan, Gersten, Dot Dwyer and Tom Morello. ril 29: Tissa Hami, Sean Sullivan, Shane b, Drew Spangler, Cyndi Stiles, Joe Wong and Dwyer. •April 30: Erin Judge Presents... sketch from Pillow Fighters and stand-up comedy with Paul Day, Sean Donovan, Marley Halpren-Grazer and Dot Dwyer. •May 2: Magic Lounge presents a professional magic show.

Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway

Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway Theater, 255 Elm St., Somerville (617-591-1616). www.jtoffbroadway.com. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Jimmy Tingle's features both established and aspiring performers and productions. •April 20, 7:30 pm: Jimmy Tingle's All-American Torture Cabaret: A Musical Frolic from Guantanamo to Abu Ghraib to Benefit Amnesty International USA. •April 21, 7:30 pm: Jimmy Tingle's American Dream. •April 26, 7:30 pm: Comedy and Music: Jimmy Tingle and Michael Tarbox and Friends. •April 29, 7:30 pm: Lindsay Mac, A Plucked Cello Revolution.

Nick's Comedy Stop

100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). www.nickscomedystop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Fri. and Sat., 8:30 pm. $10-$22. In its 24th year, the longest-running comedy club in Boston features local and visiting comics. •April 6: Mike Koutrobis and Jess Cassano. •April 21-22: Brad Mastrangelo, from Comedy Central. •April 28-29: Stephanie Peters.

Steve Sweeney's Comedy Cafe

711 Boylston St., Boston (800-401-2221). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Fri. and Sat., 9:30 pm. $20. Boston comedians Steve Sweeney and Dick Doherty appear with select performers. •April 20: Comedy Dodge Ball. •April 21-22: Tim McIntire, Steve Sweeney and Nancy Flahive. •April 27: Right Turn Comedy Benefit. •April 28-29: Mike Donovan, Kelly MacFarland and Jan Jebo.

IMPROV COMEDY

Improv Asylum

216 Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.improvasylum.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Dinner packages available. •Wed., 8 pm. $15: Vanity Project. •Thu., 8 pm. $15: Monkey Trial and Error. 10 pm. $10: The Madness. •Fri., 8 and 10 pm. $20: Monkey Trial and Error. 12 am. $7: College Smackdown. •Sat., 8 and 10 pm. $20: Monkey Trial and Error. 12 am. $10: The Midnight Show.

Improv Foundry

327 Summer St., Studio 4, South Boston (617-308-6421). www.improvfoundry.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. $12. This Boston-based, short-form improv comedy group performs skits that involve members of the audience.

ImprovBoston

1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. $5-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates everything on the spot: characters, stories, settings, songs and dances. •Wed., 8 pm. $5: The Hump. Local troupes perform improvisational shows. 10 pm. Free: Rendition. Boston's best improvisers come together for this energetic, groundbreaking improvisational show. •Thu., 8 pm. $12; $10, students: UnNatural Selection. A master of ceremonies randomly eliminates players until only one is left. 10 pm. $5: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Brothers Chris and David Walsh perform stand-up and character sketches and play music and short films in a display of sibling rivalry. •Fri., 8 pm. $12; $10, students: Voice of the White House. ImprovBoston and Musical Company present a politically-charged show about the mishaps of the White House. 10 pm. $12; $10, students: Theatre Sports. Two teams of improvisers compete for the most laughs. •Sat., 6 pm. $12; $5, students, seniors and children: ImprovBoston Family Show. A short-form improvisational show appropriate for people of all ages. 8 and 10 pm. $15; $10, students and seniors: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music and audience participation, a cast of improvisers creates a show that changes with every performance. •Sun., 7 pm. $5: Sgt. Culpepper/Open Jamboree. This evening features performances by local and visiting troupes. 9:30 pm. $7: Mosaic. South City Theatre Ensemble presents short pieces including monologues, skits and dances that mock today's society.

The Tribe

Tribe Theatre, 67 Stuart St., Boston (617-510-4447). www.tribeboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu., 8 pm. $7-$10. Fri., 8 pm. $7-$20. 21+. The Tribe sponsors this comedy show featuring a collection of improv comedians who poke fun at everything, including themselves. •April 20: Neutrino Video Projects, Boston Sawyer and Hurley, and Director's Laboratory. •April 21 and 28: The Tribe Players and Code Duello. •April 22: With Love We Travel. •April 27: Tiny Little Lungs and Director's Laboratory.

Blank Page

Curvy Bettie goes all flat.

BY PAUL SHERMAN

Director Mary Harron spent years raising money and scraping together production deals to get The Notorious Bettie Page made. You would think in all that time she and cowriter Guinevere Turner would've found some sort of perspective on their heroine.

Instead, the shapely Page—whose cheesecake, bondage and nude photos made her both great eye candy and a freedom fighter in the sexual revolution—might be the least interesting person in her own movie. Although Gretchen Mol has the right attributes to fill Page's leopard-skin bikini and does a good job at simulating the rambunctious playfulness Page brought to her photos, The Notorious Bettie Page does its subject what might be the ultimate insult: makes her interesting only when her clothes come off.

Gretchen Mol plays 1950s model Bettie Page.

The movie The Notorious Bettie Page resembles most is Ed Wood. Tim Burton's bio of the Grade-Z director is also about someone who worked on the fringes of 1950s mainstream entertainment and was an unlikely candidate to become an icon decades later. Both movies favor black-and-white cinematography to supply a period flavor and end their stories before a lot of sadness entered their protagonists' lives (alcoholism and poverty for the late Wood; paranoid schizophrenia, violent episodes and forced hospitalization in the 1970s and '80s for Page, who just turned 83).

But Ed Wood had a hook for its hero. It presented him as an eager, optimistic dreamer. You felt his personality. Harron and Turner have no such handle on Page. She doesn't seem to have strong feelings about anything. It's understandable that the filmmakers didn't want to present their Tennessee-born heroine as just either an exploited skin model or a liberated exhibitionist. In reality, she was a bit of both. But the movie cries out for Bettie to be presented as something. (Bettie's blandness is especially surprising since the other films under Harron's direction—I Shot Andy Warhol and American Psycho—feature very distinctive lead roles.) The movie credits Richard Foster's book The Real Bettie Page as its source of research—which is ironic, since the book's claim to fame was unearthing Bettie's post-modeling life. The movie touches upon tragic sexual episodes in her pre-modeling days (sexual abuse by her father, a gang rape), but never gives us any dramatic aftermath to them. In the movie's account, aspiring actress Bettie doesn't get into cheesecake, bondage and nude modeling for any sexual release, she just falls into it. A chance encounter starts her modeling for postwar New York camera-club photographers (men who took pictures of female models) before she meets Irving and Paula Klaw (Chris Bauer and Lili Taylor), the nice Jewish siblings who supplement their celebrity photo business with cheesecake and bondage shots commissioned by "special customers." (The Klaws, who act no differently than they would if they were running a necktie store, steal the movie.)

Bettie might roll her eyes when Paula gives her a pair of thigh-high, stiletto-heeled boots to put on, but if this Southern doll ever gave any more thought to those shots than she did to the simpler poses in which she vamps it up in a garter belt and fishnets, we don't see it. There's no evidence the real Bettie ever did, but that doesn't mean The Notorious Bettie Page couldn't come up with an interesting way to show her blend of naïveté, tolerance and independence.

Little conflict emerges even though the film is framed by the 1957 investigative hearings held by Senator Estes Kefauver (David Strathairn) regarding the effects of risqué images on juvenile delinquency. But the movie doesn't convey the everyday sexual climate of mainstream America during the 1950s, nor does it effectively present the sexual mores of Bettie's world as opposing it. Her world just seems to exist under it. We don't even sense how Bettie's work affects her own sexual life, which never really comes up.

At least The Notorious Bettie Page looks good, and I'm not just talking about Mol. Its Nashville and New York City sequences are in black-and-white, yet its Miami sequences—featuring Bettie's many photo sessions with Bunny Yeager (Paula Hanson)—are in color. That's perfect, since we think of 1950s New York in black-and-white, yet we always think of Miami in color. During one of these Florida scenes, in which Bettie has a religious reawakening, cinematographer Mott Hupfel does what many try but few achieve: He makes a scene so color-saturated that it really does look as if it comes from a 1950s Technicolor movie.

Moments like this, and the several montages of Bettie frolicking on magazine covers, make The Notorious Bettie Page fun at times. Too often, though, it's just disappointing. iB

The Notorious Bettie Page ★★

Directed by Mary Harron. Written by Guinevere Turner and Harron. With Gretchen Mol, Chris Bauer, Lili Taylor, Sarah Paulson and David Strathairn. Rated R. At Harvard Square.

New Releases

BY PAUL SHERMAN

CSA: Confederate States of Amer
★★★½ Writer-director Kevin Willmott answers the tion "What if the South had won the Civil
in a mockumentary that is both provocative ulative history and very sharp satire. It's pres
as an English-made documentary being show
a San Francisco TV station about the histo
the CSA, which won the Civil War after F
and England entered on the south's side i
"War of Northern Aggression," and then e
Abe Lincoln to Canada and restored slavery
North after Grant's surrender. The "English-documentary" parodies everything from
Burns' The Civil War and Birth of a Nation to
tary and classroom films. Meanwhile, its "b cast" includes utterly deadpan commercia
such things as the Slave Shopping Network
Martha Stewart–like show in which the h
promises to cover "what to look for when b your next Chinese gardener" on her next ep CSA takes no prisoners. (At the Coolidge C Theatre.)

Dave Chappelle's Block Party ★★
There's hardly a dull moment in this blend of edy, music and politics. Chappelle organiz dream concert in Bedford-Stuyvesant, Broo
featuring Kanye West, Mos Def, Erykah Bad
the reunion of the Fugees. Director M Gondry (who directed Eternal Sunshine of th less Mind) filmed the October 2004 perform
and rehearsals as well as Chappelle playing a Wonka of sorts, handing out "golden ticke people in southwest Ohio (where he lives would get them on a charter bus, in a hotel and into the concert. Gondry cuts among th formers (on- and off-stage), the roadtripping residents, and Chappelle, as he prepares f outdoor show. There's a shared outspokenn
the acts Chappelle booked, and a political ness, too. These common qualities bond th formers here, a camaraderie that reaches b
the stage. As in the best multi-act perfor movies, the sum is greater than the part Boston Common, the Fenway and suburbs.)

Friends with Money ★★★ Like her two previous movies, Walking and and Lovely & Amazing, writer-director
Holofcener's latest is slight but wise and enj
In this ensemble tale about a group of 40-ish the title refers to one (played by Jennifer A being single and struggling in life, financial figuratively, while the others (including cha played by Frances McDormand, Joan Cusack Isaacs and Holofcener-regular Catherine K are all well off (financially, at least) and m
More profoundly, though, the comedy is ab tering middle age and dealing with diminish pectations and the person you're trying to spe rest of your life with. Nothing groundbreak curs, but everything here is appealing: the script, the experienced cast sharing the load, pretentious approach and the effective c about everyday life. (At Kendall Square.)

The Inside Man ★★★
Spike Lee's thriller has problems but, after t
barrassing She Hate Me, his latest is general
turn to form. The movie's strengths and nesses come from first-time screenwriter
Gewirtz's script. Gewirtz comes up with premise (a bank heist in which the maste
played by Clive Owen, is after something
the stacked-up money in the vault), thoug
of its elements—including the personal pr
of the NYPD negotiator (Denzel Washingto
the influence of a hatchet woman to the ri
famous (Jodie Foster) on the case—are w
underdeveloped. Lee's use of Terence Blan
suave music sometimes seems out of place
the more forceful action of the robbery,
straightforward direction keeps the tale fro
ging down. The only real oddity here is h Gotham local color (New Yawk accents, C using Yiddish, belligerent attitude, etc.) is so hard that it verges on self-parody. Lee has been able to capture his hometown
more naturally. (At Boston Common, Fenv suburbs.)

Lonesome Jim ★★★
Steve Buscemi's latest as a director is endearing comedy about a morose 27-y
(Casey Affleck) returning to his Indiana home to, as he tells one friend, "have a breakdown." There, he finds a mom (Ma Place) who's full of industry and denial, an what do you do with 4,000 pounds of blue steel?

come and see for yourself

the lounge at 33

upgrading the standard of boston nightlife every night of the week winner: best see and be seen nightlife

Boston City Search

tuesday	wednesday	thursday	friday	saturday
escape	nice vs naughty	elation	studio 33	filter
m your normal routine.	which are you?	"boston's A-list" and special guests	33's version of the legendary studio 54.	resident dj's tassos & niko spin to excite international & house	upstairs: hip hop & latin	upstairs: top 40, hip hop	upstairs: retro mixes	upstairs: international & house
	downstairs: hip hop & top 40	downstairs: international & house	downstairs: hip hop, top 40, & latin	downstairs: top 40, hip hop, & latin

the new lounge at 33
"raising the bar"

e hours: 10pm – 2 am

ISN'T TECHNOLOGY

BEAUTIFUL!

YOUR FLAT-PANEL TV SPECIALISTS

Home Theatre Design & Installation

Huntington

RTE. 9, NEWTON • MON-FRI. 10-6, WED 10-8, SAT 10-5

617-244-6800 • WWW.HUNTINGTONTV.COM

EST. 1927

tual dad (Seymour Cassell), an older brother (Kevin Corrigan) who's even worse off than he is and, a sweet nurse (Liv Tyler) who asks little from life. The grim rural setting can be depressing early on (we feel our hero's pain) but, like him, the movie finds healing power there. Yes, Casey Affleck's Liv Tyler movie handily outdoes brother Ben's two movies with her. (At Kendall Square.)

Lucky Number Slevin ★★

It's been a while since a comic/violent thriller tried so hard and failed so blatantly. Director Paul McGuigan's movie might as well be from the late 1990s, when an abundance of Tarantino-wannabe movies like Things to Do in Denver When You're Dead strained to be hip, tried to pass off smugness as invention and let loose many a "clever" twist. In this one, Josh Hartnett plays Slevin, the "wrong guy in the wrong place," as he says, who gets caught between two feuding NYC crime bosses (Morgan Freeman and Ben Kingsley, seeing who can overact more egregiously). Lucy Liu is also here as a kooky coroner (she and Hartnett have a pleasing romantic chemistry), and so are Bruce Willis as an enigmatic hit man and Stanley Tucci as a not-very-perceptive detective. From the start, the production-design-run-amok (like a 1979 flashback in which more than half the cars in a parking lot are muscle cars) is a clue that the director is not in control of what's going on, or is at least making some very poor choices. By the time the big plot twist kicks in 75 minutes later, you just want the thing to end. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

Stoned ★★

Stylistically uneven and dramatically unfocused, this look back at Rolling Stone Brian Jones, especially the days before his 1969 death, leaves a sour taste. On the style side, the movie swings between psychedelic expressionism and the blandly straightforward, failing to come up with any consistent blend of hedonistic decadence and darker undercurrent (is there anything less imaginative than sticking Jefferson Airplane's "White Rabbit" in a drug scene?). On the story side, director Stephen Woolley (the veteran producer making his directorial debut) longs to create another Performance in his depiction of the relationship between uninhibited Jones (Leo Gregory) and "straight" contractor Frank Thorogood (Paddy Considine), who was hired to renovate Jones' estate and then got sucked into his world, manipulated by power-flexing Jones all the while (the Jones-Thorogood relationship allegedly inspired Performance, in which, of course, Mick Jagger starred). But the relationship between these two and its impact on Jones' drowning come across with less punch than intended, as the movie regularly flashes back to earlier episodes in Jones' drug-filled deterioration and loses sight of that central relationship. If the movie had really focused on what it seems to think is important, it would've been a more moving end-of-the-sixties tragedy. (At Kendall Square.)

Thank You for Smoking ★★★½

The flexible morals of Nick Naylor (Aaron Eckhart), the conscience-free spokesman for the tobacco industry, are the source of much comedy in this feature debut of writer-director Jason Reitman. Nick is an entertaining creep, and a regular highlight here are his weekly lunches with the gun-industry flack (David Koechner) and the alcohol-industry flack (Maria Bello), in which the trio, essentially, play games of "my ethical blind spot is bigger than yours." The movie might have been enjoyable enough if it had been just about Nick, but its larger snapshot of the nation is where it gains strength. Reitman, adapting Christopher Buckley's novel, builds the comedy into a Wag-the-Dog-style spoof of how much we've become a culture of spin, half-truths and forces seeking to distract us from life's realities. (At Boston Common, Kendall Square, Coolidge Corner and West Newton.)

Tsotsi ★★★

This year's foreign-language film Oscar-winner is a good choice. The intensity, nervous energy and musical charge of its opening sequences—with the songs blending the hostility of gangsta rap with the lilting bounce of African dance rhythms—give you a good sense of the rough-and-tumble world of the title character, the leader of a small gang of Johannesburg teens. But we soon start to dig deeper into the title character after he steals a car and discovers there's a baby in the back seat. The sudden need for parenting doesn't so much bond Tsotsi to the tyke as it makes him feel the consequences of his actions for the first time. The baby, the disillusionment of Tsotsi's fellow gang members and the benevolence of the young mother whom Tsotsi forces to breastfeed the baby combine to crumble the defensive wall he had constructed around his emotions. Tsotsi u some taut sequences as its title character's p get all jumbled and the action moves to a n rably bittersweet ending. (At Kendall Square.

V for Vendetta ★★½

The Wachowski (Matrix trilogy) Brothers–w comic book adaptation falls somewhere be "better than most big-budget comic-book a tions" and "still not that satisfying." The good that this futuristic tale set in a fascist England is a special-effects spectacle than it might've be emphasis is still on characters, specifically Eve talie Portman), a young employee at a TV n who inadvertently gets mixed up with V Weaving), a masked avenging angel fighting battle against the repressive government. plight of being implicated in crimes she didn' mit is a standard Hitchcock thriller device, w who never takes off his mask and lives in a plu is a Phantom of the Opera–like figure (he's got box instead of an organ). There's also a 1984 fi the fascist society (ironically, John Hurt, who Orwell's hero in the '80s film version of 1984 Big Brother-ish "Chancellor"). So we're not original territory here, and much of the acti volves the detective (Stephen Rea) who's tr catch V, but discovers his bosses are the more threat. Portman, Weaving and Rea are all fi you often get the feeling that the backstory the tangentially refers to—involving the U.S. sta debilitating war and crumbling because of it, a cists scheming to power in England—is a mor esting, less derivative drama than what we g (At Boston Common, the Fenway and suburb

Special Events

Radical Film Night

Lucy Parsons Center, 549 Columbus Ave., (617-267-6272). www.lucyparsons.org/calend MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Free. Th Parsons Center hosts videos, films and docum on freedom struggles in the U.S. and arou world. •April 19, 7 pm. Queimada (Burn!) 19 rector Gillo Pontecorvo's film follows British nary Sir William Walker as he instigates a slav on the Caribbean island of Queimada, in c help improve the British sugar trade.

Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors

Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com line is four weeks prior to publication.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

•April 27, 6:30 pm. The Nation 2005. The s Red Sox fans are heard for the first time in th mentary about the Fenway faithful. Dire Lenny Manzo.

•May 1, 6 pm. The Last Emperor 1987. I Bernardo Bertolucci's film following the hi Pu Yi, China's last emperor, is part of the Many Ways of Living in Beijing Film Series.

BRATTLE THEATRE

Independent Film Festival of Bo

•April 21, 5 pm. Arctic Son 2006. A father to his homeland, the Yukon, to teach about his cultural heritage while training traditional methods of living off the land. Walton directs.

•April 21, 7 pm. Thin 2006. This film take hind the scenes of a residential facility treatment of women with eating disorders, cuses on four women who've spent the starving themselves. Lauren Greenfield dir

•April 21, 10:15 pm. Infamy 2006. This do tary about graffiti artists explores their q fame on the streets and their desire to leav pression on the world. Doug Pray directs.

•April 22, 12 am. Death Trance 2006. In t tial arts film, a timid apprentice monk is ser search of a stolen coffin that his order has p for centuries. Yuji Shimomura directs.

•April 22, 12 pm. Waiting to Inhale 20 Riffe's documentary about the debate ov ization of marijuana features interviews v entists, doctors, the DEA, parent anti-drug pro-legalization activists and patients s from cancer, glaucoma, AIDS and MS marijuana.

•April 22, 3 pm. The Trials of Darryl Hu This documentary tells of how corrupti

…er investigation led to the wrongful impris-
…nt of an innocent man. Ricki Stern and
… Sundberg direct.
…l 22, 6:30 pm. Wordplay 2006. This documen-
…kes a lighthearted look at the crossword puzzle
…reated by Will Shortz, editor of the New York
… crossword puzzle. Patrick Creadon directs.
…l 22, 9 pm. F*ck 2006. A variety of people
…their thoughts on the use of foul language in
…ocumentary directed by Steve Anderson.
…l 23, 12 pm. Red, White, Black & Blue 2006.
…locumentary accompanies two U.S. veterans
… o Attu, an island off the coast of Alaska that
…riefly occupied by Japanese soldiers during
…I, to recreate their experiences in its recap-
…om Putnam directs.
…l 23, 2:30 pm. As Smart as They Are: The
…r Project 2005. This documentary explores
…nique collaboration between an eccentric
… pop band and some of today's literary voices.
…checo directs.
…l 23, 4:30 pm. The Limbo Room 2006. A 39-
…ld actress understudying two roles splits her
…ngs between her tiny apartment and the
… room," a dressing room where understudies
…ackstage for the unlikely chance to fill in for
…r. Debra Eisenstadt directs.
…l 23, 7 pm. Romantico (Romantic) 2005. Direc-
…rk Becker takes a unique look at immigration
…mily ties as he follows an elderly Mexican man
…akes the dangerous journey to work illegally in
…S.
…l 23, 9:30 pm. Workingman's Death 2005.
…lm follows the lives of Ukrainian coal miners,
… esian sulfur collectors, Nigerian animal
…ers, Pakistani welders and Chinese steel work-
…rking in five of the most hazardous jobs still
… med in the 21st century. Michael Glawogger
…s.
…l 24, 7:30 pm. Walking to Werner 2006. Di-
… Linas Phillips pays homage to his filmmaking
… Werner Herzog, by walking from Seattle to
…o meet him.
…l 25, 7:30 pm. Hotel Rwanda 2004. Based on
…eal-life story of Paul Rusesabagina, a hotel
…ger who housed over 1,200 refugees during
…wandan genocide. Terry George directs.

Frances McDormand and Jennifer Aniston discuss their differences in Friends with Money.

COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE

•April 28, Schedule times to be announced, see Web site for details. Mardi Gras: Made in China 2005. This film exposes the inequalities of globalization by documenting the "bead trail," starting with the lives of four young Chinese women working in the largest Mardi Gras bead factory in the world to Mardi Gras festivities on Bourbon Street. David Redmon directs.

Expand Your World

•April 19, 7 pm. Paper Clips 2004. As a part of their study of the Holocaust, highschool children are asked to collect 6 million paper clips to represent the 6 million Jews killed by the Nazis. Elliot Berlin and Joe Fab direct.

Independent Film Festival of Boston

•April 21, 3:30 pm; April 23, 7:30 pm. This segment of the festival features a series of animated shorts from directors in the U.S., the U.K., Canada and Australia.

•April 21, 6 pm. Brothers of the Head 2005. Keith Fulton and Louis Pepe direct this narrative film about two conjoined brothers who become infamous punk-rock stars.

•April 21, 8:30 pm. The Legend of Lucy Keyes 2006. John Stimpson directs this film based on events surrounding the mysterious disappearance of Lucy Keyes, a young girl whose ghost, along with her mother's, is believed to haunt the rural town of Princeton, Mass.

•April 21, 11:30 pm. This segment features the short films Death Trance 2005 directed by Yuji Shimomura and Revenge-A-Go-Go 2005 directed by Ryosuke Oguwa.

•April 22, 12 am. District B13 2005. In France in the year 2010, one man tries to take on the leader of a drug trafficking mob in hopes of saving his neighborhood from further corruption. Pierre Morel directs.

•April 22, 12 pm. Forgiving Dr. Mengele 2006. Eva Kor, one of only two members of her family to survive WWII, stirs up controversy when she publicly forgives the Nazis during the 50th anniversary celebration of the liberation of Auschwitz. Bob Hercules and Sheri Pugh direct.

•April 22, 2:30 pm. As Smart as They Are: The Author Project 2005. See April 23 Brattle Theatre for a description.

•April 22, 4:30 pm. Down in the Valley 2005. Set in California's San Fernando Valley, this film follows the life of a delusional man who walks, talks and acts like a cowboy, and the relationship he forms with a young, rebellious girl. Directed by David Jacobson.

•April 22, 7 pm. Red, White, Black & Blue 2006. See April 23 Brattle Theatre for a description.

•April 22, 9:30 pm. Infamy 2006. See April 21 Brattle Theatre for a description.

•April 23, 12 pm. Abduction: The Megumi Yokota Story 2006. The kidnapping of a 13-year-old girl is found to be connected to the kidnappings of 12 other girls, sparking an uproar from parents who suspect that politics and a corrupt police force are to blame for the crimes. Chris Sheridan directs.

•April 23, 2:30 pm. The Last Romantic 2006. Calvin Wizzig arrives in NYC with the dream of becoming a published poet and has some memorable encounters with interesting people along the way. Aaron and Adam Nee direct.

•April 23, 5 pm. Thin 2006. See April 21 Brattle Theatre for a description.

•April 23, 9:30 pm. Nick Poppy's short film Zombie-American 2005, about a zombie in America and his struggles with intolerance, precedes the documentary F*ck 2005. See April 22 Brattle Theatre description.

King Kong and Godzilla

•April 26, 7 pm. King Kong 1933. A film crew goes on a shoot to an exotic tropical island and discovers a giant gorilla who becomes obsessed with their blonde female star. Cooper and Ernest B. Schoedsack direct.

•April 26, 9 pm. Gojira (Godzilla) 1954. Radiation from American nuclear weapons testing creates a seemingly unstoppable, dinosaur-like beast that terrorizes and destroys Tokyo. Ishirô Honda directs.

•April 26, 11 pm. Kingu Kongu tai Gojira (King Kong vs. Godzilla) 1962. King Kong is captured by a pharmaceutical company and brought to Japan, where he escapes and battles the recently released Godzilla. Ishirô Honda directs.

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

Beyond Truth: Contemporary Nonfiction Cinema

•April 30, 7 pm. Muxes: Auténticas, Intrépidas Buscadoras del Peligro (Muxes: Authentic, Intrepid Seekers of Danger) 2005. This documentary follows a group of indigenous and mestizo men in the town of Juchitan, Oaxaca, who live openly as gay men while simultaneously defending their identity as Zapotec Indians. Alejandra Islas directs.

Fashion and Film

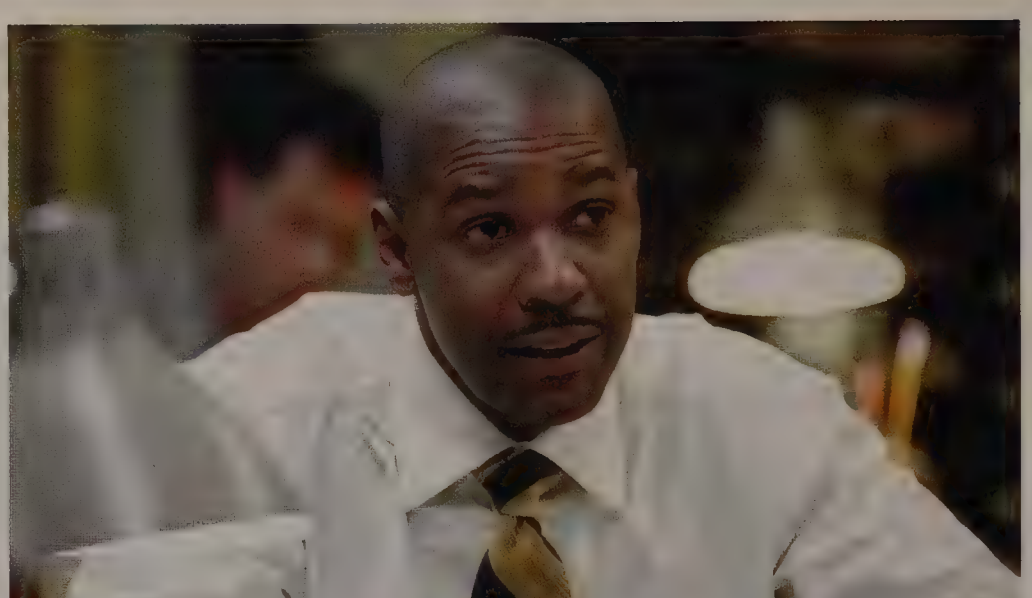
•April 25, 7 pm. The Leopard 1963. Based on the novel by Giuseppe Tomasi di Lampedusa and directed by Luchino Visconti, this film explores the decline of traditional aristocratic values.

•May 2, 7 pm. Last Year at Marienbad 1961. Alain Resnais directs this story tracking the encounters of a set of unnamed characters who can't differentiate between the past and the present.

The Films of Jan Schutte

•April 21, 7 pm. Auf Wiedersehen Amerika (Bye Bye America) 1993. Inspired by conversations director Schutte had with émigrés he met while walking along the boardwalk in Brighton Beach, New York, the film depicts characters whose fate is to search for a homeland.

•April 21, 9 pm. Old Love 2001. Based on a short story by the American author and Nobel prize–winner Isaac Singer, this film explores the theme of loneliness in old age. Also showing, Dragon Chow 1987. A young Pakistani man seeking to gain residence in Hamburg takes an illegal job in a Chinese restaurant.



Denzel Washington plays a New York City detective in Inside Man.

•April 22, 6:30 pm. Abschied (Farewell) 2000. Schutte directs this portrait of one of Germany's leading modern artists, Bertolt Brecht.

•April 22, 9 pm. Supertex 2003. This film follows the first-born of a wealthy Jewish family whose father owns Supertex, a discount textile company, and must change his plans for the future after a dramatic accident befalls the family.

•April 23, 7 pm. Actually I Wanted to Go to America 1984. An elderly woman living in Germany reflects on her life and her relationship with her best friend. Also showing, Eine Reise In das Innere von Wien (A Voyage into the Innermost of Vienna) 1995. Based on Gerhard Roth's book with the same title, this film is a collection of nine stories about Vienna.

•April 23, 9 pm. Fette Welt (Fat World) 1998. Filmed in the streets under bridges and in half-built buildings around Munich, this story follows a group of homeless men and women drifting aimlessly around the city.

Four Masters

•April 24, 7 pm. Jeanne Dielman, 23 Quai du Commerce, 1080 Bruxelles 1975. Chantal Akerman directs this film that follows three days in the life of a Brussels housewife and widow, who is also a prostitute.

•May 1, 7 pm. Les Années 80 (The Eighties) 1983. A series of interconnected episodes about the making of Akerman's musical Window Shop revealed through clips from script read-th casting auditions, dress rehearsals, costume and screen tests.

•May 1, 9 pm. Window Shopping 1985. Ac directs this musical set in a Parisian shopping

Frames of Mind

•April 19, 7 pm. Lost in Translation 200 Coppola directs this film about cultural ali as a washed-up actor filming a whiskey c cial befriends the wife of a photographer w struggles with loneliness in Tokyo.

•April 26, 7 pm. The Matrix 1999. A c hacker learns from mysterious rebels about nature of his reality and his role in the war those who control it. Andy and Larry Wacho rect.

Objects in Motion

•April 19, 9 pm. Twilight Zone Showca droids 'R' Us selects four episodes, from th successful television series, about what i mean to design artificial human beings.

•May 2, 9 pm. Animating Objects combi perimental work with fantasy films that sh the complex relationship between our attachment to inanimate things throu films of Alain Resnais, including Les Meurent Aussi (Statues Also Die) 1953, L du Styrène (Song of Styrène) 1958 an la Mémoire du Monde (All the Memor World) 1956.

Otaku Cinema Slam

•April 28, 7 pm. Rendan (Quartet for Tw Naoto Tekanaka directs this film about tw children as they adjust to the breakup of their marriage.

•April 28, 9 pm. Gamera 3: Jashin Irisu (Gamera 3: Revenge of the Iris) 1999. This s details the counterattack against a destructi ster and a guardian of the earth, who hatches egg found at an ancient religious site. Shusuke directs.

•April 29, 7 pm. The World of Yamamura tion 1987-2005. By combining different me as modeling clay, three-dimensional figur tographs and drawings, Koji Yamamura creat crafted visuals in a selection of 10 short anim

LUCKY BRAND JEANS
COPLEY PLACE ★ NEWBURY STREET
LUCKY BRAND JEANS
COPLEY PLACE ★ NEWBURY STREET

EUM OF FINE ARTS
umentary Educational Resources
5t Anniversary
il 30, 10:30 am. Screening Room with Jean 1980. Jean Rouch, considered one of the fa- of "Direct Cinema," appears in the July 1980 icast of Screening Room which stars Robert ner.

: Montreal Festival of Film on Art il 20, 2 pm. Forbidden Notes: Scenes from the f Music in the Soviet Russia 2004. Bruno Mon- on directs this film about an orchestra leader difficult times in Soviet Russia.
il 20, 3:30 pm. Molinari—La Couleur Chante nari—The Color Sings) 2004. Lauriaine André ects this film about Canadian painter, poet, or and theoretician Guido Molinari and his c influences Mallarmé and Mondrian. Also ng, Around 2004. This film showcases Ameri- ulptor Richard Serra's work. Pappi Corsicato s.
il 27, 2 pm. Moshe Safdie, the Power of Ar- cture 2004. Donald Winkler directs this film Israeli-born Canadian architect Moshe 's career as he moves from project to project.
il 27, 3:45 pm. Tápies Tea 2004. This film fea- the life of 20th-century artist Antoni Tápies. ina Tubau directs. Also showing, Eternal Gaze This computer-animated film highlights the ears of artist Alberto Giacometti's life. Sam directs. Also showing, Around 2004. See 20 listing for details.

pendent Film Festival of Boston il 20, 7:45 pm. Great New Wonderful 2005. y Leiner directs this film in which Edie Falco Maggie Gyllenhall play enemies in the sur- gly high-stress world of gourmet cake design.
il 21, 1:30 pm. The Well 2005. This film fol- director Orson Welles' steps through Spain tracing lesser known aspects of his life. Kris- etri directs.
il 21, 4 pm. Excavating Taylor Mead 2005. am Kirkley directs this documentary about r Mead, the last of the beatniks.
il 21, 6:30 pm. Giant Buddhas 2005. Director tian Frei explores the December 2000 destruc- f a pair of 1,500-year-old giant-stone Buddhas niyan, Afghanistan.
il 21, 9 pm. Pick Up the Mic 2005. Alex Hin- directs this documentary feature about 20 , activists and entertainers who belong to the g underground queer hip-hop movement.

r Animated Film Programs
il 20, 5:45 pm. Ruth Lingford, Steve Gentile, an Sousa visit the MFA to present a program -minute animated shorts, which include rd's Death of a Mother 1997, Pleasures of 1999 and The Old Fools 2002; Gentile's 35 m Never Live Above a Psychic, in which a battles with his disruptive downstairs bors; and Sousa's Minotaur 1999, Carnal nd 1994 and Fable 2005, a cyclical fairytale ich a man and woman are cursed to be apart r.
il 26, 8:30 pm. Best of Ottawa 2005 show- animated short films, TV series and commer- music videos, Internet shorts and more the 2005 Ottawa International Animation al.
il 27, 5:30 pm. Museum School Film Annual am offers an opportunity to see the films and s produced in the past year by students of the l of the Museum of Fine Arts.
il 27, 8 pm. Very Funny Short Films presents dic short films from the past several years, in- ng Nick Poppy's Zombie-American 2005; usto 2004 directed by Coleman Miller; John en's La Vie d'un Chien (The Life of a Dog) Ari Sandel's West Bank Story 2005, a spoof st Side Story*; Simon Hynd's Tumshie McFag- Bid for Ultimate Bliss 2005, and Coming e 2005, directed by Greg Benson, in which a ban husband is surprised by what he finds he arrives home.

EUM OF SCIENCE
ar Omni Theatre
azon. This semi-documentary IMAX film fol- a real-life American ethnobotanist and a fic- l medicine man on parallel searches for healing amid the Zoë tribe, possibly the last tribe in mericas to remain culturally intact. Through 30.
ece: Secrets of the Past. This film takes viewers archeological adventure that examines histori- cations in Greece, such as the Parthenon, and re- ructs them through the use of computer imaging. gh Sept. 4.
cial Effects. This film takes a behind-the-scenes look at the making of Star Wars: Where Science Meets Imagination, Kazaam!, Independence Day and Jumanji. Through April 30.
• Wired-to-Win: Surviving the Tour de France. This film explores how the body's organs are connected to the brain, how the brain reacts to external stimuli and how these factors ultimately determine the winner of the world's most prestigious bicycle race. Through April 30.

NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM
Simons IMAX Theater
• Aliens of the Deep. NASA scientists and marine biologists embark on an expedition to hydrothermal vent sites in the Atlantic and Pacific oceans to explore volcanic regions. Through June.
• Deep Sea 3D. An underwater crew logs over 300 hours underwater on 225 dives, filming squid in the Sea of Cortez, jellyfish off Monterey and coral reefs in the Bahamas. Through June.
• Sharks 3D. Cousteau explores several shark species using three-dimensional views. Through June.
• Wild Safari 3D. This film shows the African savannah from a safari jeep exploration. Through June.

Cinema Venues

ARLINGTON
Regent Theatre
7 Medford St. (617-646-4849).

BELMONT
Studio Cinema
376 Trapelo Road (617-484-1706).

BOSTON
Boston Public Library
700 Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.
Fenway 13 Theatre
201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.
Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St. (617-266-5152). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ ICA.
Loews Boston Common
175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.
Museum of Science
Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Line to Science Park.
New England Aquarium
Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.

BROOKLINE
Circle Cinema
399 Chestnut Hill Ave. (617-566-4040). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle.
Coolidge Corner Theatre
290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE
Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Fresh Pond
168 Alewife Brook Parkway (617-661-2900). MBTA: Red Line to Alewife.
Harvard Film Archive
24 Quincy St. (617-495-4700). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Kendall Square Cinema
One Kendall Square. (617-621-1202). MBTA: Orange Line to Ruggles.
Loews/Sony
10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

NEWTON
Chestnut Hill Cinema
27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill.
West Newton Cinema
1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060). MBTA: Commuter Rail to West Newton.

SOMERVILLE
Loews/Sony
35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan.
Somerville Theatre
55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

Animal Instincts

Neo-folkie Josh Ritter unleashes his inner wolf in sound and spirit.

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

Josh Ritter traversed far-flung places to find his musical voice. A native of Idaho, he graduated from Ohio's Oberlin College in 1999, then moved to Boston to try open mikes as a singer-songwriter, only to stumble upon fame in Ireland.

But such geographic jumps pale next to the artistic leap that Ritter takes with his third album, The Animal Years. Whereas Golden Age of Radio and Hello Starling showcased his acoustic-stroked craft, the new CD nestles deeper, not only in its impressionistic narratives, but in atmospheric touches that color the mood and meaning of each song.

Idaho native Josh Ritter takes a different approach with his new album The Animal Years.

"I needed to take a step in a different direction, and push [the music] forward a little," says Ritter, who has shifted into rock clubs like Avalon, where he'll play April 29, as well as sit-down listening halls such as Fall River's Narrows Center, where he'll perform the night before.

"Rock clubs are so fun, and I never felt a real affiliation with folk music," Ritter says from his hometown of Moscow, Idaho, where he recently returned and bought a house. "I was a songwriter, and you work with what you have at the time."

For The Animal Years, that included working with indie-rock producer Brian Deck. "He finds ways to narrate a song using the sound of the music," says Ritter, 29. "I loved that [Deck-produced] Modest Mouse record The Moon and Antarctica—even though the lyrics are there, you would almost know what was going on without them. And I wanted to get away from the Americana sound. I wanted to take away the guitar as the main instrument, and it made my band a lot stronger."

Sam Kassirer's ghostly piano, organ and synthesizer parts accent the Springsteen-ian spirit of many tracks, while drummer Dave Hingerty lends subtle momentum and bassist Zack Hickman injects mandolin, ukulele and lap steel. Deck-guided effects such as the rubbed piano wires that suggest distant barking in "Wolves" complete the stark canvas.

"I wanted there to be a wolf reference or sound in every song—either howling like a wolf or a lonesome Hank Williams howl," Ritter says. "Wolves are really close to humans, like a werewolf or being raised by wolves."

That idea sealed the CD title, along with Ritter's view of touring. "That brings out the real hunter-gathering thing," he says. "I love being out on the road, but there have definitely been some times when the band has gone kinda crazy. I remember shooting vitamins and creamers off the roof of a hotel in England with a slingshot."

Crazy world affairs inspired much of his writing. "With all of this confusion in the world, why am I trying to write these songs that act like I'm not confused?" Ritter says. "I'm really surprised that so many musicians have such clear ideas on one thing. There's so much about life that's confusing, and that's what makes us human. We have the ability to be confused, not like other animals. I'm just surprised that there's such a premium put on absolute conviction these days, and I didn't want to go for that."

Those feelings permeate the ambitious "Thin Blue Flame," a nine-minute track roiling with such stream-of-consciousness testimony as "It's a Bible or a bullet they put over your heart. It's getting harder and harder to tell them apart." Yet Ritter prefers oblique commentary throughout the engaging disc, despite allusions to religion, history and literature.

"It's like a reporter is supposed to remain unbiased, or a war photographer," he says. "You take a bunch of pictures on the battlefield and throw them on the table. People can see things that are going on, but you're not giving them captions to tell them what's happening. I wanted to make images without making them editorials."

An American studies major in college, Ritter only fell for music at age 18 after hearing Bob Dylan's "Girl From the North Country," a duet with Johnny Cash. "It sounded so punk," he says. "I didn't know anything except for Top 40 country and Janet Jackson. But hearing that was like a revelation."

Around Boston, Ritter played rooms like Club Passim and the Kendall Café, where Irish rockers the Frames saw one song and asked him to open for them in Ireland, a huge break.

"I learned a lot about the importance of dynamics from them," he says, "and that you shouldn't feel bad about having a great time while you're playing. They always reminded me of that Bruce Springsteen line from 'Badlands,' that 'It ain't no sin to be glad you're alive.' I think that's the thing you want to hold onto more than anything when you're playing music. You should project that. There are enough people projecting torture and strife." iB

Josh Ritter
plays the Narrows Center in Fall River April 28 and Avalon April 29.

Advice to Contributors

Submit information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc. (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music, email to music@improper.com. Include dates, prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline four weeks prior to publication date. Listings not accepted over the phone.

Advice to Readers

Information for the Music section is compiled from different sources. Although we make every effort to print accurate dates and times, changes do occur. Call ahead to double-check dates and times (see complete listings at the end of the section).

Top Billings

Dresden Dolls April 21, Orpheum Theatre (679-0810).
Great Big Sea April 29 and 30, Somerville Th (617-625-5700).
Lisa Loeb April 27, Felt (617-350-5555).
Ellis Paul and Antje Duvekot April 28, Some Theatre (617-625-5700).
P.O.D. April 22, Axis (617-262-2437).
The Strokes April 25, Agganis Arena (617-4628).
Train and Brandi Carlile April 25, Orpheum Th (617-679-0810).

Rock, Jazz and Blues

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19

Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: Andrew Bryant, C ian Kaufmann, 7 pm. Main Stage: Grave Haver Bamboo Shoots, Mad Pedestrian, Walter th ange Ocean, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Avalon Toots and the Maytals, 8 pm, $22.50.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover.
The Burren Acoustic Alchemy, 10 pm, $5, 21+
Cantab Lounge Candy's Rythm & Blues, 9 pm
Club Passim Richard Julian, Jenna Nicholls, $10-$12.
Dick's Last Resort Jenn & Steve Show, 7 pm.
Great Scott BlackOut Bar, Doomriders, I pearer, Bloodhorse, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9:3 21+.
Johnny D's Thomas Mapfumo, 8:30 pm, $16.
Lily Pad Alec Spiegelman Quartet, Blake and V luex Duo, Newpoli, 8 pm, $8.
Lizard Lounge The Dennis Brennan Band, K Cifelli, 8 pm, $5.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, Herbert, 9 pm.
Middle East Upstairs: Thee Electric Bastard Living Sea, Codetta, Stephen Brodsky, 9 pr 18+. Downstairs: Islands, Why?, Cadence We 8 pm, $12.
PA's Landing, the Kitchen Cynics, Paik, The forms, 8:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Paddy O's Phil Ayoub, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Lounge The Young Republic, Garris light, the Juice, Jimmy Gruesome and the Hi Super Hero Let Down, 8 pm, $7, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Sia, Eagle and Talon, pm, 18+.
The Plough and Stars Bad Art Ensemble, 10 p
Scullers Jazz Club Marianne Solivan Quartet, $20.
Tír na nÓg Bad Art Ensemble, 10 pm, 21+.
Toad Arielle Silver, Amelia White, Jennifer 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 p cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Subtle, Fog, Jel, 9:15 p 18+.
Les Zygomates Leah Souza, 8 pm, no cover.

THURSDAY, APRIL 20

Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: Eric Fontana, Betty ski, 7 pm. Main Stage: the Tampoffs, Moto, th pentine Brothers, the Curses, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+
The Attic Ray Hendricks, 8 pm, 21+.
Avalon Soulive, 9 pm, $18, 18+.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Groove Authority, 7 p
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Breezeway Serious Bizness, 7:30 pm, no 18+.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover.
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 2
Cantab Lounge ChickenSlacks, 9 pm..
Club Passim The Arrogant Worms, Paul and 8 PM, $10-$12.
Felt Alana Davis, 9 pm, 21+.

Take my hand shiny knight, and let us waltz to your jingly-jangly beat all night long.

Trying your luck at one of over 6,000 slot machines is just one of the many ways to enjoy your time at Mohegan Sun. You'll also find over 300 table games, 60 shops and restaurants, exciting entertainment venues and a luxurious hotel and spa — all located in scenic southeastern Connecticut in Mystic Country. For more ways to play, call 1.888.226.7711 or visit mohegansun.com.

gaming entertainment dining nightlife shopping spa hotel

Mohegan Sun a world at play

Great Scott Heartbreak LLC, Ducky Boys, Brain Failure, Tommy And the Terrors, Born To Lose, 9 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Green Street Grill Joh Camara & Jama-Jigi, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Cloud Cult, 9 pm, $8.
Kirkland Café Jon Macy, Mr Curt Ensemble, Bird Mancini, Andy Hollinger, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Lizard Lounge McGowan, Zack Hexum, Las Rubias Del Norte, 8 pm, $8.
Lucky's Lounge The Alex MacDougall Band, 10 pm.
Matt Murphy's Shay Walker, Noel Scott, 7 pm; Wild Sextet, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Left Handed Thieves, Jason Smith Band, Cholo, cement Head, 8 pm, $10, 18+. Downstairs: Mumiy Troll, 8 pm, $40-$45, 18+.
PA's The Suntanama, Sunburned Hand of the Man, the Spacious Mind, 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Paddy O's Justin Beech & Tom Groleau, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Eric Hutchinson, Mutlu, 6 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Particle, Pnuma Trio, $17, 8 pm, 18+.
Regattabar Ahmad Jamal, 7:30 and 10 pm, $27.50.
Ryles Jazz Club Compaq Big Band, 8:30 pm, $8.
Scullers Jazz Club Willie & Lobo, $20, 8 and 10 pm.
Tír na nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn, 10 pm, 21+.
Toad The Family Jewels, Organ-ism, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Eileen Rose, Drab, Rose Hollow, Hats And Glasses, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Les Zygomates Steven Spungin Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

FRIDAY, APRIL 21

Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: Melisande, Dave Alpert, 7 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
The Attic Splended Nobodys, 8 pm, 21+.
Axis Matt Wertz, Mat Kearney, 6:30 pm, $10.
Berklee Performance Center Mario Cantone, 9 pm, $40.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Pat Loomis Quartet, 7:30 pm, $5.
Boston Harbor Hotel Jeff Hicks Trio, 7:30 pm.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover.
The Burren Cover Up, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook, 9 pm.
Club Passim Tom Russell, 8 pm, $18-$20.
Commander's Mansion Kate Chadbourne, 7:30 pm, $20.
Dick's Last Resort Classic Trax, 9:30 pm.
Good Life Downtown Al Vega Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott The Pill, Protokoll, 9 pm, $5-$7, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern 4 Inch Stud, 9:30 pm, 21+.
The Harp Loudmouth, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5 pm; Lisa Love Experience, 9 pm, $5, 21+. Upstairs: Syndicate.
Kinsale Christy Connell Band, 9 pm.
Kirkland Café Mickey Bliss Organ Trio, Proud Mary Mudfoot, Brother Mosley, 8:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Las Rubias Del Norte, Session Americana, 8 pm, $10.
Lucky's Lounge Blacksnake, Greg Luttrell, 10 pm.
Matt Murphy's BQEZ, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Bang Circus, semi Precious Weapons, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Rock 'N' Roll Rumble Finals featuring Taylor Hawkins & the Coattail Riders, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Milky Way All the Kings Men, 9 pm, $6-$10.
Mr. Dooley's Eamonn Sheehan, 5 pm; Sunday's Well, 21+.
Orpheum Dresden Dolls, 7:30, $25.
PA's Chop Chop, Dogme 95, Verona Downs, is a Battle, 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Paddy O's Spike the Punch, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Folk for Stroke, Kate Klim, leen Farrell, Deb Pasternak, John Faye, Jennife Will Brierly, 8 pm, $12-$15, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Robert Pollard, Richard $16.50, 8 pm, 18+.
Parris Last Man Standing, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Regattabar Ahmad Jamal, 7:30 and 10 pm, $
Scullers Jazz Club Larry Carlton, 8 and 10: $26.
Terrace Lounge River City Band, 9:30 pm.
Tír na nÓg David Johnston Band, 10 pm, 21
Toad Sam Bisbee, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The December Sound, tonic, the Attorneys, 9:15 pm, $8, 18+.
The Western Front Just-Ice, 8 pm, $10.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ro Trio, 8 pm, no co

SATURDAY, APRIL 22

Abbey Lounge Asa Brebner, Andrea Gillis, 21+.
The Attic Jody Grind, 8 pm, 21+.
Avalon Dredge, 6:30 pm, $15.
Axis P.O.D., Maylene & the Sons of Disas Chariot, Pillar, 6:30 pm, $10.
Berklee Performance Center Children of U 8 pm, $28-$37.
Bill's Bar Lifted, 9 pm, 21+.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne, 9:30 pm, 21+
Bob's Southern Bistro Uziel Colon's La Quartet, $5.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm; Joe B 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Burren Old School, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook, 9 pm.
Club Passim Duke Levine, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dick's Last Resort Ript, 9:30 pm.
Felt Val Emmich, 9 pm, 21+.
Good Life Downtown Al Vega Trio, 9:30 cover, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Freeze Pop, 9:30 p
Green Street Grill Kilombo Mambo, 11:30
The Harp Loudmouth, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

Andrea Bocelli June 16, Tweeter Center (617-228-6000).
Chris Botti June 18, Berklee Performance Center (617-747-2261).
Elvis Costello May 10, Boston Symphony Hall (617-266-1492).
Gov't Mule, Michael Franti and Spearhead June 2, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Gypsy Kings July 8, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Ben Harper with Damian Jr. Gong Marley Sept. 8, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Faith Hill and Tim McGraw June 25 and 26, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
Etta James June 24, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Madonna July 6, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
Dave Matthews Band and Sheryl Crow July 7 and 8, Fenway Park (617-482-0651).
Steve Miller Band Aug. 25 and 26, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Willie Nelson May 27, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
The New Cars with Blondie June 7, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Pearl Jam May 24 and 25, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
Bonnie Raitt July 2, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Linda Ronstadt June 1, Opera House (617-931-2000).
Sigur Ros May 14, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Staind with Three Days Grace June 3, Bank of America Pavilion (617-728-1600).
Taking Back Sunday May 5, Avalon (617-931-2000).

Strokes play April 25 at Agganis Arena.

's Ferry Alternate Routes, the Brakes, Julian
9 pm, $10, 18+.
ssy's The Risk, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
D's Roots Nation, Dub is a Weapon, 9:45 0. dy's Midtown Matt Germak & Jennifer ws, 9:30 pm, $5, 18+.
Christy Connell Band, 9 pm.
Mason Gohl, 1 pm; Stage 3 Trio, 7:30 pm.
Lounge Adam Seeney, Boris McCutch, 8 pm.
s Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, 7 pm.
urphy's Stillhouse Revue, 11 pm, no cover.
East Upstairs: the Breakfast, II Papas, 9 pm, +. Downstairs: Avail, the Draft, Pink Razors, nd Key, 8 pm, $10, 18+.
y Café Jumblies, Nick Blake, Temper, Weists, 9 pm.
Vay Blues Revue, 1 pm, $5-$10.
oley's Sunday's Well, 9 pm, 21+.
lysses, Rotary Club, JoeSixPack, Moore &
:30 pm, 21+.
O's Brick Park, 9;30 pm, 21+.
se Lounge World's Greatest Sinners, Red In-Dansettes , 9 pm, $8, 18+.
se Rock Club Railroad Earth, $15, 9 pm,

Last Man Standing, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Shamrock Fast Times, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.
abar Ahmad Jamal, 7:30 and 10 pm,

Pat McGee Band, Stephen Kellogg & the
7 pm, $16.50-$18.
azz Club Soul City, 9 pm, $10.
rs Theatre @ Harvard Harvard Monday
nd, Kuumba Singers, Jon Hendricks, 8 pm,

s Jazz Club Larry Carlton, 8 and 10:30 pm,

e Lounge River City Band, 9:30 pm.
nÓg Eilen Jewell Band, 5 pm; Tom Hagerty, 21+.
Monique Ortiz, the Ray Mason Band, 7 pm,
er.
the Hub Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 pm, no

e Bear's Place FluttrEffect, Ghettobillies, Zero, Allison Tartalia, Rhonda Everitt,
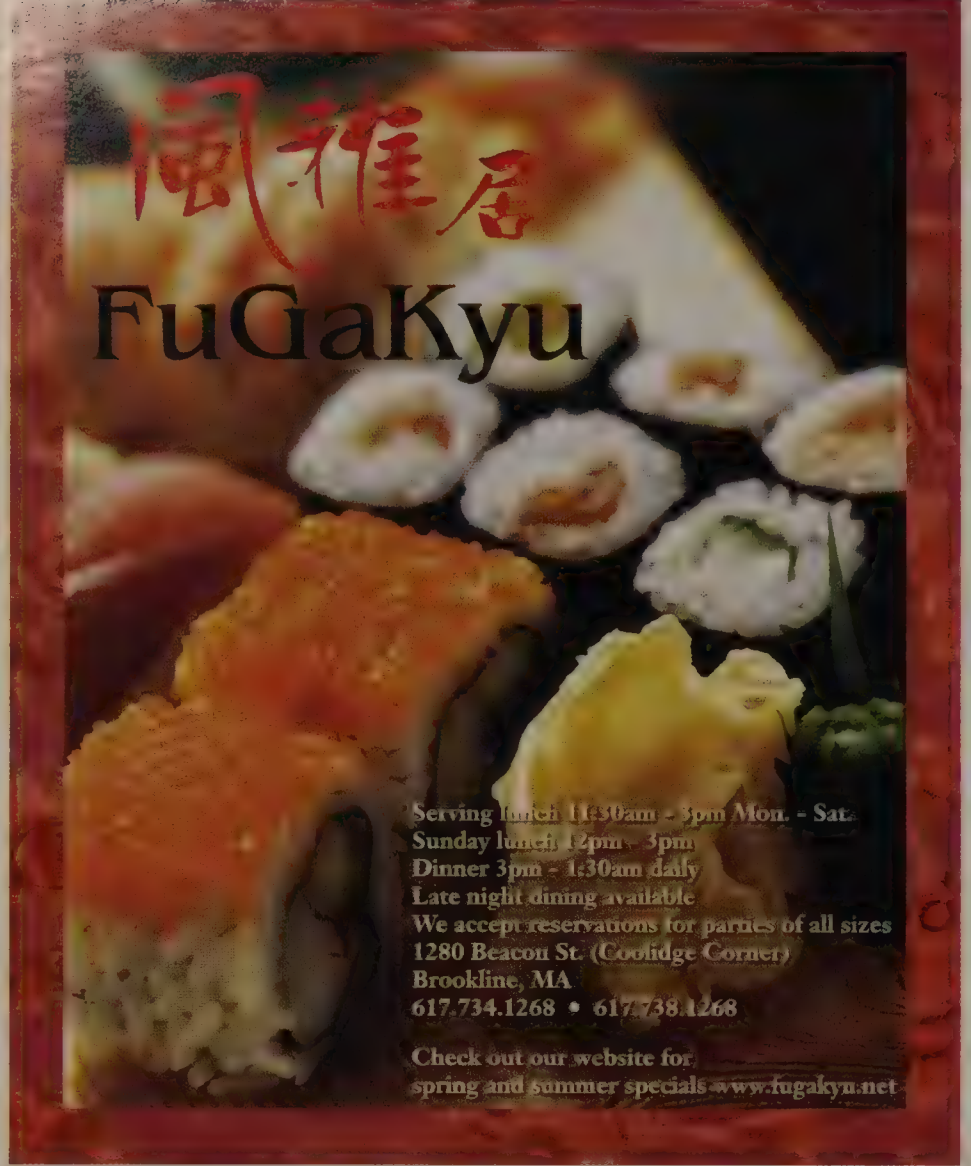
n, $10, 18+.
estern Front Vibewise, 8 pm, $10.
st Gallery Matthew Joy, 8 pm, $10.
Soul-le-lu-jah, 10 pm.
gomates Marianne Solivan, 8 pm, no cover.

SUNDAY, APRIL 23

All-Asia Café John Taglieri & Rozino Smith, 6:30 pm, $5.
Avalon T.I., 7 pm, $22.50.
Berklee Performance Center Children of Uganda, 3 pm, $28-$37.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Nat Simpkins, Henri Smith Band, 10:30 am.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11 am; Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Rhythm & Blues, 9 pm.
Club Passim John Gorka, Rose Cousins, 6 and 9 pm, $23-$25.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm.
The Druid Tastes Like Gravy String Band, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott Honeypump, Hand Fed Babies Squids, B.E.A.R.D., 9 pm, $7, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Brick Park, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Hennessy's Tom Groleau Band, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Matt Dorko, Larry Kukers, 9 am, no cover; Blues Jam, 4:30 pm, $3.
Lucky's Lounge Bennett Miller Trio, 11 am; Al Vega Trio, Adam Herbert, 8:30 pm.
Matt Murphy's Noel Scott and Ted Davis, 12 pm; the Wall, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: She's the Car, Searching for Silence, Too Late the Hero, the Northwood, 1 pm, $9; Unearthly Trance, Lair of the Minotaur, Watchmaker, Hellblock 6, DeathAmphetamine, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Midway Café Geoff Tofler, 9 pm.
Milky Way Doria Roberts, 1 Achord, 8:30 pm, $5.
MIT's Kresge Auditorium Gamelan Galak Tika, 3 pm, $5-$10.
Mr. Dooley's Irish Sesuin, 4 pm, 21+.
Newton Free Library Gail Rundlett, 2 pm, free.
PA's Wildlife, the Pharmacy, 8:30 pm, $7-$10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Stephen Marley, Ky-Mani Marley, $17, 8 pm, 18+.
The Plough and Stars Frank Morey, 8 pm.
Ryles Jazz Club Yoko Miwa, 10 am, no cover.
Tir na nOg BJ Snowden, 10 pm, 21+.
Toad Liz Stahler, Mike Dinallo, Dean Cassell, Steve Sadler, Andy Plaisted, Dennis Brennan, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm; Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
Wonder Bar OD3 Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.



MONDAY, APRIL 24

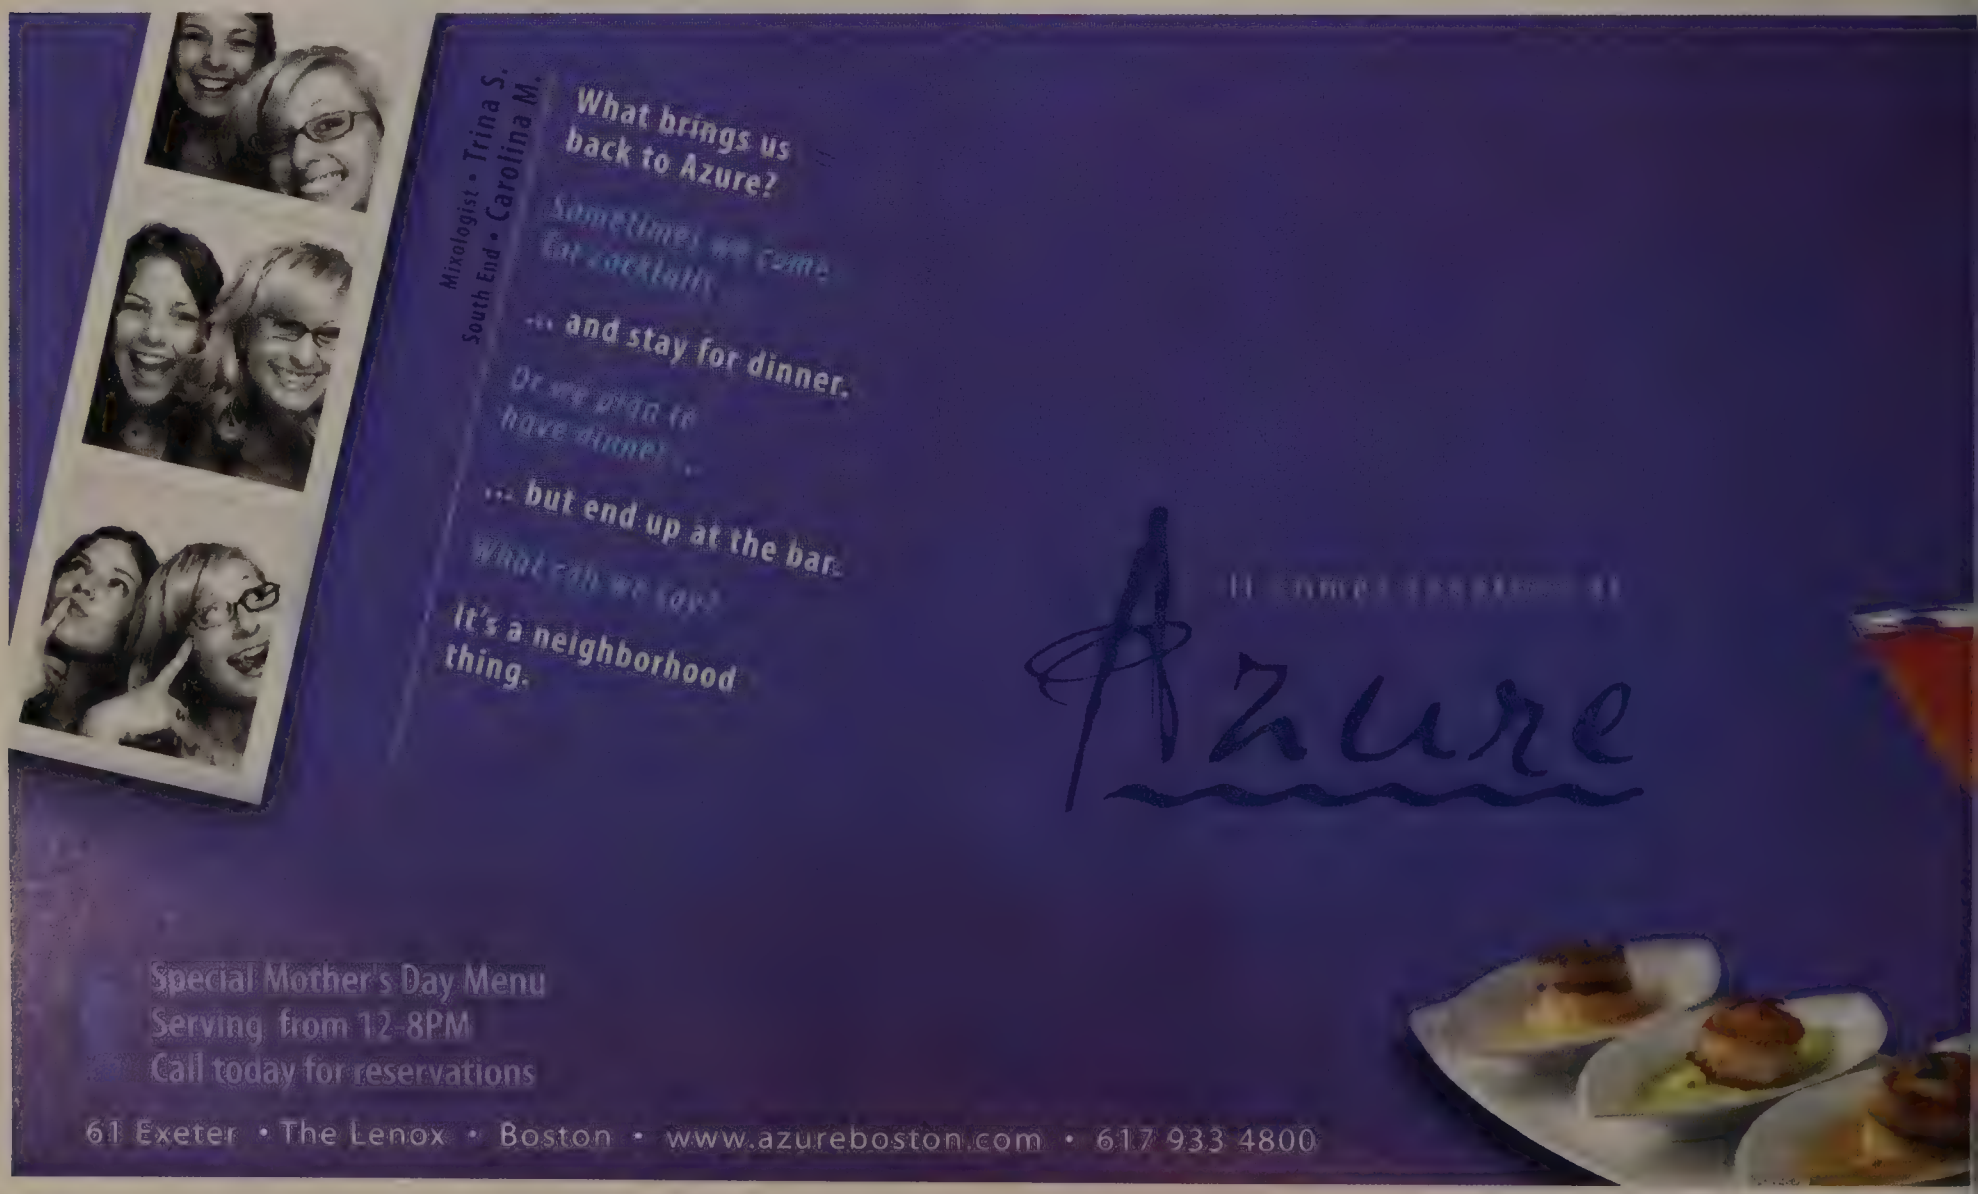
Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: the Blue Ribbons, Steve Mayone, 7 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
The Black Rose Tony O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm.
Great Scott The Fenway Recordings Sessions, Jamie Lidell, Jimmy Edgar, 9 pm, $12, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Amandla, Claude Coleman Jr., 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Hennessy's Joe Carson, 9 pm, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Mike Tucker, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: John Vanderslice, Wooden Wand, Page France, 9 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
Paradise Lounge R. Star, Rose Polenzani, Kevin Herchen.
Paradise Rock Club Eagles Of Death Metal, $15, 8 pm, 18+.
Tír na nÓg Kevin Byrne Band, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Shwang, Anita Suhanin, the Tim Gearan Band, 8 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Green Pajamas, Joe Turner & the Seven Levels, Broken River Prophet, 9:10 pm, $10, 18+.
Wonder Bar Sam Kininger, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Les Zyg Jam Session, 9 pm, no cover.

TUESDAY, APRIL 25

Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: Diamond Ensemble & Emily Grogan, 7 pm. Main Stage: Kenny Chambers, Lenny, the Drags, Doug McDonald Band, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Agganis Arena The Strokes, 7:30 pm, $30.
An Tua Nua The Vacant Lot, 8:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Axis Thursday, Minus the Bear, We're All Broken, mewithoutYou, 7 pm, $19.
Bill's Bar Showden, Morning Theft, 9 pm, 18+.
The Black Rose Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Breezeway E-Water Band, 7:30 pm, no cover, 18+.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm.
Dick's Last Resort Nate Watkins, 7 pm.
The Foundation Lounge Jeanie Flynn & the Strays, 7:30 pm.
Great Scott Great Scott, Piles, Shuttleco- mal Hospital, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9 21+.
Green Street Grill Two Timin' Three, th 10:30 pm, no cover.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Dana Edelman, Casey Abran York, 8:30 pm, $8.
Kinsale Christy Connell Band, 9 pm.
Lily Pad Marassa Duo, 8 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge Ramona Silver, Miss Tess, $5.
Matt Murphy's Micro, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Stillbreather, Grandevolution, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Midway Café Sound & Shape, 9 pm.
Orpheum Train, Brandi Carlile, 7:30 pm, $
PA's Horns of Happiness, 8:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Usual Suspecks, 8 pm, $7,
Paradise Rock Club Citizen Cope, 8 pm, $2
Regattabar Pierre Hurel Trio, 7:30 pm, $12
Tír na nÓg David Johnston Band, 10 pm, 2
Toad Rose Polenzani, Scotch Rocks, 8:30 cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Fair Enough, the Dave Crespo, Lauren Flaherty, 9 pm, $7, 18

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: the Acro-Brat Buggies, Year of the Cow, Ship in High T pm, $6-$8, 21+.
The Black Rose Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover
The Burren Acoustic Alchemy, 10 pm, $5,
Cantab Lounge Candy's Rhythm & Blues,
Club Passim Susan Greenbaum, 8 pm, $10-
Dick's Last Resort Jenn & Steve Show, 7 p
Great Scott BlackOut Bar, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9 21+.
Johnny D's Andromeda 4, 8:30 pm, $10.
Lizard Lounge Jody Grind, the Dennis Band, 8 pm, $5.



phen Kellogg and the Sixers play April 22 at the Roxy.

c's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, Adam rt, 9 pm.
e East Upstairs: Pinocchio Syndrome, Bakula, a Gold, Amaroso, Daniel Striped Tiger, 8 pm, 8+. Downstairs: the Supersuckers, Rhino t, 8 pm, $12-$15, 18+.
Saint Joan, Tanakh, the Lothars, 8:30 pm, $7,

r O's Phil Ayoub, 9:30 pm, 21+.
lise Lounge Fly Upright Kite, Dakota, Lans-, Sarah Cagianese, 8 pm, $6, 18+.
lise Rock Club Ben Lee, $12, 8 pm, 18+.
lough and Stars Bad Art Ensemble, 10 pm.
Sound Tribe Sector Nine, 7:30 pm, $18-$20.
rs Jazz Club Toshiko Akiyoshi, 8 and 10 pm,

nÓg Bad Art Ensemble, 10 pm, 21+.
Rose Polenzani, Amelia White, Rebecca Pron- pm, no cover.
f the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no

he Bear's Place Andrew Parker-Renga, Cas- es, Brad Byrd, Hector On Stilts, 9 pm, $7, ygomates Todne Texeria, 8 pm, no cover.

URSDAY, APRIL 27

y Lounge Main Stage: Skillet Liquors, Natalie gan Band, Beau Roland Band, the Voodoo Or- , 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
n Rupee, Alison Hands, 9 pm, $22.50, 18+.
lack Rose Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Southern Bistro E Water Band, 7 pm, $3.
at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
zeway Serious Bizness, 7:30 pm, no cover,

l Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover.
urren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
ab Lounge ChickenSlacks, 9 pm.
leu, Lisa Loeb, 9 pm, 21+.
t Scott Great Scott, the Texas Governor, , the Glass Set, Static Of the Gods, 9 pm, $8,

Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies, m, 21+.
n Street Grill Joh Camara & Jama-Jigi, 10:30 o cover.
ers Ferry Paper, Hail Social, the Information, $5, 18+.
essy's Me & Julio, 9 pm, 21+.
and Café Platypus Rex, Once Over, 8 pm, $5,

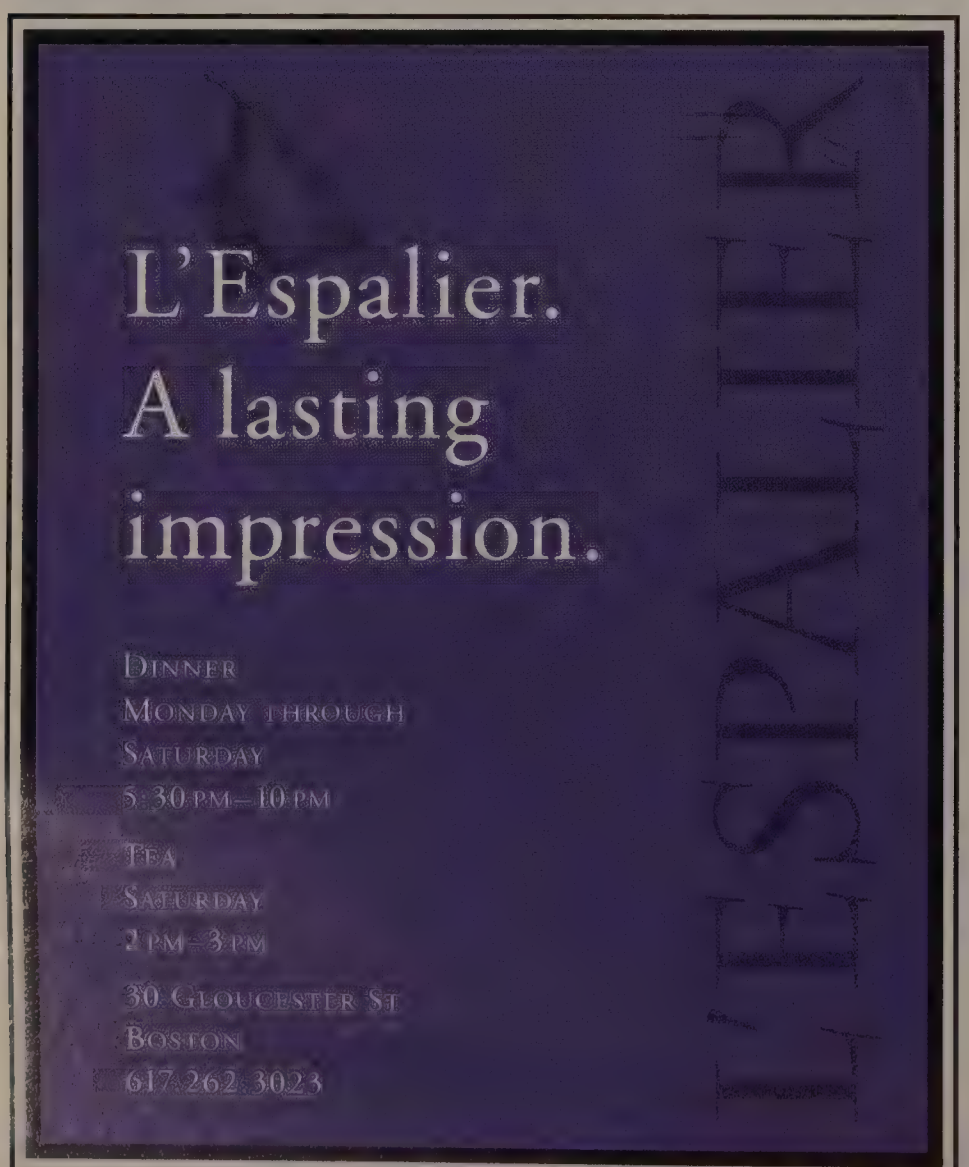
inwood WE-B-3, 9 pm.
d Lounge Club D'Elf, 9:30 and 11:30 pm, $10.
wood Towers Debra Mann & Dane Vannatter, $35-$100.
y's Lounge The Alex MacDougall Band, 9:30

Murphy's Shay Walker, Noel Scott, 7 pm; d Midnight, 11 pm, no cover.

Middle East Upstairs: Two Gallants, Cold War Kids, Frank Smith, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Vudoo Soul, Kaine Toad Blue, Generation RX, the Fly-Agaris Sky, 8 pm, $10-$15, 18+.
PA's Spoilsport, Indian Style, Josh Buckley, 8:30 pm, $6, 21+.
Paddy O's Justin Beech & Tom Groleau, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Lounge The Most High Sound, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Super Diamond, $20, 9 pm, 18+.
Regattabar The Duke Robillard Band, 7:30 and 10 pm, $15.
Ryles Jazz Club Clear Blue, 8:30 pm, $7.
Scullers Jazz Club Big Bad Voodoo Daddy, 8 and 10 pm, $38.
Tír na nÓg Ronan "Fluffy" Quinn, 10 pm, 21+.
Toad The Family Jewels, the Resonance, 7 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Young Republic, the Daily Pravda, the Shills, One Eyed Stanley, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
ZuZu Don Lennon, 10 pm.
Les Zygomates Steve Fell Quartet, 8 pm, no cover.

FRIDAY, APRIL 28

Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: the Kickbacks. Main Stage: Spitzz, Fatals, Rat Traps, Secret Hearts, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
The Attic The Knot, 8 pm, 21+.
Avalon State Radio, 6:30 pm, $13.25.
Berklee Performance Center The Chick Corea Trio, Airto Moreira, Eddie Gomez, 8 pm, $32.50-$40.
The Black Rose Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Pat Loomis Quartet, 7:30 pm, $5.
Boston Harbor Hotel Jeff Hicks Trio, 7:30 pm.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm; Joe Barbato, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Burren Swerve, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook, 9 pm.
Common Ground Ten Mile Tide, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Emergency Broadcast System, 9:30 pm.
Good Life Downtown Al Vega Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern 4 Inch Stud, 9:30 pm, 21+.
The Harp The Zoo, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry The Joshua Tree, Jude Nemo, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Me & Julio, 5 pm; Fast Times, 9 pm, $5, 21+. Upstairs: Leasing Eden.
Johnny D's Fellyko, Sound 7, 9:45 pm, $10.
Kinsale Christy Connell Band, 9 pm.
Kirkland Café Mickey Bliss Organ Trio, Medina Sole, Barrence Whitfield & the Savages, Session, 8:30 pm, $5, 21+.



Lily Pad The Deadly Smile, 8 pm, $5.
Lizard Lounge Rick Schmider, Bowman, 8 pm, $8.
Lucky's Lounge The Justin Beech Band, 10 pm.
Matt Murphy's Akashic Recod, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Hitek Lyrics, Mary Martines, Raficho E Rebelde, 9 pm, $15, 18+. Downstairs: Coraburn, the Impulse, Sir Q, the Imposter, 8 pm, $10-$15, 18+.
Midway Café The Chainletter, Radio Knives, Okay Thursday, 9 pm.
Milky Way The Wissler Family, Slim Jim & the Mad Cows, Hank Crane, 9 pm, $10.
Mr. Dooley's Eamonn Sheehan, 5 pm; Tommy & Alan, 9 pm, 21+.
PA's Reports, Brent Gorton and the Tender Breasts, Appletown Gun Shop, 8:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Paddy O's Dick 'n' Jane, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Kabir, Primary Others, Elemental Zazen, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Dear Leader, $12, 9 pm, 18+.
Parris Negative Space, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
The Plough and Stars The Swinedells, 10 pm.
Ryles Jazz Club Soul Kitchen, 9 pm, $10.
Scullers Jazz Club Karrin Allyson, 8 and 10 :30 pm, $25.
Somerville Theatre Ellis Paul, Antje Duvekot, 8 pm, $23.50-$25.50.
Terrace Lounge Boston City Rhythm, 9:30 pm.
Tír na nÓg Zipper, 10 pm, 21+.
Toad Guitarzan, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Hold Steady, Brendan Little, Lincoln Conspiracy, Ryan Lee & the Mindless, 9:15 pm, $12, 18+.
The Western Front Joey Mousepad & Alex Melina, 8 pm, $5.
Zeitgeist Gallery Jeff Platz Quartet, 8:30 pm, $10.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

SATURDAY, APRIL 29

Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: Jeff Bellucci & Nick Chisolm, 7 pm. Main Stage: the Incredible Casuals, Classic Ruins, 9:30 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Asgard Boston Afro Beat Society, Out to Lunch, 10 pm, 21+.
Avalon Josh Ritter, 7 pm, $20, 18+.
The Black Rose Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Nat Simpkins & Henri Smith Band, 7:30 pm, $5.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm; Joe Barbato, 9:30 pm, no cover.
Cantab Lounge Little Joe Cook, 9 pm.
Club Passim Darol Anger's Republic of Strings, 7 pm, $18-$20.
Dick's Last Resort Mugsy, 9:30 pm.
Good Life Downtown Kilombo Mombo, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott The Plan, Tom Thumb, Dirty Holiday, Tiny Amps, Adam Arcurage, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Brick Park, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Green Street Grill Kilmombo Mombo, 11:30 pm, $5
The Harp The Zoo, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry September Twilight, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Hennessy's Velvet Jones, 9 pm, $5, 21+. Upstairs: Dick n' Jane.
Johnny D's Funky White Honkies 9, 9:45 pm, $8.
Kennedy's Midtown Gabrielle Louise, 9:30 pm, $5, 18+.
Kinsale Christy Connell Band, 9 pm.
Kirkland Café Jake & the Jakes, Goners, Comma, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Lily Pad Melanie Maz, 1 pm.
Lizard Lounge Amun Ra, 8 pm.
Lucky's Lounge The Bennett Miller Trio, 7 pm.
Matt Murphy's C-Money, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Therefore I Am, Kidnapkin, My Morning Radio, the Fells, 1 pm, $9; the Everyday Visuals, Francine, the Bleedin' Bleedins, 9 pm, $9, 18+.
Midway Café Pine Hill Haints, the Can Kickers, Whoa! Man! Jesus!, Dan Fram, 9 pm.
MIT's Kresge Auditorium Mark Harvey and the Aardvark Jazz Orchestra, 8 pm, free.
Mr. Dooley's Tommy & Alan, 9 pm, 21+.
PA's Das Happening, Scuba, the Big Disappointments, Mxyzptlk, 8:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Paddy O's Vivid, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Toubab Krewe, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Ambulance LTD, Elvis Perkins, Mittens, $10, 9 pm, 21+.
Parris Negative Space, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
The Plough and Stars The Cranktones, 10 pm.
Purple Shamrock Scoobie Snax, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Roxbury Community College Odaiko New England's 12th Anniversary Concert: Crossroads, 8 pm, $10-$25.
Ryles Jazz Club Toni Lynn Washington, 9 pm
Scullers Jazz Club Karrin Allyson, 8 and 10 $25.
Somerville Theatre Great Big Sea, 7:30 pm,
Terrace Lounge Boston City Rhythm, 9:30 pm
Tír na nÓg Eilen Jewell Band, 5 pm; the Resc 10 pm, 21+.
Toad John Cate, the Van Gogh Brothers, 10 cover.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Quartet, 9 cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Furvis, the Knee-Hi's, t preciation Post, the Halfnelsons, 9:15 pm, $9
The Western Front Hot Like Fire, 8 pm, $10
ZuZu Soul-le-lu-jah, 10 pm.

SUNDAY, APRIL 30

The Black Rose Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Paulo Danay Q 10:30am.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11 am; A Cardim, 6 pm, no cover.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Rythm & Blues, 9 pm
Club Passim James Keelaghan, 7:30 pm, $13-
Dick's Last Resort John Erikson, 7 pm.
The Druid Tastes Like Gravy String Band, 8 p cover, 21+.
Great Scott Honeypump, BoWAaC, Bo Tape, Captain Ahab, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Brick Park, 9: 21+.
Harpers Ferry The Dirty Projectors, 9 pm 18+.
Hennessy's Tom Groleau Band, 9 pm, 21+.
Johnny D's Tom Pendercast, 9 am, no cover Jam, 4:30 pm, $3.
Lucky's Lounge Bennett Miller Trio, 11 Vega Trio, Adam Herbert, 8:30 pm.
Matt Murphy's Noel Scott, Ted Davis, 12 pm of the Art, 11 pm, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Spank Rock, 9 pm, $12
Midway Café The Coachmen, 8 pm.
Milky Way The Clap, the Press, 8:30 pm, $5.
MIT's Killian Hall U.S. Marine Band Saxopho Quartet, 2 pm, free.
MIT's Wong Auditorium Mithas, 4 pm, $10-
Mr. Dooley's Irish Sesuin, 4 pm, 21+.
Newton Free Library Ross Petot, 2 pm, free.
PA's Elf Power, the Instruments, 8:30 pm, $ 18+.
The Plough and Stars Frank Morey, 8 pm.
Remis Auditorium @ MFA John Gibbons, 3: $20-$25.
Roxbury Community College Odaiko Ne land's 12th Anniversary Concert: Crossroads $10-$25.
Ryles Jazz Club Anita Coelho, 10 am, no co
Somerville Theatre Great Big Sea, 7:30 pm,
Toad The Paul Ahlstrand Quartet, Mike D Dean Cassell, Steve Sadler, Andy Plaisted, 7 cover.
Top of the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm; Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Fruit Bats, Ama Sam Jayne, 9:15 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
Wonder Bar OD3 Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 2

MONDAY, MAY 1

Abbey Lounge Pub Stage: the Freeways, Da tini, Desolation Bells, 7 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
The Black Rose Tony O'Riordan, 9:30 pm, 2
Harpers Ferry Strictly for the Birds, 9 pm, 18+.
Hennessy's Joe Carson, 9 pm, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Flickerstick, Westgate, ing, 9 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
Paradise Lounge R. Star, Jon Frederick, 2F $7, 18+.
Tír na nÓg Kevin Byrne Band, 9 pm, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no
T.T. the Bear's Place Barnicle, Roger Lussie the Band, 8:30 pm, $3, 18+.
Wonder Bar Sam Kininger, 9:30 pm, no cov

TUESDAY, MAY 2

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Lifestyle, 7 pm 21+.
The Black Rose Eugene Byrne, 9:30 pm, 21+
The Foundation Lounge Jeanie Flynn & the 7:30 pm.
Great Scott Honeypump, Measles Mumps H Miss Fairchild, Boo Radley Bruises Badly, the 9 pm, $8, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leeb, 9 21+.
Green Street Grill The Two Timin' Thu Hills, 10:30 pm, no cover.
Harpers Ferry PGroove9, 9 pm, $10-$15, 18
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard, 9 pm, 21+.

e East Upstairs: Elias Dies, 48 Rooms, Mon-rash Midnight, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Black Eyes and Neckties, 8:30 pm, $7, 21+.
se Lounge Chris Berry, Panjea, 7 pm, $10, 18+.
ough and Stars Kenny Chambers, 10 pm.
abar Oteil and the Peacemakers, 7:30 pm, $12.
-ville Theatre Aqualung, 7:30 pm, $17.
nÓg David Johnston Band, 10 pm, 21+.
e Bear's Place The Hookups, Veneer, 9:50
, 18+.

lisic Venues

Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-
MBTA: Red Line to Central.
is Arena 925 Comm Ave., Boston (617-353- MBTA: Green Line to Pleasant St. ia Café 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-
MBTA: Red Line to Central.
ia Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-
MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-
MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
The Regal Bostonian Hotel, 20 North St., (617-523-3600). MBTA: Green Line to Gov.

ttic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684).
: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
: Green Line to Kenmore.
Lenox Hotel, 61 Exeter St., Boston (617-933-MBTA: Green Line to Copley. of America Pavilion 290 Northern Ave., Boston 28-1600). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
e Performance Center 136 Mass Ave., Boston
47-2261). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-
MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
lack Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-742-
MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Southern Bistro 604 Columbus Ave., Boston
36-6204). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
n Harbor Hotel 70 Rowes Warf, Boston (617-
00). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
@ the MFA 465 Huntington Ave., Boston
69-3474). MBTA: Green Line to Museum.

Brandi Carlile plays April 25 at the Orpheum Theatre.

Breezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave. Roxbury (617-541-5400). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Bristol Lounge 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2052). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Citybar 61 Exeter St., Boston (617-933-4800). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Club Café 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Club Q 25 Union St., Boston (857-829-3766). MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center.
Commander's Mansion 440 Talcott Ave., Watertown (617-972-8300).
Cottonwood Cafe 222 Berkleey St., Boston (617-247-2225). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
Dick's Last Resort Faneuil Hall, Market Place, Quincy Market Bldg., Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: D Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Druid 1357 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-497-0965). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Fireplace 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington.
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900). MBTA: D Green Line to Kenmore.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., Boston (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-566-9014). MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100). MBTA: B Green Line to Reservoir.
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., Boston (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Green Street Grill 280 Green St., Cambridge (617-876-1655). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Harpers Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Jacob Wirth 37 Stuart St., Boston (617-338-8586). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617- 451-9460). MBTA: Red Line to Downtown Crossing.
Kendall Café 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Cambridge (617-547-3802). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
Kennedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Boston (617-426-3333). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park.
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Kirkland Café 425 Washington St., Somerville (617-482-4920). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Lily Pad 1355 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-388-1168). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
The Linwood 81 Kilmarnock St., Boston (617-247-8099). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Longwood Towers Club Longwood, 20 Chapel St., Brookline (617-566-5715). MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood.

Premier Venues · Business Functions · Creative Themes · Custom Solutions · Fundraisers
Holiday Parties · Receptions · Innovative Menus · More Choices · Expert Advice

Boston Event Solutions
617·248·9933
www.bostoneventsolutions.com

Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., Boston (617-357-5825). Silver Line to South Station.
Matt Murphy's Pub 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-232-0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village.
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain, (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Green.
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook.
MIT's Killian Hall 160 Memorial Dr., Cambridge (617-253-2906). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
MIT's Kresge Auditorium 48 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617- 253-2691). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
MIT's Wong Auditorium 2 Amherst St., Cambridge (617-258-7971). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall.
Mr. Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-5656). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
NEC's Jordan Hall 30 Gainsborough, Boston (617-585-1100). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony.
Ned Devine's Fanueil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-8800). MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center.
Newton Free Library 330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Avenue, Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
O'Brien's 3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-6245). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Olde Magoun's Saloon 518 Medford St., Somerville (617-776-2600). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Orpheum Theatre 31 Hamilton Pl., Boston (617 679 0810). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
PA's 345 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-776-1557). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Paddy O's 33 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Paradise Lounge 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Paradise Rock Club 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Parris 250 Quincy Market Building (617-248-9900). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
The Plough and Stars 912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-576-0032). MBTA: Red Line to Andrew.
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060). MBTA: Orange Line to State.
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051). MBTA: Greeen Line to Gov. Center.
Red Fez 1222 Washington St., Boston (617-338-6060). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-395-7757). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Remis Auditorium @ MFA 465 Huntington Avenue Boston (617-369-3306). MBTA: MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.
Roggies 356 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617-566-1880). MBTA: Green Line to Cleveland Circle.
Roxbury Community College Mainstage at the Media Arts Center, 1234 Columbus Ave., Roxbury (617-731-0182). MBTA: Orange Line to Roxbury Crossing.
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Sanders Theatre @ Harvard Memorial Hall, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-8676). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Road, Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Solas 710 Boylston St., Boston (617-933-4803). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Somerville Theatre 55 Davis Square, Somerville (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Sweetwater Cafe 3 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2515). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
TD Banknorth Garden 100 Legends Way, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green Line to North Station.
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Tir na nÓg 366 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-628-4300). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-2327). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Boston (617-351-2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Zeitgeist Gallery 186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-6060). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
ZuZu 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-3278). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

classical music

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (61 1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line phony. 8 pm. $28-$108. Robert Spano condu Boston Symphony Orchestra and Polish piani Anderszewski in Beethoven's Piano Concert and in works by Finnish composers Kaija S and Jean Sibelius.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (6 1122). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. M Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Joseph Sil conducts the NEC Philharmonia in a perform Montsalvatge's Cinco Canciones Negras, Elgar's Variations and Strauss' Don Juan, Op. TrV 156.

THURSDAY, APRIL 20

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (61 1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line phony. 8 pm. $28-$108. Same program as Apr

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Gard Cambridge (401-596-2667). www.artistwo MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Fre Vincent directs the Longy Ensemble in a perfo of Michelle Roi's Courting the Will of Dre Hyla's Ciao Manhattan, Tonu Korvitz's Sola Mark Kuss' American Triptych for String Quar movement).

FRIDAY, APRIL 21

Bank of America Celebrity Serie
NEC's Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. M Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $43-$48. Th son String Quartet performs Shostakovich's Quartets No. 13 in B-flat minor, No. 14 in minor and No. 15 in E-flat minor.

Boston Classical Orchestra
Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-423-3883). www classicalorchestra.org. MBTA: Green or Blue Gov. Center. 8 pm. $29-$53. Boston Symph chestra principals, flutist Elizabeth Rowe and Anne Hobson Pilot, play Mozart's Concerto f and Harp, Bach's Symphony in D major and Symphony No. 45 in F-sharp minor.

Boston Early Music Festival
First Church in Cambridge, Congregational, 11 St., Cambridge, (617-661-1812). www.be MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $21-$53. semble Doulce Mémoire presents Great Ba Court of France, songs and dances performed Henri IV's court.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (6 1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line phony. 1:30 pm. $28-$108. Same program as A

Handel and Haydn Society
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass Ave., Boston (6 3605). www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: Line to Symphony. 7 pm. $15-$63. Grant Li conducts the Handel and Haydn Society and the Period-Instrument Orchestra in Ba Matthew Passion.

SATURDAY, APRIL 22

Boston Musica Viva
Boston University, Tsai Performance Cent Comm. Ave., Boston (617 354-6910). www.b MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. 8 pm. $ discounts on advanced group rates available. Pittman conducts Boston Musica Viva in a mance of Edgard Varese's Octandre and Dens Chou Wen-chung's A New Sextet, Carl Rugg Clamans in Deserto, Carlos Salzedo's Preamble Alfredo Casella's Pupazetti and Erik Satie's Le du Piège de Méduse. Soprano vocalist E Keusch performs Deita Silvane's Ottorino Res

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (6 1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line phony. 8 pm. $28-$108. Same program as Ap

Emmanuel Music
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Bosto 536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA Line to Arlington. 8 pm. $20-$65. Pianist Sherman performs a variety of Mozart's pianc as part of Mozart's 250th Birthday Celebration

r Spano conducts the Boston phony Orchestra on April 19.

ıy Concert Series
l M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., idge (401-596-2667). www.artistworld.org. : Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Chinese e player Fan Wei performs works by Chen Yi Dehai, along with contemporary and folk Hsiang-Ay Hsu accompanies Wei on piano.

ıwood Symphony Orchestra
Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585- www.longwoodsymphony.org. MBTA: E Green Symphony. 8 pm. The Longwood Symphony tra's last concert of the season features Saint- a Jeunesse d'Hercule, Barber's Piano Concerto ax Levinson on piano and Copeland's Grohg.

Concert Series
dall, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253- http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to /MIT. 8 pm. Free. The MIT Chamber Chorus s A Night of Opera Choruses under the direction am Cutter.

DAY, APRIL 23

ɔn Classical Orchestra
Hall, Boston (617-423-3883). www.boston lorchestra.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to pm. $29-$53. Same program as April 21.

el and Haydn Society ny Hall, 301 Mass Ave., Boston (617-266- www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: E Green Symphony. 2 pm. $15-$63. Same program as 1.

: at Mission Church
emont St., Roxbury (617-445-2600). www.the hurch.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Roxbury. 4 gested donation of $10-$15. Ronald Knudsen ts the New Philharmonic Orchestra as they Mahler's Symphony No. 2, "Resurrections."

England Conservatory
Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585- www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Line to Symphony. 7:30 pm. Free. Frank Ep- nducts the NEC Percussion Ensemble as they Jennifer Higdon's Splendid Wood, Augusta homas' Sun Songs and Naomi Epstein's This ill Pass.

ɔr Music Chamber Series
Paul St., Brookline (781-863-2861). www. usic.org. MBTA: C Green Line to St. Paul. 7 0-$20. The concert features Haydn's Quartet jor, Op. 74 No. 2, Brody's Tree of Life and Song pirit, and Bach's Cantata BMV 170, Vergnügte liebte Seelenlust.

IDAY, APRIL 24

ɔn University
oncert Hall, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617- 24). www.bu.edu/fa. MBTA: B Green Line to t. 8 pm. Free. Brita Heimarck pianist performs ese Discourses on Music.

England Conservatory
Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585- www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E ine to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. The NEC Con- oir with the NEC Sinfonieta performs Brahms' Requiem and Schuetz' Psalm 116.

SDAY, APRIL 25

ɔn Symphony Orchestra
ny Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266- www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Sym- 8 pm. $28-$108. Same program as April 19.

ɔn University
rformance Center, 685 Comm. Ave., Boston 53-8724). www.bu.edu/fa. MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. 8 pm. Free. David Martins conducts the Boston University Wind Ensemble in their performance of The Sinfonians, A Glorious Day, New Work, Dance Mix and American Games.

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-2155). www.kings-chapel.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 12:15 pm. $3 suggested donation. Violinists Miguel Perez-Espejo and Hsin-Lin Tsai, viola player Bradley Otteson and cellist Peter Zay present Music for Four Stringed Instruments by Charles Martin Loeffler.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26

Bank of America Celebrity Series
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $38-$78. Itzhak Perlman, Pinchas Zukerman and Rohan da Silva perform Bach's Sonata in C major, BWV 1037, Mozart's Duo for Violin and Viola in G major, K. 423, Leclair's Sonata for Two Violins in F major, Op. 3, No. 4, and Moszkowski's Suite for Two Violins and Piano, Op. 71.

Boston University
Tsai Performance Center, 685 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-8724). www.bu.edu/fa. MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. 8 pm. $5. The Muir String Quartet performs Turina's L'Oration del Torero, Schubert's Quartet in A minor and Smetana's Quartet No. 1, "From My Life."

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1122). www.newenglandconservatory.edu MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. David Loebel conducts the NEC Symphony Orchestra in a performance of works by Dvorak, Schumann and Prokofiev.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27

Boston Philharmonic Orchestra
Sanders Theatre, Harvard, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222) www.bostonphil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. $16-$63. Special guest violinist Caitlin Tully performs with the Boston Philharmonic Orchestra for their last concert of the season featuring Mussorgsky's Khovantchina, Shostakovich's Violin Concerto No. 1 and Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 5.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $28-$98. Cristoph Von Dohnanyi conducts the Boston Symphony Orchestra and violinist Frank Peter Zimmermann in a performance of Schubert's Symphony in B minor, Henze's Adagio and Fugue, and Brahms' Violin Concerto in D major, Op. 77.

MIT Concert Series
Killian Hall, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253-5686). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 5 pm. Free. Violinist Serenus Hua and pianist Hsin-Bei Lee perform Copland's Ukulele Serenade, Debussy's Sonata for Violin and Piano, and Strauss' Sonata for Violin and Piano in E-flat major, Op. 18.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1122). www.newenglandconservatory.edu MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. Free. NEC students perform a program of chamber music with wind and string quartets, piano trios and more.

FRIDAY, APRIL 28

Boston Chamber Music Society
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-349-0086). www.bostonchambermusic.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 7:30 pm. $17-$46. The BCMS will perform their season finale concert featuring Gaubert's Sonata for Flute and Piano, Mahler's Songs of a Wayfarer and Schubert's Octet in F major, D. 803.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 1:30 pm. $28-$98. Same program as April 27.

First Church
66 Marlborough St., Boston (617-978-474-6222). www.voicesrising.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 8 pm. $10-$25. The women's chorus Voices Rising performs I Come from Women.

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (401-596-2667). www.artistworld.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. The Longy Opera Department sponsors a performance of Mascagni's opera Cavalleria Rusticana and selected scenes from Mozart's Don Giovanni, The Marriage of Figaro and The Magic Flute in celebration of Mozart's 250th birthday.

MIT Concert Series
Killian Hall, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253-5686). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 5 pm. Free. Matthew Roitstein, flute; Hsin-Bei Lee, piano and harpsichord; Molly Bright, oboe and pianist David Roitstein perform works by Bach, Martin, Varese, Jolivet and a David Roitstein original composition, Conga Loca.

New England Conservatory
Brown Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1122). www.newenglandconservatory.edu MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8:30 pm. Free. NEC students, coached by the Borromeo Quartet, perform works by Bartok and Schoenberg.

SATURDAY, APRIL 29

Boston Philharmonic Orchestra
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1122) www.bostonphil.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$76. Same program as April 27.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $28-$108. Same program as April 27.

Longy Concert Series
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (401-596-2667). www.artistworld.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Same program as April 28.

SUNDAY, APRIL 30

Bank of America Celebrity Series
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. $33-$68. Pianist Maurizio Pollini performs Chopin's Nocturnes, Opp. 48 and 55, Ballade in G minor, Op. 23, and Polonaise in F-sharp minor, Op. 44; and Liszt's Nuages Gris, Unstern: Sinistre, Disastro, La Lugubre Gondola (Die Trauergondel), R.W.–Venezia, and Piano Sonata in B minor.

Boston Chamber Music Society
Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge, (617-349-0086). www.bostonchambermusic.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. $17-$46. Same program as April 28.

Boston Philharmonic Orchestra
Sanders Theatre, Harvard, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222) www.bostonphil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. $29-$76. Same program as April 27.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-278-5102). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.

1:30 pm. $5-$20. Pianists Susie Park and Dar stein perform Bach's Sonata for Solo Violin N major, BWV 1005; Mozart's Sonata for Vio Piano No. 18 in G major, K. 301; Debussy's So Violin and Piano; and Messaien's Theme and tions for Violin and Piano.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3306) mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 3 $20-$25. As part of the Domenico Scarlatti Recital, John Gibbons performs sonatas from Sc career on the Henri Hemsch harpsichord fr MFA's Musical Instrument Collection.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (6 1122). www.newenglandconservatory.edu MI Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. $17-$30. The Symphony Chamber Players celebrate Mozart birthday with performances including the Flut tet in A major, K.298, Quintet for Horn and K. 407 and Clarinet Quintet in A major, K.58

MONDAY, MAY 1

Berklee Performance Center
136 Mass Ave., Boston (617-931-2000). berkleebpc.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hyn 8:15 pm. $5-$10. The Berklee Contemporar Ensemble presents modern compositions by s and faculty alongside 20th-century works.

Brandeis University
Slosberg Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736 www.brandeis.edu. 7 pm. $5-$20. Neil Hampt ducts the Marcus Roberts Trio in this specia mance featuring their interpretation of w Gershwin and Bernstein.

TUESDAY, MAY 2

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (6 1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line phony. 8 pm. $28-$98. Same program as Ap

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-2155) kings-chapel.org. MBTA: Green Line to Go ter. 12:15 pm. $3 suggested donation. Cellis Song performs Bach's Suite No. 6 for unac nied cello.

ance lubs

ghts

NDAYS

ua Nua nony A night of Gothic and industrial music, $3, 19+.

: Gay night with DJs and drag performances, , $7, 19+.

ice
a Bar DJ Kamel spins a mix of Middle Eastern ternational beats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Mondays This Service Industry Night in- free pool and guest DJs spinning high-energy , house and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

en Temple
Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, op, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no 21+.

n Briar
eisiun.

n Street Grill
a Club's Mambo Mondays Featuring DJ Jeff, salsa lessons and dance, 9:30 pm, $10 er lesson), 18+.

nix Landing
Mondays Featuring hip-hop, reggae and rap, $3, 21+.

Place
n Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rack
n dance music, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Gods
Wax Two local DJs hold a musical face-off, 8 cover, 21+.

ervice Industry Night DJ Tony Moreno spins nd hip-hop, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

SDAYS

assy
spins hip-hop, rock, funk and '80s, 10 pm, no 9+.

Enormous Room
Out DJ duo Tommy and Knife spin hits from and '80s, 10 pm-2 am, $3.

Foundation Lounge
Tuesdays Jeanie Flynn and the Strays per- ree live sets, 7:30 pm.

en Temple
Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins a mix in- R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no 21+.

Kells
'80s Tuesday DJ Rubiks Cube spins classic sic, 10 pm-2 am, no cover.

lise Lounge
p Tuesdays DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop, 0s and more, 10 pm, $7, 18+.

nix Landing
Scott Bliff spins funk, soul and electro '80s, 10 cover, 21+.

lace
Top 40 and dance music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

urple Shamrock with Dana Z, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

ack dance music, 6-10 pm, no cover, 21+.

for Cash with Deb-N-Art.

Gods
op The weekly listening party kicks off at cover, 21+.

aries with an assortment of performances med events, 10 pm-2 am.

staurant
Tuesdays DJs spin dance beats, 9:30 pm-2

International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins and house. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 19+.

NESDAYS

a Nua light DJs Hernan, D. Martinez, Antonio d guests spin salsa music. Includes beginner nd karaoke, 8 pm, $12, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Funken Gruven Night Live funk bands, 9 pm, $13-$15, 18+.

Clerys
Live music, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
iPod Night Bring your own iPod and be an MP3J, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
Soulcity Old school and '70s classics, 8 pm-12 am, $5.

Dbar
Glamourtrash DJ Michael Fontana plays rock, new wave, pop, punk and electro beats.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Enormous Room
Galactic Fractures DJ P.J. Gray spins soul and funk, 10 pm-2 am, $3.

Felt
Boogie Nights DJ Mike Bose spins hip-hop, rock and house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Flat Top Johnny's
Local DJs spin rock music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins a mix including R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
International Wednesdays DJs spin a mix of international music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc cues up hip-hop, Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
The Basement DJ Boo Boo hosts a night of punk, '70s-style new wave and house, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Underground dance music, 10 pm, $5, 19+; $3, 21+.

The Place
Musician Greg Lutrell performs, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Rack
Star 93.7's DJ Ricky spins dance music, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Oldies but Goodies DJ Russ McQueen spins hits from the '50s, '60s and '70s, no cover.

Redline
The NGP All-Stars spin an eclectic collection of dance and hip-hop hits, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Reel Bar
DJ Steve Austin spins hip-hop, reggae and R&B, 9 pm-1 am.

River Gods
Primitive Wednesdays Boogie down to rock, gospel and blues, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
Latino night with DJ Adilson, 10 pm-2 am.

Saint
Wednesday Music Series The Brian Walkley Band plays R&B and dance in the main lounge, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Supper Club
Overtime Afterwork Lounge Live jazz and complimentary appetizers, 5-9 pm, no cover, 21+.

33 Restaurant
DJ Anthony spins, 10 pm-2:30 am.

Toast
DJs spin house music, 8 pm-1 am, $5.

Vertigo
Analogue Lounge DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake spin house, 10 pm, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Tim Collins spins Top 40, hip-hop and R&B, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
C Entertainment hosts this weekly event featuring guest DJs, 11 pm, $20, 19+ ladies, 21+ men.

Avalon
Fling Thursdays DJs spin hip-hop, R&B and Top 40, 10 pm, $15, ladies free until 11 pm, 19+.

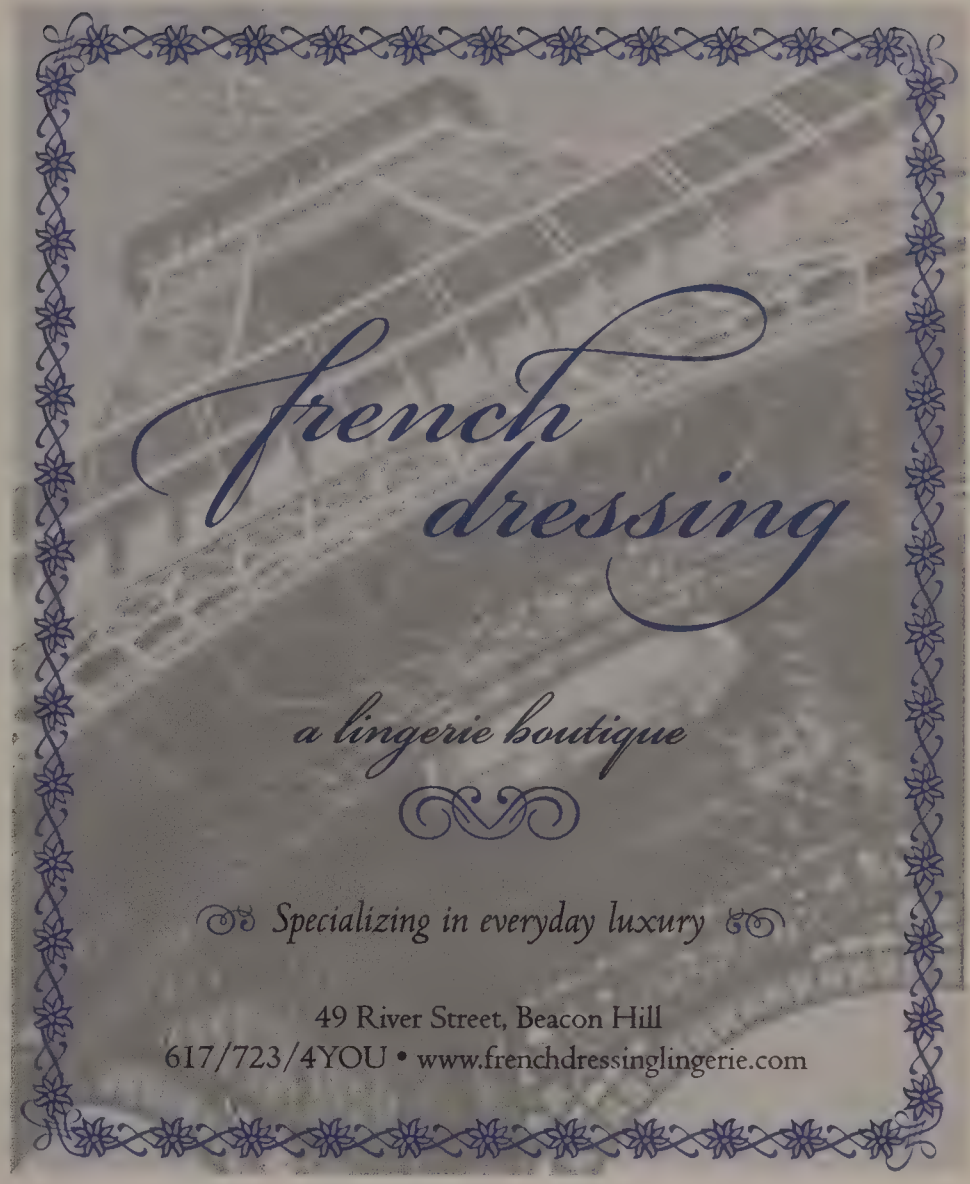
Bill's Bar
Old-School Hip-Hop Night Old-school rap, funk and disco, 8 pm-2 am, 19+.

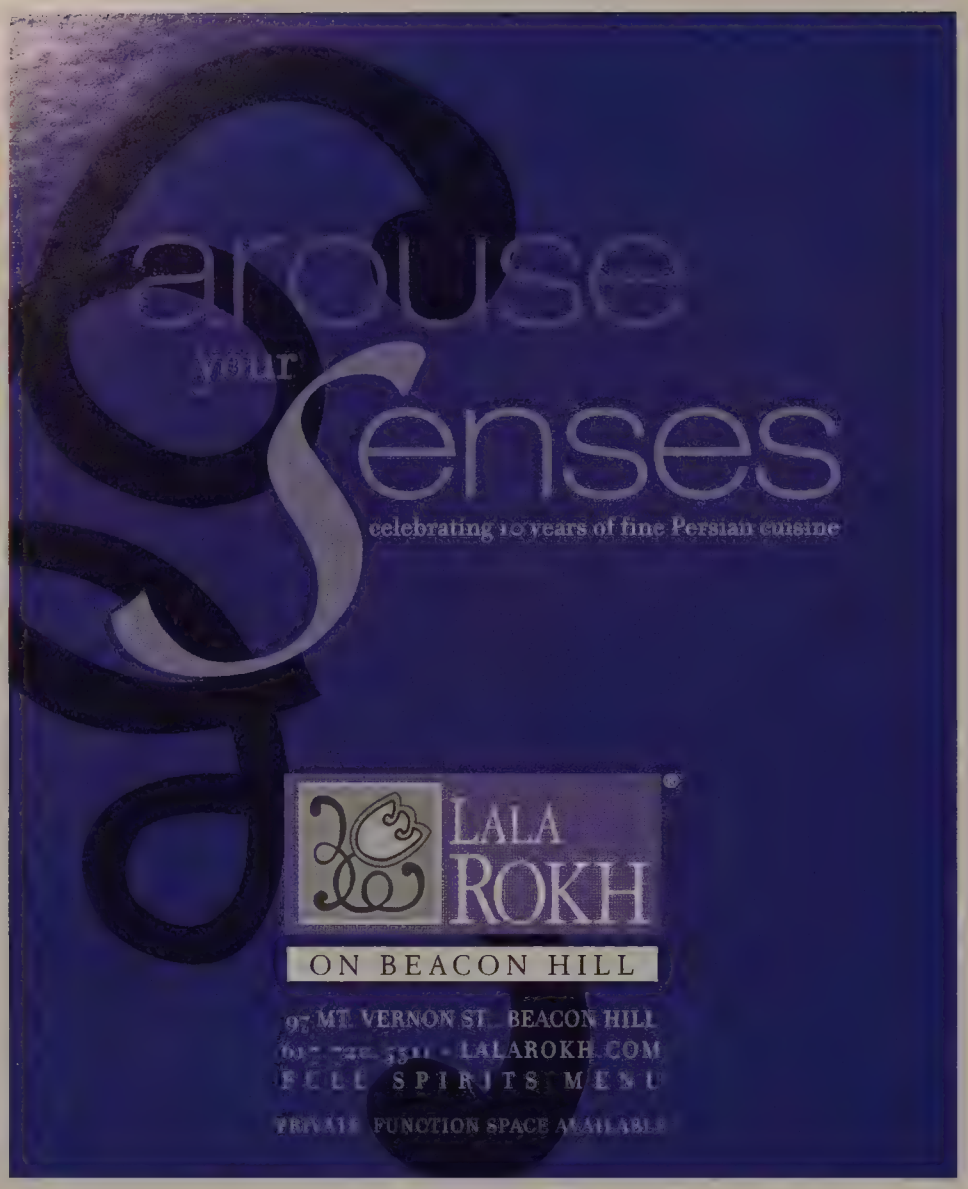
Boston Rocks
Thursday on the Rocks DJs spin pop and dance music, 8 pm-12 am, no cover, 21+.

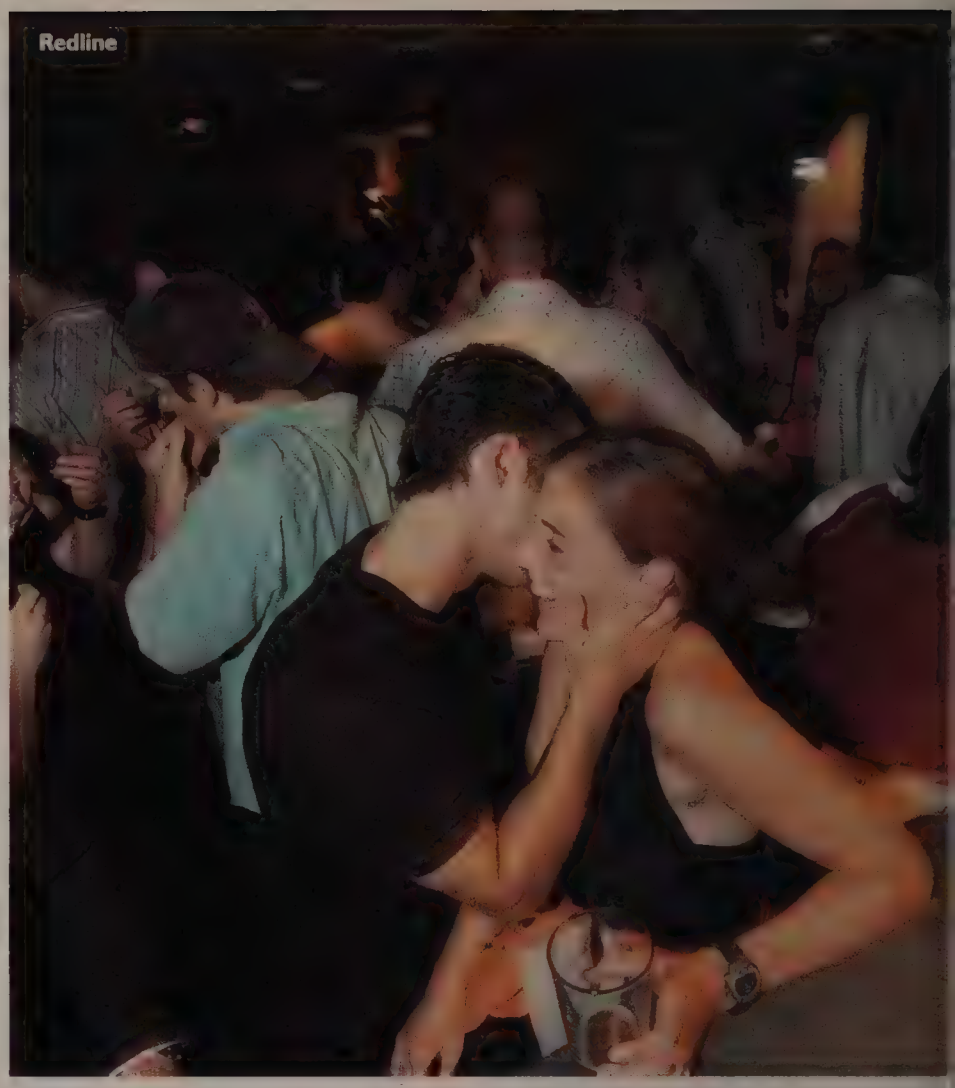
Caprice
Hip-Hop & International DJ Pup Dawg spins Indian and hip-hop music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Club Q
Dance Party Thursdays with DJ Mike Navarro, 9 pm, $5.







Common Ground
Love Night DJ Brian plays tunes from the '80s, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ Steve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
Hip-hop, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Dbar
Thirsty Thursdays DJ Darrin Friedman spins club classics.

Devlin's
DJ Doc spins upbeat house and dance, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
DJ Steve Austin spins R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
The Glamorous Life DJs Susan Esthera and Afrodite host this gay hip-hop and electro party, 10 pm.

The Enormous Room
Hip-Hop with Hua DJ Hsu spins hip-hop, dance and disco, 10 pm-2 am, $3.

Felt
True Music Thursdays Featuring live performances, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Nothing But Ray Charles This weekly event is a tribute to Ray Charles and his music.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
The Jon Frederik Band, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Street Grill
Joh Camara and Jama Jigi play Afro-pop highlife, 10:30 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
Live band, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
The Fun House DJs Edgar and Kieran spin dance tunes and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kinvara Pub
DJ Misha spins the latest tunes, including hip-hop, R&B and pop, 21+.

Liquor Store
Ladies' Night KISS 108 and Joe Public host.

Mantra
Havana Club Night: Thursdays at Mantra DJ Cuban Jeff spins a mix of Latin and salsa, 10 pm, $10, $15 after 11 pm, 21+.

Milky Way
Aquanet Dance Party Dance to '80s old-school funk and soul, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Parris
@ Thursdays DJ Lou, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Mad Dog drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5, 1

The Place
DJ Garrett spins Top 40 and dance, 9 pm, n 21+.

The Point
DJs spin dance and hip-hop music, 10 pm-2 ar

The Purple Shamrock
Jim Plunkett and friends perform live, 9 21+.

The Rack
Exotic Midnight Brazilian night with music an dancing, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Reunion Thursdays The NGP All-Stars sp classics, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
For Real, Too Reel DJs Dali, Ross and Pau mix of electro, funk and '80s flashback, 9 cover, 21+.

The Ruby Room
Rouge Thursdays Enjoy half-price martinis Prolific spins R&B and downtempo beats, am, no cover.

Rumor
DJs Roger M. and J.C. spin, 10 pm-2 am.

Ryles Dance Hall
Temporada Latina A night of salsa lessons ar ing, 8:30 pm-1 am, $8-$12.

Saint
Deja Vu DJs and weekly guest hosts spin loung 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, 21+.

33 Restaurant
Plush Thursdays DJ Fredo spins, 11 pm-2 an

Toast
Lesbian Night 9 pm-1 am, $5.

Underbar
DJ Ricky Fatts spins hip-hop, 11 pm.

Venu
=20 Thursday Hip-hop and house music, $15, 19+.

Vertigo
Total Recall Dance to classic disco, funk, rock from the '60s, '70s and '80s, 5-10 pm, n

West Street Grille
Old-School Thursdays DJ Matty D spins ol hip-hop and funk, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 2

FRIDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Tim Collins spins Top 40, hip-hop and pm, $5, 21+.

DJ Hoff spins old-school hip-hop and R&B, $20, ladies 19+, men 21+.

on nd Guest DJs spin with residents Eli Wilkie, Whalen and Jay P., 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Avenue
nyon Cody spins hip-hop and Top 40, 9 pm-no cover, 21+.

Off DJ Mastermillions spins hip-hop, 10 pm, 9+.

Easy Bar
ate Mardi Gras with DJ J.C. spinning Top 40, p and '80s, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bar
idays Hip-hop, merengue, salsa, reggae and a music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

on Rocks
s at the Loft 6one7 Productions presents a of local DJs spinning Top 40, dance and hip-nes, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

ice
mal spins a mix of international, Latin and music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

ys
rthm Nights 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Europa
DJ MsLadyJ spins R&B, hip-hop, and '70s and the lesbian crowd, 10 pm, $10, 21+; after 11 5, 19+.

Q
's Best Dance Party DJ Massi plays hip-hop p 40, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

mon Ground
o Sound spins Northern Soul, 10 pm, no cover.

gan's
ve spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5,

nopolitan
ean Night DJs play a mix of Euro-style music, 2 am, no cover.

te Giller spins vocal house and Top 40.

in's
ul Daley plays upbeat house and trance, am, no cover, 21+.

tside
in R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5,

assy
ce spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

Enormous Room
rs Have Eyes Guest DJs spin everything hip-hop and house to funk and soul, $3, 2 am.

Klerkin spins Top 40, dance and hip-hop, no 21+. Fourth floor: Therapy Fridays DJ Cere-ins hip-hop beats, no cover, 21+.

en Temple
Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins '70s, '80s, d vocal house, 9:30 pm, 21+.

n Briar
spins dance and Top 40, 7 pm-1 am, no cover,

n Street Grill
o Mambo, 11:30 pm, 21+.

y Bar
so and Mario, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Harp
Night Vibe JAM'N 94.5's DJ Krazy Kulo spins airs, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

icane O'Reilly's
ns classic beats, 9 pm, $5, ladies free before 21+.

ent Fridays DJ Juneyacool spins reggae, 9+.

McIntyre's
n, 9 pm, $5, ladies free before 12 am, 21+.

Kells
Night DJ Doc spins Top 40, R&B and while DJ Kieran spins '80s and '90s favor-pm, ladies free before 12 am, 21+.

ara Pub
illac spins the latest tunes including hip-hop, nd pop, 21+.

or Store
vie spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, $5.

ra esident DJ Zati spins hip-hop, rock, house 0s remixes.

ix/Paradise City
lson spins high-energy house, and DJ Steve li plays Top 40 and hip-hop, 9 pm, $10,

ann's Pub
n dance beats, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
DJ Mark Estrada spins soul, funk, downtempo and hip-hop, no cover.

The Modern
Ego DJ Glenn, 10 pm, $20, 19+.

Parris
DJ at 8 pm, band at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Groove Yard '70s, '80s, funk, soul and disco, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
VJ Laptop spins Top 40 and hip-hop, and TV screens show Boston sports highlights, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
Fist Holdin' Loot Productions presents DJ Itchy P, 10 pm.

The Purple Shamrock
Hip-hop with DJ Buddah, 10 pm, $5.

The Rack
DJ Mike Bowes, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Vegas Fridays Las Vegas–resident DJs spin.

Redline
Rodney Marable and Craig Kaplow spin house, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Diversion DJ Erik spins a mix that includes neo-soul, mellow techno and scuzzy disco, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
DJ Val Beatz spins hip-hop, Top 40, R&B and reggae, 10 pm, $20, 18+; $15, 21+.

Rumor
Lounge 54 DJs spin hip-hop, reggae, R&B and old-school, 9:30 pm, $15, ladies free before 11 pm, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Salsa Cubana Ryles hosts a Cuban-style salsa night the third Friday of every month, 9 pm, $10.

Saint
Pure Fridays DJs Gsquared and Tanno spin beats in two rooms, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Spin
Red Martinis Live jazz, 6-10 pm, $5 after 9 pm, 21+.

Tantric Lounge
Hookah Lounge The NGP Allstars and Cloud 9 spin the music at this night featuring hookahs, specialty cocktails and belly dancers, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike G spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $5.

33 Restaurant
Studio 33 Fridays DJs Tasso and Niko spin, 9 pm-2 am.

Toast
Lesbian Night 9 pm-1 am, $5.

Umbria
DJs spin house music on the third floor, while the bi-level international club upstairs features hip-hop and Top 40 beats, 10 pm.

Underbar
DJ Franklin spins house, hip-hop and rock, 11 pm.

Venu
Roomba DJ Tarek Antabi spins international house while DJ Roger M kicks things up with a Latin vibe. Jacket required, 11 pm, $15, 21+.

Vertigo
International Fridays DJ Luca spins house, R&B, Latin and international, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJ Joe plays funk and Top 40 all night, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

SATURDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Superstar mixes Top 40, hip-hop, house and soul, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Lifestyles DJ Thanos spins hip-hop and R&B, 11 pm, $20; men 21+, ladies 19+ with college ID.

Avalon
Resident DJ Adilson spins along with international guest DJs, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

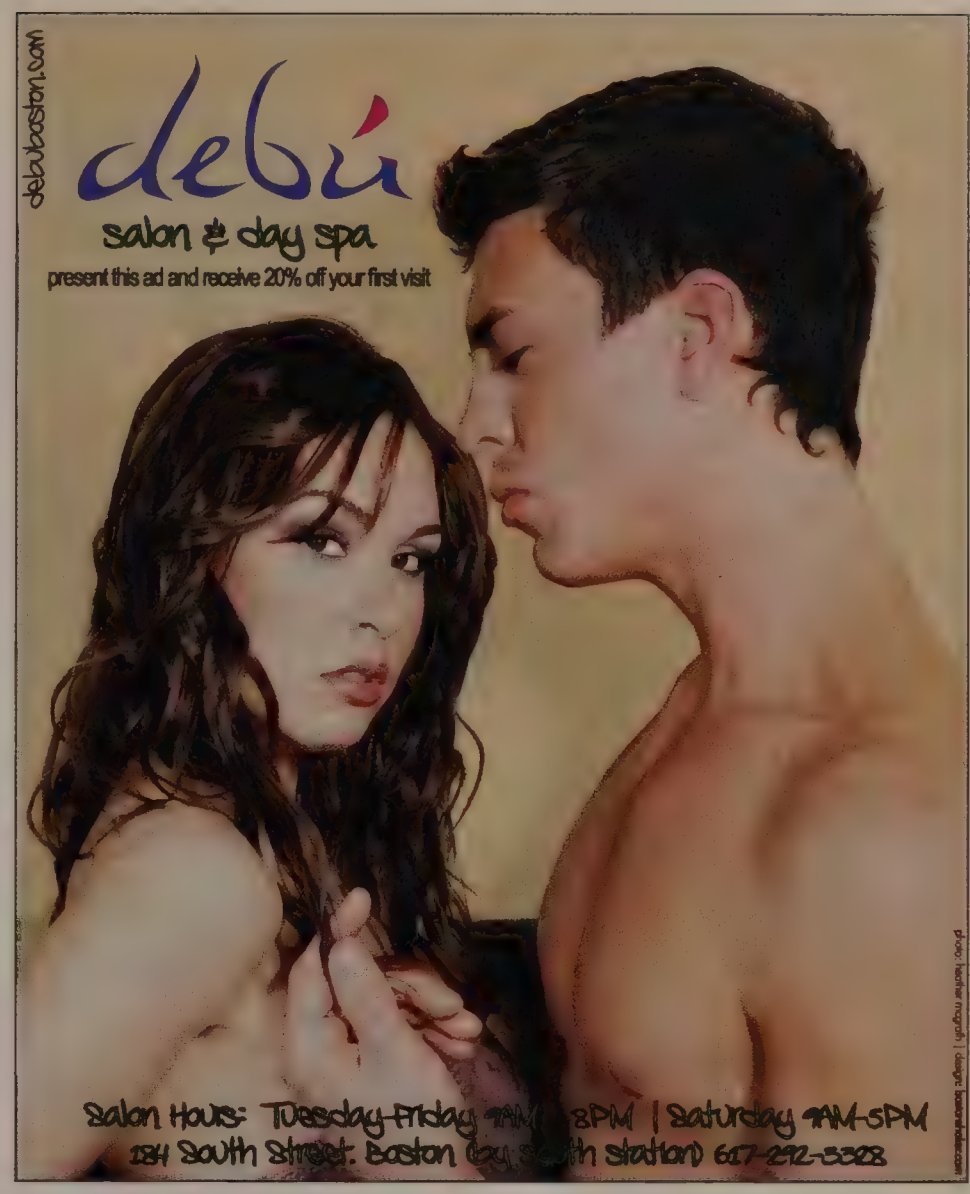
The Avenue
DJ Murray spins hip-hop, 9 pm, 21+.

Axis
Seductive Saturdays DJ Big spins hip-hop hits, 10 pm, $8, 19+.

Big Easy Bar
Celebrate Mardi Gras with DJ J.C. spinning Top 40, hip-hop and '80s, 9 pm, $8, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Sexy Saturdays DJ Joshua Carl spins hip-hop and Top 40, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Boston Rocks
Shotgun Saturdays Cover bands perform, 9-11 pm. DJs present Top 40 dance and hip-hop interactive video shows till 2 am, $5, 21+.



Pioneering Beauty.
ACRŪ
salon
Hair/Nails/Color Correction
167 Newbury • Boston • 617•424•1167

Visit us at acrusalon.com available at:

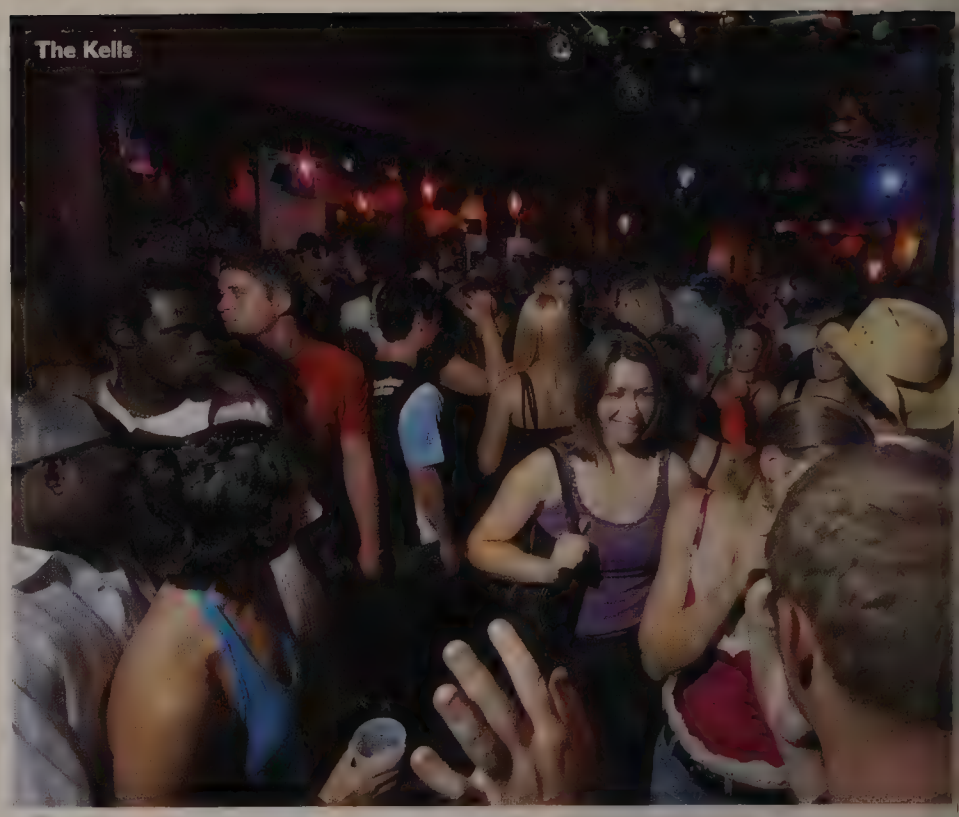
dresscode
Andover
Gretta Luxe
Boston & Wellesley
Maggie Taylor
Concord
Matsu
Boston
Maxwell & Co.
Falmouth
Stash
Newton Centre
sterling jones



The Kells

Buzz
The gay crowd gets busy with DJ Mary Alice spinning popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Caprice
International Lounge DJ Ghost and DJ Vagellis create a lounge atmosphere with international and house sounds, 10 pm, $5-$10, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Club Q
DJ Rip Hernandez spins hip-hop, R&B and dance, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Common Ground
Shake Your Ass Night DJ spins indie rock, $2.

Coogan's
DJ Craig spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Cosmopolitan
Cosmopolitan Saturdays Top 40, hip-hop, R&B, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Dbar
Saturday Night Clubhouse DJ Darrin Friedman spins classic club beats.

Devlin's
DJs Dan Spurling and Chris Deorio spin dance and house, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
DJs spin R&B, reggae and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Embassy
Sensation Saturdays DJ Val Beats spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $15, 19+.

The Enormous Room
Reverberate Mark Estrada spins current and classic hip-hop, $3, 10 pm-2 am.

Felt
DJ Ricky Fatts spins hip-hop and dance beats, no cover, 21+. Fourth floor: Social Club Saturdays DJ Mike Bose spins Top 40 beats.

The Foundation Lounge
DJ Edward Grant Stuart spins an eclectic mix of '70s and '80s disco and Motown, plus international lounge and acid jazz, 9:30 pm-2 am.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '70s, '80s and '90s as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Street Grill
House band Kilombo Mambo performs at 11:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJs Niso and Mario spin, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Harp
House DJ spins hip-hop, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ spins classic beats, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Fresh spins, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Howie spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, $5.

Matrix/Paradise City
DJ spins '80s, '90s, hip-hop and rock, 10 pm, $8, 21+; $15, ladies 18+.

McGann's Pub
DJs spin dance beats, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
The Grooveyard DJ Yamin spins a mix of m soul, hip-hop, 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night DJ Antoni spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 9 p for men; $5 for ladies; free for ladies before 21+.

The Modern
KLIK DJs Don Schmidt, Mike Walsh and B minimal techno and electro microhouse,
$10, 19+.

Parris
DJ at 8 pm, band at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm,

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinney spins one-h ders, '80s new wave and disco, 10 pm, $4, 21

The Place
VJ Laptop entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
Turnstyles DJs spin hip-hop, 9 pm, 21+.

The Rack
Saturday Greatest Hits Party DJ Brian spins, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Rain
KISS 108-FM's Billy Costa and DJ Randy
Top 40, house, dance, disco and rock music,

Redline
DJ Cherry spins dance and hip-hop, 10 pr
no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Peer Pressure DJ Unlockedgroove spins mixes, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
Dueling DJs Massi and Play spin their own house, progressive and techno music, 9 pm, $

Rumor
DJ Sender spins hip-hop and R&B while plays house and Latin vibes, 10 pm-2 am.

Ryles Dance Hall
Four on the Floor Latin, tango and salsa
9 pm-1 am, $8-$12.

Sissy K's
Ramu and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Spin
DJ Anthony Salvatie spins Top 40 and dan in the front room, and DJ Steve Anders retro favorites in the white room, $5, 10 pm

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike G spins Top 40, hip-hop and h
pm, $5.

33 Restaurant
Filter Saturdays DJs Tasso and Niko spin, 9 p

Tiernan's
Saturday Night Dance Party DJ Littles spi old-school, Top 40 and dance, 10 pm, no co

Toast
Curses Wretched Design presents an ev
Gothic/industrial music, 9 pm-1 am, $10.

Umbria
Deep Boston spins house music on the th while the bi-level international club upst tures hip-hip and Top 40 beats, 10 pm.

Underbar
Global Entertainment Presents DJ Angel
11 pm.

DJ J.C. plays Latin house, and DJs Tarek bi and Gamble spin house and hip-hop,
, 19+.

igo
on Steele plays R&B, hip-hop and house,
, $15, 21+.

t Street Grille
Night Lounge DJ Joe plays funk and Top 40
ht, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

NDAYS

alous Sundays Brazilian music, 11 pm, $20, n 19+, men 21+.

on light DJs spin progressive house, trance and
, 10 pm, $10, 19+.

Bar
eggae with Dub Station, 8 pm-2 am, 21+.

rice
ing DJs spin Brazilian dance music, 10 pm, ), 21+.

Europa
Presents Reggae vs. Reggaeton, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Q
ational Dance Party 8 pm-2 am, $10.

in's try Night DJ Paul Dailey plays mixes and es, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Enormous Room
utions A night of electronic music, $3,
-3 am.

n Briar
Doyle, no cover, 21+.

Kells
pot Rotating DJs spin Top 40, hip-hop and music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover.

lesex Lounge
e Yard DJ Yamin spins mashups, soul, hip-hop, all and more, 9 pm, no cover.

Office
Sundays DJ Bruno and weekly special guests eep, soulful house and disco, 10 pm, no cover,

nix Landing
House-music night features a rotating roster al and international guest DJs, 10 pm, $5,

Place
LaMarsh appears with VJ Leathers, 10 pm,
er, 21+.

Point
ny P, 11 pm-2 am.

Purple Shamrock
om spins Top 40 beats, no cover, 21+.

Rack
ke Janedy spins dance and Top 40, 9 pm-
no cover, 21+.

nny Sharp and the World Premier Band provide
, dance and old-school funk, no cover.

ne
y Dubby Sunday DJ Brynmore and rotating spin reggae-style music, 9 pm-1 am, no cover,

Gods
Sunday DJs play punk, garage and rock, 9
cover, 21+.

Dance Hall
Salsa Sundays The second and fourth Sun-each month, DJs Nik and Hernan play salsa
6-10 pm, $12.

Sundays Manos and Christophe host a night ng Latin and international grooves, 10 pm-10, 21+.

K's
and the Crew, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Room
Sundays Sunday night reggae features Dub and DJ D-Kon, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

nd down the weekend with chill hip-hop azilian beats, 8 pm-1 am, $5.

ale comes to Boston with this Brazilian as DJ Leandro spins a collection of dance
pm, $15, 19+.

go n Connection DJ Deville spins reggae and beats, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

ib Venues

35 India St., Boston (617-426-1870).
Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121).
n 138 Portland St., Boston (617-523-8383).

Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424).
The Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-9508).
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Big Easy Bar Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000).
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678).
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726-1110).
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080).
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-9874).
Club Europa 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Club Q 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121).
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
Cosmopolitan 33 Batterymarch St., Boston (617-695-9333).
Dbar 1236 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-265-4490).
Devlin's 332 Washington St., Brighton (617-779-8822).
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050).
Embassy 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100).
The Enormous Room 567 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-491-5599).
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555).
Flat Top Johnny's 1 Kendall Square, Cambridge (617-494-9565).
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-9722).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
Green Street Grill 280 Green St., Cambridge (617-876-1655).
Gypsy Bar 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799).
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010).
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722-0161).
I/D 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460).
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Brighton (617-782-9082).
Kinvara Pub 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400).
Liquor Store The Alley, Boston (617-357-6800).
Mantra 52 Temple Place, Boston (617-542-8111).
Matrix/Paradise City 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
McGann's Pub 197 Portland St., Boston (617-227-4059).
Middlesex Lounge 315 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-6739).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740).
The Modern 30-36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-351-2581).
The Office 5 Broad St., Boston (617-474-7866).
Paradise Lounge 967-969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800).
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081).
The Point 147 Hanover St., Boston (617-523-7020).
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060).
The Rack 24 Clinton St., Boston (617-725-1051).
Rain 665 Broadway, Malden (781-322-2101).
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-9851).
The Reel Bar 477 Cambridge St., Allston (617-738-3222).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
Ruby Room 155 Portland St., Boston (617-557-9950).
Rumor 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-943-0656).
Ryles Dance Hall 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9300).
Saint 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-6511).
Spin 1466 Broadway, Saugus (781-321-1660).
Supper Club 711 Boylston St., Boston (617-437-0002).
Tantric Lounge 123 Stuart St., Boston (617-367-8742).
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300).
Tiernan's 99 Broad St., Boston (617-350-7077).
Tiki Room 1 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-351-2580).
Toast 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211).
Tonic 1316 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-566-6699).
Umbria 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1000).
Underbar 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-7122).
The Upstairs Lounge 65 Causeway St., Boston (617-792-3382).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061).
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-0300).
Whiskey Park 64 Arlington St., Boston (617-542-1483).

ANNa's
TAQUERIA
Burritos & Tacos To Go!

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Burrito

7th Year Running!

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900

museums & galleries

Advice to Contributors
Submit gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Galleries. Or e-mail arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Museums

Arthur M. Sackler Museum
Harvard, 485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and seniors; free, Sat. until 12 pm. •Frank Stella 1958 showcases several of the postwar artist's neglected oil paintings from the year 1958, before he began his famous black paintings. Through May 7. •Evocative Creatures: Animal Motifs and Symbols in East Asian Art explores the symbolism and significance of animals in a variety of media. Through June 11. •The Tablet and the Pen: Drawings from the Islamic World examines how drawings contributed to artistic experimentation in eastern Islamic lands. Through July 23. •Alexander's Image and the Beginning of Greek Portraiture showcases the individualized coins that were first used for political propaganda by Alexander the Great and his successors during their reign. Ongoing.

Davis Museum and Cultural Center
Wellesley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2051). www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. Tue.-Sun., 12-4 pm. Free. •On the Edge: Contemporary Chinese Artists Encounter the West explores new perspectives on contemporary art in a variety of media and re-examines the role of Chinese art in the international community. Through May 24. •Any Opinions? is an installation by Chinese artist Xu Bing that examines the evolution of language and the interplay between Eastern and Western cultures. Through June 3. •Art from China, Japan and Korea displays a collection of East Asian artifacts including 18th-century Chinese silk scrolls and 19th-century Hiroshigi prints. Through June 30. •An installation of modernist art features works by Claude Monet, John Singer Sargent and Diego Rivera. Ongoing.

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park
51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lincoln. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $9; $6, students and seniors; free, children 5 and under. •2006 DeCordova Annual Exhibition presents contemporary works by local artists and includes a video, bronze relief and digital inkjet print. April 29-Aug. 20. •Ornamental Art VII displays the latest exhibition of jewelry designed by Marcia MacDonald, Elisa Bongfeldt and Chihiro Makio. Through May 9. •Great Buys: Museum Purchases highlights more than 40 pieces of art the museum has purchased with the Art Acquisition Fund. Through Sept. 30.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum
32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and seniors; free, Sat. until 12 pm. •Tempo, Tempo! The Bauhaus Photomontages of Marianne Brandt highlights the German artist's photomontages created during the mid-'20s and early '30s. Through May 21. •American Watercolors and Pastels, 1875-1950 features the first showing in several decades of works by American masters that include John Singer Sargent, Winslow Homer, Edward Hopper and John Marin. Through June 25. •The Western Tradition: Art Since the Renaissance includes a series of installations that analyze painting techniques, pictorial space, sculpture and the artistic process. Through July 30. •Objects for a Kunstkammer: Early European Collecting, 1550-1700 exhibits manmade and natural objects typically found in a Kunstkammer, a type of art room that was the predecessor of museums. Ongoing.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and seniors; $5, children ages 3-18; free, Sun. until 12 pm. •Climate Change: Our Global Experiment explores scientific studies on climate and includes a computer simulation. Ongoing. •Dodos, Trilobites and Meteorites... Treasures of Nature and Science at Harvard features collections that document more than two centuries of scientific exploration. Ongoing. •The Glass Flowers by Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka features glass models of more than 830 plant species from the Ware Collection. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art
955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Tue., Wed. and Fri., 12-5 pm; Thu., 12-9 pm; Sat.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $7; $5, students and seniors; free, Thu. after 5 pm. •Living in Motion: Design and Architecture for Flexible Dwelling exhibits more than 150 objects and films and 500 illustrations to explore how people use furniture, housing and objects for a flexible, mobile life. Through May 7. •Suzanne Walking and Julian Walking by British artist Julian Opie feature two life-sized portraits of figures walking on light-emitting diode screens. Through Oct. 31.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $10, Tue.-Fri.; $11, Sat.-Sun.; $7, seniors; $5, students; free to children under 18 and all visitors named Isabella. The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces by artists including Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Botticelli and Degas.

Preview

Summer Scene

The Peabody Essex Museum assembles warm-weather views of New England past and present.

Frank Weston Benson's "Summer" is one of 100 works on display in the Peabody Essex Museum's Painting Summer in New England

Painting Summer in New England*, the mostly gorgeous exhibition opening April 22 at the Peabody Essex Museum in Salem, will make you want to get out your shorts, flip-flops and gardening gloves. More than 100 works, dating from the Victorian era to the present, evoke sand dunes and surf, garden paths and secluded ponds with an almost tactile beauty. It's the museum's largest exhibition in over two years, filling the galleries with paintings by masters including Childe Hassam and Winslow Homer, three generations of Wyeths, Edward Hopper and Norman Rockwell.

As show curator Trevor Fairbrother notes, "Not every summer day is perfect"—or at least it's not always a day at the beach. So the exhibition includes urban street scenes and Yvonne Jacquette's aerial view of a Maine paper mill. And contemporary cool is also on display, in pieces like Alex Katz's 8' x 20' "Harbor #9" and Scott Prior's "Path to the Lake," which shows a lone phone booth standing near a peaceful shore.

"If you like David Lynch movies, you could think that was so fantastic or weird or surreal, but if you're a conservation nut, you're like, 'Get this out of here!' It's going to be interesting to see how people respond," Fairbrother says.

Of course, to a modern audience oceanside idylls may seem just as foreign as absurdist landscapes. "A lot of what we see in all of these paintings isn't really like that anymore. I'm hoping it will stir a bit more regional pride," Fairbrother says. "Everything's getting so developed and built up.... I think a show like this can remind us what New England was, and what happened during our lifetime, and what's probably coming down the pike."

Painting Summer in New England runs at the Peabody Essex Museum, April 22-Sept. 4. East India Square, Salem (866-745-1876). www.pem.org. April 22–Sept. 4. $17, adults; $15, seniors; $13, students; free to museum members, Salem residents and children ages 16 and under.
—Joel Brown

MIT List Visual Arts Center
20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-253-4680). htt mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall Thu., Sat. and Sun., 12-6 pm; Fri., 12-8 pm •Aaron Fink: Elements and Other Prints feat of the artist's prints, including some from h portfolio Elements. On view at the Dean's through May 12. •Chris Doyle: Recent Video exhibits the artist's dreamlike videos made b low-tech special effects that reflect the psyc of daily life. Through May 30.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444) web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to k MIT. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-5 $2, students and seniors; free, children under 5. sionbox #2: Cars and Stars features Andy Z man's digital animation and video projected three-dimensional sculpture that is accompa digital sound. Through April 30. •Finding Fo Art of Richard Filipowski celebrates the form professor's sculptures and graphic art. Thou 30. •Pia Lindman: Embodiments displays dr videos and video documentation of the le performances with robots at MIT. Through J •Scopes, Station Wagons and Solder: Unexpec ages from the Rad Lab and RLE Collections e photographs documenting the history of ra electronics. Through July 4.

Museum of African-American Hi
46 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www museum.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line t Mon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Free. •Soul Cinem Films and Black Stars (1919-1963) sh movie posters of early African-Americar highlighting the careers of neglected film and stars. Through June 3. •Historic Galler 19th-Century Black Beacon Hill explores th mination of African Americans on Beacon the 1800s. Ongoing.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267 www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to M Wed.-Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm; Sat.-Tue., 10 a pm. Thu.-Fri. after 5 pm, only the west wing $15; $13, students and seniors; $6.50, children 17 on school days until 3 pm; free to children under all other times; admission reduced by $2 Fri. after 5 pm; free to all, Wed., 4-9:45 pm annual Art in Bloom exhibits floral arrang dispersed throughout the galleries. April •David Hockney Portraits highlights 150 w various media of the renowned British friends, family and lovers. Through May 14 temporary Clay: Japanese Ceramics for the N tury is a collection of innovative, conter Japanese ceramics. Through July 9. •Conte Cloth: Stoles by Minagawa Makiko exhibits from the avant-garde designer. Through •Degas to Picasso: Modern Masters featur than 280 works, including paintings, wate drawings, prints, photographs, sculptures a trated books from 1900-1960. Through •Light My Fire: Rock Posters from the Summe highlights posters from 1966-67 that ad weekly rock concerts with local bands fr Haight-Ashbury district of San Francisco, ir the Grateful Dead and Jefferson Airplane. Aug. 13. •Tradition and Transformation: Japa 1860-1940 explores Japanese art as the cou perienced a synthesis between Western mo and Eastern traditionalism. Through Aug. Stage in Osaka: Actor Prints from the MFA C displays 19th-century Japanese prints r Osaka. Through June 2007.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). we org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park Sun., 9 am-5 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $15; niors; $12, children ages 3-11. •Countdou pernova is a planetarium show about the and death of stars. Through April 30. •St Where Science Meets Imagination incorpo tifacts from all six Star Wars films to exp technologies of today and tomorrow. April 30. •The Butterfly Garden lets enjoy hundreds of butterflies and flowers ing. •The Gilliland Observatory allows to stargaze atop the museum's garage roo day evenings. •The Lighthouse: Beaming ing and Bending Light demonstrates the p behind light and color wavelengths th rainbow the lighthouse produces. Ongoin Theater of Electricity provides lightnin daily at 12 and 2 pm and Fridays at 7 pm come to the Universe provides visitors most current information about the univ displays a scale-model version of the sola Ongoing.

ody Essex Museum

ndia Square, Salem (978-745-9500). www. g. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. $13; $11, seniors; $9, s; free to children under 16 and residents of •Taj Mahal: The Building of a Legend is a col- of 40 paintings and photographs exploring red site. Through July 23. •Carved by Nature: ed Traditions in Chinese Decorative Art exhibits wood forms that appealed to Buddhists and s seeking to connect with nature. Through 3. •Painting Summer in New England features gs from the 1850s to the present of summer- activities by American artists including w Homer, Edward Hopper and John Singer t. April 22-Sept. 4. •Exposing the Source: The gs of Nalini Malani highlights the artist's gs and watercolors whose subjects vary from to India's urban culture. Through Oct. 22. in Art and Nature exhibits a wide variety of ces and interactive stations representing the ctions between humans and owls throughout . Through Dec. 3.

ody Museum of Archaeology Ethnology

vinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). eabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to d. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $7.50; $6, seniors and s; $5, children 3-18; free, children under 3. oble Pursuit: The Duchess of Mecklenburg ion from Iron Age Slovenia features 34 arti- om excavated burials sites in Slovenia and es ceramics, glassware, ornaments and ar- nts. April 19-Aug. 30. •Imazighen! Beauty tisanship in Berber Life includes 20th-cen- tifacts such as jewelry and leatherwork by rber peoples of North Africa. Through June econfiguring Korea: Roger Marshutz's Photog- of Pusan, 1952-1954 exhibits photographs y life in Korea as the country underwent al, political and economic changes during S. reconstruction efforts. Through Sept. 10. Nation to Nation: Examining Lewis and Indian Collection presents artifacts from the ers' expedition. Through Dec. 31. •The of Ancient Peru is a collection of early ce- art that gives insight into the culture. gh June 2007. •Encounters With the Ameri- mines Native-American culture before and he arrival of Christopher Columbus in Ongoing.

Art Museum

is University, 415 South St., Waltham (781- 34). www.brandeis.edu/rose. MBTA: Com- Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue.-Sun., 12-5 pm. Love My Time, I Don't Like My Time features rs of Erwin Wurm's works that incorporate re, digital animation, video, photography and gs. April 27-July 30. •Sarah Walker: Paintings s the use of spatial systems found in science, architecture and technology in the artist's ab- crylic paintings. April 27-July 30.

ecial Events

n Bloom

n of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston 67-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Museum. April 22-25, 10 am-4:45 pm; d hours April 24, 5-9:45 pm. $15; $13, s and seniors; $6.50, children ages 6-17 on lays until 3 pm; free to children 17 and under er times and April 24, 5-9:45 pm. The n presents its annual floral festival with 70 ements dispersed throughout the galleries. ent kicks off with Family Day followed by th Anniversary Gala Celebration, work- lectures, guided tours and demonstrations.

on Print Fair

Public Library, 700 Boylston St, Boston (617- 00). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to April 28, 5-9 pm; April 29, 11am-5 pm; April pm. The annual fair features an inventory of uch as vintage posters, watercolors, pastels, naps, Japanese prints, photographs and gs by master artists including Rembrandt, and Toulouse-Lautrec.

9th Annual All Arts Open os

Peabody School, 70 Rindge Ave., Cambridge. oca-arts.org. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. 9-30, 12-6 pm. The North Cambridge Arts tion hosts its annual open studios event, visitors walk through artists' homes and in North Cambridge neighborhoods. Works sculpture, photography, jewelry and mixed- paintings. Maps are available at the NoCa formation booth at the Andrew Peabody

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art

38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www. acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. Industrial Composition exhibits Mur- ray Hantman's abstract oil paintings of industrial ob- jects in a machine shop. Through April 29.

Adams Gallery

Suffolk University Law School, 120 Tremont St., Boston (617-305-1782). www.suffolk.edu/adams_gallery. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Daily, 9 am-7 pm. Free. BSO Celebrates 125 Years displays photographs and artifacts from the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Through June 30.

Allston Skirt Gallery

65 Thayer St., Boston (617-482-3652). www.allston skirt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Elizabeth Huey: The In- explicable Thing Between Us features small paintings and drawings by the artist. Through April 29. •Dan- ica Phelps and Debi Ray-Chaudhuri: Two Takes presents the two artists' paintings and drawings along with a collaborative music installation. Through April 29.

Alpha Gallery

38 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alpha gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •New Prints and Works on Paper features Scott Prior's color etchings and watercolors. Through May 3. •Recent Work ex- hibits Ben Aronson's oil paintings of urban land- scapes. Through May 3.

Arden Gallery

129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.arden gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Norma Bessouet's Rhythm and Order explores themes of childhood, fantasy, dreams and memories through her oil paintings. Through April 30.

Artana

1378 Beacon St., Suite B, Brookline (617-879-3111). www.artanagallery.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Thu., 10 am-7 pm and by appointment. New York: Night/Day shows artist Suzanne Hodes' admiration for NYC in a series of paintings created in a variety of media. Through May 6.

L'Attitude Gallery

218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). www. lattitudegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Outer Dimension displays Rob Lorenson's outdoor con- temporary, aluminum and stainless-steel sculp- tures. Through May 31.

BAAK Gallery

35 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-0407). www. baakgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.- Sat., 10:30 am-8 pm; Sun., 1-6 pm. Behind the Wind- shield: New Oil Paintings displays Gregory Thielker's oil paintings and watercolors that explore the obser- vations that occur while driving in the rain. April 19-May 9.

Barbara Krakow Gallery

10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •The Broken Grid exhibits Barbara Broughel's paintings and sculp- tures created by applying techniques from 16th- and 17th-century Dutch paintings. Through April 26. •Stonehenge showcases a series of photographs by John Baldessari of two people in front of the his- toric site in England. Through April 26. •Michael Mazur's New Work displays the artist's latest paint- ings, drawings and prints. April 29-June 10.

Berenberg Gallery

4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). www. berenberggallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. Everything Under the Sun exhibits paintings, drawings and sculptures by 12 disabled artists from the Gateway Arts Gallery. Through May 6.

Bernard Toale Gallery

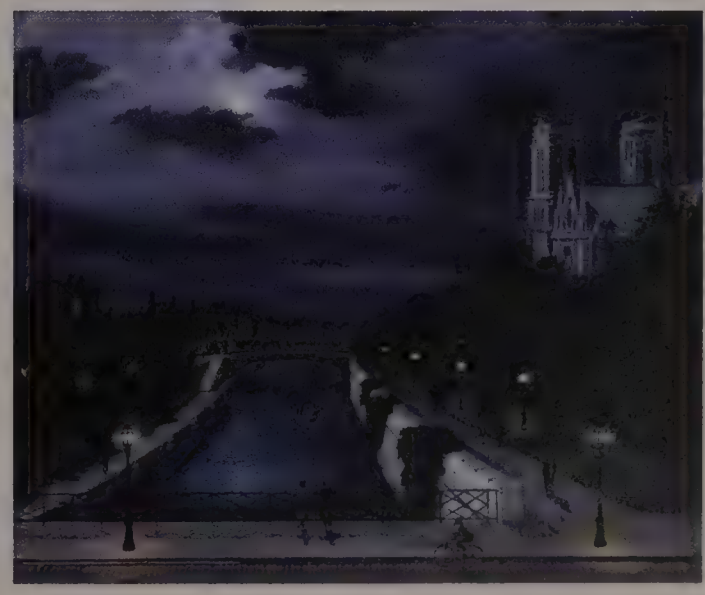
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www. bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Surrounding Practice by Sandy Litchfield and Territory of Thought by Fred H.C. Liang feature the artists' paintings and drawings. Through April 29. •Silent Step displays Laura McPhee's recent color photographs of a project in Calcutta. April 30-July 1. •Monique Jo- hannet features her mixed-media paintings and draw- ings on canvas in New Work. •Recent Drawings by Sarah Walker exhibits the artist's acrylic works on paper. April 30-May 27.

BF Annex Gallery

450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3344). www. bfannex.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.- Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. Soup by

AXELLE FINE ARTS
GALERIE NEWBURY

Michel Delacroix



André Boubounelle ~André Bourrié ~ Hollis Dunlap
Jean-Daniel Bouvard ~ Goxwa ~ Albert Hadjiganev
Yves Crenn ~ Elisabeth Estivalet ~ Philippe Vasseur
Patrick Pietropoli ~ Brian Stephens

91 Newbury Street Tel: (617) 450-0700
www.axelle.com

Ruth Daniels features mixed-media works on velum and an installation entitled Gel Pours, a three-dimensional relief of hand-torn paper with pigmented acrylic gel. Through April 29.

Boston Center for the Arts

Mills Gallery, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-8835). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed-Sun., 12-5 pm; Fri.-Sat., open until 10 pm. •Parade Swag, South End, Boston 2002-2006 exhibits Amber Davis Tourlentes' photographs of the promotional materials distributed during the South End Gay Pride Parade. Through May 28. •Tipping Points examines the relationship of health and community through interactive sculptures that react to visitors' movements, with each sculpture representing the illness of a local artist. Through May 28.

Boston Sculptors Gallery

486 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-7781). www.bostonsculptors.com. MBTA: Orange Line to N.E. Medical. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. •Fragilities by Beth Galston is an installation of a series of sculptures made entirely of toothpicks. April 19-May 20. •Road Residue: The Accumulating Miles by Ann Torke exhibits the debris collected by acetate from one of the artist's roadtrips. April 19-May 20.

Brickbottom Gallery

1 Fitchburg St., Somerville (617-776-3410). www.brickbottomartists.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. Thu.-Sat., 12-5 pm. Get Real explores new perspectives on realism in a variety of media by Jane Goldman, Roger Kizik, Barbara Poole and David Sholl. Through May 7.

Bromfield Gallery

450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3605). www.bromfieldartgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 12-5 pm. •Quotidian is an installation of a 365-day calendar of ordinary objects arranged by Odile Dix. Through April 29. •Site features various locations, including Paris and California, as the subjects of Elizabeth Strasser's abstract paintings. Through April 29.

Brookline Arts Center

86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715).www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Line to St. Mary's. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm. •Remembering the Familiar displays urban landscape photographs of everday sights by Marc Goldring. April 18-May 12. •Farmers' Market features watercolors of fruits and vegetables by Phyllis Cohen and Anita Jamieson. Through May 26.

Cambridge Art Association

25 Lowell St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). www.cambridgeart.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. The Nature of Order and Chaos is a group show featuring paintings and sculptures by Grace Vasta-Carr, Lydia Jenkins Musco and Michelle De Marco. Through April 25.

Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center

41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). www.cmacusa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm. TR3 explores the culture of the Dominican Republic through mixed-media artwork, costumes, and photos of indigenous insects. Through April 26.

Cambridge 7 Associates, Inc.

1050 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7000). www.c7a.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. Paintings East and West displays the work of Hans Chao, including Chinese calligraphy screens, oil paintings, watercolors on rice paper and pastels. Through April 28.

Chase Gallery

129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www.chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Stephen Coyle displays his new acrylic on panel paintings that depict scenes of contemporary society. Through April 29. •Tezh Modarressi presents her work with oil on paper, based on solitary interior spaces. Through April 29.

Childs Gallery

169 Newbury Street., Boston (617-266-1108). www.childsgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm. 69 at 169: Child's Gallery Celebrates 69 Years at 169 Newbury St. with 69 Fine Objects includes art from old masters to 20th-century artists in a variety of media. Through May 6.

Copley Society of Art

158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www.copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Patron's Choice 2006: On the Waterfront features paintings from 25 of the gallery patrons' favorite artists. Through April 22. •Co/So Artists A to Z: Rites of Spring exhibits member artists' interpretations of spring in a variety of media, including photography, sculpture and acrylic paintings. Through June 9.

Crump McCole Gallery

200 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-330-1133). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Wed. and Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-5 pm. •Artists' Gallery Exhibit features oil paintings of Boston by Norman Crump, watercolors by Dan McCole and marine scenes by Jeff Eldredge. Ongoing. •Small Works by Elizabeth Benson exhibits the artist's oil paintings. Ongoing.

DTR Modern Galleries

167 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-9700). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 11 am- 6 pm. Hockney and Houben: Interpretations presents lithographs and silk screens by David Hockney, and oils on canvas by Houben R.T. Through April 22.

Eclipse Gallery

164 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-6730). MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm. •Recent Still Life Work by Ron Hubbard includes gouache paintings, pencil drawings and watercolors. Through April 29. •Rooftops displays Liang Guo's oil paintings of landscapes. May 2-27.

L'Essence Art Gallery

1723 Centre St., West Roxbury (617-325-0140). www.lessenceartgallery.com. Tue.-Wed., 11 am-7 pm; Thu.-Sat., 11 am-8 pm. The Four Seasons displays photography of New England's seasons by Joan Engel, Eaden Huang, Anthony Lobosco, Piper Jo Nevinslong and Claire Sauvageot. Through April 29.

Fort Point Arts Community Gallery

300 Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www.fortpointarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-9 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. Winged and Whispered exhibits works in a variety of media that focus on imagery associated with flying. Through May 20.

Galerie d'Orsay

33 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.galerie-dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •Zupan: Compositions in Color displays oil on canvas paintings and watercolors by Bruno Zupan, and mixed-media by his daughter Natasha. Through May 14 gallery's collection features paintings from mas cluding Picasso, Renoir and Matisse.

Gallery AA/B

535 Albany St., Suite 3B, Boston (617-574-www.artadvisoryboston.com. MBTA: Orange
Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5:30 pm and by appoi
•Helena Kocis exhibits her wall relief, P Structures, which uses geometric forms to e mood and personality. Through May 26. •
Goldenberg displays oil-on-canvas assembla spired by improvisational jazz music in Expre zazzaVeeBopanism. Through May 26.

Gallery @ The Piano Factory

791 Tremont St., Boston (617-437-9365). N
Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Sat.-Sun., 12-5 pm.
Community Artists features contemporar including mixed-media paintings, drawin sculptures by Chinese artists living and wor
Boston. Through April 30.

Gallery at Studio 412a

450 Harrison Ave., Boston (978-468-8054). N
Orange Line to Back Bay. By appointment onl Radochia displays Wrinkles and Rolls, an insta combining painting and sculpture. Through Ap

Gallery Katz

450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-6328).
gallerykatz.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Ba Wed.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •7 posite of Romance features acrylic paintings o interiors by Amze Emmons. Through Ap •Elemental Boston highlights Roland Kulla's paintings of Boston bridge details. May 1-June

Gallery Kayafas

450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411)
gallerykayafas.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Ba Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •The Alphabet photographs of models spelling out the letter alphabet with their bodies. Through Ap
•Winter Branches: A Snow Haiku presents a s 18 color-ink prints with each image represe line of a haiku. Through April 29.

Gallery NAGA

67 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9060).
gallerynaga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Ar
Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Reality, You Cho

r Moscoso's work is on display in the Museum of Fine Arts' Light My Fire: Rock ers from the Summer of Love exhibition.

o series of Joseph Barbieri's oil paintings: one als with human-like traits, and the other of pes. Through April 29.

vese/Sullivan Gallery
rrison Ave., Boston (617-426-9738). www. esullivan.com MBTA: Orange Line to Back e.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. Other Works dis- eter Coe's abstract mixed-media paintings rercolors, several of which are computer-gen- Through May 2.

ard Yezerski Gallery bury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.howard gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. t., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Falling Series presents a nstallation and five large photographs of re seeds set against a background of the sky. l-May 23. •In Magnetic Fields, Evelyn Rydz ariety of media to exhibit her works on paper tract paintings of industrial and natural land- April 21-May 23.

Rotenberg Gallery
wbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www. nberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. t., 10 am-6 pm. Tracks by Stacy Quacken- hibits molds of Boston's sidewalks cast onto nd iron, as well as Jennifer Liston Munston's raphs and oil-on-plaster paintings. Through 9.

Ann Goldman Fine Art/Beth ng Gallery bury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www. lmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Ar- Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Recent Paintings of Cups, Teapots and Russian Glass features ntonova's oil on canvas paintings. Through 9.

r Smith Gallery
wbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www. ithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Cop- n.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Graham Gillmore: rk presents oil- and enamel-on-wood paint- ng text such as tabloids and lyrics. Through 9.

Kingston Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-4113). www. kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. •Janet Hansen Kawada and Matt Stone present Steel Wool, a sculpture made of welded steel and felt. Through April 29. •Rose Olson displays her acrylic paintings from May 2-27.

Lanoue Fine Art
160 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-4400). www. lanouefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Higher Ground features sculpture, mixed-media paintings and works on paper by Andrew Saftel. April 29-May 28. •The gallery's collection features works by Dirk De Bruycker, Andrew Saftel, Marc Civitarese, Frederick Hart, John Folsom and others.

Locco Ritoro Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-542-1010). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Memories by Ricardo Cabrera displays the artist's oil paintings on welded iron. Through April 22. •New Works by Jeff Heyne features the artist's contemporary photography mounted on aluminum. Through April 22.

Mario Diacono at Ars Libri
500 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-5212). www. arslibri.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Daniel Rich's "Torre Velasca" is displayed through May 3.

Massachusetts College of Art
Bakalar Gallery, 621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www.massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Senior Photography Thesis Exhibition displays students' select works. April 24-May 4. •Master of Fine Arts Thesis Exhibition showcases works in a variety of media including video, sculpture, performance art, mixed-media paintings and photography by graduating students. Through May 22.

Mercury Gallery
8 Newbury St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Ar-

ASSAGGIO
WHERE THE LOCALS MEET TO EAT

Open 12:00pm to 12:00am
Full dinner until midnight
Full bar

AUTHENTIC ITALIAN CUISINE
EXTENSIVE WINE LIST
SUMMER SPECIALTY DRINK MENU
FRIDAY & SATURDAY NIGHTS
ANDREW ALEXANDER
"Boston's Own Pavarotti"

ASSAGGIO
29 Prince Street, Boston
617.227.7380
www.assaggioboston.com
ZAGAT Rated

Sample award-winning specialties from Allston Village eateries, including Aneka Rasa Malaysian Cuisine, Bazaar on Cambridge, Big City, Burritos on Fire, Café Belô, Café Brazil, Carlo's Cucina Italiana, DoubleTree Guest Suites/ Boathouse Grille, Grasshopper, Herrell's Allston Café, Infusions Tea Spa, The Kells Asian Cuisine, Kouzina Express, Rangoli, Seoul Bakery, Shaw's Supermarket, Sumi, Sunset Grill & Tap, V Majestic and Yi Soon Bakery

Cash bar/Silent Auction

Live music with jazz pianist Adam Pepper

Tickets are $25 or $200/10 in advance; $30 at the door

Tickets available on-line at www.allstonvillage.com/events

All proceeds benefit Allston-Village-Main Streets, a non-profit revitalization program

Information at 617.254.7564

All leftover food will be donated to the Greater Boston Food Bank's Second Helping-Program

Allston Village Main Streets, New Balance and The Improper Bostonian present the Ninth Annual

a Taste of Allston Village

Flavors From Around the World

Tuesday, May 2, 2006
6 to 8 p.m.

DoubleTree Guest Suites
400 Soldiers Field Road, Allston

lington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Lyrical Abstraction: Sculptures and Paintings by Louis Schanker showcases the artist's metal-and-wood sculptures as well as oil paintings and works on paper. April 22-May 16.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobilia-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •John Garrett's textiles and Ellen Wieske's jewelry are on display through April 30. •Wendy Ramshaw features her collection of new jewelry in Color Field One. May 1-28.

MPG Contemporary
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). www.mpgallery.net. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. New Work by Jim Peters displays the artist's drawings and oil paintings that are accompanied by three-dimensional constructions. Through April 29.

Newbury Fine Arts
29 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-0210). www.newburyfinearts.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. Stephen Holland exhibits Contemporary Sports Icons, acrylic paintings and original prints. April 21-May 19.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). www.nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Lost Paintings 1984-85 features nine oil paintings never before exhibited as well as mixed-media collages and works on paper by Porfirio DiDonna. Through May 6.

OHT Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-423-1677). www.ohtgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •New Work by Michael Dumontier displays mixed-media works of simple everyday objects. Through May 13. •Nick Zaremba presents an installation of his graffiti-inspired character paintings. Through May 13.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www. outofthebluearts gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Daily, 12-7 pm. •Soulscapes is a solo exhibition by Charles Antoine of his new paintings. Through April 29. •A View From Cambridge presents works from 60 local artists in a variety of media including mosaics, stained glass, sculpture, photography, jewelry and mixed-media paintings. Through April 30. •The gallery's permanent collection features photography, paintings, sculpture, jewelry, mosaics and antiques by local artists including Margarete Koehler-Bittkow, an original Bauhaus artist.

Paradise Lounge Gallery
969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8814). www.thedise.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. Daily, 5 pm-2 am. From the Other Side of the Glass highlights rare rock-and-roll photographs by Eddie Kramer of legendary musicians, including Jimi Hendrix, Led Zeppelin and the Rolling Stones. Through May 20.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www.peppergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Harold Reddicliffe highlights the artist's oil paintings of everyday objects, including microscopes, fans and projectors. Through April 29.

Perrin Gallery
320A Harvard St., Brookline (617-277-4357). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. Drawing into the Present exhibits Marketa Klicoca's mixed-media paintings and drawings. Through June 24.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www.puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. Out on a Ledge: The Photographs of Paul Cary Goldberg displays four series of still-life photographs. April 22-May 16.

Rhys Gallery
70 Northampton St., Boston (617-541-2534). www.therhysgallery.com MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. Synergetic explores the use of digital technology in acrylic paintings, video installations and computer-generated images. Through May 6.

Richardson-Clarke Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). www.richardson-clarke.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. The gallery's permanent collection features European and American paintings and drawings from the 19th and 20th centuries.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www.robertkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Uelsmann displays his photography created of image manipulation and photomontage fro and negatives. Through April 29.

Samson Projects
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7177) samsonprojects.com. MBTA: Orange Line Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appoi •Taylor Davis' New Work exhibits abstrac sculptures. Through April 22. •Wardell M hibits his drawings and acrylic and charcoa ings from his series "Death, Desire and th Monsieur." April 28-May 27.

School of the Museum of Fine Art
Grossman Gallery, 230 The Fenway, Boston (6 3718). www.smfa.edu. MBTA: E Green Museum. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm.; Thu., ope pm. Fifth Year Exhibition displays students' w variety of media created during their independent study. Through May 6.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810) societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm.; Sun., 12-5 pm. T residency program Watershed celebrates anniversary in a display of ceramic art. T April 30.

Soprafina Gallery
73 Thayer St., Boston (617-728-0770) soprafina.com. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Tu Plein Air Painting exhibits Jon Imber's an Reynolds' abstract oil paintings inspired by Through April 29.

St. George Gallery
245 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321) stgeorgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Mel tures postmodern oil paintings by John Murra tive landscapes and Boston cityscapes by Wi George and watercolors of Taos and Sante F by Sandra Mueller-Dick. Through April 30.

Victoria Munroe Fine Art
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-523-0661) victoriamunroefineart.com. MBTA: Green Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm and by ment. Mary Armstrong displays the artist's oil paintings that depict current political Through May 6.

Vose Galleries of Boston
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176) vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Cople Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 p Babb features his oil paintings of Boston, M Rome. May 1-June 17. •The gallery's perma lection includes American artwork in vario from the 18th, 19th and early-20th centuries.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Center for Photographic Exhibi
New England School of Photography, 654 Be Boston (617-437-0470). www.nesop.com. Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 p Local High School Group Show displays 120 sub in the center's first annual all-media high sch April 21-May 19.

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158 griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail chester Center. Tue.-Wed., 11 am-5 pm; Thu 7 pm; Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat.-Sun., 12-6 pm Synthesis features photography from studen Boston Arts Academy and Winchest School. Through April 30. •Snowbound Lisa Robinson's color photographs of upst York. Through April 30.

Panopticon Gallery Boston
502 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929 panopt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 11 am-6 pm. Tony Deconeas, John Rosenthal Johnson exhibits black-and-white photogra romantic themes. Through May 2.

Panopticon Gallery Waltham
435 Moody St., Waltham (781-647-0100 panopt.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Mon.-Thu., 10 am-6 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm Rosenthal exhibits black-and-white street p phy in Everyday Theatre. Through April Sanctuary features Jason Miccolo Johnson and-white photography of the African-A worship experience. April 27-June 10.

Photographic Resource Center
Boston University Art Gallery, 855 Com Boston (617-975-0600). www.bu.edu/prc. B Green Line to BU West. Tue.-Fri., 10 a Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. 2006 PRC Studen tion showcases photography in a variety of including black-and-white, digital an presented by 15 of New England's Through May 7.

ay & esbian

ce to Contributors
it information, including telephone numbers and t MBTA stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or gaylesbian@improper.com.

ubs, Bars & angouts

Alley (Daily)
Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-449). www.thealleybar.com. MBTA: Blue or Line to Gov. Center. Mon.-Fri., 2 pm-Sat. and Sun., 12 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. n's leather-and-Levi's neighborhood bar of-ool, pinball, a jukebox and video games as s theme nights.

(Thursdays)
Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080). MBTA: Line to Boylston or Orange Line to New England al Center. 11 pm. $10. 21+. Get Down Thursdays e rotating DJs playing hip-hop, house and pop.

lon (Sundays)
nsdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 19+. Sunday-parties include drag acts and house music from nt DJ Ted Elison.

(Mondays)
nsdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $7. 19+. Static on lays features a drag show hosted by Miss Kris el, with DJs Susan Esthera and Adilson spin-rogressive house. An amateur drag show takes the last Monday of each month.

z (Saturdays)
uart St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzz .com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. 21+. On Saturdays, Buzz's pool room, lounge vo dance floors—with DJ Mary Alice spinning ar dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep and trance—keep the men busy until 2 am.

e (Daily)
remont St., Boston (617-542-4494). MBTA: Or-ine to Back Bay or Green Line to Arlington. No 21+. Neighborhood cruise bar open nightly.

assy (Thursdays)
nsdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100). www.boston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. . $10. 19+. DJ Susan Esthera spins hip-hop op music every Thursday night.

: (Daily)
andler St., Boston (617-482-4428). www.fritz .com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-2 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This gay sports ith six large-screen plasma TVs, serves brunch lay and Sunday.

Saturdays)
nsdowne St., Boston. www.lesbiannightlife.com. -2 am. No cover. 21+. LiQuid DJ Mix Mistress ip-hop, house, reggae, reggaeton and more at eekly women-only night.

ues Cabaret (Daily)
adway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-12 am; Sun., -12 am. $6, weekdays; $10, weekends. 21+. Pa-ningle with disco-dancing drag queens. •Mon. iating weeks): Foxy Follies; TraniWreck. •Tue.: ce. •Wed.: Delightful Divas with Melinda Wil-Thu.: Jacque's Angels with Miss Kris Knievel. nd Sat.: Miss Norelle's Leading Ladies and live •Sun.: An Evening of Mizery: Amateur Talent 10 pm.

ine (Mondays, Thursdays–rdays)
Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). www.machine.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. ., 9 pm-2 am. •Mon.: Stroke, with hostess . 10 pm-2 am. 19+. •Thu.: Karaoke Competi-•Fri.: Best Night Out, featuring deep house 10 pm-2 am. $8. 21+. •Sat.: Latin night, 10 m. Cover varies. 21+.

ern (Thursdays)
nsdowne St., Boston (617-351-2581). www.nightlife.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. $10. 19+. Thursday is lesbian night with DJ te.

dise (Daily)
ass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-3000). www.ecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Male strippers perform every night. The dance floor features Top 40, Thursday through Saturday, and T-Dance on Sunday.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billed as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is mandatory for the back room on weekends). •Mon.: Pool, dart tournaments and pizza. •Wed.: Twitch 4.0 with DJ Mac. •Thu.: Mandance with DJ Jason Taylor. •Fri.: Bound to Please with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Freespace. •Sun.: Muscle with DJ Duo Freespace.

Rise (Saturdays)
306 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-7473). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 1:30-6:30 am. $10, members; $20, guests. This members-only club is predominantly gay on Saturdays. Storm Saturdays feature resident DJs Billy Carroll, Chad Jack, Gilles Massicotte, Joe Gauthreaux and Mark Anthony upstairs and David McNeary downstairs.

Rumor (Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061). www.rumorboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm-2 am. Cover varies. Sunday T-dance features DJ Danae spinning the latest house and pop.

Toast (Fridays, Saturdays)
70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.toastlounge.com. 5:30 pm-1 am. $5. 21+. Friday is the new home for DykeNight with DJ Susan Esthera, and Saturday is Retro Night with DJs from ManRay.

Tribe at Felt (Thursdays)
Felt, 533 Washington St., 4th floor, Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9:30 pm-2 am. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hip-hop and Top 40 on the 4th floor at this weekly lesbian night.

209 at Club Café (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 11:30 am-2 am; Sat.,12 pm-2 am; Sun.,10:30 am-2 am. No cover. 21+. This South End spot offers dining and unobtrusive music in the front room at Restaurant 209 and video entertainment in the rear room at Club Café. •Wed.: Live karaoke, 9 pm. •Thu.: VJ Ricky Huss. •Fri.: VJ Cliff Cunningham. •Sat.: VJ Scott Kennedy.

Underbar (Sundays)
275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080). www.flauntatunderbar.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 11 pm. $10. 21+. This weekly event features DJs spinning hard house.

Upstairs @ Dedo's (Daily)
69 Church St., Park Square, Boston (617-338-9999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. No cover. 21+. A predominantly gay crowd frequents the upstairs lounge at Dedo's, which features a nightly piano bar and club room. •Mon.: S.I.N. (Service Industry Night). •Tue.: Stage and Screen. Classic movies, 7-9 pm. Showtune videos, 9 pm-1 am. •Wed.: Latino Lounge with Latin groove music. •Thu.-Fri.: Boys in Ties and complimentary after-work buffet, 5-7 pm. House music, 7 pm-1 am. •Sat.: High Energy Night with house music. •Sun.: Disco Night.

Venu (Wednesdays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). www.chapsboston.com. 10 pm. $8. 21+. This long-running gay Latino night features music by DJ Adilson.

Shows & Events

Bayard Rustin Community Breakfast
John F. Kennedy Library & Museum, Columbia Point, Boston (617-450-1644). www.gleeboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. April 29, 10 am-1:30 pm. Free. This 17th annual forum recognizes the roles of LGBT individuals from communities of color in their fight against the AIDS epidemic.

Cleopatra
Machine Theater, 1254 Boylston St. Boston (617-265-6222). www.golddustrorphans.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. April 20-May 27. Thu.-Sun., 8 pm. $25. Ryan Landry and the Gold Dust Orphans present this original musical version of Cleopatra at the Machine Theater.

GLSEN Boston's Annual Conference
Harvard University, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-536-9669). www.glsenboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. April 29, 8 am-5 pm. Free. The Gay, Lesbian, Straight Education Network's day-long conference features keynote speaker Anthony Rapp, star of Rent, as well as more than 50 workshops covering a range of topics from confronting homophobia in schools to working with community members to create a respectful environment for students.

Anthony Rapp, star of Rent, speaks at GLSEN Boston's annual conference, April 29.

Legal Issues: Documents to Protect LGBT-Parented Families
Fenway Community Health, 7 Haviland St., Boston (617-927-6243). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. April 27, 6-8 pm. Free. Karen Kruskal, attorney at Pressman & Kruskal, discusses co-parent adoptions, relationship and parenting agreements, civil marriage, property/house ownership, wills, powers of attorney, health care proxy and other issues of concern to LGBT families.

Movie Night
Directions will be sent to those who RSVP (617-204-9239). www.hrc.org. April 24, 6:30 pm. Free. The New England chapter of the Human Rights Campaign sponsors an open and informal discussion of the movie Brokeback Mountain.

Ongoing

Bagly
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313). www.bagly.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Wed., 5-9 pm. The Boston Alliance of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

Beantown North G/L Bowling League
Lanes & Games, 195 Concord Turnpike, Cambridge (617-876-5533). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Tue., 8:30 pm. This league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets weekly.

Beantown Soft-Tip Dart League
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Fritz, 26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. www.bsdl.org. Mon., 8:30 pm. $12 for the season. This league hosts weekly 301, 601 and cricket matches at the Alley and Fritz.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.beantownbowling.com. 7 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians in the Boston area meets Wednesday nights.

Bi Focus
(617-697-9244). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 7 pm. Bisexual men and women discuss books, videos and other topics of interest.

Bi Rap
Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). First Tue. of each month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group provides support and information for bisexual women or women who are questioning their sexuality.

Boston Bears Barnight
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). http://bostonbears.us. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 9:30 pm-2 am. Free. The Boston Bears meet the first and third Saturday of each month and also hold a happy hour every Friday from 5:30-7:30 pm.

Boston Boasts Squash
Central YMCA, 316 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue., 7-9 pm; Sat., 10 am-12 pm. The league comprises gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-937-5858). www.bgbl.com. The league offers a full regular season and playoff schedule each year. E-mail info@bgbl.com.

Boston Glass Community Center
93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Mon.-Thu., 3-8 pm; Fri., 3-5 pm. The center provides social activities for questioning young people ages 13-25.

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Despina's Place, 47 Mass. Ave., Boston. www.lesbianavengers.org. Mon., 7-8 pm. This bi- and transsexual-friendly, direct-action political group focuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Uncommons
Central Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-926-9267). www.lcfd.org/bu. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed., 7 pm. A gay and lesbian square-dancing group.

COLAGE
Third Sat. of each month, 10:30 am-12 pm. Children of Lesbians and Gays Everywhere meets in Medford for support and activities and holds a concurrent meeting for interested parents and their partners. E-mail medfordcolage@hotmail.com.

Coming Out as Bisexual
Boston's Bisexual Resource Center at the Boston Living Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (617-424-9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. First Wed. and third Thu. of each month, 7 pm. Free. An informal group for people who think they may be bisexual or are attracted to both sexes.

Coming Out Support Group for Adults
(617-482-2166). This group offers a confidential place for men and women who are looking for a safe space to discuss issues of sexual identity. It meets Thursday nights from 7-8:15 pm, near Coolidge Corner in Brookline. Call for more information.

Compass
(781-899-2212). Compass is a New England–area support, information and social group for people assigned female at birth, but who feel that the designation isn't an accurate or complete description of their gender. Part of the FTM (Female-to-Male) Center, this group meets monthly at locations around New England. E-mail Compass FTM@usa.com for details.

Elegant Outings
(866-335-7730). www.elegantoutings.com. This group welcomes gay and gay-friendly professional women 40 and older who are intelligent, chic and sophisticated to get together with like-minded women for conversations, dinners, theater and networking.

Fenway Community Health
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. Fenway Community Health offers an array of services for the LGBT community, ranging from discussions about parenting and safe-sex practices to programs addressing domestic violence and substance abuse.

The 40-Somethings
theprimeoflife@aol.com. This newly formed group of lesbians in their 40s runs events that help to foster enduring romantic/life partnerships through being friends first.

Frontrunners Boston
Metropolitan Health Club, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-937-5858). www.mindspring.com/~frontrunners. Tue., 12 pm; Wed., 6:45 pm; Sat., 10 am. See Web site for locations. All are welcome to join this running club.

Gay Amateur Photography Group
amateurgphoto@yahoo.com. Learn about photography, socialize and meet new people at monthly meetings.

Gay Fathers of Greater Boston
First Parish Church, 50 Church St., Waltham (617-742-7897). www.gayfathersboston.org. $2. This group for gay/bisexual fathers meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month, 8-10 pm.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in developing healthy gay relationships features alternatives for meeting and dating, communication games and mixers for singles. E-mail info@gaylab.org.

Gays for Patsy
(617-412-5751). www.gaysforpatsy.org. This country–western dancing club, featuring two-step, swing and line dancing, holds events twice a month. Beginners welcome, no partner needed. Call for more details.

Gender Crash
Spontaneous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-6373). www.gendercrash.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Second Thu. of each month, 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Members of the LGBT community are invited to share poetry, prose and performance pieces at this open-mike event.

Girlfriends: Bisexual and Lesbian Women of Color
Cambridge Family and Children's Services, 929 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-876-4210). MBTA: Red Line to Central. This discussion group for all ages meets every Saturday, 10:30 am-12 pm.

LAFFAN
Lesbians Available for Fun and Networking is a local social and networking group that provides opportunities for women to connect with each other. Members receive a weekly e-mail calendar of events. LAFFAN sponsors spring dances and benefits. E-mail LAFFAN_ Boston2004@yahoo.com for membership information.

Monday Night Bowling League
Boston Bowl, Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.mnbl.net. 7:30 pm. The MNBL's bowling season runs Monday nights.

The Network/La Red
(617-423-7233). www.thenetworklared.org. This support group is working to end abuse in lesbian, bisexual women's and transgender communities. E-mail info@thenetworklared.org for more information.

Newly Diagnosed Group
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. First and third Mon. of each month, 7:30-9 pm. Free. This group supports gay and bisexual men who've been diagnosed with HIV during the last two years. E-mail nlongtin@jri.org.

Out to Dance
(617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Swing, Latin and ballroom dance classes and workshops are held in a gay-friendly environment.

Out TwentySomethings Boston
twentysomethingsboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. This social and peer support group is for lesbians, gay men and bisexual, transgender and questioning folks as well as their straight allies in their 20s and early 30s.

POZ Social
Moonshine Room at Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 326). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Second Mon. of each month, 6-11 pm. Free. This monthly event, featuring raffles, food, music and drinks, benefits those affected by HIV/AIDS.

POZ 20s
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St. (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orang to Downtown Crossing. Thu., 7:30-9 pm. This group offers support for HIV-positive gay and bi men in their 20s.

POZ 30s Plus
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 132 Boylst Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 314). MBTA: Green Line to Park. Wed., 7-9 pm. This social supports HIV-positive gay and bisexual men a and over. E-mail hyee@jri.org for more info.

Queer-A-Oke
Midway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamaic (617-524-9038). www.dykenight.com. Thu. 9 am. Free. Dyke Night Productions provides co and wigs for this weekly karaoke night at the M

The Rainbow Café
rainbowboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. T cial group for activist, academic, intellectu artistic lesbians meets biweekly in gay-ow gay-friendly establishments around Boston.

Slice of Rice
Boston GLASS, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston (61 3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes/ICA. W 7 pm. This peer-run, queer Asian youth gr those under 25 meets for mutual support. sungyun@chickmail.com.

Somos Latin@s LGBT Coalition
www.somoslatinoslgbt.org. A social and netw group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas in the area, Somos Latin@s hosts Viernes Sociale month. E-mail somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.c more info.

Tiffany Club of New England
(781-891-9325). www.tcne.org. This social a port group for the transgendered community h ular activities and events. E-mail stef616@aol.c

Under the Radar
(617-851-7911). www.radarboston.com. Un Radar, Boston's gay, all-male, contemporary a c group, is always auditioning prospective mem mail info@radarboston.com.

Wonder Women Boston
http://groups.yahoo.com/wonder_women_boston. Fri. of each month. This social group comprises and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s.

ooks & oetry

e to Contributors

listings by fax (617-859-1446); mail to r: Books and Poetry; or e-mail information to mproper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to on.

dings & Signings

NESDAY, APRIL 19

s & Noble Boston University

con St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu. com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 6 pm. ome of the contributors to The Twinkies k sign copies of this compilation of Twinkie rom across the U.S. A Twinkie tasting takes ring the signing.

rs Books

l St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.borders m. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown . 12:30 pm. Free. NYU visiting scholar Bloom discusses the book he cowrote with Michael Kun, The Baseball Uncyclopedia: A Opinionated, Myth-Busting Guide to the Great n Game.

n College

Hall 101, 140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill 2-4820). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line College. 7:30 pm. Free. Boston College his- fessor Thomas H. O'Connor reads from his he Athens of America: Boston, 1825-1845, ultural and intellectual developments in th-century Boston.

b Lounge

ss. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). www. s.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 9:30 pm. en at 7:30 pm. $3. 18+. Slam poet Patricia erforms as the featured poet, followed by an n.

rd Book Store

lass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). rvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. . Free. David Mitchell reads from his semi- graphical novel Black Swan Green, written e perspective of a 13-year-old boy chroni- he last year he lived in a small town in ershire.

onville Books & Brews

lnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www. illebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to ville. 7:30 pm. Free. Sheila Heti reads from el Ticknor, about the fictional events lead- o the publication of George Ticknor's biog- historian William Hickling Prescott in the h century.

r Square Books

e St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www. iarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 . Animal behavior expert Temple Grandin m her book Animals in Translation, which hat animals view the world in a manner o that of autistic people.

RSDAY, APRIL 20

s & Noble, Prudential Center

Public Library, 700 Boylston St., Boston 7-6959). www.bn.com. MBTA: Green Line y. 6 pm. Free. Former chair of the National elations Board and Stanford law professor uld discusses his great-grandfather's jour- y of a Contraband: The Civil War Passage of Sailor, which records the life of fugitive d sailor William Benjamin Gould during r the Civil War.

n College Special Event

hts Room, Corcoran Commons, 140 Comm. hestnut Hill (617-552-4820). www.bc.edu. B Green Line to Boston College. 7:30 pm. udents representing 18 local colleges and ties read from their poetry as part of the eater Boston Intercollegiate Poetry Festival. University English professor Paul Mariani eynote address.

line Booksmith Event

Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brook- -734-2501). www.coolidge.org. 6 pm. $2. n Safran Foer reads from his new novel y Loud & Incredibly Close, about a nine- boy's quest to find a lock that matches the key his father left behind when he died during the events of Sept. 11, 2001.

Center for New Words

186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords. org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free. Poet Judith Arcana reads from her works.

Harvard Book Store Event

Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. $3. Sebastian Junger discusses his book A Death in Belmont, about his connection to the mysterious murder of a middle-aged woman in Belmont.

Harvard Coop

1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. •12 pm. Free. Some of the recipe contributors to the The Twinkies Cookbook sign copies. See April 19 Barnes & Noble listing. •7 pm. Free. Johns Hopkins professor Morris Berman discusses his book Dark Ages America: The Final Phase of Empire, which compares the present-day U.S. to the Roman Empire right before its fall.

John Hancock Hall

180 Berkeley St., Boston (617-482-6661). www. celebrityseries.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 8 pm. $29-$45. Alexander McCall Smith, author of more than 50 books, discusses his writing career.

PEN New England Event

First Parish Church, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.pen-ne.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Boston Globe columnist James Caroll, Iraq War veteran and memoirist Nathaniel Fick and author Uzodinma Iweala discuss the role of writing in war. Author Rebecca Faery moderates.

Porter Square Books

25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www. portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Emily Rubin, Steve Almond and Laurie Lindop read from the book they contributed to, Before: The Big Book of Pregnancy and Parenting Fiction, a compilation of stories about birth and pregnancy.

FRIDAY, APRIL 21

Borders Books

10 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.borders stores.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 12:30 pm. Free. Artist Leonard Weber discusses his art book The Freedom Trail: An Artist's View, a collection of watercolor images of Boston's historic Freedom Trail.

Borders Books CambridgeSide Galleria

100 CambridgeSide Place, Cambridge (617-679-0887). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. 7 pm. Free. Alisa Valdes-Rodriguez reads from her novel Make Him Look Good, about romance and drama in the lives of several high-society women.

Emerson College Reading Series

Emerson Room, 80 Boylston St., Boston (617-824-8750). www.emerson.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 7 pm. Free. Poet Martha Rhodes reads from her works.

Harvard Book Store

1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Birkbeck College, University of London professor of philosophy A.C. Grayling discusses his book Among the Dead Cities: The History and Moral Legacy of the WWII Bombings of Civilians in Germany and Japan, about the impact of Allied air raids on German and Japanese cities during WWII.

Harvard Book Store Event

First Parish Church, 13 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. $3. Jane Fonda discusses her autobiography My Life So Far, about her experiences as an actress and feminist.

Out of the Blue Gallery

106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www.outoftheblue gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. $3. Tigh Fili presents an open-mike session for poets, hosted by Nola Kelley.

SATURDAY, APRIL 22

Borders Books Braintree

255 Grossman Drive, Braintree (781-356-5111). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Braintree. 2 pm. Free. Alisa Valdes-Rodriguez discusses her novel Make Him Look Good. See April 21 Borders CambridgeSide listing for a description.

Out of the Blue Gallery

106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www.outoftheblue gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 8:15 pm. $3. Candelite Open Bark hosts this open-mike session for poets, musicians and fiction writers. Refreshments are served.

Jonathan Safran Foer reads April 20 at the Coolidge Corner Theatre.

SUNDAY, APRIL 23

Forsyth Chapel

95 Forest Hills Ave., Boston (617-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. 2 pm. $5. Poets Afaa Michael Weaver, Harris Gardner, Jean Monahan and Sarah Getty read from their works.

Porter Square Books Event

Congregation Eitz Chaymin, 136 Magazine St., Cambridge (617-497-7626). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 10:30 am. Free. Jewish Advocate correspondent Susie Davidson reads from her book I Refused to Die, a compilation of stories from Boston-area Holocaust survivors.

MONDAY, APRIL 24

Barnes & Noble, Prudential Center

800 Boylston St., Boston (617-247-6959). www. bn.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 12 pm. Free. Sen. Edward Kennedy signs copies of his book America Back on Track, about how he thinks Americans can change what he sees as the failing values of the U.S.

Blacksmith House Poetry Series

56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www. ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $3. Poets Michael Ryan and Doreen Gildroy read from their works.

Boston University

Room 117, 808 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-9852). www.bu.edu/foodandwine. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. 7:30 pm. $25, includes a copy of the book. Gael Greene discusses her memoir, Insatiable: Tales of a Life of Delicious Excess, about her passion for food and her 30 years in the business of restaurant criticism.

Center for New Words Event

Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center, 38 Ash St., Boston (617-635-5129). www.centerfornewwords. org. MBTA: Orange Line to New England Medical Center. 7 pm. Free. Poet Adrienne Su reads from her works.

Harvard Book Store Event

Longfellow Hall, 13 Appian Way, Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. The New Yorker poetry editor Alice Quinn discusses the book she edited Edgar Allan Poe & the Juke-Box: Uncollected Poems, Drafts, and Fragments by Elizabeth Bishop, a collection of Bishop's work. Also, poets Robert Pinsky, Frank Bidart, Jorie Graham and Lloyd Schwartz take turns reading Bishop's poems and discussing her work.

Harvard Coop

1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard. bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. UMass Lowell professor Ashmita Khasnabish reads from her book Jouissance as Ananda, which examines the Indian philosophical concept of ananda, which means "bliss" in Sanskrit.

Out of the Blue Gallery

106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www.outoftheblue gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7:30 pm. $4-$5 suggested donation. Stone Soup Beat Poets Jack Powers and Chad Parenteau host an open-mike poetry session. Music accompanies the poets and refreshments are served.

TUESDAY, APRIL 25

Brookline Booksmith

279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebook smith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Alicia Erian reads from her novel Towelhead, a coming-of-age story about a young girl who's sent to live with her strict father in Texas. Also, Terese Svoboda reads from her novel Tin God, which follows the lives of a conquistador 500 years ago and two punks of the present day, all narrated by God.

Center for New Words

186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free. Helen Oyeyemi reads from her novel The Icarus Girl, about a young girl of Nigerian and English descent who struggles with her family's secrets.

Harvard Book Store Event

Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. $3. Paul Rusesabagina, whose experience as a hotel manager in Rwanda providing shelter for over 1,200 members of the Tutsi clan and Hutu moderates was the subject of the documentary Hotel Rwanda, discusses his autobiography.

Harvard Coop

1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Hartford Courant journalist Steve Courtney discusses the new book he edited, Civil War Letters of Joseph Hopkins Twichell: A Chaplain's Story, about a morale officer in the Union army.

Newtonville Books & Brews

296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www. newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Ron Rash reads from his novel The World Made Straight, about a high-school dropout who gets involved with drugs and violence.

Porter Square Books

25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www. portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Myriam Chapman reads from her novel Why She Married Him, about an independent Russian Jewish emigrée in 1930s Paris.

Wellesley Booksmith Event

Unitarian Universalist Society of Wellesley Hills, 309 Washington St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www. brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7:30 pm. Free. Elizabeth Berg discusses her novel We Are All Welcome Here, about a woman who must raise her daughter alone after she contracts polio while pregnant and her husband leaves her.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26

Boston Public Library

700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www. bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6:30 pm.

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery.

So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see!

e-mail:
impersonals@improper.com

fax: 617-859-1446

or write to:
Improper Impersonals
The Improper Bostonian Magazine
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Free. Boston historian and author Clint Richmond discusses his book Political Places of Boston, about famous as well as lesser-known historical hot spots in Boston.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Rich Cohen reads from his book Sweet and Low, part memoir, part cultural commentary, about his family business.

Cantab Lounge
738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). www.slamnews.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 9:30 pm, doors open at 7:30 pm. $3. 18+. 2005 National Poetry Slam cochampion Anis Mojgani performs. An open mike follows at 8 pm.

Center for New Words
186 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7:30 pm, sign-up at 7:15. Free. Women read during the New Voices Open Mike literary event.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6:30 pm. Free. Upamanyu Chatterjee discusses his novel English, August: An Indian Story, about a privileged young man's year of unhealthy behavior after he graduates from college and joins the elite Indian Administrative Service.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Columbia University School of Social Work professor Ann Burack-Weis discusses her book The Caregiver's Tale-Loss and Renewal in Memoirs of Family Life, which looks at how the caregiving process can transform individuals.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7 pm. Free. Actress and singer Wren Ross discusses the book she co-wrote with Daena Giardella, Changing Patterns: Discovering the Fabric of Your Creativity, about how to harness your creativity to make artistic expression your primary focus.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Emily Frankin, Steve Almond, Elizabeth Graver and Lewis Robinson read from the new book they contributed to, Before: The Big Book of Pregnancy and Parenting Fiction. See April 20 Porter Square Books listing for a description.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Poets Jean Monahan and John Scrimgeour read from their works.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Georgetown linguistics professor Deborah Tannen reads from her book You're Wearing That? Understanding Mothers and Daughters in Conversation, which analyzes human interaction by studying the way in which mothers and daughters interact.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2012). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Poet Sarah Getty reads from her works.

McIntyre and Moore Booksellers Special Event
255 Elm St., Somerville (617-629-4840). www.mcintyreandmoore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 7:30 pm. Free. Diane Wald, Dzvinia Orlowsky, Rebecca Seiferie, Victor Pavlenkov, Jennifer Barber and Gloria Mindock read from their published poetry and fiction as part of Cervena Barva Press' first-anniversary celebration.

Newtonville Books & Brews
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7:30 pm. Free. Peter Orner reads from his new novel, The Second Coming of Mavala Skinongo, about the lives of a group of teachers in an isolated Catholic primary school in Namibia shortly after Namibia won independence from South Africa.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Poet Margot Farrington reads from her works.

Whole Foods Market
15 Westland Ave., Boston (617-375-1010 wholefoodsmarket.com. MBTA: Orange Mass. Ave. 11 am. Free. Moosewood Ca Wynelle Stein signs copies of her cookbool Suppers, which offers quick dinner recipes.

Woodberry Poetry Room Event
Woodberry Poetry Room, Lamon Library, University, Cambridge (617-495-2454). MB Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Poets Bill Berk Landis Everson read from their works.

FRIDAY, APRIL 28

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661 www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Ha pm. Free. Harvard professor of oceanic hist affairs Sugata Bose discusses his book A I Horizons: The Indian Ocean in the Age o Empire, about the political, cultural and ec significance of people living along the Ocean.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499 www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line vard. 7 pm. Free. National Book Critic Award finalist Barry Werth discusses his Days: The Crisis that Gave Us the Governi Have Today, about Donald Rumsfeld a Cheney's actions during the 31 days Richard Nixon's resignation and Gerald F cision to pardon him.

Whole Foods Market
181 Cambridge St., Boston (617-723-0004 wholefoodsmarket.com. MBTA: Red Line to MGH. 11 am. Free. Moosewood Café chef Stein signs copies of her cookbook Simple See April 27 Whole Foods Market listi description.

SUNDAY, APRIL 30

Porter Square Books Event
Congregation Eitz Chaymin, 136 Magazine S bridge (617-497-7626). www.portersquarebo MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free Krauss reads from her novel The History which chronicles the lives of characters bat loneliness that follows lost love.

MONDAY, MAY 1

Blacksmith House Poetry Serie Event
56 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-491-222 ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 Catherine Tudish reads from her collectior stories Tenney's Landing, about people in a Pennsylvania river town. Also, Daphne reads from her collection Calamity and Oth a series of interconnected tales.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-666 brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Gree Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Former Har fessor Jack Lueders-Booth reads from book, Inherit the Land, a photo essay of a f ing in the garbage dumps in Tijuana, Mex

TUESDAY, MAY 2

Barnes and Noble Boston Univ
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmo Free. Pulitzer Prize winner Michael Cun reads from his novel Specimen Days, co stories about a young boy, an older m young woman at three points in history.

Boston College
Devlin Hall 101, 140 Comm. Ave., Che (617-552-4820). www.bc.edu. MBTA: Line to Boston College. 7:30 pm. Fre Shrayer-Petriv and Maxim D. Shrayer the book they cowrote, Autumn in Yalta and Three Stories, accounts of a Russian J coming to terms with his backgroun WWII and three separate stories about medicine from immigrants' perspectives.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-666 brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Gre Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Visiting pr Harvard Medical School Robert Jay Lif from his book Crimes of War: Iraq, a lega cal and psychological look at the war in 1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-15 harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Free. Harvard psychology professor Jeror discusses his book An Argument for Mi combines the history of psychology an contemporary research.

Harvard Book Store

ducation

ce to Contributors
t updated information by mail or fax (617-859- to Calendar: Education, or e-mail information cation@improper.com. Include a brief but thor- escription of the event, including time, date, loca- irections, cost and contact information. Listings be accepted by phone and must be received at our weeks in advance. Deadline is four weeks publication.

DNESDAY, APRIL 19

Continuing Fascination of The Vinci Code pal Divinity School, 99 Brattle St., Cambridge 368-3450). www.eds.edu. MBTA: Red Line to rd. 7-9 pm. Free. The Episcopal Divinity ol presents this discussion on why certain nts of The Da Vinci Code have made it such a ar and controversial book. Harold Attridge, f Yale Divinity School, speaks.

URSDAY, APRIL 20

War Blacks in Navy Blue
Public Library, Mezzanine Conference Room, oylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www. . MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6:30 pm. Free. rd law professor and author William B. Gould resses the topics mentioned in his book Diary ontraband: The Civil War Passage of a Black as part of the library's Civil War Lecture Series.

URDAY, APRIL 22

hinent Leaders Reveal nciples of Power"
t World Trade Center, 164 Northern Ave., (617-521-3858). www.simmons.edu/leader MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 8 am-6 pm. $695. Female leaders reveal their "Principles ver" as a way of empowering women in the Annual Simmons School of Management rship Conference. Speakers include former f Paramount Pictures Sherry Lansing, com- y activist Elizabeth Edwards and best-sell- hor Isabel Allende.

SDAY, APRIL 25

nd-the-Scenes Look at Boston's Dig ate House, 206 Washington St., Boston (617- 13). www.bostonhistory.org. MBTA: Red or Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. ostonian Society hosts a behind-the-scenes t the Big Dig with speaker Jim Aloisi, former nt secretary of transportation and general l to the Mass. Turnpike Authority.

ng the Harlot: Sexual ormances and Theatrical ons is University, 415 South St., Waltham (781- 00). www.brandeis.edu. 12:30 pm. Free. eis Women's Studies Research Center scholar Amster examines 17th-century prostitution ish literature.

Daly On Stage
f Ballroom, George Sherman Union, 775 . Ave., Boston (617-353-3696). www.bu.edu. : B Green Line to BU Central. 5:30 pm. Free to rs; $25, nonmembers. Actress Tyne Daly about her life both on and off stage at the s of the Libraries at Boston University Speaker in conjunction with the opening of an exhi- highlighting her career through theatre pro- letters, awards and photographs.

ONESDAY, APRIL 26

vening with Ed Ruscha
m of Fine Arts, Remis Auditorium, 465 gton Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www. . MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 6:30 pm. embers; $30, nonmembers. Artist Ed Ruscha, es photography, drawing, painting and film to unicate particular urban experiences, speaks is work.

ocracy and the Press—The Role urnals of Opinions
Public Library, 700 Boylston St., (617-661-1515). www.cambridgeforum.org. : Green Line to Copley. 6:30 pm. Free. The Na- blisher emeritus Victor Navasky, The Atlantic editor Jack Beatty and The American Prospect der Robert Kuttner discuss the role of alter- news sources in the world of mainstream print ism.

Political Places of Boston
Boston Public Library, Mezzanine Conference Room, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www. bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6:30 pm. Free. As part of the Local History and Genealogy Lecture Series, Clint Richmond, author of Political Places of Boston, presents an illustrated tour of Boston's historical sites.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27

Aged by Culture
Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.oldsouthmeeting house.org. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. As part of the Partners in Public Dialogue Series, author Margaret Morganroth Gullette discusses the social and economic impact of how Americans view the aging process.

The Big Dig of 1506
Brandeis University, Pollack Building, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-2000). www.brandeis.edu. 5-7 pm. Free. Cammy Brothers of the University of Virginia, Henry Fernandez of the Rhode Island School of Design and Christine Smith of Harvard's Graduate School of Design speak about Renaissance architecture for this symposium commemorating the 500th anniversary of the groundbreaking of Saint Peter's Basilica.

Dawoud Bey
Boston University Photonics Center, 8 St. Mary's St., Boston (617-975-0600). www.prcboston.org. 7 pm. $10, members; $15, nonmembers. As part of the Photographic Resource Center Lecture Series, internationally renowned photographer Dawoud Bey speaks on his large–format studio portraits taken with one of the few remaining 20x24 Polaroid cameras in existence.

SUNDAY, APRIL 30

Landscape and Memory
Museum of Fine Arts, Remis Auditorium, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-566-2200). www. mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 12:30-4:30 pm. $35, members; $40, nonmembers. The Museum of Fine Arts and the Boston Institute of Psychotherapy host their 11th annual symposium exploring the psychological, literary and artistic dimensions of our landscapes with psychoanalyst Alfred Margulies, author Jamaica Kincaid and artist Gregory Amenoff.

State of Mind: The Intellectual Life of American Catholics
Boston College, The Heights Room, 140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-552-4820). www.bc.edu. MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill. 4 pm. Free. This forum celebrates the 50th anniversary of historian John Tracy Ellis' book American Catholics and the Intellectual Life, while also discussing the state of the Catholic church in the modern world.

Stories Behind the Stones
Historic Forest Hills Cemetery, 95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-524-0128). www.foresthills trust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. 2 pm. $8. The tour season opens with a historical look at some of the famous sculptures and people buried at Forest Hills Cemetery.

MONDAY, MAY 1

The Irish Tenors in the Kennedy Administration
John F. Kennedy Presidential Library and Museum, Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1662). www.jfk library.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. 5:30 pm. Free. Members of President Kennedy's staff Charles Daly, Richard Donahue and Jack McNally share stories of working in the Kennedy White House.

TUESDAY, MAY 2

Jonathan Alter
Metcalf Ballroom, George Sherman Union, 775 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-3696). www.bu. edu. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 6 pm. Free to members; $25, nonmembers. As part of the Friends of the Libraries at Boston University Speaker Series, journalist and senior editor of Newsweek Jonathan Alter speaks about his life and work.

The Trouble Between Us: The Uneasy History of White and Black Women in the Feminist Movement
Center for New Words, 7 Temple St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free. As part of the Feminism & Dessert Tuesday Night Conversations the Center for New Words hosts this talk with Wini Breines, professor of sociology and women's studies at Northeastern University.

I never thought it could happen to me.

As a lifelong bicyclist, I have participated in many bicycling events for worthwhile causes. I even got to ride with Lance Armstrong, Eric Heiden, and Greg LeMond.

Then on my 45th birthday, I got the news,"You have multiple sclerosis."

Like many people newly diagnosed, I did not know what to do or what to think. So I contacted the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. I got the information and care resources I needed.

I learned that the Society shares my passion for bicycling. Last year, I formed a team and rode the Great Mass Getaway MS 150 Bike Tour. Together we raised over $12,000 to help support other people like me and their families.

- Roger Douville of Manchester, NH

Join me at an MS Bike Tour.

We will ride together toward a cure for multiple sclerosis.

Tour The Vineyard
May 6 - Martha's Vineyard, MA
A beautiful day on Martha's Vineyard with a route for everyone!
Road: 25, 50, or 100K Off-Road: 30K

Great Mass Getaway - MS 150
June 24-25 - Boston to Provincetown, MA
The best two days you will spend on a bike with a boat ride home!
Two days, 150 miles

Bike & Hike The Berkshires
September 30 - Pittsfield, MA
Wear cycling shoes or hiking boots to make moutains of progress for MS
Bike: 25, 50, or 100 miles or Hike: 4 or 8 miles

Register online at www.msnewengland.org
or call 1-800-493-9255

MS NATIONAL MULTIPLE SCLEROSIS SOCIETY
Central New England Chapter

ms tour

BONNIE'S
facials & waxing

With more than 15 years of experience and a loyal clientele,
Bonnie is, to many, the authority on facials and waxing.
Her facials are thorough and leave you with a glowing complexion.
Try her Microdermabrasion. Her waxing is known to be perfect and virtually painless.

Awarded "Best Bikini Wax" by Stuff Magazine.

Written up by The Improper Bostonian magazine.

OPEN Wed - Sat 10A - 6P; M/Tu by appointment
617.969.3773
4 Hartford Street, Newton Highlands

The Vein & Aesthetic Center of Boston

BANISH VARICOSE VEINS

FAST

Vein Treatment

- EVLT® laser technique
- Ultrasound-guided sclerotherapy
- Ambulatory phlebectomy (removal of bulging veins)
- Spider vein treatment

Aesthetic Treatment

- Botox®
- Restylane®
- Microdermabrasion
- Laser facial veins

Fast in-office procedure.

Minimally invasive.

Immediate return to your normal routine.

No general anesthesia or hospitalization.

THE NO-SURGERY, NO-SCAR WAY

the beauty of medical technology™

Before

After

Elizabeth A. Foley, M.D.
Judith A. Hondo, M.D.

333 Elm St. Suite 205
Dedham, MA 02026

781-251-0029
877-VEINFIX

www.veinfix.com

body & mind

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Include a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Tara Murphy leads an African Heali
Dance at CasaNia Studio April 23.

Events

Bellypalooza Dance Showcase
Scandinavian Athletic Club, 438 Lake St., Shrewsbury (508-867-6457). www.hippychix.org or www.sacpark.com. April 29, 8-10 pm. $10, $5 children. The Hippy Chix Dance Company hosts its annual showcase of individual and group dance performances meant to promote positive body images.

Open House
D'Arcy Wellness Clinic, 63 South Main St., Natick (508-652-1975). April 29, 12-4 pm. Free. The D'Arcy Wellness Clinic invites the public to its lecture series addressing emotional health, herbal skincare, depression treatment, dieting, qigong, fertility options and more.

Spring Fair and Medium's Day
Greater Boston Church of Spiritualism, Masonic Center, 32 Church St., Watertown (617-923-4334). www.greaterbostonchurchofspiritualism.com. April 22, 10 am-4 pm. $20, $15 seniors and students. At this fair you can get your aura photographed, talk with new-age vendors, browse the book sale, receive spiritual readings and learn about holistic healing.

Tai Chi Open House
Brookline Tai Chi, 1615 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-2975). www.brooklinetaichi.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Washington. April 23, 7 pm. Free. Instructors informally discuss and demonstrate qigong and tai chi.

Lectures

Christ and the Buddha
Theosophical Society, 21 Maple St., Arlington (781-648-0101 or 781-646-3565). www.tsboston.org. April 25, 7:30-9 pm. $10. This lecture addresses the overlap in the teachings of Christ and the Buddha.

Intro to Advaita Philosophy
Philosophy Foundation, 28 Worcester Lane, Waltham (781-647-0020). www.philosophyfoundation.org. April 19, 7 pm. Free. Teachers explain the Advaita philosophy, a belief that acknowledges the unity and divine nature of all life, and give advice for how to incorporate Advaita into daily life.

Workshops

Acupressure Facials
Acupressure Therapy Institute, 1 Billings Road, Quincy (617-697-1477). www.acupressuretherapy.com. April 29, 9:30-5 pm. $135. Students learn how to use acupressure to release tension in the neck and face.

African Healing Dance
CasaNia Studio, 46 Porter Road, Cambridge (617-491-5144). www.casania.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. April 23, 2-4 pm. $25. Instructor Tara Murphy weaves meditation and yoga into this dance set to African and Caribbean drumming.

Bryan Kest Power Yoga
Yogaspot, 263 Washington St., Wellesley (781-431-9642). www.yogaspot.net or www.poweryoga.com. April 19, 11-2 pm, $80. Bryan Kest's long, slow yoga routine aims to help participants safely remove resistance and release internal knots. The first hour includes a lecture.

Chakra Centers and the Energy Body
Sacred Space, 145 Middle Road, Southborough (508-624-7519 or 617-620-0888). www.sacredspaces.ws. April 22, 10 am-4 pm. $60. This workshop focuses on the function and vibration of each chakra energy center of the body.

Couples Laughter Playshop
226 Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-641-1353). www.joyofkidding.com. April 29, 1-3:30 pm. $45 per couple. Laughter yoga combines simple laughter exercises and gentle yoga breathing which is believed to enhance health and happiness. This couples workshop aims to help couples break through block tions and change their forms of communica

Gentle Yoga
Earthsong Yoga, 186 Main St., Marlboro (5 8884). www.earthsongyoga.com. April 22, 1 12:45 pm. $45. Please pre-register. This co gentle, therapeutic yoga poses to assist th back, neck, hip or leg problems, and aim participants feel at ease in their bodies.

Intro to Meditation
Burnham Chapel, Episcopal Divinity School, St., Cambridge (508-979-8277). www.me boston.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Ap 27, 7-8:30 pm. $10. Serlingpa Meditatio teaches participants how to integrate Budd losophy into daily life to reduce stress, incr piness and bring about inner peace. Each gins with a talk followed by guided meditat Q&A session.

Reiki: Self-Transformation
Harvest Co-op Market, 581 Mass. Ave., C (617-661-1580). www.harvestcoop.com. MI Line to Central. April 25, 6-8 pm. Those int reiki, the ancient Japanese art of hands-on can find out about reiki training, how it' heal oneself and treat others, and then some simple reiki techniques.

The Yoga Sutras of Patanjali
Yoga 301, Cambridge Masonic Hall, 1950 M Cambridge (617-354-3011). www.yoga. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. April 21-23, $200. Edwin Bryant leads this workshop yoga sutras of Patanjali (an Indian treati practice of yoga).

Retreat

Women's Wellness Retreat
YMCA Camp Burgess and Hayward, 75 Ste Sandwich (508-428-2571). www.ssymca.o April 21-23. $195, includes accommoda meals. Women gather for a weekend of promoting healthy living, exercise and me being.

Ongoing

Beginner/Intermediate Yoga
Pathways to Wellness, 142 Berkeley St., 2 Boston (617-859-3036). www.pathwaysb MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay or Gree Arlington. Tue., 6-7 pm. $12, drop-in. F ahead to reserve space. Beginner and inte yogis can refine and deepen their practic yoga poses and breathing techniqu becoming stronger and more flexible.

Dance Friday
Phillips Congregational Church, 111 Mt. A Watertown (617-997-0948). www.innerf com/dancefriday. Fri., 8-12 pm. Donations The evening starts with a warm-up and with freestyle dancing to DJ music. barefoot is allowed; drinking and smoking

Kripalu Yoga/South End
111 W. Concord St., Boston (617-522-719 yogawithpatrice.com. MBTA: Orange Line Ave. or Back Bay. Mon. and Tue., 7 pm. $ mixed-level yoga classes are taught by Kri instructor Patrice Flesch. Drop-ins welcom

Writing Practice
Collaborative Psychotherapy, 1695 North S #1, Revere (617-868-0660). www.col psychotherapy.com. Wed., 10:30 am-12 Please pre-register. This writing workshop port group, led by psychotherapist Marcia designed to help participants tame the in and unblock the creative process.

ports

ice to Contributors

it listings by fax (617-859-1446), by o Calendar: Sports, or by e-mail to @improper.com. Include address, phone er, nearest T stop, dates and times, with a brief description of the league or Listings cannot be accepted over the one and must be received at least four in advance.

ome Games

ton Celtics
Banknorth Garden, Boston
ets: 617-931-2222
19, 7:30 pm vs. Miami Heat

ton Red Sox
way Park, Boston
ets: 617-482-4769
19, 7:05 pm vs. Tampa Bay Devil Rays
20, 7:05 pm vs. Tampa Bay Devil Rays
, 7:05 pm vs. New York Yankees
, 7:05 pm vs. New York Yankees

ents

mpions Cup Boston
Sports Club, 141 Boston Post Road, Sudbury
443-9006). www.championscuptennis.com. April . $15. Legendary tennis stars Jim Courier, John roe, Michael Chang, Mats Wilander and Pat compete in Sudbury for the Champions Cup n title.

mpions on Ice
anknorth Garden, 100 Legends Way, Boston 931-2000). www.championsonice.com. MBTA:
or Orange Line to North Station. April 22, 2 and $35. A collection of the top skaters in the , including Michelle Kwan, Sasha Cohen, n Belbin and Johnny Weir, perform in Boston as f the Champions on Ice tour.

of the Charles Canoe and k Race
egins in Dedham and ends at Herter Park, Soldiers Road, Brighton (508-698-6810). www.charles rg. April 30. $35-$55 per paddler. More than paddlers take to the Charles River in this an-lay race.

Play

STRALIAN-RULES OTBALL

ton Demons 290-7101). www.bostondemons.com. The club new players for nine-a-side competition.

SEBALL

ry's Baseball
391-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

SKETBALL

ton Ski & Sports Club 789-4070, ext. 238). Co-ed, year-round s for players of all levels in Watertown, Bel-Dedham and Waltham. Teams and individu-welcome.

bridge Racquet and Fitness Club
191-8989). www.crfcbasketball.com. Year-round s for individuals or teams at all levels.

porate Basketball League 248-7811). This league seeks teams for the and spring seasons. Games are on weeknights wton and Waltham. For more information, contact zelovic@comcast.net.

er Too Late Basketball 488-3333). www.nevertoolate.com. Adults of s practice in locations throughout Boston.

XING

ton Sport Boxing Club
Walnut St., Watertown (617-972-1711). www.
boxing.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then us. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. The club offers ic-style boxing lessons for all levels.

time Boxing
Columbia Road, Dorchester (617-269-9044).
dogtimeboxing.com. Mon.-Fri., 5-8:30 pm.
oxing club offers training for competition, ioning and recreation.

John McEnroe is one of many tennis legends competing in the Champions Cup, April 27-30.

DODGEBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club Dodgeball
(617-789-4070). The BSSC is recruiting for dodgeball teams.

DRAGON-BOAT RACING

Living Root Dragon Boat
(617-413-8360). www.livingroot.org. No experience is necessary to join this co-ed dragon-boat racing team that practices in Boston and Somerville.

FENCING

Bay State Fencers
561 Windsor St., Suite A 401, Somerville (617-591-0101). www.baystatefencers.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT, then #85 bus. This club offers fencing and stage-combat programs.

FLAG AND TOUCH FOOTBALL

BSSC Football
Games are held in Brighton (617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. Six-on-six and four-on-four men's teams compete each weekend.

LACROSSE

Commonwealth Lacrosse Club
comlaxclub@gmail.com. The season for this post-collegiate men's lacrosse team starts up this spring. Games take place on Sundays.

RUGBY

Beantown Women's Rugby Club
www.beantownrugby.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Allston; games Sat. Beantown has won the national women's championship six times. New players are welcome.

Boston Irish Wolfhounds
(617-254-9732). www.biwrfc.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Jamaica Plain. Home field at the Irish Cultural Center in Canton. New players are welcome.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. The club is looking for players to join its national-level team.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. The club seeks new players for games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Old Gold Rugby Club
(617-742-0678). www.oldgoldrugby.com. Tue. and Thu., 6:30-8:30 pm. Games on Sat. New and experienced players are welcome.

RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various locations (617-499-4835). www.bostonhash.com. Weekly runs on either Wed. or Sun. year-round. If you enjoy running, drinking and singing bawdy songs, this is your weekly running group. Call for times and locations.

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Fri., 6 pm. Weekly runs in the Cambridge area.

Team LunaChix Boston
BostonRun@teamlunachix.com. http://groups.yahoo.com/group/bostonlunachix. Weekly runs Thu. at 6:30 pm. Women only. Talking-pace, three- or five-mile runs through the Fells.

SOCCER

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). The BSSC offers a series of indoor and outdoor soccer leagues.

upcoming issues

May 3, 2006
Homes

May 17, 2006
Wedding Planner

May 31, 2006
Summer Fun

June 14, 2006
Summer Dining

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Call 617-859-1400 ext. 280 to advertise

DIANE VON FURSTENBERG ◆ FRAGILE ◆ CHAIKEN ◆
CADEAU ◆ BELLY BUTTON ◆ RUBY VAN ◆ CITIZENS OF
HUMANITY ◆ PAPER DEMIN CLOTH ◆ TRIMESTER Ts ◆
SUSANA MONACO ◆ CHIP N PEPPER ◆ BELLA DAHL ◆
HOMMEMUMMY ◆ EBERJEY ◆ ARABELLA B ◆ NOPPIES

Bump

Fashion so good,
you'll wish you were pregnant!

Fabulous, delicious baby & children's clothing too!!

45 River Street, Boston
Monday - Saturday 10am-6pm t: 617.426.4004 f: 617.426.4008
www.bumpshoppe.com

Freshen Up.

Designer Bath
What you do in the bathroom is our business.
a division of Salem Plumbing Supply Co., Inc.
97 River Street • Beverly, MA 01915 • minutes from Rt. 128
800-449-0364
or visit us on the web at designerbath.com

children

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Things to See

Barbie Live in Fairytopia

The Wang Theatre, 270 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-9393). www.wangcenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. April 19-23. Wed-Thu., 7 pm; Fri., 10:30 am and 7 pm; Sat.-Sun., 11 am, 2 and 5 pm. $15-$48. While on a musical mission to save Fairytopia, Barbie learns the importance of friendship.

Big Apple Circus

City Hall Plaza, Boston (617-931-2787). www.bigapplecircus.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Through May 7. $13-$54. New York's original nonprofit one-ring circus presents Grandma Goes to Hollywood, as it marks its 20th season performing in Boston. Check Web site for show times.

Brundibár: A Children's Opera by Hans Krása

•Roxbury Community College, 1234 Columbus Ave., Roxbury (617-868-5885). www.rccmainstage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. $5-$15. April 23, 3 pm. •Leventhal-Sidman Jewish Community Center, 333 Nahanton St., Newton Centre (617-965-5226). MBTA: Green Line to Newton Centre. $5-$15. April 24, 7:30 pm. The Cantata Singers Chamber Series presents this simple story originally performed by children of the Nazi concentration camp in Terezin, Czechoslovakia.

Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

200 The Riverway, Boston (617-879-2000). www.wheelock.edu/wft. MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway. Through May 14. Fri., 7:30 pm; Sat.-Sun., 3 pm; April 19-20, 1 pm. $12-$20. The nonprofit Wheelock Family Theatre brings Charlie and the Chocolate Factory to the stage.

Puppet Showplace Theatre

32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. $7.50-$9.50. Reservations recommended. •April 19-20, 10:30 am. Deborah Constine of the Gerwick Puppets presents Three Pigs and Other Tales using shadow puppetry. •April 21-23, 1 and 3 pm. Michael Graham and his Spring Valley Puppets bring to life Jack and the Beanstalk. •April 26-27, 10:30 am; April 29-30, 1 and 3 pm. Tuckers' Tales presents Peter Rabbit Tales, featuring The Tale of Peter Rabbit, The Tale of Mrs. Tittlemouse and The Tale of Benjamin Bunny.

Sesame Street Live: Out of This World

Agganis Arena, Boston University, 925 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com. MBTA: B Green Line to St. Paul. April 20-23. $12-$25. Big Bird, Elmo and others teach the audience about patience, teamwork and the similarities children share across the globe in this musical production. Check Web site for show times.

The Wizard of Oz

McCormack Theatre, UMass Boston, 100 Morrissey Blvd., Boston (617-424-6634). www.bostonchildrenstheatre.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. April 19, 21 and 23, 2 pm; April 22, 10:30 am and 2 pm. $20-$22. Young locals bring The Wizard of Oz to the stage.

Things to Do

Barefoot Books

1771 Mass. Ave., Arlington (617-349-1610). www.barefootbooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Fri. and Sat., 10:30 am. Free. This story hour for children features a variety of themes including nature, dancing, transportation, counting and colors.

Boston By Little Feet

Faneuil Hall, Congress St., Boston (617-367-3766). www.bostonbyfoot.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. May 1 through October. Mon. and Sat., 10 am; Sun., 2 pm. $8. This 60-minute tour of the Freedom Trail is designed to keep the interest of younger tourists ages 6 to 12.

Boston Public Library

700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Free. •April 19, 10:30 am. Steve Rudolph brings his interactive Wild West Magic Show to Boston. •April 23, 2 pm. Journeys of Exploration is a special presentation on m discusses why they're needed and the storie them. •April 30, 2 pm. Disney Movie Sun sents James and the Giant Peach.

Children's Museum

Museum Wharf, 300 Congress St., Boston (6 8855). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line Station. Daily, 10 am-5 pm; Fri., op 9 pm. $9, adults; $7, children. •The Art Studi parents and children to create works of art Ongoing. •Arthur's World allows children their own skits and perform in their favorit setting. Ongoing. •Dragons and Fairies: Explo nam Through Folktales engages children in Vietnamese life through traditional folktale ing. •Construction Zone allows children to ex what it's like to build skyscrapers, tunnels an Ongoing. •Your House, My House explores th of children across the world. Through May 7.

Harvard Museum of Natural Hi

26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045 hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harva 9 am-5 pm. $7.50, adults; $6, students; $5, a •April 19-21, 9 am-5 pm. The Spring Break Hunt explores how nature prepares for a new participants search for clues to a secret messa

Museum of Fine Arts Children's Room

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-26 www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to M $15, adults; $13, students; free, 5 and under ages 6-17 on weekdays before 3 pm. •April 1 am-4 pm. April School Vacation Week: Art i lows children to explore the museum thro ous hands-on activities and performances 26, 4:30-6:30 pm. Teen-to-Teen Art Talks inc making activities in this gallery talk wit •April 29, 11 am-3 pm. Art in Bloom Fan Young and Art invites the entire family te the museum through child-centered tours, c performances. •Mon.-Fri., 3:30-4:45 pm. T dren's Room allows kids to explore the mus create projects with a variety of themes. • •Tue.-Thu., 3:30 pm. Books Bring Art Alive arts-and-crafts activities for children ag under. •Sat.-Sun., 11 am-4 pm. Family Pla children ages 4 and up to explore the MFA self-guided activities with an adult.

Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $14, adults; $12, seni children. •Sat.-Sun., 11 am-12 pm. Beyond t features four major exhibits that explore ho peer inside the human body without cuttin ing. •Butterflies and flowers are on displ Butterfly Garden. Ongoing. •Countdown nova, showing at the Hayden Planetarium, the life cycle of stars. Ongoing. •Greece: Sec Past explores the history of the Greek island computer-generated images. Ongoing. •Mat els is an interactive exhibition that features a wave tank, Mount Everest and a giant gra Ongoing. •Science Live! features live ani multimedia presentations surrounded by history diorama. Ongoing.

New England Aquarium

Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). w org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon am-6 pm; Fri.-Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $15.9 $13.95, seniors; $8.95, children ages 3-11. the Sea highlights the animals featured in IMAX film Deep Sea 3D through an intera of the aquarium. •Amazing Jellies features t of jellyfish. Ongoing. •The 200,000-gall Ocean Tank contains sharks, stingrays an tles. Ongoing. •Edge of the Sea is an ongoi on exhibition featuring sea stars, hermit more. •The Simons IMAX Theatre scree ety of movies. Ongoing.

Newton Free Library

330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). newton.ma.us. MBTA: D Green Line to Neu lands. Free, registration required. •April 2 Drawbridge Puppet Theatre presents Little R Hood. •April 25, 4 pm. Science Tuesday tea dren about scientific matter through a hands-on activities. •April 27, 4:15 pm. Folktales explores the history of insect-based

Old South Meeting House

310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-643 oldsouthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Orang Downtown Crossing. Free with museum c •April 19, 1-3 pm. Celebrate Benjamin 300th birthday on Ben Franklin Day thro enger hunts, activities and tours. •April 21 pm. Colonial Kids Faire lets children experie colonial times through a variety of game their own weather vanes and writing with q round

own hts to See

on University Observatory Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-630). MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Wed. ar nights), 7:30-8:30 pm. Free.

lren's Museum
ongress St., Museum Wharf, Boston (617-426- . www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South . Sat.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $9; ldren ages 2-15 and seniors; $2, 1-year-olds; free, n under 1 year; $1 per person, Fri., 5-9 pm.

uil Hall
te St., Boston (617-635-3105). www.faneuilhall tplace.com. MBTA: Orange or Green Line to arket. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. U.S. Park Service s give talks every half hour in the Great Hall, t's not being used for special events. Free.

ard Museum of Natural History
ford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www. harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sun., 9 am-5 pm. $7.50; $6, students and se- $5, children ages 3-18. Free for all, Wed., 3-5 d Sun., 9 am-12 pm.

F. Kennedy Library & Museum
bia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). www. ry.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 5 pm. $10; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages free, ages 12 and under.

Anderson Antique Auto Museum
wton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). MBTA: e #51 to Clyde St. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5; es 6-17 and seniors; free, ages 6 and under.

Baker Eddy Library Mapparium
lass. Ave., Boston (888-222-3711). MBTA: Line to Hynes/ICA. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-3:40 ; $4, seniors and students.

nt Auburn Cemetery
lt. Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105). : Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 8 am-5 pm. Free.

eum of Afro-American History
St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam m.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Guided walking tours avail- special request. $5, suggested donation.

eum of Science
e Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos. BTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9 m; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $15; $13, seniors; $12, 11.

England Aquarium
l Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq. BTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Fri., 9 am- Sat.-Sun. and holidays, 9 am-6 pm. $17.95; , seniors; $9.95, ages 3-11; free to members.

North Church
lem St., Boston (617-523-6676). MBTA: Orange n Line to Haymarket. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. Free.

South Meeting House
ashington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www. thmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Orange or Blue State. Daily, 10 am-4 pm. $5; $4, seniors and s; $1, children; free, ages 5 and under.

tate House Museum
ashington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www. history.org. MBTA: Orange or Blue Line to Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and stu- $1, ages 6-18; free to members and children .

ential Center Skywalk ylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). MBTA: Line to Hynes/ICA. Daily, 10 am-8 pm. $9.50; with college ID; $7, seniors; $6.50, ages 3-12; es 2 and under.

y Church
larendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). www. oston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. am-6 pm. $5; free, ages 12 and under.

Constitution & Museum
stown Navy Yard, Boston (617-426-1812). ssconstitutionmuseum.org. MBTA: Busline #93 wn. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. Free.

unteer

Mentoring Program
24-1303). www.afcmentoring.org. Mentor a are or adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-437-6200). www.aac.org. Help someone with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). www.cancer.org. Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments.

Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay
(617-542-9090). www.bbmb.org. BBMB seeks volunteers to provide friendship to boys in need.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Volunteers act as friends and mentors to young girls.

Boston Cares
(617-422-0910). www.bostoncares.org. More than 100 volunteer opportunities are available each month.

Boston Jaycees
(617-367-5710). www.bostonjaycees.org. A volunteer organization of people between the ages of 21 and 40 focusing on charitable involvement and developing business opportunities.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012, ext. 227). www.bostonlivingcenter.org. This HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers who are 18 and older for kitchen tasks, office work and special events.

Boston Partners in Education
(617-451-6145, ext. 620). www.bostonpartners.org. Tutor students in math and literacy and prepare high school students for the MCAS.

Cambridge School Volunteers
(617-349-6794). www.csvinc.org. Volunteers and tutors needed in Cambridge public schools.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). www.dana-farber.org. Help adults living with cancer.

Downtown Initiative for Adult Literacy
(617-357-6000, ext. 7508). Tutor adult students.

Extra Hands for ALS
(617-331-3014). www.extrahands.org. Help patients with ALS (aka Lou Gehrig's Disease) and their families with chores and housework.

HealthCare Dimensions Hospice
(781-894-1100). www.hcdhospice.org. Volunteers are needed to support terminally ill patients and their families.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-267-3700). www.thehome.org. Mentor a child.

Horizons Initiative
(617-287-1900, ext. 133). www.horizonsforhomeless children.org. Volunteer for homeless children.

Hospice Volunteers
(617-547-2620, ext. 4271). Support terminally ill patients.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). www.cjp.org. Spend time with an elderly adult, mentor a child or teach adults to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). www.lvm.org. Teach adults to read.

MAB Community Services
(617-972-9119). www.charityfinders.com. Read to or shop with a blind person.

Match-Up Interfaith Volunteers
(617-482-1510). www.matchelder.org. Volunteers needed to assist elders.

Neighborhood Action Inc.
(617-723-5800). Serve meals to the homeless.

New England Aquarium
(617-973-5235). www.neaq.org. Volunteer as an aquarium guide and more.

Parental Stress Line
(800-882-1250). Counsel parents and caregivers, and facilitate support groups.

Pine Street Inn
(617-892-9187). www.pinestreetinn.org. Volunteer for food preparation and meal service.

Project Place Inc.
(617-262-3740, ext. 15). www.projectplace.org. Become a mentor or tutor for homeless men and women.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111, ext. 17). www.rfbd.org. Volunteers read textbooks for recording.

Respond Inc.
(617-625-5996). www.respondinc.org. Volunteer at this agency for battered women.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). www.rosies.org. Volunteers needed for this women's homeless shelter.

SafeLink
(617-521-0100). Volunteers needed for this 24-hour domestic violence program.

Samaritans
(617-536-2460). Provide friendship over the phone to people in crisis.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. SVB offers one-shot opportunities to volunteer with other young, single professionals.

wishes for girls

A FULL-SERVICE BEAUTY STUDIO

Attention 2006 Brides!

We'd love to help you look your Best on your Wedding Day!

Bridal Formal Updo: $65
Bridal Makeup: $75
(Run-through Half Price)
Manicures & Pedicures, too!

Call 978-369-9699 for Reservations

34 Main Street
Concord, MA 01742
www.wishesforgirls.com

Open Tuesday - Saturday 10:30 to 5:30; Sunday 12 to 5

IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TR

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you w The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed IMPROPER Sightings.

In Scotland, Justice Rines, Elijah Ercolino, Nessy and Robert Rodriguez read about what was hot in Boston back in 2003. Next step: Invent a time machine.

SSG Michael Petrilli poses with his IMPROPER and his Blackhawk helicopter in Tallil, Iraq. We're hoping our white cover didn't blow his.

Paulina Sterpe, Stephanie Hadley, Sarah Laski, Audrey DaDalt and Al Reed snapped this shot in Nicaragua with Chris Berry, owner of the H Piedras y Olas, as well as a pair of those snazzy hard-to-see glasses.

Our guess is that chefs Andy Husbands and Ed Doyle toasted 25 years of "Matty" with about 25 piña coladas apiece in Koh Jum, Thailand.

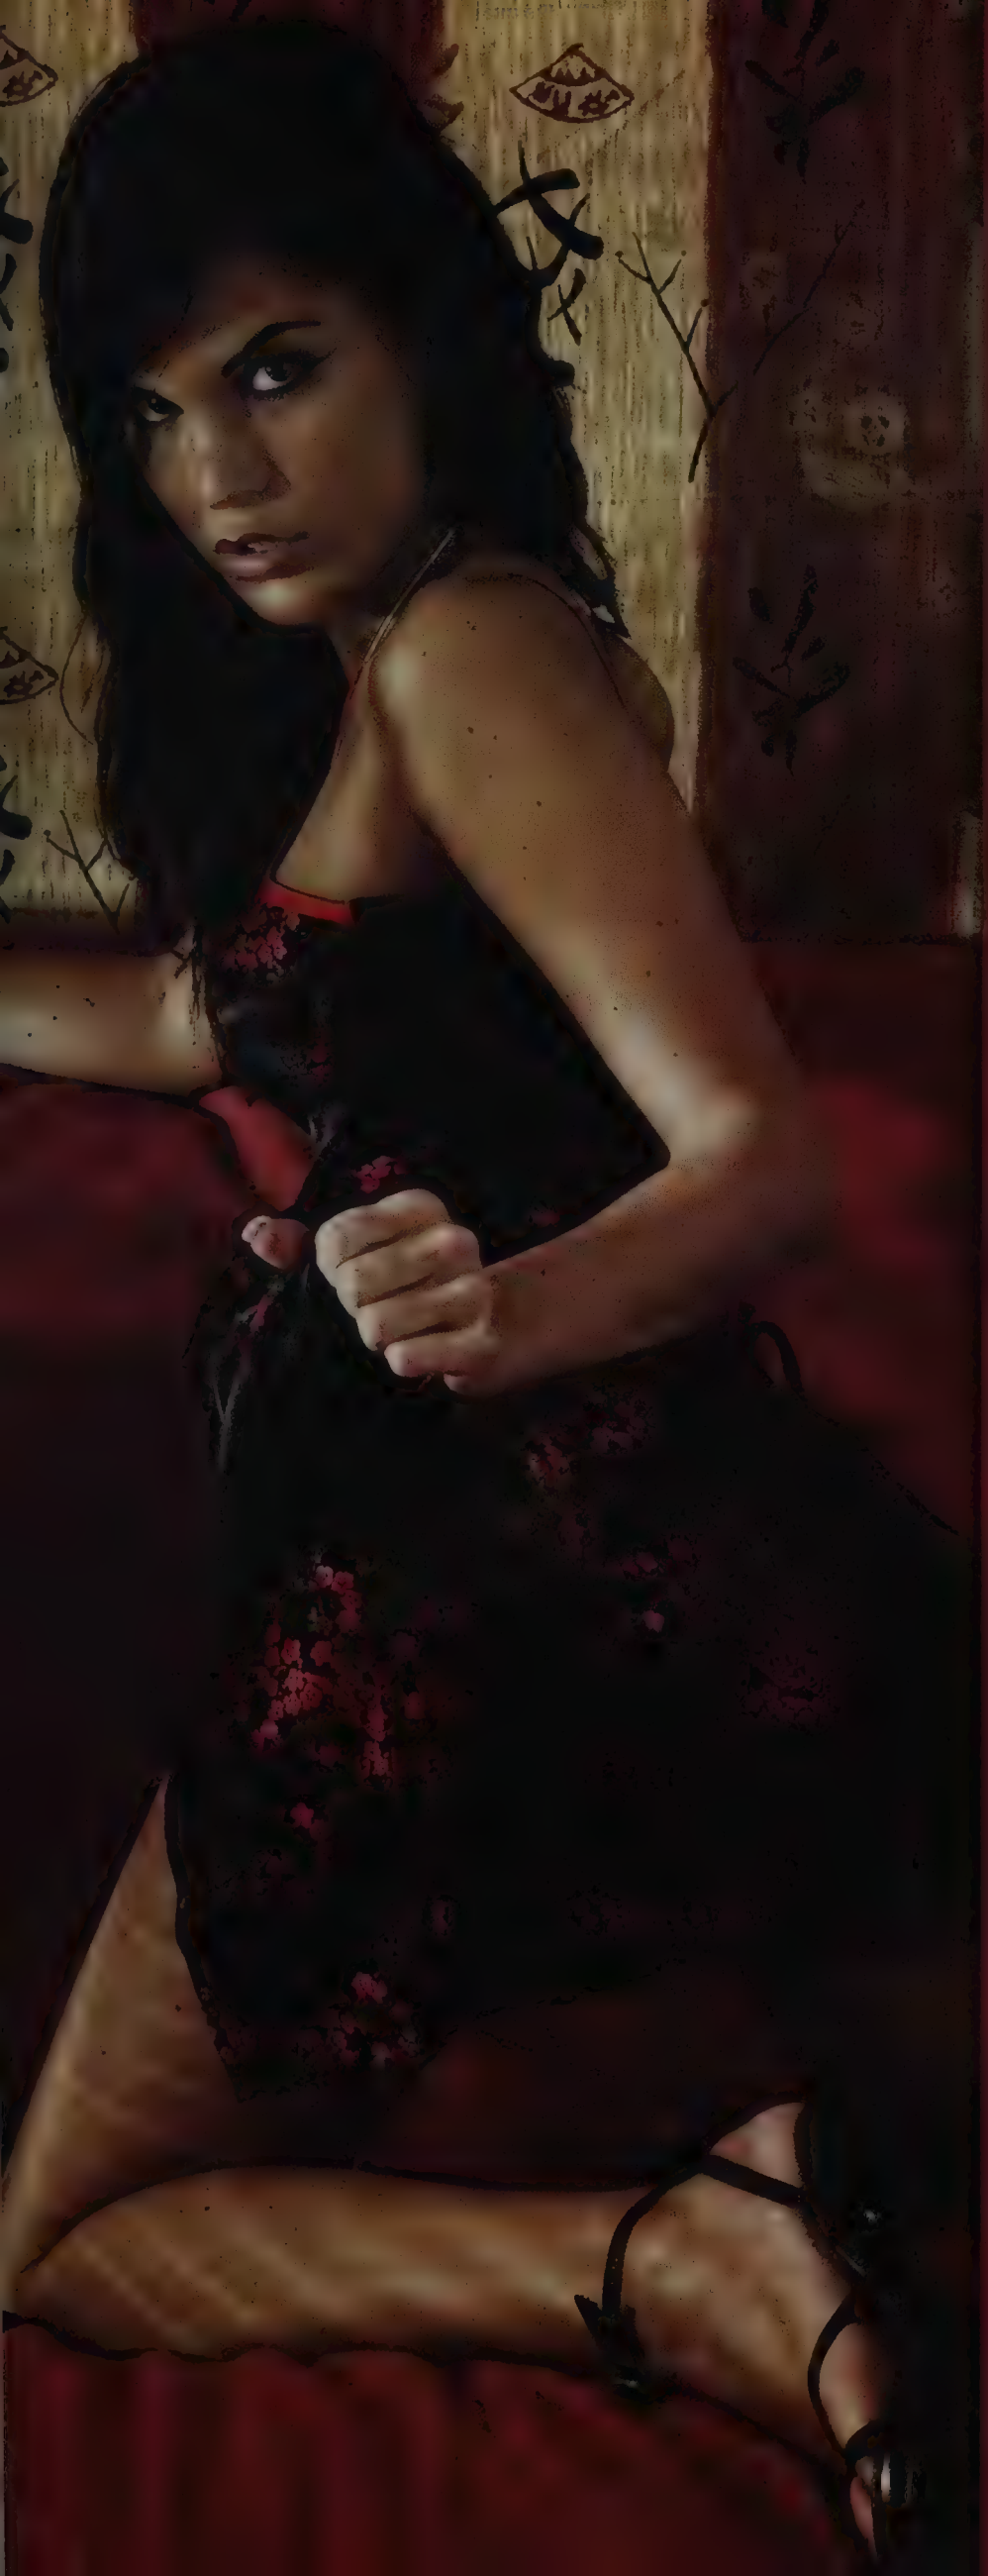
Grandpa James Fox and his family kicked it Steve Zissou–style on a recent trip to St. Lucia. Don't point that camera at baby Oliver; he's an unpaid intern!

George Regan (left) visited with a few soldiers during a recent to Israel, coordinated by the Kraft family. We wonder if any of play soccer, just in case Mr. Gramatica ain't so Automatica.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER:
Flying a kite with former Celtics center Greg Kite at the Maryland International Kite Exposition, held April 28-30 in Ocean City, Md.

Send high-resolution digital photos (at least 500K file size) to sightings@improper.com, or mail professionally printed color photos (min. 3x5) to Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 42 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116. Please include the exact photo location, full names of all people in the photo, your phone number and e-mail address. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned. Ink-jet or laser-printed photos cannot be accepted.



BOSTON'S BEST & ONLY GENTLEMEN'S CLUB

COME SEE OVER 100 OF
BOSTON'S MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

AMATEUR CONTEST EVERY TUESDAY

OPEN 7 DAYS

CENTERFOLDS
BOSTON

12 LaGrange Street • Downtown Boston
617.292.2600 • www.centerfoldsboston.com

HOME SWEET HOME...

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE LOFT and we're heading to the South End to check out a photographer's. How eco-friendly are you? We'll unearth the latest ideas for your home that you won't want to miss. Is your abode ruining your love life? Tune in to find out what has people running for the hills.

Do you like kitchen gadgets with an edge?

This issue will show you how to reside in style.

Get on board for this exciting opportunity to advertise in The Improper Bostonian's Homes Issue.

The Improper Bostonian reaches 433,600 readers every two weeks!

96% purchased a product or service advertised as a result of reading The Improper Bostonian.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Issue Date: May 3

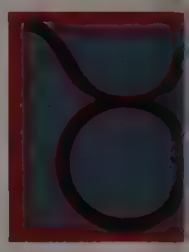
Advertising Deadline: April 19

Call 617-859-1400, ext. 280, to book advertising space now

rockie horoscope

APRIL 19 – MAY 2, 2006 BY ROCKIE GARDIN

TAURUS APRIL 20–MAY 20



It cannot be emphasized enough: This is the week your Venus ruler comes through for you. Not only is the goddess floating through Pisces, the sign of her exaltation where she often does the most good, she is also approaching Uranus, the planet of erotic surprises, as well as brilliant ideas and inventive, interesting people. The pièce de résistance: A beneficial trine between Venus and Jupiter, the bearers of good fortune and glad tidings, is set for the 20th, but is likely to smile on you a few days earlier or later.

GEMINI

MAY 21–JUNE 20

While your Mercury ruler travels through Aries, you could have more in common with the ambitious Ram who is pushing you to go for your latest career objective, be it a major account or your boss' throat. That a significant reward arrives much sooner than anyone anticipates may be the result of Saturn in your Leo money house forming a favorable trine to Mercury on the 20th. Since Saturn, even though it's in flashy Leo, is basically conservative, the payoff might be an offer that's been a long time in the making, not that huge raise.

CANCER

JUNE 21–JULY 22

Having incisive Mars in your sign cuts two ways. If you need to assert your independence, the Warrior will justify your reason for taking matters into your own hands. But swift Martian action can turn inward, so you might wind up hurting yourself. Why not use this infusion of courage to have dental work, a tummy tuck or a facial peel? After the red planet moves into Leo on June 3, it'll be another two years before Mars comes around to Cancer again. Or you could focus on the loving vibe Venus is sending to lucky Jupiter in your house of romance.

LEO

JULY 23–AUGUST 22

Once your sun ruler crosses into Taurus, the sign governing your career zone, you may become even more achievement-oriented. Ah, the sweet, seductive smell of success. Although Lions are usually not as tenacious as bulldogs, both fixed signs have a tendency to chew on their cherished bones 'til the bitter end. Consider this a veiled warning about the impending challenge due to arrive when the productive Taurus sun squares restrictive Saturn in your sign on the 24th. No lazy, leonine excuses and no pulling rank.

VIRGO

AUGUST 23–SEPTEMBER 22

Gear up, hunker down and prepare for the surprise that's about to be sprung. Having magnetic Venus in your Pisces house of partners could draw another attractive, friendly face to your intimate circle. However, when Venus meets unpredictable, easily upset Uranus, there's no telling what'll happen or which way the cookie you covet will crumble. Their conjunction is an annual affair, so try to remember how you handled a similar situation around the same time last year. Venus goes on to make amends by offering a chance to win more than you'll lose.

LIBRA

SEPTEMBER 23–OCTOBER 22

You might pull a coup of some kind when your appreciative Venus ruler joins innovative Uranus, not unlike snatching the prize from a coworker's outstretched hand. Happily no bad feelings ensue, simply shock and awe at such a smooth move. The financial reward arrives a few days later when Venus supports expansive Jupiter in your Scorpio house of assets and income. If there's a high-stakes card game or a visit to the track in the works, go for it. You might not be this lucky at love or another game of chance for quite some time.

SCORPIO

OCTOBER 23–NOVEMBER 21

Whatever the gig or service you recently performed, no matter how easy or difficult, be sure to show your appreciation for the compensation you're offered in return, even if it's unlike any payment you've received before. Why such complicated advice? Because the support your Plu ruler is getting could be coming from someone who is self-serving than most. Subtle and tenuous relationshi involved, so if you would like to maximize the benefits connection, don't ask questions and don't make waves

SAGITTARIUS

NOVEMBER 22–DECEMBER 21

Trust that the surprise will be a pleasant one and that artistic Venus' merger with inventive Uranus will intr something or someone truly amazing to your househo don't have to profess undying love, but you should gi yourself some time to see if this item or this person w bring you the good fortune indicated by Venus' trine t Jupiter ruler. Meanwhile, sharpen your verbal skills a refine your literary ambitions; while Mercury is in fie Aries, the desire to express yourself can bubble up an overflow.

CAPRICORN

DECEMBER 22–JANUARY 20

A friendly game of poker or "greed" may turn out to bigger bonanza than you could have anticipated. Wh generous Jupiter in Scorpio and lucky Venus in Pisces Goats sitting halfway between those two signs can re unexpected benefits. However, if this choice opportun appears in a different guise (a neighbor's charity eve for it as well. Anything to keep you distracted while t stubborn Taurus sun gets ready to test your resolute ruler. What worries you more—a self-involved pare real estate matter?

AQUARIUS

JANUARY 21–FEBRUARY 18

No matter if you were born around the Chinese New closer to Valentine's Day, every Aquarian gets to face challenge of some sort this week. A few are fairly eas as figuring out how much of Jupiter's promise of pro is too much of a good thing. Some are more difficult get your hard-headed spouse, i.e., Saturn in your Leo marriage house, to do what you want him or her to d And, due to the strength of the fertile Taurus sun, pr are about to surface for some homeowners. Have fait yourself and all this shall pass. Eventually.

PISCES

FEBRUARY 19–MARCH 19

Among the more fortunate of planetary aspects, alm excellent as the coveted conjunction is the trine betw benevolent Venus and magnanimous Jupiter, which t place this week. While Venus passes through Pisces e year, Jupiter's transit of Scorpio, a supportive water occurs only once every 12 years. No matter how bles think you are, don't let their favors slip past your gr be another two years until Jupiter in Capricorn offer Fish something that's not nearly as good.

ARIES

MARCH 20–APRIL 19

Is it possible that the pen is mightier than the sword? witty, wordy Mercury entered Aries on Easter Sunday, quite likely. Take a few days to see if you can mount a assault as easily and effectively as you can cut throug crap you're being fed. Acid tends to flow when your M is in Cancer. If you have a grievance against a family the landlord or a local chef, don't hesitate to express feel. In practically no time Mercury and constructive will work out a mutually satisfactory solution.

For a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 monti name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., V Glen, CA 91405; more details at www.rockiehoroscope.com. Rockie's daily forecast appears online at www.laweekly.com.

improperimpersonals

eryone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the ld to see (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity). Heck, it's better than making a fool of self in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type -mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com

RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

IMMORTAL IMPERSONAL

Scammer on the Loose

Ladies, watch out for a smooth-talking hedge fund manager who frequents the Beacon Hill–area bars. I just dated him for two months before discovering that he lied to me about his age (40), where he lives and the fact that he's an elected city official in addition to his day job. This is after he met my parents and shook my father's hand two weeks ago! A big tip-off was that I could never see his apartment because it turns out that it wasn't in Beacon Hill, as I was originally told. Instead it was in the suburbs. So just a heads-up to the single women in town: Make sure you Google the men you date before you fall for them. This particular individual has probably done this before and will most likely try to do this again. Ladies, watch out because he's still out there, lurking around.

—Duped

uble Featured

s the 7:20 pm Night Watch ing at the Kendall theater on h 9. You were sitting behind me a friend who was in red. I was in our all by myself, the girl with hair. You have dark hair and a e. You seem to walk with some nf limp. You guys were speaking guese or Spanish. Anyway, I ed to ask you how you liked the especially since you were ng, as I was. Afterwards, were miling at me? When you two out of the theater, where I was g for you, I was on the phone. I followed, you guys had turned her direction from where I was ad. Find me! Let's have a drink alk about the film, and maybe e it again?

-othegloom1@hotmail.com

se Pearly Whites

ere leaving the North End unity dentist office as I was g. And for the moment I was cted from the nagging pain of my . I held the door for you as you nd for a moment our eyes met. I your name was Anna; you have hair and a small nose ring. Just ring if we have anything more in on than just healthy teeth.

-mbed by Love

to the T

iding the Green Line this ing and we came to the Longwood here was a handicapped man in elchair who wanted to get on the Both of the train drivers got off the man that he couldn't get on the T at that stop. He was an older man who clearly had other disabilities and seemed a bit confused. He kept saying that he didn't understand why he couldn't get on the train. So, not only were they yelling at him, telling him to get on at another stop, they were also making a huge scene. The poor man obviously had no other way to get to the other T stops. Yet they just left him there. I know that they're probably not allowed to try to get him on, but seeing that they were adults, they could've handled the situation a little better. I also think that the T should be handicap-accessible at all stops. Why should you make it harder for the handicapped to use public transportation?

—Commuting Concerned

Puppy Love

It was Saturday night on the corner of Newbury and Exeter streets. We were both walking our dogs. They couldn't get enough of each other and I couldn't stop staring at you. You seemed to be interested as well, but your dog got away and you had to chase after him. I tried to help find him, but you both were out of sight very quickly. I felt compelled to write and say that I hope we see each other again. I walk my dog every night around the same time that we saw each other; I hope that our paths cross again, or maybe our dogs will reunite us.

—Strolling for You

A Big Tip

I'm a waitress and would like to address those who've never worked in the restaurant business. You know who you are. There are a few simple things that people should be aware of. First, if you're a parent and you bring your children out to eat with you, please be aware of the fact that most children are messy and slightly annoying. I don't mind waiting on you or your children, but please, tip well—it should be at least 20 percent. Second, even if there isn't a "Please Wait to Be Seated" sign, don't assume that you can just sit wherever you like. Restaurants have a system; you seating yourself can screw things up. You could be sitting there for a while because we aren't aware that you're there. The biggest no-no is when you're sitting with a group of people and someone orders a drink, the waiter brings it back and someone else asks for something. Don't do this. Not only are you annoying the waiter but you're also taking time from other people's service as well as your own. Also, don't order something, eat half of it and then complain that you don't like it and you want it taken off your bill or you want something else. This makes you look stingy. Last but not least, when your server and/or the restaurant is obviously full, please don't expect the best of service. We're always trying to do our best, but sometimes it isn't possible. And don't tip like crap because you didn't get your drinks right away or it took a few minutes to take your order. We're trying to make a living, too, you know. If you can afford to eat out, you can afford to tip.

—Tired and Waiting

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Saturday, April 8, Stil at the Mall at Chestnut Hill held a Lucy Sykes Trunk Show, complete with Stil-tinis and hors d'oeuvres.

1. Euan Rellie, partner with Business Development Asia, and Lucy Sykes Rellie, creative director for Lucy Sykes New York.
2. Mariana Salerno and Jessica Hamel, both sales associates for Stil Inc.
3. Heather Sutton, model for Models Group; Eveline Orlova, sales associate for Kenneth Cole; and Teresa Fitzgerald, model for Models Group.

On Thursday, April 6, Saks Fifth Avenue hosted Find Your Style on Two, a city-scene party to showcase their newly renovated second floor, Modern Collection Two. Guests enjoyed cocktails by Ciroc Vodka and trendy tapas. Models showed off designers including Tory Burch, "M" Missoni, Ventilo and Elie Tahari. S House DJ, Jason de George, spun metro music for the crowd.

1. Amanda Van Horn, model for Dynasty; Ashley Ying and Wendi Sickinger, both models for Maggie Inc.
2. Adrienne Mcilvaine, specialist for Pink Tartan, and Emily Gilbert, specialist for Diane von Furstenberg.
3. Olga Perez, social worker at Children's Hospital, and Kristen Medich, sales manager at Kika Medical.

On Tuesday, April 11, The Improper Bostonian and H&M celebrated the opening of the newest H&M store. Guests enjoyed libations by Pearl Vodka and St Artois, hors d'oeuvres by East Meets West, vibes by Next Generation Productions, informal modeling by Maggie Inc., and hair and makeup by Maksou.

1. Lindsay Taukus, fashion designer for MaLuKa NYC; Alyssa Spadoni, student at Boston University's College of Fine Arts; Cate Schappert, freelance photographer and student at the Art Institute of Boston; and Dara Gladstein, CEO of Sunrise Markets New York.
2. Kate Lovering, Diane Braithwaite, and Karly Levas, all models for Maggie Inc.
3. Katherine Teunissen, sales associate, and Jennifer Fernandes, manager, both at H&M.

RESTAURANTS

SAGGIO 29 Prince Street, Boston, 02113 (617)227-7380 www.assaggioboston. com. Located in ton's historic North End, Assaggio pen 7 days a week for lunch, dinner l late-night dining. Assaggio's nu is comprised of traditional Ital- fare and uses only the freshest in- dients! Enjoy our extensive wine or relax at one of the North End's full service bars. Try our exclusive ousine Shuttle Service–for a .00 charge we'll pick you up at e and provide round trip service to from the restaurant– Please call day in advance to reserve. Inti- e, private function space is also lable.

NFIRE 64 Arlington St., Boston k Plaza Hotel, Theatre District, -262-3473. Chef Todd English's aurant, Bonfire, is a steak house tequila bar with a wood-fired grill Latin and European influences. décor is gorgeous in warm red and tones. An extensive taco menu, d-grilled steaks and a late-night s menu provide options for all din- Open nightly for dinner and late- t dining.

CTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., -236-0200. Have the notorious tus margarita, voted Boston's t 6 years in a row! Our south- tern specialties include Sizlin' Fa- , Chimichangas, or Quesadillas the daring wash it all down with ctus Bowl. Open daily for lunch dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana tina restaurant in Waltham. x, Visa and Diners Club. w.bestmargaritas.com.

UKYU 1280 Beacon Street olidge Corner), Brookline, MA 46, 617-734-1268. www.fu- yu.net. Authentic Japanese cuisine in an elegant and serene setting. Open Daily for lunch and dinner, Fugakyu's menu consists of traditional and nouveau Japanese cuisine including sushi, sashimi, tempura and an extensive sake list. Fugakyu is the largest Japanese restaurant in New England. It's two floors include a sushi bar, cocktail bar, common dining areas, bamboo-enclosed booths, screened Tatami rooms and several private function rooms. Reservations for parties of all sizes are accepted. Takeout and delivery available.

IGUANA CANTINA 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

MATCH 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. This modern restaurant/lounge maintains an unpretentious yet hip vibe. A sleek fire display and glass wine room are just two of its many features. Match's signature mini burgers and martinis are guaranteed to please the most discriminating palate. Match music has a distinct early evening lounge feel with the beat and volume picking up as the night progresses. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC,V.

M.J. O'CONNOR'S 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255 www.mjocconors.com. Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

NED DEVINE'S Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800 www.neddevinesboston.com. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

SIDNEY'S GRILLE 20 Sidney St., Cambridge, 617-494-0011 Enjoy fresh flavors, good friends, and a great bar at Sidney's Grille in Central Square. Discover why Bon Appétit magazine says "It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." Memorable cuisine combines international flair with regional accents. Serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and weekend brunch. Private dining available. For menus www.sidneysgrille.com.

SMITH & WOLLENSKY The Castle at Columbus & Arlington, 617-423-1112. USDA Prime steaks, dry aged and butchered on premises are featured at this quintessential steakhouse where Chef Tindaro Losurdo creates outstanding fare. The menu offers variety beyond steak with spectacular seafood bouquets, lobsters, outstanding sides, as well as homemade desserts. Set in a treasured landmark known to Bostonians as "the Castle;" the meticulously restored space has seven working fireplaces and dining rooms that span four floors to blend fun and formality.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP*:130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331;* SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646.* Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 300 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

THE LIVING ROOM 101 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, MA. 617-723-5101. www.thelivingroomboston.com. Cool, comfortable, casual– the name says it all. Where else can you enjoy American comfort food while relaxing on a couch or at a table, and even have dessert first? This restaurant, bar & lounge succeeds at being homey rather than haughty. There's an inventive martini list and friendly staff, just moments from Quincy Market and the North End. Try the Living Room's awesome apps like Chicken Taquitos, Mini-Burgers or Shrimp & Avocado Egg Rolls. Full dinner menu is served from 4:30 PM until Midnight daily. Saturday and Sunday a "Pajama Brunch" is served from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM. Bar & Lounge open until 1:00 AM daily.

VENEZIA RESTAURANT 20 Ericsson St., Boston 617-436-3120. For authentic Italian fare, impeccable service and an atmosphere unmatched on Boston's Waterfront, Venezia provides one of the city's most unique and pleasurable dining experiences. Your destination for everything from a relaxing midday lunch to a romantic dinner for two, Venezia can also accommodate private affairs like wedding receptions and business functions, and features live music on Friday and Saturday nights.

BARS & CLUBS

Beer Specialty

SUNSET GRILL & TAP*: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331;* SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646.* Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 300+ microbrews and exotic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

BIG CITY - POOL HALL, Pizza Kitchen, Beer Bar 138 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-782-2020 www.allstonsfinest.com. BIG TIME FUN: 21 Championship pool tables, 80 big beers on tap, outrageous signature pizzas and BIG MENU Sat/Sun Brunch in our BIG BANK BUILDING with our one of a kind "metro retro decor". THE BIG DEAL is free rooms and pool for your next party or function of any kind. Call the "Party Specialists". Sun - Weds 3P's (pool, pitcher, pizza) $19.99. Life is good in the Big City! Come experience it in a big way!

Clubs

FELT 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. www.FeltBoston.com. A four level venue offering a New York style Lounge, a hip bar scene, with sophisticated pool tables and a dance club in the 4th level. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth. The perfect setting for a pre or post-theater dinner or a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere of DJ's and dancing, sophisticated pool tables & bars...and FELT's posh fourth level club are the perfect blend to satisfy all your senses.

General

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617- 236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Boston's Best 6 years running! Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurants in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.best margaritas. com.

CHAMPIONS SPORTS BAR Boston Marriott Copley Place; 110 Huntington Ave. Boston, 617 937-5658. Come join us at Boston's premier Sports Bar where you can enjoy all you local and national sports action on one of our 33 tvs, including 2 big screens. We have draft beers as well as a huge selection of domestic and imported bottle selections for you to choose from. We also have a full bar and menu serving all your favorite traditional American cuisine. Planning your next party or corporate event? We have room for parties ranging from 25-325. Our hours are from Sunday through Thursday 11:30-1am, and Friday and Saturday 11:30-2am.

THE HARP 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-742-1010. www.harpboston.com. Voted Boston Magazine's "Best After The Game", the Harp is a favorite downtown hotspot any day of the week, located directly across from the TD Banknorth Garden. Featuring live bands upstairs from Boston, Philadelphia and New York plus DJs spinning tunes downstairs, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights set the pace for the great high-energy environment. The Harp provides a crowd-pleasing menu with tastes from around the globe. Located in the heart of downtown Boston, the Harp also serves as an excellent meeting place for business luncheons, social gatherings and events.

JILLIAN'S BOSTON / LUCKY STRIKE LANES 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-0300 www.jil liansboston.com. Jillian's is a 70,000 square foot entertainment megaplex featuring 16 bowling lanes, 50 pool tables, high-tech games, high definition video walls, multiple lounges and private rooms. Located on the first floor is Tequila Rain, which offers an amazing Tex-Mex menu and dancing to the hottest DJs Friday and Saturday nights.

PARRIS Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800. www.parrisboston.com. Lounge. Cocktails. Dancing. Nightlife. Come see the lights of Parris. Sample the eclectic lounge menu featuring grilled pizza, oyster shooters and steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or French 75 martini, and then motion onto the huge dance floor featuring live music with the best bands and DJs Thursday through Saturday. Named for the original architect of the Greek-revival-style building, Alexander Parris, you're nightlife experience at Parris will be Boston and beyond. Open 5pm - 2am Wednesday - Saturday. Cover charge on Friday and Saturday.

BRUNCH

KENNEDY'S MIDTOWN 42 Province Street, Boston, 617-426-3333 www.kennedysmidtown.com. Ideally situated in Boston's Midtown, Kennedy's is located between Downtown Crossing and the Boston Common; Just steps from Beacon Hill and The Freedom T
One of Boston's best kept sec
Kennedy's menu boast prime a steaks, seafood,assorted pub fare, daily creations. Open 7 days a w brunch served Saturdays and Sunc and lively piano bar. Call us for that cial function or event.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE – SKYL ROOM MUSEUM OF SCIENCE
ence Park, Boston, Ma, 02114. E
Sunday Brunch in the beautiful Sk
Room overlooking the Charles Riv
11 a.m. & 1 p.m., then check out latest breathtaking Omni film or always-changing exhibit halls. Tic start at $32 and include on-site p ing when available. Brunch only, Reservations recommended. For r information call (617) 723-250
visit mos.org.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP *130 Brig
Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331;* SUN
CANTINA, *916 Commonwealth
Boston 617-731-8646.* "Beer's not for breakfast anymore." At the Su Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try thick-cut French toast, potato skins eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadill
our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Ba cluding a free Sunday paper and you beery mary or mimosa. Full menu available. 112taps, 300+microbrews.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

ACTIVISM

T PAID TO BE A HERO

ɔcate for impoverished chil- and earn $500-$1000/wk enefits! DialogueDirect's teams work to support ninent world charities. T, seasonal/perm., career . 508 532-0674. www.dia- ejobs. com.

ATTORNEY

RAGAB & ssociates, LLC

Beacon Street, Suite 200
Boston, MA 02114

gab & Associates, LLC a general law practice ocated in downtown ston. Our firm focuses n estate planning, real estate, business law, kruptcies and domestic tions. Please contact us 617-523-3200.

BANDS/ NTERTAINMENT

KAHOOTZ

mmended by every major in Boston, Kahootz is New and's most exciting live for wedding receptions parties of all occasions. otz specializes in hip yet sticated live dance music Sinatra to Beyonce. Call us r party deserves the best ! Free 877-777-6856 or kahootz.net.

DAY SPAS

BETTER PLACE TO BE SPA-CHARLESTOWN

wbury Street Experience at borhood Prices. Massage, s, Manicures & Pedicures, ical Peels, Magic Tan Spray ng Booth. Gift Certificates able. Open Wednesdays- ys. www.abetterplaceto t. 617-241-8900.

DY RITUALS DAY SPA

ng services including mas- therapy, body treatments, ssure, reflexology, ultra & photo facials, laser hair val, natural nail services. lizing in bridal makeup & lorette parties. Located just e Wellington Circle at 269 desex Ave in Medford. 95-4488 www.bodyrituals a.com. Open 7 days a week parking.

ETIQUETTE CLASSES

INCREASE CONFIDENCE!
Etiquette Made Easy for Children and Young Adults
Choose from any or all of the following Social Etiquette, Communication Skills, Table Manners. Classes are forming now in Brookline, MA and are arranged by age group. Ages 5-18 are welcome
contact
etiquettemadeeasy@yahoo.com
617-276-2082

HEALING

NE Medical Massage Therapy
Do you suffer in pain?
Massage • Reiki • Acupuncture
Repetitive Stress & Chronic Injuries
Located at Harvard Vanguard Medical Associates
147 Milk Street, 7th floor, Boston
617.769.0101
Next 12 hr. Reiki 1 Class
Monday, April17 10am-6pm
Monday, April 24 10am-2pm
Maxine Bornstein RN, MS
Reiki Master / Teacher / Holistic Nurse
508.292.5258
www.reikibythe sea.com
www.nemedicalmassage.com

TERRY PORTER, MEDIUM/SPIRITUAL HEALER

Providing love, guidance, & healing to help find the answers you seek. Call Terry at 781-331-4441 or e-mail porterTAP@aol.com for information or to schedule an appointment.

MASSAGE BODYWORK FOR WOMEN

Luxurious Tantric bodywork channels soothing energy thru sensual meridian nurturing body and soul. Exhilarating relaxation; mind-body equilibrium. By certified therapist. Sliding-scale rates. 857-526-6791. tantricway@hotmail.com.

PERMANENT COSMETICS

PET GIFT BOUTIQUE

Cause to Paws

Gifts for pets... and people that love them
www.causetopaws.com
1-617-738-PAWS
Toys, Treats, Clothing & Accessories
1386A Beacon Street
Brookline, MA
02446

PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE

A UNIQUE HOME DETOX℠
FOR DRUGS AND ALCOHOL
PRIVATE AND CONFIDENTIAL
PHYSICIAN DIRECTED
COVERED BY MOST INSURANCE PLANS
ADDICTION RECOVERY
1-800-770-1904
(24 hours)

PSYCHIC

READINGS BY MICHAEL LAFFERTY

Private and personal phone readings. Credit cards accepted. 215-482-6517.

REAL ESTATE

THE ULTIMATE LIFESTYLE

10 Florence at Central Place Apartments has just OPENED! This brand new community will provide you with modern cutting-edge living within a brief walk to the MBTA. High end living without the Boston price! Visit us at www.centralplaceapartments.com or call 781-321-5454.

EXPERIENCE LUXURY LIVING

Spacious 3 Bedroom PH apartment homes. Spectacular views & amenities. Stainless appliances/granite kitchen/new baths. Contact Kim at 617-973-2206.

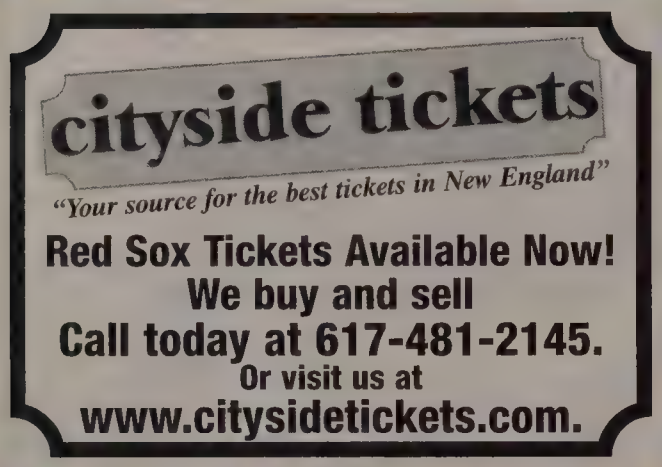
YOGA STUDIO

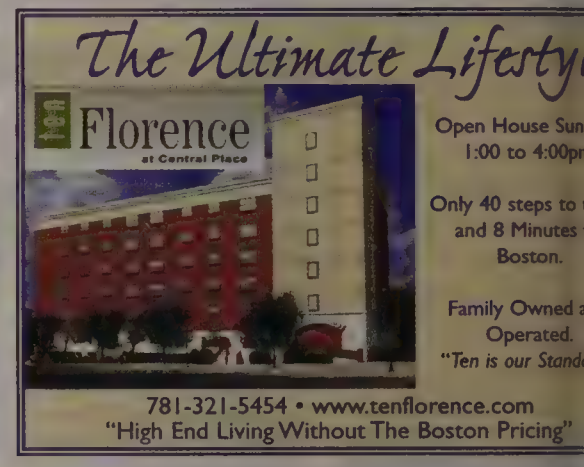
SOL Y LUNA YOGA STUDIO-ROSLINDALE

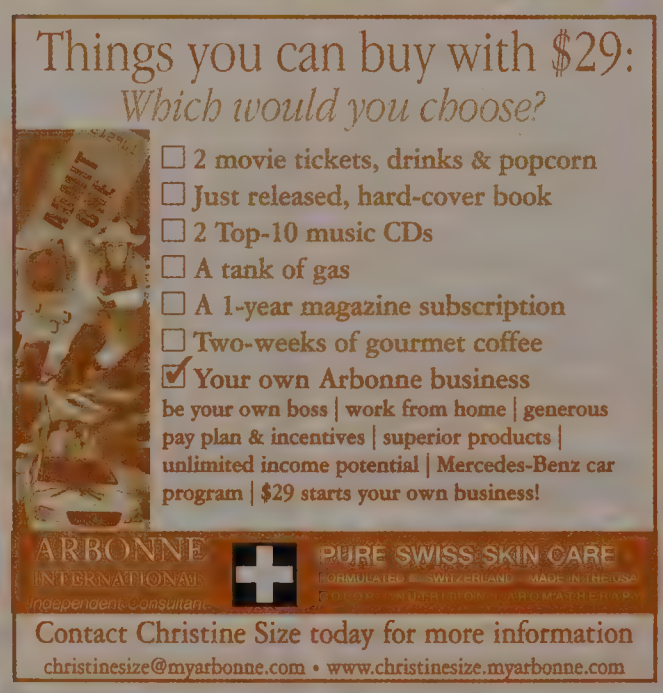
Great membership offer! 90 days unlimited classes for $95. Drop-in class rate $15/class. A variety of yoga styles taught by experienced,compassionate, instructors. All levels welcome especially beginners. Visit www.roslindaleyoga.com or call 617-363-YOGA for more information. Come practice yoga with us!

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians







To advertise in the Improper Shopper
call 617-859-1400 x 269

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

Federation for Children with Special Needs

SPRING GALA 2006

Silent Auction and Elegant Dinner

April 28, 2006
Seaport Hotel - Boston
Six O'Clock P.M.

Master of Ceremonies: Paul La Camera
General Manager of WBUR-FM
Entertainment provided by the Boston City Singers

HONORING PROFESSOR THOMAS HEHIR
DIRECTOR, SCHOOL LEADERSHIP PROGRAM
HARVARD GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

TICKETS: $150

For more information please call 617-236-7210, ext. 374 or email bheraty@fcsn.org.
Visit our website: www.fcsn.org

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

At the ICA, top row: Anja Kola and Coco Grace; Middle row: Tristan Govignon; Fritz Klaetke and Lev Glazman. Bottom row: the party

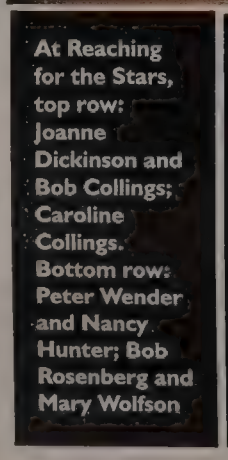
THE END IS NEAR...

The last blowout to be held at the Institute of Contemporary Art on Boylston Street before it moves to its swanky, spankin' new digs on the waterfront was the third annual Ultimate Mixer (an evening of networking and art) hosted by the New Group, a well-connected crew of young supporters.

The fresh-faced and fashionable crowd, who used straws to sip sparkling white wine out of cute little pink cans, included the likes of arts booster Randace Rauscher-Moore, hunkalicious painter/sculptor Tristan Govignon, the painfully beautiful Coco Grace, Arctic blonde art dealer Anja Kola, yoga goddess Bethany Cantin, interior design avatar Suzanne Logan squired by the super-suave Lysle Wickersham, private equity hottie Steve Marchant, bath and body mogul Lev Glazman, the hale and hearty Fritz Klaetke, and so on and so forth, down the list of everyone in town you've ever wanted to look like, dress like, sleep with or be friends with.

Perhaps to get people psyched for the gigantic new museum, the organizers created the logistical hassle of putting the coat check, bar and buffet all in the same cramped space, but once past that unpleasantness, everyone seemed to enjoy themselves thoroughly.

Everyone, that is, except for one traditionalist, who moaned, "Wine in a can? The apocalypse is here."



At Reaching for the Stars, top row: Joanne Dickinson and Bob Collings; Caroline Collings. Bottom row: Peter Wender and Nancy Hunter; Bob Rosenberg and Mary Wolfson

SIMON COWELL, EAT YOUR HEART OUT...

At the aptly named gala Reaching for the Stars, you could have reached right out and pinched one (or at least a star-in-the-making). In fact, it's anyone's guess how the Boston Conservatory managed to cram all that talent into the ballroom of the Seaport Hotel, but somehow they did.

Combining a few of our favorite things—shopping and booze—the cocktail reception included an eye-popping silent auction, followed by an elegant dinner during which Dance Division director Yasuko Tokunaga was honored and students from the school performed (prompting one guest to say, "That was better than the last five things I've seen on Broadway").

Present and accounted for: cochairs Caroline Collings and Charlotte Prescott Newton, the school's president, Richard Ortner, banking babe Dora Lewin (whose husband, Michael, heads up the school's piano program but who was off performing with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra that evening), musical eminence Peter Wender, delectable socialite Joanne Dickinson, the swanlike Mary Wolfson with Mr. Dunkin' Donuts, Bob Rosenberg, Celebrity Series head honcha Marti Jones, art dealer Robert Vose, and soignée trustee Mimi Hewlett, who summed up the caliber of talent the school attracts by saying, "I think about how if, at any point in my life, I had applied to this institution, I would not have been accepted."

Putting it another way, Richard Ortner pointed out, "I think it's safe to say that we're the only school in the country with finalists in both the Metropolitan Opera's regional competition and American Idol."

At Emerge, top row: Laura Herald and Conrado Bondo Gus and Joyce Hampers. Bottom row: Richard DeAgaz and Shannon Asimus; Carolyn Kaelin

YOU CAN TAKE THE GIRL OF CAMBRIDGE...

Newbury Street's newest day spa, th speakably luxurious Emerge, held a gant, invitation-only VIP opening to the Quality of Life Program at Bri and Women's Hospital.

Seen wandering among the four devoted to the ultimate in pamp were such recognizable faces as go M.D. Carolyn Kaelin, the spa's c Joyce Hampers, and her dapper half, Gus, its designer, Lucie chemin, with artsy couple Eliot W and Raphael Jaimes-Branger, Ba dowager empress Smoki Bacon a royal consort, Dick Concannon, Ch cutie Lydia Kimball, superlatives.co styles editor Laura Herald and he Conrado Bondoc, investment Richard DeAgazio, the babe-a Siobhan McCourt, fashion designer Jaq'lyn and her affable other half, G Brown, and one guest who said look tan. Where were you?" to whi friend replied, "My bathroom. It's makeup."

However, the evening's snarkies ment came when one woman said, took the T over from Cambridge," p ing someone to mutter facetiously, the Birkenstocks and socks? I would've guessed." IB

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion? Call J.S. at 859-1400, ext. 303, or e-mail jonathan@improper.com.

PARTIES, PEOPLE & PLACES

On March 5th, The Ellie Fund hosted Oscar Night America at the State Room in Boston. Event Emcees were Comedian Lenny Clark and Miss USA 2003 & MTV host Susie Castillo.

Taunton Area School To Career held it's 10th Anniversary Celebration "A Journey to Tomorrow", on Saturday, February 11 at LeBaron Country Club in Lakeville.

GREY GOOSE®
World's Best Tasting Vodka

THE WORLD'S BEST COSMOPOLITAN
STARTS WITH GREY GOOSE L'ORANGE.

GREY GOOSE
World's Best Tasting Vodka

SIP RESPONSIBLY.

GREY GOOSE AND GREY GOOSE AND DESIGN ARE REGISTERED TRADEMARKS. ©2005 IMPORTED BY GREY GOOSE IMPORTING COMPANY, MIAMI, FL. ORANGE FLAVORED VODKA 40% ALC. BY VOL.

www.greygoosevodka.com

GREEN DESIGN · LOVE NESTS · SLEEK KITCHEN TOOLS

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN®

METRO BOSTON'S CONSTRUCTIVE GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND HOME SWEET HOME

E/WORK
FT
THE UTH END

HOMES

MAY 3–16, 2006
$2.50 OUTSIDE OF METRO BOSTON
0 74470 79832 3 20
www.improper.com

Ask the Bartender to Set You Up with Someone Smooth

New Heineken Premium Light

Heineken
PREMIUM
LIGHT

heinekenlight.com

Enjoy Heineken Light Responsibl

©2008 Heineken USA inc, White Plains, NY. Heineken Premium Li

WHY REGATTA?

Because Regatta offers you something truly unique and exclusive to come home to.

One bedrooms from $350s
Two bedrooms from $450s

Pricing includes one parking space

Business Center
Entertainment Suite
Fitness Center
Pool & Whirlpool
Private Theater
Shuttle Service
Tillinger's Concierge
Valet Parking

Phase II units just released - Incredible new pricing! Open until 8 pm Tuesday evening!

REGATTA
RIVERVIEW RESIDENCES

Twelve Museum Way • Cambridge
617.475.2900 • www.regattaboston.com

enter open Mon, Wed and Thurs 10-6, Tues 10-8, Fri 10-5, Sun 11-6, or by appointment. Closed Sat.
Complimentary sales center valet parking. Broker participation welcome.
On site financing available. Owned by Regatta Riverview, LLC.

SCENT
GHTS
DOMINIUM LEADER

Atlanta • Boston • Chicago • Dallas • Honolulu • Los Angeles • Miami
New York • Palm Beach • Philadelphia • San Francisco • Tampa • Washington DC WINNER NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT FIRM OF THE YEAR

CONDOSOURCE MORTGAGE

"...the pizza is to die for; you could faint just describing the flavor of the sauce, and the crust puts you over the edge."

— Jack Welch, Winning

20 Charles Street, Beacon Hill
617.723.9600

286 Harvard Street, Coolidge Corner
617.734.4900

611 Duval Street, Key West, Florida
305.293.8890

41 Waltham Street, Lexington
781.274.0089

NOW OPEN:
222 Newbury Street, Back Bay

OPENING SOON:
73 South Street, Hingham

Catering menu available online:
www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

Jordan Tobins
— Owner, founder

BOSTON'S BEST 2005
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza, Nouveau

BOSTON'S BEST 2004
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza

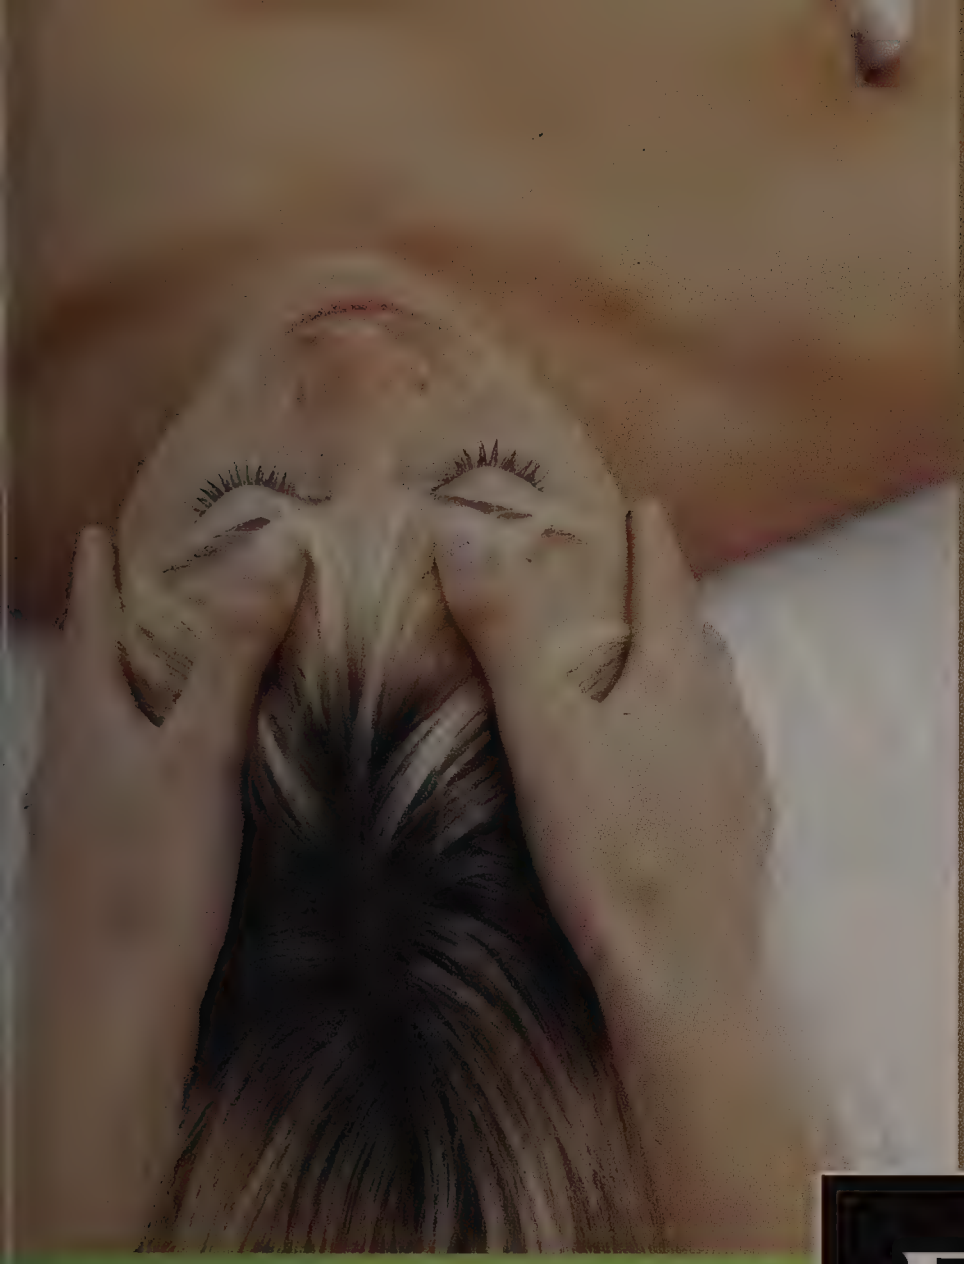
the Upper Crust
Boston · Brookline

Boston - 20 Charles St.
Boston, MA 02114
Phone: 617-723-9600
Fax: 617-723-6685

Brookline - 286 Harvard St.
Brookline, MA
Phone: 617-734
Fax: 617-739-5

www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

FREE DELIVERY



SAUNA

STEAM

VIP SUITE

MEN'S CLUB

VALET PARKING

FIRESIDE LOUNGE

CAFE AND JUICE BAR

ROOF GARDEN LOUNGE

MEI MEDICAL SPA AT EMERGE

EMERGE LIFESTYLE RETAIL SHOP

EMERGE'S EXCLUSIVE WATER RITUAL

WOMEN'S AND MEN'S LOCKER ROOMS AND WAITING AREAS

YOUR MOTHER'S SPECIAL DAY GIVE HER THE ATMENT OF HER DREAMS...THE LAVENDER DREAMS
IMATE EXPERIENCE. FOR 90 MINUTES SHE CAN AX DREAMS OF LAVENDER FIELDS KISSED BY THE NCH SUN ENVELOP HER SENSES, AS SHE DRIFTS ON /ES OF BLUE. BREATHE DEEP, INHALE THE CALMING AND ANCING BENEFITS OF LAVENDER IN THIS COMPLETELY
IFTING AND REJUVENATING SPA EXPERIENCE WHICH LUDES A TWO STEP INVIGORATING FULL BODY SCRUB, A RM WRAP AND A FULL BODY MASSAGE.

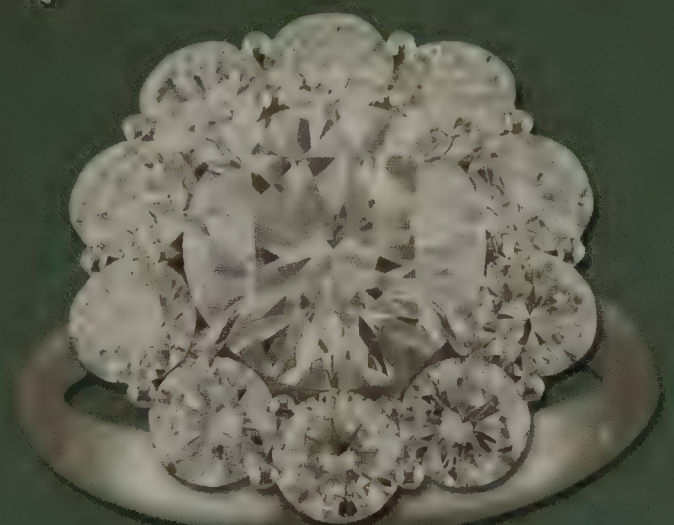
E|M|E|R|G|E

BY GIULIANO

STON'S ONLY URBAN RESORT DESTINATION SPA

5 NEWBURY STREET 617.437.0006
W.EMERGESPASALON.COM

Annual Mother's Day Extravaganza Sale



EVERYTHING IN STOCK
50% OFF*

FOUR DAYS ONLY!

Wednesday, May 10 through Saturday, May 13

DAVID & COMPANY

SELLERS & COLLECTORS OF BEAUTIFUL JEWELRY

617-969-6262 ❖ 1-800-328-4326

www.davidandcompany.com

*Not to be combined with any other offer.

MONTAUKSOFA

ewyork51mercerst.t:+212.274.1552
icago401northwellsst.,suite108At:+312.951.5688 nfrancisco581hayesst.t:+415.552.0930
ston52boylstonst.t:+617.338.8400

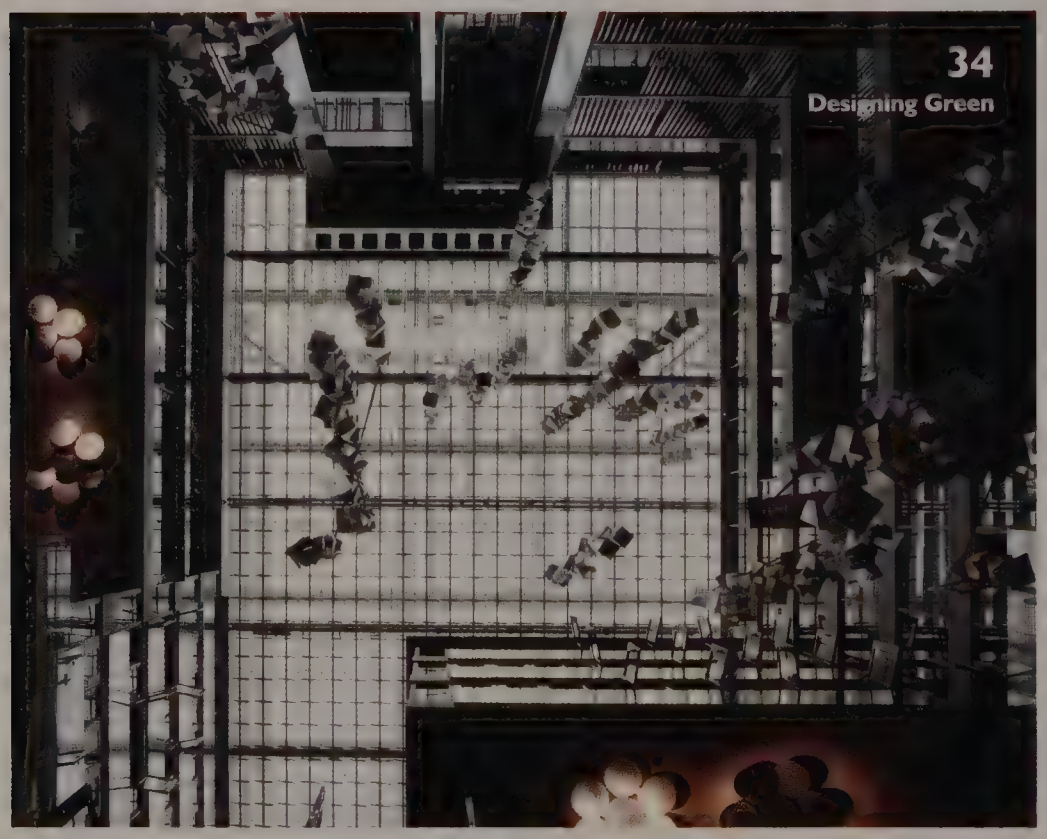
Let's tauk

ontrealnewyorktorontochicagovancouversanfranciscocalgaryboston

.COM

contents

MAY 3–16, 2006



JONAS KAHN

FEATURES

24 SOROFF/ON EDDIE ANDELMAN
The godfather of sports talk radio chats about the controversy over Ted Williams' body, his favorite Boston sports team and the most overrated athlete in town.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

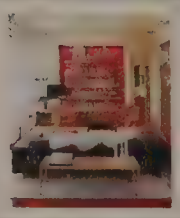
26 THE WORKING LIFE
The true story of a South End loft renovated (on time and under budget) as a colorful space to live and work.
BY REGINA COLE

32 THE MODERNIST'S KITCHEN
Ten appliances that will take your household into the 21st century.
BY MARNI KATZ

34 DESIGNING GREEN
A beginner's guide to environmentally conscious housing.
BY COURTNEY HUMPHRIES

38 YOUR PLACE OR MINE?
How to create a killer apartment that won't kill your love life.
BY RICH LEVINE

40 NEW FRONTIERS
Fashion makes a return to dressy.
PHOTOGRAPHED BY TIFFANY WALLING MCGARITY AND JOHN MCGARITY



Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by John Horner

Sheepskin throw: Design Within Reach; flowers: Twig

COLUMNS

12 THE WORD
Dante; Finale; Augusten Burroughs.

16 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured.
BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

18 EZRA
Damn you, Al Roker.
BY EZRA DYER

20 THE COLLINS CARD
They've got it figured out at Fenway.
BY CHRIS COLLINS

22 THE DANCE
A Mother's Day memo.
BY JOHN D. SPOONER

46 MOPSY
Sanford Kreisberg; Maybe Baby; Freddy Farkel's Fabulous Fabrics.
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

63 MOVIES
American Dreamz is a satirist's nightmare.
BY PAUL SHERMAN

68 MUSIC
Umphrey's McGee serves up eclectic jams.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

104 LAST SCENE HERE
Our Man in Black Tie hits up the Life Savor at the Langham.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT. DRINK.

48 DINING
Café St. Petersburg is a suburban sensation.
BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI

50 TASTINGS
Fireside Chats and other tasty tidbits.
BY RICH LEVINE

51 DISH
Ten Tables puts a little punch in its kitchen.
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

52 WINE
Not every rosé has a thorn.
BY SANDY BLOCK, M.W.

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from the Calendar Gurus, Leslie and Rich.
Complete listings follow page 55.
The Gentlemen • Dave Attell • Cleopatra • Elvis Costello a the Boston Pops • Cinco de Mayo celebrations

ET CETERA

Letters
Improper Sightings
Rockie Horoscope
Improper Impersonals

Guaranteed Rate Base 85,000 biweekly;
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XV, ISSUE 9

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by
Improper Publications Inc.

POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

STOLICHNAYA
Stoli Blueberi
BLUEBERRY FLAVORED
RUSSIAN VODKA
Stolichnaya Blueberi Flavored Russian Vodka. 35% Alc./Vol. Vodka Distilled From Grain. ©2006 Imported by Pernod Ricard USA, White Plains, NY Visit Stoli.com
FROM THE MAKERS OF THE WORLD'S BEST VODKA*
BEST CHILLED
Stoli
GENUINE RUSSIAN VODKA
DRINK RESPONSIBLY.
aya 80 Proof. Best in Show, 2005 San Francisco World Spirits Competition

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian

EDITOR Veronica Chao

MANAGING EDITOR Erin Graham

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

FEATURE WRITER/COLUMNIST Ezra Dyer

ASSISTANT EDITORS Leslie Kilgore, Rich Levine

COPYEDITORS Nathaniel Adams, Linh Tran

CONTRIBUTING FASHION EDITOR Victor Vargas

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Chris Collins, Carolyn Faye Fox, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, Laurel Kirtz, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, Paul Sherman, John D. Spooner

EDITORIAL INTERNS Jenny Amaral, Jaclyn Biederman, Casey Dunphy, Courtney McClellan, Paola Moll, Cristina Velocci

ART DIRECTOR Carolyn Bowes

PHOTO EDITOR Katie Noble

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett Hurley

PHOTO INTERNS Lindsay Maiorana, Brittany Oldham

NEW-BUSINESS DIRECTOR Julie Kane

SENIOR ACCOUNT MANAGERS Dana D'Alfonso, Alison Morant, Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Bill Eppich, Georganna Yessaian

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Jessica Federico

ADVERTISING/PROMOTIONS DESIGN DIRECTOR Julie Betters

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS Stacey Shane

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Fred Alce, Amanda Arkins, Sara Hebard, Danielle Keith, Auric Mak, Cynthia Mooradian, James Nelson, Mayra Rivera,

PRODUCTION MANAGER Merinda Pattullo

V.P. ADMINISTRATION & FINANCE Arthur Souza

LEGAL COUNSEL John S. Day, Esq.

GENERAL MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian Miller

OFFICE MANAGER Gretchen Bostrom

SALES ASSISTANT/RECEPTIONIST Nicole Zoto

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400 Fax: 617-859-1446
E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc. Copyright©2006 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member

Audit Bureau of Circulations

MEZZ ULTRA LOUNGE
FOXWOODS RESORT CASINO

RESTAURANT LEVEL OF GRAND PEQUOT TOWER

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

ON THE HOMEFRONT

In our quest for the perfect cover story for this year's Homes issue, we looked at a ton of Boston living spaces—and stopped as soon as we found photographer Kent Dayton's South End loft. The 1,500-square-foot space, which serves both as Dayton's office and as home to him and his fiancée, is striking, colorful and remarkably space-efficient. What's more, the design and buildout happened on schedule and under a tight budget. Writer Regina Cole tells you how they did it, and photographer John Horner records the results. It's a blueprint for the perfect, and perfectly executed, home improvement project.

Stories on green design (what it means and who's doing it in Boston), making your apartment romance-ready, and the coolest-looking kitchen gadgets round out our features. For eye candy of a different sort, check out Victor Vargas' latest fashion spread.

Veronica Chao

VERONICA CHAO, Editor
veronica@improper.com

FOOL'S GOLD

An issue devoted to "luxury" (April 19)? THE IMPROPER must be determined to take the fast track to total irrelevance. Or are you still in junior high school, where people actually think that stuff is way cool? This magazine used to be a fun read, informative and edgy; now it's simply boring. How sad. While you've got a fine and creative staff, it seems as though they aren't allowed to put out a wonderful magazine anymore, but have to be content with producing drivel. Too bad for them; too bad for us.

—PHYLLIS BROWNE
Boston

PISH POSH

I must admit, at first I chuckled while reading "How to Marry a Millionaire" (April 19). But on another level, I found it alarming. The article is all about how a girl should change herself to land some unsuspecting gentleman. "Learn the art of 'mirroring' your posh prospects," the authors advise. So we should just shelve our own interests and views in case they don't mesh with Joe Millionaire's? Though it's supposed to be satirical, the article merely perpetuates the idea that money equals happiness. I think you're promoting a dangerous cultural belief that money is everything, and that it's worth lying or changing who you are just for a few million.

—ANNE RUSH
Allston

CONTRIBUTORS

VICTOR VARGAS

Vargas has worked as a fashion stylist for 10 years. His work has been published in such publications as French Vogue, Paper, Blackbook and Ocean Drive, and he has styled such celebrities as Iman, Milla Jovovich, Isabella Rossellini, Christina Ricci and 50 Cent. He and his two dogs live in Boston and New York. His latest work for THE IMPROPER can be seen on pages 40-45.

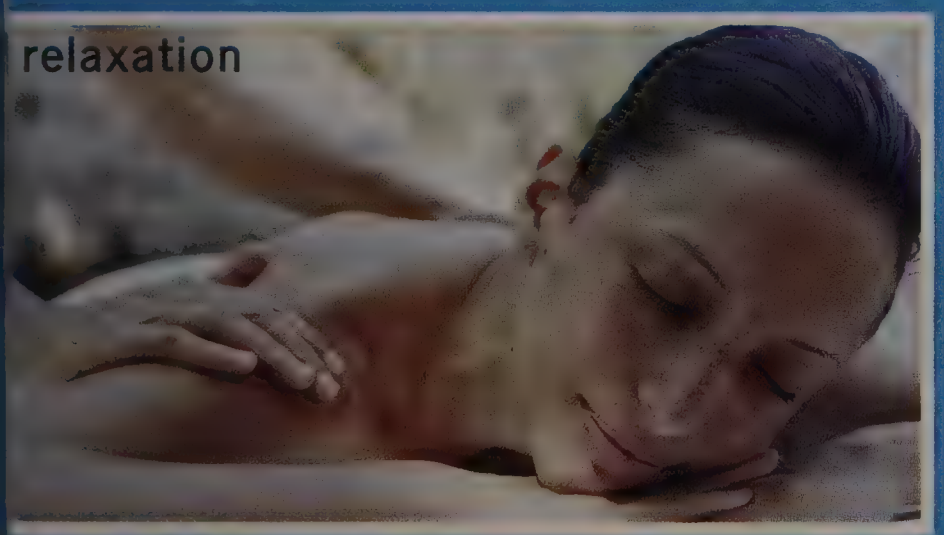
JOHN MCGARITY AND TIFFANY WALLING MCGARITY

Tiffany and John met in art school in Maryland and later moved to New York, where John completed an M.F.A. at the Pratt Institute and Tiffany worked as a photographer. They've been married for six years and have collaborated professionally for the last four. Their work has appeared in Surface, Desert Living and Avenue magazines. Their latest photographs for THE IMPROPER appear in the fashion spread on pages 40-45.

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

Now is the time to enjoy a 3 Day Guest Membership



Join Today

$0 Enrollment

Pass and offer expire May 23*

WELLBRIDGE
ATHLETIC CLUB

www.WellbridgeAC.com

Charles Square
617.441.0800
Bennett Street, Cambridge

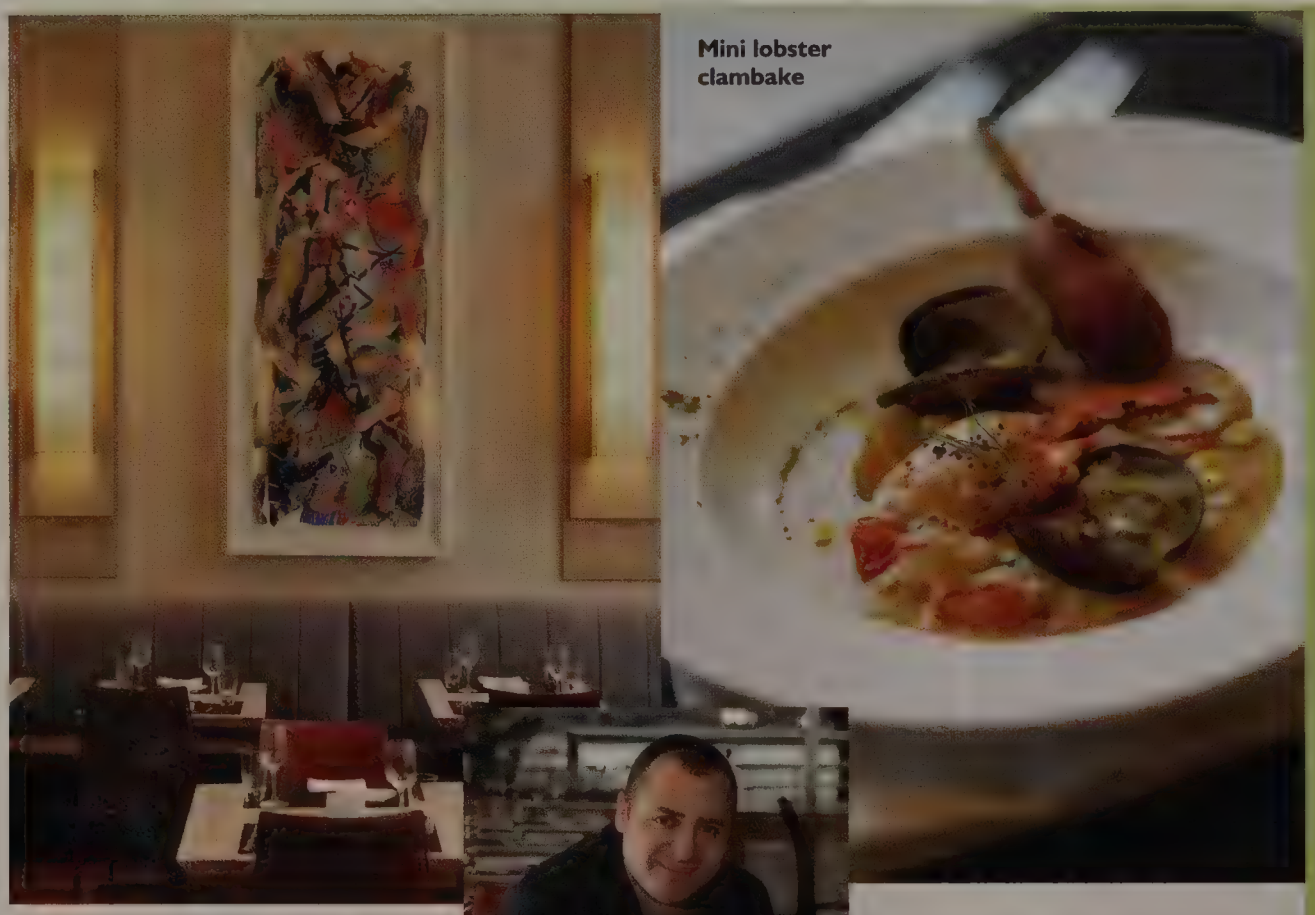
Commonwealth
617.254.1711
1079 Commonwealth Ave, Boston

Newton
617.928.2000
135 Wells Avenue, Newton

*ons may apply. Offer and pass expire May 23, 2006. Must be local resident, age 18 and over with valid photo ID. One pass per person. First time guests only. Amenities vary by club. ©2006 Wellbridge

THE WORD

EDITED BY ERIN GRAHAM



Mini lobster clambake

Dante de Magistris

NEW IN TOWN

Seeing Red

A precocious young gourmand, Dante de Magistris knew he wanted to open his own restaurant before he entered first grade. Now, at the tender age of 32, he's realized that dream. "I finally felt I was ready about four years ago," he says. "I looked at about 20 spaces but didn't find the right one until now." That space is the former home of Davio's in Cambridge's Royal Sonesta Hotel, and the restaurant, which opened in mid-April, is called Dante.

To shape the new space, de Magistris enlisted the help of designer Dennis Duffy, and the result is a warm but minimalist series of connected rooms—two main dining areas, a huge bar and two lounge spaces, plus a balcony and patio—that are a far cry from the ultra-upholstered hotel dining cliché. You can't hear the name Dante without thinking Inferno, so the restaurant's red color scheme seems particularly fitting, and, best of all, many seats offer views of the Charles—a rarity on the Boston dining scene.

De Magistris, who's manned the kitchens at the Fed, Cafe Louis (now L), Pignoli and Blu, says he plans to have fun with his menu of Mediterranean-inspired food. He'll especially toy around with unusual ingredients in the small plates ($7-$12) that he named Play Pens. For now, selections include dishes like escargot with truffle-whipped potato spuma, candied lemon and garlicky crumbs; and iced kumamoto oysters with pomegranate gele, shallots, chardonnay vinegar and crispy rice. His entrées have playful ingredients, too: The porcini-crusted scallops ($29) come with truffled tapioca, fava purée and soft Vidalia onions, and the braised veal breast ($29) is presented with fresh shell beans, warm green bean salad, and orange-and-olive vinaigrette. Pastry chef Dan Morley's confections include the crazy chocolatey tarte with toasted polenta cake, mascarpone and an orange-brandy reduction.

While de Magistris plans on constantly changing the menu, he also wants to keep some dishes constant—namely the cremini and zucchini salad ($12) he took with him from Blu, and his potato gnocchi appetizer ($11). The cheesy blend of pillowy pasta is his grandmother's recipe, which he mixes with seasonal ingredients like sweet peas and fava beans.

Dante's still fine-tuning a few things. Plans are in the works for a live DJ or band on the weekends; for now, you'll hear mixes that spin-doctor DJ Felix has put together. 5 Cambridge Pkwy., Cambridge (617-497-4200). —E.G.

INNERVIEW

Augusten Burroughs

Augusten Burroughs is the author of Magical Thinking, Sellevision and Running With Scissors, the film versio which is due out this fall. He splits his time between W ern Mass. and New York. Burroughs is in Boston to r from his new book, Possible Side Effects, May 5 and 6.

Improper Bostonian: You were voted one of Americ Funniest People in Entertainment Weekly. Any secrets writing humorously?

Augusten Burroughs: You can't study it. I think yo funny or you're not. For me, it's an emotional reac to stress—it's the way I cope. I've always had an eye ear for the absurd and focus on the ludicrous and morous side of things. But I have a serious side, too: between darkness and grief.

IB: Were you involved in Running With Scissors the mo

AB: Ryan Murphy wrote the screenplay, and he di amazing job at keeping it close to the book. We sp every day about everything from the cast to the pro was blown away with the finished project. It's w seeing your life in a movie. Everyone's gorgeous.

IB: Actor Joseph Cross: Better- or worse-looking than yo a teen?

AB: Oh, much better-looking. And he's much m evolved than I was at that age.

IB: You're working on a memoir of your father, based or diaries found after his death. What's that like?

AB: It will be humorous, but absolutely terrifying devastating, too. We had a difficult relationship righ to his death, and he has to have his own book.

IB: How about tips on surviving in a dysfunctional fami

AB: No matter where you come from, in the end, make yourself happy and create your own reality. can't blame or regret your past, but accept it and m on to the future.

IB: How will the James Frey controversy affect the futu of memoirs?

AB: It'll blow over. It's hard to write a book, and it's lonely, especially a memoir. There's no way to forecast publishing trends, but I believe people will always be interested in memoirs, because we always want to hear others' stories. —Leslie P. Kilgore

White: If it were a unit of time it would be infinity. This most timeless and powerful color brings a sense of order + balance to any environment. It's the basis for all things modern and the color by which all other are judged. White slipcovers, when mixed with the rich finishes and warm tones found on our unpredictable collection of antique reproductions, become a soothing icon of pure indulgence and sophistication. Crisp and bold, our washable slipcovers are a comfortable solution for everyday luxury.

Featuring: the Grand armoire, Hudson sofa, Camp Hickory etagere, Scalloped and Turned tea table, Earl chair, Raj chair, and Rubix table lamp.

142 Berkeley St. at Columbus Ave.
Boston, MA 02116

617 266 0075 mitchellgoldboston.com
Gift registry & gift certificates available.

Mitchell Gold
+Bob Williams

BEST OF BOSTON 2005

IMPROPER SPEAKING

SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION

First Comes Love, Then Comes Marriage... Retail in the North End keeps on growing. The most recent addition to the 'hood is Bella Bambina, a children's clothing store with high-end duds for urbanite girls and boys. Owners Michael and Michelle Flanagan say they had no plans of leaving the city once their daughter was born, but wanted somewhere within walking distance to shop for her clothes. They opened about a month ago, with brands they feel will appeal to urban parents. Lines include Mortillo from Italy, Pampolina from Germany, Confetti from France, Cake Walk from the Netherlands, and American brands Vitamins and Baby Togs. They're open every day except Tuesday, which their sign informs is playground day. 425 Hanover St., Boston (617-722-6060).

Man Hunt... Male Encounters, Boston's longest-running all-male revue, has left the Palace Entertainment Complex in Saugus and taken up residence on Lansdowne Street. Now at the Lyons Group–owned club Embassy on Friday and Saturday nights, Male Encounters continues to draw squeals, especially from bachelorette parties. Admission to the bassy show ($25, or $29 for up-front seating) also gets you into the Modern, Avalon, and ID. Hardbodied men, if you think you've got what it takes, the show's looking few fresh faces, with a talent search on May 19. The grand-prize winner scores a year- modeling contract, $1,000 cash and, of course, a spot in the weekly show. 36 Lansdo St., Boston (866-400-MALE).

Just Bead It... Newton Centre's Piccadilly Square is crammed with boutiques, there's always room for one more. The new jewelry-and-home-accessories shop Be Pearl carries an assortment of high-end crafts that include vintage, one-of-a-kind and otic accessories from around the world, many with handpicked gems, beads and semi- cious stones. Swarovski crystal, Hill Tribe silver beads and African tribal beads are son their specialties. And owner Kinga Zielinska, a world traveler herself, offers a rang classes in making original accessories and jewelry. 1280 Centre St., Newton Centre (558-3577).

Kevin Chapman (left) and Jason Isaacs star in Brotherhood

Got Talent... Kevin Chapman his start in acting while workin Mayor Menino's cultural affairs partment in the early '90s; now headed for a big role on the s screen. The Dorchester native pears this summer in the juicy of a gangland boss in Showti new series Brotherhood, about brothers from a working-class family in Providence, R.I., who come entangled in a world of rupt politicians and local mobs You may recognize Chapman smaller roles in Mystic River, I Bedroom and The Cider House R to name a few. We're just gra for one more actor who'll ge accent right. www.sho.com.

—L.P.K.

FASH FLASH

Ultimate Eyewear

A great pair of shades can boost the coolness factor of almost any sc looking for some summertime action, but you must choose carefully or up the lonely guy on the beach. When it comes to brand recognition, can't go wrong with Ermenegildo Zegna, and their sunglasses have the ca of being a new line. The couture company, known for its high-end suits cently signed a deal with eyewear manufacturer De Rigo for a line of s shades that includes the classic Club; the hipster Nomad, which has pola lenses; and a sporty Highway line, as well as four other styles. The new l only in Zegna boutiques, and prices range from $240 to $335. 39 Newbur Boston (617-424-6657).

—E.G.

PROPER REPORTS

lother's Day Activities

is May 14, think outside the brunch box and consider spend- some quality time with mom at one of these events taking e around the city.

rnold Arboretum's Lilac Sunday

125 Arborway,
Jamaica Plain
(617-524-1718)

erennial favorite, Lilac day offers moms a place to ic, watch Morris dancing , of course, tour the blooming 's. Refreshments are available from m–4 pm.

Boston Bike Tour and Picnic

(617-308-5902)
www.bostonbiketours.com

four-hour, slow-paced tour takes rid- through the city to the JFK Library & eum. Once you arrive, moms get into the ry for half price. It's followed by a group pic- on the grounds overlooking the harbor.

Museum of Fine Arts Mothers Tour

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-732-3920)
www.bostonarttours.com

on Art Tours' Marina Veronica leads this 90-minute tour aintings and sculpture that commemorate the relationship veen moms and their children. Tickets run $50 for adults, 2 for teenagers, and free for children under 12.

Spark Craft Studios

50 Grove St., Somerville (617-718-9132)
www.sparkcrafts.com

crafts studio offers discounted classes on Mother's Day 2–5 pm. Moms and their families can choose from group- ing, jewelry or scrap-booking classes for $20 each (that's a discount). The price includes a lesson, supplies and refresh- ts. Registration is recommended.

Suites for Sweet Mom

emorial Hall, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222)
ah Jackson conducts the Pro Arte Chamber Orchestra's ner's Day concert, titled Suites for Sweet Mom. The or- tra plays works by Bach, Beethoven and Respighi. 3 pm. $48.

Swan's Café Afternoon Tea Tasting

64 Arlington St., Boston (617-654-1906)
www.bostonparkplaza.com

Park Plaza Hotel offers a Mother's Day three-course tast- f rare teas on May 13 and 14 at 1 pm. Mothers who attend special blend to bring home, as well as a gift. The tea tast- $26.50 per person, or $29.50 if you want to top it off with s of champagne. —Casey Dunphy

TASTY TIDBITS

Another Grand Finale

Third Time's a Charm... If you're a fan of dessert, then you're probably a fan of Finale, the dessert-centric restaurant currently serving up decadent confections in Harvard Square and at the Park Plaza in Boston. Here's the good news: Paul Conforti, president and cofounder of Finale Dessert Company, recently announced a third Finale location in Coolidge Corner, opening this summer. The two-story, 4,000-square-foot desserterie will be the largest member of the Finale fam, with an in-store bakery as well as a lunch menu of gourmet sandwiches, soups and salads. 1306 Beacon St., Brookline. www.finaledesserts.com.

Wine Winners... Are your taste buds sharp enough to distinguish a 2003 cabernet from a 2004 pinot? If so, we suggest you drive, or better yet, walk yourself over to the Four Seasons on Tuesdays for their summer-long 2006 Blind Tasting Contest. Each week from May 9 to August 8, Aujourd'hui at the Four Seasons hosts a blind tasting as part of their weekly tasting dinner ($45); on Aug. 15, winners from the 12 preliminary contests go head-to-head for the tasting title. The champ wins a free night's stay at the Four Seasons and brunch for two at Aujourd'hui. You can attend as many of the dinners as you like, but can only (officially) win once, unless you're a wine professional—you guys aren't allowed at all. For reservations, call 617-351-2296.

New Flavors... It was only last fall when Thierry Charles, head chef, general manager and part owner of the fondue bistro Wine Cellar, made some drastic changes, ditching the all-fondue menu to give diners a more diverse selection. Well, when Charles announced plans to unveil a new menu May 1, he took diversity to the next level. Along with traditional favorites like beef tenderloin fondue, seafood ravioli and rack of lamb, some of the more exotic highlights on his new menu include an alligator/rabbit/ostrich fondue, and—get this—a kangaroo steak. Now that's adventurous, mate! 30 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-236-0080). www.bostoncellar.com.

Back in Business... In 2004, the owners of the Joshua Tree restaurant in Somerville looked to branch out with a new eatery, Sauce, at 400 Highland Avenue. Only problem was, diners weren't too interested, leading to Sauce's demise. So this spring, the same owners scrapped the Italian eatery and opened a restaurant named after its location: 400 Highland. Led by chef Zachary Lord, the new eatery offers a California-Mediterranean–style menu featuring appetizers ranging from a chilled avocado soup ($9) to duck confit ($12) and entrées like a 12-oz. ribeye ($26), a pan-roasted halibut ($24) or a chicken Milanese ($17). 400 Highland is open daily for dinner and also offers Sunday brunch from 10 am–3 pm. 400 Highland Ave. Somerville (617-625-0200). www.400highland.com.

—Rich Levine

Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy news? Let us know what it is. Send an e-mail to theword@improper.com.

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY KERRY BRETT HURLEY

The first annual Greatest Party on Earth, a benefit f Artists for Humanity, was h at the Artists for Humanity Epicenter in South Boston Saturday April 22. More th 600 people attended.

1. Susan Rodgerson, executive/artistic director and founder of Artists For Human Pat Leahy, of the Boston Bruins, and Kathryn Nixon wife of Boston Red Sox' Trot Nixon
2. Alyssa Burrage, board member and chair of the even and Douglas Scott, student Harvard Business School
3. Kelly Outhouse, investmen specialist for Mellon Financial, Lisa Foertsch, occupational therapist for Aegis Therapies Melrose
4. Monica Matthews, Artists F Humanity board member, Robert Darcy, IS manager Staples, and Maria Richard associate at L'Attitude Gallery
5. Monica Stevenson, owner Homeward Images in Walpol Brianne Knorr, Artists for Humanity events coordinator Curt Stevenson, informatio technology consultant for Bac Bay Technologies
6. Jay Fitz, COO of Mercenary Audio, and Haidan Hodgso photographer for Artists for Humanity

Art in Bloom kicked off its 30th Anniversary Celebration at the Museum of Fine Arts on Saturday April 22, when more than 70 New England garden clubs gathered at the museum to create floral interpretations of works from the MFA's collection. Close to 600 partygoers attended.

7. Ryan Hurley, CRE Specialist for Boston Private Bank, and Caitlin Cannon, compliance specialist for Pioneer Investments
8. Rick Paiva, vice president of creative services for ESPN, and Shelby Hardy, clinical psychologist and doctoral student at Suffolk University
9. Bill Wheaton, professor of economics at MIT, and his wife, Liz
10. Joyce Amico, owner of Aspen Domain in Aspen, Colo., and Charles Malkemus, owner of Dr. Malkemus Dental Group
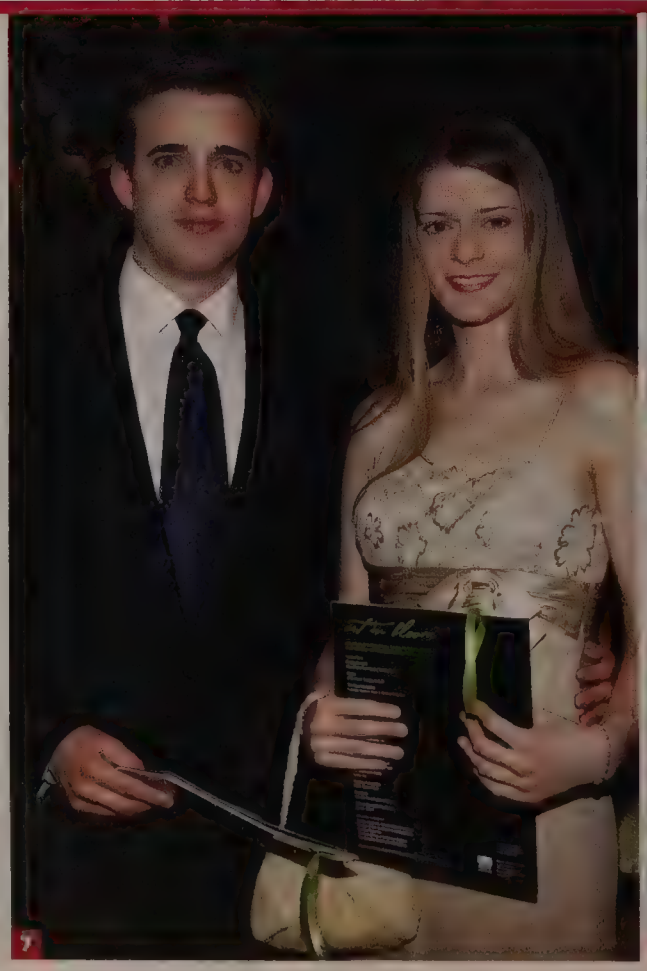
11. Annie Bickford, account coordinator at MNB, Jonathan Kearley, welder for Local 12, and Shana Pressman, account recruiting manager for Aerotek



LIVE WHERE CAMBRIDGE MEETS BOSTON

www.onefirst.com | 617.576.0111

one 1st
AMBRIDGE

It's much more than an address

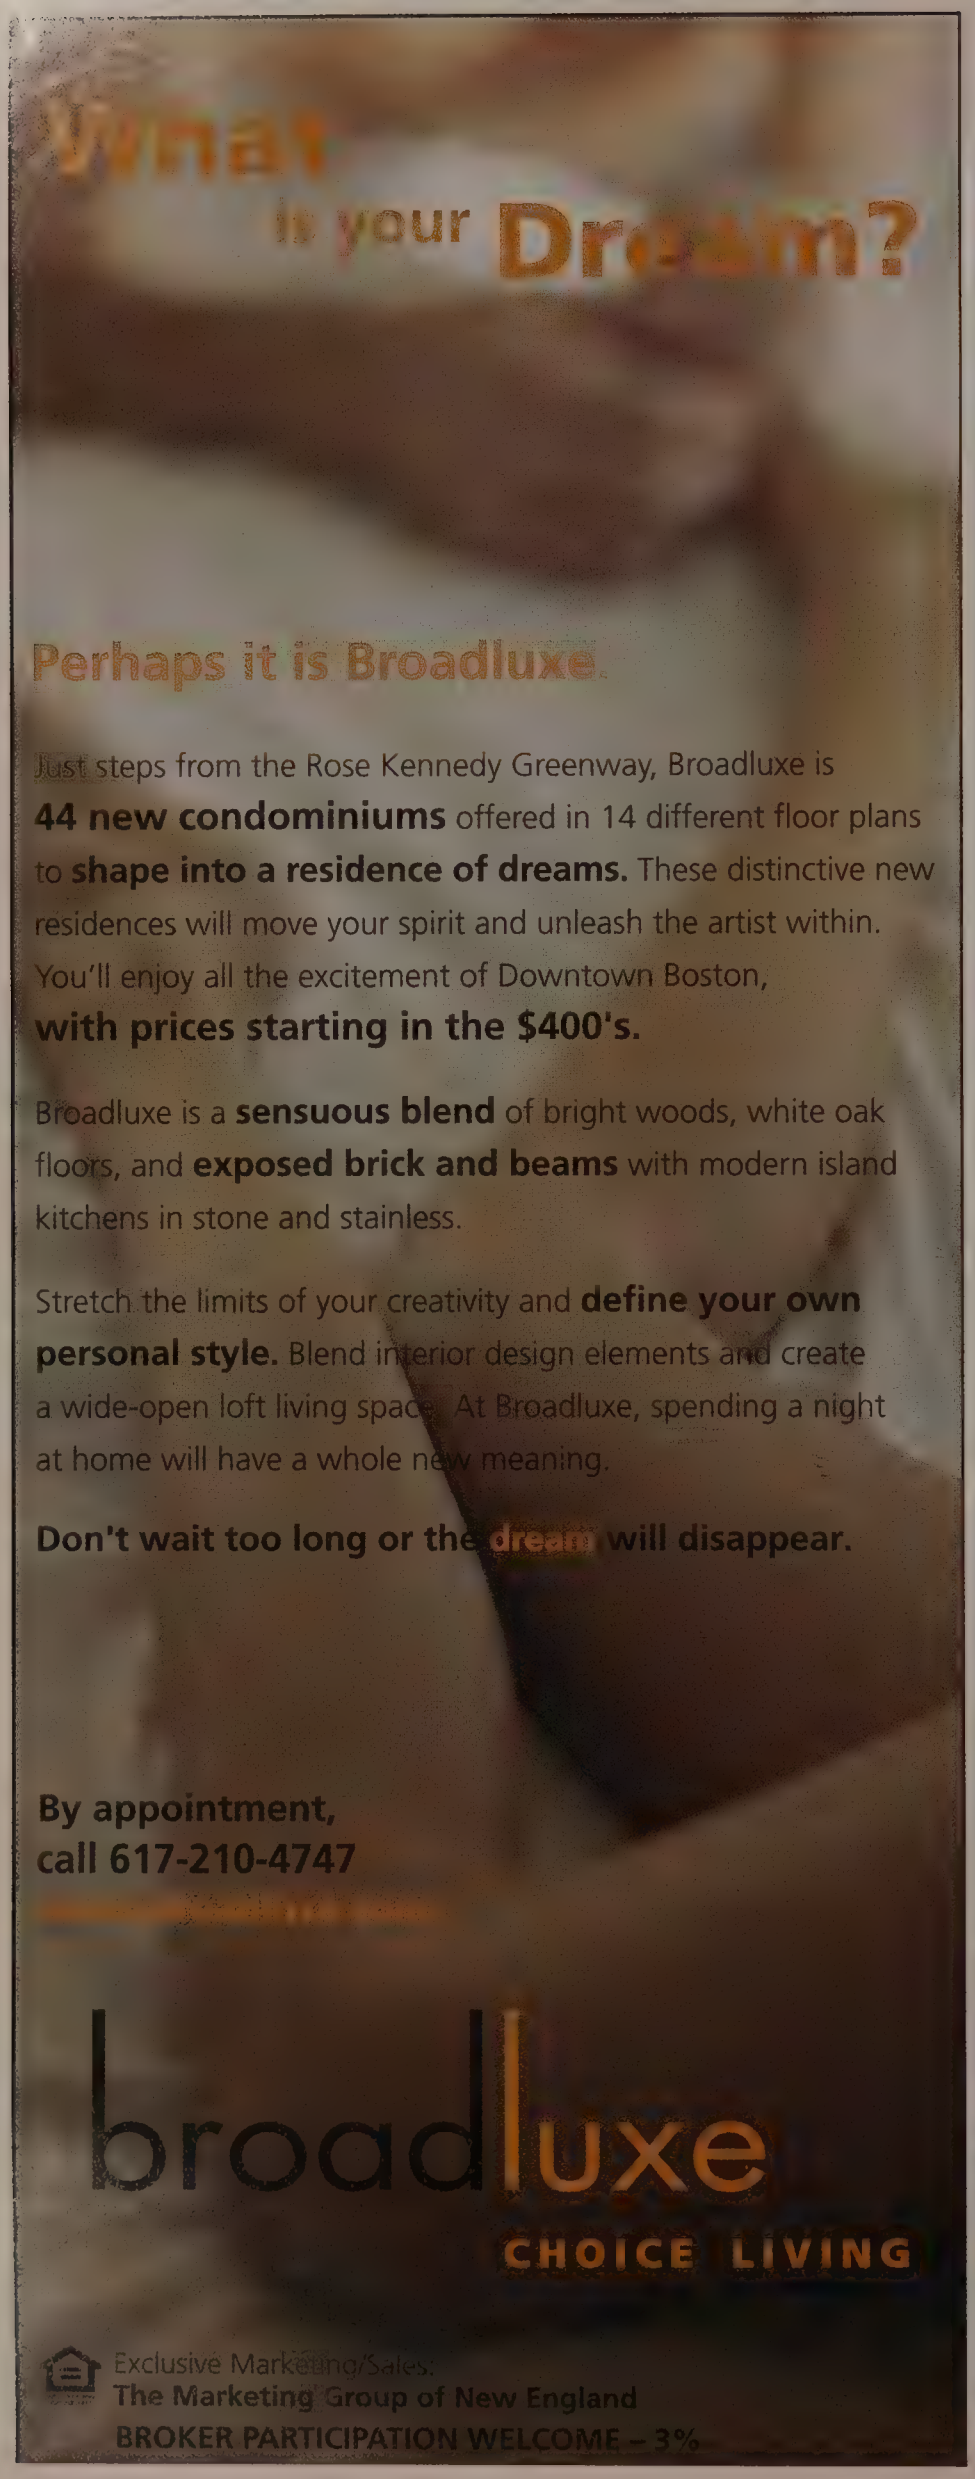
- 196 Homes
- 86 Floor Plans
- Garage Parking
- 24/7 Conciege Living

SALES CENTER 160 CAMBRIDGE ST. CAMBRIDGE

A joint venture of Leggat McCall Properties and ING Real Estate Development

EXCLUSIVELY MARKETED BY:

COLDWELL BANKER
RESIDENTIAL BROKERAGE



ezra BY EZRA DYER

ROKER'S REVENGE

On the Today Show, I at least did better than Tom Cruise.

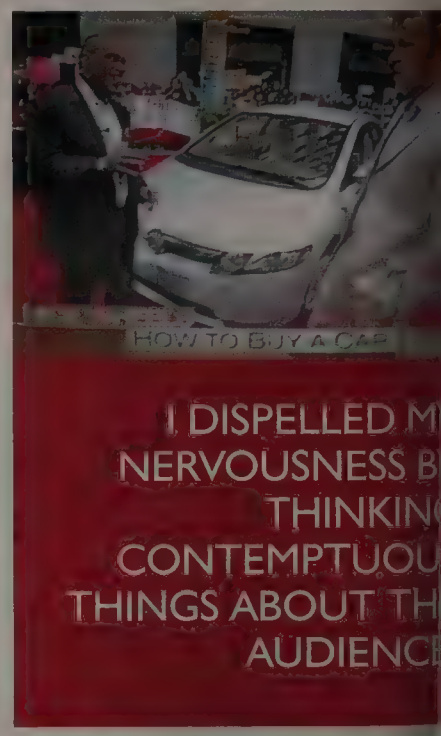
Last summer, I auditioned for a TV show in New York, then wrote a column about getting negged. I ended that column by vowing to someday usurp the job of a New York TV personality—namely, Al Roker. In an unlikely twist of fate, on a recent Friday morning I was a guest on the Today Show, where I was interviewed by none other than… Al Roker. How'd it go? Well, to reference another NBC program, My Name Is Earl, I think there may have been some karma involved.

I was invited on the show to talk about three cars featured in a story I wrote for Esquire. This, I figured, would be relatively easy—it's not like I was booked on The O'Reilly Factor to defend my advocacy of state-funded late-term abortions for illegal immigrants. Talking about how guys in their 40s buy Corvettes so they can date flight attendants—that I could do. For perspective, other stories slated to air that day included such hard-hitting pieces as, "Mastering the art of the artichoke," "Make an Easter basket with flowers" and "How to eat enough whole grains." Apparently, if you want to eat a lot of whole grains, there's more to it than finding some whole grains, putting them in your mouth, chewing and swallowing.

When I arrived at Rockefeller Plaza, I realized that this situation was perhaps more daunting than I'd expected. That fence that holds back the sign-wielding masses stretches for an entire block. Meanwhile, the other side of the carpet is populated by legions of cameramen, sound technicians, producers and security people. At the center of it all, under towering lights, are Matt Lauer, Al Roker and future primetime anchor Katie Couric. These aren't exactly the same circumstances that I work under when I'm writing, a process that's typically solitary and often pantsless.

At least my body did me a big favor in the confidence department and chose today to bestow upon my forehead a towering monument to clogged pores. About 15 minutes before air time, I was sent to the makeup room. I was about to tell the woman there to try to do something about the zitturat perched atop Mount Zitmore, but I needn't have asked—she went straight for it. So much for my idea that maybe it wasn't that obvious. After swabbing my visage with various powders while I made an expression like a cat getting its face shaved, I was turned over to the Hair Guy, who quickly concluded what I've known for years: My hair is about as cooperative as Saddam Hussein on the witness stand. It just sits there looking dumb and not being long enough to obscure forehead bo wondered, for the 3,152nd time that m ing, what I'd gotten myself into.

I headed outside to await my turn. As garded the crowd, I dispelled my nerv ness by thinking contemptuous things a the people pressed up against the ba "Who cares about these idiots?" I thou "They're a bunch of raging llama moles They should all shine my shoes and be bidden to look me in the eye." This is w told myself. You know, just to help get r the jitters. Not that I really think t things about those people. Not at all.



And 3…2…1… I was on. Al aske something about the Corvette, and began to respond, he turned his back started walking away from me. Damn y Roker and your trademark manic sty caught up with the deceptively quick F and managed a sentence or two abou next car before he once again decid flee. At the last car, a Honda hybrid, I talk about for at least 20 seconds, if onl cause this time Al had nowhere to run.

And then it was over. Hours of dri preparation and worry distilled down t than a minute on air. I thought I did OK when I looked on the Today Show archive, I saw that my segment wasn't the ones deemed worthy of posting. I that in the fast-paced world of morning vision, I haven't got what it takes to cor with whole grains and artichokes. IB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?

Send unbiased e-mails to ezra@improper.com.

Come On Down

A vehicle for every road you travel."

BOCH AUTOMOTIVE

781-769-8100 781-769-8100 781-619-6000 781-762-7200 781-440-0004 781-762-9110

On the Automile" Route 1, Norwood, MA Boch.com

THE COLLINS CARD

BY CHRIS COLLI

A STRONG FOUNDATION

Fenway is renovated, and so are the 2006 Red So

As I walked onto the field from the dugout for the Red Sox' 95th home opener, I looked up at the old .406 Club, and all of sudden it hit me. Red Sox management is smart. No, make that very smart.

Not so long ago, I was leading the charge of the Gang of Millions that wanted Fenway Park doled off to the Freedom Trail. The city would make millions off of tourists who, fresh from their rides on the duck and swan boats, would want to come see where Ted Williams, Roger Clemens and David Ortiz rocked our worlds.

How could any of us have thought differently? Baltimore had Camden Yards. Pittsburgh, Houston, Cincinnati and Seattle, among others, had their in-stadium restaurants, clean and gargantuan walkways and obstructed view–less seats.

At least that's what we were sold by the old, ownerless regime that ran the place after the death of Jean Yawkey.

Now the .406 Club's regular seats are taking in $275 per head. And they're sold out—for the entire 2006 season. I won't even mention the waiting list.

That gets me back to how smart the Red Sox front office is, and not just in making $275 seem a reasonable price to pay to watch a baseball game. They're smart because they've clearly learned from their mistakes.

And why wouldn't they? When they followed the formula for success, they ended an 86-year drought and threw a parade in Boston like none other.

The key is pitching. I know it's not a big surprise, but last year they got away from it. However, in the winter of 2006 they found it again. As we've learned from the Texas Hold 'em obsession, two aces are better than one. And Curt Schilling plus Josh Beckett is a combination that's World Series–worthy. Each has been there under baseball's biggest spotlight and has excelled.

One of the things that struck me this spring training was all the new faces on Boston's roster. Out of the 51 players who donned a Red Sox uniform last season, only 15 of them started this season with the team.

Some call that too much turnover. But I call it smart if it improves the team, and I think it has.

The Red Sox were good last year, at times very good. But you don't win the Big One unless have the Big Two. You need very good/great pitchers to win deep into the playoffs. Well, guess what: The Sox are built once again to succeed in the post-son party.

I have to admit, I still miss Pedro M tinez. And I'm not alone. Team capt and catcher Jason Varitek mentioned same thing this spring. Out of all the g he missed, the first one out of the capta mouth was a guy who left two years a The man was electric. He's a first-ba Hall of Famer, and Tek glows at the m mention of Pedro's name.

And as great as they've looked early it's not likely an older-Schilling–Bec combo will ever be the Schilling-Pe combo we saw in 2004. But upon furt review, it could be close.

As we saw in October 2004, putt Schilling and Pedro on the mound tw each during a seven-game series is abou good as it gets. Well, the whispers have ready started again, with Pedro repla with this kid Beckett.

AS WE'VE LEARNED FROM THE TEXAS HOLD 'EM OBSESSION, TWO ACES ARE BETTER THAN ONE

I'm not big on Beckett's mound anti like emotion, but Beckett is jump around in the third game of the season he's pitching in October. It's a little m But the bottom line is the results.

I guess I can live with a few too m third-inning fist pumps.

But Beckett has work to do. We mus member he's never pitched more than innings in a year. Health has been an ways will be an issue until he can g starts and win 20 games, like all of great ones do.

The key is not the third inning game in early April, but the eighth in of a game in late September, or even be October. If Beckett and Schilling, bot whom have injury-related question m hovering over them, are able to find th selves healthy come the playoffs, and World Series ring will be a probabilit stead of a possibility. IB

Chris Collins is a sportscaster for New Eng Cable News. Address sporting opinions an feedback to sportsdesk@improper.com.

ISN'T TECHNOLOGY

BEAUTIFUL!

YOUR FLAT-PANEL TV SPECIALISTS

Home Theatre Design & Installation

Huntington TV

RTE. 9, NEWTON • MON-FRI.10-6, WED 10-8, SAT 10-5

617-244-6800 • WWW.HUNTINGTONTV.COM

EST. 1927

THE DANCE

BY JOHN D. SPOONER

A Boy's Best Friend

A tribute to fussy mothers (and feisty aunts

Years ago a friend said to me, "You know, I always thought your mother's first name was 'For Christ's sake, Mother.' It's what you always say to her."

"It's because whatever she says to me, I have to answer that way."

"The zingers?" my friend asked.

"Yeah, the zingers. My mother is a total noodge. Funny, but a noodge."

After college, I had to move back home, having no money to be elsewhere. Whenever I was out at night, on a date or with friends, I'd drive up our steep driveway and see a cigarette burning in the window, attached to my mother's hand. Waiting for me.

I'd come in at midnight, or one, or two. There she was. "For Christ's sake, Mother," I'd say. She'd take a deep drag on her filtered Lucky Strike and say, "So, what's the scuttlebutt?"

She was a buddy to all of my friends, our kitchen a place of refuge for them.

"You don't have to get old," she'd tell me, "if you have friends of all ages. Swapping stories, telling and listening, is a big secret to life. Do you have to be dead if you're 50?"

"Good question," I thought, even though 50 then seemed like the end of the line.

Every family is a soap opera. I know people who haven't spoken to their mother in years, and others who speak to their mother multiple times a day. One friend, conditioned to hold daily conversations, once got so busy with her two small children that it was impossible to call her mother. The next morning, she rang her mom. Many rings. Finally, her mother answered in a chilly tone.

"Hi, Mom, it's me," my friend said. Silence. Then her mother said, "Hello, stranger."

"It's always the ice pick in the heart," my friend added.

Growing up, the only thing that was mandatory for boys to fight about was insults to one's mother. My friend Zeke had a famous fight, for two hours, on our dusty school playground in the eighth grade—because of a slur on his mother. "Your dad is a schmuck," was an insult that could be passed over, a quip thrown back. But dissing mom was a fighting offense.

Our daughter discovered a diary of my mother's, kept while she was in high school in the late 1920s, the golden age in America for sports, literature and the arts. One of my "flapper" mom's entries included this:

"More snow than you can possibly believe; drifts up to my chest. The boys and Pa put the chains on the Oldsmobile and off we went to school. We stopped m times to pick up kids walking and we en up with 12 in the car, everyone jammed to the roof, and all of us eventually sing songs like 'Tea for Two' and 'It Had to You' at the top of our lungs, with Pa sing louder than anyone. He's a tenor."

You're a lucky man if you have strong male role models—women who love but aren't afraid to tell you, as you grow that you're an idiot. My Aunt Marcia highly opinionated, a "liberated" wom before the term was invented who u words like "nobby" to signify "great." taught me at an early age about the Imp sionist painters, particularly Claude Mo and her lifelong ambition was to visit garden in Giverny. When I was in colle I'd have Aunt Marcia over for dinner cause she was so fascinating to me and roommates. She sounded like a Europ countess, which is what one of my roo mates called her. "Countess," he said, w she told us that every young person sho live abroad for a while, "I'm going to fi rich South American student whose da will give me a job down there."

"A nobby idea," she replied. "And w it happens, introduce me to the dad Aunt Marcia, years later, did get to Monet's garden, arriving at closing after a horrendous drive from Paris guard told her, "Fermé, Madame. Close

"Like hell it is," she said, and plo through Monet's house into the gard with several guards in pursuit. The dire had to be called. In French she told h "Monet would never allow a woman adores him to be turned away from his den. He would want to paint me."

"You had a long drive, Madame."

"One suffers to view beauty."

"Very French," he said to her. "Allow to give you a tour."

My mother and Aunt Marcia were friends and railed together at what thought were the declining levels of tast America. At my mother's funeral, her my father's special song was played, Ge win's "The Man I Love." Aunt Marcia big on the right send-offs in life. So a "How was it?" I asked about the ser wanting it to be perfect. "She was a cha ter," Aunt Marcia said, "and they sure write songs like that anymore." IB

John D. Spooner, an investment advisor, author and novelist. Contact him at thedance@improper.com.

FROM GAME ON!
TO THE
GREEN MONSTER

GIVING AWAY 2 TICKETS TO EVERY HOME GAME!
DRAWING IS DURING THE 2ND INNING AT GAME ON!

@ FENWAY PARK

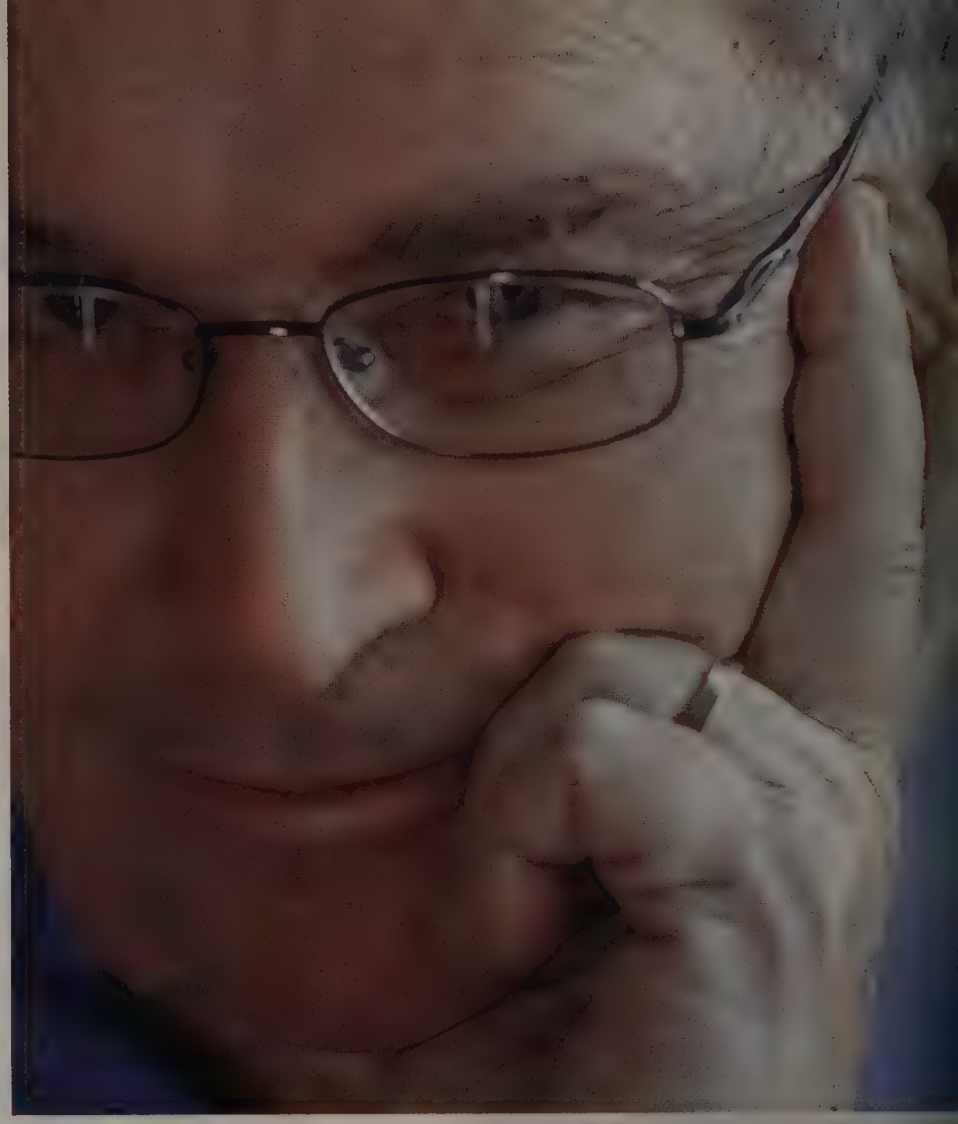
GAME ON!
SPORTS BAR FENWAY

82 LANSDOWNE ST BOSTON, MA | 617-351-7001 | WWW.GAMEONBOSTON.COM

Soroff ON

EDDIE ANDELMAN

BY JONATHAN SOROFF



Legendary sports broadcaster Eddie Andelman returned to Boston's airwaves in April with the new "Sports Huddle," which airs Sundays from 7-10 pm on 96.9 FM. Born in Dorchester, he moved to Brookline in his early teens and attended Brookline High School. He earned a BA and BS in accounting from Boston University, and an MBA from Northeastern. In over 35 years in sports talk radio, he hosted the first remote Super Bowl broadcast and 58 live World Championship fights from Las Vegas, and he's been heard on more than 60 stations nationwide. Credited with helping to discover Marvin Hagler and convincing Governor Weld to name the Ted Williams Tunnel after the legendary Red Sox slugger, Andelman has worked at Channel 7 and Channel 5 and been featured in Time, Newsweek and Sports Illustrated. A well-known philanthropist, he's been named Man of the Year by the Jimmy Fund, the Big Brother Association and the Joey Fund to Benefit Cystic Fibrosis, for which he created the Hotdog Safari, which has raised millions of dollars. The 17th annual event will be held June 4 at Suffolk Downs. He and his wife, Judy, have three sons, and currently live in South Boston.

Jonathan Soroff: You've been named Man of the Year enough times to fill a whole decade!

Eddie Andelman: I try very hard to keep the charity stuff low-key. Look: I married the fabulous Judy. I got three wonderful kids. My parents were with me until their late 80s, and I've always earned a nice living. Life's been good to me, so I try to give back as much as humanly possible.

JS: You're known as the Godfather of Sport Talk. Name one historic moment in sports you feel you effected.

EA: Well, I think this whole hate-the-Yankees thing started in 1971 on WBZ. It was sorta like a throwaway line. The Yankees had taken a beating, and I said, "That's great. One thing I always hated was the Yankees." And at the time, WBZ went to 38 states. This was before e-mail and before they recorded how many phone calls you got, but I literally got hundreds and hundreds of letters from people saying they hated the Yankees, so I knew I was onto something.

JS: Ever disappointed that none of your sons became pro athletes?

EA: Not at all. As a matter of fact, quite the contrary. They were told since a very young age that they're never going to inherit anything unless I see at least two degrees. I was second-generation. My grandparents barely spoke English.

"I'VE NEVER BEEN IN A LOCKER ROOM. I BUY MY OWN TICKETS. THAT'S THE WAY IT SHOULD BE."

JS: I take it they were Russian?

EA: Yeah. From Minsk. Y'know, it's funny. I once went with Kitty Dukakis and a group to Israel, and in Bethlehem, my wife pointed at a guy and said, "There's an Andelman." I said, "How do you know?" She said, "Well, he has no chin. He has no neck." Sure enough, he was from Minsk. My three boys are the only Andelmans who have necks.

JS: Ever bitch-slap Marvin Hagler?

EA: [Laughs.] Are you kidding? I'd run the other way. But y'know, Marvin is a very unique athlete. Very few people have ever walked away from boxing, but he saw the corruption, and he said he had enough when he lost the decision to Sugar Ray Leonard, which was a terrible decision. He's a loyal, honest guy.

JS: Favorite Boston sports team?

EA: Overall, during my lifetime, it would have to be the Celtics, but of course you have to love the Red Sox and the Patriots these last several years.

JS: Most money you ever won betting on a sporting event?

EA: It was at a racetrack. Three of us won $300,000. We were down in Florida, at Gulfstream, and it was one of the first days they ever had a trifecta. I can't tell you who the other two guys were, because one is a very famous writer for the Miami Herald and the other was an FBI guy. Unlike them, I put everything but $5,000 in the Hollywood Savings Bank, and we all went to the Bahamas to celebrate. Believe it or not, they had to borrow money from me to get back.

JS: Most memorable moment in Boston sports history?

EA: Well, I was lucky enough to be on the air when the U.S. beat the Russians in hockey, but of course, the Red Sox winning it all was the greatest. So was Marvin Hagler knocking out Tommy Hearn. And the Celtics were such a great franchise. I don't think anyone can ever match their run.

JS: Biggest crybaby in professional sports right now?

EA: Interesting question. There's so goddamn many of them. I think I'll have to say the whole category of athletes who complain about how much money they're making, and they've gotta feed their family and all that baloney.

JS: One thing that would surprise your fans?

EA: I've never been in a locker room. I buy my own tickets. That's the way I think it should be. I just call it the way I see it. If the hot dogs suck or the beers are too small, I'll say so. Every year I have someone measure the length and circumference of the hot dogs to see how much they're screwin' people, and every year they reduce 'em by something like 2 percent while the price goes up 8 percent.

JS: You were a major force in getting the tunnel named after Ted Williams. How did you do it?

EA: I made a pest of myself. I kept telling them that you can't ignore the greatest hitter of all time. I remember when he was at Mechanics' Hall and they had the spo men's show. Ted would put on a fly-cast exhibition, and 100,000 people wo come just to see him. They didn't giv shit about fly-casting. They just wante be near him. Anyway, Weld eventually it was a good idea.

JS: How do you feel about the controversy over Ted Williams' body?

EA: It's a disgrace. I was just in China, in Beijing, there's like a million pe lined up at all times to see Mao's m soleum, and when I saw that I though Ted and how he should've been buried President Bush Sr. wanted, in Washing because he was a war hero, too.

JS: Most overpaid or overrated athlete these days?

EA: Manny.

JS: If you could only watch one sport, wh would it be and why?

EA: Why would you do that to [Laughs.] I'll tell you one thing: I do lieve that the greatest two minute sports is the Kentucky Derby.

JS: OK, let's talk hot dogs. What do you on yours?

EA: If it's a good hot dog, nothing nothing in the world tastes good as a dog on an August night at Fenway Pa don't care who the chef is.

JS: One thing that should never go on a hotdog?

EA: Ketchup. That's terrible! It's a American.

JS: Last question: Are you the Phantom Gourmet?

EA: That's laughable. I've never eaten mari. I think sushi is bait. My basic groups are baloney sandwiches, hotd hamburgers, pizza and Chinese food.

SIMPLY

PERFECT!

THE WORLD'S #1 ULTRA PREMIUM TEQUILA

TEQUILA PATRÓN TEQUILA

Always enjoy our Simply Perfect products responsibly.

To send a gift of Patrón, call 1-877-SPIRITS or visit www.877spirits.com. Void where prohibited.

www.patronspirits.com

THE WORKING LIFE

Above: The kitchen/dining area is accessible from the office.
Inset: Dayton closes the workspace off from the living area using large sliding wooden doors.
Facing page: The living room has painted concrete floors inspired by a Frank Lloyd Wright house.

A live-work space that serves both functions beautifully—within an ironclad budget of both time and money

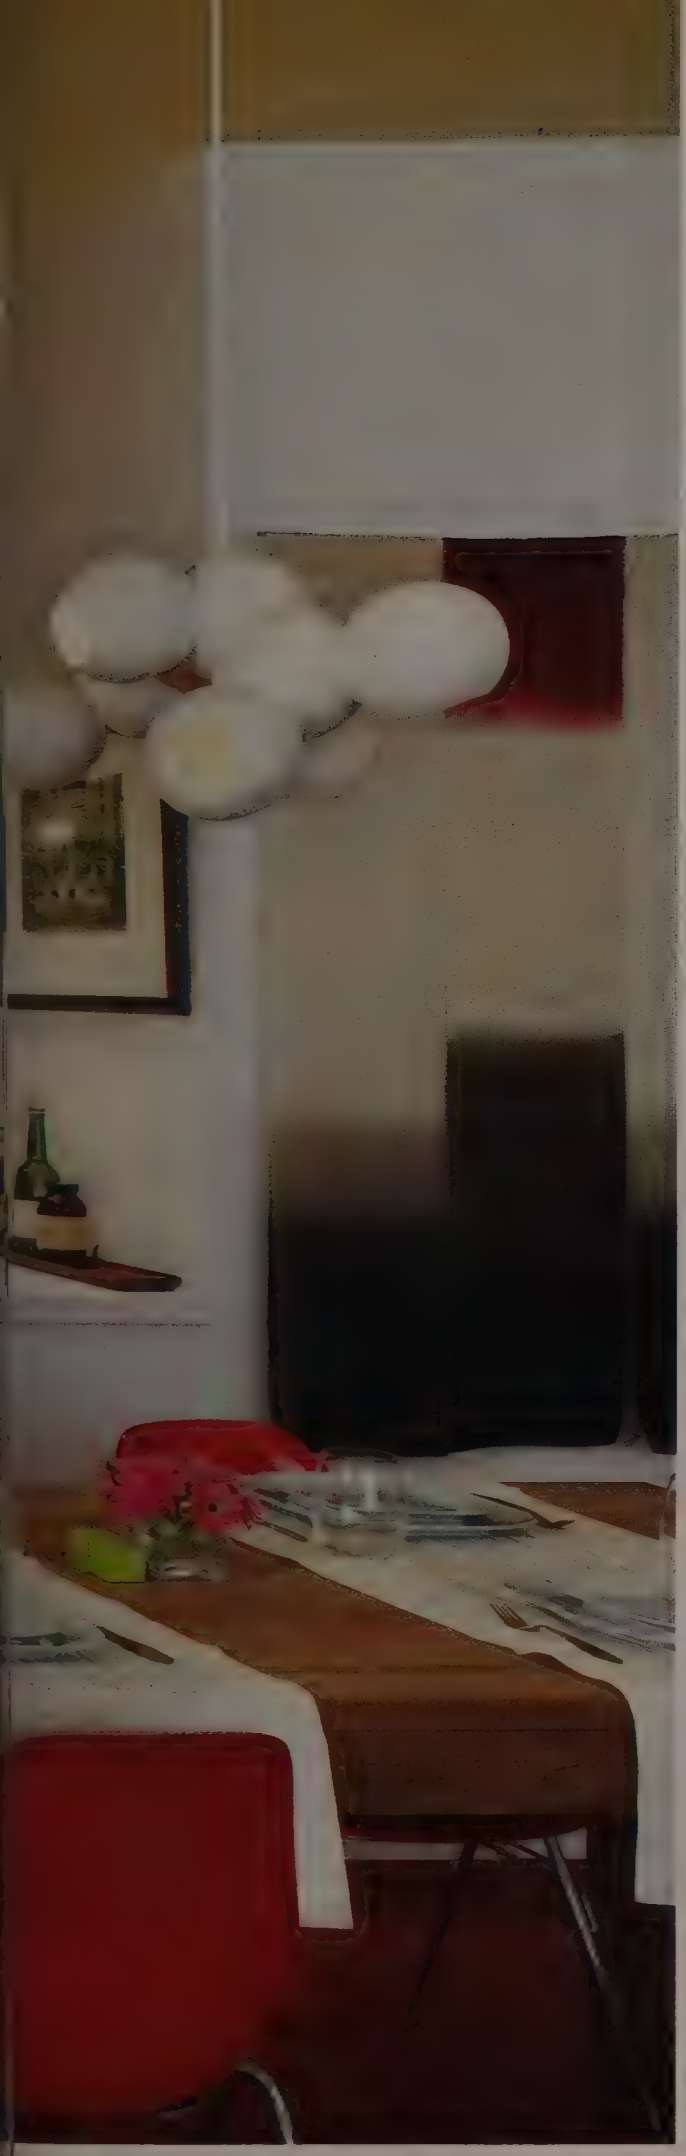
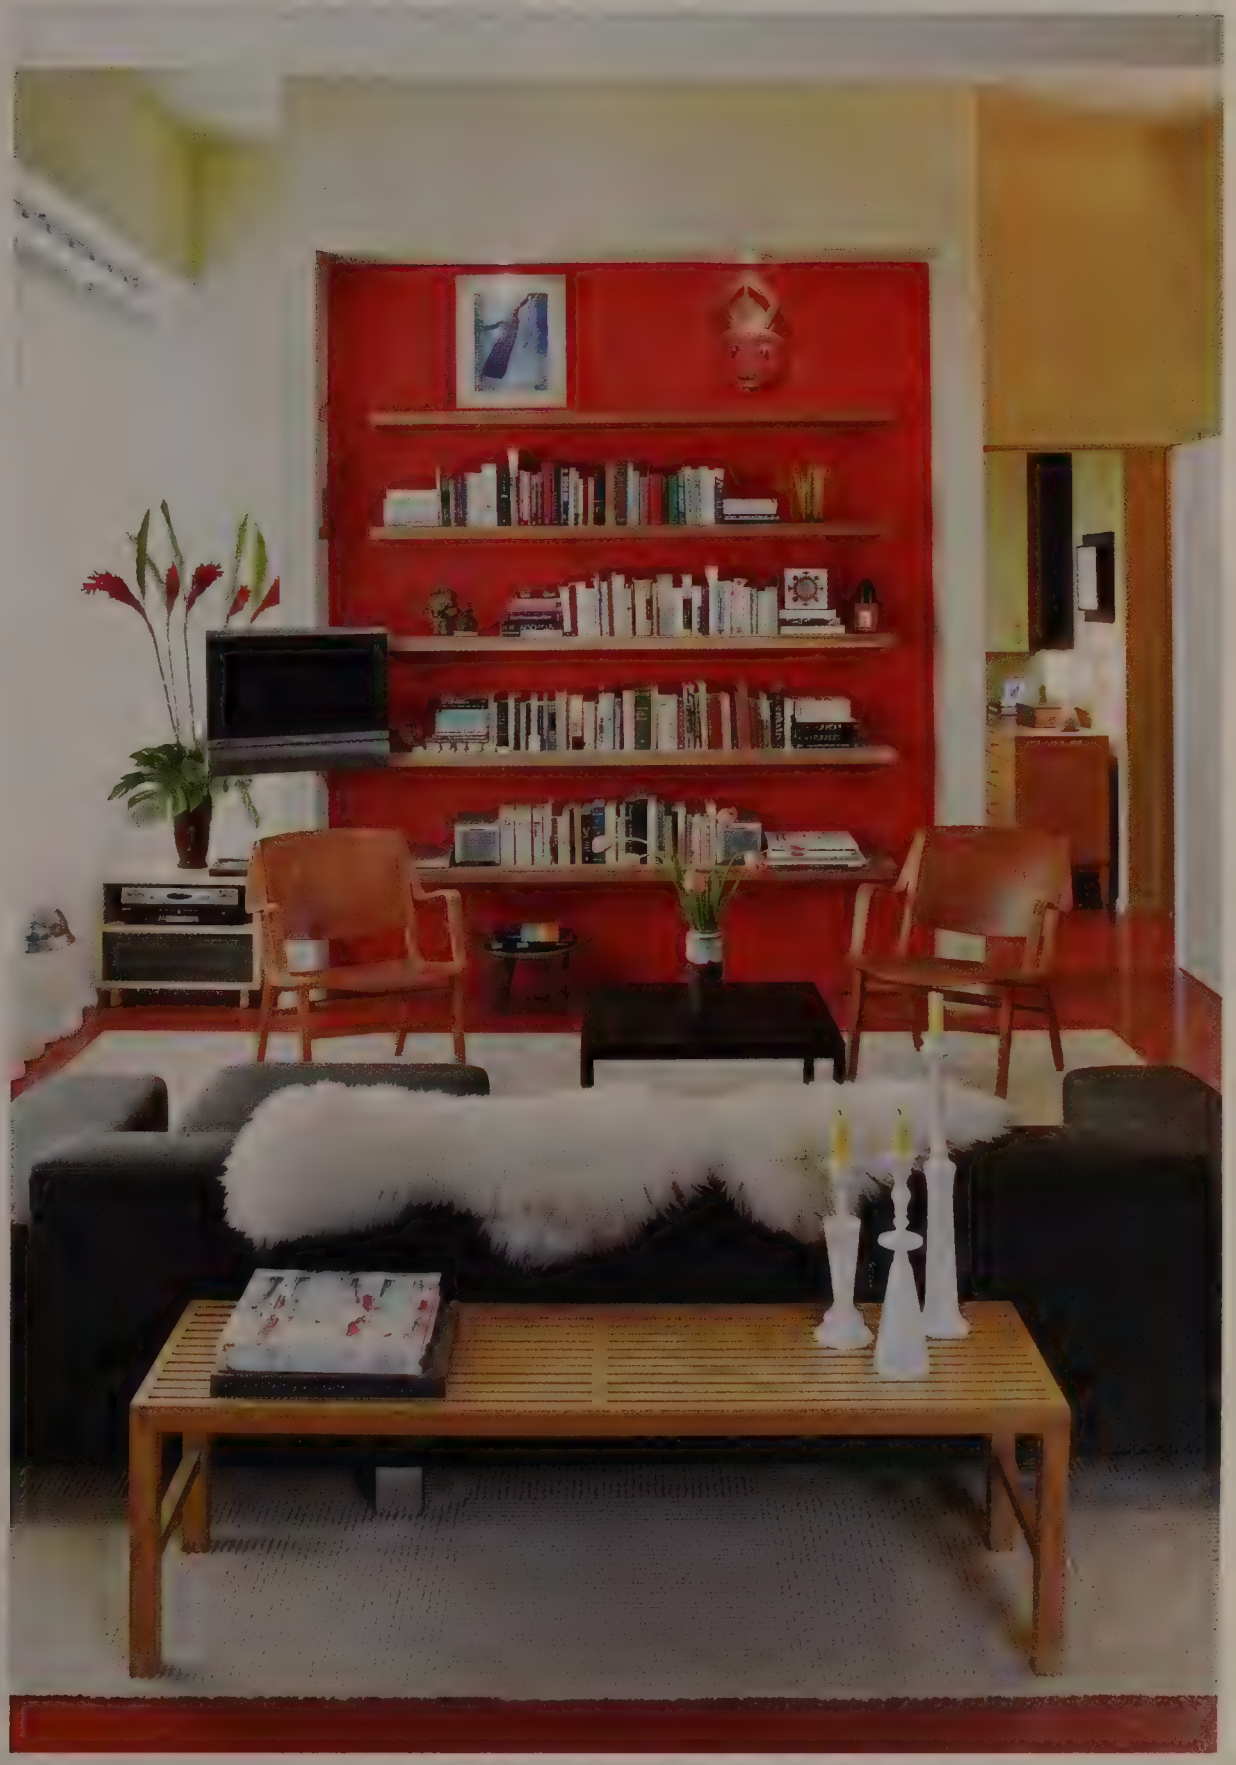
BY REGINA COLE





Kent Dayton, a commercial photographer, had an all-too-common Boston problem.

"I was looking for space in which to live and to work. But, after 5 pm, I don't want my work to define me. At the end of the day, I don't want to see my gear."

Dayton smiles as he acknowledges the built-in challenge to his insistence on a balanced life. "You can rent studio space and you can rent an apartment, but everything gets very expensive very fast. Maybe," he continues, "you can try to find studio space in an older, turn-of-the-century building, but, even if you can find it and afford it, it's generally not suitable for use as a photographic studio."

He was making do with less-than-perfect living and work arrangements when 1,500 square feet of raw space became available on the fourth floor of 1200 Washington St. "There was a concrete floor, pipes and nothing else."

Constructed in the late 1990s, this was the first loft building in the area. Its design incorporated a utopian vision for artists' studios on the first two floors, complete with deed restrictions to keep them affordable.

The kitchen featu magnetic chalkb above William M
wallp

"But as soon as this building went up, people gobbled up the space. It led to money flowing into this part of Washington Street, and the area became very popular and not so affordable any more. This was the last unbuilt unit left in the building when I first saw it in 2001; it had been divided from a much larger space. I liked the location, but I didn't think this unit would be big enough."

For help, he turned to Michael Grant, principal of Grant Studio Architects in the South End. One of Dayton's oldest friends is the architect's wife, illustrator Polly Becker.

"Mike came in, looked at the space, listened to my concerns and saw the challenges. First: The separation I want between my work and my private life is hard enough to achieve when there's plenty of room. It was really difficult here. And the other thing: I had a shameful budget."

Grant agrees. "Kent knew that his budget was almost impossibly tight. In this awa ness he was unusual; most new clients have no idea how much new construction cos

"After Mike looked around, did the numbers and a bit of thinking," Dayton says, came back to me and said, 'We can do this.' I confess that I had my doubts. In fac thought it was highly unlikely that we could achieve what I wanted to do within my b get. But Mike sounded so confident that I took a leap of faith and signed on!"

Thus began a collaboration that turned limitations of space and money into a ph tographic studio, an office and a comfortable home for Dayton and his fianc graphic designer Tammy Dotson. An expansive effect comes from ceilings that r from 7 feet at the entry, to 9 feet as one moves deeper into the apartment, then to feet near large windows that look down on Harrison Avenue. Likewise, the roo ction changes from public to private. Just inside the nt door is Dayton's office, followed by a kitchen in apartment's center, while the living room and mas- bedroom are light-filled spaces, thanks to large win- s. Off to one side is a guest room that does double as Dayton's studio; the guest bed folds into the wall n not in use. At the end of the workday, one rolling el slides between the studio and the living room, and ther between the office and the kitchen, to close off vs of light stands, file drawers, computer monitors other gear.

The space is deep, so that a lot of it gets no daylight n the south-facing windows," explains Grant. "We ded that Kent's office should be just inside the door, re it functions independently of the rest of the se. Clients can meet without having to walk through ate rooms, and there's no need for natural light in an e where work is mostly done on light tables and puters.

Another way we expanded the space is with multiple lar shades of Benjamin Moore paint," he continues. en you don't have the budget for high-end finishes, work with light, scale and color. Our mantra during the n process was: 'Color is free.' To consult on color decisions, we brought in Kevin Musumano, a personal friend who's also a talented interior designer at C & J Katz Studio. He came in just a few times, but his advice was important. He didn't develop the colors so much as he tweaked them."

A Murphy bed folds down in Dayton's studio. At night the guest bedroom cabinetry conceals his photo gear.

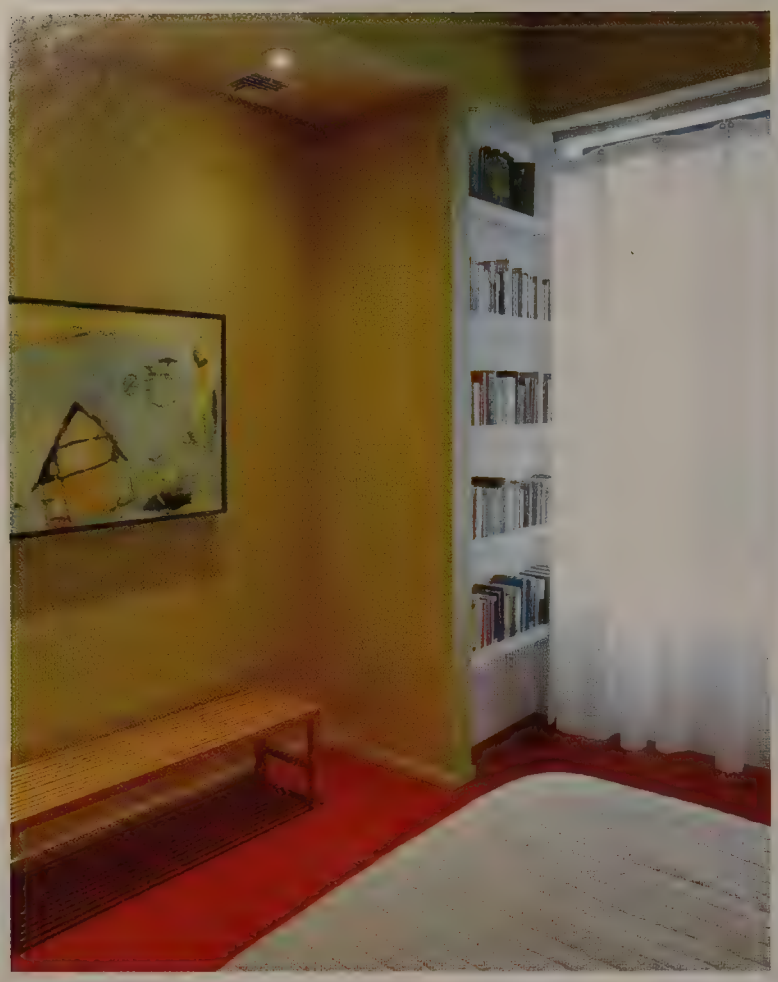
"Kevin was wonderful," enthuses Dayton. "He painted big pieces of foam core to test paint colors in different light situations. He's incredible with color, very sensitive and intuitive."

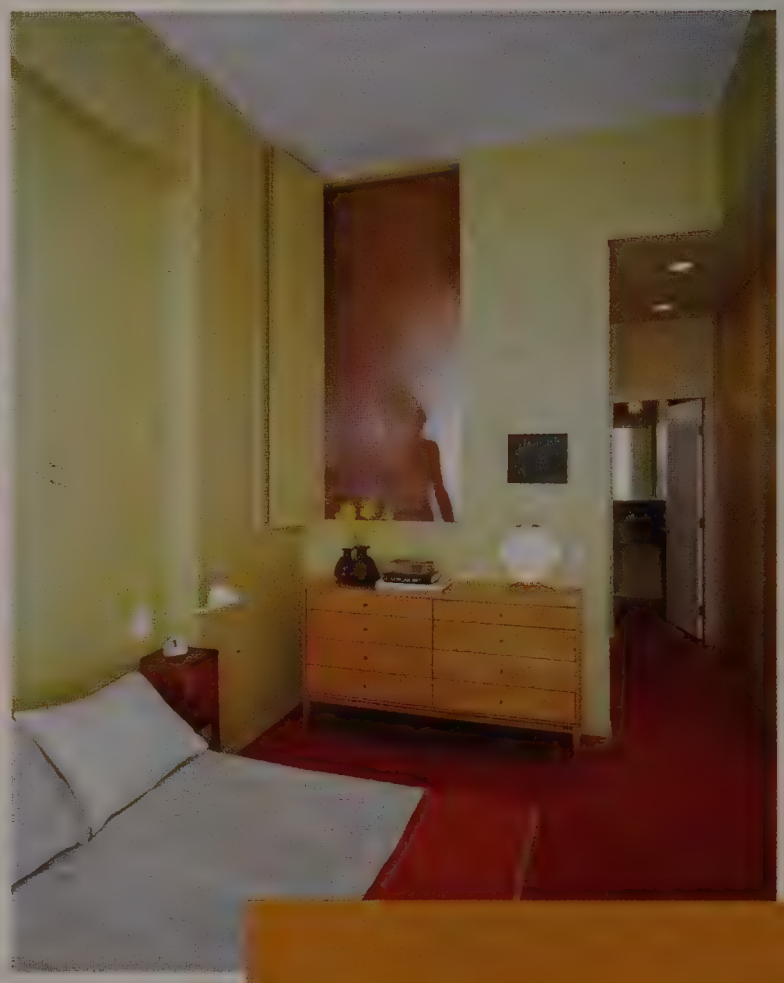
. "And he upped the fun quotient," laughs Grant.

An early color decision was to paint the concrete floor a bold shade of red. Dayton had seen a floor painted like this in a Frank Lloyd Wright house.

"The idea was ours and the client's, but Kevin came up with the shade," explains Grant. "The more expensive flooring choice would have been to install hardwood floors, but the budget didn't allow that. Wood has a lot of warm color, so we brought in that aspect of warmth with paint."

Walls are treated in a range of tints from deep taupe to light cream. The colors, which read as one color, introduce richness, complexity and subtle contrast without making the space appear smaller. They also serve as a backdrop for the couple's growing collection of modern art.





Light from the bedroom window (top left) is channeled through a panel in the bedroom wall (top right) and into the bathroom shower (bottom left).

"Before we started, we had a shared visual idea of a lot of intense color," Grant says. "Not a riot of color, but a lot of color."

Another economy-driven decision was to use mass-produced kitchen cabinets and to face their doors with Italian laminates. "You can't get color like that anywhere else," Grant points out. "And this way, we didn't have to hire a master cabinetmaker. The builder could install the cabinets." Laminate fronts the cabinets and the refrigerator doors with apple green and forest green; countertops and the backsplash are topped with white laminate. A later kitchen addition is the black chalkboard painted on the small kitchen end wall; it tops a small piece of William Morris wallpaper. "That was Tammy's choice. She's a graphic designer whose firm, Moth Design, is just down the hall.

"We saved all the custom moves for a few important things," Dayton explains. "The walnut veneer on the sliding door panels, the vanities in the bath, and the living room bookshelves." The wall behind the bookshelves carries the warm-toned color theme up from the floor, delivering a graphic punch while unifying the overall design.

"There were some tough de sions," Grant acknowledges. "But really made it all happen on Ken budget, knowing that it was a re budget, not a hopeful estimate, budgets so often are."

"I knew I could pay rent plus t mortgage for this place for just thr months," Dayton says. "The contra tor was here every single day at 7 a he worked until 5, which is pret unusual, I guess. We moved in e actly three months after we began to the day!"

"Kent was a great client," sa Grant. "He let the design team every bit of the design work, but was no pushover. He had strong opi ions, and he voiced them every st of the way. Something that helped make ours a pleasant experience w the fact that his aesthetic is ve much like mine: We both like a ta tile sort of modernism. We agreed what is good, and I knew that wouldn't let constrictions of tim space or money keep us from doi good work. Our intention was n only to design a functional live-wo space, but also to create a home th would be flattering to the client think we achieved that."

"I know that someone of Michae caliber should command much bigg budgets and have more leeway some of the important decision
Dayton says. "But we had no choi Going over budget or past the sche uled completion date simply was n an option. The most impressive thi about the whole project, given t limitations of time and money, is th we came up with something pret nice. I have plenty of space to wor but I leave it behind at the end of t day. Tammy and I cook a lot, and have an open kitchen where we c both work."

"This is ideal living space for a co ple," remarks Grant, "that also ha pens to be good, functional wo space for a busy professional. An just as they added the chal board and the wallpaper to th kitchen, so the space will co tinue to evolve as their lives
What's important is that th find it both physically and vis ally appealing."

And they do. "When the s sets against the backdrop of th old brick building outside th windows, we get this wonderf blue light," says Dayton. "Th loudest thing for us in this part the building is the street outsid
We have space, we have privac and we're both close to work!" h laughs. "I enjoy this space a l more than I thought I would."

"I designed this collection with the same spirit I design cars and motorbikes", speed up by Sacha Lakic, "Les Contemporains" collection.

rochebobois

Storage unit: 134 x 145 x 50 cm. Thermo-shaped Daquacryl® frame (25 colors), steel base with lacquer finish.
4 interior drawers, vertical neon divider. Can be used as either a china cabinet or bar.

FINANCING AVAILABLE, SUBJECT TO CREDIT APPROVAL. SEE YOUR LOCAL STORE FOR DETAILS.

BOSTON – 585 Commercial Street (617) 742.9611 - OPENING JUNE 2006, 601 Washington Street in the new Ritz Carlton Towers
NATICK – 579 Worcester Road (508) 650.5844

www.roche-bobois.com

THE MODERNIST'S KITCHEN

Funky appliances and gadgets aren't just functional, they're fabulous.

BY MARNI KATZ PHOTOGRAPHS BY TONY SCARPETTA

New England may be known for its colonial frames, stone walls and white picket fences, but that doesn't mean our homes are stuck in the past. Here are 10 ultra-modern gadgets and appliances that are available in Boston kitchen stores. Several have won the coveted European red dot award for product design. Some pieces were designed by household names, others by obscure Scandinavians. Some are steel or brushed aluminum, others brightly hued polypropylene. Some are inexpensive, some priced at the top of their categories—but all are works of art.

1

ORANGE CRUSH

Hipsters are undoubtedly familiar with Philippe Starck's trendy hotel interiors, but the überdesigner's vision can turn even a modest kitchen implement into a museum-worthy installation. The Juicy Salif Fruit Juicer for Alessi is a must-display gadget—and one of the few that can double as a weapon. To use it for its intended purpose, place a cup below and an orange atop. As you twist and squeeze the fruit, the juice runs down the curves, right into your glass.

Juicy Salif Fruit Juicer, $79 at Bliss, 121 Newbury St., Boston (617-421-5544).

2

POP ART

Until recently, the most stylish toasters available shared a retro '50s look. But designers have finally realized that toast machines deserve aesthetic considerations, too. There are a few contemporary models out there, but our pick is the brushed-aluminum toaster with warming rack by DeLonghi. Its simple lines are complemented by high functionality: A sensitive hydraulic (instead of spring-action) lift gently lowers when you insert the bread, and rises again—without a startling popping noise—when the toast is done. Please pass the jam.

DeLonghi Extra-Wide Toaster with Warming Rack, $150 at Macy's, 450 Washington St., Boston (617-357-3000).

3

RED HOT

This electric kettle is as cherry-colored as the shiniest fire engine and as alluring as the glossiest pair of perfectly made-up lips. Its anthropomorphic body leans forward, with a pointed spout as its head, making for easy pouring. Because the kettle detaches from its stationary power base, where the heating element resides, there's no dangling cord in the way. It's quick, too: just four minutes to boil. Models are widely available in white, black and stainless steel, but Crate and Barrel snagged an exclusive on the red.

Bodum Curl Kettle, $39.95 at Crate and Barrel, 777 Boylston St., Boston (617-262-8700).

4

I'LL STOP THE WORLD AND MIX WITH YOU

Can't make it to Paris this spring? Concoct your own buttery croissants and crispy baguettes with DeLonghi's die-cast, stainless steel stand mixer. Equipped with a 980-watt motor, this seven-quart dynamo has plenty of pastry-pounding muscle (so you can save your own biceps for the beach). And while the precious colors of its competitors are fun, this mixer is designed for the minimalist aesthete. It's a good thing, too: At around 30 pounds, this is one appliance you'll be glad to store on the countertop.

DeLonghi Brushed Aluminum Stand Mixer, $449.95 at Sur La Table, The Mall at Chestnut Hill, 199 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill (617-244-0213).

5

LEAP FROG

You want a beer, but even aft
rious excavation in your junk drawer, the bottle opener is nowhere to be found. You ha on the refrigerator door; how could it have disappeared? Rig your roommate thought it hideous. Well, next time she's The Container Store buying b for her latest organizing proje ask her to pick up a Leap Bot Opener. Its whimsical silhoue either a frog or a rabbit, depe on your perspective. It's cute not cutesy, and it serves three functions: popping bottle caps pull tabs, and opening twist-o

Leap Bottle Opener, $6.99 at T
Container Store, 27 Boylston S (Route 9), Chestnut Hill (617-5 7400).

⑥ ⑦ ⑧ ⑨ ⑩

⑥ ADY, SET, SHAKE

et high-tech timers. This little lrop-shaped timer is a trea- It's called the Skakis, which is lish for nervous, shaky or jit- That may not inspire confi- e in the instrument's accu- but at $2.99, who cares? Sold isively at Ikea, it comes in five olors including purple, ioise and orange. (Consider nasing a whole collection to h up the sea of stainless steel ur kitchen.) The piece was ned by Henrik Preutz, a le who also designs furniture e low-end, design-centric su- ore.

Timer, $2.99 at Ikea, 1 Ikea Stoughton (781-344-4532).

⑦ COFFEE HOUSE

This minimalist coffee machine, manufactured by Rowenta, is one-third of Jasper Morrison's brunch set, a triumvirate of pure-white morning appliances (coffee maker, electric teakettle and toaster). The neat design inconspicuously houses filters, filter holder, measuring spoon and water tank. Influenced by the modernist style of Eileen Gray, Jean Prouvé and Le Corbusier, Morrison is the darling of English industrial design. And who wouldn't want appliances designed by the man who furnished the Tate Modern?

The Coffee Machine, $175 at Design Within Reach, 519 Tremont St., Boston (617-451-7801).

⑧ ACCORDION EXPERIMENT

How annoying is it when you try to close the gadget drawer, but your funnel jams it? Boje Estermann was so fed up that he designed a collapsible funnel, based on the accordion-like sunscreen on his old reflex camera. It's made from material flexible enough to fold and durable enough to hold its shape through repeated use with hot and cold liquids. This funnel is so appreciated by design connoisseurs that it's sold in New York's Museum of Modern Art Design Store. Luckily, we can buy it in Cambridge, too.

Collapsible Funnel, $22 at Abodeon, 1731 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-0137).

⑨ BUBBLE BREW

If espresso machines evoke thoughts of a caffe in Rome—all dark wood and tiny white porcelain cups and saucers—well, ciao, baby. The Granos Espresso Machine is all crystal shininess and stainless steel, made more for a TriBeCa loft (or a sci-fi film). It's the first espresso machine from Bodum that's pump-driven rather than a traditional press; between that and its fully programmable, one-touch operation system, you can play the role of barista in your own kitchen without too much fuss.

Bodum Granos Semiautomatic Espresso Machine, $570 at Macy's, 450 Washington St., Boston (617-357-3000).

⑩ CUT AND COLOR

The Duo Cutting Board, conceived by Dutch designer Nikolai Carels, addresses issues for the germ- and design-obsessed, as well as for those who demand smooth efficiency. The board's two-color design reminds you to assign one side for chicken and the reverse for vegetables, and its curved sides prevent food from falling off when you're trying to dump chopped bits into a pan. And with a sleek design, you won't need to hide it amid the muffin tins.

Duo Cutting Board, $24 at Lekker Home, 1317 Washington St., Boston (617-542-6464).

Geothermal technol helps heat and cool eco-friendly house, loca in a Boston subu

designing green

Eco-friendly ideas take root in Boston.

BY COURTNEY HUMPHRIES

reen design, which aims to create buildings with less environmental impact, is transforming the buildings around Boston, and while it's only on the cusp of moving into the residential market, interest in green homes is on the rise. Maybe it's a growing awareness of global warming. Maybe it's escalating energy costs. Or maybe it's just that green products have become more hipster than hippie. Whether you're building a home, transforming an existing one, or even renting, there are many ways to make your living space a little greener.

The greening of Boston

What's behind the surging interest in green design? The city supports eco-friendly design through public grants and promotion by the mayor's Green Building Task Force, which was convened in 2003. Boston's also home to several prominent green buildings that help generate interest in green design locally. The Boston Nature Center in Mattapan has one of the greenest buildings around, with geothermal heat pumps, photovoltaic shingles and a solar hot water system. The award-winning Genzyme Center in Cambridge, located on a site that once housed a coal gasification plant, is the largest building to earn the top level of green building certification. And area universities including MIT, Harvard, UMass Boston and Northeastern have also followed the green trend, revamping existing buildings and/or planning new ones that emphasize energy efficiency.

In the condo market, some developers see green design as a way to distinguish themselves from the competition. The first residential building in Boston to be certified green will be the Macallen Building, a high-end condo building developed by Pappas Enterprises. Currently under construction in South Boston, the building, which was designed by Office dA in collaboration with Burt Hill Architects, has features like a rainwater collection system, a sloping, grass-covered roof, and nontoxic and natural materials. In another sign of green thinking, the former Haviland candy factory in Cambridge—currently being revamped by Leggat McCall Properties (in a joint venture with ING Real Estate Development U.S.) into a large condo complex called One First—will offer residents the option of buying shares of a large solar panel array that will offset the building's energy costs.

The green homes movement has lagged behind commercial and institutional projects, but architects and developers in the city say there's a sea change happening. More homeowners are looking into ways to reduce their impact on the environment. Maryann Thompson, an architect based in Cambridge, says of the recent demand for green: "It makes you believe in a zeitgeist."

But what does "green" mean?

Green, sustainable, eco-friendly—all of these terms sound great, but what do they really mean? Broadly stated, sustainability means satisfying the needs of people today without compromising the ability of future generations to fulfill their own needs. Sustainable or green design is a way to build structures that are durable, while

GREEN FROM THE GET-GO

Your dream house can be a green house.

Building green

When building a new home, there are many ways to make it energy-efficient and sustainable.

No-brainers:

- Build small. A green mansion is an oxymoron—use only enough space for the intended number of occupants.
- Orient the house with larger windows and well-used rooms on the south side, fewer windows and less-used rooms (like the garage) on the north side. Provide overhangs to block high summer rays.
- Use local materials to minimize fuel for transportation: Think granite from Vermont, not marble from Italy.
- Choose sustainable materials like bamboo, cork, natural linoleum and woods from certified sustainable forests. Avoid rainforest hardwoods.

A deeper shade of green:

- Ask your builder to use value-engineered framing, which uses less wood but provides the same structural support.
- Go heavy on insulation. Consider using new technologies for the walls that provide better insulation, such as structural insulated panels (SIPs) or insulated concrete foams (ICFs).
- Use a heat-recovery ventilation system, which exchanges heat between outgoing and incoming air to heat or cool the home.
- Build a rainwater collection system into the house. Some recent designs include inverted roofs that funnel rain into a collection area, with the water later used for irrigation.
- Create your own energy. Pricier options: photovoltaic shingles for your roof that convert sunlight to electricity, or a geothermal heat pump to use the constant temperature of water deep in the earth to regulate indoor temperatures. Less expensive: a solar collector on the roof to directly heat water for the home.

Effective use of nat light helped the Genzy Center earn platin certification for envi mentally sound des using fewer resources and having less impact on the environment.

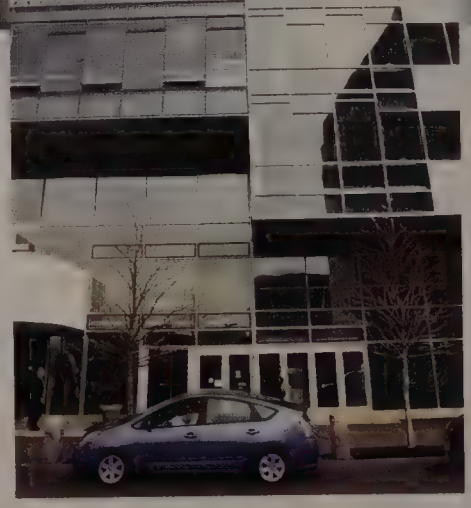
Green design often gets attention when it's about new technologies or fancy equipment. For instance, Thompson's firm recently completed a home that uses a geothermal heat pump to take advantage of the constant, 54-degree temperature of the water deep below the earth's surface to help heat the home in the winter and cool it in the summer. And the firm is completing a house in Easton that uses solar panels and pellet stoves to generate much of its heat.



But Thompson says that much of what is considered "green design" follows simple principles that have always been available to architects and builders, like making the best use of sunlight. In the geothermal home, for instance, the rooms are lined up from east to west, with large panes of glass facing south and fewer windows in the north, allowing the house to get the most benefit from the heat of the sun. This is not new technology, but it has become trendier with the rise of green design. "We used to do a lot of sustainable stuff secretly," Thompson jokes. "Now, everyone's asking for it."

Barbra Batshalom, founder and executive director of the Boston-based nonprofit group Green Roundtable, says that green design is really about better design. She founded the group in response to what she saw as mediocre building practices: creating buildings with toxic materials, poor insulation, little regard for the natural resources at a site and no integration of the different systems in the building. There's no point in installing some fancy heating if you have poor insulation a heat is leaking out, for exampl grating different systems requi coordination of the electrical, ing and ventilation aspects of th to optimize energy efficiency. G sign, Batshalom says, "is abou fundamental, basic design- durable, high-quality and integr

John Fernandez, a faculty me MIT and a sustainable design agrees. "The vast bulk of ene ings and sustainable design ga be made in the design decisions, not in the technolo says. "Making sure the design is working with the e ment in the optimal way is by far the best strategy."

In other words, you can't just slap a solar panel on and call it green. Here are some of the considerations into creating a green home:

Energy

One of the main goals of green building is to reduce t fossil fuels and take advantage of alternative forms o According to the U.S. Green Building Council, buil opposed to transportation and industrial processes) guz than one-third of all the energy and up to two-thirds o tricity in the country. And while motor vehicles and i plants get the worst press in terms of air pollution, buil lease one-third of the country's carbon dioxide a greenhouse gases.

any people think green design is just using recycled mals, but according to Alex Wilson, president of Building-en Inc., the energy efficiency of a house "has a huge im-that often dwarfs the impact of the materials going into ouse." You can gather natural heat from the sun or the
, and you can also reduce your consumption by being gy-efficient. Homeowners can also make a big difference aling up hidden leaks and improving their insulation.

er

dents in the Northeast don't often think about water as rce resource, but the costs of treating water and main-ing a safe water supply are significant and expected to in Massachusetts over the next several years. Green es often use creative strategies to collect and use rain-r for irrigation, or to recycle "graywater"—the water flows from showers, dishwashers and washing machines.

erials and waste

en design seeks out materials that are better for the envi-nent. Ideal materials are recycled, energy-efficient to luce and can be replenished in a reasonable amount of . Households can limit waste by using materials that are
-quality and durable, or that can be recycled at the end eir use.

oor air quality

y people go out of their way to buy organic foods and ave no idea what kinds of potentially harmful chemilurk in their carpets, walls, household cleaners and r products. MIT's Fernandez says: "In Boston, because houses are closed up for a good part of the year, it's hwhile to research what your materials have in them."
en design tries to limit chemicals that may be harmful our health, like volatile organic compounds (VOCs), ch are a component of paint. It also strives to improve or air quality by ventilating the house and limiting mals like wall-to-wall carpet that collect dust, bacteria moisture.

d use and site planning

l-designed homes have a minimal impact on their site.
t means keeping existing vegetation rather than bulldoz-over it, and keeping the house compact—no sprawling sions. They also make maximum use of the sun, shade wind at the site to naturally heat and cool the home.

w do you know what's green?

r the past several years, the green building industry has n moving to apply standards that put a definition on t's environmentally friendly and what's just "greenwash-
" In commercial building, the U.S. Green Building ncil now has a certification program called LEED (Lead-ip in Energy and Environmental Design), which rates dings based on specific criteria. A version of LEED for es is in a pilot phase now.

When choosing products, you can look for green products ified by a third party, like Green Seal for paint. The Web www.buildinggreen.com offers articles and a product diory called GreenSpec that help you wade through the sea roducts eagerly marketed as eco-friendly. The site, which ires a subscription fee, is often cited as the Consumer Re- s of green design.

This summer, Boston will get its own free resource for n design in Downtown Crossing. The publicly accessiresource center, called NeXus, was developed by en Roundtable and will help filter information about n design so that professionals and the public can find t they need more easily. Green Roundtable's Bat-om, who prefers to call it "ideal design," hopes it will ourage the industry to make green the standard—not a trendy color.

The Boston Nature Center in Mattapan has the city's first green municipal building.

IT'S EASY BEING GREEN

Fifteen ways to upgrade an older abode

For owners

If you already own a home, there are many ways to make it greener:

No-brainers:

- Buy household furnishings that last, so you don't just toss them out in a year or so.
- If you're renovating, skip the unhealthy wall-to-wall carpeting and use sustainable woods or other environmentally friendly materials.
- Choose paints that have fewer VOCs (volatile organic compounds).
- When buying new appliances, look for ones rated as energy-efficient by Energy Star.

A deeper shade of green:

- Tighten up the seals of your home. An energy auditor can use some nifty equipment to identify hidden places that leak air.
- Install high-performance windows. If you're ambitious, a sun porch or other expanse of glass can bring in heat in the winter.
- Set up a rain barrel or cistern to collect water to use for watering plants and lawns.

For renters

As a renter, you may not be able to invest much time or money in your home. But a few small changes can reduce your energy bills and your impact on the environment:

No-brainers:

- Replace all incandescent bulbs with compact fluorescents. They last a long time, so you can take them with you when you move.
- Use green cleaning products, like those with a hydrogen peroxide base.
- Choose an energy-efficient air conditioner. Replace air conditioner filters regularly, at least once a season.

A deeper shade of green:

- Install aerated shower heads and faucets—you can also take these when you leave.
- If you can adjust your hot-water heater, turn it down to the minimum temperature you need to keep your showers warm.
- Plug appliances, computer and cell phone chargers, and electronics into plug strips and turn the strip off when not in use.
- Seal up or tape windows in the winter.
- Buy thick curtains to cover windows during the day in the summer and at night in the winter.

OK!
PIZZA

Don't let your apartment nip a potential relationship in the bud.

Your Place or Mine?

BY RICH LEVINE ILLUSTRATION BY ADRIANO THE PITILESS

ar be it from us to throw stones at anyone's personal sense of style, but if you're on the Boston dating circuit, you should know two truths about bringing a date home to your pad:

1. There's a fine line between expressing yourself and expressing that you have no taste.

2. Nothing makes a potential Mr. or Ms. Right run for the hills faster than getting the impression that you're one curly-haired doll or David Ortiz poster away from a stay at Danvers State Insane Asylum.

Lucky for you, we're here to help; we've hooked up with a few local design and home-furnishings pros to uncover the secrets behind designing an apartment that won't turn off a potential partner and necessitate a lifetime subscription to Match.com.

First, we did a little research on the typical mistakes local bachelors and bachelorettes make with their apartments—surefire turnoffs that lessen the likelihood of a romantic encounter (and who needs another obstacle in the dog-eat-dog world of dating?). Only then could we heed the advice of the incomparable Dan Aykroyd, who in Chris Farley's mid-'90s masterpiece Tommy Boy said, "Great, you've pin-pointed it, now the next step is washing it off." And for help in washing your apartments clean of these all-too-habitual horrors, we turned to local experts for advice.

Our research turned up a somewhat obvious, but apparently very necessary, message for the guys: Keep it clean. An apartment scattered with empty pizza boxes and dirty laundry might've been passable in college, but much like the wingless bird, that style just doesn't fly anymore. "No girl wants to date a guy who has more style than she does," says Linda Walker, a 27-year-old Cantabrigian. "Part of the fun in dating him to begin with is helping to improve his style. But at the same time, walking into a messy apartment is a real turnoff. I need to see that they put in at least a little bit of effort."

According to Barbara Goldberg, an owner of the furniture store Mitchell-Gold in the Back Bay, one easy way to help promote cleanliness is by buying smart. "If you're on the messy side, we suggest you stay away from more delicate fabric on your furniture," she says. "By going with something that has more pattern or a little more texture, potential stains aren't as noticeable." Goldberg notes that your choice of color is important too; if you spend your Sundays sprawled out on the couch with the funny pages, don't go with white fabric, unless you want your furniture to record all the times Family Circus didn't make you laugh.

If lack of storage space is the source of your messiness (and this goes for both sexes), City Schemes in Cambridge might be able to help. Store manager Barbara Petti tells us that platform and storage beds are a hot item for customers in small apartments. "These beds have mattresses that lift up to expose compartments, where you can stow everything from extra sheets and pillows to towels and clothing," she says. And you don't have to be a bodybuilder to move things in and out of the storage space. "The lift is hydraulic, too," Petti adds, "so you hardly even feel the weight of the mattress."

While single women are most turned off by a date's messy home, the biggest complaint we heard from men around town was that girls' places are sometimes too damn clean. "I'm used to living in an apartment where it's all right to leave stuff scattered around once in a while, and not washing the dishes right away isn't punishable by firing squad," says Carl Fierimonte, a 25-year-old living in Southie, "so it's uncomfortable to be in a place where I'm tip-toeing around, afraid that I might break something. It gets pretty hard to relax." Duncan Hughes, proprietor of Boston-based Duncan Hughes Interiors, feels that failing to give their space at least a little defeminizing can be a problem for females. "When a single woman, or even a couple who've recently moved in together, come to us, we try to reconcile the male and female styles. Creating balance is so important, because a place that's too feminine always makes a guy a little uncomfortable."

And while that's pretty much the only major pet peeve we heard from the guys we spoke to, there's one other issue worth noting. "I'm never that picky when it comes to a girl's apartment," says Andrew Greenfield, a 29-year-old Brighton native, "but I've had times where the stuffed animal and family picture situation borders on really weird. There's nothing more uncomfortable than waking up hungover with a girl after a night out and having five pictures of her dad or the eyes of 15 different teddy bears and ponies staring down at you."

If men don't want to be surrounded by Muppets... then women don't want to feel like they're sleeping in a sports museum.

If men don't want to be surrounded by Muppets and portraits of grandma, then women don't want to feel like they're sleeping in a sports museum. "Guys like sports, and we're fine with that," says Erin Donovan, a 28-year-old Beacon Hill resident, "but I never really feel like hanging out where the only place to sit is a Patriots beanbag chair." Hughes is a big proponent of ditching the college boy posters and sports paraphernalia in favor of artwork and other accessories that portray your personality, but in a more sophisticated way. "You obviously should only buy what you can afford, but designing an apartment is definitely a case of quality over quantity," he says. "I think it says a lot more about a guy to see one nice piece of artwork by itself on the wall than 50 cheap prints filling up every inch of space."

And having some empty space in your apartment could carry more meaning than you might be aware of. "As a single in Boston, having extra room at your place subconsciously lets a date know that if things progress, there might be room for another person," Hughes says. "And now they know that if they want to leave a couple things at your apartment to make them feel more comfortable, then that's probably OK."

And isn't that what this is all really about? You may live alone now, and you may even love it, but eventually you're going to want some permanent company; and once that happens, your autonomous rule over the apartment's landscape is inevitably threatened. That's why Goldberg sees it as essential that you consider your single-living accessories an investment, not just a space filler. "You always have to think about where you're going next," she says. "If you're buying a sectional couch, look for one that has individual pieces that can also stand on their own. If you buy matching bookcases, buy ones that are neutral enough that if one day there's only room for one, it can still work with another style. You should always look for things that work together and separately."

Revamping your home to impress a date may sound daunting. But if you can't bear to part with the quirky stuff you love, just leave yourself a little hidey hole for that Red Sox bobblehead collection or shrine to the Cabbage Patch Kids. You can always take them out and play with them when you're alone. iB

NEW FRONTIERS

Cutting-edge designers blaze a trail with modern, dressy looks.

STYLED BY VICTOR VARGAS

PHOTOGRAPHS BY TIFFANY WALLING MCGARITY AND JOHN MCGARITY

Empire waist, strapless bubble dress in black silk, by Strenesse Gabriele Strehle, $995 at Gretta Luxe. Chinese coin choker, by Zhang, $88 at Sooki.

Navy backless trimmed in silk
by Marc J
$1,600 a
Jacobs. Black leather T-stra form sho
Giuseppe Z
Design, $
Neiman M

Silk twill front-bow jacket, $2,280; matching skirt, $1,215; Buckles ankle boot in pony hair, $1,130; velvet chains mini Linda bag, $2,280. All by Louis Vuitton, available at select Louis Vuitton stores. Gold and ivory-tusk earrings, by Borbonese, $798 at Gretta Luxe.

Black jacket with kimono sleeves, $1,535; purple silk obi belt, $630; black skirt with silk-flower appliqués, $1,390. All by Lanvin, at Alan Bilzerian. Crystal bracelet, by Jean Paul Knott, $380 at Macsu.

chiffon top with inverted pleats and estone trim, by Chloe, $1,660 at man Marcus.

Makeup: Flora Kay for Blink Management,
using MAC cosmetics

Hair: Jeanie Syfu at www.contactnyc.com
for Redken-Cutler

Model: Anna Barsukva
at Supreme

Assistant stylist:
Michael Rizzo

Alan Bilzerian
34 Newbury St.
617-536-1001

Gretta Luxe
10 Huntington Ave.
617-536-1959

Louis Vuitton
Copley Place
617-437-6519
www.louisvuitton.com

Marc Jacobs
81 Newbury St.
617-425-0707

Matsu
259 Newbury St.
617-266-9707

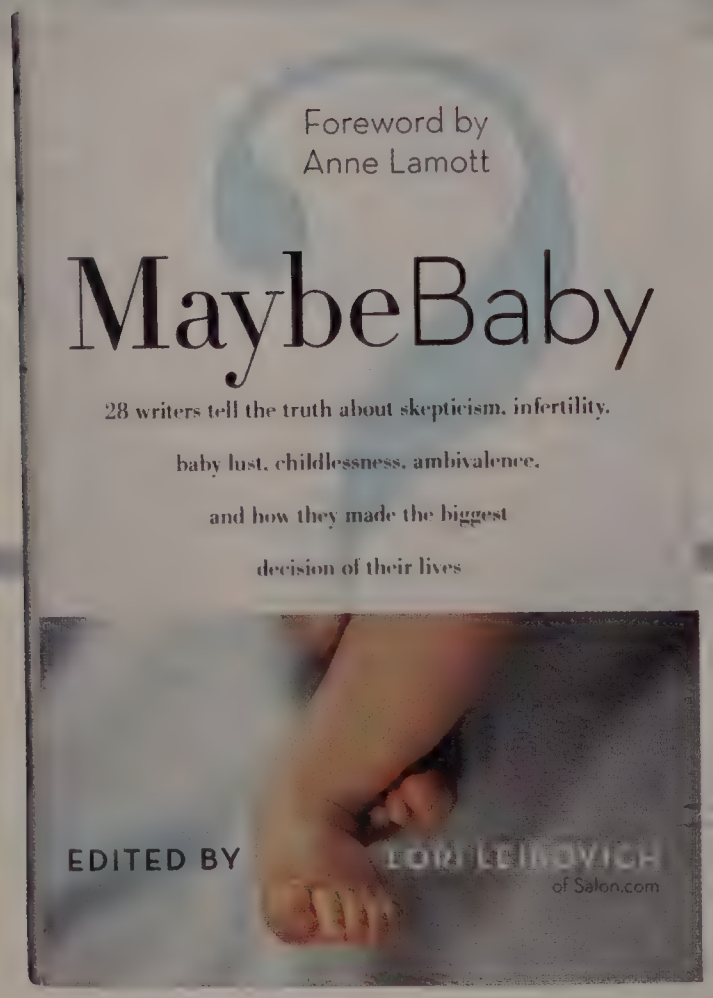
Neiman Marcus
5 Copley Place
617-536-3660

Sooki
505 Tremont St.
617-536-0809

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY



THE PATTER OF LITTLE QUESTIONS

Maybe Baby*, edited by Newton resident Lori Leibovich, explores issues of parenthood—now, later and maybe never.

The women and men in this book, perhaps fated to circle the heavens of parental ambivalence indefinitely, are an interesting lot. They tell rollicking, revealing, autobiographical tales, and while there are happy ones—like the chapter by Maggie Jones of Newton, who after agonizing fertility treatments is treated to a "surprise baby" through adoption—there's darkness here, too. In some cases, the children of difficult parents are disinclined to replicate the misery of their own childhoods. Others, like Boston writer Lauren Slater, suffer from twisty torments, even after they've had their children. Many regard themselves as fulfilled by their career-spangled lives, and maybe too selfish to share the emotional wealth with their speculative offspring. Maud Casey writes lyrically of her bipolar diagnosis, "the hot-blood zing of mania" and the questions it raises regarding the safety of having babies, while she also muses on the relentless breeding, every 17 years, of cicadas. The 16-year-old Amy Benfer recklessly took back her almost-relinquished baby; now 30, and despite some rocky roads, she calls this decision "exactly, exactly right." Lesley Dormen, not a mother, has sensitive, wistful things to say about childlessness. And Peter Nichols rhapsodizes over his boy's "10,000-thread-count skin."

COACHING OUT YOUR WINNING VOICE

Sanford Kreisberg of Cambridge Essay Service (617-354-2242; http://world.std.com/~edit) helps applicants apply to business and law schools.

Sandy Kreisberg has a few things in his own backpack to wake up and shake up his clients, applicants to elite business and law schools: He's gone to graduate school in English, worked as a lawyer and used to teach the famous expository writing course at Harvard. His savvy with regard to elite programs—including (but not only) those at Harvard, Stanford and Penn's Wharton School—encompasses the particular tone, sensibility and ethos that each school looks for in an essay. Calling himself a "critic, cheerleader, hand-holder and butt-kicker," Kreisberg helps "dress the person up for the school's party." He likens the whole thing to a combination "beauty contest and colonoscopy." Kreisberg works with applicants by phone and e-mail, critiquing and crumpling up to 30 drafts while they work on an appropriate "mantra" for each school. The ultimate goal is to present a truer, more detailed picture of the person aiming for the boardroom, but the burden isn't on the applicant alone. "Let them meet you halfway," he says, as he elicits their story with his own stringency, sophistication and cut-the-shit wit (though, ironically, he tells them not to be funny.)

SLEEP "GREEN" AND CRUISE FOR JAZZY FABRIC

Freddy Farkel's Fabulous Fabrics (617-926-2888) and Furnature Inc. (617-926-0111) are both located at 86 Coolidge Ave. in Watertown.

Formerly Brighton Upholst
Freddy Farkel's offers a rich arra fabrics that sprawls out in a h space (look for the "blond" bu ing). The tightly packed sam swatches from the old store are of variously expressive fabric from old-fashioned dreamy to to a goldmine of luscious fl prints and handpainted s including refined crinkly ones, such lovably comic patterns as with fruit and monkeys called " pacabana Pomegranate." Huge of amazingly discounted fabrics cluding Collier Campbell's or line) hang temptingly, ma down to as little as $6 per y
Freddy also sells organic furni and bedding in his adjacent st Furnature Inc., marketed to many "chemically injured" pe who abound in the shockingly tensive world of allergy and asth Classic chairs and sofas bypas dreaded formaldehyde, PVC ammonia; safe bedding feat wool, cotton, rubber and untre kiln-dried wood. Culturally cu and green types appreciate hypoallergenic bedding, too. A natively, nonorganic fabrics, 50,000 of them, can be "deto with a special fabric wash.

Italian Old World Charm...
the way it should be.

FLORENTINE CAFE
BAR · BISTRO

333 Hanover St., North End
617-227-1777
www.florentinecafeboston.com

The first open-air street cafe in the North End.

Stanza dei Sigari

A Classic Cigar Parlor

292 Hanover St., North End
617.227.0295
www.stanzadeisigari.com
Hookahs available

The only speakeasy cigar parlor with a full liquor bar in the city.

Caffé Vittoria

290-296 Hanover St., North End
617.227.7606
www.vittoriacaffe.com

The original Italian caffé since 1929 serving capuccino, pastries, gelati and a full liquor bar.

REVIEW

STIRRING THE ETHNIC POT

Real Russian cuisine in Newton Centre

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY ANTHONY TIEULI

Last year, Café St. Petersburg abandoned its small storefront in Brookline Village and moved to Newton Centre. Hidden away between Beacon and Union streets, a short walk from the Green Line, the location stands as a metaphor for this unique, offbeat eatery—removed from the mainstream of formulaic fare and hip trendiness. While Newton and neighboring Brighton have had a significant influx of Russian immigrants over the last few years, Café St. Petersburg is the only ethnic Russian restaurant in either area that I've had the good fortune to visit. Its relocation to Newton Centre is Brookline's loss and Newton's gain. Slavic comfort food—hearty Russian fare designed to nourish the body and warm the heart on the long, cold winter nights of northern Russia—dominates St. Pete's menu, but not without some lighter and more delicate choices offered alongside.

Blini with salmon

One approaches the restaurant via a narrow, obscure alley from the T station on Union Street, or through the driveway between Sovereign Bank and Peet's Coffee on Beacon. A small townhouse tucked away like those found in nooks and crannies of small European cities, its foyer suggests a private home, furnished with a couple of velvet-upholstered chairs and hung with an eclectic array of prints and photos. To the left is a long, rectangular dining room with a bar seating a dozen patrons in one corner, and a grand piano is framed by four white Doric columns in the middle of the other end of the room. A resident pianist tickles the ivories almost nightly, with a repertoire ranging from George Gershwin and Cole Porter to the Beatles and Andrew Lloyd Webber. On three walls, colorful ceramic figurines, some of them in substantial cases and others freestanding in large wall niches, depict various musicians in performance. A wood-paneled screen hides the comings and goings from the kitchen, while gold-brocade tablecloths under glass cover the tables. The bar lacks a television set, an omission I would suffer any day of the week in exchange for St. Pete's live pianist.

Herring, one of the glories of northern European cuisine (especially Baltic), provides a good introduction to the menu. It came in two forms: Russian and chopped. The Russian herring ($6.50), described on the menu as pickled according to an "ancient Russian tradition," consisted of firm, resilient slices with a pleasantly fatty texture and robust flavor. Accompanied by boiled potatoes liberally dusted with dill—the herb pervades the kitchen's preparations, and its aroma fills the air—the fish woke up my taste buds and stimulated my appetite. More filling was the chopped herring ($6.95), a savory spread of finely chopped herring, onions and slightly tart apples. A garnish of lemon slices counterbalanced the sweetness of the onions, resulting in a pleasant, almost haunting flavor. It did take some effort to finally sample the chopped herring. On my first visit to the restaurant, rather early in the evening, the waiter announced that they'd run out. I received the same story when I visited later that week; but the look of dismay that must have crossed my face at this bad news apparently moved the waitress to return to the kitchen and discover that there was another portion of chopped herring available after all. The whole experience suggested that this delicacy is reserved for special friends of the house—or for earnest and sympathetic-looking strangers.

St. Pete's other appetizers included Georgian eggplant ($6.50), a delicious combination of roasted eggplant and walnuts, mo ened with pomegranate sauce and given by a dash of lemon and chopped parsley. contrasting textures of the walnuts and plant, and the well-balanced, sweet-sauce, lingered on our palates. Finally am the appetizers, the pirozhok ($1.50), Rus answer to the Polish pierogi, came in two rieties: puff pastry squares filled with gro meat, and the same pastry shaped like tr gles and stuffed with cabbage. The pastry lighted with its flaky, feathery lightness, the fillings were somewhat bland (the bage less so than the meat).

St. Pete's soup selection offered tw the best dishes on the menu. Solia ($5.95) consisted of 15 varieties of cu meats cut into ultraslender julienne st vegetables, spices, and a hot, savory st enlivened with capers and served i heavy brown pottery crock. The herbs in making these various sausage and products played on the palate lik Tchaikovsky symphony. Even better the borscht ($4.95), also se piping hot in a crock. Bearing resemblance to the thin, one mensional beet soup sold in gro stores in clear glass jars, this stantial soup, thick with beets, bage, meat and a dollop of cream, made an indelible imp sion—earthy, complex and fla ful. In contrast with these two umphs, St. Petersburg's cab soup turned out to be an ins bland shadow of what I expecte

From St. Pete's lengthy li main courses, our selections ra from popular Russian specialti chicken Kiev and beef Stroga to the more unusual Siberian r lis. The chicken Kiev ($14.95), prob the most familiar Russian menu i proved delightful. A large, whole bon chicken breast carefully wrapped ar butter and minced chives, it looked l giant drumstick. After being dredge breadcrumbs, it was deep fried to a brown crust. The savory seasoned b carefully sealed inside, ran freely whe side of the "drumstick" was pierced, pr ing rich lubrication for the flesh o chicken. (The unfortunate accompani of iceberg lettuce leaves and hotl

CAFÉ ST. PETERSBURG

57A Union St.,
Newton Centre

HOURS Tue.-Thu., 11:30 am-10 pm; Fri.-Sun., 11:30-12 am

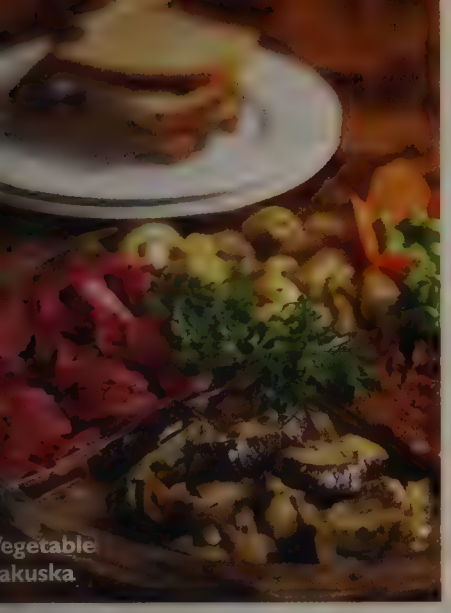
RESERVATIONS yes

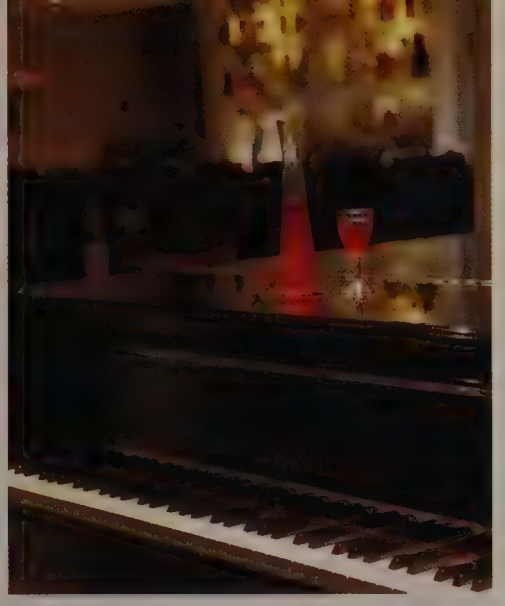
CREDIT CARDS Mastercard, Visa

HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes

PARKING lot, street

LIQUOR LICENSE full bar





ato slices did little to enhance this oth-ise impressive-looking treat.) Stuffed bage ($12.50), two oblong bundles ped like dirigibles (and almost as big), ie stuffed with chopped beef and rice n a garnish of cooked sweet peppers, pped beets and olives. The bland stuff-could have profited from a heavier hand he herbs and spices.

he pelimeni ($12.95), or Siberian oli, resembled a cross between Peking plings and Italian tortellini. What-r their ethnic heritage, the tender, y-textured wrappings and toothsome, le filling made them a unanimous hit ng our small party. In contrast, the Stroganoff ($14.95), another familiar ne, showed great promise, but the rly strong, assertive flavor of kasha lgur wheat)—one of the handful of ch accompaniments offered with each n course—overwhelmed the tender es of good-quality beef. The dish was marred by the floury, lukewarm gravy hich the beef was served. A much bet-starch choice turned out to be the fried atoes, irregularly chopped spuds fried p in butter.

inally among the restaurant's main rses, we ordered its self-proclaimed sig-ure dish, blini with smoked salmon 0.95). As if to emphasize the exalted us of this offering, the waitress brought arge, silver-plated, covered chafing h—like grandma used to drag out once a year—but there was no candle or sterno to heat it. Still, the three soft, rich, buttery crêpes stayed warm inside the preheated chafing dish, and we wrapped them one at a time around thick slices of beautiful smoked Norwegian salmon. The pleasantly salty, velvety-textured fish complemented by the voluptuous, mildly sweet crêpes made a most luxurious dish.

For dessert, St. Pete's offered two kinds of blintzes ($6.50 each). The regular blintzes came in a choice of cherry or mildly sweet cheese. "Natan's" blintzes melded peach, cherry and cheese, a very pleasant combination.

St. Pete's wine list included a few wines by the glass, including a decent house cabernet ($5.00), but it also offered selections unavailable in any other restaurant I've ever visited. These were wines from Georgia—as in Tiblisi, not Atlanta—one of the most southerly of the former Soviet Republics, now an independent nation bordered on the west by the Black Sea. Of the handful of Georgian wines offered, I passed over the one designated "Stalin's favorite" and instead chose the nonvintage Mukuzani ($25), a dry and food-friendly red with good structure and a fine finish, made from the saperabi grape in Georgia's Kakheti province.

